Port Fund Request Readied

Application for preliminary planning funds for the proposed port terminal here is expected to be completed today and will be sent to the City Commission at their next meeting, Harold Scott of Reynolds, Smith and Hill reported today.

Tax Reductions Across Board To Be Asked

WASHINGTON (UPI) — President Kennedy will send Congress a tax package calling for across-the-board reductions of about $8 billion with substantial offsetting tax reforms, it was learned today. In a preview of what can be expected in Kennedy's long-awaited tax program, congressional sources said the first cut in income taxes would be scheduled for July 1. Additional reductions will be spaced over future months. As for reforms, preliminary estimates are that Kennedy will seek about $3.5 billion in new revenue through "tax loopholes" closing revisions, including reduction in the 27.5 per cent gas-oil depletion allowances, sources said. One administration source said the tax cuts sought by Kennedy to stimulate the economy may be as high as $10 billion overall. In giving the broad outlines of the administration's tax program, informants said the reductions would apply to all individual taxpayers—from the low 20 per cent to the high 91 per cent brackets. Kennedy also will ask that the 52 per cent corporate income tax be reduced. Details of the program, such as effective dates and exact rate reductions in each bracket of personal income taxes, must await Kennedy's tax message to Congress later this month. But informed sources said that one plan given serious consideration is to split the lowest bracket, making one rate for taxable income from zero to $1,000 for single persons, and another rate from $1,000 to $2,000.

Electric Brush Is A Weapon

SAN DIEGO, Calif. (UPI) — A tape recording was played in Superior Court Wednesday in which a woman discussed electrically with her husband with a rugged electric toothbrush. The prosecution is expected to conclude its case today in the trial of Mrs. Doris Saunders, 28, accused of trying to hire a man to kill her husband, Larry Saunders, 42, a salesman. The hired "killer" was a police undercover agent. In four tape recordings of conversations played Wednesday the woman told him, "You just goof that up and we'll be facing the gas chamber . . . so do it clean." One of the tapes assertedly revealed Mrs. Saunders' offer of $25,000 to the agent out of insurance money and a suggestion that Saunders be killed by electrocution. Saunders appeared in court with his wife and has hired an attorney for her defense.

Oil Field Seen

TALLAHASSEE (UPI) — An attorney for Coastal Petroleum Company told the cabinet today that the company plans to drill a well off the west coast of Florida in the Gulf before April "which we think may develop into one of the biggest oil fields in the country."

30 Russians Plead For U.S. Protection

MOSCOW (UPI) — Thirty Russian peasant men, women and children pushed past Soviet guards into the U. S. Embassy today seeking protection from religious persecution. The embassy turned them over to Soviet officials and they were taken away in a bus. Some of the elderly men in the group wept. Others argued with Soviet Foreign Ministry officials who had been called to the embassy compound. One man told an embassy official: "We don't want to go anywhere. They will shoot us." Another said in a loud voice to newsmen: "Those who believe in God and Christ help us. We ask it. We ask that those who believe in God and Christ help us." Soviet plainclothesmen threatened to confiscate the camera of any Western photographer who took a picture of the departing bus load of peasants. A U. S. Embassy statement said the band was from the Siberian city of Chermogorsk and entered the embassy compound "asserting religious persecution." The embassy notified the Ministry of Foreign Affairs and asked that the people be cared for, the statement said.

'Think Big' Is County's Slogan For This Year

Seminole County plans for the growing pains that are already beginning to afflict some segments of the area and the tremendous changes that are in the offing as the result of the Nova developments and their impact on Central East Florida. The word all over the county is "Think Big!" J. C. Hutchison, chairman of the County Commission said it is his hope that the county will take steps to meet the impact of Nova and the predicted population explosion in several ways. One will be to procure rights of way for four lanes SR 46 to the Orange County line from French Ave. There is also a great need to complete SR 436 to the Orange County line to tie into the proposed Lake Barton Road extension from SR 50 east of Orlando. Also of prime importance is the improvement of SR 13 through Geneva and SR 426 from Oviedo to SR 46 and open up the east side of the county to the Cape Canaveral area. It is essential, said Hutchison, that a solution be found to the problem of adequate care for the county's aged citizens. This, he declared, must be done by the end of the year.

Also on the docket for the new year is the completion of the renovation program for the county courthouse. Hutchison said the county commission will continue to cooperate with the towns of the county and will also continue to encourage new industry to come to Seminole County. Speaking for the county school system, Supt. R. T. Milwee said a program of constant and steady improvement will be the guide for the County Board of Public Instruction. A major improvement planned for Seminole County during this coming year is the development of a school for business education, complete with a full set of business machines. One of the major ambitions of the school board this year is the installation of an industrial arts shop at Seminole High. This has long been needed, said Milwee, and if at all possible will be achieved this year. He also said there will be continual improvement and expansion of the technical curricula in the county schools. Milwee said it is impossible at this time to predict what new construction will be needed for this fiscal year in school systems but when the need arises proper plans will be made. He also said there was a great deal of study and planning being done in principals' conferences to upgrade the curriculum in all schools and academic standards will be continually raised through the county and study programs will be improved. Out in the department provided over by County Agricultural Agent Cecil Tucker, the primary emphasis will be placed on programs and information designed to aid the citrus and produce farmers to recover from the effects of the big freeze. When this problem is out of the way, Tucker said, schools will be conducted for the citrus men and nurserymen on new techniques in protection of groves and nurseries. There is also planned a program for the development of new drops and the realignment of old with emphasis in keeping up with the new processing plant in the county, and its needs. The Homeowners Clinic will be continued as will the Vegetable Grower's Round-up, and there will be continued development and expansion of the I-I Club program in the county. The department will continue to work with all segments of the agricultural industry in Seminole County "to make 1963 the best year the county has ever had," Tucker said. (TOMORROW: The outlook for the various towns and communities in Seminole County.)

1962 Was Big Year, Chamber Chief Reports

Richard Deas, outgoing president of the Chamber of Commerce, said today that "1962 was a big year" industrially for Seminole County. Deas was guest speaker at the weekly Jaycee luncheon and outlined the chamber's achievements during the past 12 months. Deas pointed out that currently in this county there are four major electronic firms—three of which have made recent big expansions in their facilities—and a major cabinet making company and others which have brought the industrial payroll of the county to over $6.5 million dollars a year. The speaker pointed to the coming of the Hunt Oil Co. division, H.H. Products, as a major accomplishment for 1962 and also the new plant of Antenna Systems, Inc. in Fern Park. The chamber has taken the lead in the movement for a barge terminal for Sanford, said Deas, and also has moved into a position of leadership in the statewide movement to spur the building of the Florida Cross-State Barge Canal and the Tennessee-Tombigbee Canal, both of which are of prime importance to Central Florida and the Cape Canaveral area. One of the outstanding accomplishments of the chamber during the past year has been the organization of the long range planning committees for roads and schools, he said. The former, said Deas, has been instrumental in securing the completion of Interstate Hwy. 1 north and a south through the county and the four lanes of SR 436 from Red Bug Lake Road west to the city limits of Altamonte Springs. This project will be complete when SR 136 is extended to the Orange County line sometime in 1964. Deas stressed the importance of two aggressive organizations, the Jaycees and the chamber, which supplement each other in promoting the cause of Seminole County as a business and industrial center for this area.

It is specifically stated in the resolution that no lien lies against the town except for the cigarette tax refunds, and that a special account be opened with the bank for the deposit of the refunds as received. Dear Abby: By Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: What is your opinion of a father showering with a 4-year-old son? We recently took our son on a trip and, when I let him shower with me, my wife went on a rampage. She also has many other ideas about life and nature that I think are unnatural. I can't understand how I ever ended up with her as a partner because it wasn't a must. If you agree with me, please say so in your column. She never misses it.

HIER HUSBAND

DEAR HUSBAND: Merely "agreeing" with you (which I certainly do) won't solve your problem. Your wife should have a talk with her family doctor about her "unnatural" ideas. She needs to trade some of her twisted, unhealthy theories for some enlightened, healthy ones.

DEAR ABBY: Our son (22) and his girl (23) eloped. We were very hurt but we forgave them. Dad and I offered to furnish their apartment as a wedding gift. We told them to go to my brother's furniture store and pick out what they wanted. Well, this girl walked around the store half a day and couldn't find one thing she liked. Imagine! Then she asked if they could have the cash instead. Our son sits and lets her do all the talking. So far we haven't decided what to do about it. My husband says to give them the cash. I say they don't deserve anything. We'd like your advice.

DISGUSTED

DEAR DISGUSTED: You appear to be still "hurt" by the elopement and haven't really forgiven them. Also, you blame the girl. If you really want to GIVE them a wedding gift, give them something. But don't invite them to select whatever they want in a grand magnanimous gesture — and then spoil it by telling them where they must buy it.

DEAR ABBY: Before my boy friend went into the service he gave me a diamond and we became officially engaged. We plan to be married when he returns in 13 months. Now that is a long time to sit home, Abby. I have gone out a few times, but only to keep from going crazy. I don't let anyone kiss me or anything like that. I am really being true in heart to my boy friend, because I DO love him. My family thinks I am terrible. Is it wrong for a girl to hook a fellow to take her out when she tells him from the start they can only be friends?

ENGAGED

DEAR ENGAGED: It is wrong! That diamond you accepted puts you in SOLITAIRE CONFINEMENT. Stay home and start "hooking" a rug or something. But no dates.

DEAR ABBY: I live in a small town where rummage sales, dances and food sales are posted in the store windows for all to read. Lately we have had a new type "notice," which has me completely flabbergasted. Baby and bridal showers are being announced, inviting anyone interested to attend. What is your opinion of this?

CANYON CITY

DEAR CANYON CITY: It sounds like a free-for-all—but not exactly free.

What's on your mind? For a personal reply, send a self-addressed, stamped envelope to Abby, Box 8365, Beverly Hills, Calif.

For Abby's booklet, "How To Have A Lovely Wedding," send 60 cents to Abby, Box 8365, Beverly Hills, Calif.

Jacoby On Bridge By Oswald Jacoby

Look only at the North and South hands while you plan your play as declarer at three no-trump.

The spade opening is not what you had hoped for and you will want to keep East out of the lead if possible. East plays the ten of spades on West's opening lead. You note that you cannot afford to let it hold, and you win the trick and must try to find eight more.

You must go after one of the red and suits and because you have eight diamonds as against seven hearts you attack the diamonds.

When dummy's jack holds the first diamond trick business is looking up. You return to your hand by leading a club and just overtaking. You are going to need as many entries as possible. A second diamond lead is won by the jack and East shows out, but this is just a minor irritation. You can now count nine tricks. You cash the ace of diamonds; return to your hand with a second club, carefully preserving a third club entry, and give West his king of diamonds.

If West leads a heart you cannot afford the luxury of a finesse in that suit. Instead you must rise with the ace, return to your hand with the third club and cash that last diamond.

Rollins TV Series To Open Friday

Rollins College Center for Practical Politics will open its fourth season Friday of the program "Pro & Con" with a program to be viewed on WLOF-TV, Channel 9, each Friday at 10:30 p. m.

The format of the presentation centers around a highly controversial and important question of special interest to Florida.

Two experts—one on each side—debate the question in dramatic fashion, prodded by a panel of four Rollins College students under the direction of Dr. Paul Douglas, professor of government at Rollins.

The student panel in all cases is comprised of David Duncan, Kit Young and Niki Clayton of Orlinda, and Michael Miller of Casselberry. The hostess will be Sally Charles of Delancey, Ohio.

Friday's program question will be "Should Public Schools Require Prayer?"

cial aimed at selling household appliances, wash day products, and clean-up compounds promises to take the work out of housework.

The attractive young woman who is singing the praises of her products, dressed to the teeth and with every hair in place struts around, showing how the housewife's work can be done with a turn of a switch, a little thumb-pressure applied to a spray-on can, a quick dousing in suds that miraculously make grease disappear and so on.

For a man who has never tried to run a house, such advertising is bound to make him think the day of instant housework has come. Only the woman who does the work around the house knows that no matter how good a product is it doesn't do the job for her. She still has to do it herself.

And while she doesn't have to use as much elbow grease as women had to use to keep carpets clean, floors waxed, furniture polished, clothes washed and ironed, windows

TV Previews

7:30-8:30 p.m. NBC. "Memory Of A Filly." The filly in this one is two-legged, but full of ginger and dynamite. When she argues with her brother, she pushes him down a flight of stairs, breaking his leg. The brother persuades Mitch and Andy to help him get her to their home in the backwoods country. Then the fun begins. Ronnie Haran is featured with stars Earl Holliman and Andrew Prine.

8:00 p.m. CBS. Perry Mason. "Case Of The Shoplifter's Shoe." Margaret O'Brien and Lurene Tuttle combine talents to make this a first-rate whodunit in better-than-average Mason fashion. Miss Tuttle is introduced as a shoplifter who gets the attention of Perry and a quick release. Later she is accused of murdering a diamond dealer after her niece (Miss O'Brien) tells Perry of a missing $50,000 in diamonds. Mason takes the elder woman's defense. Raymond Burr stars.

8:30 p.m. ABC. The Donna Reed Show. "Just A Little Wedding." This episode marks the first film appearance in several years for Binnie Barnes. She plays a strong-willed English mother who insists on an elaborate wedding for her daughter (Brenda Scott) after Donna and Mary (Donna Reed and Shelley Fabares) plan a quiet ceremony, according to the bride's wish. The fur flies between the femmes but it's a male, the groom (Robert Hogan), who sways his future mother-in-law.

8:30-9:30 p.m. NBC. Dr. Kildare. "Love Is A Sad Song." There are two reasons for tuning in tonight. One is the introduction of romance into the bachelor life of the young intern, in the person of Dr. Lillian McGraw. The second reason is the warbling of star Dick Chamberlain, who sings "Hi, Lili," and ver., nicely too.

Workers Volunteer For Sarepta Jobs But Funds Still Needed To Aid Home

The race to bring the Sarepta Rest Home up to standards which will pass rigid state inspections and allow the owners to continue to care for the aged of Seminole County continues unabated, Coordinator A. K. Shoemaker said today.

"Contributions toward the $1,500 cash needed to purchase materials is trickling in slowly, and much more is needed," he said. Only about $400 has been contributed so far, by private individuals, or groups."

Much labor and time has been offered by men from the Shoemaker construction crews, who have each offered one day's work on the renovation of the building, and some materials have been contributed from other sources.

The asbestos board needed for the furnace room was contributed by Chase and Co. and one of the great needs now is for donations of paint and the manual labor of painters.

Shoemaker, who is coordinating the labor and material efforts on behalf of the Sarepta Home, said Wednesday that crews of painters are needed to paint the outside of the big old home, and urged those who cannot afford a monetary contribution and can paint to call and offer their services. They will be assigned a time to work, in conjunction with others.

Donors may call Shoemaker at the Shoemaker Construction Company offices on 25th St. or Mrs. Tammar Braden at the Sarepta Rest Home on Silver Lake.

The following persons or groups have made cash contributions to the work on the Home:

Casselberry Lions Club, $42; Ladies Aid of the Lutheran Church of the Redeemer, $50; Col J. O. Gregory, $25; Senkarik Glass and Paint, $50; Commissioner Vernon Dunn, $31; Anonymous, $50; Gen. J. C. Hutchison, $25; J. W. Jarrell, $5; Elbert Jarrell, $25; Mr. and Mrs. Edward Simpson, $54; Anonymous, $10.

Other materials which are needed, Shoemaker said, include concrete, reinforcing rods and pipe railing material for the wheel chair ramp.

Dixie Bloc To Discuss Debate

WASHINGTON (UPI)—The Senate's Southern bloc will meet Tuesday to prepare for its opening-day battle against any change in the filibuster rule.

It was learned today that Sen. Richard B. Russell, (D-Ga.), leader of the Southern bloc, had called the meeting to get ready for a fight which could run for weeks.

The Southerners were said to be convinced that no parliamentary procedure exists by which the Senate liberals can get the issue to a vote unless two-thirds of the senators consent.

Sources close to the Southern senators said they did not believe the issue can be brought to a vote and they were ready to talk indefinitely to prevent it.

Under current rules, two-thirds of the senators present and voting must vote for cloture and cut off debate.

Senate liberals, led by assistant Democratic leader Hubert Humphrey, (D-Minn.), and Sen. Joseph S. Clark, (D-La.), want to change the rule so that a majority of the senators can end a filibuster.

Others, including senate

Democratic leader Mike Mansfield, will be willing to change the rule so that three-fifths of the Senate could end a filibuster.

Early estimates of voting strength indicated that more than half the senators would support the three-fifths rule if the issue comes to a vote.

Russell undoubtedly will split the Southerners into debating teams, probably at the Tuesday caucus. This device—used with success during civil rights fights in other years—gives each Southern senator two days off after one day of filibustering.

If the pattern of other years is followed, the team leaders will be Sens. Lister Hill, (D-Ala.), John C. Stennis, (D-Miss.), and Allen J. Ellender, (D-La.).

Russell will lead the fight, especially during the parliamentary maneuvering at which he is considered the best in the Senate.

In 1962, the Senate invoked cloture for the first time in 36 years. They voted 63-27 to end debate on the communications satellite bill.

The Southerners will argue that if the Senate wants to end debate it can do so, despite the two-thirds rule.

Dick Powell, Jack Carson Die Of Losing Fights With Cancer

HOLLYWOOD (UPI)—Dick Powell, who rose from baby-faced singing roles to become a movie-television giant, died of cancer Wednesday night with his wife, June Allyson, at his side.

The 58-year-old star had been in a coma for two days after a four-month battle against malignancies in his chest and lymph glands.

The end came at 9:30 p. m., only a few hours after his friend, Jack Carson, had died of cancer of the liver.

"Dick was very brave all the way through it," a family friend said.

Powell was stricken last September and was hospitalized for cobalt treatments which, doctors reported, greatly reduced tumorous swelling near his heart. The actor was released and returned to his desk at Four-Star Productions to continue his work as a head of the studio.

Last month, however, he announced he was unable to continue as host of his own "Dick Powell Show."

At that time he complained of pains in his back and was readmitted to the hospital where it was discovered cancerous growth had spread through his body.

Many stars, among them Robert Taylor, Gregory Peck, Frank Sinatra and Robert Minkum, volunteered to take his place. Powell's final performance as host, taped two months ago, was broadcast Tuesday night.

Last month Powell starred in a segment of his show titled "The Courtmartial of Capt.

Wycliff," for which he is a prime candidate for a posthumous Emmy nomination.

He is survived by three adopted children, Norman, 28; Pamela, 13; and Richard Keith, 12; and a natural daughter, Ellen, 24.

ENCINO, Calif. (UPI)—Actor Jack Carson turned in one of his greatest performances during the last two months of his life by concealing a death-dealing cancer.

He died Wednesday at the age of 52 of a malignancy of the liver.

Carson succumbed only a few hours before cancer claimed another Hollywood personality, actor producer Dick Powell, and less than three weeks since the death of character actor Charles Laughlin and Thomas Mitchell, both also of cancer.

Carson's death came as a shock to his friends, who had not been told of the actor's illness during his last days. He had undergone surgery about six weeks ago for the malignancy and was confined to bed at home for the past two weeks. His wife, Sandra, and brother, Robert, were with him when death came.

A hint of Carson's failing health came last Aug. 26 at Newark, N. J., when he collapsed on stage during dress rehearsal for "Critics' Choice." Physicians said—at the time—he had a stomach disorder.

His last appearance was on Walt Disney's "Wonderful World of Color" on television four months ago when he appeared to be in good health and ad sprits.

Americans Die In Furious Action Against Viet Guerrilla Force

TAN HIEP, South Viet Nam (UPI)—One of the most furious battles of the war against Communist guerrillas in South Viet Nam today taking a terrible toll in lives.

Two of the American dead were helicopter crewmen, both Army sergeants. The third was a captain who was leading an assault by the South Vietnamese army battalion he had been advising.

He was hit in the neck and chest and evacuated to Tan Hiep airfield, about 10 miles away, where he died while undergoing emergency medical treatment.

The helicopters ran into the deadly Communist fire while ferrying in troops to reinforce government forces which had been pinned down while moving overland toward the hamlet.

Ten American H21 helicopters responded to the call. They were escorted by five rocket-laden HU1H helicopters.

As the 10 H21s hovered over an open field to land the troops the Viet Cong opened fire with automatic weapons.

Two of the H21s went down on the spot. Two others managed to fly down a mile before crashing. One sergeant aboard the first two H21s to crash was killed and three other American crewmen were wounded.

Four of the HU1Hs moved in to lay down a heavy protective rocket and machine gun fire while a fifth tried to land beside the downed machines and bring out the wounded.

The fifth was hit in the rotor blade. It spun halfway over in the air and crashed on its side. The crew chief, a sergeant, was killed by Red bullets. The pilot was knocked unconscious. It was the first of the new, heavily armed helicopters to be downed in the war.

Company officials at first declined to discuss the blast with newsmen, but one said later that fire occurred in a 100-gallon mixer which contained high energy rocket fuel.

The official said he did not know how much fuel the mixer contained. He said there was no lasting fire and that it was confined to the building housing the mixer.

The center, located about 30 miles southwest of Washington, D. C. is reported to test solid and liquid rocket fuels for the National Aeronautics and Space Administration and branches of the military.

Lake Monroe Jottings

Mrs. H. L. Johnson
Well a New Year to you all. And wasn't it a nice day Tuesday? Wonder if that means we will have some nice weather now? It is almost too much to expect. Well I finally found out why I stayed broke all year. According to Frances Warren if I had put a head of cabbage behind my front door on New Year's Eve, I would have money all year. Frances tells me that this is an old custom that has been in her family household for a good many years. Wish I had known this a long long time ago. Glad that Flo Baker is feeling better. Flo kind of had some slight setbacks caused from her recent automobile accident. Rose Poff had as her guests for two weeks her daughter, Mattie Wilson and son Frank Brown and his wife of Roanoke, Va. They were here before the freeze came or I would blame them for bringing it down with them. Rose says that Mr. Poff continues ill at the Orange City Nursing Home. Sorry to hear it and hope he gets well real soon. John and Rachael Donelson of Orange Blvd. had their son-in-law and daughter, Roger and Bonnie Russell and children of Acworth, Ga. with them for the holidays. Roger is a teacher and football coach of the high school there. Jim and Shirley Hawkins and two daughters Kim have returned home to Silver Springs, Md. after a very nice visit with Jim's parents, Vic and Charlotte Hawkins, on the Markham road. Vic and Charlotte's son-in-law and daughter, Eddie and Virginia and children are moving back to Tampa. Don't you know that Charlotte will miss those grandbabies? * * * The W. H. Almonds had their son Paul and family with them for one day last week. They reside in Jacksonville. * * * Lorraine Cameron had a large gathering of high school friends in for a party on New Year's Eve. The affair was held at the home of her parents, the Arthur Camerons, on W. First St. * * * The Monroe Home Demonstration Club meets tonight at White Hall. The program on Money Management will be under the direction of Kim Harley. Sounds very interesting. Sure hope that every member can attend. Mable and Alice Carroll will be the hostesses for the evening. * * * Tomorrow the County Council of H. D. Club will meet at my home for their first meeting of the new year. A covered dish luncheon will be served at noon. Hope every president and delegate and new county officers will attend. Kay Sasman will preside. Our county agent Miss Myrtle Wilson will also be present. * * * Already two days back in school. Now the time is flying by fast, isn't it. * * * I want to wish Sylvia Giles and David Lee both a Happy Birthday. They will both be a year older next Wednesday. * * * There is a happy couple in Monroe now. The William Carroll Seniors daughter and son-in-law have moved down here to live from Binghamton, N. Y. They have taken a home on W. First Street. We are very glad to welcome them to Florida. Of course we know they will like it here very much. * * * Our thought this week is by Emerson, "Most of the show-downs of this life are caused by staid in our own sunshine."

Top Secret Fuel Plant Blows Up

GAINESVILLE, Va. (UPI)—An explosion heard 18 miles away leveled a concrete and steel building at a top-secret rocket fuel test center here Wednesday night, shattering windows within a half-mile radius.

Security guards refused to permit state police or firemen to examine the wreckage, but state police said apparently there was only one minor injury.

The explosion happened shortly before midnight at the sprawling Pine Ridge test center of the Atlantic Research Corp.

Company officials at first declined to discuss the blast with newsmen, but one said later that fire occurred in a 100-gallon mixer which contained high energy rocket fuel.

The official said he did not know how much fuel the mixer contained. He said there was no lasting fire and that it was confined to the building housing the mixer.

The center, located about 30 miles southwest of Washington, D. C. is reported to test solid and liquid rocket fuels for the National Aeronautics and Space Administration and branches of the military.

A Little More Push

Sometimes there's news in what doesn't happen. It is worthy of note that in Sanford we have gone through a severe freeze—perhaps as destructive as the one in 1894-95 and certainly the one in 1958—and until now the city has not had a major fire.

Home fires usually go hand-in-hand with chilly weather. In the past many persons, both adults and children, have lost their lives because of faulty flues and other safety malfunctions in the city's sub-standard housing areas.

The fact that such fires are becoming less frequent, and the fact that we haven't had any bad ones during the recent cold weather, is more than sheer luck. We are happy to recognize the efforts of city officials—especially Fire Chief Mack Cleveland Sr., and City Building Inspector Foots Yelvington—for constant and continuing watchfulness in keeping Sanford's houses even the most primitive, up to reasonable standards of safety.

There still is a great need, we feel, for a well planned and concerted effort to raze slum dwellings and replace them with decent houses (we are disappointed in the city condemnation program . . . too much stalling) for sale or rent to working families of both the white and Negro races. We hope the city will start getting a little firmer in their condemnation proceedings and it is at least a comfort to know that city officials are on the job making sure all houses at least are made structurally safe.

Helen Fuller Says

Moral Debt Repaid

New Year's Day marked the fourth anniversary of Fidel Castro's take-over march into Havana. To our chagrin, Cuba is still Communist, and Castro influence in the rest of the Americas remains a threat. But this Christmas the U. S. at least paid off the moral debt we incurred through our part in the Bay of Pigs disaster in 1961.

The Cuban exiles who survived that landing attempt, with our encouragement, are finally back on U. S. soil after 30 months in Castro prisons. They and the 80 relatives who were permitted to return here with them celebrated the New Year in reunions with their families and friends in Florida.

The vast drama that went into paying off this debt is being purposely soft-pedaled by Washington. The last thing the Administration wants to do is call attention to the fact that the U. S. government directed the largest ransom operation in modern history from behind the scenes. President Kennedy, acting through his brother, Attorney General Robert Kennedy, supplied the coordinating drive and the needed inducements to make the seemingly private effort to free the prisoners a success.

New York Attorney James B. Donovan, acting for the Cuban Families Committee and working with various American relief and refugee organizations, was able to do what the earlier "Traitors for Cuba" volunteer committee failed to do because there was strong positive support from the government.

Learning from past experience, every effort was made to avoid debate on whether it was right or wrong to pay ransom to Castro. The energy went into raising the ransom. Administration officials quietly encouraged drug and other manufacturers to donate the supplies Castro specified in his demands; no cash came from the treasury, but it was known that there would be some tax write-offs for those who cooperated.

Robert Kennedy, it has come out, played a major part in soliciting the $25 million in cash that was Castro's final condition for the release.

The coming of 1963 was a new beginning for the 3,000 Cubans who arrived here Christmas week. Will the New Year bring any new departure in U. S.-Cuban relations? The feeling one gets in Washington is that it will not. There is no sign that the Administration plans to change the line it was pursuing before the recent crises occurred. Cuban experts in the State Department are back at work on ways to tighten up world trade with Cuba so as to put Castro's economy under greater pressure. There is reason to suppose that Central Intelligence is not relaxing efforts to undermine Castro's control over the Cuban military as to build up underground opposites.

As the New Year begins, there are few in the Capitol who expect the Kennedy Administration to condone another exile attempt at invasion—or to launch a U. S. military invasion of Cuba except in answer to Cuban shooting down of U. S. planes or other such action. At the same time, few expect Khrushchev to lessen his support of Castro either. This is estimated to amount to $1 million per day.

Present policy is at least to maintain the uneasy balance until the Cuban people tip the see-saw.

Letters

To The Editor
Dear Sir:

Was very disappointed to read in your "Around The Clock" column that the County Commission was expected to vote against the causeway across Lake Monroe. It seems to me that a better road into Sanford is the greatest need in Seminole county at this time.

I cannot understand how anyone in this county can be against such a proposal. In fact everyone in the county should get behind this movement at once and push it until it goes through.

The State Road Department should accept it, for the savings in State Road Dollars, if for no other reason. I'm convinced the savings could be counted in millions. But judging by past records it's going to mean a hard fight to get SRD to accept it. There seems to be someone up there that doesn't like Seminole county.

Very sincerely,
D. M. Luke

Brazil Gets Eye

When, nearly two years ago, the United States announced its Alliance for Progress program in Latin America, it committed itself to more than just money.

By pledging an all-out effort to help Latin Americans achieve a better way of life through democratic processes, it also placed its own prestige on the line. Any Latin American nation henceforth which might fall either to violent revolution on the left or to military dictatorship on the right delivered a blow against the United States itself.

It is with this in mind that the United States of late has been paying more than the usual attention to Brazil. As of this minute, Brazil owes more than $2.7 billion, about half of it to the United States, and has no money to pay it.

A Christmas bonus of one month's extra pay, which all Brazilian employers must pay their employees, was just about wiped out by vicious inflation which in the last year alone amounted to 50 per cent.

Black beans and meat had just about disappeared and Brazilians were standing in queues to receive small bags of rice at government-controlled prices.

Related to the sorry state of Brazilian finances were two other causes for concern. One was a fear that the government might feel it had to resort to totalitarian means to solve its problems.

Another was Brazil's increasing flirtation with the Communist bloc. At the center of this is Brazilian President Joao Goulart who on this coming Sunday hopes for a belated Christmas present in a frayed stocking.

On Jan. 6, Goulart hopes Brazilian voters will restore to his office the powers stripped away 18 months ago when he succeeded the resigned Janio Quadros. Under military pressure and in a move of questionable constitutionality, parliament then set up a government of a strong prime minister and a weak president.

It is Goulart's claim that without restoration of his powers, he can do nothing to deliver Brazil from its present state.

In this there are two important question marks. The first is Goulart himself. In a visit to the United States last April he apparently succeeded in persuading the U. S. government and many businessmen that he was moving away from the political left to the center and was sincere in his announced intention to set up tax, educational and farm reforms to meet requirements of alliance for progress aid.

Instead no progress was made. In addition, Goulart was packing his cabinet with leftists and assigned leftist-leaning officers of his own choosing in the armed forces.

And herewith the second question mark. Even should Brazilian voters give him the power he seeks, will Brazil's armed forces let him keep them?

Instant Folk Music

WASHINGTON (UPI)—A tragic thing happened to me on my way to interview Peter, Paul and Mary. I lost my beard.

P.P.A.M., as you may know, are folk singers. Two of them—I forget which two—wear beards. I have heard it said that beards are good for the voice.

If at any rate, they began playing an engagement here about the time that I began sprouting a beard of my own. I had an appointment with them and I was naturally self-conscious about exhibiting my beard in the presence of a pair of, shall we say, "mature" beards.

In desperation, I tried to trim it before it was ready for trimming. As a result, I got it out of balance. It listed to port, so that my face appeared to have been built on the bias.

A lopsided beard, I discovered, is like a lame horse. There is nothing you can do but put it out of its misery. Pity.

I had intended to discuss beard growing with Peter, Paul & Mary, but the mishap forced me to switch topics. We talked about folk singing instead.

The rise of folk singing in America is one of the phenomena of our times. The way things are going there will soon be more folk singers than there are folks.

Most of the professionals in the field are practitioners of what I would call "instant folk music." By that I mean they don't wait around for folks to produce folk music. They write their own.

Peter, Paul & Mary are among the rising stars of do-it-yourself folk circuit in Greenwich Village, a folksy sort of neighborhood in New York City.

Now they are reaping royalties from a hit record and have moved up to folk centers that serve something stronger than coffee. For Christmas

Matter Of Fact

Big U. S. salt-producing states do not fall into any specific geographic area, but are widely scattered all over the map. Of the total domestic salt produced, 92 per cent is supplied by seven states. Louisiana and Texas lead, each supplies 19 per cent. Michigan and New York follow with 16 per cent, Ohio 22 per cent and California and Kansas each supplies 5 per cent. Domestic salt production established a new record in 1960.

If anyone offers you absinthe after dinner, think it over before you accept. The characteristic flavoring of this liqueur is derived from various species of wormwood. The best absinthe contains 70 per cent to 80 per cent alcohol. It quickly intoxicates, and its deleterious effects are more serious than those of other forms of alcohol. The wormwood acts powerfully upon the nerve centers, and causes delirium and hallucinations, followed in some cases by mental deterioration.

Dr. Crane's

Worry Clinic

Freddy's frogs should teach a valuable lesson to all of us. And we should quit acting apologetic about the gallant heroes who created this wonderful Republic. Instead, we should embrace such inspiring courage as that expressed in the words of John Paul Jones and see that every school child can recite them.

CASE M-416: Freddy, aged 10, had captured two large frogs one morning at the pond on his grandfather's dairy farm. He had them imprisoned in his pockets when he returned home. Then he heard his mother irritably calling for him to get ready for Sunday School, so Freddy decided he better dispose of his frogs quickly.

The handiest place was a large metal milk can sitting beside the kitchen door. It was empty and very deep, so Freddy figured the frogs couldn't get out.

A little later, however, the hired man filled the can with 6 inches of the top with the morning's milk. Both frogs eagerly came to the top and tried to leap out. But there was nothing solid enough to give them the proper anchorage for a jump.

So they kicked and kicked, but all in vain. Finally, one of them said to the other: "Pal, we might as well give up, for it's no use."

And with that, he sank to the bottom and drowned. But the other frog had sunk. He had more of the proper masculine spirit, so he refused to give up the fight.

Instead, he kept on kicking and kicking. Though it seemed a hopeless battle for freedom, he never quit.

And what happened? Well, the cream began to rise to the top of the can. As this spunky frog kept kicking in the cream, he finally churned a large pat of butter.

Then he hopped upon the floating island that was formed by the butter.

He sat there a few moments till he got his breath; then made a mighty leap clear over the side of the milk can and landed out on the grass.

It didn't take him many more hops till he was back at the edge of the farm pond, where he joined his family.

So we human beings should take a good lesson from the behavior of these two frogs.

Don't give up the fight if you are battling for a good cause.

"Yes, Dr. Crane," somebody may protest, "but suppose it looks as if our cause is actually hopeless?"

Well, don't give up, anyway. Go down with the ship! Abraham Lincoln gave us some splendid advise in this type of situation when he stated:

"The probability that we may fall in the struggle ought not to deter us from the support of a cause we believe to be just."

Teach Children Spunk Here in America it is high time we taught our children the proud history of our patriotic ancestors.

Every American boy and girl should know by heart the courageous words of John Paul Jones, whose ship was aflame and sinking, after being shattered by the gunfire of a larger British warship.

When the British captain finally asked if Jones was ready to surrender, the spunky American hero replied: "Sir, I have not yet begun to fight!"

Then he lashed his ship to the side of the British warship and boarded the latter as his own vessel sank. And he won for the U. S. A.

So teach your children to reverse our gallant history and to stick to just causes, regardless!

NEW KIWANIS PRESIDENT, G. Andrew Speer receives the congratulations of Lt. Gov. Bert O'Neal of Winter Park, as Speer accepts the civic club reins from retiring President Ed Kirchhoff.

Sanford Kiwanians Install Officers

G. Andrew Speer, Sanford attorney, was installed as new president of the Sanford Kiwanis Club at ceremonies at the Civic Center Wednesday.

Lt. Gov. of Kiwanis Bert O'Neal of Winter Park served as installing officer as the Kiwanis gavel went over from retiring president E. D. Kirchhoff, Sanford grower, to the new civic club leader.

Taking office with Speer were new first vice president Frank Dunn and second vice president John Darby. Re-installed as treasurer, financial secretary and recording secretary, respectively, were Oscar Harrison, N. V. Farmer and Ralph A. Smith.

Snow, Sleet Hit Britain Again

LONDON (UPI)—The third, and possibly worst, storm of Britain's grimmest winter of the century blanketed southern England today.

The new storm came out of continental Europe—which enjoyed a respite in the 12-day winter siege—crossed the English Channel and struck England and London with a fast-moving mixture of snow and sleet.

More than two inches of snow fell within an hour at Hendon, in suburban London. Weather and road officials said the outlook was "grim—very grim."

By dawn, the snow covered all of England and southern Scotland and was closing roads as far north as Edinburgh, Scotland.

At least 855 persons have died in auto, rail, air, exposure and asphyxiation accidents since the vicious storm first swept the Continent, from the Atlantic Oceans to Siberia, before Christmas. France reported 303 deaths, Britain 168.

England, ill-equipped to handle the kind of weather this winter has brought, suffered the most. Weather experts said two days ago that it was the worst winter here in 81 years. Today's storm could make it the coldest and snowiest since records first were kept a century ago.

London temperatures were expected to hover around Wednesday's low of 27 degrees.

"Snow is just tumbling out of the sky," an Automobile Association spokesman said. "The only thing traveling is snow."

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Rep. Robert P. Griffin, (R-Mich.), said Wednesday a trip to Poland changed his stand against limited U. S. aid there. No Plan For Team Effort Slated On Moon Shots

WASHINGTON (UPI)—International expeditions may someday explore the moon and planets, but there is no plan to send a Soviet-American team to the moon in seven years.

U. S. officials yesterday said there was no truth to a report printed in Paris that the United States and Russia planned a joint effort to send a team of astronauts to the moon in 1970.

Last Dec. 5, Russia and the United States announced an agreement for limited cooperation in space communications and weather research, and in making a geomagnetic survey of the world.

The agreement was worked out by Dr. Hugh L. Dryden, deputy director of the National Aeronautics and Space Administration and Soviet academician A. A. Blagonravov.

In their talks, they said nothing about such momentous cooperation as an expedition to the moon, according to officials. Their agreement does leave the way open, however, for further joint activities.

Dryden and Blagonravov may meet again this month to carry out the Dec. 5 proposals. U. S. space scientists have long believed that neither Russia nor the United States can bear the cost of all future flights into space.

The bulletin of the atomic scientists said last spring that "no one country will ever be able to send many manned flights into space."

"Unless the effort is shared by all nations," the magazine said, "space exploration may come to a halt much sooner than its enthusiasts foresee. Manned lunar flight may be the limit of what even an economy as rich as that of the U. S. may reasonably undertake; manned flight to the planets may already be beyond the capacities of any one nation."

U. S. officials do not necessarily quarrel with this belief. The nation already is cooperating one way or another in space with 59 other nations. But this cooperation is small scale, involving at its broadest the joint launching of scientific satellites.

The annual president's report noted that the greatest portion of the work of the committees and the Kiwanis Club was concerned with children and youth programs.

"It is here that our Kiwanis motto 'We Build' has its greatest application," said the retiring president.

Citrus Estimate Is Disputed

LAKELAND (UPI)—Florida Citrus Mutual said today it does not agree with a federal government report that 32 per cent of the state's valencia crop and nearly 80 per cent of the grapefruit escaped damage from the December freeze.

The Agriculture Department said Wednesday its survey of more than 1,100 groves in Florida showed the heaviest damage to early and mid-season oranges.

The USDA report estimated 93 per cent of the early and mid-season oranges suffered freeze damage to only 68 per cent of the valencias.

The report also estimated 91.6 per cent of the tangelos and 90.2 per cent of the tangarine crop had been harvested before the freeze.

The USDA estimated 49.5 per cent of the White Marsh seedless grapefruit was damaged, as were 59.4 per cent of the pink seedless and 55.4 per cent of the seeded grapefruit.

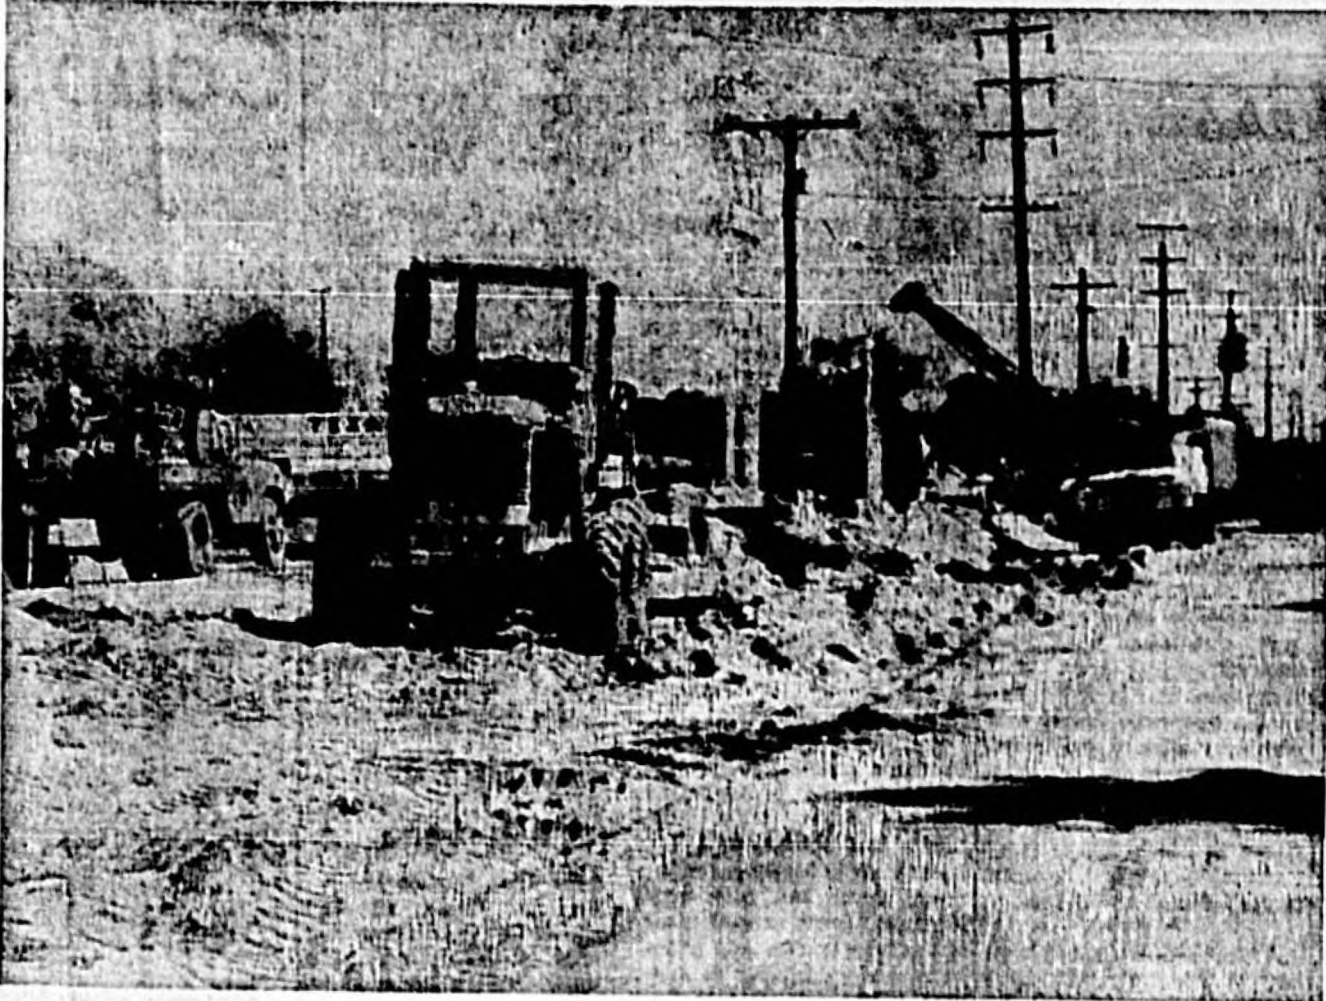

The USDA said the crop estimate Jan. 10 will reflect the probable quantitative loss from the freeze.

Robert W. Rutledge, executive vice president of Mutual, said the USDA report could not be used to estimate the total amount of fruit which will be harvested this season, calling it "misleading."

'Cartoons' Raise Copy's Value

LONDON (UPI)—The discovery of what appear to be 16 "cartoons" by Hans Holbein under the point on a copy of his picture, Henry VIII and the Harber-Surgeons, may increase its value from about $300 to nearly $1 million, it was reported today.

Dr. Bertram Cohen, a dentist who is also an art enthusiast, discovered the concealed sketches by X-raying a copy of the picture which hangs in the Royal College of Surgeons.

The sketches, studies for the 16 figures in the painting, had been drawn on paper and stuck to the canvas. The painting itself is believed to be a copy made 200-odd years after Holbein's death.

Peter Silson, chairman of the Sotheby art auction house, said the sketches might be worth as much as $60,000 each if they are in fair condition and the paint covering them can be removed.

Holbein, who was Henry's court painter, died in the London plague of 1543. The Harber-Surgeon painting commemorated the king's merger of the two specialties.

Research shows that in 1847 the Post Office Department issued its first stamps, including a five cent stamp for the basic prepaid letter rate, the postmaster said.

"And a nickel was a lot harder to come by in those days," Allen added.

Since 1932, while living costs for the American family have skyrocketed by 118 percent, the cost of mailing a first-class letter has only increased by one cent, or 33 percent.

"At five cents as in 1847—it will still be one of the greatest bargains in American history," said Allen.

Of the total volume of first-class letter mail handled locally and in the nation 75 percent is generated by business concerns. The remaining 25 percent generally consists of personal letters to friends and relatives, and individual business correspondence.

The one-cent increase on first-class mail, Allen noted, will only cost the average family about one half cent per day, or about $1.80 a year.

Allen pointed out that after Monday patrons must affix an additional penny stamp when using 4c stamps to send first-class letters.

Homemakers

By Mrs. E. L. Johnson

A very happy brand New Year to all. I bet there are a lot of very tired homemakers this week. Now it is house cleaning time before spring. It also means laundering of those favorite table linens used during the holidays. Here are some tips on their care. Repair linens before you wash them. Careful mending of worn places will add to the lifetime of the fabric. Remove any spots before washing. Use lukewarm suds and several rinses of clear water on woven fabric and lace coverings. This will remove all dirt and soap. Synthetics such as nylon, Dacron and Orlon need no special care in laundering and they also dry quickly. Linens look best if they are ironed with a moderately hot iron while still damp—first on right side, then on wrong side. If the iron is moved across from selvage to selvage, it brings out the luster of the cloth. Tablecloths that have been embroidered or monogrammed should be ironed on a thickly padded board or extra thick cloth. Iron on the wrong side to bring the design up sharply. Round mats and centerpieces come out best if the center is ironed first. Then as the piece is turned the edges can be ironed.

To remove candlewax from white linens, pick off wax when it is dry. If it is soaked in the material wipe with cleaning fluid or cover with blotting paper and iron over the paper. Remove grease spots from colored linens with cleaning fluid, then wash in warm water. So that linens won't turn yellow after laundering, keep those that are not used wrapped in blue paper or line drawers with blue paper.

A famous hunter in Orlando sent us his favorite venison recipe. For the hunters' wives who have some in their freezers try this sometime.

Venison Roast
1 4-lb. venison roast (leg, loin or saddle)
½ lb. sliced bacon
Juice of 2 lemons
¼ lb. butter

¼ cup Worcestershire sauce
Venison is a lean roast and needs extra fat in cooking.

Rub the roast with salt and pepper, wrap in bacon and roast at 275 degrees in slow oven for about 2 hours. Use an uncovered pan. Allow 25 minutes to the pound. Melt the butter, add lemon juice and Worcestershire sauce and baste the venison with this frequently while cooking. When the meat is almost done, increase the temperature of the oven to 450 degrees, to brown the roast.

A teenager asked me a short time ago for a dipped frankfurter recipe. So here is one called Frankfritters. It is very simple to prepare.

¼ tsp. dry mustard
¼ tsp. baking powder
¼ tsp. salt
¼ cup enriched flour
12 frankfurters
Combine lard, egg and milk. Stir in dry ingredients and beat to make a smooth batter. Dip frank into batter and fry until golden brown in deep fat heated to 365 degrees. Makes 6 servings.

Here is a recipe for a meat loaf that can be frozen and used later for lunch boxes or dinners.

A homemaker wants to know how to silver almonds. Let's try this. Cover shelled almonds with water and quickly bring to a boil. Drain and pinch off brown skins. Use the tip of a paring knife to split the nuts in half. Place the warm, moist almonds flat side down, on a cutting board and silver with a sharp knife.

Here is a cheesy goodie from Sylvia Novak.

1 cup butter (2 sticks)
1 pkg. (8 oz.) cream cheese
2 eggs well beaten
Preserves or jelly

Sift together dry ingredients. Beat butter and cheese until fluffy. Add eggs, beat well. Blend into sifted ingredients. Chill dough 1 hour. Roll dough on slightly floured board, about ¼ inch thick. Looks like cold weather again and that is the time for beef stews, too. Here are a couple of ways to fix stew. It is in the Bulletin of Florida Meat Recipes, from the USDA.

Beef Stew
3 lbs. lean beef cubed
¼ cup flour
1½ tps. salt
¼ tsp. pepper
1 head cauliflower (separated into flowerets)
3 onions, chopped
1 bay leaf
¼ tsp. thyme
½ lb. green beans
Roll meat cubes in flour. Brown in a little fat. Sprinkle with salt and pepper. Add chopped onion, bay leaf, thyme and enough water or meat stock to barely cover the meat. Cover and cook over low heat 3 hours or until meat is partially tender. Add green beans and cauliflower 25 minutes before the stew is finished cooking.

Mrs. Wilkins and co-hostesses Mrs. Norris Jordan and Mrs. Pamela Horn invited a group of friends for the combination coffee and shower, honoring the mother and daughter. They received many lovely gifts.

Anniversary punch, cake, and nuts were served to the 100 friends who were invited to call between the appointed hours of 7 to 9 p.m.

Mrs. Gerald Jones cut the cake and Mrs. Clifford Johnson presided at the punch bowl. Diana Haynes kept the guest book; Susan Haynes kept the gift list and the honored couple's daughter, Miss Judy Lavender served as floating hostess.

Mrs. and Mrs. Lavender were married Dec. 24, 1937 at Titusville. They have a son, Randall, who is serving in the Air Force. He is married and has a daughter, Toni. Their home is in Panama City. Judy is a junior in Seminole High School.

AZALEA CIRCLE

Azalea Circle members enjoyed a Christmas party at the Capri Restaurant with Mrs. H. H. Collier, Mrs. Ed Kirchhoff and Mrs. J. W. Brown, serving as hostesses.

Before going to the Capri for dinner, the group met at the Collier home for tomato juice cocktails, admired the Yuletide decorations and enjoyed a carol sing with Mrs. Hal Harris at the piano.

The hostesses added holiday decorations and place favors to the dinner table and guests drew numbers for a door prize, a lovely white not Christmas tree (the work of Mrs. Brown), Mrs. Roy Boyd was the lucky winner.

Others attending the gala evening affair were Mrs. Dempsey Carter, J. L. Clark, Alice Clark, C. P. Harkay, Al Hunt, Henry McLaughlin, Clyde Stinson, R. F. Steele, George Shipp, Frank Thomas, Roy Tillis, Earl Turner, J. D. Callahan and Miss Elsie Kirchhoff.

IVY CIRCLE

The December meeting of the Ivy Circle was held at the home of Mrs. Lamar Meredith, 405 Beth Drive, Ravenna Park, with Mrs. Herchel Powell as co-hostess.

"Orchids" was the theme of the special program presented by Mrs. R. L. Andrews, who displayed many of her plants explaining the care of the various kinds. At the close of the program, Mrs. Meredith and Mrs. Powell were each given a beautiful orchid, in full bloom.

Following the program, Mrs. William Mann, circle president, conducted a short business session. The treasurer reported that the Christmas card sale made enough profit to pay the circle's share of the building fund donation to the new Garden Club building.

The World Gardening committee asked members to save old Christmas cards, discarded jewelry, unusual postage stamps and plant seeds to be sent to schools in Asia.

Mrs. Joe Hunt was welcomed as a visitor. Mrs. Wallace McCalley will be hostess for the January meeting when a program on artificial flowers will be presented.

'Rocket' Laver To Make Debut As Tennis Pro

SYDNEY, Australia (UPI)—Rod (The Rocket) Laver, proud owner of a contract described as the "best ever" signed by an amateur, will make his professional tennis debut at White City Courts here Saturday night when he meets fellow Australian star Lew Hoad.

Laver, the grand slam champion who signed a three-year contract Wednesday for a guarantee of 48,000 pounds (approximately $109,270), will be on display as a pro for the first time in the United States next month.

He will accompany Aussies Ken Rosewall, Frank Sedgman and Hoad along with American Harry MacKay plus others of the professional troupe on an American tour beginning Feb. 8.

Laver accomplished his grand slam in 1962 when he became only the second player in history to win the Australian, French, Wimbledon and American championships in the same year.

Miami May Get Liston Battle

MIAMI BEACH (UPI)—This resort city moved to the top of the list today as a possible site for a Sonny Liston-Floyd Patterson heavyweight boxing title rematch, according to a key figure in the fight negotiations.

Al Bolan, of Championship Sports, Inc., holder of the rematch title, said he had shifted his sights after the Miami Beach Boxing Commission all but rejected the fight last month.

"But the only thing standing between us now is approval of all the parties," he said Wednesday night.

The Miami Beach decision came in compliance with a World Boxing Association ban of return match contracts.

The Miami Herald reported in its editions today that two developments have returned the beach to the favorite's role:

1. Indications are that the Miami Beach City Commission will override the boxing commission and OK the bout.

2. Eddie Machen, the number one contender, has been committed indefinitely to an institution, thereby lifting Patterson to the top contender's spot.

Beat Fishermen

MIAMI (UPI)—Oklahoma's football players, beaten on land, took to the sea Wednesday and whipped Alabama's Red Elephants in a fishing duel. The Sooners, who dropped the Orange Bowl game to Alabama 17-0 New Year's Day, dropped their lines into blue waters and hauled in a catch amounting to 170 pounds. The Crimson Tide pulled in 60.5 pounds of fish.

Senior Bowl Lineups Named

MOBILE (UPI)—Rebel coach Webb Ewbank and Yank mentor Tom Landry had their starting lineups just about set today for the 14th annual Senior Bowl and both were anxious to perfect their plays. The coaches announced their starting lineups Wednesday night at a joint news conference. Ewbank said his starting 11 was not quite firm yet, because of late arrivals due to other bowl appearances. Ewbank said he was undecided on who would start at quarterback Saturday although the way he talked it seemed he leaned to Gary Cuozzo of Virginia. Ewbank also has Glynn Griffing, the Mississippi great who dazzled the nation with his Sugar Bowl performance Tuesday. However, Griffing couldn't report here until Wednesday and Ewbank has had three days to work with Cuozzo. "Cuozzo has looked real good for us," said Ewbank. "I haven't seen Griffing here but of course he looked real good in the Sugar Bowl." Cuozzo was the first string signal caller for the Grays in the Blue-Gray contest last Saturday in Montgomery, Ala., which the Grays lost 10-6. Ewbank said his other starters would probably be: Billy Gambrell of South Carolina; Keith Kinderman of Florida State; and Johnny Skopan of Mississippi Southern in the backfield; Jim Price of Auburn or Harold Hays of Mississippi Southern at center; left guard Dave Crossan of Maryland; left tackle Dave Hill of Auburn; right tackle Roger Shoals of Maryland; right guard Walter Rock of Maryland and ends Johnny Baker of Mississippi State and Floyd Dean of Florida. Landry said his offensive starters would be center C. R. Simons of Stanford; guards Ed Hudde of Michigan State and Marvin Clothier of Kansas; tackles Charles Elemenki of Penn State and Daryl Sanders of Ohio State; ends Bob Jencks of Miami of Ohio and Roger Locke of Arizona State; flankerback Al Snyder of Holy Cross; quarterback Jerry Gross of Detroit; halfback Dave Hoppmann of Iowa State; fullback Dave Katterhenrick of Ohio State.

Stenstrom Leads At Halfway Mark

The Hi-Nooners are now at the half point in their bowling season. The standings are: Stenstrom Realty, 37 wins—23 losses; Grapesville Nursery, 35-29; CPO Wives Club, 33-27; Shoemaker Construction, 31-29; Mar-Lou Restaurant, 30-30; Mayfair Inn, 28-32; Nationwide Insurance, 23-37; M & R Bar, 23-37.

In the position round of bowling, Grapesville Nursery won three points from Stenstrom Realty, and the CPO Wives won three from Shoemaker Construction. The Mayfair Inn and Mar-Lou Restaurant split their points 2-2. The M & R Bar also split their points with Nationwide Insurance. Gertrude Nopper rolled high game of 185 and Etta Dornum rolled high series of 403.

Leola De Palma converted the 6-8-10; Grace Keck the 2-7-10 and Shirley Simms 6-7-10. The 3-10 fell for Eita Dorman, Jean Guden, Carolyn Hales, and Mary Tomaleski. Kathy Gray and Cathy Poulter both picked off the 4-10 and Letha Ward the 2-10.

Cubs Sign Deal With McDaniel

CHICAGO (UPI)—The Chicago Cubs today announced the signing of Lindy McDaniel, a righthanded relief pitcher obtained in an off-season trade with the St. Louis Cardinals. McDaniel, one of the National League's hottest hurlers in 1960, tallied off to a 2-10 record with the Cardinals last season with a 4.12 earned-run average.

McDaniel, 27, came to the Cubs on Oct. 17, along with pitcher Larry Jackson and catcher Jim Schaffer. The Cubs sent pitcher Don Cardwell, outfielder George Altman and catcher Moe Thacker to St. Louis.

Steelers May Not Get Tracy In Tilt

MIAMI (UPI)—The Pittsburgh Steelers went through drills at Tropical Park here, fearful they have lost the services of veteran halfback Tom Tracy for their Pro Bowl game with the Detroit Lions.

The two teams meet in the Orange Bowl Sunday afternoon. Coach Buddy Parker said Tracy hurt his knee in practice Wednesday. He was listed as a doubtful starter Sunday.

Coach Trust Fund Denied By Official

MILWAUKEE (UPI)—The vice president of the Green Bay Packers denied emphatically today the club had set up a $250,000 trust fund for coach Vince Lombardi to keep him from going to the Los Angeles Rams, but the president of the team said he didn't want to talk about such a report.

Lombardi, who also is the general manager of the team which has found fabulous success in the National Football League standings as well as at the end of five years "and pick up a bundle." The offer was supposed to have been made just before the Packers-Giants NFL championship game in New York, and Williams said Lombardi called an emergency meeting of the directors out of which the trust fund emerged.

"There never was a meeting," said Bourguignon. "I was with Lombardi all the time in New York. Nothing like that ever happened." He said the directors haven't met since last summer.

Dominic Olejniczak, president of the team, replied "no comment" when asked about the report by Williams. Fred Trowbridge, treasurer of the team, said "I know nothing about it."

Starters Appear Set For Opener

Though the field for Saturday's 28th Inaugural Handicap has not yet been announced, four greyhounds stand out as almost certain to be in the lineup for this traditional opening night speed classic. They are Mac Tray and Wade Tray, both owned by Fred Whitehead; Carl Tracy's barnacle Bob and Oswald Bros.' O. B.'s D.D.T., last season's victor.

Fred Trevillion's Pac Pac also is a likely candidate. The complete inaugural octet will be announced Friday.

KNEE DEEP in Outdoors

By Jack Trim
Bill Vincent Jr., lately of Uncle Sam's armed forces in Germany, has returned to more familiar haunts around The Herald's photographic dark room and the St. Johns River. Bill came back to his old job, grabbed a camera and said he would be back shortly with some fish and a fish picture for the sports page.

I'm waiting on him now, with an empty paragraph and an empty skillet.

Bill got back just in time for the annual lather-up among the shad in our section of the river.

Limit catches already have been reported by a few and the very first that I could find out about anywhere was made by Arthur Brown, a Canadian visitor from Owens Sound, Ontario. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Stokes of Palatka caught 22, with 11 roe.

I cased out along the river Sunday and counted license plates from South Carolina, Pennsylvania, New York, Tennessee and Georgia—owners of which were all out shad fishing.

There also were licensees from Dale, Osceola, Putnam and Duval counties on cars packed by the river. This is a good sign for us that the shad fisherman is like the mailman, he'll get through to us come cold or whatever.

And that brings my one-track mind back to one thing I know of that's being grossly overlooked around here: Added attention to tourists and visitors.

Things are being done in lots of other places in Florida and many other states to make outdoor recreation pay off and at the same time give

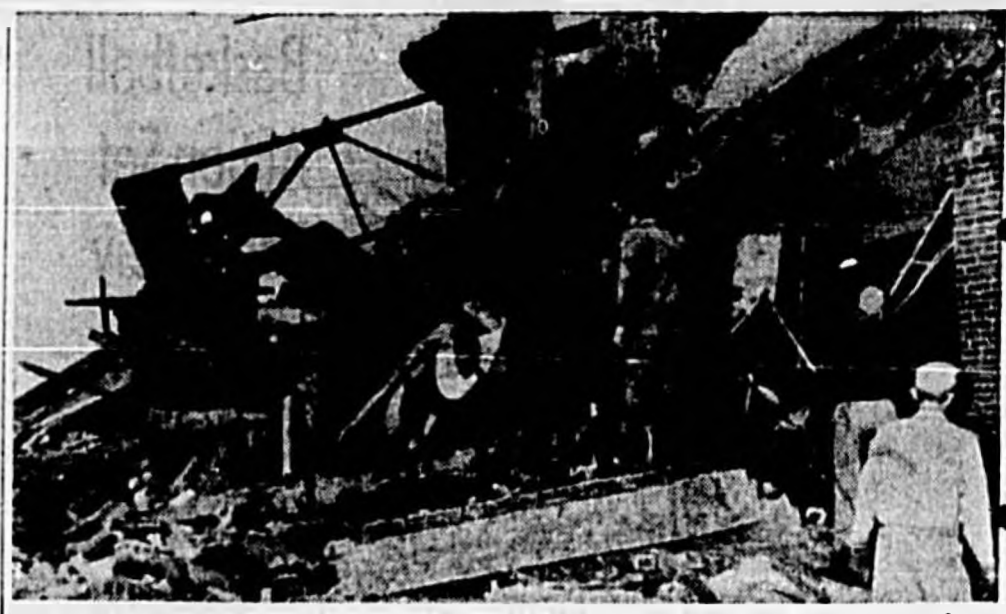

Giants' Gifford Voted Best Comeback Effort Of Season

NEW YORK (UPI)—Frank Gifford, who ended a one-year retirement, mastered a new position and played a big part in the New York Giants' line season, today was honored by United Press International for the 1962 come-back-of-the-year in the National Football League.

The handsome halfback's career appeared ended exactly two years ago at this time when he was sent to the hospital with a severe concussion after being hit hard by Chuck Hedmark in a game against the Philadelphia Eagles.

Gifford sat out the 1961 season and earned a comfortable living as a radio broadcaster and a model for television commercials and magazine advertisements. But as Gifford put it, "Retiring was a big mistake." "I had to get back," he said. "Football is my life." And so at the age of 32, Gifford returned to start his 10th season with the Giants.

CARD OF THANKS

HE ISN'T DEAD

I am one of five of the immediate family of the deceased, Donald C. Bartle. Though we all have experienced a terrible thing we can push out the sorrow in our hearts with the warm feeling that our friends and neighbors have shown us during this terrible hardship. As I lay on a tear soaked pillow the night of my Father's death, I could think of the fine things my Dad had done and was proud that he was my Father because he was a fine man. With these thoughts I let my eyes close and witnessed this, in my dreams: Daddy stood at the bottom of a great golden stairway which was supported at the entrance to the Heavens on a huge silver cloud. I could see Daddy, in all his glory, climbing these steps with pride and joy; as he headed "Home," and to his maker, his own Father stepped out from among the Multitudes of shining Angels and led him by the hand to meet God and his son Jesus. As Daddy reached the top he was embraced by the Father of all men and all the Heavens sang out joy. This dream, as it must have been, seemed so real and comforting that I just knew it had to be true. I want to thank everyone for their helping hand during a time like this.

A Proud Son,
Doug Bartle

CARD OF THANKS

HE ISN'T DEAD

I am one of five of the immediate family of the deceased, Donald C. Bartle. Though we all have experienced a terrible thing we can push out the sorrow in our hearts with the warm feeling that our friends and neighbors have shown us during this terrible hardship. As I lay on a tear soaked pillow the night of my Father's death, I could think of the fine things my Dad had done and was proud that he was my Father because he was a fine man. With these thoughts I let my eyes close and witnessed this, in my dreams: Daddy stood at the bottom of a great golden stairway which was supported at the entrance to the Heavens on a huge silver cloud. I could see Daddy, in all his glory, climbing these steps with pride and joy; as he headed "Home," and to his maker, his own Father stepped out from among the Multitudes of shining Angels and led him by the hand to meet God and his son Jesus. As Daddy reached the top he was embraced by the Father of all men and all the Heavens sang out joy. This dream, as it must have been, seemed so real and comforting that I just knew it had to be true. I want to thank everyone for their helping hand during a time like this.

A Proud Son,
Doug Bartle

EDITORIAL COMMENT

Make A Resolution

Among the most "unsung" heroes of modern day life in Seminole County are members of the various volunteer fire fighting groups who are on call 24 hours a day including holidays and Sundays.

For an example, reports of the Casselberry Volunteers after the holidays include a Christmas Eve accident call, a fire call last Sunday and three on New Year's Day.

The accident call was to wash gasoline off the already overalick highway; the Sunday call was to the Burger King Restaurant in Casselberry where deep vats of grease caught fire. New Year's Day calls were to brush fires in the area including one on the Golf Course of the Country Club of Casselberry.

If your New Year's resolutions didn't include one of appreciation for these men, add it now... let's remember how much they do for us throughout the year.

Oviedo Industry Begins Operation

Operations at Oviedo's new industry, Thergen Industries Corp., are expected to be in full swing by the end of this week, John Janik, shop supervisor, said today.

The business is the first to locate in the new Industrial Park three miles south of Oviedo.

Its plant will occupy both buildings.

Thergen will manufacture portable generators in six different models. Easily mounted on any motor and driven by the vehicle's fan belt, the equipment will provide a source of instant 110 volt AC power with no resulting effect on efficiency of the vehicle's electrical system since it will cause no battery drain.

The company will employ its own sales force working out of local offices. Retail sales will be through area hardware and department stores.

Although Thergen is beginning operations with eight to 10 male employees, it expects to have at least 50 persons working there by the end of March. Women will be hired for work in the assembly line section as the company grows, Janik advised.

Annexation Underway

Plans are now being finalized for the annexation of Seminole Shopping Plaza to the town of Casselberry, according to town Attorney Kenneth McIntosh.

It is expected action will be taken and an agreement made between the town, the plaza and the utilities company at the next meeting of the Casselberry Board of Aldermen.

Out-Of-State Family Enjoys First Visit To Local Area

By Frances Wester

Mr. and Mrs. George Porwizki and their daughter Betty Ann Porwizki from Tuxedo Park, N. Y. were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert J. Sahler in Lake Mary during the Christmas holidays.

Mr. Porwizki is employed by the U. S. Government at West Point Military Academy as Painting Inspector and Mrs. Porwizki is Mr. Sahler's secretary at the Sahler Contracting and Building Corp. in Tuxedo Park, N. Y.

Miss Porwizki is a teacher in the high school of Monroeville Woodbury Central School at Harriman, N. Y.

This was the first visit to the state of Florida for Mr. and Mrs. Porwizki and even though the citrus trees, shrubbery and flowers were frozen, they were very pleasantly impressed with Florida and enjoyed the climate.

They took in a few of the attractions on their short stay of a week, including trips to Daytona Beach, Silver Springs, Cypress Gardens and the Citrus Tower.

They had never imagined that there were so many orange trees in the world as they saw on their trips through the central part of the state and then they only saw a percentage of them.

They left Sunday morning for New York with the hope that they would not encounter too much cold and snow on their arrival home and an idea that maybe someday they might be able to return to Florida to make their home in this area.

Meetings Set

The January meetings of DeBary's Herbert D. Gibb American Legion Post and its Auxiliary will be held at 7:30 p. m. today in the Community Center.

Cub Scout Pack Has New Year's Party

The gala affair was held from 7:30 p. m. to 9:30 p. m. in Weaver Hall of the Cassel-

Cities' Drive Opposed

State Rep. Mack Cleveland Jr. today opposed a statewide move for a 34-senator, 109-representative reapportionment plan which has the backing of the recently formed major conference on reapportionment.

"It could very well leave Seminole County without a senator and give too much power to Dade County in the senate," he said.

Under the proposed plan, Dade County would get six senators while only certain small counties would get a senator.

"I want to know more about it before I'll vote on it," said Cleveland, adding, "I just don't want Seminole left out in the cold."

West Palm Beach Mayor Sylvan Hurdick said Thursday that petitions will be circulated throughout the state for citizens to sign backing the proposal.

These petitions will be presented to the state's legislators and to the federal court in Miami when the proposal is filed.

The mayor's conference adopted the proposal Thursday and took steps to prevent any special session of the State Legislature which would be designed to reapportion by statute instead of by constitutional amendment.

The conference ordered counsel Reese Smith to file for an injunction against the state comptroller for paying legislators' salaries if any session was called for statutory legislation.

The reapportionment proposal would provide for the House to be selected on a county basis and the Senate by population. But both houses would be under urban control.

Each county would have one representative with additional House members awarded for each additional two per cent of the state's population residing in the particular county.

This would give the 43 rural counties, which have 13 per cent of the state's population, control of 40 per cent of the House and only 18.5 per cent of the Senate.

Dade County would get 11 representatives and six senators.

Duval, Hillsborough, Pinellas and Brevard County would get three senators each.

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The United States lost 19 million man-days of labor in 1962 due to strikes, the Labor Department reported today. This was almost three million more than was lost in 1961.

Press Gets Order

LIMA, Peru (UPI) — The military junta government decreed Thursday night that in future all Peruvian newspapers and broadcasting stations must carry all official announcements in their entirety and within a reasonable time.

Hatters Strike

NEW YORK (UPI) — About 9,000 millinery workers remained on strike against 350 headwear firms today. The walkout, which began Thursday, is the first in 32 years to hit the city's hatmaking industry.

Brawler Wanted

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Harold Thomas O'Brien, a murderous barroom brawler, was placed on the FBI's list of 10 most wanted criminals today. O'Brien has been sought since August 1960 for the unprovoked slaying of an acquaintance in a Fox Lake, Ill., tavern.

Stocks Up Sharply

NEW YORK (UPI) — Trading was heavy on a sharply higher opening for stock prices today. The advance of all three Dow-Jones averages to new recovery peaks Thursday produced an overwhelming consensus in Wall Street that the market has embarked on a new phase of advance.

Sisters Freeze

BOSTON (UPI) — Two elderly sisters were found frozen to death Thursday night in their unheated two-story wooden home which contained more than $14,500 in cash and negotiable securities. Authorities ruled the death of Miss Joannette McCutcheon, 82, and her sister Helen, 87, were caused by exposure.

Blasters Held

BERLIN (UPI) — West Berlin police today announced the arrest of three men and a woman on charges they set off two explosions last month that blew holes in the anti-refugee wall and broke 103 windows in West Berlin. The four, all West Germans, were arrested Thursday in the West German city of Hachen, police said.

Two Jet Planes Reported Down

MIAMI (UPI) — A jet fighter plane from Homestead Air Force Base crashed in the Everglades west of Miami's international airport today. A Coast Guard plane spotted the wreckage and a helicopter flew a physician to the scene.

Another airplane, believed to be a military plane from MacDill Air Force Base, crashed in Tampa Bay late this morning, authorities reported.

Highway Link Pact Is Urged As Part Of Jetport Vote

A resolution is expected to be passed Tuesday morning by the County Commission pledging support to the promised Orlando Jetport, but tied to it will be a proviso that the Orange County Commission carry out its end of the bargain dating from 1958 to extend Lake Barton Road to meet SR 436 at a point between Tanglewood and Eastbrook subdivisions.

At that time an informal agreement was reached between the two county commissions that enter line surveys would be made, with the Seminole County action of SR 436 taking off across country in a southeasterly direction, and Lake Barton Road being extended to make the junction.

The local commission carried through but no record has been found, according to Commissioner Vernon Dunn, of such a survey ever being made by the Orange County body.

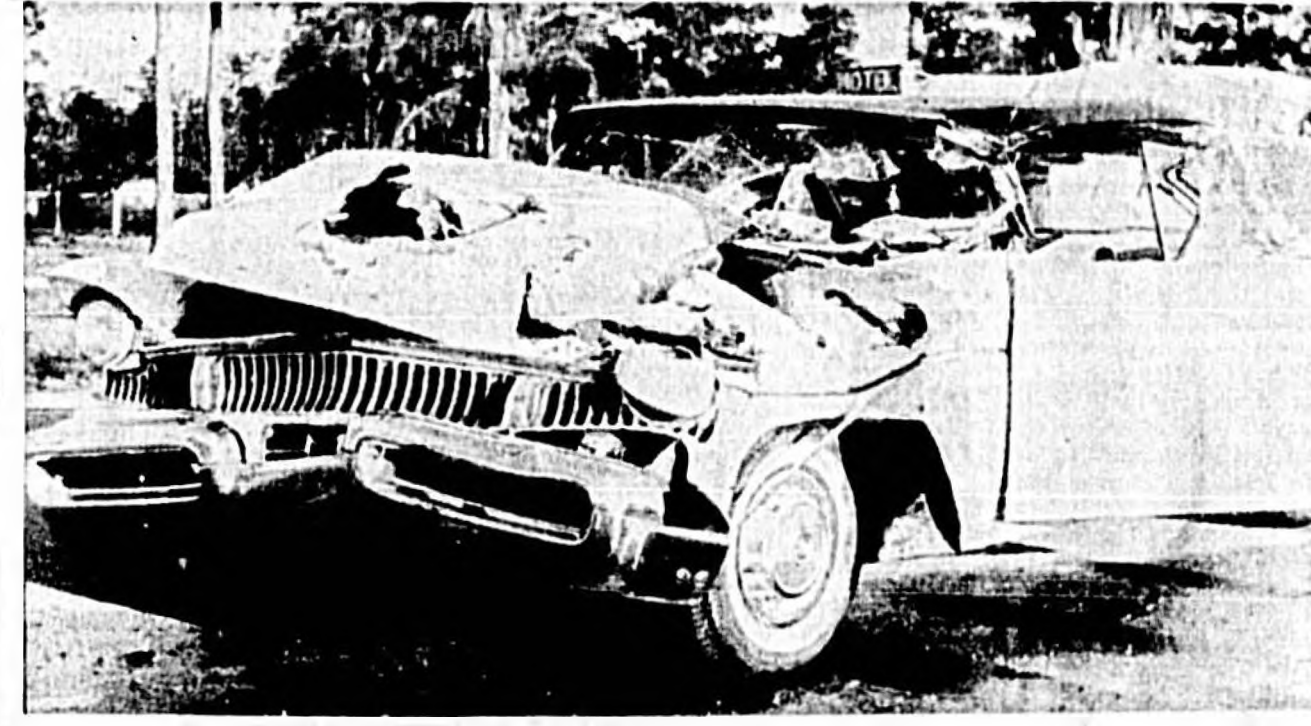

According to Dunn, there is money in the Orange County road funds for four lanes of the Lake Barton road from SR 50 south to Curry Ford Road, but this is of no use to the people of Seminole County.

County Clerk Arthur Beckwith has written the Orange County Commission and State Road Board member Max Brewer, bringing the matter to their attention. To date no reply has been received from either.

The route would provide direct line access from Seminole County to McCoy AFB, where the proposed jet facility is to be located. With over 3,000 Seminole County people using the jetport last year, it is felt that more direct access is a necessity.

The ultimate aim of the SR 436 extension is to tie in with U.S. 111 east of St. Cloud and thus provide a shorter route to Miami.

Dunn said that as far as he can determine, no arrangements have been made by Orange County to acquire the necessary right of way for the Lake Barton Road extension and he said he can see no reason for supporting the proposed jetport unless it can be of some benefit to this county, and the only way it can be is for Orange County to do their bit to provide more direct access for the people of this area.

THIS CAR RAN UNDER A TRUCK while traveling at high speed this morning at the intersection of Hwy 17-92 and SR 419, the Highway Patrol said.

City In Black, Audit Shows

The City of Sanford ended 1962 in the black with a healthy surplus of $38,157, the annual audit revealed today.

The audit also revealed an increase of capital expenditures of $5,000 with $80,041 reported in 1962 compared with $75,000 for the previous year.

Revenues in the general fund were up $20,000 with last year set at $816,000 as compared to $796,000 for the previous year.

City Clerk Henry Tamm Jr. emphasized the increase was due to a boost in real estate and personal property taxes.

Overall expenditures in the general fund for 1962 totaled $792,163 while in 1961 the figure was $745,298.

There were also increases in the debt service, with $259,500 reported last year as compared to $271,871 for the previous year.

During the year the board of bond trustees retired some $180,000 in bonds.

The audit also revealed that the general fund for 1962 totaled $792,163 while in 1961 the figure was $745,298.

Airstrip Use All Up In The Air

Now that the deed to Osceola airstrip is in hand, the future uses of the facility are very much up in the air, according to City Commission Chairman J. C. Hutchinson today.

Capt. Joseph Tully, commanding officer Heavy Attack Wing One at SNAS said Thursday that commercial use of the air field would seriously hamper the operations of the air station, and he feels that use of the strip by small private planes would be a hazardous operation.

The Navy position is that use of the field for either private or light commercial use should be discouraged because of interference with the flight pattern presently used by Navy aircraft.

The Longwood City Council Thursday night was threatened with possible action over the installation of water mains in Lake Gem Park, although the property involved was given as a public utilities easement several years ago.

Owner of the 14 foot easement strip is Adolph Helm, who advised the council that he allowed the easement only for the use of the power company, and that he would seek further action to prevent the city from using it.

Working on installing the mains over the Helm easement, which is being done by the city to extend its lines out to the Plaza area, was expected to be continued and completed today, since the council has been advised by its attorney that use of the strip is legally permissible.

Newest Earl Has Change Of Mind

SOUTHEND, England (UPI) — The Earl of Buckinghamshire said today he may exchange his street-cleaning job for a seat in the House of Lords after all.

The 61-year-old earl admitted he is tempted by the pay—nearly $9 a day—he can expect as a member of the house. His present city job pays only $28 a week.

Buckinghamshire inherited the title two days ago from a cousin who was one of Britain's wealthiest land owners. The estate probably will go to the government to be preserved as a "statelike" name.

The new earl said at first that the title would make no difference to his way of life. Today, however, he was having second thoughts.

"Why shouldn't I cash in on my title?" he said. "I've had enough of shoveling snow. Being a peer will make life easier."

"A lot of companies are interested in having an earl's name on their letterheads. There should be something in that for me."

He said that, if he does enter the House of Lords, he has his party affiliation all figured out.

Three Persons Hurt In Two Accidents

Two accidents, one Thursday afternoon and one today, resulted in three cars being demolished and two adults and a child being sent to Seminole Memorial Hospital.

This morning's mishap occurred at 8 a. m. when Orville C. Coyner, 59, Sanford, going south on Hwy. 17-92, struck the rear end of a truck driven by Henry Gordon, a Sanford Negro, as the truck was about to make a left turn onto SR 419 at Five Points, the Highway Patrol reported.

Coyner was taken to Seminole Memorial Hospital suffering from severe lacerations and abrasions of the head, face and chest. He was charged with unlawful speeding by Trooper C. E. Tomlinson, who investigated.

Thursday's accident occurred about a mile north of Sanford on Hwy. 17-92 when a car driven by Carolyn Carrall, 18, of Clayton, Ala., crossed the center line of the highway and struck a car driven by Francis Pezold, DelBary. Pezold's wife, Hazel, and small daughter, Anna Marie, were hospitalized at Seminole Memorial Hospital with severe bruises.

Trooper J. L. Sikes said both cars were a total loss. He charged Miss Carrall with driving on the wrong side of the road.

Castro Moaning Over Missiles

MIAMI (UPI) — Diplomatic sources said today Premier Fidel Castro is lamenting the fact that the withdrawal of Soviet missiles from Cuba has made it impossible for him to expand any Cuban conflict into general war.

The sources said Castro expressed this attitude in a talk with Havana University students last month in which he also sneered at Premier Nikita Khrushchev's policy of "peaceful coexistence."

"While we had the rockets, we could insure that U. S. aggression would not be merely a local matter," Castro was quoted as saying. "Now we cannot."

This reality, industries minister Ernesto (Chet) Guevara's reported statement to a Communist newspaper in a recent interview that Soviet missiles would have been used against U. S. cities if there had been an American attack on Cuba while they were available in that country.

The heeded Cuban's remarks as reported here made it appear he was siding with Red China's "hard line" approach to world affairs.

Brush Fires Keep Lake Mary Fire Department Busy

A rash of brush fires breaking out about 5 p. m. Thursday kept Lake Mary's Volunteer Fire Dept. hopping as a large number of men and all three trucks responded to calls.

One of two fires on Washington Ave., southwest of Fifth St., posed a definite threat to a large house trailer and firemen concentrated efforts to bring this fire under control as another broke out northeast of town.

Swiss Harrassed

HAVANA (UPI) — The Swiss Embassy announced Thursday it has appealed to authorities here for protection against street gangs which have been harassing visitors.

Carlson Heads Longwood Board

R. C. Carlson was re-elected chairman of the Longwood City Council at Thursday night's reorganization meeting by a four to one vote. Only dissenting voice was Carlson's, who cast his vote for Councilman Jim Reiter.

A public hearing, held prior to the meeting, brought no objections to the zoning change from commercial to industrial on property located off Molnar Ave. north along the railroad.

An ordinance making the zoning change will be drawn upon further advisement from Russell Bass, owner-manager of Master Door Co., Inc., of Orlando, who requested the change in order to permanently locate his plant in Longwood.

Letters from the State Road Dept., the County Commission and County Engineer Bill Bush were read in regards to cause and remedies of conditions on Longwood-Markham Rd., both in and out of the Longwood City limits.

All three letters denied responsibility for deep chuck holes found in the road and advised the council of steps which should be taken to create a joint city-county maintenance plan.

Last month the Longwood council adopted and presented a resolution to county commissioners asking the county to make necessary repairs on the road since conditions there were felt to have been primarily caused by state and county use.

Plans were made by the council Thursday night to go ahead with repairs on the most hazardous corners while taking under further consideration the joint participation proposal.

Use Of Easement Is Questioned

Osceola Water Project Job Let

JACKSONVILLE (UPI) — The U. S. Army Corps of Engineers awarded a $2.1 million contract today for enlarging a 7.2-mile section of the Kissimmee River between Lake Kissimmee and Lake Okechobee.

The contract went to the Hendry Corp. of Tampa, the lowest of 10 bidders on the work which is part of the Central and Southern Florida flood control project.

The Army also said today bids will be opened in late January and early February on another water control project, including enlargement of a canal between lakes Hatchie and Kissimmee. Cost is estimated at $100,000.

THE HOME OF THE CASEY BERGES family shown being consumed by flames this morning following the explosion of a gas stove. The home and contents were a total loss, but none of the family of five was injured in the blaze. The Lake Mary Volunteer Fire Dept. answered the call.

Next Space Trip May Be 22 Orbits

HOUSTON (UPI) — Astronaut Gordon Cooper could possibly make 22 orbits around the earth if his Mercury flight goes well this spring.

The space agency's Manned Spacecraft Center said Thursday present plans are to add four more orbits if the first 18 are successful. The change would mean that Cooper would land in the Pacific instead of the Atlantic Ocean as planned earlier.
