

PAR OR BETTER

U.S. OPEN CHAMPION

7-Grooved Stance

Assuming your stance, make sure your feet are lined up with the line of flight, pointed outward to the degree you intend them to be in.

Be certain the weight is distributed evenly on the feet. When your stance becomes natural, you learn to check the weight distribution automatically as you start to address the ball.

The stance should become as grooved as the swing.

Flex your knees slightly when you have properly taken your stance. This will aid in distributing the weight on the feet more toward the heel rather than the ball of the foot. This brings up the matter of balance again. Weight on the heels is a much better aid for maintaining balance than weight shifted to the balls of the feet.

The slight bending of the knees causes them to act as a cushion, or a shock absorber, in swinging the club to and through the ball. This produces an even motion to your swing going back, at contact and following through. Otherwise, it becomes a jerky, uncoordinated movement.

You should have the feeling that you're sitting down at the ball.

If you haven't that feeling, check your knees and the weight distribution on your feet.

The manner in which you take the step up to the ball becomes quite essential to the eventual proper execution of your swing.

No doubt you have seen many golfers completely confused on how and where to place their feet for specific shots with various woods and irons. Many golfers never bother to get this confusion straightened out and keep right on shuffling and shifting away.

Almost any professional could iron this out for them in a hurry, if they would merely apply themselves.

Sun Sox Stretch Lead To 4 Games

By United Press International
Rookie right hander Bob Guzek put Sarasota four games out in front of the Florida State League last night by giving up only three hits and pacing the Sun Sox to a 6-1 win over Orlando.

In other action last night, Fort Lauderdale defeated Tampa 4-1, Miami nipped Lakeland 7-4 and Daytona Beach downed St. Petersburg 3-1.

Tonight, Miami plays at St. Petersburg, Fort Lauderdale goes to Sarasota, Daytona Beach travels to Tampa and Orlando plays at Lakeland.

Humphreys Back

ST. LOUIS (UPI) — Pitcher Bob Humphreys has been reactivated by the St. Louis Cardinals who shipped reserve Atlanta of the International League to make room on the roster. Humphreys was placed on the disabled list after tearing abdominal muscles at Pittsburgh several weeks ago.

Mays On Move And Giants Go Along With Him

By United Press International
Willie Mays is on the move but even a 419 batting surge may be too little too late for the San Francisco Giants.

The $100,000 centerfielder who had been bogged down close to the 250 mark this season has made 13 hits in his last 31 at bats to boost his average to .281.

The Giants have moved with him—six victories in their last 10 games—but that isn't going to be enough to overtake the Los Angeles Dodgers unless they do an old fold to end 'em all.

The Giants ran their current winning streak to four games Thursday when they whipped the New York Mets 8-6, as Mays drove in four runs with a homer, double and single.

Willie McCovey also weighed in with three hits and knocked in two runs in San Francisco's 12-hit attack.

The loss was the 10th in a row on the road for the Mets—equalling a 47-year old major league record for futility away from home.

The Mets made 12 hits, including a run-producing single and a two-run homer by Duke Snider, but left 10 runners on base against the combined pitching of Billy Pierce, Bob Bolin and Billy Hoefs, who yielded one run and six hits in 3 1/3 innings, scored his sixth victory against three losses.

The victory enabled the third-place Giants to move within 7 1/2 games of the Los Angeles Dodgers, who lost to the Pittsburgh Pirates, 6-2, ending Sandy Koufax's nine-game winning streak.

The St. Louis Cardinals defeated the Milwaukee Braves, 3-1, the Cincinnati Reds nipped the Chicago Cubs, 2-2, and the Houston Colt 45s shut out the Philadelphia Phillies, 3-0.

National Pitchers Near Shutout Record

Larger Strike Zone Called Equalizer

CINCINNATI (UPI) — National League pitchers are treating some of baseball's best hitters pretty rough this season, resulting in a string of shutouts that threaten to erase a record set back in 1908.

At mid-1963, which may go in the record books as the season when pitchers regain control of the game, National League President Warren C. Giles credited the revolution to the enlarged strike zone.

"The sudden change has to be attributed in large measure to the bigger strike zone," Giles said. "That's the only thing that has really changed."

Statistics show scoring is off 18 per cent this year in the senior circuit and home runs off 21 per cent.

Last season at this time there were 23 batters in the .300 class, and now there are nine.

The drastic drop in scoring also is reflected in the fact that bases on balls have declined 13 per cent and are down more than 400 compared with the 1962 season. Thus there are fewer men on base when the power hitters do connect.

Strikeouts are up 4 per cent in the National League. At this time last season, 21 pitchers had earned run averages of 3.00 or under, but today there are 30.

At this stage in 1962, pitchers had recorded 58 shutouts, but to date they have posted 95, seven ahead of the 1908 pace when a record 163 scoreless games were pitched.

Giles listed four factors which he believes are directly or indirectly responsible for the renaissance of pitching. They were:

—Psychologically, if not physically, pitchers have been given an advantage by the enlarged strike zone and batters have been placed at a new disadvantage.

—Scientific analyses of hitters' weaknesses compiled by expert statisticians are now being passed on to the pitchers.

—Most of the better prospects brought up from the minors in recent years have been pitchers.

—The fundamental philosophy that it is harder to learn to hit than it is to pitch—an extension of the theory that hitters are born and pitchers are made—still holds true.

Southern Grid Opener Saturday
MUSCLE SHOALS, Ala. (UPI) — The Southern Football League opens its season here Saturday night when the Chattanooga Cherokees meet the Huntsville Rockets.

August 3 is the date for other teams to open; Huntsville at Jacksonville, Chattanooga at Orlando, and Tusculossa at Rome, Ga.

Gadsden and Daytona Beach will open on Aug. 10. Fourteen games will be played by each club during the season which ends Nov. 16.

What's Odds On Yankees, Sonny Or The Packers?

By Oscar Fraley
UPI Sports Writer
LAS VEGAS, Nev. The Yankees are 6-5 favorites today to win the opening game of the World Series against the Dodgers, even though Sandy Koufax is the starter, and the Green Bay Packers are 16-point favorites in next week's College All-Star game.

These are the latest figures from the Santa Anita Turf and Sports book, the leading wagering spa in this bet-happy gambling paradise, which has already established Sonny Liston a 6-1 favorite over Lippy Cassius Clay for their Sept. 30 heavyweight title fight in Philadelphia.

"They'll even quote you a price on that being the correct day of the fight, which isn't until the end of the sidewalk first, or any horse race in the nation."

The Santa Anita, one of seven sporting parlors in Vegas, is run by a former New York bookie named Jasper Martin. He "busted out" in New York and, being right out of Runyon, misses the sidewalks of New York but likes the easy action in these precincts.

Right now, he has the Yanks and Dodgers as "out" bets. Meaning, in the opinion of the guys who have to be right or go broke, that they are cinches to win the pennant. However, Jasper will lay six to your five that you can't pick the second-place finisher in the National League and makes it even-money for second place in the American.

Just to give the suckers, cops, the baseball fans, some kind of run with the two big teams, Jasper will lay you six to five whether the Yanks or the Dodgers finish under or over six games in front of their respective leagues.

In the series as a whole, the Yanks are 13-10 choices. "We don't do much with baseball because you can't get the information," says the tall, dark-haired Martin in his inevitable eastside accent. "And it might come as a surprise to learn that we get more action in one month of pro football than we do in a whole season of baseball."

Martin's emporium, however, caters to any gambling taste—except the slots and the tables. But if you want someone to book and you're in Nevada he'll handle any other type of "action."

"No interstate business, though," he says. "I won't even give odds to a newspaper guy who calls from out of the state."

"Newspaper guys," on the whole, are friends of Jasper's but he "fries" when any of them within the state print odds on any event without contacting him.

"Imagine," he snorted, "one paper prints odds of 20-1 on the Liston thing. So people come rushing in here to get a piece of the price. Then they scream when I won't give them that kind of action."

"I tell 'em," he shrugged, "that I have an agreement with the newspaper. I don't sell newspapers and they don't set odds."

IT WAS MIDNIGHT when Earl Moore, of Cedar Avenue, landed this huge 210-pound jewfish at the New Smyrna inlet Wednesday after fighting with him for an hour. He said the big fish really put up a struggle before he was finally dragged ashore. Moore presented the fish to Sid Richard (pictured) as food for the zoo animals (but R. E. Porter learned it was cut up into steaks). (Herald Photo)

Fox Needs Only 3 More Hits To Reach 2,500

By United Press International
NELSON FOX, who already owns eight major league records, will soon achieve another statistical goal that will place him among the greatest second basemen in baseball history.

The combative little Chicago White Sox second baseman—who just might be the only fellow in the American League who hasn't conceded to the New York Yankees—needs only three more hits to reach 2,500 for this career. That's a total reached by only five second basemen—all hall of famers—Eddie Collins, Nap Lajoie, Frankie Frisch, Charlie Gehringer and Rogers Hornsby.

Fox knocked in three runs with two singles and scored the White Sox' fourth run of the game Thursday in a 4-3 victory over the Detroit Tigers. The win enabled the second-place White Sox to move within eight games of the Yankees, whose six-game winning streak was ended by a 5-0 loss to the Los Angeles Angels.

"Polemics" is the art of disputation and controversy, that is, "waging war with words."

Hawkins Sets Pace in Western's First Round

CHICAGO (UPI) — Golf pro Fred Hawkins was in a familiar spot today, he hoped the road would take a different turn to a new ending Sunday.

Hawkins, on the pro tour for sixteen years with only one victory, was the first round pace setter in the $50,000 Western Open with a four under par 67 on the thickly roughed, heavily wooded Beverly Country Club course.

It was the same position he held at the same milepost of the same tournament on Medinah No. 3 course last year. But last year he sagged to a third place tie, earning only $3,075, when young Jacky Cupit came from behind for the $11,000 first prize.

Today Hawkins held a one stroke margin over three players heading into the second round, 48 year old Steve Reigel, 27-year-old Joe Campbell, and 25-year-old Australian Bruce Devlin.

The field was bunched tight behind them with eight players at 69, among them the Masters and PGA champion Jack Nicklaus.

Hawkins held first place by virtue of almost sensational putting on an erratic trip around the 5,857 yard links. He had 13 one putt greens.

Name players slumped in the 80 degree heat and high humidity. Leading money winner Arnold Palmer scored a 73 and took four putts on the 15th hole. Julius Boros, the National Open champion, had a 72. British Open champion Bob Charles took a 76 and Sam Snead, who has more tournament wins than any other pro golfer, scored a 71 despite a double bogey seven on the 610 yard 11th hole.

Navigation season of the St. Lawrence Seaway in 1961 was from April 15 to Dec. 2 according to the Britannica Book of the Year.

MANTE'S SEASON May Be Finished

NEW YORK (UPI) — A depressed Mickey Mantle faced up to the grim possibility today that the season may be all over for him.

Set back even further by a new knee injury, which is literally one on top of another, the down-hearted Yankee centerfielder said he had "no idea" when he might be able to play again.

Mantle suffered his latest injury, a loosening of a cartilage on the outside of his left knee, while trying to work himself back in shape from an "old" injury sustained on June 5.

Mickey was running in the outfield prior to a game with the Los Angeles Angels last Tuesday when his left knee suddenly gave way.

He was immediately examined in the clubhouse by Yankee team physician Dr. Sidney Gaynor, who relayed his findings to manager Ralph Houk.

Korean Reds Cross Border, Kill 2 Gls In Raid

Editorial Comment: Seminole Police Work Done By Outsiders??

The burning question here today was: Why was the Seminole County sheriff's department seemingly ignored in the bolita raid here Saturday?

At first blush it is wondered why does Seminole County need a sheriff's department, now asking for an increase in its annual budget? Why does Sanford need a police department? When our law enforcement work is carried on . . . partly, at least . . . by the federal government, Orange County deputies and Orlando police.

Not one Seminole deputy or one Sanford police officer was on that raid. In fact, the two departments did not know it was being staged.

Sheriff J. L. Hobby explained today the investigation commenced "a year ago" at Orlando. Don Derry, Internal Revenue agent, said it started there three months ago. Hobby said he apprised "them" that "we do not have the money or the manpower for an intensive investigation and I gave them full permission to extend their investigative operations into Seminole County whenever they wished."

Sheriff Hobby said further that C. R. Trulock, special investigator of the Florida Sheriff's Bureau, was "looking out for our interests." Trulock was reported ill today. Derry stated further that the Orange and Orlando officers were working "under federal supervision and we felt we had all the help we needed."

Queried why the Seminole Sheriff's department was not informed of the pending raid, Derry added "we had all the help we needed and we had to move fast."

Police Chief Roy Williams said today his department was not invited, apparently, "since it was out of the city." He added that he had had "trouble with that same bunch five years ago."

The Herald, pursuing all phases in an effort to obtain the facts, telephoned Tallahassee to request a statement from Gov. Farris Bryant and was informed the Chief Executive is in Washington testifying before a U. S. Senate committee on the public accommodation bill.

Gen. J. C. Hutchison, chairman of the Seminole County Commission, this morning said: "I guess I'm not well enough informed on this thing to make a statement. I was told the Sheriff was in on this raid."

The Herald is not satisfied as to the reason Derry ignored the Seminole County Sheriff's department. We have been given answers to our questions . . . but we are not satisfied with them. If Derry's statement is the complete truth it appears the County Commission can save the taxpayers some money, drop the Seminole Sheriff's department and permit Orange County and Orlando law officers to do our police work.

Possibly the Governor will have a statement Tuesday when he returns from Washington. His office said today he will be apprised of the local situation on his return.

7 Bolita Suspects Free On Bond

Group Seized In Raid Here Over Weekend

Seven persons arrested here in a gambling raid Saturday have been released under bond following the filing of a direct information and/or a preliminary hearing, according to Don D. Derry, U. S. Internal Revenue Service, who led the raid.

Derry was assisted by Orange County sheriff's deputies and Orlando police. No Sanford or Seminole County law officers participated.

Derry said that released under $5,000 bond each were Clyde Lee, 53, Orlando; Ralph Tilghman, 39, Eau Gallie, and Cecil Merritt, 48, Altamonte Springs; and under $2,500 bond each were Carol Tilghman, 22, Eau Gallie; Jesse W. Joyner, 32, Longwood; Dorothea Halford, 21, Fern Park, and Donald A. Dunn Sr., 50, of Cameron Avenue.

The group posted bond after arraignment before U. S. Commissioner David Kerber at Orlando. Derry explained that direct information will be filed against the group and that a preliminary hearing will be held at a later date, only if requested by the defendant's attorneys. Otherwise, he said, next action will be by the federal grand jury at Orlando.

The federal agent reported the group was arrested at the home of Donald A. Dunn Jr., on Cameron Avenue, near the Sanford Naval Air Station, in a surprise raid Saturday afternoon. Dunn Jr. was not present. Derry estimated the raid broke up a $1 million-a-month bolita operation.

Derry said the investigation commenced three months ago in Orlando and Orange County and finally spread to Seminole County.

MISS CANDI CONDER, sponsored by the Seminole County Chamber of Commerce, was chosen first runner up in Sunday's 1963 TV Cover Girl contest. Winner was Miss Elizabeth Jevnans, of Miami, while second runner up was Miss Rosemary Botsford, of Maitland. Sen. Muck N. Cleveland Jr., of Sanford, and Mrs. Janet Bonder, of Playgirl Fashions, Fern Park, were two of the four judges.

Appleby Restaurant Sold To Bowmans

Mrs. Lucille Appleby, owner of Mrs. Appleby's Restaurant in the Vallery Hotel building announced today that she has sold her business to Mr. and Mrs. Wilke Bowman.

The new owners will take over tomorrow and will call it "Rose and Wilke's Restaurant." Mr. and Mrs. Bowman were owners and operators of "The Bowman's Restaurant" for the past 18 years in Montevideo, Pa., "until the Pennsylvania Parkway builders decided to run right through our home and business."

Mrs. Appleby has been in business here for the past 11 years and she said today: "I shall always be grateful for the many kindnesses shown me in the past by my customers and friends, and feel fortunate to find such fine people as the Bowmans to whom I can turn over my business."

The Bowmans said that they will continue to open at 4:30 a.m. as Mrs. Appleby did and will extend the evening hours "until at least 11 p.m."

Speaking of her plans for the future, Mrs. Appleby said, "My husband is already retired and now we can take that long extended trip all over the United States that we have planned for so long."

Mr. and Mrs. Bowman said that for many years they had planned to come to Florida, "as many of our family members were already here and we wished to join them."

"After the Parkway put us out of business, we came down and looked around. We liked Sanford so much, and met and made so many friends here, we decided to stay," they said.

Third Shot In Ambush Of Patrol

SEOUL, Korea (UPI) — Communist North Korean raiders killed two American soldiers and critically wounded a third. The United Nations Command (UNC) quickly placed some U. S. units on a "reinforced alert status."

The Communists crossed into South Korean territory and ambushed a U. S. Army jeep patrol with submachine gun fire and Soviet-made hand grenades.

The UNC called it a "vicious and unprovoked sneak attack." There was no sign the Americans had been able to return the Communists' fire.

"The attack was deliberately planned, premeditated, and executed in a grey early dawn," a UNC spokesman said. As a result of the attack, he added, "elements of the 1st Cavalry Division were placed on a reinforced alert status" along the truce line. The three soldiers were members of the 1st Cavalry.

The victims were not identified pending notification of relatives. The wounded soldier had been hit four times, in the chest, arms, and legs, and was reported still unconscious several hours after the attack. "He may not live," UNC spokesman Col. George Cread of Birmingham, Ala., said.

It was the second North Korean attack on U. S. troops guarding the Korean truce line in less than a year, and it came within two days of the 10th anniversary of the truce ending the Korean War.

UNC officials could not reconstruct the attack with certainty because there were no living witnesses besides the wounded soldier. Cread said the attackers were North Koreans but it was not known for certain whether they were soldiers, although the UNC was assuming they were.

The three soldiers, members of the 1st Cavalry Division on truce line duty, were driving to a guard post in the demilitarized zone between North and South Korea.

Bryant Pleads For Rights Of Business

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Florida Gov. Farris Bryant asked Congress today not to bury the rights of businessmen in the drive to assure equality for Negroes.

"It would be a tragic mistake if we tried to purchase equality for minorities," Bryant said, "and as part of the price gave up freedom for all."

Bryant was the fourth Southern governor to testify before the Senate Commerce Committee against President Kennedy's proposal to ban discrimination in hotels, restaurants and other private businesses serving the public.

"I think I can understand the aspiration of minority groups to improve their status," Bryant said. "Nothing is more American than to aspire. But surely, we should remember that when the majority loses its freedom, the minority loses its hope for freedom."

The Florida governor thus joined Govs. Ross R. Barnett of Mississippi, George C. Wallace of Alabama and Donald S. Russell of South Carolina in testimony against the so-called public accommodations bill, keystone of the administration civil rights package. (See story on Page 2).

DeGaulle Reassures U.S. On Friendship

PARIS (UPI) — President Charles de Gaulle said today that despite differences between France and the United States it would be a "ridiculous absurdity" to believe any split is imminent.

De Gaulle said relations between the two nations "are based on friendship and alliance."

"Despite the divergences that exist, it would be a ridiculous absurdity to think the United States wants to do harm to France and that we should be afraid of it," he said.

The United States and Britain agreed at the Moscow conference last week to consult their allies on further steps toward easing the cold war, including a possible pact between East and West military blocs.

De Gaulle declared that France and the United States have every reason to maintain the Atlantic alliance.

Two Sought In Ocala Shooting

OCALA (UPI) — Police questioned witnesses today and sought two men who fired shotgun blasts through the window of a Negro integrationist leader's home Saturday night.

Chief deputy H. A. Geiger said buckshot found in the home indicated two blasts were fired.

The shots were fired into the bedroom of the seven-year-old daughter of Dr. R. Hampton Jr., a member of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People. No one was hurt.

Hampton, who was riding in a car with his daughter at the time of the shooting, said "It's a miracle no one was hurt — my mother-in-law and two sisters-in-law were in the house at the time of the shooting."

30 Overcome By Chlorine Gas

MIAMI (UPI) — Deadly Chlorine gas escaped from a broken hose at a chemical plant today felling 30 persons.

A hospital spokesman said at least 20 persons were in critical condition and eight others were serious.

The gas was being pumped from a tank car into storage tanks at Roman Cleaner Co. when the line broke. Three men at the plant, where chlorine for swimming pools is kept, were overcome.

The gas felled 25 men at the Fibercraft Boat building plant next door, a woman perversely in an automobile, a nearby resident and a fireman.

Officials at North Miami General Hospital said a disaster plan was enacted to care for the victims. Of the 30 treated, 22 were admitted.

Police blocked off the area until the gas was dispersed. A helicopter was sent to hover over the scene and fan the gas from the area.

Sanford Wins; Advances To State Tourney

Sanford scored 4 runs in the bottom of the first inning when Cecil Simpson and Skipper Senkarik walked and Miller was hit by a pitched ball. Rick Fordham doubled to right and David Lee singled to center to tally four.

Bellevue came back in the third with two runs in the top of the third on two hits and two fielder's choices.

Sanford applied the crusher in the bottom of the fifth when Mett Morgan and Skipper Senkarik singled and Billy Miller homered to unload the bases.

Billy Miller hurled a neat 3-bitter and fanned seven to pick up the win for Sanford in the District 2 Florida Little League Championship.

The win will allow Sanford to advance to the State tournament in Panama City August 5, 6, 7, and 8.

AROUND THE CLOCK

Bryant Adds Criticism Of JFK Race Law

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Another southern governor, Florida's Gov. Farris Bryant, took his turn today in criticizing President Kennedy's proposed public accommodations law in congressional testimony.

Bryant was called before the Senate Commerce Committee (9:15 a. m. EDT) to testify on his opposition to the proposal to ban discrimination in hotels, restaurants and other facilities open to the public.

The Senate group already has heard criticism of the plan from Gov. Ross R. Barnett of Mississippi, George C. Wallace of Alabama, and Donald E. Russell of South Carolina.

L. Beverly Lake, Raleigh, N. C., attorney who once ran for governor of his state, also was on the committee's witness list.

Kennedy Returns From Week End Of Relaxation

HYANNIS PORT, Mass. (UPI) — President Kennedy returns to his desk today from a refreshing weekend of sun and sea at Cape Cod.

Kennedy's schedule was open, with no formal appointments listed. This usually indicates a pick-up of behind-the-scenes staff work, which could range through a variety of current issues including the nuclear test ban treaty, railroad labor negotiations, and others.

The President and a host of relatives, including his own two children and their 19 Kennedy-aid cousins, joined Sunday night in celebrating Mrs. Jacqueline Kennedy's 34th birthday. The partying was a private family affair, and so were the gifts.

Saturday, Kennedy met at his Hyannis Port home with Under Secretary of State W. Averell Harriman, chief U. S. negotiator at the treaty, and with Secretary of State Dean Rusk, who will be flying to Moscow this week for its formal signing.

Harriman carried a note from Soviet Premier Nikita S. Khrushchev to Kennedy, it was reported to be friendly, but its contents were not revealed, and it was not known whether Kennedy had replied.

U. S. Protests Castro Seizure

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The United States has protested Cuba's seizure of the U. S. embassy in Havana as illegal and unacceptable under international law.

The protest was contained in a note sent to Cuban authorities, State Department press officer Richard I. Phillips said yesterday. He declined to disclose the note's contents, but said the Swiss charges d'affaires in Havana already had delivered an oral protest to the Cuban government.

Employment Opportunity, to testify (10 a. m. EDT) on legislation to establish a Fair Employment Practices Commission (FEPC).

Spokesmen for five state commissions—California, New York, Minnesota, Missouri and New Jersey—also were to be heard by the Senate Labor Subcommittee on the FEPC bill.

Chairman Adam Clayton Powell, D-N. Y., of the House Education and Labor Committee threatened yesterday to bolt congressional leadership and force a house vote on the FEPC issue.

Powell, a Negro, told a New York civil rights rally that "no white man, anymore is going to tell me what I should do in the field of civil rights."

He called on Negroes to "blindly follow black leadership" and not question leaders of the integration movement.

The New York congressman said he would decide after a conference with Negro leaders today whether to pass normal house procedure and seek a house showdown on two measures—the FEPC bill and legislation to cut off federal funds to segregated schools at all levels.

Both bills have been approved by Powell's committee. Neither is given a chance for clearance by the House Rules Committee, however, partly because House leaders would rather seek action later on the President's broader civil rights program.

Powell threatened to bring the bills to the House floor under a special "calendar Wednesday" procedure open to committee chairmen. This procedure is seldom used and rarely with success, but it could touch off a bitter preliminary civil rights squabble that House leaders hoped to avoid.

Mysterious Deaths Of Three Probed

RUTHERFORDTON, N. C. (UPI) — Law enforcement officers investigating the mysterious deaths of three young Negroes planned to meet today to compile evidence in the puzzling case which has produced no definite leads.

The three bodies, all with severe head injuries, were found on U. S. 74, 13 miles west of the southwest North Carolina town, early Saturday.

Police searched for a 1956 black and white station wagon which was seen speeding on the highway where the bodies were found. Officers could not say whether the vehicle was connected with the deaths.

Officers said two of the bodies were struck by a trailer-truck whose driver said he was unable to stop before hitting them. It was not known whether the youths were dead before they were struck.

The body of the third Negro was found in a nearby ditch by a deputy sheriff after he arrived to investigate the other two deaths.

The Negroes were identified as Norris Curtis Logan, 22, and Donald Keith Hannon, 18, both of Asheville, and Lawrence Edward Logan, 18, of Biltmore, N. C.

State trooper C. D. Horton, who investigated the case, said the Negroes car was found about five miles away. It apparently had generator trouble, Horton said.

The trooper said he saw no apparent signs of foul play and Sheriff Dan Huskey of Rutherford County said the deaths did not appear to have any racial implications.

Living Costs At All-Time High

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The nation's living costs jumped to a new all-time high in June and sliced four cents off the buying power of a $10 bill, the Labor Department reported today.

The department said its consumer price index increased by four-tenths of 1 percent last month—the biggest one month increase in nine months.

Higher prices for sugar, cigarettes and increased real estate and sales taxes pushed up the index to 106.6 of average 1957-59 prices.

Moscow Meet May Ease Tension More

MOSCOW (UPI) — A big three meeting expected to take place this week in Moscow may set the stage for further moves to ease the cold war and a possible summit conference, diplomatic observers said today.

Secretary of State Dean Rusk and British Foreign Secretary Lord Home will represent the West at the meeting, called to sign a partial nuclear test ban treaty.

No precise date has yet been set. But Rusk and Home were expected to meet with Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko sometime this week.

The treaty was initiated last Thursday and has given rise to outspoken optimism that a new era in East-West relations has opened. The pact bans nuclear tests in outer space, underwater and in the air but does not include underground experiments.

Diplomatic observers said Rusk and Home were expected to use their presence here, no matter how brief, to explore further measures to ease tensions.

Premier Nikita S. Khrushchev has said he wants to discuss the chances of a "pact of peace" between the North Atlantic Treaty Organization (NATO) and the Communist Warsaw Pact countries.

The Soviet leader, who currently is involved in a bitter ideological dispute with Communist China, said Friday in an interview with the Soviet press that he hoped the partial test ban would be the start of efforts to solve other East-West problems.

Observers said progress along these lines could lead eventually to a summit meeting.

Individual Russians who come in contact with Westerners are showing great optimism that the world may at last have reached a turning point after 18 years of cold war struggle.

Their attitude is considered remarkable because the Russians are felt to maintain a barrier against naive enthusiasm.

'Always Seems To Rain Around Here July 29'

WAYNESBURG, Pa. (UPI) — John Dally, rain prophet for the southwestern Pennsylvania city, was confident showers would fall today as they have on this day for 76 of the past 86 years.

Even the weatherman was giving Dally encouragement. The forecast called for a few showers and thundershowers in the forenoon and becoming more numerous in the afternoon.

However, not all are convinced it will rain today. Heavyweight boxer Cassius Clay is betting one of the quill pens he uses to compose his poetry with Dally that the showers will bypass Waynesburg on its "rainy day." Dally put up a hat, just as he has in past years with other famous persons.

It's just one of those things which has happened for years and its origins are steeped in the misty legends of the past when an unknown farmer once remarked to a druggist that "it always seems to rain around here on July 29."

The farmer's name was never learned but the druggist, William Allison, noted the observation on the fly leaf of a store ledger.

Potato Patch Produces A Meteorite

LONDON (UPI) — The "thing" that excited British flying saucer fans for two weeks turned out to be a meteorite Friday.

Army bomb disposal experts dug up the meteorite, about the size of a tennis ball, from beneath a crater near Charlton and announced they planned to turn it over "to the scientists."

"Our interest in the incident is at an end," said Maj. H. P. Quattrough, the army engineer who finally identified the thing.

The meteorite came down in farmer Roy Blanchard's potato and barley field, creating a weirdly-shaped hole in the ground that was noticed about two weeks ago.

Army engineers were called in and announced that their instruments indicated something metallic underneath.

Demonstrations Bring Arrest Of 125 In 2 States

By United Press International
About 125 Negroes and whites protesting segregation were arrested Sunday in demonstrations in California and Virginia.

It was a relatively quiet Sunday on the racial front with arrest-producing protests reported only in Danville, Va.; Farmville, Va.; and Torrance, Calif. Demonstrations also were staged in Denver, Colo., and Pine Bluff, Ark., but no arrests were reported in those cities.

Danville police, sweltering in 102-degree heat, intercepted 77 Negroes marching on city hall and loaded them into paddy wagons and a tractor-trailer when they sprawled out on the pavement.

Negroes had promised to defy a city anti-march injunction with a march by thousands but the demonstration fell short of the promise.

At Farmville, Va., about 50 Negroes who attempted to attend services at a white-only church were arrested on charges of "interfering with church worship."

Civil Defense In Seminole Will Be Aired

All Civil Defense officials will meet with the County Commissioners today at 8 p. m. at the Courthouse to discuss the question of the Civil Defense budget for next year.

A. B. Peterson Sr., CD director told commissioners Friday he did not want to even try to make up a proposed budget until they decided what they want to do about civil defense.

"In order to carry out a satisfactory program there is much involved," Peterson said.

"It is up to you, whether you want to expand the program, maintain a skeletal force or do nothing about it at all, but I want to know what you want me to do before I try to set up a budget," Peterson advised the commission.

Commissioners suggested that "we all get together and talk this over," and asked Peterson to call the meeting.

At the close of a day of meeting with department heads concerning the budget for next year, County Commissioners Friday, counted up a total of $147,425 in increases requested, with several departments still to be heard from this week.

And our only anticipated increase in revenue is about $15,000," commented Commissioner James Avery.

The Road and Engineering Department had the biggest request over $70,000, with the hospital close behind with $55,000.

Road department officials said it would take that much for approved and likely projects for next year, and hospital trustees said they have to enlarge the kitchen, dining room and storage facilities to maintain their state accreditation.

The engineering department asked for increases in salary for their employees in the amount of $1,800 overall.

The Sanitation Department asked for an increase from $15,000 to $22,500 mostly to be used to drain, widen, deepen and regrade ditches which drain the outfall from the major housing areas around the county.

Rail Stoppage Will Cripple Economy

"Feather merchant" was an expression which became commonplace during World War II. Its origin is unknown but men and women in the Armed Forces applied the term derisively to all in military uniform.

"Featherbedding" is another expression which has become commonplace in recent months. It applies to persons holding jobs and drawing pay for presumably unnecessary jobs because of unions . . . specifically, railroad unions.

"Automation" is another new word. It means the elimination of a laborer's job by machinery. Such as, the diesel locomotive has eliminated the job of the man who used to stoke coal into the boiler of a railroad engine.

The nation is faced with a crisis! Rail transportation may halt! Unless President Kennedy and the Congress can induce rail management and unions to come to an agreement . . . either permanent or temporary pending further arbitration.

Simply: The railroads wish to set their payroll by thousands of employees to reduce operating costs. The unions are balking in efforts to save jobs for their members. Who is right? It is not for The Herald to say. But The Herald, speaking for all locally, does not wish to see rail stoppage. The railroads say they are going to reduce their personnel lists. The unions say, if the railroads take this action, all their members will stop work.

Which means, again simply, the trains will stop. A national crisis will develop. Everyone suffers — no one gains, in the long run.

This introduction leads down to this:

The national economy will be affected but, and more specifically, the economy of Sanford and Seminole County and East Central Florida will be vitally affected.

Atlantic Coast Line Railroad right here in Sanford has 350 employees who are bona fide residents and home owners here and in the environs. Approximately 800 of these employees are union members and must and will abide by any pickets who hit the ACL passenger depot and freight station. All rolling stock at the time will continue to the terminals . . . and our rail service in this area will then be stopped cold.

The Herald does not want our local economy affected by a rail stoppage! We have no quarrel with the railroad management. We have no quarrel with the unions.

WE DO NOT WANT TO SEE A RAILROAD STOPPAGE WHICH WILL VITALLY AFFECT THE ECONOMY OF THIS AREA !!!

For figures sake: Three hundred rail workers each have a take-home pay of a figure taken from the thin air $100 a week. That's $30,000 a week removed from the city's and county's income. Not chicken feed! Arbitration in this matter is at a national level, with President Kennedy and top management and labor officials working day and night to stave off this impending rail stoppage.

Management blames the unions. Unions blame the management.

An undated news release by the Association of American Railroads points that firemen probably will suffer most in job reduction. If carried out. This release states that displaced firemen would have retraining preference and two years' retraining (for other jobs) with the railroads paying 75 per cent of the tuition. Other proposals by the Presidential Railroad Commission would include moving expenses and payment for wage loss and loss of home value be provided (by the railroads) for employees relocated because of changes in runs or terminals.

Although The Herald wishes to remain neutral in this matter, excepting as affecting the area's economy, it contacted L. N. Trued, local chairman of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Enginemen. It was learned A. E. McMillan, local chairman of the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen, is in Washington, and L. E. Roberts, local chairman of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, is out on a run.

Trued wrote in part: "Most newspapers have been overwhelmingly one-sided in reporting of the bitter ruse dispute between the 'operating' unions and the railroads. Management has been given nearly all the breaks, labor all the brickbats . . . Few, if any, papers mentioned that the unions in negotiations submitted proposals for settlement of the main issues. The carriers, nothing."

"Since the end of World War II, the number of on-the-train employees dropped from about 400,000 to less than 195,000, although revenue ton-miles slipped only slightly. Productivity increased 78 per cent between 1947 and 1961, according to U. S. government figures . . ."

"Approximately 350 railroad families live in Sanford through choice. A majority of these would be forced to leave if the rule changes are put in force by the carriers. The railroad has the second largest payroll in Sanford. The economy of Sanford will suffer when those forced to leave have to sell their homes. Hundreds of houses dumped on the market will not bring an immediate financial loss but will devalue houses.

"In 1962 the Atlantic Coast Line Railroad paid $4.40 a share. ACL stock was listed this morning at a high of 5 1/2. This does not seem to be a financially ruined industry forced to employ nothing but loafers."

Cagle, opposing compulsory arbitration (the acceptance of one man's or a board's decision by both sides), wrote thusly that the "working rules, which the carriers seek to change unilaterally, were brought about by years of collective bargaining and should be changed only by the same process and not by compulsory bargaining."

He wrote further that "ever since the government took the position that it would not tolerate a nationwide strike the carriers have refused to bargain in good faith . . . It is the railroad management, through their drastic demands on the employees and their refusal to bargain in good faith, that has brought about this impending crisis . . ."

"We ask only for fair treatment from the press and other news media and for the privilege of settling this dispute through true collective bargaining and in accordance with the provisions of the Railway Labor Act."

"We cannot accept government intervention and compulsory arbitration unless forced upon us by Congress."

One other point from Cagle: He produced a letter dated last July 5 from the five operating brotherhoods to all general chairmen of railroads stating, in effect, the unions will provide crews to operate passenger or commuter trains pending arbitration with wage payments to be donated to charity if the carriers would donate revenue derived from ticket sales to charity, and further to furnish crews for military transportation and to move food for public welfare to prevent public distress.

On the other hand, the railroads charge that "featherbedding" costs the American public and the American railroads $600 million annually.

That may be so but the railroads' and the unions' charges are not The Herald's argument here. We have, as we've said, no quarrel with the railroads or with the unions.

The Herald herewith and now requests each and everyone of its readers to write or telegraph immediately . . . before the 30-day deadline . . . to and request — yes, demand — they proceed from each and every angle to use all their efforts in a joint operation with executive and congressional and rail management and rail union leaders to stave off this railroad stoppage.

The railroads claim they will follow the Presidential Railroad Commission recommendation and commence "letting out" those employees they believe to be "unnecessary" or "featherbedding." The unions claim if the railroads do so all their members will stop work.

If this comes about, the nation suffers, Florida suffers, Seminole County suffers, Sanford suffers. Everyone suffers.

AND IN THE LONG RUN, NO ONE GAINS IN TOTAL.

The Herald again begs that you, our readers, write or wire our Congressmen now — Holland, Smathers and Heriag — to work toward halting this railroad stoppage. Lay it on the line. They are our representatives in Washington — put there by us to do our will.

Tell them simply: We want no rail stoppage!

Political Notebook

WASHINGTON (NEA) — There are a couple of new twists in Russian policy toward China. Careful analysis of the Soviet Communist Party's Central Committee reply to Chinese Communist negotiators in Moscow reveals them. But there is no detectable change in the basic policies of the international Communist conspiracy.

Conciliatory language which marked previous Russian replies to the Chinese Communists is not found in the 30,000-word Central Committee letter which appeared in Pravda July 15.

Moscow now is making unrestrained attacks on the Peking government. The expectation is that this will continue.

The Kremlin also is expected to begin purging Communist leaders who in the past have argued for caution in dealing with the Chinese to promote unity.

The Soviet Central Committee says it will wage "implacable struggle against deviationists."

This is not taken to mean there will be actual war between Russia and Red China. The conflict will be waged on ideological levels.

In the future it will become increasingly difficult for the Communist party of any country to remain neutral between Moscow and Peking points of view.

Split within some of the national Communist parties thus became a possibility. This would dim the prospect in the immediate future for another Congress of Communist parties from all over the world to resolve their differences.

The effects of a further split between Russia and Red China on relations with the West and with the United States in particular can only be speculated upon. President Kennedy has just laid down the line that the U. S. should not talk about something over which it has no control.

The new Central Committee statement seems to make conciliatory gestures to the West. This could be motivated only to refute Red China policy.

"We sincerely want disarmament—it is not an expedient," says the Central Committee. Then the policy is qualified by the statement that the Soviet Union will continue to use organized agitation and propaganda to whittle down western demands.

In another place the Central Committee statement declares that the Soviet Union will not be the first to use nuclear weapons. This is a change from recent Soviet policy, even though the United States has previously proposed a ban on nuclear weapons except in defense of aggression.

The Central Committee does not say, however, that the Soviet will not use nuclear weapons against a conventional weapons attack and will not use them in a local war which becomes escalated into a major war.

On Cuba, the Central Committee declares that "if the U. S. imperialists . . . invade Cuba, we shall come to the assistance of the Cuban people."

Phil Newsom Says . . .

Reds May Breach Wall

President Kennedy has gotten his licks in West Germany and next week it will be President Charles de Gaulle's turn. And if it is any help to the German ego, another distinguished visitor also is proving to the German people that they are indeed "wanted."

This latter is Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev who ostensibly is to help East Germany's Communist strong man, Walter Ulbricht, celebrate his 70th birthday.

Khrushchev will stay on the eastern side of the wall, but in the West German press there is speculation that Khrushchev already has made preliminary moves toward a contact with West German Assistant Chancellor Ludwig Erhard who is scheduled this fall to step into the shoes of outgoing Chancellor Konrad Adenauer.

It is speculated that a first move was made through Berthold Beltz, a representative of the German Krupp industries who recently talked with Khrushchev in Moscow and followed that up with secret talks with Erhard.

A further preliminary was Moscow's clear indication that it hoped to step up trade with West Germany.

The Soviet-German trade agreement expires at the end of this year and must be renegotiated.

All this leads up to Khrushchev's current visit, and the further interesting line of speculation that results from the wall which the Communists threw across Berlin on Aug. 13 two years ago, have not been entirely as expected.

The Hamburg newspaper Die Zeit referred to the "wall complex" in discussing the cool reception West Berlin businessmen gave Soviet attempts to increase contacts either by diplomats or trade missions.

The "wall complex" also clearly must affect Soviet relations with any West German government, whether it be Adenauer's or Erhard's.

It seems possible, therefore, that Khrushchev also will tell Ulbricht that some of the harsh conditions pertaining to the wall must be relaxed.

This is not to imply that the wall will, as did the walls of Jericho, come tumbling down.

The Communists recently broke one additional hole in the wall for access to West Berlin's Schoenefeld Airport. Another step may be to lift partially the total ban against West Berliners visiting the East Zone.

Dr. Crane's Worry Clinic

Girls, don't be stampeded by the fashion designers! Men don't relish the kisses of masculine women! No stress your femininity instead of aging men and trying to become the "pal" of your boy friend. Avoid the male habits and symbols mentioned below. CASE Q-407: Colleen B., aged 20, is a college senior. "But, Dr. Crane," she protested, "I have a quarrel with you."
"For you say that the more interests, hobbies and ideals a boy and girl have in common, then the more likely they will be happy if they marry."
"So how do you reconcile that view with the old statement that opposites attract?"
The old adage that "opposites attract" refers primarily to sexual charms, not to religion, political and racial differences.
For example, a man usually is most attracted to a distinctly feminine type of girl. And a woman is generally charmed by a man who is definitely masculine.
Girls thus are likely to shun a man who is not positive. For they aren't as thrilled by the kisses of a "Yes-man" or a "mamma's apron stringer."

he becomes a doormat.

For women, ever since childhood, have realized that boys are somewhat rough, positive and demanding.

Unless their adult male escort occasionally lays down the law to them and makes them walk the proverbial chalk line, they subconsciously look on him as rather sissy.

And the usual girl cannot get the maximum thrill out of kissing a sissy, half-man. By the same token, the average male doesn't get as much of a thrill kissing a female who is a boyish half-man or "pansy."

And beware, girls, lest you become a "pal."
For the very word "pal" means "brother," and a normal male isn't interested in kissing his brother!
Too many modern girls act like sheep and let fashion designers masculinize them with slicks and men's shirts and ultra short hair bobs and liquor and cigars — all of which are male symbols.

Yet those same girls will actually cry in misery if they have a little fun on their hip, lest it intimate they have a mustache.

And they will shave their legs to get rid of all evident hair, for they regard hairy legs as masculine.

Then, stupidly, they adopt other masculine traits that are far worse than hair on their legs or upper lip.
For cigars, liquor glasses, profanity and vulgar stories, are all de-feminizing influences!

So, too, are brittle or metallic looking clothing (such as sequins), plus long claw-like fingernails, stained bloody red, and mascara as well as false eye lashes.
No wonder many modern young men drink hard liquor, for it takes a half-drunken fellow to be able to work up an interest in kissing a half-masculine woman.
Since it is sexual opposites that attract, you girls better wise up fast!

Dear Abby: By Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: Just before school was out my Dad asked my Mom for a divorce. Mom didn't want one, but they got divorced anyway. Now my brother gets to live with my Dad and I have to live with Mom. All my friends got to choose which parent they wanted to live with when their parents broke up, but nobody even asked me. I think a 13-year-old girl should know what is best for her. Mom says she knows better what is best for me. How can I get to live with my Dad? My mother is always yelling at me for something and I don't get along. Don't you think it should be MY choice?

this out of my mind. How can I be sure?
NERVOUS

DEAR NERVOUS: Believe your husband. And tell your sister the next time she catches your husband ogling her to direct her complaints to "Baldy" himself.

DEAR ABBY: What do you think of a guy who tells you that he loves you, and in the next breath he says he doesn't care if you go out with other guys?
THE GIRL

DEAR GIRL: I think he is angling for the same privilege. (Other GIRLS—not "GUYS.")

DEAR ABBY: Arthur's idiot (who broke out in uncontrollable laughter every time he kissed her) brought back memories of myself. My husband and I eloped many years ago. We were young and didn't have much money. In fact, I had to dig into my purse to help pay for the blood test. When the Justice of the Peace asked my husband if he would "shower all his worldly goods on me", I broke up in laughter and became so hysterical they had to hold me up.

STUCK WITH MOM

DEAR STUCK: When some adults don't know what is best for themselves, how are children expected to know? Young ladies are usually better off living with their mothers. Take my word for it, honey, and don't complicate your mother's life by complaining. She has enough on her mind right now.

DEAR ABBY: If you don't answer this right away I am going to have a nervous breakdown. I have been married for nine years and have three children. Out of the clear blue sky my sister, who is four years older than I am, said to me, "I wish you'd tell 'Baldy' (that's what she calls my husband) to keep his eyes off me." I told her she must be imagining things. When I mentioned this to my husband he said to forget it—that she was a trouble maker. My sister has never been married and claims she hates men. I can't get

Jacoby On Bridge By Oswald Jacoby

Sometimes it pays to keep your eyes and ears open, but once in a while you will do better by being partially unconscious during the bidding.

West did not bid North's opening club bid and he thought that his partner had opened one spade and South had stuck in an overcall. Even so West had no clear cut bid, but he decided to double and hope for the best and the best sure happened.

West opened the four of spades and South decided to play dummy's jack. East won with the king and while East knew he could give his partner an immediate ruff, East was looking for better things. He did not know exactly what was going on, but South won and played the eight of clubs. West thought a while and decided to rise with the ace. Then West led the queen of hearts and South took his second high heart. Now South led a heart and ruffed in dummy, whereupon the ruff fell on him. East overruffed with the nine and led a spade for West to ruff. West led a trump right back. As far as he knew his partner had opened the bidding and was clearly marked with good diamonds.

East took the trick with the king and gave his partner another spade ruff. This left poor South down one and he still had to lose a heart and a trump for an 800-point loss.

We The Women: By Ruth Millett

In the good old summer-time my mail always includes a number of letters from mothers complaining of the neighbor who turns her children loose to roam the neighborhood all day.

Every neighborhood seems to have at least one mother who doesn't care where her own children are, or who is having to look after them. Just so that they aren't underfoot at home.

There's an easy solution to the problem and that is for the mothers of the neighborhood to send these foulhouse children home, and a mother is probably justified in doing this if she wants to.

But if she regards these uncared-for neighborhood orphans as daytime orphans—which is what they actually are—a good mother might see an opportunity for giving them what they lack; a place to play where they are welcome so long as they behave themselves and abide by the rules of the house.

Women do a great deal of worrying about juvenile delinquency and wonder what they can do about it, when most of them have a chance, right in their own homes, to do something for the "daytime orphans" whose own mothers can't be bothered with them.

A good mother who stays at home to keep an eye on her children, and to be available when they need her, can usually manage to "mother" an extra child or two or three—and teach them how to behave while she is teaching her own children.

If there is warmth and friendliness as well as firmness in her manner, she can often give a few daytime orphans the kind of training they aren't getting at home, as well as giving them the feeling that someone cares about them.

Sometimes, that bit of outside mothering is the difference between a daytime orphan's becoming a responsible youngster or a potential delinquent.

door was Mrs. E. B. Crumley and in the receiving line were the honoree and her mother, Mrs. M. R. Strickland and Mrs. Robison.

Pink, yellow and white were the predominant party colors throughout the Robison home. The dining room table was covered with a cut-work cloth and held a pretty floral arrangement flanked by pale pink candles entwined with white lilies-of-the-valley.

The hostess presented corsages of Sweetheart roses to Miss Strickland and her mother.

Serving coffee and spiced punch were Mrs. John Ivey, Mrs. Clarence Powell and Mrs. Dick Aiken and floating hostesses were Mrs. Edward McCall, Sr., Miss Susan McCall and Mrs. Glenn Wimbiash.

Around 80 friends were invited to the pre-nuptial event.

Heavyweight 'Find' 'Potentially' Best

NEW YORK (UPI) — Matchmaker Teddy Brenner today sought high-ranked Cassius Clay or Doug Jones as the next opponent for Ernie Terrell, Chicago giant and new scourge of the heavyweight division.

Little Nellie Fox Bangs Out 2,500th Hit

By United Press International
Nelson Fox is showing his way into the class of baseball immortals, one base at a time. He won't be remembered for his power, nor for his physique, but the scrappy Chicago second baseman who is a throwback to the long-ago heroes of baseball will command many lines in the record books as some of the game's most notable sluggers.

Only 39 other players have reached the 2,500-hit plateau. Five of them were second basemen, and all now have a place in the Hall of Fame. It's big company indeed for Fox, an imposing five foot, nine inch, 160-pounder.

In other American League games, the New York Yankees overcame the Minnesota Twins, 3-2, after dropping the opener of a doubleheader, 5-1; the Los Angeles Angels swept a twinbill from the Boston Red Sox, 5-0 and 5-4; the Detroit Tigers beat the Washington Senators twice, 3-2 and 7-4; and the Kansas City Athletics stopped the Cleveland Indians, 3-0, in the first game but dropped the nightcap, 12-7.

Let Him Run 'Raise A Native' Is Headliner For Saratoga Birthday Show

SARATOGA SPRINGS, N. Y. (NEA) — To some racers — usually those weaned on the gilt and glitter of modern supermarket style betting emporia — Saratoga is an eyecore pile of adolescent junk that should have been consigned to the dump years ago.

To others — mostly those who fondly remember, or wish they did, the gait and galuses era — the venerable Spa course is a shrine, a refuge where one can dip into the tranquil past.

Among those who have shown promise are Chieftain of Raymond Guest's Fowhan Stable, which has won three, run second once and third another time. His stakes victories were in the Tremont at Aqueduct and the Tyro at Monmouth.

Mrs. Harriet N. Ball's Big Pete, winner of four for four at Monmouth and Delaware Park, may campaign at Saratoga, Timbeau, winner of three out of four at Aqueduct, including the National Stakes, may decide to test Raise a Native's mettle.

"We're just hoping all the others don't run for ever when Raise a Native's entered," said Tommy Trotter racing secretary for New York tracks.

"If past performances at Saratoga are any criterion, they won't."

RAISE A NATIVE, MANUEL YCAZA UP

Hunting Season Dates Announced For State

TALLAHASSEE (UPI) — Florida's deer, turkey and quail season will open Nov. 16 except in Southern Florida where it will begin a week earlier.

The State Game and Fresh Water Fish Commission set the seasons at a public meeting.

Manuel Ycaza, who merely waxed the whip and flicked his mount just once at about the 3/16th pole, said: "He breaks surprisingly fast for a big colt. I sat there and let him run."

Raise a Native will make a belated bow to Saratoga society, bypassing the Spa to compete in the $100,000 guaranteed six-furlong The Sapling at Monmouth Park promised to have a formal early hearing next year to get all views in the area before deciding on the dove season there for the next season.

A number of counties will be closed to deer and turkey hunting at their request and special quail seasons were set for some areas.

Bag limits were set at two per season on deer, three per season on turkey, 10 per day on quail and dove and 10 gray and two fox per day on quail.

Kefauver Sets Boxing Probe WASHINGTON (UPI) — Boxing is once again a political issue according to Sen. Stator Kefauver, D-Tenn., the chairman of the Senate antitrust and monopoly subcommittee.

Sunday Kefauver said that he would investigate among other things heavyweights champion Sonny Liston's new business organization, mandatory return bouts in contracts of professional fighters, and the "matching and mis-matching" of professional boxers.

Can Dodgers Be Up To Their Old Pennant Tricks?

By United Press International
Say it ain't so, Walter. You don't often say much but Dodger fans from the Brooklyn Gowanus to the Mallbu Freeway need a word of assurance today. That once-imposing seven-game National League lead is down to 4 1/2 games almost overnight and the memory of the 1962 collapse is still fresh. Those San Francisco Giants have won seven straight and the St. Louis Cardinals are in exact-ly the same striking range, too.

The Giants rolled to their seventh straight victory by beating the Pittsburgh Pirates, 3-1, Sunday while the Philadelphia Phillies beat Los Angeles, 7-4, and handed the Dodgers their fourth loss in a row. The St. Louis Cardinals lost an opportunity to gain important ground when they dropped a doubleheader to the Chicago Cubs, 5-1 and 16-11, but are tied for second place with the Giants.

Builders Win Double Header

Kingswood Builders of Sanford won a double header Saturday from Red Mill Corp. team from Brooker in the Soft Ball League. The Builders won the first 20 to 3 and the second 9 to 8.

The winning pitcher in both games was Jim Monier and the loser Jim Temple.

Home runs for Kingswood were hit by Stafford, Metts (3), Sizemore in the first game. In the second Cook and Harvey homered. Slidham of Red Mill homered in the second game.

PAR OR BETTER By JULIUS BOROS U.S. OPEN CHAMPION

8-Stance Varies

Where to play the ball between the feet baffles not a few. The distance between the feet and the position of the ball vary with the length and even the individual loft of the club. Using woods, I recommend playing the ball off a line just inside the left heel. Play the ball in the spot nearest that where your club will strike squarely at the time the arc of the swing reaches the lowest point. This will enable you to hit the ball squarely, instead of striking it while your club is arching downward or upward.

The ball is moved back as the clubs decrease in length. This makes the position of the ball compensate for shortening of the shafts, since the arc of the swing also becomes shorter. As the ball moves farther back toward the center of the feet and the club graduates downward in length, the feet move closer together to help maintain balance. The matter

BALANCE — When the ball moves farther back and the club graduates downward in length, Julius Boros' feet move closer together to help maintain balance.

King Troubled By Communist Accusations

United Press International
Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. currently is having a rash of difficulties defending his non-violent integration movement against accusations that it is being infiltrated by workers for world communism.

King calls this a smoke-screen by "segregationists and race baiters" to obscure and deflect the national move by Negroes for civil rights.

The latest incident on this score involves a rather mysterious figure known variously by four names but most often as Jack O'Dell. Two congressional committees have labeled him as part of the Communist setup in the United States. He has worked twice for King's Southern Christian Leadership Conference, mostly as a money raiser.

Following published reports last week that O'Dell still ran the New York office of SCLC, King summoned reporters to insist that O'Dell had left the employment of his organization "by mutual consent" in June.

This came despite a conflicting acknowledgement the same day from King's New York office that O'Dell still worked there as administrator. King said the discrepancy obviously was from confusion and not fact.

A spokesman for King later explained that O'Dell had dropped by the SCLC office on the day of inquiry but was not working there.

King credits the flurry of Communist charges to two Southern governors — Ross of Mississippi and George Wallace of Alabama — who testified before the Senate Commerce Committee against the proposed new civil rights bill.

Both held aloft a large newspaper photograph which they identified as a picture of King attending a meeting at the Highlander Folk School in Tennessee. They said this was a place frequented by Communist sympathizers.

King also defended the school, now defunct because of a revoked charter, saying he had nothing to be ashamed of for being there the one time he paid a visit.

But the problem still chases the nation's number one Negro civil rights chief. Currently, Georgia Atty. Gen. Eugene Cook has "invited" King to tell him all he knows. King has been defending himself and his movement against communism since his early days as a leader of the Montgomery, Ala., bus boycott. In his book on that episode, "Stride Toward Freedom," he relates how in 1949 he studied the Communist manifesto and the writings of Karl Marx in an effort to "try to understand the appeal of Communism for many people."

"I drew certain conclusions which have remained with me," King wrote. "I rejected their materialistic interpretation of history. Communism, avowedly secularistic and materialistic has no place for God . . . since for the Communist there is no divine government, no absolute moral order, there are no fixed, immutable principles. Consequently almost anything — force, violence, murder, lying — is a justifiable means to the end. This was abhorrent to me. Constructive ends can never give absolute moral justification to destructive means."

Marx Kim Guest
MOSCOW (UPI) — Frederic Longe, great grandson of Karl Marx, has arrived in Moscow as a guest of the Soviet Union of artists and the Karl Marx Museum, according to the Tass News Agency.

A BACKWARD GLANCE AT BEAUTY — Lanita Kent, of Ft. Girls from throughout the state will compete in the Cape Coral pageant—prelude to the "Miss USA" contest in Huntington, W. Va., Aug. 18-31. Winner of that event will represent the United States in the "Miss World" spectacle in London later this year.

Committees Recall Rail Union Leaders

WASHINGTON (UPI) — President Kennedy's proposal to let the Interstate Commerce Commission settle the strike-threatening dispute.

H. E. Gilbert, president of the Firemen and Enginemen's Union, charged Sunday that the railroads had refused to bargain. He said that if a nationwide strike occurred, it would be the railroads' fault.

Gilbert said that the unions had offered to eliminate 5,500 jobs in the next two years through retirement, but the railroads had not even replied to the offer.

In another weekend development, setting Chairman John O. Pastore, D-R. I., of the Senate Commerce Committee said that Kennedy had "no other alternative" but to ask Congress to let the ICC settle the dispute.

Chiefs of the five railroad brotherhoods were called to testify today before the House Commerce Committee on

Miami Plant Damaged By Dynamite Blast

MIAMI (UPI) — A dynamite explosion blew out all the doors and windows and caused extensive damage to materials early today at Cilmatrol Corp.

Police said there was no one in the building at the time the charge went off.

Authorities estimated about 10 pounds of dynamite was ignited on the floor of the large one-story concrete block building. Several swimming pool screen enclosures ready for delivery were damaged by the blast.

Police said the reason for the dynamiting was not apparent.

Stops Traffic

COMO, Italy (UPI) — Rail traffic between Milan and the Swiss frontier was interrupted for six hours Sunday when a bomb exploded and toppled a power line. There was no explanation for the blast.

Ruins Searched For More Quake Victims

SKOPJE, Yugoslavia (UPI) — Rescue crews today used French sound detection equipment to search the earthquake rubble of this city for possible survivors following Sunday's rescue of a couple trapped 55 hours.

Little hope was held out that others remained alive under the debris, but French disaster squads working with the Yugoslavs were using equipment of the type that located survivors buried in the 1960 earthquake in Agadir, Morocco, in which 12,000 died.

The toll of the quake that struck this city of 200,000 persons has been placed unofficially at 2,000. At least 1,000 bodies have been recovered and an equal number are feared buried.

A Belgian woman and her husband were brought alive from the ruins of the Macedonia Hotel Sunday after having been trapped under its shattered walls since the quake struck before dawn Friday.

The woman, identified as Mrs. Sissie or Suzzie Zanker, was reported in fair condition, but a witness who watched the rescue operation said her husband's leg had to be amputated.

The rescue of the couple was carried out after their voices were heard underneath the ruins.

Today, Yugoslavs who had lived and worked in the city when it was a model provincial capital were streaming out to find new homes. It was estimated that half the population of 200,000 had left. Some said they would settle permanently in other towns and try to start new. Others planned to return to rebuild their homes.

Korean Attacks Held Chinese Red Scheme To Stir Up Tensions

WASHINGTON (UPI) — U. S. officials said today the Communist killing of another American soldier in Korea appeared part of a deliberate campaign by Red China to raise tension in Asia and sabotage East-West cold war discussions.

They predicted stepped up Communist activity in the Indian border area and South Viet Nam, as well as Korea. It also was believed possible the Communist were preparing to increase artillery bombardment of the Chinese Nationalist islands of Quemoy and Matsu, just a few miles from the mainland.

Officials were angered by the killing early today of another U. S. soldier as a result of Red military forces penetrating United Nations territory south of the demilitarized zone in Korea.

The State Department was preparing another stiff public condemnation of the North Korean Communists for the action. They also planned to increase pressure for an early armistice commission meeting with the North Koreans to protest this affair, as well as the ambush slaying of two American soldiers just south of the truce line Monday.

U. S. officials said they were braced for a new round of Chinese Red harassments around the long border stretching from India through Southeast Asia and north to Korea.

Peking appears determined, U. S. officials said, to increase tension to show Communist China's bitterness at Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev's refusal to follow their "hard line" toward the United States.

The Chinese Communists, in the view of authorities here, also undoubtedly would like to poison the atmosphere and sabotage the limited nuclear test ban treaty just agreed upon by Russia, Britain and the United States.

The Peking regime already has blasted the pact as an American device to try to trick the Communists and said Red China would have nothing to do with it.

3rd American GI Killed By Korean Reds

SEOUL (UPI)—North Korean soldiers today killed their third American in two days in a sharp, hour-long clash six miles below the demilitarized zone dividing South Korea from Communist territory.

Two Communist and a South Korean also were killed. It was the deepest known penetration that North Korean soldiers have ever made into the U. S.-guarded sector of South Korea in the 10 years of uneasy truce.

A United Nations Command (UNC) spokesman said the battle broke out about 9 a. m. just north of Munsan-Ni, and that in order to reach the spot the North Koreans had to cross the demilitarized zone, travel through heavily patrolled areas and ford the Imjin River.

Two North Koreans and a South Korean policeman were killed in the gun-and-grenade exchange, after a South Korean civilian tipped off authorities to the presence of the Communists, it was announced.

The identity of the fatally wounded American was not disclosed immediately.

'Freedom Swap' With Cuba Asked

WASHINGTON (UPI) — A congressman from Alabama has suggested a "freedom exchange" in which 58 U. S. students visiting Cuba would stay there in exchange for an equal number of Cubans who want to leave the island.

Rep. Armistead Selden, (D-Ala.), said his proposal was "even more appropriate" than action by the State Department which said it was suspending passports of the students who took round about routes to Cuba in defiance of a State Department warning that they were prohibited from going there.

"If Cuba today is indeed the island paradise for democracy that these 58 have proclaimed in Castro-sponsored propaganda announcements," Selden said, "there is really no reason to anticipate that they would return to the United States." (See story on Page 2).

Chanel Holds To Classic Lines For 1963-64

PARIS (UPI) — Followers of Gabrielle Coco Chanel still can wear their old suits. The designer did not change her classic lines in her 1963-64 collection.

The Chanel presentation Monday marked the end of press showings for fall and winter clothes. However, Hubert Givenchy and Cristobal Balenciaga, regarded as two of the most influential designers in Paris, show to buyers only Wednesday and Thursday.

Chanel, called "The Eternal" in Paris, did not disappoint her fans, including the many French women who follow only her style.

CD Budget 'Kicked Around' By Board

County Commissioners were non-committal in their called discussion meeting with Civil Defense officials, Monday, after hearing what various members of the CD council had to say.

Commissioners called the meeting to "kick it around" after CD Director A. B. Peterson, Sr., dumped plans for next year's budget squarely in their laps, refusing even to present a tentative budget until Commissioners "decide how far you want to go and how much you are willing to pay for civil defense of the county."

Director Peterson reiterated that he will "carry out whatever plans the commissioners request, but he must know what you wish to do and what kind of program you want to undertake."

Civil defense readiness was likened to an insurance policy by Director Peterson in an interview with a Herald reporter today. "You hope you won't need it, but if you do need it, you need it bad and you need it immediately."

Commissioners asked for the opinions of the various members of the council on whether the civil defense system should be maintained as a protection against natural disasters (such as hurricanes, floods, etc.), or whether it should be expanded to include the warning system and shelters necessary for a man-made disaster.

Meeting with the commission in discussion were Mayor Fred Heath of Casselberry; Mayor W. W. Anderson of Orlando; Mayor Lee Gary of Oviedo (also a commissioner); Councilman Arthur Fernin of N. Orlando; Sheriff J. L. Hobby; School Superintendent R. T. Miller; Chief of Police Roy Williams, S. O. Chase, Jr. and Al Case, chief of radio communications for Civil Defense.

Not present were Mayor Lawrence Swafford, Al Lorman and Tom McDonald, Judge Vernon Mize and County Clerk Arthur Beckwith, Jr. Last year, Commissioners budgeted $3,200 for Civil Defense, an increase of $200 over the previous year's allowance.

Under this budget the CD Department has carried out classes in personal survival, radiological monitoring and mass feeding, and "tons of paperwork" necessary to maintain accreditation for state help in an emergency.

Mathews, On Tour, Confers With Adams

TALLAHASSEE (UPI) — he is elected, shall hold an office which was created or the salary raised during his term.

Mathews, whose senate terms runs until November, 1966, was a member of the 1963 legislature which raised the salary of the governor to $25,000.

Mathews stopped in Tallahassee on the way to Pensacola where he is scheduled to arrive tomorrow morning and meet with the GOP Club to discuss the gubernatorial race.

Mathews has said he will make an announcement "one way or the other" Aug. 1, and adds to the Secretary of State say Adams might consider jumping into the race should Mathews decide not to run.

Adams has maintained since his election that he is not a potential candidate for anything but reelection as secretary of state. But here lately, his friends and co-workers have indicated he may have changed his mind.

Adams would probably support Mathews should he throw his hat in the ring.

Mathews told UPI today that he will make a decision by Aug. 1 "either to run or not to run."

If he decides to run he said he will immediately file a suit in the courts to determine his eligibility to make the race. Question about his eligibility arises from the state law that provides that no member of the legislature during the term for which

Phone Strike Talks Halted

TAMPA (UPI) — Both sides shunned the negotiating table again today in the General Telephone strike as workmen struggled to restore telephone service to 55,000 customers in Hillsborough County.

The 26-day-old strike has been spotted with vandalism to equipment and cable cuttings over the six-county area which General serves.

Federal mediators stood by today in case either General officials or representatives of Local 824 of the International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers, AFL-CIO, changed their minds over talks.

The company has demanded that the strike be settled by negotiations, and flatly rejected arbitration, favored by the union.

Dick Buckingham, director of public relations for General, said Monday that increased sabotage over the weekend had a total of 60,000 telephones out in the six counties.

He said 55,000 of these were in Hillsborough and represented half of General's customers in the county.

Outsiders' Game Raid Seen As Army 'SOP'

Editorial Comment: "SOP" is a time-worn phrase in the U. S. Army. It means, "standard order of procedure." In other words, once a procedure is established, never change it.

The Herald has dug deep in its endeavors to learn why the federal government ignored the Seminole County sheriff's department in that bolita raid last Saturday. The Herald has talked with the governor's press officer, the Seminole County legislative delegation, the County Commission chairman, Sheriff J. L. Hobby, Police Chief Roy Williams, and tried to contact the state attorney, Arthur L. Steed.

However, all the statements forthcoming from those mentioned above did not bear the fruit of the question as did statements from two Army reserve officers well versed in the operations of federal law enforcement agencies. And, succinctly, this is the gist of their joint opinions:

"Federal law enforcement officers do not and will not request small county agencies to co-operate, in fear of a 'leak' to those they seek to arrest. It is perfectly in character with the way federal agents operate."

In other words, this is "standard order of procedure" with federal agents throughout the United States. And it is no reflection on the Seminole County sheriff's department.

Yet, The Herald still questions: This bolita operation supposedly commenced in Orlando and Orange County and spread to Seminole County. So, why did the federal agent, Don Derry, trust the Orlando police and Orange county sheriff's department?

Sheriff Hobby today, at first saying he had no statement, read a letter dated Jan. 19, 1962, addressed to the Florida Sheriff's Bureau in which he outlined the base of these bolita operations at Lake Apopka. And the letter further requested the co-operation of the Florida Sheriff's Bureau since he does not have the money and manpower for extensive investigative operations.

Sen. Mack N. Cleveland Jr. today said "I understand Sheriff Hobby did extend jurisdiction and cooperation to the federal agency and Orange County."

Rep. S. J. Davis Jr. expressed himself as "embarrassed as a citizen and state representative at the extent of gambling operations and known figures now apparently moving into this county with their base of operations. Illegal gambling breeds crime and corruption." However, Davis had no comment as to why, he believed, the federal agency ignored Seminole County.

Rep. Jan Fortune, like Davis, had a lengthy statement against illegal gambling but no comment as to why Seminole County was ignored. He did say Monday's Herald front-page editorial raised a good question and he added that it "is logical and legal in the interest of good law enforcement to retain areas of jurisdiction and communication." He said he did believe that the Seminole County sheriff's department was fully coordinated and properly advised of the pending raid.

Sheriff Hobby has twice said he knew of the pending raid "but not when."

The Herald now is of the belief that Sheriff Hobby and his department were fully cognizant of the investigation, were fully co-operating, were supplying information to the federal investigators—but were kept in ignorance of the timing of the raid. In effect, The Herald feels that these federal agents "pulled a boo-boo" in not briefing Sheriff Hobby . . . much to his embarrassment.

The Herald now asks the federal agent, Don Derry, why Sheriff Hobby was subjected to embarrassment and why he was not requested to furnish men to co-operate in the raid? This editorial will be sent today to Mr. Derry for his written reply, for Wednesday's edition.

Plane Salvage Work Slated

MIAHI (UPI)—A Dominican Republic ship planned to begin salvage operations today on a submerged plane wrecked off the northeast coast of Hispaniola.

It was believed the wreckage might be from a small plane missing since Thursday on a flight from San Juan, P. R. to Fort Lauderdale with two men aboard.

Aboard the missing plane were pilot Gilbert Miralla of San Juan and Victor Gonzalez. They were flying to Fort Lauderdale for delivery to Robert Reuben of Bowlett.

A Dominican plane reported yesterday seeing two men on a raft about 100 miles from the plane wreckage, but a closer look revealed it to be only a patch of seaweed.

Aviation Study Panel Completed

TALLAHASSEE (UPI) — Reps. Louis de la Parte of Hillsborough County and James H. Pruitt of Brevard were named to the Florida Aviation Control and Study Commission Monday by House Speaker Mallory Horne.

The naming of the two men completed membership of the commission which will study means of improving air travel and safety in Florida.

Sens. Bernard Parrish of Titusville and D. D. Covington of Dade City were named to the committee earlier along with two lay members.
