

CHRISTMAS PARCELS TO AMERICAN TROOPS GOVERNMENT REGULATIONS

RULES TO BE OBSERVED BY HOME FOLKS.

Regulations governing the shipment of Christmas parcels to soldiers overseas by relatives in this country have just been completed...

The Navy Department has an elaborate arrangement to enable men in that branch of the service on duty abroad to obtain holiday boxes.

Relatives and friends who are soldiers in the war zones as merry as conditions will permit should bear in mind that each soldier is entitled to but one of these packages.

The men themselves will decide who is to send these parcels. They are now receiving Christmas parcel labels with instructions to mail these labels to the person in this country from whom they wish to receive the holiday box.

The Red Cross has agreed to supervise the distribution to relatives of the soldiers who present the proper Christmas parcel label credentials.

The following is the outline of the procedure to be followed by persons planning to send one of these parcels abroad.

On receiving one of these Christmas parcel labels it should be presented at the nearest chapter, branch or auxiliary headquarters of the Red Cross where the holder will receive a carton.

These boxes may be filled with any combination of articles except those on the list barred by the postal authorities. The articles are prohibited: Intoxicating liquors, inflammable material, including friction matches and any composition likely to ignite or explode.

Do not put anything in the package which will not keep fresh until Christmas.

products in small tin or wooden boxes.

Give preference to hard candy over chocolates, unless the latter are well packed.

Soft chocolates are easily crushed and may spoil the other contents.

Do not put articles packed in glass in the package.

Gifts should be wrapped in khaki-colored handkerchiefs twenty-seven inches square.

When the package has been packed it should be taken, unwrapped and unsealed, together with the label and sufficient stamps to the nearest collection centre designated by the Red Cross.

The Navy Department has issued the following instructions regarding the shipping of Christmas packages to sailors in home waters and abroad.

Packages forwarded by parcels post for men in the navy must comply with the postal regulations, and should be included in substantial boxes with hinges or screw top cover to facilitate opening and inspecting.

All boxes shipped by express are limited to twenty pounds in weight, should measure not more than two cubic feet in volume, be of wood, well strapped and have a hinge or screw top to facilitate opening and inspecting.

All mail matter should be addressed as now prescribed by the postal regulations. All express packages should be forwarded in care of Supply Officer, Fleet Supply Base, Twenty-Ninth Street and Third Avenue, South Brooklyn, N. Y.

No perishable food product other than those enclosed in cans or glass jars should be packed in parcel post or express shipments.

All packages must be plainly marked with the name and address of the sender, together with a notation indicating the nature of the contents, such as "Christmas box" or "Christmas present."

The Supply Officer at New York will cause each express package to be opened and carefully examined to see that nothing of an explosive or other dangerous character is forwarded.

The shipment of Christmas packages for United States naval vessels abroad should be made so as to reach New York as early as possible, and not later than Nov. 15.

DRASTIC REGULATION ON FOOD

ADMINISTRATION ISSUES NEW ORDER FOR OCTOBER.

Washington, Oct. 14.—To aid in fulfilling the promise of the United States to send the allies seventeen and a half million tons of food this year, the food administration tonight announced twelve general orders to be observed by all public eating places beginning October 21.

The regulations, considered among the most rigid ever issued by the food administration, will effect every hotel restaurant, cafe club and dining car service in the country and such eating places approximately 9,000,000 persons.

For failure to obey the orders, which prescribe limitations on the quantities and kinds of foods to be served, the penalties of the food control act will be invoked. The purpose of the restrictions, according to a statement by the food administration, is "to carry out a direct reduction in the consumption of all foods, particularly staples, rather than a series of emergency regulations such as a meatless and wheatless days and meals, and the substitution of one food for another."

The orders specifically provide that beginning October 21 public eating places shall not serve any bread or bakery products containing less than 20 per cent of wheat flour substitutes. Of bread containing at least 20 per cent substitutes, not more than two ounces may be served at one meal, and of corn and mixed breads not more than four ounces at a single meal will be permitted to be served.

Sugar bowls, according to the regulations must not be placed on the table and no sugar will be served unless requested by the guest.

MEANTIME GERMANY IS BEING BRATEN EVERYWHERE.

Washington, Oct. 14.—Great events were moving swiftly today behind the veil of diplomatic secrecy, toward the formulation of President Wilson's next move in answer to Germany's peace plea.

There still was no official to guide the public mind toward what the president is considering but the idea that there could be no armistice without guarantees which in themselves would constitute an unconditional surrender, gain strength everywhere.

Apparently it reflected the state of mind of the country and there were unmistakable signs that the foreign offices of Great Britain, France and Italy had determined that there be no development which will give the German armies breathing spell.

War News Summary

German forces have abandoned Laon and the whole St. Gobain region. The French, after recouping Laon, have pressed on until their line now runs from the Oise, above La Fere, to the eastern end of the Chemin des Dames.

When the Germans began to fall back out of the bag in which they were being slowly caught by the rapid advance of the allies on each side, they went with such speed that the change in the battle line in that section of the front during a few hours was astonishing. Not until the French reached the Laon-La Fere railroad did they encounter any real resistance.

Italian troops participated in the advance and are now in the hills of the Ailette river, where the Germans have been pressed back or withdrawn where a sharp angle has been created. With the exception of the area of Douai, there appears to have been a slowing down of the allied advance during the past couple of days. At no point have the British and Americans swept ahead as they did Thursday and Friday last week.

This may indicate that the Germans have reached what is known as the Hindenburg or Bronhill line. This position, while much less formidable so far as is known, than the Hindenburg system, is still strong enough perhaps to hold them up for a time. The Hindenburg runs from Thionville to Ghent and thence to Thouron, Conde, Valenciennes, Comines, Guise, Bethel, Vouziers, Dun-Sur-Meuse and then down the base of St. Mihiel salient to the Moselle, where it joins the old front running through Lorraine and the Vosages to the Swiss frontier.

British units are reported at Solesmes, while the French further south, are within 100 miles of Cambrai beyond the Cambrai-St. Quentin line.

In the Champagne Gen. Berthelot is less than five miles from Bethel, while Gen. Gouraud has taken Vouziers. He has not penetrated much beyond that place. Americans fighting in the Argonne region are the Kreemhild line, but their progress is slow.

Study of the tactics by the Germans during the past week shows they are following the methods of the retreat used in the Marne and Somme salients in July and August. They have held their flanks fairly secure and withdrawn their rear center. They have thus apparently escaped from the allied grasp.

In the region of Douai the allies are fighting their way forward and will soon have the Germans beyond the Valenciennes river.

The Italians have captured Kavaya a town southeast of Durazzo.

All sheriffs, deputy sheriffs, marshals, constables and other peace officers are ex-officio game wardens and may be called on to enforce the game laws and make arrests for violations.

DON'T FORGET that where the state laws conflict with the federal regulations protecting migratory birds, the federal regulations take precedence.

Secretary Baker Says The Boys Are Watching Us.

Washington, Oct. 14.—Secretary Baker, after a trip to the front in France, and a visit to the allied capitals, arrived today at an Atlantic port and reached Washington tonight. John D. Ryan, director of aircraft production, also returned. Surgeon-General Gorgas, another member of the party remained in France.

Secretary Baker returned from the western front today with the message that the liberty loan "must go over the top," whatever the result of peace proposals. This was the only opinion the secretary would make on the peace overtures. His own explanation of his trip shows that it was taken to pave the way for war on a greater scale.

"The army has done and is doing all that a proud and grateful country could ask," Mr. Baker said, on reaching Washington tonight. "and the time has come for us to put in every ounce of our strength to assure its complete victory. The people at home have a solemn responsibility for their share in the final result."

"The liberty loan must go over the top." Its success is both our message of gratitude to the boys who are braving war's worst perils in defense of our liberties, and a message to Germany that our people at home are as resolute as our soldiers are brave.

"Whatever the result of the peace proposals, the war department must proceed at full speed with men and supplies, and the people must support the army until the boys are back with the fruits of victory safe and assured. If every American could have seen our boys in khaki as they stormed the German trenches, assailed with shrapnel, high explosives, and machine guns, he would be eager to subscribe his all to the liberty loan, the success of which, after all, is the measure of our support of the cause for which these boys are giving their lives."

This is what Mr. Baker says. The home folk say that every name of the man who subscribes and the amount subscribed will appear in this space of the Herald Friday. And in Tuesday the name of those who do not subscribe and who could subscribe more and have not done it will appear.

This is not done to browbeat any one into loaning their money to the government but is to keep a complete record to show the boys over there when they come back home just who has been the slacker and the ones that have failed to loan their money to the government in order that the boys over there could be equipped in the proper manner. And remember that those boys will know about it and will remember it. The people in Seminole County who have money and can easily loan it to the government have not taken the amount of bonds that they can take and their names are known and they are to be published that others may know them. Remember that your name will be written there.

The influenza and the peace talk is slowing up the drive and you people who are standing back are helping the Germans, helping them just as surely as the influenza and the peace talk is helping them and the boys "over there" will find you out.

Xmas Boxes for the Boys Overseas

Plans are being perfected by the War Department, the postal authorities and the American Red Cross along with the men in the American Expeditionary Forces will be provided with Christmas packages, though the limit will be one parcel to each man. Coupons are being distributed by the Army authorities to their relatives and friends, and no parcel will be received by the postoffice without this label which authorizes its shipment.

The contents of the packages will be supplied by the families, but the Red Cross will furnish standard cartons, as all packages must be of the same size and weight, and will inspect, wrap and deliver inspected parcels to the postal authorities.

The order for these cartons has already been placed, and they will be delivered the latter part of October in time to be distributed to Chapters. No cartons will be given out until the labels arrive from abroad, and complete details will be sent to all Red Cross Chapters as soon as the final arrangements are completed by the War Department and the postoffice.

Relatives are urged to send the names of their boys overseas, to the Chapter secretary, Mrs. R. A. Terhoun at once, that a sufficient number of boxes may be ordered.

soon as attaining his majority took the initial step that leads toward the rising sun, and by diligent study has become a member of all the concordant orders of Freemasonry.

In addition to taking an active part in the ceremonies Bro. Householder delivered a splendid address, elucidating the close ties that exist between Freemasonry, the Church and the Home.

Mr. and Mrs. Forest Lake have just received a telegram announcing the death of Mr. Lake's nephew, Lt. Thos. D. Lake, of Laurens, South Carolina. Lt. Lake was in the thick of the fighting on the Argonne salient and was leading his men when he was killed.

Dr. H. G. Bystra of Brookville has been interested in the cane question for some time and is now engaged in the introduction of a new variety of Japanese cane which has given entire satisfaction to him. In DeLand they call it "hayfever," in Sanford it is dubbed "spit," Miami-ans have termed it "influenza," down at Tampa it's "du," while in Orlando it is the plain old la grippe.

GERMAN CAMOUFLAGE

That the Fourth Liberty Loan campaign is slowing down in a way that threatens its complete success is evident. That its failure, if only partial, would be the greatest encouragement the bloody-minded kaiser could have in his hour of deepest gloom goes without saying.

The reasons for its apparent slackening are apparent to the most careless observer and are two in number. The first is, the widespread epidemic sweeping over all the land. When a man is sick, almost unto death, it is difficult to fix his attention on earthly things, and the American nation is sick today with a sickness that demands its undivided attention.

The second reason is more dangerous because it is insidious. The result of German propaganda is the why answer and his counter-argument. The German propaganda is the why answer and his counter-argument. The German propaganda is the why answer and his counter-argument.

The war must go on, the men in the fighting line demand it, the people of the whole country demand it and stand solidly, without reference to party lines, back of the President.

It must go on until she has been made to pay to the uttermost farthing of her ability for her enormous sins. She must pay in the blood of her sons, and the wealth of her people.

THE GREAT ADVENTURE

It is under this caption that Col. Roosevelt in the October issue of the Metropolitan Magazine writes an editorial which is credited with being the greatest message he has ever written.

"Only those are fit to live," he writes, "who do not fear to die; and none are fit to die who have shrunk from the joy of life and the duty of life."

As a word of consolation to those of Seminole county who have given their sons to this great cause we reproduce this message. In part it reads:

"Both life and death are parts of the same Great Adventure. Never yet was worthy adventure worthily carried through by the man who put in personal safety first. Never yet was a country worth living in unless its sons and daughters were of that stern stuff which bade them die for it at need—and never yet was a country worth dying for unless its sons and daughters thought of life not as something concerned only with the selfish evanescence of the individual, but as a link in the great chain of creation and causation, so that each person is seen in his true relations as an essential part of the whole, whose life must be made to serve the larger and continuing life of the whole. Therefore it is the man who is not willing to die, and the woman who is not willing to send her son to die, in a war for a great cause are not worthy to live. Therefore it is that the man and woman who in peace time fear or ignore the primary and vital duties and the high happiness of family life, who dare not beget and bear and rear the life that is to last when they are in their graves, have broken the chain of creation, and have shown that they are unfit for companionship with the souls ready for the Great Adventure."

BOY RAN DOWN BY AUTO

Little Farley Youngster Ruined For Life By Dairy Car.

Little Victor Farley, the ten-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Farley was ruined for life by being run over by the Fitts dairy delivery auto on Park Avenue last Friday afternoon. The little Farley child together with several playmates was playing some kind of a marble game near the side of the road as the car came down the hill toward town and being driven by little Billy Fitts. It seems that he did not see the boys along the road or thought they would get off the road. They did not see him and although he shouted when near them the Farley boy could not get away from the car and he was caught in the wheels in some manner after the car had struck him in the head and dragged for a distance.

All the right side of his face was torn to shreds and his right ear torn completely off. His shoulder blade was broken, his collar bone broken, his head injured, and he was injured internally and bruised all over the body. He was unconscious all over the body. He was unconscious all over the body. He was unconscious all over the body.

Woman's Liberty Loan Committee Urges Workers to Continue

The following telegram was received by the chairman of the Woman's Liberty Loan Committee of Seminole County on Saturday morning.

The president has called on the nation to oversubscribe the loan as imperative measure toward certain and complete victory. National Woman's Liberty Loan Committee appreciating all you have done already, calls upon you to take that measure home to your community.

spirit will in the long run avail nothing unless in the years of peace the average man and the average woman of the duty performing type realize that the highest of all duties, the one essential duty, is the duty of perpetuating the family life, based on the mutual love and respect of the one man and the one woman and on their purpose to rear the healthy and fine souled children whose coming into life means that the family, and therefore the nation shall continue in life and shall not end in a sterile death.

Unless we are willing to fight and die for great ideals including love of country, ideals will vanish, and the world will become one huge sty of materialism. And unless the women of ideals bring forth the men who are ready thus to live and die, the world of the future will be filled by the spawn of the unfit.

Woman's Liberty Loan Committee Urges Workers to Continue

The following telegram was received by the chairman of the Woman's Liberty Loan Committee of Seminole County on Saturday morning.

The president has called on the nation to oversubscribe the loan as imperative measure toward certain and complete victory.

The Chairman immediately called up all the Liberty loan workers of the community and county to make one big effort in the next six days to secure the quota given the Woman's committee, $84,500.

The women of Sanford and Seminole county have worked hard the past two weeks, harder than in any previous Liberty Loan drive and with fewer bonds to their credit.

Seminole county and Sanford have always responded to every call has ever said "We accept our quota, and will go over the top."

Every man and woman who has already bought a bond must buy one more, no matter what the sacrifice. Those who are more fortu-

GAS

Gas in warfare is a terrible thing. Our Allies have learned how to overcome it. The Hun was balked in this brutal form of fighting when the first gas mask was made.

It costs money to run factories to make gas masks and gas shells. Lend your money to the Government so that it may protect our boys from the dangers of poison gas.

We need ships. We are building them every day; building food ships and war ships; but building ships is expensive.

Simple Remedy Said to Be Pneumonia Cure

Described as the "cure for pneumonia" a Jacksonville woman has sent the following remedy to the Times-Union and asks that it be published. She says that it has never failed to cure.

Take 6 or 8 onions, according to size, and chop fine; put in a large pot over a hot fire; then add some butter, a little of eye meal and vinegar. Stir until it forms a thick paste, in the morning stir it thoroughly, let it simmer five or ten minutes. Put in a cotton bag large enough to cover the lungs and apply to the chest as patient can bear.

RESOLUTIONS Arthur Dewey Lossing Adopted by Seminole County Guards: Whereas Arthur Dewey Lossing, a duly enlisted member of the Seminole County Guard early in the year of 1918 saw it his duty to join the United States Army to do what he might, in order that the foe of the United States and of all the civilized world should be crushed, and Whereas Arthur Dewey Lossing did enlist in the United States Army and in due course of time was sent, with other Loyal Americans to join the American Expeditionary Forces in France, there to battle for his flag and for the principles which it represents, and to die if need be that Freedom and Democracy should forever live, and Whereas Arthur Dewey Lossing did battle in the war torn country of France; and did while executing his orders and duty receive wounds, he having both legs broken by falling shells, and Whereas God in His infinite mercy has seen fit that Arthur Dewey Lossing should answer the greater call of Heaven, Arthur Dewey Lossing having passed from this life of sorrow and suffering on August 25th, 1918, and Whereas The Seminole County Guard feels deeply, both as officers

Whereas The Seminole County Guards, while deeply deploring the untimely calling of the noble and gallant young soldier, is nevertheless proud that its first organization furnished the first Seminole soldier to make the supreme sacrifice, and

RESOLUTIONS

Whereas, the First Baptist Church of Sanford, Fla. has been called upon, in the providence of God, to suffer the loss of our esteemed young brother, Arthur Dewey Lossing, whose death occurred on August 25th in France, as the result of wounds received while in the performance of his military duties, and Whereas, realizing his worth to us as an officer in several of the departments of our work, and in appreciation of his zeal and devotion in the discharge of the duties that were assigned him, and remembering the charm and vigor of his personality as a consecrated Christian, we feel a deep sense of our loss in his death, therefore

Be it Resolved 1st. That we bow our heads and hearts to our Heavenly Father whose thoughts are higher than our thoughts and whose will, though now we understand it not, worketh only good to his true children;

2nd. That we will evermore recall with pride the fact that our young brother in wearing the uniform of the country, captured the flag and was not, at last, afraid to die.

3rd. That we place the gold star to his memory on our service flag, it will be a perpetual reminder of his heroic sacrifice for the people that he loved and will inspire us to dedicate our lives to the lofty principles that he cherished.

4th. That we offer to the parents and family our tender sympathy and earnest prayer that the God of all grace will establish their hearts and console them in their grief, and enable them to rejoice that for a suffering world they were able to give their best.

5th. That these resolutions be inscribed in our minutes as a memorial, that a copy be furnished the bereaved family, and that a copy be furnished the Sanford Herald for publication. Adopted by the Church, October 6, 1918.

Crowder Is Patriotic H. B. Crowder, the enterprising merchant, could not find time to make a canvass for buyers of Liberty Bonds, but conceived the idea of taking a page in the Herald setting forth the advantages of the great government securities and his page in Friday's Herald told the story in no uncertain terms.

Mr. Crowder was willing to spend this money for the government and for the advancing of the cause, and his whole hearted response to the call of his country in this time of need is appreciated by the people of this city and by the government.

Mr. Crowder has lately placed a magnificent stock of goods in his store and while it is not thought wise to hold a sale while the epidemic is on, he wishes to invite the people to come in and inspect the fine new stock of ladies ready-to-wear goods and dress goods and many other items that will please the eye of the ladies and gentlemen.

FOURTH LIBERTY LOAN MUST GO OVER NOW.

Washington, Oct. 17.—Reports on Liberty Loan subscriptions gathered shortly before noon today by the treasury department indicate that the day's subscriptions probably will bring the total up to $3,600,000,000 leaving $2,400,000,000 to be raised during the remaining two days of the campaign.

The treasury now feels justified in predicting that the number of individual subscribers to the Fourth Liberty Loan will greatly exceed the third loan's record of 18,300,000 buyers.

The $2,400,000,000 yet to be raised will be reduced somewhat, campaign managers explained, by reports now on the way to federal reserve banks in any case, however, said the headquarters loan statement, the task remaining is the most gigantic requirement ever placed on the nation.

One billion dollars a day is the approximate figure necessary to assure the success of the Fourth Liberty Loan subscribed only $3,249,001,500 additional tabulation early today and for three days remain, in which to reach the desired goal. The coming three days must determine whether the Fourth Liberty Loan will be a success or failure, said Secretary McAdoo. It would be idle to minimize the nation's need.

The total tabulated Saturday at 11 o'clock of the campaign must be at least $4,500,000,000, officials said. If the loan is to be fully subscribed. Related subscriptions and tabulations on the basis of previous loans may be counted upon to add a million dollars to the total, but it is emphasized that today and tomorrow are vital days for the campaign.

Coincident with the report that German prisoners in this country are buying Liberty Bonds, news came from France that when captured Germans and their captors were advised that the Germans invest in Liberty Bonds.

Seminole county can be depended upon to raise her quota if the people will come in today and tomorrow and put down their money for the bonds.

That they know they should do so, the "flu" and the rainy season has showed up the active side of the Seminoles, but now the flu is passing, and the weather is clearing, every patriot should come forward before the Kaiser does. Seminoles go over the top every day.

It is a simple affair. Besides the barrels of "buck," he had one 1-gal can and one carbon can holding about 20 gallons. The buck was placed in these cans and a fire built under them. A piece of half inch pipe about 7 feet long was bent, with one end fitted into the top of the can. The bent pipe was partly immersed in water and led to another can into which the condensed steam from the buck dropped.

The brew is said to have had a real kick and that one drink of it would cause a jack-rabbit to spit in a bull-dog's face.—DeLand News.

Holy Cross Church.

During the period of suspended public services, the Rector will be in the Church this coming Sunday morning at the usual hour, 7:30 A. The Rector is glad to respond to any call from anyone for whatever assistance he can render, either spiritually or materially. Phone 350.

No Military Funerals.

The officers of Seminole Guards wish it to be made known that owing to the epidemic of influenza no military funerals will be attended by the Guards unless especially requested by the families or unless the deceased is a former member of the Guards in which case a squad can attend the funeral. This is in accordance with the present regulations regarding the attendance on funerals.

Joe Laing has gone to Paris Island, South Carolina where he is now one of the U. S. Marine Corps.

Teachers Are Underpaid.

Prof. F. A. Hathaway formerly principal of the Orlando schools and now superintendent of public instruction of Duval county says:

That the people will at the polls in November approve the proposed Constitutional Amendment, raising the maximum levy of taxes for the support of the common schools from seven to ten mills, there seems little doubt.

In the past, the people have not declined to vote in favor of an increase in school revenues. The Constitution adopted in 1885 provided for three mills. It was later amended raising the maximum to five mills and again to seven—the present maximum.

It is now proposed to raise again, and this time to ten mills. And there is really no argument against this Amendment. All are agreed that teachers are underpaid; and everyone knows that the only way to raise the necessary funds to pay the teachers adequately is by taxation. There is no relief in holding School Boards for failing to pay teachers living wages! They cannot pay out more money than the assessment and millage give them.

I have not met a man or woman who believes that teachers receive anything like the salary that should be paid them. The remedy for this too long neglected condition is plain and easy. The solution of the problem is simple. By your vote make it possible to raise more revenue; and then the teachers will receive at the hands of the school boards more pay.

If you are sincere, and in favor of teachers' being paid a decent salary, prove your good faith by voting your convictions at the November election and cease the attempt to shift the onus upon the School Boards and Superintendents.

Still At Osteen.

On Tuesday Sheriff Morris and deputies captured and filed still at Osteen, including two barrels of "buck," one barrel of which was ready to run and the other just "bbling" to be "biled."

William Woodward, of Osteen, a white man, was arrested on the charge of being the illicit distiller Woodward was convicted several years ago of burning T. L. Osteen's store and was sentenced to serve 20 months in the State penitentiary.

His booze outfit was a very simple affair. Besides the barrels of "buck," he had one 1-gal can and one carbon can holding about 20 gallons. The buck was placed in these cans and a fire built under them. A piece of half inch pipe about 7 feet long was bent, with one end fitted into the top of the can. The bent pipe was partly immersed in water and led to another can into which the condensed steam from the buck dropped.

Will Call Older Ones.

Washington, Oct. 16.—Draft calls for men who have passed their 37th birthday are expected to begin about March 1. Plans for bringing the older class of new registrants into camp have not been completed, but the approximate date of the first call was disclosed today by publication of testimony by Provost Marshall General Crowder before the house military committee.

In all, Gen. Crowder told the committee, 2,399,000 newly registered men between 18 and 45 will be called before July 1, and of that number more than 2,000,000 will be fit for fighting men. The calls for general service men will be divided as follows: October, 445,000; November, 204,000; December, 197,000; January, 147,500; February, 244,000; March, April, May and June, each month. These men will supply both the army and the navy and marine corps. In addition 20,000 men for limited service will be called each month. Crowder said the new work of classifying new registrants should be completed by Jan. 1.

UNIVERSITY OF FLORIDA ARMY BOYS

WRITE ARTICLES ON THE PEACE MOVE.

The boys of the Students Army Corps at the University of Florida are asked to write articles on the peace move and just now especially on the peace movement that Germany is trying to put over. The students get a better insight into the causes of the war and the kind of fighting they are expected to do when they become officers. These articles are published in the home papers and the following article from Clifford Walker will be interesting:

Gainesville, Fla., Oct. 15, 1918.
Mr. R. J. Holly,
Editor Sanford Herald,
Sanford, Fla.
Dear Sir:

The following is my idea of why Germany wants an armistice with the Allies at the present time.

Germany started the greatest war in history in 1914 and tried to put the blame of it on Russia, claiming that Russia compelled Germany to mobilize to protect herself. This was a pretext to make the world believe that Germany wanted peace.

The German Army and Navy has been preparing for the present war ever since the Franco-Prussian war. That war was profitable to Germany and she believed she could repeat her success. The Allies were not as well prepared as Germany at the start of the war, and consequently Germany had the best of the fight for a time, and has been able to hold off almost the entire world for four years. The Allies now seem to have the upper hand, and Germany is crying for peace. She states that the present German Government is willing to subscribe to President Wilson's peace terms, but she does not state what constitutes the present German government. Germany's armies are in retreat on the Western Front, and Germans would like to get their troops out of Russia to strengthen it, but she can hardly do that without openly admitting defeat. Germany wants an armistice so she can get her troops out of France and Belgium, and get out her guns and military stores also. She says she will get out of Belgium and France, but she does not say she will give any guarantee that she will then her troops, and we know how she treats the prisoners she gets over seas. If it is her interest to break them, she does not hesitate to do so.

If Germany really wants peace, let her prove it by leaving all military equipment where it is now, and march back to German territory unarmed. Let her bring all her U-boats to the surface, open the hatches and put the entire fleet under the arms of the Allied fleet. If she will do this, then we will know she is sincere in her peace efforts. We need some act, not a treaty or promise, to prove that Germany will do as she says she will.

C. L. Walker.

HOME CARD DISTRIBUTED ONE WEEK

CONSERVATION SUNDAY WILL BE OBSERVED.

Food Administrator Hoover has called upon the American people to set aside October 27th as Conservation Sunday. During that week there will be distributed to each home in the United States a new home card, indicating the 1918-1919 program for food conservation. In order that the important features of this vital program be presented, Mr. Hoover has prepared a message to be read in all the churches on October 27th, and in addition has requested that all denominations observe this day with a conservation service.

When the interallied food council was held last summer, the needs of the allies were computed and the resources from which they could be met were reckoned. Corrected as the returns from the harvest were ascertained and the shipping possibilities were developed, the schedules show that America must this coming year send for our armed forces and the Allies half as much again of food supplies as last year. In place of eleven and three-quarter million tons the shipments this year will be seventeen and one-half tons. We are pledged to send fifty per cent of our food and from substantially the same stocks as last year there must be increased conservation to accomplish the result. The interallied council was told that whatever the war-food program of the Allies requires we will endeavor to meet. This is an obligation measured in the terms of human life that rests on every American.

The new program is less specific but no less definite than that of the last twelve months. Then the Food Administration was meeting one emergency after another as it rose. This year it will be a long, steady pull directed to the white-front situation and not so much to particular commodities. After a year's experience the Food Administration is on a new footing and the old methods have been revised. The war conscience is active everywhere. The spirit which will carry this effort through to another triumph is alone the same, yet intensified by the year of anxiety and brightened hopes.

Mr. Hoover's message (see Conservation Sunday) will be distributed to the clergy through the organization of the Federal Food Administration in each State. Distribution of the Hoover's message to churches of Florida will be handled by County Chairmen of Conservation acting directly under Mrs. J. T. Fuller, Director of Organization and Appeal, at Orlando, Fla. Mrs. Fuller, in cooperation with J. H. Whitney, Director of Education, will furnish copies of the message to all clergymen who make requests, and will also send sufficient copies to women Chairmen in the respective counties to supply all churches. The "message" will be read from all pulpits on Sunday Oct. 27, and it is hoped that no person in Florida will fail to hear the important words from Mr. Hoover.

Tanks Can Do Anything.

Paris, Oct. 16.—Versatility of the tanks is being emphasized in every story that comes from the front. An American tank ordered to charge a house which was a nest of German machine guns plunged against the building amid a hail of bullets on its steel sides. The first lunge shook the house, the second brought it down about the tank, which drove through the wreckage crushing the Germans in the house and permitting no one to escape. Five other houses were similarly reduced.

Another tank sighted a German colonel in a wheatfield and started after him. The German ran in circles doubled and turned, but the tank relentlessly followed. He dashed into a trench and the tank ran over it, he came out and the tank followed. He bolted breathless across a field and the tank overtook him and forced him to surrender and too him aboard.

ONLY RUMORS OF PEACE BUT WORLD AWAITS WHAT MIGHT HAPPEN

CALIFORNIA VEGETABLES DAMAGED.

With quite extensive damage to California vegetable see crop by the rains of September 12 to 14 it would appear logical that greater importance will be attached to the winter crops of Florida this season. A widespread damage to the California fields, however, deplorable, requires time for recovery, and involves the loss of just that much impetus which had been given to the raising of essential products.

Assurances have been given that the food products of Florida are to be moved with the greatest possible promptness this coming winter, and as this information comes through the department of agriculture it ought to be taken as a deliberate program which should encourage large acreage plantings in this state. Associations of Florida farmers are presumably keeping in touch the situation, and if there is any reasonable prospect for securing needed labor for the farms at the proper time the conditions should be propitious for the increased plantings over last season. The discouragement then was inability to move the crops and secure markets, which condition to some extent seems to have been removed for the approaching season.

Giving details of the California rains and estimates of the damage resulting from them, the United States Department of agriculture Seed Reporter has the following:

Rains of September 12, 13 and 14 damaged certain vegetable seed crops in California that were sown in the fields in the central part of the state these rains were especially heavy, amounting in the three days to 3.44 inches at Sacramento and 2.56 inches at San Francisco, while Los Angeles received only .10 inches of rain during the same period. Rain seldom falls in appreciable quantities during the months of September and October in central and southern California, and for this reason many of the growers were totally unprepared for it.

A portion of the seed crops was in the warehouses at the time of the rain, varying by the locality and crop. Practically all of the spinach and beet seed was in the warehouses, and one of the large growers stated that he had all of his seed covered at the time of the rain. More carrot seed was reported in the fields than any other vegetable.

It has been estimated that 50 per cent of the onion seed was in the fields and damaged more or less by the rain. Growers consider that this damage will lower somewhat their previous estimates of the yield of onion seed per acre this season.

There was a considerable acreage of standing lettuce in the fields, much of which was of foreign varieties. As a result of the rains this will be almost a total loss according to the reports received from the growers. There may be an acute shortage in some varieties of lettuce seed as the estimated condition of this crop as published in the August 10 issue of the Seed Reporter, was unsatisfactory, 84 per cent, of the 7,249 acres reporting being classed as "poor."

A possible decrease in the onion seed acreage for 1919 is anticipated owing to the short supply of bulbs for fall planting. The Bureau of Crop Estimates places the amount of onion bulbs in the field, mostly sacked, that were exposed to the rain at 60 per cent of the crop, all of which may be more or less damaged by black mold and sprouting. The greatest shortage is anticipated in the white varieties, while Austrian Brown and Yellow Globe are reported to be in fair supply. Miami Metropolis.

Misses Blanche and Georgia Pattishall are now in Washington, D. C. where both have fine positions in the Government service.

GERMAN PEOPLE HAVE CHANCE TO COME CLEAN.

The rumors of peace are rumors as yet although those in America and other allied countries who have their fingers on the public pulse think that something will drop ere long. The Kaiser and his crowd of militarists are trying hard to keep in power but the open chance given the people of Germany by the reply of President Wilson will pave the way if the people of Germany really want peace. No one can foretell just what the next few hours will bring forth.

Today's news of Germany is everywhere regarded in U. S. as the shadow of great events being cast before them.

There is in Washington no official word that the Kaiser has abdicated; or that he has been overthrown; or that Germany is ready to accept all of President Wilson's terms.

Officials and diplomatists, cautious and conservative, by nature and practice, regard with incredulity the intimation that one or all of these things has happened. Of course, they all hope they have, they all know that one or all of them are inevitable.

The official opinion in the capital tonight is that coming of these things is timed only by the unknown degree to which the German military power has been broken. There may be more information on that point in the channels of England, France and Italy than there is in Washington.

When President Wilson's reply to the German peace proffer went forth Monday night, it was predicted here that if it did not bring a complete and unconditional surrender of the military autocracy, the German people themselves would force one. President Wilson's words were a plain invitation to the German people to take such a step, and a ultimatum that there would be no peace with Kaiserism.

The coming hours will show how the Kaiser has worked the intimations in today's dispatches from London, Paris and Holland suggest the progress of the ferment.

Most significant of all is regarded the report from Holland, by way of London, that Germany will immediately reply to President Wilson, accepting all his terms and asking only guarantees for the interests of Germany and the German people. If such a reply does come President Wilson's only course will be to forward it to the co-belligerents. The guarantees for the interests of Germany and the German people do not intervene as all obstacle, if guarantees are thought of in sincere terms. If they are put forth as another vehicle for a quibble, an opportunity for diplomatic evasion and trickery, or a negotiated peace they will meet only one reply.

If they mean guarantees for the integrity and sovereignty of the Germany which is rightfully German always taking in the determinations of the human beings concerned, no obstacle is foreseen. If they mean guarantees for the right of the German people to live their lives under a peaceful, responsible government which does not menace the life of the world, President Wilson's utterance on the subject, officials think already have given the answer. If Germany accepts all his terms and attaches the condition of such guarantees, it is considered that hardly less could be expected of her.

Reports of the harvesting of peanut crops are now being made in state newspapers, and it would appear that the season has been propitious and the yield splendid. The Fort Lauderdale Herald tells of bringing into that place of about 6,000 pounds of very fine nuts, raised on Ritta island and says that this is but the beginning of a harvest that will show how admirably the soil and climate are suited to the raising of this important food product. There is considerable acreage in peanuts in the vicinity of Fort Lauderdale, and experts estimate the yield to be between 60 and 70 bushels to the acre. Good prices are offered for the nuts, and the hay is also valuable.

The Gas Mask Drive (Apologies to Kipling)
What makes you save your olive stones? The Thoughtless Waster cried.

"I don't see what it wants of them," the Thoughtless Waster cried. "It wants the carbon that they make," the Patriot replied.

"So we're gathering up the cherry pits, the peach stones and the shell walnuts and Brazil nuts and of hickory nuts as well, and the youngsters hunt for button-nuts in every dale and dell. To furnish the materials for carbon."

"What do they want the carbon for?" the Thoughtless Waster cried. "To manufacture gas masks," the Patriot replied.

"And a carbon respirator in a gas mask over there. Will you see our boys from gas attacks. Come on and do your share."

CARE OF OUR MEN

Do you know that our men are the best cared for of any soldiers in the world? They get the highest pay. They get the best food. Their clothing is made of the best materials. They have the best hospitals for the sick and wounded.

To maintain this high standard is expensive but America need never stint on the care of her sons in the Army or the Navy if we at home lend in the same great spirit in which they have given for us.

VICTORY
The war will be won and our boys will come home safe and victorious. When we have so many airships that Germany is driven from the air. When we have so much artillery that the Hun infantry is helpless before us.

When we have an Army so large and so well equipped that no civilized power on earth can stand against us. When all America unites in service and sacrifice to furnish the fighting dollars that will back to the utmost—our fighting men.

And these fighting dollars which you lend to your Government will prove a wise investment as well as an evidence of patriotism. For you have the entire wealth of this country as your security. You are absolutely sure of getting your money back, and you are paid a generous rate of interest for its use.

INFLUENZA IS DIMINISHING
Sanford Took Precautionary Measures in Good Time.
The Spanish "flu" is passing and Sanford will soon be clear of this great plague that has slowed up business and put everything on the blink for a few days. And yet it is looking over the situation this city has been fortunate indeed. At the first intimation of the disease the schools and all public places were closed and every precaution taken to stamp it out.

Rule On Feed Stuff.

All dealers handling feed stuff at retail in the State of Florida are hereby notified that maximum margins of profit have been fixed on all feed stuffs, and any sale giving a margin of profit exceeding that fixed by the Food Administration will meet with prompt investigation and such penalty as may be deemed necessary.

one unwilling to subscribe to his full ability. The result was that in place of the $2,000 sought the list aggregated $4100, more than doubling the desired quota. Pahokee thus stands among the few communities in Florida with so excellent a record and, when all conditions are taken into consideration, no other locality can show so fine a record.

In Memoriam
It is the memory of a brave, bright, devoted young womanhood—an acquisition to any little town and when she and her dear sister came among us from England, it was easy to realize that we had to congratulate ourselves upon such an addition to our little circle.

Sanford was smaller then than now, and the bonds of friendship may have been more closely drawn—values of character sooner established.

It did not take long to pass Emily Trafford in the niche where she belonged.

Consistent, loyal, with high ideals in all her relations, it was easy for her to win her place in any circle. Her death has left a void in the hearts of those who loved her. Her death was sudden and unexpected.

The forecast for this week promises a very favorable outlook for the crop. Maximum, however, were rarely in the 60's.

What about the seasonal for the period. Maximum, however, were rarely in the 60's. Precipitation for the period was much less than the seasonal average and the crop is somewhat retarded. The general outlook for the season is generally good but the weather is the great factor in the result.

Conjuncture of Crops. The absence of much rain was very favorable for harvesting hay, castor and velvet beans and peanuts. More rain is needed for corn and sweet potatoes, and some thick on high lands. Setting out celery and tomatoes and planting beans in portions of the south and central divisions. The citrus crop is good, especially grapefruit; oranges are coloring nicely and some shipments are being made. Cotton picking continues irregularly, especially in the central division, but the great bulk of the crop has been gathered. Most of the corn crop, also has been housed. The fall Irish potato crop is fair to good; the dry weather was unfavorable in some localities.

Morris Puts It Over
The little town of Pahokee, located out on the shores of Lake O where, apparently, there are but very few residents, has shown up magnificently in the Liberty Loan campaign, and every resident of that community is very proud of the result of the efforts put forth by C. C. Morris, chairman, and his committees. It was a case where another section of Palm Beach county "went over the top." True, the quota was but two thousand dollars, but it was not generally believed that even that figure could be attained; especially when it was so well-known that much of the crop in that region was a dead loss to the grower last season because of ited demand for the produce. C. C. Morris and his aides, made a complete canvass of that locality, terminating yesterday, and found not
