

Moves Designed To Gain $350,000

Lake Mary Requests Federal Funds For Water System

By DONNA ESTES Herald Staff Writer

LAKE MARY — City Council has approved a series of motions designed to gain some $350,000 in federal loans to improve and expand its newly acquired water system.

The loan is being requested from the Farmers Home Administration of the U.S. Department of Agriculture. It is expected to be sufficient to pay off the systems' outstanding debts, as well, and refund to the city general fund the $10,000 borrowed from it to make up part of the $70,000 purchase price and to provide operating capital for the system.

The purchase was concluded just weeks ago. Notes were signed with a Maitland Bank and Southern Gulf Utilities for most of the purchase price. The $10,000 in city funds came from a "belt tightening" process of paying budgeted expenditures from most city departments.

The governing body, on Councilman Harry Terry's recommendation, accepted a preliminary engineering report on the water facilities and distribution system prepared by B.C. (Cal) Conklin of the consulting engineering firm of Clark, Dietz and Associates.

Council voted to file the application for the funding with the Farmers Home Administration and instructed Mayor Walter Sorenson to execute the application after other legal aspects, his fee will be $4,000, slightly more than the one per cent minimum set by federal standards.

City Attorney Gary Massey had an opportunity to look it over. Sorenson was authorized to enter into contract negotiations with the engineer and city attorney for their services.

Many of the small lines will be replaced with six-inch mains under the expansion program and "we will have a freighting capability," he said.

Terry said the city hopes the term of the revenue bond issue will be 40 years with 5.5 per cent or 5.85 per cent interest.

After Grant, Connell Clash

Betty Widdis Tract Rezoning Chances Seen Dim

LONGWOOD — City Attorney Neil Julian Jr. was instructed by City Council this week to prepare an ordinance rezoning the Betty Widdis tract, east of SR 47, from residential to industrial and business district.

while Council members June Lormann and Don Schreiner were opposed.

But when Connell attempted to make a motion to give Lake Ruth South subdivision property owners assurance that a 200-foot wide strip separating their homes from the Widdis tract would not be rezoned, Grant balked.

Connell asked that the owner of the strip be notified he had given tacit approval to the rezoning by failing to appear at a public hearing on the matter. Connell added that the zoning on the strip should remain residential. City Clerk Onnie Shomate said the owner had already been notified and Grant, rebuking the clerk, refused to accept Connell's motion.

Connell's next motion was to deny rezoning and he invited Mrs. Lormann or Schreiner to second the motion. Both were silent until Grant rapped that the motion died for lack of a second.

Twenty Lake Ruth South subdivision residents were with the rezoning. Noise from industrial buildings some 800 feet away can be heard within the subdivision, the residents said.

When a resident mentioned the zoning board recommended the request be denied, Grant said zoning board member Robert Hammond is employed by an industrialist.

Grant elicited from Stemper agreement that commercially or industrially zoned property is worth more money than residentially zoned land.

Stemper said the rezoning would depreciate the $35,000 homes in Lake Ruth South by 25 per cent to 40 per cent.

The residents said they would not have bought homes in the area if they had known of the rezoning.

Grant responded that the city and the citizens.

which fronts on SR 404, will fade away in time.

"City Council has an obligation to protect Lake Ruth," one resident said, insisting the city assumed the responsibility of protecting the residential area when it permitted the homes to be built there.

"The City Council has two obligations," Grant responded — to the city and to the citizens.

Human Relations Commission Abolishes Post

Executive Director Loses Job

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. (AP) — With nine whites voting against five blacks, the Human Relations Commission has decided to abolish the job of its black executive director.

Black commissioners refrained Thursday from attacking the motives of the white majority. But they said the racial split did not look good.

"I'm just very disturbed that it was purely down racial lines on that vote," said Commissioner Charles "Goody" Jones, a black from Tampa.

The commission voted 8-5 to abolish director Thomas Sanchez's $19,000-a-year job on the motion of Sen. Lori Wilson, 1-Merritt Island, who is white.

Community Affairs Secretary William Ravenel, the commission chairman and a black, disagreed with the panel's decision, saying the racial split embarrassed him. But said he was required to carry out the commission's instructions.

Sanchez, however, contended that the commission had no legal authority to abolish his position. He said a state law providing that the community affairs secretary hires and fires the executive director with the advice and consent of the commission leaves the final decision in Ravenel's hands.

"The burden rests on the secretary at this point in time to either reject or accept the recommendations of the commission," Sanchez said.

Council Minutes Reveal Fire Chief Vote Changed

LONGWOOD — Ex-Fire Chief Roy LaBossierie was dismissed from the position he held with the city for two years by a 3-2 vote on June 7, City Clerk Onnie Shomate's official minutes of that meeting revealed this week to the surprise of some city council members.

Observers at the meeting which saw the volunteer firemen walkout after LaBossierie's non-existent resignation was accepted, thought they distinctly heard J.R. Grant said.

Mrs. Shomate asked Mrs. Lormann if she wanted her comments included in the record, recalling Mrs. Lormann said she was taking the stand for the good of the city or something like that. "Yes, but in what I said," Mrs. Lormann said.

Not so, Mrs. Shomate said this week. "I voted against the motion," Mrs. Lormann said. And Councilman Don Schreiner, who had appeared to be the lone dissenter to the fring, echoed her comments. Connell, who had been going over the minutes in detail as his practice. "The minutes are public records and should be correct," he said, asked Mrs. Lormann if the portion concerning her vote was correct.

"I asked both newspaper reporters and they said you confirm you voted for the motion," Connell said.

...THE HOPE OF OUR COMMUNITY, THE Church... OUR NATION!

For centuries men have been using nets to reap the rich harvest of the sea. There is a classic rhythm to the saga of the sea and fishermen. It is a tale filled with danger and persistence—success and failure. Indeed, it is very much akin to life itself.

You may not have to wrest your living from the sea, but you can learn a lesson from those who do. Fishermen the world around are, for the most part, devout folk. They've learned the meaning of faith. They know God. Seldom will you see even the smallest harbor town without a church. There men—and the women who go with them—pray.

Have you given to your church lately?

Records Are Scanty Was Mystery Figure Brother of King?

By BERT COLLIER
12th in a Series

(Editor's Note: This is the twelfth in a series of articles on the history of Florida sponsored by the Bicentennial Commission of Florida. Made available as a public service by the Gainesville Sun and the Lakeland Ledger, they celebrate our nation's 200th birthday by describing the remarkable characters and events that shaped our own state.)

Running through the story of British East Florida like a flash of royal color was the mysterious figure of Capt. Frederick George Mulcaster. He was really the natural brother of the half-mad king who was the last to rule over the American colonies.

Tradition says he was almost every mention of Mulcaster in the old records carries the descriptive phrase, "brother of George III."

But for a decade he played an important part in the important part of the history of William Gerald de Brahm, surveyor-general of the colony.

He was deputy to the eccentric William Gerald de Brahm, surveyor-general of the colony. He married de Brahm's daughter, after de Brahm was suspended from office, Capt. Mulcaster carried on his work and performed well. He was one of the best known men in the colony.

George III had an illegitimate brother, the Hanover kings were notorious for their extramarital activities and England was well populated with high and low whose touch of royal blood was not acknowledged in Burke's Peerage. Even some prime ministers were placed by scandal in that category.

The first George, who imposed his wife for an illicit affair, brought a harem of Boston Brumhills when he came to London for his coronation.

This son George II was devoted to his wife but had a roving eye. No lady-in-waiting or servant girl was safe when alone with him.

When his Queen Caroline lay dying she urged her husband, in view of his proclivities, to marry again.

"Never," sobbed the king, "I will only have mistresses."

With three kids, two dogs, and a hungry husband, our grocery bills get pretty high. The coupons I clip out of the newspaper make a real difference. A big difference. I always save them.

The newspaper is a great investment in better living, smarter shopping. It's not an expense, it's money in your pocket.

Listen to Jane. THE HERALD can save you money every day.

he left the future George III with several unacknowledged half-siblings, according to old reports.

As a military engineer, Mulcaster was a member of the company that gartered regularly with the convivial George. They "passed the wicked bottle," and planned balls and concerts that made life in the isolated colony more pleasant.

As the war began, Mulcaster remained completely loyal. He sent the British commander at New York detailed engineering plans of the Charleston harbor and other military targets in South Carolina and Georgia.

In one he told Grant that the people wanted him to return and "the tradesmen would light bonfires and illuminate their houses as you come aboard."

When Gov. Grant suspended de Brahm as surveyor-general for various charges, including insubordination, overcharge and just plain obsequiousness, he named Mulcaster to succeed his father-in-law.

The nomination was made in curious fashion. It was the Colonial Office which is one of the obscure keys to the secret of Mulcaster's birth.

He is the godson of the late Prince of Wales. The governor wrote discreetly, "and was brought into the Army under the immediate protection of the Royal Family and has the honor to be known to the King. His Majesty will recollect him if Your Lordship is pleased to mention his name."

The appointment was not his legitimate son and heir, Frederick Louis, had a precedent to follow. He did his best. When he died, unmarried, though he was never able to return to Florida. Mulcaster had to do the work without getting the full compensation due him.

He seemed to accept the situation without rancor, although he wrote several friends that he wished his father-in-law would step down. He was realistic enough to know that the hope was forlorn. "You know what an odd being he is," Mulcaster wrote, "and he is a man that even a feather would be feather lost from his plume."

Mulcaster's wife died early, leaving him with a son and daughter. He sent them to England to be educated. He wrote that he hoped de Brahm would not think he was trying to keep them from their grandfather.

It was this consideration for the feelings of others that made Frederick George so well regarded. Shortly after Capt. Patrick Tonny became governor he appointed Mulcaster a member of his Council. The Captain served with distinction as the Revolutionary fires began to blaze.

Dr. Andrew Turnbull of the company that gartered regularly with the convivial George. They "passed the wicked bottle," and planned balls and concerts that made life in the isolated colony more pleasant.

Manny Wetherbee

SJC Vaulter Joins Champions' Field

BERKELEY, Calif. — Manny Wetherbee of Seminole Junior College joins the greatest collegiate track stars in the country Saturday at the U.S. Track and Field Federation's Meet of Champions at Berkeley.

Wetherbee, SJC's national indoor and outdoor junior college pole vault champion, qualified for the meet through his participation in the outdoor meet at Houston.

He won the indoor title earlier this year at St. Louis.

Wetherbee vaulted 19-feet, 6-inches to win the outdoor title. He has signed a grant-in-aid with Florida State University.

The idea of the meet was to match winners from recent national collegiate championships, the USTF meet and the Interservice championships.

But special invitations went out to some of the best athletes in the country, including middle distance runners Marty Liquori and Tony Waldrop, sprinter Robert Taylor, high jumper Pat Matzdorf and French stars Jacques Rousseau and Guy Druet.

It all makes for a select field at the University of California's Edwards Stadium. The 22-event meet will be co-hosted by Cal, which formerly sponsored the Kennedy Games by itself each June.

"It will be a concise, 2½-hour meet. We've always stressed quality instead of quantity," said Cal Athletic Director Jerry Langford.

World record holders John Powell (discus), Al Feuerbach (shot put) and Dwight Stones (high jump) are entered. In one of the two women's events, Francie Larrieu will attempt to lower her U.S. record for the mile.

Liquori's competition in the mile will include three other sub-four minute miler. Waldrop will go in the 800 against a field including NCAA champion Mark Eneyart of Utah State.

Tennessee's Reggie Jones and Southern California's James Gilkes, the top two finishers in the NCAA 200 last week, will be rematched and face challenges from Louis Wilson of the U.S. Army and others. In the 100, Olympic silver medalist Taylor will join a field including Jones and Auburn's Clifford Outlin.

Matzdorf set a world record of 7 feet, 6½ inches at Edwards Stadium in 1971 when he was a University of Wisconsin athlete. He's making a comeback now with the flop high jump technique and is up to 7-4½.

Rousseau is one of the top long jump entries, with a personal best of 26-5¼ which was wind aided. His countryman Druet is one of the world's top hurdlers.

Aaron's Blast Ends Drought In Milwaukee

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Hank Aaron finally came home to Milwaukee Thursday night with a home run.

It was Aaron's sixth of the season and 739th of his career, but his first regular-season homer in Milwaukee County Stadium since he connected off Philadelphia's Ray Culp on Sept. 20, 1963.

"I knew eventually it would come," said Aaron, who spent the first 12 years of his career in Milwaukee with the Braves and bopped 398 homers, 185 of them in County Stadium. But since the Braves moved to Atlanta in 1966, Aaron's only Milwaukee homer came in an exhibition game two years ago.

White Sox 9, Red Sox 2

Hank Palmer led by Cleveland catcher John Ellis in the 10th inning, giving Steve Busby the victory over Eric Raich, his former teammate on a College World Series winner at the University of Southern California.

Harmon Killebrew tied the score in the Kansas City seventh with his ninth homer and 568th of his career.

Orlando 7, Rangers 1

Jim Palmer notched his 10th victory with a seven-bitter and Mark Belanger knocked in three runs. Palmer's victory gave him a 10-3 record, best in the American League. He ran his scoreless streak to 20 innings — his last outing was a one-bitter against Kansas City — until the Rangers scored in the eighth on singles by Cesar Tovar and Mike Hargrove around a walk.

Angels 5, Tigers 5-1

Joe Labord drove in four runs with a pair of homers, including a three-run shot in a six-run third inning, as California beat Detroit. Earlier, John Hiller got the last three outs to complete a sparkling relief stint as the Tigers nailed down a 5-3 victory in the completion of the second game of Wednesday's two-nighter, which was suspended by an American League curfew after eight innings.

Nolan's Heat Melting Foes

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Gary Nolan doesn't want to set the press on fire — he just wants to put a little heat on the opposition.

"I have no special goals," says the Cincinnati pitcher. "All I'd like to do is go out every fifth day and keep us in the ballgame. That's my only goal."

For a fellow who's won six straight games, including Thursday night's 10-1 triumph over the St. Louis Cardinals, that's a pretty modest goal.

In the other National League games, the Montreal Expos beat the San Diego Padres 3-2 in 15 innings; the Philadelphia Phillies topped the Houston Astros 4-1 and the Pittsburgh Pirates trounced the Los Angeles Dodgers 2-0.

Expos 3, Padres 2

Mike Jorgensen's double delivered Pete MacKanin with the winning run in the 15th inning as Montreal beat San Diego in a marathon game. MacKanin walked with two out and roared home with the tie-breaking run as Jorgensen belted his base hit to right.

Phillies 4, Giants 1

Left-hander Steve Carlton threw a four-hitter and aided his cause with a pair of singles, boosting Philadelphia over San Francisco. Carlton, who has allowed only two runs in his last three games, raised his record to 6-5 with his fourth straight victory.

Pirates 4, Astros 2

Rennie Stennett doubled across the tying run in the fifth inning and scored on Manny Sanguillen's single as Pittsburgh beat Houston.

Mets 2, Dodgers 0

Jon Mickel pitched a threehitter and Felix Millan drove in a pair of runs with doubles to pace New York over Los Angeles.

Braves 5, Cubs 4

Darrell Evans scored when third baseman Bill Madlock booted Larvell Blanks' grounder with the bases loaded and two out in the ninth inning, enabling Atlanta to beat Chicago in the first game of their doubleheader. The second game was suspended after eight innings because the Cubs had to catch a plane home for an afternoon contest Friday.

Bench Soars Into All-Star Vote Lead

NEW YORK (AP) — Johnny Bench is among four Cincinnati Reds dominating the early balloting for the National League All-Star team, released Friday by Baseball Commissioner Bowie Kuhn's office.

Bench, who has been on the NL team the last seven years and started the last six, has a huge lead for the catching spot — 327,694 votes to 60,713 for runner-up Manny Sanguillen of Pittsburgh.

The other Reds topping early returns are Joe Morgan at second base, Dave Concepcion at shortstop and Pete Rose in the outfield.

Morgan has drawn 249,174 votes so far, nearly five times as many as Pittsburgh's Rennie Stennett, presently second in the tally with 55,778.

Concepcion, seeking his first starting role, has attracted 182,836 votes, followed by Larry Bowa of Philadelphia with 136,121. Rose has 215,612 in the outfielder's race, followed close behind by the Mets' Rusty Staub with 151,322 and Del Unser with 147,583. Neither Staub nor Unser have started previously, though Staub was a reserve five consecutive times (1967-71) and played in three games.

Base-stealing ace Lou Brock of St. Louis is also an outfield contender with 108,066 votes, as is Los Angeles' Jimmy Wynn with 98,417.

Two Los Angeles Dodgers have an early advantage in the infield. The Dodgers leaders are first baseman Steve Garvey, a write-in selection in 1974 who ended up most valuable player in the midseason classic, with 191,197 ballots and third baseman Ron Cey with 202,815.

New York's Mike Phillips has drawn the most votes of any write-in candidate this year, polling 28,489 to place him No. 5 among shortstops.

Nude Sleeping

PARIS (AP) — Bjorn Borg, the heart-throb of a million female tennis fans, was given a new order by his coach today: "Stop sleeping in the nude."

The 19-year-old Swedish star, defending his French title, had the scare of his young life Thursday. He cricked his neck in his hotel shower and thought he would have to pull out of the quarter-finals.

Masseurs got him fit in time, and he slamed Harold Solomon of Silver Springs, Md., 6-1, 7-5, 6-4.

But Lennart Bergelin, the coach who has made Borg into a world star, told him this sleeping in the nude has to stop.

"It is asking for trouble, sleeping naked in the air conditioning of hotel bedrooms," Bergelin said. "It may have had something to do with this neck trouble."

"I am going to buy him a smart modern night shirt, and he is going to wear it from now on."

Borg said that two hours before the match against Solomon, he thought it was impossible to play tennis. He sat in the dressing room at

'I am going to buy him (Bjorn Borg) a smart modern night shirt, and he is going to wear it from now on.'

DeBusschere: 'I'd Rather Be Playing'

NEW YORK (AP) — Dave DeBusschere obviously is finding his new job as American Basketball Association commissioner very difficult.

"I would rather be playing," DeBusschere, a former National Basketball Association All Star, said Thursday at his first news conference since replacing Ted Muehach as commissioner on May 13.

The 34-year-old DeBusschere, the youngest commissioner in the history of pro basketball, showed his unfamiliarity with the position and his nervousness by continually flipping and spinning an ABA ball during his brief encounter with the media.

"There are some very difficult decisions to make," admitted DeBusschere, "but that's par for the course, just as there were when I was a trustee."

DeBusschere prepped for the commissioner's job by serving one season as general manager of the New York Nets. In that position, he represented the Nets at several ABA Board of Trustees meetings.

The toughest decision DeBusschere has faced during his four weeks as commissioner occurred today when he presided at a trustees' meeting concerning disposition of the financially wobbly Memphis and San Diego franchises.

DeBusschere said Thursday he would prefer the league to operate with 10 teams next season, rather than eight if Memphis and San Diego were disbanded. It put him in conflict with league President John V. Brown of Kentucky, who was one of DeBusschere's biggest boosters for the commissioner's job.

"It is a much healthier situation if we have 10 strong teams," said DeBusschere, "but that's not the way it is going to be. There are only eight strong clubs. The weak teams are Memphis and San Diego, which had the league's lowest attendances last season."

Brown, meanwhile, charged that the existence of the Mem-

U.S. Open Sleeper Floyd Wide Awake

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — If you're looking for a sleeper in next week's U.S. Open Golf Championship at Medinah, Ill., circle Ray Floyd. He's playing superb golf now.

The 32-year-old Floyd won the Kemper Open last week for his first victory in six years. And Wednesday he tied the course record of 63 in winning the pro-am event of the rain-delayed $150,000 Philadelphia Golf Classic which gets underway today.

Floyd settled down two years ago after he married Maria Primoli, daughter of a Philadelphia tavern owner, giving up a life that earned him a reputation of a playboy who was tossing away a potentially great golf career.

He didn't win in 1974, but his dedication was evident in his bank account. After earning $28,646 and ranking 77th on the tour in 1973, Floyd picked up checks of $119,385 last year, 18th on the money list. He is 12th on the list so far this year with $85,000. So, he wasn't surprised when he won at Kemper. He felt it coming.

Floyd credits his wife with changing his attitude. Maria Floyd had heard about her husband's hidden talent. She also knew his playboy's reputation. So, they sat down and had a talk.

"Do you want to do it (win)?" Floyd recalled his wife asking him. "If you do, do it properly."

she advised.

"My career is a complete turnaround," Floyd said. "You can say I matured."

Floyd hadn't exactly been a bust during his previous 12 years on the tour. He won the PGA in 1969, earning $109,357 that year. It was the last championship he won, not very satisfying for the guy who was rookie of the year when he broke in 13 years ago.
