CHAPTER 23
DIRK AND VAL walked along the corridor in silence. They didn't speak until they were standing outside her cabin door. The flushed look of anger he'd had a few minutes earlier was gone, and he looked dejected and tired.

"Too bad, Val." He gave her a faint smile. "Apparently I've made an awful mess of everything tonight. If it hadn't been for what I said to Aunt May—"

But he broke off.

She touched his arm sympathetically. "I know how you feel, Dirk. I can't honestly say I liked her, but you mustn't blame Bruce for that. He said to me tonight, 'He's responsible for the health of everyone on this ship. I should have insisted that he examine her.'"

"But he has to answer to the Captain for her death, and when he says he hasn't even seen her, it won't look too well."

"I suppose we've been fools," he said wearily. "I never dreamed it would upset Aunt May so much when I—when I said I wanted to marry you. And yet," he straightened his tall, lean body. "I'm not really sorry I said it, Val."

She turned and looked at him, her face paler than ever, her blue eyes unsmiling. "I think I understand why you said it, Dirk," she said slowly, as though trying to reason it out. "You didn't want her bossing your life as she has done since Ellen's death. You said what you did as a means of escape."

"Val, you don't think that?"

"Oh please, Dirk, don't let's go into that again tonight," she whispered.

"The trouble, Val," he said presently. "I'm lying at your feet apologizing. My dear, my very dear," his grip on her hand tightened. "I'm so sorry for everything."

"I know—but don't make it harder for Bruce, Dirk. He has to do what he thinks best."

Radio-TV Highlights

NEW YORK — No first-rate movie about the world of television has yet been released. Neither has a first-rate novel been published about life behind the home screen.

So when a writer of excellent movies and novels spends a long time strolling quietly through the maze of the big new industry, something is bound to happen. One has and it will.

The writer is Budd Schulberg, author of "What Makes Sammy Run" and "The Disenchanted," the writer of that excellent film, "On the Waterfront." As a result of his bemused strolling on the TV front, he and Elia Kazan are making a movie in New York called "A Face in the Crowd." To be released next spring, it will star Anny Griffith and Patricia Neal.

"A Face in the Crowd" is based on a short story by Schulberg entitled "The Arkansas Traveler" concerning an entertainer from Arkansas who rose to fame and plunged to spiritual destruction in radio. In his movie script Schulberg has transferred the medium to TV.

"The character of the man, called Lonesome Rhodes, is that of one who is happy until he moves into the false environment of television," Schulberg said the other day.

The theme of the movie, says Schulberg, truthfully reflects his own observations of the TV world: "New York television is Hollywood raised to the tenth power. It's much more frantic. In Hollywood they say you're as good as wood they picture. But in television you're only as good as your last rating. The audience rating has become a neurosis with people in television. Probably more than anything else it creates the sense of human insecurity that permeates the medium.

"You see it in nearly everybody — account executives, producers, talent. Everybody's worried. The industry is the greatest boon for the pill business that ever has come along. . . .

"But I believe that, like the films, it can be improved by achieving more independence. It means an uphill battle against the advertising viewpoint, but I don't see why it can't be won eventually."

Steps Taken To Get Treatment Plant Here

By City Manager WARREN E. KNOWLES

Since the construction of a sewage treatment plant is such a vitally important question to the people of the City of Sanford, it is best that a factual report be given to the public on the steps that are being taken to provide this facility. It is hoped that, in this way, any misunderstandings can be corrected and everyone can discuss the matter in relationship to the action now underway.

In 1954, the City of Sanford, undertook a water and sewer program at an estimated cost of $1,175,000. The purpose of this program was to provide a sanitary sewage collection system throughout the city as far as possible. At this time, the Florida State Board of Health requested that a primary sewage treatment plant also be constructed as a part of the program. The City of Sanford did not have the funds needed for this phase in the certificate issue.

On the advice of two separate engineers, the City Commission came to the conclusion that the collection system was of primary importance and that this collection system would remove the sewage from being deposited along the bulkhead.

In March of 1954, representatives of the State Board of Health met with the City Commission to agree on the necessary program. An agreement was made to the satisfaction of both parties in the form of a resolution numbered 830 and was passed on April 12, 1954. This resolution stated very clearly that the City Commission considers the construction of a sewage treatment plant as both desirable and expedient and agreed to a commitment that a treatment plant be constructed or under construction by the City of Sanford within three years from April 12, 1954. It was further agreed that the requirement and construction of the plant was based on the financing by an additional revenue certificate issue based only upon the collateral pledged for the original revenue certificate issue presently authorized.

With the completion of this agreement, the State Board of Health gave their approval to the plans for the sewage collection system. Plans were taken and the work was started. It was then seen that the cost of construction was well over the estimates and that the additional revenue certificate issue would be necessary in order simply to complete the collection system. The fiscal agents advised the City Commission that the maximum amount that could be secured at that time was $725,000. This amount was sold simply to complete the work on the collection system that was already under construction. This was the same issue that was to have been used for the treatment plant. The City of Sanford was now faced with having borrowed to its capacity on the utility revenue at that time. However, this did not mean that a treatment plant was abandoned for it was clearly predicted that the normal growth of the utility system would provide additional funds after several years that could service a third issue of revenue certificates.

In August of 1956, the City Commission informed the state Board of Health that it would be approximately four years before here would be a surplus of funds to provide for a treatment plant. In answer to this letter, the State Board of Health sent a letter saying they would not approve any further extensions without a treatment plant. This same letter was

There will be rides for the children, and plenty of them, a train will be on hand to take them on a tour of the grounds.

The "Fair Tree", Country Store, a booth for potted plants and table arrangements, a Post Office, and other exciting booths will be provided to furnish entertaining shopping for the older folks as well as the young fry.

A band will be on hand to furnish music under brilliant lights that have already been tested for the event.

Leading off of course, will be the annual spaghetti supper that will be served beginning at 6:30 p. m. in the school lunch room.

Other tasks on the agenda, atmosphere sandwiches and drinks will be on hand on the grounds. There will include hot dogs, cold drinks, coffee, and other tid bits that will delight everyone.

Nothing has been left unspoken in providing a wonderful evening for all who attend the Southside School Halloween Carnival. The dressing up in costumes for the big event will be the last-minute details which provide youngsters with the "thrill of their lives" as they take part in the contests for the most original creations.

The whole evening, tomorrow night, has been set aside at Southside School for the gigantic Halloween Event that is one of the "most looked for events around the city."

Sales Increase At Market Told

"Sales in volume at the Sanford State Farmers Market showed an increase over the preceding week," Sandy Anderson, manager of the market, said this morning.

Gross sales for the week ending Oct. 29 was 13,292 packages at a valuation of $32,001.05. "Leaders last week," said Anderson, "were cucumbers, grapefruit, beans and oranges."

Sandy Anderson explained that the "satisfactory prices on oranges and grapefruit raised the valuation in proportion to the number of packages moved off of the market platforms.

"Market conditions were satisfactory on most varieties," Anderson reported in his weekly news letter released today.

Celery arrived at the Sanford State Farmers Market on Friday, Oct. 28. "This is the earliest arrival of Florida celery in the history of Sanford and the Sanford State Farmers Market," said the market manager.

Harold H. Kastner Co. was the first receiver of the shipment of celery to be sold here. The celery was grown by A. Duda & Sons at their Zellwood farms.

Anderson reported that the "quality is excellent, with long crisp ribs, and the sizes running heavy to four and six down sizes which is not too desirable at this time of the year." However, they predict the next harvesting will be heavy to 10 and 12. "There is no doubt but what the trade will take more quickly and satisfactorily to these large sizes," said Anderson.

"We should have a good movement this week of cucumbers, celery, beans, radishes, oranges, grapefruit, and a limited volume of eggplant," Anderson reported.

Oviedo Students Pick Cheerleaders; Sisters Preferred

By MARIAN JOSES

OVIEDO—When it comes to choosing cheer leaders the students of the Oviedo High School prefer sisters. So it seems from the results of the voting held for same.

Numbered among the six finalists are Peggy and Betty, known as Julie Fleming; also, Telsina and Pat Jackson. Dawn Walker and Betty Stevenson make the six in number.

Peggy, Dawn and Betty are members of the senior class this year and are veterans at the cheer leader game. Telsina, a junior, is also a veteran.

Julie and Pat, both ninth graders, are newcomers to the field. We anticipate great things at the games this year with this lineup of pretty ladies. We know the team will have to win with their backing.

Goldenrod Home Damaged Saturday By Fire, Water

The lovely home of Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Parker at Goldenrod was badly damaged early Saturday morning by fire and water.

Mrs. Parker said "We had just had a new heating system installed on Friday."

Mrs. Parker said, "We lit the heater Saturday morning and shortly afterward found something to be amiss."

Mr. Parker went into attic to find what the trouble might be and there was so much smoke they couldn't get in.

Damage to the home is estimated at $2,000.

The Oviedo Fire Department and Killarney fire truck and emergency truck answered the alarm. The Florida Power Co. also sent an emergency vehicle.

Barker is a prominent citrus grower of the Oviedo section and father-in-law of Ben H. Jones, former operator of the Oviedo Drug Store and now a prominent citrus grower himself.

The home is a one-story frame house recently renovated, air conditioned, and new oil heating system just installed.

It is on the main highway between Oviedo and Winter Park at Goldenrod.

The Oviedo Fire Department had the blaze under control and out before other trucks arrived. The Oviedo Fire Department said, following the blaze, that "We appreciate the volunteer fire department at Killarney coming to our aid."

Man Vanishes From Jail Cell

WILDWOOD, Fla.—A Negro farm laborer, placed in jail for protective custody at his own request after he was accused of assaulting a white woman, disappeared under strange circumstances early yesterday.

Jesse Woods, 39, was missing from his jail cell when Police Chief Ed Mullis returned from chasing two speeding cars. There were blood spots on the floor and a bunk was overturned. A day-long search failed to turn up any clues on the disappearance.

First reports of the incident reached The Sanford Herald about 3 o'clock Sunday morning. It was believed at that time that a full-fledged race riot might precipitate from the flaring tempera in and around Wildwood.

Florida Highway Patrol officers were placed on a standby basis and many were called to the scene. And it was reported that sheriffs and sheriff's deputies from surrounding counties were summoned to the Central Florida town.

Ammunition for shotguns, rifles and pistols was being sold at a rapid pace at Wildwood's only store open at the time of the incident. However, the sales were discontinued and restricted to those wearing badges of law enforcement agencies.

Gov. LeRoy Collins asked the Florida Sheriff's Bureau and Sheriff M. H. Bowen of Sumter County for a full report and the FBI said it is looking into the case to determine if it has jurisdiction.

Since daylight yesterday all has been quiet in this little central Florida town, 75 miles south of Tampa.

William A. Fordham, president of the Florida conference of the National Assn. for the Advancement of Colored People, said at Tampa, "From what I've heard it looks like a lynching. If it was, we definitely will make an investigation."

Earl Higginbotham Is Raising Two Prize Show Cattle

"This is the cattle that I am raising for show cattle," City Commissioner Earl Higginbotham said recently as he pointed out two prize bulls and a herd of heifers at his cattle ranch near Lake Monroe.

Commissioner Higginbotham explained that the two bulls bred from famous show cattle have already reached the stage of being show cattle themselves.

Guiding the two bulls around just as if they were pets, he called each by nickname. This one, he said is "Larry" and the other is "Pee-wee."

The father of both of the young bulls is Advance Harry the 19th Higginbotham said, and was the grand champion of California. "Advance Harry the 19th", he said, sold for $14,500.

The mother of the two young bulls at Earl Higginbotham's ranch is C.W.R. Miber, and was the grand champion heifer at Atlanta, Georgia in 1951. She sold for $2,750 at a auction, he said.

"The real names of these show cattle are "R.C.R. Advance Larry the 19th" and R.C.R. Larry the 10th", he said.

Higginbotham cares for the two excellent examples of show cattle as if they were pets, brushing and currying their bodies as if all ready to take off for one of the big livestock shows of the south.

It seems I've heard rumors about Mr. Lane (Football coach) and Mr. Silvers getting together. Miss Presley albums and collections. Could this be true?

Who are all the little minstrel demons racing around the football field every morning (at ten miles an hour). Could that be Mr. Fleming and his drivers training students.

What's going on behind closed doors in Miss Ruprecht's home on these days? Don't be alarmed just a bunch of rumors. Since Halloween is near they will come in handy for transportation around school.

What's this about Doug Thompson. He just won't have anything to do with the girls. Come on Doug, give us a chance.

Bonnie Stoffer just can't make up her mind; who could it be? Virgil Spivey, perhaps?

Lucia Parker is finally happy! She asked George Paris to a Skating Party and he accepted. He must have had a change of heart.

Seems like somebody besides Miss Whittle likes Miss Presley. Could it be Mr. Christensen?

Is it true that Eddie Kirchhoff likes Bobbie Monson. Does Barbara Hunt have a crush on Herbie Knight?

Sylvia Price she's happy. All his just returned to school after a week's absence. Welcome back, Al.

It seems all the kids are looking forward to the new Student Program starting Wednesday night. On W.T.R.H. at 7:30. This is a program put on by the period speech class so be sure to listen. It's for you—Students.

A couple seen around the halls at S. H. S. quite often are Carl McNeil and Don Mathews. Could it be that a new steady couple is going to be added? We hope so—the results later.

Seems as though Carol Matt is very excited about going to Homecoming with Jimmy but is it true she doesn't want to leave Bobby Little at home.

Lee Jackson has a new hobby: "They Love, Do I Love you?" Sometimes ask her about it.

Why does Dolie Keith all around with her pocket book open all the time? Could it be that she has a new picture of Johnny?

Miss Grace really helps on the old line "Where's Johnny?" Much luck—Kids.

Who is that little freshman girl who's tried to look like Carl Sommerhill. Could it be Linda H? Come on "Handsome" give her a break.

Dads, what was it you were looking for in Kay's notebook? Could it have been—A. D. S. I hear several of your friends told you several different things. Is that right?

Who is that Freshman girl floating around on clouds because she's dead?

Blackboard Bunglers

BY ANGELO COMPAN
I consider myself as thoroughly versed on the subject of teachers as the leading child expert in the nation thinks he is on the behavior of us uninhibited and sophisticated teenagers — which is, I assure you, far from any small degree at all. Nonetheless, since we delinquent, irresponsible, and intolerable "overgrown children" in such matters are we defined — are the center of all attention at psychiatrists' sessions — bedlam, I'm sure — I would think it only fitting and unimpeachably proper that one of us should try — and I do mean try — to decompose and analyze a haphazard and speciously commonly referred to as "teacher," and various other terms denoting his caliber and conduct in an embarrassing manner.

A fellow-executioner has once described a teacher during exams as a father, mother, pal, confidant, advisor, and expert. This, of course, is prejudiced and virtual definition of the species for, were it not, we would have people from lack of teachers.

It must be terrible to be a teacher. Our specimen of teacher must be unaffected by failures, heartless and deadly when grading, incapable of teaching his boiling temperature, and cunning and crafty at asking trick questions. What a destiny! How could he bear it?

Lendness is an evil to be despised by all members of the species. Our specimen-teacher regards leniency as a sign of falling in his social pedagogical technique. When an instructor becomes in the "impossible way lenient," his then, time to introduce him to an intern. At the possibility of which our specimen-teacher shudders.

Our specimen, out of social need, must be friendly, but is immediately acquainted, with the student as their immediate enemies. He must be helpful, but not useful, at moments of greatest gravity, that is, test time. He must be wise, but not "smart"; he must be humorous but not laudatory; he must be respected, but not venerated.

The most dreadful fate a teacher can suffer is the event of being unable to answer a question, at which point our specimen-teacher frantically would evade the question with such facility that it becomes obvious to the students that he is merely quibbling. The teacher may resort to various forms of anecdotes, for examples and lectures, most irrelevant to the question asked. At the climax of such a magnificent monologue, the wise student should answer with surprised amazement of his ignorance. "Oh, I see!"

Our specimen-teacher is indeed a difficult subject to understand. He is generally quite uncalculable. However, it is a career, of that when a student disputes the word of his instructor and the instructor, in his turn, challenges the student's argument, the student, right or wrong, should naturally, apologize, and promptly, devolve humble pie.

Apparently, what our specimen-teacher seems to abhor most is the student who uses cold etiquette to the utmost and from flattery to its greatest. The teacher must never, under any circumstances, make this detestation noticeable, but reply in even colder terms of etiquette and flattery.

It is safe to assert, however, despite his human imperfections, that, between man and specimen, our specimen-teacher's final goal is the latter. Believe me, you teachers all who read this, I am definitely not trying to make your species extinct by this brief and partial attempt at analysis of your character, virtuous and foul.

DCT Student Training To Be Store Manager

Virgil Spivey, a senior at Seminole High School, who is in the D. C. T. program at the school is taking store management training at the First St. Winn-Dixie store.

Virgil is the son of Mrs. G. W. Simmons, Rt. 2 Box 308.

When Virgil was asked how he thought of the D. C. T. program would help him, he said, "I believe that I will benefit from training program because my studies in school are showing me the reason why I am doing certain things at the store, for this reason, I am able to understand better the operations of a large grocery store."

Marshall Langston, manager of Winn-Dixie when asked to give his opinion about the D.C.T. program said, "Winn-Dixie stores in other cities have been glad to accept D. C. T. students as trainees. They have benefited very much from the program because it has given the Company a source for potential future managers and assistant managers."

Langston also said, "Since Virgil has been in the program, he has been able to undertake additional responsibilities here at the store, and therefore has become a more valuable employee."

Spooks, Goblins Are Here Again

BY WANDA GILBERT
The night is dark and cool. A house that is said to be haunted stands in the shadow of an old dead tree; the wind is blowing causing the bats difficulty with their flying.

A shadow creeps along the broken rail fence. It's a cat; could it belong to a witch? Maybe so. I thought I saw one with a broomstick fly across the sky.

Yes, it's October 31. On this night Saman the lord of the dead calls forth hosts of evil spirits; witches collect their black cats for the rides across the sky. One night in the year everyone is afraid of spooks and goblins.

On the fun side, little children with wide eyes, attend carnivals and go trick-or-treating dressed as ghosts, skeletons, and princesses. Everyone's imagination is stretched to the fullest extent as it should be.

Fortune tellers have their lights, levers and the harvest moon shining over a hay field and pumpkins round out that night usually never forgotten.

It's a time for parties which always include apple-bobbing contests. Giggles is found where clouds of steam and fear once stood.

Have a good time. Keep in the spirit. If you don't the goblins will get you.

There goes that witch again. She's saying something. I think she's wishing everyone a "spooky Halloween."

SHS 'Straight A' Students Revealed
An "A" in the newly-adopted grading system means that a student has done excellent work in a subject. It is not as easy mark to make. An "A" exemplifies careful and courteous attention in classroom lectures plus a lot of outside work in careful study and the doing of homework assignments. It denotes a rigorous self-discipline on the part of the student. Each student should be proud of an "A" if he received one, and all of us, students and faculty alike, should be proud of the following students who received "A's" on all subjects including citizenship.

This is an exclusive "club," and these students are preparing for the future with an exceptional amount of hard work today.

It is with pride, respect, and admiration that we salute the following straight A students:

Senior girls, Betty Carpenter, Nancy Cash, Nan Cushing, and Gail Smith.

Half-Time Shows Require Much Preparation, Work
A lot of preparation is gone into making the spectacular shows a success, especially the ones requiring props. The show Friday night, with the theme of "Harvest Time" needed haystacks and trees. Getting the haystacks was a chore in itself. Several of the band members and Mr. Cowley went out and cut bamboo. It was a sight seeing them struggle with the cumbersome poles; trying their best to tie them in such a way that they would at least resemble haystacks, no matter how slight.

Pete Rana, Rickie Roth and Sally Wallace did a terrific job in sticking the colorful leaves on the bare trees; they were modern day Jack Frost. I'm sure they didn't mind the task.

The props were completed, but the rest of us were struggling to memorize music, as our band, never goes out on the field with music.

The majorettes were very excited because of the novel idea of twirling flags. They worked hard before and after school invariably getting the flags wound on their ballets, but soon all difficulties were ironed out.

After a lot of hard work and morning drills, the show was performed with tremendous success, and already the land and pep club have begun practicing another spectacular.

SHS, Proud Of Pep Club, Band Shows

With their white skirts and orange sweaters contrasting with the trousers and orange and black jackets of the band, the Pep Club made a colorful picture as they marched onto the Winter Park field for one of their very good half-time shows.

For the Wild Cats home people, the Pep Club and Band got into the fall season combined with the near Halloween.

After the Pep Club and Band had finished with their traditional "Fanfare," they marched into a half moon position where the band played "Harvest Moon."

When the band finished playing, the Band and Pep Club, with a lot of excitement and yelling went into an old fashioned square dance, dancing to the tune of that old song "Turkey In The Straw."

Many stunts were played on the boys and they seemed to enjoy it very much.

The officers and other members of the Chapter participated in the initiation. Ben Higgins and Harold Priest were there to assist Mr. West in maintaining order. The initiation turned out to be a great success.

Education Dept. Reveals Guide To Help Teachers

TALLAHASSEE (AP) — The Department of Education has made public a work guide designed to help Florida public school teachers in developing the classroom as a moral and spiritual center.

The guide is the result of the work of a 21-man committee of educators, including teachers from kindergarten through the universities, that was appointed a year ago by State School Superintendent Eugene Weaver, principal of the University School, Florida State University, in Tallahassee.

The guide is described as "a new beginning in Florida to attempt to define the appropriate and acceptable role and function of the public school . . . in the realm of moral and spiritual training."

It is not a textbook, but offers suggestions how teachers may bring moral and spiritual precepts into regular school work.

The guide sets forth five statements which it terms "foundational" in our nation's moral and spiritual foundations. They are:

1. Man is a spiritual being of dignity and worth by virtue of the fact that his origin and destiny is in God, his Creator.
2. As a spiritual being of dignity and worth, man is to be treated as an end in himself and is not to be exploited to serve the ends of others.
3. As a person of dignity and worth, man should endeavor to develop those capacities which are unique to him as an individual. He should not permit his unique individuality to be submerged or unduly threatened by the conformist pressures of society.
4. As a person of dignity and worth, men should recognize and respect these same qualities in his fellowmen and should be responsible for promoting their general welfare.
5. All men are created equal in that they have equal worth in the sight of God, and therefore they have equal rights before the law and deserve equal opportunities in develop to the maximum their innate capacities.

The guide said, "The committee believes that no matter what a teacher is teaching he should be scrupulously conscious of respect for the worth and dignity of each individual pupil in the classroom."

The guide offers what it calls five safeguards. These are:

1. No teacher should use the classroom as a means of proselytizing students of any particular faith.
2. The atmosphere of the classroom should be such that no student feels rejected because of his beliefs or disabilities.
3. If a student asks questions which require theological interpretation, the teacher should refer the pupil to a priest, rabbi or minister of the student's particular faith.
4. Teachers should deal with moral and spiritual subjects as they arise as an integral part of the classroom instruction and experience, and in dealing with these subjects the instructor should avoid giving any sectarian slant to the instruction.
5. In teaching moral and spiritual foundations sound educational principles should be followed. A teacher should include only those types of learning experiences appropriate to the development level of the students of each class.

As a further safeguard the guide recommends that local advisory committees be set up to give local teachers "even more definitive" guidance than is possible at the state level.

Bailey says that "to be silent about religion and the contribution of God-centered religious thought to the growth and development of our nation may be, in effect, to make the public schools an antireligious factor in the community.

The program will be tried out in selected schools this year and a permanent teachers' guide prepared on the basis of findings.

Bailey said the guide has been prepared with the cooperation of Catholics, Protestants and Jews so that the moral principles to be taught would be acceptable to all faiths.

BROOKLYN'S Dodgers have played many roles in baseball history. But Don Larsen, the Yankee perfect game pitcher, is the first fellow to turn 'em into just as much scenery for the World Series' most dramatic show.

Tom Dodgers went to bat and were moved down even faster than were those mythical Ten Little Indians of nursery lore.

The Brooklyn bunch had one thing to be thankful for—they did come out of that game alive.

British scientists are starting a search for the $4 million treasure of King John which disappeared 740 years ago. Four million bucks—there's still a fair amount of spending money even in these high-priced days.

Since King John's treasure vanished in 1216 it does seem sort of futile to look for finger prints.

Managers of an English theater complain there's a lack of nude and performers for his show. Appears he's just barely getting by.

New York City has just opened a plush $30,000 animal shelter. It's equipped with indirect lighting, running water and soft music. A dog's life certainly isn't what it used to be.

Seminole County Area Would Be Advantageous Spot For Airport

In this column on July 30 of this year, we suggested that a new airport facility for Central Florida be built to accommodate the growing industrial, commercial, tourist, and air freight demand.

We also suggested that the new facility be constructed at a more central location, perhaps between Sanford and Orlando, where more people, more industries, more freight could use the facilities to a greater advantage.

If the editorial were reread, one would also find that we suggested that a greater number of airlines would find their way into Central Florida with a larger and more modern airport with 16,000 foot runways accessible from a greater number of highways and central Florida cities.

We were contradicted, so it seems, at an early date. And were reminded that no larger facilities were necessary — that the present airport could take care of the air travel and air freight demand for years to come. This, we knew, was not so.

Now, the suggestions made by The Sanford Herald are being followed. However, we earnestly believe that a new airport to accommodate the mushrooming industrial and military area, should be placed at a more advantageous spot, away from crowded areas — away from intertwining and complex street and highway systems — and at a spot where the facility would serve more people, more industry, more freight shipment, and more military personnel.

Sanford and Seminole County is growing quickly into more than a prominent stage, for recent releases stated that something should be done quickly "before a neighboring community county gets ahead of us."

It isn't the thought of The Sanford Herald to get ahead of anybody. We have never suggested that one community or one area be gagged for the benefit of another. We suggest that the airport for Central Florida be placed at an advantageous location so that "it would serve more people, and more industry, and more freight demand, even more tourists and more military personnel."

Sanford is on the verge of a tide of growth that will bring the population of the now popular city to a mere 50 to 60 thousand citizens. That isn't just "puppy talk" — it is facts that have been projected by experts who know what they are doing. Seminole County will grow percentage-wise — in every section.

And before we know it there will be a docks and terminals located on the St. Johns River at Sanford — this is another fact that we must face and face quickly.

This terminal will make it necessary that we have at our disposal, and not for the exclusive use of the City, but for the use of all Central Florida, an airport that will

The undersigned Democratic nominees for Seminole County public offices in the General Election on November 6, 1956, urge the voters to support the Democratic Party on the local, state and national level.

It is our belief that only through the election of a Democratic Congress and a Democratic administration can we maintain a voice in national affairs and reflect our views in government.

Our own United States Senators and Representatives from Florida, together with their colleagues from our neighboring states, occupy important chairmanships and positions on the influential committees of Congress. They likewise hold high positions within our own Democratic Party.

Their voices, speaking for us as our representatives, can best be heard in Washington by the party of which they are members - the Democratic Party.

Senators Holland and Smathers, Governor Collins, Congressman Herlong and our six other Democratic Florida Congressmen, have endorsed the nominees for the Democratic Party. We join them in urging the election of a Democratic administration and a Democratic Congress in November. In this way, and in this way only, do we have a chance to make our voices heard.

Girls Learn Rules For Volleyball; Play Tournament

BY PENNY MARION

Here it is basketball time for the girls of S. H. S. but that is not my topic (for this column). What I want to talk about is volleyball.

The girls first started with explanations concerning the rules and regulations from our patient Miss Robin. Of course we didn't like that because we wanted to get busy and play. Finally we did and after a week or two of practice, we started tournament. As each class was divided into squads, they played each other to see who would be the winner and the one to play the winning squad of another class for the semi-finals.

These captains of the winning squads playing in the semi-finals are Penny Marion of second period and Frances Stanley of sixth period. To these two teams playing Tuesday "Good luck and may the best team win."

Here's A Test Sure To Prove If Lover Is True

GAINESVILLE—Girls, if you want to find out if your boyfriend is true, then Halloween is the day to do it!

According to an old Irish myth, says Miss Felle W. Clark, assistant in the library at the University of Florida, just put three beans upon the hearth on the eve of Oct. 31. Name the beans after your lover. If a bean cracks or jumps, he will prove untrue, but if it begins to blaze or burn, he has a high regard for you. If the beans named after you and your lover burn together, then he is your future husband.

"This is only one of the many international tales about Halloween," says Miss Clark, "and quite different they are from the original meaning of the celebration."

Halloween was originally called All Hallows' Eve or hallowed or holy evening. It was primarily a religious holiday, but is now celebrated throughout Europe, the British Isles, and the United States as an evening surrounded by the mystery of ghosts, hobgoblins, and witches.

Origin of the festival is believed to be found in the rites of the ancient Druids and the early Romans, says Miss Clark. The Druids believed that on that night the great lord of death, Saman, called together all the wicked souls that had been condemned during the past year, to inhabit the bodies of animals. The peasants gathered together to keep a sharp lookout and built huge bonfires to ward off these evil spirits.

The Romans celebrated in honor of Pomona, the old Italian goddess of the fruit of the trees. At that festival, nuts and apples were roasted over big fires. Hence the present-day custom of apple bobbing still remains.

Through the years, the mystical aspect developed from the feast, dancing and story-telling around the fires. But it took the Irish to develop the romantic angle, for what would be more natural on a mystic evening such as this, than the prophecy of love affairs?

So, if all other tests prove worthless, try eating an apple in front of a mirror on Oct. 31 and watch for the reflection of your future spouse to appear.

Ruth Barron has as her guest this week, Connie Paschal of Jacksonville. Bill Barron is still in Jax going through instrument school, but will be finished next week. Meanwhile Ruth has had a busy time shopping and visiting. VAI-9 will be glad to have Bill back.

Talked to Alice Myers. She and C. E. are thrilled about his orders to Washington. He will be working in the Pentagon under the Chief of Naval Information.

Many old Sanfordites are up there Saralene and like Peters, Lee and Chet Krol, and Ann and Bud Wold. It will be a grand reunion when the Myers arrive.

The Station Wives had their monthly bridge at the B.O.Q. Thursday. Turkey sandwiches were prepared by the kitchen, and hostess Dot Leary brought the dessert, which was rich, zesty, and delicious, but of an unknown quality. Sue Stibbs, H. G. Koch Jr. Wed In Candlelight Service

Miss Sue Alice Stibbs, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Willis Stibbs, DeLand, and Harry George Koch Jr., son of Mrs. Cecilia Sancho, of Miami, and Capt. H. G. Koch, of New Orleans, La., were joined in marriage Saturday at 3:30 p.m. in the First Christian Church in DeLand.

The Rev. Loren A. Danton officiated at the candlelight, double service, which was performed against a background of large baskets of mums and gladioli and potul palms, with the two seven-branched candelabra shedding a soft glow over the scene. The family guests were distinguished by large satin bows.

Miss Carolyn Peters, of St. Petersburg, soloist, sang "Through the Years" and "Because" and was accompanied by Miss Mary Ross Anderson, of Sanford, organist, who also played the traditional wedding marches and other nuptial music. Miss Peters and Miss Anderson are Zeta Tau Alpha Sorority sisters of the bride.

The lovely ceremony in marriage by her father, wore a white tulle gown of layers of nylon tulle over taffeta. The bouffant skirt featured appliques of hand-clipped chintilly lace embroidered with seed pearls. A jacket of chintilly lace was worn over the strapless bodice. She wore elbow-length mitts of tulle, and her finger tip veil, also of nylon tulle, fell from a band of white velvet, edged in pearls. She carried a crescent-shaped cascade of white roses.

Miss Louise Hall, of Sanford, maid of honor, wore a rose-colored cocktail length dress of pure silk. It featured a bateau neckline, ending in a deep "V" in back. The torso was lined and emphasized by clusters of pearls. She wore a pale pink band of velvet with a half veil, and carried a present arrangement of pale pink carnations.

Best man was Charles E. Estley, of DeLand, and the ushers, all Lambda Chi Alpha Fraternity members of the groom, were John Todd, Sanford; John McEwan, DeLand; John Huckleberry, Boston, Ind.; and John Oldham, Evansville, Ind.

Mrs. Stibbs chose for her daughter's wedding, a dress of teal blue tulle cut on princess lines, with matching velvet hat and black accessories. She wore an orchid corsage.

Mrs. Saneholt, mother of the groom, was attired in a green and black print dress, worn with black accessories and an orchid corsage.

Following the wedding, a reception was held in the church parlors, which were decorated with baskets of mums and gladioli and potul palms.

The bride's table was covered with an imported Italian entook cloth, centered with a three-tiered wedding cake, topped with wedding bells. On either side of the cake were silver candelabra, and punch served from a sparkling crystal punch bowl.

Mrs. William Walker, DeLand, kept the bride's book and serving at the reception; were Miss Arline Laquire, DeLand; Miss Dorner Hults, Orlando; Miss Louise Smart, Draper, N. C.; Miss Eileen Biammer, DeLand; Miss Margaret Crosby, DeLand; and Mrs. James Hults, DeLand.

Attending the wedding from Sanford were Mrs. C. A. Anderson Jr., Mrs. Vernon Davis, Mrs. J. C. Mitchell, Mrs. Mary Pritchard, Mrs. William Walker, Mrs. Volie Williams Sr., and half a dozen students from Miss Stibbs' second grade class.

For her going-away outfit Mrs. Koch chose a royal blue velvet sheath dress, fashioned with an empire waistline, and worn with a matching lace jacket, featuring a bateau neckline and velvet buttons down the back. This was set off by black accessories and a corsage of white roses.

After a brief honeymoon trip to an undisclosed destination, Mr. and Mrs. Koch will make their home on E. Kentucky Ave. in DeLand.

The new Mrs. Koch got her B. A. Degree from Stetson University last June, where she was a member of Zeta Tau Alpha Social Sorority. She is at the faculty at Southside Primary School in Sanford.

Mr. Koch is a student of Stetson University's School of Business Administration, where he is a member of Lambda Chi Alpha Social Fraternity.

Students Enjoy Excellent Program

BY SIS STUDENT

Boy, did we have fun in chapel Tuesday morning. It really was a big program.

First we had two speakers, Mr. Milwee and Mrs. M. R. Strickland. Mr. Milwee gave a talk on higher education and Mrs. Strickland presented the UDC History Award to J. D. Stone. We really are proud to have the honor go to someone in S. H. S. Good going J. D.

We then had a magician show by Ernest Southward, which completely dumfounded us. He really was good and we enjoyed it.

The "S. H. S. gospel singers" then sang and gave some of us mighty red faces but it's all for fun, and we get a big kick out of it.

Let's have some more of these chapel programs! Sylvia Price, and her committee have been doing a great job.

Personals

Mr. and Mrs. Burke Steele have returned from Newark, N. Y., where they have been spending the past three months.

Parkers Blank Out Seminoles 20-0

Winter Park's Homecoming and debut into the Orange Belt Conference this season was marred only by an occasional mist as the Parkers blanked out the Sanford Seminoles 20-0 at Harper Shepherd Field in Winter Park Friday night.

The Parker's speed and deception kept the Seminoles rocked back on their heels all night, as Winter Park latched in every quarter but the fourth and penetrated beyond the Seminoles 10 yard marker on two other occasions.

Early in the first quarter Seminoles quarterback Bob Johnson fumbled on his own 43-Jay Bergman and Billy Howell sparked a drive for the Parkers that carried to the six-inch line before the brilliant defensive play of Eddie "The Tiger" Barbour and Brantley "Choo-Choo" Schirard, plus a five yard penalty, moved the ball back to the Seminoles six. Parker halfback Jim Taylor, attempting the smooth fake that had allowed Bergman to go to the six inch line, was chilled by Schirard on the three, jarring loose the ball, and the Seminoles recovered.

Bergman, making masterful fakes all evening, handed off to Howell so perfectly that even the official was fooled. When Bill Tyre cracked through to drop Bergman the official "stomped" the play with the whistle while Howell was rambling around right end for some 65 yards. But three plays later both Bergman and Howell redeemed themselves as Howell slipped behind Sanford safetyman Jim Warner to latch onto a Bergman pass and go for the remaining of the 61 yards for paydirt.

In the second quarter the Parkers drove 70 yards for their second tally. With a first and goal at the Seminoles one-yard line, Ken Plante had little trouble making the tally. Jim Taylor made his first successful conversion of the evening, and the half-time spectacle was performed before the confident homecoming fans as the Parkers led 13-0.

On the second half opening kickoff, Warner fumbled on his own 34 to set up the third Parker score. Winter Park's John Jane, on three successive carries, led the Parkers to the Seminoles 11 yard line, where Breeman relieved Jane of his duties and plunged for the 11 yards and pay dirt on the next play. Taylor again booted true, and the Parkers had themselves their fifth victory of the season.

The Seminoles made their deepest penetration of the evening in the second quarter. Starting on their own 35 yard line the Seminoles went on the move, with Schirard, Johnson, and Johnny Williams, and Warner sparking the attack. Schirard moved the ball to the 45 yard line, and on the next play Johnson passed to Williams, who snagged the aerial, crossed the mid-field str., and ambled to the 18 before he was brought down. Then, on the next play, Warner picked up a first down for the Seminoles by moving the ball to the Parker's eight. Two plays later the drive chilled as Johnson fired a short aerial to the left flat and Howell intercepted for Winter Park.

In the fading minutes of the game the Parkers again went on the move, but this time they were contained by the Seminoles defense. Bergman, on a roll-out play around left and rambled for 25 yards before being brought down by Warner on the 10 yard line. At the 10 the defensive unit dug in and held for downs, and the game ended with the Seminoles going to the air in a desperate attempt to get into the scoring column. It was the first time the Seminoles were blanked out this season.

Schirard and Barbour, making

Progress Reports Heard At Peanut Bowl Meeting

Jim Burkler called a meeting of Peanut Bowl Chairman and interested parties at 7:30 on October 25. The purpose of this meeting was for each chairman to make a progress report.

Mrs. R. L. Parker, ticket chairman, reported that tickets were purchased and sales will begin immediately. J. T. Baggerly and Lee Samuels are to handle the ticket sales in the downtown area. No child will be allowed to sell tickets in this area. The Room Mothers have been given tickets for the children to sell and they will release their tickets on November 2.

Dan Wright, publicity chairman, reported that he has obtained banners which will be repainted and strung across streets down town. He also suggested a television interview with Don McAllister to be arranged on December 6. Burkler gave a short description of the half time ceremonies which are to take place, and announced that Dick Aiken will have a portable public address system on the field to announce the game and half time proceedings. Elmer Wontney, the concession chairman, was absent, due to the illness of his son, but a vote of confidence was given to him so that he could make all the necessary arrangements for the peanut and popcorn sales.

Approximately twenty interested persons attended this meeting according to the secretary pro tem, H. R. Heckenbach.

over 90 percent of the tackles for the defensive unit, kept the Seminoles respectable in the ball game.

Lyman 11 Smothered By Terriers 30-0

The Titusville Terriers broke a close game wide open with a final stanza scoring spree Friday night in Titusville to smother Lyman 30-0.

Terrier Roy Puckett was the fire-ball for the Titusville team as he scored twice, intercepted two Greyhound aerials, and set-up two other touchdowns.

The outmanned Greyhounds held the Terriers scoreless for the first quarter and allowed the Terriers only one TD per quarter in the second and third stanzas before they gave out of gas and Titusville ran wild.

In the second stanza Puckett returned a Greyhound punt to Lyman's own 15, and after an exchange of fumbles near the Greyhound goal, Puckett finally bulldozed over from four yards out.

On the first play of the second half Lyman again fumbled, and the Terriers recovered to set up the second tally. Puckett finally failed over from four yards out.

Favored Panthers Lose Friday's Tilt To Palatka 36-6

The Crooms Academy Panthers, after opening the season with a bang, hit the skids Friday night with a 36-6 rout by Palatka. The Panthers were favored two touchdowns.

Last week the highly favored Panthers were tied by Hungerford of Winter Park 6-6. Head mentor Joe Fair attributed the tie to overconfidence on the part of the staff and players and the high spirits of the Winter Park team.

As yet there have been no statements by either Crooms Academy or coach Fair concerning the one-sided score Friday night in Palatka.

Puckett intercepted one Greyhound pass and returned it to the one yard line, only to have the Terriers fumble away the scoring opportunity.

MRS. E. PRUDEN HERNDON, Georgia's first woman Negro lawyer, is shown in Washington after she was admitted to practice before the U.S. Supreme Court. Mrs. Herndon has been practicing law in Atlanta for 13 years. (International)

Spotlight On Hollywood

HOLLYWOOD - Ben Alexander looked natural enough, playing the sidekick to a law enforcer. But there was a difference. He was playing a deputy sheriff, not officer Frank Smith of TV's Dragnet. His buddy was not Sgt. Joe Friday, alias Jack Webb, but Jeff Chandler instead. But the most shocking thing was - Alexander was drunk! All this was in a movie scene, of course - Universal International's "Pay the Devil." The scene had Alexander drunk on duty at the insistence of the heavy. "If my partner Webb could see me now, he'd kill me," Alexander laughed.

He was obviously having the time of his life - and no wonder. It was his first film role aside from Dragnet in 22 years! "The last picture I made was right on this lot," he reflected. "That was in 1931. After that I went with NBC and I've been with them ever since."

Ben's film career dates back to the first World War, when he appeared as a child actor with D. W. Griffith. He grew up in pictures during the 20's, playing in whole some films like "Pent and Sam" and "Boy of Mine."

His big break as a young man came in 1933, when he appeared in "All Quiet on the Western Front."

"Universal wanted to sign me to a term contract," he recalled. "But Lewis Milestone, the director of the picture, advised me to hold out until it was released. Then I'd get offers from all the studios."

"So what happened?" the picture was released and nobody could tell us apart in those uniform, except for Lew Ayers. I didn't work for two years!"

Later he went into radio as an announcer and quiz master, edging into TV after the war. His association with Webb turned out to be a golden one for all concerned. Now at 43, Ben is better known than he ever was as a kid star.

He's on a sabbatical from Dragnet right now, since enough films have been made to run through mid 1957.

THE CARD OF THANKS Very often a Card of Thanks in the Sanford Herald meets a need which is difficult to fill in any other way. Not only is it a genuine expression of gratitude to those who have sent floral tributes but also courteously acknowledges the services and kindnesses of the many to whom a personal note of thanks cannot well be mailed.

Newspaper Cards of Thanks are accepted as socially correct. Emily Post, the noted authority on etiquette, feels they serve many good uses.

There is no prescribed form for a Card of Thanks. It can be as brief or as detailed as you desire. When the occasion comes you will find a sympathetically understanding member of our staff to assist you.

THE "IN MEMORIAM" NOTICE It is the custom of many families in this country to commemorate a bereavement by an "In Memoriam" notice in newspaper classified columns. They find a real solace therein. Preparation or selection of a suitable verse brings back to them tender, pleasant recollections. As Eliza Cook, the English poet has so beautifully expressed it: "How cruelly sweet are the echoes that start when memory plays an old tune on the heart!"

Most frequently an In Memoriam is inserted on the anniversary of death. However, other dates, which it is felt are appropriate or meaningful are also selected. The birthday of the departed, the wedding anniversary, Memorial Day, even Christmas are among other significant occasions chosen.

If you are hesitant to express your tender thoughts in poetic form, you may avail yourself of the Herald's collection of original verses. These express in poetic beauty the emotions of the heartstrings. Among them are verses appropriate to any circumstance.

THE RATE Cards of Thanks are $1.00 per insertion regardless of size. In Memoriam notices, due to the fact they may run to considerable length, are billed at $1.00 per column inch.

Release Monday, Oct.
