Home-Made Candy Again Popular

Trade Observers See This Product Featured Christmas

Home-made candy is to be one of the features of the holiday season this year, according to the trade observers who keep their ears to the ground for months before Christmas and New Year's.

Whether it is the aftermath of several depression years that has brought back home-made candy to its new popularity, or whether it is all just the swing of a cycle, is not particularly important to the average home-maker. The fact remains, that home-made candy is quite the fashion this year, and more of it will be made in American kitchens than ever before in the history of the country.

As to the kinds of candy that are to feature this new vogue, it may be safely predicted that many of the old favorites will retain their popularity. But there will also be novelties, based on new recipes, in which the new scientific kitchen will play its part, with the exactitude of cooking thermometers and oven-regulators and electric refrigeration playing a big part in the resultant product. Nell B. Nichols, famous cooking editor of the Woman's Home Companion, supplies a list of the "best sellers" among the new candy recipes. Here are the first ten of her recommendations:

Bitter Sweet Fudge: Melt 3-4 pound dipping chocolate in double boiler. Remove from stove, add 1 can sweetened condensed milk, 1-2 teaspoon salt, 1 teaspoon vanilla, 1 cup coarsely chopped California walnuts. Chill overnight in buttered pan.

Orange Taffy: Cook 2 cups sugar, 1-4 cup water, juice of 2 oranges to hard-ball stage. Pour on buttered plate. When cool enough to handle, pull with tips of fingers. Stretch into long rope without twisting. Break in pieces with knife when cold.

Spiced Brazil Nuts: Roast nuts, rub off skins; while hot stir in a little butter. Place in flat pan, sprinkle with sugar and cinnamon; also if desired a powdering of cloves and nutmeg; stir well, return to oven stirring often for 5 to 7 minutes. Serve hot or cold.

Lemon Circles: Stir together 2 cups sugar, 1-4 tsp water and 1 tablespoon lemon juice. Boil without stirring to the firm-ball stage. Chill and beat until the mixture begins to have cloudy appearance. Add yellow coloring. Drop in circles on waxed paper.

Rondie Confections: Steam for 5 minutes 1 cup each dried apricots, peaches; chop fine while hot. Blend thoroughly with 1 table-spoon honey, 1 cup delicately browned coconut. Shape into small balls or into round loaf, chill and slice.

Peach Jelly Squares: Soften 2 tablespoons gelatine. Combine with 1 cup dried peach puree, 1-4 cup orange juice, 1-2 teaspoon grated rind, 1-2-4 cups sugar. Boil gently 20 minutes. Cool, pour into lined pan, set overnight. Cut, roll in sugar.

Uncooked Fudge: Melt 1 bar dipping chocolate. Add 1-8 pound butter. Work in 2 cup confection-er's sugar. Add 2 eggs, stir well, add another cup confection-er's sugar, 1-4 cup broken nuts, 1 teaspoon vanilla. Set in buttered pan in refrigerator.

Peanut Chew: 1-2 cups sugar, 1-3 corn sirup (white), 1 cup light brown sugar, 1 (1) can evaporated milk, 1 cup cream, 1-2 pound butter, 1 cup water. Stir, cooking at 240 degrees. Remove from stove, add salt, 1-2 pound pean-ut meats.

Candied Walnuts: Cook 2 cups sugar, 2-4 cup water, 1-2 teaspoon cream tartar, in heavy pan. Stir only until sugar is dissolved; then cook to hard-crack stage (300 to 310 degrees). Thin sirup. Drop in halves of California walnuts. Skim out.

Hollywood Neutogs: Cook 2 cups sugar, 1 1/2 cups white corn sirup, 1-2 cup water to 4" hard-crack stage. Beat 2 egg whites, add 8 ounces honey, beat stiff. Add hot sirup, beat till thick. Add 1-4 pound each chopped un-blanched almonds, chocolate nuts.

Of Liberia's 2,500,000 inhabitants, about 60,000 are said to be civilized.

The great auk, now extinct, was as large as a goose, stood two feet tall and could not fly.

BAKED MASHED SQUASH
Special Note—This is for those especially who do not like squash. You can serve this dish as your vegetable. It will be eaten with gusto. Of course, do not say it is squash but serve special new and expensive vegetable and they will never recognize it as squash.

1-2 lbs. of white summer squash (this is obtainable all winter) 1 medium tin onion, chopped 1 egg 2 tbs. butter

1-2 cup buttered bread crumbs 1-2 cup equal weight tender salt water. If it is young and tender do not peel, just cut up. Drain thoroughly and wash with a fork or potato masher. Brown the onions slightly in butter. Beat egg for 2 or 3 minutes and add to squash when cooled, with onion and butter. Mix thoroughly with salt and pepper to taste. Put in pyrex dish and sprinkle buttered bread crumbs on top. Bake in moderate oven for 25 minutes or until crumbs are good and brown.

This cake is very fine as a base for strawberry or peach shortcake.

Just split the whole cake in half, put strawberries mashed with little sugar or sliced canned peaches (drained) in middle of cake. Place other half of cake on top and a few more of the berries or peaches on top. Spread over with 1-2 pint whipped cream sweetened with 2 tbs. granulated sugar and flavor with 1-2 Sp. vanilla.

They asserted it would be a spectacular account of intrigue and undercover efforts by lobbyists to obtain government business. Simultaneously it developed today that the House military affairs committee, which started an investigation of the department's contract awarding system, is planning to reassemble in Washington shortly to resume its inquiry.

COMMON SENSE HELD NEEDED IN VALUING HOMES

Landis, Lee Tell Tax Assessors How To Apply New Measure

JACKSONVILLE, Nov. 17. (AP)—Florida's tax assessors yesterday were told the only values to be considered in the application of the Homestead Tax Exemption Amendment were those appearing on the assessment rolls for the Attorney General Landis and Comptroller Lee concurred in expressing this view to the county tax assessors at the annual convention here. Both urged the assessors to meet as an informal tax commission to equalize taxation burdens.

A steady stream of queries concerning the state's new amendment, which exempts from ad valorem taxation all homesteads up to $5000 valuation, was presented to the comptroller and the attorney general by the assessors who sought to clarify the status of the law.

"Cash values are not to be figured for the best market value," Attorney General Landis said. He suggested that the assessors "inject into the figuring the common sense element." If such a course were to be followed, he (Continued On Page Two)

BIG BUSINESS MOVES TO AID IN PROSPERITY

National Trade Body Swings Behind President With Promise Of Full Co-Operation

WASHINGTON, Nov. 17.—Business and industry moved last night to throw their powerful support behind the New Deal.

A few hours after the board of directors of the United States Chamber of Commerce had heard its finance committee report that there were little hopes of balancing the budget during the next fiscal year, they adopted a resolution pledging to co-operate with other organizations to hasten recovery.

The resolution was brought out of a committee headed by Silas H. Strawn, former president of the chamber, a Chicago attorney and the man who directed the raising of $800,000 in the Midwest for the campaign of Herbert Hoover.

"The recent election proved conclusively that the people of this country overwhelmingly support President Roosevelt," Strawn said in explaining the resolution to a group of newspaper correspondents shortly after it had been approved.

The resolution noted that since the last meeting of the board of directors there has been evidence of a growing determination by business, industry and agriculture to co-operate in every possible manner with the Administration.

In addition, it was stated, utterances by President Roosevelt encourage the belief that he is "fully conscious of this attitude and that he is receptive of suggestions for the promotion of the common welfare."

These utterances, a spokesman for the chamber said, included Roosevelt's message to the American Bankers' Association in which he promised to withdraw the government from lending activities as soon as private capital proved its willingness and ability to function. His message to social workers Wednesday night that there can be no security for the individual in the midst of general economic insecurity, also was heartening to the industrialists. It was stated.

The chamber pledges itself to co-operate to the fullest with all other organizations in an endeavor to reach a common agreement upon a program which will be fair and just to all and which will accelerate the efforts toward recovery," the resolution said.

President Harrison was authorized to appoint committees to meet with groups from various manufacturers' associations, farm organizations and similar factions. The chamber committees, it was stated, also will meet with representatives of organized labor if such conferences can be arranged.

Officials of the chamber made no secret of the fact that they would move swiftly in an attempt to unite the various interests behind a program in anticipation of the threatened swing to the left by (Continued On Page Two)

HUEY ASSUMES FULL POWERS OF A MONARCH

Obedient Legislature Extends Senator's Dictatorship Over All Parts Of State

BATON ROUGE, La., Nov. 17. (AP)—Senator Huey P. Long assumed powers of a monarch over Louisiana's 2,250,000 people yesterday and pronounced it "the greatest triumph for human uplift and sober government this county has ever witnessed."

His obedient legislature enacted 44 new laws, extending the "dictatorship" over every village, farm over cross road constables and metropolitan police, over public utility corporations, over tax and election machinery, even down to the commissions which pick the juries in New Orleans and the men who serve warrants for arrests.

The legislators broke all speed records for mass lawmaking, mindful of the fact that the Long machine has crushed all opposition at the last two elections, and controls the future political destinies of every public servant in Louisiana not in the payroll of the federal government.

The 44 bills were passed, sealed and delivered in 84 hours and 21 minutes, despite the cumbersome procedure outlined by the state constitution. Committee approved bills they had never seen and passed amendments tacked to them by Long which had never been officially printed.

Chairman Edward Burke, of the house ways and means committee, deeply resented the claim that the senate finance committee passed the bills quicker than the house committee.

"Why, we beat the house by 12 minutes," he complained. Long was hilarious. "Mine is the first political organization in history that's popular with the masses. That's why we're going to keep on winning," was his comment.

"Share the wealth" is Long's slogan. It means, he says, "sock the rich, especially the big corporations." (Continued On Page Five)

HOMER VERSE FOR TODAY

THE WAY OF SAFETY: The Lord knoweth the way of the righteous...

SONNET: Oh, never, never, never, never, never, never!

Wonder if Huey's delinquency applies to those who have borrowed books.

What eventually is wondering now is when there is going to be an Armistice Day in this economic war.

In Italy the youth of the country are being organized into what is commonly known as infantia.

What this country needs is a good $400 airplane. A sort of sky chasing Ford.

That old G. O. P. elephant may have lost his tusk in the recent fight, but there's still a lot of ivory in the general headquarters.

Senator Bob LaFollette, now a visitor in Florida, provided the front page picture for Time News Magazine this week.

More tourists than ever are coming to Florida this winter and incidentally, Sanford is getting organized so as to get as many as possible to remain here with us.

Anyway, who wants to make a round trip flight from New York to Miami in one day? Once they get down there they'll want to stay a week at least.

The Merchants-Lampy Company is among those big business houses which are reporting improvement over the preceding year.

Since government expenditures began running into so many figures (600,000,000), it's no wonder the people are beginning to think a billion dollars is just nothing.

Sinclair's defeat might be a lesson to others who, in order to be elected to office, would concoct all manner of promises.

Some months ago it was announced in the newspapers that Andrew Mellon had purchased a million dollars worth of rare paintings from the Soviet government.

Mr. Mellon's secretary promptly denied the report declaring that the newspapers were entirely misinformed.

Miller's 10 yard trip off tackle was the longest run of the game from scrimmage, while a 15 yard pass from Hardman to Johnson and from Hardman to Miller were the longest runs through the air.

Landon, netted 113 yards from scrimmage to only 89 yards netted

Political Sentiment At Vassar

Only 11.02 percent of 735 faculty members and students at Vassar College believe that capitalism should be abolished.

The questionnaire was sent to all faculty members and all students. Only 60 percent of the students responded and slightly less than 10 percent of the faculty.

Tabulations of the responses showed that 34.01 percent think there should be a redistribution of wealth by taxation or other means.

In statistics obtained from the senior class it was found that 60 percent would have voted for Hoover in 1932, while only 31 percent would vote for him today.

The total number of conservatives was 240, or 32.65 percent. The percentage of liberals was 52.7 percent, and of radicals 6.1 percent.

The response which indicated the liberal opinion most clearly was to the question of approving tax increases.

Another barometer which the government often turns to as a gauge of the rise and fall of business in the United States is the Patent Office.

In 1925, all applications for patents, trade marks, designs, etc., totaled 114,496 for the year.

As yet the flood of patent applications, according to the United States News, has not deluged the Patent Office.

When that day comes it will probably mean that the 2,000,000 patent application mark has been reached.

The Jackson Times-Union prints an interview with Alfred duPont, president of the Alcoa Securities Company.

That would mean Senate Democratic control for almost a year, and the House pass out of their possession in the elections two years hence.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 17. - If the few remaining Republicans in the Senate could eavesdrop on the schemes being hatched around Democratic headquarters...

As a matter of fact only the seat held by Norris of Nebraska and possibly that by Couzens of Michigan may escape a determined contest.

Senator Borah of Idaho already is a marked man. His outspoken criticism of the "New Deal" especially his bombardment of NRA and AAA have caused him to be set down at the head of Farley's list for political slaughter.

Next to Borah those singled out as special objects of the Democratic attack are Dickinson of Iowa, Hastings of Delaware, McNary of Oregon and Schall of Minnesota.

Dickinson has been marked for "retirement" because of his persistent attack on Administration policies, especially the vast program of government spending under the "New Deal."

Democratic statisticians have it figured out that no matter what happens in '36 to the presidency or the House, Republicans can't possibly regain control of the Senate then.

That would mean Senate Democratic control for almost a year, and the House pass out of their possession in the elections two years hence.

ENFORCEMENT OF NRA CODES SEEN AS MORE CERTAIN

WASHINGTON, Nov. 17. - More vigorous enforcement of code regulation of American business, regarded as NRA's most urgent need, was previewed yesterday in the creation of a special justice department office for handling recovery cases.

Attorney General Cummings named G. Stanleigh Arnold of San Francisco, to this post as his special assistant, and said Arnold would operate both at justice and NRA in speeding Blue Eagle litigation to the courts.

The undersigned, as a grower of citrus fruit in Florida, requests that the citrus marketing agreement tentatively approved Oct. 17, 1934, be put into effect immediately.

Space is provided for the grower to sign, with his address, the number of boxes he shipped, and the marketing agency.

The board accepted a draft of the statement with the provision that a committee be appointed to study it and make any changes thought advisable.

President Taylor appointed W. C. Van Clief, Winter Haven; C. A. Garrett, Kissimmee; and Frank G. Clark, Indian River City, as a committee to see that the petition gets to all growers in Florida, and especially those not affiliated with the exchange.

Following are the larger shippers listed as having "to the best information available" already supported the marketing agreement:

American Fruit Growers, Atwood Groves, Thomas M. Boyd, J. V. D'Albora, Deep Lake Company (Barron Collier), Florida Citrus Exchange, Gentle Brothers Company, Grower Sales Service, Holloway Fruit Company, Lake Wales Citrus Growers Association, M. S. S. Fruit Company, Mammoth Groves, Manatee Fruit Company, Manassas Fruit Company, W. H. McBride, Dr. P. Phillips Company, Southern Fruit Distributors, Stetson Estates, Terra Cera Citrus Growers Association, Wadford Fruit Company.

A few of the principal points brought out in the statement follow:

The effectiveness of a marketing agreement was demonstrated profitably last season.

Without an agreement this season Florida growers will lose millions of dollars.

National growers' representatives on national committees will protect Florida growers; Florida may have great need of national protection of grapefruit.

The cash buyer is protected by the marketing agreement.

Criticism of the control committee is unfair, and intended to block the agreement.

LAFOLLETTE SEES NEED OF CAPITAL EXPENDITURES

Wisconsin Solon Says Wheels Of Industry Must Be Greased

JACKSONVILLE, Nov. 17.—Until huge capital expenditures are made to grease the wheels of industry, no significant recovery which is available but dependent due not to the lack of confidence but to industrial stagnation in America will not be possible.

This, LaFollette, Wisconsin Representative from Wisconsin, who lectured last night at the Women's Club, under the auspices of the Civic organization.

The famous Wisconsin solon, who described his party in 1932 to support President Roosevelt spoke for more than an hour on the subject of "The Washington Scene." He frankly discussed the Roosevelt Administration, expressed his opinion of the causes of the depression and expounded his theories on what can be done to return the United States to normalcy.

The course of America was set toward the depression when this country entered the World War, according to Senator LaFollette, when the earning power of every civilized country was wrecked by the terrific number of fatalities and casualties during the conflict.

Senator LaFollette described the condition of America at the outbreak of the war, when America entered the European struggle when the armistice was declared and the approach of the stock market boom. "We had a blighted, starved, man-power was blighted and the entire economic life of America was dislocated," the distinguished orator declared.

Then he talked about the means to bring in stocks and bonds which were the United States. "Working capital, which should have been put to use, was attracted to Wall Street to finance the speculations of amateurs and professionals," the close friend of President Roosevelt asserted. "When the crash came it wiped out the reserves of millions of people and crushed the purchasing power of the nation," he declared.

America was at the same time the victim of consumer credit expansion or better known as purchasing on the installment plan, which really postponed the final reckoning which was inevitable," Senator LaFollette continued. "Before the crash, we were producing in great quantities and right now, in the land of riches, there is suffering due to over-production."

The noted speaker outlined the plight of the farmers, and the city toilers. "Farmers are producing below the actual cost of production and business and professional men are hovering on the borderline of failure," he stated. "This is a grave crisis, and recovery, a speedy recovery is necessary, and in my opinion, the suffering and losses sustained by our people have been unnecessary."

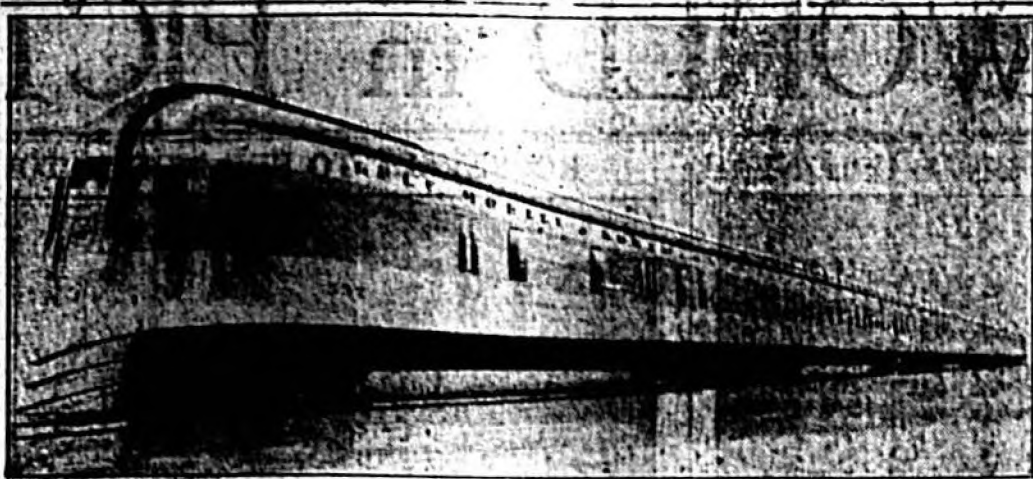

A graphic picture of the hardships endured by the pioneers of America was portrayed by the speaker. "Their struggles built this nation created its resources, and in the last four decades it has been brought out of the age of scarcity into an age of plenty. But are we going to lose this in just a few years?" he asked.

One remedy for the depression would be to start a nation-wide revival in building construction, according to Senator LaFollette. Another would be the immediate payment of the soldiers' bonus, which would create jobs with decent wages. The depression cannot be killed by relief activities either on the part of the federal government or local political subdivisions.

He praised Roosevelt's fight against the depression by creating many worthwhile projects. "People object to spending money for relief, but they will urge the spending of money for wars," he declared, "but I hope some day to see the Constitution of the United States changed so that we can make war only in case of invasion of America."

Senator LaFollette said he advocated government ownership of munition plants; large Federal loans to home owners and farmers to keep them from losing their properties; abolition of franchises on public utility utilities because of their operation; limitation of advertising; abolition of greater Federal appropriations for relief; a graduated business tax scale to raise funds to battle the crisis and the

SOUTH'S FIRST 'BULLET' TRAINS NEAR COMPLETION

Shortly after the first of the year the South will see its first stream-lined trains in operation. Similar to the "bullet" trains of the type which have set speed records in the East and Middle West recently, the new trains, being built for the Gulf, Mobile and Northern road, will be operated between New Orleans and Jackson, Tenn. They are expected to run between 70 and 80 miles an hour. A novel feature of the new trains, a sketch of one of which is shown, will be giant spotlights through the domes of the engines which will send beams skyward as they travel through the night.

Revival of business and industry as well as a new era of progress may be created for the unemployed.

Miami Commission Can't Decide On Tax Rate For Bars

MIAMI, Nov. 17.—(AP)—With three members of the city commission favoring a license low enough to allow liquor to be sold at what dealers say will be a profit, and a fourth member holding up for moderately high licenses, Mayor E. G. Sewell yesterday stood alone in his demand that distillers be charged $2,000, wholesalers $1,500, and bars, $1,000.

Commissioner Orville Rigby said he favored the same scale previously advocated by Commissioners Harry Platt and A. D. H. Fossey, which would be $1,000 for manufacturers, $500 for wholesaler, and $250 for retailers. He said he did not see, however, how licenses could be scaled down as low as $50, as some advocated, except in cases of 3.2 beer.

Commissioner C. H. Reeder favored a higher license scale than that of Commissioners Platt, Rigby and Fossey, but slightly lower than that sought by the mayor. His idea is that the city should charge wholesalers, $1,000, manufacturers, somewhat less than the mayor's $2,000, and retailers $750 a year if they sell all classes of liquor.

Reeder added he thought any action regarding licenses at this time would be "temporary, because the Legislature will tell us in April what we should charge." For that reason, he said, he favored issuance of licenses for fractional portions of the year to begin with and until the legal situation is straightened out.

HUEY ASSUMES FULL POWERS OF A MONARCH

(Continued From Page 1) Huey, and give the little man a chance. Huey has been making his special sessions of the Legislature in three months, creating an arena out of Louisiana's political arena, where wars were fought in freedom's name before the days of Napoleon.

The only approved "copy man's" law passed at this session is the celebrated debt moratorium, which became effective at once under terms of an emergency resolution. Even the "debt-exemption" certificate will be administered by a board of state officers, whom Long controls from governor down.

MAY SHARE REYNOLDS MILLIONS

The long court battle over the division of the $25,000,000 estate of the late Smith Reynolds, young tobacco heir, appeared near settlement as litigants and their attorneys gathered in Winston-Salem, N. C., and pressed for an early hearing. It was believed that a compromise agreement might be reached whereby the estate is divided three ways. In that case the division would be among the daughter born to his first wife, Anne Cannon Reynolds (deceased), right Christopher Smith Reynolds, a pishumous son, and the child's mother, Tibby Halman Reynolds, Broadway blues singer who was Reynolds' second wife. It has made subordinate police authorities understand they are amenable to proper disciplinary action when they do wrong."

Harry Hopkins Goes Into Detail To Answer Varied Charges Against FERA

NEW YORK CITY, Nov. 17.—All the varied charges which have been made against the administration of federal relief funds from playing politics to simple extravagance, are answered squarely by Harry L. Hopkins in a question and answer interview published today by a popular magazine.

Regarding politics, the interview proceeds as follows: Q. What is your answer to the charge that relief funds are being used to strengthen state, county and city political machines?

A. I challenge anybody to prove that. The FERA has stated that politics shall not govern the administration of relief. We tolerate no political interference. Most political leaders are careful to avoid any responsibility for the administration of relief.

Q. So the politicians, as a whole, have not bothered you? A. Politicians are one of the least of my worries. I've had more trouble from a few unscrupulous business men. They occasionally try to gyp us when we buy food and other supplies.

On the subject of relief expenditures, the interview goes on: Q. What is all this costing? What does the FERA pay out?

A. About $100,000,000 per month, exclusive of appropriations for drought relief. The Congress appropriated $25,000,000 for drought relief at the last session.

Q. How much have you, as FERA head, spent since taking office in May, 1933?

A. About $1,850,000,000. This includes $500,000,000 appropriated when I took office, $400,000,000 for the CWA made available in November 1933, and $950,000,000 authorized by Congress for the CWA and other relief work in February 1934.

Q. Now, Mr. Hopkins, it's hard to see the problem in terms of billions and millions of dollars. What does your relief program mean to an average American family—of four people?

A. In cold cash, about $23 per month per family. Of course, it is obviously impossible for a family to live on $23 a month. Many of these on relief have some other income.

Q. Is it true that the average daily income per individual from relief is only fifty cents?

A. It's less than that; about twenty cents. But I haven't much use for these averages; they are dangerous. Our relief is given on a budgetary basis to each family. One may need only $5 a month, while another must have $50 worth of relief.

Q. In addition to the cash payments are food and clothing supplied?

A. Oh, yes. The point to remember is that the FERA has never been able to provide an adequate standard of living. We provide a bare minimum; protection against hunger and cold. Relief grants are now substantially below anything save a minimum. We try to see that families have enough food, clothing and medical attention.

Q. How much relief, per month, is given in commodities such as food and clothing?

A. From $8,000,000 to $10,000,000.

Q. How many paid employees are there in the FERA?

A. 342.

Q. How much does it cost to administer each dollar of relief?

A. About eight cents.

Q. Just how staggering is the burden, now that another winter approaches? How many families are now wholly dependent on federal relief?

A. No one is solely on federal relief, because state and local funds are combined with federal grants. Our latest figures show that 3,830,000 families and 525,000 individuals were receiving some relief from public funds.

Q. How many people is that as a total?

A. About 17,925,000 men, women, and children.

Q. Almost one sixth of the entire population of the United States?

A. Yes.

Q. What is your estimate of the peak to be reached this winter?

A. It is impossible to name any figure. There is always an increase in winter, due to coal and clothing needs. It is reasonable to assume that there will be an increase in the relief load this winter.

to prevent a larger and larger pauper population

A. Work, rather than direct relief, whether in cash or food, is the only way. I have already said that work relief is more costly; it's up to the taxpayer. On the other hand, the danger of a pauper class is much overemphasized by certain groups of people. Those of us who have jobs and are comfortable and well fed like to adopt a superior attitude toward men out of work. It's a cruel and wrong attitude. We call them paupers because we object to the burdens of relief.

Q. Are we always to have this problem of unemployment? Do you think we shall have a permanent unemployed class?

A. For once, I can give an optimistic answer. Of course, there will always be some people out of work; some have always been unemployed even when prosperity has been greatest. But I do believe that the needs of the United States require the service of all the others in the production of goods and services. Any other view is a defeatist one to which I cannot subscribe.

Q. Mr. and Mrs. J. Hyatt of Sanford spent the day here with her mother, Mrs. E. J. Rivers, last Thursday.

Miss Betty Overstreet is improving after a week's illness.

Emory Rivers of New York City is expected home soon.

Ten convicts in French penal colonies in the West Indies, including two inmates of infamous Devil's Island, fled in the 14-foot sailing boat shown on the right and reached Aruba Island, a Dutch possession, after 32 days of hardships and suffering on the open sea. Jean Duverney (left), leader of the fugitives, is shown on deck of their craft at Aruba. HAMPERED BY INJURIES TARS WILL STAY IDLE

Gruelling Miami Game Still Felt By Some Regular Players

WINTER PARK, Fla., Nov. 17.—It is doubtful if the Rollins Tars will engage in scrimmage sessions at all before meeting Cumberland University's powerhouses at Tinker Field Friday night of the exhibition of boxing.

Other results: H. C. Tippins won over T. H. Ellis after a fast bout in which two rounds were declared draws. Buddy Oglesby defeated Ellsworth Hoover two out of three rounds.

Joe Johnson had a slight edge over Laurence Barineau to win. O. W. Mathews took all three rounds from Duane Tillis.

Charlie Thurston and Marvin Smith fought to a draw, a decision which pleased the fans.

James Lowe, outwitted by Cecil Carleton, pounded his way to victory in all of three rounds in one of the best bouts of the evening.

Leroy Eastidge and Ray Edge fought a draw that had the fans on edge from the start.

Clifford Williams was declared the winner over Joe Crumshaw, in two of three rounds.

Fredman Hall defeated Billy Tippins in two of three rounds as the feature bout in the 10-year-old class.

Ring officials were Clarence Peckham, Stanley Peckham, George Deitch, Robert Cameron, Walter Bach, and others. Names of the boys qualified for the contest will be announced Monday.

The physical condition of some of the regulars demands that they be given all the rest they can get and some of the members of the squad have been told to stay off the field until they have recovered from their aches and pains. The injured list now includes Jardine, with a broken nose; McInnis, with a broken nose; Mobley, who is recovering from a broken hand; Roth, with lameness in his shoulders; Miller, with torn ligaments in his shoulders; Murphy, with leg injuries; Malone, with an ankle trouble; Hines, with a trick knee which disconnects at the slightest provocation; and Chakales, with a sore shoulder.

Outside of these lads, the squad is in swell shape. In fact two or three of the players have no aches or pains at all.

Under these conditions, Coach McDowell will confine the daily practice periods to light drilling and signal practice. The Tar mentor is on guard against "staleness" and is hoping that the squad will get back into its normal stride this week as final preparations get underway for the hard game with Cumberland.

However, there is no tendency to take the Cumberland lads lightly. Last year's defeat at the hands of the Tennessee team is still fresh in the memory of the Tar veterans.

Air conditioning has been making notable progress in the Philippine Islands, installations being made recently in motion picture theaters, offices, hospitals, and residences.

200 Believed Dead As Result Of Typhoon

MANILA, Nov. 17.—(AP)—Two hundred persons were reported killed in the town of Mauban by Thursday's typhoon according to an unconfirmed report to the American Red Cross today.

More than 30 others were known dead in scattered points throughout southeastern Luzon Island on which Manila is situated.

The report was telegraphed from Tayabas province by General Ong, Red Cross representative for the province to headquarters of the Philippine chapter here.

General Frank Murphy ordered two government cutters to stand by in case they are needed to carry Red Cross and other relief parties into the devastated areas.

The damage unofficially was placed at $250,000.

Sport fishermen of the United States spent an estimated $115,000 for equipment, transportation and hotel accommodations during the last year.

SHOLTZ PLANS QUICK VISIT TO Ocala School

She alleged the girls of the school had improper relations with negro convicts, sent from the state prison to work about the grounds, in exchange for cigarettes and liquor, and declared some of the girls had dope smuggled in to them.

Many of the girls, she charged, had venereal diseases and were not segregated from others. Judge Ward asked the Governor for an investigation of the charges.

Mrs. Lola Skipper, superintendent of the school, today described as "entirely ridiculous" and untrue the charges made by the girl at Ft. Myers. She said the girls were under constant supervision at all times and were never allowed to come in contact with negro convicts.

She said about a third of the girls at the institution had venereal diseases but that was due to housing conditions, as it was impossible to segregate them all. She added, however, that those having diseases were separated as far as possible and those with extreme cases were isolated.

Boys' Boxing Club Bouts Last Night Among Best Staged

What Judge S. A. B. Wilkinson termed as evidence that there will be strong competition for the many prizes to be awarded members of the Seminole Boys' Athletic Club on Christmas Day was exhibited during Club bouts at the Fourth Street Arena last night before a large crowd of fans.

Ten bouts were presented during the evening, each, according to Judge Wilkinson, seeming to turn better than the preceding bout. Climaxing the evening was a bout between Clarence Barineau and Pete Tillis, he said, with Barineau winning after a skillful day.

HIGH COURT CONSOLIDATES WEIGHTY SUITS

Cases Challenging Abrogation Of Gold Clause To Be Heard Early In January

WASHINGTON, Nov. 19. —(A.P.)—To hasten a final decision on legislation estimated to affect as much as $100,000,000,000, the Supreme Court today consolidated four cases challenging the abrogation of gold clauses in contracts and set them for hearing on Jan. 8.

This action was taken at the request of James Crawford Riggs, United States solicitor-general.

So important does the government consider the litigation that Attorney-General Cummings personally will argue the cases before the supreme court.

The legislation, passed June 5, 1933, set aside the provision in contracts that payment be made in gold.

Department of Justice officials estimate that perhaps $100,000,000,000 is involved in this contention.

A man who held gold bonds when the dollar was devalued expected to be paid off in gold. But instead he got currency worth only 69.08 percent as much as it was before devaluation.

A portion of the government's argument is that the purchasing power of the currency did not depreciate anything like that amount, and that furthermore the greater good of the greater number should have paramount consideration rather than the interests of the few. It likewise contends that the Constitution gives Congress power to "regulate" the value of money.

Her survivors include her husband and a daughter, Captain George Munson and Miss Josephine Munson, of Savannah; a sister, Mrs. Gerda Swanson of Sanford, and a brother, Alex Nyland of Miami.

Japan Will Denounce Washington Treaty

LONDON, Nov. 19. — Private advice from Tokyo last night to denounce the Washington treaty of 1922 early in December. The pact, which established the 5-5-3 naval strength ratio among Great Britain, the United States and Japan, pleased the Japanese on the short end of the apportionment. The Japanese dispatches indicated again that Tokyo is in no mood to withdraw her demand for equal equality, and despite compromise efforts by the British is ready to proceed with a lone hand in abrogating the Washington pact.

STATE BANKERS CHARGE AGAINST PROTEST AGAINST POSTAL SAVINGS

System Held As Useless Competitor Injuring Confidence

ST. PETERSBURG, Nov. 19. —(A.P.)—The Florida Bankers Association at the closing session of its two-day meeting here yesterday went on record as favoring the elimination of the federal postal savings system as an unnecessary competitor of the banks.

In a resolution adopted, it was claimed the insurance of bank deposits up to $5000 removes the safety factor as an argument for continuing the postal savings system. It was pointed out the system produces a conflicting source of opinion in the minds of the people regarding relative safety of postal savings and banks and that its elimination would, more than any other step Congress can take, serve to restore more confidence in the banks.

Among other resolutions adopted were: Urging prompt action be taken. (Continued On Page Two)

Retail For Sales In October Best In Years

DEARBORN, Mich., Nov. 19. —Ford dealers throughout the United States sold at retail in October, the largest volume of Ford commercial units for any October since 1930, it was announced today at the offices of the Ford Motor Company.

Volume of sales of commercial units, it was said, has been maintained surprisingly well during the autumn months. Following the usual September peak, demand for Ford V-8 trucks and commercial cars for industrial, mercantile and agricultural use, it was said, is still at a level considerably above earlier expectations.

Hunters Flock To Buy Licenses As 1934 Season's Opening Hour Draws Nearer

The 1934 hunting season opens tomorrow with every indication, so far as this section is concerned, that a record number of men will be in the woods before the opening hour.

County Judge J. G. Charon reported a last minute rush for licenses late Saturday and this morning. Where on Wednesday only 65 licenses had been issued to persons wishing to hunt, today the county limits, at noon, over 200 had been sold. Nearly 100 licenses permitting hunting in the state also had been issued.

Hunting requirements for the new season are about as they were last year except that ducks may not be bagged until Nov. 22, and after that only on Thursdays, Fridays, Saturdays, and Sundays.

INSULL AIDE PLEADS TO BE EXONERATED

Stanley Field Says He Was Only A Bystander In Sensational Fraud Case

CHICAGO, Nov. 19. —(A.P.)—Stanley Field's attorney asked Federal Judge James H. Wilkeson today to acquit the socially prominent Chicago banker as only a bystander in the Insull mail fraud case.

"We have given a convincing and innocent explanation of Mr. Field's connection with this case," Attorney Frederick Burnham told the judge.

The motion seeking a directed verdict taking Field's case away from the jury opened the eighth week of the mail fraud trial in which Samuel Insull is accused with 16 associates of defrauding investors in one of eight old companies of his public utility system.

Field, formerly chairman of Continental Illinois National Bank and Trust Co., was a director of Insull's Corporation Securities Company in 1930 and 1931.

Judge Wilkeson Saturday denied motions by which Samuel Insull, Sr., and his son, Samuel, Jr., asked him to direct the jury to find them for mail fraud to return a verdict of acquittal.

"I am satisfied that there is evidence under which the court is required to give their case to the jury," said Wilkeson in denying the motions, made for the two Insulls by Defense Attorney Floyd E. Thompson.

The government yesterday closed its evidence against Samuel Insull, deposed head of a $2,000,000,000 public utility system, completing all testimony in the trial of Insull and 16 associates for mail fraud.

COUGHLIN SEEKS TO ESTABLISH PEOPLE'S LOBBY

Priest's Plan Would Build Up Social-Justice Legislation

DETROIT, Nov. 19. —(A.P.)—The Rev. Charles E. Coughlin yesterday appealed for 5,000,000 members for his newly organized national union for social justice to constitute "an articulate, organized lobby of the people."

Father Coughlin said he was determined to make the union a tremendous force in the formation of legislation looking toward the enactment into law of the points he enumerated in an address a week ago when he first announced his plan.

"I openly admit the union tends to be nothing less than a lobby of people," he said, "bringing pressure upon the representatives at Washington for the purpose of securing the passage of those laws which we want passed solely with the end in view of breaking down the concentration of wealth, eliminating the abuses which have been identified with capitalism and of building up legislation for social justice."

The purpose of this organization, he explained, was to tell those functionally elected officials what laws you want passed and to give you, the forgotten man, a much power as is possessed by the vested interests of wealth.

In appealing for recruits for his "non-partisan, non-sectarian" organization, the priest of the Little Flower Shrine declared the old system of public opinion through meetings will be replaced by the (Continued On Page Four)

VATICAN CITY, Nov. 19. —Pietro Gasparri, 82, for a quarter of a century one of the most powerful figures of the Roman Catholic church, died today of pneumonia, and secretary of state in said Vatican, was passing. He denounced the Washington treaty of 1922 in 18-18-18.

Cardinal Gasparri knew he could not survive before lapsing into the final coma, when aides sought to cheer him with word he was going to pull through. He smiled and said, "I am sure to outwit, but not be outwitted."

ROOSEVELT SEES NATION COMING BACK

President Denies That People Are Being Federalized, Says All Is Well In U. S.

TUPELO, Miss., Nov. 19. —(A.P.)—President Roosevelt asserted yesterday that "all is well with the country and we are coming back," and predicted the Tennessee Valley power and rehabilitation experiment for nationwide operation.

Speaking extemporaneously from a balcony of the power town of the Tennessee Valley development, the President said:

"You are not being federalized. We will advance in the community, and there are going to advance in the country, each in proportion to the community effort."

President Roosevelt thrust back at opposition to federal power projects in the Tennessee Valley yesterday in two speeches in which he forecast public ownership of power utilities on a national scope.

"What you are doing here," he told residents of Tupelo, Miss., "is going to be copied in every state in the union before we are through."

Speaking from the rear platform of his train at Birmingham, he said:

"I am sure that a few of your citizens are leaving no stone unturned to block and harass and delay this great national program. I am confident, however, that the substitution of few in number in comparison with the whole population do not reflect the wishes of the overwhelming majority."

"I know too that the overwhelming majority of your business men, but not little, are in hearty accord with the great undertaking of national planning and development forward."

Roosevelt made his first speech after leaving for a home-coming in Mississippi.

SCHALL DISPUTES BENEFITS OF OLD AGE PROGRAMS

Senator Sees Failure For Any Federal Help Of Aged, Idle

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., Nov. 19. —Federal Administration proposals for old age pensions and job insurance legislation yesterday drew the fire of Senator Thomas D. Schall, caustic critic of President Roosevelt.

In a letter addressed to the President, Senator Schall said that any plan to have the federal treasury finance such legislation was doomed to failure, however praiseworthy the purpose.

"Any plan to take money to pay old age pensions and job insurance from the federal treasury will never work and will as loyal Americans want a plan that will succeed in ending poverty and misery," Senator Schall wrote.

"Both," he continued, referring to the pension and insurance plans, "are unworkable and costly. Thinking person goes with you in your desire for the social, full incorporation into federal law."

"Under the proper conditions both may be accomplished and at the same time an era of human prosperity can be created equal to none in the history of our country."

Chief Justice Ellis Holds Belief That Home Exemption Act Is Constitutional

JACKSONVILLE, Nov. 19. —(A.P.)—Chief Justice Ellis of the Florida supreme court, speaking as an individual to the Tax Assn. Association of Florida Saturday night, said he believes the Home-Trade Tax Exemption Amendment is constitutional and there should be no organized effort to "sidetrack" it.

"It behooves every officer to heed the demand of the people as expressed on the Home-Trade Exemption Amendment, and there should not be any organized effort of any body to sidetrack that demand," Judge Ellis said.
