For Lesser Air Hazards

The aircraft industry, which through its progressive stages of development has demanded more and more highly explosive fuels for its engines, now is looking for a fue of the other extreme, one which can be exploded or burned only with the greatest difficulty. The idea is to reduce the fire hazard in flying.

The aircraft accidents almost always are followed by fire, because the gasoline vapor is ignited easily by the periment which may at least protiniest spark, and the lubrications and hydraulic fluids duce some clarificaton of Mosused on the craft also burn readily. Tiff Last Night Postponed, Play In St. Augustine Tonite

Return To Sanford With Hats Friday

The Sanford Giants and the Gainesville G-Men were schedu d to meet at the Municipal Par. last night, but the contest war postponed because of wet grounds and the two clubs will meet in a twin bill on May 21 when the G's return to Sanford for a regularly scheduled game.

Tonight the Sanfordites invade St. Augustine for a tilt with Manager Don Anderson's Saints and tomorrow evening the Giants move to Palatka for a game with the Azaleas. This change in schedule allows all of the clubs in the circuit to complete their originally scheduled 'trip around the world; which was something new in schedules. For the first two weeks of the current season the clubs moved from town to town in an attempt to give the managers of the eight teams a chance to view their opposition. These two games complete the schedule.

Thursday night the Sanfordites return to the Municipal Park for e contest with the DeLand Red Hats. Manager Hal Gruber will probably send Eddie Lisiewski to the hill tonight, and will start Joe Schultz against the Palatkans tomorrow. Either Buddy Lake or Art Dunham will face 'the Red Hats here Thursday evening.

The Sanford Giants bus is still Gainesville, but is being repaired, after burning out several bearings, Manager Gruber re-ported yesterday morning. "We ported yesterday morning. "We were within three miles of Gainesville, when the bus stopped on us," Gruber declared. It is probable the locals will charter a bus for the next few games, until they receive their own means of transportation. Sanford returned from Gaines-ville in the Gainesville bus. "We certainly want to thank Gainesville and Manager Myrl Hoag for allowing us to use their bus to come home in, because we would have been in a pretty fix without transportation," Gruber asserted yesterday.

Corcoran Says He Sees No "Promising Corners In Sight"

NEW, YORK May 11 (P) — Freddie Corcoran, who has had a chubby finger on the pulse of big time gold for years, surveyed the horizon today and said there's not a "promising comer" in sight.
"It's true," the bouncing Bostonian added. We don't have any
