Fire Protection To End In Area 'Almost In City'

Effective tomorrow, fire service protection will cease in the proposed annexation area of the city. This action was taken at the meeting of the City Commission last night when officials were informed that Bradley (Otham), local builder, will discontinue payment for service for the area.

For the past several months, Otham has paid $1,000 a month for the service. It automatically will be available to the residents upon annexation by the city. It was pointed out at the meeting that 109 additional signatures are needed to provide the necessary number on the annexation petition.

The governing body agreed to retain two additional firemen through Nov. 15, in the hope that the additional signatures will be obtained.

In other action the group delayed action in granting a beer and wine license to W. M. Pope, operator of a store at 1018 W. 10th St., and denied a request from Laura Fulton to form a partnership with Sammie Lee Higgins on a license to operate a tavern. A request for a street light at Grandview Ave. South and 24th Place was granted.

On motion by Commissioner David Gatzel, the group agreed that individuals requesting a variance in the zoning ordinance be required to pay a $5 fee to cover cost of publication fees and placards.

Baby Is Rescued From Open Grave

CLEVELAND, Ohio (UPI)—Police picked up her 30-year-old father, Lloyd, for loitering in suburban Brook Park. During questioning, he said he had "sacrificed my daughter to the Lord."

This statement sent policemen from Cleveland, Brook Park and Brooklyn speeding to Holy Cross Cemetery where they found the child whimpering and shivering in a six-foot deep grave covered by wooden planks. Little Theresa was rushed to a hospital where she was reported in good condition despite shock and exposure.

Police said her father, who had been under psychiatric care a year ago, was taken to Metropolitan General Hospital for psychiatric examination.

Two phone calls led to the apprehension of Becher. A passerby in suburban Brooklyn called police and reported seeing a man tearing money on a street corner. Several hours later, a Brook Park resident complained about a "loitering man."

When informed of the "sacrifice," Becher's wife, Virginia, collapsed. She told police Becher left their Brooklyn home at 2 p.m. and took the child with him.

There was no official announcement on the McElroy-Chiang talks, but informed sources said McElroy had discussed two Washington suggestions with the Chinese President.

A reduction in Nationalist forces on the Matsu and Quemoy offshore islands if a long-term Formosa Strait truce can be reached with the Communists.

A withdrawal of the emergency American fighting units sent to Formosa a few weeks ago when the Quemoy fighting threatened to explode into a Far Eastern war.

The McElroy-Chiang talks coincided with talks in Washington between Nationalist Ambassador George Yeh and Secretary of State John Foster Dulles.

Washington dispatches said Dulles has given a go-ahead signal to making any more concessions to the Chinese Communists but still was hoping to find a more flexible approach to the Formosa situation if the Reds show a sincere desire to maintain their self-proclaimed cease fire.

Mrs. Juanita Sayers jumped from the car moments before the fast-moving Silver Meteor train plowed into it, throwing it and Buster 60 feet.

Mrs. Sayers said she was startled by the train's horn as she was crossing the tracks. Apparently she stepped too hard on the gas pedal, flooding the engine.

City Will Charge Recreation Fee To Non-Residents

The Sanford City Commission took action last night to require registration cards for city residents who attend recreation activities, and also to require a fee for such a card for non-residents of the city.

The registration, or identification, cards are considered necessary for separation of age groups in the various recreation programs throughout the city.

Cards will be available to both white and negro residents who desire to attend events sponsored by the city recreation department. Non-residents will be required to pay $5 a year for a half-year. A maximum of $20 per family was agreed upon.

It was also agreed that the cards should be signed by a parent or the carrier who agrees to be responsible for any property damage done by the person involved. Such a card can be revoked or suspended when discipline is deemed necessary by officials in charge of the respective activities.

The plan, to go into effect immediately, will follow the same fiscal year as the city, from Oct. 1 to Sept. 30. The cards will allow participation in all recreation department organized activities including the summer program and free use of the swimming pools when they are used for a recreation program activity.

Commissioner Earl Hightsham who made the motion to adopt the card plan, emphasized that only those living outside the corporate limits of the city will be required to pay a fee.

Ike Has Birthday; Gels Flower Cake

WASHINGTON (UPI)—President Eisenhower was 68 years old today and, befitting his diet, his birthday cake was made of flowers—Republican flowers.

Despite three illnesses in three years and having reached a point where most men who can afford to have 70 live in retirement, Eisenhower showed no outward signs of slowing his pace.

First item on his birthday calendar was a breakfast given in his honor by the staffs of the White House, Vice President Richard M. Nixon, the Republican National Committee and the GOP Congressional Campaign Organization.

Rarely Eats Sweets The men and women who planned the breakfast seemed to have considered the fact that the President, on his 1955 heart attack, rarely eats sweets. His birthday "cake" consisted of a three-tiered arrangement of flowers designed to resemble a cake.

With the cake was a huge birthday card signed by hundreds of GOP campaign workers from every state.

Tests Are Asked For Aged Drivers DELAND (UPI)—A veteran state legislator says he will present a bill to the next Legislature demanding that all motorists over 65 years of age be examined yearly in order to keep their driving privileges.

Temple In Peoria Damaged By Blast; Youths Suspected

PEORIA, Ill. (UPI)—Explosion of a homemade bomb damaged the windows and interior of a Jewish temple early today and police and FBI agents planned to question a youth involved in a bomb scare at another temple last year.

The explosive in the bomb, packed into a short iron pipe, was black powder, police determined. It went off in a stairwell leading to the basement of the Anshel Eretz Temple on the north side of the city.

Rabbi Joseph Ginsberg, whose congregation numbers about 250 families, said he thought the "inspired mind" of Mayor Eugene Sawyer was responsible for the blast. He said he had no history here of antisemitism and that the bombing must be the work of a mentally twisted person.

Police Capt. George Johnson said that a bomb, also homemade, was found last year where another Jewish temple was being built. It failed to explode.

Youths Suspected Johnson recalled that it also was a black powder bomb, and he said that among the first persons to whom police would talk would be two teenagers, one was questioned about the bomb found last year. The other was injured last year in an explosion of powder which he had in his possession.

Police investigating the blast spotted two men fleeing in an alley behind the temple. Officers failed to catch them when they failed to halt, and Patrolman Paul Fisher said he believed one of the men was wounded.

Accused Murderer Weeps Bitterly

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind. (UPI)—Mrs. Connie Nicholas, 42, wept bitterly and audibly today as she pleaded innocent to a charge that she killed in cold blood her wealthy lover Forrest Teel, 34, vice president of a major drug company.

Mrs. Nicholas stood before Judge Earl Rabb in Marion Criminal Court and said with tearful fervor when asked for a plea to a first-degree murder charge: "Not guilty, your honor, not guilty."

A moment before the plea, Rabb overruled a defense motion to quash the indictment on grounds it was not specific enough.

Mrs. Nicholas' attorney, Frank Symmes, did not argue the motion. He said it was only a technicality.

Mrs. Nicholas has been in a hospital since she was found lying in her automobile, near death from a suicidal bullet wound. This was 21 hours after Teel, her lover for 15 years, was found dying last July 31 in his white Cadillac two blocks from the apartment of a 29-year-old secretary. He had been courting the younger woman after a long extramarital affair with Connie.

U. S. Fuses Used By Red Artillery TAIPEI, Formosa (UPI)—The Communist Chinese fired artillery shells with American-made fuses at the Matsu Islands during the recent six-week bombardment of the Formosa Strait area, Ebony magazine writer Marc Crawford said today upon returning from the offshore islands.

The U. S.-manufactured fuses were attached to propaganda shells which showered out leaflets, rather than to high explosive shells, Crawford said.

Observers said the fuses probably were captured in Korea or were left over from lend-lease shipments to the China mainland before the Reds took over.

Furniture Stores To Close At Noon Retail furniture stores in Sanford will be closed tomorrow afternoon.

The Wednesday afternoon closing policy goes into effect due to the furniture dealers decision to keep stores open until 9 p.m. on Friday.

Four Arrested, Bombing Cases Are Near Solution

The FBI today announced the arrest of a Seminole County man on charges of being an Army deserter.

Lee O. Teague, special agent in charge of the FBI office in Miami, said Robert Hadman, 31, was taken into custody by FBI agents yesterday afternoon. Teague said Hadman had deserted from the U. S. Army in 1946 and had assumed the name of Robert Hubert Landers.

Landers had been living in Lake Mary, the FBI announcement said. He was arrested in Sanford late yesterday and turned over to authorities at the Sanford Naval Air Station to await further action by the Army.

Teague said Hadman, shortly after going AWOL from the Army, had assumed the name under which he was living here and had secured employment as a truck driver in Maryland, Virginia, Texas and Florida, Teague said Hadman had obtained a driver's license and Social Security card under the name of Landers.

Hadman's wife was listed as the former Frances Mae Wampler, no previous address given. Neighbors said the couple had two daughters. One of the girls, a fourth grader, had been enrolled at Lake Mary School. Records revealed that the child had been transferred from Wilson School at Palmdale late in the 1957 term.

Other details of the case were lacking.

Missile Experts Admit 'Blunder' On Moon Rocket WASHINGTON (UPI)—The Defense Department and Air Force admitted today they committed what was probably a historic blunder Saturday when they announced that the "Pioneer" moon rocket had escaped the pull of earth's gravity.

About 30 minutes after the rocket was launched from Cape Canaveral, Fla., and when it was some 20,000 miles above the earth's surface a previously prepared press release was issued proudly asserting that the lunar rocket was "the first man-made object known to escape the earth's gravitational field."

It was no such thing. And officials acknowledged today they never intended to escape from gravity since it was headed for the moon which itself is within the earth's gravitational influence.

Admits Mistake Maj. Gen. Donald N. Yates, commander of the Atlantic missile range at Cape Canaveral, said Monday the mistake simply "slipped by all of us."

"One thing is clear," said Yates who is rapidly becoming one of the military services' better experts in public relations: "Before the next moon probe, those of us charged with reporting our own operations to the press and other news media must familiarize ourselves with the true terminology of space flight."

"I sincerely hope this slip will be excused and, as such, that it will not dull our honest appreciation of the tremendous achievements of the Pioneer's flight," he said.

'Spyglass' Murder Confession Signed CHICAGO (UPI)—Barry Cook, husky convict imprisoned on an assault charge, has confessed the "spyclass" murder of Margaret Gallagher, 60, in a Chicago park, and a Nisiel detective who spent 15 days in a cell with him "broke" the case, police disclosed today.

Cook, 24, made the confession at Joliet penitentiary, where he was Chief of Detectives Patrick Deery, Sgt. Charles Fitzgerald, and the detective expert John Reid a six-page statement, saying he killed the woman July 22, 1956, because of "an urge."

Murder Witnessed The slaying occurred on a Sunday while Miss Gallagher sat in a secluded bushy portion of the park. She was beaten to death. By chance, an apartment dweller a mile and a half away watched helplessly through binoculars. By the time he could direct police to the spot where the body was found, the killer was gone.

Anthony Muranaka, 35, the first Nisiel to serve on the Chicago police force, was given the lead role in "cracking" the case.

The Japanese-American detective, to keep an eye on Cook, got himself assigned first to "death row" at Cook County Jail and later to Joliet penitentiary, where Cook was sent last July for a series of assaults on women.

He is Jessie Davis, one of the four Air Station men shaken up in the crash. The Highway Patrol identified the other driver as Edward L. Shaw, an occupant of the car in which Davis was riding, and Charlie Stone and Claude Davis, Negroes, occupants of the other car.

Investigators Say Group Had Plotted 'Terror In South'

ATLANTA (UPI)—Investigators appeared on the verge today of breaking the back of a wave of terror bombings of Jewish synagogues in the South.

The key to the cases appeared to lie in the questioning of suspects in the blasting of the Temple here Sunday. Four persons are under arrest for interrogation and one was reported to have signed a statement giving details of the bombing.

The Atlanta Constitution said in a story by its veteran police reporter, Keeler McCartney, that an unidentified suspect gave a statement Monday night to the effect that he was in on plans last May to bomb the temple.

The informant said he was not invited to participate in final plans because he objected to use of dynamite, the paper said. He said one member of the group who was familiar with architectural plans drew up a plan of the temple and indicated where the explosives should be placed.

The informant said the blast was to have been set off by someone brought in from Birmingham, Ala. He said the anti-Semitic organization that laid the bomb plot had members in most southern cities.

All authorities have gone on the theory that the wave of southern synagogue bombings has been an interstate conspiracy.

There were reports on which officers declined to comment, that the investigation already had turned up information on a small but fairly organized anti-Semitic group operating in a number of Southern cities.

A growing reward fund in Atlanta brought the total now offered for useful information on the series of bombings in the South to $65,000. Investigators are going on the theory that the Atlanta incident was tied in with recent blasts in Tennessee, Florida, South and North Carolina and Alabama.

No Policy Violated GAINESVILLE (UPI)—University of Florida officials say no policies were violated" when school businessmen were flown to California on a football trip last week and the cheer leaders left behind.

Dr. J. Wayne Reitz, university president, said the board of directors discussed the matter Monday and decided nothing was wrong.

Audit Committee Picks Cleveland, Bills Drawn Seminole County Rep. Mack O'Neil Jr., has been elected chairman of the Legislative Audit Committee, which yesterday called for stricter accounting of money spent on official trips by county employees.

Meeting in Tallahassee, the committee proposed that the 1959 Legislature adopt laws placing the same regulations on county employees as those now in effect for state workers. This, in effect, would require county workers to list individual expenditures in detail for such items as food, transportation and lodging.

State Auditor Bryan Willis told the committee there are no regulations governing travel allowances of such employees and some just turn in statements saying how much they spent.

In other action, the committee decided to ask the Legislature for a bill authorizing the state comptroller to see that funds owed the counties by county officers and employees are paid.

The committee endorsed bills requiring the counties to keep track of property they own, and setting up trust funds for the handling of money of inmates of child training and mental health institutions.

Cleveland, nominated for a new term in the Sept. 9 primary, succeeds Rep. Sam Gibbons of Hillsborough, who was elected to the Senate.

Other committee members include Hon. B. C. Pearce of Palatka, Tom Adams of Orange Park and Wilson Carraway of Tallahassee and Rep. Ralph Tuttle of Alachua.

Your Aid Is Needed For County Salesman

The Seminole County Chamber of Commerce has kicked off its annual drive for members. Goal for this year, in membership dues, is $10,000, according to Clifford McKibbin, membership campaign chairman.

Almost one third of this goal has been received from merchants and businessmen who responded to the Chamber's preliminary announcement that the drive was getting under way. This response is the kind needed, not only in the Chamber of Commerce drive, but in all civic and community projects in Sanford and Seminole County.

Chamber officials said they expected another large chunk of the needed money in a matter of a few days. Workers soon will begin direct solicitation.

As McKibbin pointed out, the success of business promotion in the county depends on a strong, united force and there is not one firm operating in Seminole County which doesn't have a stake in the continued growth of the county. To compete with other counties, cities and states for location of industrial plants, tourist trade and retired senior citizens, Seminole County must have a good bank account.

Salesmanship costs money. Good pay makes for a better salesman. The Chamber of Commerce is Seminole County's only full-time salesman. Paid well, this county's salesman can do a much better job.

The Chamber represents not only the business and professional firms in Sanford, but those in every section of the county. Money invested in Chamber dues will be used to build the county. As the county grows, so will the businesses that make up the Chamber of Commerce membership.

Work For Youngsters

It seems to be generally agreed that one big cause of juvenile delinquency is the lack of enough constructive things to do. Youth centers offering organized sports, dances, craft work and so forth have been established to help meet this need.

There are those who believe that something else would be useful in addition to such activities that come under the general heading of entertainment. They think that teaching young people the discipline of work is at least as important as keeping them amused and entertained.

It is an idea worth thinking about. Not a new idea, certainly; the notion that work keeps people out of mischief has ancient roots. The very fact that it has persisted so long lends weight to the concept that sustained, useful work has value beyond the mere production of goods and services.

Crocodiles, Turtles Do Weep, Often

By DELOS SMITH
UPI Science Editor
NEW YORK (UPI)—Crocodiles do weep, often and without embarrassment. Also sea turtles. But why? Science at long last, after decades of not knowing (and of not much caring) now can tell you.

The answers are provided by Dr. Knut Schmidt-Nielsen of Duke University, Durham, N. C., and Ragnar Fänge of Lund University, Lund, Sweden. They have just completed the first known scientific investigation of the strange phenomenon which links crocodiles and turtles to people since people also are crying weepers.

Schmidt-Nielsen is one of the world's leading authorities on the kidneys of animals other than man. For instance, his studies showed that the special and quite extreme efficiency of a camel's kidneys permits that animal to go so long between drinks of water.

The investigation of crocodiles, turtles, and other salt water reptiles—sea snakes and lizards—begin, therefore, from their kidneys. They all have bodily workings pretty much like those of land animals, an amazing thing when you think in mind they drink salt water and eat salty foods. Even more amazingly, their kidneys are woefully incapable of extracting all that salt intake from their bodily fluids and getting rid of it. Looking at them from the standpoint of kidneys alone, they shouldn't be able to live. That makes it rather clear they must have some other means of dealing with salt.

Schmidt-Nielsen and Fänge found that they have glands in their heads which extract the salt. In crocodiles and turtles, these glands are connected by ducts to the eyes; in other sea reptiles the ducts empty into the nose. So the tears of crocodiles and turtles are salty all right, but the animals are only getting rid of surplus salt.

Their findings dispose of legends which many unscientific minds accept as gospel. One is the crocodile is sarcastic. While clamping up a victim in his powerful jaws, he sheds tears of mock sympathy. Hence, "crocodile tears" mean phony sympathy.

Weeping female sea turtles have been described many times. They come up out of the sea into tropical beaches to lay eggs in the sand. Tears have been observed running from their eyes in rivulets. From that, it has been reasoned that eye-laying is painful for turtles. The scientists pointed out that that theory has always been rejected by naturalists.

Relatives and friends of many of the new Marines were on hand to witness the graduation ceremonies.

The 12-week training schedule includes drill, bayonet training, physical conditioning, parades and ceremonies, and other military subjects.

Three weeks were spent on the rifle range where the recruits fired the M1 rifle and received instruction in basic Marine infantry weapons.

This recruit training prepares young Leathernecks for further specialized infantry training at Camp Lejeune, N. C.

OLD "PRO" AT WORK — We think it is always fun to watch a real "pro" at work. It is the same whether he is a ball player, a painter, a crane operator or a politician. No matter what his job he does it so smoothly he makes it look easy. It never really looks like work.

The man we are thinking of at the moment is Senator Holland. He entered public life as a prosecuting attorney back in 1919. Even if those 39 years did not make him a "pro" he certainly earned the title during the many tough and tumble battles along the road.

Holland will fool you. He's not bombastic or colorful. But, he looks Claude Pepper over the jumps. He gave him a worse beating than Smathers did. And now it is Leland Hyser's turn. We think Hyser is much too nice a fellow to have been talked into running. We suspect he was fed a lot of promises by a few top Republicans—promises of money and support that haven't been met.

And how is Holland campaigning now? He'll be in Gainesville for the home-coming game. He'll make a speech or two for Syd Harlong and Paul Rogers—the only Florida Democratic Congressmen with opposition. He'll look as though he isn't working. He'll make it look easy. But, in Bartow he has a fully organized fire and brimstone campaign ready to hit the road on busy notice. His staff is ready—waiting for the bell—with a campaign that we think won't be needed for used.

Holland has issued a general campaign statement. Since we think Hyser won't put up a fight—this is about all you'll hear— you might as well hear it now:

"During the last two years, the American people have been shocked to learn of the unbridled fraud and corruption in some upper circles of organized labor. The working man has been terribly exploited. His hard earned dues have been used to feather the nests of labor bosses whose records of crime and gangsterism have severely damaged the rights of the working man.

"I shall continue to urge reforms which will rid unions of irresponsible and criminal bosses to the end that the rights and privileges of the working man shall be restored, protected and strengthened.

"The traditions and institutions of the South are now under attack on several fronts. Especially notable has been the trend in recent years to surrender State and local rights to Federal bureaus and boards. This trend is contrary to my philosophy, as I believe that local problems should be locally solved except where it is wholly clear that the Federal Government must intervene and that it has the constitutional power to do so. In the future as in the past, I shall fight unnecessary extensions of Federal control which extend over the lives of our citizens like the tentacles of an octopus.

"A major objective of American policy to which I pledge myself without reserve is to keep America strong.

"Full and adequate provision must be made for our armed forces even though the cost of material wealth is high. We must go forward from a position of strength in the full knowledge that in Communism we are dealing with a deadly enemy which has announced that it will destroy us if it can. At the same time we must continue to give active support and leadership to the United Nations in its efforts to preserve the peace of the world.

"We must aggressively go forward with vision and conviction in the hope of developing a relationship between nations which will give assurance, with God's help, of the eventual achievement of world peace."

The first P.T.A. meeting for the year was well attended by about 50 parents. Mrs. Maxine Hopkins, president, introduced the Mothers who will be Carnival chairman of the event November 1 beginning at 9:30. From the reports this appears to be one of the largest ever held at the local school. Mr. and Mrs. Mohr need help so call them if you are available to help. It seems nice that the Carnival is planned for a Saturday night that will give more time for getting the booths in shape and we hope a big crowd.

The P.W.O. circle No. 2 held a ice cream social Thursday night in the Educational Building of the Community Presbyterian Church. Home made cakes were served and the most delicious raspberry ice cream was also served.

The circle next meets October 21 at the home of Mrs. A. Crocker. Mrs. Richard Keogh will present the program on Conversations on the Middle East.

Betsy Rugenstein was the happy birthday girl at the Happy Morning Kindergarten last week. Her playmates were served cake, candy, milk and bubble gum during the refreshment break.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Rugenstein announce the birth of their first son, October 1, in the Seminole Memorial Hospital. Phyllis says that the baby is the best ever and so good. Bob is working in New York State but will be home in a few weeks. Kathy and Betsy are real helpers to their mother and so very very proud of the baby brother.

Mr. and Mrs. John Keogh of Burlington, N. C., announce the birth of their first child a son, born October 1 in a Burlington hospital. Very proud grandmother is Mrs. Ida Keogh.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Thomas and daughter Debbie of Kansas City spent four days last week with her mother Mrs. Ida Keogh and other relatives in the area. It was the first time any of us had seen tiny Debbie and it was agreed she is a doll.

"OBLY THAT IMPULSE"

All of us have the impulse to live as long as possible. Each year the opportunity of granting this desire is increasing.

Modern physicians have greater knowledge of the cause and treatment of disease. Many recently perfected hormones, vitamins and other medicines help the body to resist old age.

Oblay that impulse to live longer by regularly consulting your physician about what you can do to help your body. Should any medication be needed we can make the privilege of supplying it.

Seminole High Will Sponsor Bundle Days

Most Americans are shocked to learn that many children in the Southern Appalachian Mountains of the United States cannot attend school regularly in winter because they do not have adequate clothing and shoes.

To provide clothing for children and their families in underprivileged areas of America as well as to the victims of disaster both at home and overseas, students of Seminole High School will collect clothing during the week of Oct. 20. In the 17th Annual Bundle Day Clothing Collection sponsored by Save the Children Federation in schools across the nation.

The Future Nurses Club is sponsoring this drive at the High School.

Parents, neighbors and friends are urged to donate good, used summer or winter clothing for children, babies and adults. Clothing may be brought or sent to school in bags or cartons. It will be repacked for shipment. Low-heeled shoes and overalls are especially requested. Also needed are serviceable coats and dresses, pants, underwear, socks, suits, sweaters, skirts, caps, blankets, sheets and baby clothes.

This year, conditions in the Southern Mountains are especially acute due to unemployment and floods. Clothing is desperately needed to clothe school children as well as entire families. Donated clothing is sent to the Southern Mountains, where it is made available through SCF Clothing Centers, as very low prices, thus enabling a poor but proud people to maintain their self-respect. Additional clothing is distributed with-

Pauley Tells Her Experiences As Glamorous Ex-Bleached Blonde

(This is the last of three dispatches examining the reasons why so many—American women dye, bleach or tint their hair, and the problems involved.)

By RAY PAULEY
UPI Women's Editor
NEW YORK (UPI)—Gentlemen may prefer blonde, but this blonde prefers a bank balance.

Two years ago in a dispatch I "told all"—how I'd gone from my natural brown to baby blonde, pale-haired as Marilyn Monroe, thanks to the chemical potions, six hours and $50 at Lilly Dache.

Well, another confession is in order—I've reverted to the same old me, and ever since the return have been under self-examination to determine:

1. What motive led me to bleach in the first place? Psychologists say it could be a rebellion against immaturity. I maintain it was reporter's curiosity.

2. Whether my personality changed while I was running around with flaxen locks and bouffant "do's"? I think it did, although one psychologist said "the personality is likely to revert to normal before the blonde grows off the hair."

3. Why, as long as I got the boss to hold still for cost of the initial job, I didn't argue for cost of maintenance? (You can get a color change for less than that $50, or even do it yourself, but who's going to travel economy class on an expense account?)

I remember that reaching the decision of bleach took a lot of soul-searching, much discussion with friends, many questions of the colorist on possible hair damage. (There was none; the hair is hunky as ever.)

You'd have thought I was investing in a gold mine instead of gold locks, the way I probed. Apparently, few women are such 'frisky cats'—the beauty industry reports that 75 per cent of us are bleaching, dying, tinting or rinsing in color.

At the time, the immediate reaction was one of double-takes, plenty of well whistles, and even my boss balked when he walked past my desk. I got plenty of notice as a blonde—and let the psychologists kick that one around a while!

I felt blonde... I woke up feeling glamorous, and didn't worry about whether I really looked it. I fell on a continual jag, as if I'd just had a shot of adrenalin.

But most of all I felt it in my pocketbook. The $50 was just the beginning, and let those who own oil wells argue that a girl has to have some insurance.

Every three weeks, the dark tresses had sprouted to the point of showing, so every three weeks it was back to the beauty shop.

for four to five hours and $20 to $25 (depending on whether the hair needed a conditioner—and not counting tips). This, plus the weekly trip for shampoo and set—a head of bleached hair demands either a hairdresser or being expert at doing your own, and I'm not expert.

Going back was easy for me. The Dache experts just tinted me "stable brown," darker than my original shade but guaranteed to get a little nearer my natural color with each shampoo, and blend in gradually with the unbleached.

Other women, with deep brown or black hair, have to make a more gradual return, with frequent rinses as the hair grows in, and gradually with the unbleached.

So now, I'm well. The whistles have declined. A few of the more settled men in the office expressed approval of the new me, but the boss hasn't barked. The boy friend threatens to shop around.

But I'm saving money. Although one male comment is enough to make me consider spending it again.

"You look so efficient this way," he said. And what girl wants to look efficient instead of glamorous?

Members and rushes gathered at the home of Mrs. Eugene Estridge. Each girl was given a name tag in the form of a treasure chest using the ESA colors of blue and gold. The tags were pinned on with miniature swords.

The group participated in a treasure hunt which led them to the home of Mrs. John Dickey on Lake Minnie where a hamburger fry was enjoyed.

Rushes attending the event were Mrs. F. W. Fite Jr., Mrs. W. R. Howard, Mrs. Johnny Higgins, Mrs. Robert Harvey, and Miss Nancy Pilot.

Special guests were Mrs. Lu Carhoun, past state ESA president, and Miss Francis Shugart, past state corresponding secretary, both of Daytona Beach.

Pair Visits Capital

Mr. and Mrs. Lon C. Simerly, Sanford, left for a month's vacation on Sept. 27. They planned to visit their daughters residing in Washington, D. C. and Indianapolis, Ind.

Latest reports from the Simerlys reveal they are no visiting their daughter, Janet. Her husband, Capt. George G. Coletto, is stationed at Fort Belvoir, Va. The Simerlys have toured Washington, viewing national monuments and historical places. On Oct. 6 they were guests of Lt. Colonel David Schultz at a luncheon held in the Executive Dining Room of the Pentagon. The highlight of their visit was a trip to the White House where they were guests at a tea held in the dining room of the Executive Mansion.

Mr. and Mrs. Simerly left Fort Belvoir on Oct. 8 enroute to Harrisburg, Pa., where they will visit Mrs. O. G. Aller, a sister of Mrs. Simerly. Following a brief stay there, the Simerlys will visit Mrs. Carl Glassburn and Mrs. James C. Roney, their daughters who reside in Indianapolis.

Red Cherry Soup

NEW YORK (UPI)—Red cherry soup is a good beginning for a ham dinner.

Drain one 1-pint can of water-packed red tart cherries. Preserve liquid and a few whole cherries for garnish. Chop remaining fruit very fine or puree in electric blender.

Combine 1/2 cup sugar with 2 teaspoons cornstarch and 1/2 teaspoon each salt and cinnamon in saucepan. Stir in cherry liquid, chopped cherries and orange juice, and cook over medium heat, stirring constantly until mixture comes to boil. Boil 1/2 minute. Remove from heat, stir in 1/2 cup claret wine and serve, hot or chilled, with a garnish of sour cream and whole cherries. Serves 6.

Offbeat fabric shoes add fun to fall fashions. The shoes come in patterns not so that no two shoes appear exactly alike. Patterns include paisleys, floral, and abstract prints in reds, blues, flaming oranges, and yellows.

Two-thirds sprouted to the point of showing, so every three weeks it was back to the beauty shop.

Cadets Voted Nation's Best

By NORMAN MILLER
United Press International
NEW YORK (UPI)—Army, with a powerhouse reminiscent of the old Blanchard-Davis era, replaced Auburn atop the United Press International college football ratings today and once mighty Oklahoma dropped out of the top 10 group for the first time since 1933.

Crashing Cadets, who conquered Notre Dame, last weekend, moved into the No. 1 spot for the first time since Oct. 24 1950—the year the UPI coaches' ratings were inaugurated.

Bayou Bengals Prepared To 'Prove Selves' Again

United Press International
The Louisiana State Tigers prepared today to go out and prove that their 41-0 thrashing of Miami was no fluke.

Auburn, which now has a winning streak of 17 games, dropped back to second place, followed in order by three Big Ten teams—Wisconsin, Ohio State and Michigan State. In a big shakeup of the top 10 group, Navy jumped

Stengel Is Chosen Manager Of Year

By FRED DOWN
United Press International
NEW YORK (UPI)—Casey Stengel, who made 1958 a year of vindication for his New York Yankees, the American League and himself, was picked today as the United Press International's American League Manager of the Year.

up to sixth place, followed in order by Texas, Mississippi, Louisiana State and Notre Dame. Navy, Texas and Louisiana State were this week's newcomers in the select group. Oklahoma, upset 15-14 by Texas, dropped back to 11th place. This marked the first week since Oct. 6, 1953 that the Sooners were not among the top 10 teams in the nation.

The 64-year-old juggler of players and of words was chosen by a board of 24 baseball writers, three from each American League city. The vote was taken even before Stengel achieved his greatest 1958 accomplishment—bringing the Yankees from a 13 deficit in the World Series to a world championship.

Other teams which dropped out of the top 10 were Pittsburgh and Purdue.

Stengel has accomplished great things previously in his long career but the 1958 season was one of the most satisfying of his life. It was a season that started with Stengel expected to win the American League pennant. For a while it appeared that it would be one of the easiest romps in history. But the team sagged badly in August and September and lost three of the first four games in the Braves in the World Series.

The Australians took the world amateur golf championship. The Australians, led by Bruce Devlin and Bob Stevens, sank long putts for birdies on the final green. They gave Australia the match, 222 strokes to 224, plus the huge silver Eisenhower Trophy that went with it.

The whole baseball world said it couldn't be done but Stengel rallied his forces and pulled them through to give the Yankees their 18th world championship in 21 tries.

That left it entirely up to Coe. He would have to get down in two on the 323-yard 18th to tie the match again. Coe reached the green in two but required two putts and that was that.

The board of 24 experts gave Stengel 15 votes with Manager Al Lopez of the Chicago White Sox drawing four and Harry Craft of the Kansas City Athletics getting two. Harry Lavagetto of the Washington Senators, Joe Gordon of the Cleveland Indians and Paul Richards of the Baltimore Orioles got one each.

Florida quarterback Jimmy Dunn was picked by Florida sports writers as the state's "back of the week" for his performance against UCLA last Friday night. At 142 pounds, he is one of the lightest players in his league football.

Gators Preparing For Commodores
GAINESVILLE (UPI)—Center Gene Graves may return to Florida's lineup before Saturday's homecoming game with Vanderbilt, Coach Bob Woodruff indicated today.

Georgia Tech Coach Bobby Dodd ordered a scrimmage Monday for varsity players who were not in action Saturday and for the reserves.

Redlegs Sign King
CINCINNATI (UPI)—Clide King will return to the major leagues next season as the Cincinnati Redlegs' pitching coach. The former Dodger relief ace was the personal selection of new Cincinnati Manager Mayo Smith, who labeled King "one of the best pitching instructors" in baseball.

Also injured were second team end Herman Brown and reserve right halfback Lenny Levy. Virginia Tech upset Virginia 22-13 last week, its third win against one defeat this year.

Injuries Hit Giants
NEW YORK (UPI)—M. L. Brackett, a tackle, has joined a growing list of disabled New York Giant football players. Brackett, who suffered a muscular hemorrhage in his right calf Sunday against Washington, joins linebacker Hatland Sware, tackle Roosevelt Gier and guard Jack Stroud on the sidelines.

3 Seminoles Hurt; Graham Is Shifted
TALLAHASSEE (UPI)—Jerry Graham, 220-pound tackle has been moved to the right guard position in Florida State's starting football team, replacing ailing Terry Moran of New Orleans.

Foothall Has Week
NEW BRUNSWICK, N. J. (UPI)—Governors of 36 states have designated the week of Oct. 13 to 25 as National Football Foundation and Hall of Fame Week.

Knee To Be Tested
MILWAUKEE, Wis. (UPI)—The Milwaukee Braves announced Monday that first baseman Joe Adcock would enter Milwaukee Hospital Thursday for examination of "cartilage trouble" in his right knee.

This week's voting again was scattered, seven teams receiving State 3 and Michigan State, Texas and LSU 1 each.

In points, distributed on a 10-9-7-4-3-2-1 basis for votes from first to 10th places, Army had 308, Auburn 271, Wisconsin 244 and Ohio State 242.

After Oklahoma in this week's second 10 group came Clemson, Iowa, and Oregon, with Colorado and Purdue tied for 18th place. College of Pacific was 17th, Pitt 18th, and Northwestern and Michigan tied for 19th. Southern Methodist and Syracuse were the only other schools to receive points this week.

NEW YORK (UPI)—The United Press International major college football ratings (with first-place votes and week-end records in parentheses):

2. Auburn (10) (3-4)	271

Hurricanes Making 'Comeback' Plans
CORAL GABLES (UPI)—The University of Miami takes advantage of an open date this week to make plans for a comeback after last week's crushing 41-0 loss to Louisiana State.

Coaches said Monday they believe the Hurricanes still can win most of the remaining games, if errors can be clocked. They said untimely penalties and costly fumbles have hurt Miami in each of its three games so far.

Court Rules Out Lease Of Schools

ST. LOUIS (UPI) — The U. S. 8th Circuit Court of Appeals today extended temporary injunctions to prevent the leasing of Little Rock public schools to a private, white corporation until it decides on an appeal from a U. S. district court.

The three-judge court adjourned after hearing 45 minutes of testimony and indicated it will hand down a written opinion "perhaps in a month."

The National Association for the Advancement of Colored People appealed dismissal of its suit asking that the school-leasing proposal be declared invalid. U. S. District Judge John E. Miller of Arkansas refused to rule in the case because he claimed it involved the constitutionality of Arkansas law.

Attorneys for the Little Rock School Board, the NAACP and the government asked the appeals court to send the case back to Miller.

Attorneys Thurgood Marshall of the NAACP and Donald MacGuinnis of the Department of Justice requested that the court issue "explicit instructions" to the district court.

School Board attorney John H. Haley told the court that "the school board is out of the high school business because of the recently passed Arkansas law" but will follow any course the federal courts order.

Detective Modest After Long Ordeal To Solve Murder

CHICAGO (UPI) — A Japanese-American detective, who lived in jail with a murder suspect at the risk of his own life to help solve the "spyplane" slaying of a Chicago spinster, today proved a modest hero.

Anthony Muranaka, 35, passed off his six-month ordeal as routine police work, although it meant leaving his wife in the dark for months without setup as a tough convict in "death row" and even solitary confinement.

Muranaka's job was to observe, needle and draw out the suspect, Barry Cook, 24. When the detective figured Cook was ready to break down and confess, he passed the word to his superiors through a complicated code system.

The word went out during the weekend, and Monday night at Stateville Penitentiary Cook, a part-time philosophy student and construction worker, admitted the slaying. The slayer was arrested before police arrived.

Cook was arrested later for assault and was sentenced to seven to 10-year terms on conviction for assaulting women.

Market Is Assured For Every Orange Florida Produces

LAKELAND (UPI) — Florida Citrus Mutual said today that the favorable citrus season is so favorable it will make no difference which of conflicting high and low crop estimates is justified.

The big cooperative, in an analysis of the new crop, said "there is a profitable home for every box of merchantable oranges which can be produced in this state."

The U. S. Agriculture Department estimated last Friday that the total Florida orange crop would be 45 million boxes, which was 10 percent more than most citrusmen had expected.

Mutual based its rosy forecast, presented today to a meeting of its industry advisory committee, on high consumer income, increased population growth and advertising and merchandising programs.

Mutual predicted that the fresh fruit market will increase this season because of higher demands and because Florida fruit quality is generally higher than normal.

Mutual also predicted "bullish" government sales gains, and said it is indicated that more than 10 percent of the orange crop this season will be used in chilled juice production.

Export opportunities, Mutual forecast, "are somewhat brighter than previously indicated."

Plans Delayed, Sanford Told By Industrial Firm

Sanford has just at least temporarily, its bid for location of a multi-million dollar Johnson & Johnson plant.

In a letter dated Oct. 9, but released today, John Krider, Chamber of Commerce manager, said the $7,500 pledged by local business firms and individuals to cover 25 percent of the engineering fees and allied costs would be refunded.

Krider said in the letter that he had been notified by Tek Hughes, representative for Johnson & Johnson, that the firm had decided to delay a decision on location of the plant "due to economic and other conditions."

Krider said the notice received from Johnson & Johnson did not indicate when, or if, negotiations might be resumed. Negotiations with the company began about a year ago.

"Because of the inability of Tek Hughes (Johnson & Johnson) to produce some positive evidence of locating here, it has been suggested that those who so generously pledged funds to this project be relieved of any further obligation at this time," the letter said. "Therefore, if your check or note is an deposit in either bank, will you kindly pick it up. You will be advised of future developments."

Listed as having pledged the $7,500 and aided negotiations on the project were: John Hurton IV, Caraway, & McKibbin, Carroll Daniel Construction Co., Wally Dietrichs, Florida Light & Power Co., Florida State Bank, Jack Hall, Krider, Bralley Odham and W. A. Patrick.

President Defends Record In Europe; Churchill Quoted

WASHINGTON (UPI) — President Eisenhower said today he brought about Germany's defeat in World War II in 11 months after the Normandy invasion whereas most military authorities had predicted it would require two years.

That was his answer to an assertion by British Field Marshal Viscount Montgomery that Eisenhower's strategy as supreme Allied commander in Europe prolonged the war and was "expensive in lives."

Eisenhower recalled at his news conference that former British Prime Minister Winston Churchill had praised the capacity with which Germany's defeat was achieved.

The President also said his European strategy had been criticized before and he expected the criticism to continue.

When asked to comment on Montgomery's criticism, Eisenhower began by pointing out that it happened to be his responsibility to conduct the European invasion under the authority and command of the Supreme Allied Commander in Europe.

Montgomery said that a single forward thrust into the heart of Germany as he recommended would have brought about the Nazi's defeat sooner than Eisenhower's strategy of pushing ahead at all points on a broad front.

Eisenhower said Churchill at the time told him that if Paris were captured by Christmas after the invasion it would be one of the swiftest military victories of all time. The invasion occurred in June 1944. Paris was captured in late August.

New Building, Increased Payroll Scheduled Here

One of Sanford's oldest industrial plants, cramped for space and suffering of growing pains, soon will move into a new building and expand its operations here.

The last legal hurdle today was removed from the path of Pierro Manufacturing Co., which had been seeking new headquarters in Sanford. John Krider, manager of the Seminole County Chamber of Commerce, announced that title had been secured for land at Fourth St. and Pecan Ave., where the new plant will be erected.

At the same time, John Pierro said he was "all set and ready to move" as soon as the new building is completed. At the present time, employees about 50 percent when the firm occupies its new quarters, personnel will be in place.

Pierro said the building will be "very adequate for his operations." He added that he had studied plans and "already know how the machinery will be arranged." He said, however, that construction probably would take "two or three months" from the date the ground is broken.

Pierro Manufacturing came to Sanford in 1933. The plant makes a high quality grade of pajamas and nightgowns. Since it began operations here, the company gradually has expanded in number of employees and product quantity.

Pierro said moving machinery into the new building would present no problem. A big press used in the operation will be the largest piece of equipment to be moved. Trucks will be used to make the transition, Pierro said.

The announcement that title to the land had been obtained was greeted as "good news" both by Krider and Pierro.

"This is another good example of the growth Sanford is experiencing," Krider said. "This should prove to all that the industrial climate here is second to none. We are happy Pierro Manufacturing is expanding."

Pierro said the expansion "means that our company and the community are growing together." He added: "We are happy to be in Sanford and hope to continue to grow."

Miami Man Killed In Seminole Wreck

One man was killed and another injured late yesterday in a two-car collision near Fern Park.

The Highway Patrol identified the dead man as Harry Farrell Dunn, 42, of Miami. Injured was Charles Hutchinson, 208 Tyree Lane, Winter Park. Hutchinson was admitted to Florida Sanitarium and Hospital. He was reported to be suffering of a head injury.

According to the Highway Patrol Dunn was knocked from his car by the impact of the collision and dragged 122 feet along Highway 17-02. Officers said the car driven by Hutchinson crashed into the rear end of the Dunn vehicle. The Patrol report said Dunn was making a U-turn into northbound traffic near the Seminole trailer park at the time of the accident.

Mechanics Refuse Offer Of Airline

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Capital Airlines' 2,500 mechanics have voted to reject a $100,000 offer of contract settlement recommended by a presidential emergency board.

The mechanics, members of the International Association of Machinists (IAM), asked the national headquarters Monday to approve a walkout. No date was set, however. The IAM said 20 percent of those voting favored a strike.

Swastika-Drawing Cripple, 4 Others Held For Bombing

ATLANTA (UPI) — A crippled salesman who kept penciled drawings of the Nazi swastika and anti-Semitic literature has been booked for suspicion in the bombing of the Jewish Temple here, police records disclosed today.

Wallace H. Allen, 31, identified as one of five men who attempted a strategy session last May 3 for the bombing, was in jail. He denied he was implicated in the Sunday blasting of the Temple.

In their roundup of suspects, Atlanta detectives also found a crude letter threatening Atlanta's Jewish community with "a terrifying experience."

Three other men and a woman were under arrest for suspicion of vagrancy in the Temple bombing. Detectives W. K. Perry, C. J. Strickland and M. W. Blackwell said they visited Allen's home and found swastika drawings and anti-Semitic literature.

"If it's the bombing you're interested in, I don't know anything about it," the building, Allen told police. "I've never even seen a swastika."

Detective Capt. R. E. Little disclosed the contents of the letter warning of "a terrifying experience" against the Jewish community. It was written prior to the bombing, Little said.

Detectives, working fast to clear out the case here, were also trying to determine how much it was tied in with a large scale interstate operation of anti-Semitism and terrorism.

Producers Support Odham's Milk Plan

TALLAHASSEE (UPI) — Continuing its fight to reduce Florida's surplus milk, the Milk Commission today held a public hearing to consider introduction of additional regulations in the Tampa Bay and Central Florida areas.

The proposed rules, almost identical to regulations prescribed two months ago for the Jacksonville and Tallahassee areas, would allow farmers to reduce production as much as 20 percent while continuing their contracts with distributors.

It would also penalize producers who did not live up to their production contracts.

Most producers and distributors had no objection to the proposed order.

W. J. Barrett of Borden's Co. said the order would not do a full job "but it will help." And J. E. Flora of Sealtest said he had no objection to it.

Pro Shirley, a producer in the Tampa Bay area, said he favored the order, which Commission Chairman J. Bralley Odham said would prevent farmers from engaging in a "base race."

Under the proposed order, the farmer could cut back his production during the base setting period and not lose his contract. Odham said the order was an effort to provide cheaper milk for the public because when an area was in surplus "milk is expensive."

Polaris Blows Up During Launching

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (UPI) — The upper half of a Polaris test rocket popped off like a giant champagne bottle cork at the instant of launch today and exploded one and one-half miles away.

There were no injuries.

The first stage did not leave the launching platform but belched flame intermittently like a giant locomotive for six minutes.

The Air Force said the second stage of the Navy test rocket was destroyed by the range safety officer after it took off and gained a few hundred feet of altitude in an attempted launching.

It was the second spectacular "polars" failure. The rocket, shaped like a giant baby bottle and nipple, was part of a new test series designed to make the 1,500-mile range missile operational by 1960. The Polaris, a solid fuel rocket, is designed to be fired from a submarine.

Today's runaway second stage exploded seven seconds after it blasted off and described almost a perfect "flurry arc" as it exploded on impact on a vacant area of the range.

Martha Raye Plans To Marry O'Shea

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (UPI) — Comedienne Martha Raye said Tuesday night she will soon marry a former Westport, Conn., policeman whose wife divorced her Tuesday, blaming the actress for seeking the marriage.

Miss Raye, 42, said she and Robert O'Shea, 31, "will be married either here in Las Vegas or when we get back to New York." The star made the statement when informed that O'Shea's 21-year-old wife Barbara Ann had been granted in Bridgeport, Conn., an uncontested divorce from O'Shea.

Miss O'Shea testified that before her husband resigned from the police force in 1956 he had worked part-time for Miss Raye as a bodyguard and that it had developed into "more than a job."

The pretty Mrs. O'Shea, a brunette mother of a 3-year-old girl, said Miss Raye paid $50,000 for alienation of affections after her husband left her. The suit was settled out of court for a reported "substantial amount."

Ike Will Decide If Space Agency To Get Scientists

WASHINGTON (UPI) — President Eisenhower said today that he himself will make the final decision on the controversial move by the new civilian space agency to take over 2,000 Army missile scientists, including Dr. Werner Von Braun.

Indignant Army officials were reported preparing a direct appeal against the move to the President. A spokesman for E. Keith Glennan, head of the new civilian agency, said "no decision has been made" but acknowledged that various transfers from the Army were under consideration.

At his news conference today Eisenhower said no decision has yet been taken on transferring scientists and facilities to the new agency.

Asked about reports that Glennan plans to take over the Army Program, the President said he did not believe Glennan had made an indication of such a positive character.

Problem Under Study
Eisenhower noted that a presidential commission is now engaged in a specific study of what functions and personnel should be absorbed by the space agency. He said that he would have to make the final decision in the matter and that he was nowhere near such an action.

Manned Space Ship Ready For Unknown

INGLEWOOD, Calif. (UPI) — America's first manned space craft, the rocket powered X-15, rolls from its assembly line today to get ready for the great adventure into the unknown.

The initial look at the unique research ship, described as a cross between an airplane and a true future space ship, is expected to show a 50-foot long cylindrical fuselage with a single barrel engine capable of 60,000 pounds of thrust to the fringe of the atmosphere.

Vice President Richard M. Nixon was named as principal speaker for the rollout ceremonies on the flight ramp at Los Angeles International Airport where the X-15 was built by North American Aviation.

Several hundred newsmen were invited to be the eyes of the nation and the world at the historic event.

Artist sketches already have shown the plane to be pencil thin with diamond-shaped wings like cleaver blades, stubs of control surfaces, a sharp tail fin and a small bulge at the nose where the cockpit is situated.

The X-15 was developed for the Air Force, the Navy, and the National Aeronautics and Space Administration to carry a man higher and faster than ever before.

Ex-Call Girl Says Hubby Mean To Her

MIAMI (UPI) — Pat Ward, key figure in the widely publicized Mickey Jelle vice ring trial of 1953 has charged her present husband with forcing her to drink whiskey and beating her with a whip.

"Now blonde and pregnant, she has filed her third divorce suit in two months against Dr. Julian Charles Savarese, Miami osteopath. The first two suits were dismissed when her attorneys reported reconciliations.

The two were married last November at Vallon, Mexico. She said he promised to give her a $35,000 home, child treatment, money and a child.

Instead, she charged, he has been beating her with his fist, a bull-whip and a marble arbitrary wrapped in a towel. She said he forced her to drink whiskey and write a letter falsely admitting infidelities.

Nationalists Plan Stockpile For War

TAIPEI, Formosa (UPI) — Chinese Nationalist economic officials plan to stockpile three months of essential supplies on Formosa in preparation against a major war, it was reported today.

The stockpile plans for Formosa — including food, fuel, ammunition and other military and civilian needs — were reported after a huge buildup of military and civilian supplies on the Quemoy offshore islands.

The China Post, which often reflects government views, said the government recognizes no relaxation of tension in the Formosa Strait despite the Communist cease fire there.

Military officials said enough supplies have been shipped to Quemoy during the past ten days to last the outpost through a full winter's siege despite belief in Western capitals the crisis there was over.

President Won't Coerce Chiang To Move Troops

WASHINGTON (UPI) — President Eisenhower said today the United States is not going to try to coerce Chiang Kai-shek into reducing his Chinese Nationalist forces on Quemoy and the other offshore islands.

He strongly indicated, however, that the United States would welcome a voluntary reduction by the Nationalists. He said he had made no secret that he thought Chiang had too many troops there.

The President was asked at his news conference whether the United States was seeking to persuade Chiang to remove some of his troops from the islands.

Eisenhower replied that he felt it was not logical to have so much military manpower there, but added that the United States was not going to try to coerce an ally on something the ally believed vital to his very existence.
