

Salinger Named To Fill Engle's Senate Seat

(UPI)—Pierre Salinger, press secretary to two presidents, Tuesday was appointed U. S. senator to succeed the late Clair Engle.

Gov. Edmund G. Brown, a Democrat like Salinger, announced the appointment of the 39-year-old Salinger at a news conference here. Engle died last Thursday after a year-long fight against a brain tumor.

Salinger, 39, a former press secretary to the late President John F. Kennedy and President Lyndon B. Johnson, faces a Nov. 3 general election contest for the full six-year term against Republican George Murphy. Salinger is heavily favored to defeat the former actor.

Murphy served notice he would make the interim appointment an issue in his campaign against Salinger.

Rescuers Reach French Miners

CHAMPAGNOLE, France (UPI)—Rescue workers broke through Tuesday into the cavern where nine cheering, singing miners had been trapped for eight days by a cave-in. An emergency shaft 200 feet deep reached the miners at 12:55 p. m. (6:55 a. m. EST), eight days and 45 minutes after they were caught underground by the collapse of a limestone mine shaft in Mont Rivet.

The men were expected to be hoisted to the surface in an escape capsule within three hours. They had been in communication with their rescuers over an emergency telephone line for days, and they were in good condition despite the ordeal.

The fate of five others trapped by the same cave-in was uncertain.

Cabinet Fails To OK Building

TALLAHASSEE (UPI)—The Cabinet refused for a second time Tuesday to approve a request by a Tallahassee architect firm that it construct a 10-story office building across from the Capitol Center.

Wallis Associates, Inc., asked Cabinet approval for the move a week ago. Gov. Farris Bryant directed a committee to study the request.

The committee reported today that it had taken "no affirmative action" because it had not seen the firm's specific proposal for the building.

Reapportioning Delay Bill OK'd

WASHINGTON (UPI)—The Senate Judiciary Committee Tuesday approved legislation to stall reapportionment of state legislatures for a minimum of two years.

The committee voted 10 to 2 to approve a bill by Senate GOP leader Everett Dirksen which would postpone Supreme Court ordered reapportionment until state legislatures can have two regular sessions to consider the problem.

RFK Urges Bail Bond Reforms

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy Tuesday urged Congress to reform the bail bond system and checkbook justice.

In testimony prepared for a Senate Judiciary subcommittee, Kennedy said the rich man and the poor man do not receive equal justice in the courts under the present bail system.

Bail has become "a vehicle for systematic injustice" because it consigns to prison any one who can not "pay for their freedom," he said.

news... BRIEFS

Peaceful Night
 JERSEY CITY (UPI)—Jersey City Wednesday night enjoyed its first peaceful night since bloody rioting broke out last Sunday.

British Back U. S.
 LONDON (UPI)—Prime Minister Sir Alec Douglas-Home today denounced North Viet Nam's PT boat attacks on U. S. destroyers as "unprovoked aggression."

Jackie In Venice
 VENICE, Italy (UPI)—Mrs. John F. Kennedy, widow of the late President, arrived here today from London for a yachting vacation on the Adriatic.

No Hope For 5
 CHAMPAGNOLE, France (UPI)—Rescue workers today virtually abandoned hope of finding alive any of five miners buried deep inside Mount Rivel by a cave-in July 27.

Ike's Aid Sought
 WASHINGTON (UPI)—Republican presidential nominee Barry M. Goldwater said today he would ask former President Dwight D. Eisenhower to take an active part in his campaign.

Medicare Pushed
 WASHINGTON (UPI)—President Johnson dispatched top administration spokesmen to the Senate today to open a drive for action this election year on his program of health care for the elderly financed through Social Security.

Congo Fighting
 LEOPOLDVILLE, The Congo (UPI)—The American consulate reported from Stanleyville today that fighting between Communist-backed rebels and government troops was still raging in the embattled city.

Politics For Men
 WASHINGTON (UPI)—Men are more interested in politics than women are. A survey of a cross-section of the population asked this question: "Are you greatly interested in politics?" Result: 36 per cent of the men said yes; 28 per cent of the women. The majority of both sexes said they had only moderate interest or no interest at all.

Bikes Stolen
 Four youths attending the Wednesday morning movie at the Ritz Theater found their bicycles had been stolen when they left the building shortly after noon, police reported today.

Bryant Talks Of New University System

TALLAHASSEE, (UPI)—Gov. F. Bryant said today a chancellor system for Florida's universities would probably be the best step the state could take to improve its educational setup.

Bryant told his weekly news conference that the chancellor system had its advantages and disadvantages, but "I'd probably vote for it."

"A chancellor system would take away from the Board of Control a great deal of details," he said. "It would be a relief to the governor, but he would be left with the Board of Control system of governing the university program had an equal number of advantages and disadvantages."

Bryant added, however, he was pleased with the progress which has been going forward in the state's junior college program.

Bryant also said he was concerned with the nine white and Negro ministers being held in jail here on 60-day terms for a 1961 sit-in demonstration at the Tallahassee airport.

"I'm concerned about anybody in jail. I'm concerned when persons take the law into their own hands," he said. "He said it was 'a dangerous precedent' to allow civil disobedience simply because 'you don't like the law.'"

Altamonte Appoints Charter Committee

An eight-member charter committee was appointed last night in Altamonte Springs to review and revise the town charter in preparation for a possible city manager-commision form of government.

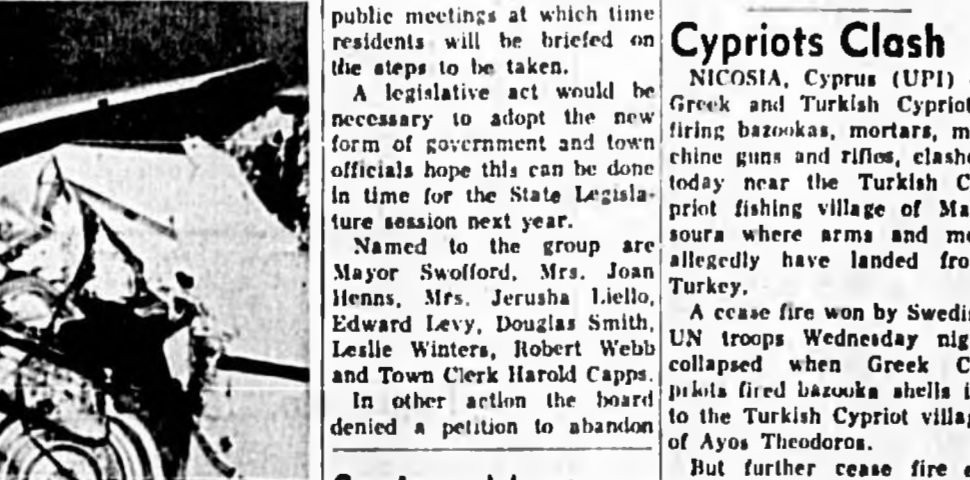

The committee was selected as an aftermath of a recent suggestion by Mayor Lawrence Swofford that the charter be "ancient" and in need of modernization.

Plans call for a point-by-point review of the document and this will be followed by public meetings at which time residents will be briefed on the steps to be taken.

A legislative act would be necessary to adopt the new form of government and town officials hope this can be done in time for the State Legislature session next year.

Named to the group are Mayor Swofford, Mrs. Joan Hennis, Mrs. Jerusha Lillo, Edward Levy, Douglas Smith, Leslie Winters, Robert Webb and Town Clerk Harold Capps.

In other action the board denied a petition to abandon

A HEAD-ON collision near Weathersfield late Wednesday afternoon resulted in serious injury to an Altamonte Negro woman, Mrs. Estoria Moss, driver of the car shown, who was hit by teenager Russ Bentley, also of Altamonte, as he improperly attempted to pass a truck. Bentley, and passengers in the Moss car received cuts and bruises. (Herald Photo)

Letter Named Trio's Killers, Gregory Says

JACKSON, Miss (UPI)—A Mississippi so terrified by the consequences that he fled the state may have been the informer who sent FBI agents to the graves of three missing civil rights workers, an integrationist said today.

Negro comedian Dick Gregory said in Honolulu early today that he had turned over a letter to the FBI three weeks ago that pinpointed the spot near Philadelphia, Miss., where the bodies of the victims were buried and named the men responsible for the killings.

The letter was in response to a $25,000 reward Gregory offered.

Gregory also said he had a tape-recorded interview with another Mississippi resident who named seven men as the killers but that the resident said he got his information from others.

The FBI here and in Washington declined comment on Gregory's statement. Neither would they confirm reports that arrests were expected "at any time."

Gregory turned over copies of the letter, written from Washington, D. C., today.

The letter was signed but Gregory asked that the name be withheld. It was typewritten and contained frequent misspellings and grammatical errors.

"This is a Mississippi man writing this letter," Gregory said. "He had to be scared. He went to Washington and got a box number there."

The copies of the letter that Gregory produced said that the three civil rights workers had been followed after their release from jail to a rural area where they were "surrounded" by a "sum of five men" and shot.

FBI agents found the bodies of the youths under 23 feet of clay in a pond dam on a farm near Philadelphia Tuesday evening. Reports said that an official autopsy, expected to be made public today, would show that the workers were shot.

Planes Scout Wave Off Puerto Rico

MIAMI (UPI)—Hurricane hunter planes were sent out today to check a weak easterly wave that dumped heavy showers on Puerto Rico Wednesday night.

The Weather Bureau said winds had been clocked up to 30 miles per hour but there was no sign of circulation.

Forecasters said the check was "purely precautionary."

Easterly waves are watched during the hurricane season because they sometimes develop into tropical storms.

Nikita Caught In Dilemma

LONDON (UPI)—Soviet Premier Nikita S. Khrushchev today appeared caught in a dilemma by the sudden flare-up of hostilities between the United States and North Viet Nam.

On the one hand, he must give support—in words, if not in actions—to North Viet Nam because it is a Communist country under attack.

On the other hand, he cannot condemn the United States too strongly, because that would harm his efforts to ease the cold war.

These considerations are complicated further by Moscow's rivalry with Peking for world Communist leadership.

Cypriots Clash

NICOSIA, Cyprus (UPI)—Greek and Turkish Cypriots, firing bazookas, mortars, machine guns and rifles, clashed today near the Turkish Cypriot fishing village of Manoura where arms and men allegedly have landed from Turkey.

A cease fire won by Swedish UN troops Wednesday night collapsed when Greek Cypriots fired bazooka shells into the Turkish Cypriot village of Ayos Theodoros.

But further cease fire efforts were continuing, officials said.

Court To Study Release Plea

TALLAHASSEE (UPI)—The state supreme court agreed today to consider a request for release from jail of nine white and Negro ministers serving 60-day sentences for a sit-in demonstration.

Justice Campbell Thorne will hear attorneys argue the petition for writ of habeas corpus at 11 a.m. on Friday.

Power For Any Showdown Ready

United Press International The United States rushed men, ships and planes to Southeast Asia today to meet any possible showdown with the Communists over Viet Nam.

Red China has charged that the United States had "gone over the brink of war" with its retaliatory air strikes against Communist North Viet Nam.

But Peking took no apparent action to back up the North Vietnamese.

The fast-moving Viet Nam crisis included these developments:

—Congress moved in bipartisan fashion to unite behind President Johnson in his punishment moves against Viet Nam.

Two key Senate committees swiftly approved a resolution approving an American policy of firmness to preserve peace in Southeast Asia and sent it on to the full Senate for action. The House is expected to act soon after the Senate.

—In Moscow, the Soviet government newspaper Izvestia condemned the American air strikes against North Viet Nam. It termed the strikes "aggression" and warned Washington not to "go too far," but Izvestia coupled the warning with a plea for peace in the region, saying that "for this noble object no effort should be spared."

Peking broadcasts, while claiming that "aggression by the United States against the Democratic Republic of Viet Nam means aggression against China," said it was up to North Viet Nam to "hit back in self defense against the armed attacks of U. S. imperialism."

U. S. Ambassador A. J. Stevenson told the United Nations Security Council Wednesday that the United States would not tolerate attacks by North Viet Nam or anyone else.

UN Secretary General Thant was making a state visit to Washington that had been planned before the crisis broke out.

It gave Johnson an opportunity to outline U. S. policy to him in person.

Through American embassies around the globe, Johnson informed U. S. Allies of the why and wherefore of Wednesday's action. All but France, still dickered for neutralization of Southeast Asia, quickly expressed firm support.

There were scattered minor demonstrations against the U. S. action in Japan, Sweden, Algeria and Scotland, but no violence.

On the American political front Sen. Barry Goldwater, the Republican nominee, praised Johnson's decision.

"I believe it is the only thing he could do under the circumstances," Goldwater said. "We cannot allow the the American flag to be shot at anywhere on earth if we are to retain our respect and prestige."

Units of the U. S. Seventh Fleet, which patrols Communist coastlines throughout the western Pacific, were dispatched from ports in Japan and Hong Kong to the Indochina station.

Squadrons of American jet fighter-bombers were shuttled west from the United States, to Honolulu, to Okinawa and the Philippines, to Thailand and to South Viet Nam itself.

Six F102 Delta Dagger jet fighters arrived in Saigon Wednesday to provide air defense for any retaliatory raids by North Viet Nam. More F102's landed 875 miles north at Danang, only 100 miles from the North Vietnamese border.

An aircraft carrier task group, normally based at San Diego, Calif., was transferred from the First Fleet, patrolling the U. S. Pacific Coast, to the western Pacific.

Eight American submarines, three of them nuclear-powered, were poised for action at undisclosed locations in the western Pacific.

The carrier USS Ranger, with 100 combat aircraft, sailed out of San Francisco Bay today for the Far East, returning to station there after maintenance work was quickly terminated.

(Crews manning the Vigilant aboard the Ranger are from the Sanford Naval Air Station. The Reconnaissance Attack Squadron 5 members were recently deployed to the West Coast as the first unit in an historic move which combines the East and West Coast Navy groups for worldwide protective coverage for the United States.)

The crisis boiled up suddenly on Sunday when three North Vietnamese patrol torpedo boats made an "unprovoked attack" on the destroyer USS Maddox. The Maddox was checking on Communist shipping in the Gulf of Tonkin, 35 miles off the coast of North Viet Nam.

F. E. ROUMILLAT JR.

Waterfront Project Called 'Wise Move'

Francis E. Roumillat Jr., proprietor of a drugstore bearing his name, today called the proposed lakefront marina "a wise and progressive move" if the City of Sanford "aggressively promotes the development of the Sanford Marina."

Roumillat led the marina plan with the port facility which is now being analyzed saying the two would "make Sanford and Seminole County the focal point of Central Florida."

The merchant's statement follows:

"The proposed Sanford Marina, in addition to the barge port facility now under study, will truly be the key to the economic stability of this area. Sanfordites have wistfully gazed at their lakefront for many years, wishing something could be done to utilize this wonderful natural asset.

"It is through the combined efforts of a small group of Sanford businessmen that the potential of our lakefront has been brought sharply into focus. This group has spent their time, money and effort to place before the City Commission and the citizens of Sanford a plan to develop our lake shore to the fullest extent—a plan that will benefit the citizens many times over the cost of the undertaking.

"The marina development by the city and the barge facility development by the county will make Sanford and Seminole County the focal point of central Florida. In the foreseeable future, Sanford can become the recreation center, and the barge port the distribution hub for waterborne commodities for the whole of Central Florida.

"It will certainly be a wise and progressive move if our City Commission aggressively promotes the development of the Sanford Marina."

Seminole League Sets Hootenanny At Lyman High

By Jane Casselberry
Many talented acts are being lined up for the hootenanny to be sponsored by the Seminole Little League on Friday, Aug. 14, at 8 p. m. in the Lyman High School auditorium.

Already scheduled to appear are the popular "Tradewinds," a folk singing trio composed of Bill Wharton, Jim Jarrard and Terry Harmon. Also singing will be Mrs. Coleen Wiggins of Casselberry, a local singer of folk tunes who has original songs as well as traditional melodies in her repertoire.

A square dance group made up of Little League officers and managers and their wives will present several dance numbers and, as a concession to rock 'n roll fans, a non-folk combo, "The Shadows," will appear. Members of this aggregation include Bob Culpepper, leader and Ted Biddle and David Boone.

Half-price admission rates have been set for students and children under six years old will be admitted free. Tickets are available from Mrs. Mary Mobley in Longwood, Mrs. Barbara Smith in Lake Mary, Mr. and Mrs. John Brewer in Bear Lake and each night at the concession stand in the Little League field in Casselberry.

Reiters Host Family Party For Firemen

By Donna Estes
The annual Longwood firemen's post July 4th party was held Saturday afternoon and evening at the home of

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Reiter. Thirty-four guests were present to enjoy swimming and home movies and slides of past activities of the fire department. Mr. and Mrs. Orland Fox, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Esclavon and Mrs. Carl Lommler sang many of the favorite old songs for the group. An abundance of delicious chicken barbecue, which had been cooked by Chef Esclavon, was served with baked beans, potato salad, macaroni salad, e o l e s l a w, cakes, pie, peanut butter bars and soft drinks.

Crewman Must Stand Trial

TAMPA (UPI) — A U.S. district judge reserved a ruling Wednesday on whether a Negro shrimp boat crewman was mentally competent to stand trial for the high seas death of his captain.

Psychiatrists told Judge George C. Young Henry Weaver, 28, is mentally competent in their judgement. Weaver is charged with murdering Capt. William Schuck of Bartow in May. The crime apparently happened in the Gulf of Mexico near Porters, Mexico.

Weaver was returned here by the Coast Guard and taken into custody by FBI agents. Murder on the high seas is a federal crime.

MRS. MARIE THOMPSON has been named public relations representative for Mac's Oil Co., distributor of Phillips 66 products. She will visit all homes in Seminole County telling about the various Phillips 66 services, such as fuel oil, gasoline, credit cards, batteries and accessories.

Injuries Riddle Boston Patriots

By United Press International
Opportunity is knocking for rookies in the Boston Patriot training camp at Andover, Mass.

Injuries to regular receivers Gino Cappelletti and Jimmy Colclough will force Coach Mike Holovak to go with newcomers Nick Spinelli of Miami and Johnny Barrett of Boston College in Sunday's exhibition slash with Houston.

In addition, Holovak had obtained Mack Yogo from Buffalo during the off-season to spell defensive ends Larry Eisenbauer and Bob Dea but Yogo has been slowed by injuries and is now on the waiver list, leaving the spot open for either first year men Riley Morris, Leonard St. Jean or veteran Jim Hunt.

Ezell Beala of Prairie View (Tex.) A&M Wednesday became the first member of the Houston Oilers to get the axe. Coach Sammy Baugh is reducing team workouts to one-a-day for the rest of the week. The Oakland Raiders removed offensive end Jim Barrett from the injury list and pronounced him ready to go for Sunday's exhibition meeting with Kansas City.

Novice Widow Weds Again

LONDON (UPI)—Mrs. Thora Glasford, a 41-year-old widow who spent five years as a novice nun after her first husband died, remarried Wednesday.

Mrs. Glasford said she left the convent without taking final vows and then met her new husband, opera house manager Arthur Tolson.

Topless Suits At Half Price

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (UPI)—Shepherd's Laundry is trying to pick up new business. They put up a sign that reads: "Topless bathing suits cleaned and pressed—one-half off."

ELECTROCUTED
CLEARWATER (UPI) — Paul Yarusso, 23, of Dunedin, was killed Wednesday when he brushed against two live power lines while helping to install new wiring at the Palmetto Fish Market, which he owned.

Schools Join Forces In Junior Olympics

By Donna Estes
Approximately 70 youngsters attending the summer recreation program at Longwood Elementary and South Seminole Elementary schools participated in Junior Olympics at the Longwood school last week.

Awarded ribbons in various age groups and categories were: Ball Kick, Lynn Anne Stevens and Steven Jamison, five, six and seven years old; Gina Chenet and John Addison, eight and nine year olds; Ball Throw, Donna McElmurry and Steven Jamison, five, six and seven year olds; Gina Chenet and Phillip Holder, eight and nine year olds; Jane Pugh and Rick Kilmer, ten and over;

Missing Pilots Californians

WASHINGTON (UPI)—The Defense Department has identified the two Navy pilots missing in the air strike against North Vietnamese naval bases and said one of them may have been captured by the Communists.

The pilots both flying from the carrier Constellation, were Lt. (jg) Everett Alvarez Jr., 26, of San Jose, Calif., and Lt. (jg) Richard C. Sather, 26, Pomona, Calif.

Defense Secretary Robert S. McNamara said one of the two pilots may have landed in North Viet Nam either by parachute or in his crippled plane. He said it was not known which one this might be.

Broad Jump, Lynn Anne Stevens and Richard McGough, five, six and seven year olds; Gina Chenet and Rick Adams, eight and nine year olds; Jane Pugh and Ricky Smith, ten and over; 50 Yard Dash, Lynn Ann Stevens and Ricky McGough, five, six and seven year olds; Gina Chenet and Phillip Holder, eight and nine year olds; Jane Pugh and Rick Kilmer, ten and over; 100 Yard Dash, Gina Chenet and Rick Adams, eight and nine year olds; Jane Pugh and Rick Kilmer, ten and over.

Serving as judges were Coaches Walt Dauris and Rodney Umberger of Longwood and Jim Clark and Othell Sullivan of South Seminole.

SRD To Receive Highway Bids

TALLAHASSEE (UPI) — Bids on 36 bridge and highway projects will be received by the State Road Department Aug. 25.

Among the projects are construction on two interstate roads -195 and I-4 in St. Johns, Orange and Seminole counties. Another interstate project included in the bids is furnishing and erecting traffic signs on I-4 in Orange and Seminole counties.

The college graduate over his lifetime will earn approximately $180,000 more than the high school graduate.

Couple Loses 'Gift' Baby

FORT LAUDERDALE (UPI) — A 21-month-old boy given a couple by his mother in a laundromat was ordered returned to his parents Wednesday by Circuit Judge Edgar Williams Jr.

Mr. and Mrs. Russell Bachman said the child, Tracy Anthony, was given to them by Mrs. Leo Davis Dellick in a coin laundry 10 months ago. The couple made efforts to adopt the child. Later Mrs. Dellick apparently decided she wanted the boy back and asked the court to return him.

"The real victims in this court's reluctant decision are the petitioners," Judge Williams said in his ruling.

Why Did Reds Attack? Official U. S. Opinion Is Divided

Chinese Want Area Neutral, Some Believe

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Top State Department officials were divided in their opinions today as to what moved Communist North Viet Nam to stage its apparently senseless attacks on U. S. warships in the Gulf of Tonkin.

Secretary of State Dean Rusk said Wednesday night he was not sure, but he "would not support" the attacks were part of an effort to force the United States into a new international conference on Viet Nam.

But other officials, including some members of the department's Policy Planning Council, took a different view. They said they believed the Communists hope, by inflaming the situation to new crisis proportions, to promote widespread support for another international meeting. Such a conference might be converted by the Reds into an assemblage to ratify the "neutralization" of all Southeast Asia.

This view—that the attacks might be part of an effort to force the United States into a new conference—gained some support from Communist China's flamboyant declaration Wednesday night.

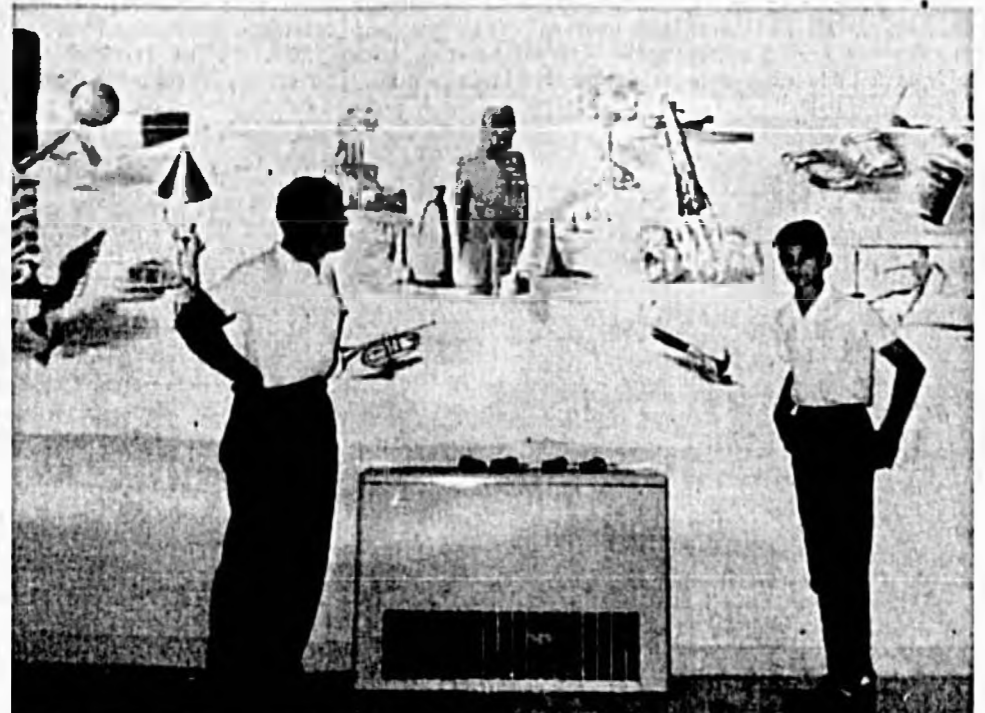

The Red Chinese said the United States had gone "over the brink of war," and Peking would not sit idly by. The Chinese also called on other countries which signed the Geneva agreements on Southeast Asia to come to aid of North Viet Nam, which they could do most reasonably by diplomatic rather than military means.

The United States opposes any reopening of the Geneva conferences of 1954 and 1962, contending that until the Reds mend their ways, such sessions would simply "ratify terror and aggression" in the area.

Some officials hinted darkly at the possibility of major Chinese military moves in the area, but offered no evidence to support the possibility at this time.

President Johnson, however, has ordered a major movement of additional U. S. military forces to the Far East to meet any possible threat.

But the mood in Washington, following the brief "war of Tonkin Gulf," appears relatively relaxed. The indications were that the United States expects a major portion of the battle to be fought on the diplomatic front in the next few days.

$1 Million Plus OK'd For Florida Water Projects

WASHINGTON (UPI)—More than $1 million was added to a trio of Florida water projects by the Senate Public Works Committee Wednesday.

Sen. Spessard Holland said the appropriations bill included $4 million for continuing construction on the cross-state barge canal.

The committee also added $150,000 to $700,000 previously approved by the House in construction for the Caloosahatchee River to the Anclote River, part of the Intracoastal Waterway.

Pensacola harbor received $550,000 for new development. The House had approved $300,000 for this project.

Funds for projects in Central and South Florida were raised from $13.5 million to $14.5 million.

Approval by the committee is tantamount to full Senate action.

Soviet Warning To U. S. Mild One

MOSCOW (UPI)—A stern Soviet warning that further action by the United States against North Viet Nam could lead to "broad armed conflict" was viewed by diplomatic sources today as tough talk to cover up Kremlin embarrassment over the crisis and hopes for peace.

The sources said the Soviets feel they have nothing to gain in a clash in Southeast Asia, where Communist China controls the local Communist parties, and a great deal to lose in their efforts to ease cold war tensions with the United States.

The warnings of general war, they said, went hand in hand with hopes that there is no further action in the U.S.-Vietnamese crisis.

Soviet calmness over the crisis was underlined by the fact that Premier Nikita S. Khrushchev was out of Moscow on a trip and that many of his chief aides were vacationing—yet none appeared to be making plans to come back to the capital.

Switzerland leads all other countries in dial telephone service.

U.S. Ambassador Foy D. Kohler left today for a vacation in West Germany, which he had arranged before the crisis came up.

Soviet reaction to the U.S. retaliatory attacks Wednesday was cautious in the early hours with only factual reports of President Johnson's speech and no comment. By Wednesday night, however, Soviet propaganda outlets were broadcasting a harsh warning.

It called the U.S. bombing of North Vietnamese bases "an aggressive act."

"Such actions, further rash steps or provocations in that area, could cause events capable of converting the incidents that took place there into a broad armed conflict with all the ensuing dangerous consequences," the statement added.

Viet Nam Issue Not Yet Eliminated

WASHINGTON (UPI)—President Johnson's "fight it - we - must" action has dampened but not smothered the Vietnamese crisis as a 1964 campaign issue, key Republicans said today.

Minority party members in Congress made it clear they had "no choice" but to unite behind the President in replying to Communist aggression with retaliatory attacks on North Vietnamese coastal installations.

But there was a strong "at this time" qualification in their comments on whether the war in Viet Nam was entering a political sidetrack.

Rep. William S. Broomfield, R-Mich., said he backed Johnson's action, but that it did not take the Viet Nam issue out of the presidential election campaign.

"Viet Nam is going to be discussed," he said. "We have been maintaining right along that the administration hasn't been doing enough to win the war."

Former Vice President Richard M. Nixon, in town for discussions with presidential nominee Barry Goldwater and other Republican leaders, told a reporter:

"It's too early to take Viet Nam out of the campaign. I hope the President's action presages more decisive moves, but what has happened is only part of the problem. The major problem is guerrilla war — on that we need a plan."

While Rep. William E. Miller, R-N.Y., the GOP vice presidential nominee, agreed that the President's stern action had removed Southeast Asia as an issue "as of now," he suggested the situation might be different by October or November.

Wiring Blamed For Home Fire

Lake Mary Volunteer Firemen answered a call Wednesday afternoon to the "Old Robinson Place," just back of the Frank Griffin home on Lake Mary-Longwood Road, where fire threatened to break out in the smouldering electrical system.

The short, thought at first to have resulted from lightning of the late afternoon thunder storm, was later discovered to be caused by faulty wiring after a second call was made by Chief Ralph Abell at about 9 p. m.

Miss Mary Helene Washburn To Marry Ronald Brumbaugh

Mrs. Mary Tamm Washburn of Sanford announces the engagement of her daughter, Miss Mary Helene Washburn, to Ronald Lee Brumbaugh, son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl R. Brumbaugh, also of this city.

The popular bride-elect was born in Sanford and attended public schools here, having graduated from Seminole High School with the class of 1962. While in high school, she was a member of the Glee Club, Anchor Club and the National Honor Society of Tri-Hi-Y. She was co-editor of the year book, "Salmagundi" and attended Florida State University in Tallahassee.

Mr. Brumbaugh was born in Morristown, Pa., moved to Sanford in 1956 and was graduated from Seminole High School in 1960. He is a graduate of Chipola Junior College in Marianna and received his B.S. degree in Business Administration at Florida State University this April, where he was a member of Delta Sigma Pi Fraternity. He is presently affiliated with the Acceptance Corporation of Florida in Orlando.

Miss Washburn is the maternal granddaughter of Henry Tamm Sr. of Sanford and the late Mrs. Tamm and is the daughter of Robert Washburn of Orlando.

The wedding will be an event of September 3, 1964 at 11 a. m. at All Souls Catholic Church.

MISS MARY HELENE WASHBURN

Mrs. M. J. Corbett Is Hostess To Church Circle

Mrs. Maurice Corbett was hostess at her lovely home on Lakeview Drive, to the monthly meeting of the Ethel Root Circle of the Congregational Christian Church.

An inspiring devotional service was presented by Mrs. Bonner Carter, based upon the Gospel of John.

Routine business was conducted by the president, Mrs. Walter Bethea, at which time a slate of officers for the Joint Women's Fellowship was accepted by the group. Officers elected were: president, Mrs. William Burtches; vice president, Mrs. A. M. Remusat; secretary, Miss Miriam Burtches; and treasurer, Mrs. Mabel West.

Tentative plans were discussed for the Gymkhana, which the Circle is sponsoring on Sept. 26.

At the conclusion of the meeting delicious refreshments of ribbon cake, punch, nuts and mints were served by the hostess assisted by Mrs. Harold Herbst from a beautifully appointed table.

Members attending were the Meses. T. R. Alford, Clayton Bagwell, Walter Bethea, Bonner Carter, Robert Getman, Harold Herbst, Ralph Loring, G. O. Longren, A. M. Remusat, Edward Simpson, Clyde Stinson, Oscar Zittower and Miss Ruby Booth.

Miss Marilyn McDaniel Entertained With Bridal Luncheon At Wallace Philips Home

Miss Marilyn McDaniel, lovely bride-elect of David B. King, was guest of honor at a charming bridal luncheon recently at the gracious Wally Philips home on Lily Court, with Mrs. Philips and her daughter, Miss Merritt Philips, serving as co-hostesses.

The dining area featured a beautiful arrangement of white glads in a milk glass container centering a side table.

Individual tables were covered with elegant hand embroidered outwork cloths and centered with dainty nosegays of yellow and white daisies edged in frilly lace and net with showers of narrow yellow and white satin streamers.

An unusually attractive and delicious luncheon course of turkey, stuffed tomatoe, spinach chesno souffle, home made biscuits, cranberries, strawberry parfait and home made cake was served buffet style from a table covered in yellow damask. A picturesque arrangement of yellow and white daisies adorned with miniature love birds in a milk glass vase centered the buffet table.

Mrs. Philips received the guests in a stunning brown and orange print with orange accessories and Miss Philips was dressed in a button-down-the-front blue linen. Marilyn received in a full skirted colorful print featuring a low cut fitted bodice. Mrs. Thomas F. McDaniel, mother of the bride-elect, was attired in a chic blue print with a white faceted cross-cross yoke.

The hostesses presented the honoree with soup bowls in her chosen china.

Others attending the bridal luncheon were Mrs. William Park of Orlando and the Meses. W. A. Kratzert, James Crapps, Thomas Bowden, M. R. Strickland, E. C. Waldheim, Ray Herron and Curtis Fisher.

Also Miss Rose Kratzert and Miss Ann Crapps.

Flexer-Barnette Wedding Details Are Announced

Final plans have been completed for the Flexer-Barnette wedding. Sara Flexer, and David Barnette will be married Sunday August 9, 1964 at 2 p.m. at the First Presbyterian Church in Sanford with Rev. Grover Sewell officiating.

All friends are invited to attend the wedding and reception at Fellowship Hall, immediately following.

Coiffure Come-on: The Flirt Curl

NEW YORK (UPI) — The "flirt curl" is the hairdressing industry's newest addition to fall and winter hairstyles.

The curl is a lock of a woman's hair saved from a new haircut, perfumed with her favorite scent and tied with a small ribbon bow.

"Wear the curl at the center of the neckline at the back of your head, or wherever," said the National Hairdressers and Cosmetologists Association.

"Then, give it to your favorite beau to wear in his lapel. He's pinned!"

The hair fashion committee of the association said many curls should not be given away, however. In short, hair for the new season will be shorter than in many years and with a "softness of curl and wave."

Wave lines are layered and have a decided feeling of roundness, said the association. Hair is cut in curves, disc-like, with full ends at the sides and through the crown area. Finger waves of yesterday are back, but with modified "S" curves. For day, curls will be covered. For evening, curls usually are exposed, accented with a touch of rouge and with sizable ornaments. Evening coiffures will have hair pieces added, either placed on top of the head or placed at the nape of the neck. Most fall styles are parted. And the clean forehead is in, with bangs used only to correct hairlines when needed.

According to the Guinness Book of World Records, published in England, the largest outdoor sign in the world is located in Tampa. The sign, advertising the Atlantic Coast Line Railroad, is 387 1/2 feet long; 76 feet high; weighs 175 tons and contains five miles of neon tubing.

Fashionettes

New York designer Vera Maxwell went to Greece this summer—and thereby hangs a tale of a new collection of jewelry. The designer said she returned from the Aegean with shoe boxes and boxes of stones she gathered along the shores of Greece. Back in New York, she worked with a jeweler to create gold mountings for the stones and turn them into one-of-a-kind creations for the woman looking for the different in adornment. The stones are made into pendants, neck circles, bar pins, rings and earrings—and Mrs. Maxwell said they were especially handsome with fall and winter tweeds.

Enough rope for a hanging—and then some—is coming to the jewelry scene for fall. One manufacturer, Richeleu, noting that the "Perls of Pauline," one of the most popular movie serials of all time, is producing "Perls of Pauline" jewelry. The Perls, ropes and other type necklaces, copy styles of the 1920's and '30's. Some of the ropes measure up to 120 inches, says the maker.

Another fall season of fur line and fur trims is on its way. The New York coat and suit firm, for instance, lines numerous coats and suit jackets with sable-dyed skunk, raccoon, black nutria, mink and other animal pelts. One trousered suit — pants cut much like a man's except they are cuffless—came with jacket lined in raccoon. Hood also came in the same fur.

Miss Maryann Sapone Honor Guest Of Bon Voyage Party

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Blackie Herota Sr. of Poinsettia Drive in Forest City was the site of a surprise farewell party when the Herota children, Edie, Roger and Blackie Jr., entertained honoring Miss Maryann Sapone. Miss Sapone will depart in the near future for Manteo, N. C., where she will enter school this fall and will be residing with her grandmother, Mrs. Pattie Smith.

A Polynesian style supper was served and the hosts dug a hole in the ground to grill the meat. A large wooden serving platter in the form of a fish contained delicious fruit kabobs, and a variety of other delicious Polynesian fare was served the guests. Everyone enjoyed the delightful outing with swimming in the lake.

Others attending were Richard Klawe, Stuart Dorothy, Annette McGohan, Lois Pearson, George Crab, Becky Totten and Johnny Morrison, from New York, who is visiting his mother and stepfather, Mr. and Mrs. William Cobbett in Bear Lake, before entering the service next week.

In spring, a young man's fancy may turn lightly to thoughts of love, but if you really want to make him whirl, give him yellow togs. This suggestion comes from Ron Postal, president of the National Council of Men's Fashions in Beverly Hills. "Warm colors," says he, "increase a man's heartbeat — and yellow does the most in lifting his spirits."

An you know (or do you?), there are two basic types of haircuts, the tapered and the blunt.

In the tapered cut no two hairs are the same length. The hairdresser first cuts the hair into a basic shape, then resorts to scissors or a razor to achieve the cut so perfect for so many women.

The blunt cut stops all hairs at the same level but this doesn't infer that it's all the same length. In fact, hair from the crown may be 4 or 5 times the length of neckline hair. Blunt cutting imparts body to fine hair and is ideally suited to pageboys.

THIS WEEK'S HELPFUL HINT: If your hair is bushy or wavy, a blunt cut is definitely not for you.

Who Are The Worst Dressed?

Leading Fashion Designer Aims Directly At The Girls

NEW YORK — (NEA) — Mr. Blackwell, who was once a Dead End Kid in films, had better get in touch with the old gang. It may be that he will soon need protection.

The man who publicly never uses a first name (it's Richard) is a successful designer of high-fashion clothes. But all his darts are not confined to dresses. He has quite a few to toss at most of the well-known ladies of the world.

Mr. Blackwell doesn't approve of the dressing habits of many of them, from Mrs. Lyndon Johnson to Sandra Dee.

"Loretta Young," Mr. Blackwell says, "doesn't know how to grow up gracefully. She forgets she is no longer a kid coming through the mist and she swishes around in a full skirt like an ingenue."

"Dinah Shore is confused. She really is the simple, well-dressed girl next door, and that's how she should dress, in it."

Not like a little girl trying to be glamorous in her mother's clothes.

"Carol Burnett is a rarm girl with rhinestones. Debbie Reynolds tried to grow up too soon and didn't make it, Sandra Dee buys every atrociously in the world and makes it look more atrocious by wearing it."

"The Gaboras are clowns who were obviously brought up to be very feminine. They have confused this with being very obvious. Eva I adore, but Zsa Zsa is ungraceful."

"Jayne Meadows is badly overdressed. She buys everything that is on sale, then wears it all at once. Gisele Mackenzie is so busy being appealing she hasn't let her real self come through. I have seen Dina Merrill look very well, but I don't think she has ever produced a distinct image. She floats from trend to mood."

"Arlene Francis is saturated with trend at a time when most women are beginning to think for themselves. She dresses with no concern for the woman beneath, who is really quite lovely. Who ever does her hair has no thought about whether it goes with the dress she is wearing."

"Jayne Mansfield? There is no doubt she is the best undressed woman of the year. Even if she wanted to wear some of my clothes, I wouldn't let her. She is always losing something on the dance floor, and I don't want women to get the impression my clothes fall off."

WE URGE YOU to make your feelings known to your City Commissioner about the waterfront development plan.

We hear so much comment from every side, and everyone seems to be eager to see the proposed plan become a reality, but one commissioner said Tuesday that only two people had spoken to him about it.

He said he would like to hear from people of Sanford if they had thoughts or questions about it, and said "tell people to talk to their commissioners — they want to know how you feel."

So, readers, a word to the wise. When a commissioner comes out and asks for your advice—don't just stand there—tell him!

We'd like to see a few more letters to the editor, too.

Have you lost confidence in Sanford?

Do you feel like some who have said to us, with a shrug of their shoulders, "it could never happen here. Nothing has been done about the waterfront since it's been there. Why hope that anything will be done now?"

Well, you can help make it happen.

Push!

Now!

DO YOU REMEMBER Margo and Michael Rahija, photographers extraordinary, who formerly had a studio here?

They moved to Winter Park some time ago and for awhile were located in the Hidden Gardens.

The Rahijas have now moved to another location in Winter Park, a charming old English style home on Melrose Avenue, where they have both home and studio in one.

Well, to get to the point. During the recent winter season, the banjo king, Eddie Peabody was entertaining at the Langford Hotel, and he commissioned Mike to do some portraits of him.

He likes them so well that he is using them as cover portraits for his new album. One just out is "Great Latin Hits."

Two more, one an album of banjo instructions will be released this fall. All will have world-wide distribution.

So look for the Eddie Peabody album on the stands, and note the portrait of Eddie by the House of Rahija.

Incidentally, Mike also did a very fine portrait of ye publisher, Walter Glew. While hanging in the studio it attracted much attention and comment.

It will soon be hanging alongside that of Mrs. G., a lovely portrait which was given to the master by the mistress as a birthday gift last year.

DOESN'T the drawing of the new garden center to be built by the Garden Club look attractive?

The sketch has a clean, modern line that is simple, yet striking.

This will certainly be an asset and we look for many expanded good works to come from the Garden Club when they have their dream house open.

MISS ORTMANN

were touring Europe, Europeans were touring America for their vacations.

Recently we told you about an Indian Prince who visited the States for the first time and took an extended trip throughout the country, hitting the high spots.

We learned of another visitor, last week.

This one is a German girl, from the city of Darmstadt, south of Frankfurt, Germany, who is taking a three months vacation clutched an ambitious itinerary that goes from New York to Florida, includes stops all the way down, then west through New Orleans to California, north to Washington state and back across the northern tourist spots.

Most of the way, she will be stopping over with American military families, with whom she became acquainted in Germany.

One of these families is that of a former German neighbor, now married to an American ex-serviceman, Mrs. Thomas West of 208 Laurel Drive in Pinecrest.

Mrs. West has lived in Sanford about six years and considers Sanford, Florida and the U. S. "home" now. All her four young children were born here.

Miss Ingegard Ortmann, the visitor from Germany, arrived by plane last week for a short visit.

She is somewhat of a linguist, speaking English and French as well as her native German as she has served as a commercial correspondent for business transactions in these three languages, with a machinery company.

Miss Ortmann has been working hard and saving her money for several years, planning this extended vacation in the U. S., but her real ambition is to find suitable employment, stay here and become a citizen.

She knows of several machinery companies which are similar to the one she worked for, and with her knowledge of languages she probably won't have any trouble finding work. She would like to settle in the area near Atlanta.

Sweet Tooth Plus Energy Equals Profitable Income

HOUSTON (UPI) — Mrs. Howard Singer, mother of three, has proved that a woman with ingenuity, spare time, and the energy to get a small business started can make an unusual idea a going concern.

Her idea — a candy tree. When you are tired of looking at it, you can eat it.

With $200 she saved from her household allowance, Mrs. Singer founded Candy Tree, Inc., two years ago and started putting together trees whose blooms and fruit are hard candies wrapped in colorful paper.

The candies are strung on wire frames and affixed to a styrofoam base.

The trees proved so popular as decorations, gifts and treats that it was not long before Mrs. Singer had to hire a staff to help make them.

Mrs. Singer took her plunge into business with little experience, as an outlet for her creative energies and as good training for budget balancing.

"I didn't even know how to balance a checkbook," she said. "I'd file bills under 'T' for 'Trouble.'"

"The first year, I put all the money back into the business. Later, one night I was discussing what I was going to buy with this amount and that amount. My husband reminded me of the income tax. I nearly collapsed."

Now, she has learned a bit about the business end of a ledger sheet. She keeps her own books, even though some check stubs still read "boo-boo" or "mistake in judgment" and even though her husband offers occasional verbal barbs about her business acumen.

If she were to offer advice to similarly inclined women, it would be:

- Learn to standardize the routines to avoid waste.
- Hire a good lawyer for straightening out the legal problems of a small business.
- Learn some merchandising techniques.

CHARLIE IS OUR BEST SALESMAN...

And he's not even on our payroll!

HERE'S HOW —

Charlie called a friend down at The Herald. Told him he was expanding. Needed a new man. The paper helped him write a real hum-dinger of an ad. Charlie got a fireball. Then he had a great buy on his products. The paper helped him write some real pullers. Sales were at a cozy profit. Charlie's happy and so are we!

Charles' our big booster now, tells everybody our circulation's BIG... our readers love news, sports, columnists, want ads, cooking, fashions, comics. Charlie says that coverage attracts the right payroll and the paying customers!

Homemakers

Corner

By Mrs. H. L. Johnson

I have to start off the column this week by saying "Thank you" for the many calls I have received this past week and also the ones to whom I have talked personally about the "corner."

I think that quite a few homemakers will be sending for the Florida cookbook which I mentioned last week. That is wonderful. I know that they will enjoy it.

From this book I tried another one of the recipes. This one is Sweet'n Sour Pork Chops. Hops you will try it soon. It's really delicious. In fact, I have company coming this weekend to visit and I am going to serve it again.

SWEET'N SOUR PORK CHOPS

6 loin pork chops
6 cloves
1 tsp. salt
1 tsp. paprika
1 tbsp. brown sugar
1/4 tsp. pepper
2 tbsps. shortening
1 6-oz. can frozen orange juice (thawed and undiluted)
1/4 tsp. cinnamon

Insert one clove in the center of each pork chop. Blend salt, paprika and pepper and rub mixture well into sides of chops. Melt shortening in heavy skillet or dutch oven and when hot, place chops in pan and brown on both sides over medium heat. (Do not crowd in pan, it is better to brown three at a time). Combine thawed and undiluted orange juice with brown sugar and cinnamon and pour over chops. Cover and simmer about 30 minutes or until tender. Garnish with celery leaves, parsley or watercress. Also you could use Mandarin orange slices. Serve with rice and your favorite salad. Serves 4 to 6.

Now for a real cool dessert for these hot summer days. One of the Corner readers, Mrs. Fort Poole, called me the other day and gave me a wonderful recipe for WATERMELON SHERBET.

1 envelope unflavored gelatin
1/2 cup cold water
1 cup cold water
2 tbsps. lemon juice
4 cups diced watermelon (pink part only)
1/4 tsp. salt
1 egg white unbeaten

Soften gelatin in the 1/2 cup cold water in a custard cup and place it in a pan of hot water to melt. Combine sugar, lemon juice, watermelon and salt. Put in refrigerator for 30 minutes. Run a mixture through sieve or strainer. Stir in melted gelatin. Turn into ice cube tray and freeze until almost firm, stirring once. Turn into large bowl of electric mixer. Add unbeaten egg white and beat at high speed until light and fluffy. Return to freezer tray and freeze until firm, stirring just once. Makes 1 quart.

Mrs. Poole also has a Spicy Watermelon recipe.

SPICY WATERMELON
10 lbs. prepared watermelon rinds. Remove green and pink rind.
a lump of alum, size of a pea
10 lbs. sugar
3 cups white vinegar
25 drops of oil of cloves
25 drops of oil of cinnamon

Remove all green and most of pink part of watermelon. Cut in shape you want for serving. Cover with cold water and let stand overnight. Drain. Cover again with water, add alum and cook until it can be pierced easily. Drain. Rinse well with cold water. Drain again. Add sugar and vinegar. Let it stand until next day, stirring occasionally. Add spices and cook 10 minutes. Can in sterilized jars. Makes 15 pints.

Here's another one from Washington. Let's call it Campaigners Choice. The chicken is marvelous, hot, cold or warm and excellent for picnics or boat trips.

CAMPAIGNERS CHOICE

2 (2 1/2 lb.) broilers, cut in serving pieces melted butter
salt and pepper
5 tbsps. dry mustard
4 oz. stale beer (or water)
1 cup seasoned bread crumbs
1/4 tsp. dill weed

Brush the chicken pieces on both sides with melted butter and sprinkle with salt and pepper. Place skin sides down in broiler for 20 to 25 minutes. Baste often with melted butter. Turn and broil 10 minutes more. Place in 400 degree oven 10 to 15 minutes and baste. Cream the mustard and beer together, spoon over chickens. Roll pieces in the bread crumbs and spoon on 1/4 lb. melted butter. Broil 5 minutes until golden brown. Serve warm or cold. Serves 6.

Here is an excellent accompaniment to the chicken. It is easy to make and it's the "salad bowl" that is really unique.

PUMPERNICKEL COLE SLAW

1/2 cup mayonnaise
2 quarts shredded cabbage
2 tbsps. chopped pimento
2 tbsps. chopped green pepper
1 to 2 tbsps. grated onion
1/2 cup French dressing
1 lb. round loaf pumpernickel

Blend French dressing with mayonnaise. Combine the remaining ingredients, toss with dressing.

Lightly mark a circle about two inches from base of bread loaf. Insert knife pointed downward to center of bread and cut along circle mark to remove the cone-shaped portion (in piece). Cut this cone into quarters and slice to serve. Remove most of remaining crumbs from bread to make a hollow shell with sides about 1 inch thick. Fill the hollow with cole slaw. Garnish as desired. Serves 4 to 6.

From the Florida Recipe book we found this Lime Cream Chiffon Pie. My, it is mouth watering. Let's try it.

LIME CREAM CHIFFON PIE
1 envelope unflavored gelatin
1/2 cup cold water
1/4 cup lime juice
4 eggs, separated
1/4 tsp. salt
1 tsp. grated lime rind
1/2 cup heavy cream, whipped
1 cup sugar, divided
1 9-inch baked pastry shell or vanilla wafer crust

Soften gelatin in cold water. In top of double boiler, beat egg yolks, then mix in lime juice, 1/2 cup of sugar and salt. Cook over hot water until mixture thickens slightly, stirring constantly. Remove from heat, add gelatin and stir until dissolved. Add lime rind. Beat egg whites until stiff peaks are formed, gradually beat in remaining 1/2 cup sugar. Fold in gelatin mixture, then whipped cream. Turn into baked pastry shell or vanilla wafer crust and chill until firm. If desired, garnish with additional whipped cream and lime slices. Makes one 9-inch pie.

MOCK CRAB AND CELERY SALAD

1 lb. perch filets
2 cups boiling water
1 rib celery, chopped
2 1/4 tpsa. salt
2 tbsps. fresh lemon juice
2 cups diced celery
1/2 cup chopped green pepper
1/4 tsp. black pepper
1/4 cup mayonnaise
head lettuce
fresh parsley and radishes

The fish in a cheese cloth bag, or put in a sieve. Place in boiling water along with 1 rib of celery and 1 tsp. of the salt. Cook 6 to 7 minutes or until fish is flaky. Remove from water and sprinkle with lemon juice. Chill. Flake fish and toss lightly with diced celery, green pepper, black pepper, mayonnaise and remaining salt. Serve on head lettuce. Garnish with parsley and radishes. Serves 6.

PIMENTO CORN FRITTERS

To 3 eggs, beaten until light and creamy, add 1/2 cup milk and 2 tbsps. melted butter. Blend in 1 cup flour and 24 Bacon Thins (crackers), finely rolled (1/4 cup) and 1 tsp. salt. Add to egg mixture, beat until smooth. Stir in 1 cup golden whole kernel corn and 1/2 cup pimento. Drop 1/4 cup of the batter onto a hot greased griddle. Brown on both sides. Serve warm with maple syrup or fruit sauce. Makes 15.

Here's a dainty salad to fix for that summer party.

CUCUMBER PEA SALAD

3 short chunky cucumbers
1 cup cucumber pulp
salt, pepper and paprika
1 cup cooked peas
1 cup minced cooked chicken
2 tomatoes
Mayonnaise dressing

Pare cucumbers, cut slice from each end. Cut cucumbers in halves crosswise. Scoop out the centers, making thin-shelled cups. Chill thoroughly. Combine cucumber pulp, peas and chicken. Season to taste. Moisten with mayonnaise. Mix lightly with 2 forks. Fill cucumber cups with mixture. Stand each cup on a slice of tomato which rests on a bed of lettuce. Serve with mayonnaise. Garnish with paprika. Serves 6.

Graham Picks Southern Cal. QB As Starter

By Ed Sainsbury
UPI Sports Writer
CHICAGO (UPI) — Coach Otto Graham said today Pete Beathard of Southern California would start at quarterback Wednesday night when his College All-Stars clash with the Chicago Bears at Soldier Field.

Beathard got the nod over two other All-Stars who performed smoothly in training camp—George Mira of Miami and Jack Concannon of Boston College.

Mira, who is rounding in to shape after an arm injury and Concannon are expected to see their share of action, however, since Graham has been a great believer in trying all his passers until he finds the right one for the right night.

Graham broke with tradition in releasing his starting lineup, an announcement he has usually withheld until the day of the game.

This time, however, a rash of injuries has trimmed his roster, knocking many of his athletes out of contention for starting assignments.

Tony Loriek of Arizona State and Willis Orenshaw of Kansas State are Graham's selections to start the game as his running backs.

Loriek is unable to make it because of a knee injury which has hampered him in training. The All-Stars can call on a few other fleet sprinters such as Matt Shell of Ohio State, Charlie Taylor of Arizona State, and Bobby Smith of North Texas State.

Graham listed his starting pass catchers as Paul Warfield of Ohio State at flanker, Chuck Logan of Northwestern at the split end, and Ted Davis of Georgia Tech at the tight end.

Game Sold Out

AUSTIN, Tex. (UPI) — The 1964 Texas-Oklahoma football game, scheduled for Oct. 10 in the Cotton Bowl, is a sellout.

The University of Texas Athletic Department announced Wednesday that for the 19th consecutive year all 75,544 tickets have been sold.

The game will be televised nationally.

'Grudge' Drags Slated Saturday

A grudge race is on tap for this Saturday night at the Twin City Dragway between Beecher Wyatt of Sanford, owner and driver of the "Rebel" and "Rebel Two" and Bob Tucker of Orlando.

The Twin City Dragway, formerly known as the Golden Triangle, is located near Orlan, west of Tampa on Highway 92. The owner-president, C. W. Jordan, claims it to be the finest and safest drag strip in the Southeast.

Willie Shrugs Off Heavy Cold To Play For His 'Man' Dark, Clouts 2 Homers

United Press International
Willie Mays said it all for Alvin Dark—once as a man and twice as a ball player.

Mays listened along with his San Francisco Giant teammates Wednesday night as the manager told his players that he held no prejudices against Negro or Latin-Americans. Then he went quietly to the manager and said he wanted to play against the New York Mets despite a severe cold which caused Dark to leave him out of the starting lineup.

"I shouldn't be playing but I gotta help that man," answered Mays, the man, when asked by a reporter why he had requested to play.

And then Willie spoke twice more, as a ball player, by hammering two home runs—his first in 10 games—to lead the Giants to a 4-1 victory that enabled them to cling to two games behind the first-place Philadelphia Phillies in the frantic National League pennant race.

Both of Willie's homers and sailed over the right center field fence at Shea Stadium at the 396-foot sign Willie McCovey also homered and Tom Haller doubled home Orlando Cepeda to give Ron Herbel all the support he needed to win his eighth game of the season.

The Phillies picked up a half game as they swept a doubleheader from the Houston Colt .45's and 2-1, the Milwaukee Braves beat the Cincinnati Reds 6-3, the Pittsburgh Pirates edged out the Los Angeles Dodgers 4-3, and the St. Louis Cardinals downed the Chicago Cubs 4-2.

Jim Hummer went seven innings to win his 11th game for the Phillies in their opener, and then Richie Allen led off the ninth inning of the nightcap with his 19th homer to complete the Philadelphia sweep.

Tony Gonzalez had three hits and Johnny Callison and Tony Taylor two each to lead the Phillies' attack in the first game and John Herstein and Allen had two hits each in the nightcap.

Dean Has 'Chance' To Top ERA Record

By Fred Down
UPI Sports Writer

The figure is 1.63 and it means that Dean Chance is threatening to wipe one of the most remarkable records of the lively ball era off the American League books.

That 1.63 is Chance's earned run average for the Los Angeles Angels and if he maintains it he'll surpass the mark of 1.64 established by Spud Chandler of the New York Yankees in 1913. And, for what it matters to the historians of baseball's dead ball era, it will challenge the finest earned run marks compiled by such greats as Walter Johnson, Lefty Grove, Bob Feller, Hal Newhouser and Whitey Ford.

Chance, a 25-year-old right hander who once was famous because he traveled around with his Belinsky, reduced his season ERA to a new low Wednesday night when he pitched six scoreless innings in the Angels' 1-0 victory over the Baltimore Orioles. The win was the seventh in a row for Chance and raised his won-loss record to 12-5.

Chance had to work hard all the way against rookie sensation Wally Bunker and Manager Bill Rigney replaced him in the seventh with Bob Lee, who struck out four and allowed only one hit over the last three innings. The Los Angeles victory prevented the Orioles from taking over first place from the Yankees, who suffered a 10-1 drubbing at the hands of the Kansas City Athletics.

15—Underwater Fun

By Bill McCormick
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

There is as much added enjoyment to be had from boating under water as there is on the water. Skin diving and SCUBA open whole new worlds for fun and discovery.

Both forms of underwater navigation are safe—if done according to certain hard and fast rules laid down from experience over the years. Proper instruction is essential.

Skin diving, the simplest, is performed with a face mask, flippers and snorkel. The diver floats face down in the water, breathing through the snorkel, viewing the underwater beauties until he spots something of particular interest. Then he dives toward it.

SCUBA stands for Self-Contained Underwater Breathing Apparatus, which is the equipment the divers use to breathe underwater. SCUBA divers can descend to considerable distances and stay below for comparatively long periods.

Since SCUBA divers use up to 90 pounds of equipment each, not too many can operate from one small boat, but skin diving equipment is light and easily stowed aboard.

Equipping your boat for diving is simple and fairly inexpensive. A boarding ladder, with rungs that accommodate flippers, is most helpful to divers. Snap hooks on the bottom of the ladder afford handy places to hang extra gear, cameras and spearguns so they will be available for quick use.

Some boatmen coat anchor chains and anchors with fluorescent paint as a marker for those who are submerged. A big bell fastened to the bottom of the ladder can ring out underwater and be heard for great distances by divers, affording a good method of communication.

BOATING offers fun underwater as well as fun in the sun.

'Let 'Em Come,' Says Kicking Star

By Leonard Adams
United Press International

ST. LOUIS (UPI) — Field goal specialist Jim Bakken, not a big man as pro football players go, says he doesn't worry about getting knocked flat by a giant opposing lineman.

Bakken is a utility man with the St. Louis football Cardinals on both offense and defense but his main job is field goals and extra points. Like punters, field goal kickers are awfully vulnerable to injury from opposing linemen rushing into them while they have one leg on the ground and one in the air.

"It's just a matter of trying to get your job done," Bakken explained. "Everyone respects your position and the people in this league are generally high class enough not to take a shot at you."

"Being a goal kicker is not quite as dangerous as being a punter because we have more protection," Bakken added.

The 6 foot, 200 pounder, had trouble getting started in football. He played behind Dale Hackbart and Ron Miller as a quarterback at Wisconsin and couldn't last with Los Angeles in his first year in the National Football League. But the Cardinals needed someone to replace Gerry Perry as kicker and Bakken got the nod for a trial.

In his first NFL game with the Big Red, Bakken kicked two field goals over 40 yards long.

"I guess that game against Dallas was my biggest thrill in pro football," Bakken said. "That 45 yard field goal was the longest of my career."

In all, Bakken scored 77 points on 44 extra points and 11 of 21 field goal attempts.

Bakken credits head coach Wally Lemm, Perry and his holder, Larry Wilson with helping him to success. Perry gave him instruction in techniques and Lemm "had the confidence in me that I needed."

Mayfair Golfer Registers Ace On Seventh Hole

Dave Dreiforest of Sanford Naval Air Station lifted a Number 2 iron from his golf bag Wednesday afternoon, addressed his ball and swung.

One hundred and ninety-five yards away the ball plopped into the seventh cup for a hole in one on the difficult Mayfair Country Club course.

Allie Sherman moved Jerry Hillebrand from middle to corner linebacker to replace injured Bill Winter as he prepared his New York Giants for their first exhibition game this weekend against the Minnesota Vikings. Sherman also replaced injured Dick Pesonen with Allan Webb in the defensive backfield.

George Halas of the Chicago Bears named center Mike Pyle and end Mike Ditka, and linebackers Larry Morris and Joe Fortunato as co-offensive and defensive captains, respectively, for the 1964 campaign. The four players were also captains last year.

Special Hanover will be one-third of the Billy Haughton-trained entry which includes Vicar Hanover and Sheer Genius.

Humphrey Spurts Ahead In Contest For LBJ Running Mate

Brown, Chosen Co-Nominator, Is Ruled Out

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Son, Hubert Humphrey's vice presidential stock was boosted today with the unusual decision to have two governors "co-nominate" President Johnson at the Democratic National Convention.

Democratic National Committee Chairman John M. Bailey announced Wednesday that California Gov. Edmund G. (Pat) Brown and Texas Gov. John B. Connally would place Johnson's name in nomination Aug. 26 at the Atlantic City convention. It was the first time in recent years that co-nominators have been selected.

The choice of Brown appeared to eliminate him for further consideration as a possible running mate for Johnson. Custom generally rules out a nominator playing a larger role in the convention.

With Brown, Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy and remaining cabinet officers eliminated, political observers now rate Humphrey as the most prominent candidate to run with Johnson and the person least likely to antagonize any particular voting group.

A national poll published this week showed that 9 per cent of Democratic voters would not vote for Johnson if his running mate were Kennedy. This compared with only 8 per cent who said they would oppose Johnson if he chose Humphrey as the vice presidential candidate.

Among Southern Democrats, 33 per cent indicated opposition to Johnson with the attorney general running for vice president, but only 4 per cent registered opposition to a Johnson-Humphrey ticket. Among rural Democrats, 19 per cent could not support Johnson with Kennedy on the ticket, compared with only 3 per cent for Humphrey.

The poll showed no significant area of weakness for Humphrey by regions or by segments of voting population.

A United Press International survey indicated that leading Democrats in the Midwest and West would support Humphrey, but that there was much less enthusiasm for the Minnesota Democrat in the South.

North Viet Nam General Tough

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The man believed to be the architect of Communist North Viet Nam's military operations against the United States is a tough little general who is one of the world's top authorities on guerrilla warfare.

Gen. Vo Nguyen Giap, commander of the North Vietnamese armed forces and the victor of Dien Bien Phu, drove the French out of Indochina and is determined to do the same to the United States.

Oddly enough, in view of Red China's support of North Viet Nam, Giap is known as one of the bitterest anti-Chinese members of the Vietnamese hierarchy. But he has been a dedicated Communist all his adult life.

The 52-year-old firebrand is a hero to the Vietnamese, even to many South Vietnamese who take a nationalistic pride in his victory over superior French forces 10 years ago.

Bryant In Line For FSU Prexy?

TALLAHASSEE (UPI) — Gov. Farris Bryant today side-stepped a suggestion that he was in line to become the new president of Florida State University early next year.

"I still plan to return to the practice of law in Ocala," Bryant told a news conference. "It's not in my plans to become a university president."

There has been speculation recently that Bryant would succeed Dr. Gordon Blackwell as Florida State president. Blackwell resigned last week to accept a similar post at Furman University in Greenville, S. C.

Tennessee Votes In Unusual Election

NASHVILLE, Tenn. (UPI) — All of Tennessee's congressional seats, including both U. S. Senate posts, were on the line today in a primary election that also could lead to a new governor.

Approximately 700,000 Democrats and Republicans were expected to cast votes in the unusual election, brought about by the death of Sen. Estes Kefauver and Gov. Frank Clement's candidacy for the vacant seat.

Clement was one of three Democrats, including Congressman Ross Bass, and three Republicans seeking nomination for Kefauver's unexpired term.

Clement said if he won the seat in the November general election he would resign as governor. Sen. Herbert S. Waters is not a candidate for the post to which he was appointed after Kefauver's death almost a year ago.

Sen. Albert Gore, seeking renomination to his third term, is opposed by Sam Galaway, W. N. (Hubb) McKinney and Charles Vick. Dan Kuykendall is opposed for the GOP nomination.

There were candidates for either Democratic or Republican nomination in each of the state's nine congressional districts. Voters also chose nominees for the 1965 General Assembly and delegates to a state constitutional convention next year.

There was particular interest in Fayette County races, where registered Negro voters outnumber white voters. One race pitted Democratic Sheriff C. E. Patta against independent L. T. Redfearn, a white farmer-merchant with Negro backing, and in another, the Rev. June Dowdy, the first Negro candidate in the county since reconstruction, sought to unseat Tax Assessor J. M. Jordan.

There were candidates for either Democratic or Republican nomination in each of the state's nine congressional districts. Voters also chose nominees for the 1965 General Assembly and delegates to a state constitutional convention next year.

Antipoverty Bill Moves Toward Showdown

WASHINGTON (UPI) — President Johnson's anti-poverty bill, heavily lubricated to silence a potentially dangerous states' rights squeak, rolled today toward a House showdown.

Although the battle still was far from over, managers of the President's top-priority bill felt the odds had tipped slightly in favor of approval for the legislation Friday.

But the best sign that they were still scrambling for every vote was the decision of House Democratic leaders to hold off voting on the $962.5 million measure until after today's Tennessee primary. They hope to get six or more votes from that nine-member delegation.

The bill, similar to a $947.5 million measure passed last month by the Senate, would set up several new programs.

These include a CCC-type "job corps" to give youths new training, experience and earnings and provisions to help finance locally initiated anti-poverty projects and offer new assistance to farmers and small businessmen in "poverty pockets."

The renewed confidence of Johnson's lieutenants stemmed from the belief that a major concession offered to southern Democrats at the start of defeat support to push the bill over.

Rep. Phil M. Landrum, (D-Ga.), the bill's sponsor and floor manager, announced he would offer an amendment giving governors blanket veto power over any local project to be financed by federal funds.

This was somewhat farther than Senate supporters of the bill would go to dampen the charge that the program would do violence to states' rights. But House managers felt that nothing less would attract the southern support needed to win.

WCS To Meet

The general meeting of the Grace Methodist WCS will be held at 8 p.m. today. Taking part in the program, "You Are Christ-Called," will be Mildred Cobb, Dorothy Crocker and Joyce Bennink. All members are urged to attend.

Miami Nabs Escape Suspect In Murder Of Bronx Youth

MIAMI (UPI)—Dade County metro police have arrested a young Puerto Rican who is charged with the murder of a 17-year-old Bronx, N. Y., boy.

New York authorities were expected to fly here today to pick up William Chino Hernandez, 21, who was arrested Wednesday when he went to a Western Union office to pick up money from his mother.

Metro officers said Hernandez was arrested July 3 in the beating of Eugene Sumter, 17, of the Bronx. He was charged with murder when the boy died, but escaped from a Bronx police station three weeks ago.

Medicare Bill

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The Medicare bill:

Status: Bottled up in House since the late President John F. Kennedy sent message to Congress Feb. 21, 1963. Senate Finance Committee begins hearings today.

Provisions: Would provide hospital and nursing-home care for all Americans over 65 financed through an increase of one-fourth of 1 per cent in Social Security contributions paid by workers and employers.

Shrimp Dinner

The Knights of Columbus plans a shrimp dinner at the Council Hall, 2501 S. Oak Ave., Friday at 6:30 p. m. The dinner is open to the public at a nominal cost, according to Ralph Pezold.

Unity Move Seen

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Former Vice President Richard M. Nixon predicted today that Sen. Barry M. Goldwater would make some "major moves" in the next few days to assure a strong degree of unity at next week's GOP "summit" meeting at Hershey, Pa.

JAMES E. PEARSON, son of Cdr. (ret) and Mrs. G. Russell Pearson of 448 Summerlin Ave., has been promoted to the rank of Lieutenant, junior grade, aboard the destroyer, USS Higbee, Lt. Pearson is serving with the Seventh Fleet and is stationed in Japan. He attended local schools and is a graduate of the University of Oklahoma.

College enrollment in the United States last year totaled nearly 4,800,000.

VCS Program, Supper Set At Grace Church

An Open House and Sharing Program will be held at Grace Methodist Church at 7 p.m. Friday to conclude Vacation Church School which is in session this week.

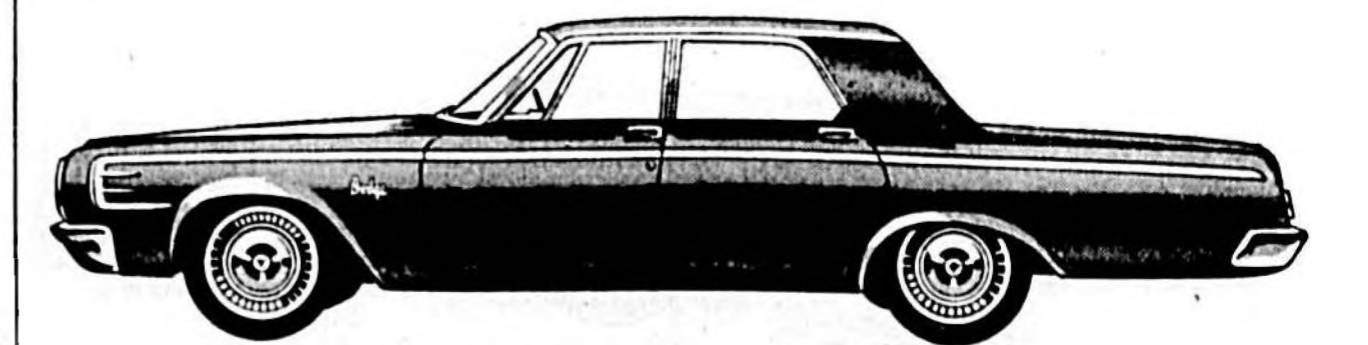

Following the short program and classroom visitation, the Men's Club will sponsor its third annual cream supper. Homemade ice cream and cakes will be featured and soft drinks will be available.

All proceeds will go toward improvement projects of the church and to the club's new scholarship fund which is being established to provide financial assistance to college students who are members of Grace Methodist. Applications for these funds may be made either by the student or an interested sponsor who is a member of the church.

Donations and subscriptions are now being accepted for the fund and may be turned over to Jim Leonard or Paul Markos.

OPEN FRIDAY NIGHTS

Atta Boy, Doc

This is the time of year we love the doctors.

Thousands of them from coast to coast are issuing suggestions on how to beat the heat. Here's what they say:

— Avoid all unnecessary exertion (and here comes the beautiful part) such as chores around the house. — Stay out of the sunlight. — Wear loose clothing. — Try not to worry or fret. — Drink plenty of liquids—nonalcoholic of course.

In other words, what the doctors are saying is knock off work, sit in the shade, nuts to dressing up, let someone else do your worrying, and sip cooling drinks.

Hate to live this kind of life, folks — but it's doctors' orders.

'Bald Look'? It's Cool

The latest feminine fashion foible—proposed by a male hair stylist—is for ladies to shave their heads.

There was a time—hard not so long ago—when any man who dared suggest anything like this would have had his own hair pulled out by the roots by furious females. Or at least he would have been hooted down as some kind of a nut.

But things being as they are today, this hairless hairdo just might catch on and become the hottest thing in women's styles since natural hair became unnatural and the color rinse and the wig became as essential to milady's grooming as the toothbrush.

Millions of men—surprised to discover they have been out in front of the fashion parade without even suspecting it—can tell you one thing about the new "bald look."

It's cool, man (or lady). Cool.

Thought For Today

For where your treasure is, there will your heart be also.—Luke 12:34.

There the wicked cease from troubling, and there the weary are at rest.—Job 3:17.

Dr. Crane's

Worry Clinic

Grace has lost out on several wonderful romances but doesn't know the reason why. And that is true of thousands of girls who are left as spinsters when they could easily have become happy wives and mothers. So study this case with care and send for the booklet below.

CASE T-410: Grace G., aged 25, is a beautiful school teacher.

Recently I was looking at the folders of a number of applicants at the Scientific Marriage Foundation.

"My, that girl is usually pretty," I exclaimed as I picked up Grace's folder.

"Why isn't she married? For she is 5' 6", weighs 125, has perfect measurements, holds an A. B. degree, is a school teacher, and rates tops according to the clergyman Counselor who interviewed her.

"Since we have more men than women in the age brackets up to 35, then we need such charming girls."

"So how does it happen that Grace is still unmarried?"

Our Director shook her head sadly and replied:

"Yes, Grace should be married. And here is a man who seems to be a perfect match for her."

"But I can't introduce them, for my hands are tied."

Then she pointed to a notation on his chart in which he said:

"Don't waste my time introducing me to any girl who smokes."

And on Grace's questionnaire she had mentioned that she smokes cigarettes.

"Dr. Crane," the Director said, mournfully, "Grace could have been married a year ago if she hadn't used cigarettes."

"But almost every man who seems suitable, expressly warns us he does NOT want a wife who smokes."

"It is tragic how many lovely girls, otherwise perfectly suited to become happy wives and mothers, are still left to grow cynical and soured old maids, just because they smoke."

Destiny hinges on very small items.

Grace could easily have been married a year ago and maybe the mother of a cute baby by now.

But her cigarette habit checkedmated that fascinating career.

Yet Grace probably doesn't know why the IBM machine can't find her a suitable boy friend.

Maybe you teen-age girls and college coeds think I am joking when I tell you that one of the greatest causes for bachelor girls and soured spinsters is tobacco, but that is true.

Although not all the men registered with the SMF expressly rule out girls who smoke, most of them do NOT want wives who use tobacco.

In fact, among the first 10,000 men to register with the SMF, only one man actually asked for a girl who smoked!

He requested a wife who used liquor and cigarettes.

But he had an ulterior motive, for he was a high salaried executive who wanted the wife of a former big shot executive who could mix highballs and smoke and thus hobnob with the sophisticated social set from which he wished to recruit future business.

Girls, tobacco habitus doesn't make your kisses attractive!

And when you exhale smoke through your nostrils, you look like a locomotive smoke-stack!

Smoking deprives a girl of the daintiness and thus the feminine allure that captivates the usual man who is wife-hunting.

So send for my 200-point "Tests for Sweethearts," enclosing a long stamped, return envelope, plus 20c, and see the yardstick used in picking mates.

BOILING IN THEIR OWN STEW

Holmes Alexander

To Avoid A Collision

SANTA MONICA, Calif.—

"Some people don't even like to wear badges," the man was saying. I had come here from the GOP Convention to get something better than the tiresome yak about "freedom" and the meek talk on the bare bones of political "morality."

It was the right place to come because in some three decades prior to 1962 the high-principal, pioneer planner, Donald Douglas, had refused to sign a compulsory union contract that would force workers to pay dues and toe the mark for the labor bosses. But in that year, for reasons partly patriotic and partly practical, the Douglas Aircraft Company found a compromise called the "agency" shop—of which more later.

As it happened, both the company's spokesman and I were wearing badges. His was a security pass. I wore two emblems, one to get into the plant and the other a convention press pass that I'd left on my lapel. The idea that our "freedoms" were infringed by being forced to wear these tags as a condition of employment seemed farfetched, but it's a fact that many Americans are annoyed or outraged by any sort of control or compulsory membership—and it's part of our libertarian code to respect these sensitive feelings.

Well, in philosophy more so than in physics, there is always the theoretical chance of an irresistible force meeting an immovable body. Something had to give when the company's industrial relations team bumped head on into the union bargainers for the International Machinists and the United Auto Workers. The company stood on its principle—no compulsion. The unions, sparked by Walter Reuther, contended that non-members got all the benefits of "union security" and were "free riders," but the decisive phase of the battle was played out in Washington.

Arthur Goldberg, now a Supreme Court associate justice, was secretary of labor and had been this generation's most brilliant, forceful labor lawyer with a long winning streak of contracts for compulsory union membership. At Reuther's shoulder stood President Kennedy who captained the American missile race against Russia.

The practicalities were that the company didn't want to give up business to the rest of the industry, didn't want to lose the skilled workers who might quit rather than be forced into union membership, didn't want to risk a directed verdict from the government, but didn't want to retreat from a principle, either.

Out of the soul-searching came the "agency shop" contract, the first of its kind in the auto-space industry. There was some give and take, but the "immutable" position of the company and the unions held firm. The company protected the conscience of the minority of workers who refused to "wear a badge" of unwilling membership. Instead of joining a union, these workers paid a fee for benefits received. But the service fee did not bind any worker to follow the political or ideological rule of the union majority, nor to join picket lines, nor to be subject to fines, assessments or discipline of any sort. The unions won out by getting the extra money and retaining their bargaining position.

Not everybody was wholly satisfied. A few "extreme" individualists, conscientious objectors in the end, gave up their jobs rather than pay their dues. Viewed statistically, which is to say heartlessly, the net loss of workers was "only" 25, some of whom may have been ready to retire anyhow. Of the workers at this plant 17,000 allow the company to take their union dues out of their pay envelopes, 5,000 insist upon remitting directly to the union, and about 25 stubbornly force the company to come around and collect. This wide freedom of choice costs money in bookkeeping, but Liberty never comes cheaply.

The world of labor-management is not perfectly compatible to the realm of politics, yet there is much in common. We can be grateful that "morality" is still such a strong factor in our American affairs. Every form of compulsion is repugnant to us as a nation. Every minor violation deserves our serious and diligent protection, even though we believe in majority rule. And some of the time—perhaps, most of the time—we have the wisdom to find a third solution rather than stand by and watch the smashup of two absolute forces rushing together on an "either-or" collision course.

Bruce Bossat -- Ray Cromley

Political Notebook

WASHINGTON (NEA) —

Federal Bureau of Investigation studies of 66,126 offenders already have produced figures which lead some government crime specialists to privately question the effectiveness of our present methods of probation, parole, conditional release and suspended sentences.

These preliminary studies were on offenders "actively handled in 1963" whose records were available to the FBI.

A fourth of this total had only one arrest on their records. But 75 per cent had been arrested an average of 4 1/2 times each.

According to their criminal histories, 52 per cent of these repeat offenders had received "leniency" (the term used in the study) in the form of probation, suspended sentence, parole or conditional release. Of these, 68 per cent received "leniency" once, 20 per cent twice and 12 per cent three times or more.

More than half of those arrested had been previously granted "leniency" for one crime or another. Almost a tenth of those arrested had previously been granted "leniency" three times or more.

The average man or woman arrested for murder or serious assault had a criminal record going back 13 years. He or she had been arrested an average of eight times. The 66 per cent who had been granted "leniency" at one time or another for some crime had an average of five arrests after having been granted that first "leniency."

(Since the year 1925, 11 special agents of the FBI have been slain in gun battles. Twelve of these 11 were killed "by criminals who had been paroled, placed on probation or had received some other kind of lenient consideration from the courts.")

Two-thirds of those arrested for robbery, burglary, auto theft, bogus check passing and sex offenses previously had been granted "leniency" for one crime or another. The average man or woman arrested for robbery had an average criminal career of 13 years, with nine arrests. The two-thirds who previously had been granted "leniency" had an average of six arrests after the first "leniency."

These preliminary analyses show one other thing—the youthful age at which most repeat criminals first violate the law.

Of the 66,126 cases studied, 66 per cent had been 24 or under at the time of their first arrest. Forty per cent or more were teenagers when first arrested. Most had crime records which spread out more than a decade.

The crime specialists don't have solutions. But FBI speakers regularly quote Judge Sam Tatum of Tennessee, who said:

"I became judge of the Juvenile and Domestic Relations Court on June 1, 1939. Since that time I have tried approximately 8,000 boys and girls under 17 years of age for violating the law.

"Of that number only 42 were regular in attendance in Sunday School or church."

High Priestess Eludes Troops

LUSAKA, Northern Rhodesia (UPI) —

Government troops who were reported to be shooting at everything that moves chased members of the blood-thirsty Lumpa religious sect through the bush country of Northern Rhodesia today.

But there was no sign of the fanatical sect's high priestess, a plump, 43-year-old housewife named Alice. Southern Rhodesian police dismissed as "nonsense" earlier reports that she had crossed the border into their country.

Letters To The Editor

Editor, Herald:

Your article on waterfront development, "Our Opportunity" You are to be commended on the stand your paper has taken on this very important and vital matter I want to personally thank you and your paper for this positive approach. I am behind you 100 per cent.

Now you state, or the city states we need $30,000 to get started. So with that figure in mind may I suggest a plan to raise the money. We want to open the door to opportunity.

Now let's take all the boat people and all the people in Sanford and Seminole County and we have a large group.

Let everybody just donate $1 for the project. Of course, larger donations would be welcome. We then have enough money to start a project in Sanford on Lake Monroe. This is opportunity knocking at our door and we must do something about it.

I suggest that Mr. Julian Stenstrom be appointed to this task of collecting the money or let the Jaycees sponsor this plan and which I understand they are going all out for. Take all the people in Sanford and Seminole County in Central Florida, don't you think with $1 donation we can raise the required amount?

Then too a goodly number of people will emerge in our town, bringing with them their pets. Now for a humane society. Can't you see the future of Sanford?

R. T. Johnson

Editor, Herald:

I just can't refrain from writing a letter congratulating you on your article "Profit For Whom?" I want to thank the staff of your paper for doing such a fine job. You deserve a medal as long as we have a paper in Sanford that will speak out. Then we will have progress.

Speaking about missing the boat, believe me he did miss the boat. It's hard to determine the economic return in a time like this. You are so right. As time goes conditions in our downtown area will get worse. Time to act is now.

TV Time Previews

8:30 p. m. CBS Rawhide. "Incident of the Buryin' Man" (rerun) After a brisk start, this episode moves slowly to the finish. Gil Favor and Rowdy Yates (Eric Fleming) and Clint Eastwood take at face value an "undertaker" (King Donovan) they pick up after his wagon breaks down. They also pick up a "businessman" (Richard Devon) and a "school teacher" (Constance Ford). Our heroes learn the three have something in common—counterfeiting money.

9:30-10 p. m. NBC. The New Christy Minstrels. (color) Premiere program of a brief summer series by the multi-talented folk singing group. This one was taped at the New York World's Fair and offers a selection of material from several countries. One of the languages entrusted to comedians Tony Hendra and Nic Ullett is English. High spot of the program is the new Christy's popular, multi-lingual interpretation of "Everybody Loves Saturday Night."

Dear Abby: By Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: When I first heard about the topless bathing suits for women I thought it was just a lot of talk. But yesterday I was shopping in one of our finest department stores, and I actually SAW one for sale! Is it possible that our American women would even consider wearing a topless swim suit in public? If so, we have indeed reached the lowest point in our so-called civilization. Even lower than the decadence which preceded the fall of the Roman Empire. Have we become so numb to indecency that nothing is sacred any more? We are at the same time striving for world peace. Who cares if Khrushchev pushes the button? What's left to save?

DEAR ABBY: My mother-in-law has five grandchildren, two of which are my children. Ever since I can recall, on the mornings of their birthdays she would give me some cash and ask me if I minded buying them a present from her. She said it was hard for her to get around, etc., etc. I have always bought the gifts and said nothing. The last time she asked me if I minded, I said, "Yes, I DO mind," and I told her why. Abby, I have driven from one end of this town to the other while she personally shopped for birthday gifts for her other grandchildren—her daughter's children—and if she can ask ME to drive her around while she shops for THEM, she can ask her daughter to drive her around while she shops for MINE. She told my husband, and he is furious with me. Was I wrong?

DEAR ABBY: There is a boy in my neighborhood who used to like me, but he hasn't paid any attention to me for a whole year. Would it be all right if I called him up and asked him what I did to make him mad at me? I have asked all the kids he is friendly with if they know why he hardly ever says "hi" to me, and they say they don't know. Maybe if I could talk to him I could get him interested in me again. I am 15 and so is he.

Jacoby On Bridge By Oswald Jacoby

South was one of those players who hates to waste time before playing the first card from the dummy. So he promptly played the five of hearts on West's eight. East won the trick and East went into a huddle. East knew that the time to think is before you make a mistake, not after it is too late. East didn't see any future for his side unless it should turn out that South had a rather weak suit for his spade bid. Therefore, East abandoned his heart suit and led the four of spades. Now South really did take time out. He thought and West won and returned the deuce. Eventually South lost three spades and a diamond in addition to the initial heart trick and another rubber had been tossed away. If South had just taken time out to do a little thinking at trick one, he would have noted the spade danger. He would have noted further that there was no heart danger, and would have won the opening heart lead with the ace. After that, the play would have been quite rapid. South would have gone after diamonds. East would gain the lead, but South would make at least three no-trump.

We The Women: By Ruth Millett

No senior citizen should dread the approach of another birthday. Rather, he should look forward to it as toward a new year during which to take stock of what he has accomplished and to make plans for the future.

But how can we fight the "tyranny of birthdays?" How can we keep from letting birthdays get us down? There are several sound and sure ways. The first is to live for today and tomorrow, and not look longingly to the past. The second is to replace outgrown interests with new ones. This should be a conscious and calculated effort. If you've had to give up tennis, take up golf. If you've had to give up golf, what about gardening? Don't ever let an interest go without replacing it with another. The same is true of friends. Nothing is more pitiful than the old person who has few friends left, because through the years he never bothered to replace the friends who moved, grew indifferent, or died. There's no reason why an older person can't have as many friends as a young person. But friends have to be replaced as you go along. You can't wait until you are old and suddenly make a new circle of friends. And you should keep busy always. If some jobs grow too hard, look for easier ways of doing them, or look for new

Stray Bullet Injures Woman

NEW YORK (UPI) — A 19-year-old married woman was shot in the chest Tuesday night as she sat by an open window sipping coffee in the sixth floor apartment of friends in the Bronx. Police backtracked on earlier theories that Mary Jane Mooney was shot by a sniper and said there was a "strong possibility" the bullet came from a small caliber weapon "somewhere was fooling around with."

The woman was reported in fair condition at Jacobi Hospital, and a spokesman said there was little danger of paralysis resulting from the wound. Earlier, the hospital had said there was a possibility of paralysis from the waist down. Police said the shooting occurred in the apartment of Vincent and Mary Manghese, whom Mrs. Mooney and her husband were visiting. They said the Mangheses reported hearing a loud noise "like a big balloon breaking" just before Mrs. Mooney toppled over. "There is no logical place the bullet could have come from if it were the work of a sniper," a police lieutenant said.

Altamonte Sets Registration Of New Students

The school area for Altamonte Springs Elementary will be the same this year as for the previous term with all bus routes and stops also the same except for being approximately one hour later. School will open Monday, Aug. 31, and the new hours will be from 9 a.m. until 3:30 p.m. Parents moving into the area should come to the school office, which now is open daily from 9 a.m. until 2 p.m., at their earliest convenience to register their children. It will be necessary to present birth certificates for first graders, who must be six years old on or before Jan. 1, 1965, and it would be helpful if parents would bring last year's report cards when registering children in grades two through six.

Katanga Forces Defeat Rebels

LEOPOLDVILLE, The Congo (UPI)—Three hundred of Premier Moise Tshombe's former Katangese gendarmes helped the Congolese army garrison in Stanleyville beat back Communist-led rebels in tough street-by-street fighting Tuesday, it was reported today. The rebels penetrated the provincial capital Tuesday but were driven back when reinforcements flew into the city from Elisabethville, the reports said. Elisabethville is Tshombe's old seat of power.

Blood Bank Run

BOSTON (UPI) — During the six weeks after he underwent surgery at Massachusetts General Hospital, Walter Murphy of East Sandwich, a 62-year-old hemophiliac, was given 1,025 pints of blood. It's estimated that if he were to be charged for this blood, it would cost him $25,025. The blood came from a special hemophiliac blood bank maintained by the hospital.

Lake Monroe Jottings

By Mrs. H. L. Johnson
Well I declare, wasn't last Thursday just yesterday? Time is just going by too fast. Watch out boys and girls, school days will be here before you can almost say Jack Robinson. There are families still on vacation and some just coming home. The Charles Bakers and their children along with Frances Warren and son, Melvin, are camping out at Alexandria Springs. The Baker children were anxiously awaiting this trip for a long time. But they are having the time of their lives. * * * Congratulations to Edgar and Mary Ann Bruce on their brand new arrival, a cute little gal. * * * We want to extend our sympathy out to the family of Mr. H. Z. Dunn, who passed away last week. Mr. Dunn resided on Upsala Road. * * * Did you sign the petition for getting the West Side Fire Department started towards being a reality? The names were needed in order to get onto the November election ballot. I understand that a certain amount of names were needed and that the committee got them easily. Now the NEXT step? Your continued support and when there is a meeting date announced, BE THERE. George Bell, who is the president, told me that he has the promise now of a fire truck. That's grand. So by all means, do support this organization because it is working real hard to see that everyone out here in this district gets fire protection. * * * Mrs. Harry (Vallie) Wilson was in Bushnell last week to attend the funeral of her cousin, Mrs. Jerry Chavous. She leaves behind her husband and two small children. Our sympathy goes out to the bereaved family. * * * Sorry to hear that Charles Itabin is confined to the local hospital. Hurry out Charlie. * * * And glad to hear that Mrs. Freddie (Ann) Brehrens is now out of the hospital. * * * Mr. and Mrs. Lee Keller have returned home after a nice vacation spent in the mountains near Knoxville, Tenn. Uncle Lee just finished building a summer cabin up there. * * * Rich and Agnes Hans and son Ray have returned from a vacation which also took them to Knoxville and then on to Hammond, Ind. for a nice visit with Rich's family. * * * Rev. and Mrs. William Luttrell and family will arrive Saturday afternoon for a visit with us and other relatives. Bill is pastor of the Trufolgar Indiana Methodist Church where the family resides. His young son Mark will sing a solo Sunday morning in the local Nazarene Church. And I will have the pleasure of accompanying him. * * * The local men's softball league champions, Kingswood Builders, were our guests at a hamburger party at our home Tuesday evening. Mrs. Leroy (Frankie) Estridge assisted me in preparing for it. They boys won 27 of their 28 games. Last night they drove over to Eau Gallie to enter the state tournament. They are a wonderful group of boys. I sure hate to see the ball season end as I enjoy the games so much. * * * Our thought this week is Kind Words: If you hear a kind word spoken of some worthy soul you know, it may fill his heart with sunshine, if you only tell him so.

Mayors Ask Reapportioning Off Ballot

TALLAHASSEE (UPI) — The Florida Mayors Council on Fair Apportionment made its well-publicized move Tuesday and asked a circuit judge to remove the state's present apportionment plan from the November ballot.

St. Petersburg Mayor Herman Goldner filed the petition with Circuit Judge Hugh Taylor on grounds the U. S. Supreme Court had declared the 43-senator, 112-representative plan unconstitutional.

"By virtue of the Supreme Court's decision," Goldner said, "House joint resolution 5-X is unlawful and in violation of the 14th Amendment of the United States Constitution."

Taylor set Aug. 14 at 10 a.m. for a hearing on the petition. Last month, Miami attorney Richard Swann filed suit in federal district court in Miami to order the Legislature to reapportion itself "with all convenient speed" or let the court do it.

Gov. Farris Bryant told the mayors a few weeks ago that he would cooperate with them legally in a move to get the plan off the ballot, but he has said repeatedly that he does not think that now is the proper time for a special session on reapportionment.

Burns To Dine At White House
JACKSONVILLE (UPI) — Jacksonville Mayor Hayden Burns, Florida's Democratic nominee for governor, and Mrs. Burns will attend an official state dinner at the White House Thursday night. President Johnson invited Burns to the function which will be held in honor of Secretary General of the United Nations U Thant. The White House said it is the first official visit of the Secretary General in the 10-year history of the United Nations and he will be honored as a head of state.

Burns said today it is his hope, while in Washington, to arrange a later conference on the subject of Interama, the proposed Inter American Trade and Cultural Center in Miami. The gubernatorial nominee recently obtained support for the project at the National Conference of Mayors.

Teachers Called To Conference

New teachers to the Seminole County school system are being asked to report Aug. 17 to the English Estates School for a briefing session prior to school opening. The following day, Aug. 18, all teachers will report to their school for additional pre-school planning. Then on Aug. 31 students will report to their classrooms for the first day of the fall semester.

U.S. Keeps Wary Eye On Red China

WASHINGTON (UPI) — U. S. forces in Southeast Asia, bolstered by a swift buildup of air power, kept a wary eye

Next time you feel like taking your scaplane for a ride pay heed to an announcement from the U. S. Corps of Engineers. They've served notice that provisions "governing the use and navigation of a seaplane restricted area in the St. Johns River is hereby revoked . . . The restricted area in question is near the U. S. Naval Air Station at Jacksonville.

The Kiwanis Magazine has won a top National School Bell Award for 1964. The Clock learned from Dr. John F. Darby, Sanford Kiwanis Club president. The award came for "distinguished continuous coverage of education during the year ended April 1 by a specialized audience magazine." Thus, the Kiwanis publication joins an elite group which includes "Changing Times," "Reader's Digest," "Life," "Look" and the three national broadcasting networks.

An estimated 300 physicians and nurses from five states and including Florida will meet Aug. 20-22 in Daytona Beach for the 14th annual postgraduate obstetric-pediatric seminar. The seminar is sponsored by state health departments from Florida, Georgia, South Carolina, Alabama and Mississippi. It's held yearly to discuss methods of improving medical care of babies and women before, during and after childbirth.

June contracts for future construction in Florida declined 26 per cent in June, compared with the previous June, word from the F. W. Dodge Company told us today. Still the figure is quite impressive—$142,963,000. The total for the first six months of the year is given as $1,123,082,000, a 21 per cent increase compared with 1963.

Gremlin Department: The Seminole All Star baseball picture which appeared in The Herald's sports page Wednesday failed to carry the identity of Art Lego, the manager. Howard Willoughby is not the manager, as reported, but is the team's scorekeeper, according to Jane Casselberry.

A reminder to farmers from Ernest Lundberg, assistant county agricultural agent: Many farmers and others in the agricultural field do not realize they are entitled to a gas tax refund on gasoline used on the farm for farming purposes. The term "farm" includes stock, dairy, poultry, bees, fruit, fur bearing animals, truck farms, plantations, ranches, nurseries, ranges, greenhouses or other similar structures used primarily for the raising of agricultural or horticultural commodities.

Lundberg advises any operation falling into one of these categories is eligible for the seven-cent per gallon tax refund. Actually, he adds, there are two refunds, a three cent per gallon federal tax refund and a four cent per gallon state refund. These must be applied for separately by the owner, tenant or operator of the farm. Refund forms are available at his office, he says.

on Communist China today lest it decide to back up its threats with aggression.

Defense Secretary Robert S. McNamara said it is "probable" that Red China will move combat aircraft into North Viet Nam because of the Navy's deadly raid on Communist torpedo boat nests.

But the Penatong chief said there was no evidence at this time of any substantial movement of Red Chinese forces, either on land or in the air. Top U. S. officials said the Navy's deadly reply to North Vietnamese attacks on U. S. destroyers in International waters, plus the prompt buildup of American power in the area, appeared to have answered its purpose for the time being.

Longwood Council Hears Engineers

By Donna Estes
Representatives of the engineering firm of Leffler, Dietz and Clark explained before the Longwood City Council Thursday evening the necessity of having a feasibility study made on present and future requirements of the sewerage system of the city.

The firm pointed out that the population of Longwood had increased at a more rapid rate than that of the state as a whole and was continuing to increase at a slightly steeper rate than Orange County. The growth is about 12 per cent a year and projected figures into 1980 show that the area will double its population by that time, making it a necessity for the city to provide an adequate sewerage system.

Possibility of having the study made was taken under advisement. L. L. Cox, representing property owners on Lake Wildmere, appeared to protest the request of a sewage treatment company to dump waste from a proposed coin laundry into Lake Evergreen.

Council assure Cox that permission has not, as yet, been granted to the company and that the objections registered would be taken into consideration in the matter.

House Approves LBJ's Decision

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The House and Senate approved in quick succession today an emergency Viet Nam resolution upholding President Johnson in any "fight-if-we-must" measures needed to counter Red aggression in Southeast Asia.

Water Bond Bids Opened

WASHINGTON (UPI)—The House, casting aside election-year politics, today gave low bidders on the $800,000 of revenue certificates for the City of Sanford's water improvement program Thursday were Leedy, Wheeler and Allman, investment brokers of Orlando.

Bids from four firms were opened at a special meeting of the City Commission, with the winning bid sold at a gross interest rate of 3.71743. Loomis Leedy, a member of the firm, is the city's fiscal agent.

The water improvement program is already under way, and involves the drilling of four new wells and two water treatment plants to alleviate the present situation in which all pumps are working at peak capacity and water rationing is threatened.

JC's Endorse Waterfront Project Following Public Discussion

By Dottie Austin
City Editor
More than 100 persons gathered at the Civic Center Thursday to join the Sanford-Seminole Jaycees in hearing the proposal for a waterfront development program on Lake Monroe, as presented by a group of leading Sanford businessmen. Following the meeting, the Jaycees Board of directors met and voted, and issued the following statement: "The Jaycees hereby go on record as endorsing a study of the Sanford marina and motel facilities as outlined by the panel." The panel which spoke to the Jaycees and their guests at the town-meeting type program at the Civic Center was made up of the original proposers of the long-range, comprehensive plans to develop the Sanford waterfront into a "new image of Sanford," with marina facilities for all sizes of boats and yachts, enhanced by a motel-restaurant-yacht club complex.

Main speaker was George Touhy, executive vice president of First Federal Savings and Loan who told his listeners that the long waterfront area is a distinctive geographical feature and sets the community apart.

"The City of Sanford has a natural asset in the lake-front shoreline, which is part of the river, and seems to provide the answer to offset the economic blight that is slowly draining the business life of the community," Touhy said.

John Kriker, executive director of the Seminole Chamber of Commerce told the audience that the St. John's-Indian River Canal is a "sure thing" and that with the cross-state barge canal, and the port authority, will put Sanford on the mainsteam of the nation's waterways.

"But regardless of the canal, this river is going to be full of boats. One out of every ten Florida families now own a boat," Kriker pointed out.

"We must take the initiative to develop our community now. If we don't have enough confidence in the future to do it ourselves, we certainly have no right to expect someone else to come in here and do it for us," Kriker emphasized.

Touhy and Kriker were joined by John Burton, IV, architect, who explained the drawings and pictorial renderings of the proposed waterfront development, and Howard Hodges, president of the Sanford Atlantic Bank who spoke on the financing aspects of the plan.

T. E. Tucker, president of the Florida State Bank, also one of the proposers of the plan could not be present because of a business commitment. Panel moderator was Jaycee Tommy Speer.

The entire program was broadcast live over radio station WTHH by Announcer Bill Reck, and television coverage by Channel 3, WESH-TV was seen on the 5:30 Newscast program.

Present at the meeting, but making no comment were members of City Commission.

SANFORD-SEMINOLE JAYCEES yesterday staged a public forum on the proposed lakefront marina, drawing more than 100 persons to the Civic Center luncheon. Property Takes A Beating In 2 Accidents

Two accidents six minutes apart caused heavy property damage Wednesday afternoon but no injuries. City police said a truck driven by William H. Plumley of Ocoee and a car operated by Douglas L. Braswell of Route 1, Sanford, collided at the intersection of First Street and French Avenue. Braswell was charged with making an improper turn. The mishap occurred at 3 p.m.

Six minutes later cars driven by Joseph W. Heath of 314 Mellonville Ave. and Dennis J. Irwin of 116 Laurel Ave. collided at Park Drive and French Avenue. Irwin was charged with failure to have his vehicle under control.

A window in the phone booth at the Municipal Zoo was shattered sometime Wednesday night, police reported today.

15 Exceptions By Ruby Denied

DALLAS (UPI) — Judge Joe H. Brown refused today to approve any of 15 exceptions condemned Jack Ruby's lawyers had filed as the first step in appealing Ruby's death sentence for murdering Lee Harvey Oswald.

The defense lawyers 10 days ago filed 15 bills of exceptions. That is, 15 instances in which they claimed Judge Brown erred in his conduct of Ruby's murder trial last February and March.

The defense lawyers now have five days in which to file a "bystanders' bill," that is affidavits from persons who heard and saw the trial, saying that they think the defense exemptions are justified.

Eventually, the bills of exceptions, Judge Brown's refusal to accept the bills, the bystanders' bill and a transcript of the trial testimony will go down to the state Court of Criminal Appeals in Austin.

Freed Clergymen Head For Home

TALLAHASSEE (UPI) — Nine ministers released from jail terms they were serving for freedom ride convictions three years ago left Florida's capital today and headed for their homes.

The Negro and white ministers got up early and caught a plane to Atlanta, Ga. After changing planes there, most were expected to arrive at Newark, N. J., shortly after 2 p. m.

Reds Complain

MOSCOW (UPI) — The Soviet Union kept up a barrage of anti-American propaganda over the Southeast Asia crisis today but stopped well short of promising gun or weapons to Communist North Viet Nam.

Georgia Acts In Slaying Of Army Officer

ATHENS, Ga. (UPI) — Four Ku Klux Klansmen were held today in connection with the shotgun murder of a prominent Washington, D. C. Negro educator on a lonely Georgia highway near here last month.

Authorities swore out warrants charging the four, seized last yesterday by FBI agents, with a "felony." The warrants were designed to hold the suspects until state authorities decided what specific charges, including murder, to file against them. Murder is among the charges classified as a felony.

The warrants were sworn out in Danielsville, Ga., the county seat of Madison County where Lt. Col. Lemuel A. Penn was shot to death July 11 while returning to Washington with two Negro companions after a tour of Army Reserve duty at Ft. Benning, Ga.

J. J. Casper, assistant FBI director who headed up an investigation into the slaying, said earlier the four had been charged with murder in warrants sworn out in Danielsville.

Murder is punishable by death under Georgia law. A speeding car pumped two shotgun blasts into Penn's car as he drove near Colbert, Ga.—10 miles northeast of Athens—as Penn, a prominent Washington, D. C. educator, and two Negro companions were enroute from Ft. Benning, Ga., to Washington.

There is no federal charge against murder and when FBI agents arrested the four Klansmen late Thursday they charged them with a civil rights violation that carries a penalty of 10 years in prison. Traditionally, no bonds are set in murder cases in Georgia.

U. S. commissioner Girard Hawkins set temporary bonds of $25,000 against the four men at a preliminary hearing Thursday night at which he said one of the Klansmen confessed to participating in the shooting and implicated the other three.

The men were being held in the Clarke County Jail. Authorities said preliminary hearings probably will be held next Friday on the murder charges.

Enterprise Sets Registration

Parents expecting to enroll pupils at Enterprise School this fall are requested to register their children Monday and Tuesday from 8 a.m. to 3 p.m. Parents of pupils who attended Enterprise School last year are asked to telephone the school giving the name, address and grade level while parents of new pupils are to come in person to the school cafeteria and register.

The special registration is in place of the regular pre-school registration scheduled for next week. Loss of school records due to the recent fire necessitates the need to determine as accurately as possible the number of pupils to be accommodated.
