BIG BATTLE IN MEXICO BREAK APPEARS NEAR

Mexican Government Expects To Make Decisive Movement Soon In Stamping Out Revolutionary Break Of Gomez

Reports Conflict About Rebel Heads

Death Of Gomez Has Not Been Confirmed While Rumor Has It That He Is Free At Sea

LAREDO, Tex., Oct. 6.—(INS)—Decisive movements on the part of the Mexican government and the rebel forces which it is attempting to stamp out by arrest of the leaders were expected today, according to reports from Mexico City.

Some reports stated that a decisive battle was imminent near Vera Cruz where the followers of General Araulfo Gomez, named as one of the leading revolutionists, are reported strong. Rebel forces and loyal troops despatched to disperse them are reported nearing each other.

Another important move awaited is some official statement concerning the fate of General Gomez. Certain apparently official advices said Gomez had been captured near Fort Perote, on his way to Vera Cruz, and had been executed. These reports had not been officially confirmed today.

Conflicting reports reaching here from Vera Cruz, however, had General Gomez free and at sea, sailing from Vera Cruz to an unknown destination.

Meanwhile the government at Mexico City continued its policy of leaving no stone unturned in its effort to rapture all persons connected with the revolt. Dispatches from the capital stated that the secretary of the interior had ordered the arrest of all persons believed to be implicated in the movement.

This order includes all persons who participated in the presidential campaigns of either Gomez or General Serrano, who was executed.

Dispatches also told of the arrest in Mexico City of Vito Alessio Robles, former Mexican diplomat and an outstanding figure in the Gomez political party. General Rafael Cepada, campaign manager for the Gomistas in the state of Coahuila is under arrest in Saltillo. General Porfirio Gonzalez and Major Gilberto Heredia were at Monterrey and turned over to the authorities.

He disappeared on the day that three men from Morrisville, Pa., were to have faced him to say whether he was the man they were driving a blue coupe out of Great Meadow near Hammonett, and after Dr. Lillendahl was shot and killed. Beach owns a blue coupe.

Another development came when it was learned Americans on this side of the border were believed to have been involved in the revolt. Their names, it was reported, will be laid before the American government. It was also said that arms and munitions and large amounts of money had been sent from the United States for the revolt. MURDER SUSPECT WILLIS BEACH IS CAPTURED TODAY

Driver Of Blue Coupe Wanted In Connection With Murder Of Dr. Lillendahl Surrenders To New Jersey Police

MAYS LANDING, N. J., Oct. 6.—(INS)—Willis Beach, Vineland poultry dealer, sought on a warrant charging him with aiding and abetting in the murder of Dr. William Lillendahl near here, three weeks ago, today surrendered to Captain William Carter of the state police here and was locked up in the Atlantic county jail.

Prosecutor Louis I. Repetto said he was not certain whether Beach would be called to testify before the grand jury, which will meet this afternoon to consider evidence in the case.

The prosecutor said he was equally uncertain whether Mrs. Margaret Lillendahl, widow of the slain man, would be called to testify today, although she had been subpoenaed. Captain Carter and two other members of the state police met Beach walking with his attorney, Edison Hedges, towards Mays Landing on the Weymouth road.

After a brief conference between Carter and Hedges, Beach was formally arrested on the warrant and taken to the county jail. Beach had been missing for more than a week. State troopers and county detectives scoured the countryside for the elusive poultry dealer on a warrant issued soon after his disappearance from his Vineland home.

He disappeared on the day that three men from Morrisville, Pa., were to have faced him to say whether he was the man they were driving a blue coupe out of Great Meadow near Hammonett, and after Dr. Lillendahl was shot and killed. Beach owns a blue coupe.

CITY OFFICIALS DELAY SALE OF BONDS 10 DAYS

Discussion Before Commission Precipitates Hot Words Between Two Bond Buyers With Lie Passed By Each Of Them

Hutton Company Gets $13,000 On Account

After considering two bids, the City Commission yesterday afternoon deferred action for 10 days on the sale of $155,000 worth of improvement bonds. The Hancock Bond Company Inc., of Chicago offered a bid of 95.03 for the securities and W. L. Slaton and Company and Wright-Varlow Company of Orlando submitted a combined offer of 95. The Usina Bond Company of Jacksonville withdrew its bid of 86.

Consideration of the bond offers consumed most of the Commission's time and provoked a near riot between representatives of the competing financial houses. H. Craven, representing the Hancock concern, charged that favoritism was being shown the other bidders and passed the lie to L. C. Leedy of the Orlando concern when the charge was hotly denied. Mr. Leedy returned the compliment to Mr. Craven and Mayor Housholder interposed with the suggestion that the two men could settle their personal differences on the outside.

City Attorney George A. DeCotes explained during the discussion of the bond bids that action was deferred on their sale pending a report of Gaylord Cummins, financial expert, who is at present making a survey of the City's condition. The bids will be considered at private sale at the end of 10 days, he stated further, and the announcement appeared to please the agents of the bond houses.

Following the disposal of the bond business, the Commission heard M. B. Hutton's request for $25,000 on account and after some discussion of the matter, the paying contractor was voted a payment of $13,000. This action was taken over the strenuous protest of the City Attorney and Mayor Housholder, who were opposed to any payment at this time because of the straitened financial condition of the City. Commissioners S. O. Chase and W. C. Hill voted in the affirmative.

The payment of $13,000 was allowed against the August estimate of $34,361.08, which it was explained, is the amount due the paying concern on a certain portion of work that was described as being 90 percent complete according to the engineering department.

During Mr. Hutton's conversation with the Commission he presented an unpaid voucher as part of his claim for a substantial payment. D. L. Thrasher, chairman of the Taxpayers League, interposed with a request for the amount of the voucher and after Mayor Housholder had informed him that it was $13,751.84, Mr. Hutton turned to Mr. Thrasher with the remark:

"I understand your friendly interest in the matter and I would like to say for your information (Continued On Page Five)

Junkers Plane Is Forced Down Near Lisbon Uninjured

LISBON, Oct. 6.—(INS)—The German Junkers trans-Atlantic plane D-1230 which was forced down yesterday at Santa Cruz Beach, 40 miles northwest of Lisbon, was not damaged, and the occupants were not injured, according to information received here this afternoon.

The plane was compelled to land by fog which made navigation difficult. One of the passengers is a woman—Lilly Dillens—an Austrian actress.

The Portuguese destroyer Guadalupe was ordered to Santa Cruz Beach to aid the plane. A report had been received earlier in the day that the plane was missing somewhere off Cape Ras and that three Portuguese warships were searching for it.

King Of Bootleggers Seizes Wife In Car; Fatally Shoots Her

George Remus' Strife With Wife Ends In Park After A Fatal Chase And Shooting

Killer Had Done Time In Atlanta

At One Time Was Considered America's Leading Bootlegger

CINCINNATI, OHIO, Oct. 6.—(INS)—Climaxing several years of domestic strife and litigation with his wife, Mrs. Imogene Hirmes Remus, 38 George Remus, who gained national wide notoriety as "king of the bootleggers", pulled his wife from a taxicab in Eden Park here today, shot and fatally wounded her, then surrendered to police. Mrs. Remus died at 10:45 A. M.

Remus, according to Mrs. Remus' daughter, Ruth, 19, leaped from his machine, screaming curses and abuse at his wife, seized her as she attempted to flee after he had jerked her from the machine, and shot her through the body. Then he jumped into his own machine and fled from the scene. Later, he was found to be alone.

The chauffeur, who was one of Remus' lieutenants in his bootlegging operations, according to police, drove Remus to police headquarters.

"I have spent thousands of dollars trying to get them together," Remus said, as he was taken into custody, referring to his wife and Franklin Dodge, former prohibition official, whom he named as co-respondent in his cross action for divorce from Mrs. Remus. "I am glad I did it, and I am only sorry that I didn't get both of them."

A complaint of shooting with intent to kill was filed against Remus, but this was expected to be changed to first degree murder, as soon as county officials are officially advised of Mrs. Remus' death. Taken to county jail later, Remus amplified his first statement.

"It is a mental relief to know that that is all over," he said. "My incarceration here is the penalty I owe society." Remus face flushed.

"It all shows the hypocrisy and fallacy of the prohibition movement. Anything else I have to say, I will tell it to my peers, the jury and the judges."

"Did you plan the murder in advance?" Remus was asked by an International News Service correspondent.

"Murder?" he said. "Why I've been murdered night and day, in prison and out, for more than two years."

ATLANTA, Oct. 6.—(INS)—George Remus' wife sued him for divorce on the day he was released from the Atlanta penitentiary. Informed of the divorce suit, he said: "I am astonished, dumbfounded. Can't I imagine how or why she should take such action. She has never been so devoted, so faithful and so considerate as ever since I have been here. She has been to see me no less than 22 times."

Asked what he intended to do now that he had been released, he said: "I don't know. One thing I do know, however, and that is that I'm through with liquor. I'll never sell another drop. I'll never touch another drop."

Parents Asked Not To Allow Parties During School Week
In an appeal to parents and patrons of the Seminoles High School, members of the faculty yesterday passed a resolution requesting cooperation with school authorities in the matter of staging social events on school nights.

Strengthening the need for regular hours of sleep in order that the pupils may be in a position to devote their best energies to school work, the faculty members pointed out the necessity for ample time for study. Following are the resolutions:

"Because we find that boys and girls need regular hours of sleep."

"And because all students need to prepare some lessons at home."

"And because we feel that parties during the school weeks are detrimental to school interests."

"We, the faculty of the Seminoles High School, wish to urge the parents of the students of the Seminoles High School to refrain from giving parties or allowing their sons and daughters to attend parties given on evenings preceding school days."

ALL KINDS MEET IN PITTSBURGH AS BIG GAMES BEGIN

World Series Mobs Are Peculiar Gatherings Unlike Aristocrats Which Gather At Races, Or Other Sports

PITTSBURGH, Oct. 5.—They're all here—the hard-boiled scribblers, the sure-thing sharpshooters, the gyps, the dips, the sports and the mixers.

Strange gatherings these World Series mobs are, and I've watched them since before the bald spot showed on the back of my cogitator and before four-eyed pitchers made the big league. Not aristocratic, cold, or bizarre, but not refined. Not like a championship fight crowd, a derby gang, or an army-navy football roundup. Any crowd that goes for those who travel out of town to take in the high peak annual American classic.

There is gaiety about a Tunney-Dempsey shindy. It concentrates at any center of the financial lights, the literary stars, society, stage favorites, politicians, men and ladies of luxury and leisure. Football leans heavily in our best people, bringing forth the most sedate as well as the most dashing. Facing spectacles produce the giddiest, the most effervescent set of all—blebs, bloods, the flower of the nation.

But, with all the intensified appeal of its own ingenious game at its most fascinating climax, those who crave it sufficiently to go long distances after it in no way make up a group resembling the conglaves at those other functions. Football is just as technical and has to be understood to be enjoyed. But it has its amateur tang, its partisan associations. Racing is strictly commercial, but it is the sport of kings, and this is a democracy but still worships kings—on derby day, anyway. There is a barbaric dignity to important pugilistic encounters which makes anyone who is someone feel that they are not to be missed. But baseball, probably the most widely and consistently advertised, with inter-city rivalries, with multiple personalities whether other sports present only a few still does not attract the "classy clan."

They are here from all corners of the country, sure enough. But they are regulars, not volunteers. Even the visitors seem professional, somehow. No youth among them. No chattering collegiates no touring gentility.

Of course, the blebs represent the pick of Pittsburgh in all walks. So will they of and in New York when the terms meet there. But I mean the camp followers, those who for some impulse, reason or motive have come here for just these games. They are not exuberant sportsmen. Even we reporters feel the difference.

Line Forms At Eight Last Night To Get Tickets For Game

PITTSBURGH, Oct. 5.—(INS)—Two hours before bleachers tickets for the first game of the Yankee-Pirates series went on sale at Forbes Field today the crowd at the gate became so great that three additional lines of ticket-purchasers were formed.

Some of the 5,000 fans in line at 8 o'clock took up their posts as early as noon yesterday and there were many in the crowd who had been standing since 8 o'clock last night.

Many fans in choice positions near the box offices offered to forego the privilege of witnessing the big series for a consideration of $5 to $25 for their places in line.

The multitudes applauded Carl Roemly, local semi-pro ball player, when he appeared on the scene at dawn carrying 20 gallon of coffee. This he dispensed without charge to the weary men and women in line.

Three youths who drove here from Rock Island, Ill., in a light touring car may have to walk home. While they were standing in line during the night a thief jacked up the rear of their machine and made away with two new tires. A long distance fan, E. P. Damern, came from Hickory, N. C., to take his place near the head of the column.

Fans Storm Forbes Field In Drove Before Gates Are Opened At 10 O'clock

BY JAMES L. KILGALLEN International News Service Staff Correspondent

PITTSBURGH, Pa., Oct. 5.—With the annual world series classic opening here today, Pittsburgh was a-tingle with excitement, its natives keyed up to a nervous tension approaching frenzy, here from all parts of the country and the contending ball clubs, the Pittsburgh Pirates and the New York Yankees, restlessly awaiting the hour when they will don their spangles and go forth to battle.

Manager Miller Huggins of the Yankees announced this morning that he probably would pitch Waite Hoyt, a world series veteran, in the opening game, and manager Donie Bush of the Pirates indicated he would send Ray Kremer to the firing line. Both are right handers.

Fans stormed Forbes Field in droves long before the gates were scheduled to be opened at 10 o'clock this morning. The weather was cool, with a football tang in the air, and top coats were comfortable. The weather forecasters, however, predicted that it would warm up somewhat by game time, 1:30 this afternoon.

At dawn 2,000 dyed in the wool bleacher fans, who had kept an all-night vigil at the ball park, were strung out in long lines at the ticket gates. By 7 o'clock this morning fully 5,000 were fighting to hold their places against newcomers. All reserved had been sold and it is a certainty that a capacity crowd of 42,000 will witness the opening game.

The first man in line for a bleacher seat, and determinedly fighting to hold it, was Ralph Arke of Pittsburgh who had been sitting astride a wooden box since 7:30 o'clock yesterday morning. Second in line was Lester McMichael a youth of Connorsville, Ind., who made a 350-mile trip by automobile to see the series. Next was William Peters, an ex-army veteran of Baltimore, who took precautions against inclement weather by bringing a pup tent. Following him was George Sliker, who came all the way from Worcester, Mass., to see Babe Ruth crash a homer.

Ruth, in fact, is the star attraction as far as the fans are concerned. Only once before has the great home run slugger been on the scene of today's conflict, and that was in an exhibition game. The natives are going to the game much in the manner of a crowd to a circus and in the back of their heads reclines the fear that the elephant, Mr. Ruth is going to break out and spoil the show.

Betting odds changed at the eleventh hour, coming down close to even money because of the injury sustained by Herb Pennock star southpaw of the Yanks, in batting practice yesterday. The New York Club had previously been installed 7 to 5 favorites to win the series. Pennock who has never been beaten in a World Series game, was struck on the left leg by a batted ball and a blood vessel was ruptured.

Physicians said the effect of the blow could not be fully determined until this afternoon. They said Pennock might possibly be able to pitch Friday when the team opens in New York. The accident caused a near-panic among the Yankees as Manager Huggins had been counting on Pennock for at least one victory, possibly two. Ice treatment was applied on Pennock's leg to keep the flesh from swelling. Even if he is able to pitch it was feared that the injury would lessen his effectiveness.

From all parts of the country fans are here to witness the first two games which will be played here today and tomorrow before the contending clubs entrain for New York to play three more, if that many are necessary. The governor of Pennsylvania, John S. Fisher, the mayors of New York City and Pittsburgh, Judge Kenesaw M. Landis, high commissioner of baseball and a hundred or more baseball celebrities are in town to see the spectacle.

Last minute arrests of ticket scalpers were being made by the police this morning. Eighty-two sets of World Series tickets were seized by detectives and six men at liberty on forfeits after arrests on charges of violating a city ordinance. The authorities were planning to turn the seats over to Forbes Field officials to be sold at regular prices. The scalpers had been charging from $50 to $75 for $16.50 strips of tickets.

World prohibition of slave trade interferes with our West Indian commerce? and "Would a people's convention, either in harmony with or opposed to the administration, be legal?" Nowhere in the minutes could the reporter find decisions to the debates.

Medicine To Be Taught By Films HAYES DECLARES

President Of American Film Organization Tells Of Progress Of Experiments That Have Been Recently Finished

NEW YORK, Oct. 5.—(INS)—Motion pictures to teach surgery and medicine have become a reality, according to an announcement made today by Will H. Hayes, president of the Motion Picture Producers and Distributors of America, Inc. The first two of an extensive series that is being produced by the Eastman Kodak Company for the American College of Surgeons will be shown at the annual meeting of that body in Detroit, October 3 to 7 inclusive.

This series of pictures will be made available, through sale or rental, for doctors, hospital and nurses throughout the world. Surgeons in out of the way localities may rent pictures showing operations of masters. A plague may threaten an obscure community. Films showing the most modern methods of treatment will be rushed to the scene. A small town hospital wants to give its patients the same treatment that is given in the finest hospitals. Films may be rented that will show in detail the most modern methods.

Two pictures prepared under the supervision of eminent men selected by the Board of Medical Motion Picture Films of the American College of Surgeons are "Infections of the Hand" and "Nursing our neighbors." The first picture, which shows important methods of operations for treating hands is expected to be of great value to surgeons who treat men and women who are injured in accidents in industrial plants. This will teach surgeons everywhere the most modern ways for saving hands and fingers that under many conditions would be amputated.

The picture on "Nursing" has to do with the most approved methods of hospital standardization and nursing and will bring to even the most isolated hospitals and nurses' training schools throughout the world the newest technical procedures in saving lives through proper nursing.

"These first two pictures lead the way for an extraordinary motion picture course in surgery and medicine," said Mr. Hayes, who is honorary chairman of the Board on Medical Motion Picture Films of the American College of Surgeons. The other members of the Board are Dr. J. Bently Squier, Dr. W. W. Chipman, Dr. Franklin Martin, Dr. Bowman Crowell, Dr. Malcolm MacEachern, Dr. C. H. Mayo, and Dr. George W. Crill.

President Praises Work Of Red Cross Mississippi Region

WASHINGTON, Oct. 5.—(INS)—With the praises of President Coolidge ringing in their ears, hundreds of delegates to the seventh annual convention of the American National Red Cross scattered today to a score of conferences on relief work throughout the capital.

The President, addressing last night's session, was eloquent in praising the gigantic relief work carried on by the Red Cross in the Mississippi flood disaster and in dozens of other emergencies throughout the nation. As president and as head of the Red Cross, Mr. Coolidge extended to the delegates his "highest commendation and the thanks of the country" for its "great humanitarian relief work in the Mississippi valley."

"Much glory has been added to our Red Cross emblem," said the president. "More and more it is coming to be recognized universally as the symbol of love, sympathy and charity for all those in suffering and distress. Its benign influence reaches out to touch and often our daily lives dispelling envy and malice, so that we think less of self and more of others, bringing peace on earth and good will toward men."

The central committee of the relief organization meanwhile voted to extend its membership to 5,000 in the annual roll call to be held in November. The higher membership was said to be necessary to carry on the relief work undertaken by the Red Cross.

BABE SMACKS NO. 59 AND TIES HIS HOME-RUN RECORD

With the count three and two and the bases loaded, young Mr. Paul Hopkins of the Washington Senators made a little mistake the other day. He eased one right in the old groove. George Herman Ruth, who happened to be batting, took a nice swing at it. Presto! The bases emptied, just like that, and Mr. Ruth walked around the bases. The Bambino had tied his 1921 home run record, with 59 home runs. The inset shows Babe meeting the ball, with Catcher Tate and Umpire Bill Dineen behind the plate. Below, Lou Gehrig (Number 5), Ruth's rival for home run honors, is shaking the Babe's hand as he crosses the plate. Numbers 1, 2 and 3 are respectively Ruether, Combs and Koenig, who scored ahead of the Babe, who is No. 4. These pictures are exclusive.

CLARKSVILLE, O., Oct. 5.—(INS)—Confronted with an order from the Belmont county commissioners, instructing him to demand at once the force of 60 special deputy sheriffs which has been doing guard duty during the mine strike here today, Sheriff Hardesty today was facing what he termed a "very serious" situation.

The order was passed by the commissioners last night, almost simultaneously with three out-breaks at mines in this country. The sheriff and four deputies were attacked, stoned and gaged by a mob of 1,000 union sympathizers as they escorted 30 non-union men from the West Virginia line, who had been recruited to work in the Webb mine near here.

At the Florence mine, U. S. deputy marshals arrested more than union miners, in groups of four, as they persisted in maintaining a picket post which the deputies said was in violation of the terms of a federal injunction.

Two men were in jail after an attack upon a non-union work the provident mine. The man stoned and beaten by unidentified assailants who drove up to mine in an automobile.

An Issue That Cannot Be Escaped

The Democratic party just now is receiving the advice of its various leaders on ways and means of achieving victory in next year's election.

The North Carolina editor among other things hands down this bit of advice, "The Democrats must stop rowing about beer and religion and get-together a militant attack upon the present rule of the privileged few dollar diplomacy."

The issues which the North Carolinian has mentioned are of importance, we admit. Dollar diplomacy is an evil that some day must go, and farm relief, international relations are problems deserving of more attention than they are receiving.

NOT INTRODUCED BY IRVIN S. COBB

Of course the English have a sense of humor and under pressure a boundless tact. Into a fashionable Piccadilly club stepped a chappie and, after sauntering about the premises in an absent sort of way, drew up a chair beside a drowsing Briton and spoke as follows:

THE GARDEN CLUB TAMPA TRIBUNE

The Tribune has had much to say about the organization of the Garden Club in Tampa. This organization, taking up the work of beautifying the Bayshore Boulevard has already made substantial progress in that improvement.

To Be Expected

The path of the politician is not paved with primroses. As a servant of the people, he is the focal point of all eyes, ever under the watchful scrutiny of those who would get something on him for political reasons, or of those watchdogs of the public's interest, the newspapers.

If he is a proper servant of the people, he fully merits such treatment as this even as the servant in a household deserves censure when she sweeps dust into the corners.

As a fair example of what only the average politician is subjected to, we cite the New York Mayor Walker's recent trip to Europe when his footsteps were dogged for thousands of miles as he visited in one place or another.

"Newspaper despatches from Paris during Mayor Walker's sojourn there lulled his many friends into a false sense of his security. Not until more than a week after his return did they learn that his every footstep was dogged by a person or persons unknown, that the very walls which surrounded him had ears, and that unseen eyes peered at him from behind every pillar on the Rivoli colonnade.

"Let it not for an instant be supposed that this sinister espionage had anything personal in it. Mr. Walker's charm was as magnetic abroad as it is at home. Only because he is a member of Tammany Hall was he followed about from the Bois to Montmartre, from the Place Vendome to the Cafe du Dome.

"Greatly to the Mayor's credit it is that in outward seeming he was jocular and in high spirits, when within he must have felt,

"As one, who on a lonesome road Doth walk in fear and dread And, having once turned round, walks on And turns no more his head Because he knows a frightful fiend Doth close behind him tread."

An Issue That Cannot Be Escaped

The Democratic party just now is receiving the advice of its various leaders on ways and means of achieving victory in next year's election. Some of the counsel is good, some bad and some indifferent.

The North Carolina editor among other things hands down this bit of advice, "The Democrats must stop rowing about beer and religion and get-together a militant attack upon the present rule of the privileged few dollar diplomacy."

The issues which the North Carolinian has mentioned are of importance, we admit. Dollar diplomacy is an evil that some day must go, and farm relief, international relations are problems deserving of more attention than they are receiving.

The Democrats will have to meet the question fairly and squarely. It's a fight to a finish on rum and Smith. It's up to the party to repudiate both.

Floods And Power. A 3,000,000 Share Day. B&B Danced And Lived. Good And Beautiful.

LOS ANGELES, OCT. 4.—President Coolidge promises "to solve the problem of (Mississippi valley) flood control, so that such a situation may never again have to be met."

SENATOR HIRAM JOHNSON appealed to the convention of union labor in this city yesterday to work for the Boulder dam project, harnessing the Colorado river, for power, irrigation and water supply.

"If it takes 20 years we'll teach the public utilities that there is something bigger than seven billions of public utilities dollars, and that is the government of the United States."

FORMERLY LABOR, EVEN in America, would have opposed power development by government lest it "take bread from mouths of working men."

American labor is too intelligent for that now. In China when the British built an electric road up a steep grade they had to promise not to haul any passengers, no freight, Chinese coolies, men and women, wanted to carry the freight on their heads and backs.

At present they are the biggest power in the country, and prove it by holding back whatever does not please them.

THERE WAS "BUYING" power in the stock market yesterday. Somebody bought 540,900 shares of the new General Motors stock and sales totalled 3,147,300 shares.

THE "SOCIAL SURPLUS" of this country is 10 billion dollars, which means that the American people earn each year 10 thousand millions more than they need to live on.

MRS. SARAH O. DRAPER starting her 102nd year tells the world that smoking and dancing have kept her alive. She is right about the dancing. A British scientist proves that prosperous men die too young because nearly all stop exercising after 50.

For many generations France has rewarded with prizes, parades and pretty dresses the "good girl" of the village called La Rosiere. Often the Rosiere is good, and pure 100 percent, but more good than beautiful.

Mexico has a lively presidential campaign. In Mexico City yesterday, General Alvarez, President Calles' chief of staff, announced the execution of Serrano, one candidate, with 13 of his followers.

Our campaign next year will not be as exciting, but it will not be dull.

"I haven't been able to form a bit of it... It haunts me as no other production has. Pictures such as 'THE PARADE' come only once in a decade... Above all things I want to see it... OIL SCANDALS TO BE BEFORE COURT ON OCTOBER 17

Albert Fall and Harry F. Sinclair Charged With Conspiracy in Teapot Dome Leases; No More Delay Anticipated

WASHINGTON, Oct. 6.—The stage is being set to try the second big conspiracy case arising out of the naval oil reserve scandals.

It is the trial of Harry F. Sinclair, multi-millionaire oil man, and ex-Secretary of Interior Albert B. Fall. It opens on October 17 before Justice Frederick L. Siddons in district of Columbia criminal court No. 2. The trial was postponed from last spring at the request of government counsel who are seeking the return of important witnesses in Europe. No further delays are anticipated.

The first conspiracy trial resulted in a defeat for the government when a jury here found Fall and Edward L. Doheny, Sr., not guilty of defrauding the government in the leasing of the Elk Hills, California, reserve.

Government won the case, however, when the civil suit when the Supreme court held that the lease was "tainted with corruption" and ordered the return of the property.

Sinclair and Fall are charged with conspiracy in leasing the Teapot Dome, Wyoming, naval oil reserve. It is alleged that the lease was the outcome of a conspiracy to favor Sinclair's bid, and that Fall obtained from Sinclair on May 8, 1922 Liberty bonds worth $230,000. The bonds were passed from a "dummy" trading company set up in Canada, the indictment reads.

Two other men, H. M. Blackmer and James E. O'Neil, who fled to Europe, are held by the government to be key transactions. A subpoena has been served on Blackmer but O'Neil has not been located by agents.

Under the new Walsh Act, the government can confiscate property up to $100,000 of Americans who refuse to return from abroad to testify. Government counsel threaten to invoke this act against the missing men.

Under the new Walsh Act, the government can confiscate property up to $100,000 of Americans who refuse to return from abroad to testify. Government counsel threaten to invoke this act against the missing men.

See Spectacular Trial

A spectacular trial is anticipated Cabinet members, past and present, high government officials, and leaders in the oil industry are included in the 78 subpoenas issued by the government.

Government counsel are Atlee Pomeroy, ex-Senator from Ohio, and Owen J. Roberts of Philadelphia, specially appointed by the President to handle the oil cases.

Counsel for Fall and Sinclair include Martin W. Littleton of New York, George P. Hoover of Washington, William E. Leahy and Mark B. Thompson. Thompson defended Fall in the Doheny trial.

A conviction for contempt of the Senate is against Sinclair for refusal to answer committee questions in the Teapot Dome inquiry. He has appealed.

Bribery indictments against Fall, Doheny and E. L. Doheny, Jr., are pending and will be tried as soon as the Fall-Sinclair trial is completed.

IS THERE NO RELIEF FROM SKIN TORTURE?

Must I Continue to Suffer the Unbearable Itching?

Are you one of those unfortunate who are going through life suffering with a skin disease, making you uncomfortable, making you less efficient, interfering with your working hours, ruining your sleep? You may have tried many things without relief. Why not try S.S.S.? For more than 100 years it has been giving relief in many forms of skin disease. Thousands of letters of gratitude prove its worth. "I feel so happy for what S.S.S. has done for me that I want others to know about it. I suffered twenty long years from eczema. At times the itching was unbearable. During that time, I used all kinds of salves without receiving any real benefit. After taking six bottles of S.S.S., I was cured of this dreadful disease. I recommend S.S.S. to anyone suffering from eczema, because I cannot praise it enough for what it has done for me." Cleophas Forte, Soldiers and Sailors Home, Quincy, Ill.

S.S.S. is purely vegetable. It is extracted from the fresh roots of medicinal plants and herbs and gives to Nature what she needs in building you up so that your system throws off the cause. S.S.S. is sold at all good drug stores in two sizes. The larger is more economical.

LEADERS OF G.O.P. FIGURE ON SMITH AS THEIR TARGET

Republicans Hold Get-Together Week With Butler To Decide On Candidate All To Keep 'Luck' With Party

By GEORGE E. BURNO
 International News Service Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON, Oct. 6.—The Republican chiefs who are in town for a get-together week with Chairman William M. Butler, of the Republican National Committee, settled down today to the business of figuring out the factors in national politics known as electoral votes.

Their purpose was to get together in black and white some idea of how the respective candidates on the Republican ticket would fare against Governor Al Smith, of New York. Each of the national committee men present was pelted as to probabilities and conditions in his home state, and from this poll the party elders compiled a chart after chart purporting to show possible outcomes of the 1928 election with Smith established as the Democratic opposition.

The Republican leaders here, based on present conditions, are conceding the Democratic presidential nomination to Smith. The proposal offered by John Barnett, Democratic committeeman for Colorado, to get around the Democratic two-third rule, has increased their belief that the popular governor will be the ultimate candidate.

Barnett intends to offer a resolution to the Democratic convention next June in advance of the actual balloting to the effect that the two-thirds rule be maintained through a given number of ballots—fifteen to twenty-five—and that, failing to procure a nomination, the rule be then suspended and a majority declared sufficient to nominate. As a resolution may be adopted by a majority of the delegates, and as Smith is expected to have nearly a majority upon entering the convention, the Republicans now in conference here are unanimously of the opinion they will have Smith to beat in the runoff.

Talk at Republican headquarters centered around the situation in New York, Massachusetts, Rhode Island, Maryland, Kentucky, Tennessee, New Jersey and Oklahoma. All would be battle grounds with Smith contending and his tremendous popularity was in no way underestimated by the Republican stalwarts.

On tally, admittedly quite pessimistic to have been drawn by a Republican—gave Governor Smith as high as 245 electoral votes, 21 short of election but more than John W. Davis gathered in 1924.

We thought everything was settled and since we were old friends, were pleased to know that Ruby was to marry him. Early in the summer, with a party of friends, Ruby and Mr. Lord went to New York where she was to wait for him until he returned from Europe. He once measured her finger for the wedding ring.

While Lord was abroad, the 22-year-old widow changed her mind about wedding bells and offered to make any reasonable settlement, he said. Lord made several offers upon his return from Europe, which were rejected.

New Parish House Of Episcopal Church Will Open Sunday

 tending upward one story and a half with an upstairs apartment for the janitor.

It is constructed of cement blocks stuccoed outside with a tile roof, and is of the Spanish-Mission type of architecture, conforming to the church building in this respect.

The parish house is connected with the church by a covered passage, which gives access to the church through the chapel.

A general description of the parish house follows:
 On the right of the main entrance is the rector's office, and on the left, a large cloak room. The main door opens directly into the auditorium.

The auditorium has a seating capacity of 250. It has a stage of moderate size, and along its sides are doors, which communicate with eight class rooms. These class rooms, while divided by permanent sound-proof partitions, can be used if necessary, to increase slightly the seating capacity of the auditorium. Other class rooms are provided in various parts of the building.

In addition to the main auditorium, the parish house has a smaller assembly room located in a wing on the north side of the Church School. This room will also be used for the choir for their robes, and for the same communicants, which is the vestible, which gives access to the main assembly room (auditorium) and other parts of the building.

On the south, is a wing containing a large assembly room, which will be used for the kindergarten department of the church school and also as a meeting place for the guilds and other church organizations. This assembly room, like that of the primary department, opens on a corridor communicating with the kitchen, the main auditorium and other parts of the building.

The kitchen is a large commodious room at the rear of the building. It connects with all parts of the parish house by the two corridors which have been mentioned. This kitchen is furnished with the most modern and best type of kitchen furniture, which includes a serving counter for cafeteria service; a four-oven gas baker; large hotel type gas range; sink; refrigerator; a five-gallon automatic coffee urn; an automatic water-cooler and all other accessories needed to make this a completely modern kitchen. Ample storage space for supplies, dishes, etc., is provided in the many cupboards, which cover practically all the wall space of the kitchen.

The janitor's apartment is upstairs over the kitchen. It consists of a sitting room; bed room; kitchenette and bath.

A ceiling of small size contains the furnace; storage space; coal bin and a heater and tank for hot water supplies.

The heating is of the "Hot-Air Mechanical Draft" type. Sufficient volume of heat is provided to adequately heat all rooms of the building. The forced draft system of the furnace is so arranged that it can be used for ventilation and cooled air in warm weather.

This building will be equipped with good quality of furniture throughout, and when completely furnished, will cost in the neighborhood of $40,000.00. The building is now nearing completion and within a few weeks it will be occupied and used by the church school and other church organizations.

U. S. Imports Bamboo Shoots As Delicacy

PEKING, Oct. 6.—(INS)—American palates are more and more turning to bamboo shoots from China according to customs returns which indicate the United States as the largest exporters of this Chinese delicacy.

Formerly bamboo shoots were prepared for the American market by either drying or pickling but now a method of canning has been developed. On the markets the shoots are divided into the winter crop and spring crop the former being by far the more highly prized because of tenderness.

The winter crop is gathered in November-December and January when the shoot is a maro bud beneath the surface of the earth. It is discovered either by examining the cracks on the ground or by feeling the ground with the bare foot, the fingers being highly skilled in this sense to locate the point of a shoot not quite above the ground.

The spring shoot is gathered in April of May when they have grown a few inches above the ground and thus become more fibrous than the winter crop.

TREASURY TAKES STEPS TO SPEED MANY TAX CASES

Three More Members Added To Special Advisory Committee Which Plans To Dispose Of Cases At 1,000 Per Month

By ROBERT S. THORNBURGH
 International News Service Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON, Oct. 6.—Adopting a policy of quick settlement of disputed federal tax cases the treasury today took steps to free millions of dollars tied up in litigation before the Bureau of Internal Revenue.

The special advisory committee named by Secretary Mellon to act just tax disputes between the government and taxpayers was extended by the addition of three members in the drive to clear up the congestion of cases.

An effort will be made by the committee to dispose of cases at the rate of 1,000 a month. In September, 600 cases, involving probably $50,000,000 were compromised and wiped off the treasury books. Many of these had been placed upon the U. S. board of tax appeals. Suits by taxpayers before that tribunal will be dropped as the result of compromises with the treasury.

Mellon's policy is based on the belief that it will be cheaper both for the government and taxpayers to avoid litigation and that business generally will be benefitted by prompt settlement of income tax cases.

Officials said that the new system will reduce the time normally required to settle a big tax case from about two years to a few months.

A serious congestion of tax litigations are pending before the treasury and the tax appeals board, involving probably more than $100,000,000. As long as these suits are unsettled considerably commercial markets are hampered.

The tax board, which is issuing an average of 100 decisions a month, has a docket of more than $2,000,000 appeal of former minority stockholders of the Ford Motor Company. Hundreds of cases involving in excess of $1,000,000 in taxes are pending. The Congress has a docket of more than $2,000,000 appeal of former minority stockholders of the Ford Motor Company. CITY OFFICIALS DELAY SALE OF BONDS 10 DAYS that the City has not given me vouchers for approximately $36,000 worth of work which I have done."

"In times like these my interest is in the City and not so much in my friends," retorted Mr. Thrasher.

Mr. Hutton told the Commission that unless he was given a payment he would be unable to meet his payroll of $10,000 on next Saturday. To which Mr. DeCottles answered that the City was unable to pay its employees in full and was paying 25 cents on the dollar. Mayor Housholder expressed appreciation of Mr. Hutton's position, but described that of the City government as being more disagreeable.

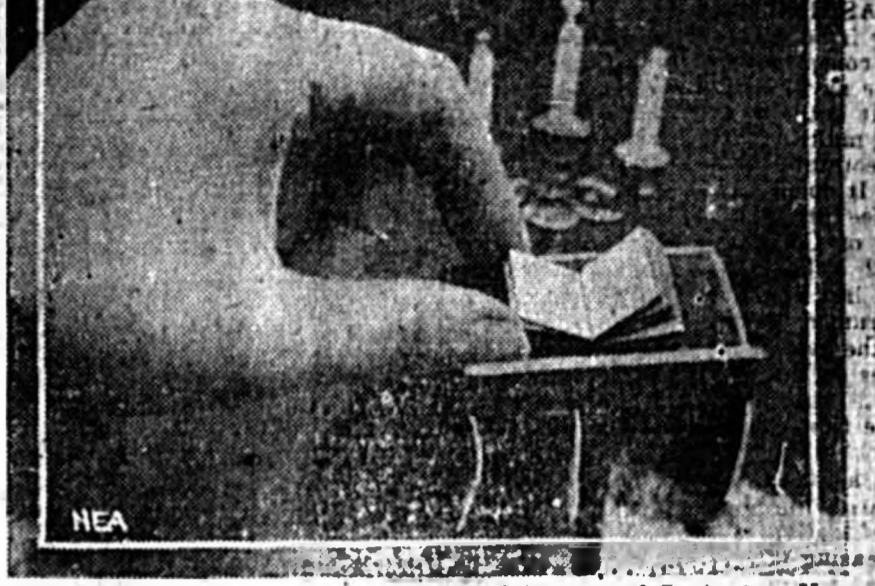

Mr. Hutton addressed the Commission with the statement that "I have pledged myself in this connection to the extent of $155,000 and with the expectation of receiving this amount or a substantial payment, I have borrowed $30,000. If these bonds are not sold today and we do not get our money and the notes come due, I will be placed in an embarrassing position."

"I do not know how a private sale at which you propose to sell bonds at the end of 10 days, would affect my company," Mr. Hutton continued, "but I was told that the bonds would be sold early in October and on the strength of this I went ahead with my agreement for the paving work."

"The City charter would not allow the sale of the bonds at less than the price which has been offered for them," answered Mr. DeCottles. He explained that the City desired to get the best price possible and informed Mr. Hutton that if the paving contractor desired, he would give Mr. Hutton a letter explaining the situation so that the paving contractor could use this in negotiations with his creditors.

Mayor Housholder frowned on the suggestion of the letter and expressed the opinion that it was unnecessary.

MUCH INTEREST IS SHOWN LATELY IN INVESTMENTS

Volume Of Securities In The Hands Of Public Today Is Largest In History; Large Exodus Of Smaller Traders

NEW YORK, Oct. 6.—(INS)—There has been a widening public interest both in investment and speculative activities over the past two or three years, and probably at no previous time in the nation's history has there been such a large volume of securities in the hands of the public as today.

Stock exchange experts report a large exodus of small traders from the bond market to the stock market in recent months, and to this fact has been ascribed the marvelous stability of industrial common stocks. Thousands of investors and speculators who have repeatedly suffered heavy losses in trading on margins in second and third grade stocks, have completely revised their methods. They have purchased only the highest grade stocks, in small quantities, and for them in full and locked them up securely in anticipation of "long pull" increases in values. There investors are not so much interested in the weekly fluctuations of stock prices as in the development of the behind the stocks.

The increase of the market valuations of the stocks of such companies as National Biscuit, Vacuum Oil, General Motors, etc., in the myth or a fable, but a reality which is quite likely to be duplicated a thousand times in our own markets in the next ten or twenty years. Thus the shrewd purchaser of ten or twenty or one hundred or more shares of the stock of progressive and profitable American enterprises is putting his money to work for the best possible paymasters.

Wall Street experts who are in position to know, report that the last year and a half has witnessed more of this actual purchasing of high grade stock in small parcels than in any period in the history of the stock market. It is this purchasing which has necessitated the expansion of the odd-lot trading facilities of the Stock Exchange, and dictated the installation of a complete new plan for trading in the inactive stocks.

When these Stock Exchange authorities report this broadening of speculative interest, they have in mind also the enormous increase in the purchasing power of the average investor in the post-war period. Wages were never so high as in that period, savings have been proportionately high. Moreover, the practical knowledge and information about investments

Bank this morning to borrow some money and I was unable to get it. The Commission says the City is in bad financial shape but it is in better shape than I."

"I am told that the legal advertising and engineers' expenses of the City have been paid in excess of the contract. I am a big taxpayer, here and I need some of my money worse than some others whom the city owes," the contractor concluded.

The City Attorney recommended that the tentative budget be left unadopted until he reports of Mr. Commission is received, and the Commission voted in favor of the suggestion.

Of all known drugs, creosote is recognized by high medical authorities as one of the greatest healing agencies for persistent coughs and other forms of throat troubles. Creomulsion contains, in addition to creosote, other healing elements which soothe and heal the inflamed membranes and stop the irritation and inflammation, while the creosote goes on to the stomach, is absorbed into the blood, attacks the seat of the trouble and checks the growth of the germs.
