

Business Briefs

PHILADELPHIA — Food Fair Properties, Inc. attained record high levels in total income, net income, and cash flow in 1964. Samuel Friedland, president of the shopping center development company, disclosed in the annual report to shareholders.

Total income for the year ended Dec. 31, 1964, rose to $10,254,680, an increase of 7.8 per cent over the $9,560,422 in the previous year.

After deducting depreciation and provision for deferred income taxes totalling $2,491,570, net income for the year increased to $427,678. This is a gain of 89.6 per cent over net income of $226,579 the year before.

WEATHER: Chance of showers Friday, high in mid-80s; low tonight in 60s.

VOL. 57 United Press Leased Wire Established 1908 THURSDAY, APRIL 15, 1965 SANFORD, FLORIDA NO. 169

Sanford woman rushed into post office Tuesday and demanded: "Give me all the tax forms you've got." "Why the hurry?" asked Postmaster Cecil Heard. "You've got until Thursday midnight."

Residents of West 24th Street are proud of the new Pinehurst Municipal Park but they're getting dusted off. They complain of clouds of dust from cars going to and from the ball games. There are no paved streets in the area.

Our sympathy to a certain photographer who got his dome burned at the air show Saturday then went to the beach Sunday and toasted his feet. Well done!

Hibbard Casselberry, treasurer of the Sanford Hospital Eye Bank Association, makes this suggestion: "Tonight set your breakfast table as you have for many years, and tomorrow morning when you get out of bed, put a blindfold over your eyes and go to your breakfast. You know the way. You know how to eat. You have prepared it just as some member of your family might prepare it for you. But you must eat it without the help of your eyes. Imagine that they are totally blind."

Such an experiment, Casselberry believes, may make you think about giving the greatest gift possible to another person—the gift of sight to one who has none. Will your eyes after death to the Sanford Hospital Eye Bank Association.

The City of Sanford has received a check for $1,049 in federal disaster relief funds for damages caused by last September's Hurricane Dora. The check was turned over by Civil Defense Director A. B. Peterson Sr.

Seminole County Humane Society meets in the community room at the county courthouse at 7:30 p.m., tonight.

"The Man upstairs will punish the guilty one," Mrs. J. M. Adams, of 119 Elm Avenue, predicted when she reported that someone had fed rat poison to her year-old pet dog, "Husky."

Meeting of the Seminole County Democratic Association, for which Dr. Paul Douglas and a group of Rollins College students will present the program, will be held at 8 p.m. Tuesday at Altamonte Springs Community House and not on Thursday as stated in The Herald Wednesday.

Jaycees have scheduled their annual Orientation Program on April 20 at 8:30 p.m. at the Jaycee Building. Purpose of this annual event is to tell new Jaycees the "Jaycee Story." National Director Don Asber will be one of the speakers.

Good Friday Rites Slated

By Julia Wells
Church Editor
Sanford Area Ministerial Association will conduct its annual three-hour Good Friday Service at First Presbyterian Church from 12 noon until 3 p.m.

Special music will be presented by the choirs, soloists and organists of the several churches participating. Ministers leading 20-minute periods of worship, at times stated, are Rev. Clarence B. Gould, First Methodist Church, 12 noon; Rev. Thomas H. Makin, Presbyterian Church of the Covenant, 12:30; Rev. R. G. Welch, Church of God of Prophecy, 12:35; Rev. Walter A. R. McPherson, Congregational Christian Church, 1:20; Rev. Clifford Harrod, Sanford Alliance Church, 1:45; Rev. J. Gordon Peery, Good Shepherd Lutheran Church, 2:10; and Rev. John Hires, Grace Methodist Church, 2:35.

Theme for the meditations will be "The Seven Words from the Cross."

Organists assisting with music for the service will be Mrs. Helen Rice, of First Methodist; Russell Matthews, of First Baptist; and Miss Joan Wilke and Mrs. George Touhy, of First Presbyterian. Soloists will be Ivan Walker, of First Methodist; Mrs. Shirley Ryan and Richard Holtzclaw, of First Baptist; and Mrs. Charles Wilke and Robert Crumley, of First Presbyterian.

A quartet from First Presbyterian will be composed of George Touhy, Warren

'Mercy' Victim
PHILADELPHIA (UPI)—The fatal shooting of Mary Happer, 61-year-old sister-in-law of Gen. Maxwell D. Taylor, ambassador to South Vietnam, in a nursing home here was described by police today as a "mercy killing."

Her best friend, Miss Dorothy Butts, 35, of Bethesda, Md., the alleged slayer, shot herself to death in her automobile parked in front of the Bethesda police headquarters Wednesday night.

A note found on Miss Butts' body told the story in a single sad sentence: "Today, I killed my best friend, Mary Happer of 1205 River Road, Bethesda, Md., who has been suffering so cruelly from cancer."

LBJ Throws Disaster Aid In High Gear

WASHINGTON (UPI)—President Johnson, heartsick at the devastation wrought by wind and water in the Midwest, today threw into high gear a federal emergency program of money and materials to "rebuild and restore the life" of the stricken areas.

"This has been a day of both heartbreak and hopefulness," he told an airport crowd at Toledo, Ohio. Shortly after returning to the White House Wednesday night, Johnson made good on his pledge of "maximum assistance" from the government.

He signed documents designating tornado-hit areas of Indiana, Michigan and Ohio as federal disaster areas.

In the case of Minnesota, where rising flood waters threaten some areas, the President made a similar declaration earlier this week. The White House awaited only formal requests from the other states to take further action.

No specific funds were allocated, pending damage surveys by federal experts.

Emergency federal relief measures were put into effect immediately after the weekend tornadoes.

But under the disaster declarations, federal funds will become available for speedy repair of such public facilities as highways, public buildings and schools.

For the President, the Midwest was "enough to bring tears to the eyes of anyone."

But he found a ray of hope amid the storm and flood of destruction. "We've been seeing very few tears anywhere," he said at Toledo. "We've seen the old and the young standing shoulder to shoulder, planning for the morrow."

Johnson's words were measured and somber. He obviously had been deeply moved by the sights of the day.

Flying from Washington in his Air Force One jet transport he had seen at first hand the wreckage left by one of the greatest disasters ever to strike the nation's midlands—the Palm Sunday tornadoes which left close to 250 persons dead.

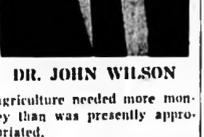

Fire Chief Called To Aid Of Wife
By Jane Casselberry
Fire Chief Paul Bates, of Casselberry, who has come to the rescue of so many of the community's residents with the department's rescuicator, was called upon Wednesday to aid his own wife, Maxine, when she suffered a heart attack at their home on Lake Ellen Drive.

Mrs. Bates was taken to Winter Park Memorial Hospital where her condition is listed as serious. No visitors or flowers are allowed at present.

Senator Vows Will Press For Expansion

By Dave Fountain
(Sanford Herald Bureau)
TALLAHASSEE—Sen. Ed Price, of Manatee County, stated today that as chairman of the Senate appropriations sub-committee he would press for more money to expand and extend the system of agricultural experimental stations throughout Florida, including the Seminole County Station on Celery Avenue in Sanford.

The Senator stated that these experimental stations help every phase of agriculture and that he felt that agriculture needed more money than was presently appropriated.

He went on to say that he felt these experimental stations were so important that other budget requests should be revised downward in order to secure the funds necessary for this project.

When it was suggested that these other budgets wouldn't want to be revised "downward," Price stated that he "felt more money would have to come from the people."

He further stated that he would be in favor of an increase in taxes in order to finance these projects.

Senator Price said that unless Gov. Haydon Burns changes his mind on the "hold the line policy" on taxes, then there would be no way to acquire the money necessary to extend the expansion of the agricultural experimental station system into effect.

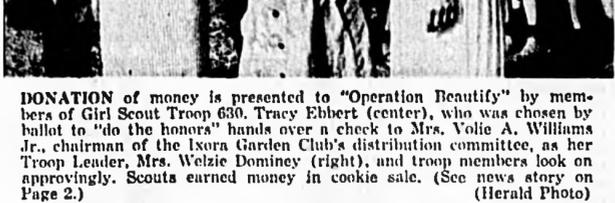

Wednesday Price placed appropriation of the funds for new construction and further development of the experimental stations high on the budget priority list.

The State Board of Control already has approved $188,000 for expansion of the Experiment Station on Celery Avenue. This is one of the appropriations Price says must be made.

The money, if approved, will go for the construction of a new office building and laboratory at a cost of $117,000. Of the remaining funds, $10,000 is earmarked for the acquisition of new land for cultivation and reforestation, primarily of peaches and ornamentals, Dr. John Wilson, chief of the station here, said.

The final $21,000 will be for the construction of a new greenhouse and headhouse, the supply and work shop for the greenhouse.

The Celery Avenue station is divided into two sections, the "office" just off Mellenville Avenue at the rear of the Sanford Naval Academy, and the "farm" 1 1/2 miles further east on Celery Avenue.

DONATION of money is presented to "Operation Beauty" by members of Girl Scout Troop 630. Tracy Ebbert (center), who was chosen by ballot to "do the honors" hands over a check to Mrs. Volie A. Williams Jr., chairman of the Isora Garden Club's distribution committee, as her Troop Leader, Mrs. Welzie Dominey (right), and troop members look on approvingly. Scouts earned money in cookie sale. Sanford Man Fatally Shot

Tony Gene Alewine, 29, was shot this morning in the bedroom of the apartment occupied by him and his wife at 1007 Park Avenue. Police reports indicate the dead man was shot below the waist with a .38-caliber revolver. He was dead on arrival at Seminole Memorial Hospital shortly before 4 a. m.

Details of the slaying are sketchy, but police reports indicate the dead man's wife, Beverly Carol, fired the fatal bullet.

Sheriff's Investigator J. Q. Galloway indicated the shooting was the culmination of an argument.

No arrest has been made in the case and investigation is not yet complete. The slaying is being probed by the state attorney's office.

Gramkow Funeral Home will ship the body to Lavonia, Ga., for burial.

Other than the widow, other survivors are in Lavonia.

John Q. Public Told: Shell Out Today Or..

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Today is the day the U. S. government performs major surgery on the American public in an area where it really hurts—the pocketbook.

Taxpayers have until midnight tonight to get their income tax returns into the mail, accompanied by whatever balance they may still owe Uncle Sam.

And to add its voice to the confusion as last-minute taxpayers scramble to finish their returns, the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) has issued a variation on its usual warning to pay up or else.

Not all taxpayers owe the government at the end of the year, but this year more persons than usual are feeling the pinch because the mechanics of last year's tax cut did not provide for enough money to be withheld from many paychecks.

No figures are available, but many taxpayers—including President Johnson—have borrowed money to pay their tax bill on time.

The IRS announced recently that because of widespread under-withholding, "hardship" cases would not have to pay the entire amount they owe by tonight, although they would have to get their returns in on time.

The IRS added, however, that although they will be allowed to pay late, hardship cases will be assessed penalties for late payments.

Cleveland Seeks Fourth Court
TALLAHASSEE (UPI)—A constitutional amendment creating a fourth district Court of Appeals was introduced today by Sens. Mack Cleveland, of Sanford, and A. J. Ryan, of Dania.

The measure does not identify where the new district would be located, but the existing three courts are headquartered in Tallahassee, Lakeland and Miami.

U. S. Planes Up Attacks On Reds
SAIGON (UPI)—American planes today followed up the first nighttime air attack on Communist North Viet Nam with the biggest raid of the war against guerrilla positions in South Viet Nam.

A military spokesman said 230 aircraft from all four American armed services bombed a Viet Cong stronghold Northwest of Saigon in a massive raid that lasted from dawn to dusk.

Methodist Fund Tops Half-Way
First Methodist Church announced today that $120,058.54 had been pledged toward construction of a youth wing.

The church announced last month plans to construct the education building at Fifth Street and Magnolia Avenue.

Estimate of actual cost of the new structure, expected to be built next year, is approximately $200,000. However, the fund drive is to raise $175,000 toward the total cost.

Ranger Sailor Dies In Blast
WASHINGTON (UPI)—A Navy enlisted man was killed Tuesday in an engine room fire aboard the aircraft carrier USS Intrepid (CV-19) in the South China Sea near Viet Nam, the Pentagon announced today.

The man was identified as fireman apprentice Chester Statton, son of Mr. and Mrs. Allen Statton, of Rayville, La.

The fire, caused by a ruptured fuel line, damaged one of the ship's four engine rooms. The carrier will go into Subic Bay, Philippines, for repairs, the Pentagon said.

'Shadow Lurks,' Planes Crash
FORT LAUDERDALE (UPI)—Members of a model airplane club here are searching for a fellow with a distorted sense of humor who calls himself the "Shadow" and causes their tiny radio-controlled planes to crash.

The culprit, who members believe watches them from a car or house, breaks up their Federal Communications Commission assigned frequency with his own transmission. They think he may be using a walkie-talkie.

When the frequency for planes is disturbed by voice sounds, the little craft go into uncontrollable tailspins and plunge into the ground.

When club members bought a radio receiver recently and turned it onto the plane frequency they heard a voice saying, "heh, heh, heh. This is the Shadow."

Board To Name School Heads
Principals for Seminole County's four high schools, two junior high schools and 22 elementary schools, "with some changes," will be appointed for the 1965-66 school year at a special meeting of the School Board tonight, Supt. R. T. Milnes said today.

EXECUTION

Inn Hosts Klatch Last Time

The last Mayfair Inn meeting of the Chamber of Commerce's Coffee Club was held this morning with about 60 members and guests in attendance.

Seventeen prizes were awarded women guests in a drawing conducted by Charles Morrison, of the Chamber. Everett Kerr, hotel manager, was host and welcomed the group to the Mayfair ballroom.

"This is possibly the last Coffee Club meeting to be held at the Mayfair Inn," Kerr said. "Thank you for your many courtesies and hospitality. I know you will be happy with the Macfadden people."

The Bennett Macfadden Foundation is in the process of purchasing the Inn from the San Francisco Giants. Morrison said the annual Easter meeting of the Coffee Club would continue elsewhere.

Prizes were awarded to Mrs. Everett Kerr, Mrs. Robert Beaser, Doris Williams, Odette Hasty, Patricia Van Zure, Lavada Williams, Leslie Pauline, Anita Morrison, Margaret Bishop, Mrs. John Senkarik, Irene Brown, Juanita Maston, Virginia Petrocki, Norma Platt, Vivian Coleman, Camilla Bruce and Helen Casey.

Girl Scouts Join Plan To Beautify Sanford, County

Donations for Sanford's project, "Operation Beauty," are beginning to come in, according to Jack Bolt, committee chairman.

Girl Scout Troop 680 Wednesday presented Operation Beauty with money earned in their recent cookie sales, asking that it be used to buy a palm for the project designed to initiate the long range beautification plan for Sanford.

"It is interesting to note, and heartening to older citizens," Bolt pointed out, "that 25 nine to 11-year-old girls wanted to do something for their town and voted to give 20 per cent of their earnings in their Girl Scout Cookie sales (made by selling, individually, door-to-door) to helping in the small way they could, to make Sanford more beautiful."

According to Scout Leader of Troop 680, Mrs. Weisbecker, and co-leader, Mrs. Charles Templin, the girls were eager to give even more of their hard-earned funds but were reminded of their responsibilities to their community.

Girl Scout organization which makes possible their participation in Scout training and their April 23-25 holidays at Camp Ticochee.

That this joint civic effort is catching on is indicated by the several teacher's reports that have come in.

Mrs. Virginia Burney, of Seminole High faculty, says that conservation classes evidenced their interest by bringing in tear-sheets from The Sanford Herald containing the recent story of the distribution of palm seedlings to the children of the elementary schools. The teachers, in turn, according to Mrs. Burney, are reminding high school students to help their younger brothers and sisters in watering and caring for their baby palm trees.

Scout Troop 680 is sponsored by First Christian Church. Presentation of their gift to Operation Beauty was made by Scout Troop member Tracy Ebbert, and accepted for Operation Beauty by Mrs. Volle A. Williams Jr., chairman of Isora Garden Club's distribution committee.

County 4-Hers Win Honors

By Mrs. H. L. Johnson
Eleven Seminole County 4-H Club boys and girls spent two days at Camp MeQuarrie in the Ocala National Forest to participate in District Events Day with such presenting demonstration on different projects.

Rudy Mueller came home with a blue award and an all expense paid trip to 4-H Short Course as prize for his Good Reading Lamp made of beautiful inland woods.

Also bringing home honors were David Mohn, second in entomology; George Bradshaw, public speaking; Steve Lucas, tractor driving; Carmen Adriatico, foods; Sandra Mikler, dress revue, and Bambi Chesser and Wanda Nixon, charm demonstration.

Ellnor Hein attended as council delegate and she and George Bradshaw, council president, attended a district council meet during which George was elected as alternate to 4-H Short Course in Gainesville.

Local boys and girls and Assistant County Agent Charles Williams and I, as Adult Leader, after registering Friday afternoon, enjoyed a get-together with other counties' groups. Represented were Ocala, Brevard, Volusia, Orange and Seminole Counties.

After supper, a program was held in the recreation hall with all participating in games during which Bambi Chesser won a large box of candy. Later, all shared in a fun talent show after which eight girls conducted a dress revue. At 9:30 p.m., Seminole County participants served punch and cookies to all during a short dance period. At 10:30 p.m., campers were gathered 'round a huge bonfire to sing songs and join in unison for the closing day's prayer.

Saturday morning was filled with demonstrations and tensions grew as boys and girls became aware that "awards" grew closer and closer. Each 4-H club member left the camp that afternoon with keen determination to return in a few months.

As an observer at this district meeting involving so many boys and girls of 4-H, it is easy to recognize why juvenile delinquency has no place among them. However, they are the lucky ones for leaders are needed for many more youngsters who would like to belong to a 4-H Club but are unable to do so for lack of adult assistance. All it requires is approximately two hours each meeting day and interest in our children. Many boys and girls could be guided on the path to a good and productive life ahead.

If any man or woman would like to offer help, County Agent Cecil Tucker, or Home Demonstration Agent Miss Myrtle Wilson, will show the way, with happiness.

Benefit Dance
Mrs. Leira Stroup, entertainment officer for the Young Adult Spouses Club of South Seminole County has announced that there will be a dance from 9-12 p. m. today at the Orlando Garden Club for benefit of the YMCA building fund. The public is invited.

Club Meeting Postponed In Bear Lake

By Maryann Miles
Monthly meeting of the Bear Lake Community Club, held third Thursday of each month, has been postponed from today until next Thursday, April 22, at 8 p. m. in the Florida Power Employees Club Holiday Avenue, Bear Lake.

A discussion on handling of wills and estates will be presented by guest speaker, Sanford Attorney Douglas Stenstrom.

The nominating committee, Mrs. Earl Strasburg, Mrs. James Ancrum, Mrs. C. C. Jones, Russell Loomis and William Carpenter, will present a slate of officers for the coming year.

Club president, Dick Ostrander, has been promised that front end "Bear Lake" auto tags will be delivered in time to be available at this meeting.

Hostesses will be Mrs. Harold Miller and Mrs. Ancrum. All interested residents will be welcomed.

Life Of Crime Comes To End In Murky Hole

ERIE, Pa. (UPI)—Thomas James Pearl's life of crime ended in a 10-by-12-inch hole in a murky basement.

He died unwittingly by his own hand — trapped like an animal in the crevice he chopped in the cellar wall of a jewelry store he apparently intended to burglarize.

Pearl, an Ohio prison escapee and the father of four, had been dead about a week when his body was found.

The body of Pearl, 37, of Mentor, Ohio, was discovered by an exterminator who had been called to investigate a pungent odor in the basement of the store.

Authorities said Pearl escaped Feb. 28 from the Marion (Ohio) correctional institute, where he had been serving a sentence for robbery. He was last seen April 4 at a hotel where he had been staying since the prison escape.

County Coroner Merle Wood said the man died of suffocation and had been dead between five and nine days. Pearl became stuck after getting his head and shoulders partially through a small hole in the two-foot thick brick wall.

Police said the man had broken into a vacant store-room next to the Abbott jewelry store, then went to the basement and chopped the hole through the wall with a section of pipe.

Top Dogs Hotel Is Just That—For Top Dogs

MIDGHAM, England (UPI)—Lonely dogs subjected to six months quarantine on arrival in England can have all the creature comforts in a new kennel here, including:—Day-long tape recorded sounds of home life; the vacuum cleaner, breakfast noles, family conversations, even radio programs.

—Music from all over the world; Chinese records for Chinese dogs, Italian opera for the Italian dogs and so on.

—Central heating in all kennels.

—A "visitors room" where quarantined dogs and their masters can take tea together.

The new kennel is, appropriately enough, named the Top Dogs Hotel and run by retired army Col. Thomas Twaddle.

"Dogs in quarantine for six months pine for home surroundings. I believe they will be happy if they hear familiar sounds," Twaddle said today.

Symington OK

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Sen. Stuart Symington (D-Mo) was reported in satisfactory condition after undergoing surgery for removal of gallstones. The 53-year-old senator was expected to remain hospitalized for about 10 days.

U.S. Steps Up See-U.S. Campaign

WASHINGTON (UPI)—The administration is stepping up its campaign to get Americans to travel at home rather than overseas in order to reduce the U. S. balance of payments deficit.

But officials are emphasizing the "positive" side of seeing the U. S. A. No one wants to be pictured as being against freedom of travel.

President Johnson this week is expected to name a private businessman to head the travel U. S. A. effort.

His job will be to organize the automobile industry, oil companies, airlines, rent-a-car firms, travel agents, hoteliers, bus companies, credit card people, railroads, and anyone else who stands to benefit from increased domestic travel.

Since many people have already made their summer vacation plans, officials are not expecting any dramatic decrease in the "travel gap" this year. In 1964 U. S. tourists spent about $1.6 billion more abroad than foreign travelers spent in the United States.

Winners Named In Forest City Member Drive

By Maryann Miles

The Forest City Community Association Membership Team headed by Al Krenzer as captain was declared winner of a concerted membership drive for the association at the April meeting held at Bear Lake Elementary School.

Krenzer's group brought in 30 new members to the 24 registered by Leland Jacobs' team, which, as loser, will treat the winners to a covered dish dinner in May with date to be announced later. Members of the Marine Corps Reserve, who have given so much assistance in clearing grounds of the building site for the proposed clubhouse, will be special guests at the dinner which will take place on the grounds.

Discussion for the evening was presented by Don Hasley, Bear Lake Elementary teacher, who spoke on plans of Gov. Haydon Burns for the educational program and urged members to support his action. Next meeting will be May 10.

Cancer Claimed 69 In Area Last Year

There were 69 deaths in Seminole County last year. Cancer took the lives of 69 citizens of all ages—13 per cent of the total deaths for the year.

These statistics were released today by the Florida Division of the American Cancer Society.

According to L. H. Peterson, executive vice-president of the Society's Division Office in Tampa, less vital statistics have not been released to alarm people. Rather, they are presented to the public to make everyone more aware of cancer and do something about it.

Peterson pointed out that many lives could be saved from cancer if precautionary measures were taken to guard oneself and family before it is too late.

These measures include: Regular medical checkups by qualified physicians; also recognition of symptoms such as described in "Cancer's Danger Signals" pamphlets offered without cost by the American Cancer Society. Early detection and prompt, proper treatment has saved thousands of lives, Peterson commented. Proof of this is found in more than 1,300,000 Americans alive today, cured of cancer, based on a five year period of no further indications of the disease after original diagnosis and treatment.

During the 1968 Crusade throughout the State, Peterson said many thousands of Society volunteers will endeavor to raise $1,200,000 so that the Society's cancer control programs of scientific research, public and professional education and patient services may be expanded and intensified to help save more lives.

Business Briefs

Two local women, Mrs. Adelaide Moses and Mrs. Mary Williams, are opening a new clothing store, the "Village Shop," at 2640 Hiawatha Avenue, this week.

Mrs. Moses and Mrs. Williams said they plan to cater particularly to young juniors, juniors and misses and plan to stock only the latest fashions in dresses, swim suits, shifts, slacks, shorts, shirts and skirts.

The Village Shop is located on Hiawatha, in the small shopping center area.

DeBary Firemen Okay Purchases Of New Suits

By Mrs. John Leone

Volunteer firemen of DeBary have authorized purchase of two asbestos lined illuminated fire suits, with air tank and hood attached, plus masks, special shoes and other accessories for fighting excessively hot fires.

Need for such equipment at various times in the past were pointed out at the April meeting of the group held in the Fire Recreation Hall with Ellsworth Ogden in charge. One new member, J. Edwin Bauer, was welcomed.

It was reported that firemen were called last Friday to a brush fire which raged for some time and was estimated to be result of carelessness of a family party.

Members also advised that Fred Perrick and Charles Jordan, two of the younger volunteers who attended special instruction last Thursday in Lake Helen given by the State Fire Instructor, Allen Erwin, had attended all meetings of the five-night-a-week fire school.

Refreshments were served by Chef Harrison Britter at close of the business.

Cleanest Man All Washed Up

CHICAGO (UPI)—Calvin J. Netter, perhaps the cleanest man in Chicago, has sued for divorce.

He said he and his wife were all washed up. Netter, an accountant, said his wife made him take a bath, wash his hair, and have his clothes cleaned every time someone coughed near him.

She wouldn't let him touch a light switch or a door knob with his hands, he said. When the Netters bought a new sofa, Calvin had to scrub it twice before it went into the living room.

When he bought some new clothes, Mrs. Netter made him wash them three times by hand, then put them through the washing machine.

Netter, 43, said she finally swept him out of the house. His suit in circuit court charged desertion and asked the judge to order a psychiatric examination for his wife, Arlene M., 38. They were married in 1946.

Scripps-Howard Buys Stuart Weekly News

STUART (UPI)—The Scripps-Howard newspaper organization announced acquisition of its first weekly newspaper, the Stuart News.

Jack E. Howard, president and general editorial manager of Scripps-Howard newspapers, and Gordon Lockwood, owner and publisher of the News, jointly announced the purchase of the News at an undisclosed price.

The paper will be the first in Florida for Scripps-Howard, which has 17 other papers.

Scripps-Howard owns a West Palm Beach television station, WPTV television, Channel 5.

The News, founded in 1918 and regarded as one of the country's best weeklies, has a current circulation of 4,800, based on Audit Bureau of Circulation (ABC) figures. The News is published on Thursdays.

VFW Auxiliary Has Elections In DeBarry

Officers were nominated and elected for the Auxiliary Unit of DeBarry VFW Post 8093 at the April meeting held in the Fire Recreation Hall.

Serving will be Mrs. Eugene Belner, president; Mrs. Frances Hackley, senior vice president; Mrs. Teresa Smith, treasurer; Mrs. Myrtle Hill, chaplain; Mrs. Babbe Reilly, conductress; Miss Muriel Clock, guard, and Mrs. Christine Baumann, three year trustee.

The newly elected president appointed Mrs. Blanche Frye as secretary, Mrs. Ruth LaChat as historian, and Mrs. Francanna Howard as patriotic instructor and VA hospital chairman. Other appointments will be completed at the May 3 installation meeting.

Donations were voted to the Lake City Hospital's Spring Carnival and Wheel Chair Parade and to a fund to provide an "Appreciation Gift" for State President Mrs. Francis Wynn.

Presented at the Tampa Convention, June 10-13. Delegates and alternates will be named at the May meeting.

District meeting will be held May 16 at the Azalea Post Home in Orlando with election of officers on the agenda.

Escapes Caught At Casselberry

Two escaped prisoners from the Orlando Prison Farm were apprehended by Police Lt. George Lewis, assisted by Officer G. A. Bardeen, of the Casselberry Police Department, at a service station on Highway 17-92 in Casselberry.

The officers, who had been alerted to be on lookout for the escaped convicts, made a routine check on the two men who were hitch-hiking. At the time of their arrest the men were armed with a straight razor and a toothbrush.

They were transferred to Seminole County jail until they could be returned to Orlando.

Lake Monroe Jottings

By Mrs. H. L. Johnson
Hello there. A big weekend is coming up. It is Easter. And too, there is no school on Good Friday and also the day after Easter. So it will be a nice long weekend for the children who attend school. Sunday will see families going to church all dressed up in new outfits. Many an hour of making these outfits by some of the mothers. And such an array of materials and colors. Sure will make a beautiful rainbow. Would still like to see an Easter parade here.

Spring Luncheon Scheduled For Fire Auxiliary

Annual Spring Luncheon for DeBarry's Volunteer Fire Department Auxiliary will be held May 6 with reservations due in to Mrs. John Leone by May 1.

Announcement of the event was made at the April meeting of the group held in the Fire Recreation Hall with Mrs. Charles T. Ulrich presiding in absence of Mrs. T. Howard, president. Invocation was given by Mrs. M. Phillips with salute to the flag led by Mrs. E. Healy. "God Bless America" was sung by Mrs. Beatrice Muller with Mrs. Marie Dungan as piano accompanist.

In reports of secretaries and treasurer, it was revealed that a profit of $16.85 was realized from last month's silent auction at the regular meeting.

Other upcoming events of interest to the group announced included those of the Minaret Show to be sponsored by members of the fire department and auxiliary in DeBarry on April 23 and April 24 and a "Touring Florida Card Party" for May 19 with

Permits Required Officials Say

It is illegal in the city of Sanford for anyone to solicit funds or donations for any purpose without a city permit, City Commissioners declared at a special meeting.

They urged that homeowners or business persons ask to see a permit from anyone who approaches them asking for donations and report them to the City Police if the solicitor cannot produce one.

Acting Mayor A. L. Wilson and City Manager W. E. Knowles stated that they both have received many complaints recently of persons going from door to door asking for money, particularly for churches. Knowles said that most of these people do not have permits.

LBJ Makes His History Carefully

(Last of Three Dispatches.)
By Bruce Boissat
WASHINGTON (NEA) — The "Johnson establishment" is solid today with executive talent, but some parts of it still shake a bit when the President is close by.

A White House staff man declares: "If you've ever been with Lyndon Johnson on a one-to-one basis, you'd know you're overwhelmed. He sets people up one by one."

Henry (Joe) Fowler as his new secretary of the treasury. They assumed Fowler would muster half a dozen good arguments why he should not take the job. Says a White House man: "I can see the President zeroing in on poor old defenseless Joe, tightening the screws one by one. Then Fowler emerges, happy as a lark that he's decided to be secretary of the treasury."

Meetings with cabinet, congressional leaders and other top figures have an orderly, purposeful stamp. They are meatier.

Marvin Watson, the new man from Texas, has been an important addition. Equable in temperament, himself an organizer, he is showing willingness to take initiatives more fearful assistants will not. With political grasp, he is becoming an appointments secretary much like John Kennedy's old reliable, the now resigned Kenneth O'Donnell.

Nearly everybody has clearer assignments today: Bill Meyers, idea man and general co-ordinator; Harvey Busby, idea man and cabinet secretary; Jack Valenti, of all trades; McGeorge Bundy, still high in the foreign policy echelons though now more the administrator; Lee White, thoughtful, tough-minded special counsel; Lawrence O'Brien, trusted engineer of congressional majorities for Johnson programs.

The power and prestige of the presidential office, in combination with a assertive, strong-minded, larger-than-life Texan, are too much for some ordinary mortals.

Awed by his presence, knowing they may face rough chewing for their failures, some of the President's associates still tend to ride two or three inches out of their chairs when he's around.

"Easy to work with, difficult to work for," sums up a common view.

Understanding his capacity to outdo men at close range, the President is pictured by one aide as more than ordinary mortals.

Intimates agree Johnson is tough when making a sale or chastising an aide. Now and then he realizes it himself and suddenly does something nice and sentimental for a berated victim. In a friend's words, the fellow "goes all in a heap" with joy at such treatment.

The President's larger-than-life qualities and his often ebullient mood are factors in the mixed judgment offered on the question how wisely and fully he uses the services of some people drawn into conference with him. Some sources insist he sometimes talks too much to get benefit from the sessions.

The President's larger-than-life qualities and his often ebullient mood are factors in the mixed judgment offered on the question how wisely and fully he uses the services of some people drawn into conference with him. Some sources insist he sometimes talks too much to get benefit from the sessions.

At least a few of those around the President are saying he just has to speed up his appointment mills. Yet one friend who says it, who calls Johnson "just about the most deliberate man I know," really thinks the slow minor and the comment a huge compliment.

Reception Honors Miss Diana Haynes

By Evelyn Landy
Diana Haynes, Sanford, bride-elect of Dan Biestel, Oviedo, was guest of honor at a party at the lovely home of Mrs. Madeline Luttrell on Lake Jessup. Miss Kathryn Lawton was co-hostess.

Friends of Miss Esther Biestel were invited to the party to meet Diana. Miss Biestel is Dan's aunt with whom he has made his home in Oviedo for several years.

In the living room, a large arrangement of pink roses was used and also a lovely arrangement of Nuns orchids.

On the outside patio, overlooking the lake, the guests were served refreshments of party sandwiches, tiny squares of butterscotch brownies, mints, nuts and bottles of coke.

An arrangement of Cattleya orchids was used on the tea table and on the round table in the center of the patio was a large arrangement of bright pink poppies. Lovely, blond Diana wore a purple Cattleya orchid corsage, a gift of the hostesses. Thirty-five guests called during the afternoon.

Directions Given For Egg Mobiles During Easter

Because they're so light, egg shells make good mobiles. You can use them whole or broken in half.

In blowing raw eggs, to get whole shells, first make a hole in each end of the egg. Use a sturdy needle and press it carefully through.

Then, with a hot pin, sharp-pointed skewer or ice pick, enlarge the holes until they are about an eighth-inch in diameter. Hold one finger over the first hole while making the second hole.

Run the skewer or pick through the egg to break the yolk. Holding the egg over a bowl, blow gently into the hole in the large end of the egg.

Rinse the shells in cold water; let dry thoroughly. Rinse again in hot water. (Eggs dye best when hot.) Then quickly color the eggs. When dry, add special designs with bits of sparkle, pieces of rickrack and other decorative materials.

Attach threads, add a few balsa sticks dyed or painted to match your decor - and you've got a mobile.

There's no need to waste the egg contents. Serve scrambled for supper. Or refrigerate them and use within a day or two in cakes, cookies, custards or omelets.

Initiates Power Club Building

By Mrs. Ritchie Harris
The Florida Power employees club held open house in its newly remodeled club house Saturday evening with a fried chicken dinner complete with all the trimmings.

The group is most happy with the new club house and showed it by turning out Saturday evening with an approximate 200, which included members and their families and a few guests.

President Don Coyne and his committee did a bang-up job with this open house affair and this building does a much better job of representing the Florida Power Corporation employees club than the former one.

Homemakers

By Mrs. H. L. Johnson

Hello. The response has been simply great on the recipes used at the recent cooking school. I am very glad that they were enjoyed.

Here are a few more that are in the recipe books given to us.

ORANGE BUTTER
8 oranges
5 lbs. sugar
1 can crushed pineapple
1 lb. butter
Grind oranges and squeeze juice. You will need 4 cups of orange rind and 4 cups juice. Add to sugar, pineapple and butter. Bring to rapid boil and boil slowly 45 minutes. Stir to prevent sticking. Pour in sterilized jars and seal.

FLORIDA HASH
1/2 lb ground beef
1 large onion, diced
2 tbsps. shortening
1 large green pepper, diced
2 cups or 1 can tomatoes
1 cup cooked rice
1 tsp. chili powder
1 tsp. salt
dash of pepper
Brown beef, onion and green pepper in shortening. When onion and pepper are tender add tomatoes, rice and seasonings. Simmer with lid off until juice is cooked down as much as you desire. Makes 6 servings.

BEEF AND BEANS SKILLET DINNER
1/2 lb. stew beef
2 tbsps. cooking oil
1 medium onion, chopped
1 cup celery, chopped
2 No. 303 cans green beans
1 tsp. cornstarch
1 tsp. soy sauce
1/2 cup water or mushroom liquid
1 small can mushroom buttons, drained
Brown beef in oil. Add onions, beans and celery; cook 4-6 minutes, stirring often. Combine cornstarch, soy sauce and liquid. Add with mushrooms to beef mixture. Stir; cover and cook over medium heat or at 300 degrees in electric skillet for about 1 hour or until meat is tender. Serves 6.

BACON AND TURKEY SALAD BOWL
1/2 lb. bacon
1 cup diced turkey (cooked)
1 large head lettuce
3 tbsps. diced onion
1/2 cup crumbled blue cheese
1/2 avocado, peeled and cubed
2 tbsps. diced pimiento
French dressing
Cut bacon into 1/2-inch pieces and pan-fry slowly until crisp. Drain. Break lettuce into bite-size chunks in a salad bowl and sprinkle with onion. Scatter bacon, turkey, blue cheese, avocado and pimiento over top. Serve with French dressing. Serves 4.

SAGE PORK LOIN ROAST
3 lbs. pork loin roast
1 tbsps. cornstarch
1/2 tsp. pepper
10 oz. can consommé
Place roast on rack in open roasting pan. Roast in slow oven (325 degrees) for about 2 1/2 hours. Mix cornstarch, sage and pepper in saucepan. Gradually add consommé. When blended stir and simmer over low heat for 5 minutes or until clear and thickened. Spread sauce over roast during last 45 minutes of cooking time. Any remaining sauce may be used as a dip.

FRANKO SNACK
5 (1/2 lb.) frankos, sliced pennywise
12 oz. pkg. corn muffin mix
salted peanuts, oregano or garlic salt
2 cups shredded process cheese
Prepare pkg. corn muffin mix according to directions on pkg. Spread in 13 1/2 by 10 1/2 inch jelly roll pan rubbed with shortening. Arrange frank slices over prepared corn muffin mix. Top with peanuts, oregano or garlic salt. For variety you may use all three, topping one-third of the pan with peanuts, one-third with oregano, and the last one-third with a light touch of garlic salt. Sprinkle cheese over all. Bake in a hot oven (400 degrees) 15 to 20 minutes, or until the cheese

'Highways Are Flower Ways' Theme Of S. Seminole Annual Flower Show

By Jane Caselberry
The theme for the successful flower show held recently by the South Seminole Garden Club at the Woman's Club in Casselberry was "Highways Are Flower Ways" and emphasized the scenic beauty found on the highways of our state.

Over 170 persons visited the show, which was the second such event held by the South Seminole Club.

Mrs. Oliver W. Holmes is general chairman of the show, Mrs. C. L. Leggett, co-chairman, and Mrs. H. T. Crittenden is club president.

Visitors were greeted at the door by hostesses at the "Welcome Station" and served orange juice and cookies which could be enjoyed at the "Wayside Park" provided as a resting place. Mrs. William Tilford was chairman.

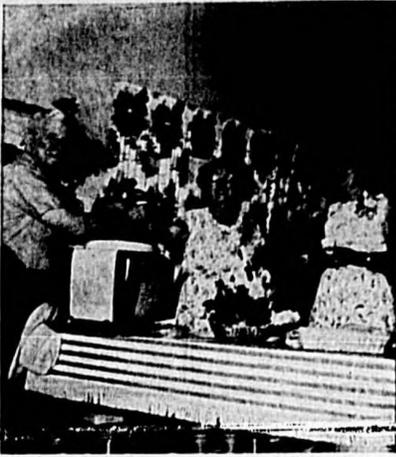

First stop on the tour was the "Chapel in the Village," a charming exhibit prepared under the direction of Mrs. Glen Humes, chairman.

A table top model version of a county or state park was displayed and conservation literature and posters were available. Mrs. Paul Watson was chairman.

"How Does Your Garden

Grow?" Mrs. W. J. Hartley, chairman, gave the garden clubbers a good chance to display their green thumbs and included a large variety of house and garden plants. In "The Flower Shop," Mrs. Fred Heuberger, chairman, arranged cut flowers.

"The Seminole Indian Reservation," Mrs. Kenneth Green, chairman, featured a small version of a chickee, carved totems, loaned by the James Birkenmeyer family, and a horticultural display.

GUS SAWYER, Town Marshall, is served orange juice and cookies at "welcome station" of the South Seminole Garden Club Flower Show by Mrs. William Tilford, hospitality chairman, and Mrs. O. W. Holmes, general chairman.

One of the most outstanding exhibits was that of the North Orlando Garden Club, the only outside group invited to participate. The patriotic display was entitled "Military Reservation" and included floral salutes to missiles, Army, Navy, Coast Guard, Air Force and Marine Corps. Chairmen were Mrs. Jesse Wallace, Mrs. Walter Blanton, Mrs. Carl Hyatt, Mrs. George Duquette and Mrs. Ralph West.

Mrs. Robert Lormann was chairman of the "Home On The Range" exhibit which featured a model ranch house built by her husband, and live plants and flowers.

A reminder of yesterday was "The Little Red Schoolhouse," Mrs. C. K. Fisher, chairman. The display included a one room school house complete in detail, a covered porch, and even the privy out back. The model was built by John Weir of Casselberry.

Other chairmen of an event included Mrs. E. P. Richards, staging; Mrs. L. E. Swope, hospitality, and Mrs. C. K. Fisher, publicity.

MRS. NED VOSKA, left, new member of the North Orlando Garden Club, admires patriotic corsages the members made at recent meeting to be worn at the South Seminole Garden Club Flower Show. Pictured with Mrs. Voska are two guests, Mrs. Phyllis Slusher, center, and Mrs. John F. Peasgood. Photo at right shows Mrs. Hilton Thompson, left, and Mrs. C. E. Rowell, hostesses for the meeting at the Thompson home.

N. Orlando Garden Club Prepares For Show

By Margaret Cooby
Final plans were underway at the April meeting of the North Orlando Garden Club for participating in the South Seminole Garden Club's Flower Show, which was held at the Woman's Club in Casselberry on April 10.

Since North Orlando is located close to the Sanford Naval Air Station, it was only appropriate that for the theme of their display they chose "Military Reservation."

Orlene Ware and Jackie Blanton did the arrangement for the Army; May Duquette, the Navy; Vera Anderson, Libby Atchison and Anita

Mayer, the Marine Corps; the Coast Guard was done by Barbara Landress and Etta Harville; the Missile by Lois Wallace and Jane West; Eileen Wyman, the Air Corps; and Polly Thompson and Gladys Piloian arranged a variety of vegetables in a display entitled "Mess Call."

Heading the committee was Lois Wallace, ably assisted by Jane West, Jackie Blanton and May Duquette. They received assistance from all quarters to help make their display an outstanding one.

April 20 is slated as Litterbug Saturday, and green trash cans will be prepared with

"Don't Be A Litterbug" in yellow lettering. These will be placed at all the school bus stops in the community.

Vera Anderson, chairman of the nominating committee, presented the following slate for the 1965-1966 year: vice president, Barbara Landress and May Duquette, secretary, Lois Wallace and Libby Atchison; treasurer, Polly Thompson; reporter, Orlene Ware; chaplain, Gladys Piloian and Jackie Blanton.

No one was named for the office of president. At the May 13 meeting, nominations will be received from the floor and elections held. Installation of officers is scheduled for the annual banquet in June.

In view of the fact that the schedule for April is so full, the monthly bake sale has been cancelled, but a full-scale sale will be held in May.

Mrs. Ned (Thelma) Voska was received as a new member and guests included her mother, Mrs. Phyllis Slusher, and Mrs. John K. Peasgood.

The club voted to donate $50 toward the beautification month prizes. Details will be announced by the chairman, Mrs. Carl Hyatt.

Mrs. Fred Wyman won the door prize of attractive floral terry guest towels.

Following the regular meeting, members made red, white and blue corsages using red and white carnations, white ribbon, blue and white tulle and miniature American flags. They wore these corsages while hosting their display at the South Seminole Garden Club Flower Show.

Mrs. Hilton Thompson set a lovely buffet table for this meeting at her home on 4 Algiers Road and was graciously assisted by Mrs. C. E.

Rowell. The lime sherbet punch had an artificial orchid floating in it; there was a delicious white cake scattered with purple violets as decoration, and the centerpiece was an Easter rabbit with lilies tucked in the grass at his feet. "The May 13 meeting will be a pleasure evening with games appropriate to garden clubbers," announced program chairman, Lois Wallace. This meeting will be at the home of Gladys Piloian with Eileen Wyman co-hostess.

Mrs. Long Favors Past Noble Grands At Lodge Meet

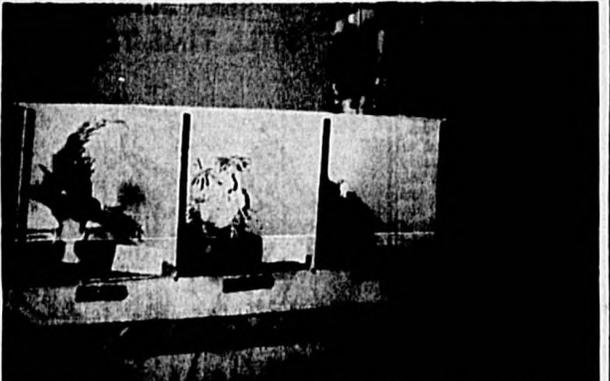

By Mrs. Clarence Snyder
Seminola Rebekah Lodge No. 43 met recently with Mrs. Louise Long, noble grand, presiding.

Mrs. Long asked to have the past noble grands presented. She read a poem extolling the virtues of all past noble grands. She then presented each one a gift.

Refreshments were served following the meeting.

There will be a meeting of the FLT club at the hall April 20 at 7:30 p.m. All members are asked to be present as they will practice the initiatory work.

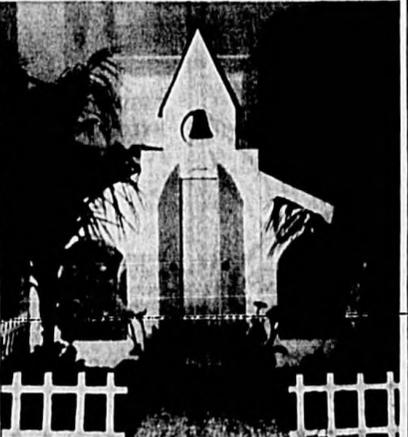

A simple way to improve the looks and flavor of broiled fish fillet; add chopped parsley or pimento combined with melted butter.

MILITARY RESERVATION was authentically displayed by the North Orlando Garden Club at the South Seminole Garden Club Flower Show. Floral tributes saluted all branches of the Armed Forces.

INDIAN RESERVATIONS

CHAPEL IN THE VILLAGE

BIRD SANCTUARY was the theme of this display, with Mrs. Milton Tinsley of Altamonte Springs chairman, featuring all types of feeders, bird houses, and baths to entice our little feathered friends.

Garden Club Of Lake Mary Plans Forthcoming Events

By Frances Wester
The April meeting of the Lake Mary Garden Club was held at the home of Jean Norris in Little Venice with Mary Ann Tillis as co-hostess.

The president, Alyce Lansing, conducted the business session. She announced that word had been received from the Chamber of Commerce of Lake Mary giving approval and stating that the organization was pleased to know that the club had chosen the project of beautifying the grounds surrounding the Welcome to Lake Mary signs. The word "GO" was given to the members to start on the job of getting plants planted.

The members decided on an annual function for the club. This will be a graduation tea for the girls, the daughters and granddaughters of the members, and an open house for the boys, the sons and grandsons. Final arrangements will be announced later. Ettie Jane Keogh was asked to be chairman.

There will be no regular monthly meeting of the club in May. Instead, a cook-out has been planned for the members and their husbands to be held at the home of Irene Hess and Phyllis Rugenstein on May 15 at 6 p.m. Each family is to furnish its own meat and a covered dish. The table service and coffee and iced tea will be furnished by the hostess. Every member is urged to plan to attend for an evening of fun and chance to get acquainted with each other.

The program for the evening was given by Jean Norris on the subject of "Day Lilies." She told about the many kinds and how to care for them. Being an avid lover of flowers, she took the group on a tour of her lovely yard to show that she knew what she was talking about. The flower beds were a picture of beauty and pleasing to the eyes to behold.

Twenty-one members were present and one visitor, Mrs. Pippin, one of Jean's neighbors.

For a new flavor, mix eight eggs with 1/2 cup milk, 1/4 cup shredded sharp cheese, 1 tablespoon chopped parsley and salt and pepper. Then scramble as usual.

Dear Abby:

By Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: Dad passed away nine years ago, and Mother recently. While going through their things I came across Dad's and Mother's old love letters, written to each other before they were married, 63 years ago. I read them and enjoyed them very much. I let my daughter and granddaughters read them, and they also enjoyed them. My brother, who lives in another state, recently came here for his vacation. I tried to show him the letters, but he refused to look at them. He said they were "private" and should have been left private. It hurt me deeply. They were nice clean letters, and nothing to be ashamed of. I didn't think I was wrong to read them, but I would like your opinion.

HURT DEEPLY

DEAR HURT: Your brother was right. Unless your mother willed those letters to you, suggesting that she WANTED you to read them, you were wrong to have invaded her privacy.

DEAR ABBY: I am a 16-year-old girl with a big problem. How do you stop a rumor that is going around about you? Please answer me in the paper as my mother would wonder why I got a letter from you. Thank you, and hurry.

RUMOR GIRL

DEAR GIRL: You cannot shut people's mouths. But actions (yours) speak louder than words (theirs), so behave in a manner that will make liars of your detractors.

DEAR ABBY: My mother-in-law and I are having a slight difference of opinion. She has a habit of walking into my house without knocking or ringing the bell. I do not think this is proper and I told her so in a very nice way. She says that she only does this to members of her family and there is nothing wrong with it. What do you think.

CONFUSED

DEAR CONFUSED: If people would treat their relatives with the same respect, courtesy and consideration they reserve for strangers, they would get along better. No one should walk into another's home without knocking or ringing the bell unless invited to do so.

DEAR ABBY: I had an experience four years ago which I wish to share with others who might be facing the same problem I faced.

I was a teenager and an unwed mother who discovered too late that "he" didn't love me. My parents' only thought (and mine) was to make him marry me. He wouldn't, and I didn't know what to do. After a long talk with my minister I realized that I had to do what was best for the baby. Marriage when there is no love is no good for anyone. Especially the child. I went to a home for unwed mothers and gave my baby up for adoption. It was not a horrible experience which marred me for life. Abby, I was at peace with myself for the first time in my life for I felt that I was doing my best to right my mistake. There I met other girls like myself, good Christian girls who made a mistake. And I made some of the best friends I will ever have. The hardest part was leaving my baby. Now I have been married for two years to a wonderful man, whom I love very much, and we are expecting soon. You see, this was such a small sorrow compared to the happiness I have now. And I know that my baby is happy, too, with parents who love her as much as I do. Just sign me,

Jacoby On Bridge

By Oswald Jacoby

One bid that the modern experts have three ways of playing is the single jump overall. Some play it as preemptive, others as very strong and the rest as intermediate. I play it either intermediate or preemptive and recommend the intermediate style for general use.

In this style the single jump overall shows a sound opening bid with six to eight playing tricks in the suit bid and a two-level jump and then to eight in the case of a three-level jump.

In using this bid it is most important to bear in mind that the single jump overall is a strong, but limited bid. It should never be made with nine playing tricks or with a flexible hand.

South's two spade bid is a

The bid gives North no problem at all. He has one trick for his partner and since eight plus one equals nine there is no worry about missing a game.

As for East and West they can make three hearts or three clubs but the two spade bid effectively stifles them.

South could have bid hearts over a double or a one spade overall but isn't strong enough to bid three hearts.

East could find a three heart bid after a single raise by partner. He can't afford to try a three heart bid all by himself.

South buys the hand at two spades. He tries the trump finesse in an effort to make three but the finesse fails and he just makes his contract.

We The Women:

By Muriel Lawrence
 Newspaper Enterprise Assn.
 DEAR MRS. LAWRENCE: I have a neighbor who's making trouble for me and my children with other mothers on our street. They won't let their children come over and play with mine any more. This woman has held a grudge against me ever since the day I took her little girl home and told her she was driving me crazy. The child is very crabby with my little boy's toys and that day I couldn't stand the screaming because I had an infected tooth and howling children. I think it was quite reasonable for you to lose your temper with one child too many. The trouble is, you don't think so. If you did, you would be done with the fact that you lost it. And you would be free to consider the possibility that you hurt this neighbor by saying her child was inducing madness in you. If you were done with worry over your lost temper, you would be able to experience a little worry over this woman's interpretation of it as rejection of her little girl.

Then, with genuine sympathy for her hurt feelings, you would telephone her and say, "The children and I miss Janie very much. It wasn't she who was driving me crazy that day I brought her home. It was my infected tooth. The truth is, I think Janie is a fine child and wonder if you'd let her come over this afternoon to play with Bobby and his sisters."

But we can't repair the hurts we do to other people so long as our concern is centered on our badness in giving the hurts.

This kind of selfishness is not the kind mother and father warned us against. They made selfishness our unwillingness to let our brothers and sisters take our toys—and never said one word about the kind that loves to brood and brood over one's sins until there isn't an inch of room left in one's head for the thought: "Why, I guess I hurt that neighbor by saying 'Your child is driving me crazy!' I must have wounded her by giving her the impression that I had 'fantastic objectionable and don't want her around any more!'"

I suggest you postpone approaching this neighbor until you're done with all this selfish interest in your own behavior. She's angry at you and if there is lingering anger in you at yourself, you will start fighting her angry accusations instead of hearing the hurt behind them.

At lunch the other day I met a most interesting young woman. I say young because she is on her birthday this month she will be forty-three. And she is the mother of fifteen children; yes, I said fifteen.

Ottile King is the wife of Henry B. King, President of the U. S. Brewers Association. She is a good-looking brunette, and on the day we met she wore a turban of soft yellow and her coat was of soft beige and brown in angora wool.

Ottile King is a native New Yorker (which is rather rare) and was educated in music. She has a fine voice and finds or makes time to sing in her church choir. Before her marriage she worked, as she puts it, for a "small town" newspaper, a weekly. She wrote features, drama reviews and political sidelights, but gave it up for her career as a wife and mother. (I hear that she contributes articles to "baby" magazines also—and who could it better?)

I asked how she managed with ten boys and five girls. She told me that her mother and father live with her and on occasions where an average family would buy one turkey, she buys three. After dinner is over, she has several "automatic" dishwashers at work—she lines up all the little Kings at the sink!

I wanted to know how she bought their clothes. "Well," she said with a smile, "I dress them all alike until high school age. Then they must have individual clothes—but until then the boys all have gray flannel suits and camel's hair coats, which are passed down the line. The girls also have matching coats." The Kings have a large old house in New Jersey where they have, I feel sure, lots of fun together. Mr. King must travel frequently and it is up to Mrs. King to manage the household.

She told me a cute story about a summer when she bought plaid pants for the entire group. One day, at the beach, Mr. King arrived just as a storm came up and he rushed out to bring the children in. On a small boy protesting vigorously, but Mr. King insisted she come in. Finally, he got the reason for refusal—the small boy was in "King" pants, but he was a neighbor's boy. There is another story that Mr. King, hearing someone talking about a small boy named "Tony," turned to his wife and asked, "Have we got a Tony?"

Forty-three isn't maturity but we want to claim Ottile King as one of our "Career After Forty" highlights. She has a great career, and also does many things for the community in which she lives. She is an accomplished dressmaker, but says, "I now make one or two household things such as drapes and bedspreads." The Kings travel extensively and when the Association has important affairs she and Henry King are right there and are the first couple on the dance floor.

Fifteen children are her responsibility as a mother, but she is also a real personality and I feel sure is an asset to her husband's career. Just think of the woman with no children and their complaint Tomorrow — "Dear Edyth Thornton McLeod."

Nation Eyes Oregon Disaster Plan

SALEM, Ore. (UPI)—Oregon's disaster plan proved such a spectacular success during the savage Christmas week floods last year that it may be copied across the nation.

A congressional investigating team was briefed on the system in January and several states have asked for details. Oregon's disaster coordinating council was born out of the state's bungling response to the Columbus Day, 1962, windstorm that killed 26 and left $170 million in property damage.

The 1963 state legislature made Civil Defense the whipping boy, and cut the agency from 18 to a staff of three concerned mostly with paper work.

Legislators substituted a disaster council made up of state department heads and what was left of Civil Defense. They made Gov. Mark Hatfield personally responsible for its success.

When the Baldwin Hills reservoir collapsed in Los Angeles late in 1963, Hatfield pondered what might happen if one of Oregon's great dams gave way.

Without any advance notice, he called the disaster council to a practice alert.

The "practices" imagined the collapse of the huge Detroit dam 60 miles southeast of the capital city.

The disaster council's response was a shambles. Communications in the command center failed. There was little inter-agency coordination. Imaginary refugees were evacuated to areas that would have been under water. Nobody could even find a map of the area.

Publicly, Hatfield termed the test a success.

Privately, he was terribly concerned.

The next day Hatfield called in state Public Utility Commissioner Jon C. Hill, a tough, outspoken, organizational genius. Hatfield ordered him to reorganize the disaster council, and to "make it work."

The Willamette River cresting at 48 feet at Oregon City—an amazing 21 feet above flood stage—Christmas Eve. Thousands were moved to evacuation centers.

The crest battered Portland Christmas day, and still more families were warned to flee.

Sunday night—six days after it had been activated—Hatfield closed down the command center.

Worse Toll Averted

The toll was fantastic—370 homes destroyed, 1,700 severely damaged, another 5,600 partially damaged. Three score highway bridges had been washed away.

Damage was estimated at $250 million, and 10 deaths were blamed on the flood.

But everyone was amazed the toll was not greater. The command center was credited with keeping the toll down. Hatfield and Hill have begun a detailed review of the operation.

Tucker Named President Of Outdoor Club

James A. Tucker, biology instructor at Forest Lake Academy, has been named president of the Florida Outdoor Club.

The organization, sponsored by the Florida Conference of Seventh-day Adventists, plans monthly camping trips to various Florida locations. Also slated is the annual meeting at Camp Kulquas, the Seventh-day Adventist youth camp near High Springs.

The next camping weekend is scheduled for April 23-25 at Ft. Clinch State Park north of Jacksonville.

Duke Slates Ambitious Cage Contests

DUREAM, N.C. — (NEA) — One thing is certain about Duke University's 1965-66 basketball schedule—it's ambitious.

Among the games scheduled are two with NCAA champion UCLA and one with runner-up Michigan.

The games with UCLA will be played on successive nights next December in Durham and Charlotte. The game with Michigan will be in Detroit Dec. 21.

It should be an interesting opening mouth for the Blue Devils.

Lyman Takes Trophy In Kiwanis Relays

By Jim Bacchus
Herald Sports Writer

The Lyman High track team put together a fine team effort yesterday in Eustis, outpointing Eustis and Lakeview High Schools to cop the first place trophy in the Eustis Kiwanis Relays. Lyman amassed 66 5/8 points.

Terry Toole garnered first place finishes in both the high and low hurdles races and came home with fourth place showings in the shot put and 220-yard dash.

Mike Ackerman finished first in the mile and came in second in half-mile competition. Dickie Posener finished first in the shot-put and Jack Blanton gained top-rating in the 440-yard run for the boys.

Lyman, coached by Rodney Umberger and Jim Farley, will take part in the Seminole County track meet this afternoon.

UPI Sports Writer

It's a new year with new faces and what's happening is sort of different.

It's not at all what Yankee Manager Johnny Keane thought he was getting himself into when he joined the American League champs.

The tone of Wednesday night's game was set early when rookie Angel outfielder Jose Cardenal led off the bottom of the first with his first major league home run off veteran Whitey Ford. The Angels wound up pounding four New York hurlers for 12 hits and a 4-3 triumph — the Bombers second straight one-run loss.

In other American League games, Baltimore whitewashed Chicago 6-0, and Washington defeated Boston 6-4. Cleveland at Kansas City and Detroit at Minnesota were both rained out.

In the National League, Los Angeles beat Pittsburgh 3-1 behind the two-hit pitching of Claude Osteen, San Francisco registered a 5-2 triumph over Philadelphia, Houston edged past New York 7-6 in 11 innings, and Chicago defeated St. Louis 7-3. Milwaukee and Cincinnati were idle.

Oriole righthander Milt Pappas, who bypassed an opening day assignment because of a sore elbow, stopped the White Sox cold on six hits.

A 16-game winner last season, Pappas whiffed four and didn't walk a man as the Pale Hose failed to place two men on base in the same frame.

John Orsino and Norm Sie-bern, who had poor seasons last year, led the Baltimore attack with two hits apiece. Pappas was supported by a stout Oriole defense that executed four double plays.

Second baseman Don Blasingame ripped a two-run triple off ace Red Sox reliever Dick Radatz to drive in the winning runs in Washington's victory. Pinchhitter Jim King's single scored the first run in the seventh and, after a walk, Blasingame drilled his game-winning hit.

Winner Buster Narum and Boston starter Earl Wilson belted the game's only round-trippers.

Engineers Stop Hunt Nine, 4-0

Doug Malicowski started on the mound for the Engineers Wednesday afternoon in leading his teammates to a 4-0 win over Hunt. Malicowski hurled three-hit shut-out ball and banged out two hits to go along with three hits by Harold Herbst to set the pace for the Engineers in their season opener.

George's held off a desperate come-from-behind rally by Sanford Atlantic in the final stanza to win 9-8 at Ft. Mellon Park. George's took a 9-1 lead into the last half of the last inning and barely escaped with the victory. Gordon edged with the victory. Gordon mounded decision. Tommy Whigham homered over the right field fence for the winners. Thomas and Youngblade for George's and Fruit for the Bankers paced the hitters with two hits each.

Eddie Padgett allowed the Shrine club only two hits as Civitan ran up a 7-1 victory Wednesday night at Pinehurst Park. Jimmy Patterson, Dale Davis, Mike Cobb and Padgett collected the hits in setting the pace for Civitan as they picked up their first win of the season.

In other Junior League play, CPO and Kiwanis battled to a seven inning 5-5 tie Wednesday afternoon and the game will be completed from that point on Tuesday afternoon, April 20th.

In the Men's Six-Pitch Softball League, Leroy Robb Construction opened their season by blasting USO, 24-5, in a shortened four inning affair. Jim Jernigan held the USO to four hits in receiving credit for the win. Rick Sires banged out four hits and George Griffin chipped in with three hits paving the way for Robb's.

Patrolman Day One Classy Pup At SOKC

Homer Herndon's Patrolman Day, one of the classiest pups to break in at the Sanford-Orlando kennel club in many years, goes for his eighth win of the season in tonight's featured 10th race.

The Hughes puppy breezed through the young champions competition this year without a loss. The white and brindle speedster won both qualifying heats then romped to victory by two lengths in the opening champions final.

SOKC officials expect the 68-pound juvenile to accomplish big things around the nation's greyhound racing circles before the year ends.

Only four evening performances and two matinees remain before the season ends Monday night with the running of the Au Revolv Handicap.

North Orlando Rally Stops Sunland Yanks

North Orlando erupted for five runs in the fifth inning against the Sunland Yankees last night to take a 5-1 decision in South Seminole Little League play at Cooper Field in Casselberry.

The winning pitcher in the affair was in the Cardinals' Paul Wallace who went the distance allowing only two hits.

Both of the Yanks safeties came in the third inning when Sunland scored its only run on a single by Chris Baigle and Rickey Rennels' double.

In farm team play Sunland beat the Cardinals, 14-12, despite a pair of homers by North Orlando's Robert McIntosh. Sunland's Bobby Elber also hit for the circuit.

Bear Lake and Longwood will vie tonight with the major league game beginning at 8 o'clock.

Strikes . . . Spares

By John A. Spolaki
 More and more bowling activity is taking shape in the forms of upcoming association meetings, plans for summer leagues and of course the popular end-of-season banquets.

Tuesday night, the gala held their meeting at the Unger residence in Lake Mary and made plans for the coming year. We'll have more info for you in next week's column.

The men's association will hold their annual meeting on Thursday, April 22, at the Civic Center in Sanford. At that time, trophies will be presented to the winner of the annual city tournament; election of officers for the coming year will also be staged; and a delicious meal will be consumed by those in attendance.

It looks like a real good slate of officers and directors has been offered by the nominating committee. Here's hoping that we have an excellent turn-out, gents.

Harry is now in first place. To add just a little more of a thrill to this tale, there are only four more nights of bowling in this league and only four points separate the top four contenders . . . Jack Kanner, John Bridges and Split-ski.

Time will tell . . . time will tell!

See you all at the Sunday Special from 11:30 'till 3 p.m.

MOONLIGHT WINNERS
 This week's winners of the popular Saturday Night Moonlight Bowling was Dick Owens and David Oldham in series. Each of the following won singular honors for high games: Eliza Oldham, Nancy Phillips, Lilly Fox, Doug Owens, Dick Bergtresser and Bob May. Another goodie for you to try with lots of fun for one and all.

Newcomer Earl Spear rebounded the one-three pocket for the Mr. and Mrs. League on Friday night and finished with the high for the Masters with a 210/586 series. First night he bowled in league, too.

And then from the distaff side, "oldtimer" (not age, just in time bowling with us in this league) Bonnie Stechy shot high for the gals with a 153 game. Aaaa way to fire you "ola pro," you!

The Thursday Kertler's League had some goodies turned in by these folks: Dale Nybeck 220/547; Doug Owens 202/573; Bill Brown 202; W. Spain 542 series and Wayne Morris 221/555.

And while we're paounding you with "goodies," let's take a gander at the Monday night Navy Intramural Bowling League.

Jack Frost was high with a 211/611 set. Others shooting into the "charmed circle" included Fahr 224/588; Cook 223/542; Haynes 224; Taylor 204; Henke 223; Farris 205; Clarence Henning 221/596; Lamy 222/538; Carmen 201/406 and Roy Hatchett 205.

That's a powerful lot of 200-plus games for one handicapped league, isn't it?

REASON ENDS

The Tuesday Women's Windjammer Scratch League, which bowls on Tuesday's at 2 p.m. concluded their season this week and it looks like we'll be in need for quite a few women who'd like to bowl Scratch. You know, the average reply when asked to join is to the effect that they're not good enough to bowl in a league like this. Well, it just isn't so! Everyone is good enough to bowl scratch as a matter of fact, it'll probably improve your average while learning a few tricks of the game, too.

Harry Pentecost is rolling the "Big Ball" nowadays in league competition. Take the Singles Classic League, as an example.

About four or five weeks ago, Harry was in the fourth or fifth slot in standings. Following Monday's play, in which he shot a big 845 four-game series and won four points from his opponent.

Braves Falter In First Tilt Under Lights

By Paul Glad
 What is it like to play a game in a new and unfamiliar element? The members of the Sanford Junior High baseball team can tell.

The Braves traveled to Oak Ridge Wednesday for their first night game of the season. They returned on the losing end of a 5-0 score.

All of the runs came in the first inning as Oak Ridge put together three walks, two errors and a hit for the five tallies.

After he recovered from his first inning litters, Bobby Lundquist found his control and allowed the Braves only four scattered hits throughout the rest of the game.

Leading Sanford hitters were Fred Weber, Don Robinson and Billy Gracey.

The Braves' record now stands at 7-3-1. Their next opponent will be Sanford Naval Academy.

Pleasure Horse Show Scheduled Easter Sunday

By Maryann Miles
 The Central Florida Horse Show will meet Sunday, April 18. It will be a pleasure show, with emphasis on Easter.

There will be 13 events, which will start at 2 p.m. instead of the usual 1 o'clock beginning.

Becky McDonald, who totaled 65 points in the past pleasure shows, will receive a $25 savings bond.

Judge for this show will be Judd Webster.

The events will be: Tot Lead Line, under 6 years; Western Pleasure, junior; Stock Seat Equitation, junior; Easter Egg Race; English Pleasure, open; Hunt Seat Equitation, open; Jumping, open; Bridle Path Hack, open; Stock Seat Equitation, open; Pony Class, 13 hands and under; Western Pleasure, senior; Stock Seat equitation, senior; and Easter Egg Scramble.

During the break, an Easter egg hunt will be open to all youngsters.

Entrance fee will be the same as previous English shows.

Big Three Pass Up Houston Classic

HOUSTON (UPI) — Top golf professionals went after $75,000 in prize money today in the Houston Classic, first big stop of the summer tour and a scramble made closer by the absence of some big names.

Goody shot a 63 practice round over the Sharpstown course. The competition course record is 65.

Masters champion Jack Nicklaus, Arnold Palmer and Gary Player decided they would pass up the classic this year.

Players for a trip to South Africa and Nicklaus because of television commitments and the coming birth of a baby to his wife.

With Jim Lucas, Mike Hargis and Matt Hickok in the outfield for South Seminoles.

The Hurricanes record stands at 3-2.

Froehling Seeks Win At St. Pete

ST. PETERSBURG (UPI) — Frank Froehling of Coral Gables, Fla., will lead the victory here, will go against Vincent Zarazua of Mexico in Thursday's St. Petersburg Masters tennis tournament play.

In the women's division, top-seeded Margaret Smith of Australia will take the day off while second-seeded Lesley Turner, also of Australia, will make her debut.

Mia Turner drew a first round match and then won a second round match by default. Thursday she was to play Alice Tynn of Gainesville.

Froehling took an easy 6-1, 6-1, victory Wednesday over King Thaxton of Palm Beach, while second-seeded Cliff Richey beat Dave Tate of the University of Miami, 6-4, 6-3.

In other matches fourth-seeded Torben Ulrich of Denmark, beat Dave Bonner of Gainesville, 2-6, 6-4, 6-2, seventh-seeded Ronald Barnes of Brazil, beat Steve Miller of Orlando, 6-4, 7-5, and Mike Belkin of the University of Miami, beat Ray Garrido, a Cuban refugee playing out of Mexico, 6-1, 3-6, 6-0.

'Canes To Meet St. Cloud Nine

The South Seminoles Hurricanes will travel to St. Cloud this evening for a return match with the Bulldogs whom they trampled 13-1 in an earlier meeting.

Coch Dave Miller of the 'Canes will probably send David Unley to the mound as the starting pitcher, with Mickey Hawkes as his receiver.

Bruce Stuart, Bobby Owens, George Milwee and Jamie Cornell will be in the field.

Lyman, DeLand Tilt For Trophy Tonight

By Jim Macchus
 Herald Sports Writer
 The defending champion DeLand Bulldogs will host Lyman's scrappy Greyhounds in the final game of the Orange Belt Conference baseball tournament tonight at DeLand. The contest will begin at 7:30.

The 'Hounds pulled out a victory in the last inning against Leesburg on Tuesday to gain the berth in tonight's affair, while the Bulldogs beat Leesburg on the same night to earn the right to defend their title.

Coch Jim Payne of Lyman's undecided on his starting hurler tonight. All of his hurlers are ready for action.

Canes To Meet St. Cloud Nine

Mark Brewer, Charley Newell, Steve Simpkins, Frank Ballentine and Tim Blair are among the candidates.

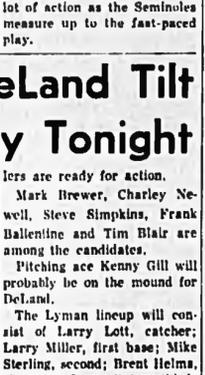

Pitching ace Kenny Gill will probably be on the mound for DeLand.

Lyman beat DeLand 7-6 in extra innings in the first meeting of the two teams earlier this season.

$325,000 Limousine Eyed For LBJ

WASHINGTON (UPI) — President Johnson may get a new $325,000 armored limousine whether he wants it or not. Key congressmen will insist on it.

"He didn't ask for it in the first place," said Rep. Tom Steed (D-Okla.), chairman of a subcommittee that secretly slipped funds for the bullet-proof car into a Treasury Department appropriation bill.

"We deliberately didn't consult him about it. We did not want to put him on the spot. But we will insist that it stay in the bill."

The President sent word to the Senate that he would not condone the expenditure. He asked that the item be stricken from the bill, along with an allotment of $197,000 for an armored "follow-up" car for use by the Secret Service.

The sums were included in an extra $3.9 million which Steed's appropriation subcommittee wrote into the bill for the Secret Service, to bolster presidential protection in a number of ways.

But no mention was made of the cars specifically, either in the subcommittee's printed hearings, its report to the House, or in the debate that preceded House passage of the bill.

Steed, who disclosed the plans later after learning they were about to be revealed elsewhere, said it had been thought originally that for security reasons the cars ought not to be mentioned.

Construction of the protective vehicles was recommended by a presidential committee in a report to a House security subcommittee after the assassination of President John F. Kennedy.

Although budget requests normally go through the President, this one was carried straight to the appropriations committee.

Promise Of Easter

If ever the world needed Easter, it is in the Year of Our Lord 1965.

Far too much of everything Easter symbolizes has been washed away by a torrent of suspicion, conflict, hatred and selfishness.

The one thing nations and people seem to have in common today is mutual distrust.

It isn't hard to build a strong case against the future, against any real hope of peace and understanding and the power of God.

The scoffers are ever more vocal as they deride fundamental precepts of decency and morality and good taste. The haters are ever more vicious as they seek to infect others with their poisonous philosophies.

Is there really any hope? The promise of Easter says there is. It says there is always hope for those who want hope, that there is always comfort for those who seek comfort.

If this were not so, the hope of mankind would have ended with the crucifixion. But it didn't. There was the resurrection.

Even today in a troubled world, a shaft of light pierces the gloom of discontent, disbelief and distrust. It is the eternal and indestructible hope of man that the power of good surpasses the power of evil.

The truth of this hope has been proved again and again. It is being proved today amidst almost overwhelming strife and turmoil.

If this truth is to prevail—and it must and will—it will prevail more easily if men of good will, faith and courage put their trust in it completely, confidently and joyously.

Good over evil, love over hate, hope over despair—these are ours for the asking, today as always, if we but believe in them and are willing to work for them.

This is the promise of Easter in 1965.

"FAITH IS LIKE A LILY LIFTED HIGH AND WHITE"

Nothing To Do But ...

Viet Nam has done at least one thing for the United States.

It has united public opinion to a degree rarely equalled in this country or any other.

The united opinion is: The Viet Nam situation is a mess.

The only substantial difference of opinion is on how we can best get out of the mess.

Shall we just up and quit?

Try to negotiate peace while we're losing?

Throw a real Sunday punch at the Reds?

Keep on as is and hope the nightmare will go away?

The whole thing is sadly remind-ful of the old saying: "When you get a mouthful of very hot coffee, whatever you do next is going to be wrong."

Wouldn't it be ironic if that turned out to be something Confucius said?

Thought For Today

For everything there is a season, and a time for every matter under heaven; a time to seek, and a time to lose; a time to keep, and a time to cast away—Ecc. 3:6.

Everything comes to him who hustles while he waits.—Thomas A. Edison, American inventor.

Phil Newsom Says ...

U. S. Aid Ready

For three years the United States withheld economic aid from British Guiana out of a conviction that Cheddi Jagan, its East Indian-descended premier, intended to establish it as the first Marxist nation on the mainland of South America.

Geographically, British Guiana is hardly more than a dent on the northern South American coast, but it borders both Brazil and Venezuela which are important targets of Communist infiltration, and it has easy access to Castro's Communist Cuba.

Jagan, who makes no bones about his Marxist leanings, also is an admirer of Castro and received important help from the Cuban leader in his running battles with the colony's Negro population and the British.

Jagan is the leader of British Guiana's East Indian group which makes up about 42 per cent of its population. In three years of rule, Jagan not only had wrecked the colony's economy but also had succeeded in setting East Indians and Negroes at each others' throats.

Negroes make up 38 per cent of the population. The remainder is a mixture.

Last December, in general elections held under new rules of proportional representation imposed by the British colonial office, Jagan lost his job. Into office went Negro leader Forbes Burnham, regarded as a moderate, in coalition with a smaller party led by Peter D'Agular, a Portuguese businessman.

Burnham, like Jagan, demands early independence and, like Jagan, he is unlikely to get it. But he tackles his job with the best wishes of the United States and Britain.

The United States is reported about ready to extend $3 million in economic aid and the British government has pledged $7 million in development funds.

Much of the money is expected to go into public works with the immediate objective to relieve unemployment. Public buildings will be restored and roads built. Private investors also are showing renewed faith. They have purchased more than $3 million in government bonds and the Reynolds Metals Co. is reported considering expansion of its bauxite operations.

In his government, Burnham has included all elements of British Guiana's population and a state objective is to gain the faith of the East Indians.

Unfortunately, the divisive elements remain. Jagan's party still controls 24 of the colony's legislative seats but continues to Boycott the legislature.

A visit by British Colonial Secretary Anthony Greenwood made no progress toward healing the rift.

During his visit more than 100 acres of sugar cane and more than 100 telegraph poles were destroyed as a sign of protest. And there are threats that the violence which in projection months took more than 170 lives may be renewed.

Economically, British Guiana depends upon sugar, rice, bauxite and hardwoods. Even with peace restored there is little hope that it could become self-supporting.

And with Jagan's East Indians now restored there is little hope that it could become self-supporting.

And with Jagan's East Indians now resorting to a demand for partition, both peace and a viable economy seem far away.

Dick West's The Lighter Side

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Somebody down at the Agriculture Department has figured out that the sex appeal of an unmated female tobacco hornworm moth is equal to that of a 15-watt light bulb.

This is something to think about as we look ahead to National Insect Electrocutor Week, which is coming up in May.

Rating the allure of a lady hornworm in terms of wattage is the latest in a series of dirty tricks that the department has been springing on insects.

First is was the sterilization of the screwworm fly. The department found that if a certain number of male flies were rendered hors de combat, so to speak, the entire screwworm population would eventually disappear.

Then came synthetic gyp moth attractant. The boys in the lab managed to isolate whatever it is that makes girl moths appealing to boy moths. So they duplicated it chemically.

At last report, the department was baiting gyp moth traps with the stuff and dropping them over New York and New Jersey to test their effectiveness.

And now comes this blow to the lady hornworm's ego. Department scientists rigged up traps with so-called "black-light" lamps, which emit rays that are invisible to human beings but attract moths.

An average of four male moths were caught each night. But when two females were placed in the trap, the nightly catch soared to 15. Six females entrapped 24 males and 10 boosted the average to 48 males.

"Experiments showed that the addition of each additional female moth, up to a maximum of 10, was equal to installing another 15-watt light trap," the department reported.

I am not entirely certain what use the department plans to make of this discovery, but I imagine something like this will happen: Female hookworm moths will feel highly insulted upon learning that their stimulation quotient averages only 15 watts. They will immediately head for the beauty parlor and take other steps to get their wattage up.

One night a bunch of male moths will be hanging around a street lamp when a female flies past. "Whoo-ee!" they will exclaim. "There goes a 30-watter."

At this point the department's chemists will step in, produce the stepped-up allurements artificially and use it to entice the poor lads to their doom.

This make make tobacco farmers happy, but I feel a twinge of sympathy for the moths. Virtually the same thing happened to me once in Chicago.

Letters

Mrs. Austin, City Editor: Surely enjoyed your story about Dr. (Arthur) Nesmith's program for Kiwanis. I was particularly interested, for he worked very hard putting that together. I saw his clever drawings and he was most anxious about it.

He is serving on our education committee and doing a marvelous job.

I haven't talked with him since the program, but I know it must have been a good one and he must be very pleased that you took the time to quote so many statistics. In doing this you actually helped him get the important information to so many people, not only just those attending the meeting.

Walter's case is a perfect example of how the mind can interrupt the smooth functioning of internal glands. Fear can thus inhibit glandular action and produce not only a "dry mouth" as during stage fright, but apparently do much the same with the sex functions, too. Sterile wives, take note!

CASE V-464: Walter R., aged 40, is a business tycoon. "But, Dr. Crane," his wife tearfully began, "Walter has changed his personality in the past six months."

"He used to be a devoted husband and father. And he was a pillar in the church and in our Boy Scout organization."

"Now he has become a reckless auto driver and a heavy drinker, though he never touched liquor before."

"And he is excessively critical of everything I do, even though I work hard to cook things that he used to rave about."

"He calls my best dinners 'slop' and seems chafed with a desire to humiliate me till I burst into tears. Is he losing his mind?"

Walter is simply a platonic husband.

He feels so low in his own sight (for impotence is the Achilles tendon of man's morale) that he tries to gain a semblance of dominance by his excessively caustic criticisms of his wife.

Remember, the "bearcat" at the office is usually a "housecat" at home, who then tries to throw his weight around and regain a sense of masculine power by barking at his employees.

The boy who is a bully and is never happy till he can torment other classmates and make them shed tears, feels inferior.

So their tears are a solace to the bully.

"For that proves they are bigger babies than I am," is his secret thought.

Boy bullies are often bed-wetters whose families have "covered up" for them, but then still feel humiliated in their own sight, thus requiring that they reduce their complains to a even more babyish state, namely, crying in public.

So Walter is desperate. He feels that he might as well be dead, which explains the typical reckless driving of platonic men.

And when he can't stand the constant internal strain of worrying, he rushes into the tavern to drown his anxiety via whiskey.

Besides, he figures, as do these typical platonic drunkards after 40, that he can at least divert his wife's suspicion from his real problem if he staggers home inebriated.

"She'll just think my lack of ardor is due to my being drunk," is the way such men reason.

Besides, if she worries over his condition, that helps his ego for it means he still exerts some dominance over his wife, even if it is only a bid for her maternal love, instead of her sweetheart ardor.

So Walter's case is a classic. Remember, alcoholism is usually the smoke screen behind which failures try to hide!

When it strikes successful men at 40, their typical "failure" is likely to be in the bedroom, though the wife may not have analyzed that fact!

So send for my booklet "How to Prevent a Platonic Marriage," enclosing a long stamped, return envelope, plus 20c.

Walter was snapped out of the sex doldrums within two weeks, so he quit his alcoholism, since it was no longer needed.

Alcoholism is like a fire escape from a burning building. Put out the internal emotional "burning" and the victim has little use for the fire escape!

"She'll just think my lack of ardor is due to my being drunk," is the way such men reason.

Besides, if she worries over his condition, that helps his ego for it means he still exerts some dominance over his wife, even if it is only a bid for her maternal love, instead of her sweetheart ardor.

So Walter's case is a classic. Remember, alcoholism is usually the smoke screen behind which failures try to hide!

When it strikes successful men at 40, their typical "failure" is likely to be in the bedroom, though the wife may not have analyzed that fact!

So send for my booklet "How to Prevent a Platonic Marriage," enclosing a long stamped, return envelope, plus 20c.

Walter was snapped out of the sex doldrums within two weeks, so he quit his alcoholism, since it was no longer needed.

Alcoholism is like a fire escape from a burning building. Put out the internal emotional "burning" and the victim has little use for the fire escape!

Horoscope Forecast

Friday, April 16, 1965

GENERAL TENDENCIES: This is not a very important day or evening, although it is good to look in to whatever faces you that has to do with secrets that you want to know about, in order to handle matters on a better footing. Show that you can keep quiet about your friends and conditions even the tempted to explain them.

ARIES (Mar. 21 to Apr. 19) Analyzing well your obligations, knowing what others expect of you and paying bills is fine now. Put in a good day of activity. Then have a delightful evening with your loved one.

TAURUS (Apr. 20 to May 20) Paying more attention to the viewpoints of associates, you can have far better relations with them, especially in small matters. Get into affairs of policy. Give them assistance they need.

GEMINI (May 21 to June 21) Impress those around by your efficiency and loyalty — be practical. Associates will then be happy to cooperate with you more. All of your affairs run far more smoothly as a consequence.

MOON CHILDREN (June 22 to July 21) Close ties and friends would be grateful for loyalty from you. Plan some form of recreation they like. Don't hesitate to bring your talents before the right people.

LEO (July 22 to Aug. 21) Know what kin desires from you and carry out plans. Get rid of whatever is no longer of real use. This will be quite easy to do today — others will lend a helping hand.

VIRGO (Aug. 22 to Sept. 22) If you use more up-to-date systems, you can get daily work done with greater dispatch, allies are more appreciative. Shop, visit, etc. Be sure you keep important appointments on time.

LIBRA (Sept. 23 to Oct. 22) Both small and big business, money affairs can be handled wisely so that you have much security in the future. Get advice from experts. Show that you appreciate their efforts.

SCORPIO (Oct. 23 to Nov. 21) Small personal matters can now be perfected to suit your needs, desires. Dress nicely and be out to visit with powerful individuals. They help you in your ambitions.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22 to Dec. 21) Every opportunity is yours now to comprehend that which has been difficult in the past. Think over how you want private concerns to progress in the future. Take right initial steps.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22 to Jan. 20) Adding to your circle of friends is fine at this time, so glad about hither and yon. Express your aims with right ones. Gregariousness pays off big dividends now.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21 to Feb. 19) Hitting it off well with powerful individuals will facilitate the accomplishment of whatever you have in mind. Increase prestige by being more dignified. Utilize energies wisely.

PISCES (Feb. 20 to Mar. 20) If you are broad-minded now and open your consciousness to greater ideas, you can get out of that rut you find yourself in. You can grow proportionately. Don't limit your capabilities.

IF YOUR CHILD IS BORN TODAY, he or she will be the possessor of two great qualities — imagination and perseverance, which will lead him or her very far in the world of business, finance or art. However, teach early that directions in stating aims is also a virtue, otherwise others will be resentful of the secretiveness in this nature. Send to college, if possible.

"The Stars impel, they do not compel." What you make of your life is largely up to YOU!

Mississippi On Rampage Toward Record Flood

Cities, Roads Under Water; Bridge Lost

ST. PAUL, Minn. (UPI) — The swollen Mississippi River rampaged through makeshift dikes and sandbagged levees today and rose toward a record crest.

The vast Mississippi created flood conditions all the way to Missouri, where Gov. Warren H. Hearns declared a state of emergency. Water flowed down the main street of Hannibal.

But the flood was worst today in the twin cities of Minnesota.

St. Paul and Minneapolis were in states of emergency. Most of the suburb of Lilydale was under water. The 150-foot Navy Island Bridge was ripped from its moorings Thursday night and swept downstream against a railroad trestle.

RECORD CREST
Downstream every one of Iowa's river cities was caught in flood conditions. Twenty-seven families were evacuated at Dubuque.

At Keokuk, U. S. 61 and 136 were closed and businesses and plants along the river boarded up their doors.

In Missouri, water crept onto highways, particularly at Ashburn, Louisiana and Clarksville.

Illinois Gov. Otto Kerner called out National Guardsmen in patrol levees along the Mississippi between Oquawka and Gulfport. The Quad Cities area—comprising Moline and Rock Island, Ill., and Davenport and Bettendorf, Iowa—braced for the worst flooding of the century.

MORE TORNADOES

CLEVELAND, Tenn. (UPI) —Tornadoes swept down the Cumberland Mountain chain in eastern Tennessee Thursday, scattering buildings and trailer homes "like mixed-up dominoes." One man was killed and more than 30 others injured.

Four tornadoes left between 100 and 200 persons homeless in communities from near Jamestown in the northern part of the state to near Chattanooga in the south.

A tornado also ripped through the community of Rosalie near Scottsboro, Ala., Thursday night, collapsing a general store and injuring a young girl.

Damage also was inflicted on the nearby community of Ida, Ala.

Another tornado struck the town of Moreland in North Georgia Thursday night, flinging a tree across a police car. Officers in the car were not hurt.

Winds of 40 to 50 miles per hour battered Gainesville, Ga.

Major Step

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (UPI) — An international conference on Cambodia appeared today to be the next major step in a negotiated settlement of the Vietnamese war.

Christians Mourn Crucifixion

THE LORD GOD planted a garden. In the first white days of the world, and he set there an angel warden in a garment of white unfurled. (This old poem by Dorothy Gurney certainly brings on Easter thoughts as 17-year-old Randy Board, of Cypress Gardens, poses among the Angel Trumpet flowers now coming into full bloom over Florida.)

Resurrection Celebration Set Easter

United Press International

Millions of Christians mourned Christ's crucifixion in solemn Good Friday services today and prepared for the joyful Easter celebration of his resurrection.

In many cities, special services brought Christians of varied denominations under one roof. Businessmen attended downtown services.

Good Friday observances ranged from a drama called "Christ in the Concrete City," presented by a Chicago ministerial association, to a colorful Spanish Easter procession in New York City.

President Johnson was at his Texas ranch for the Easter weekend.

Sunrise services, many in scenic outdoor settings, and gala parades were scheduled for Easter Sunday.

It promised to be a big weekend for travel. The National Safety Council predicted "nearly all" of the nation's 87 million cars would be on the highways.

The Burlington and New York Central said they were adding extra coaches for holiday runs.

United Air Lines scheduled extra flights to Seattle, Wash., Newport News, Va., and Honolulu, Hawaii.

The climactic Holy Week observances were marred for many by a series of natural disasters which started Palm Sunday when tornadoes killed 243 persons in five Midwest states.

Floods brought misery to thousands more in Minnesota, Iowa, and other states.

BERLIN (UPI) — West Berliners by the thousands stream past armed Communist guards into East Berlin today to spend Good Friday with their friends and relatives.

By noon, about 80,000 of the 98,000 West Berliners who had Good Friday passes had walked through checkpoints in the wall.

Similar numbers are expected to visit East Berlin during the weekend and on Monday, which is a holiday in Germany.

The Communists opened the Berlin wall for Easter visits last Monday. It will slam shut again at midnight, April 25.

Mrs. Beverly Carol Alewine probably will be formally charged this afternoon with the murder of her husband, Tony.

Sheriff J. L. Hobby said this morning that investigation in the fatal shooting has progressed to the point where Mrs. Alewine will be brought before County Judge Carlyle Housholder for possible formal charges this afternoon.

Details are still sketchy in the slaying, which occurred in the early morning hours Thursday in the bedroom of the Alewine apartment at 1007 Park Avenue.

The sheriff's office says the slaying was the culmination of an argument between the dead man and his wife, after Alewine returned home shortly before 4 a. m.

He was shot below the right eye with a German-made .22 caliber revolver and was dead on arrival at Seminole Memorial Hospital.

Gramkow Funeral Home will send the body to Lavonia, Ga., today for funeral services and burial.

1965 Years Ago Today

By Theresa Marie Estes
(Nine-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Tracy Estes, of Longwood and fourth grade student at All Souls Parochial School.)

A Man who claimed He was the Son of God was crucified today on Calvary.

The Roman soldiers arrested Him because of His claim and He was scourged at the pillar. A regal robe was placed over His raw and bleeding back and a crown of thorns was placed over His head to scorn His royalty and mock Him.

The soldiers forced Him to carry His heavy cross and He fell three times on the way to Calvary.

He was nailed to the cross and crucified between two thieves.

After three hours of agony, He died.

Easter Dawn Rites Slated At Air Base

Sanford Naval Air Station will host the annual Easter Sunrise Service for the Protestant community in Sanford and the surrounding area this year.

Services will be held at 5:56 a.m. Sunday in the Lake Golden area aboard the station. In the event of inclement weather the service will be held in the Seminole High School auditorium.

Gates of the Air Station will open at 6:30 a.m. and directions to Lake Golden will be posted.

Lt. Cdr. L. J. McDonald, senior chaplain and this year's chairman of the services sponsored annually by the Sanford Area Ministerial Association, has arranged for the nationally famous Naval Air Training Command choir from Pensacola to participate in the service.

Known as "The Navigators," the 40 young men who comprise the choir all are flight students in training, to become flying officers in the Fleet or Marine Corps. Of the group appearing here Sunday, less than half will be singing with the choir six months from now due primarily to advancement in the flight training program.

Director of the group is Lt. Carl C. Schott, USNR, who has spent 23 of his 29 years

Residents throughout the area are encouraged to attend the Sunrise Service which will bring an inspirational opening to the Easter Day.

In South Seminole, five area churches are uniting for a Sunrise Service at 6 a.m. to be conducted at the Lyman High School Athletic Field. Rev. Delmas Copeland of the Community Methodist Church of Casselberry, will be principal speaker.

School Supervisory Changes Approved

Seven changes in assignments of supervisory personnel of Seminole County Schools were approved by members of the school board in special session Thursday evening. Recommendations were made by the board of trustees.

Floyd Richards, principal of Lake Mary Elementary School, has been granted a year's leave of absence to continue her graduate studies at University of Florida.

In Richard's place Morris Ruby, now principal of English Estates Elementary School, will take over as principal of the Lake Mary School.

Mrs. Margaret Reynolds, former principal of Pinecrest School, now teaching at Lake Mary school, will be assigned principal of English Estates to replace Ruby.

James Murray, principal of Monroe - Wilson Elementary Schools, will become principal of Altamonte Springs Elementary School, replacing Frank Gore, who will move into the school administration office as supervisor of personnel and assistant business and finance director.

Mrs. Mary Groom, Pinecrest teacher and president of the Seminole County Educational Association, will be appointed principal of the Monroe Wilson School to replace Murray.

Thomas Richey, assistant principal of Seminole High School, will move into the school administration office as director of guidance and exceptional children programs. A new assistant principal at Seminole High School will be appointed later.

W. W. Wharton, present guidance and exceptional child director is considering several other positions, Mason Wharton, school board chairman, said.

Mrs. Penrose Love, principal of the Seminole County Business School, also has been granted a year's leave of absence to continue her graduate studies at University of Florida.

A special meeting of the House committee has been called for next Tuesday for the purpose of considering such legislation.

The validity of annexation of property by Longwood Highway 17-92, including Longwood Plaza and Winn-Dixie Store, has been questioned since the State Supreme Court in January declared all such annexations invalid and unconstitutional.

The Longwood council, acting in good faith, annexed the property involved two years and more ago, using procedure according to a legislative act passed in 1959.

In other business Thursday night, bids on the new aeration and chlorination plant for the city's water supply, as submitted by seven area contractors, were read. Bids were in three parts for the ground storage tank, for the aerator pump and chlorinator, and for pipe connecting aeration and chlorination plant to the existing tank.

All bids were turned over to A. E. O'Neal and Associates, of Orlando, for tabulation, study and recommendation.

DRIVER KILLED
FORT LAUDERDALE (UPI) — James Wooten, 67, was killed Thursday after his car swerved in front of one driven by a Broward County sheriff's deputy, knocking both vehicles into a canal.

Sheriff J. L. Hobby stated early this afternoon that Beverly Alewine has been arrested on a charge of murder and was to be arraigned this afternoon before County Judge Carlyle Housholder.

Longwood Asks Annexation OK

By Donna Estes

The mayor and city council of Longwood agreed Thursday evening to forward special delivery letters to the State House of Representatives urging adoption of a bill to validate all previous municipal annexations.

A special meeting of the House committee has been called for next Tuesday for the purpose of considering such legislation.

Everyone is "acting" around Sanford these days.

First of all we have an "acting police chief." Next, no doubt, there will be an "acting fire chief." Everyone wants to get into the act.

"Here I go again," said Sanford Street Department man as he began marking off parallel parking areas on First Street.

"Candy," which has been selling faster than Easter eggs on Good Friday, is not on the Sanford Library shelves. We notice Tampa has banned the controversial novel as well.

Charlie Morrison may have been married for 51 years but he hasn't lost his appeal. To wit: Two ladies gave Mr. Charlie kisses at the Mayfair Inn the other day. May-be winning more than the fee club drawing had something to do with it.

The Elks Lodge will give a steak dinner at the club May 29 for all those persons who donated to the Flood Bank three months prior to that date. Incidentally, Flood Bank hours are from 3:30 to 8 p.m. Monday, Tuesday, Thursday and from 9 a.m. to 2 p.m. Wednesdays and Fridays. Address: 1302 East Second Street.

Last Thanksgiving when the Coffee Club met at the Mayfair Inn, Host Everett Kerr was among the missing. It seems that a certain Blessed Event was en route. At the club meeting Thursday, Kerr was on hand with the evidence in low — beautiful Lauris Ellen Kerr.

Those U.S. Department of Interior vehicles you see around town are headquartered here but are doing their work in Volusia County. They are hauling survey mapping crews. They are engaged in sketching contours along highways and interior areas. They are not in any way concerned with surveying for rights-of-way for new roads or highways.

The "Entombment," a massive stained glass window and a masterpiece by Louis Comfort Tiffany, will be shown at Rollins College until 7 p.m. today in connection with Good Friday. The famous window will be on view at the College's art museum free of charge, Easter Morning serve at the Rollins College chapel also will be open to the public.
