War Rages On Thieu: Damper On Peace

By GEORGE ESPER Associated Press Writer SAIGON (AP) — President Nguyen Van Thieu said today that peace will not come to Vietnam until he signs a cease-fire agreement, and that his basic principles remain to be worked out. The Foreign Ministry said Thieu's government is ready to accept a cease-fire but no political settlement must provide for self-determination by the people.

Despite mounting expectations that a cease-fire agreement between the United States and North Vietnam was near, the war raged on with the highest number of Communist attacks since the 1968 Tet offensive. Nguyen Thanh Le told a news conference: "It was the president of the United States who proposed the date of Oct. 31 for the signature."

PARIS (AP) — A North Vietnamese spokesman insisted today that the peace agreement reached with the United States should be signed next Tuesday and added that Hanoi peace negotiators would be ready to meet again with Henry A. Kissinger when he wishes.

Nguyen Thanh Le told a news conference: "It was the president of the United States who proposed the date of Oct. 31 for the signature." He said Kissinger, former Nixon's adviser, returned Thursday to an "honest misunderstanding" about the date. Le said: "We don't believe there is a misunderstanding. It was written black on white in a message from the President on Oct. 29."

Indochina-At-A-Glance

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS Here are developments in the Indochina situation, following presidential adviser Henry A. Kissinger's announcement on Thursday that "peace is at hand."

WASHINGTON — The United States waits for an official signal from Hanoi to open the final round of secret talks which Kissinger says could bring peace to Vietnam in a "matter of days, or less."

TOKYO — An editorial in North Vietnam's official newspaper says Hanoi rejects U.S. efforts to prolong the peace negotiations and that North Vietnam is ready to sign the "already complete peace agreement," but the editorial did not mention Kissinger and it was not clear whether it was an official response to his comments.

SAIGON — South Vietnamese President Nguyen Van Thieu said peace will only come to Vietnam "when I sign the agreement." He said the only agreement acceptable to Saigon "will comply with our demands," and he said he will not sign an agreement in secret.

PHNOM PENH — Cambodia's undersecretary of information said Phnom Penh welcomes Hanoi's cease-fire proposals, including a pledge by the North Vietnamese and the Viet Cong to "respect strictly the national rights of the peoples of Laos and Cambodia."

MOSCOW — The Russian news agency Tass reported today that Soviet Premier Alexei N. Kosygin told envoys from North Vietnam and the Viet Cong that he hopes for a quick end to the fighting in Vietnam.

SAIGON — The war raged on today with the highest number of Communist attacks since the 1968 Tet offensive and continued but limited U.S. bombing strikes against targets in North Vietnam.

Nader Hits Hot Dogs To Solons

By GARY TAYLOR DELAND — Ralph Nader, self-appointed consumer advocate, blasted everything from congressmen to hot dogs as he spoke before a capacity crowd of Stetson students and Central Florida residents. Over 1,500 people jammed into First Baptist Church of DeLand, to hear the talk, delayed an hour and a half by a late plane arrival.

Nader and his staff have just completed a survey with information gathered on 48 U.S. congressmen. There was more information on birds gathered in the United States than on congressmen.

And Nader feels that his reports will have effect on the public, so that some day there will be more "Congress watchers" than bird watchers.

Much of the lecture was devoted to environmental protection and pollution. "We're not concerned about what we can't see," Nader commented concerning many people's attitude toward pollution.

"Imagine that all the pollution stopped being invisible and started showing up as red paint. The red paint would soon cover everything and the President would immediately undertake steps to clean up the paint. This could take $1 billion per week, $52 billion a year, and the people wouldn't object. Yet, he now spends $7 billion per year on all pollution control and environmental protection."

Nader pointed out that the larger companies control the economy, but not one of the large companies spends as much as five per cent of profit on pollution control. "The bigger the crime on the industrial scene, the easier they get away with it."

"Every day 40,000 companies dump contaminants in navigable waters. This is in violation of the 1969 anti-pollution act, which was not discovered until 1969 by the Justice Department... but at least they discovered it." The solution was to issue permits so the dumping wouldn't be a crime. Nader suggested that all the burglars be lined up and issued permits so there won't be any more crime.

As a fictional story to help explain the "crime" that the major companies get away with, Nader told of the man who ran an apartment house. The man explained it was an economical move and that he would be forced to move to another county and put three people out of work if they didn't let him sling his garbage on the other yards. "That wouldn't hold water, but why does it with U.S. Steel?"

Nader said his staff will concentrate more on health and industrial safety in the upcoming months. "Americans will not act anything, if it's packaged right. 'You'll never eat another frankfurter, if you know how they were made,' Nader told the crowd. He then went on to explain the process.

Viets Look To Big Deal

North Anxious To Settle War Before U. S. Election Day

By DONNA ESTES "The South Vietnamese government is just trying to get the best possible deal it can." This was the analysis of the present situation with the Thieu government expressing unwillingness to agree to the terms for a cessation of hostilities worked out between the North Vietnamese and the United States government in the view of former ambassador to Colombia Jack Vaughn.

Vaughn, guest lecturer at Trinity Preparatory School Monday through Thursday of this week, was interviewed by The Herald just prior to his departure for New York, where he will be involved with the Children's Television Workshop there.

The former ambassador in the Nixon administration and Peace Corps director from 1966-69 in the Johnson administration said the North Vietnamese are particularly anxious to settle with the United States prior to the election believing President Nixon will have "tougher" terms afterwards. The South Vietnamese at the same time believe leverage on both the north and the United States is at its maximum point now and will deteriorate after the election.

Vaughn gave his opinion that the South Vietnamese can now take care of themselves and

2 Jaxons Held For Drugs Youth Held In Theft

By BILL SCOTT Sheriff John Polk announced today the arrest of a 20-year-old Sanford man on armed robbery charges connected in the Oct. 25th robbery of a Lil Champ convenience store clerk at the Ravenna Park store.

Miller was identified by Joyce Eber, the victim at the Ravenna Park robbery and was lodged in the county jail in lieu of $10,000 bond.

According to Det. A. J. Calanoglo, the combined vice squads had staked-out the Lil Champ Stores in the Sanford area in anticipation of another robbery.

A line-up is planned this afternoon to afford victims of other robberies the opportunity to view the suspect with the hope that other such incidents may be solved. Det. William Lyons, Sanford police, said.

The Seminole County burglary squad headed by Sgt. George Abbig was busy Thursday and arrested two Jacksonville men on three charges each including grand larceny, possession of marijuana and possession of narcotic paraphernalia.

Dennis DeLoach, 22, and John L. Corbin, 26, were arrested by squad members Det. Jerry Capshaw, Robert Kunkler and Abbig and placed in the county jail on combined bonds of $5,500 each.

Nader Talk Hits Gurney DELAND — U.S. Senator Edward Gurney, R-Fla., is "about the most anti-consumer senator in the United States," according to Ralph Nader. Speaking at a press conference following a lecture at Stetson University last night, Nader went on to call Gurney "the most specialized special interest senator today. He doesn't represent the people, he represents industry."

Nader called Gurney a "stark contradiction" to Sen. Lawton Chiles, D-Fla. He called Chiles "the type of senator Florida deserved."

Nader, whose staff has compiled information on 484 congressmen, said U.S. Rep. Lou Frey, R-Fla., is in "perpetual motion. He says he can't live on his $42,500 per year salary."

Nader singled out Florida Democratic congressman Charles Bennett and Dante Fascell for their work. Bennett has one of the best attendance records in the history of congress," he said. "And Fascell is both pro-consumer and pro-environment."

Weather Yesterday's high 86 low this morning 69. Partly cloudy to occasionally cloudy through Saturday with a chance of showers mainly this afternoon and tonight.

Why Be A Christian?

By REV. KENNETH MILLER
Community United Methodist

Why become a Christian? Why put out all the effort to read the Bible, go to church three or four times a week, and spend a lot of time praying when we could spend that same time doing other things — hunting, fishing, partying, etc.?

The answer is because of the results. Let's face it — life wasn't made so we could have a good time all our life. There are certain demands that life makes on us. Little things like — making a living — assuming responsibilities of family life — keeping out of debt and so forth.

The results of living a Christ centered life are worth the time and effort it takes because they include: guidance for our life's work, fun without regrets, and inner calm and confidence.

You say that's what you are looking for? You ask, "How do I become a Christian? What's it cost?" Cost, you say? Why being a Christian doesn't cost a thing, it's absolutely free. Absolutely wrong! Christ offers us His salvation, but He demands that we give in exchange — ourselves. He requires that we commit ourselves unreservedly to Him. Remember, Jesus never encouraged anyone to become His disciple who hadn't counted the cost.

WHAT ARE THE COSTS?
1. Knock off the sinning — Commonly known as repenting. Repentance is a definite turn from every thought, word, deed, and habit which we know is wrong. It's not enough to be sorry for something and give some kind of apology to God. There may be sin in our life that we don't think we could ever get rid of, but we must be willing to stop.

2. Quit being selfish. Jesus' words were "If any man would come after me let him deny himself." To follow Jesus is to surrender to Him the rights over our own lives. Selfishness is not just giving up bubble-gum and candy for Lent. It is to say "no" to self, and "yes" to Christ. Christ doesn't call us to a sloppy half-heartedness in following Him, but to an absolute commitment. To make Christ Lord is to bring every department of our public and private lives under His control.

3. Confess Him publicly. Jesus said "Whoever denies me before men, I also will deny before my Father who is in heaven." Now the very fact that Jesus told us not to be ashamed of Him shows that He knew we would be tempted. He knew that because of our surroundings it would be hard for us to witness. But we must be willing for our family and friends to know we are a Christian, both by the life we lead and by what we are willing to tell others when the opportunity occurs.

If you suffer from moral anemia, (commonly called "no guts by the boys") take some advice and steer clear of Christianity. If you want to live a life of easygoing self-indulgence, whatever you do, do NOT become a Christian. But if you want a life of self-discovery, deeply satisfying to the nature God has put within each one of us; if you want a life of adventure in which you have the privilege of serving God and your fellowman; if you want a life that will give you the opportunity to express some of the gratefulness you are beginning to feel for the one who gave His life for you, then I urge you to give your life, without reserve to our Lord and Saviour, Jesus Christ.

Committee Recommends Move Catholics Want 'Say' In Church Rules

BISHOP H. N. ROBINSON (center), of JACKSONVILLE, named to head the 11th Episcopal District of the African Methodist Episcopal Church in August, visited Sanford this week while on tour of district prior to the annual conference held Tuesday through Friday in

By GEORGE W. CORNELL, AP Religion Writer
NEW YORK (AP) — More representative government of the Roman Catholic Church in this country, including participation of laity and clergy in choosing bishops, is recommended by a U.S. bishops' study committee.

Since local people are "co-responsible for the local church, they must be involved in an authentic way in the choice of the one who will lead them," the committee says. "This cannot be left to chance."

In early church history, the people elected their bishops. At present, provincial groups of bishops recommend nominees to the Pope, who makes the final choice. Bishops may consult lay leaders and priests about nominees, but are not required to do so.

The wide-ranging report, dealing with some of the sharpest tensions now affecting relationships between bishops and priests, presented some central questions for next month's meeting of the nation's bishops.

It also came amid keen protests by leading spokesmen for priests at the new Vatican restrictions, and on the heels of a lay-clergy appeal for setting up a national pastoral council as a voice for laity and priests in the U.S. church.

The study committee, headed by Archbishop Philip M. Hannan of New Orleans, says the church is at a point where it must find ways "to involve the faithful more effectively in the process of selecting their leaders."

"If all the people of God share in the responsibility for the continuation of the mission of Christ," the report says, "so, too, should they participate to some degree in the determination of the one who will have the most to say about how that mission will be accomplished."

The committee says priests, deacons should be set up requiring full, open meetings of clergy and laity for discussing and proposing nominees. This, the committee says, should give the process "a greater degree of acceptability than it presently enjoys."

Other recommendations include: —That formally recognized relationships be set up between the National Conference of Catholic Bishops and representative organizations of priests. —That representative priests should have a voice in national, regional and provincial meetings of bishops.

—That standards be established guaranteeing "due process" in every diocese, including procedures for conciliation, arbitration and impartial judicial hearings for those claiming individual rights have been violated in the church.

—That an interdisciplinary committee be set up to consider fixing limited terms of office for bishops. —That more Spanish-speaking and black priests be included in the American hierarchy.

The report came shortly after a U.S. Bishops' Advisory Council, made up of 50 priests, bishops and lay persons, urged creation of a national pastoral council giving clergy and laity a representative voice in the church.

The first photo above depicts the fact that even though developers filled in the marshy flood-prone area and dug a lake to take care of the storm drainage, when there is a heavy storm, in addition to the water going to a holding pond, it goes across the highway to Island Lake (bottom). The shore line comes to the edge of the highway shoulder and the photo of the lake illustrates the degree to which the lake level has risen.

Improvement Trust Fund, all deal with aspects of flooding and drainage conditions.

Recapping developments in the subdivision, on Dec. 2, 1971, Longwood City Council by-passed the city's zoning board and gave approval to the final plat of Winsor Manor which was to be constructed on a portion of the old State's Airport tract. The issue passed by a 3-1 vote, with the only dissenting vote being cast by Councilman Sandra Thompson, presently seeking the office of mayor in the December municipal elections.

Mrs. Thompson, at the time, begged for a delay in action in doing anything to short cut city regulations.

Councilman Richard Crenshaw said he was concerned with the first section of the subdivision being in low lying land and the plans of the developer were to dredge a lake for fill dirt.

On Jan. 28, 1972 the county criticized the city for permitting the development, and Mayor Brown "pool-pooled" the bars saying that County Engineer William Bush should have copies of the developers' plans before subjecting the city to criticism.

Nevertheless, County Commission Chairman Greg Drummond blasted the city for annexing the land and allowing development on floodable property after the county refused approval and warned no county tax moneys would be available to bail the city out when flooding occurs.

MARSHLAND
Bush said current dredging and pumping done on the property would have been in violation of the county's dredging policy. However, Palm contended that he recommended an 86-foot elevation and construction of a 21-acre water storage area. If the developer adheres to the recommendation, there will be no problem, he said. The county disapproved the idea of the tract which, in a goodly part, is marshland.

On March 13, 1972 the East Central Florida Regional Planning Council transmitted a letter to the Federal Housing Administration (FHA) recommending the agency deny financing due to the drainage problem.

POTENTIAL PROBLEM
The Department of Pollution Control approves the project provided adequate water and wastewater facilities are approved and that filling and excavation in and around the lake and streams be subject to review by appropriate state agencies.

The board of trustees of the Internal Improvement Trust Fund reported their dissatisfaction with the use of public moneys to finance such projects which are hazardous to health and life of Florida's wetland resources. They commented on the near destruction of the marsh north of SR 434, the possible contamination of the southern portion of the lake and the flood problems which will likely result from the reduction of the storage area of Island Lake.

The Department of Administration advised the FHA and Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD) that based on the information presented, the department finds "the project is not in accord with state plans, programs, and objectives."

Trick Or Treat For Needy Tots

Mrs. Harry P. Cochrane, Sanford area chairman for "Trick or Treat for UNICEF" project for Church Women United has announced that many of the children of Sanford will be collecting donations for the United Nations Children's Fund either Sunday, Monday or Tuesday, according to plans of the individual participating churches.

She stated "If a child here in Sanford is orphaned or sick or hungry, we all rush to help him. UNICEF provides us with the opportunity to give the same kind of help to children all over the world. Some of these children are the victims of war or natural disasters; others live in countries where malnutrition, disease and illiteracy are rampant.

"We can't rush over with a meal, or take these children into our homes, but we can make a contribution on Halloween which will alleviate some of the misery in which they live. Even a quarter goes a long way to help. For 25 cents UNICEF can provide enough antibiotic ointment to cure the children of trachoma; enough seed to produce 3,000 tomato plants, or enough BCG vaccine to protect 25 children against tuberculosis."

Mrs. Cochrane said, "Please help our children help other children this Halloween. Teach them that we care about all children by giving generously when you hear, 'Trick or Treat for UNICEF.'"

World Community Day, sponsored by Church Women United, Sanford chapter, will be held on Friday, Nov. 3, at 10 a.m. at First Presbyterian Church, Sanford, in the new Fellowship Hall. The theme is "A Coming of Age Celebration."

An agape meal will follow the program in which everyone will share in common some item of simple food she has brought that can be eaten with the fingers (such as sandwiches, carrot sticks, cheese sticks).

World Community Day Gift Certificate offerings will be provided. A nursery will be provided.

Beardall Avenue Holiness
Revival services conducted by W. C. Griffin, evangelist from Titusville, will be held starting Sunday at 7:30 p.m. at Beardall Avenue Holiness Church. Everyone is welcome.

Winter Springs To See Changes

By MARION BETHIA

Another probable innovation will be explored following a discussion last week with the city's CPA, Harold Hartsock. Reportedly, Hartsock has recommended several improvements in the city's financial structure.

Two public hearings will precede the meeting. One is a request by developer William Goodman for modifications in Planned Unit Development (PUD) zoning in his Winter Springs subdivision. The other is a request by Al Schacter, also for a modification of PUD zoning at his development west of Sheesh golf course and north of SR 434.

Council will approve on second and final reading an annexation of 20 acres north of SR 434 owned by Morton Silver. Silver has requested R-3 zoning in order to erect an apartment complex. The city has already annexed one section of his property. Council will sign a plat for Unit 3 of the Winter Springs subdivision.

Peace Is Now THE Campaign Issue

Probability of an end of the Indochina war has now become the truly overriding issue of more than the presidential election campaign.

Regardless of the thrust which brought the prospect into the open—and this is not at all clear as this comment is being made—the end result is what is important.

In three steps this bright hope for an end to the evil war in Vietnam burst on a world where this disastrous involvement of the United States had been an open sore.

First, there was the radio broadcast from Hanoi where it was announced that the North Vietnamese and the United States had come to terms for a signing of a peace agreement on Oct. 31st but the Americans had withdrawn.

Then came an announcement from Saigon where the government controlled radio made it clear that it "a separate agreement between North Vietnam and the United States does not concern us in any way." Nonsense!

But the most significant was a surprise press conference in Washington where Dr. Henry A. Kissinger, the foreign affairs and security advisor to President Nixon and chief negotiator in the search for peace, corroborated the Hanoi statement that the peace was at hand, and explained that the United States still had some talking to do but would be about that at once.

Those who have been close watchers of the Kissinger trips to Paris (where negotiations have dragged on for years) and to Hanoi and to Saigon agree that it must be concluded that such a train of events has been put on the rails that no one man or one group of men can derail it.

This we hope is a fact, but events must corroborate. Yet it must be born in mind that this tactic of Hanoi is geared precisely to the climax of the United States presidential campaign.

The intrusiveness of President Nguyen Van Thieu being shown now in a stubborn attitude towards accepting the trend of the peace agreement must also be observed with an eye as far back as the '68 election when it was the refusal of Gen. Thieu to cooperate in the start of the Paris peace talks which stymied them during that show-down election.

What will be most certainly carefully watched is the bringing of President Thieu into a reasonable attitude to these peace talks.

President Nixon, an avid supporter of the South Vietnamese president, can be expected to throw his weight into a solution which will not humiliate his protégé.

In the Kissinger conference it was obvious that the chief advisor was building up respect for the Thieu position and, in a gracious way, expected that when the final signing is done the hand of Thieu will hold one of the pens.

But the hard facts as they appear about 12 hours after the Hanoi peace bombshell was exploded (The White House took 11 hours to prepare the Kissinger reply) are that to the comfort of all mankind an end to the dismal tragedy in Indochina can be sighted.

While Dr. Kissinger brushed aside some of the things yet to be done, as little things, those who have watched similar peace hopes raised and then dashed by what appear to be incidentals are keeping their fingers crossed.

What impact this will have on the presidential campaign is obvious. President Nixon will be the political beneficiary. Those who would really be the true winners, however, are in two classes.

The people of both sides in Vietnam, whose long journey back to normal life (postponed about 25 years) could start are one. But the people of the world, especially those of the United States could breathe deeper and stand a little straighter with the exit from the Vietnamese jungles where we never should have been entangled.

Making Film Means Hard Listening

By JAMES MEADE

Copley News Service

HOLLYWOOD—Films are a feast and famine business. Production has been in a lull for several years. It would not be if all the traditional establishment producers were like M. J. Frankovich.

Frankovich has completed 10 major theatrical features within the last four years. They include "Butterflies Are Free," "Bob and Carol and Ted and Alice," "Cactus Flower," "Marooned," "The Looking Glass War," "There's a Girl in My Soup," "Doctors' Wives," "The Love Machine," "Stand Up and Be Counted" and "S."

Frankovich's "Ferry Carats" is shooting in Greece and will move to New York City and the Warner Bros. Burbank (Calif.) Studios, shared by Columbia. It remains Edward Albert, writer Leonard Gershe and director Milton Katselas, a trio from "Butterflies."

Liv Ullman, Gene Kelly and Binnie Barnes also are in the cast. Like any other volume project, there are some winners and some losers in Frankovich's list. The winners, such as "Butterflies," "Bob and Carol" and "Cactus Flower," are excellent. The losers are not that bad. They represent risks not taken by producers who produce only one picture in four years.

The secret of a successful production primarily is getting the writing and direction together, a formula that calls for dealing with large and sometimes opposing egos.

"Don't forget the producer's ego. He has one, too," Frankovich said in an interview. "Creative people are tougher to handle after success.

They put on ear plugs and tried to listen.

"I'd rather catch a writer or a director on the rebound after a failure," Frankovich admitted.

Campaign In Canada

Economic Trouble Slows Trudeau

By ERIC FORESTER

Copley News Service

OTTAWA—As the Canadian election campaign spurts into its final stages, it appears Prime Minister Pierre Trudeau may have had his promising upswing in popularity halted by a double dose of economic trouble.

Trudeau and his Liberals were slow starters in the campaign, but appeared to be gathering steam when the regular monthly report on unemployment and the cost of living was released for September in mid-October.

Unemployment, said the statistics, was at 7.1 per cent, its highest seasonally adjusted level since 1961, when it hit 7.2 per cent that July. The cost of living was bad news too—home consumption food prices up more than 10 per cent in the last 12 months.

That set of figures put the final touch on a battle which has been raging between the Liberals and the three opposition parties to isolate the major issue of the campaign. The Liberals desperately want to fight the election on their record of improving life quality for Canadians, of reinforcing federalism, and of following an independent foreign policy.

The Progressive Conservatives, led by former Nova Scotia Premier Robert Stanfield, and the main opposition party, would much rather tackle the government on its economic policies—inflation, the cost of living, and unemployment.

So would the next largest party, the left-wing New Democrats, led by David Lewis. They've been hammering solidly at the government for six weeks over tax concessions to industry. "Corporate welfare bums," David Lewis has called many of Canada's major companies.

The New Democrats held 25 seats in Parliament at dissolution. The fourth party in the race, and the smallest in the last Parliament, is the Social Credit Party. Led by Real Caouette, a northern Quebec car salesman with a 26-year record in Parliament. Caouette's party held 13 seats when Parliament was dissolved in late August, all of them in Quebec, and he hopes to win support elsewhere in the country on Oct. 30.

David Lewis got off to the quickest start in the campaign, and he appears to have made converts in his crusade against tax concessions for industry, but the New Democrat attack was ill-timed and appears to have peaked too soon.

Both Trudeau and Stanfield began their campaigns long ago, particularly the prime minister. Neither seems to be losing steam as the tempo of politicking escalates and both are being greeted by fair crowds.

The Liberals, though, is being heckled at many meetings, unlike his runaway sweep in 1968, and he sometimes reacts badly by heckling. Stanfield, too, is receiving some heckling. The stamp of difference on this campaign is the overwhelming use of radio and television— heavier than ever before—by all parties, particularly the Liberals, Conservatives and New Democrats.

While the Conservatives have been hammering away at the government's economic affairs since 1968, the Liberals have been exercising the prerogatives of government and dishing out what the prime minister frankly calls "election candy."

Slump After Vote Is Now Expected

Copley News Service

Examining market history in the immediate wake of previous presidential elections, Ralph A. Rotnem of Harris, Upham & Co. has come up with the following report: "The first and second post-election years have a bad reputation because 8 out of 11 bear markets of the last 50 years started during them.

This was true in 1929, 1937, 1938, 1946, 1957, 1961, 1966 and 1969 when the declines ranged from 19.4 per cent to 89.2 per cent. A study of the declines from the high of one year to the low of the next year shows that such declines averaged 80 per cent larger in the first two post-election years than those that occurred in the last two years of a four-year presidential term." Rotnem says it is only natural for the party in power to put its best foot forward and stimulate the economy just before asking voters to reelect it.

A high rate of industrial development is taking place in the area served by Oklahoma Gas & Electric Co. This is one of four major reasons. Kidder, Peabody & Co. likes the utility. Kilowatt-hour sales are visualized continuing to double every seven years. Common equity financing isn't expected next year.

Price controls haven't stopped Safeway Stores from boosting earnings to $2.31 a share for six weeks vs. $2.04 a year earlier, Buck Investment Letter notes.

McGovern Bright Spots Are Few

By BRUCE BLOSSAT

Having now completed a nationwide electoral count which shows President Nixon the leader by a commanding margin, I am combing my findings in search of bright spots for Sen. George McGovern. There are just a handful so far.

Once past strongly Democratic Massachusetts, McGovern is not ahead in any of the big northern states. As an earlier report indicated, California offers the clearest promise among the others. Persistent checking also turned up some signs of improvement for him in Ohio and Pennsylvania.

In those two states, labor groups appear to be combining with state Democratic organizations under Governors Gilligan and Shapp to build effective campaign groundwork. An air of optimism pervades their recent endeavors.

Yet top Democrats in both places say McGovern is unlikely to forge ahead in either state if he is perceived to be doing well in the nation as a whole. McGovern is said to be far behind in Illinois and New Jersey, and is not yet making up ground in the other two big ones, New York and Michigan, which Sen. Hubert Humphrey won in 1968.

An experienced analyst in Illinois said he would not be surprised to find Nixon's lead there widening rather than diminishing in the weeks just ahead. He is virtually no good reports. Paris of New York City heavily dominated by Catholic-ethnic groups are presently very bad for McGovern.

Michigan, shaken by the busing issue and possibly in a rightward shift, is strongly Nixon today. Key Democrats rest their hopes on the fact Humphrey was almost as bad off four years ago and still won the state by a fair margin.

At this stage, anyway, McGovern really has to look to lesser places for stronger hope. Missouri is looking up, despite the early heavy damage to his slim lead by Sen. Thomas Eagleton as his vice-presidential nominee. The object these days of enormous sympathy in his own state, Eagleton is humping hard for McGovern.

Reports from Minnesota likewise have McGovern on an up-curve, though sources there say he is nowhere near pulling even today. The last finding from the reliable Minnesota poll had Nixon 27 points ahead. It is old now, and Democrats are taking heart from their basically strong position in the state.

Wisconsin Gov. Patrick Lucey is laboring hard for McGovern, and the candidate has to be given a chance to pull it out. One knowledgeable source insists, however, that McGovern's Wisconsin prospects are being seriously overrated. In fairness, the state has to be listed as doubtful territory.

Veteran Democrats in Connecticut say things are being fairly well drawn together. It went for Humphrey last time, and a strong feeling exists that McGovern can repeat. Nevertheless, the decisive winning spark has not yet been applied.

If you could give all the states mentioned here to McGovern, plus a couple of small-vote states—Rhode Island and Hawaii—which he could get but doesn't have now, you would add 138 electoral votes to his current indicated total of a mere 27. Even so, that 165 still would leave McGovern a long way from the 270 required for victory on Nov. 7.

Beyond confirming the cynical belief that politicians rack up just a little ahead of confidence men in social usefulness, the question of political spying has to rate as the big-yawn issue of this election.

Buckets of ink have been spilled in speculation as to why this should be. Why isn't the public shocked at the red-handed catching of spies in Democratic headquarters in Washington's Watergate complex? Why aren't people up in arms over evidence that the masterminding of espionage, even sabotage, against Democratic candidates can be traced to the highest levels of the Nixon administration? Are Americans no longer capable of moral indignation?

Now the Republicans have counterattacked with charges of Democratic spying—even against themselves! We are reminded that Barry Goldwater was bugged in 1964.

The public's yawn only grows wider. Maybe it's because nobody has answered one question that is rather fundamental to the whole thing. Nobody, in fact, has even asked it. To wit: Just what is it that one party knows to spy out in the other party's camp?

Secret lists of fate-and-donors? But this makes it even more of a puzzle what spies hope to find in the Democrats' headquarters, besides old bills.

A secret plan to win the hearts and minds of the voters? But how could a party win the hearts and minds of the voters without letting the voters in on it? Campaign strategy?

Surely anybody with normal intelligence can guess pretty accurately what issues the opposition is going to zero in on. Surely each party knows its own strengths and weaknesses and can assume that the other party knows them, too.

Damaging personal evidence against a candidate? A possibility, though the Watergate bugging took place long before the Democrats nominated George McGovern.

Any number of other possibilities come to mind, but none seems very compelling. One is thus left with the feeling that the reason the public is not exercised over widespread political espionage is that the public doesn't believe that anything of intrinsic value is involved.

As Shakespeare might have put it: "Who steals my political secrets steals my life."

Donna's Deliberations

By DONNA ESTES

Last week Casselberry's Councilman Tom Napier announced he had submitted his resignation from the City Council effective October 30. Further that he and his family are moving from the city in order that he can accept a prestigious position with the Department of General Services of the State of Florida.

Napier, completing his second two-year term on the Council, had only days earlier made it known that he would not seek re-election to the Council and would not be a candidate for mayor either.

The councilman will be sorely missed not only in the city government, but in the community as well where he was so active in a myriad of endeavors ranging from the Cerebral Palsy drive to the Athletic Boosters at Lyman to the Lions Club.

In 1969 he was presented with the Good Government award of the South Seminole Jaycees denoting his devotion to duty in his elective post and the quality of service he attempted to give his constituency.

Tom could always be counted on to vote with the people and their wishes and never seemed to acquire the bad habit of some elected officials of doing what was best for the people, in their judgement, whether the people liked it or not. He also did not purport to be an expert on all matters of government, but was willing to change his mind and bow to the will of those who put their trust and confidence in him by placing him in office.

All good wishes are extended to the Napier family for success and happiness in its new home in Tallahassee and new fields of activity.

Calling All Candidates

One more week remains for candidates for public office in the cities to file papers seeking the various open offices in the December 5th municipal elections. There is also just one more week for those persons who have not availed themselves of the privilege of registering to vote in the city elections to do so.

In Longwood the word is that someone is circulating petitions to persuade incumbent Kenneth Brown to seek the office of mayor. At the same time the word is out that perhaps three or four additional candidates may throw their hats into the ring for the post of chief executive of the city.

Others have contacted former Council Chairman James Brown to ask that he run for the post. For the Council seats, rumor has it that former Councilman and Zoning Board Chairman B. M. Ferrell will run for the Council and that former Councilman B. L. "Slack" Helms is mulling over the possibility of running.

Casselberry Candidates File

Casselberry, with three seats on the Council and a split one-year term for the mayor's office up, has had incumbent Councilman John Leighty qualify as well as former Councilman Louis Kirby (incidentally as predicted in this column many weeks ago) former Assistant City Clerk Greg Driggers and Thomas Embrey as expected that former councilman Richard Wirtz, defeated in his effort for the mayor's office last year, will qualify next week.

For the mayor's office, Bill Grier, a former councilman and Cecil Harrison of the city's zoning board have qualified. Expected to qualify next week is Councilman Harry Sambrook for this post.

Irene Runs Again One of the most exciting elections, no doubt, will be in the City of Winter Springs where a woman has thrown her hat into the political arena for the office of mayor.

Mrs. Irene Van Espool, mayor of the city in the mid-1960's, qualified to have her name placed on the ballot seeking the office of mayor. Although incumbent Mayor Granville Brown has not publicly announced his intentions, it is anticipated that he will also qualify for re-election.

The entire City Council of five members is also up for grabs.

For the first time in three years there is going to be a real contest for election in Altamonte Springs. Sandra Glenn has qualified against incumbent Councilman Dan Dorfman for the district 4 seat on the City Council. Leo H. Ware has qualified for the district 3 seat currently occupied by Donald Myers.

Losers Sometimes Win Only 10 days remain before the general elections. Information for the statistically minded—Some 15 presidents in American history have been minority presidents elected under the electoral college system—either by the electoral college itself or by the House of Representatives—while not receiving a majority of the popular votes cast. Three of them actually trailed in the popular vote, John Quincy Adams, Rutherford B. Hayes and Benjamin Harrison.

In 1824, Quincy Adams received 30.54 per cent of the vote; in 1844 James Polk received 49.55 per cent; 1848 Zachary Taylor 47.35 per cent; James Buchanan 45.63 per cent; 1860, Abraham Lincoln, 39.79 per cent; 1876, Rutherford Hayes 48.04 per cent; 1880 James Garfield 48.32 per cent; 1884, Grover Cleveland, 48.53 per cent; 1888, Benjamin Harrison, 47.86 per cent; 1892, Grover Cleveland, 46.04 per cent; 1912, Woodrow Wilson, 41.85 per cent; 1916, Woodrow Wilson, 49.26 per cent; 1948 Harry Truman, 49.51 per cent; 1960 John F. Kennedy, 49.71 per cent and 1968, Richard M. Nixon, 43.4 per cent.

South Seminole F & AM Lodge 384 is celebrating "Past Master Night" Halloween and appropriately will have as its entertainment for the event the president of the Magicians Union performing a 30-minute show promising in mystic and delight folks of all ages.

The dinner and entertainment is being held at the First Federal Savings and Loan in Altamonte Springs.

Proceed With Caution, Is Warning On Peace

By F. T. MacFEELEY

Associated Press Writer Florida's Democratic congressmen greeted the announcement that "peace is at hand" in Vietnam with cautious optimism while Republican lawmakers hailed President Nixon's role in the peace negotiations.

The reaction from Florida politicians was perhaps typified by the differing views of two Florida congressmen on the House Foreign Affairs Committee.

Rep. Dante Fascell of Miami, a Democrat and a high ranking member of the committee, said there was need for caution but he hopes a settlement will be concluded quickly.

"The announced proposal would appear to provide the mechanism to accomplish what the United States set out to do, that is, to allow the people of South Vietnam self-determination," Fascell said.

Rep. C. W. Young of St. Petersburg, a Republican, hailed Nixon's "personal foreign diplomacy" as the stage setter for an agreement.

"I pray that the tragic events associated with Vietnam have convinced mankind that there are better ways to resolve differences between the nations," Young said.

Gov. Reubin Askew called the report encouraging. "I hope and pray there will be a cease-fire," Askew said.

Sen. Edward Gurney, a Republican from Winter Park, said he believes China and Russia brought pressure on North Vietnam to negotiate because of President Nixon's visits to Peking and Moscow.

"I am sure that North Vietnam has finally come to the negotiating table seriously because they realize they cannot win the war," Gurney said.

Sen. Lawton Chiles, a Democrat from Lakeland, said he has worked toward the end of the war since he came to the Senate.

"It does appear to provide for a cease-fire with full withdrawal of our forces and release of our prisoners," Chiles said of the proposed agreement.

Rep. Charles Bennett, Democrat of Jacksonville. "The announcement is the best news our country and the world have had in a long, long time."

Rep. William Chappell, Democrat from Okaloosa. "We must point out the South Vietnamese government, struggling to retain power of that nation, also has a million-man army, factions of which possibly could turn dissident and endanger the few thousand Americans still there."

Rep. Paul Rogers, Democrat from West Palm Beach. "All Americans are grateful to the President and Mr. (Henry) Kissinger for their efforts to achieve a lasting peace and insure the return of our prisoners of war. We are praying for a successful conclusion to the negotiations and for the welfare of our brave men remaining in Vietnam."

Rep. Claude Pepper, Democrat of Miami. "It sounds like what President (Franklin) Roosevelt called an 'itty' kind of statement. It might have some relevance to the election, but if it is a bonafide agreement and not speculation for political purposes we all welcome it."

Rep. James Haley, Democrat of Sarasota. "While the terms are sketchy, the one thing I will be taken care of in the negotiations is release of our prisoners and hold them (North Vietnamese) accountable for any person that might be missing."

Reynolds also testified Ellison's appraisers consulted with experts on land assessment in the state Bureau of Revenue on many occasions to make sure correct methods were being followed.

The seven counties—Pinellas, Lee, Sarasota, Alachua, Martin, Desoto and Charlotte—called several expert witnesses to the stand who testified that Ellison's ratio study was built on unsound appraisal and statistical techniques.

Dr. Francis Woodward, chairman of the Department of Economics at Wichita State University, said the ratios "are woefully inadequate and in no way—except by pure accident—represent the level of assessment that prevails in these counties."

School Board OKs Mother's Walk Plea

By BILL SCOTT
Seminole County School Board Wednesday night approved low bids totaling $133,800 from Williams Developers of Orlando for construction of two vocational buildings, one each at Sanford Middle and Lyman High Schools.

Since the board had budgeted just $100,000 for the structures, the high bids brought on a discussion between board and a member of Gutmann, Dragash and Matz, architects firm that drew up plans for the two prefabricated metal buildings.

A. F. Keeth, board chairman, questioned how the board could pay for the structures in light of the bids, which amounted to $11.15 a square foot, $33,800 more than the amount budgeted.

Walter Teague, school finance officer, advised the board could take the money from other budgeted items, for which expenditures have not been made, then when state recalculation funds are received, the board can replace those spent funds as a means of funding $33,800.

Teague said bids to construct could not be officially let until there were available funds.

Board, on a motion by Dr. Stuart Culpepper accepted the low bid. Construction would begin immediately with an expected completion by February, 1973.

Board, in another action, endorsed a request by a Pine Crest Elementary School mother, seeking help from the Seminole County Commission, The Sanford City Commission and the School Board to construct sidewalks along 27th Street at the school.

Life Sentence To Harrison

By MARION BETHEA
A six man Circuit Court jury yesterday convicted Leon Harrison, 18, of the Aug. 6 rape of a 17-year-old Seminole High School senior.

Johnson, Jr. immediately sentenced the youth to life imprisonment at a state penal institution, after adjudicating him guilty of the offense.

The state nolle prossed (dropped charges) of assault with intent to commit rape, with which Harrison was also charged.

Thomas Williams, 18, a co-defendant, pleaded guilty on Monday to assault with intent to commit rape and is on presentence investigation and allowed bond.

Gene Mooney has done a good job for Seminole County

When the Department of Transportation announced that the four-laning of State Road 436 was going to be delayed, Gene Mooney swung into action. The result: The four-laning was moved back up to its original priority and will be completed on schedule. That's action for the people of Seminole County. Gene Mooney did a good job as a freshman legislator when he actively supported the farmers. He was also effective when he introduced legislation to prevent unfair zoning. Now, let's give him a chance to use his experience to do an even better job.

Annexation Asked For Longwood

LONGWOOD—Dr. Gerald Grissom, a major opponent of development of the Trim-Tic tract and interests on the Longwood-Markham Road several months ago, came to the city last night with a petition for annexation of a 20-acre tract of land and a plan to build some 220 condominium units at the site bounding Trim-Tic's Shadow Hill subdivision.

Grissom, who identified himself as a partner in the venture, requested multi-family zoning for the parcel and a variance to the RM zoning density requirements.

Parts Of Nixon War Chest Not Reported

By H. L. SCHWARTZ III
Associated Press Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — Two committees which have funneled large amounts of money into President Nixon's re-election campaign have failed to file registration statements in apparent violation of federal law.

Examination of hundreds of campaign financial reports pouring into the General Accounting Office also shows a $23,000 loan to Democratic Presidential candidate George McGovern from a secretary who refused to say how a secretary could afford such a loan or whether the money was hers.

The Republican Support Committee of Los Angeles loaned $101,500 to the California Finance Committee to Re-elect the President on Sept. 13, reports to the GAO show.

The Executive Club of the Republican Party of New Jersey is listed as contributing $7,000 in the Sept. 1 to Oct. 16 period to 20 Nixon committees on the state level.

Another $12,000 was contributed to four national Nixon committees during the same period by William B. Coley III who lists the same Trenton, N. J., post office box as the Executive Club.

Neither registration statements nor reports of over-100 contributors could be found for the Republican Support Committee or the Executive Club in GAO records going back to April 7 when a new election law requiring full campaign finance disclosure went into effect.

Under the new law any political committee which anticipates receiving or making contributions or loans exceeding $1,000 in a national candidate during the calendar year must register with the GAO within 90 days of organizing. It also must report quarterly and on the 15th and 30th days before a primary or general election all expenditures, loans or contributions over $100.

Patriotic High School

FREMONT, Calif. (AP) — What could be more patriotic than a school with red, white and blue school colors, an American eagle mascot and the telephone number 796-1778?

What could be more nontraditional than a school with giant pillows on the floor and acid rock music piped in between class periods?

American High School has it all.

In the morning, principal Joe Tranchina hangs his coat on a red, white and blue coat hanger and sips coffee from a mug of the same colors as his secretary briefs him on a red, white and blue phone.

No, Tranchina isn't bent on making 1,270 ultratrips. In fact, the students themselves named their new $5 million high school which opened this fall, and chose their own mascot and colors.

"All I'm trying to do is to make the kids a part of the school," Tranchina said in an interview.

"The degree to which we've de-institutionalized the school's setting allows the students to become more involved in the learning process," Tranchina explained. "The positive attitudes from this improved environment make the student a better learner."

Put more simply, the principal's vision of American High was a school which didn't look like a school.

Wall-to-wall carpeting covers all 180,000 square feet of the school building. There are no classrooms as such, only colorful screens between groups of students.

Large fluffy pillows help students relax while in class.

Between classes, music booms out through the public address system.

Adult Concert Coming

Music will fill the Sanford Civic Auditorium Friday evening, November 3 at 7:30 when six talented musicians will perform a concert of Chamber Music. The artists are all well known performers and teachers in the area and have been brought together for the concert by the American Federation of Musicians through their Trust Fund.

Arrangements have been made to bring this talented group to the Community by Project "GREATEST". Programs for the Aging at Seminole Junior College. The Sanford Parks and Recreation Department is furnishing the Auditorium as a public service. Although the concert is planned primarily for Senior Citizens it is stressed that it is open to the public free of charge.

Can Seminole Voters Expect a Fair Shake In Senate Seat 16?

All 4 Candidates Are From Brevard. Is There One Who Cares About You?

NOW, MORE THAN EVER, voters in Seminole County are asking themselves how they can assure their best representation in every office on the Nov. 7 election ballot.

The election is confusing. The ballot is confusing. From the top of the ticket down, most voters will pick and choose candidates, rather than just parties.

Some of the races really are different. In the race for Senate Seat 16, four candidates are running to represent Seminole, Brevard, Osceola and part of Orange County in Tallahassee.

All four candidates are from Brevard County. Do any of them really care about Seminole? Can any one of them really represent YOU?

We believe one does and one can

LORI WILSON is the ONE. Lori is the county commission chairman. She is a former school teacher and college administrator.

As a county commissioner the last four years, she has worked FULLTIME to represent all people of her area.

She has filled potholes, cleaned parks and beaches, been totally involved in close-to-home problems of the people.

Mayfair

Last Sunday was the first mixed tournament of the 1972-73 season which turned out to be the biggest of any mixed event. A field of 76 players turned out for the four-ball, bestball contest.

The best in the low gross field was a 66 turned in by the foursome of Fletcher Cockrell, Marge Perens, Dave McCoy and Martha Henry. I understand that Dave's own ball was a 68. Second low gross went to the team of Tom and Margaret Bots, Tom and Marjorie Aske with a 70.

In the low net category, first low net went to E. B. and Verne Smith, Bud Richards and Bud Boerthorn with 58. George Billups, Tricia Stenstrom, Doc Ring and Vivian Pierce captured second place with 59. Third spot was won by Mr. and Mrs. Y. A. Strand, Mr. and Mrs. J. Scharr.

The Mayfair Womens Golf Association finished the Annual McRoberts Tire Tournament this past Wednesday. It was a best two out of three round event which was won by Tricia Stenstrom. Tricia was awarded a beautiful wrist watch for her win. Mrs. Stenstrom was also the recipient of the month money award.

The field day event for the ladies consisted of a net journey within flights. Marge Perens "A" flight with a 70. "B" flight was won by Cecile Heard, also with a 70, while Joan Zinn won the "C" flight award with a 76. After play, a luncheon was held and prizes were awarded. Since this is the 25th anniversary of the women's association, the luncheon also included introducing the past presidents of the 25 years present. Next week, the ladies start match play in the annual Florida State Bank Tournament. The Mayfair Men's Association play their next tournament over the weekend of November 5-6 which will consist of a two-partner, bestball event.

Rolling Hills

The male half of the Rolling Hills members played a two-partner, best ball tournament last Saturday. As has been the story for the past several weeks, another pair of teenagers maintained the control of the generation gap by winning the low gross money. Fred Tannier and Lennie O'Steen turned in a four under par 68 for the low round of the day. Fred Tannier must have had the hot hand of the day as he and brother Bob Tannier also combined for an adjusted score of 65 winning a 68. Eighteen of the 25 were present. Next week, the ladies start match play in the annual Florida State Bank Tournament. The Mayfair Men's Association play their next tournament over the weekend of November 5-6 which will consist of a two-partner, bestball event.

Championship Flight

Championship flight low gross was won by Mary Henderson with 87. Second place was taken by Tools Mitchell with an 89. M. Lalloche won the low net with 77, while Michelle Wilson took second place with a 78.

"A" Flight

"A" flight it was Gloria Coleman winning the low gross money in a match of cards over Rose Homme who took second. First low net prize went to Martha Franklin with a 76 and at four shot back and second place was won by "B" flight saw Sim Secinger capture first money in low gross at 101. Kathy Marshall took the number two spot with 104. Shirley Eley won first low net with 76 while Velma Johnson was second.

The fourth flight players were apparently not very happy with their scores because only two of the ladies in that flight turned in score cards. Leticia Mathewson and Carol Duffy, respectively, won the prize money.

Whelchel Memorial Tourney

The Fifth Annual Hugh C. Whelchel Golf Tournament gets underway at the Mayfair Golf and Country Club tomorrow. The two-day event has attracted golfers from all around this area.

Best One-Two Ground Punch Trojans Invade Lyman Tonight

By HERKY CUSH
Herald Sports Writer

Boasting perhaps the best one-two ground gaining punch in the Metro Conference the Evans Trojans will invade Lyman High field tonight to battle Dick Copeland's Lyman Greyhounds.

The top duo from Evans which should cause a great deal of anguish for Coach Copeland are fullback Larry Dorsey and halfback Tom Whitley. Together they have produced a total of 20 touchdowns in 10 games. Dorsey has gained more than 1,000 yards in just six games. They exceeded the same figure a year ago and now have four games to improve upon that mark.

But more important to the Trojans is the fact they are well on their way to the first winning record in the school's history. Presently they have a 4-2 record losing only to unbeaten Winter Park and once beaten Tallahassee Richards. Both losses were by one touchdown margins.

While the Trojans have been able to move the ball well with Dorsey and Whitley doing most of the work, they have not been adept at pulling a lot of yardage on the board. Their top point production in any game this season is 28 against Oak Ridge. But their defense has been especially tough allowing only one opponent to score more than two touchdowns.

Getting back to the Evans offense, Dorsey is a rugged pile driver, fullback who excels at pulling a lot of yardage as well as circling the ends with a great deal of speed. Whitley is vastly similar, showing great strength inside with fine speed to the outside. Dorsey has an average better than 10 yards a carry and has lagged the ball 53 times. Whitley is just shy of the 300 mark in yardage and has especially fast, Coach Copeland called the Trojans the fastest team the Hounds will have faced this season.

Although his Hounds ended their losing ways last week Copeland is not totally satisfied with the overall performance. There were a few bright spots but the overall effort was ragged according to the Lyman coach. The Hounds will not be able to play the same way tonight and expect to come away with it last week against a hapless eleven from Jones.

One of the key performers for the Hounds is junior quarterback Bob Constantine who will get his second start against the Trojans. Constantine got the nod last week and went the distance as the Greyhound signalcaller. He has one of the finest passing arms in the Metro loop. He had a pair of touchdowns passes in last week's game. The scoring plays were to Tom Gooch and Tom Mitchell. Gooch has been the top receiver all season. He has nabbed 20 aerials good for 330 yards and a pair of scores, best to Tom Gooch and Tom Mitchell. Mitchell, Rick Stokes and Mike White.

A victory tonight would provide the Greyhounds with a great lift they could use what with arch-rival Sanford Seminole coming up on the schedule next week.

And getting the call to handle the ball carrying chores are junior Steve Clark, sophomore Mike Massey and freshman line up after sitting out last week because of a bruised knee.

Other than tackle Doug Dene, who will be out with a bum knee, the rest of the Greyhound offense should be ready—physically.

Defensively the leaders have been Gregg Wallick, Glenn Hill, Mitchell, Rick Stokes and Mike White.

Seminoles Play Host To Hornets

Bishop Moore goes into tonight's game with the Sanford Seminoles as a heavy favorite. But the fans who watched last year's game between the two teams know that when Bishop Moore and Sanford tangle, it's always a tossup. Game time for tonight's tilt is 8 p.m. at the Sanford Municipal Stadium.

Last year the Seminoles were a big favorite to beat the Hornets. But coach Harry Nelson's crew surprised the Tribe and sent them home with an upset loss.

This year, the show's on the other foot. The Seminoles have won only one game and they carry a five-game losing streak into tonight's contest. They are in a perfect position to repay the Hornets for last year's spectacle.

The Seminoles have moved the ball fairly well on offense in their last three outings, but fumbles, interceptions and other turnovers have really been costly.

The Hornets bring a 3-3 record into tonight's game. Two of their wins have been over teams that defeated the Seminoles. Oak Ridge and Daytona Beach Mainland. Bishop Moore's third win was over the Lyman Greyhounds, next on the schedule for the Seminoles. Sanford's only victory was in their season lifter against the Oviedo Lions.

The Seminoles have only one home game remaining after tonight's tilt. They are to play the Seminoles at home on Saturday, before hosting Seabreeze in the 1972 Homecoming Game. Sanford closed out the season Nov. 17 in DeLand.

Sanford has fumbled the ball 10 times in its last three games, and on almost every occasion, the opposition has been able to capitalize on the mistake. On the other hand, Sanford's opponents have fumbled 12 times and the Seminoles have been able to score only once or twice as a result of the miscues.

Sanford's defense has been one of the 10 first-team units in the Metro Conference. The Seminoles have played strong until the opposition managed to get on the scoreboard. Then it seems they weaken or give up and let the other build up on

Oviedo Needs Improvement

By GREG SINDAD
Herald Sports Staff

Tonight the Oviedo Lions travel to Ocoee to meet the Cardinals of Ocoee High School. The Lions bring a winless record of 0-4 into the game tonight while the Cardinals are not much better at 1-3.

The Lions are coming off a very disappointing loss at Lyman last night and they will be looking to the Ocoee Cardinals to help them out. The Oviedo Lions look solid thanks to the efforts of defensive coach George Dean. In fact the Oviedo defense is even better than the scoreboard shows.

But a lot of improvement will have to be made in the Lions offense for them to win. Last week Oviedo could manage only 79 yards total offense while their own territory kept a lot of pressure on the defense. Instead of changing players around as has been done in recent weeks, the Lions will stay with the same unit tonight and hope that they can put it all together.

Frank Gooch, who had his problems in last weeks game, will get at quarterback and it will be up to Gooch to fuse the offense into a single working unit.

Tom Sievert and Greg Washington will also have to have good games if the Lions are to win. Sievert will either be at flanker or at fullback while Washington will be at one of the halfback spots.

The two pickers named were against the Cardinals in last week's game. Siebert on offense, along with Meeks on defense, have been the mainstays on the team this year as they have been able to travel the only ones to turn in consistent performances week after week. But to Oviedo to win tonight the entire team will have to pull together. And offense will have to score early and be able to move the ball.

Cubs Dominate NL Star Selections

NEW YORK (AP) — Baseball's world championship belongs to Oakland and Chicago dominates the 1972 Associated Press All-Star team selected by writers and broadcasters across the country.

The champion's failed to land any of the 10 first-team berths in the nationwide balloting but four players from Chicago—three from the National League Cubs and one from the American League White Sox—made the squad.

Slugging Dick Allen, the Sox' first baseman, headed the balloting with 467 votes, tops for any player this season. Allen, traded to the American League last winter, batted .308 with 37 home runs and 113 runs batted in.

The three Cubs who were outfielder Billy Williams, whose 37 homers matched Allen, third baseman Ron Santo and shortstop Don Kessinger. Williams, who led National League batters with a .333 average and had 122 RBIs, polled 364 votes, second only to Allen's total.

Santo batted .302 with 17 homers for the Cubs and Kessinger finished with a 274 average.

Joining Williams in the outfield were Houston's sensational young Cesar Cedeno and veteran Pittsburgher Chico Ramirez. Cedeno batted .320 with 22 homers and 42 RBIs for the Astros, while Ramirez, who reached the 3,000-hit plateau for his career, batted .312 for the Pirates.

The two pitchers named were catcher Johnny Bench and second baseman Joe Morgan, made the team. Bench bunched back from a poor season in 1971 and hit 40 homers while driving in 125 runs for the Reds. Morgan, acquired from Houston in a winter trade, scored 122 runs for the Reds, tops in the NL, and stole 56 bases while batting .292.

Okla. State Challenges Nebraska

By KEN RAPPOPORT
Associated Press Sports Writer

Oklahoma State has the motive and Nebraska has the momentum for their college football struggle Saturday that will decide the front-runner in the Big Eight Conference.

"We appreciate the chance to play a team like Nebraska," says Oklahoma State Coach Dave Smith, whose Cowboys are currently tied for first with the three-ranked Cornhuskers.

But although Smith is "sincerely looking forward to the game," Oklahoma State will face a Nebraska team that has won five straight games since its surprising opening-day loss to UCLA.

Elaborate the No. 11 Penn State at No. 20 West Virginia; 12th-ranked Auburn at home to No. 17 Florida State; Texas Southern visiting, 13th-ranked Notre Dame; No. 14 Tennessee entering tonight; Hawaii; Iowa State, No. 15; at Kansas; Air Force at No. 16 Arizona State.

Jets Meet Giants

By HUBERT MIZELL
Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — The Jets and Giants met again with Norm Snead and the revamped Giants in a dead heat with Joe Namath and the Jets for Gotham's heart.

The Giants, winners of four straight, now face the biggest hurdle in their climb back to glory Sunday in a matchup against Washington with a shot at tying the NFL's all-time National Football Conference's East Division lead.

The guess is nice try, but the Giants won't win.

Washington is a 24-1 choice to outgun the rejuvenated Giants.

Washington's graybeard defense and a productive Giant offense should be a near-stand-off, but Sonny Jurgensen and the Redskins offense have an edge on a young New York seeking a comeback that sometimes makes juvenile mistakes.

A Washington victory would added pressure on Dallas in Monday night's television game against the Detroit Lions. Washington, 3-1, is a game ahead of both Dallas and the Giants at 4-2.

Monday's prediction is for Roger Staubach to make a comeback at quarterback and spur the Cowboys to a bruising 24-20 decision over the Lions, 4-2. Steeler defense hasn't allowed a touchdown in nine quarters, but that doesn't mean it can't be broken by a credible Bill attack.

Pittsburgh, 4-2, at Buffalo, 4-2. Bengal offense still isn't Grade A, so it's a picklerick against a credible Bill attack.

Houston, 1-5, at Cincinnati, 4-2. The Bengal offense still isn't Grade A, so it's a picklerick against a credible Bill attack.

Chicago, 2-3-1, at St. Louis, 2-1. Bears want to settle the NFL's playoff picture.

Los Angeles, 4-1-1, at Oakland, 3-2-1. Maybe the A's left some luck at the Oakland stadium. The Raiders to run up a surprising 30-17 margin and capture a half-game lead in the Superdome.

Here's a look at the other 11 NFL games scheduled this weekend:

NCAA Leaves USOC; Asks For Changes

KANSAS CITY (AP) — The National Collegiate Athletic Association has withdrawn from the United States Olympic Committee, charging that the USOC has "shortchanged America."

Complete reorganization of the USOC was demanded by the NCAA in its announcement, made Thursday by Charles Neinas, chairman of the NCAA International Relations Committee, and Samuel E. Barnes, NCAA secretary-treasurer.

"This action should not be construed as recommending the United States withdraw from the Olympic Games," Neinas said, adding that the International Relations Committee hopes for improvement in the games.

Since Congress gave USOC its charter and funded it, the NCAA hopes Congress will take a good look at it.

Describing the USOC as self-serving, Walter Byers, NCAA executive director, said "I don't think it can be reorganized internally. It's a classic case of inertia. The only external force with enough clout to bring about its reorganization is Congress."

"The troubles in Munich at the '72 games are only the latest example of the continuous, countless bungs of the USOC," Barnes said. He was in Munich during the games.

"We feel we can do more for the student athletes within the United States Collegiate Sports Council and the World University Games than through the USOC," Barnes said.

MR. AND MRS. JOSEPH FALGIONE... on their silver wedding anniversary. (Cecelia Farmer Photo)

Mr., Mrs. Joseph Falgione Honored Couple Observes 25th Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Falgione observed their 25th wedding anniversary, Saturday, Oct. 21, at their home, 128 Pinecrest Drive, with a reception and informal buffet, starting at 8 p. m.

Host and hostesses for the event were their daughters and son-in-law, Miss Linda Falgione and Mr. and Mrs. Linton E. Knowles Jr.

Mrs. Falgione was attired in a formal length double knit dress with the overlaid look. The skirt was royal blue with white sleeves and yoke of royal blue and white check. Her accessories were silver and she wore an orchid corsage, a gift from the two daughters.

Mr. Falgione was presented with a silver tipped white carnation boutonniere to complement his navy blue jacket, blue and white slacks and blue multi-point tie.

The children also presented their parents with a silver and white 25th anniversary guest book which was signed by all those present and inscribed with notes about the day and mementoes of the party.

The serving table was overlaid with a gold color cloth and centered with a three-tiered wedding cake decorated with white roses, silver leaves and topped with the numeral 25 and box of silver.

A sumptuous buffet served to the guests included ham, sausage, roast beef, Italian meatballs, cold cuts, and anti-pastry tray, olive and pepper salad, both ripe and green olives, mixed rolls, Italian bread and cheeses.

Strawberry punch, mixed drinks, nuts, rainbow nuts and candied fruit slices were served with the wedding cake. The buffet was served from individual tables on the patio and assisted the host and hostesses were Mr. and Mrs. Donald Sapp.

Lois Mae Cassell and Joe Falgione were married Oct. 25, 1947 in St. James Church, Orlando. They have resided in Sanford since 1955 when they came here with the U.S. Navy.

Mr. Falgione works for Federal Electric, at John F. Kennedy Space Center. He enjoys numismatics, bowling and gardening and is a member of the Catholic Men's Club, VFW, American Legion, Grand Knight of the Knights of Columbus.

Mrs. Falgione enjoys sewing, bowling, playing the organ and is a member of Zeta Xi Chapter of Beta Sigma Phi.

They have two daughters and one grandson Linton Knowles III.

Invited guests included Mr. and Mrs. John Nicholson, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Young and Mr. and Mrs. Paul Brown, Orlando. Mrs. Nicholson is a sister of Mrs. Falgione was her maid of honor at their wedding.

George Garthwaite (who was best man at the wedding) and Mrs. Garthwaite were also present.

Also the Carlos Raines, Glen Craig, Bob Gaudrean, Alex Serres, Ray Mengans, John Zuelis, Lewis Morgans, Natalie Belafios, Kenneth Clarke, Frank Jaska, Donald Sopps and Mrs. Audrey Corso.

Invited guests from Sanford were Rev. William Ennis, Rev. Patrick Kett and the Jerry Latours, John Pteron, Nick Giordano, Gene Rofers, George DeMatios, Raymond Cayonwas and Buck Hayes.

Miss Wynne is the granddaughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Wade Hampton Wynne Sr., and the late Mr. and Mrs. William Hargis of Atlanta.

The bride-elect attended North Springs High School and Sawyer Business College in Atlanta and is presently employed by the Retail Credit Company.

Mr. Jameson is the grandson of the late Mr. and Mrs. Sylvester Topping of Detroit, Mich. and Mrs. William E. Jameson and the late Mr. Jameson of Sanford.

He was graduated from Seminole High School and is serving with the U.S. Air Force, stationed at McCoy Air Force Base.

The wedding will be an event of Dec. 2, at the Center Independent Methodist Church of Atlanta.

Food, Fun, Prizes, Beauty Pageant

Come One, Come All To CB's All-Day Sunday Jamboree

The various mayors of Seminole County municipalities are proclaiming the week of Oct. 29 as Hearing Conservation Week, the highlight of which will be a Seminole County Hearing Conservation Jamboree to be held Sunday, Oct. 29, 10 a.m. to 6 p.m. at the Sanford Civic Center.

The Tri-County Road Runners Citizens Band Radio Club is sponsoring the event to raise funds to purchase equipment to teach the hard of hearing children of Seminole County.

CB Radio buffs from all parts of the country are expected to descend on Sanford for the event which is open to the public at no admission charge.

One of the highlights of the day will be the Jamboree Queen Beauty Pageant. There will be a variety of continuous live entertainment such as music from Kehler Music Co., the Lighthouse Quartet, The Trailmen "The 4-B" rock band, composed of young brothers and sisters from Ft. Lauderdale, Lakeview Middle School Band and Longwood Elementary School File and Drum Corps, a karate demonstration by Fred Kelley and gymnastic performance by Betty Jo Paramore.

There will be prizes and trophies galore. Grand prizes include a new 1972 Cricket automobile and two singleside band radios, with the drawing set for 6 p.m. There will be hourly drawings to give away the 500 door prizes. Trophies will be given away to all exhibitors, to largest in-state club, to Jamboree queen and runners-up, to the youngest CB'er who traveled farthest, and oldest man and woman.

Among the demonstration booths that will be set up are a glass blower, radio equipment, ceramics, jewelry, paintings, numerology, pastie engravers, and equipment to test hearing.

Hot dogs and Pepsi will be sold and coffee will be free.

You do not have to be a CB'er to attend. For further information contact Mrs. Anita Williamson at 322-4833.

...THE HOPE OF OUR COMMUNITY, OUR NATION!

VACUUM

Steve doesn't mind. Only a little. He knows Dad has to travel. And some days Mom must work the swing shift.

Steve doesn't mind. Not very much. It's just that food doesn't make a dinner. It's like a vacuum when you're alone. And the evening—what's to do?

Such vacuums can affect adversely the developing personality of a child. They can also test a child's sense of security and self-reliance.

We claim no expertise in child psychology. Our concern, however, is that there be no Sunday morning vacuum. A Steve whose character is being molded by spiritual and moral training, a Steve whose home has the atmosphere of religious conviction and integrity... such a Steve is better equipped to meet the tests of loneliness and freedom.

In many families we cannot alter circumstances—but we can foster quality of character to cope with it. The Church is ready to help!

THE RIGHT MAN FOR THE JOB - A PROVEN LEADER
An Experienced, Dedicated Law Enforcement Officer

As the time draws near for the General Election on Nov. 7, I am asking that you take an active interest in all candidates seeking your support in their elective offices. In these times of turmoil and strife it surely is your right and privilege to cast your vote for the candidates of your choice — a right I know you cherish and will execute.

I am seeking reelection as YOUR Sheriff of Seminole County and ask for your support, to again allow me to serve all of the people of our area.

VOTE AS YOU PLEASE . . . BUT PLEASE VOTE!

THE TIMES DEMAND THE VERY BEST LAW ENFORCEMENT THAT CAN BE MADE AVAILABLE FOR THE CITIZENS OF SEMINOLE COUNTY. LET'S KEEP THE JOHN POLK TEAM GOING FORWARD IN SERVING ALL THE PEOPLE OF SEMINOLE COUNTY.

Re-Elect YOUR SHERIFF
John Polk
Seminole County

Union Pickets Sugar Company

CLEWISTON, Fla. (AP)—A small band of 20 flag-waving, chanting farmworkers picketing outside Talisman Sugar Corp. over the weekend marked the fall renewal of what promises to be a bitter struggle for control of the canecutters in steamy South Florida sugar fields.

A half dozen sheriff's department and Florida Highway Patrol cruisers were on hand to prevent incidents between Cesar Chavez' United Farmworkers Union and one of the state's largest sugar growing firms.

With the fall harvest season getting underway, the UFW has committed itself to organizing the canecutters at Talisman's South Bay mill and at the state's other six sugar growing firms.

The UFW began organizing efforts in the sun-baked mucklands near Lake Okeechobee, complaining that the industry was hiring offshore workers from Jamaica and the British West Indies while turning away American laborers who could not find jobs.

Industry spokesmen, on the other hand, say domestic workers refuse to perform the back-breaking work of swinging razor-sharp machetes to hack down tough cane stalks.

Industry, too, is already beginning to switch to mechanical harvesting, eliminating the need for either offshore or domestic workers.

All harvesting at Talisman will be done mechanically this year, says Nelson Fairbanks, vice president and general manager of the Sugar Cane League.

For Nixon, McGovern No 'Change' Foreseen

By R. GREGORY NOKES
Associated Press Writer
President Nixon and Sen. George McGovern planned today to spend the final full week of the presidential election campaign much as they have from the start, with Nixon making few, but selected appearances, and McGovern trying to do as much campaigning as possible.

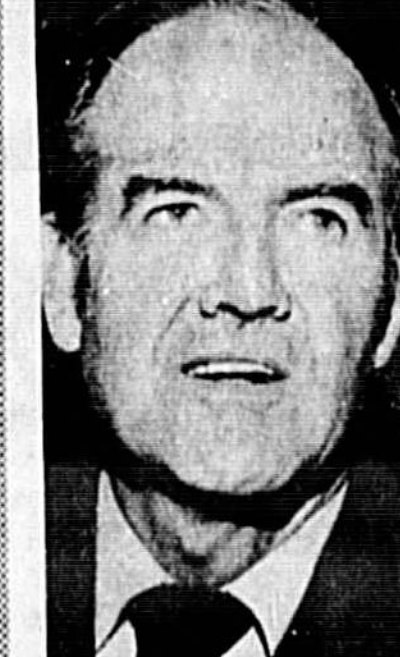

McGovern and his running mate, Sargent Shriver, continued to trail Nixon and Vice President Spiro T. Agnew in the polls. The Yankelovich poll Sunday gave Nixon a 26-point edge over McGovern and the Gallup poll Sunday gave Nixon a 23-point margin advantage.

With only eight days remaining until the Nov. 7 election, the major issues seemed narrowed to the war, and morality and ethics in government, for McGovern and Shriver, and the war, amnesty and McGovern's proposed defense spending cuts, for the Nixon-Agnew ticket.

The final Yankelovich survey, conducted for The New York Times and Time magazine, gave Nixon 56 per cent of those polled, to 30 per cent for McGovern.

address from the White House that McGovern's proposed cuts in military spending "would drastically slash away not just the fat but the muscle of our defense."

"The day the United States becomes the second-strongest nation in the world, peace and freedom will be in deadly jeopardy everywhere," he said. Nixon added that "strength and resolution command respect" and "are an incentive for negotiation leading to peace."

"But weakness and naive sentimentality breed contempt," Nixon continued. The President will remain in Washington today. He is scheduled to journey to Chicago on Tuesday and to wind up his campaign with appearances in California next weekend.

entire action be removed from federal court, but in a motion to sever and demand, Polk and the two deputies state that only Ginley is a federal agent, and only one count of the damage suit pertains to Ginley, whereas all four are applicable to the three other defendants. Therefore, Polk, Lane and Lawhorn requested that all four counts be remanded to a state court, and Fred Peed, attorney for the defendants, alleges that this would be more expeditious if action is severed from that of Ginley. Peed maintains that only the action against Ginley should be remanded to Federal Court.

Clerk of the Circuit Court Arthur Beckwith was instructed to transmit all files in the case to the clerk of the U. S. District Court.

The litigation was filed by Carter who was unwillingly a participant in a December drug bust shoot-out at K-Mart shopping center.

Carter, a newspaper deliveryman drove his van into the parking lot where the aborted "rip-off" was taking place and was ordered to stop by the agents.

Carter, seeing the group of "hippie-type" individuals, became alarmed and drove away with Polk and the agents in hot pursuit. Carter headed toward Maitland while agents blasted away at the van.

Finally, the sheriff forced Carter off the road, after firing one shot over the truck.

Since he was an innocent victim, Carter, 41, Maitland, seeks the damages against the defendants.

Judge Young will decide either to dismiss the suit, to transfer it to a state court, or to sever the suit against the federal agent from that of the others.

Weather

Yesterday's high 81 low this morning 57. Saturday's rainfall measured .09 of an inch.

GOP Leak Encourages McGovern

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. George McGovern's campaign strategists have reported receiving encouraging secret public opinion polls leaked by a Republican defector inside President Nixon's political organization.

While a McGovern campaign aide said a private GOP poll showed the Democratic nominee gaining substantial ground, a spokesman for the Committee for the Re-election of the President termed it "bunk."

Albert E. Abrahams, spokesman for the Nixon campaign committee, said there was no such poll.

The McGovern aide, who asked that his name not be used, said the polling figures covered 33 states and showed the Democratic challenger pulling to within 12 points of the President, a margin considerably less than that reported by national pollsters.

Abrahams said the Nixon administration had never conducted a poll of 33 states. He declined to give precise figures on GOP soundings, but said opinion polls in the 10 biggest states showed Nixon ahead of McGovern by margins ranging from 14 to 35 points.

The McGovern aide said he does not know which states were missing from the poll the Democratic camp obtained, and knows nothing about the sampling of voters it represents.

He said it was a GOP survey conducted between Oct. 10 and Oct. 22, and showed Nixon ahead of McGovern 51 per cent to 39 per cent.

An Oct. 25 Gallup poll rated Nixon at 59 per cent, McGovern at 36.
