Gov. Kirk Dons Lincoln's Robe And Stumbles

Everything was going just fine at the Seminole County Republican Committee's fund-raising gala in Sanford on Feb. 23 until the guest of honor — Gov. Claude R. Kirk, Jr., arose to make the address of the evening.

There had been a jovial cocktail hour at the Holiday Inn. Jubilant Republicans, reveling in the good climate the GOP had recently enjoyed in Florida, exchanged greetings, revealed plans and did back-slapping to a very understandable degree.

Of course there had been, as usual, delays in the complicated program arranged by local GOP leaders. Although the spectacle of the witty and politically-wise Mayor Carl Langford of Orlando filling the role of Master of Ceremonies had brought about some eyebrow raising by Seminolians who know him as a registered Democrat, this subsided during the early formalities in the Civic Center.

But when Governor Kirk, endeavoring to draw the mantle of the Great Emancipator around his rotund figure, and then lashed out at the press in terms which were too broad, too vicious, too controversial to make his Abe Lincoln image acceptable, the fat, so to speak, was in the fire.

Not only what Governor Kirk said but what he did not say was a shock to many who had been led to believe that the Governor was ready to speak out boldly and make announcements on the vital problems of Central Florida which are greatly needed and greatly absent.

Of course we, as responsible editors who need no defense of our policies and practices in reporting vigilantly and commenting honestly, felt like sitting ducks set up for target practice by a hunter who wanted easy game.

We could hardly believe our ears as the Kirk analysis of his press relations revealed a personal emotion which could only have been as deep-seated as the facts which have haunted his political life.

For this was a Chief Executive of a southern state where an almost blank slate had been prepared for some Republican with high character and stable convictions to write a new record.

Raiders; Everything Or Nothing

By TOM ALEXANDER
Herald Sports Editor

It's all or nothing tonight that phrase is a good word, a bit of a nerve racking overtime. St. Johns River brought to play off second place with Seminole JC after they bested the Raiders last Wednesday and then defeated Florida Junior College Monday evening in a thriller.

Seminole split a pair of games this year with Division II champion Lake City, Florida Junior College of Jacksonville, West Palm Beach JC, Indian River of Ft. Pierce and, of course, tonight's challenger, St. Johns JC of Palatka.

The Raiders have had tremendous problems as of late and Monday might be the longest losing streak in their history at three games, as they defeated cross country rival Valencia of Orlando. . . . Tonight Joe Sterling's crew will meet a fired up and determined team from Palatka. It will no doubt be one of the Raiders' most crucial games in their short history. The Sanford team has been in this situation many times and tonight a favorite hat will be placed on them.

Probable starters for Sterling's 21-5 slate team will be Simon Harper and Larry Ward at forwards, while high jumping Jim Gilchrist is posted at the center slot. In the guard positions will be Greg Robinson and Jim Baker. Others expected to see action are Harry Lee, Steve Richardson, and Gary Hampton.

SJC Nine Earnings Split

By GARY TAYLOR
Herald Sports Writer

Ron Harry pitched 6 2/3 innings of one-hit baseball before Steve Shumaker came in to put out the fire and earn a save, as the SJC Raiders scored three runs in the top of the seventh to capture a win in the second game of yesterday's twin-bill with Valencia. The Raiders weren't as lucky in the opener as they fell 1-0 and were held to two hits, both by Shumaker.

Relief pitcher Tate Easton, first man up for the Matadors in the bottom of the fifth inning of the first game, slugged a single to right field and two days later scored the only run of the game when Lee Phillips singled through the hole between the first and second basemen.

The only hits for the Raiders came on one out singles by Shumaker in the fourth and sixth innings. Shumaker went the distance on the mound, suffering the loss.

The second game was another squeaker. David Logan collected the only hit for Valencia. It came as he led off the second inning, but he was promptly caught stealing.

After six complete innings the score was 0-0 with Seminole's only two hits coming from the bats of Mike Ferrell and Darrell Hullinger.

Bill Dancy led off the seventh for the Raiders and went down swinging. HULLINGER, who had two hits in the top of the seventh, reached on an error by the catcher, Jim Moses then singled Tom Austin, running for HULLINGER, home. Tony Foster tied out and then Mike Ferrell hit a sacrifice fly to the frame. Ferrell then ran half way off first base, attracting the pitcher's attention, and kept him busy while Moses slipped home with the third run.

The Raiders are now 2-2 on the season as they have split a pair of twin-bills, one with St. Leo Freshmen and now this one. They will be home today at 8 p.m. in an exhibition game with Jacksonville University. Friday and Saturday they have home games with West Palm Beach Junior College.

Mike Ferrell stretches for the bag as he beats out a base hit against Valencia. The ball, at the time the picture was snapped, is bouncing on the ground in front of the fielders glove. Valencia won the first game 3-0 but the Raiders came back to win the second game of the double-header, 5-0.

Bill Hardney Game... But Not Quite Enough

For Bob Foster, light Heavyweight Champion of the World, it was just another win, and just another knockout; but not one he will soon forget. "Wild Bill" Hardney was the foe and what a foe he was. Hardney came on strong until the fourth round, and at that time it looked as if Foster might be the one to go down.

The Raiders were evenly fought. Foster used the advantage of his longer arms and Hardney came in with strong punches. Foster began to get to Hardney in the second round before the round was to end. They were fighting special two minute rounds. But Sala said he would have stopped the fight anyway, even if the round had ended.

Hardney, though hurt, had to be restrained physically by Sala as he wanted to continue the fight. Many of the 2,242 fans, the largest being crowd ever at the Orlando Sports Stadium, booed the decision of the referee. They wanted the fight to continue.

New Foster is looking ahead to bigger things — the Heavyweight Championship of the World. He would like to get Joe Frazer in the ring for a title fight.

The fans were treated to five other bouts last night, all of which ended in TKOs and took a total time of only 60 minutes.

In the card opener, Gary Fryer, Sanford, made his pro debut but had a little trouble versus McIntosh of Eustis. Fryer held on in the first round against McIntosh, but midway through the second round the referee stopped the fight and awarded it to McIntosh. The TKO came at 1:27 of the round.

Morris Reeves hit an several strong punches to the mid-section of Julius Farmer to take a TKO with just 1:46 into the second round. Farmer was unimpressed with his lightning fast punches.

Vince Neratka, despite a large cut over left eye, took a TKO win over Buster Pace at 1:22 of the third round. Neratka, a cocky fighter who didn't seem to tire at all, shouted, "I've still got the other eye," to the crowd as the ring physician checked it 10 days after the fight.

Hector McBride, the Florida Featherweight Champion, took a TKO decision over surprising Phil Little at 1:44 of the fourth round.

King David, the Florida Lightweight Champion, knocked out Sandy Lee at 1:52 of the first round of the scheduled six-round fight.

Other starters include Larry Hughes' great Mystic Dash, a 10-time winner this year; Eddie Sol, Clifford Balte, Fawn Lida, Magic Missile, and R. L. Turn On.

Strikes And Spares

BY JOHN A. SPOLSKI

While all of those who competed in this past weekend's Annual Women's Tournament will probably recall all of their strikes and/or misses, the most lasting impression as far as I'm concerned was the comment made to me by one of the bowlers . . . following the playing of the National Anthem (which precedes the start of each and every round) this woman said, "That's still the greatest song I've ever heard . . . and it still makes goose pimples come up on my arm."

Of course there were good scores rolled . . . and the people came out and watched and cheered their favorites; but, each of us usually came out with one strong impression—and mine was on a patriotic note.

My personal thanks to each and everyone of the participants, to Evelyn Wagner—tournament manager and her staff of hard workers, to all who helped make it such a rousing success.

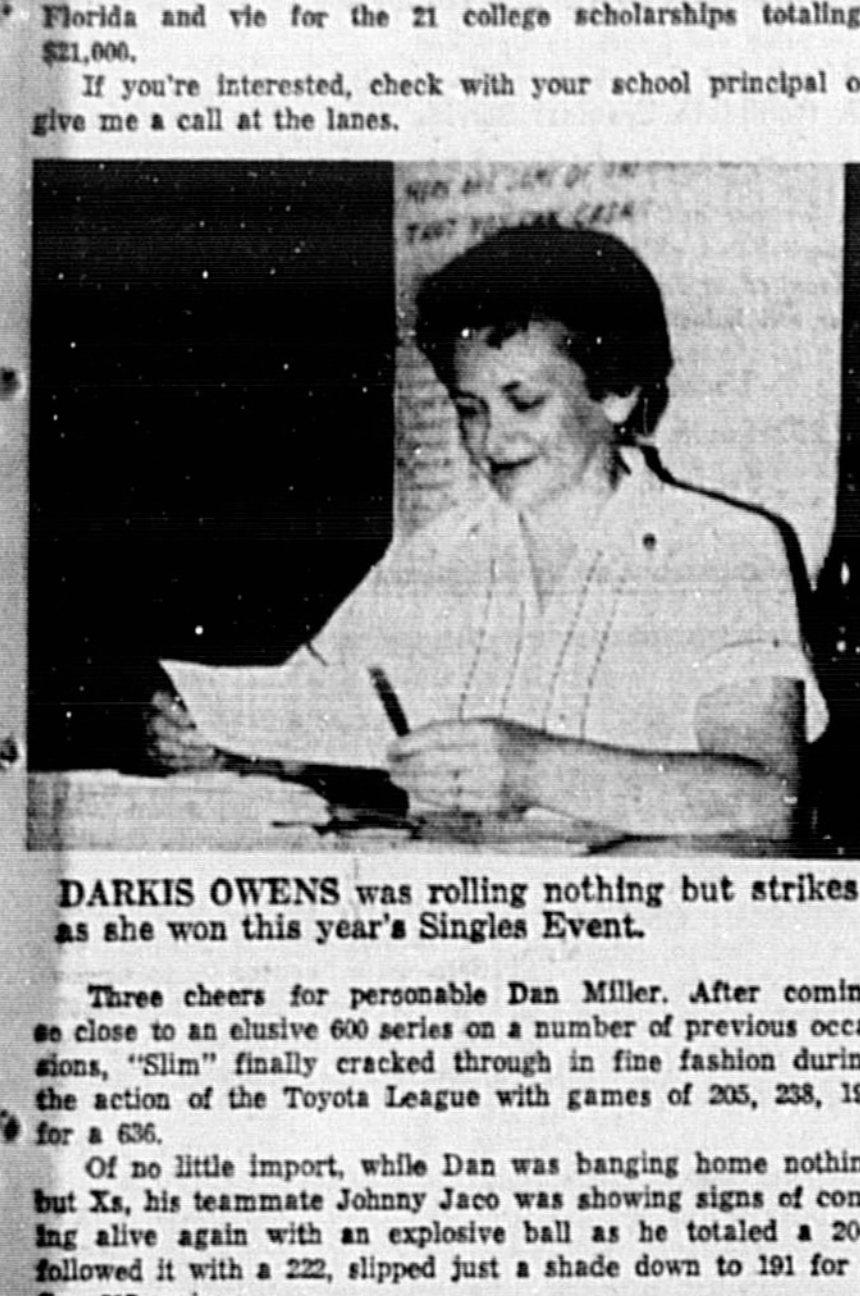

And to you who didn't get into it cause you felt you weren't good enough . . . that's a shame cause you missed out on an indescribable experience, one which won't come around again for another year.

BOWLING POT POURRI . . .

Add the name of Joe Cuneo to that of Harold Herbst . . . both of whom are planning to bowl in the state finals in the All America Youth Bowling Championships at River Lane in Titusville on April 11th.

Incidentally, this is not limited to just Semole High School, but rather, is open to any and all high school students who'd like the opportunity of representing the State of Florida and vie for the 21 college scholarships totaling $1,600.

If you're interested, check with your school principal or give me a call at the lanes.

DARIUS OWENS was rolling nothing but strikes as he won this year's Singles Event.

Three cheers for perceivable Dan Miller. After coming so close to an elusive 600 series on a number of previous occasions, "Slim" finally cracked through in fine fashion during the action of the Toyota League with scores of 208, 208, 193 for 636.

Of no little import, while Dan was banging home nothing but Xs, his teammate Johnny Jaco was showing signs of coming alive again with an explosive ball as he totaled a 204, followed it with a 222, slipped just a shade down to 191 for a 516 617 series.

While we're shining the spotlight on this happy group of bachelors, add these to the list of those who made it into the "charmed circle" of 200 or higher—Wiley Burrow 211, Reg Simon 205, Jean Kriskick 204/500.

Two Weekly Winners

Saturday night must have been one of our best nights of recent note, with the girls competing in their tourney, an overflow crowd was per usual for the money give-away called Moonlight Bowling, and a pleasant surprise in the number of entrants for the Star of the Lane.

As a matter of fact, there was no many vieing for the prizes, that we had to have two separate divisions of high and low averaged bowlers.

There were 10 legends in the "A" Division . . . Bob Steele, Dan Miller, John Doyle, Ray Robinson, Ken Wilkins, Don Witt, Ed Mallon, Murph Miller, Robert Gilbo and the eventual winner Ron Robinson.

Robinson won by being 18 pins over his current average.

Darrell Martin was our champ in the "B" Division as he got hot and finished 53 pins over his current average. Incidentally, this weekly event is open to all league bowlers who shoot 50 pins or more over their current league average.

Others who bowled in this week's "B" Grouping were El Griffin, James Ray, Margie Witt, Father Keane, Pat Roche, Ed Fellebaum, Gladys Doyle, Velma DeCook, Thelma Mossler and Pat Connel.

Something New Coming

Within the next three or four weeks, you're going to see a completely new face or rather, appearance, at Jet Lane. All new pinloaders, sweeps, ball returns . . . another example of how we keep the local bowlers competitive with the very latest in equipment, styling and atmosphere. (Now if there was only some way we could guarantee improved averages . . . then we'd really have it made, huh?)

By the way, have you been taking note of the "free games" offer on the side of the Post Cereal packages at your food stores. What it amounts to is actually receiving the cereal free . . . cause you're getting a game of bowling for free . . . and that's 60¢ in five.

There'll be a five game sweepstake this Saturday . . . get the day, Saturday, not Friday as on previous bowling nights . . . at 11 p.m. with a prize list worth $150. It's open to both men and women and will have individual lease prizes for both scratch and handicap scores . . . producing lots of different winners.

And still the inquiries keep coming in about leagues, etc. . . the newest entry we're probably be from the Seminole Shopping Plaza in the form of a mixed group. I hope they have as much fun as do our many friends in the Tuesday evening Sanford Plaza Mixed League.

AS TIME PERMITS . . . Bobby Babour took individual honors this week in the Harcar Aluminum Mixed League with his 232/546 combination . . . in the JET BOWLETTES, it was Mac Wilkins with a 174, 389/264. Dot Ripley clipped a 802 in the SEMINOLE PRINTERS LEAGUE as Dot Buton posted off a 286/223.

Gambling Probe Continues

Kuhn Becoming Very Interested

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla. — Baseball Commissioner Bowie Kuhn, citing an increase in gambling throughout the country, says he plans to increase his staff of investigators to cover all major league cities. "Times are such that you have to be vigilant," the commissioner said Tuesday during a visit to the spring training camp of the world champion New York Mets. "The investigative staff will include in its active . . ."

Henry Pitagbang, a former FBI agent, heads Kuhn's investigative staff. Buck Greene, a longtime aide of the commissioner in this field, also is still active.

Kuhn, who suspended Detroit pitcher ace Denny McLain indefinitely last week for involvement in 1967 bookmaking activities, said he would not permit McLain to meet with his teammates in the Tigers' spring training clubhouse at Lakeland, Fla. "I have ordered Denny to disassociate himself from professional baseball entirely," the commissioner explained. "no any meeting in the clubhouse would be out of order. I would have to say so."

Kuhn said he would discuss general problems with players of all clubs during his tour of the training camps.

"Associate with any questionable character, even if it is nothing sinister upon its face, is said at the Mets' camp," and the public will draw the conclusion it was sinister. It will threaten and affect the entire game adversely. I urge the commissioner today must take disciplinary action promptly and make it public."

National Airlines Open Golf

By BOB GREEN
Associated Press Golf Writer

MIAMI (AP) — The National Airlines Open Invitational golf tournament, last of five stops on the PGA tour, got underway Tuesday at the Pines at Boca Raton, Fla. in danger of cancellation.

The $200,000 event, scheduled for March 29-29 at the Country Club of Miami, has been threatened by the current strike against the sponsor, National Airlines, by about 3,500 members of the Air Line Employees Association.

The Associated Press learned Tuesday that Danny Thomas, Thomas-Diplomat, Open, which was to have been played early in December this year, also has been called off. The AP learned an announcement Tuesday by Joe De, commissioner of the Tournament Players Division of the Professional Golfers Association, touched off speculation over possible cancellation of the National Airlines event, which was marked last year by at least 150,000 fans.

Jimmy Walker led that final surge with 14 of his 30 points, while Dave Berg and Otto Moore each dated 23.

It's Called 'Digging' Deeper

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The Milwaukee Bucks and Los Angeles Lakers dug themselves deeper into second place in the two divisions of the National Basketball Association, although Lew Alcindor and Happy Hairston tried their best to boost them up.

"The Bucks felt better Detroit's final period onslaught and dropped a 126-111 decision to the Pistons Tuesday night at Detroit, and the Lakers were beaten by the Atlanta Hawks 118-106.

Milwaukee's loss, coupled with New York's 121-103 victory over Phoenix, shoved the Bucks 1/2 game behind the Knicks in the Eastern Division with only 13 games remaining.

Atlanta increased its Western Division lead over the Lakers to three games at Los Angeles with only 12 games to go for each team.

In the only other games, Baltimore halted San Diego 128-114 and Seattle beat San Francisco 130-122.

In the American Basketball Association, Los Angeles defeated New Orleans 107-101, Dallas blasted Washington 130-115 and Carolina stopped Pittsburgh 111-96.

Alcindor, doing his best to keep Milwaukee after the Knicks and he and Walt Frazier each scored eight points in the third quarter when New York raced from a 38-38 deficit to a 91-67 margin.

In all, 16 teams will compete in the tourney at Madison Square Garden starting March 13 and ending March 21.

Grand Jury Indicts 10

By RICHARD A. HUGHES

DETROIT (UPI) — A federal grand jury investigating a nationwide gambling ring, relatively dormant since a dramatic series of New Year's Day raids, followed up those arrests with 10 indictments Tuesday and promises of more to come.

The 25-member grand jury, which last week heard testimony from suspended Detroit Tiger pitcher Denny McLain, issued the sealed indictments Feb. 18. They were opened Tuesday but contained no famous sports names under indictment.

Named among five co-conspirators, however, was Hall of Fame pitcher Jerome "Dizzy" Dean, whose "very helpful" information led to several of the arrests. James H. Brickley, U.S. attorney for Eastern Michigan, declined to say whether the government made a deal with Dean and other co-conspirators for their testimony, but added that it is "sometimes the case."

The grand jury has subpoenaed persons allegedly involved in a Flint, Mich., bookkeeping operation that Sports Illustrated magazine charges involves McLain. But Brickley said the McLain matter "is separate, the federal government is still pursuing matters with which Denny McLain has had some involvement." Brickley is sticking to his original statement following the New Year's Day arrests that the gambling ring "involves several sports personalities cutting across several sports."

The 10 named in the one-count indictment are charged with conspiracy to use and cause the use of facilities in interstate commerce in furtherance of an illegal gambling operation. Conviction carries a maximum five-year prison sentence and a $10,000 fine. Those named, seven from Michigan and three from Mississippi, were arrested in the Jan. 1 raids or shortly after.

Indicted were Donald James Dawson, 48, a Birmingham, Mich., restaurateur; Leonard A. Torrice, East Detroit, Mich.; Howard Dixon, 61, Detroit; Nick Charles Mondella, 44, Farmington, Mich.; Jack Anthony Lucido, 35, Grosse Pointe Woods, Mich.; Isaac "Ike" Jones, 58, Lansing, Mich.; Peter J. Martino, 47, his brother, Warren Luke Martino, 44, and Salvatore J. Sicuro, 64, all of Biloxi, Miss.

Named as co-conspirators besides Dean were a nephew, Paul Dean Jr.; Fritz Lindstrom Jr., 64, Phoenix, Ariz., a friend of Dean's; Howard Sober, a Lansing, Mich., businessman who gave his $250,000 home to serve as Michigan's governor's mansion; Mike Doris, 44, Detroit, an auto dealer; and Mitchell E. Karam, 36, a builder from Bloomfield Township, a Detroit suburb.

Allen's SS, Hawk's Cut, Baseball's Two Letdowns

By DICK COUCH
Associated Press Sports Writer

Richie Allen's asking price and Ken Harrison's ears have been lowered considerably . . . the Indiana reporting date for regular season of $150,000 and Harrison's barber a solid windfall of $15.

Allen's salary impasse with the Cardinals, who liberated him from Philadelphia last fall in the Curt Flood trade, was lessened somewhat Tuesday when the controversial slugger reduced his original demand of $155,000 to $140,000.

Jim Toomey, the Cardinals' assistant general manager, confirmed that some adjustment had been made, but added "We're still not close to an agreement."

Harrison, meanwhile, arrived in the Cleveland Indians' camp at Tuscum, Ariz., and was immediately offered an option. He has a shoulder-length tress trimmed or face a $1,000 fine. "I figure I saved a costly $985," cracked the mystic Hawk after shelling out $15 to a hair stylist. "It's probably the best investment I ever made."

Harrison, beginning the second year of a two-year contract, passed Manager Alvin Dark's post-harvest inspection and joined his teammates in the club's first full-scale workout conducted without unsigned first baseman Tony Horton.

Horton became an official holdout with the passing of the Indians' reporting date for regular season of $150,000 and Harrison's barber a solid windfall of $15.

NEW YORK (AP) — The invitations are out but Marquette jumped the gun and became the first college basketball team in the National Invitation Tournament-undefeatly of course.

Marquette, 18-3, and ranked eighth by The Associated Press, was tendered an NCAA bid Tuesday but Coach Al McGuire turned it down and decided to go to the NIT instead in a dispute over its placing in the Midwest Regionals.

Although the NIT said it would not make an official announcement until today, McGuire said his team was taking the NIT over the NCAA.

Consumers' Confidence Sags Because Of News

By JOHN CUNIFF
NEW YORK (AP) — Through the past year a great deal of publicity has been given to the various indices of consumer confidence. The notion being that a confident consumer is a spender, a timid one a saver. Studies suggest that consumer confidence indices might be able to forecast actual retail sales conditions four or five months ahead, thus enabling manufacturers and retailers to prepare their inventories. Confidence has been falling of late. Harassed by news about the Vietnam war, inflation, taxes and even the threat of recession, consumers have had a tendency to withdraw into the security of their shells. In addition, with inflation eroding the value of spending money, their actual ability to

Hospital Cost Fight Launched By Physician

WASHINGTON (AP) — A family doctor from North Carolina testified today that about 30 per cent of the people admitted to hospitals last year died because of the cost of hospital care. "These patients could receive as good, or perhaps better—certainly less expensive—health care by being hospitalized in a hospital bed," said Dr. Amos Johnson of Garland, N.C., a former president of the American Academy of General Practice. Johnson's testimony was prepared for the Senate antitrust subcommittee, opening hearings on the high cost of hospitalization. Sen. Philip A. Hart, D-Mich., the chairman, said he hoped to find ways in which more competition could bring down hospital prices, or at least prevent further increases. Johnson blamed unnecessary hospital admissions on the health insurance system—and also on physicians who "find it much more convenient, time-saving and financially rewarding to see patients on an in-hospital basis." He said medical education has for 20 to 25 years conditioned students to believe that the highest quality of care can be provided only if a patient is hospitalized. "Well trained family physicians can comfortably and effectively care for 85 per cent of the usual ordinary illnesses that beset mankind," Johnson said. "And they can largely do this in the office, in the clinic, in the home or in the outpatient department, and at a cost most

Congressmen Voice Protests

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The United States turned over one of its biggest bases to the South Vietnamese army today as part of President Nixon's third phase withdrawal of 50,000 more troops from the war zone. U.S. generals in formal ceremonies transferred the headquarters of the 18,000-man U.S. 1st Infantry Division at Cai Khe to the Saigon government. The 1st Division, known as the Big Red One, is the largest unit among those to be withdrawn by April 1. In the latest phase of the Vietnamization program. The U.S. Command has not yet announced movement plans for the 1st Division but official military sources said that already one of the division's three brigades had pulled out of combat activity in preparation for the return home. Spokesmen said meantime that American B2s returned from more than 24 hours of bombing North Vietnamese supply convoys in Laos to attack targets in Vietnam. The Stratofortresses dropped more than 100 tons of bombs on guerrilla concentrations in the Central Highlands northwest of An Khe and 375 miles north-northeast of Saigon. Ground fighting was light although guerrilla ground fire shot down a U.S. Army light observation helicopter on the Laotian frontier northwest of the former U.S. Marine base at Khe Sanh Tuesday. One American was killed and another wounded. South Vietnamese troops uncovered more than 50 tons of food, including 35 tons of rice, in a cache west of Quang Nhai City 318 miles northeast of Saigon Tuesday. It was another discovery seen as evidence the North Vietnamese and Viet Cong are planning a new offensive, perhaps as early as next week. The U.S. Command diverted the bombers to Laos from Vietnam for the fifth time in a little more than a week. Despite the U.S. raids in Laos, North Vietnamese troops seized the Plain of Jars Saturday and the town of Muong Soai Tuesday. The flood of trucks and other vehicles hauling in war supplies on the Ho Chi Minh Trail surpassed even the period just before the 1968 Tet offensive. The sources said the increased traffic began in November.

Solons Cool To Pompidou

By WILLIAM J. WAUGH
Associated Press Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — De Gaulle's death has not cooled the French heat in the Middle East. "We are certainly not against Israel," he told The National Press Club. Defending the sale of French planes to Libya, Pompidou said the decision was made because "there was suddenly a gap, a vacuum we did not provoke. We felt it was in our interest to fill this gap." Pompidou met with Nixon for two hours prior to the Press Club talk and, said presidential press secretary Ronald L. Ziegler, the two leaders discussed the world situation in detail, touching on the Middle East. At the same time, diplomatic aspects of the Middle East crisis, including four-power talks with the United States, said Ziegler, were discussed in a one camp room in the Middle East. "We are certainly not against Israel," he told The National Press Club. Defending the sale of French planes to Libya, Pompidou said the decision was made because "there was suddenly a gap, a vacuum we did not provoke. We felt it was in our interest to fill this gap."

Alexander stated, "I hate to sit here and watch Seminole County elude back 25 more years as other counties have gone beyond us... this is a anti-pollution measure." Parker accused Drummond of trying to "bulldoze" the new regulations through. "Maybe we should go into the water and sewer business," he added sarcastically. Drummond retorted, "If we turn down the recommendation of the Tri-County Planning Commission, you're (Parker) been sitting there for three years for nothing and we've wasted a whole lot of money." Felton maintained that the revision affecting lot sizes and septic tanks would "work a hardship on the small developer and increase costs to the low income homeowner." County Engineer William Bush and Road Supt. J. C. Lavelander were questioned on drainage situation on North Street west of Palm Drive in the Rolling Hills section. Bush reported flooding was caused through the flood plain of a small slinkhole, but it could be alleviated by the county installing a drain pipe under the street and residents providing curbs for under their driveway entrances. "When Lavelander stated he had sold the three residents "if the pipe is not purchased by them within a reasonable length of time, the entrance to their driveways would be cut and they would not be able to get in," Drummond told Lavelander, "You and your winning ways."

Ax Handles Anyone?

WASHINGTON (AP) — Lester Maddox's attempt to hand out his famous ax handles in the U.S. Capitol restaurant has ended in a shouting match with a black congressman whom the Georgia governor called an "obnoxious" and an "ass." Sen. Charles C. Diggs, D-Mich., said he told Maddox the ax handles were an "offensive racist symbol" and asked the governor to leave during the confrontation in the House restaurant Tuesday. Later he introduced a resolution withdrawing from Maddox the restaurant privileges extended to the nation's governors.

Hawaii Approves Abortion

By BOB STATION
Associated Press Writer
HONOLULU (AP) — The Hawaii legislature has passed a bill virtually eliminating curbs on abortions. The bill in effect repeals a 191-year-old statute which permits abortion only to save the life of the mother. Final legislative action came with a 13-9 vote in the state senate Tuesday. The new measure would permit abortion by licensed physicians in licensed hospitals if the woman has been a Hawaii resident for at least 90 days and the fetus is not "viable." Legislative lawyers interpret "viable" to mean fetuses far enough developed to live outside the womb and say it would cover pregnancies up to four or five months.

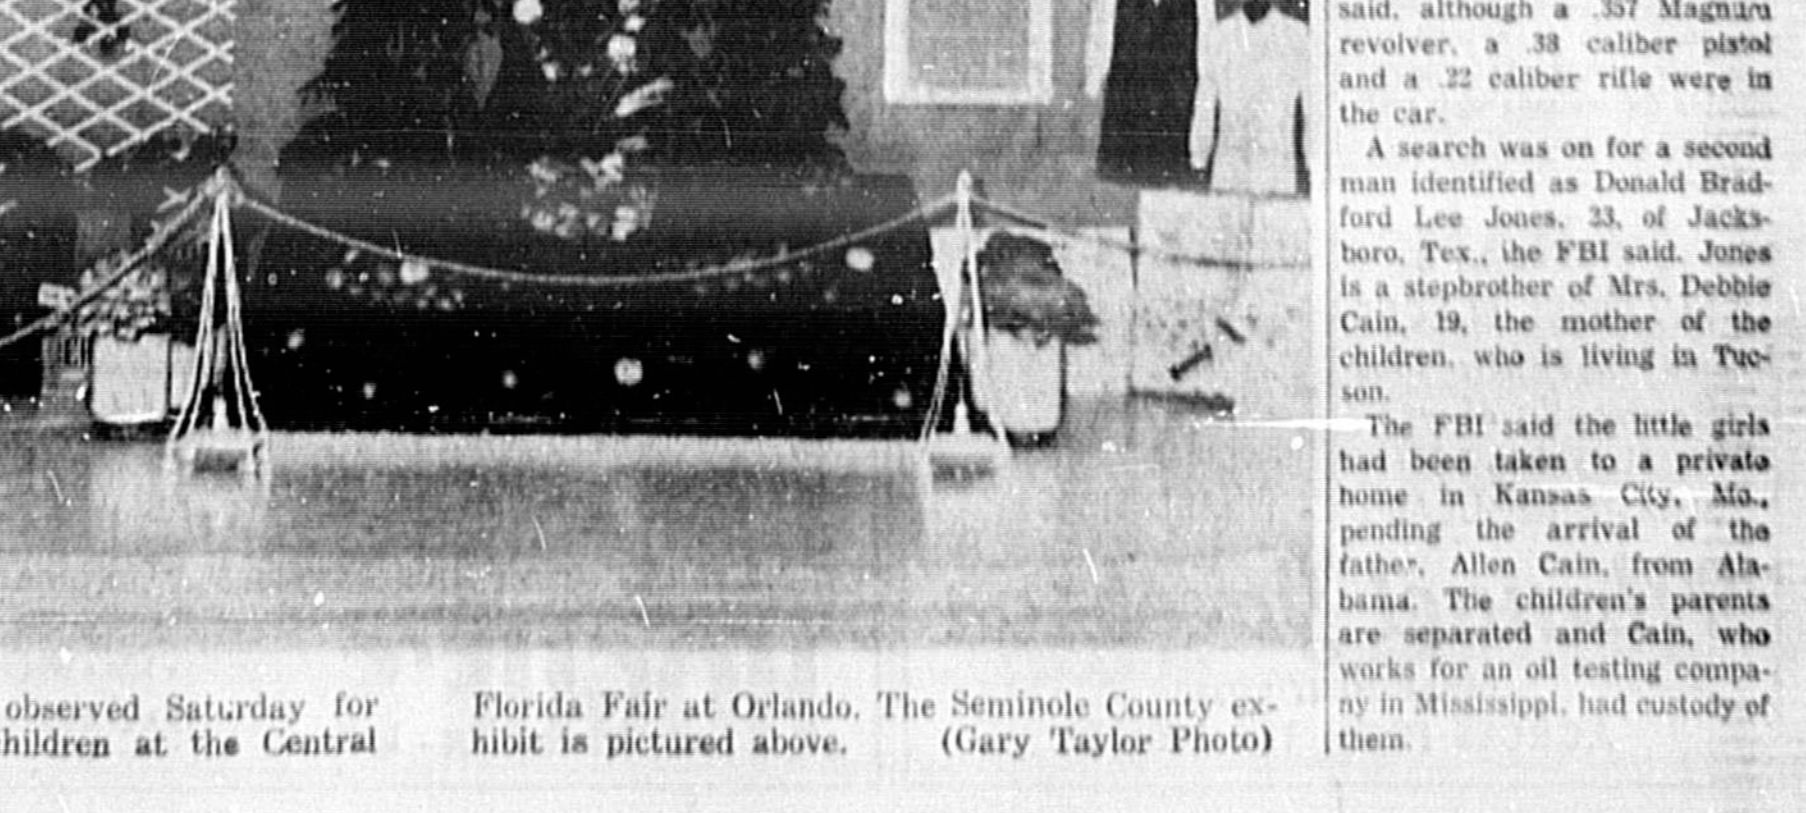

Schools Will Appeal Decision By HEW

Point of contention is that in the instruction of educationally deprived children, there are 18 white and 17 Negro teachers. The examiner contends that this constitutes a program infected with a discriminatory environment. Also the three all Negro schools are held constitutionally defective. Stenstrom cited the decision of the District Court of Appeals in New Orleans with regard to Orleans Parish, La. He said that the majority of economically deprived children chose to attend all black schools. Those from more affluent black families also chose all black schools. This was the reason cited for the decision that the 35 teachers in the all black schools were infected with a discriminatory environment, because the environment is all black. Further, since the county's three all black schools choose all black schools, the majority of economically deprived children chose to attend all black schools. New Camaro. Feb. 26th.
We've never announced a car at this time before. But then nobody's ever announced a car like this before.

Super Hugger
If it were an ordinary sportster, we'd have introduced it at the ordinary time. Instead, we took the time to build a whole new Camaro. We started with a sleek new shape and a low road-hugging stance. And added more hood. A faster fastback. Wider doors. And new deeply contoured bucket seats. The instrument panel wraps around you. With enough dials to make you think you're piloting a 747. There are four transmissions. And six power plants up to the Turbo-Jet 306 V8 that you can order.

Pick the one that best suits your driving. Then go pick on an open road. And make it one with plenty of twisting turns. Because Camaro has a remarkable new suspension. And standard front disc brakes for a leech-like grip on the road. New Camaro. The Super Hugger. Other sportsters always feared it might come to this. And they were right. Only their timing was wrong. Putting you first, keeps us first.

At Season's Social Spectacular... Glittering Gala Greet's Governor

By DORIS WILLIAMS
Society Editor

Florida's high-flying (and I might add, highly-matched) Republican Governor, CLAUDE R. KIRK, JR. had the pleasure of rubbing elbows with the beautiful people (you better believe there were plenty of Democrats there) of Seminole and surrounding counties, Monday night, when he was guest of honor at a post-birthday cocktail and dinner party exalting honest Abraham Lincoln.

So you weren't invited to the county's largest social gala of the season? Tut, tut—all you needed was to dig up 50 bills for the fund-raising event and your gateway to the gala would have been as good as gold.

Just in case a more intimate rendezvous with the big man was your bag for a half a grand you could have gone on a scenic cruise (from the pond at Lake Monroe) in a plush houseboat with his Excellency. Read on!

How suite it was! Only a handful were on hand to officially welcome the Governor when he was wheeled into the entrance at Holiday Inn, wearing a dark business suit. He quickly departed to the executive's suite to "change."

The Herald's Young Republican Sports Editor, TOM ALEXANDER, chaffered the handsome V.L.P. to the party site and they were the only occupants of the sleek limousine, with my crate operating at full steam ahead, directly behind the head of state.

Come! and carterous ERICKA (whose curves are well-rounded out at this stage of her pregnancy) did not accompany her husband to Sanford. Read on!

I sauntered to the door where I waited impatiently for his appearance—BILL VINCENT, that is, who was running a little late at the site with his clicking shutters for The Herald.

While waiting outside in the cool, uncomfortable atmosphere (it was no doubt an invasion of air pollution from up Tallahassee way), a handsome young man walked up and greeted me wearing an elegant tuxedo with a rustling ruffled shirt.

We chatted on and on and all the while I'm hating myself—who is this good-looking rascal?... no doubt some Democrat senator I'm supposed to know.

It was much later that I discovered this gorgeous hunk of man was none other than TOM LARGEN, a definite democratic Republican.

The genial surgeon had performed some sort of do-it-yourself—a touch of surgical transformation, like hair today, and gone tomorrow... and he's beautiful! Read on!

After a few more minutes of impatient waiting (I'm hoping Florida's leader will not only "change," but shave and take a shower, since BILL hasn't arrived on the scene as yet), I floated into the private party room where all the beautiful people were gathered to get a glimpse of the debonair honor guest.

I was all eyes also, and as tension and excitement mounted, there he was at the door... BILL, that is!

"Sorry, I'm late," Bill apologized, but I had to dash home and change after shooing all afternoon (and men talk about women primping). Read on!

We departed the merry-making scene to hurry outside to "shoot" the Governor as he emerged from his suite... we waited and waited.

What on earth was he changing... his political party? Surely Claude had rather fight than switch.

Soon the sleeking Governor approached and appeared ten feet tall in the full of the moon wearing a conventional black tuxedo. Yep, it was obvious that not only had he "changed," but must have actually shaved, showered and fortified himself, also.

Although some may consider the Governor a stinker, he smelled delicious—like expensive cologne and the same in his choice of hootch and cigars. Read on!

A thunderous applause echoed as His Excellency entered the party site and a touch of the "friendly season" spread like wild fire as the dramatic and ceremonial hand-shaking of about 300 was initiated. Read on!

Claude Kirk Jr. is terrific! He's polished to the nth degree, is an accomplished showman and could charm a snake. He would be a sensational credit to Broadway and Hollywood!

There's no doubt about it—there should be even abandon politics, a niche in the acting field has been well-established. Read on!

Ever have the yen to push a police officer around? You might not get away with it but here's how it done.

Catch one off duty... . Frimfance like SANFORD's Police Chief BEN BUTLER and his attractive Nancy (all decked-out in their best bib 'n' tucker)... casually begin chatting with them... and at just the opportune moment when a dir-

GRAND OLD PARTY supporters of Gov. Claude Kirk on hand for the Governor's Gala are Harold and Viola Kastner and Sen. (Rep.) Ken Plante.

His Excellency, Gov. Claude R. Kirk, Jr., is democratically welcomed to Sanford by Doris Williams preceding cocktail party at Holiday Inn for holders of golden tickets.

here's to a potential Governor of Florida, TOM ALEXANDER, who put his ALL (and lots of Sanford Herald time and money) into the complete success of the Lincoln Day Dinner.

Stores Deny Shortweighting Food Hearings Finished

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. (AP)—Two days of testimony in which spokesmen for Florida's largest food chains repeatedly denied charges of shortweighting meat products but admitted deficiencies could occur through human error and meat shrinkage.

Spokesmen for Winn-Dixie and Food Fair defended the state food law provision for "reasonable tolerances" in weights and variations found by state inspectors. They said that inspectors were reasonable.

"We believe we fall completely within compliance with the act," said Alfred Anderson, attorney for Food Fair.

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. (AP)—Officials say some 100 to 200 new state liquor licenses are expected in mid-1971, according to Beverage Division officials.

Florida's population should jump some 1.5 million in the next five years, officials say. The increase of 4.9 million. Thus the figures in available licenses.

Since the licenses are distributed on the basis of population, they will be distributed in proportion to those with the largest growth in the past decade should receive the most new licenses. No licenses are taken away to instances where population has decreased.

World Center of Healing In Ecumenical Rochester

By DAVID POLING

If William Warwell Mayo, M.D., had been a strict, narrow-minded, Bible-thumping Protestant, there would be no Mayo Clinic today. And if the Sisters of St. Francis had been rigid, rule-enforcing nuns, there would have been no hospital and probably no Rochester, Minn.

But Dr. Mayo was one of the most progressive Protestants in the Great Plains and the Sisters of St. Francis were ecumenical before they found the word, and thousands upon thousands of sick, disabled and dying were to be healed and helped. By the determination of Dr. Mayo and the perseverance of his physician-surgeon sons, Dr. Will and Dr. Charlie, a center of healing and hope was established that has become unique throughout the world. As Jesus was known to many as a healer and Great Physician, Christian followers were to make this a primary concern of religious expression.

CRESCENT ROLLS... shaping them is an art but exact directions will help a cook succeed.

How To Bake Crescents

By CECILY BRONSTONE
AP Food Editor
These extra-delicious crescent rolls are made with both flour and quick-cooking oats. They taste best served warm; if you make them ahead, be sure to reheat them. We keep an 18-inch rolling pin in our kitchen as an exact technique. The yeast dough has to be rolled out and carefully measured so you'll need a ruler. We keep an 18-inch metal ruler in our kitchen as an exact technique.

Torah readings had to be translated into Aramaic for the benefit of synagogue congregations in the Galilee of Jesus' time since Hebrew was a dead language and the people of Galilee also spoke Greek and Latin.

Carrot Cake By Liv Haselbach

By Cecily Brownstone
AT Food Editor

In Port Washington, N.Y., Liv Haselbach is well known for her good Carrot Cake. When Liv was in 6th grade, her cake won a prize in a Girl Scout community bake-off. The recipe for the cake itself came from one of her father's Swiss relatives. The recipe for the meringue carrots that decorate the cake is one her mother learned to make in an 8th grade domestic-science course in Norway.

We made the cake and the decoration in our own kitchen and they were both a big success. Stored in the refrigerator, the cake stayed moist for a week or so.

If you bake this cake for company, do make the meringue carrots to go with it. This meringue tastes so much better than bought meringue. And the carrot shapes are so attractive and amusing. One caution: the recipe for the meringue carrots makes more than is needed for decoration; so pass around the surplus just as you would candy. If there are any leftover, wrap them tightly in transparent plastic wrap, store them in the refrigerator and they'll stay beautifully fresh and soft.

LIV'S CARROT CAKE

- 2 cups sifted flour
- 2 teaspoons baking powder
- 2 teaspoons baking soda
- 1 teaspoon salt
- 2 teaspoons cinnamon
- 2 cups sugar
- 1 cup corn oil
- 4 large eggs
- 2 cups grated (medium fine) carrots, lightly packed (about 4 medium carrots)
- 1/2 cup chopped (medium fine) pecans
- 1/2 cup Chopped (medium fine) walnuts

Glaze, see recipe below
Meringue Carrots, see recipe below

Grease a 10-inch angel-food cake pan.

On wax paper, sift together the flour, baking powder, baking soda, salt and cinnamon. In a large mixing bowl, with an electric beater at medium speed, beat together the sugar and oil for two minutes. With beater at low speed, add sifted dry ingredients alternately with eggs, beginning and ending with dry ingredients and beating after each addition. Stir in carrots and nuts. Turn into prepared pan.

Bake in a preheated 350-degree oven until cake tester inserted in center of cake comes out clean—about one hour. (Do not open oven door during baking.)

Place cake in pan on wire rack to cool for five minutes. With a small metal spatula loosen cake from sides and turn out on wire rack. Cool completely. Top of cake sinks slightly toward center tube so you may want to let the cake cool bottom side up and use the bottom side as the top.

Place cake on serving plate. Four Glaze over cake; with a pastry brush spread Glaze letting it run down sides of cake.

Before serving, arrange 10 Meringue Carrots over top of cake.

GLAZE

- 2 cups sifted confectioners' sugar
- 4 to 4 1/2 tablespoons water
- 1/4 teaspoon almond extract

Mix together the sugar, 4 tablespoons water and extract. If necessary, add more water to make a thick pouring consistency. Makes 2-1/2 cups.

MERINGUE CARROTS

- 1 1/2 cups (about) sifted confectioners' sugar
- 1 cup finely ground blanched almonds
- 1 egg white
- 4 teaspoons yellow food coloring
- 2 drops red food coloring
- 2 drops water

In a medium mixing bowl stir together 1 cup of the sugar, the almonds and egg white. Knead in as much of the remaining sugar (or more sugar if necessary) to make mixture easy to shape. On wax paper, pat into a 12 by 5-inch rectangle; cut into three inch squares. Shape each square into a tiny carrot about one and a half inches long.

Mix together yellow and red food coloring and water. Using a clean small water-color paint brush or a cotton swab, paint meringue carrots with this mixture. Use tiny sprigs of parsley for the carrot tops. Makes about 30. Use 30 to decorate cake; pass remaining as candy.

Sicilian Cuisine Tasteful

FAMILY DINNER

Interesting dish from Sicilian cuisine.

Veal Chops Broccoli Polenta
Sautéed Breadcrumbs
Fruit and Cheese Beverage
BRUSCALE POLENTA

1 package (10 ounces) frozen chopped broccoli
2 tablespoons olive oil
1 cup yellow cornmeal
1 cup cold water
1 teaspoon salt
2 1/2 cups boiling water

Red pepper flakes to taste

Cook broccoli according to package directions. Drain; stir in olive oil. In a small bowl stir together the cornmeal, cold water and salt. Into a medium saucepan pour the boiling water; slowly stir in cornmeal mixture. Stirring constantly, cook over moderately low heat until mixture thickens and boils; cover and continue cooking over low heat about 5 minutes, stirring occasionally. Stir in broccoli and red pepper flakes; taste and add more salt if desired. Turn into a 8-inch square cake pan or glass cake dish that has been rinsed with cold water; cool. Cover and chill until firm—several hours or overnight. Loosen edges and turn out; cut in half; cut each half crosswise into 12 slices. Dip slices in flour; brown in a large skillet in a generous amount of olive oil. Serve at once. Makes 6 servings.

THE FAMILY LAWYER

"Are you now in good health?" read the question on Harold's application for life insurance. As it happened, he did have a cold in the head. Nonetheless, he wrote "YES." Unhappily, Harold's cold developed into pneumonia, which finally took his life. Could his widow collect the insurance?

In a court hearing, the insurance company said the policy was invalid because Harold had told a lie by answering "YES" on his application form.

But the court ruled in the widow's favor. The judge said a person could fairly be considered "in good health" even with a minor ailment like a head cold.

Filing in application forms for life insurance may often raise doubts about the meaning of words. Generally speaking, the law allows an applicant to interpret language the way any ordinary, reasonably intelligent person would interpret it.

However, that does not mean the law will condone dishonesty. One applicant, actually speaking the truth, had had liver trouble, said no—even though he had indeed suffered at one time from that ailment. When the truth came out after his death, the insurance company refused to pay off. The widow, going to court, argued:

"Of course my husband knew he had liver trouble, but he believed it had all cleared up. So he didn't think he had to mention it."

Unconvinced, the court rejected her claim, because this was not a case of doubtful language but of outright deception. The judge said that since the insurance company was taking the risk of insuring the man's life, it was entitled to know all the relevant facts—and then draw its own conclusions.

Not even a qualifying phrase like "to the best of my knowledge" can take the taint out of a wrong answer, if the evidence shows that the person must surely have known better.

In short, in case of doubt, an applicant will find it safer to tell more than to tell less. Otherwise, he may be leaving his family not insured but only a lawsuit.

Sandwich Invented By Gambler

By TOM HOGE
Associated Press Writer

As most of us probably know, the Earl of Sandwich invented the snack that bears his name so that he could sit at the gaming tables day and night without taking a meal break.

It is doubtful whether the successful Earl ever dreamed that his simple combination of meat, beef and bread would inspire the dazzling assortment of cold and hot delights now offered between slices of bread.

While Lord Sandwich was still living, he saw his breakfast introduced into the English language by 1762, when Edward Gibbon, the famed historian, dropped into a restaurant called the Cocoa Tree, he noticed two dozen of the most prominent lords of the realm "sipping at little tables . . . upon a bit of cold meat or a Sandwich."

The French, accustomed to two-hour luncheon with all the trimmings, were slow to take up sandwich munching, but the Germans seized upon the idea and began luring restaurant patrons with a hearty tidbit known as "brotchen" or "knödel" or "little-bread." This consisted of a slice of black or brown bread laden with cheese or sausage. Usually it was washed down with beer.

The Americans converted the sandwich into a full-scale meal ranging from beer steaks to between two flapjacks smeared with orange marmalade to a Ernest Hemingway, to the main-course dinner ingredients heretofore sold by Italian grocers and delicatessens.

Heroes soon were rivaled by the Degraded named after the comic strip character. The Dagwood, according to one fan, should consist of four slices of bread, tomato slices, cheese, lettuce, pickle chips, a fried egg and a covering of butter, mayonnaise and lettuce.

Another gargantuan sandwich, the Poor Boy, was born in the French Quarter of New Orleans. Legend has it that a soft-hearted cafe owner used to make these monsters for hungry waiters who clustered by his kitchen door. They consist of a length of French bread stuffed with roast beef, ham and cheese and garnished with relish.

The history of the sandwich is sketchy since for many years gourmet authors refused to write about such an impromptu meal. It took the Scandinavians to bring the sandwich into its own.

The Danish Smorrested, or open-faced sandwich which has the respect of gourmets of all lands. At Oskar Davidson's restaurant in Copenhagen, the four-foot long sandwich menu offers 175 varieties including virtually every kind of poultry, fish, shellfish, salad and cheese piled on slices of crisp white or sour-rye bread.

Davidson's features an awesome seafood sandwich which calls for 200 miniature shrimps. And there is the Hans Christian Andersen, said to be the favorite of the famed poet and story-teller. It includes bacon, tomato, liver paste with truffles, meat jelly and horseradish.

One of the most popular of Denmark's sandwiches is made from slices of Frikadeller, Danish meat balls topped with pickled beets and cucumber slices on sour rye bread. This should be accompanied by a bottle of crackling cold Sancerre from France's Loire Valley.

FRIKADELLER
1 pound lean, joint ground
3 tablespoons flour
1 egg
1 medium onion chopped
salt and freshly ground pepper to taste
1 cup water
laced with 1 ounce cognac
6 tablespoons butter

Combine in a mixing bowl ground pork with flour, egg, onion, salt and pepper. Work with a wooden spoon or electric mixer until well blended. Add water and cognac a few spoonfuls at a time and continue to mix until meat is light and fluffy.

Shelf butter in a heavy skillet. Brown patties on all sides turning gently with a fork. Continue cooking until pork is thoroughly done. Makes about a dozen patties.

Chill before slicing for sandwiches, or if prefer, serve hot with boiled potatoes and red cabbage or a cucumber salad.

Popular Dish Of All Is Stew

By TOM HOGE
Associated Press Writer

United Nations officials recently ran a check on national dishes around the world. Of 38 countries polled, more than 40 listed as their national dish some variation of stew.

Not every country calls it by that name. It might be Hungarian goulash, French blanquette de veau or Bolivian carbonada. But in the final analysis, it's stew.

Served swimming in wine sauce from a silver platter spooned from an earthen pot brimming with potatoes, stew is just about the world's most popular dish.

The entries appearing in the U.N. survey ranged from President Dwight D. Eisenhower's personal formula for beef stew to Saudi Arabia's Ras Buhary, a tasty concoction of chicken, rice, onions, carrots and spices. Afghanistan favored a pungent mixture of beef, yogurt, beans and peppers while meat and bean combinations sharpened by long-simmering herbs were specialties of the Caribbean countries.

Stew's popularity is enhanced no doubt by the fact that it's very easy to prepare. You just let it simmer awhile, then pluck out a piece of meat and taste. Some cooks actually put in an extra few chunks of meat for just this purpose.

Stew, the oldest form of cookery, no longer means a family catchall for utilizing leftovers. Plush restaurants serve it with pride and guests who sample a family's special stew at a dinner party usually return for more.

Stews tell the story of a nation's diet customs and its home-grown foods. It is not the meat, but the accompanying ingredients that give this dish its national stamp. Potatoes are indispensable in Irish stew, while Italian ragout features macaroni or spaghetti. Scotch stew is known for its barley, and Hungarian goulash would not be complete without the flat, egg-rich noodles.

Stew is linked to the folklore of many nations. My wife, who was born and raised in Brazil, tells of a Sunday custom in rural areas. After church the family gathered to partake of feijoada, a rich mixture of black beans, salt pork, salt beef, tongue, dried beef, sausage and bacon and a host of torrid herbs. Old and young sat around the table and helped themselves from a great bowl containing the redolent mixture which had been simmering since early morning. White rice and orange slices give contrast to the main dish.

Latin Americans have a habit of classifying as soup hearty dishes that would pass anywhere else as stew. Ecuador, for instance, offers a specially called corn soup. The recipe for six persons calls in part for one pound of chopped beef, half a pound of sirloin, eight ears of corn and half a dozen hard-boiled eggs!

Since warping food costs are a major cost in most households, it is refreshing to note that experienced cooks agree that in a stew, expensive cuts of meat usually boil down to tasteless blobs, whereas cheaper cuts tenderize more slowly and retain their flavor.

The dish constantly challenges the innovative mind. There are always new possibilities, such as one suggestion for serving English beef stew in hot borscht, thus blending the specialties of two nations.

Belgium's most famous dish, Flemish Carbonnade, or beef stew cooked in beer, dates back to the Middle Ages. But add some English walnuts and a couple of spoons of Scotch whisky, and you have quite a different dish.

Promotion Movie Eyed For Sanford Environs

Greater Sanford Chamber of Commerce's advertising and promotions committee indicated at Wednesday's meeting a renewed interest in producing a film highlighting Sanford for national distribution. Don Parisher, of Parisher Gold Coast Productions, Miami, was on hand during the session to show his firm's just completed film about Titusville.

Entitled "The Space Capital of the World," the 18-minute color film depicted the attributes of the space age and the part the Brevard County city is playing in advancing the new age.

Some time ago the local Chamber of Commerce had indicated interest in having Parisher produce a film about Seminole County. News, the advertising and promotions committee, headed by William Reck, is desirous of producing a film on Sanford. Reck said he would call another meeting within two weeks to put the film package together. A plan of action is expected to be decided at that time, he commented.

Another promotional item which also will get the committee's attention is the need for a series of color brochures depicting Sanford. These brochures would be used as mail-outs and giveaways in an effort to help in the attraction of people to Sanford.

Present brochures are devoted to a county-wide format and would be changed in accordance with the chamber's name change, Reck advised.

Sanford Naval Academy Adm. Harry Smith also attended the meeting and showed a new film on the academy also made by Parisher.

Long-Time Hassle Ended Schools Lease City Stadium

A biannual hassle for the last several years has been resolved between Seminole County schools and the City of Sanford. The schools have leased Sanford Municipal Stadium for $1 for one year, effective March 1. The hassle was over preparing grounds each spring for baseball and each fall for football.

School Supt. John Angel said the schools would assume lease of the 3,000-seat stadium for $1 a year and would provide maintenance for the facility.

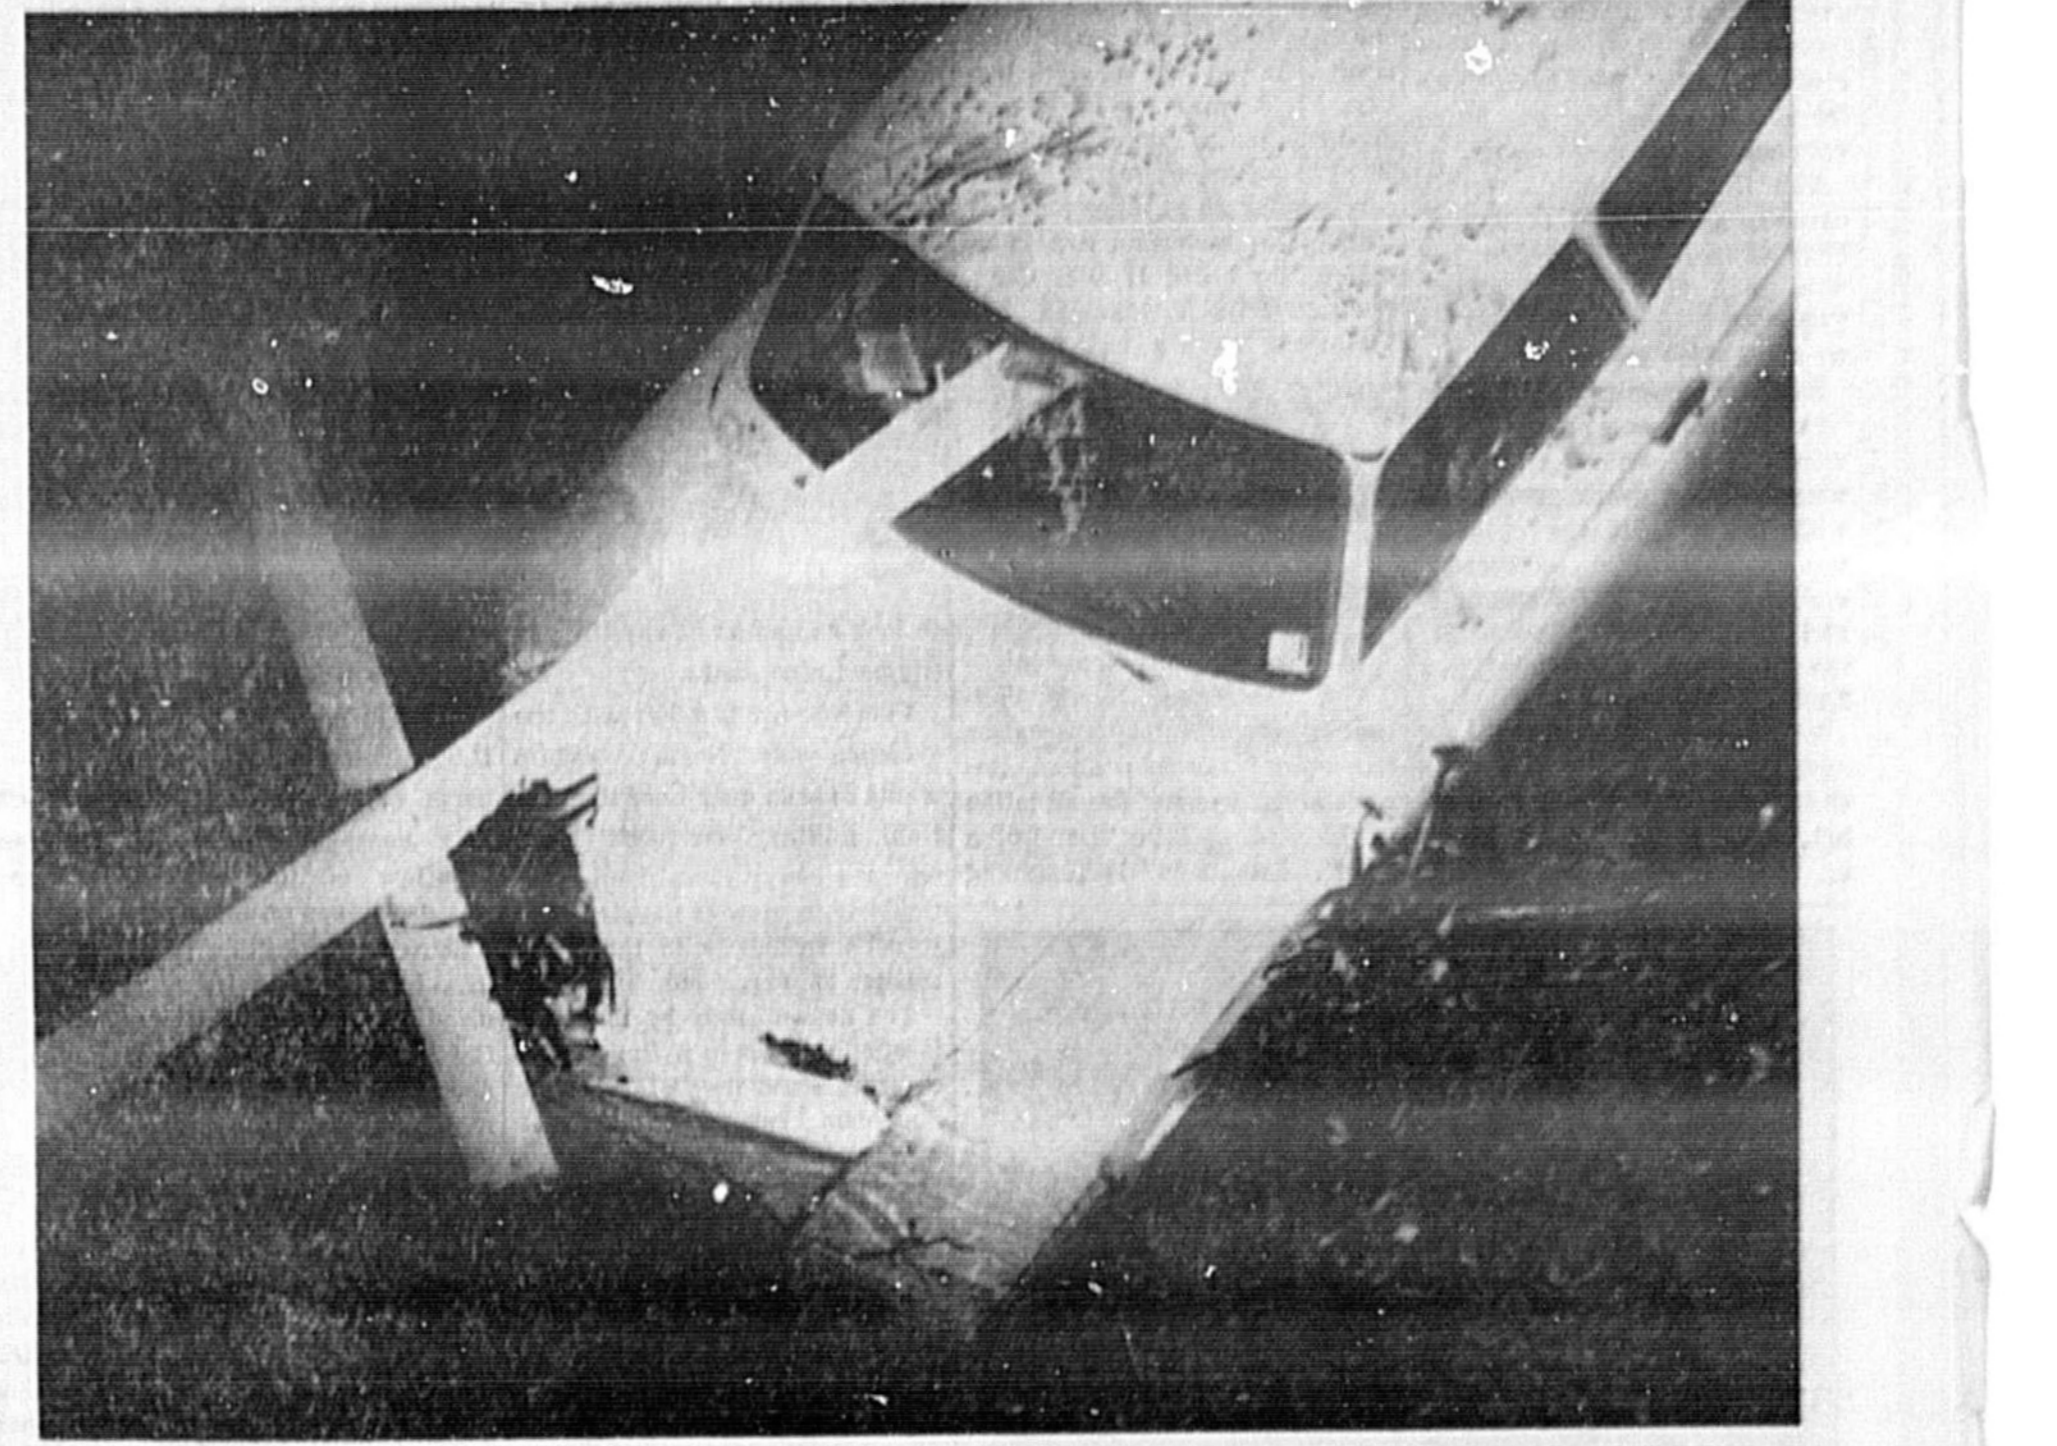

Sanford City Commission at Tuesday night's meeting approved leasing the city-owned sports coliseum to the schools for the above amount with all maintenance work and crews for upkeep being supplied by the school board.

Earlier this educator had said the schools wanted the facility on a 35-year lease, but yesterday the superintendent said the city wanted to lease for one year.

Sanford officials also are interested in what capital improvements are planned for the athletic field, Angel advised.

Kelsey On Trial Monday

The trial of George Kelsey, former Oviedo constable and police chief, and Eddie McGee will be heard in Circuit Court before Judge Tom Waddell Jr. starting at 9 a.m. Monday.

They are faced with charges of conspiracy to violate the gambling and beverage laws in count one of the indictment. In addition in count two, McGee is charged with actual violation of the gambling laws.

Three indictments against Kelsey and one against McGee were dismissed Wednesday for lack of witnesses by the prosecution. Two of these alleged bribery and a conspiracy to operate and conduct a lottery. Kelsey, who was the constable at the time of the alleged violations of the law, was removed from his office by Gov. Claude Kirk three times. Three times he was reinstated by the Florida State Senate, said his attorney, Gordon V. Frederick. Recently Kelsey sought election to the position as sheriff of Seminole County. He lost to John Polk.

McGee, a longtime resident of Oviedo, will be represented by Mack Cleveland.

The charges were filed on the two almost three years ago, in April of 1967.

Other charges against Harlan Blackburn and Clyde Lee, reputed bellie kingpins, also were dropped by Assistant State Prosecutor Thomas Spier. They were charged with gambling and conspiracy also.

The same charges for the same violations against Dorotea Whittaker, Jack Belch, J. R. Carmichael and Eddie Bright also were dropped.

Timed Traffic Signal Okayed For Howell Br., Lk. Howell

Seminole county commissioners have approved installation of a timed traffic signal at the intersection of Howell Branch Road and Lake Howell Road.

The board was apprised that the intersection met the warrant for minimum vehicular volume. The signal is not actuated but a three-time municipal type light in a 35-mile speed zone.

Cost will be approximately $1,500 and will be paid from the county road and bridge material fund. It is anticipated that the signal will be installed within 30 days. It was disclosed that there was a 5,000-6,000 car count in this area.

Commissioner Greg Drummond apprised the board that the intersection met the warrant for minimum vehicular volume. The signal is not actuated but a three-time municipal type light in a 35-mile speed zone.

encountering a problem with regard to road repair in that the county is experiencing a shortage of truck drivers. The problem is the age old one of "too long hours with too little pay."

Emergency maintenance was approved for a portion of Sand Lake Road to Ohio Avenue. The area has been in litigation for some time over a dispute of agreement on a center line. County Engineer William Bush advised Lavender, however, that he could guarantee there would be no problems with emergency maintenance in the area stated.

Running the grant from roads to room, court attaches now will have more "breathing space" as a result of completion of the additional courtroom facilities on Sand Mall designated as courtroom 3. County maintenance supervisor Henderson Ferguson was commended by the county commissioners for the completion of the office in a minimal period of time. Ferguson was advised that circuit and county judges also had expressed commendation.
