Top News In Brief

WASHINGTON — Secretary of Labor James P. Mitchell proposed today that the federal minimum wage law be broadened to cover some 2.5 million additional workers.

WINTER PARK, Fla. — Marion B. Folsom, secretary of the Education and Welfare, said today the fears that federal aid for education would bring federal controls are "unfounded."

WASHINGTON — President Eisenhower warned the people of the Middle East today to stand clear of the "menace of international communism" lest it "smash all their hard-won accomplishments overnight." Mr. Eisenhower reiterated in a special short wave broadcast beamed overseas, that his Middle East resolution, now pending in Congress, is designed "to help bring stability" to the troubled area.

Open Letter To Sanford Citizens From Mrs. Dow

On leaving your lovely City of Sanford, may I not open my heart to you in a brief open letter seeing it is impossible to reach you all individually.

I would like to express once again my heartfelt gratitude for all you have done in erecting the beautiful Memorial Library to the honor of your Founder, my beloved Father, General Henry Shelton Sanford.

I know well it has meant on your part much time, labor, effort, and sacrifice in which I too shared in distant Connecticut.

But you have completed it and it stands a beautiful and fitting memorial to him who loved this fair land of sunshine and flowers.

Then, in his honor, you all gave me a most wonderful ovation and welcome on my arrival in Sanford.

Never in all of a long life (although by no means 87 years long as some one has suggested) never have I realized such a thrilling experience and you all made Dedication Day one of the very proudest days in my life. Further, you have made me, one and all, feel so at home here. I grieve to leave you now but am determined to return for a whole winter next year.

I am happy to say I have found a lovely little foothold near the Library, therefore look forward with joy to my return to Sanford.

There is much to be done still and I would like to be among and help the creation of the new museum. There is much to plan to get the funds needed. I would suggest a series of subscription entertainment to promote this project, all different and all interesting, with amusing, musical, historical and horticulture programs.

If I cannot today either walk or see very well, I am in my head and I would love to devote all my time and service for ideas to plan among you which will further this great and sacred Memorial Unit.

Thus, in leaving you, let me tell you not Goodbye, but Au-revoir! and for always while I live. Believe me.

Gratefully, your friend
Carola Sanford Dow

Delegation Leaves For Capitol

Seminole County Chamber of Commerce Manager John Krider, J. Bralley Odham, and Congressman A. S. "Syd" Herlong Jr., will leave for Washington at 5:30 this afternoon to begin an "on the scene" campaign in an effort to keep the proposed Naval Air Station, Sixth Naval District, in Seminole County.

The Washington trip comes on the heels of announcements from the three man Washington congressional delegation that they are supporting the move to keep the important naval air base in Seminole County.

The latest announcement came this morning when Senator George Smathers, in a telegram to The Sanford Herald said "In my previous discussions with the Secretary of the Navy and the Navy's other officials, I have insisted that the Navy, insofar as practicable, continue to use the facilities at Sanford and when it appears those facilities are no longer useable in the light of developing aircraft requirements that they make every effort to use the site at Osceola."

This gives Sanford two-man delegation, on its way to Washington, a "foot in the door" perhaps as they look into the questions of "How to keep the Naval Air Station here."

32nd Pioneer Night Is Success

By Gladys Brown & Clara Cooke
The Lake Mary Chamber of Commerce Building was the scene of one of the most beautiful and inspiring gatherings of the year when the 32nd annual Pioneer night was celebrated by people over 60 years old from Seminole County which was the biggest crowd in history.

Frank Evans as master of ceremonies was certainly in true form and makes the people of Lake Mary proud to have such an illustrious person as their neighbor and friend. He was the originator of this annual event which is the only one of its kind in the State of Florida.

Earl Toney, President of Lake Mary Chamber of Commerce made a welcoming speech for all pioneers.

Baskets of gladioli presented by W. E. Kirchhoff, Jr. banked the stage and were later given to the guests. It. J. Bauman, President of the Sanford Atlantic National Bank donated red and white carnations which were presented to each guest by the lady ushers.

One of the interesting features of the evening was the discussion of the original pioneers of this section by Dr. Fred Ensminger, President Emeritus of Southern Union College, Watley Alabama.

Randall Chase gave the history of Seminole County. Other talks were made by Jimmy Phillips, Rev. S. L. Drawdy, Jay Beck, Senator Douglas Stenstrom and Attorney Fred R. Wilson. This was the 10th year that Senator Stenstrom has attended the Annual Pioneer Night and highly complimented Evans for originating this annual event.

Tap dances were given by Deanna Nichols and Bobby Jean of the Duxbury School of Dancing, and the Triple Trio and mixed ensemble of Seminole High School presented their rendition of "Chopsticks" and "Once In Love With Amy" under the direction of Miss Ollie Reese Whittle, Musical Director of Seminole High School. Those taking part were Penny Marion, Kaye Jenkins, Carol Nutt, Lois Barinseau, Sylvia Price, Ann Davis, Iris Causey, Juanita Wynne, Nancy Cash, Double Quartet, Johnny Barley, Bill Tyre, Phillip Boyd, Bobby Little, Murray Nance, Brantley Schirard, Teddy Walker and Al Collins.

Mrs. Nellie Wheelers, 95 years old, from Longwood was the oldest lady present. Sheriff J. L. Hubby, presented a white orchid corsage to Mrs. Wheelers. Other ladies receiving gifts were Cassandra Brown Schultz, 92, Mrs. Joseph

Federal Regulation Of Signs Along New Highway System Is Needed

As America moves toward construction of its great new transcontinental highway system, the secondary but nevertheless important question of beauty must be considered. It would be a shame to become so absorbed in the technical problems as to forget that thousands of miles of these highways will traverse countryside eminently worth seeing.

And that is exactly what Floridians are worrying about. These huge, 300 foot wide paths of moving traffic will eliminate much of the sightseeing our visitors usually partake of as they drive through the state. In addition, there will be fences along that highway that will prevent getting on or off except at specified places widely scattered and away from the actual beauty spots of the area.

So it is natural that Florida people will want visitors to see as much as possible as they travel at high rates of speed along these strips of macadam from one big center to another.

However, the catch is that if proposed federal control of billboards along the new highway system is defeated in Congress, motorists may see more billboards than countryside. The outdoor advertising lobby is trying to beat a measure which would establish standards to protect the scenic beauty along the highways. If this lobby's efforts to defeat the bill succeed, travelers a few years hence will doubtless be treated to a fine display of advertising signs across the length and breadth of America, but they will see little of America itself.

This would certainly be a detriment to Florida and in Seminole County we know of the harm it will do in keeping eyes away from the really plush spots of the State where one can relax and see Florida at its finest.

The outdoor advertising lobby has made the unwarranted charge that federal control of billboards along the right of way would be an invasion of the state's rights. This is reaching very far indeed to build an argument against a kind of control that is clearly in the public interest. Frankly, we think that it might be an invasion of the rights of the motorist who would be prevented from seeing just exactly what his trip to Florida should provide.

The roads of this country are already cluttered up with too many signs. In some areas it is difficult to catch a glimpse of the countryside between billboards. Federal regulation of signs along the new highway system would not be an invasion of state's rights. It would be a means of making America visible to the millions who will travel those highways.

We would like to express, however, a thought that might be included in this bill to control highway signs. Communities who are bypassed should have the authority, without permission, to erect a sign of any size and of any construction directing motorists to their communities. This would be the natural thing for Congress to do since they are directing tourists, businessmen, and traffic in general away from the communities which have been, for years, profiting from the annual influx of visitors and motorists.

Electronic Age

The electronic age provides many wonders, not a few of which have unpleasant overtones. Consider the situation in a small town high school where a closed circuit television camera peers down at pupils in a study hall and makes their every move visible at all times in the principal's office.

On the face of it, this sounds like a good thing. Teachers can perform other tasks instead of doing guard duty in the study hall. The pupils pay attention to their work because they know that any mischief may be spotted by the principal or any other anonymous watcher. More studying; better grades. What could be more desirable than that? Isn't that what schools are for?

Certainly this is what schools are for—to fill pupils with knowledge. Yet the schools also have another function, to prepare young people for citizenship in a democracy. Whether this purpose is served by an electronic eye that coldly observes students during all their study hours is open to serious question.

Reading

Some people read a great deal. Others read scarcely at all; and make no bones about it. In between these two extremes are vast numbers of adults who would like to read, but whose cry is, "I just don't get the time."

After one has retorted with the usual banality that all of us have the same 24 hours a day, the question remains: How can a busy man or woman find time to read something more than the daily hometown newspaper and perhaps a popular magazine or two? Although there is no simple answer, one device is helpful.

This is the simple device of having at least one book always "on the boil." Too many people think of reading as something that requires hours of uninterrupted time. This may be the ideal situation, but a lot of reading can also be accomplished by taking numerous small gulps at the well of learning.

Reading—or not reading—is largely a matter of habit. The man who says he "can never find time to read" generally means that he can't find two or three quiet hours at a time for reading. But almost anyone can find 15 or 20 minutes or a half hour now and then. Many an interesting book has been absorbed in gulps as brief as that. It's worth a try.

Socialism is supposed to distribute the wealth. What it actually does—as in Russia—is to enforce poverty on the many, while a few at the top enjoy almost unlimited luxury.

GROWING WITH THE YEARS

Veterans Corner

Here are authoritative answers from the Veterans Administration to four questions of interest to former servicemen and their families:

Q. Does a Korean GI trainee have the right to change his course of his progress in his present course hasn't been satisfactory?

A. He may if he can show VA that the lack of progress was not due to his own misconduct, neglect or lack of application—and if he has not changed his course prior to that time.

Q. My son has a scholarship granted by the Atomic Energy Commission. He also is eligible for benefits under the War Orphans education program. Could he keep his Atomic Energy scholarship and also draw War Orphans allowances?

A. He could not. The monthly allowances under the War Orphans program would constitute a duplication of benefits paid from the Federal Treasury. Such duplication is prohibited by law.

Q. I am a World War II veteran, and I understand I must apply for a GI loan by July 25, 1958. Must I actually obtain money for the loan by that date?

A. No. Your lender at least must have agreed to make the loan, and must have requested VA's approval by July 25, 1958. The law gives you up to an additional year to close the deal.

Q. My husband, a World War II veteran, died of a condition not related to his military service. I have not remarried. As an unmarried widow, would I be eligible for a GI loan?

A. No. One requirement of the law is that the veteran must have died of some condition related to his military service. Widows of veterans who died of non-service connected conditions would not be eligible for loans.

Veterans living in Central Florida who wish further information about their various benefits should write or visit the VA office at 42 E. Central Ave., Orlando.

Food Plan For Children

By HERMAN H. BUNDSCH, M.D.

LET'S be practical about this business of eating the proper foods every day.

The bold notion, as every mother well knows, is that children just aren't going to do it, no matter how important the doctor says it is.

Old Days

Every child has an "off" day. That's to be expected; but don't make it worse by insisting that he should eat all the food you think he must have.

It won't hurt him to miss some or even most of these essential foods for one day. In fact, you'll probably do more harm by nagging him to eat.

But if he begins refusing certain food day after day, that's something else again.

Necessary Foods

Each day—with a few exceptions, as I have said—your youngster should have a minimum of two glasses of milk, one egg, a potato and at least one or two green or yellow vegetables, at least one serving of meat, cheese or beans, two servings of fruit juice or whole fruit, some whole grain or enriched bread and cereal and butter or fortified margarine.

Take Action

When he starts turning down these foods repeatedly, you've got to take some action.

For one thing, don't let anyone at the table—father, mother, brothers, even yourself—relate to the child's food refusal.

Letters To The Editor

The Editor
Sanford Herald
Sanford, Florida
Dear Sir:

I wish to offer a suggestion in connection with the current efforts to expedite relocation of the Naval Air Station in this vicinity.

The problem of providing railroad facilities for the proposed Naval Air Station at Ocala, Florida can be solved without incurring the prohibitive expense of constructing a bridge over the St. Johns River. However, the success of the solution would depend on whether the rights to certain rights of way could be secured.

I would suggest projecting a railroad spur from the Ovidio terminus of the Atlantic Coast Line Railroad East along the old Atlantic Coast Line right of way to Iowa City; then East by North-east for a distance of 1.3 miles to a junction with the old Florida East Coast right of way. If rights to the Florida East Coast right of way can be secured, the rail line could be run North through Geneva to Ocala.

The distance from Iowa City to Ocala is just twelve miles, and the tracks along the suggested route can be laid within a period of from thirty to sixty days.

Yours very truly,
Henry McAlister

Isla, S. C., Marine base.

The article suggested that the same treatment existed in other branches of the U. S. armed services. It asserted that the Parrie Island system was an "insupportable part of living which pursues one aim — to force servicemen obediently to serve the interests of millionaires and act as suppressors of freedom and independence."

Conring The News

BY VIRGINIA CONN

VAH-7 wives met at Terry Price's home Thursday morning for coffee. These coffee have become a regular monthly affair and are very popular, since the squadron is on a split tour, and the girls don't see each other as much. There was an excellent turn out, and several guests attended—Mrs. Barabon, Bob Barabon's mother of New York came with Bonnie, Mrs. Cook, who is Elaine Libbey's aunt from Massachusetts, and Mrs. Garret, Ruth Hodges' mother, who returns to Virginia this week.

Thursday night HATU gave a lobster party at the B. O. Q. to bid farewell to O. B. and Lil Gray who are going to Washington, and John and Spook Hook, who have been transferred to VAH-5. The honored guests received engraved silver cigarette boxes. Formally welcomed to HATU were John and Jean Dooley, Paul and Puntin O'Dea, and Bob and Mike Stone. Forrest Norvell made the speeches in his gifted way, and the party was much fun. Attending were Bill and Betty Lemos, Tom Blackburn, Mallie and John Barlow, Red Cleveland, Rosemary and Cliff Duncan, Mac and Bill Edwards, Wendell McGuire, Bob and Anita Hadden, Harry and Helen Griffin, Mildred and Allie Loper, Betty and Joe McClane, Treeta and Mike Michel, Mary and Lou Millaps, Betty and Vern Mountcastle, Ruth and Forrest Norvell, Ida and Bob Radtke, Jim and Virginia Shaffer, John and Ruth Spartz, Sally Tegelfeldt, and Howie Weigle. Carl and Jean Jim and Mary Nelson, and Lois and Marge Hoop.

Don Brubaker's mother arrived from Wyoming Friday morning for a visit. Ruth and Bill Barron drove up towards Jacksonville (to take unknown to this poor reporter) for the weekend.

The dance at B. O. Q. did not bring forth many people, although it was a lot of fun, and the B.O. Trio excellent. They played continuously without a break, and had a tremendous repertoire. There were snacks on all the tables, which deserved more attention. However the crowd that did come had a very good time and were able to do some vigorous dancing. Seen there were Hazel and Mike Rowell, with Mike's father, Muril and Hawk Hawkins, Chuck and Betty McBratline, Lou and Joan Feltz, John and Spook Hook, Joyce and Bob Baker, Millie and Charlie Donnaud, Punkin and Paul O'Dea, Kitty and Dick Boyd, Alice and Ernie Mills, Sandy and Dick Ortmann, Cherry and Jerry Ryman, Bert and Dick Conn, and Jackie and Ilen Austin.

Betty McBratline was celebrating after the second performance.

Cub Scouts Held Banquet Thursday At McKinley Hall

Cub Scouts, Pack Ten, enjoyed their annual Blue and Gold Banquet Thursday evening at McKinley Hall in the First Methodist Church.

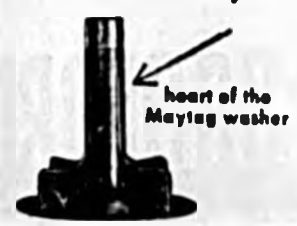

Most of the business formalities were foregone in order to give closer attention to the fried chicken. However, a count revealed 166 dinners in attendance, with 104 having the largest representation.

The Cubs were urged to prepare to attend the annual Boy Scout Kickapoo, planned this year for the evening of March 9, at the baseball stadium. There are several events scheduled for Cubs.

The need for more committee-men was explained, and the next committee meeting was called for March 11. The March Pack meeting will be on Thursday, the 21. An induction ceremony was conducted for two new Bobcats, James Harvey and Michael Dean Morgan. Robert Moore was promoted to Wolf, and the following boys received their Bear badges: Jeff Williams, also gold arrow; Don Sheppard, with silver arrow; Kevin Edge, with silver arrow; John Ed Leach, with silver arrow; Cecil Jones, with 2 silver arrows; and Tommy Bagerly, with gold arrows.

Dinner Stripes were awarded to Buddy Jeffords, Robert Glenn, and Steve Hillner received his assistant dinner stripe with a service star, and George Towell also got an assistant dinner stripe. A Den Chief cord was presented to Dennis Arwood.

of BELL BOOK, and CANDLE. The cast presented her with a silver charm bracelet with—y—y guessed it—a bell, book, and candle. Inside the little book were all their names. The audiences for the play were not what they should have been in size, but they made up for it in enthusiasm, and considering the proximity to the Folies, I guess it was almost to be expected, which means that the Theatre Guild should get more credit than ever for having gone through with the whole deal. The play was well executed, and certainly proved that in Sanford there is the stuff for a little theatre. Whether there is a place for one depends on the future attendance of townfolk. It's not much to play in an empty house. There will be a meeting tonight (Monday) at the City Hall to cast the next production which is going to be a huge success. Over Twenty One is well known for wit and humor, and should be a pleasure both to act and watch. Tom and Dorell Kilcline had as their guests last week his brother Don, and his wife, who have returned to Indiana after a visit to Port Lauderdale. Dorell's mother is here now from Pensacola. Jane Miller has returned from Indiana, Mississippi, bringing her mother and father with her. Her sons, Charles and John went on the trip too.

Little Theatre Group Scores Hit

By GINGER JONES

Those of you who didn't get to see "Bell, Book and Candle" certainly missed a thrilling performance. Members of the cast told me Saturday that they had received many phone calls and letters praising the production.

The attendance doubled that of the night before at each performance and for a reason! Many people I talked to who had seen the play stated "The play was as good as any put on by professional actors. Naturally, such a good thing is no secret and news of a grand performance travels quickly. These players, all local talent, are doing a tremendous job and we urge you to give them all the support and encouragement possible by your attendance.

Those of the Sanford Little Theatre who performed in "Bell, Book, and Candle" were: Harriet Cowley, George Dobbs, Bob Mero, Mary Scheurenman, and Harry (Dutch) Dewitt, directed by Mrs. Betty McBratline.

Their next production, a hilarious comedy, "Over Twenty-one" will be given in the near future. Plans for this new play are being completed tonight in the City Hall Auditorium.

On Friday night, Feb. 22, Capt. R. W. Jackson, commanding officer of the Naval Air Station, cut the red ribbon and officially opened the newly renovated E. M. Club at S.N.A.S. Also attending the ceremonies were Mrs. Jackson, the Executive Officer of the Air Station, Cdr. L. D. Tammy and Mrs. Tammy, Cdr. Thomas C. Deane, administrative officer, and LTJG. W. P. Post, Special Services officer. Despite the short notice many had about opening, quite a crowd turned out, and managed to consume the free refreshment.

The club is now laid out to provide separate areas for the different facilities it offers. A large VV room, furnished in rattan occupies one corner, and one complete end is for "couples only." This includes the dance floor, tables and chairs, and comfortable lounge chairs and settees. The bar area is now for men only! We hope that in the months to come all enlisted personnel and their wives and dates will take advantage of these facilities that have been provided for their use. It needs our support, so lets USE IT. Be for I get off of my "couples box," may I extend my thanks to Capt. and Mrs. Jackson, Cdr. and Mrs. Tammy, Cdr. Deane, and LTJG. Post for their attendance at the opening, and their support of our club.

On Thursday evening, Feb. 21, the Advisory Board of the Enlisted Men's Wives Club met at the home of the club's president, Mrs. Howard Miller, on Pinecrest Dr. Attending the meeting were Mrs. Marion Holmes, Mrs. Adele Holman, Mrs. Diane Lanier, Mrs. Gladys Carter, Mrs. Alice Drake, Mrs. Rue King, Mrs. Alice Pulver, and Mrs. Lillian Ogles. The main topic under discussion was the coming membership drive of the club that will be "launched" on March 18, with a "covered dish" supper at the USO.

There may be some enlisted wives in the area who have not heard of our club, and are not aware of its purpose. So to all of these wives, and to those who have heard of it, but have not as yet made an effort to join, may I extend the invitation of the Enlisted Men's Wives Club to attend this dinner, and "meet the girls." We will be doing our best in the weeks to come, to personally contact the wives. But with such a large number to cover, it may not be possible to speak with each and every one of you. So, whether you are called or not, we will be looking for you at 8:00 p.m., March 18.

Congratulations go out to Mr. and Mrs. Robert Robare on the birth of their son, Tommie Dale, on Feb. 19, at Seminole Memorial Hospital. Has "Daddy" come down to earth yet, Mrs. Robare?? ART—

The Mixed Bowling League had a big night last Thursday and the pins that fell made a change in the team standings. The top three teams, however, Powell's Office Supply, Clyde's Grill, and Harvey's Plumbing Co. are holding a very tight score and really could every pin that totters as they battle it out with their opposition in order to get a firm hold on the top position.

Powell's Office Supply came up with three wins last week, putting them back in first place—but only by one game—with 14 wins and seven losses.

Bowlers for Clyde's Grill were off last week and were lucky to take one game from Sanford Bowling Alley. But Clyde's still holds second place with 13 wins against eight losses, but they now have to share second place with up and coming Harvey's Plumbing who matched the season mark last week.

Harvey's prey was Wieboldt Camera Shop, who have stayed in fifth place with an 8-13 record.

Even though the Sanford Bowling Alley team was fired up last week and took two games, they still hold the pivot spot in League standings with a last half season record of 11 wins and 10 losses, but they have only two games to go to take second place away from Clyde's and Harvey's.

Rattled Seminole Dry Cleaners just can't pull themselves together and are still on the bottom after losing three games to Powell's leaving them with a 4-17 record. Each member of the team seems to be enjoying their bowling night, however, and it seems that they will be able to throw some hot balls before long.

High game was bowled by Ellen Betts, who went wild and hit a sparkling 220, only four pins shy of Lillian DoDnat, who holds top honors for the league with a thus-far-untouched 224. Ellen also had the high series with a solid 323, but far shy of the mark set by Harold Ring, who still holds an unbeaten high series of 547.

High Team Single goes to Sanford Bowling Alley who came up with 848 and beat Powell's, who had held High Team Single since the first week of 2336, which they tallied four weeks ago and still keeps them in the running. Sanford Bowling Alley had the High Team Three last week with 2255.

Next week Seminole Dry Cleaners and Harvey's Plumbing Co. face each other in a meet that could well break up the second place tie in the League. Sanford Bowling Alley plays Wieboldt Camera Shop and Powell's Office Supply and Clyde's Grill will take to the battle field again. This should be a top-flight game, because Powell's want to hold first place and Clyde's want to get it back again. These two teams have been running neck and neck along with Harvey's Plumbing and now Sanford Bowling Alley is in the race too.

There is another tie to be broken next week and since Harvey's and Clyde's will not be opposing each other and Clyde's play Powell's it will be a tough game for all concerned. All top four teams are scoring too close for any other team's comfort and this week should be another interesting night of bowling.

Lillian DoDnat, secretary of the League, said, "Every one will really have to do some bowling and pick up those pins with a lot of points for their team this week."

Mixed League bowling is held every Thursday at 8 p. m.

Michigan began a territory in 1805 with a population of less than 5,000.

Quintet Closes Out Season Here Before Big Friday Crowd

JVs Are Edged Out By Cocoa Tigers 42-41 Friday Nite

Lit Jimmy Gracey showed just how much he wanted to redeem a prior defeat at the hands of the Cocoa Tiger JV's last month by leading the entire field with 17 points last Friday night in a preliminary game at the Seminole High School Auditorium, but the scrappy Seminole JV effort failed just one point shy of the goal and they were edged out again by a 42-41 score.

But it was a far cry from the 41-26 massacre they fell victim to the last time; and this time they were missing the services of Allen Swaim who had been called for varsity duty.

The baby "injury" threw the book at the baby Tigers in a deliberate game that shook loose the full court press that the Tigers master. The game was decided at the free-throw line.

Each team hit off 14 buckets, but the Tigers' accuracy at the give-away line was one point better.

After the game, JV mentor Dick Stevens, in an emotionally charged voice, thanked the youngsters for sticking through the rough part of the season. He predicted a great future for Seminole attitude and athletics.

The Seminole met its most dreaded fear—the full court press—and conquered it by playing a conservative game designed to make the close pressing Tigers foul. The strategy paid victory—two of them. Orange Belt Conference encounters—for the season.

The Seminole played a deliberate game from the beginning and jumped to an early lead. But by the end of the first quarter a fear rippled through the Seminole camp when the openings for shots were not accurate and the Tigers had pulled ahead 11-8.

But it was also apparent early that the strategy of court mentor Bud Laver was paying dividends in the foul bracket. Of the eight points scored by the Seminole in the first bracket, six of them were from free throws.

There were many high points of the game—Ray Lundquist sparking the attack, Ken McMurray hawking the ball until he fouled out early in the second quarter. Allen Swaim's brilliant substitution and rebounding, Joe High playing a "head-up" game throughout the entire fray, and Cecil Dandridge coupling with Bruce McCoy in bringing the ball down the courts for the warpathing Seminole—but the most thrilling exhibition of skilled defensive work of the season was turned in by big Mike Tammy who sparked the winning attitude and held the Tiger big gun, John Dean, down to only 11 points. In the first Seminole-Cocoa meeting Dean had a field day and scored 26 points.

It was a redemptive battle for the Seminole as they avenged themselves of the humiliating 72-44 defeat they suffered the last meeting when the Seminole fell prey to the vicious attack of the Tiger full court press.

The large turnout that had come to stand by the Seminole in its last game of the season went wild in the last three minutes as Lundquist proved a master at drawing fouls and gave the Seminole the victory boost.

Police said Blanchon was a success as a master engraver, chemist and counterfeiter, so long as he had made and passed pound notes, ten-dollar bills and lottery tickets alone. Krider will stay in Washington in behalf of Seminole County and to follow every lead available in an effort to keep the proposed Naval Air Station, Sixth Naval District in the Seminole County area.

In a long distance telephone conversation this morning, shortly before noon, Krider said that a meeting has been scheduled with Secretary of the Navy Charles Thomas this afternoon at 2:30.

The meeting with the Secretary of the Navy was arranged by Congressman Herlong.

Krider, Congressman Herlong, Senators Smathers and Holland had lunch together this afternoon in the Pentagon Building to map plans for Krider's stay in the nation's capital.

Congressman Herlong said this morning "We're going to leave no stone unturned to keep the Navy installation in Seminole County."

However, Herlong said "The decision is not to be made by the Congressmen but we are doing everything possible to keep the proposed station there."

Congressman Herlong, Senator George Smathers, and Senator Spessard Holland will accompany Krider on his visit with the Secretary of the Navy.

Both Krider and Herlong said "We will keep you posted as to how we are progressing here in Washington."

Engine On Nehru's Plane Catches Fire

NEW DELHI (AP) — Prime Minister Jawaharlal Nehru of India escaped injury today when an engine caught fire on his twin-engine plane—a gift of the Soviet government—and he was forced to make an emergency landing.

The plane, a two-engine Ilyushin-14, was presented to Nehru by Soviet Premier Nikolai Bulganin last year when Bulganin and Soviet Communist Party leader Nikita S. Khrushchev were touring India.

The plane landed at a neglected wartime airstrip at Raichur, 110 miles southwest of Hyderabad. Nehru looked untroubled when told of the fire and only smiled when the pilot later apologized to him for the incident.

The accident happened on the third day of the national elections which will last for three more weeks. Nehru flies to various areas to campaign just before voting begins in that particular area.

Docks, Terminals Study Discussed By Board

Federal Assistance For Sewage Plant Appears 'Remote'

The City of Sanford's bid for public assistance in the construction of a sewage treatment plant is 34th in a list of 38 applications made under Public Law 660.

Announcement of the remote possibility for financial assistance in the construction of the nearly quarter-million dollar project came last night at a meeting of the Board of Sanford City Commissioners.

City Manager Warren E. Knowles said that the application for federal assistance under this law must be made each year and the possibilities of coming closer to the assistance are "remote."

"We may be even further away than 34th place," said Knowles, "because each year there may be additional applications filed for the appropriation made under the Public Law 660."

Knowles advised the Board of Commissioners that the firm of consulting engineers, Smith and Gillespie of Jacksonville "expects have the preliminary plans and report on the sewage treatment plant ready by the next meeting."

Members of the Board of Commissioners withheld comment on the federal assistance program until the engineers report is received and passed.

Attention of the commissioners was called to a request to submit an engineering report for sewage treatment facilities at a cost of $100. However, commissioners, even though they felt that the city should keep an eye on all developments that might prove valuable to the city, did not authorize the report.

3 Explorer Scouts Pulled To Safety

MONTREY, Calif. (AP) — Three 16-year-old explorer scouts, missing since Saturday, were pulled to safety up a 1,000 foot cliff Monday by an Army rescue unit.

The youths, all sons of Ft. Ord officers, were in good physical condition.

They were David Phillips, son of Brig. Gen. John D. S. Phillips, commanding officer of the 5th Division Artillery; Tommy Bates, son of Col. Robert S. Bates, Gen. Phillips' executive officer, and Randy Gripp, son of Maj. Frank R. Gripp, division chaplain.

The boys camped in a ravine by a stream and were trapped by rising water from a drenching storm that swept the area over the weekend.

"We weren't worried," young Phillips said. "We knew somebody would find us eventually."

President, Mollet Rebuilding Franco-American Relations

Home Is Destroyed By Fire; Police Study Arson Angle

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower and French Premier Guy Mollet got down to the job today of rebuilding strained Franco-American relations.

They arranged morning, noon and afternoon meetings at the White House during the first full day of Mollet's official visit to Washington.

At the same time French Foreign Minister Christian Pineau met separately with Secretary of State John Foster Dulles.

Mollet pledged on his arrival Monday that "we are going to put our hearts, our minds and our full strength to achieving the peaceful and just purposes that are common to our two republics."

Rees Invasion Harmful
Relations between the United States and France hit a postwar low last fall when France and Britain invaded Egypt without first conferring with this government. The invasion strained badly the formerly close ties among the "Big Three" western allies.

Only recently, after the British-French withdrawal from Egypt, did Mr. Eisenhower agree to meet with Mollet and the new British prime minister, Harold Macmillan. The President will confer with Macmillan in a separate meeting in British Bermuda March 21-24.

"The purpose of these two meetings is to get Big Three confidence back on the tracks," one official said.

Sanctions Pose Problem
Despite efforts to restore former good relations, France and the United States are split on the question of sanctions against Israel. This could be a ticklish point in the Eisenhower-Mollet talks unless Israel soon agrees to withdraw her forces from Egypt.

Librarian Prospects Presented

Three prospects for the position of "librarian" at the General Henry Shelton Sanford Memorial Library were presented to the Board of Sanford City Commissioners last night when Gen. J. C. Hutchison made a report to the board on the library.

Dr. J. Bernard Root, chairman of a committee appointed to search for a librarian, submitted the names, salaries and working hours proposed for the three prospects.

Dr. Root said "these are three persons whom we believe are capable of working acceptably at the Possibility that one of the prospects might work in conjunction with the Seminole County School System spurred the Board of Sanford City Commissioners to delve deeper into the possibilities of employing this person. Dr. Root told the board that "this prospect will, more than likely, move to Sanford."

Announcement of contributions made to the General Henry Shelton Sanford Memorial Library and Museum Committee for the building fund was also made to the commissioners.

H. B. Pope, chairman of the committee's building committee said that the burglar alarm system will be checked and completed this morning.

The library, he said, has been adequately protected with a burglar alarm system which is connected directly, by telephone line, with the Sanford Police Department.

Gen. Hutchison said "each book in the library has been valued at $300 by Dr. A. J. Hanna of Rollins College."

The Board of Commissioners was also told that Dr. J. B. Root has been assigned as chairman of a committee to draw up "rules and regulations for the operation of the library."

"We are working for the City," Gen. Hutchison told the Board of Commissioners, "and we want our work to be satisfactory to you."

Prior to the discussion relative to the library building itself, the Board of Sanford City Commissioners instructed its attorney, William C. Hutchison, to draw up the proper resolution of thanks to Mrs. Carola Dow for her gift to the City of Sanford. "That was a wonderful letter in The Sanford Herald today," commissioners commented, "and our answer should be incorporated into the resolution."

Project Gets Big Boost

The roooped Docks and Terminals project will have smooth sailing according to the sand-off it received last night at the Board of Sanford City Commissioners meeting.

City commissioners received a copy of the survey prepared by W. M. Bostwick, engineer of Daytona Beach last night.

Commissioner F. D. Scott, holding his copy of the survey in mid-air said "This is important—we should figure some way to put the Docks and Terminals Project over."

The survey, completed for the Florida Power and Light Company as a Seminole County Chamber of Commerce project, is contained in a folder of 50 pages which includes graphs, sketches, analyses and other data pointing to several of the huge project for Sanford and Central Florida.

Possibly the highlight of the survey is the fact that the cover page gives Sanford-Seminole County the title of "The Wholesale Distributing Center for Central Florida."

Commissioner A. L. Wilson commented at last night's meeting "If we had this building tomorrow we would be 25 years late."

Wilson has been rather pointed in his stand for the Docks and Terminals project. He said in an interview prior to the meeting last night that "This is the most important undertaking of the city and nothing should stand in its way."

Merle Warner, City Commissioner stated emphatically "I go for it 100 per cent!" He applauded Commissioner Scott's words when he remarked that the Board of Commissioners should figure out some way to put over the project.

Mayor David Gatchell immediately instructed City Manager Warren E. Knowles to place the discussion regarding the "Docks and Terminals" on the next meeting's agenda.

In first appearances, the Docks and Terminals project has gotten off to "a head start" with discussions apparently underway in an optimistic attitude.

The project, costing in the neighborhood of a half-million dollars, will bring rail, truck and water traffic together in one vast distributing point at Sanford on Lake Monroe and the St. Johns River.

Four-Story Rubber Plant Building Destroyed By Fire

BUTLER, N. J. — A general alarm fire gutted a four-story rubber plant early today in the heart of Butler.

The fire, which started in the Pequannock Soft Rubber Co. plant at about 12:30 a. m. EST, virtually split the building.

The front wall of the building collapsed into Main Street. The plant's rear wall cascaded down onto the tracks of the Susquehanna Railroad which runs behind the plant.

Authorities said they expected the fire in the plant which covers a three-block area to burn until this afternoon. Firemen were threatened by intermittent explosions which shattered windows in the area.

An estimated 200 employees who were working in the plant when the fire started were evacuated safely. One fireman was injured fighting the blaze and several others were treated for smoke inhalation.

The county civil defense director declared the vicinity surrounding the plant a "disaster area."
