Destruction Ordered After Rocket Failure

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (AP) - An $18 million Titan Centaur rocket was blown up in space today when its upper stage failed to ignite after it blasted off from the Kennedy Space Center.

Space agency officials said the center's safety officer destroyed the unmanned rocket about eight minutes after it was launched at 9:38 a.m. EDT.

The new Titan-Centaur combination, which will be used in 1975 to send two unmanned Viking spacecraft to land on Mars, was on a test flight when the upper stage failed to respond to signals that would have fired its rocket motor. When the rocket failed to respond to a second signal and started to veer off course, it was destroyed The new rocket is a marriage between the Air Force Titan rocket and the space agency Centaur upper The operational version will cost about $28 to $30 million, although today's rocket only cost $18 million

The Titan-Centaur is scheduled to launch two West German satellites called Helios into orbit around the sun late this year and in 1975.

'Keep On Trucking' Is Word Despite Local Fear Of Trouble

truck stops were preparing to hit the road again this morning despite some fears of trouble along their routes and general dissatisfaction with the government settlement which freezes diesel fuel prices, assures truckers of adequate supplies of fuel and provides for freight rate surcharges to cover recent hikes in fuel costs.

Truck traffic picked up on Florida highways today but spokesmen for independent owner-operators said the strike was far from over.

Medical Coverages Questioned

WASHINGTON (AP) — Higher medical standards would result from President Nixon's health plan, according to Caspar Weinberger, secretary of health, education and welfare. But, he said, the plan will not require any new taxes. Meanwhile, Sen. Edward M. Kennedy, D-Mass., who has his own health proposal in Congress, says the Nixon plan would not guarantee quality health care to all Americans.

Holloway Next In Line

WASHINGTON (AP) - The front runner to become the next Chief of Naval Operations is believed to be Adm. James L. Holloway III. Pentagon sources said they expect President Nixon to act within a few weeks in picking a successor for Adm. Elmo R. Zurr.walt Jr., whose fouryear term as Navy chief ends in July.

Energy Conference Underway

WASHINGTON (AP) - The 13-nation Washington Energy Conference is getting under way as oil consuming nations confront common fuel shortage problems. Secretary of State Henry A. Kissinger is expected to call upon the participants for cooperation rather than confrontation with the oil producing countries of the world.

Astronaut Loves Human Race

SPACE CENTER, Houston (AP) — Astronaut William R. Pogue says the experience of working in space for 84 days made him realize the importance of the individual, launching him on "a love affair with the human race." Logue and his two Skylab 3 crewmates spoke during a brief ceremony Sunday night after a military jet brought the crew to Ellington Air Force Base near here from their recovery ship in San Diego, Calif. The men returned to earth Friday from the orbiting laboratory. Gerald P. Carr, Edward G. ### Child Suffocates In Well

MIAMI (AP) - Little Glen Greenstein was with his parents in a field when he suddenly cried "Mother!" and fell feet first into a narrow irrigation well. The 21/2-year-old boy became wedged Sunday about six feet down with water up to his knees. The well, in a field south of Miami where a person pays for the tomatoes he picks, was only 12 inches across at the top and 10 inches in diameter where Glen was trapped. Sand and debris began falling in as the boy's parents, Dr. and Mrs. Melvin Greenstein, and others attempted to pull him out. The frantic father, a unable to reach the child or dig down to him before he

Israeli Withdrawals Complete

TEL AVIV, Israel (AP) - Israeli forces complete their withdrawal from another 200 square miles on the west bank of the Suez Canel today. The Israeli command said it would relinquish a stretch of land stretching from Jebel Geneifa on the Great Bitter Lake to three miles south of the Fayid Air Base at the northern tip of the lake. A spokesman said when this withdrawal is completed, Israel will have returned about three-fourths of the territory it took on the west side of the canal during the October war. Egyptian forces on the eastern bank of the canal were reported moving men, tanks and equipment to the west bank, fulfilling their commitment to thin out their forces on the east side.

Iranians Blamed For 23 Deaths

BEIRUT, Lebanon (AP) -- The Iraqi government claimed that Iranian forces killed 25 Iraqi soldiers in an attack across the Iraqi-Iranian border Sunday. A broadcast from Baghdad said Iranian troops backed by artillery and armored vehicles crossed the border, but it gave no other details. Relations been Iraq and Iran have been tense for three decades because of disagreement over Shatt al Arab, the border estuary between them and Iraq's access to the Persian Gulf.

Highlands Approach Is Blocked

SAIGON, South Vietnam (AP) - South Vietnamese troous battled North Vietnamese forces blocking their approach to a border camp in the central highlands, and 38 North Vietnamese and 18 government troops were killed, the Saigon command reported. A spokesman said the government force is trying to reach the Le Minh base camp southwest of Pleiku. The command reported 56 North Vietnamese and Viet Cong and 11 government troops killed in four other battles Sunday north of Salgon and in the Mekong Delta.

Cooperation Two-Way Street

Year Of Watergate Resolves Little

Most Americans probably agree with President Nixon that "one year of Watergate is enough," speaking in terms of the incessant drumbeat which made that issue dominate the headlines in 1973. The fact remains, however, that a series of criminal prosecutions in the courts and the impeachment resolutions before the House Judiciary Committee must be dealt with before Mr. Nixon and the American people can really put Watergate behind them.

The real question is whether the final chapters in the Watergate affair will be written in an atmosphere of political confrontation or with a shared desire by the White House. Congress and the courts to settle all the issues as expeditiously as possible.

President Nixon's promise of cooperation with the impeachment investigation-carrying the qualification we would expect on the constitutional stature of the presidency-appears not to be enough for the Judiciary Committee. While Mr. Nixon sees limits as to how much the separation of powers can be breached, the committee sees no limits at all. Its vote to request full subpoena powers-to demand an appearance before the committee by the President himself if it so chooses—is not a signal of cooperation but a forewarning of a challenge.

This would be a good time for the Judiciary Committee to be reminded that it is not conducting a trial. It is conducting an investigation to determine whether there are grounds for the full House of Representatives to consider a bill of impeachment-an indictment-which would place Mr. Nixon on trial before the Senate.

Sen. Sam Ervin and his committee in the upper house of Congress have had the wisdom to see that further probings into Watergate-related matters would have the effect of impeding

BERRY'S WORLD

WASHINGTON — Billions of dollars in equipment and research could go up in smoke at the Kennedy Space Center because of economy moves which will leave the base dangerously short on scratch the planned 1975 Soviet-American space venture as well, thus erasing one of the most promising symbols of world detente. As of this week, the base will be protected from 3 p.m. to 7 a.m. daily by only eight on-duty firefighters. This skeleton crew is not even large enough to man the $750,000 worth of fire equip-

There are 990,000 gallons of liquid oxygen, 800,000 gallons of Liquid hydrogen, plus rocket propellants to stoke a flash fire on the 800,000-acre facility. To make matters worse, the government does not insure any of its property, and additional firefighting help is at least 15 minutes away.

What firemen fear most, however, is a repeat of the Jan. 27, 1968, fire burst which took the lives of astronauts Gus Grissom, Ed White and Roger Chaffee. Astronauts are still training at the Kennedy Space Center in altitude chambers, research is being conducted and hundreds of tourists visit the base regularly. The Boeing Company, which holds a $24.5 million contract to provide the space center with fire protection, plans to lay off 21 firemen and shift others to lower-paying jobs. FOOTNOTE: A Boeing spokerman told our associate Jac Clonerty that the cuttracks were implemented because there will be no manned space flights until 1975. Boeing contends that the base is adequately protected. A National Aeronautics and Space Administration spokesman backed up Boeing, saying the cuts were necessary. He said, in any case, local crews were within HAIRY PROBLEM: On Christmas day, seven years ago, Judy Braiman, now president of the Consumers Association of New York, developed a cough and began spitting up blood. The doctors opened her chest and discovered up to 60 "rounded nodules" in her lungs. According to a report by her doctor, a pathologist determined that the nodules were "inhalation ab Continued the physician's report:

"Clinical history established that the patient had been exposed abundantly to a variety of hair sprays. When asked to produce some of these her husband quickly brought to the aboratory eight different commercial spray products ranging from oven cleaners to hair conditioners. One of the latter, the largest can and reportedly the patient's favorite hair apray (Bonat-Enhance) was especially fortified with protein."

Subsequent tests, the doctor reported, determined that "of the seven spray materials used by this patient in her home, her favorite hair spray mentioned above" was the only one hemically similar to the substance in her lungs. "In view of other findings," the doctor concluded. pathologist strongly supported the diagnosis of 'thesaurosis' due to hair spray inhalation."

Last Dec. 3, Mrs. Braiman infermed the cosmetics company that she planned to "mention Bonat's product" on an upcoming television show highlighting "the hazards of cosmetics." She also notified the firm that she had sent her data to a Senate sub-committee studying health dangers from servisols.

Two weeks later, the president of the firm, Jerome Bonat, threatened to haul her into court. "Please be advised," he wrote, "that should your threat to allege on your next television show that your personal injury was caused by a product of ours, you will be accountable for such allegation and suit will be instituted against you personally and against the association for all tamages which might be sustained as a consequence."

We spoke with Jack Fleurides, marketing manager for Bonat, who explained to us that the company's tests showed Enhance hairspray could not have been the reason for Mrs. Braiman's injury. But feisty consumer advocate said she is still planning to air her aerosol charges on television.

FOOTNOTE: As we have reported earlier, a growing body of scientific evidence indicates aerosol sprays "contain chemicals which may sear the eyes, damage the lungs and weeken the

CHRISTMAS CHISEL: Vice Admiral William Behrens Jr., the naval deputy to the National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration, found a nifty way to save money on Christmas cards. He simply mailed them out in official, franked envelopes A number of the admiral's acquaintances ripped into the envelopes, marked "official business, penalty for private use $300," to find a card bearing the traditional holiday greeting plus a handwritten "Merry Christmas and Best Wishes."

According to Admiral Behrens, he mailed about 409 cards but used official envelopes only for "professional associates." First he told us that such "associates" comprised about half of his mailing list. Later, he basisted that just "a few cards" had been mailed out courtesy of the taxpayer.

Kirk: Won't Switch Party

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. (AP) - Former Gov. Claude Kirk said today he will not switch parties to run for the U.S. Senate as a Democrat.

"There are plenty of people to step up to the battle on these things," Kirk said in an interview. "You don't always have to look to old warhorses to run." Kirk confirmed a report last month by Everette Williard, Florida Times-Union capital bureau chief, that he had been considering running for the senate nomination as a Democrat.

But he said he has abandoned that idea and expects Sen. Edward Gurney, R-Fla. to win reelection. Kirk said the decision not to run was influenced by his desire to "make a living."

LOSE 20 POUNDS IN TWO WEEKS!

Famous U.S. Women Ski Team Diet

During the non-snow off season the U.S. Women's Alpine Ski Team members go on the "Ski Team" diet to lose 20 pounds in two weeks. That's right - 20 pounds in 14 days! The basis of the diet is chemical food action and was devised by a famous Colorado physician especially for the U.S. Ski Team. Normal energy is maintained (very important!) while reducing. You keep "full" - no starvation -- because the diet is designed that way. It's a diel that is easy to follow whether you work, travel or stay at home.

This is honesily a fantastically successful diet. If it weren't, the U.S. Women's Ski Team wouldn't be permitted to use it! Right? So, give yourself the same break the U.S. Ski Team gets. Lose weight the scientific, proven way Even if you've tried all the other diets, you owe it to yourself to try the U.S. Women's Ski Team Diet. That is, if you really do want to lose 20 pounds in two weeks. Order today. Tear this out as a reminder.

Send only $3.00 ($3.25 for Rush Service) - Cash is O.K .o: Jorne Products Co., P.O. Box 728, Solana Beach, California 92075. Don't order unless you expect to lose 20 bounds in two weeks! Because that's what the Ski Team

WASHINGTON (NEA) This capital's observers, if not the nation, are nearly obsessed these days with finding ways to pick higher quality presidents. Watergate's sleaziness is of course the driving

The nagging question, surfacing often, is "Where are the Even in a series of reports, the question has too many com-plexities for more than tentative onswers. It struck me that one way to underscore the difficulties vividity would be to name, arbitrarily, a few men of whom it might reasonably be said. They should have been presidents of the United States, but they were not

The basis for judgment is their perceived, substantially proven capacity to govern well, as reflected in their character, their intellect, their broad range of talents, their strength of will and discipline, their energy and stamma. My choices are Charles Evans Hughes, man of many high offices but never president, Gen. George C. Marshall, America's top general in World War II, and former Chief Justice Earl Warren.

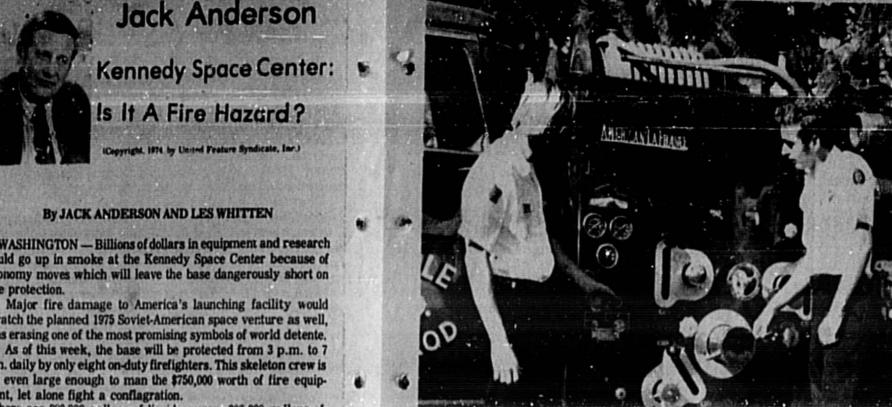

So, argues my source, in states with 18 to 20 million people like New York and California, few distinguished heads pop-up above the bobbing multitude. It sounds almost absurd.

What draws them in? The challenge of bigger labors, a sense of public responsibility strong enough to make them willing to sacrifice. They may love power and authority. Some scholars say the service, though gained by painful ordeal, compensates certain men afflicted with a deep sense of Yet the net of it is that we are governed by too many liocrities too much of the time. We have let it be so

The analysts and the scholars agree new means of search ing out prospects are needed, and some soon may be tried.
But one man whose judgment I rank high thinks many people today just don't want to be discovered. Watergate aside, they see the rewards of politics as unappealing. The burdens of office are heavier, the little privacy permitted to politicians is diminished further. We live in a critic's paradise. where skepticism lometimes is treasured for its own sake. They may be literally hiding, tacked away in enterprises fulfilling enough — in business, the professions, academia. In this still atfluent society the rewards are ample, the tensions usually less than in public life, with more time for family. friends, and the leisurely pursuits.

Obviously these observations don't apply to all. We have able governors, senators and congressmen — but not enough. We have had able, even superlative presidents — but not

Hubby Goes Too Far Playing Baby's Role By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

By Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: Please print this for that woman Boston whose husband wets his pants. My husband did, too, but he refused to see a urologist. After two and a half years, ruined furniture and mattresses, I told him if he didn't see a doctor I was going to put him in diapers and rubber bloomers to protect the furniture. [They have them for adults, you know.] To my surprise, he agreed, and now I realize that part of his problem was the desire to be "babied." So I "baby" him, but it's saving my furniture

For the record, Abby, there are 16 million bed-wetters in the United States, and 4 million chronic ones These figures are from Time magazine.

DEAR R.: Thanks for the statistics. It will be a great omfort to those who are swimming against the tide.

DEAR ABBY: Our son [22] recently married a nice 21year-old girl. They invited Dad and me to dinner, and she served a meal of Chinese food. It was terrible, but we ate it anyway so as not to hurt anyone's feelings.

The next time they invited us, she made a Hawaiian dinner. Abby, this was worse than the Chinese dinner. My poor husband was up all night with heartburn. They invited us again, and I called my son and asked him what she was making this time. He said: "Mexican food." Well, maybe I shouldn't have said it, but I asked him when his wife was going to learn how to make American food. He got mail and said when people are invited to dinner they eat whatever is served, and don't complain

Was I wrong? How can I make up for that remark? My husband and I are both Italian, and we can eat anything, but this girl's cooking is murder. Maybe I need mother in law lessons.

DEAR MOTHER IN LAW: You don't need mother in law lessons-your daughter in law needs cooking lessons. Invite her over and offer to give her a few. But never criticize her cooking, no matter what she serves. [At least she invites you, which is more than some brides do.]

DEAR ABBY: Apropos the letter from "Bereaved" Years ago when I was "bereaved" I had the following

My husband [a physician] had died after a long illness I started writing my letters of thanks for condolences almost immediately after the memorial services.

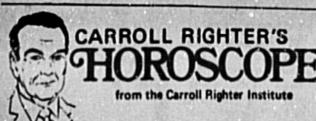

When I was about midway thru my letters I had a telephone call from a woman I hardly knew who had sent flowers. She had been a patient of my husband's. Her side of the conversation went like this: "How are you getting along? . . . Did you get my flowers? . . . Exactly what

I'm sure her flowers were an expression of sincere sympathy, but what of the telephone interview? Honestly, now! What is this notion that it is perfectly all right to inquire into the nature of a person's illness, terminal or DEAR APPALLED: People with tact, sensitivity and

DEAR POLLY - My Pet Peeve is with florists who make up planters that look so beautiful but mix the plants. Some nts used should be allowed to get dry and others require more water. In a few weeks, or less, the non-thirsty plants have died from over watering and have to be removed leav-

If oil still remains scrub with full strength detergent and wipe up with an old rag and then rinse off with

DEAR POLLY - We live in an area where there are many weeks of rain and some snow each winter so having dry warm boots on my children means a lot. When buying their over-the-feet boots (the only kind sold here) I found that after wearing the boots two or three times the lining had made the children's feet perspire so badly the insides of the boots were quite damp. I have fought this for several years only to learn recently how easy it is to solve. I took the bonnet off the end of my hair dryer and inserted the hose into the foot of each damp boot. To my great joy they were dry in just a few ninutes. - MRS. R.J.H.

DEAR POLLY - Rub zippers with beeswax. The excess falls off and there is no possible way to stain a garment or boot because the wax is in a firm cake. This has been a favorite no-fail method for years, - MRS. H.N.M.

TAMPA - In chilling 40 degree temperatures, Seminole Junior College and Tampa Hillsborough Community College played six and one-half hours worth of teeth chattering baseball Saturday afternoon and ended up splitting two extrainning games, Seminole taking the opener 8-6 and Hillsborough winning the second, 3-2.

Terry Jones lined a clutch two-run double to right center in the top of the 10th inning, breaking a 6-6 tie, to give the Raiders their first win of the year in the front end of the season-opening doubleheader. In the nightcap, the west coast hosts used one hit and three walks -two which were intentional - to come up with a run in the bottom of the eighth inning of the scheduled seven inning contest to even out the day's effort. Raider reliever Steve Borre, pitching a total of two and one-third innings for both games was credited with the win as well as absorbing the loss. Seminole lit up the scoreboard first in the third inning. Kenny Kerr reached first on an error. Shortstop Dwayne Gray singled to right. Jones collected his first of three hits in the opener by beating out a bunt to load the bases. Two straight Hillsborough throwing errors enabled Kerr and Gray to race bome to make it 2-0. Hillsborough broke loose for four runs in the bottom of the fourth on Marvin Miller's bases-loaded-triple. He then scored on a sacrifice fly

The Raiders tied the score in the top of the fifth when left fielder Chet Bobrowiecki tripled driving in two runs. In the top of the eighth, Bobrowiecki laced a double to right center scoring designated hitter Jim Joiner, and scored later when Gray drew a walk with the bases full. The Hawks came right back, scoring two runs in their half of the inning on two unearned runs. The ninth inning was scoreless setting the stage for Jones' 10th inning clutch twobagger. Borre shut the door on Hillsborough in the bottom of the the 10th, earning his first win of the season.

Freshman southpaw Bob Meadows from Lyman, started the second game and went seven innings giving up six hits and two runs, both unearned. He welked five and struck out six before Borre came in to try and hold on for his second win of the day that failed to appear.

Seminole scored first in the night cap when lead-off hitter Kerr drew a walk, went to third on a single to center by Gray and scored when Jones lifted a long sacrifice fly to left. The Hawks got to Meadows in their half of the frame banging out three straight singles and producing one run before the lanky ex-Greyhound settled down. In the fourth inning, third baseman Gary Jacobs reached the left field barrier on one hop, driving in Wayne Weszka who had earlier singled to left. Jacobs was thrown out trying to stretch the two-base hit into a triple, snubbing a possible Raider rally. Head Coach Jack Pantelias lifted Meadows in the eight and called on Borre once again. Angel Goncalez greeted Borre in the bottom of the inning with a single to center, went to second on a wild pitch and Borre got the next man on a shallow fly to left field.

With Gonzalez on third and one out, Pantelias had Borre ntentionally walk the number two and three hitters in the Hawk line-up, both right handed batters, to get at left-handed hitter, Ray Ivey.

FLORIDA

By Lee Geiger Herald Corresponde Attending a weigh-in for the fights that are staged at the Orlando Sports Stadium can be a first hand lesson in deception

FISTIC

Last Wednesday, across the street from matchmater Malcom Tait's Hungry Bear Restaurant such a weigh-in occurred, and you had to there to believe it. On hand was Jim Hayes, the general manager of the Sports Stodium, Pete Ashlock's right hand man. His job is to call out each fighter's name and record his weight. First name called was John Pinney. The Mossourian was to be 10312. Now his opponent, Tedd 'Murray' was called. No answer. Murray never showed up.

NO MURRAY AT WEIGH-IN

Now, this guy is in the main event. He has been told that he must come in at a certain weight, because the Pinney people do not want their man to be outweighed by 12 or 15 pounds, and Where was Murray? Nobody knew. If they did, they weren't saying. Murray finally showed up that night for the fight, but he should have been there for the weigh-in. Next, Glen Morgan and "Slick" Mitchell were okayed by the doctor, and as Mitchell was leaving. Jim Hayes asked him what his record was. A reply of "21-8" was given and this information was handed out to the news media and actually printed.

MITCHELL IS NOT, NEVER WAS, NOR CAN HE EVER BE It is a lie. I wonder if Mr. Hayes goes to such lengths in all his business dealings to get at the truth. A simple check into the matter would have turned up the truth about "Slick's" past performances. His actual record is 9-19 with 13 of the losses coming via the KO route. Maybe Jim Hayes transposed the figures. Sure he did!

THE GOOD, THE BAD - UGLY!

Then enter Pat Curry and his group from the Bahamas. I believe in telling everything, the good and the bad. Pat Curry brings fighters into town that are ready to fight. I have never seen one of his men lay down or give a bad performance, but it appears that Mr. Curry has picked up a few tricks along the way from people like Chris Dundee (the noted Miami promoter who has reputation of more trickery than Harry Houdini). Frank Eisele of Tampa was scheduled to meet curry's Junior Royster, and west coast lightheavy was called up first. Curry stood in the room and never said a word. When Royster's name was called Curry looked around the room as if he were trying to find his fighter. Then he said, "I guess

e went out. You better pass him now and come back to him Hector McBride was finished with the doctor when his opponent, another Curry fighter, Freddie Majors was called. Curry urned to a small black man, who looked like he was in his midthirties and said, "go ahead up Freddie." The fighter complied and it was announced that, "Majors weighed 131." At this time Curry said, "I brought another fighter with me, Ray Sears, a standby. Will you weigh him in?" After this was done, the Later word got around that the following things had occurred: Junior Royster was not in Orlando. That he had never been brought to Orlando. That Curry claimed he told Ashlock weeks before the fight that Royster would not appear, saying that he wanted nothing more to do with him (Royster).

WEIGH-IN CHARADE

If this was true, why the charade at the weigh-in? Why didn't he say that Royster had fought the night before in Miami? Why didn't say that Sears was supposed to fight and not call him a Could it be that Curry was offered a better fight for Royster the Miami one with Tony Green) and sent him there instead, and ought Sears along with him, knowing that Ashlock would need nother fighter to replace the Eisele-Royster bout? Could it be that he relies on the fact that Ashlock is so busy that he couldn't remember if Curry had called him or not? And what about Eisele who trained for the bout, came over from Tampa and then had to go home all for nothing? HasOrlandolust hother fighter? Has boxing lost another prospect?

AND EVEN MORE!

If all this was all it would be a disgrace but there is more. The an that Curry called Freddie and was announced to be Majors wasn't. He was Jerry Powers. Why not tell the truth? Why, (Con't. On Pg. 3B Col...(1)

FISTIC FORESIGHT

This past week was a good one for me. I laid off the Al Moss fight, (I bet that Vic Perez wishes he could say the same). Bobick stopped Summerville for me, doing the job in 1:30 of the second round down in Miami Beach, when the ref came to the Mike Quarry did a number of Brian Kelly to take a unanimous decision in Oklamhoma City, and now has moved on to meet Bobby Rascon in Arizona later this month. Tough Tony Licata handled former words champion, Emile

Griffith, the way that most of Florida had hoped he would, by taking home a rather easy 10 round decision. At the Sports Stadium, Pinney came through for me in his 73-54; No. 9 Long Beach downed scrap with Murray, while Morgan saved my forecasting bacon by getting off the floor to stop "Slick" Mitchell in the third. If you remember I had gone so far as to say that I would stop picking fights if Mitchell had won. These five wins runs my count for the year to 9-4-1.

HERE AND THERE

Vic Perez's "little" brother, Ricky was all set to fight Wayne Battle in his first pro appearance, if one of the regularly scheduled bouts fell through. Thanks to Pat Currys coniving, Ricky was cheated out of that opportunity. The match makers are wurking to get Ricky and Battle together real soon, maybe on the 20th, when the next card is scheduled to be shown.

When Royster knocked off Green down on the Beach, it was points and grabbing 19 an upset of major proportions. This Green has been knocking 'em dead down there, as he has rung up a record of 12-2-1 against some of the best around. In his previous Miami bout Green had stopped Ron Wright, something "Snake" White had been unable to do last year in an Orlardo main event. Word has reached me that Lou Viscusi has given up on Mike McKinney. If I were McKinney, maybe I would have given up on Viscusi. First he allowed him to be put in with a heavyweight-Cyril Clark. Then he made a match for the "Irishman" with an unknown fighter. I keep saying, stay away from people you know nothing about. The unknown fighter was this Junior Royster. And if he is good enough to beat Green, a young kid like McKinney has no right being in with him.

Other results on that same card were: James Scott (paste that name in you hat band, he is a real corner) gave away 29 pounds to Hydra Lacey and stopped him in the third round. Scott tips the scales at 178, but eats up heavyweights like nobodys business. Paul Collette from Canada scored a decision over Henry Thomas. Collete is now 3-0 in Florida rings and is reported to have the style and color to go far. Thomas is 0-9, but always gives a good account of himself.
