MARCHERS GO TO CAPITOL IN ORDERLY BODY

Delegations Under Police Escort Hand Petitions To Curtis And Speaker Garner

WASHINGTON, Dec. 6.—(A.P.)—Under a heavy police escort delegations from the 3,000 demonstrators who marched on the Capitol in orderly ranks today presented Vice President Curtis and Speaker Garner with petitions for cash relief to jobless and for unemployment insurance.

The demonstrators marched in shouting strains of the "Internationale" and halted at the Capitol while leaders carried petitions to Curtis and Garner. Guards were increased at the Capitol and officers equipped with tear gas were stationed along the route. "We want bread. To hell with beer," the demonstrators shouted as they marched.

Curtis said he would present the petition to the Senate this afternoon while Garner said he would take the matter under advisement.

The shouts, boos, cheers and hisses of hundreds of demonstrators echoed through a woodland last night as they joined columns in the first parade of their stay here.

Refused a permit to march through the city, a crowd of demonstrators gathered on the streets, and the demonstrators held their parades within the small area in which the authorities have confined them since they arrived.

Their audience consisted of some 400 bluecoats, reserves having been called when the demonstrators began to mass in a group.

The parade in the pavement stretch where they are held, began at the time of Internationale. As the group advanced toward a roped police line, the streets of the reserves screamed through the city bringing reinforcements.

At the head of the column were William Reynolds, of Detroit, and Herbert Benjamin, of Chicago, sponsors of the march, a young woman and a negro.

The police got squad in several waves and snarled horns. The head of the column started to wobble, wheeled and started to a police, who had expected trouble, boomed and jeered, and were to selves bowed and jostled to the ground.

In the strident tones of a megaphone yell the marchers shouted demand entrance into Washington. "We want bread. To hell with beer," (Continued On Page Two)

Roy Williams Shows Much Improvement

Persons passing the Fernald Lagoon Memorial Hospital during the past few days noted with interest the appearance of a familiar figure in the person of Chief of Police Roy C. Williams, who, having been confined to his bed in the hospital since Oct. 1 when he suffered a hip injury, is now permitted to walk about with the use of crutches.

Chief Williams' condition is reported as markedly improving. Since his confinement in the hospital, he has been visited by scores of his friends, and his room has been filled with flowers and gifts that he said made the long and painful ordeal easier to bear. The actual date of his release from the hospital is not yet known, but from all indications it may be within the next several weeks.

MANY STATES FACING TRYING FINANCIAL ILLS

Drastric Governmental Economy To Be Demanded Of Legislatures Convening

NEW YORK, Dec. 6.—(A.P.)—Drastric governmental economies will be demanded of state legislatures in every section of the nation when they meet next month to wrestle with their own financial problems.

Gov. and lawmakers will be called upon to make good the economy pledges they gave before last month's elections.

Many will face the prospect of estimated deficits such as those: $8,000,000 in California; $12,000,000 in Illinois; $2,000,000 in Maine; $1,000,000 in Oklahoma; $6,000,000 in Tennessee.

But already from Washington to Florida, and from Maine to California, solutions of the problem are being offered after months of investigation, by official groups which include efficiency experts, legislative committees, university economists, taxpayers' associations, gubernatorial commissions, and expert-boards from Washington.

In 17 states these groups have been making an intensive study of governmental economy.

In New Jersey the Princeton University department of political science undertook a survey, senatorial committees made an inquiry, and regional investigations were conducted.

China Makes Appeal To League Of Nations

GENEVA, Dec. 6.—(A.P.)—China called on the assembly of the League of Nations today to denounce Japan as the aggressor in Manchuria and Japan replied that the military occupation of that vast province was an act of self-defense.

W. W. Yen declared Japan had broken every multilateral treaty that has application to the Manchurian question, and called for the most sacred of principles that govern international relations, and flouted the authority of the League.

Yonke Maruoka spoke for Japan and challenged the findings of the Lytton commission which investigated the Manchurian affairs for the League. Representatives of smaller countries will be heard later.

Bandits Make Huge Head In Bold Holdup

CHICAGO, Dec. 6.—(A.P.)—Five masked bandits ambushed a mail carrier and a guard near a post-office today and escaped with mail sacks containing securities which might be worth between a half million and two million dollars. The robbery, one of the most spectacular in years, occurred when the carriers, Fred Voelach and Frank Blaney, stepped from a subway entrance of the federal building.

The robbers seized the mail sacks and the guard's pistol and fled in a car. The sacks contained 225 blocks of mail for the First National Bank and 40 for the First-City Trust and Savings Bank.

Red Cross Yeast To Be Used Only To Fight Disease

Officials of the Seminoles Chapter of the American Red Cross have been in doubt as to the disposal of the large supply of yeast that was received some weeks ago for the treatment of pellagra in local hospitals. Today learned from local health officers that the yeast is to be supplied free to pellagra patients who are unable to purchase it. Persons who are able to purchase it should be encouraged to do so, but it is to be used solely for pellagra patients.

According to the letter received by Mrs. S. O. Chase, Jr., chairman of the local chapter, "You have been correct in your procedure regarding the distribution of yeast in your chapter jurisdiction. I have the requests for yeast actually for the treatment of pellagra patients, we think the chapter should supply it. Our understanding with the company, Standard Brands, Inc., New York City, that the chapters will order yeast for the specific purpose of supplying it to pellagra patients who are unable to purchase it. However, this procedure would generally be followed as the people are able to purchase it should be encouraged to do so through the regular local channels."

GAMECOCK'S WIN OVER AUBURN IS GRID HIGHLIGHT

Three Southern Football Teams Share Conference Honors

ATLANTA, Dec. 5.—(AP)—One of the most tumultuous football seasons in Southern conference history has ended without a generally recognized champion, and Tennessee, Auburn and Louisiana State partisans joining in the cry for a share of the honors.

South Carolina's surprising feat in holding Auburn, to a 20-20 tie and actually outplaying the favored Flaminio, at Birmingham Saturday, removed all possibility of a clear-cut title winner.

The finish finds three teams unbeaten within the conference, but two of these, Tennessee and Auburn, have five games to do before their rivals. The other, Louisiana State, won all its four loop battles, but a short schedule combined with two defeats and a deadlock in non-conference contests has caused many experts to frown on the Tigers' claims.

A poll of prominent sports writers from every southern state indicated Tennessee will be awarded the newspaper decision. Experts from 21 newspapers participated in the poll and 23 of these voted for the Volunteers, who won seven games and had only a narrow loss with Vanderbilt. Several favored Auburn and L. S. U., while a few thought Tennessee and Auburn should be co-champions. Auburn's record shows six wins and one tie.

The prospect of a storybook finish to a gallant comeback for Auburn was ruined by a last period offensive which allowed Carolina to tie Auburn, a team that won only a single loop game in 1930 and just three a year ago, coupled with almost its same eleven of a year ago to march through nine games without defeat or tie. Centenary previously had its hopes blasted by a scoreless draw with Arkansas in its finale.

Alabama carried the South's colors to a thrilling 6 to 0 victory over St. Mary's on the West Coast, brought about by a long run for touchdown by Capt. John Cain, but Mississippi and Loyola of New Orleans were repulsed in their inter-sectional bids. Tulsa, University beat Mississippi 26 to 0 and Detroit won from Loyola 21 to 12.

This season saw the end of the Alabama-Georgia Tech-Tulane triumvirate. For many years, these teams have won the title, one or the other. It saw the rise of a powerful Virginia Poly team, an eleven that lost all but one of its conference tilts a year ago but flashed power and speed to turn back all but Alabama in its 1932 season. It saw Auburn and Louisiana State rush to the forefront, Georgia Tech advance to a challenging position again and Duke and North Carolina State threaten seriously.

Alabama Receives Praise For Victory Over Pacific Team

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 5.—(AP)—Alabama's Crimson Tide was headed homeward yesterday with a 6-0 victory over St. Mary's Gaels and the nearly 20,000 fans who saw the game here were willing to concede they grow football players big and strong and capable in Dixie.

One lightning thrust, and the game was won for Alabama.

There have been longer runs in Kesar stadium this season than the 71-yard touchdown dash by Capt. John "Hurricane" Cain, but none more spectacular than the weaving display of ball toting put on by the compact 183-pounder who has been rated the greatest fullback the old South has ever given to the American college sport.

It was a case of Cain being able, much too able for the gallant Gaels who tried to stop his guardward race. They clutched in vain at "Hurricane" Cain as he shook off this tackler, stiff-armed that one, dodged another, and out-distanced three more. To climax the scoring scramble, the Alabama captain dived through the air for the last two yards to land all sprawled out.

If he hadn't jumped the ball might have been grounded on the two yard line for Cain lost his balance at that point.

The scoring play took place some three minutes after the game opened. Alabama was in punt formation. It was the first time Cain worked the ball. He bolted Cain packed the ball. He bolted St. Mary's line. Twice during the run Cain was perilously close to the side line. Quarterback Moseley's place kick on the try for point failed, but as it turned out the six points were enough to win for Alabama.

The victory was particularly gratifying to Frank Thomas, coaching his second season at Alabama. With it the Crimson Tide's record of no defeats in inter-sectional games in the Far West remained as such. Alabama now holds wins over Washington, State, and St. Mary's and a tie with Stanford.

ROSE CULTURE

By GAIT. E. T. LOUCKS

Berlinize the bushes during the summer growing. At the end of the rainy season the bushes take another rest for a month or two only to start their winter blooming season late in November when if you fertilize them properly the bushes will bloom practically all winter.

And finally a few words about watering your rose garden. Do not keep the rose garden wet. To do so is liable to cause the roots to decay. It is best to only water the rose bed once a week, and by this is meant real watering. Spray on enough water to dampen down the whole bed to a depth of at least a couple of feet. The oak leaves on top of the rose bed will prevent the sun from drying the bed up right away and at the same time the decaying oak leaves in the soil will keep the ground porous and, as was said quite a while ago, will allow the soil to be oxidized and aerated.

The months of December and January, and to a somewhat less extent February, are the best for planting rose bushes in Florida, so if you intend to set out a new rose garden this winter you should start now to prepare your intended rose bed for later planting.

Pinchot Calls G. O. P. Friend Of Favored Class

(Continued from Page 1) ing the side of the power monopolists against the people and with seeking to lower taxation on the rich and increasing taxation on the poor.

"The Mellon tax refunds to great interests amounted to over $4,000,000,000," he said. "If it results in abolishing such leadership, the overwhelming defeat of the Republican leaders may turn out to be the best thing that could possibly have happened to the Republican party."

"The people are sick of perverted Republican leaders. They are sick of the Mellons, the Morgans, the Insulls, the Atterburys. They are sick of having their interests betrayed."

"And on this score, Pennsylvania has a special grievance. For the Mellon-Vaux-Atterbury organization has twice in the past six years sent to the United States Senate men who were conspicuously unfit. The last horrible example is Jim Davis, the man who milked the Moose, and whom the Senate will doubtless refuse to re-seat."

The governor asserted the Republican party began as a revolt against privilege and false leadership and that it can be saved only by another revolt. Present leaders, he said, "have gone over to the enemy" and unless the party discards them, a new party, organized on the model of Lincoln and Roosevelt, will arise.

For many years, he said, "our national politics and policies" have been dictated "by the millionaires in the shadow behind" the party officials. "These men have done their best to make the party into a business institution, run for the profit of the insiders."

"New times," he asserted, "require new measures. Let the dead
