All but three of the dead miners were sealed—perhaps forever—in the deep shaft. Three bodies had been brought out by rescue workers shortly after the start of the blaze. An official statement said there was "no possibility" that any of the other 77 men were alive below ground. The entire underground fire area was being sealed off tonight behind walls of sandbags. School-boys of 10 and 12 helped fill the bags. The Creswell mine had been known as one of the safest coal pits in Britain. The blaze took the heaviest toll of lives of any British mine disaster since 1947, when 104 died in the undersea workings of the Whitehaven pit on the northwest coast.

Romance Between Yank Captain And Japanese Widow Blossoms

By HAL BOYLE

KOREA—(AP)—It was night and the clean, neat stars looked down on a bit of the earth darkened by blood stains and loud with glowing guns.

The captain was one of thousands of American soldiers here who look forward more eagerly to mail from Japan than from the United States. He explained:

"She is the widow of a Japanese naval officer and I hired her as my housekeeper. Hell, I had no idea of starting an affair like so many of our kids over here do.

"I am a bachelor and getting on toward middle age. And I had been over here a long time with the Army. Somehow or other I just gradually fell in love with this widow. Just why I don't know.

"Maybe it's because she tried so hard to please me. I don't have any family left and I guess I really didn't have anyone who cared whether I lived or died. She made me feel important again."

A flare suddenly split the darkness with dazzling light that hid the stars. And then the flare faded and died—almost with a sigh. The stars were serene again.

"Her family didn't trust me at first," the captain said. "But after a while I won them over."

"You know when I was back in my office in Yokohama she used to call me every afternoon and ask what I would like for dinner. And no matter what I asked for, she had it ready when I got home. And she met me at the door with my slippers in her hand. And she had flowers all over the place."

The captain looked up with a faraway expression as another sky-flare bloomed, fell and faded. "I have a small farm back in Michigan," he said. And when this is over I am going to marry her and take her home. I don't care what obstacles are in the way. And I'm not worried about what the neighbors will say. I think they'll like her, as a matter of fact.

"She is the only one in my whole life who has given me any real happiness."

A few days later I met an Air Force sergeant who was considerably less idealistic about his romance than the captain. He had fathered an illegitimate son and didn't quite know what to do about the Japanese mother.

"My boy is two years old and real cute," he said. "I'd like to take him home with me but his old lady would raise a squawk unless I took her along too. "Maybe I will, at that. She's a good gal. I went for gals in Korea."

Nations In UN Ask For Peace Talks

French Foreign Minister Says No Hope As Long As Russia Agitates Civil War

NEW YORK, Sept. 27 (AP)—India, Israel and Ecuador called today for East-West peace talks but French Foreign Minister Robert Schuman threw cold water on the idea.

Schuman warned that such negotiations are futile as long as the Soviet Union promotes agitation and civil war in other countries.

His statement in the U. N. General Assembly was the first reference by a top Western diplomat to Russia's trial balloon of Monday which appeared aimed at getting new top-level East-West talks. Schuman declared: "The will to peace must be made manifest otherwise there is no hope and propaganda."

While Schuman spoke, a strong movement gained headway among Assembly delegates in frame a peace and relief plan for Korea.

Britain was circulating a proposal on the subject. The goal is to have the plan ready for operation when mounting U. N. military successes are complete.

Sweeping victories rolled up in the last few days by General MacArthur's command have impressed delegates here with the need to speed work on a Korean peace plan.

The proposal now being studied calls for a free and independent Korea under a government elected.

Anniversary Of Bishop Wing's Consecration To Be Observed

The 25th anniversary of the consecration of the Rt. Rev. John Durham Wing, D. D. LL. D., as Bishop of the Episcopal Diocese of South Florida will be formally observed

BISHOP WING served in Orlando on Friday, Sept. 29, with representatives from all of the 107 congregations in the diocese attending.

The anniversary celebration of the Holy Eucharist will take place at 10:30 A. M. in the Cathedral Church of St. Luke with Bishop Wing as celebrant, assisted by the Rt. Rev. Henry I. Lottitt, D. D., Bishop Coadjutor, the Rev. Messrs. J. Beam, president of the standing committee, and the Rev. William F. Moses, secretary of the diocese.

The Rt. Rev. Frank Alexander Huban, D. D., Bishop of the Diocese of Florida, will be the preacher for that occasion. All the clergy of the diocese are expected to be in the procession at the service and the choir of the Cathedral and All Saints' Church of Winter Park will sing.

Following a luncheon at the Orange Court Hotel in honor of Bishop and Mrs. Wing with the clergy and their wives and the officers of the various diocesan organizations attending, a special meeting of the convention of the

Marines Hoist Stars And Stripes Over National Capitol In Seoul; Reds Near Defeat On All Fronts

Flag Is Also Planted On Top Of Russian French Consulates; Mopup Nearing End

By TOM LAMBERT
SEOUL, Sept. 27 (AP)—U. S. Marines captured and raised American flags today over the South Korean capitol building and the Russian and French consulates in Seoul. The mopup fight for the capitol city appeared to be nearing its end.

Waving from the radio antenna of a Marine G-1 jeep, the Stars and Stripes goes into Seoul as the Leathernecks battled their way into the center of the South Korean capitol. It all was believed by International Radiophoto.

Few Pockets Of Communists Are Still Resisting With Fanatical Ferocity

By DON BETH
TOKYO, Sept. 27 (AP)—American Marines raised the Stars and Stripes over the national capitol in Seoul today while other forces whipped out a 2 1/2 miles of red mortar ground many thousands of Reds in the south.

All indications, including a boost approved by General MacArthur, were that the North Korean invaders were staggering and stumbling to final defeat in South Korea.

They still resisted in places with fanatic ferocity, however.

The master strategic stroke came from the 12-day-old Inchon seaborne operation and the advance from the south was the merging of the two Allied fronts.

Forces moving from north and south.

The Allied lifeline for victory now runs unbroken for the 215 miles diagonally across the peninsula from Pusan on the extreme southeast coast, through the map to Seoul, to the Inchon round front beachhead on the yellow sea. The Reds once were stilling 300 miles of Pusan port.

A U. S. First Cavalry armored tank force forged a line of steel between U. N. forces in the south and north. It raced 100 miles in a lightning sweep to split the Red camp.

The link-up with Seventh Division troops from Inchon, Seoul was made late Tuesday night in the walled town of Chaungho in mid-south of Seoul.

It came within a mile of two of the spot where the first American soldier of the Korean war was killed July 5.

United Nations forces, based out on both sides of the long Pusan-Seoul line, liberating the

WEDNESDAY, SEPT. 27, 1950

There seems to be a considerable controversy over whether Vice President Barkley actually kissed Miss America, the pretty little Yolande Helmer of Mobile, Ala., as was insinuated by the newspapers.

We suppose Drew Pearson has been called more kind of an S. O. B. than anyone else in the world, but it remained for Senator James of Indiana to nominate for a self-appointed, self-made, cross-legged, double documented, super-patriotic, revolving, S. O. B. We record the nomination.

We suppose it would hardly be fair to blame the Attlee government in Britain for the terrible mine disaster yesterday in which 83 men were killed, but it is a fact that in Britain the mines are owned by the government, and according to John L. Lewis it is the mine owners in this country, at least, who are responsible for all mine disasters.

The State of Florida took in $263,521,000 in taxes last year, and no doubt the politicians will tell you what a great boon to purchasing power that huge sum is supposed to be. But however much it may help the purchasing power of the "professional politicians and the political racketeers," it is just $263,521,000 less which the people of Florida have to spend.

Jacob Malik says his government will pledge itself not to be the first to use the atom bomb. Now it may not be the first to use it, for it may not have it, and probably couldn't deliver it if it had it. But if you want to test yourself to see if you are an acknowledged disciple of the first war, just ask yourself if you believe that Russia wouldn't use it if she could.

The Associated Press had no sooner announced that the ranks of the jobless are dwindling in Florida, and there are 23,000 fewer people out of work than there were a year ago, than a new drive is started to get the 1951 Legislature to INCREASE jobless benefits and INCREASE the period of payment to six months. Prices are getting so high it has almost reached the point where a man has to work for a living and if these benefit payments are not increased so one can afford to be jobless any more.

What happened Tuesday in Chicago where two investigators aiding the Kefauver Crime Commission were assassinated is just the sort of thing we can expect to happen in Florida if Chicago gangsters ever gain the controlling power in this state as they are trying to do. It will be too late to get rid of them then for there will be too few who will dare to speak out against them for fear of being murdered. If you don't want that situation to arise, the time to do something about it is now.

Secretary Sawyer of the Commerce Department is wise to point out that victory in Korea will not solve the problem of how to get along with Russia or end the sacrifices which America will be called upon to make. The United Nations are winning the battle in the field. But the cost of the war, and the cost of total defense to which we have to look forward for many years to come, are staggering and are set to break the back of the capitalist democracies as any revenue on the field of battle. If the United States loses the war, it might just as well have a long drawn out war, for the end result will be the same.

New Social Security

Nearly ten million persons who previously were excluded from the Social Security System are now under its coverage. What they earn beginning next January can count toward old age retirement benefits for them. But this will not necessarily happen automatically; in most cases the individual worker should do something about it.

It is largely up to the individual worker and his employer to start the new Social Security accounts. The government does not do much about it except to offer information and other help to those who ask for it.

Although the expanded Social Security program is a means by which the government assumes a degree of responsibility for more people's care in old age, the individual still must be self-reliant to the extent of seeing to it that his name gets on the list.

Funds In A Dead Hand

When so many American boys need help if they are to go to college, a scholarship at Hamilton College in New York State has been going to waste. This one was established in 1902 by Gen. Edwin W. Leavenworth of Syracuse, to be awarded annually to a young man named Leavenworth.

Every lawyer can quote instances of the cramping effect of the dead hand in bequests. Conditions may have altogether changed since the will was drawn. A fund is said to be in existence to aid travelers going West in a covered wagon. Needless to say, no one has made a transcontinental trip in such fashion for many a year.

It is often wished that the leavers of legacies would put less faith in their own wisdom, and recognize that the world may change after they have gone.

Sardinia Emerges

A new day may be dawning for Italy. One of the favorable omens is the government's project of developing the island for Sardinia. It is hoped to settle there a million of the mainland's too abundant population, with the help of the Economic Co-operation Administration. The Rockefeller Foundation will, it is reported, make a preliminary survey to see how the redistribution of population can best be carried out.

Sardinia was once more prominent in history than it has been for a long time. Both the Phoenicians and the Egyptians occupied it in the remote past, and Rome's great rival, Carthage, possessed it for more than two centuries. After many changes of ownership it came, in 1720, into the possession of the dukes of Savoy, who took the title of kings of Sardinia and Piedmont. They were the ancestors of the recent royal house of Italy. They did little, however, for the island from which their dynasty took its name; and till today it has remained undeveloped and forgotten.

Executives Train Understudies To Fill Posts In Top Level Jobs

By SAM DAWSON

NEW YORK, Sept. 27 (AP)—The understudy is coming into his own in the top levels of industry. A shortage of executives worried some companies before the Korean war. It worries still more as the industrial production drive. It may become even more worrisome because the ranks of top executives are more filled than ever with aging men.

The executive shortage even worries firms with so many vice presidents they have trouble finding desks for them. Few things or other are trained to run the entire corporation. And many vice presidents are no longer young.

Executive development programs—practically unknown a generation ago—are on the increase. The rub in finding understudies for the Old Man's job is that many companies also have a shortage of junior officers. There are three reasons for this:

1. Training of junior executives was cut back during the depression. 2. It was practically nonexistent during the war. 3. Recruiting new men with executive ability from the colleges since the war, dropped sharply while youth caught up with its delayed education.

The average age of corporation presidents has been advancing, the National Industrial Conference Board reports—around 50 years now, against 53 in 1926. Many companies ask a man to retire at 65. Some count him out at 60. A number of firms have an uncomfortably large percentage of senior officers nearing quitting age. The increased pace of industry may force a change in these mandatory retirements. But as general tension builds up in the nation, the loss of executives through death or disease increases.

If no company seeks to insure against loss of its top men, the conference board, querying 225 manufacturing companies, says 30 per cent say they don't replace men who retire. They are turning instead of American thought about a billion pounds of proposed dog food in 1949.

Congressman Herlong Reports

By ED HERLONG

The House has been busy this week ironing out differences between House and Senate versions of bills. When a bill passes the House and then goes to the Senate, or vice versa, and the other body changes or amends it, then it is the one which acted first does not agree with the changes made by the committee in the House and one from the Senate meet together to straighten things out.

When a majority of the committee agrees, they report back to their respective bodies. We sometimes have another scrap, as the House or Senate may not approve of what the conference committee has done.

Tuesday we had the conference committee report on the Communist Control Bill. The House passed a bill, the Senate made it stronger, and when the conference committee came in with their report, they made it still stronger—but, in my opinion, not too strong. The House agreed, because there were only a few dissenters remaining in the conference.

Miami Burglar Is Shot And Captured After Gun Battle

MIAMI, Sept. 27 (AP)—An armed burglar was shot and captured today after a gun battle in a southwest section here.

A second burglar was found asleep in a closet several hours later, apparently having succumbed to effects of tear gas used during the fight.

Police Sgt. Harry Willis identified the wounded man as Leo Keith Smith, 29, a merchant seaman. He was reported in critical condition at Jackson Memorial Hospital. Doctors said a bullet pierced his left arm near the shoulder and entered his chest.

The second man was identified as Henry Blackburn Mosby, 29, of Los Angeles. Police said he was a production line worker with Willis and two patrolmen, Roy Peterson and Jack Hilden, were called to the house by a neighbor who saw an intruder and knew the family was away on vacation.

He told this story: Peterson checked downstairs and was going up to the second floor when two shots were fired at him from the bedroom door. He and Hilden returned the fire in other small cars around, along with patrolman Ray Kellam.

Finally Smith made a break from the second floor trap and plunged down the stairs. Kellam shot him through the arm and shoulder, but the burglar kept his feet and ran. Smith staggered out, his hands in the air.

Sometime later, after the tear gas cleared, Willis and patrolman J. F. Hartley went back for a further check. As they entered the bedroom where Smith made his first stand, they heard someone coming from a closet.

Mosby was seen on the floor and was handcuffed before he was moved. He told police he covered his face with a dress to escape the tear gas and then fell asleep.

Drury Killing

Drury's determination to link Fischetti with the 1943 budgetary slaying of Estelle Carey, dice girl sweetheart of a hoodlum, Drury had acting captain in the lower ball police district, was said to have insisted that four high school girls identify Fischetti in connection with the case although they said they were certain he was not the man they had seen near the playing scene.

Boyle said today he'd "love to get" Fischetti for questioning. A direct link between Drury and Fischetti was also supplied by Attorney Kutner. Kutner said that Drury phoned him from Kutner's office Monday and explained he had "something cooking" which involved Bas.

THE WORLD TODAY

By DeWITT MacKENZIE, AP Foreign Affairs Analyst

Support is mounting among the democracies for America's proposal that every United Nations member maintain a special unit in its army subject to call by the U. N. for enforcement of peace.

This of course amounts to the creation of a United Nations army which, in its totality, would be a powerful military machine. It would provide the strength to make the peace organization fully effective.

Without this the U. N. must be impotent in the face of any crisis which could only be dealt with by force. The Korean war is a fair illustration of the point. General Omar Bradley, chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff, declared the other day that this campaign has become one of the most significant in all military history because it marks the birth of a new power in the world: "Armed action by the United Nations."

When Korea was invaded from the north, the U. N. was powerless—in its own strength—to intervene. But it was lucky. It appealed for intervention by its members under the U. N. flag, and the United States went into action, to be followed by others.

Had any nation intervened in Korea without the sponsorship of the U. N., it very likely would have precipitated a major war. As it is, the success of the U. N. volunteer forces under General MacArthur has been so sweeping that their victory in South Korea seems assured.

Coincidence with this apparent display of apathy by Russia to the Korean show, there is another interesting phenomenon. The Moscow representatives at the United Nations have adopted an amazingly mild and even friendly policy towards the western representatives. Peace is in the air.

Typical of this tendency was a statement in New York Monday by fiery-tongued Soviet Deputy Foreign Minister Jacob A. Malik to a Baltimore delegation, described as the Maryland Committee for Peace. He said he favored a meeting between the two leaders of the United States and Russia to negotiate their differences and help achieve full peace.

Some observers interpret this soft talk as indicating Moscow is preparing for another blow, similar to that in Korea. This would be a continuation of the strategy and the other Western powers by aid of weakening the United States economic straitjacket.

Where will the blow come? It might be in any one of several places. The danger spots include Indonesia and Burma. There even has been talk of an attack on Western Germany with the people's police of East Germany.

Approas of the German danger, American High Commander John J. McCloy has stated that the Western Allies will fight if the Red make an assault.

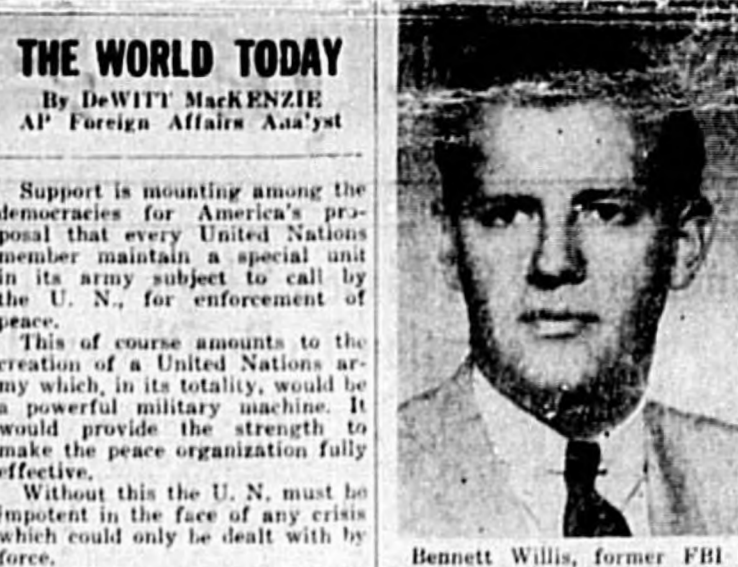

In any event, whatever the mild talk may signify, it certainly doesn't mean peace. Communism is out to convert the world. There will be further developments like the Korean imbroglio.

America rushed in and saved the day in Korea. The next development of this sort must be met by a unified United Nations effort at the start—a U. N. Army.

Bishop Wing

(Continued From Page One) diocese will be held at 3:00 P. M. in the Cathedral to take the first steps necessary for the election of a Suffragan Bishop to assist in the work of the diocese after the retirement of Bishop Wing.

The resignation of Bishop Wing was presented to the House of Bishops of the Episcopal Church to take effect as of Dec. 31, 1950 when he will retire from active service and the Rt. Rev. Henry I. Lottitt, D. D., now Bishop Coadjutor of the diocese, will become Bishop.

The special committee in charge of the celebration includes the Rev. William F. Moses of Lakeland, the Very Rev. Melville E. Johnson, D. D. of Orlando, the Rev. Martin J. Ryan of West Palm Beach, Messrs. Fred D. Frey of Orlando, Halsted W. Caldwell of Winter Park and Dan Weller of Daytona Beach and the Rt. Rev. Thomas G. Trace of Petersburg, Misses Alpha B. Nash of Winter Park and Mildred Gibbons of Tampa.

Bishop Wing was elected Bishop Coadjutor at a special meeting of the diocesan convention in Orlando on May 6, 1925. At that time he was serving as rector of St. Paul Church, Chattanooga, Tenn., and it was there that he was consecrated as Bishop on the Feast of St. Michael and St. Angels, Sept. 29, 1925. Upon the death of the Rt. Rev. Cameron Mann, D. D., on Feb. 8, 1932, Bishop Wing as Coadjutor automatically became Bishop of the diocese and was formally enthroned on May 12, 1932.

The diocese of South Florida at the time of his election numbered 8,121 communicants and now reports 26,662. In the first full year he served as Bishop, there were 358 confirmations; in 1949 some 1,600 persons were confirmed. Total receipts for all purposes in the year of 1950 amounted to $381,889.00; last year the total contributions were $1,111,160.00. In the first year he was Bishop there were 2,021 members in the Church Schools; now there are nearly 10,000.

Bishop Wing is a native of Atlanta, Ga., and received his education at the University of Georgia, William and Mary College, and Virginia Theological Seminary. He has received the honorary degree of Doctor of Divinity from the University of Georgia, Virginia Theological Seminary, and the University of the South, and honorary degree of Doctor of Laws from Rollins College.

He began his ministry in Atlanta serving as rector of the Church of the Holy Comforter and the Church of the Incarnation, then becoming rector of Christ Church, Anniston, Ala., and of St. Paul's Church, Savannah, Ga. While rector of St. Paul's Church in Chattanooga, he was elected to serve as Bishop of the Diocese of South Florida.

Mrs. Willis, formerly Mary Catherine Ammons, is from Atlanta, Ga. They have four children.

Martin, Mrs. Joe Fulghum, Mrs. Sney Allied and Mrs. Margaret Long; Mrs. C. W. Eagle, Sunbeam Baby Visitor.

Dr. Brooks offered a prayer of dedication. A social hour followed and the members of the "Red Remembrance Group" were the hosts or guests. Those present were Mrs. Carrie Forrester, Mrs. Marie H. Moore, Mrs. R. J. Walcott and Mrs. Lucy McNabb. Mrs. McNabb observed her 86th birthday and "Happy Birthday" was sung to her. Delicious refreshments consisting of sandwiches, homemade cookies and fruit punch were served by the Intermediate and Junior Girls' Auxiliaries to the members and visitors.

Three members of the Sallie Harrison Chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution are shown at the Woman's Club inspecting articles of historic interest donated to the new Sanford Museum. Mrs. Miriam Russell is holding a wrought iron lamp dating back to the early 18th Century. Mrs. P. J. Bell at right is examining draperies, and Mrs. L. C. Hagan is reading the names of donors to the Museum. Italian furniture, books, and many antique articles were given to the custody of the Museum by General Sanford's daughter, Mrs. Carolina Sanford Dow.

Mrs. Joe Baker Is Guest of Honor

Mrs. Charlotte True, assisted by her mother, Mrs. R. E. True, entertained yesterday at 1:00 P. M. with a luncheon in the private dining room of the Anchor Inn honoring Mrs. Joe Benson Baker, whose marriage was an event of August in Waycross, Ga.

Forming attractive decorations on the dining table were sprays of lilacs of the valley, and place cards marking the guests' places. White linens, table covers and glassware were used throughout the dining room.

Miss True presented the hosts with a lovely pair of nylon guest towels. Luncheon was served by Mrs. C. W. Baker, Mrs. George Andrew Speer, Mrs. Raymond Kader, Mrs. M. L. Robson, Jr., Mrs. Al Doudney, Miss Floy Baker, Miss Daphne Connelly, Miss Catherine Clark, Miss Betty Jo Brock, Miss True and Mrs. True.

Today Could Be 'Flag Day' For League Leading Yanks And Phils

By WILL GRIMSLEY
(Associated Press Sports Writer)

This could be "Flag Day" for the New York Yankees and Philadelphia Phillies.

New York's magnificent "clutch" team and Philadelphia's dashing youngsters were in a position to lock up the American and National League championships before sundown and put to rest all the feverish excitement over who will play in the 1950 World Series.

This would make a mere formality of the week-end windup that was figured to be loaded with high tension stuff.

American League	W	L	Pct.
New York	94	54	.41
Detroit	92	57	.39
Boston	91	57	.36

National League	W	L	Pct.
Philadelphia	90	58	.36
Brooklyn	84	65	.31

The so-called magic number for the Yankees this is two. For the Phillies it's three.

That means any combination of those numbers—wins and defeats for the Yankees and Phils—would clinch the pennant.

The Yankees moved today into Philadelphia for the first time since they left Boston in the last-place Athletics before leaving Park.

A Yankee victory linked with a single loss for Detroit and Boston this would return the Bronx Bombers to familiar World Series surroundings without further ado.

The Detroit Tigers, their once flaming pennant hopes chilled by a last week defeat against Boston in the last-place Athletics before leaving Park.

A Yankee victory linked with a single loss for Detroit and Boston this would return the Bronx Bombers to familiar World Series surroundings without further ado.

Sports Roundup

By HUGH FULLERTON, JR.

NEW YORK, Sept. 27—(AP)—Tonight's tussle between Edward "Big Boy" Louis and Phil "The One" is the one which finally decides whether boxing will be carried on for the benefit of buyers of 30 ringside tickets or folks who get those "layover" pastebards more or less for free.

Some three weeks ago, Willie Pep and Sandy Saddler, waging what promised to be a heck of a fight without the distractions of radio and television, attracted a $202,000 gate at Yankee Stadium.

This was by far the biggest sum ever drawn by such little guys.

International Boxing Club experts estimate that some $200,000 to $300,000, depending on the weather, will come through the gates tonight and the air rights will contribute $100,000 more.

The higher figure would make it a successful, though not sensational promotion; the lower likely would leave a lot of room for thought about those folks who stayed at home.

Of course, this tilt is interesting mainly because no one knows what to expect of either contestant—but wasn't that the case for the second Louis-Billy Conn affair, which drew $122,564 gate, and Joe's last title defense against Jersey Joe Walcott, which drew nearly $850,000?

Hollywood

By BOB THOMAS

HOLLYWOOD, Sept. 27—(AP)—Ever wonder what happened to Skipper Homier, who played the mean Nazi kid in "Tomorrow the World"?

The young actor was a stage sensation when he played the man boy who didn't take to American democracy. He started in the film version with Fredric March and Betty Field in 1944. What has happened to him since?

"I got lost inside a big studio," he says. "MGM signed me when I opened in the try-out of the play. They loaned me out to do the picture version for another producer, making a profit on the transaction. But the studio never planned anything for me."

"Finally I got to do one picture—'Boys' Ranch' with Butch Jenkins. It was lousy."

Homier is now 19, a six-footer and a freshman at UCLA. He hopes that he has bridged the in-between stage that every child actor has to face. That's the time when they are too old to play kids, too young to play grown-up roles and generally appear as graceful as a new-born calf.

"I hope I am through it," he told me. "I take my hat off to anyone who can get through that age successfully in pictures. It's murder."

Among those who have recovered that fact are Jackie Coogan, Jane Withers, Jackie Cooper, Freddie Bartholomew, Peggy Ann Garner and Baby Leroy. None was able to recapture the film charm they had as children.

On the other hand, on the way north and the lads are hoping to pick up some things that fact are Jackie Coogan, Jane Withers, Jackie Cooper, Freddie Bartholomew, Peggy Ann Garner and Baby Leroy. None was able to recapture the film charm they had as children.

Gators See Movie Of Errors As They Prepare For Dukes

GAINESVILLE, Sept. 27—(AP)

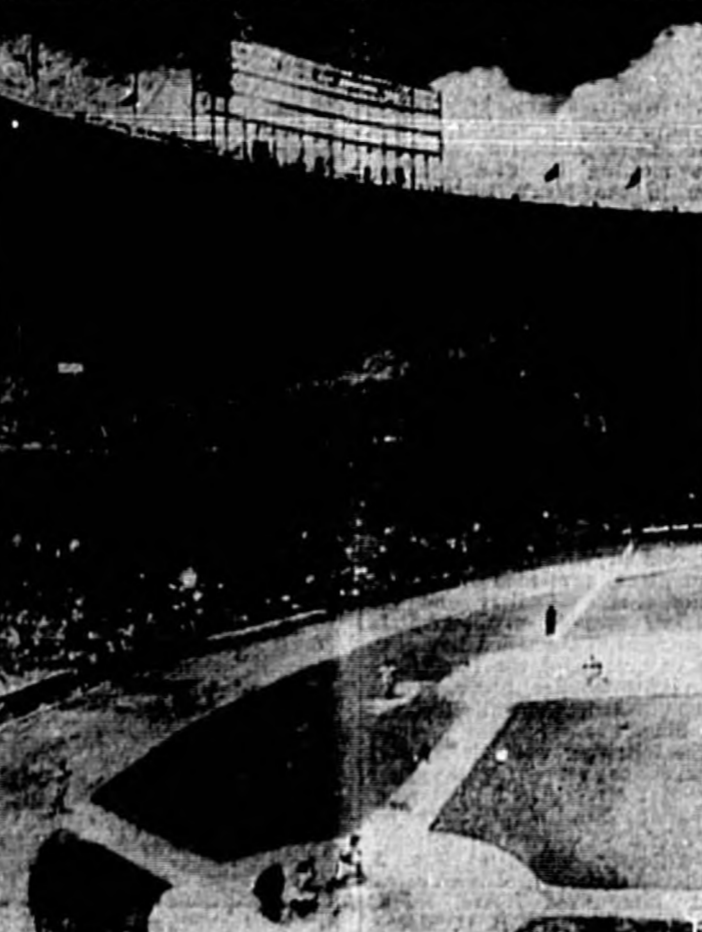

Spurred on by a movie review of mistakes made in last week's victory over Citadel, Florida's football squad yesterday buckled down to the job of corrections under the trim scrutiny of the Gator coaching staff.

Head Coach Bob Woodruff, who compiled a long list of errors made by his green sophomores, had other worries. End Mike Kelly of Jacksonville, who blocked was praised for his defensive two Citadel punts Saturday and work, has been ordered to report for his pre-draft physical examination. So has Dan Hunter, a 215 pound sophomore tackle from Miami. Both men are eligible for postponement, however.

Woodruff split the Gator squad into offensive and defensive units yesterday and sought to fire up a fairly ragged showing against opposing freshman units.

"We're working," Woodruff said. "There's no more fundamistals were fed linesmen before the scrimmage session got underway.

Sophomore Hayward Sullivan, the star back from Alabama who completed 21 tosses Saturday, pegged home several more yesterday to end Jim French of Perry. Floyd Huggins broke loose for good gain on the ground. Back in harness were Scotty Peck and Ken Sumner, sophomore backs who missed the Citadel game. Captain Angus Williams was also reported ready to go when the Duke's visit Florida Field Saturday night.

FOR THE FIRST TIME, an afternoon game in Cleveland is played under lights as a heavy cloud of smoke from a Canadian forest fire drifts across the ball park. The smoke cloud, 600 miles long and 3,000 feet thick, traveled as far south as Virginia and west as far as Iowa. The Indians found the cloud had a silver lining, though, when they took the game from Detroit, 2-1, after ten innings of play. (International Soundphoto) who blows his top in "The Halls of Montezuma." And he has a lighter role in his current film, "The Gaunt Woman."

Dianna Lynn admires Rock Hudson in this scene from Universal-International's, "Peggy". Color by Technicolor, showing at the Ritz Theater Thursday and Friday.

And by the way, it's Skip now please, not Skippy. I asked him why.

"Skippy was all right when I was a kid," he said. "But it looks kind of silly for all six feet of me to walk in and have someone say 'Here comes Skippy.'"

Short Shots... Dana Andrews may stay at RKO for another picture, "The Flying Leatherneck." His deal with Sam Goldwyn and 20th-Fox has a year and a half to go, and negotiations are already beginning for a new one.

Gregory Peck took off for some fishing on the Rogue River in Oregon with some Hollywood pals. He returns to start "David and Bathsheba" with Susan Hayward.

Social Note: Jane Russell, No. 1 router for the Los Angeles Rams pro football team, was entertaining Mrs. Don Paul and Mrs. Eloy "Crazy Legs" Hirsch on the "Mac" set. Their husbands are teammates of Miss Russell's hubby, Bob Waterfield.

Schultz Baffles The Missions As Vols Take Dixie Opener

NASHVILLE, Tenn., Sept. 27—(AP)

San Antonio's Miteles got another surprise besides potent Nashville batting when they dropped the Dixie Series opener 11-5 to the Vols here last night.

It came from Bob Schultz, the Nashville southpaw who ran up a 25-6 Southern Association mark Chicago Cubs. The Missions' righthand batsmen had teed off on fast balls all summer, but the ones Schultz whizzed in had them baffled—for a while.

Schultz struck out seven San Antonio players in the first four innings. But he was wild and walked five, and in the fifth the Missions got to him for all their runs and sent big Bob to the showers.

It was the fourth straight time Schultz was knocked out in starts at the Vols' Sulphur Dell. Despite his erratic performance lately, he racked up a 3-0 record in the Southern playoffs against Atlanta and Birmingham.

Manager Don Osborn is going with another lefty against the Missions tonight. It'll be little Bert Flammini, a Boston lad, for two reasons. Flammini, the play-off hero, is the best pitcher left on the list, and Osborn figures his righthanders stand a better chance when they get to the Missions' larger park.

One Vol righthander showed his stuff last night, though. When Pete Modica took over in the fifth, he walked Rocky Ippolito, struck out Joe Frazier to retire the side, and stopped the Missions' cold on three hits the rest of the way.

Nashville had hoped on the Texas League champs' Lou Sleater, a southpaw, for six runs in the second, then were halted completely by Frank Riscan until Mission pilot Don Heffner jerked him for a pinchhitter in his big fifth.

Ten Pete Taylor couldn't hold the Vols, who added two more in both the fifth and seventh, and another in the eighth.

Heffner wouldn't say who will take the mound tonight, but visiting Texas sports writers guessed it will be Hal Hudson, a southpaw with a 9-9 season mark.

Shortstop ne Delato, whose season batting average was only .246, sparked the Nashville victory with three for four—a home run, double and single to drive in five runs.

Brown Bomber Is Favored 5 To 8 To Be First Heavy To Rewin Title

NEW YORK, Sept. 27—(AP)

Joe Louis, who retired two years ago, battles Earl Charles at the Yankee Stadium tonight in an effort to become the first heavyweight titleholder in history to regain the prized crown.

A fresh flood of Charles money has dropped the price on the title fight to 5 to 8 in favor of the Brown Bomber.

If the odds hold up until the 10 P. M. (EST) fight time, Louis may enter the ring at the shortest odds since he first won the heavyweight crown from Jimmy Braddock in Chicago on June 25, 1937.

Not since his second scrap with Max Baerling 12 years ago has Louis been held in such low esteem by the bookmakers. That night he was the 5 to 9 choice when he annihilated the Ullian in one round.

A crowd of around 30,000, paying from $3 to $20, is expected to visit the big ballpark.

Another 25,000,000 fans probably will watch the 15-round bout via television and millions more will hear it over a national CBS radio network. CBS also is telecasting the show. The combined TV-radio network is the greatest ever for a single event.

The TV-radio rights were sold for $140,000 of which Louis is receiving 35 per cent and Charles 20 per cent. That is the way they will split the gate and motion picture proceeds, too.

The promoting International Boxing Club is hoping for a gross gate of at least $250,000.

Increasing cloudiness, with a low temperature of 55 to 60 was the Weather Bureau's forecast for tonight. In the event of rain, the fight would be scheduled for tomorrow night.

As for the fight itself, it boils down to this:

Can Louis catch Charles? If he does almost everyone agrees they will split the gate and motion picture proceeds, too.

Southeastern Golfers Tee Off In P.G.A. Meet

SELEMA, Ala., Sept. 27—(AP)

A pre-amateur dogfight today set the stage for the annual Southeastern P.G.A. and Open Golf Tournament at the Selma Country Club.

A host of linksmen from Alabama, Georgia, Florida, Mississippi, Louisiana, and Tennessee will vie for prize money totaling more than $2,300.

The open, starting with an 18-hole round tomorrow, will be a 72-hole medal affair winding up Sunday. Also on the program are a women's tournament and a seniors championship for players more than 50 years old.

Otey Crisman, Selma pro, and Pete Cooper, Ponte Vedra Beach, pro, renew their eight-year-old rivalry in the meet. Cooper is the defending champion, after previously winning in 1944 and 1947. Crisman took the title in 1945 and repeated in 1944, 1946 and 1948.

The annual meeting of the S. E. P.G.A. is scheduled Friday night.

Six Point Peace Plan For Korea Is Offered By U.S.

Key To Formula Is Given As A Free, Independent And Unified Country

NEW YORK, Sept. 28.—(AP)—American sources today outlined a six-point peace formula for Korea to be put back on its feet by the combined resources of the United Nations.

The elements the United States considers essential for Korea's future follow closely proposals advanced by Britain and Canada. The British are pushing work on a post-war plan for the nation.

American informants said the United States has no desire for bases or special privileges in Korea and wants the country to be free from the domination of any other nation.

It also desires Korea's admission to the U. N. and the organization of the country in such a way that it "will pose no threats to its neighbors"—China and the Soviet Union.

Basic in the whole American idea is the establishment of a strong U. N. commission with wide authority to handle on the scene.

Assessed Value Of Florida Property Is Up 153 Million

TALLAHASSEE, Sept. 28.—(AP)—The assessed value of Florida's taxable property increased $183,979,481 this year, Comptroller C. M. Gay reported today.

Gay said the increase was $183,979,481 in the state for 1950 totaled $2,717,001,831, compared to $2,533,022,350 for 1949.

In addition, the assessed value of homesteads which are exempt from taxation increased $90,947,544 from $1,022,400,778 to $1,113,348,322.

Most of the increase was in real property, although most counties also reported gains in valuations on personal and railroad and telegraph property.

Railroad and telegraph property is assessed by the state while real and personal property is assessed by county tax assessors.

The largest increase was in real property, although most counties also reported gains in valuations on personal and railroad and telegraph property.

They are Calhoun, DeSoto, Liberty, Wakulla, Hardee, Okechobee, Dixie and Hamilton.

The biggest increase was reported by Dade county which has an estimated $663,357,992 in taxable property. Dade's 1949 total was $600,915,172.

Duval reported taxable property totaling $244,650,436, compared to $240,632,313 for 1949; Alachua $217,671,626, compared to $204,410,602; and Pinellas $168,427,110, compared to $168,000,000.

On a percentage basis, the biggest increases were reported by St. Johns county which turned its total from $15,601,787 to $23,910,312; and Alachua which reported an increase from $26,610,518 to $35,538,333.

Road Suit Attorney Receives Special Fee

TALLAHASSEE, Sept. 28.—(AP)—The state today paid Robert J. Pius, Orlando attorney, a $3,000 special fee for helping the Road Department defend a suit which resulted in overhauling the 32-year-old practice of routing equipment to build roads without competitive bids.

The fee, regulated by the Road Department, is in addition to Pius' regular retainer of $7,000 a year as attorney for the State Board of Administration.

He and lawyers hired by interested contractors did most of the courtroom work in the equipment rental suit. The Road Department's regular staff of lawyers took little part in the proceedings. Attorney General Richard Ervin opposed the Road Department in the litigation.

WARNING SERVICE
MITCHELL FIELD, N. Y., Sept. 28.—(AP)—A telephone air raid warning system capable of alerting any part of the nation in the event of enemy air attack has been completed, continental air command headquarters announced yesterday.

Final installation has been made this month on 146 air raid warning telephones in selected communities throughout the eastern and western air defense areas. Headquarters did not identify the communities.

Truman Appoints Robert A. Lovett As Marshall Aid

Undersecretary Of Defense Once In State Department

WASHINGTON, Sept. 28.—(AP)—Former Undersecretary of State Robert A. Lovett was picked by President Truman today to be Deputy Secretary of Defense.

He succeeds Stephen T. Early, who is leaving the defense post Saturday to return to private business.

Lovett is a close friend of Secretary of Defense Marshall, under whom he served as Undersecretary of State. He is now in the investment banking business in New York with Brown Brothers, Harriman and Co.

Mr. Truman telephoned Lovett at his home at Lucut Valley, N. Y., at 7:30 A. M., offered him the appointment and got a prompt acceptance.

It had been expected from the time Mr. Truman named General Marshall as Defense Secretary, after the resignation of Louis A. Johnson, that Marshall would call upon Lovett to serve under him.

Since Congress is in session, Lovett will be given a recess appointment. The appointment later will be subject to Senate confirmation.

Senate approval is expected. As Undersecretary of State, Lovett was in almost daily contact with Senator Vandenberg (R-Mich.), GOP foreign policy leader, and other congressional chiefs. He was generally well liked.

Lovett, a 55-year-old native of Huntsville, Tex., served as special assistant to the Secretary of War in 1940 and 1941. He later became Assistant Secretary of War for Air, a post he held until December, 1945.

3 Telephone Girls Are Arrested In Brassiere Case

MIAMI, Sept. 28.—(AP)—Three telephone company girls, accused of putting a silver lining worth an estimated $100,000 in their brassieres surrendered today, and five other persons were booked with them.

All were freed on bonds ranging from $1,000 to $2,500. Judge J. Willard in criminal court gave them a mild tongue-lashing for "haunting the law," and told their attorney, Harry Prehais:

"People aren't as stupid as you think they are."

Another IRA Bandit Keene, N. H., Sept. 28.—(AP)

Police said today that when they arrested Mrs. Eleanor Keene, 33, on a shopping trip in a store in which she pleaded innocent, she had her brassiere:

Two toy guns, a necklace, a bracelet, five toy automobiles, a small jack lantern, two boxes of pencils and a pen and pencil.

Police alleged the collection came from two five and ten cent stores and was valued at $2.96.

Mrs. Keene was held in jail for hearing Friday.

AL COMES HOME LOS ANGELES, Sept. 28.—(AP)

A tired Al Johnson returned here last night from entertaining combat troops in the Korean zone and had this comment:

"Know what it feels like to be back? I'm going to look up my in-come tax and see if I paid enough."

"Those guys are wonderful," the singer told reporters in referring to the morale of combat troops. "This is a much tougher war than the last one, believe me."

Survey Started On Widening Of French Avenue

State Senator L. F. Boyle announced this morning that he had begun a survey of French Avenue to include the widening of French Avenue, a farm to market road.

During the past week a surveying party from the Road Department has been at work on the project.

As soon as the survey is completed it will be necessary to get the additional right-of-way from Thirteenth Street south to the Orlando Highway, he declared, and pointed out that the present right-of-way north to Seminole Boulevard is sufficient with its width of 82 feet.

The widening would make French Avenue a six lane highway similar to the state highway on Ridge Road in Daytona Beach which, he declared, has pedestrian underpasses at several points.

In a letter to Wesley Sweet, State Road Department commissioner, Mr. Boyle pointed out the need for a pedestrian underpass across French Avenue at Eighteenth Street as a safety measure for pupils of Seminole High School.

Colonial Drive and the Orange Blossom Trail, he stated.

"It is hoped that such an underpass will be built." (Continued on Page Two)

Life Cheap Price For Stopping War, Says GI

ASPINWALL, Pa., Sept. 28.—(AP)—A Marine sergeant who helped stop the Russian consulate in Seoul wrote his family "If I ever had to give my life to keep war from hitting close to home, it would be a cheap price to pay."

The letter was written a few days ago by Staff Sgt. Jack A. Fichter, 31, who was among the first Marines to sweep into the center of the South Korean city.

"If we don't stop them in Korea," Sgt. Fichter wrote, "where next will they strike? We can't sit back and let the Communists threaten engulf all the good we did all over the world and only strike back when it strikes home."

ROUGH COW GIRL PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 28.—(AP)

A rifle-wielding "cow girl" wounded her husband, exchanged shots with a hand of policemen and then surrendered last night.

Mrs. Amelia Range, 42, was taken to police headquarters still wearing a ten-gallon hat, white-trimmed cow girl skirt and cowboy boots. She was charged with aggravated assault and battery and violation of the firearms act.

MRS. KNOX DIES JOHNSTOWN, N. Y., Sept. 28.—(AP)

Mrs. Charles B. Knox, one of America's leading woman industrialists, died last night at her home here. She was 92.

For more than 40 years, Mrs. Knox had headed the Charles B. Knox Gelatin Co., founded in this central New York community by her husband in 1890. She gave up active direction of the firm recently, but continued as chairman of the board of directors.

Variety Program Is Presented At Kiwanis Luncheon

Kiwanians yesterday enjoyed a varied program of entertainment arranged for them by Edward F. Lane, Dr. Henry McLaughlin and Harold Kustner. Mr. Lane served as announcer.

The entertainers included Dr. R. M. Huntley, Orlando dentist and well known blackface comedian, who was accompanied at the piano by Mrs. A. F. Christopher, Orlando. Dr. Huntley chose kiwanians as the butt of his jokes, including Joel Field, Mr. Lane, F. Hasky Wight, the Rev. J. E. McKinley, Judge Sharon and M. B. (T. Bone) Smith. He ended his act with a tap dance following several comical songs.

Miss Norma Fay Harvey, a junior of Seminole High School, was roundly applauded for her difficult feat of acrobatic dancing. An assistant instructor at the Doris Durbach School of Dancing she recently won two amateur contests in Orlando. Her feat included the back bend, body thrust, quantum mark and other difficult movements and postures. Harry Wester accompanied at the piano.

The program opened with a medley on the banjo by Willard Combs, with Mr. Wester accompanying.

Guests introduced by Col. S. G. Hartman were W. H. Nicholson, Rotarian, A. J. Thompson, Jr. of Orlando, George Moscov, M. E. Lazar, Michael Gibson, and Sandy Jacobson of the Key Club. Birthdays greetings were sung for Nell Martin Stimpinger led the singing.

President Ralph A. Smith urged the members to attend the District Kiwanis Convention at Orlando, Oct. 7-10.

SAFETY AWARDS TAMPA, Sept. 28.—(AP)

Florida cities had no traffic deaths in 1949.

They were Bradenton, Marianna, Plant City, Avon Park, Quince, Winter Haven, Leesburg, Palmetto and Ocala. They will receive awards from the National Safety Council.

HE DONE WRONG DETROIT, Sept. 28.—(AP)

Howard Bell stole a bicycle, intending to ride it home to Atlanta, Ga. In court he was convicted of stealing.

"It was wrong," he said. "I ought to get about 60 days in jail." The judge obliged him.

More Cattle Moving To Markets Should Result In Meat Price Cut

WASHINGTON, Sept. 28.—(AP)—Government promises of larger supplies and lower prices of meat today showed signs of fulfillment.

As the Agriculture Department predicted several weeks ago, the movement of cattle and hogs from farms to slaughter markets is beginning to increase. Likewise, slaughtering operations are beginning to cut their buying prices. These price cuts should soon be reflected in retail price levels.

It is normal for meat supplies to be lowest and prices highest in the late summer. That is the season of smallest marketings of meat animals. Farmers are busy then with crop cultivation and harvesting operations and with fattening of meat animals.

Normally, farm sales begin to expand in late September. They usually reach the year's highest level in December and January. Similarly, prices generally are lowest during those months.

An evidence of increasing meat supplies, the Agriculture Department reported that meat production by federally-inspected slaughterers last week totaled 328,000,000 pounds. This was an increase of 8 per cent over the previous week and 11 per cent above production in the correspondent week last year.

The bulk of this increase was pork. Hog slaughter was 9 per cent greater than in the previous week.

Market receipts of hogs last week were said to have been the largest for the season to date and of record proportions for this time of year.

Rep. Vinson Asks Early Revision Of Draft Law

WASHINGTON, Sept. 28.—(AP)—Rep. Vinson (R-Ga.) said today the Army has informed him it will need an additional 300,000 men in the next six months. Vinson told reporters that Mat. General Clavin Byers, deputy chief of staff, said 300,000 men would be needed in addition to the 300,000 already indicated since an Army expansion was ordered after the outbreak of the Korean war.

House Group Leader Hitts Inequalities Of Present Statute

WASHINGTON, Sept. 28.—(AP)—Rep. Vinson (R-Ga.) said today the Army has informed him it will need an additional 300,000 men in the next six months. Vinson told reporters that Mat. General Clavin Byers, deputy chief of staff, said 300,000 men would be needed in addition to the 300,000 already indicated since an Army expansion was ordered after the outbreak of the Korean war.

Opening hearings into the Army's manpower needs and the way it uses the forces it has, Vinson said the House Armed Services Committee heard today "get into the subject deeply enough to propose remedies for such inequalities."

Vinson noted in a prepared statement that the present draft law exempts from induction men with dependents.

Yet, he continued, in calling on the National Guard and Reserve the armed forces are taking men who have had four, five, even six years of military service during the last war.

"We are taking in men who have many dependents," Vinson said. "We are finding that men with no previous service are still at home. Yet veterans are being recruited in the last war."

LEGION MEET The Sanford Post 53 of the American Legion will meet Monday night at 8:00 o'clock and all members of the Post are urged to attend in order that the broadcast, "Operation Early Bird," over Station WTRR have been completed.

Joe R. Field announced today that final arrangements for this broadcast, "Operation Early Bird," over Station WTRR have been completed.

SINATRA DIVORCE SANTA MONICA, Calif., Sept. 28.—(AP)—The 11-year-old marriage of Frank Sinatra and his wife of 11, Nancy Sinatra, today with finality hit the rocks today with a divorce decree.

Nancy Sinatra, receiving an estimated $1,000,000 a year income, Sinatra let his wife have a separate maintenance decree by default in superior court.

Greg Bautzer, attorney for Sinatra, said that the one thing Sinatra's wife will earn close to a million dollars this year. Mr. Sinatra has been receiving $2,750 a month support for herself and their three children during months of negotiations over the settlement.

Organized Resistance In Korea Vanishing; Taejon Is Captured

Former Kansas Police Head Is Heard At Probe

Governor Followed Binaggio's Advice On Police Matter

KANSAS CITY, Sept. 28.—(AP)—A former Kansas City police commissioner told a Senate Crime Investigating Committee today that he had been brought under pressure to make changes in the department favorable to the late Charles Binaggio.

He was Hampton S. Chambers, removed from the board of police commissioners last spring by Gov. Forrest Smith after the gangland style slaying of Binaggio and Charles Gargotta, by convict musician.

The last witness as the committee opened its three days of public hearings, Chambers related that Binaggio, former democratic factional leader, once made an appointment with him and asked him about a new police chief for the city and also some changes among some of the police captains.

Chambers said he asked Binaggio to put the request in writing, but the northside Democratic leader first agreed and then decided against it, saying: "I wouldn't do that."

On another occasion he said he asked Binaggio why he didn't have J. L. (Jack) Milligan, the board president, at a meeting with Binaggio and Chambers.

"We don't have to worry about him," Chambers quoted Binaggio as remarking.

Milligan resigned last spring in a shake-up of the board.

Chambers told the committee he received many anonymous telephone calls. Sometimes, he testified, the callers "warned me I'd better get in line."

On another occasion, the witness said, a prominent business man called on him with a proposition and asked him if he wanted to be a part of it.

Farm Auction Mart Opens Friday Night

Light poles were erected today at the former site of the auction mart in preparation for the opening tomorrow night of the new Farmers Auction Market, and all indications point to a record crowd, County Agent C. R. Dawson said this morning.

South Sanford Avenue, which has been blocked for the laying of a culvert is now open for traffic he pointed out.

Dave Shannon and his String Masters will furnish music for the occasion, and are sponsored by the Sanford Atlantic National Bank.

Larry Jones will serve as auctioneer, and products sold will include farm crops and miscellaneous items such as farm tools.

An invitation has been extended to the manager and the Board of Directors of the auction market at Wichita to visit the new market, and to coach the local personnel on market practice, said Mr. Dawson.

NATION'S WEATHER CHICAGO, Sept. 28.—(AP)

Nation's weather pattern showed little change today.

Most of the Midwest had showers or cloudy weather. Skies were clear over the northern great plains, the far southwest and the Pacific northwest. It was cloudy and foggy in the northeastern states and partly cloudy in the southern states. Cool weather spread over the northern Rockies, northern great plains and the western Lake Superior region.

ORLANDOAN NAMED FRANKFURT, Germany, Sept. 28.—(AP)—Miss Stella Belle Ashok not of Orlando, Fla., was appointed today as the first woman judge in the U. S. court system in Germany.

Miss Arbutnot prepared for the practice of law by studying night while working as a secretary in the Department of Justice.

She came to Germany in 1940 as an assistant in the war crimes trials at Nuernberg, then became assistant U. S. district attorney at Stuttgart.

German Police Drive Reds Out Of Party Office

Communists Rioting Continuing In Capital Of Austria

BERLIN, Sept. 28.—(AP)—Socialist leader Kurt Schumacher asserted today the Communists plan violent demonstrations Sunday in at least eight cities of West Germany's industrial Ruhr valley. He warned police there not to leave any weak spots which the Reds could exploit. Schumacher said a heavy contingent of the whole scheme was planned and directed by the Russians and Communists of Berlin and was financed by a Soviet-sponsored blackmarket in coffee.

DUESSELDORF, Germany, Sept. 28.—(AP)—Club-swinging German police drove out 120 Reds from the Communist Party's Ruhr headquarters today after being pelted with ash trays and beer glasses in the basement dummy room.

The police used force to clear the new five-story building here in the face of Communist defiance of a British order requiring it to be torn down.

Thirty policemen with rubber truncheons broke into the building at 12:15 P. M. fifteen minutes after expiration of the British 48-hour deadline for evacuation.

In the basement, they ran into a hail of tableware from angry Communists, but quickly expelled them.

Several police and Communist were hurt in the brawl, but not seriously.

Room by room, the police cleared out resisting party officials from the luxurious headquarters.

A line of 120 Communist's finally marched out to the street singing the "Internationale," and shouting "Tommy go home, victory will be ours."

Six British officers attempted to inspect the premises shortly before the police went into action. They were jeered by Reds inside.

The 11th Armored Division, due to join two other British divisions in West Germany, may occupy the building.

German anti-Communist areas appeared jubilant that British requisitioning had struck at the Red party and spared other property holders.

The housing shortage is acute in the Ruhr.

COUPE WRECKED A 1940 Dodge coupe was damaged yesterday when the driver, seeking to avoid hitting a 1949 Ford truck, was forced into a ditch on Geneva Avenue at Cameron Avenue at 10:45 o'clock yesterday morning. Deputy Sheriff Charles Beck said today.

William L. Barnes of Lakewood was driving the Dodge when he was driving the Dodge damage to which is estimated at more than $300. He was trying to avoid hitting Willie Lee Mike, Negro, who was attempting to left turn from Geneva to Cameron Avenue, and who is charged with failure to give a proper hand signal before making the turn.

PRESIDENTIAL BINGE PEKIN, III, Sept. 28.—(AP)

The toastmaster "Franklin D. Roosevelt" struck and damaged a play on the railroad bridge on the Illinois river south of Pekin Jan. 11.

A few days ago another toastmaster struck the same pier and finished the job of flattening it. The toastmaster? The "Harry S. Truman."

General Walker Says Only Few Pockets Of Fanatical Reds Are Still Fighting

KIMPO, ACHFIELD, Korea, Sept. 27.—(AP)—(Delayed)—The Red invaders are being made for a victory march through the streets of Seoul today. A 50-piece U. S. Marine band was chosen to lead the United Nations forces through the liberated capital, the Korean seat of government since 1952.

By DON JUTH—The Red invader army as a whole has been defeated, the Allied command in Korea said today, and is reduced to a few pockets of dwindling resistance and headlong retreat.

This was the appraisal of Lt. General Walton H. Walker, U. S. Eighth Army commander, as the Allied armored surge tightened in and around Seoul, the capital.

Seoul, the ravaged capital of Korea, was completely in American hands, and Marines and infantrymen wandered, relaxed, through the wrecked streets where only a few hours earlier they had fought savage battles, AP correspondent Don Whitford reported.

Col. Lewis (Chet) Fuller, commanding the First Marine Regiment, told Whitford the hour of final victory was 6 P. M. Wednesday when the last Reds pulled back north and east, leaving the Americans completely master of every part of the city.

American forces to the south occupied three more cities—Taepo, Namwon and Hwang.

The North Korean army is in complete rout and no longer exists as an organized force," Walker told war correspondents at his headquarters in Korea.

He said all Red troops south of the Pusan Taejon Seoul highway, sending diagonally from the old beachhead in the southeast to the new one at Incheon, will be annihilated.

Of the once powerful Red force of an estimated 150,000 men more than three-fourths may have been or will be wiped out, Walker said.

Thus, in just over three months, the Reds had utterly overthrown the U. S. Army's position, and were now being driven south of the Pusan Taejon Seoul highway.

Mother Held For Murder Of Her Son Hidden In Ice Box

TAMPA, Sept. 28.—(AP)—A red haired tavern operator today was charged with first degree murder in the death of her small son whose body was found stuffed inside a refrigerator at the tavern.

Chief Criminal Deputy Ernest Underwood said Mrs. May M. Tipp, 29-year-old divorcee, still residing in the town, knew nothing about the death of her son, Edward, until the body was found in the refrigerator.

Bodily signs shot back to the head, found in the refrigerator, were a chest three inches in diameter, a head three inches in diameter, and a body three inches in diameter.
