Justice Arthur England Jr.

To Be Sworn In Wednesday

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. (AP) - Justice Arthur England Jr. will be sworn in Wednesday as the newest member of the Florida Supreme Court.

England won election to the court in November, defeating former Judge Sam Spector for the seat vacated by the retirement of Justice Richard Ervin. However, the court has not decided the length England's term. The court is to hold a hearing later on whether England will serve the four years remaining on Ervin's term or a full six-year term. Speakers at England's investiture ceremony include James Urban, Florida Bar president and Chesterfield

Energy Plan Needed Badly

proposals being amassed to form the basis for a comprehensive energy policy for the United States

One of them is that our dependence on imported oil, coming mainly from the Arab world, is making us vulnerable to political blackmail in the form of an oil embargo or arbitrarily high oil prices. This blackmail is bleeding our economy billions of dollars. While recycling these petro-dollars can bring some of that wealth back to the United States, the process also exacts a penalty in the influence or even control over economic and political decisions that Arab investors can exercise in the United

The other is that this dependency will continue until the United States makes significant progress toward self-sufficiency in energy, and that progress in this direction is going to require investment of billions of dollars in development of our domestic fuel resources, including exploitation of nuclear energy and development of latent sources such as oil shale, coal gasification and

There is one common factor in both of these propositions - money. It is obvious that we would be well started toward solving our energy problems if the billions of dollars now flowing into Arab treasuries were instead flowing into the investment in energy production we need to make in our own

Diverting money from purchase of imported oil into domestic energy programs will be like assembling a Chinese puzzle. We know the pieces will fit together if we can figure out how to assemble them correctly.

We know, for instance, that it will take energy conservation far more strict than anything we have practiced so far to reduce our oil imports by the one million barrels a day President ford has projected as a goal. We also know that a new tax on crude oil or gasoline, or higher prices for oil producted from domestic wells, could generate revenue in the range of the billions needed for energy development. We know that there must be a guarantee of stable prices at a relatively high level to justify investment in oil shale production and other new

We know the economic principles that lie behind a drive for energy self-sufficiency, but we have not decided on how to apply them. Must we resort to allocations or rationing to cut back our oil imports? How can we assure that revenue from an oil or gasoline tax is used to help develop new energy sources? How can an effective energy development policy avoid the appearance of a give-away or windfall for oil companies and others that would engage in the search for new domestic fuel sources?

We do indeed face a mammoth energy problem, but we face a troublesome political problem, too. From mandated conservation programs to higher taxes or prices for fuel, every option must be viewed as something the public doesn't want. What we want to do and what we need to do are not always the same, however, and this is a bitter fact that Congress and the President eventually must face. We are going to have to gag down some bitter medicine in the interest of our standard of living, if not our national survival.

WORLD IN BRIEF

Phuoc Binh Stung By North Vietnam

SAIGON, South Vietnam (AP) - North Vietnames forces overran Phuoc Binh City today after a six-day siege, completing their conquest of Phuoc Long province and also captured a base guarding Tay Ninh City, another provincial capital 70 miles southwest of Phuoc Binh, the South Vietnamese command announced. A command spokesman said radio contact was lost with government forces in and around Phuoc Binh at 9:30 a.m. following a night-long assault by some 6,000 North Vietnamese infantrymen backed by tanks and an artillery barrage of several thousand rounds. Military officials said small units of South Vietnamese rangers were trying to fight their way out of the provincial capital near the Cambodian border 75 miles north of Saigon.

Charge Is Denied

BEIRUT, Lebanon (AP) - Lebanon's premier has denied an Israeli charge that Palestinian guerrillas in Lebanon are armed with late-model missiles. Premier Rashid Solh said the claim by Israeli Defense Minister Shimon Peres Monday was "baseless." The guerrillas in Lebanon have no such weapons, a statement distributed by the official national news agency said. Peres told the Israeli Knesset (parliament) that Palestinian troops from Syria had joined the guerrillas in southern Lebanon and brought with them antitank and antiaircraft missiles. The Lebanese premier's statement also denied that any non-Lebanese Arab troops are in his country.

DEAR ABBY Too Narrow?

DEAR ABBY: Everybody has a problem. Here's one I've never seen in your column. It's my husband's. Charley is an amputee who gets around quite well in his wheelchair, but his biggest problem is finding restrooms with

DEAR ABBY: I was shocked to discover that even you believe that being single makes a woman a second class citizen. You told "No words" that the most generous thing she could do for her best friend's daughter, who shocked everyone by coming home with a small child after her promising marriage failed, would be to introduce the divorcee to some eligible bachelor, and keep her socially active. How disgusting! It sounds as though you are trying to get some homely wallflower out of the close

Abby, being single is not a disgrace or some horrible defect that needs to be immediately corrected.

DEAR SINGLE: Granted, not all divorcees want another marriage, but I still think that MOST divorcees would welcome an opportunity to meet eligible bachelors and become socially active again. And those who don't can always decline. DEAR ABBY: Fourteen months ago, my husband and I moved from Waco to Victoria, Texas. A friend from Waco told me to call her sister who lives in Victoria, so I did. This woman calls me every day and ties me up for hours. She

I tell her I've been shopping, she asks why I didn't let her know that I was going shopping so she could go with me. Her husband does most of the housework and all the marketing, so she's left with nothing to do and thinks everyone else has nothing to do all day like her. If I have a card game and don't invite her I pray that she doesn't find out because she'll get hurt and angry. I'm afraid I'll have to move out of Victoria to get some peace. I feel like my life isn't my own any more. How do I get out of her clutches without SMOTHERED IN VICTORIA

DEAR SMOTHERED: There is no compromising with possessive people who make you feel guilty if you don't include them in every part of your life. This will be the first international boxing event for Central Florida. The touring Canadians Two of the best fighters on the Canadian team are Randy Jackson and Davis Ius, a pair of devastating welterweights. Jackson's opponent has not been announced but his foe will have his hands full with the 17 year-old from Edmonton. Winner of 130 fights in 143 outings, Jackson holds the inside track for a position on the Canadian Olympic Team. Ius, who is from Vancouver and will meet Casselberry's Scott Clark in the Jan. 14 amateur show, is also a strong choice for the Olympics

Joining Clark on the United States side will be 16-year-old Alan Dalton, a Lake Howeli student from Fern Park here in Seminole County. In all, there will be 10 fights with the proceeds to benefit the amateur boxing program.

Boxing in Florida is starting on a higher level First, Tampa announced its All-Star card that featured Quarry against Roman. And now tomorrow night in Miami, Chris Dundee is putting on one of his strongest shows.

Two 10 rounders will be featured with Pete Ashlock's "Irish" Gene Wells taking on the stylish Marcel Clay, while Frankie Otero meets Vilomar Fernandez in the main event. Wells has headlined the last two cards in Orlando with knockout victories while Clay is one of the hottest young middleweight prospects in the country.

Otero, a Cuban refugee, is sixth in the United States among junior lightweights and carries a record of 45-6-2 into the fray. His Domican Republic opponent has done nost of his fighting in New York where he is the leading contendor for the U.S. lightweight title. His record is 14-4-1 and he has been installed a 7-5 underdog by the local betting gentry. HERE AND THERE IN THE BOXING SCENE . . . Wells has been signed to fight Mexican middleweight champion Manuel Elizondo in a scheduled 10 rounder on Jan. 18.

LEE GEIGER

The Sacremento, Calif. contest makes little sense for Wells. He will have only 11 days from the time he meets Clay in Miami to the time he steps into the ring with Elizondo.

Mike Quarry's proposed Jan. 21 date i Stockton, Calif. with "Indian" Yaqui Lopez looks like it will be postponed. Quarry emerged from his win over Roman with two cuts and a pair of eyelids that looked like golfballs.

In his dressing room after the fight Quarry sounded almost paranoid as he accused Roman of deliberately butting him. Roman has been called almost everything under the sun, including a lousy fighter, but this is the first time anyone has accused him of using dirty tactics to try to win a fight. .

Don Gridder, formerly TV 35's sportscaster is once again unemployed. He was working for Ashlock as his public relations' man for the boxing cards. Replacing Don is a well known fight figure from the midwest, Bruce Trampler.

Before leaving Indiana, Trampler put together a whale of a battle for Jan. 28 in Indianapolis. Olympic light heavyweight defeated record on the line against the very personable Gary Summerhayes. . .

Nathanial Gates' upset win over previously undefeated "Sweet" Marlin Lewis in Tampa may have earned him a re-match with Virgil Gibson at the Orlando Sports Stadium in the near future. Gates, you may recall, was well ahead on all the offical scorecards when he caught a Gibson left hook in the third round. The knockout loss Gibson inflicted on him last November was the only time Gates has been defeated and he can't wait to get Gibson back in the ring. . .

"Dancing" Johnny Boudreaux will be appearing in the semi-final to the Ron Lyle-Mac Foster Jan. 28 bout in Houston, Tex. The card will be promoted by Ashlock and if Lyle comes out on top, as he is expected to, look for the Denver heavyweight to meet Muhammad Ali for the title later this year in New York. . .

Lonnie "Magic" Bennett tuned up for his coming London battle with John Conteh by winning a 12-round decision over Eddie Duncan. It was Duncan who scored the only setback to Conteh when he beat the now WBC light heavyweight champion back in September of Efforts are being made to put "Termite" Watkins, the sensational lightweight prospect, in with Larry Peterson, the finest 136-pounder living in Florida. Both Tampa and Orlando are bidding for this natural match-up but Peterson's manager, Doug Brady, wants the Jacksonville fighter to get a few more bouts under his belt

Dog Owner Says Killings

Aren't Racing Deathblow

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla. (AP) - The owner of 24 racing greyhounds which were killed by intruders during the weekend says he won't let the loss stop him from participating in future races.

"This put quite a dent in our plans, but it didn't knock me out," Robert E. Thomas said Monday. The dogs, worth an estimated $75,000, were found dead in their kennel at the Derby Lane Racetrack. Pinellas County Sheriff's deputies said the animals may have been electrocuted or poisoned. Telephone wires leading to the kennel were slashed, officers said.

Wilson's Death Accidental

HOUSTON (AP) - A police investigator says he believes the deaths of Houston Astros pitcher Don Wilson and his young son. Alexander, were accidental. Joseph Jachmiczyk, Harris County medical examiner ruled Monday that Wilson, 29, and Alexander, 5, died of carbon monoxide poisoning when the gas filled their home Sunday in the Houston's southwest area. Wilson's daughter, Denise, 9, and his widow, Bernice, 27, were hospitalized. Denise remained in critical condition and Mrs. Wilson was listed in fair condition.

Women Championships?

WASHINGTON (AP) - The National Collegiate Athletic Association will begin a pilot program, possibly this spring, to develop national sports championships for women comparable to those now sanctioned for men. The NCAA Council, the organization's policymaking body, directed the NCAA's Committee on Women's Intercollegiate Athletics to embark on the program. It is sure to draw fire from the Association for Intercollegiate Athletics for Women, the major collegiate body for female ithletes, which is not part of the NCAA.

Stabler, Greene Honored

NEW YORK (AP) - Oakland quarterback Ken Stabler and Mean Joe Greene, defensive tackle of the Pittsburgh Steelers, were named the National Football League's top players by The Associated Press today. A nationwide panel of sports writers and broadcasters chose Stabler the Offensive Player of the Year, and gave defensive honors to Greene based on their performances during the 194 NFL regular season.

Indiana No. 1

By The Associated Press Boyish-faced Bobby Knight, the fiery competitor who made aggressive nose-to-nose defense his coaching trademark, has guided Indiana to the top of the college basketball world.

The unbeaten Hoosiers, who won their 13th game of the season Monday night, are ranked No. 1 in this week's Associated Press college basketball poll, announced It marks the culmination of an effort begun four years ago by Knight, when he left the head coaching job at Army to take the post at Indiana. The Hoosiers, rated No. 2 last week, took over the top rung on the ladder from defending national champion North Carolina State, which was upset by Wake Forest 83-78 Friday night.

Wepner Vs. Ali?

NEW YORK (AP) - Chuck Wepner, a liquor salesman from Bayonne, N.J., is expected to fight for the heavyweight championship of the world against Muhammad Ali in Jamaica in late March. Mike Burke, president of Madison Square Garden Center, said Monday that Ali's manager, Herbert Muhammad, "called me this morning and said that he had decided to cancel the Lyle fight and expected to take a fight with Wepner in Jamaica.

"We had really expected to sign tomorrow with Herbert an agreement to fight Ron Lyle March 24 in the Garden." Ali was supposed to get $2 million to fight Lyle in the

Choose Your Reason For Choosing The Herald

• LOCAL NEWS:

I like the way The Herald covers the news of our local area. I'm interested in keeping up with what's happening in my community and no newspaper covers it like The Herald.

I read The Herald for local news, but I want to know what's going on in the world & nation too. The Heraid publishes it all in a brief, concise style that saves me time, but lets me keep up with what's important.

• GOVERNMENT:

I appreciate The Herald's coverage of our local, county & state political news. It opens a lot of doors and lets me know how well our elected officials are serving the people who elected them. I like the way The Herald tells the whole story without fear or favor.

• YOUTH:

I'm interested in our schools, churches and young citizens and I enjoy reading about the good things our local kids are doing as they go about the business of growing up. The Herald's full of news & photos of our local youth that the bigger papers don't cover.

• WOMEN:

The Herald's women's pages report the news of local women of Seminole and Volusia counties and tell us about what women are doing, thinking and accomplishing locally. I can't get that kind of coverage in a metro newspaper

• SPORTS:

I'm a sports fan. I follow the pros and major college games and I get the scores and game stories in The Herald. But I also want to follow the high school and elementary school sports programs and Little League, Pop Warner and other youth sports that I don't get in the metro papers. That's why I read The Herald for sports

Man Acquitted In Robbery Case

A circuit court jury acquitted a Sanford man yesterday on a charge that he attempted to rob a grocery store with a plastic coffee cup under a towel. After nearly three hours deliberation the five man, one woman jury decided Jimmie L. Jamison, 25, 1213

James DuBose testified that Jamison surprised him as he cut meat the evening of May 24 in the rear of a grocery store at 1015 Oleander Avenue. DuBose said Jamison had a towel over one hand as if he had a weapon. DuBose said while he was opening the cash drawer the towel slipped and revealed the man held a plastic coffee cup. The men scuffled, DuBose grabbed a gun and tried to detain Jamison while a customer, who had entered the store, called police, DuBose said. Before police arrived the suspect fled on foot but was apprehended
