American May Direct Iran's Oil Operations

Harriman Meets With Attlee To Decide On Next Step In Explosive Situation

LONDON, Aug. 27—(AP)—W. Averell Harriman conferred with British ministers on the Anglo-Iranian oil dispute today amid reports that the United States may be ready to manage the industry on behalf of the two nations.

President Truman's envoy, who helped to bring British and Iranian negotiators around a table at Teheran, called at Prime Minister Attlee's office to talk to him, and his colleagues about the situation.

Harriman's Washington-based colleagues, including British Foreign Secretary, Sir Ernest Bevin, returned to London last week after unsuccessful discussions with Iranian leaders.

Some British newspapers reported from Washington the United States is ready—if Britain agrees—to offer an American oil official to run the great Abadan refinery and so help settle the immediate issue holding up the Anglo-Iranian negotiations.

Harriman told a news conference yesterday he was "very much disappointed" that the talks came to an impasse in Teheran. He believes there is a basis for a settlement and he hopes that the talks may be resumed under circumstances where there can be a practical discussion of problems that are still unresolved.

Meanwhile, Iranian Premier Mohammed Mossadegh was attacked in his parliament in Teheran for failure of the talks. The attack was seen as the first move of an escalation of the dispute.

Revels Is Cited For Meritorious Service In Korea

Pfc. Nelson B. Revels of Sanford has been cited for meritorious service in the Army Finance Corps in Korea.

Pvt. Revels citation reads: "For meritorious service from 17 January 1951 to 15 July 1951, the Commendation Ribbon and Medal of Merit is awarded to Private First Class Nelson B. Revels, Finance Corps."

"Throughout this period Private Revels performed in a superior manner in the discharge of his duties as a member of the Division Finance Office.

"He displayed technical skill and industry in providing financial services to the combat troops and in the division. Despite long hours, adverse conditions and frequent moves, he maintained a cheerful and willing attitude which was an inspiration to those who worked with him. The service performed by Private Revels reflects great credit upon him and the military service. By command of General Ruffner."

Local Persons Attend Juvenile Court Meet

Mrs. A. J. Peterson, Seminole County chairman of the Florida Children's Commission, Mrs. E. C. Williams and Macle Cleveland, Jr., members of the commission, Mrs. Troy Ray, representing the Welfare Department and Judge O. Douglas Stenstrom attended the regional meeting held in the court room at Titusville last afternoon to acquaint those in charge of juveniles with the aspects of the new Juvenile Court Law and procedure for handling such cases.

The meeting was presided over by Judge Robert Wiegand of Volusia county and Attorney General Richard Ervin made the principal address.

There were 77 officials and representatives from 14 counties present at the session.

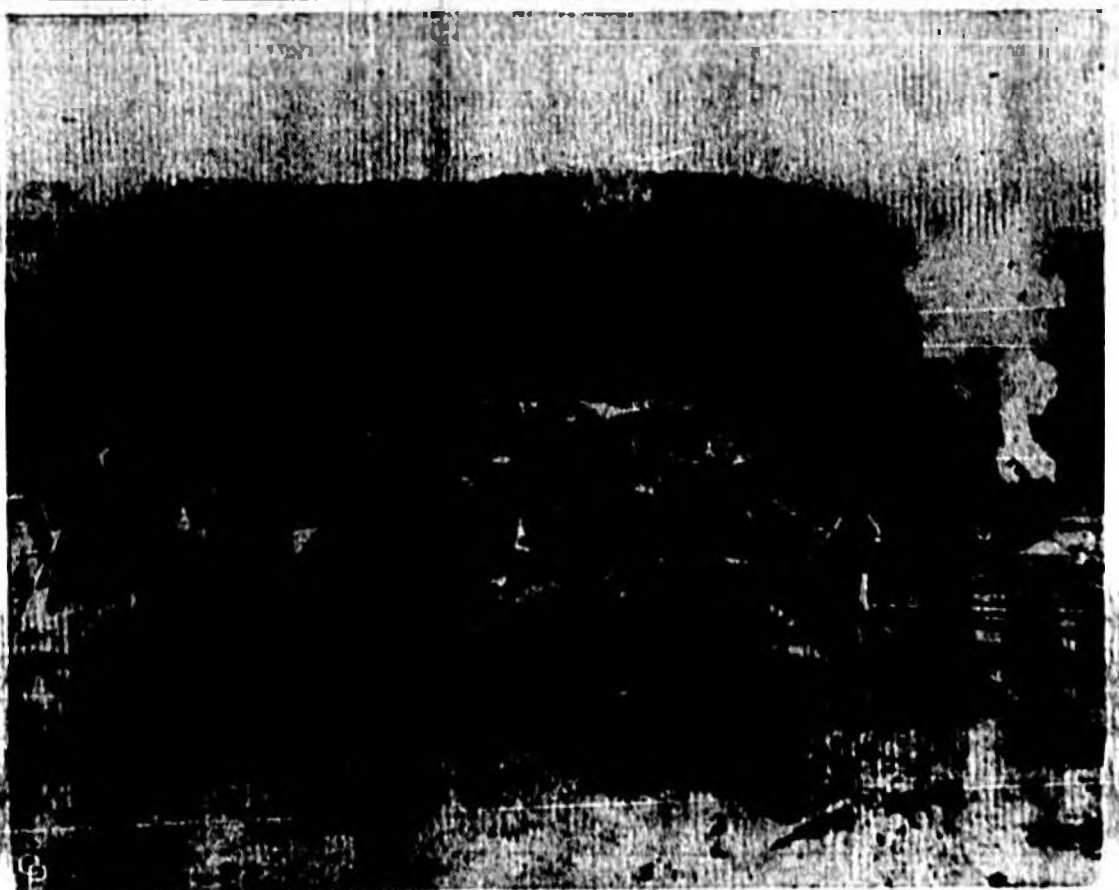

Besides a discussion of the new law and its implications, other discussions were held on practical means of handling delinquent or dependent children, the state resources, facilities and institutions, both public and private, the usual practices of juvenile courts, forms and filing.

According to Judge W. E. Orinwell of the Duval Juvenile Court, the Florida Association of Juvenile Courts is planning to sponsor the fifth in a series of regional meetings at Titusville on Sept. 1.

Rescue Workers Seek Bodies Of 50 Killed In Crash

Through the mangled and charred wreckage of a crashed United Air Lines DC-6B move rescue workers seeking to identify the bodies of 44 passengers and six crewmen who met death when the giant-new-type passenger plane crashed shortly before it was due to land at Oakland, Calif. Debris was scattered for a radius of half a mile. The plane was on a non-stop flight from Chicago when it crashed off. (International Soundphoto)

Body Of Missing Girl Discovered In Miami Swamp

MIAMI, Aug. 27—(AP)—The body of Lavana Newman, 23, kidnaped by bandits five days ago, was found in a wooded area today.

Mrs. Newman, mother of a 6-year-old child, was kidnaped from the Gault Hotel on the ocean front north of Miami Beach Wednesday night. Also missing was $926 from the hotel cash drawer.

D. Henderson, chief deputy, said the body found in underbrush near 184th Street and the old Dixie Highway was "definitely Mrs. Newman."

The deputy added that her disappearance was a kidnapping. (Continued on Page Six)

Intercity Swimming Meet Is Scheduled

A large crowd of spectators is expected to be present tomorrow night at the Municipal Swimming Pool to witness inter-city diving and swimming competition at what City Recreation Director Thomas Stringer has termed a "Central Florida Fun Meet."

The tournament, starting at 7:15 P.M., will include 13 diving and swimming events. At Leeburg, Enterprise, Seville and Spring and Sanford will be represented in the competition.

Those competing in various groups will be boys and girls of 15, and 25 years of age or over.

Best Solutions To Delinquency In Children Is Better Homes

(EDITOR'S NOTE: This is the fifth and last in a series of articles on youthful morals in America.)

By NELMAN MORIN
NEW YORK, Aug. 27—(AP)—The "Non-Virgin Club," like the use of drugs and the crime of insanity, is a brand new product of adolescent behavior in the United States.

By its very nature it is so bizarre that the few actual instances probably made it seem more prevalent than it really is. Juvenile court authorities believe so. The discovery of the first case set off a spate of rumors that others had sprung up all over the country. Virtually every high school presumably has the "Non-Virgin Club," replete with photographs, written records and all the regular trappings.

But when the reports were investigated officers had been misled from the vast majority to be totally or largely without foundation.

The facts about teen-age sex activity are exceedingly hard to pin down. Police statistics are only a part of the story. They show only those cases of an actual criminal nature, or those that constitute delinquency. The statistics show that the vast majority of these cases are of a non-criminal nature.

35 Stitches Taken In Negro Following Wild Razor Battle

Arthur Jones, 40 year old Negro, received yesterday what is regarded by law enforcement officials here as a "top score" in cuts inflicted by a razor during a "cutting scrap."

According to Sheriff P. A. Mero, who this morning arrested Florine Whitaker, Negro, on an aggravated assault charge in connection with the cutting, Jones, when attacked by Dr. George Stank, received 35 stitches to mend cuts on the arm, hand and head. His condition, however, is not regarded as critical.

A hearing to be conducted Friday by Assistant State Attorney Hubert Griggs is expected to reveal some motive for the assault. The Negro was still in County Jail today, pending the setting of bond by Mr. Griggs in the absence of Circuit Judge M. B. Smith who is away on vacation.

The alleged assault took place at 2:30 o'clock Sunday morning in the home of the Negro, near Slipes Avenue in Midway, said Sheriff Mero. Entering a dark room of the house where Jones lay asleep, he turned on the light and "jumped on the Negro," the Sheriff stated.

A year old "stepson" took his bleeding father to Fernhill-Laughton Memorial Hospital. The Negro was arrested by Sheriff Mero and Deputy Sheriff Charles Beck at 8:00 o'clock this morning, after being away during the time following the cutting. Her attempts to conceal evidence of the cutting by cleaning up the house proved unsuccessful, according to Sheriff Mero, who said he had lifted a sheet on a bed and found blood stains.

Woman Fights To Regain Property Allegedly Stolen

Legal Action Begun By Woman Once Certified As Insane

JACKSONVILLE, Aug. 27—(AP)—Adele Louise Tucker, 71, prosperous business woman here two decades ago, filed suit today to recover extensive properties here she claims her husband stole from her after he had her placed in a Georgia insane asylum for 17 years.

Mrs. Tucker charges that her husband, William Henry Tucker Sr., now dead, organized a dummy corporation to dispose of her real estate while she scrubbed floors and worked in the kitchen of the Georgia State Hospital at Milledgeville, cut off from the outside world.

Sixty-four defendants are named in the suit, including 10 corporations, a church, three insurance companies and a title and trust company in addition to (Continued on Page Six)

RETURN OF SPUD PALMER, Mass., Aug. 27—(AP)—Spud is back and the neighbors may be able to get a little sleep tonight.

A shaggy mongrel, Spud was away for three nights and state police said this is his record.

Ran out in front of a car and caused a two-car crash in which seven persons were shaken up; got stuck in a Moulton swamp and howled all night; kept on howling the second night until about 7:15 and found and required him, but not before Trelk got mired in a bog and had to work for quite a while to free himself before he could save Spud.

More Than 75 Veterans Train At Vocational School During Summer

More than 75 veterans have been receiving instruction during the summer term at the Sanford Vocational School, Mrs. R. C. Maxwell, principal, announced today.

The regular fall term of the school, located in the Kent Building on Commercial Avenue just east of the Valdez Hotel, will begin on Sept. 4.

This is a public school operated by the Seminole County School Board. There is no tuition fee and only adults over 16 are admitted.

The school operates the year around, with both day and night classes and furnishes young people instruction in business and commercial subjects, and in high school subjects.

One of the newer courses in diesel engineering, in which more than 30 of the veterans are enrolled. R. H. Stannard is instructor in both day and night classes.

Courses for veterans are offered both in high school and regular commercial subjects. Veterans who are already enrolled may work toward a high school diploma or secure training in such commercial subjects as bookkeeping, typing and shorthand. Any non-veteran adult may enroll in any of these courses.

Students for the fall term, are requested to enroll some time this week if possible. The short-hand class will take enrollments this week and during the first week of school.

Communists Reject Allied Reply On Truce Violation; Talks May Still Continue

Strike Paralyzes Copper Plants; Reds Responsible

Crucial Defense Materials Are Hit By Surprise Stoppage

By ASSOCIATED PRESS
America's production of strategic copper dropped to a mere trickle today. And, President Truman was asked to step into a strike called by the International Union of Mine, Mill and Smelter Workers (IUMSW).

The union, estimated at least 50,000 workers were involved. More than 50 operating plants, 95 percent of the nation's capacity, from pit to final production line, were involved.

Not all the men who left their jobs are members of the IUMSW. Members of AFL-CIO unions respected the picket lines. But some workers kept their jobs ready for a quick response. Most other workers stayed on the job.

The IUMSW was expelled from the CIO last year along with other accused of following the Communist Party line. Years ago it was one of the principal groups in the old Industrial Workers of the World (IWW).

The strike like the long haul of the copper industry—Keweenaw, Anaconda Copper Mining Company, American Smelting and Refining Company and Phelps Dodge Corporation.

Also involved were the extensive lead and zinc operations in the rich Corn Belt area of northern Idaho, and a number of other operations in the non-ferrous mining industry which handles metals other than copper.

The union said it asked for a 20 percent increase of 20 cents an hour for service industries to help pay for the cost of the strike. The metal trades union (AFL) in the copper industry have a (Continued on Page Six)

Industrial School Is Host To Local B. & P. W. Group

Members of the Business and Professional Women's club were guests at the Industrial School in Deeds yesterday when they enjoyed luncheon at the noon hour, served by girls in the home.

A short business session was presided over by lunch by Mrs. E. J. Booth, president of the local club, during which time it was decided to hold a civic luncheon at a climax to Business and Professional Women's Week, Sept. 23-30.

The luncheon meeting will be held on Sept. 30 at the Yacht Club at 1:00 o'clock and presidents of all civic clubs will be invited to attend as well as members of the various civic organizations, said Mrs. Booth.

The club also endorsed the stand taken by the Rev. E. M. Kinley and others opposing the reversal of the midnight closing of liquor establishments and the Sunday sale of beer.

A hand painted picture was presented to the home by Mrs. Booth in behalf of the club.

Mrs. Booth described the school supervised by Mrs. Alice M. Peterson, as being "immaculately clean and well organized. The food was delicious and the work well supervised by Mrs. Peterson."

Located about two miles from town, the Industrial Home also has a public school where children from outside town attend their school. The vocational institute is located there.

Ernest V. Rowe, 66; Dies After Illness

Ernest V. Rowe, 66, died at his home at 1105 Laurel Avenue Friday morning. Services were held at Brunson Funeral Home this morning at 10:30 o'clock with Rev. L. A. Allen officiating and burial was made in Evergreen Cemetery.

Mrs. Rowe was born May 9, 1885 in West Monroe, N. Y. and lived in Sanford about 10 months. He formerly lived in Orlando for four months.

He was survived by his widow, one brother, Her A. Rowe, of Central Square, N. Y.; one sister, Mrs. Jennie Upon of Syracuse, N. Y.; one son, Mr. Minnie Cleveland of Miami, N. Y.; two nephews and several cousins.

RATES UP

The Lakeland Ledger said today its weekly subscription rate would go to 35 cents a week Sept. 1. The present rate is 30 cents.

Steadily mounting production costs, including newspaper, ink, metal types, services and supplies, make the increase necessary, the Ledger said. A similar price hike has been made by several other Florida dailies recently.

Eisenhower Campaign Managers Content To Wait For Opening

WASHINGTON, Aug. 27—(AP)—Republican supporters evidently are content to let his prospective presidential candidacy rock along a while without nudging.

Senator Duff (R-Pa.) regarded as one of the leaders of the Eisenhower boom, has told Senate friends he is content not to beat up the political bushes until after Congress opens, probably in October.

Duff apparently is well pleased with the way things are going in the absence of any definite assurance from Eisenhower that he will be available for the Republican nomination.

It is the Pennsylvania senator's attitude that a groundswell from the ranks is worth several manufactured waves of sentiment. And he apparently thinks the groundswell is on.

Rotary Hears Of New Machine For Marketing Juice

Ice-Lined Paper Cups Called Best Method Of Selling Citrus

A description of a new citrus juice dispensing machine called "the citrus" method of merchandising citrus concentrates was given the Rotary Club today by Henry Simpson, retired in vent and manufacturer, who said that he and his associates propose to put the device on the market in the near future.

A representative of the "citrus" machine, which is a portable unit, was shown to the club members and they were told that it is a simple machine that can be operated by a child.

Communist Reply Titled Unsatisfactory By North Korean Prime Minister In Speech

By ASSOCIATED PRESS
TOKYO, Tuesday, Aug. 28—(AP)—The Communist high command today labeled the Allied reply on an alleged Korean neutrality violation but at the same time left the door open to a possible resumption of the Korean armistice talks.

The Red broke off the stalemate talks Aug. 24, alleging that an Allied plane had attempted to land in the Communist-occupied zone of the Korean peninsula.

General Matthew B. Ridgway, Supreme Allied Nations command, today termed the Red charges as "unsubstantiated" but that he was willing to resume the armistice talks.

The Red reply, issued early today by the Foreign Office, North Korean Prime Minister Kim Il-sung and Chinese Premier Chen Yi, said that the Red charges were "unsubstantiated" and that the Red was willing to resume the armistice talks.

TODAY'S BIBLE VERSE

That is God's habitual command. That is why a race of slaves became a great people while the lords of the universe at that day have gone backward. Speak unto the children of Israel that they go forward.—Exodus 14:16.

The Coosa River Newsprint Co. announces another $5 a ton increase in the price of newsprint bringing the total price to $120 a ton as compared with an average price of about $50 a ton before the war when the subscription rate for your Sanford Herald was 20 cents a week. Despite some indications to the contrary, the churches are still being reckoned with. The Yearbook of American Churches reveals that there are now 285,834 churches of all kinds in America with 87,548,021 members. The amount of good which they can accomplish when their united efforts are brought to bear is something to think about.

Bill Kilbee has been reappointed to the Board of County Commissioners where he served for many years, and his father, before him, as one of the most capable and conscientious commissioners. Mr. Kilbee has been through a rather hard time, however, and now for what? He is in no wise to blame and will continue to follow commission duties with the same vigor and determination as in the past.

Bob Overton of Orlando offers Seminole County a one acre park site near the Big Tree on Highway 17 in return for improvements to the Sandalwood Springs road. That, it seems to us, would be a good deal for the county for we would thus get not only the roadside park but also a better road to Sandalwood Springs both of which would be much needed assets.

More destructive than the winds is the unfavorable publicity which a tourist resort receives in the wake of a hurricane. Who wants to go to a vacation playground which has been blown to pieces? And so Jamaica, one of the West Indies most popular resort areas, is as busy these days trying to convince people that the island is not wrecked as it is cleaning up the debris. We are willing to give them the benefit of the doubt. The hurricane was just a zephyr.

Down in Miami a young man and his lady friend fortified themselves with a good supply of liquor, went to a night club on the waterfront and proceeded to dance freely. If not too freely. About midnight they staggered about the club, got into their car and promptly drove it into the bay. Whereupon they sued the city of Miami for not erecting "bumper barriers" to prevent such accidents and the jury somewhat mindful of the burdens of the already overburdened taxpayers, brought in a verdict of $25,000 damages. However, the Supreme Court reversed the judgment, holding that a cause had not been shown that the town had not done what it could to prevent such accidents.

Single Solicitation

Those who have been fighting for single annual fund-raising campaigns for all community welfare purposes find a ray of hope in a new concession to joint fund-raising made by the Red Cross, which has gone its own way in solicitation for the last fifteen years. Chapters now will be authorized to join their fund-raising among industries and business with that of the Community Chest or similar combined drive on a city-wide basis, where industries or business houses permit only one solicitation annually. The authorization is for business and industrial solicitation only.

Givers to good causes have long complained with justice that they were being constantly solicited to donate to this and that worthy fund. One week it may have been a local hospital building fund; the next, a campaign for playground equipment, followed by drives for the city welfare activities and later the Red Cross. Most citizens would much prefer to have one fund, out of which the needs of the various organizations could be met, instead of having calls from an unending series of solicitors.

The Red Cross used to participate in combined campaigns, but has withdrawn on the ground that its national local needs are dictated by circumstances and cannot be adjusted to fit community campaign budget allocations, and because it wishes to retain its identity as an agency and to extend membership enrollment directly to its contributors. One result of its attitude has been strong feeling, in some places, between the Red Cross and other welfare groups.

The new modification of Red Cross policy perhaps will help to bring in more money for worthy purposes, and to allay the public irritation with repeated solicitations.

High Price For Luxury

It sometimes seems that certain persons are able to flout the laws of society, and because of their cunning and wiles to grow wealthy and live luxuriously. Big-time gamblers often manage to evade capture and punishment by the law through technicalities and devious tricks. But every so often one of them comes to a quick and violent end, and law-abiding people are reassured that a clean conscience and an easy mind are more important than money.

A Texas gambler was killed recently when a bomb in his mailbox blew up. It was the final incident in a tale of suspense and terror which had been plaguing the gambler for almost five years. Eleven previous attempts to kill him failed; in one of them his wife was killed.

How much good did this man's money do him? How many nights of undisturbed sleep had he enjoyed? He could not walk alone at night without fearing shadows, and the slightest noise would fill his heart with fear. The honest man can walk unafraid. His work may be hard but he can rest when it is through.

Often those who believe they are above the laws made by their fellow citizens sneer at such sayings as "Crime doesn't pay." The words themselves may seem trite, but they have proved to be true so often that their use is justified. A much older and more poetic expression of the same thought may be found in the Bible where it is said that "The wages of sin is death."

No More Confucius

The writings of Confucius, which have inspired the Chinese for more than two thousand years, may no longer be studied in Canton, according to a report from Hong Kong. The reason given is that they are too difficult.

While most stories from China these days need confirmation before they can be believed, it would not be surprising if the Communists wished to abolish the influence of Confucius. From their standpoint, they are right in calling his writings too hard for their followers. Confucius taught tolerance, neighborliness and the Golden Rule. No one indoctrinated with the Communist philosophy would understand such teachings.

In fact, in them lie the seeds of a way of life which would completely destroy Communism. The Chinese Communists may be wise in recognizing a mortal enemy in the sayings of Confucius.

Sanford Forum

Dear Editor:

Maybe I should keep out of this I am pretty plain spoken in what I believe and that doesn't set too well with some. But it seems some are taking this Sunday liquor selling to an extreme. For quite a few years I have watched different people get up and give High Heaven for or against questions before the public. They made a lot of noise and said some very hard things about people. Some true and some not. The most they could do was to express their own personal opinions and those kind do not respect any man's beliefs if it happens to be different from theirs. While others have exactly the same right to their beliefs as any other person. Including the one that's raving.

Maybe I had better state frankly my belief in this middle first. And by the American Constitution I have the same right to differ from them as they have to differ from me.

First: I am not a prohibitionist. I have never been. Not because I do not think it would be better if there was no liquor made or sold. But under our form of government they do not have the right to say what I can drink. It would be just as lawful to say I could not drink water. If that sounds foolish to you what would happen if a law was passed saying each and everyone of us must be a vegetarian. I like meat and those who do not must tolerate my eating meat just as I have to tolerate things they do that I dislike very much.

Second: I am not in favor of selling liquor on Sunday. Not that I believe it would cause any less drinking on Sunday. Most of the grocery stores are closed on Sunday still Sunday dinner is usually the heaviest meal of the week. Would the people that drink be more drunk than the average housewife? An extra supply on Saturday to take care of Sunday just as the housewife gets extra groceries to feed the family on Sunday.

So you see I'm not going to argue the pro and con of the question. I have stated frankly my belief. It is a personal belief just like yours is regardless of how many housewives you shout it from.

Getting down to this name calling. Don't you think it is in a way belittling yourselves before the eyes of the general run of people. You should set an example of goodness. Not fanaticism. Some of you are always quoting the Bible. This passage or that one. It seems to me that the whole concept of Christian Religion is based on tolerance. Where in the name of all that's fair is the tolerance in some of these letters we are expected to read in our paper. We take the paper to get the news and topics of general interest. Not to sit and read the fanatical ravings of some disgruntled person he preacher or layman.

If you have to rave why not rave in your own church? Those folks put you in there. Maybe they like it. And when they get to where they don't they can put you out.

Maybe we haven't got much of a Sheriff. Nor are complaining. But you saying it doesn't make it true. That gets right back to it being your personal opinion. Maybe others think different. And all these jobs are elective. Why not try running for one the next election? That will certainly show how the people as a whole feel about you. And if you should be elected it would be very amusing to watch you put over the things you have been raving about.

And most people have found that when they are trying to put a reform over it is better to work together. Lots of folks have done quite a lot that way. Standing out in the corner alone calling names doesn't generally pay off. And you would certainly be more Christlike.

W. C. Hartline.

publicly that he would not support Dewey—as he did twice before—in a bid for the nomination.

Friends of Senator Taft (R-Ohio), whose race for the nomination is still unofficial, said they are satisfied with the impression he made on a New England tour last week.

Taft would like to break into the eastern seaboard with some convention delegate support to add to the Middle West and southern strength is credited with having.

Senator Brewster (R-Me) is doing his best to help Taft out in that effort. However, Senator Margaret Chase Smith stayed away from the Taft appearance in her state and is regarded by the Eisenhower followers as one of them.

PROFIT MOTIVE

LONG BEACH, Calif., Aug. 27

—(AP)—Here is a robber with an eye for profit. He walked into a liquor store here, asked for a bottle of whiskey, then forced clerk William H. Roberts, 64, to lie on the floor by the back room, Roberts told police yesterday.

The robber had just scooped $50 out of the cash register when a customer entered to pay for newspapers taken from a rack outside. The gunman accepted the change, thanked the customer, then walked out.

Mouth Breathing

By W. V. Biting Touchton Drug Co.

Adenoids are a common cause of mouth breathing. Usually around the age of six, children who have enlarged tonsils or adenoids begin to breathe through the mouth. This is unhealthy, for the air is not cleaned, warmed and moistened as it would be passing through the nose into the lungs.

Your child will be healthier when enlarged tonsils and adenoids are removed as the doctor advises. Patronize a pharmacist recommended by doctors.

HOLLYWOOD

HOLLYWOOD, Aug. 27—(AP)—Muri Blanchard, recently New York's top model of bathing suits and now a promising movie starlet, was walking down a studio street and evoking whistles from admiring males.

"I could never suspect," remarked a bystander, "that she was once crippled by polio."

Muri, a vivacious, shapely girl who has all the physical assets for Hollywood stardom, told her story as we lunched at the Elmore Hotel.

"I was nine when polio struck," she related. "I was paralyzed below the hips, in my right arm and the right side of my face. My mother—thank God—was a physical therapist and she had been working for years on the treatment of polio along the same lines as Sister Kenny. She wouldn't let the doctors put me in a cast. Instead, she started me exercising."

"She drew a line along the ceiling of my room and told me to imagine I was a soldier marching along the line. She had me check a hose and four sets of gym at a time, to keep the facial muscles working. She bought a small canvas pool, put it in the back yard and gave me massages in it."

"Everything was designed to keep the muscles working. Her theory was that whatever part of the body we do not use will wither and die."

In a couple of years, I had recovered enough to start learning to walk again. First I had two crutches, then one, then I walked unaided. My mother told me: "You have two legs, so you must walk in three years. I was back in school."

Muri, a Long Beach, Calif., girl who moved to Los Angeles, did a great deal of swimming as part of her therapy and the result paid off when she started a modeling career. At first she was intent on a career in international law and studied at Santa Barbara State, U.C.L.A. and U.C.B. She decided she had to earn a living and got work with an import firm as file clerk. But she was earning more money in part-time modeling work and decided to hit the big time—New York.

"I changed my name from Mary to Muri," said the beauty, "because models are always trying to get some distinctive name. After a while I found there were many models calling themselves Muri and even some actresses in Hollywood."

Soon she was in great demand as a model of swim suits, since her broad shoulders and slim hips set them off to best advantage. Her only difficulty was that most swim suit pictures are taken in the winter time, to be ready for the summer trade.

"They would sweep away the snow so I could pose," she recalled with a shiver. "I had a cold during the entire time I was modeling." But she didn't mind the sniffles at her salary

Labor Day Travel To Increase Taxes

JACKSONVILLE, Aug. 27—(Special)—Labor Day weekend travel on the state's highway is going to mean a $483,000 bonanza in gasoline tax collections for the State Treasury, Glen P. Woodard, Jr., executive secretary of the Florida Petroleum Industries Committee estimated today.

The holiday is expected to chalk up a new weekend travel record in Florida with 750,000 cars on the roads traveling some 110,000,000 miles and using 6,000,000 gallons of gasoline, Mr. Woodard said.

The State Treasury's windfall from the weekend motorist spree will come about through the 7 cent per gallon state gasoline tax. The federal government will take an additional $108,500 from Florida motorists by virtue of the 1 1/2 cent federal tax on gas.

Although gasoline taxes collected this weekend will be primarily on pleasure driving, Mr. Woodard pointed out that the same tax rates apply every time a motor vehicle is used, whether for necessary business travel, shopping, taking children to school or pleasure.

Mr. Woodard warned motorists to use extra caution over the weekend stating that "by keeping extra alert."

TEEN TALK

By VIVIAN OWEN

Everyone enjoys hearing about new party ideas. We get tired of playing 20 questions and perhaps even spin-the-bottle and the girl in a group who can come up with a brand new party idea might put new vigor in an old crowd.

A new book, "The Party Game Book," by Margaret E. Mulne and Marion S. Holmes (Harper & Brothers), offers hundreds of new ideas in invitations, games and general merriment which should pep up any group. Some parties are worked out in complete detail and there are suggestions for children, adults, family groups in the home or church, recreation center, private club or camp.

Let's take the "Backward Party" for example.

The invitation is hand-written backward, starting from the lower right-hand corner instead of the upper left-hand corner. The R.S.V.P., for instance, appears in the upper right-hand corner (backward, of course).

One of the main attractions of a backward party is wearing clothes backward. Dresses, sweaters, blouses, hats and even gloves can be worn backward. The hostess can put her apron on backward, to keep the thing strictly in the mood.

When the host or hostess greets the guest, it is with "goodby" instead of "hello" and all are expected to walk in backward. Names can be given backward such as O'Toole Mary or Yram Elston depending on the versatility of the host. If she thinks she might get stuck giving the names completely backward, name cards can be prepared in advance, solving the problem, because the guests can wear them for all to view.

Dessert, of course, is served first at a part of this kind, so let's hope your guests are really in the mood to have their tomatoes on fruit cup last.

Other backward party games goes like this:

The leader gives the answer and the contestants give the question to the given answer. It is best to divide the guests into teams that get the most answers correct. They get the answer down on a pad and the first paper with the correct answer presented to the leader is kept. The team that gets the most answers correct here are some of the suggested answers and questions:

(1) What is the shortest day of the year? (2) 1912

(2) When was the war of 1812? (3) Fourteen and seven years ago.

(4) What are the opening lines of Lincolns' Gettysburg Address? (5) Questions, of course will be made up to suit the group.

Other stunts suggested for this party are reverse spelling. The factor in the bell done from the "horse takes the rail" and run backward, and backward dramatic stunts. These can be fairly tales or nursery rhymes acted in reverse. Jack Horner might be seen thumping himself of 600 an hour, plus free trips to Nassau, Bermuda, etc.

Once she suffered all day during a bubble bath while posing for a photographic ad. The photographer cheered her with: "This job will get you a movie offer: the ad will be printed in the Hollywood Trade papers."

He was right. She left the sniffles behind to take a Paramount contract. After a year of nothing but taking lessons, she left the studio and is now free-lancing. She has done two films at Columbia, "10 Tall Men" and "The Brigand" and may land a term contract there. Her success is due to her mother's words: "Never give in to polio."

Dean And Higgins Defeat Rines And Proctor 6-0, 6-4

Siriani And Bisbee Edge Tison, Dady In Marathon Match

Jim Higgins and Roland Dean, one of the city's top doubles combinations, handily defeated Cecil Rines and Buddy Proctor 6-0, 6-4 Saturday afternoon in the top weekend match in the City Doubles Tennis Tournament.

Relaying principally on a devastating net attack, the Higgins-Dean combination repeatedly forced Proctor and Rines onto the defensive and clinched the point with tantalizingly angled kills at the net.

Higgins, probably the finest net man in the tournament, played mid-court with the calm aplomb of a professional as neither he nor his partner showed any weakness to the Proctor-Rines team.

With the score three-all in the second set, Rines and Higgins gave one of the most thrilling exhibitions of sustained mid-court volleying ever seen on the Fayfair Inn courts. A clever lob to the back court finally gave Higgins the point. Proctor and Rines seemed to lose heart at this point and were able to take only one more game.

In one of the longest double-sets yet played in the tournament, Mike Siriani and Hamilton Bisbee edged Ray Bob Dady and Edwin Tison after a marathon game, 6-2, 4-0, 14-12.

The first set went to Bisbee and Siriani without great difficulty and they took a lead in the second set but were unable to hold it as the steady Dady-Tison combination repeatedly forced them into costly errors on crucial points.

The final set of the marathon match was neck and neck until Dady and Tison pulled the match out of the fire with some possible retrieves. But the experience and endurance of Siriani and Bisbee finally made up the difference as they outlasted Dady and Tison over the courts during the last game.

Pattee And Berner To Assist Hatter Coach This Season

DELAND, Aug. 27.—(Special)—Head Coach Joe McMullen will have two capable assistants to guide the Stetson University Hatters on the gridiron this season. They will be Jay Pattee and Wes Berner, both of the Hatter staff.

Carl Simmons, who was an assistant coach last year, already has assumed duties as line coach at Miami Senior High School. McMullen, who was McMullen's assistant as McMullen arrives in Deland on August 28, he will meet with the two assistant coaches, Athletic Director Brady Cowell, Dr. Harry E. Caldwell, also of the Stetson faculty who was a former coach at Ohio State University, and student assistants to plan the early-season activity.

McMullen wants his coaching staff to be ready for the first practice session on September 1. The season will begin on September 1. The field was worked earlier in the year and a new sprinkling system had helped the grass to grow.

Approximately 25 men will report on September 1, about half of them lettermen from last year. The others will be members of the squad last year and new men. McMullen is waiting until the men report before discussing who will be among the early arrivals.

Gear will be issued the morning of September 1 and the first practice session will be held that afternoon. For the next two weeks, practice will be held twice a day. After that, and until the first game, one-a-day workouts are scheduled.

Giants Lose Three Over Weekend; Appreciation Night Is Scheduled

Appreciation night for the Sanford Giants will be held at the Municipal Ball Park Wednesday night during the double-header with the Palatka Azaleas. The team, which in the past three weeks has made a valiant attempt to climb into the first division, will receive all gate receipts from the ball game. Game time is 8:30 P. M.

The Sanford Giants, unable to maintain the torrid pace set by the Leesburg Packers, were virtually out of the race for the first division today following three straight losses over the weekend.

The local club lost to Orlando 2 to 1, in Leesburg 6 to 2 and in Orlando 10 to 1 in drop three games out of fourth place.

Manager Richie Klaus threw his one-two punch at Leesburg and Orlando Friday and Saturday, but for once Swiderski and Ward weren't up to the job.

The Senators still smarting from a double loss in their last meeting with the Giants, closed big Carl for 12 hits but were still able to win by only one run, that a homer hit by little Ernie Cravets in the top of the seventh.

The Giants only run off Mike Dabrowski came in the sixth on a pair of walks, sacrifice hit and high fly ball.

Saturday night the Packers were not to be denied, lashing full Ward for 13 hits and five runs and picking up another off Swiderski who relieved in the sixth.

The Giants made it three in a row the wrong way Sunday by losing again to Orlando 10 to 1.

Appreciation night will be held for the local club during the double-header with the Palatka Azaleas Wednesday night.

Wightman Cup May Be Suspended By America, England

BROOKLINE, Mass., Aug. 27.—(AP)—There was some talk today, with all pleading anonymity, that perhaps the Wightman Cup play among women tennis players of England and the United States should be suspended for a year or two longer.

The American girls tossed to their 1953 consecutive triumph in the annual series Saturday. The clever 16-year-old Maureen Connolly of San Diego, Cal., clinched matters when she defeated England's Kay Tuttle, 6-1, 6-2.

The lone British point in the two-day competition—first recorded by the Brits since 1948 at Wimbledon—was gained by Jean Quarter, who upset Shirley Fry of Akron, O., 6-4, 6-2.

In other results Saturday Davis Hart of Coral Gables, represented America's 19th trophy conquest by downing Mrs. Jean Walker-Smith, R. 2, 6-4, 6-2.

Then the British girl and P.T. national doubles champions, teamed to a 6-1, 6-3 victory over the Misses Quarter and Tuttle.

Friday's results included: Alf Hart's 6-4, 6-4 triumph over Miss Quarter; Miss Fry's conquest of Mrs. Walker-Smith by 6-1, 6-4, and a 7-6, 6-0 doubles victory by Mrs. W. Chamberlain and La Jolla, Cal., and Nancy Sherry of Ventura, Cal., over England's Mrs. Joy Gannon Moltram and Pat Ward.

Brooklyn Dodgers Profess Calm At Long Giant Winning Streak

BROOKLYN, Aug. 27.—(AP)—Don't get excited about this late surge of the New York Giants, Brooklyn Manager Charley Dressen admonished today—his Dodgers aren't.

"There are no hitters on my ball club," the chief of the Brooklyn brains department said. "The spirit is fine, and we're going to win the pennant."

There certainly was room for mild doubts—everywhere except on Flatbush Avenue—after the red-hot Giants, extending their winning streak to 14 games, chipped another chunk yesterday off the Dodgers' once imposing lead.

A couple of weeks ago Brooklyn enjoyed a cushion of 13½ games, and appeared home free. Today just six games separate the two clubs at the top of the National League.

Brooklyn has 32 games left to play, the Giants 30. They have four left with each other two—at the Polo Grounds next Saturday and Sunday, and two at Ebbets Field Sept. 2-3.

"There are the series," Dressen said. "I promise the Dodgers will do better than the last series."

The Giants swept a three-game set at the Polo Grounds Aug. 11-16.

"We're playing the same kind of ball we've been playing all along, winning three or four times, losing a couple here and there," the Dodgers manager added. "It's nothing in get excited about."

"We've had some tough luck. Robinson and Reese were out for

One Philadelphia Farm Produces 3 Superb Pitchers

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 27.—(AP)—In the midst of a great sprawling industrial region the Philadelphia Phillies have a farm which produces baseball pitchers like Niles Jordan.

Jordan, making his major league debut yesterday, shut out the Cincinnati Reds, 3-0, in the nightcap of a doubleheader after the Phillies lost the opener, 4 to 2.

The 24-year-old southpaw, from near Puget Sound, Wash., was called up less than two weeks ago from the Phillies' fabulous farm at Wilmington, Del.

The Wilmington team in the Class B Interstate League also "grew" Phil's ace Robin Roberts and left Curt Simmons, now in the Army.

Owned by Robert R. M. Carpenter, president of the 1950 National League champions, Wilmington has proved fertile ground for developing hurlers with excellent control.

Jordan won 21 and lost three with Wilmington before he was "harvested" by the parent club. He held Cincinnati to three hits yesterday, struck out three and walked only two.

His debut was more impressive than that of Simmons who hurled the Phils to a 3 to 1 victory over the New York Giants in his major league performance on the last day of the 1947 season. Simmons had won 13 and lost five that year with Wilmington.

Roberts, a righthander, pitched several months for Wilmington in 1948, winning nine and losing one before moving up to the Phillies.

Unlike Simmons, who gained control gradually, southpaw Jordan can fire the ball in almost at will.

Against Cincinnati he used an overhead crossfire motion and showed excellent control. The Reds had trouble hitting the ball on the nose.

Simmons and Roberts were bonus buys. Jordan was signed off the semi-pro lists around Puget Sound by Phil scout John McShane for $150 a month. He has been the Phillies' organization since the fall of 1948.

At Wilmington this season he pitched 20 complete games, had two one-hitters, four three-hitters, three five-hitters and allowed only 161 hits in 205 innings. He walked 56 and struck out 160. In one stretch of the season he won 11 straight.

Ralph Kiner, slugging star for the Pittsburgh Pirates, was born in Santa Rita, New Mexico.

Andy Pafko had the distinction of getting the Brooklyn Dodgers' 1,000th hit for the season.

Rookies Predominate In 1951 F. S. I. All-Star Team Choices

SILVER SPRING, Aug. 26.—(Special)—Six rookies, four veterans and two limited service players are included in the "official" Florida State League all-star team for 1951 as selected by the loop's eight managers, and sportswriters from eight circuit newspapers.

The team was revealed at league headquarters here today after a compilation that found Palatka and Deland, and Orlando each supplying three of the stars; Daytona, two, and Leesburg, one. Sanford, Gainesville, and Cocoa were not represented.

Joe Altobelli, Daytona, Rookie 1b.

Lyle Judy, Palatka, Veteran 2b.

George Barrow, Deland, Limited Service 3b.

Lyle Luttrell, Orlando, Rookie ss.

Mike Kasabian, Palatka, Veteran utility.

Rocco Colavito, Daytona, Rookie cf.

Ernie Cravets, Orlando, Rookie rf.

Ray Dunne, Deland, Veteran c.

John James, Deland, Rookie 1b.

Mike Dabrowski, Orlando, Rookie 1b.

Mickey Burnett, Leesburg, Veteran utility.

Bill Steinecke, Palatka, Veteran manager.

This is virtually the same team chosen by fans for the annual all-star game, held July 21 at Luttrell was runner-up to Barrow; James to Colavito, and Burnett to Gaines. While Barrow was runner-up to Mickey Burnett for Sanford and Merrill Smith for Palatka, tied for the position.

It was a fifth time chosen for Judy for he also was a spot in 1938, 1940, 1942 and 1947. For Dunne, it was a third straight year. Lyle had 19 votes for Palatka, tied for the position.

It was the league's feature of appreciation for their participation in the all-star event at Deland.

Montgomery Grays Can Clinch Flag In Sally League

By ASSOCIATED PRESS

The Montgomery Grays can clinch the pennant in their first season of Class A baseball by mid-week.

Montgomery, divided a South Atlantic League doubleheader with Jacksonville, Aug. 26, while second-place Jacksonville was winning a single game, Augusta won the opener 4-0 and the Grays the second game, 2-0. Jacksonville defeated Columbia, 4-3.

In other South Atlantic games Macon won from Columbia, 4-1, and Charleston won the third shutout of the day from Savannah, 3-0.

With seven days to go before season's end, Montgomery leads Jacksonville by four games. Augusta whipped pitcher Kirby Higby with a four-run fourth inning. Len Morrison hit a two-run single for Montgomery in the late game.

Columbia could get only seven hits off Vines. Lillemoos while Jacksonville got 16. The victory was DeLorenzo's 22nd and Jacksonville's sixth in seven games. Catcher Ernie Vellen got four singles for Jacksonville.

Macon's Stan West was easy to hit except when hits could score runs and the Peaches had a fairly easy time with Columbia. West punched a slow roller in the eighth to score a run and help give Macon its ninth victory in succession. Lou Kahn singled three times for Columbia.

Charleston's Paul Almonte rationed six hits to Savannah, never giving two in one inning, and fanned eight to close the season in Savannah. The victory practically assured Charleston of a first division position.

Sales Of Canned Citrus Products Are On Increase

LAKELAND, Aug. 27.—(AP)—The overall outlook is encouraging as the bright world citrus leader has to say about sales of Florida's topheavy production of canned and concentrated citrus.

W. F. Robinson of Leeburg, chairman of the Florida Citrus Commission, has returned from northern states after a first hand survey of efforts to interest consumers in Florida citrus juices.

Canners and concentrators smashed all records this season in putting up juices. The likelihood of a big surplus of processed products on hand as the new season starts has given the citrus industry a bad case ofitters.

The Commission is conducting a big summer advertising campaign designed to help cut down on the surplus.

Robinson says the campaign is paying off. He listed these figures of sales for the week ending Aug. 11, compared with the same week a year ago:

Canned orange juice, up 68 percent; canned grapefruit juice, up 47 percent; blended juices, up 63 percent and orange concentrate, up 58 percent.

The commission is using television, heavy newspaper advertising and full color pages in two national weekly magazines.

scale ranging from $1.51 to $1.85 per hour.

There was no immediate indication of Mr. Truman's attitude on the appeal from the union.

"I don't have anything on that at this moment," Joseph Short, White House press secretary, said.

Headquarters of the union in Denver announced the appeal to the President early today when mediation talks broke up after a final 12-hour session in Washington.

The Washington meeting, sponsored by the federal mediator and the American Arbitration Association, was aimed at preventing a strike of Kennecott properties in Utah.

In that particular case AFL-CIO unions were involved in negotiations along with the mine-mill union.

The smelter workers said the government mediators proposed wage boosts averaging 10 cents an hour and a pension plan to cost about four and a half cents per hour.

That is the message the union said it wired President Truman; refusal by Kennecott and other producers to accept the plan immediately and put the thing proposal into effect.

Cyrus Ching is a federal mediator.

In Washington A. S. Cheronny, Kennecott negotiator, said:

"The company regrets it can not agree to recommendations of the federal mediator and conciliation service."

"Acceptance would establish a pattern that would impose economic burdens upon the entire non-ferrous industry."

"The company is willing to submit to the War Relocation Authority, the question of how far it may go in meeting union demands. It feels the government proposal may exceed allowable wage stabilization rulings."

Cheronny said the proposal was acceptable to that point.

The strike call includes operations in Montana, Idaho, California, Arizona, Utah, Connecticut, New York, Washington, New Jersey, Nebraska, Texas, Maryland, New Mexico and Nevada.

Truman Appoints 5 Rear Admirals As Navy Expands

WASHINGTON, Aug. 27.—(AP)—President Truman today nominated five Navy officers for temporary appointment to the grade of rear admiral.

They are Bernard L. Austin, William V. Davis, Jr., Marcel E. A. Gouin, Aurelius B. Vosseller and Dale Harris.

Austin is now assigned to the joint chief of staff here. He is a native of Watertown, S. C., and his official address is Annapolis, Md. Davis is commanding officer of the carrier USS Franklin D. Roosevelt. His birthplace and present official address is Savannah, Ga.

Gouin is commander of the naval air test center at Patuxent, Md. He was born in Stoughton, Mass., and maintains his official residence there.

Harris is chief of staff to the commander of the Naval Air Training Command, at Pensacola, Fla. He was born in Rocky Forest, Pa. His official address is 1307 7th Avenue South, St. Petersburg.

Czechs Increase Stockpiling Of Material For War

LONDON, Aug. 27.—(AP)—Czechoslovakia has ordered her purchasing agents abroad to speed up procurement of 12 critical materials badly needed to keep her heavy industries rolling, authoritative sources report.

These sources said that the ministry of foreign trade at Prague has told all commercial attaches and purchasing agents to speed up purchases of:

Aluminum, bauxite, glycerin, refined sulphur, all non-ferrous metals, ball bearings, industrial diamonds, gum arabic, aluminum anhydride (an acid base), and citric acid.

The order authorized paying above world market prices in order to secure industrial diamonds, large ball bearings, refined sulphur and raw tartar, the sources said.

Meanwhile, the West's tightening restrictions against exporting vital raw materials and equipment behind the Iron Curtain is reported to be causing critical shortages in Communist areas.

Qualified informants said that in one West European country the Polish and Russian clandestine purchasing agents have been trying to outbid one another, these sources said.

The director, Lt. General John Hodge, said that the maneuvers were worth five times their cost, and the 43rd and 28th Divisions, which will join General Dwight D. Eisenhower's European defense army this fall, received "valuable field training."

Army and Air Force generals predicted that mass paratroop jumps by airborne infantry may soon be attempted by big assault landing aircraft.

American Force Wins Simulated War In Carolina

FORT BRAGG, N. C., Aug. 27.—(AP)—The Carolina war games ended today in complete victory by U. S. forces.

Units of the 43rd and 28th Infantry Divisions, aided by 6,000 paratroopers of the 82nd Airborne Division who jumped over the weekend, "knocked out" the enemy aggressor.

The infantrymen and the paratroopers linked up for the final push that overwhelmed the "enemy" in the two-week exercise.

that your liaison officers proceed to Keesing to carry out a re-investigation jointly with our liaison officers of the incident that occurred on Aug. 22, when your military aircraft bombed and strafed the vicinity of the residence of our delegation in order to again prove the full validity of our protest.

The Reds, after a long weekend of vitriolic propaganda against the United States and the United Nations, thus reveal the buck pass to General Ridgway.

On the basis of the previous exchanges, it appeared unlikely that he would consider their response satisfactory.

However, the Red invitation to renew the investigation at Keesing and to seek a settlement indicated clearly they were not yet prepared to cancel the de-locked truck talks once and for all.

The official Red reply reiterated their original charges, accused Ridgway of "slandering" the communists, and told him: "Your attitude regarding the affair is such a distortion of the fact, such a confusion of right and wrong, and such a self-contradiction that it is very hard to make people believe that your aim is not one of manufacturing incidents and undermining the negotiations."

The Reds thus were accusing Ridgway of the same thing that he had laid to their door—venting incidents to wreck the armistice effort.

Whether Ridgway had received the reply officially was uncertain. It was broadcast in Chinese voice, but on previous communications the Allied command has availed an official written copy properly delivered to liaison officer, General Ridgway.

General Ridgway himself returned to Tokyo only Monday after a flying tour here visit to Korea. His purpose was not stated.

The sudden Red broadcast reply followed a message, reported to have come from the Reds, which had been sent to the Communist command in the Keesing talks at 10 A. M. Thursday.

It is believed that the message was sent from the Reds to the Allies after the Reds had had a long and all-night session with the Allies.

Congress To Probe Death Of American Officer In Italy

NEW YORK, Aug. 27.—(AP)—Funeral services will be held today for Maj. William V. Holohan, almost seven years after he was slain behind enemy lines in Italy and his body dumped into a lake.

Holohan's body was retrieved from the lake last year and returned here about a week ago.

The Defense Department has said Holohan was slain in late 1944, while on a mission for the Office of Strategic Services. Two American members of his group have been named in connection with his death.

A Requiem Mass was scheduled today in St. Patrick's Cathedral. The major will be buried in the Great Heroes Cemetery, Plainville, N. Y.

Some 350 persons yesterday visited a mid-Manhattan funeral home where the major's body lay in state. An honor guard of soldiers from the First Army stood by the flag-draped casket.

In Washington yesterday, Rep. Cole (R-N. Y.) asked for a "top-to-bottom" investigation by the House Armed Services Committee of what he termed "the Defense Department's baffling performance" in connection with the death of Holohan.

Cole said in a statement that he wanted the Defense Department to tell why he thought it has shown so little interest in pushing the case to a final and complete solution.

Holohan was slain by his two American aides, according to the Defense Department and two Italian partisans. The Italians soon will go on trial in Italy as accomplices.

The two Americans, former Lieut. Aldo Leardi, of Pittsburgh, and former Sgt. G. Leo Dolc, of Rochester, N. Y., have denied the account. Leardi has repudiated a confession attributed to him.

Embargo On Arms Shipment To Reds Asked In Senate

By EDWIN H. HAAKINSON

WASHINGTON, Aug. 27.—(AP)—Senator Sparkman (D-Ala.) asked the Senate today to approve a new measure aimed at drying up the flow of arms, ammunition and atomic and military material to Soviet Russia and her satellites.

"This is a good bipartisan bill, but I guess we face a fight," Sparkman told a reporter in advance of Senate debate on a measure that would cut off all U. S. aid for any nation engaging in embargoed trade with Iron Curtain countries.

Senators Kern (R-Mo), Wherry (R-Neb), Byrd (D-Va), and Malone (R-Nev) have amendments that would strip mandatory restrictions on all such trade and permit no exceptions.

Kern said the proposed export control bill "lacks teeth and contains an escape clause that weakens existing law."

He is author of a measure which Congress tacked onto an appropriations act in June. It ordered President Truman to halt economic assistance to any nation engaging in trade with Russia and her satellites. The new measure would extend the ban to arms aid.

Kern and other congressmen contend that the National Security Council has failed to enforce this by making numerous exceptions, as it is authorized to do if it finds the national security justified.

Some European nations now getting U. S. aid, they say, are shipping metals, oil, machine tools and other war-potential goods to Russia, Communist China and other areas.

In a statement last night, Kern said the Senate leadership is "putting the cart before the horse" in scheduling the bill before the Senate has acted on Truman's request for a $8,500,000,000 foreign aid program.

He also declared that the Senate was being asked to act on a measure without any committed hearings.

Pointing out that the House passed the Export Control Bill with almost no opposition after a study of trade between Iron Curtain and other countries, Sparkman said some exceptions must be made in Western Europe "or big increases will be required in U. S. aid."

"Unless Austria and West Germany can get coal from Poland," Sparkman said, "it must be sent from the United States at three times the cost and paid for with dollars."

Embargoed goods include: arms, munitions, and implements of war; atomic energy materials, petroleum, transportation materials of strategic value, and items of primary strategic importance used in the production of arms, munitions, and implements of war.

Foreign War Vets To Vote On Motion To Free AP's Oatis

NEW YORK, Aug. 27.—(AP)—The Veterans of Foreign Wars, here for their 52nd National Encampment, will vote tomorrow on a resolution urging President Truman to act in the case of William Oatis, Associated Press correspondent imprisoned by the Czechoslovak government on spy charges.

The VFW resolution asks that Mr. Truman appoint a committee of prominent lawyers or businessmen to investigate and recommend appropriate steps to obtain Oatis' freedom and "to prevent similar actions of this nature."

Charles C. Ralls, VFW commander-in-chief, predicts that the resolution "undoubtedly will be approved by an overwhelmingly large, if not unanimous, vote."

After a six-hour discussion yesterday, the VFW's ten-man legislative committee accorded the resolution its unanimous approval.

Commenting on the resolution, Ralls said it was "time this government stopped pussyfooting with Russia and her satellites and gave Americans in those countries the protection to which they are entitled."

Ralls, 46-year-old, Seattle lawyer and Marine Corps veteran, led some 75,000 VFW members and their families into New York City for the week-long convention.

Officials said the encampment the first full-scale national VFW meeting here, may be the largest in the organization's history.

ABADAN, Iran, Aug. 27.—(AP)—Iranian sources said today three British tank-landing craft, loaded with tanks and troops, entered the mouth of Shatt-el-Arab River and headed toward Basra, Iraq, early today.

These sources said an Iranian gunboat, the Almirante, was at the river mouth about 60 miles from Abadan and alerted Abadan's civil and military authorities to the presence of the British vessels, which were said to have passed by Abadan at about 2 A. M.

Hours later Hussein Nakli, Iranian nationalist who was in charge of carrying out the law of nationalizing the Anglo-Iranian Oil Company holdings around Abadan, said in a speech that "if British troops land in Iran, even though we are short of weapons, we will defend ourselves with our bare hands."

He was addressing 20,000 persons at memorial services commemorating the deaths of Iranians during the Allied occupation of Iran in 1941.

Withdrawal of British personnel from the south Iranian oil fields ended today with the arrival here of field manager Peter Cox.

British orders the men to leave the fields and concentrate at the Abadan refinery where negotiation over Iran's nationalization of the Anglo-Iranian Oil Company properties broke down.

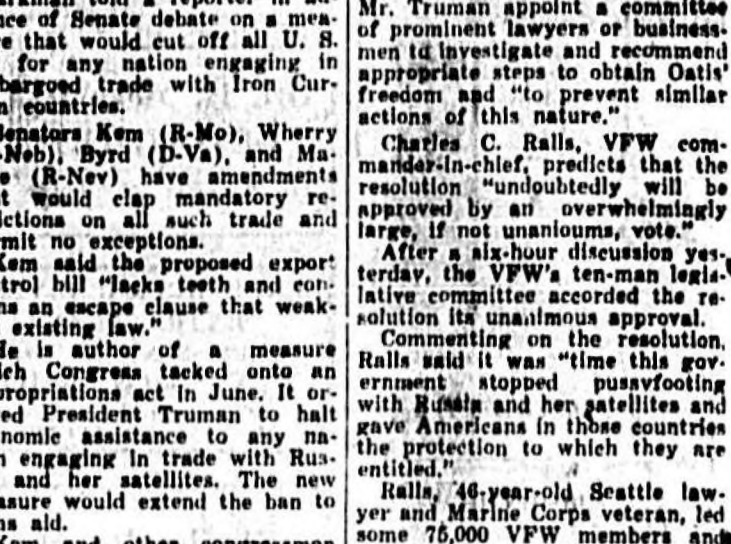

Cox said the "negotiation" was completed smoothly and without hitch. There was no hostility and a calm and generally friendly atmosphere. Everyone was extremely friendly and all were under the impression we would be back again shortly.

He said all services were left operating normally, but "I have no idea how long they'll be able to carry on without senior British engineers."

Cox said the largest unfinished project was installation of $2,100,000 gas turbine electric power generator which the British had within one month of completion.

Fast-growing Florida depends more and more on the telephone. Its economic and social life are geared to it. Last year Floridians made almost 900 million local calls.

Today Floridians can call more than 2 1/2 times as many local telephones as they could ten years ago and the service is better. Yet the overall price of telephone service has gone up less than one-fourth as much as prices in general.

The demand for more and more telephones continues, and Southern Bell hopes to build during 1951 nearly $22 million of new facilities to provide the expansion and improvement of telephone service that is so essential to Florida's progress, and to national defense.—Southern Bell Telephone and Telegraph Company.

Kaesong Bomb Incident Laid To Red Plane

Communists Trumped Up Kaesong Attack, Ridgway Declares In Reply To Reds

By DON HUTCH
TOKYO, Aug. 28 (AP)—The United Nations command charged today that the Communists sent one of their own planes through the motions of bombing Kaesong last Wednesday and then blamed the Allies for the attack.

The charge was contained in a bulletin released by the Public Information Office at General Matthew B. Ridgway's headquarters as the U. N. commander studied a Communist note that charged shatter hopes of truce in Korea.

"There is as yet no indication as to the nature of the reply General Ridgway will make to the latest Communist letter," the Public Information Office said.

The Reds offered to resume truce talks which they broke off last Thursday on certain conditions. Primarily, they want Ridgway to say a U. N. plane bombed the Kaesong neutral area Wednesday.

He has already said no U. N. plane was even in the area. He told the Communists they manufactured the incident.

Less than 24 hours after the Reds rejected this Ridgway's Public Information Office restated the same position in detail.

It said no U. N. planes were in the area at the time of the attack but that an unidentified plane was. It added:

"It is beyond doubt that this was a Communist aircraft.

"All evidence established the exact conclusion on the night of Aug. 23 the Communists perpetrated a deliberate fraud."

The release said there were two bomb craters, no bomb fragments, "No evidence on the ground of a United Nations command aircraft."

"There is every indication," the release said, that Red truce personnel at Kaesong were accessories to a deliberate fraud. Using their military control of the conference site as a cloak of deception, Communist personnel perpetrated a sham of unprecedented proportions.

"Creating an elaborately staged and quite obviously premeditated scene, they sought to fix upon the United Nations command a (Continued on Page Six)

War In Korea Is Called Blessing By Marine Chief

Cates Declares Conflict Caused U. S. To Begin Defense

NEW YORK, Aug. 28 (AP)—The Korean war is a "blessing in disguise," says Marine Corps commandant Clifton B. Cates, because of its effect on U. S. national defense.

The human sacrifice in Korea, he adds, "contributed a considerable amount to the defense of America, because if we hadn't had Korea—God help us if we had started in a war."

General Cates, addressing the 52nd National Encampment of the Veterans of Foreign Wars, said yesterday the United States is "four times as strong" now as when the Korean war started 14 months ago.

He declared the strength of the armed forces did not cause him as much concern as "weakness on the home front" caused by "some who are included to have a sense of fear."

The Marine Corps commander spoke at a business session of the VFW convention, bringing 75,000 veterans and their families to New York for the week-long gathering.

Secretary of the Navy Dan A. Kimball was to be the main speaker at this morning's session.

Also on today's agenda was a vote on a resolution calling for President Truman to act in the case of William Greer, Assistant Press correspondent imprisoned by Red Czechoslovakia on spy charges. Unanimous approval by the veterans has been predicted.

President Truman, himself a VFW member, sent a letter to the convention last night. It was read by Maj. General Harry Vaughn, military aide to Mr. Truman, at a dinner here for VFW members.

The President said the VFW has always been "in the vanguard" of action to ensure security and progress of this country. He voiced confidence that the organization would continue to serve in this way.

All Americans, Mr. Truman said, must have a deep-seated sense of duty and responsibility (Continued on Page Two)

Argentines May Elect Two Perons To Top Positions

Buenos Aires, Argentina, Aug. 28 (AP)—President Peron and his blonde wife, Mrs. Eva, kept the country guessing today as to whether they would "become popular" or "become husband-wife rulers of Argentina for the next six years."

But rumors persist among opposition and even some pro-Peron sources that Mrs. Peron—who has risen to the position of one of the most powerful women in Western Hemisphere politics—will decline the presidential nomination.

Formal nomination by the Peronista Party was handed to the couple yesterday, putting them up as running mates for the Nov. 11 election. But they would not commit themselves in formal acceptance of the nomination.

The formal nomination required by the electoral law was made five days after a mass rally at which followers of the government-backed system of confederation of labor unions and the Peronista party loudly demanded that Peron run for reelection and his wife run with him as a Peron-Peron ticket.

The delay between this "popular demand" and the formal nomination has been ascribed to the reported desire by the President to consult army leaders as to whether his wife would be acceptable as vice-presidential candidate.

(Although Mrs. Peron has considerable backing from Argentina's workers because of her leadership in labor affairs, many heads often have been bowed at her "petitional" role.)

Capt. Powers Finishes Advanced Training

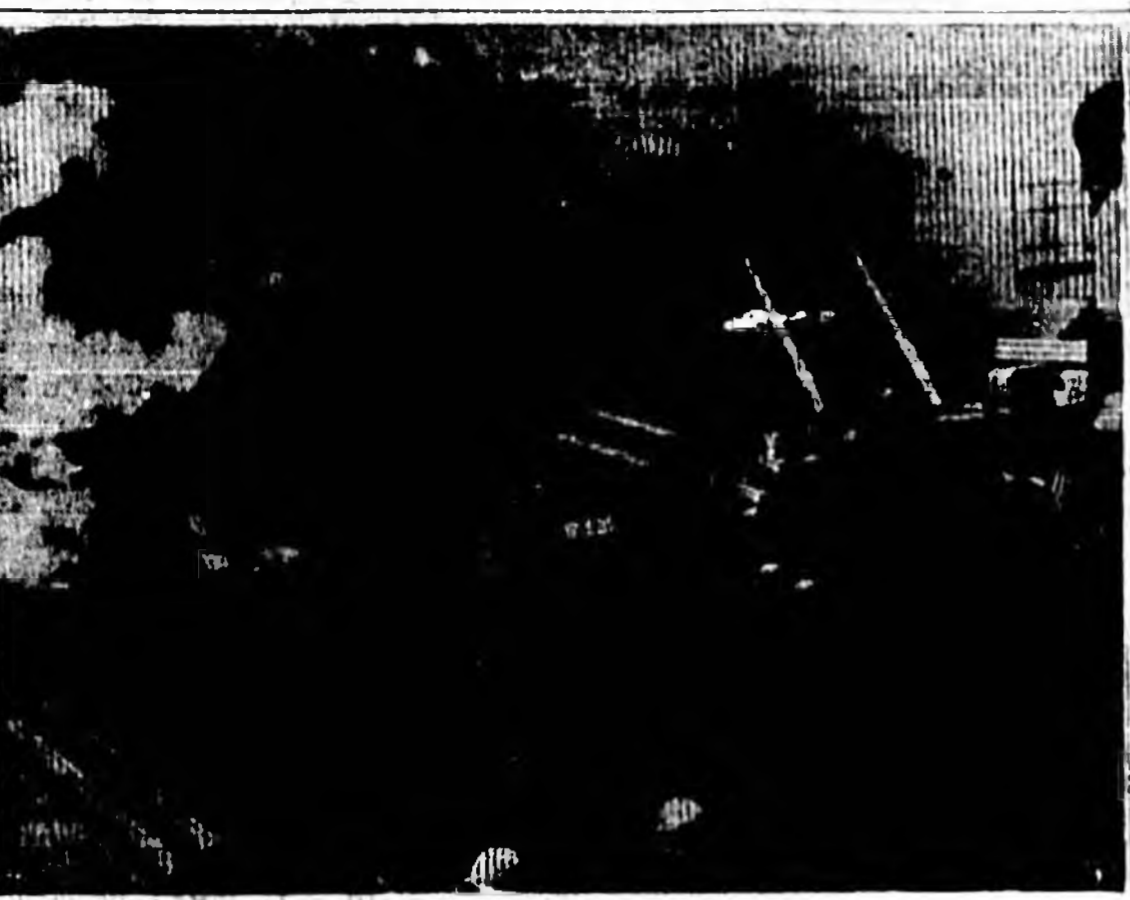

FORT BENNING, Ga. Aug. 28 (Special)—Capt. Alexander R. Powers, son of Mrs. Bradford Byn, Hibiscus Center, Sanford, recently graduated from the advanced officers advanced course at the Infantry School, Maj. General John H. Church, commandant, announced today.

The advanced course prepares officers for duty as commanders and staff officers of battalions, regiments, combat teams, and combat commands, and as members of the division general staff.

The instruction is designed to insure the most effective coordination of the various elements of the infantry as part of the combined arms team.

It is one of 21 courses open to officers and enlisted men of the Regular Army, Organized Reserve Corps, and National Guard. Courses range from training regimental commanders and division general staff officers to training recruits to be paratroopers.

Extradition Of 2 Americans Asked By Italian Court

Verhania, Italy, Aug. 28 (AP)—The Verhania prosecutor formally demanded today the extradition of former U. S. Army Lt. Aldo Icardi and former Sgt. Carlo Luciani to stand trial in Italy for murder.

Carlo Itano deputy judge in charge of the inquiry, said the request was sent at noon by mail to the Turin District Court of Appeals, which would forward it to the ministry of justice in Rome.

Rama said the request and a large sheet of supporting documents would be delivered in Turin tomorrow morning.

The two were described by the Defense Department as the "slayers of their commander, Maj. William Holahan. Under American law they cannot be tried in the U. S. for a crime allegedly committed during the war service covered by their honorable discharge from the Army."

This source said the new extradition request is accompanied by a "voluminous file of about 65 pages, including Italian warrants for the arrest of Icardi and Luciani."

These warrants charge them with participation in robbery and participation in concealing a corpse.

There are the same charges on which two Italians—the former partisan Guattiero Tozzini and Giuseppe Mannini—are now awaiting trial here in the Holohan case.

The Verhania prosecutor originally asked early last month that the two Americans be extradited to stand trial here. The Turin prosecutor declined to act at that time on the ground that it was incomplete.

"Investigations still are not finished," this source said. "But sufficient evidence has emerged to justify the extradition demand."

He said the new application already has received "preliminary approval" of the Turin prosecutor.

If Italy decides to ask to try the two, the final request would be made in Washington through the Italian Embassy.

Extradition would require approval of President Truman.

Bartender Kills Gangland Chief In Crowded Club

Tampa, Fla., Aug. 28 (AP)—Armando (Flam) Flores, gambler and political figure here, was killed last night in a crowded club. A big city political rally was in full swing across the street.

Detective Inspector B. J. Roberts said he would charge Jimmy Call, 40-year-old bar tender, with first degree murder today. Flores, 38, was shot three times while lying on the floor knocked down by Call.

Patrolman R. S. Perkins said he arrested Call on the spot still with the emptied pistol in his hand.

The shooting occurred at the Centro Espanol, in the west Tampa section which is one part of Tampa's Latin quarter.

Flores was a friend of Salvatore (Red) Italiano, whom the U. S. Senate Crime Investigating Committee called the head of Tampa's rackete. Italiano has dodged a subpoena issued by the committee.

Inspector Roberts said witnesses related Flores was inside the club when Call walked in, whipped out a .38-caliber pistol from his sleeve and exchanged a few words with Flores.

Flores was floored by Call's swinging pipe. Then reported Sheriff Hugh Culbreth, Flores' friends started pummeling Call and swinging chairs at him.

Call slipped during the attack and while on the floor pulled his pistol and fired. When the weapon was empty he beat Flores on the head with it, the sheriff added.

Assistant State Attorney J. Frank Umstad said there were several eye witnesses to the shooting and he had enough information to take the case before the grand jury.

Umstad said Call fired five times, two shots going wild. Call, mad as a hatter, followed the reports of the firing pistol. Club members inside drinking coffee and playing cards made (Continued on Page Six)

Italiano Friend Murders Flaco Flores Following Dispute

Two judgments were issued Saturday by Judge McNab, one partly the judgment on the payment of $4 and cost, the other $275 and costs.

The three other cases were brought to a satisfactory conclusion, said Judge McNab, between the plaintiffs and defendants at the hearing. The plaintiffs agreed to satisfy the debts and satisfactory settlements were made.

Two cases were tried yesterday by Judge McNab, and the other was continued.

One case, scheduled to be tried today was continued following a long distance call from the defendant, who stated that a witness would be made in the near future and requested continuation of the case.

"If cases continue at the rate they have been coming on during the past few days, the extension of the court will be worth while," said Judge McNab. "We have been very successful during the last few days in settling cases."

"Since this court will require much time on my part, I have secured the services of Mrs. W. Payne to assist me in handling the credit work in my office," he added and stated that his husband is now serving with the Air Force in France.

The Small Claims Court was established in Seminole County upon the recommendation of the Sanford Merchants Association in the last session of the Legislature. It provides for the collection of debts up to $250.

U. S., Britain And France Pledge Aid For Tito Regime

WASHINGTON, Aug. 28 (AP)—The United States, Britain and France have agreed to provide $50,000,000 in economic aid to Yugoslavia to support Marshal Tito's "contribution to the security of the free world."

The Economic Cooperation Administration, announcing this today, disclosed it already has allocated $29,800,000 as an initial installment to help the Yugoslavs buy cotton, coke and steel.

Britain shortly will announce ECA and its decision to make available $11,000,000 to help bolster Yugoslav economy.

The French government is also expected to announce its contribution in the near future. Informal officials said the initial French installment would be around $5,000,000 or $6,000,000. The aid will be furnished in the next six months.

Court Denies Any Alimony Reduction To Wealthy Man

TALLAHASSEE, Aug. 28 (AP)—A man paying alimony "can't take bread from wife one day to pay for wife two's bread," the Florida Supreme Court said today.

Reversing its own earlier decision, the court set aside a Dade county circuit court order reducing the alimony payments of Harold Schiff to Rhonda S. Schiff from $68 to $45 per week.

Justice Glenn Terrell said the record showed Schiff's income was greater the year before he applied for the alimony reduction than it was the year it originally was set.

He said Schiff earned $16,500 the year before the hearing on alimony reduction was held. In the same year, he and his second wife spent $29,800 for living expenses. He and wife number two are also spending $2,300 annually for an apartment.

In the light of this rather terse expose of Schiff's economy, Justice Terrell wrote:

"The overall picture has nothing to commend it. Most certainly Schiff's income is not sharply declining in income. The criterion by which alimony payments may be reduced, $20,800 for one year's living looks like should be permitted to support luxuriant living in most of us."

"Schiff seems to think he is some of it from the old wife's alimony, despite the fact that the late allowance to her is less than he and wife number two pay for a court of equity cannot function on any such pretence."

"When wife number one has the equities in her favor shown here she is entitled to an orchid. Schiff cannot take bread from wife one to pay for wife two's orchid."

"One who deliberately takes on himself the pleasure of supporting two wives, both of whom are shown to have been faithful, should not in equity be permitted to wish on his agreement."

The court said Schiff and his first wife agreed on the alimony payment when he divorced her after 24 years of married life.

Justice Terrell said he had made a mistake in an earlier decision upholding the alimony reduction, because he thought the question was a simple problem of accounting. "I thought any chancellor could do that, but it now appears that when it comes to adding and subtracting money some of them are not experts."

Ratigan Queries City On Delay In Use Of Floride

Jack Ratigan, president of the Rotary Club, asked the City Commission at its meeting today what is causing the delay in adding sodium fluoride to the City water supply in order to prevent tooth decay among school children.

He was advised that the City water department operator, John Alrahman, will require a City Board before being allowed by the State Board of Health to add the fluoride to the water.

At present the City is taking a correspondence course to prepare to pass the Class B examination.

The equipment for adding the fluoride has not yet been ordered and City Manager Clifford McKelvey, this morning, estimated that this would cost about $1,200.

Advertising of bids for a contract of six inch cement asbestos pipe to supply water for the Wynnwood subdivision now being developed by the Philip Properties was authorized by Wollton Phillips, Jr., vice president of the firm and director of the local building operations, discussed with the commission an agreement for the City to furnish water to the project.

He stated that purchase of homes in that part of Wynnwood outside of the City limits would be required to agree not to object to the inclusion of the property in the city at such time as the matter might be acted on by the State Legislature.

Approximately 60 percent of the area is now outside the city limits but approval of the (Continued on Page Two)

Death Of Masaryk Is Termed Murder By President In Talk With Czech Envoy

WASHINGTON, Aug. 28 (AP)—President Truman told the new Czechoslovak ambassador today the best way to restore cordial relations with the United States would be to let the government of President Masaryk's death be determined over since Jan. 1948 was murdered.

The plan to talk about the ambassadorial relations was reported afterwards by the President's press secretary, Joseph Short.

Short told newsmen that in the conversation between the Ambassador and the President the President said "The best way to make our relations more cordial" is to let the government of Masaryk's death be determined over since Jan. 1948 was murdered.

Short continued:

"The President further said that relations between our own countries had deteriorated ever since Jan. Masaryk (former foreign minister of Czechoslovakia) was murdered."

Masaryk's death and Communist fall to his death from a window, while he was under house arrest by the Reds in Prague several years ago.

President Truman's death, Short quoted the President, "The relations between the United States and the Republic of Czechoslovakia had been wonderful."

Short added that the President, in the regard, "mentioned the extreme friendliness of our political relations and also the back and forth trade relations."

Short continued:

"But now the President said, it looked as if our relations would not be what they had been unless Czechoslovakia changed its policy."

Short concluded by asserting:

"The Ambassador made no reference to these remarks."

Joseph Prachacka had led the protest in front of Mr. Truman yesterday. He arrived at the (Continued on Page Six)

1st Small Claims Court Cases Are Handled By McNab

The first trials in the new small claims court were conducted Saturday by D. K. McNab, judge, and his cases were disposed of in 15 minutes.

The trials were held in the courtroom adjoining the office of the Seminole Circuit Court in the Seminole County Courthouse Building.

Two judgments were issued Saturday by Judge McNab, one partly the judgment on the payment of $4 and cost, the other $275 and costs.

Four Democratic Senators To Fight For Foreign Aid

WASHINGTON, Aug. 28 (AP)—Four Democratic senators set off today they will fight for approval of the full $5,500,000,000 asked by President Truman for foreign aid.

The statement came from Senator Green (D-RI), M. Mahon (D-Conn.), Starnes (D-Vt.) and Fulbright (D-Ark.). All are members of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee.

That committee reported today approval of the full $5,500,000,000 from economic aid.

A cut of $1,001,000,000 was voted by the house which has passed the bill.

The Senate is scheduled to take up the foreign aid bill as soon as it disposes of federal criminal laws intended to crack down on gamblers and bar stabilizers. That may be later this week.

Meanwhile the Senate Crime Investigating Committee announced it would back legislation designed to crack down on gamblers and bar stabilizers and other underworld operators.

Senator O'Connor (D-Md.) said in a statement that the necessary result from the committee's long investigation of criminal activities in the country.

O'Connor said about six bills to be introduced in the Senate will call for new powers for the prevention in federal criminal trials stronger tax laws as a weapon against gamblers and broader powers for congressional investigating groups.

Eisenhower's Name Is Put On Ballot In Oregon Primary

PARIS, Aug. 28 (AP)—General Eisenhower's name was put on the Oregon primary ballot today by the Oregon Democratic Party.

The general election in Oregon today will witness the transfer of American political power from the Democratic Party to the Republican Party.

An aide said General Eisenhower's name had been widely publicized in Oregon by the Oregon Democratic Party from the General concerning the filing of his name as a Democratic candidate for President in next year's Oregon primary election.

Wraps Taken Off U. S. Bombing As Reds Rush Reinforcements

WASHINGTON, Aug. 28 (AP)—A record Communist effort to rush arms and men to the Korean front prompted the U. S. decision to reverse its earlier policy and bomb Rashin, the rail center near Russian Siberia.

The Communists have been moving men and equipment into the war zone continuously since the start of the armistice talks at Kaesong.

But in the past week or so this movement has been speeded up, taking on what some military officials here regard as the semblance of an effort to meet a deadline.

Some officials saw in the bombing of Rashin an effort to demonstrate to the Red that the United Nations means business in the new-stalled armistice negotiations.

There is no indication here, however, that the Eighth Army will make the initiative in Korea and attempt to break the cease-fire deadlock by staging a northward drive. Sharpener actions in the past week or so have been limited in scope and appear to have been designed solely to improve U. N. positions in the battle area.

General Douglas MacArthur told a Senate investigating committee after his dismissal as Far East commander that he was prevented from bombing Rashin last year by orders from Washington.

Thirty-five Air Force B-29 bombers, covered by Navy jet fighters, hit the big supply center with 800 tons of bombs at Rashin only after getting approval from both the State and Defense Departments.

In explaining this reversal of policy, government spokesmen said only that important military re- (Continued on Page Two)

Adrian L. Stacy Is Promoted In Japan

Word has been received by Mr. W. C. DeCourcy of 218 West Nineteenth Street, that his son, Adrian L. Stacy, has recently exchanged his sergeant's stripes for the stars of a major in the Japanese Army.

Adrian L. Stacy, who formerly lived at Indian Oaks, recently has been stationed at the Etna Jim School since January, 1950 as an instructor in the Adjutant General's School. Since receiving his commission he has been transferred to the Japan Replacement Training Center for former prisoners of war in the Far East Command.

Stacy lived in Sanford during his childhood and attended the local schools. He is a graduate of Seminole High School and later moved to Leesburg. His wife is presently residing at Etna Jim but expects to join her husband at his new duty station.

Two Negroes Held On Driving Charge

Two Negro drivers were arrested Sunday night at 8:30 o'clock by State Highway Patrolman R. D. Harrison after a collision involving 1951 Buick sedan and a 1935 Chevrolet pickup truck on Celery Avenue four miles east of Sanford.

At the time of the accident, Harrison, Jett Green was making a right turn with the truck into the driveway of his home. In making the turn he swung too far to the left and the right front fender of the truck was hit by the Buick driven by Lester Pridon of New Smyrna Beach.

Damage to the Buick was estimated at $500 and to the truck at $50. Green was arrested on a charge of making an improper turn and Pridon with speeding too fast under the existing conditions.

The two Negroes were turned over to Deputy Sheriff Hood at the scene of the accident. At the Sheriff's office both were released on bond, pending trial.

Merchants Continue Summer Closings

Andrew Blinn, president of the Sanford Merchants Association, announced today that the merchants have decided to close as usual on Wednesday afternoon Sept. 5, following Labor Day.

It has not yet been decided when to discontinue the Wednesday afternoon closings, but it is expected that a decision on this will be reached soon at a meeting of directors of the Association, Jack Hill, former president, said this morning.
