

Clark Admits He Broadcast Songs In Which He Had A Financial Stake

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Disc jockey Dick Clark has stated under oath that he broadcast songs in which he had a financial stake on his nationally televised show, it was learned today.

Clark, a matinee idol of the teenage set, also conceded that a record manufacturer gave him a ring and his wife a necklace with a combined value of $3,400.

Rep. John B. Bennett (R-Mich.), ranking Republican on the House "payola" investigating subcommittee, told of Clark's sworn statements in response to queries from United Press International. Bennett, demanding that Clark be summoned as a witness, said at a public hearing last Friday that the disc jockey at one time held ownership in 17 record and music companies.

He said Clark confirmed these holdings in an affidavit obtained from him by the American Broadcasting Co. last November. ABC gave Clark a choice of severing these music business connections or leaving his "Bandstand" show; he chose to cut the business ties.

Pressed for further details, Bennett said today that Clark in the affidavit to ABC "admitted playing songs that were owned by or distributed or pressed by companies that he wholly or partly owned, and that he thereby made a financial profit."

"Clark's admission in the affidavit alone make a stronger case against him than any of the rinky-dink disc jockeys we've had as witnesses so far," he said.

Civil Rights Filibuster Stems From Little 'Left Over' Bill

By DICK WEST
WASHINGTON (UPI)—It was on a Tuesday last September—a fateful day if I ever saw one—that H.R. 8315 reached the Senate.

Like many important events, it was little noticed at the time. I looked up the Congressional Record of Sept. 1, 1959, and found only a brief mention that H.R. 8315 had been referred to the Senate Armed Services Committee.

Two days later, it was approved by the committee and took its place on the legislative calendar as No. 924. Had not the Senate been in a hurry to adjourn, it might have been routinely passed on the spot.

Instead, it was carried over until the 1960 session. Little did anyone dream that it would become the focal point of one of the longest filibusters on record.

While awaiting Senate action, H.R. 8315 was picked as the vehicle to carry this year's civil rights legislation. It was a logical choice. H.R. 8315 has nothing to do with civil rights.

An innocuous little bill, it merely would excuse the Stella, Mo., school district from paying rent on a U.S. Army building used for classrooms while a burned-out school was being rebuilt.

In the past three weeks thousands of words have been spoken about amendments to H.R. 8315. But seldom has the bill itself been mentioned.

It was refreshing, therefore, to note that Sen. Sam J. Ervin (D-N.C.) saw fit to include it in a speech he made. If he confused Sen. Frank J. Lausche (D-Ohio) in the process, well such are the hazards of a filibuster.

Ervin was on the floor complaining because Democratic Leader Lyndon B. Johnson (Tex.) and Republican Leader Everett M. Dirksen (Ill.) had put the Senate on a 24-hour schedule.

This, he said, worked a hardship not only on southern opponents of civil rights legislation but also on "poor Stella, who is now lost somewhere in outer space."

The long fight, he said, was depriving the children of Stella of an education.

At this Lausche, ever the gentleman, scrambled to his feet prepared, I assume, to defend a lady's honor.

"I have been constantly hearing mention of Stella," he said. "Who is she?"

"I think she must be a girl friend of the majority leader and of the minority leader," Ervin replied. "I think they are not treating her exactly right, with the proper degree of... what is it that the French call it? 'Eh-prik d'amour'—because they keep her waiting so long."

I trust our senators will continue to keep Stella and H.R. 8315 in mind as they go their weary way. But from now on, gentlemen, let's leave her out of this.

Missing 'Ice' Found In Grating

NEW YORK (UPI)—Mrs. Thomas Burke got a $2,000 sparkle in her eye and there was more celebration in a corner of Brooklyn than when the Dodgers won the pennant.

The whole neighborhood at Nostrand and Flatbush avenues had been depressed. Joyce Mullan had playfully taken off her diamond engagement ring when her fiancé, Thomas McCauley told her it was worth only 11 cents.

It dropped into the snow and disappeared. The Mullans, the McCauleys, the Burkes and the police shoveled for days but it couldn't be found.

Mrs. Burke was standing on the corner bus stop Tuesday when a twinkle from a subway grating caught her eye.

"I think I've found it," Mrs. Burke said rushing into the Mullan house.

A neighbor enlisted the aid of a 16-year-old friend and they climbed into the subway air vent and retrieved the ring. It was Joyce's.

Oil production in the U. S. during 1959 averaged 7,043,000 barrels a day, an increase of about 5 per cent over the preceding year.

Rock And Roll Generation May Get Their Fling On Future TV Specials

By FRED DANZIG
United Press International
NEW YORK (UPI)—I can see it now. In about 15 years, there will be a big TV special called, "The Rockin' Rollin' Years."

It probably will feature such renowned performers as Bill Haley and The Comets, Fats Domino, Frankie Avalon, Frankie Lymon and the Fabulous Fabians, Elvis Presley, still a charmer at age 40, will be the host and these wonderful old-timers will recreate some old hit records of the late 1950s. Nostalgia will pour from the TV tube, just as it poured Tuesday night when NBC-TV's "Starline" presented, "The Swingin' Singin' Years," a musical tribute to the big bands and their vocalists of 15-20 years ago.

This hour-long special, descended from the Feb. 8 "Starline" special called "The Swingin' Years," was more successful than its predecessor because it was more flexible and less ambitious. The emphasis Tuesday night was on reproducing his vocal and instrumental records rather than a quick history lesson. Tuesday night's numbers were presented from re-creations of theater stages, supper clubs, radio stations, a Parisian cellar club, the Hollywood Bowl and even a lecture warehouse. With these sets, producer Gil Rodin was able to impart an air of authenticity to the proceedings.

"The Swingin' Singin' Years" (oh, those titles!) started off on the right foot with Woody Herman's hard racing through "Apple Honey" and "Your Father's Mustache." Woody was the bright spot in the February musicale and his enthusiasm, showmanship and, of course, spark-filled arrangements, came through again in fine style.

In addition to Woody, there were Ella Mae Morse and Freddie Slack, Freddy Martin and Jack Pines, Jo Stafford, Louis Jordan's group, Dinah Washington, Charley Hodge, Vaughn Monroe and Stan Kenton. Brief excerpts of Bing Crosby, Duke Ellington and Kay Kyser records also were worked into the show.

Next week, "Starline" will sound up some Academy Award-winning songs and it's beginning to look as though the sponsor, Ford, is finding that popular music and big bands can lead to bigger ratings. Certainly, there's no problem in gathering material for the program. Why not one and Tuesday night, host Harold Nelson gave us a quick biography of a record company. This approach could easily be expanded into an all-star music special. Others could be devoted to the old small composers such as Nat Cole's, Ray Scott's and John Kirby's. Perhaps modern jazz groups could be fitted into a format, too. The logic looks promising and if properly exploited could offer many entertaining, nostalgia-filled hours.

Hang in there, you rock'n rollers. There may be a TV special in your future.

The Channel Swim: If CBS-TV is unable to cut the number of commercial interruptions in Gerry Moore's variety hour, as Moore has asked, there is a possibility the show will move to NBC-TV in the fall. Former Miss America Mary Ann Mobley returns to CBS-TV's "Be Our Guest" next Wednesday, when Keefe Brasselle takes over the emcee role from George DeWitt. Featured on the show Perry Como will tape in London for airing on NBC-TV April 27 as Sir Ralph Richardson, and ballet stars Margot Fonteyn and Michael Somes.

CHL (Charley Weaver) Arquette shares the "Person to Person" calling card for Friday, March 18 with fashion designer Elsa Schiaparelli. Christopher Plummer has landed the title role in G.B.S.'s "Capt. Brassbound's Conversion," the "Hallmark Hall of Fame" production for Monday, May 2 on NBC-TV. Members of the National Academy of Television Arts and Sciences, now voting on Emmy awards, will consider shows between March 1, 1959 and March 31, 1960. Previous Emmy voting was confined to the calendar year's programming.

Pfc. James M. Mope, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Mope of 208 W. 19th St. has been chosen "soldier of the month" at the Thule, Greenland U. S. Nike Missile Base.

The 19-year-old graduate of Seminole High School is with the headquarters battery of the Seventh Artillery at the base. He has been in the Army two years.

Stray Bullet Hits Nine-Year-Old

NANTWORTH (UPI)—Nineteen-year-old Charlotte Jordan suffered a minor leg wound Wednesday when a stray bullet fell into her lap at a school playground.

"We're sure it must have been accidental," investigator Henry Parker said. The bullet was apparently fired straight up by some one in the area, he theorized.

Police Close Lid On Treasure Chest

SYDNEY, Australia (UPI)—Police Wednesday closed the lid on a trunk full of money that 20 boys had been dipping into for the past five months.

The boys, ranging in age from 14 to 18, found the treasure chest in a circus storage yard last October and used it to buy their own private bank until four of them finally told police about it Tuesday.

Detectives theorized it might be the loot from a burglary or a series of burglaries, but they could not come up immediately with any particular crime to fit the loot.

Startled police found about $80,000 in Australian pounds, $22,000 of it in the chest and the rest in the homes of the boys. They think more money may be hidden elsewhere on the circus lot.

"It's not mine; I wish it was," circus manager Stafford Bullen said.

Ohio Man Charged In Mayfair Theft

A complaint to Sanford police about theft of $20 worth of tools from a Mayfair Inn tool shack led to the arrest of a Cincinnati, Ohio man Tuesday.

Homer Stewart Thacker was charged with petty larceny in connection with the theft. Police recovered the tools, two wallets and other articles stolen from parked cars.

Education 'Everybody's Business' Edmunds Says

Stetson University President J. Ollie Edmunds told the Chamber of Commerce Thursday night that "education is everybody's business" and that the American people must put greater emphasis on their schools to catch up with Russian technological advances.

Edmunds, speaking to 300 members of the Chamber at their annual meeting stressed that the U. S. spends less than one percent of its gross production on education while the Russians are spending three percent.

"We are building bigger and finer schools, but what are we doing about teachers?" Edmunds asked. "What are we doing to raise the status of teachers and give them the respect they are due so devoted people will continue in the educational field?" he asked.

"How many of you know the name of the math or chemistry teacher in your high school? You know the name of the football and basketball coach. Why not the name of the math teacher?" "This could never happen in Russia," Edmunds emphasized. "In Russia, only the party leaders are more prominent in stature than teachers," Edmunds said. "Young people just don't seem to want to go into teaching in this country. Why should they? The young man getting out of college can start off double the salary in industry than he can in teaching."

"We must become aware of the importance of the teacher's plight. College enrollment is going to triple in 10 years and we'll need 50,000 more faculty members."

"What the good of building fancy schools and having no one to teach in them," Edmunds said. "Now, in the Sputnik age, with the debates raging in Congress on why we are lagging behind Russia, people are realizing where the trouble is and are finding out that education is everybody's business."

"We are behind in the missile race not because we are not producing enough steel, gas and metals, but because we are not training our youngsters for the times," he said.

Edmunds also stressed that the people must give their support to private colleges and stop counting on the government to take care of educational needs.

Snow Traps 500 Families As New Storm Blows In

WEST JEFFERSON, N. C. (UPI)—Snow began falling today in the rugged northwestern corner of the state and Adl. Gen. Capus Wayne conceded, "It looks like we have a real problem. We can't take too many chances with that many lives at stake."

The families were stranded by the second severe snowstorm to sweep across the mountains with in a week. The storm spread 20 miles from the snow-capped Blue Ridge Mountains Wednesday and fresh, wind-whipped flurries began settling on the thick layer today.

A helicopter piloted by C. L. Lawrence of Pope Air Force Base attempted a flight over the stricken area early today but was unable to land because the area was enclosed by fog.

The blustery winds piled drifts as high as 16 feet along winding mountain roads whose outlines were barely visible under the matted layer of ice and snow. There was danger that other areas would soon be isolated.

Housholder To Run For Prosecutor

County Prosecuting Attorney Karlisle Housholder today announced that he would seek re-election in the May 3 Democratic primary.

U.S. Satellite Orbits Sun

CAPE CANAVERAL (UPI)—A near perfect space shot today sent a beachball-sized American satellite into orbit around the sun.

The National Aeronautics and Space Administration said in Washington the 94.8-pound slumgum sphere was on a path around the sun inside the orbits for Venus and the earth.

A jubilant scientist here said the launch by a three-stage Thor-Able rocket was as close to perfect as anyone could expect.

Sanford To Have 2 At Blindness Talks

Seminole County representatives at the National Society for the Prevention of Blindness state meeting at Miami Beach, March 19, will be Mrs. Guy Allen of Loch Arber and Dr. D. H. Mathers of Sanford.

The tip to the sun and the orbit of Venus will take several months.

Pioneer V's orbit is inclined toward Venus and will carry it 18 million miles closer to the sun than the orbit of the earth.

The board also informed County Commission Chairman John Krider and State Sen. Douglas Stenstrom that the Sanford Ave. widening improvement project will start within the next two weeks.

27 Qualify For County Offices As Deadline Nears

A last minute rush of political activity is expected next Monday and Tuesday as the official qualifying date for the Democratic primary ends at noon Tuesday.

Those who have qualified are: Circuit Court Clerk, David Gatchel and Arthur Berwick Jr.; tax collector, John Galloway; Sheriff, J. L. Hobby and J. Q. Galloway; District 1 County Commissioner, T. V. Brown and J. C. Hutchison; District 2 County Commissioner, Ted Williams and J. D. Cleveland also outlined the Chamber's efforts in battling for better roads in the county and promoting Seminole County all over the nation.

Citrus Shipping Up
TAMPA (UPI)—The Florida Citrus Exchange predicts it will ship 30 per cent more fresh citrus this season than it did last year, despite smaller grapefruit and tangerine crops.

Cleveland said the Chamber has worked hard to publish new maps of Sanford and the county for use by residents and set up a post office committee to work with Federal agencies getting a new post office here.

Appointment Out
TALLAHASSEE, Fla. (UPI)—Republican Gov. Mark Hatfield has indicated he will not appoint Mrs. Maurice Neuberger to fill out the unexpired term of her late husband, Sen. Richard L. Neuberger.

The attorney said that during the past year the Chamber reached its highest membership in history and he thanked the members for their "united" support.

Cuba Reply Studied

Joe Slate Named Choir Director

Newly appointed to the Pinerest Baptist Church Music-Recreation Dept. is Joe Slate who will be the director of the three choirs: the Celestial, the Cherub and Carol, and the supervisor of recreational programs for the Juniors, Intermediates and Young People. Originally from Griffin, Ga., he graduated from Edgewater High School in Orlando and is attending Stetson University in DeLand.

Bible Study Class Planned By Church

Study classes on the New Testament will begin next week at the First Baptist Church. "From Bethlehem to Olivet" is the text to be used. This book may be bought for 75 cents or borrowed from the Church library. Three classes will be given each week covering the same lesson: Tuesday at 9:30 a. m. and 7:30 p. m., also Friday evening at 7:30 p. m. F. B. Fisher, instructor of the class, invites everyone interested to attend and bring their Bible. The classes are held in the chapel of the Educational Building.

Longwood Church Plans Litany

An evening prayer, litany and address will take place at Longwood's Christ Church Episcopal Lenten services at 8 p. m. today. "The Meaning of Lent" was the topic of discussion at the church women's group meeting this week. Mrs. Herbert Thompson led the discussion. A special meeting of the churchwomen has been called for Monday at 8 p. m. at the parish house.

Ask a Little Child

THE CHURCH FOR ALL... ALL FOR THE CHURCH
The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a crucible of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Women on the Go

By JEANNE WARNKE
FA 2-7436

IT SNOWED AND SNOWED in New York City but that didn't stop Elizabeth Seinoce and Dorothy Odham from a fabulous five day whirl. They stayed at the Park Lane Hotel where Liz and Eddie were guests - rubbed elbows with Ethel Merman in the hotel elevator - saw the Ed Sullivan and Price is Right television shows and enjoyed three Broadway shows: "Take Me Along," "Music Man" and the French hit, "Plume De Ma Tante." They dined in style at Sardi's and at many more of the famous restaurants in the city - a two-hour taxi tour made a quick and easy way to see how New Yorkers live - and they shined through snow (in new overcoats they were forced to buy) for an exciting shopping spree.

In plush Harry Winston's jewelry salon they admired a private collection of priceless diamonds, emeralds and other precious gems and discovered how it feels to wear a $120,000 ring!

Tuesday they were guests of an executive of the Marco Engineering Inc. who took them to the Bronx where Freedom Land, 203 acres in the shape of the United States, is being transformed into a great attraction - each State will feature some authentic event or place and Cape Canaveral will be reproduced to represent Florida. Plans were pointed out to them as they drove around the site in a jeep - and they were invited to return as guests for the grand opening on or around June 19. They also were shown detailed drawings for Circuland which is planned for Sanford.

Both women felt that the International Flower Show was the highlight of their visit ... Elizabeth said she got so many good ideas there for an ornamental garden that she is planning for her home.

Selected as models are Mrs. George Wells, Mrs. George Stine, Mrs. W. L. Gramkow Sr., Mrs. William Kirk, Mrs. Paul Colman.

MRS. SCHILKE

Mrs. John White, Mrs. Donald Flamm, Mrs. William Stiemper and representing the teenagers, Sandra Kader and Gay Hunt. AND there will be male models, too - the women are still rounding them up! Tickets are on sale and the show proceeds will benefit worthy civic projects - you can call Mrs. Clyde Ramsey at FA 2-0786 for information about tickets.

DON'T FORGET to see our local dancers this Sunday when they appear in a Workshop performance at the Civic Center - the time is three o'clock and there will be no admission charge.

Club Departments Plan Joint Meetings Next Wednesday

The civic and social departments of the Sanford Woman's Club will meet Wednesday for their March programs at the club house.

A covered dish luncheon will be served at 12 o'clock, followed by the civic business meeting and program. Mrs. V. Robello, vice president of the Seminole Memorial Auxiliary, will speak on the activities of the auxiliary.

The social department will meet at 2 p. m. for a session of bridge and canasta. Mrs. W. B. Brisson and her committee will be in charge of the luncheon and Mrs. John Eick and her committee will arrange the card program.

Deanna McManus and Carol Ellison will be among soloists and the junior group composed of Sherilyn Williams, Lucille King, Jo Anne Huhn, Donita Winn and Daryl McClain will appear in the Tyrolon based on the William Tell opera - I've been told around 100 dancers of the Central Florida Civic Ballet Co., will appear in the finale.

WHITE MOCK TREES decorated with pink flowers were used on the luncheon tables today for the OWC monthly event at the Imperial House in Winter Park - hostesses were wives of VAH-11 with Beverly (Mrs. Joseph) Bachman and Jeanne (Mrs. William) Foulke in charge of plans. "Spring" was the party theme and lovely Easter fashions were modeled by June (Mrs. Russell) Anderson and Donnie (Mrs. B. B.) Brown.

Mrs. Holly Piercy Hostess To S. S. Class Meeting

Members of the Golden Circle Sunday School class of the First Baptist Church met at the home of Mrs. Holly Piercy on Holly Ave. for their monthly business and social meeting with group five serving as hostess.

Mrs. M. N. Cleveland led the group in the opening devotions, using as her topic, "God's Purpose For His People." Mrs. Francis Hall, closed the period with a special prayer.

Mrs. C. H. Goethe, president, presided at the business session when plans were discussed for future activities that might create new interest in the monthly social and business sessions.

A love offering was taken and proceeds added to the fund to carry on class projects.

During the social hour, Mrs. Cleveland was awarded the prize for an enjoyable contest. Hostesses served a dessert course and coffee to members present.

Those attending were Mrs. David A. King, Mrs. Coakley, Mrs. Fisher, Mrs. Guthrie, Mrs. Kimmons, Mrs. Golden, Mrs. Richard Gralow, Mrs. William L. Hackett, Mrs. Neal Johnson, Mrs. Monard Lillebor, Mrs. Harold McCumber, Mrs. Donald McGraw, Mrs. Robert Provencher, Mrs. Robert Säre, Mrs. Barton Bartholomew, Mrs. Ralph Stell, Mrs. Max Otto, Mrs. James Goss and Mrs. W. ## Kathleen Honored At Birthday And Going-Away Party

Little Miss Kathleen Willard of Lake Mary had a double celebration last week when a birthday and going away party was given in her honor. Cake and ice cream were served.

Those attending were: Kathy, Betsy, and Rip Rugenstein, David Alexander, Lela, Judy, and David Hobby, Ruth Freeman, Craig, Keith, and Colin Keogh, Stanley Howell, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Rugenstein, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Keogh, Mrs. Ida Keogh, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Howell, Mrs. Luther Hobby, and Kathy's parents.

Lake Mary Couple Honored With Farewell Party

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Hocker-smith were guests of honor at a farewell party given by Mrs. Ida Keogh last week at her home in Lake Mary. The Hocker-smiths are moving from Lake Mary to Deland.

Their friends here will miss them, but are glad that they are not leaving the state so they will be able to see them once in a while.

Mrs. Keogh served cake and coffee to the following close friends of the couple: Rev. John and Sally Pilley, Mrs. Horace Cochran, Mrs. William Hartman, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Keogh, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Webster, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Rugenstein, and Mr. and Mrs. Dale Alexander.

Officers' Wives Sponsor Coffee

Mrs. Donald E. Ethell and Mrs. William T. Blakemore were co-hostesses at a coffee for VAH-11 officers' wives at the Ethell home this week.

The St. Patrick's Day centerpiece was awarded as a door prize to Mrs. R. Golden. Mrs. R. Forster, who will soon leave the squadron, received a tray and several new members were welcomed to the group.

It was announced that members will meet at the home of Mrs. Harvey E. Fisher, March 25, for a session of bridge. Mrs. George Kimmons was appointed new publicity chairman.

Hostesses for the April get-together will be Mrs. Kenneth L. Coakley and Mrs. Charles E. Guthrie.

Those attending were Mrs. David A. King, Mrs. Coakley, Mrs. Fisher, Mrs. Guthrie, Mrs. Kimmons, Mrs. Golden, Mrs. Richard Gralow, Mrs. William L. Hackett, Mrs. Neal Johnson, Mrs. Monard Lillebor, Mrs. Harold McCumber, Mrs. Donald McGraw, Mrs. Robert Provencher, Mrs. Robert Säre, Mrs. Barton Bartholomew, Mrs. Ralph Stell, Mrs. Max Otto, Mrs. James Goss and Mrs. W. Hull.

Children of Mrs. Alex Leinhart included, Mr. and Mrs. Milton Gore and children, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Gore, J. Y. Harris and Miss Linda Harris. Also present were Miss Betsy

Mrs. Grace R. Reale Weds G. R. Womack

BY HELEN SNOODGRASS
Mrs. Grace R. Reale of Enterprise and Gerald R. Womack, U. S. N., of Key West, were united in marriage in an informal ceremony in the presence of family and close friends, Saturday, March 5 at 8 p. m., at the home of her brother, F. C. Long, Main St., Enterprise.

The single ring ceremony performed by Rev. Bill Swycar of the Barnett Memorial Methodist church was most impressive as the couple exchanged vows under an archway decorated with greenery and white flowers and flanked on either side with tall baskets of white glads, chrysanthemums, lilies and lighted candles.

The bride, given in marriage by her brother, F. C. Long, chose a light blue lace dress with a single strand of pearls and white accessories and wore a white orchid corsage.

Her only attendant, Mrs. James C. Welch, chose a blue taffeta dress with black accessories and wore a pink carnation corsage. James C. Welch, Enterprise, U. S. N. served as best man and both he and Gerald were dressed in Navy Blues.

The reception immediately following the ceremony was held in the Florida room of the home. The refreshment table was overlaid with a hand made Madeira lace cloth and centered with a three-tiered wedding cake with punch bowls on each side.

The couple left immediately for their home in Key West.

Get-Acquainted Coffee Sponsored By Enlisted Wives

The Enlisted Men's Wives of VAH-5 held a get-acquainted coffee, Thursday morning, at the home of Mrs. Norma Welsh in Sunland Estates.

A corsage of white carnations was presented to Mrs. H. S. Moore, wife of the commanding officer of VAH-5. Refreshments of coffee, tea and pastries were served.

New members present were Mrs. Mary Ella Fields, Mrs. Lois Fowler, Mrs. Edith Rossman, Mrs. Vickie Gwynn, Mrs. Ann Almond and Mrs. Jo Lefila.

A set of ash trays was awarded to Mrs. Nan Quinn as the door prize.

MR. VISITOR:

It's hard, if you don't know how. Almost as hard, in fact, as going back north after a taste of Florida's fabulous climate...

But, coconuts can be cracked. And - getting to the meat of the coconut - if you look behind the palm trees, the beaches, the sand and the surf, you'll discover the living image of Florida that turns 150,000 visitors into permanent residents every year.

You'll see booming markets, cooperative and productive manpower, favorable taxes, superb transportation facilities... and dependable, expanding electric power.

Take a good look at the other side of Florida while you're here. Chances are you, too, will find a Florida future for your family. We'd love to have you.

Official Sees Fast Electronics Growth

By GORDON J. TOLL
Manager, Security Associates, Inc.

The head of the Florida Development Commission's industrial services division is convinced that the electronics industry will grow faster in Florida in the next few years than in any other state in the nation.

Nicholas J. Murphy described Florida's electronics industry as a "justly youngster with its eyes fixed firmly on the future," and predicted sales in this state of $1 billion in electronics goods by 1965 in an address made to the Association of Florida Electronics Industry at Orlando.

Mr. Murphy emphasized that six years ago Florida's output of space age equipment was only a thousandth of the nation's total capacity. Today the industry produces a fiftieth of the nation's output. "There has been a rise of 850 percent in electronic plant employment in Florida in the past six years . . . I definitely expect the electronics industry to grow faster in Florida in the next few years than in any other state in the nation," he declared.

A few of the organizations that have developed in Florida over the past five years or so and that originate close to home are Dynatronics, Dearborn, Johnson Electronics in Casselberry, Radiation and Soraban in Melbourne and others. Many of these companies are engaged in sub-contracting work for Martin, RCA, Litton Industries, and other corporate giants that are dealing with space-age equipment.

With these smaller electronic firms come bigger payrolls, added jobs, and a more progressive community.

Recently revealed to the public was that J. E. Davis & Associates have bought an entire block of 150,000 shares of Stockton, Whatley, Davin and Co., of Jacksonville, for $1,850,000. Stockton, Whatley, Davin & Co. is Florida's largest mortgage company, having offices in 11 Florida cities and in San Juan, Puerto Rico. Davis, who is chairman of the board of Winn-Dixie Stores, Inc., said the purchase was "strictly an investment in a company which we think has an excellent future."

Speaking of Winn-Dixie, the company reported expansion plans of 69 stores for fiscal 1960 year, budgeted at a cost of $5,000,000. Twenty stores out of the 69 will replace outmoded stores which will be closed. At least 25 of the new stores will be built in North and South Carolina and eastern Tennessee.

Winn-Dixie has abandoned the idea of going into the drive-in grocery market field. In order to combat competition from drive-ins, the company keeps some supermarkets open after normal business hours and on Sundays in New Orleans, Miami, Jacksonville and New Smyrna.

The company has estimated their sales for fiscal 1960 at $785,000,000 compared to $668,370,000 the like period last year.

With income tax time breathing down our necks, we're seeing more warning in print about not forgetting to declare dividends paid out to shareholders. This will be closely checked this year!

Assignment Washington by Ed Koterba

WASHINGTON — You watch three men from your gallery roost, a 45-degree angle up and 30 feet away, for they are the three leaders in this only big show going in town.

At least one of the three will end up a loser.

First, there is the big southerner, the chief of the platoon of 18, Sen. Richard Russell (D. Ga.). His long oval of a face is cocked like that of a runner awaiting the crack of a gun. And he springs to his feet like a runner, too, at the flick of any word that may be a shade off the Senate rules. "I object!"

His flat palm flaps constantly against the arm of his chair, or it's a tight fist that pounds a restless beat, or long fingers run restlessly against each other.

Scarcely an outstretched arm in front of him, in the front row, Sen. Lyndon Johnson—Russell's adversary in this show—makes a yawning contract. The majority leader had drawn into the chamber, hands stuffed into his pockets, his usually trim shirt hanging loosely over his belt line.

But the casual look hides a trigger mind and before too many 24-hour days of round-the-clock civil rights debate, there would come between these two old friends some sipping at each other's patience, at each other's throats.

The third man in this theme piece behind his desk across the aisle, Sen. Everett Dirksen (R., Ill.) is accepted as the "minority leader," but at the moment his bill puts him in as the main leader against the South.

It's an uneasy position. And how does he accept his destiny? In tones soft, elongated and reverent, you get the pitch from him in a small dining room below the chamber. He talks from behind a battery of dirty dishes left over from the lunch of the Republican Policy committee.

He gives you his position in the words of a story about the late Sen. Huey Long of Louisiana and a banker named Carroll who had journeyed to Washington to see the Kingfish.

The banker ended up in Long's apartment just as the senator finished breakfast. The visitor was beset in and Long excused himself for a moment.

Carroll moseyed about the apartment and was astounded to find five Bibles of various sizes, all opened. Each had a different chapter or verse.

When Long reappeared, the vis-tor said: "Senator, you will never know how intrigued I am about seeing all these Bibles. I somehow am unable to associate you with the Bible."

Long thundered: "It's the Book of Law. I wouldn't undertake anything unless I found the inspiration and authority for it in the book."

Huey continued: "You know, Carroll, it is the nature of man to crucify the Saviour." Then he faced the banker and said: "Chum, you know there are times when people don't want to be saved." Now he shouted, "But, damnit, I am going to save them whether they want to be saved or not!"

Sen. Everett Dirksen lowered his eyes. "That," he purred, "is the same unhappy position I find myself in."

It is mandatory for the man from Illinois to sacrifice himself thus. But the way my book of knowledge reads, the man who will "save the South" will be a gentleman running for president of the United States—Lyndon B. Johnson.

And his sermons then become the "essay" type instead of the narrative or "anecdotal" variety which Jesus always employed. Jesus never put listeners to sleep. And that wasn't due to their thinking he was the Son of God.

No; even his Apostles didn't believe he was the Son of God or they would never have deserted him.

So Christ's public platform methods held people because they were sound in psychology and his sermons were a chain of relevant cases, called parables.

Bishop Raines is a great orator himself, so he felt an outsider could possibly open the eyes of some of his myopic preachers in Indiana.

Reader's Digest publisher, DeWitt Wallace, urges his roving reporters to employ this formula, which is based directly on Christ's narrative style:

- (1) Open with a striking statement (text for sermonizing).
- (2) Document your theme with at least two relevant cases, told as narrative (stories, like Christ's parables).
- (3) Then "tie the wheat in the sack" with a punchy terminal paragraph.

This formula is perfectly adaptable to pulpits, except a preacher may want to use 5 or 6 cases, told in narrative style, to fill a 20-minute time slot for his sermon.

Castro Tirades Against U. S. Add Up To Long List Hurting Relations

WASHINGTON (UPI) — In a small room at the State Department telegrams arrive from the U. S. embassy in Havana almost daily, telling of Cuba's latest charges against the United States.

They are sorted, marked and channeled to official desks. They add up to some serious accusations.

The charges have led to the recall of U. S. Ambassador Philip Bonsal for consultations, to tense diplomatic meetings here and in Havana, and to Secretary of State Christian A. Herter's saying Wednesday that "circumstances might arise" eventually which could cause a break in relations with Cuba.

Relatively few of the charges come from Premier Fidel Castro himself. Most are from Revolution, Castro's semi-official newspaper; Radio Marti and Union Radio, two stations he controls; Prensa Latina, the Cuban wire service, sometimes with an assist from the New China News Agency.

The barrage began in earnest last October. In a four-hour speech on Oct. 22, Castro blamed the United States and the Agency internal security subcommittee for bombings of sugar cane fields.

Dec. 11, Cadena Latino-Americana, a radio chain connected with Union Radio — "Soggyriary dieter, with characteristic by-potrisis . . . said the United States was making sincere efforts to better relations . . . Christian Herter knowingly lies."

THE WORRY CLINIC By Dr. George Crane

Bishop Raines is a superb Applied Psychologist and Orator. But many of his clergymen don't adopt the Bishop's public speaking formula, which is Christ's own narrative method. So I was invited to spend an hour with the 21 Methodist conferences to outline the facts below. Poor speakers, like deficient husbands as in Case D-41, often don't realize they are failures:

CASE D-41: A few years ago Bishop Richard Raines invited me down to Indiana to address the three Methodist conferences of ministers.

So I talked one day at Anderson, the second day at Greensburg (DePauw), and delivered my final speech at Bloomington.

And the Bishop wanted me to explain the "Psychology of Public Speaking" for many younger clergymen (and some older), still were putting their congregations to sleep.

Also, public speaking is an art. But it can easily be learned by every person of average intelligence.

But as a rule the more college degrees a preacher has, the more likely he is to find Morpheus in the pew: Why?

Well, to get his advanced degree, a man usually spends a lot of hours poring over dusty tomes in the college libraries. And the more he thus isolates himself from people, the more he loses what is called "the common touch."

Moreover, he alters his vocabulary so he quits using Christ's simple, two-syllable terms and begins to "highball" his listeners.

And his sermons then become the "essay" type instead of the narrative or "anecdotal" variety which Jesus always employed.

Jesus never put listeners to sleep. And that wasn't due to their thinking he was the Son of God.

No; even his Apostles didn't believe he was the Son of God or they would never have deserted him.

So Christ's public platform methods held people because they were sound in psychology and his sermons were a chain of relevant cases, called parables.

Bishop Raines is a great orator himself, so he felt an outsider could possibly open the eyes of some of his myopic preachers in Indiana.

Reader's Digest publisher, DeWitt Wallace, urges his roving reporters to employ this formula, which is based directly on Christ's narrative style:

- (1) Open with a striking statement (text for sermonizing).
- (2) Document your theme with at least two relevant cases, told as narrative (stories, like Christ's parables).
- (3) Then "tie the wheat in the sack" with a punchy terminal paragraph.

This formula is perfectly adaptable to pulpits, except a preacher may want to use 5 or 6 cases, told in narrative style, to fill a 20-minute time slot for his sermon.

A few other sterling rules of psychology can also be helpful, such as:

- (1) Cite at least three parishioners in every sermon, but be sure your remarks are complimentary.
- (2) And name them only incidentally to happenings you have observed in their homes or on their farms, which advance your central theme.
- (3) Compliment some of the "silent" workers in your church EVERY SUNDAY, including the ushers, singers, treasurer, etc.
- (4) When you reach the climax of your sermon, and are thus ready to enter what is called your "peroration," quote a stanza from some famous poem which will neatly express that climax in your speech.
- (5) For poetry injects rhythm into speech and rhythmic speech beats ordinary prose in arousing emotions, and thus stimulating goose pimples up and down our spine.

It is this tingling sensation which has long been used by Judges of the Big Ten Oratorical Contests to separate the FIRST orator from others whose orations look about alike in print. Send for my booklet "Surfire Public Platform Psychology," enclosing a stamped return envelope, plus 20c (non-profit). It has helped many preachers double attendance within 12 months (and thus boost salaries, too).

(Always write to Dr. Crane in care of this newspaper, enclosing a long 4c stamped, addressed envelope and 20c to cover typing and printing costs when you send for one of his booklets.)

LETTERS to the Editor

Editor:

This is to ask you for your favor. I am very anxious to exchange hobbies with some American friends but I do not know how to start it. The other day I was told by Youth Council For International Contact (201 Jimbocho, Kanda, Chiyoda-ku Tokyo, Japan), that if I write to some American newspapers they might be able to help me. So I am writing to you now.

What particularly I want is to exchange stamps, pictorial postal cards and some other similar things and if you can introduce me to a few who are interested in these things I shall appreciate it very much. If there aren't any one you can recommend to me, then may I ask you to insert a little note about it in your paper? I would appreciate it just the same.

Sincerely yours,
Masaru Kishimoto

P.S. I want to introduce myself briefly. My name and address are as follows: Name: Masaru Kishimoto boy 16. Address: Iitani, Tokushima, Japan. Line of Interest: reading, post cards, stamps.

Payroll Techniques To Be Demonstrated

DELAND—Electronic data processing facilities in Deland will link nearly 75 Central Floridians with a smaller group in New England today during a demonstration of ultra-modern business techniques.

According to Julian M. Roberts, administrative division manager of Roehr Products Co., where the demonstration will be held, members of the Central Florida Chapter of the National Machine Accountants Association will see automatic processing of payroll data completed over a 1,000 mile data system for the 400 employees of Roehr's Waterbury, Connecticut plant.

Company President, E. M. Roehr will explain how these IBM facilities also are used to coordinate production orders and shipments to and from customers and suppliers of Roehr products, which is the world's largest manufacturer of disposable hypodermic needles.

Roberts said the meeting, which begins at 8 p. m. also will be attended by officials of IBM, American Telephone and Telegraph and the State of Florida.

The Doctor Does Not Heal
(By DR. F. LEO KERWIN)

It is unfortunate that it takes pain to bring a person into a doctor's office. Some of our most serious diseases cause a progressive destruction to the body without producing pain until the last stages.

The severe chronic diseases progress and cause a destruction in organs long before symptoms appear. If the doctor causes the symptoms or pain to disappear, it doesn't mean that the organ is healed. Healing takes time. For example, a fractured bone can be set, but it takes at least eight weeks for it to heal.

Getting rid of pain or removing diseased parts through surgery does not mean that you are well unless the cause of the disease or pain has been removed. The Chiropractor locates and removes the cause of disease and allows nature to gradually restore the structure to normal.

One of a series of articles published in the public interest to explain and familiarize the practice of scientific Chiropractic, written by Dr. F. Leo Kerwin whose office is located at 201 S. French Ave. and his telephone number is FAirfax 2-7412.

Covington Covers Sports

By JERRY COVINGTON

In the district tournament last week in Ft. Pierce junior guard George Perides was injured in the second quarter and was hospitalized with a severe shoulder injury. George was one of the main stays on the club this year and his absence from the lineup in the second half of the Cocoa-Seminole game had a big effect in the loss. It is reported that he is recovering nicely but the injury will keep him out of baseball this season. As a sophomore he was the regular second baseman and his loss will be greatly felt.

Sherry Robertson, farm director of the Washington Senators, said last week that he is looking into the possibilities of building a training base in Orlando for the farm clubs. The site that they are considering is directly behind Tinker Field, home of the parent club during the spring.

The present farm site is in Fernandina Beach, north of Jacksonville, and due to poor transportation facilities into this location, it has practically become a necessity to move their operations to central Florida.

It is reported that they were interested in purchasing the Giants building here but from all indications the price tag is a little steep.

Pete Schaal now has his season ticket drive underway for the coming Florida State League season which will begin April 19. Everyone is urged to support the local entry in the league and the season tickets will mean a big savings for anyone who plans to attend most of the games this season. Schaal is also hard at work selling advertising space on the fences and if any merchants are interested in supporting the local club they should contact him immediately.

With a solid working agreement with the Kansas City A's this year's squad should be right in there all the way and the lineup will be studded with outstanding bonus babies. Kansas City has assured us that the players will be of the highest caliber and we can count on them providing us with a fine summer of baseball.

Mr. & Mrs. Kegler Loop Starts Action

The "Mr. & Mrs." bowling League swung into action at the Jet Lanes with 11 teams bowling, the 12th to follow later. The bowling was quite even, with all matches being split. Gloria Accardi rolled a 518 total to lead the women, while Dick Richards had a 330 series, leading the men. The Armas, Richards, Sines, and Wiseman all have two wins and one defeat in their matches with the Accardis, Wicherns, Carters, and Ridleys respectively. The Motis and Rogels split their series down the middle with each side picking up 1 1/2 wins and losses. High team average presently belongs to the Accardis, with a 336 scratch average. High team game of 360 scratch and 417 handicap also goes to the combination of Gloria and Mike Accardi.

There are 4,700 drive-in theaters in the U. S. Texas has the most — 482.

Foodmart Retains Sandspur Lead

Foodmart retained their lead in the Sandspur Bowling League by taking two wins, Tuesday night from Robson Sporting Goods, the fifth place team. This gives the grocers 50 wins to hold first place. The grocers took the first and last games by small margins, but they were just two pins short in the middle game, as Robson took it 788 to 786. Pat Foster, rolling for The Sporting Goods, turned in high series for this pair of lanes. Wilson-Maier, proving they are the best team in the league scratch wise, turned a 224 new record scratch series, and scratch game, to take both money spots. They ended with a 744-2107. Ruth Phillips turned in a 201, to help take the second game from Roumillat & Anderson. Margie Woods had a 224 scratch giving her high series of 333 for this pair of lanes, insuring the furniture team of two wins for the evening.

Pirate Manager Grinning As Friend Looks Good

United Press International Danny Murlaugh is wearin' his St. Patrick's Day grin early today because it looks like Bob Friend is ready for a comeback. "Now that's what I was hoping to see," said the jolly Irishman from Chester, Pa., after Friend's first competitive pitching of the spring Thursday. "He looked as good as gold."

Friend was the National League's leading winner in 1958 when he had a 22-14 record for the Pittsburgh Pirates but did an almost complete turnabout last season when his record was 8-19. He is the key man in the Pirates' plans to make a season-long challenge for the pennant this year. The 200-pound right-hander was in great form Thursday when he struck out four batters and faced only 12 in a perfect four-inning stint that featured the Pirates' final intra-squad game. The Pirates, along with the other major league teams, begin their Grapefruit League exhibition schedules Saturday.

Sammy Esposito of the American League champion White Sox, Bill White of the St. Louis Cardinals and Felipe Alou of the San Francisco Giants continued their intra-squad games.

Esposito, a .167-hitter last season, raised his spring average to .300 with two singles and two walks. Nelson Fox hit a two-run single. Al Smith had a two-run triple and Early Batty also tripled during the game.

White, getting "first crack" at the Cardinals' center field job, blasted a homer and single to keep his spring mark at .400. Stan Musial, still looking fine, also had two hits and Lindy McDaniel turned in three scoreless innings on the mound.

Alou hammered out a three-run homer and a solo homer as the Giants squad continued its generally heavy cannonading at Phoenix, Ariz. Willie Mays hit his third homer in intra-squad competition and Andre Rodgers his second. Most of the run-scoring was against Mike McCormick, a 12-game winner last season who complains his arm feels

"heavy" this spring. The Detroit Tigers signed their last holdout when outfielder Charley Maxwell, .251 with 31 homers last season, unexpectedly agreed to terms but the Milwaukee Braves made no progress with their four holdouts — Lew Burdette, Don McMahon, Wes Covington and Bobby Avila. "The next move is up to them," said General Manager Johnny Melella. "They know where they can reach me."

Summer Sports Program To Open In City Soon

The first signs of spring have started the softball and baseball players inquiring about the Recreation Department's summer sports program.

Organizational meetings will be held Monday night at 7:30 in the Arts & Crafts Building in Ft. Mellon Park for softball, Tuesday night at 7:30 in the Civic Center for Little Major League and Thursday at 7:30 in the Civic Center for Babe Ruth League.

All adults interested in any of the three meetings are urged to attend. Managers, sponsors, prospective managers and sponsors and other interested adults are cordially invited. Players are not invited, announcements will be made as to when leagues will begin.

There will be a Little Major League composed of six teams, a Babe Ruth League composed of six or eight teams, two and possibly three softball leagues. A girl's softball league will be organized if interest is shown.

Quotable Quotes

United Press International
LONDON—Dress designer Norman Hartnell, keeping mum about details of the wedding gown he is creating for Princess Margaret:
 "All I can say is that I have taken into consideration all Princess Margaret's known likes and dislikes."
HOLLYWOOD—A spokesman for the State Unemployment Compensation Office, stating approval of nearly 1,200 persons have applied for aid because of the actors' strike:
 "I haven't seen or heard of any of the big stars having applied. And, of course, if I did I couldn't reveal the names."
WASHINGTON—John C. Doerfer, resigning as chairman of the Federal Communications Commission following criticism of him for accepting hospitality from the president of "radio-TV chain":
 "A number of these contacts (the job brings about) eventually ripen into friendships, which despite appearances, do not imperil the integrity of either the government official or the member of the industry."
CARDIFF, Wales—Patrick Haines, discussing his plans to turn the 102-year-old Bethel Baptist Church into a strip-tease club:
 "I guarantee we'll have a bigger congregation than the old Bethel ever had."

Graham Recovers From Illness

CAIRO (UPI)—Evangelist Billy Graham disclosed today he had fallen "seriously ill" with a stomach ailment during the last part of his six-week tour of Africa but had recovered quickly.
 The energetic young American preacher did not define the nature of the illness and said he felt fine now.
 Graham was affected by an eye ailment last year but visited Australia with his mission despite the fact that doctors in the United States told him to "slow down."
 Graham arrived in Cairo from Ethiopia Thursday at the conclusion of a nine-country speaking tour that left little time for "slowing down." He was 10 pounds lighter than when he started.
 The evangelist, dressed in a slightly rumpled blue suit and handsomely sunanned, indicated he was generally pleased with the results of his tour and had found Christian leadership in the areas he visited to be "of a high caliber."
 Nevertheless, he conceded that the Moslem religion was "growing very rapidly" and said he had found "a revival of old tribal religions."
 "Many forces and ideologies are battling for the minds of Africans," said the Protestant preacher, who at several points in his religious safari had run into opposition from local witch doctors.

Florida Needs Businessman, Burns Says

By United Press International
Gubernatorial candidate Haydon Burns, mayor of Jacksonville, said Thursday a poll showing two of his opponents running ahead in the race is "wishful thinking."

Burns, speaking at Clearwater, said he felt the people of Florida prefer a businessman candidate "rather than a continuation of the regime of lawyers."

Burns referred to a newsman's poll which recently showed Doyle E. Carlton Jr. of Wausonville, and C. Farris Bryant of Ocala ahead of the 12-man field seeking nomination in the May 3 primaries.

He called "ridiculous" a statement by "a certain gubernatorial candidate that he can save $50 million a year of wasted funds in state government."

Burns didn't mention him by name but he referred to Bryant's claim.

Two other candidates spoke about reappointment Thursday. At Fort Lauderdale, Carlton said it can be achieved only through a constitutional amendment. He said, "If we do not change the present section of the constitution on reappointment, there is little we can do for our more populous counties."

At Fort Walton Beach, John McCarty of Fort Pierce said he has no outstanding alliances with the legislature and is in a "good position to act as leader and as a legislator" and help effect a fair reappointment for North as well as South Florida.

At Orlando, candidate Ted David of Hollywood criticized sales tax exemption given Florida banks.

He referred to a regulation which he said exempts banks from paying sales tax on equipment and supplies. He called it one of the worst examples of special interest control in Florida government.

Travel By Soviet Troops In German Zone Restricted

BERGEBERG, Germany (UPI)—The U. S. Army today announced restriction of travel by Soviet military missions to the former U. S. zone of Germany in the vicinity of Frankfurt.

Authorities clamped down on Soviet movement in the zone because of the failure of Soviet authorities in West Germany to issue acceptable passes to Allied mission members stationed here, the announcement said.

The Army's European commander, Gen. C. D. Eddleman, has advised the Soviet mission of the restriction, it added.

British spokesmen refused to say whether the Soviet mission in the former British zone also would be restricted.

The French two weeks ago restricted the Soviet military mission at Baden-Baden to a 10-mile radius around the town — the French headquarters in Germany.

Legal Measures Sought To Stop Wave Of Sitdown Demonstrations

By United Press International
Segregation forces sought legal measures today to combat the wave of sitdown demonstrations that have spread to Little Rock, Ark., scene of school integration violence two years ago.

Thirty-seven Negroes arrested during an anti-segregation demonstration at Alabama State College in Montgomery, Ala., last Tuesday were scheduled to go on trial today.

In Little Rock, a number of Negro lunch counter demonstrators who refused orders to leave a Woolworth store were promptly arrested by police Thursday. As the 20 to 25 demonstrators appeared, the store closed its lunch counters.

The Mississippi House of Representatives approved three bills Thursday setting punishment for similar "sitdowns" in the state. The bills would provide a maximum $500 fine and six months jail sentence for anti-segregation demonstrators.

Alabama Gov. John Patterson ordered an investigation into the possibility of closing the Negro college in Montgomery because of racial tensions.

Montgomery Police Commissioner L. B. Sullivan requested the action shortly after some 60 students marched around the campus several times Thursday with signs protesting the expulsion of nine classmates.

The Montgomery City Commission said no spectators would be permitted at the trial of the 35 Negro students, a faculty member and her physician husband. They were charged with disorderly conduct and disobeying an officer.

Another demonstration was held Thursday in Huntsville, Ala., where some 60 young Negro men paraded through the 10-block downtown area carrying signs which read: "Alabama, Heart of Dixie, House of Tyranny."

North Carolina Gov. Luther H. Hodges predicted Thursday that sitdown demonstrations against segregated eating facilities will not produce the results that Negroes are seeking. The governor admitted he was concerned about the demonstrations.

In Atlanta, six Negroes took seats in the front center section intended for white occupants at the matinee performance of "My Fair Lady" at the Municipal Auditorium. The presence of the Negroes did not cause any disturbance, but there were some complaints from some white patrons.

Gov. Ernest F. Hollings announced Thursday that South Carolina would "not tolerate" a proposed Saturday pilgrimage to the state Capitol by Negro students protesting racial segregation.

Furor Over AF Manual Quietens

WASHINGTON (UPI)—The storm in Congress over an Air Force manual making some churches with communion appeared to be blowing itself out today in the wake of two congressional inquiries.

But House investigators were still digging into the subject of military manuals on other topics ranging from how to wash an officer's dog to bartending. They promised further disclosures later.

Everyone concerned with the church-and-communion manual was agreed on one point if on nothing else — somewhere along the line the Air Force goofed.

Air Force Secretary Dudley C. Sharp told a House armed services subcommittee Thursday it was "inexcusable" that the passage about Communist infiltration of churches got into the manual.

In this view he had the backing of the National Council of Churches which stirred up the fuss by protesting bitterly against the manual, written for reserve non-commissioned officers.

But Rep. Alvin E. O'Konski (R-Wis.) told Sharp Thursday the allegation in the manual hadn't been disproved "one iota" and the Air Force had no business with drawing it.

The armed forces subcommittee completed questioning Sharp, Gen. Thomas D. White, Air Force chief of staff, and other Air Force officials in two hours.

Seminole Band Slated To Compete In District Contest

Seminole High's band will join in the annual Florida Bandmasters' Association district contest at Leesburg Saturday.

Twenty-two high school bands will march and play in the contest. They will compete for ratings.

The 75 Seminole musicians led by Bandmaster Ernest Cowley will enter the concert, sight reading and drill contests.

Seminole individual entrants will be the A and B corps majorettes who will join in a twirling contest. Majorettes Dee Hargrave and Frankie Jones will perform in a duet and Marty Stemper and Ruthi Carlton will be majorette soloists.

Musical soloists for Seminole High will be Bill Hines on the snare drum, Mike Corbin with a horn solo, Eddie Kirchhoff with the flute; Barbara Miller, Sarah Priest and Sue Toney, clarinet; and Billy Boves playing the oboe.

A woodwind quartet performing for Sanford will be made up of Eddie Kirchhoff, Sarah Priest and Margaret Jones. Bob Osborn will compete as student conductor.

The Seminole High Band will start the performance at 3 p. m., with the soloists appearing at 4 p. m. and the drill at 7:15 p. m. The Seminole group will leave for Leesburg at 8:30 a. m.

School Board Discusses Use Of Portable Schools

The county school board discussed using insulated aluminum to build portable schools Thursday.

A representative of a Miami aluminum building company showed the school board sections of structural insulated aluminum which can be used for portable schools. He agreed with School Supt. R. T. Milwee that a school to accommodate 300 children could be built of this material for about $60,000. The state has approved these structural aluminum sections for school construction.

The portable schoolrooms could be used in overcrowded areas until permanent schools were built to house rising numbers of students.

Milwee told the board that he would talk to state School Plant Board member C. W. McGuffey about using this material.

Milwee also told the board that he would look at a metal building in Bithlo being offered to the county school system by the federal government. This could be used as a shop garage.

STARKE (UPI) — Rep. Doyle Conner of Starke will hold a formal kickoff rally at Tampa Saturday in his campaign for commissioner of agriculture.

W. E. Kirchhoff Jr., campaign chairman for Conner in Seminole County asks anyone who wishes to participate in a caravan for Conner Saturday, to contact him at FA 2-2251.

At a fish-fry at his hometown Thursday, Conner said "from the consumer's point of view the most important office in the state government is the agriculture commissioner's post."

He told the 1,500 persons at the fish-fry "this job demands experience, integrity and a proven record of accomplishments—not pious do-good promises."

East Gripped By Freezing Ice, Snow

By United Press International
Ice-cold temperatures gripped the East today, hampering rescuers' effort to reach desperate families locked without food or fuel in the snow-covered mountains of North Carolina. The mercury dipped near zero in the southern Appalachians as rescue workers pushed through drifts up to 20 feet deep to help 1,500 mountaineer families snow-bound for nearly a month.

Helicopters dropped emergency fuel, food and medical packages to the stranded families, many of whom slowly starved since their food ran out last week. Weary rescue workers stubbornly pushed ahead today with the Herculean task of getting food and fuel to 1,500 mountaineer families snowbound in the southern Appalachians.

But the rescuers, many of whom have labored for days with little or no sleep, were being well rewarded.

United Press International Correspondent George Flowers, who has flown with helicopter pilots on food dropping missions, said: "It's wonderful to see the families—especially the children—run out to where the food packages fall."

The rescue operations, brought on by snow-laden storms that repeatedly belted the area, were under way today in four states—Virginia, Tennessee, North Carolina and Kentucky. Drifts in some spots measured 18 to 20 feet deep.

By late Sunday emergency food packages had been delivered to at least 200 North Carolina families, Gov. Luther H. Hodges of North Carolina flew over the stricken area to survey the situation and said the Army helicopters and "weasels" would continue working until all families had received aid.

Hodges termed the situation "well in hand."

A cold, clear day was predicted for the eastern United States, where temperatures dipped to record lows Sunday.

Cleveland—with 8 above, Columbus—with 6 above, and Pittsburgh—with 6 above, all recorded their coldest March 13 in history. Freezing temperatures continued north of a line through northern Florida, Arkansas, Colorado and Utah.

An airlift of a different sort flew a merry mission to drop several tons of corn to thousands of starving pheasants trapped by drifts in South Dakota.

Another three to six inches of snow fell over the mountain areas of western Montana and Idaho, but most other precipitation was confined to light snow and showers on the eastern slopes of the Rockies.

In Florida the morning temperature bulletin from the Lakeland Weather Bureau: Forecast for peninsula Florida for tonight and Tuesday morning: Partly cloudy and warmer. Lowest temperatures ranging from 45 to 50 north to the 30's central and near 60 in the extreme south.

Forecast for Tuesday: Considerable cloudiness and mild. Showers north and central districts.

Future temperature outlook: Mild Tuesday night. No frost danger through Wednesday.

Krider Won't Run; 36 File For Races

John Krider, County Commissioner chairman and commissioner from District 1, announced today he will not seek re-election.

Krider has served as board chairman for three years. He is Chamber of Commerce manager and formerly served on the City Commission.

Qualifying for election to local offices in the May Democratic primary ends at noon Tuesday.

Six candidates filed this morning. They were Tax Assessor Richard McCanna; Longwood Mayor Alan Lormann; District 3 Commissioner; County Judge Wilson Alexander; Ray Slaton for the School Board from District 3; Karlisle Housholder for county prosecutor and O. G. Owens for District 4 constable.

This far, 36 candidates have qualified.

School Supt. E. T. Milwee will be a candidate for re-election and qualified Friday afternoon.

Mrs. Mary Marie Walker also qualified Friday for the tax assessor race.

George Bell, candidate for the District 3 County Commission race, was not listed Friday in a report of qualifying up until that time. Bell had qualified earlier.

Krider made this statement: "For the past several months I have done a great deal of soul searching as to whether I should again seek the office of county commissioner from District 1 of Seminole County. As almost everyone knows, I have been active day and night for the past several years working to develop the potential of Sanford and Seminole County in every possible way. I have no regrets that I have served the citizens of this county as one of their commissioners, and I shall always be grateful for that opportunity.

"There is no doubt that Seminole County is in the soundest shape financially that it has ever been, and that it stands today at the threshold of even greater business and job opportunity, and industrial development than some of our more progressive citizens believed possible. This firm, present position may be attributed to the determined effort on the part of forward-looking citizens to operate our government on a business-like basis, and to equalize fairly among all citizens the county tax load.

"I realize that change always meets resistance, and that, unfortunately, even sensible people sometimes resist without reason, fighting personality instead of weighing carefully the merits of the change. I sincerely believe that we have had more progress in this county in the last four years than we have had in the entire history of the county. For this reason, it is difficult to understand why some fight so hard to resist changes that improve their governmental services and improve job opportunities when just 30 miles from us can be seen what cooperative effort has accomplished for the City of Orlando and the people of Orange County. Perhaps it is because they cannot believe that any man could be interested in doing something for his community without getting something out of it for himself.

"The progressive changes that have come about in our county and in the operation of its government are apparent. Foremost has been the adoption of a policy that has done away with expenditure on the basis of political district. The needs of the county as a whole are valued, and improvements are made wherever the need is the greatest and of benefit to the most people.

"Comprehensive zoning and plan laws are now in effect; drainage studies are being made; traffic and planning studies will develop into a realistic road program. I am sure that all citizens are acquainted with the recent announcements of the program to four-lane and improve all heavily traveled primary and secondary roads in Seminole County. A much needed new county jail is to be constructed, and a study of our county home is underway. New schools are rising all over the county.

"Plans have been made for better wages for county employees; competitive bids on the purchase of all materials are now required. A new Health Center is under construction, and an enlargement of our hospital is planned.

"The threat of losing the Sanford Naval Air Station has been met so that the residents of Seminole County with Naval authorities in Washington is now stronger than ever. The electronics industry is

McCanna Enters Assessor's Race

Tax Assessor Richard E. McCanna today qualified to run for tax assessor in the May 3 primary.

McCanna was appointed to that post in October, replacing Mrs. Mary Marie Walker.

McCanna, who lives in South Seminole County with his wife and three children, has been in the land development and real estate business for the past 10 years.

McCanna's announcement today said:

"My recent decision to seek this office comes from the fact that there is not one bit of evidence to show that the improvements made this year in the county tax structure would remain valid under some one else's control.

"The elimination or drastic modification of these improvements could severely hamper or damage the county school building program and other badly needed county improvements. This is a very critical situation and must not be taken too lightly.

"In order to better face up to these county needs, we now have a level of assessment that provides a broad tax base along with the lowest millage of any county in the state. This type of assessment insures against a top-heavy county economy whereby a few have to bear most of the burden, and at the same time allows an opportunity for everyone to share in providing the necessary improvements needed here in the county.

"The furtherance of this program has become a matter of grave concern to me, both as a public official and as a private citizen with three children in our school system functioning under a curtailed program because of a lack of necessary funds.

"I must follow through. I believe that myself and all other progressive minded persons must take direct action to eliminate these conditions and prevent a return to the state of affairs that allowed them to exist."

House Begins Civil Rights Bill Voting

WASHINGTON (UPI)—The House begins voting today on its civil rights bill with a plea from Atty. Gen. William P. Rogers to retain a provision to crack down on violators of school integration orders.

An agreement reached Saturday between "civil rights forces and Southern opponents for the House to start voting on amendments offered new hope for early action to break the deadlock in Congress. House leaders hoped they could get a bill passed by Thursday.

On the eve of the crucial House vote, Rogers made a special appeal for the proposal to authorize federal penalties for persons obstructing federal court orders to desegregate schools. A similar provision was eliminated from the Senate's measure Friday.

Rogers, in a letter to Rep. William M. McCulloch (R-Ohio), said the emphasis on voting rights "should not jolt anyone into forgetting the main goal of the federal government has a responsibility in other civil rights matters, including the duty to enforce court orders in school desegregation cases."

The attorney general said the administration proposal would enable the federal government to enforce the school orders "without mob violence and without the necessity of using federal troops."

"At the present time," he said, "when state officials fail to maintain law and order, the federal government, as a practical matter has no certain or very effective way to deal with mob violence except by the use of federal troops."

Exhausted Team Continues Hunt For Trapped Men

LOGAN, W. Va. (UPI)—Coal-mined rescue squads early today began digging three different routes in their effort to reach 10 miners sealed in a coal mine less than six days.

The exhausted crews late Sunday night inched to within 100 feet of one of two areas where mine officials believed the trapped men may have barricaded themselves from the dense smoke and deadly gas fumes spawned by smoldering fires.

The miners have not been heard from since 2:30 a. m. Tuesday when a slate fell ripped down electric cables and started a fire in the Holden No. 22 mine in southwestern West Virginia.

"I have no doubt that within 24 hours we will know what, if anything, is in that first area," said Raymond Salvati, president of the Island Creek Coal Co., early today.

Until today, rescue workers had attempted to plow through snowing only the main corridor. They began using the three approaches feeling they had a better chance to converge on the areas. The second area lies some 1,300 feet beyond the closer section.

Smoke has been one of the major obstacles crews have had to contend with. Fires that broke out some 65 feet beneath the ground surface and about two miles from the pitted belched forth clouds of choking smoke and carbon monoxide gas.

The lack of fresh air forced rescuers to retreat countless times and "fresh air bases" have been advanced by sealing off side passageways.

Hopes as to whether the imprisoned men would be alive rose and fell with every obstacle that loomed before the rescuers. Time was the most important element to be considered.

Officials had estimated that the men may have had an air supply of about 300 hours if they barricaded themselves properly. The 144-hour mark was reached at 2:30 a. m. today.

Pioneer Sun Satellite 'Working Beautifully'

WASHINGTON (UPI)—The U.S. Pioneer V sun satellite approached the half-million-mile post today on its trek through space still sending back radio signals to earth.

The 918-pound satellite Sunday set a distance record for deep space communications when its radio transmitter—the most powerful ever sent into space—was monitored from 412,000 miles out March 3, 1959. Russia's Lunik I stopped transmitting after it had traveled 385,000 miles.

The satellite's signals demonstrated the feasibility of long range space communications, a feat that will be invaluable on the day man himself first ventures into deep space.

Casselberry Man Faces Arson Count

A Casselberry resident was arrested for aggravated assault Saturday night and re-arrested Sunday on a suspicion of arson charge.

Gerard St. Onge of Lake Ellen Circle was arrested by Casselberry Marshal Gus Sawyer Saturday night.

He was charged with throwing a rock which broke the windshield of a truck driven by Bryan Couey of Orlando, Casselberry Mayor William Benson said today. St. Onge was brought to the municipal court and released pending trial Tuesday.

Deputy L. J. Kriz arrested St. Onge Sunday on suspicion of having set a fire which burned down a Casselberry Gardens building on Lake Ellen Circle Sunday. Both charges against St. Onge will now be handled by the county.

Garden Clubs Set To Sponsor Tour

The public is invited to make the upcoming tour of Central Florida homes and gardens sponsored by the Seventh District of the Florida Federation of Garden Clubs March 22, 23, 24.

Three Sanford homes, those of Dr. and Mrs. A. W. Epps Jr., Mrs. and Mrs. A. L. Harris and Mr. and Mrs. Harry E. Tooke, will be included on the tour of 22 homes and gardens in Orlando, Winter Park, Maitland, Winter Garden, Clermont and Mt. Dora.

Sanford residents are especially invited to make a tour March 22 of 10 homes in the Orlando-Winter Park area. Reservations will be made by the Civic Center at 9:30 a. m. Reservations must be made by March 18 and persons making the trip are asked to bring their own lunch, she said.

Casselberry Town Council To Meet

Discussion of county condemnation of 15 Casselberry septic tanks is expected to come up at the Casselberry Town Council meeting tonight.

The council must order the tanks improved. Town Mayor William Benson said today.

County health officers have said they would condemn the tanks. A recently passed Casselberry ordinance says defective septic and sewer systems in the town must be fixed within 90 days from the time an order to improve them is given system owners.

The 7:30 p. m. meeting will be in the Casselberry Town Hall.

School Is Hit By Vandalism

Vandalism struck Lake Mary Elementary School during the weekend.

Three windows were broken, a can of paint turned over and a concrete block divider knocked down in the school the sheriff's office reported today. Deputy James Moore is investigating the vandalism.

Rare Lamp Reported Stolen

Theft of a rare lamp containing about 1,000 marbles was reported to Sanford police Saturday.

Herman Morris of the Osteen M-Q Ranch said someone had broken into his house in 1288 Locust Ave. and stolen a ladder and the lamp.

Finch Trial Jury Torn By 'Violence'

LOS ANGELES (UPI)—Prejudice, violence and obstinacy caused the Finch-Tregoff murder jury to become so hopelessly deadlocked that today the accused faces a second trial.

A "as them or free them" stand by two jurors prevented efforts of the 10 other panelists to free Carole Tregoff, 21, and convict Dr. R. Bernard Finch, 42, of the murder of his wife, said one of the jurors, Mrs. Genevieve Lang.

Superior Judge Walter R. Evans declared the three-month hearing a mistrial Saturday when the jury of five men and seven women announced it was deadlocked after eight days of deliberations.

Evans scheduled Thursday as the day for a new trial to be set for the handsome physician and his red-haired mistress for the July 18 gunshot slaying of Mrs. Barbara Jean Finch, 33. Both remained in jail.

Mrs. Lang said the outwardly compatible, smiling appearance of the 12 jurors during their recesses was far from the real state of affairs among them.

"At the height of one heated debate, a male juror threatened to throw another out a window and turned over the jury table—he used to be a boxer—before she ran to the door," said Mrs. Lang.

"She was hysterical and pounded on the door for the bailiff."

The threatened woman was reported to have said she would seek protection from the district attorney because she was afraid of the male juror.

Another juror said one of the male panelists passed at least three prepositioning notes to women on the panel. She said an extra bailiff was brought to the hotel where the jury stayed to guard the women's hotel door after she received the notes.

"We could have voted Carole free at any time," said Mrs. Lang. "But we were trying to get these other two—they refused to listen to the law, conditions and degrees—to go along on Finch."

"If they would have voted with us, we would have sailed for second degree on Finch and freed Carole. We never voted on second degree, though, we just voted on guilty."

Jury Louis Worek identified the two jurors who refused to vote for conviction as Mrs. Dolores Jackson, a postal clerk, and Eddie L. Lindsey, a postal employee and the only Negro on the panel. Both declined comment.

Galloway To Run For Sheriff's Job

Constable J. Q. Galloway said today that he is running for sheriff on the basis of his past eight year experience in law enforcement.

The District 4 constable said that he feels his work as a criminal investigation officer qualifies him to serve as sheriff.

Galloway is a member of the P.B.I. training school.

Born in Albertville, Ala., the 46-year-old constable has lived in Sanford for the past 25 years. He is a member of the Central Baptist Church, president of the Sanford Club, member of the Sanford Elks Lodge, the American Legion, the 40 and 8 and the Seminole County Sportsmen's Association. Galloway was in the infantry in World War II.

Galloway is married and has two children, James Hoyt Galloway, 20, of Lake Mary; and Mrs. Bobbie Jean Reeves, 27, of Sanford.

Three Injured In 2-Car Mishap

Three Orlando residents received minor injuries in a two-car collision late Saturday night on SR 40.

All three were treated for cuts and bruises and released from the Florida Sanitarium shortly after the accident, according to the Florida Highway Patrol.

The three were Judith Pirchow, Maria Hamill and Vertis Hayscock, all passengers in a car driven by Geneva V. Hancock.

The Highway Patrol reported that the Hancock car ran into a car operated by George Titts, also of Orlando.

Hancock was charged with failure to have his vehicle under control. Damage to the two cars amounted to $25, the Highway Patrol reported.

NAS To Aid Needy

The Sanford Naval Air Station is now a channel for relief of the several thousand children orphaned by the recent Agadir Morocco earthquake.

A home for 1,000 of the orphans is being created in Morocco under the patronage of six year old Princess Lalla Amina. Two thousand single sheets, 5,000 jeans and girls shorts, 5,000 tee shirts, 2,000 sandals and under clothes are needed for the orphans.

NAS Chaplain William Hearn is the orphan supply coordinator for the Sanford base and persons who want to contribute any of these clothing articles may contact Chaplain Hearn at FA 2-1230, ext. 383, or may leave the items at the NAS main entrance. The children are from two to 14 years old.
