Even back in the 1920s, when radio was in its infancy, a president could command an audiance far greater than was present in Gettysburg on November 19, 1863, to head Abraham Lincoln.

Today, even in an unscheduled, spur-of-thenoment appearance on television, a president can be heard and be seen by more Americans than were alive in Lincoln's time. But no president before or after Lincoln ever created or uttered such a jewel as his Gettysburg Address, nor has any American document been read, repeated, memorized and loved by so many people around the world.

There are at least two legends about this famous address. The most familiar is the one which holds that Lincoln's words were poorly received and that he left the battlefield with the conviction that he had failed.

To be sure, there were caustic comments in few newspapers, typical of that partisan day, But at least one Chicago paper stated prophetically that "The dedicatory remarks of President Lincoln will live among the annals of

By REV. LEROY D. SOPER Holy Cross Episcopal Church

Next Wednesday is Ash Wednesday, the beginning of Lent. Imost everyone knows about Lent, whether or not their church momination marks it officially. It seems to me that keeping his sort of penitential season leading up to Good Friday and Easter is an exercise which can be profitable to anyone, even if it is just a private spiritual practice. What it amounts to is about six weeks of examination, worship, reading, and private prayer during which we consider the joy of Christmas, the sorrow of our rejection of the Son of God made man for us, the as af communion with God which is Good Friday, and, finally, e absolute giory of the triumph of Christ on Easter.

Usually we regard Lent as a time for spiritual discipline. erhaps the word "discipline" throws as off. Nowadays it seems nore popular to "do your own thing" regardless of what that night be. Yet, as we have said before, discipline is the frameork upon which the stuff of life is formed, and spiritual disline is necessary if one is to come close to knowing God.

Most of us probably think that we know God fairly well. Or east we know about God. Yet, even as we acknowledge the existence of God, we often have to admit that our idea of Him is more or less along the lines of a kind of divine clock-maker who wound up this creation of His and then set it spinning off into the universe. Too many of us are not aware of His coptinuing action in and on the world. Too many of us are ignorant of His love. Too many of us have either severed our connections with God (if such a thing is possible) or at least dulled ourselves to the point where He is meaningless in our ordinary day-to-day living.

So it is that Lent comes along once a year and calls us back to an awareness of how much Jesus does for us and just how active the Holy Spirit of God can be in our lives if we will but open ourselves up a little bit. Lent, with the spiritual di cipline involved, can wake us up and make us newly sware of God's loving presence.

Just what is involved in this Lenten discipline? At the very least it ought to break down into these few segments.

First of all, get back into the habit of praying regularly. If that sounds silly, forgive me. On examination, we have to admit that an awful lot of our praying is done at moments of crisis and very little is done at momenta either of joy or just HOLY CROSS EPISCOPAL new Fellowship Hall and Ed. ### Grim Bangladesh

As the leadership of Bangladesh struggles for survival, it is not possible to look at this unfortunate and newest product of violence without greatly mixed emotions.

From the standpoint of humanity, the war over former East Pakistan is a tragedy. The needless brutality, the wasting of as many as 8 million lives and the exhibitions of animal behavior represent a level of barbarism that will be embedded in history - and reflected in the affairs of Pakistan, India and Bangladesh for years if not centuries to come.

What tenuous stability Bangladesh does have for the moment centers around its principal leader, Mujibur Rahman, who enjoys unprecedented popular appeal, but this is illusory.

Even as Mujibur consolidates his power and seeks economic aid from the world, the chinks in his facade are beginning to appear.

The presence of the Indian occupation army is, in the long run, not a stabilizing influence. Additionally, the militant Mukti Bahini guerrillas, who really were an insignificant factor in India's conquest of East Pakistan, already are booming an idealistic Bengal nation that would include the tens of millions of Bengals in India itself and an extension of Bangladesh's borders to the "natural limits of Burma," and north of Tibet.

All of this turbulence cannot be limited to the subcontinent since India and Pakistan are such critically strategic land areas, particularly in the Soviet-Red Chinese confrontation.

The infant Bangladesh will inevitably land in the Jap of the United Nations which needs more problems like the sun needs more heat.

Quite often seemingly insoluble problems can be ignored until they fade, or displaced until they are ignored. The U.N. will likely find that neither will be the case with Bangladesh

NOTICE TO THE WOMEN: I have been asked to announce at for the second round of the Kader Tournament, your partwill be the one that was scheduled for the second round. This is contrary to your belief that you should play with your third round partner. Now, if you're completely confused, try writing this!

Mother Nature curtailed jast Wednesday's play for the lad Last Saturday, the Men's Golf Association sponsored an individual points tourney. Awards were given out that same evening at a spaghetti suppor

The first place winner comes as no real surprise as my good friend and partner in crime, Fletcher Cockrell, gathered together four birdies and finished with a plus 10 to capture top honors

Taking second place was Otto Caldwell, who completed his round at plus three. Three men tied for third place at plus two. They were Dave McCoy, association treasurer Ralph Pezold and our fine secretary, Henry Tamm, Fourth spot ended in a two-way tie at plus one between Fred Koenig and Bud Richards. This Sunday, the ladies' association are the sponsors of the monthly mixed tournament, which will end with a supper that

Rolling Hills

As usual, the weekend was full of competitive golf as the men played a two-ball, best-ball event last Saturday and, on Sunday, a mixed two-ball best-ball tourney was played . On Sturday, Chuck Lytle and Terry Williamson turned in the best low gross score of 66, which is six under par, and walked off with the low gross prize. Chuck Letle probably could have won it all by himself. His own card showed a 34-35, 67, which is nothing short of fantastic, to say the least! This was Chuck's best round ever, Congratulations, Chuck!!!!

In the low net category, Jerry Varni and Henry Tucker made the best showing in turning in a 62 for first place money. Frank Eaton Sr. and Herm Homzie shared second place with Fred Harvey and Jim Reynolds, Both teams finished at 64 All alone at third place were Fred Tannler and Harvey Tucker, who posted a 65

In Sunday's mixed two-ball, best-ball, Fred and Toots Mitchell, who are the regular winners in this event, had to share first place money with Ron and Bertie Masten, as both teams turned in identical scores of 75.

First low net finished in a deadlock for first place between Larry and Barbara Prives. Conn and Jean Hilchuk. They both recorded 63. Second spot was also filled, with three teams that ended at 64. They were Joe and Sally Cusick; John Leakus and Mel Heffernan; and "Hutch" and Joan Hutchinson. Joan is publicity chairman at Rolling Hills and has done an excellent job in giving me all the news.

There was no sharing third place, as Fred Darlan and June Dressel were alone at 65.

sides Chuck Lotle's super round members that had the chance to toot their horns recently by recording best ever scores. Doug Ballentine fired a 42-40, 82; Ray Woodard had a 38-35, 78; Frizt Cook turned in her best ever of 44-43, 87; and Jim Stockman also had his best round of 40-44. 84. A hearty congratulations to you all, and I hope all of you do even better next time out.

In their regular Thursday play day, the women played a low gross, low net tournament as well as the first round of a 72 hole annual event called the President's Cup Tournament,

In the play day competition, Barbara Brower shot a fine M to win first low gross in championship flight. Second place was won by June Dressell, who won in a match of cards over Lee Scowcroft, Both ladies finished with 86. Tools Mitchell captured low net honors with a 71, while Lee Scowcroft took second place. In "A" flight, it was Helen Bliss who took first place in low gross with 91. The number two shot went to Babe Lenz, who won in a match of cards over Edith Galley and Doris Burtner. Doris, however, did win first prize in the net division with a 73. Second place went to Joan Hutchinson. Joan posted a 75.

In "B" flight, Gioria Coleman was the victor in low gross at 104, while Lucy Weinman took second with 106. First and second places in the low net category was decided in a match of cards, with Esther William, coming out on top over Clara Heunisch. Both posted 80.

Velma Jenkins won low gross in "C" flight with a 112, but only after a match of cards over Charlotte Cressman, who was awarded second spot.

In low net, it was Eloise Guest coming out the winner with a 79 which was only one stroke better than second place finisher, Mary Grove.

After the first round of the President's Cup Tournament, we find three ladies in a tie for first place at 71. The leaders are Toots Mitchell, Barbary Brewer and Babe Lenz. One shot back, at 72, is Melen Bliss, while still mother artoke back we find Doris Bortner at 73.

When does a baby start to think?

Nobody knows, but thoughts come by association. Baby eagerly responds to the sight of a bottle. Experience proves that the bottle offers both satisfaction and comfort.

HORIZONS

Because baby does learn by association, it is important that parents expand their children's horizons. A very small child will respond to a simple prayer. And a child of three will enjoy attending Church School geared for youngsters of that age.

Religious instruction and guidance is not only for the mature - it is needed regularly by everyone. The spiritual life of your child needs constant cultivation and the mind needs day by day development.

HE CLOCE By JOHN A. SPOLSKI

You'd think it was Valentine's Day everyday . . . what with all of the politicians "findingtheir-way" to Seminole County . . . wanting us to be their Valentine (and maybe cast vote on their behalf, too?) Yesterday

Humphrey; tonight we'll have Senator Gurney; tomorrow, Congressman Lou Frey will visit with us here at The Herald. ...

Prediction: within the next couple of days you'll see an impressive voter poll released which will have Wallace at the top (with about 35 per cent) and right behind . . . . Humphrey! Which leads one to wonder about those "other polls" which supposedly have Senator Muskie way ahead of the pack. As stated publicly on many prior occasions regarding polls. I don't believe in any of 'em. Depends on who is paying for the survey . . . . with those usually coming out smelling like a rose.

There's a lot of green being spent in this election . . . last week, I've been told, Mayor Lindsay went down to Miami-Dade South and hired 100 of the students at a hundred bucks a week, plus expenses, plus a CAT .....

If it's only until the March 14th primary, that's over $10,-

Don't know how I got this one slipped onto my typewriter . . . . but . . . . it says that Muskie will be here 25-26-27. Tisse days? Here in Lil Ole Seminole? (Somebody's gotta be puttin me on . . . . .)

A pat-on-the-back to the students at Seminole High. They solved the problem without too much adult supervision. (Read Principal Jack Redding's letter on the matter.)

However, it's also something which they created, right? If there is a reoccurance, the parents should be responsible for the actions of their offspring. Nobody . . . . the kids nor the adults should ever be exempted from following the rules of the game, in this case, the game is called "growing up."

Circuit Judge Dominick Salfi will make a personal presentation tomorrow at 8:30 a.m. in Tallahassee before the Judicial Committee on his "death bill" for dope pushers. Will probably generate nat-tionwide publicity before this one is all through . . . .

... Had a call from the Sanford Fire Department . . , they said they collected $2,964.35 for the telethon conducted by WDBO-TV Saturday and Sunday for the Muscular Dystrophy

Tallahassee saying that they were aware of our efforts to better publicize the law which requires motorists to have their headlights on whenever the windshield wipers are turned on , especially so for the many out-of-staters coming into town

The SAA official said on had compassion for the CAP and feels badly about the situation, since the organization does good work in locating lost pilots, He stressed he was not trying to place a hardship on the CAP but "it's just not working out."

It costs money for electricity, Yaeger said, and pointed out that the whole third floor was lighted one night when he returned to do some office work. Yaeger said no real harm had been done thus far, but "we just can't have people we don't know going all over the building." The SAA director said he and Tiseran discussed giving the CAP 60 days in which to find a new home.
