

Fowl Is Studied For Foul Play

WASHINGTON (AP) — Could crows, jays, hawks and other birds be trained to detect and report on dangerous, explosive or "boring" facets of war as aerial photography, gunnery, steering of missiles, detection of mines and search and electronic missions?

The Pentagon has signed a $500,000 contract with the University of Mississippi to find out. According to the three-year contract with the university, this program is based on the supposition that birds will eventually replace humans for activities that are dangerous, difficult, expensive or boring.

Priority attempts to draft birds and hawks creatures for war haven't worked out. One named Project X-Ray, envisioned birds with a camera device strapped to their backs flying into Japan during World War II.

Deltona Lions Set Bazaar

By MELIHED HANEY
A Christmas bazaar promises fun and bargains on Friday, Oct. 17, when the Lions Club of Deltona will sponsor the event in the Deltona Shopping Plaza. The site was chosen by a generous collection of gifts of selected items received from the Deltona Friends of Ford's extensive collection of articles originally designed for that now defunct institution which was located in Arcadia. The Lions have supplemented this collection with their own contributions.

There will be tables for baked goods, featuring a number of gourmet items, hand-made dolls and stuffed animals, and jewelry and the traditional "white elephants."

Chairman of the event, Fred Kevisher, will be assisted by Harry Bowen, Sam Gasten, Carl Johnston, Floyd Gaudy, Charles Jaeger, Elias Riffes and Frank York.

The bazaar will continue through the day until all the items are sold.

Four Leases Approved For Airport Buildings

Four leases with upwards of $18,000 in fees and employment for approximately 100 persons were approved by the Sanford Industrial Commission during yesterday's one-hour meeting.

Don Rathel, commission director, said a military fuse manufacturer wants a lease on the old Navy intelligence building to renovate into a plant employing 50 people.

The St. Louis firm also desires leases on three former Navy ammunition bunkers to use in storing the fuses.

Because the building needs inside repairs, the SIC voted to deviate from regular rental fees and lease the building for three years at 30 cents per square foot first year, 75 cents second year and $1 third year.

Rathel said the firm also wants an additional 30 acres for a future building site but no action on the land was taken yesterday.

Latest from the CAP at the airport... search now directed towards Vero Beach with their own "sub-mission"; but will expand one big last effort in the area between Sanford and DeLand.

County Seat Hearing Up Again

By BILL SCOTT
A reply to a petition for a rehearing of the Florida Supreme Court's decision declaring Sanford the county seat of Seminole County and upholding the validation of $3.2 million in war house construction bonds was filed today by Harold F. Johnson and W. C. Hutchison Jr., attorneys representing the county.

The reply to the petition to rehear the court's decision comes just one week after Orlando attorney Harlan Tuck, representing several South Seminole plaintiffs, filed his petition in the State Supreme Court at Tallahassee requesting a rehearing of the decision allowing the county to proceed with plans to construct the long needed court house after bonds are sold.

In a Sept. 24 announcement, upheld Sanford as the county seat and upheld the bond validation but Tuck appealed the decision a week later upon themselves to construe this provision by stating that it prohibits the type of financing approved by this court under the Constitution of 1958 without freeholder approval. It is submitted that the language contained in Article VII, section 12 of the Constitution of 1958 is not subject to a different view.

Parents Protest Policies

Another confrontation between protesting parents and the school administration over assignment of students and approval of a redistricting resolution adopting new county boundaries for election of School Board members highlighted last night's board meeting.

Two parent groups from Lake Mary and West Side Schools were vocal over the moving of students.

Joseph Hart, describing himself as a concerned parent, complained that students attending Pine Crest last year were forced to attend Lake Mary this year against their will and now that they have adjusted, they are going to be uprooted again to be returned to a portable classroom at Pine Crest.

"I can't see why the portable can't be installed at Lake Mary to handle the overflow of students and keep these students at Lake Mary," he said.

A West Side group opposed the closing out of a second grade class and its removal to Pine Crest.

The new school board resident voters "check out" the county 33 precincts in the 1970 redistricting.

Mr. Jean Bryant's District 1, precincts 3, 6, 7, 15, 22, 27, 28, with 5,713 registered voters.

Ray Slaton's District 2, precincts 1, 2, 9, 10, 20, 21, 29, 30, with 5,723 registered voters.

Pat Bue's District 3, precincts 4, 11, 12, 18 and 23, with 5,659 registered voters.

John Evans District 4, precincts 5, 8, 17, 23 and 31, with 5,725 registered voters.

Alan Keeth's District 5, precincts 13, 14, 18, 19, 24, 26, 32 and 33, with 6,009 registered voters.

Special meeting, Jacques said, "I would refrain from voting since I was not notified. This would be a good time for this council to adopt a motion requiring meeting notice for a meeting."

A motion was made and approved that the city attorney draw a resolution that the council be given a 24-hour notice by certified mail of special meeting.

Small Parts

By REV. FRED B. CHANCE
First Baptist Church

The story is told of an aging actor who saw, to his surprise, a notice of his death in a daily paper. He pondered the error, then began, happily, to paste the last line of the obituary into his scrapbook. It read: "He was never a great actor, but he was invaluable in small parts."

What a lesson! Most of us are evidently not destined to be great in whatever area our abilities lie. Many of us would rather be in the area of the average. Wouldn't it be wonderful if more of us could realize this before our obituary is written? Then we could so order our lives with this thought in mind.

There are many small important parts to play in many situations in life. It may be in the family circle. Sometimes one small part, apparently insignificant, can make all the difference in the world in our church, a club, a class, a committee, or any other grouping.

This principle is illustrated vividly in the experience of an orchestra rehearsal. At one particular rehearsal, the man who played the piccolo stayed his fingers for a moment, thinking that his trifling contribution would be missed. At once the conductor raised his hand, and said, "Stop! Where's the piccolo?" He missed the individual note.

Sensitive, dedicated leaders of groups of which we are a part can certainly detect when we are not performing. It is the true of human relationships, it is infinitely so concerning God. Our Lord needs the note of each life to make the music of His Kingdom, and if the note be absent He will miss it, and the glorious music will be broken and incomplete.

Christianity Falls Behind

By GEORGE W. CORNELL
AP Religion Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — In external dimensions, Christianity is falling behind, American church membership is sagging, attendance has slipped. Other signs of declining church influence have appeared, not only in this country but also abroad.

As many religious scholars see it, believers may become an ever-smaller minority in the world.

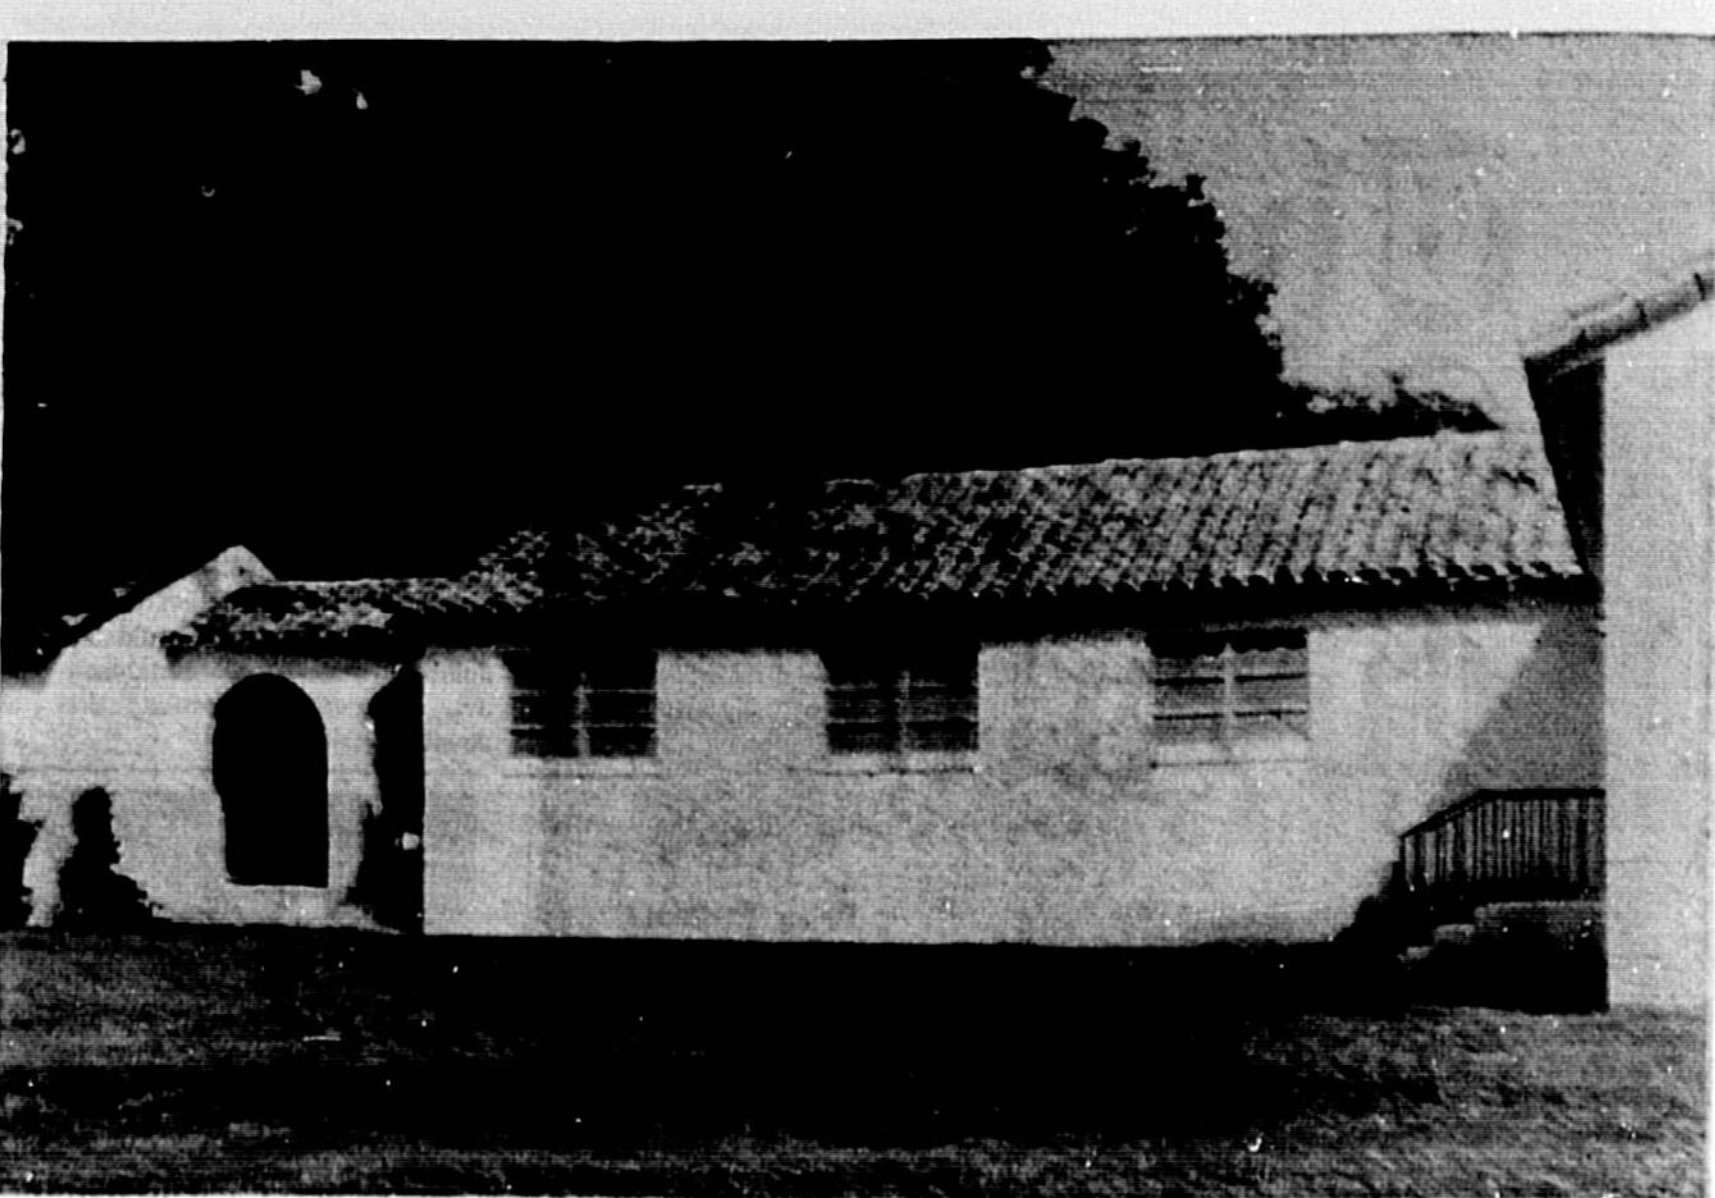

"The era of Christendom is over," says the Rev. Dr. Eugene Carson Blake, general secretary of the World Council of Churches. "We are in a secularizing age, and the idea of the church dominating culture or dominating government has gone. This is complete."

However, a new image of a "servant church"—that works simply for the causes of men's good rather than exerting power over them—is emerging among many Christian thinkers as the vision of the church in times ahead.

In their view, it may be a "church in diaspora"—a scattered minority in society. The description initially was used by German Catholic theologian Karl Rahner, and has since

Tired Of Burglars Hitting Plant

LAKE PARK, Fla. (AP) — Tired of having his business shot up, its windows smashed and equipment stolen, Roland de Marcellis is taking protection into his own hands and turning his isolated plant into an armed camp.

De Marcellis said he has been robbed so many times that he has lost count but he estimated that the building at the end of Water Tower Road has been robbed or vandalized 24 times in the past 20 months.

In addition to putting up a barbed wire fence at a cost of $1,200, de Marcellis said he would patrol the plant, armed with a rifle and an automatic pistol.

He said he realized the location made it difficult for police to arrest anyone, since a suspect could easily escape into the surrounding brush.

De Marcellis said a "police car only patrols the area" once every shift or every eight hours. "Apparently no one has been caught, he said, since he has not been asked to press charges or give a statement about incidents at the plant where he makes stabilizing bars for cars.

The situation has been getting worse and something had to be done, de Marcellis said. He said he would be happy to pay extra taxes for more city protection and has been considering organizing businesses in the area to hire a private guard.

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. (AP) — Gov. Claude Kirk welcomes subpoena issued by a legislative committee to get at secret records of his Governor's Club as a battleground to test separation of powers, legal aide Gerald Mager said Thursday.

"If this committee could investigate the Governor's Club today, it could investigate anything tomorrow," Mager said. "It could investigate the Red Cross, the Boy Scouts."

The Legislative Transportation Committee subpoenaed four Kirk staffers earlier this week in an attempt to obtain records under discretion of the Transportation Department.

He said the Transportation Committee is not the proper forum for determining if the executive branch is properly discharging its discretionary functions.

"All of these are questions that should be resolved by a court," he said.

Citrus Estimations Awaited By Growers

LAUREL, Fla. (AP) — Hundreds of citrus growers were expected at Florida Citrus Mutual headquarters today to await the answer to the question of the hour: Would this season's first crop estimate predict a new record?

Some industry sources said the estimate that would be released by the U.S. Department of Agriculture in Washington would be based on the survey of 10 million boxes of surplus oranges, depending on the size of the crop.

However, the subsidy depends on the outcome of a suit challenging the constitutionality of the Orange Stabilization Act, that allows the state to buy excess oranges.

Ambassador Renews Pledge Of American Assistance In War

U. S. Hands Over 80 River Patrol Boats To Viet Navy

By GEORGE ESPER Associated Press Writer SAIGON (AP) — Acting Ambassador Samuel D. Berger today renewed the U.S. pledge to assist the South Vietnamese government to wage the war on its own.

Speaking at the transfer of 80 U.S. river patrol boats to the Vietnamese navy, Berger said much progress has been made toward the American goal recently stated by President Nixon.

— "The opportunity for the South Vietnamese people to determine their own political future without outside interference."

"A larger, stronger and effective Vietnamese navy is being built week by week and month by month," Berger continued. "Your success in improving the ability of your sailors to fight, and your craftsmen to build, is a tribute to your leaders. We shall continue to assist you in your great task."

Berger said the transfer gives the South Vietnamese navy responsibility for nearly half the river patrolling in the Allied war effort.

A U.S. spokesman said the Navy now has turned over 230 river craft to the Vietnamese since June 1968, and the remaining 321 are to be transferred in the next nine months.

The U.S. Air Force also announced that another South Vietnamese helicopter squadron has become fully operational with jet-powered helicopters. It is the fourth such squadron to join the war, and its pilots received their basic training in the United States.

The war, meanwhile, continued in the general lull that has persisted for more than a month.

U.S. troops fought only small clashes, and casualties on both sides were light.

FACE OF WAR changes little over the years. In a silhouetted scene reminiscent of Doughboys going over the top in World War I, men of the Army's 101st Airborne Division move out in Vietnam's Ashau Valley.

War Moratorium Support Snowballing

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS Public officials are joining the snowballing support for the Wednesday moratorium on work and studies to seek peace in Vietnam. Demonstrations are expected in every state.

Governors, congressmen and senators, city councilmen and mayors, state legislators and former government officials will join businessmen, teachers and most of all students in what organizers say will be the largest series of nationwide antiwar protests ever held.

War critics in Congress say they have enough support to keep the House of Representatives in all-night session Tuesday to support Moratorium Day, with the American flag flying over a lighted Capitol dome as a symbolic backing for the protests.

Seventeen senators and 40 congressmen pledged to support the moratorium as long as it is peaceful, lawful and nonviolent.

Rep. Benjamin S. Rosenblatt, D-N.Y., said speakers had been lined up for an all-night session and predicted, "I think this is going to be the largest citizen participation of its kind in the history of this country."

President Nixon said last week the moratorium would not affect his plans. Vice President Spiro T. Agnew said Thursday, "Certainly citizens have a right to protest this war. But they have picked the wrong target."

Agnew told a Republican fundraising dinner in Dallas, Tex., that the moratorium is

New Review On War Slated By President

By FRANK CORMIER Associated Press Writer WASHINGTON (AP) — President Nixon has ordered his two chief peace negotiators back from Paris for consultations on the eve of next Wednesday's nationwide anti-Vietnam war demonstrations.

Nixon is endorsing on a new review of Vietnam policy with a meeting Monday or Tuesday with Ambassador Henry Cabot Lodge and his deputy in Paris, Philip Dean.

The President also has scheduled a Saturday talk with Secretary of Defense Melvin R. Laird, Gen. Earle G. Wheeler, chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff, who returned recently from an inspection tour of the war zone and the rest of the joint chiefs.

New War Tactics

By FRED S. HOFFMAN Associated Press Writer WASHINGTON (AP) — U.S. officials expect new formal instructions given American commanders in Vietnam will result in much less chasing of enemy troops.

Secretary of Defense Melvin R. Laird said Thursday U.S. commanders have been told to leave U.S. commanders free to strike out at enemy forces that threaten their troops. And the orders do not tell American commanders to avoid contact with the enemy, nor to fire only if fired on.

But, the officials said, the practical effect should mean less pursuit of the enemy.

Instead, U.S. field commanders will be expected to devote much of their effort to shaping up the South Vietnamese forces to follow new tactics of "protective reaction" and to emphasize Vietnamization of the war.

Laird's news conference Thursday was part of a Nixon administration campaign to sell the American people on its Vietnam approach. At the same time, the administration is trying to counter rising pressures in Congress and on campus for faster withdrawal from Vietnam.

Mayor Hits 'Sunshine' Law

Further into the meeting the mayor became angry and lost his temper toward a Longwood citizen, who was objecting to spot zoning. Mayor Brown was rapped out-of-order repeatedly by the chairman but to no avail, provoking the chairman to say, "You act childish and let your temper flare up, and if I was in no better mood, I'd go home."

James Gamble appeared before the Council and asked that the rezoning on his property be the same as surrounding property. He said he wants no favors, just equal treatment. His request was tabled until a special meeting set for Oct. 30, when the rezoning of property on SR 434 to B-1 will again be presented.

Bids were to be submitted for a new 250,000-gallon water tank so a comparison figure could be compared with the used one being considered for purchase. Supt. Ralph Fisher emphasized the need for this storage tank, stating, "If we experience a dry spell the town could run out of water."

Business of paving Lake and Oleander Avenues was to be advertised in Monday's paper; Council also authorized bids

Haynsworth Battle Shifts To Senate

By H. L. SCHWARTZ III Associated Press Writer WASHINGTON (AP) — The battle over Clement F. Haynsworth's nomination to the Supreme Court shifted today from committee chambers to the Senate floor, probably not for two weeks.

After the American Bar Association leadership decided Thursday to meet sometime in the next few days to review its position on Haynsworth, the 4th U.S. Court of Appeals in Richmond, Va.

A survey by the Associated Press, combined with positions obtained from Senate sources, showed at least 46 votes against the nomination, 33 for it and 21 undecided.

It was clear, however, the situation could change dramatically for a number of reasons before the nomination comes to the floor, probably not for two weeks.

One, the American Bar Association leadership decided Thursday to meet sometime in the next few days to review its position on Haynsworth, the 4th U.S. Court of Appeals in Richmond, Va.

The ABA endorsed the nomination last month during Senate hearings. A change in position could have significant impact.

Agent Tells Of Graft In Vietnam

By LAWRENCE L. KNUTSON Associated Press Writer WASHINGTON (AP) — A Manila-like syndicate of sergeants and privates in Vietnam demanded graft as well as money in kickbacks for booking entertainers, buying food and liquor for the Army night clubs they ran for troops in Vietnam, senators have been told.

A curious case of a Senate subcommittee Thursday virtually all custodians of Army club systems in Vietnam demanded a percentage from those selling supplies to the clubs.

In a war where most soldiers count the days until they can go home, these sergeants—confident of making at least $100,000 a year in graft—extended their year in graft as long as possible, she said.

The witness, June I. Skewes, 34, of Sydney, Australia, her long, ash-blond hair tied back with a tangerine-colored ribbon, told the Senate's rackets subcommittee she was blacklisted and squeezed out of business after word leaked she had commingled with military authorities.

The sergeants who ran the clubs, which do hundreds of millions of dollars in business a year, were "for sale to the highest bidder," said Miss Skewes, who is known professionally as June Collins.

She said the bids came in the form of rolls of American money, villas in Saigon, liquor, long and expensive trips, free entertainment and women.

"In my experience in Vietnam, going back to 1967, I do not know of a single (Army) club custodian who does not receive kickbacks," Miss Skewes said.

"It's also as filthy a racket as I've ever heard of," she told a hearing room in which all seats were filled and spectators stood in every vacant space. "The profits come from the pockets of American GIs," she said.

It becomes obvious that those who are sacrificing and dying are paying a very deep penalty," said Sen. Abraham Ribicoff, D-Conn. "For general-ty this dirty little war seems to be conducted in an atmosphere of corruption."

Four Leases Approved For Airport Buildings

The firm is moving its entire Volusia operations to the airport, Rathel advised.

Albortus Boat Company, leasing 6,500 square feet of Building 42 for $150 monthly to use for storage and making of boat molds, employing five men, will now receive two cents per gallon for every gallon of fuel sold by the fixed base operator.

In exchange for this right, the SIC approved a request allowing Shell Oil Company to install two underground fuel tanks near the terminal building.

J. S. (Red) Cleveland, airport manager, said two electrical firms are studying requirements for repairing runway lights at the base and would make a proposal. This would increase air traffic, he said.

Dear Abby:

DEAR ABBY: My first husband died when I was 17. I have two daughters, ages 2 and 6. I stayed single for six years. While I worked, as naturally the girls are spoiled rotten. My problem: About a year ago I married a wonderful man who had never been married before. Abby, he couldn't be nicer to me and the girls, but they treat him shamefully. They say, "We don't have to listen to you—you aren't our REAL father." They can be sweet as pie to him when they want something, but after they get it, they go back to their hateful ways.

He has tried so hard to make them like him. I love this man, Abby, and I hate to see him hurt. What can I do? NEEDS HELP: My husband is a wonderful man who has never been married before. Jacoby On Bridge

"The Dallas Aces" picked up 500 points, or 11 IMPs, by taking a 20-point match on the 16th hand of the match. The bidding by Bob Hamman and Mike Lawrence shows why this young team was able to crush the older New York experts, who managed to get to game only.

Hamman's overbid response with the North card is correct. In modern American bidding, you do not go to the second level in a new suit without at least 10 points in high cards or a very unusual hand. The need to say, Bob was happily surprised when Mike rebid in clubs. His hand moved away up through the bidding. The slam wasn't an absolute slam. Mike won the spade trump and the lead and set clubs as the suit to play. This is not a slam. A jump to three diamonds would have been a force.

Not that these bids are the exclusive property of "The Dallas Aces." Most modern bid-der use them in some form or another. Since the four-diamond bid established clubs as the suit to play in Mike's four-heart call merely said, "I am interested in the slam and have the ace of hearts." This bid showed the ace of spades and said nothing about a residuable spade suit.

We The Women:

We are not here to praise the newspaper carrier. He already has a time set aside to honor him. What we want to do is recognize his mother. She's the one in the station wagon wearing pajamas under her raincoat. Although I am usually antipathetic days, I think perhaps we should observe a National Newspaper Boys' Mothers' Day. But, to be honored, she can't just wave proudly from the station wagon. She must take his papers around at least once.

At one time I had two sons carrying papers and only one did I deliver their notes. Both were going to call in substitute for I announced cheerfully, "For heaven's sake, don't worry. I'll take the papers for you!" When I got home, I was ready to write a book and call it, "Was a Carrier's Mother, or How Do They Remember This Stuff?"

I had encouraged them to take the routes because I knew all about newspapers. After all, at the time I was a reporter for my favorite paper, wasn't I? Also, I personally knew several successful men who had started out as newspaper boys. They were quick to point out how a boy learns to manage his time and handle money and be responsible.

In my mind's eye, I always saw a newsboy sailing down the street in his uniform, and slapping papers onto front porches. This is a myth. At least, it wasn't true on the route my son carried. My Kearny, for example, must have her paper put securely in a certain place on the porch. Because she is a "crotchety old lady" no because, after her last operation, she is unable to bend over and pick it up off the floor. Mr. Sponder's paper must be inside the screen door, even

 STANLEY F. BUCKWOLD, Defendant.
 Case No. 1969-10000
 The undersigned, Plaintiff, hereby certifies that the following is a true and correct copy of the complaint filed in the Circuit Court for Hemlock County, Alaska, on October 10, 1969, at Anchorage, Alaska, and that the same is being filed for the purpose of giving notice to the Defendant of the filing of said complaint.

Polly's Pointers

DEAR POLLY: - Someone please come to my rescue and tell me how to keep these from molding. I have tried wrapping it in waxed paper, foil and so on. I have put it away in a cloth wrung out with vinegar, left it in the original wrapper and still it molds. -VIVIAN

DEAR POLLY: - In answer to Vivian's letter about washing her four-backed slipcovers, I want to tell her that I decided to take a chance with mine. I washed them in the automatic washer on delicate setting with a warm wash and cool rinse as I do wash-and-vent things. Run the machine for four to six minutes. Spin dry, shake out and hang up to dry. No clothes-pin! My covers needed no ironing. -NANCY W.
