Florida Leads The Way

Walter P. Fuller in his weekly news letter has this week some interesting figures of the improvement in business conditions in Florida during the first ten months of 1934, as compared with the same period of the previous year, representing an increase of 14 percent. This increase in gasoline tax receipts is not only an aid to the state, but also indicates that the oil companies are selling more gasoline, and doing more business.

Washington Dayback

The fact that Mr. Hoover and Mr. Nathan remain in their posts, respectively in the Department of Justice and in the Federal Bureau of Investigation, is a reflection of the confidence in the President's cabinet.

Political Primer

Mr. Hoover's position as director of the Federal Bureau of Investigation is a reflection of the confidence in the President's cabinet.

A Difficult Job

What is the most difficult job in the world today? You might say it was being president of the United States, or being a dictator in Italy, Germany, or Russia.
