PREMIER POINCARÉ RESUMPTION PARLIAMENT DEBATE POLICY FRANCE ON SEIZING PROPERTY

FOR THE GERMAN DEBT
WILL NOT SPECIFY WHAT SECURITY WILL BE
WILL ALSO REPLY

To Interpellations on the French
Postponement of Ruhr
Occupation

(By The Associated Press)
PARIS, Dec. 13.—Premier Poincaré at the resumption of the parliament debate on the French foreign policy will announce that his government retains the right to use a free hand in seizing securities for the German debt. However, he will not specify what the security will be. The premier made it clear to interviewers last night saying that he would speak spontaneously or in reply to interpellations on "Fresh postponement on the occupation of Ruhr" of which deputies have given notice.

LONDON, Dec. 13.—The collapse of the Allied Premier's negotiations here, it is becoming evident, is even more complete than at first supposed. One outstanding development which had been seized upon by the optimists, namely, the scrapping of the Balfour note by Great Britain, is now said to have been acclaimed prematurely.

Prime Minister Bonar Law admitted as much in the house of commons this afternoon, and from other sources it is learned that the haste on the part of the continental press to consider Lord Balfour's utterance as a thing of the past is unwarranted.

It is stated that Mr. Bonar Law, in talking with the other allied premiers, only indicated that Lord Balfour's principle (refusal to consider any remission of the war debts) could be superseded as Great Britain's contribution to a general European settlement of the war debts and reparations questions, but with a definite gain for Britain in view and not merely because she wished to be generous.

The British policy is said to be centered on re-establishment of trade and commerce, stabilization of exchanges, and bringing to an end the almost continuous Allied conferences and disputes over reparations and war debts.

The pessimists believe such stabilization of Europe's economic life would not be realized through Britain's cancellation of the debts due her if at the same time the French were permitted to carry out coercive measures to obtain their indemnity from Germany.

According to the official view the British are willing to make great sacrifices, but the other Allies must also sacrifice some of their interests. Unless Great Britain sees an ultimate gain through the policy of cancellations, it is stated, the government could not carry out such a program for the British tax payers would rebel at having to shoulder the debts without benefit.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 13.—The United States has not been approached, directly or indirectly, in regard to either cancellation of the French war debt or American participation with Allied Premier in the discussion of German reparations, according to an officially authorized statement yesterday at the state department.

Outside of this statement no comment was forthcoming in official quarters on press advices from London telling of the British intention to sound out the Washington government with relation to French debt cancellation as a possible means of solving the conflict of views among the premiers which caused the postponement of the council meeting over the year end.

B. & O. GARAGE OPENS SATURDAY TO THE PUBLIC

NEW BUILDING WELL EQUIPPED TO HANDLE BUSINESS DAY AND NIGHT

One of the finest and best equipped garages, and filling stations in this part of the state will open for business Saturday, and in this issue is the opening announcement. This is the B. & O. Garage that will open the new place at the corner of Second street and Sanford avenue and a force of men are busy putting on the finishing touches on the new fine tile and stucco building. One of the greatest features of the new building is the big drive-in filling station that will take care of a double line of cars that has ample room to drive in and turn around or do any kind of stunts all under the big roofed in parking space. In the building proper is the accessory department in full view of the street, the ladies' rest room, the big saleroom that will hold several cars at one time and the business offices and other rooms.

In the rear is the storage and machine shops where everything is arranged for the best service and the best conditions for the force of men employed in the shops. All equipment is new and right up to the minute from the new oil and gas pumps, the water and air pressure pumps to the machine shops and best of all the building is fireproof and made of the best materials throughout. The building is a very attractive one from the exterior as well as the interior and adds much to that part of the city which by the way is destined to become one of the busiest parts of Sanford.

It is difficult to describe in details the new home of the Lexington and Hupmobile. Go over there Saturday and look them over. Go over and get two gallons of gas free, go over and get a free tire with every tire and talk with Messrs. Jernigan, Baggett and Warren and have them take you all through the plant.

And last, but not least, the B. & O. announces a twenty-four hour service and the new garage will never close its doors. Open all day and open all night with "service" the watchword. And this garage sells Lexington and Hupmobile cars so you probably already know and this fine line looks finer than ever in their new home.

MISS BLANCHE SYDNOR WHITE AT FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH

An outstanding event in the calendar of the First Baptist church is the two addresses of Miss Blanche Sydnor White of Birmingham. Miss White has been intimately connected with the Foreign Mission Board of the Southern Baptist Convention for some years. She is now field secretary for Southern Baptist women.

At the recent meeting of the Baptist State Convention held in Gainesville Miss White made a profound impression. She addressed the women of the First Baptist church this afternoon and she will be present this evening at 7:30 and speak again. The men of the church will be given the privilege of hearing Miss White.

A very hearty invitation is extended to the citizens of the city.

In this free and democratic country almost everybody is willing to treat members of the upper class as equals upon the immediate situation in London.

SANFORD COUNTRY CLUB HELD ANNUAL MEETING AND ELECTED BOARD DIRECTORS

Decided to Float $30,000 Worth of Bonds to Finance the Proposition

Congregated in the beautiful room at the Sanford Country Club last night in the neighborhood of seventy of the original subscribers to the club met and elected officers and directors for this coming year. The club rooms were fixed up to accommodate this large crowd by Manager Wadbrook with fine big log fires in all the fireplaces, making the place look real cozy and home-like.

F. P. Forster, first vice-president, presided over the meeting and conducted the meeting in a way that only an old time legislator could do and the meeting progressed without a hitch.

Reports of the directors and committees as well as the officer's reports were all read and filed and all these reports showed that the Club was making extra fine progress. Mr. Wadbrook, the congenial manager, made a report and an address that was greatly enjoyed by the many present.

A resolution was read and adopted by the unanimous vote of the stockholders that the Club bond itself for $30,000, the proceeds of which will go to pay off the outstanding indebtedness against the club at this time and the balance to be used in further improvements. This is one of the most important steps taken by the club as it will mean that within the next few months there will be no club in the south with a more complete course, grounds and club house than the Sanford Club.

S. O. Chase, who has been mainly responsible for the fine club that the Sanford people now own, was again elected president; F. P. Forster, Forrest Lake and H. R. Stevens, vice-presidents; C. L. Britt, secretary, and Deane Turner, treasurer. The following twelve directors were elected: S. O. Chase, F. P. Forster, C. L. Britt, Deane Turner, H. R. Stevens, Forrest Lake, R. J. Holly, S. M. Lloyd, G. W. Knight, T. L. Dumas, Ed. Higgins and Geo. A. DeCottes.

HALF MILLION IS DEVOTED TO WAR FRAUDS

INVESTIGATION AND PROSECUTIONS OF THE WAR PROFITEERS

(By The Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, Dec. 13.—The $33,000,000 appropriation bill for the departments of state and justice, carrying half a million dollars for investigation and prosecution of war fraud cases, was passed late yesterday by the House without a record vote and with less than 50 members in attendance.

With this, the second supply bill of the session, out of the way and ready for senate action, the $25,000,000 bill for the departments of commerce and labor, agreeing to eliminate general debate, which, on some measures, runs a full day. The 1923 naval budget will be reported today.

An amendment by Representative Black, Democrat, Texas, which would have required the attorney general to account for the funds, and for $500,000 heretofore allowed, was thrown out on a point of order after an hour's wrangle. The Black amendment sought to obtain the names of all persons employed by the department in war fraud work and the amounts paid each.

Attack on employment by the department of justice of high salaried accountants was made by Representative Byrnes, Tennessee, ranking Democrat of the appropriations committee. Mr. Byrnes declared in addition to a chief accountant at $18,000 a year, he had been informed on the highest authority of the employment of a special accountant at $25 a day, and that assistants at $25 a day had been supplied by a firm which paid them $200 a month and pocketed the difference.

To the section carrying $200,000 for the enforcement of anti-trust laws the House adopted an amendment by Representative Denison, Republican, Illinois, stipulating that no part of the fund should be used for prosecution of labor and farm organizations seeking to better their conditions.

Representative Dempsey, Republican, New York, told the House that the accountants employed for war fraud work were men of national reputation whose services had been obtained at a rate lower in some instances than that asked by accountants generally.

FURTHER DELAY JURY SELECTION MURDER TRIAL

DADE CITY, Dec. 13.—Further delay in the selection of a jury to try Paul and Preston Overstreet charged with the murder of Deputy Crenshaw, and Prohibition Agent Waters was experienced this morning when the adjournment of court was made to allow new venire of forty men time to arrive in court.

HEARINGS TODAY ON IMPEACHMENT OF DAUGHERTY

(By The Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, Dec. 13.—Hearings on the impeachment proceedings in progress against Attorney General Daugherty, brought by Representative Keller, Republican, opened yesterday afternoon before the house judiciary committee. They were marked by frequent clashes between members of the committee and Jackson H. Ralston, counsel for Mr. Keller, first as to the method of procedure, and second as to the relevancy of testimony.

The Minnesota representative won the first skirmish, the committee voting to hear first evidence on three of the fourteen specifications designated by Mr. Keller instead of taking up the charges in the numerical order in which they were presented originally.

In another, decision was against the summoning of Chief Justice Taft, whose presence had been requested by Mr. Ralston for the purposes of confirming a letter which Mr. Taft wrote in 1912 while president to the then Attorney General Wickersham and which was read into the record during the day. The committee held that the confirmation would be unnecessary.

This letter and one written to Mr. Taft by Mr. Wickersham constituted the principal evidence submitted yesterday. They both dealt with a pardon for William J. Jones, convicted in Oregon in 1907 of alleged land frauds, and referred to alleged activities of William J. Burns, appointed last year by Mr. Daugherty as chief of the department of justice, in connection with the drawing of the jury in the Jones case.

The purpose of their introduction into the record, Mr. Ralston explained, was to support the charge in the impeachment specifications that Mr. Daugherty had appointed to positions of "great importance and large financial and moral responsibility" men who "are untrusty, corrupt and dangerous to the liberties of the people of the United States."

HERRIN MINE KILLING TRIAL IS PROGRESSING

PROSECUTION CHARGED PLOT AMONG UNION MINERS TO KILL THE NON-UNION MEN

(By The Associated Press)
MARION, Ill., Dec. 13.—The trial of five men charged with murder in connection with the Herrin mine killings opened here with the prosecution charging a plot among the union miners to kill the non-union men and the defense asserting it would prove the five accused men had no part in rioting but were elsewhere at the time.

It may be that men no longer believe in dreams, but they still turn to look when one awakes by

ROTARY CLUB WILL ENTERTAIN FOOTBALL BOYS

The Rotary Clubs of the entire country always foster every movement that is essential to the boys' welfare, and the Sanford Club proving no exception to this rule, earlier in the season joined hands with the other civic bodies of Sanford and did their part in putting across the athletic program that resulted in football team for Sanford that has no equal in any of the past years.

The Rotarians, trying to show their appreciation of the fine record made by the Sanford boys, have invited them to be their guests at a banquet next Tuesday night at which time the entertainment committee will try to give the young men an insight into the principals of Rotary, keeping in mind that the future Rotarians, are the young men of today.

The Sanford High School boys, after winning all their games with one exception, and by the way they played many more than some of the state championship contenders, are not going to rest content with their past achievements, but expect to go in for other athletics such as track work, basketball, base ball and other sports, and the Rotary Club with other civic bodies are going to stay right behind them and help them accomplish what they go after.

With this kind of support, Sanford boys will graduate from the Sanford schools and enter college with records that will place them in line with the best of them when it comes to athletics. And they will rate with the best of them in their studies also, for in order to be eligible in any of the athletic events, they must show the necessary marks in their studies. This support of the Sanford men, therefore, means, even more than the making of real athletes, it means also the making of real students, real men and consequently a pride to Sanford.

And all the men of Sanford are asked to join hands with these civic bodies, if they are not members of any civic organization, and even if they are not able to do anything financially, they can turn out to the different events and lend that moral support which is just as essential and just as necessary to the boys' success as money.

And this goes for the girls as well. The Sanford girls at this time have a fine basketball team and are making a record for themselves and they will continue to do this if they find that the public appreciates their efforts enough to turn out and do a little rooting now and then.

Get behind the boys and girls—it pays.

NEW THEATRE TO BE STARTED THURSDAY EVE

GROUND WILL BE BROKEN AT 8
WITH APPROPRIATE
CEREMONY

The ground on the site for Sanford's theatre beautiful will be broken on Thursday evening.

For several days past quantities of material to be used in the construction of the new and modern theatre at the corner of Second Street and Magnolia Avenue has arrived and been delivered to the site.

An interesting program has been arranged for the ceremony of breaking ground for the new structure. Prof. E. A. Ball, director of the Sanford band will have his band in full uniform, render a splendid concert both before and during the ceremony.

R. J. Gillespie, of Jacksonville, who was awarded the contract for the construction of the new theatre will arrive in Sanford Thursday morning to be present at the ceremonies, which will start promptly at eight p. m. A representative of Mr. Gillespie stated yesterday that the contractor expected no delay in the erection of the building on account of materials, as sufficient materials have already arrived in Sanford to make considerable headway during the next several weeks and in the mean time that other materials would arrive ahead of the time for their use.

The officers and directors of the Milane Amusement Company are being congratulated on the conservative and highly satisfactory manner in which they have arranged for the planning of the theatre and the placing of the contract for its construction.

The handsome and commodious theatre with its seating capacity of over seven hundred will be a great asset to Sanford and the entire county of Seminole.

The actual work of foundation building will be started in full blast immediately following the breaking of the ground Thursday evening.

DECEMBER BANQUET FOR MEN, FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH

A group of men who are prominent in the affairs of Sanford and Seminole county have been giving serious attention this week to the planning for the December banquet for the men of the First Baptist church. One of the men was heard to say yesterday "The banquet Thursday evening will be the biggest event for men in the history of the church."

The women of the First Baptist church are doing a character of work which would do credit to any church anywhere. Their achievements merit the highest commendation. Among the men are to be found some of the most capable workers of which any church could boast. The banquet tomorrow evening promises to be an event of far reaching influence for the men of the Sunday school and church.

It is beginning to look like the dining room will not be large enough to care for all, but special effort is being made to care for all who come. Already the list of those who have signed to be present is such that the workers are assured that the largest number of men will be present tomorrow evening that ever came together on a similar occasion in the history of the church. Every man of the Sunday school and church is expected to be present.

IN TREATY WHICH HOPED TO BE DRAWN UP AT LAUSANNE

ISMET IS FEARFUL

Of International Relations Imposed Upon Turkey—Would Have to Protect Foreigners

(By The Associated Press)
LAUSANNE, Dec. 13.—Angora delegates to the Near East conference are vigorously combating the plan of the powers to write the question of minorities into the treaty which is hoped to be drawn up here. Ismet Pasha has told the Associated Press he is fearful the international regulations which will be imposed upon Turkey, which will oblige her to protect the foreign nationals living within her borders and believes such conditions would be an infringement on the Turkish sovereignty and a slight to their honor.

LAUSANNE, Dec. 13.—Ismet Pasha, head of the Turkish delegation, dashed the hopes of the Near East conference for a speedy and satisfactory settlement for the protection of minorities in Turkey, when in an address a yesterday afternoon's session, he insisted upon an exchange of the Greek populations in Anatolia for the Turks in Macedonia. He demanded exclusion of all foreign interference in Turkey, which he said would protect the remaining minorities, as the Turks had always been able to get along with other nationalities when they kept out of politics and were not stirred up by outside influences.

Ismet declared Turkey would not accept Lord Curzon's proposal to have the League of Nations administer the affairs of the minorities, as that would mean the foreign powers would continue their influence in Turkish affairs and encourage he minorities to appeal to the League of Nations. This plan, he asserted, would result in the exploitation of minorities for political ends under the "lying cloak of humanitarianism."

The Turkish chief delegate reviewed the entire history of Turkey from the time of the conquest of Constantinople. The Turks, he said, had lived peacefully with the Greeks and Armenians until a hundred years ago, when the Russians began agitating against the Mohammedans under the pretense that Russia was the protector of the orthodox Christians in Turkey.

He charged Russia with being responsible for the attack Gladstone made on Turkey in behalf of the Armenians, and maintained that the so-called Turkish atrocities against the Armenians had frequently been in the nature of reprisals for pogroms perpetrated by the Armenians through encouragement from Russia, which wanted some excuse for invading Turkey.

"The Armenians brought the massacres on themselves," Ismet Pasha declared. "They have abused Turkish generosity and dabbled in politics. Jews have never had any trouble in Turkey; that proves that the Greeks and the Armenians have been responsible for their difficulties in Turkey; they were fired by the example of other Greeks, the Bulgars and Serbs to eliminate them in the hopes of upsetting the Turkish government."

According to Ismet there are now no minorities in Turkey which can claim the right to belong to any other nation, thus disposing of the American claim for a national home in Turkey.

Lord Curzon replied in a spirited manner to Ismet, saying it was the

DEATHS

DEATH OF MRS. R. A. POPE

Relatives and friends of Mrs. R. A. Pope, West First street, were greatly shocked to learn of her sudden death last night at 7:30 while attending to household duties. Dr. Marshall was called and pronounced it as a rupture of an artery near the heart.

Mrs. Pope was the mother of Mrs. T. E. Wells and had resided with her daughter since coming from Vincent, Alabama, some ten years ago. She was loved and respected by all who knew her, because of her amiable and kindly disposition, always ministering to the wants of others, with seemingly no care about her own comfort or needs. She will be greatly missed from the family circle.

Mrs. Pope is survived by her only daughter, Mrs. Wells, the latter's two children, Edith and Richard Smith and two sisters in Alabama.

The funeral is announced to take place at 3 o'clock this afternoon from the home on West First street, corner of Maple avenue, Mr. E. L. Zimmerman, elder of the International Bible Students association, officiating. Interment will be in Lakewood cemetery.

JOHN WANAMAKER DIED

AT EIGHT THIS MORNING AFTER MONTH'S ILLNESS

vacated the parcels post and postal savings which were later realized, and also urged government ownership of telegraph lines.

The religious side of Mr. Wanamaker's life was one less known to the general public than any other, but one in which he was deeply interested. Very early in life he became a member of the Rev. John Chambers' Presbyterian church in Philadelphia, and it is related that when Dr. Chambers appeared to his congregation for a church suitable to his needs, Mr. Wanamaker, then a boy, shouted enthusiastically: "I'll give a load of bricks from my father's brick yard." Later he gathered together a handful of boys in a shoemaker's shop and founded a Sunday school, which was the nucleus of what is today the Bethany Presbyterian church of Philadelphia.

The Bethany Sunday School, of which Mr. Wanamaker was superintendent, has 6,000 members and is said to be the largest Sunday school in the United States. Mr. Wanamaker took particular pride in this school, as well as the Brotherhood of Andrew and Philip, which he also founded, and it is known that he carried about with him constantly an alphabetical index of the members of the school and brotherhood, and that, when time permitted he studied this list to acquaint himself individually with all the members. His attendance at the Sunday School met him on his feet almost continuously for eight hours every Sunday, for he often conducted as many as twelve meetings and made short addresses or short-time talks at all of them. Such was his Sunday work the year round for over half a century.

Early in his career Mr. Wanamaker married Mary B. Brown, who co-operated with him in much of his philanthropic work. He founded the Presbyterian Hospital in Philadelphia, the first Penny Savings Bank there, assisted in erecting many Young Men's Christian Association buildings, and contributed toward college missionary institutions in India, China and Japan. At the outbreak of the European war he was one of the first to assist in the relief of the Belgians, equipping two shipments of foodstuffs which were sent to the invaded country.

Mr. Wanamaker governed his life by many maxims. "Every undertaking," he once said, "is made up of the sum of past endeavors, plus ambition and the new visions."

"Business men rest upon the unshakable foundation of confidence in one another."

"On every road there is some young man coming on."

"Keep up the old standards, and day by day raise them higher."

As to his own life he once said: "Thinking, trying, toiling and trusting is all of my biography."

HOPES REVIVED FOR MANY FOLKS

Smiles Taking Place of Frowns and Grouches of Weak, Thin and Scrawny People

Whenever you get to the point where you cannot stand the strenuousness of work and play, and at the middle stage in life, when you really would just love to get out and enjoy some recreation, you have to deny yourself because "you can't stand" to exert yourself. It is the surest sign you are lacking in the necessary vitamins to give nourishment to your nerves and tissue, and they are going back on you. Your nerves are already weakened from lack of strength. How can you expect to exert yourself in work or play without becoming completely exhausted?

After this, instead of giving an alibi when invited to recreation, say: "Sure—count me in." You can do it if you will begin taking the phenomenal new product known as RE-CUM-MA, which is giving marvellously quick revival of health, strength and endurance to exhausted and "worn out" folks. After using it a few days you will have the fire of enthusiasm and the endurance to carry out its meaning the thousands of folks who are praising it.

RE-CUM-MA is sold in Sanford by the Union Pharmacy and the leading druggists in every city.—Adv.

There is so much in the papers about the dearth of box cars that there must be something to it, and yet the fruits are moving to market. Maybe it would be a good thing not to have any cars while the price is low.

John Wanamaker was a visitor to Sanford last winter and was greatly pleased with our lake front and other places around Sanford and promised to return this year. We were sorry to learn of his death yesterday. He was a great man, a good man and a real American.

It seems that they are about to get Mr. Daugherty's goat and there are several fine little goat getters in congress this season. However the show-down will prove one of two things—either the attorney general is guilty or he is innocent and the public wants to know which one it is.

That idea about a fair grounds, a ball park and athletic field is a good one and the Chamber of Commerce and all the clubs of the city should join in and make it worth while. We are short on good locations and on account of our topography will have to go a distance south of the city but even at that there is no telling how fast the city will grow to the location and in a few years what is now in the country will be in the city limits. Pick out a good location and then do so much on the grounds every year and in that way the work will be done right without bankrupting the city or the citizens. It is something badly needed in the county.

And while we are talking about fairs, don't forget that Seminole county will have a good exhibit at Orlando this year and we want to go in with the idea of winning the prize. There is no use in entering with any other spirit and if we go in for the prize we will get it. That is the feeling to have when you make up your exhibit. The other feeling is that we will accomplish so much in having an exhibit there.

Secretary Mellon in his report to congress has a rosy view of the business outlook and is of the opinion that conditions are rapidly growing better.

He says: "Prices of commodities have risen materially; inventories generally are low; the volume of business has been mounting to higher levels; labor is again fully employed."

"The year is closing with bountiful crops. Severe depression in agriculture has been relieved. Banking conditions are sound, money rates are reasonable and there is sufficient credit available to meet all reasonable demands. Even abroad there are signs of progress in reconstruction."

Here, then is a statement practically world-wide in scope, from a man in a position to be acquainted with the true conditions. It is certainly heartening, and should give courage to those who have been hesitant in carrying forward enterprises involving large investment, or even those who operate on the smaller scale in th e world of business. Back of this cheering trend to prosperity, there are, of course, certain influences by which it is being caused, and in this connection a most remarkable statement was made in Bradstreet's business review for the week just closed. After various statements referring to business conditions, it says, in mentioning the belated winter and the tendency to put off buying until weather conditions forced trade, that "retail buying is the best since last winter, heavy wearing apparel, footwear and holiday specials predominating."

And note this: "In the latter direction active advertising which is apparently under a full head of steam, is reported bringing a good volume of business to department stores and large retailers."

More and more is the value of advertising as a powerful lever in business success being recognized. In the instance cited above, "active advertising" in the great cities of the north was able to overcome the adverse influences of unseasonable weather, enabling retailers to report that "buying is the best since last winter."

There is no truth more true than that intelligent advertising pays.—St. Petersburg Times.

FLETCHER SAYS SUBSIDY IS FOR BIG INTERESTS

WASHINGTON, Dec. 13.—The big private steamship companies will reap most of the benefits of the ship subsidy measure if it is passed, said Senator Duncan U. Fletcher, of Florida, ranking Democrat of the senate commerce committee, in reply to arguments of Senator Jones, Republican, of Washington, chairman of the committee, as both sides "dug in" for the senate battle over the pet measure of the Harding administration which is expected to develop into one of the bitterest legislative struggles ever waged in that body.

"The ships which will benefit from the bill are not cargo ships at all," said Senator Fletcher. "For instance, a cargo ship of 6,500 gross tons, such as those built at Hog Island, would receive a minimum compensation. About 12 such ships would receive a subsidy aggregating about $11,000 annually, while a crack passenger liner, like the George Washington, of 25,000 gross tons, would get about $300,000 a year in subsidies. The big private steamship companies would reap the most of the benefits."

Senator Jones planned to throw out the first skirmish line of the administration forces by moving the bill to make the "unfinished business" and thereby given the right-of-way over all other pending legislation.

Senators Borah, of Idaho; LaFollette of Wisconsin; Norris, of Nebraska, and Capper, of Kansas, were among those of the little progressive group on the Republican side who stood ready to join the Democrats in attacking the proposed subsidy, and employing various tactics to block its passage.

Senator Jones warned if the bill failed, American national defense and commerce would alike suffer seriously. "It is vital," he said, "as an auxiliary to our navy that we have large and fast ships, and that means passenger and combination passenger and cargo liners, and to overcome the present shortcomings of our fleet in that respect, we have but followed the lead of other maritime powers and proposed the most practical method of developing and maintaining a merchant marine that will not be outstripped by theirs."

Aside from the importance of a merchant marine as a "preparedness measure," Jones emphasized the necessity of adequate provision being made for refrigerator and other types of ocean carriers, "so essential to the agricultural business and commercial interests of our people."

"Only recently we learned," he continued, "that British interests offered to construct a fleet of vessels adapted to carrying the California grape crop and stood ready to pledge approximately $200,000,000 to that end."

"In the state of Washington today there are thousands of carloads of apples spoiling in the warehouses from lack of transportation. Give us proper ships and with the short haul to the coast our fruit growers will be saved a loss of millions of dollars annually."

"The people of California alone have suffered a loss equal to what it is estimated the proposed subsidy will cost the entire country during the first three years of its operation,"—Jacksonville Journal.

CELERY SEED

A base ball park and fair grounds for Sanford.

And the Chamber of Commerce will put it across.

It takes the concentrated efforts of the civic organizations to do these things. And they are doing it.

The hiring of a coach for the football squad and the raising of the money necessary was but a stepping stone to bigger things in an athletic way. Just watch that Chamber of Commerce committee go.

And Sanford is fast getting into the big town class. In order to grow they must have these things and when Sanford needs things bad enough, they go out and get 'em.

Maybe the Celery Feds will not be represented in the Florida State League, but we can have some major league players living and training in Sanford every winter, if we go about it right.

Men's Club and Chase & Co. hold the cards for tonight at the bowling alleys. Tommy Jones says they will win that game or bust, and Archie Betts some one is going to bust.

Another good game will be played tomorrow night when the Farmers and Merchants meet.

The postponed game between the Rotes and Champs will be played Friday night. The Rotes have been looking for the honor of being the first to wallop the Champs and this will be their chance.

No arrangements have been made as yet for a basket ball game this week. The girls have Friday night open for some fast team. And the girls, after losing last Saturday have just about decided that that is all they can afford to lose for several weeks.

ATHLETIC FIELD AND BALL PARK FOR SANFORD IN NEAR FUTURE

Chamber of Commerce and Other Clubs Will Foster Movement Which Means it Will Go Across

Some of the very best news and news of especial interest to the sporting fans of Sanford and Seminole County is the news that Sanford will soon have a Base Ball Park and Athletic Grounds that will compare well with the best in the state.

This has been a long felt want in Sanford, and the Chamber of Commerce, backed by the Rotary and Kiwanis Clubs, have recognized the fact that if Sanford will be as big and important as other cities in the state, they must have this field. And they expect to get it.

The Chamber of Commerce has had a committee working on this project for some time past and the work they have accomplished has just about brought the matter to a head and only a few minor details and arrangements will have to be completed before they will be ready to announce the location of this fine park to be erected. This same committee is going even further than that and they will secure at the same time a suitable place for a fair ground, another long felt want for our county.

Such a park will change the present interest in base ball and other sports considerably and it will mean that in the future, when the boys want to play football they will not have to rent a place and when any kind of a game is on there will be no difficulty in charging the admission price that is so essential to maintenance of a ball club.

Our hats are off to the Chamber of Commerce, its committee and the other supporters of this movement and here is hoping that it will be but a very short time before this park is erected.

The Baptists will hold their bazaar December 15-16, Friday and Saturday at the Southern Utilities office. 221-4tp

JOHNSON AGREES WITH LANDIS

(By The Associated Press) CHICAGO, Dec. 13.—All reports concerning a difference of opinion between E. M. Landis, baseball commissioner, and Ban Johnson, president of the American League, were dispelled by Johnson himself yesterday previous to his departure for New York to attend the American League meeting there today.

President Johnson declared he was in full accord with the administration of Commissioner Landis; that the commissioner "stands 1,000 per cent in my estimation," but certain club owners in the major leagues were attempting through propaganda to start a controversy between himself and the commissioner.

"I have no quarrel with Landis and have never criticized his office and will not so long as he does his duty to baseball," President Johnson said. "He will find me one of his staunchest supporters in doing anything to improve the game, and in that respect he cannot be surpassed."

The American League executive said he would attend the joint meeting of the major league club owners scheduled for New York Thursday and would present reports from private detective agencies which investigated gambling in baseball.

"I am going to make a report on the unrestricted gambling that has been going on and I believe Judge Landis will support me in my stand to wipe it out. Gambling must be stopped. If the club owners will give their aid in exterminating this evil, it can be accomplished."

Due to the desire of the New York and Detroit clubs for additional time in which to complete improvements to their parks, President Johnson said the club owners probably would vote to start the season April 18, a week later than usual, although he favors opening the season a week earlier than this date.

"I have always believed the world's series should be out of the way as early as possible in October to avoid conflict with the football season," President Johnson said.

RUPPER WILL BE OWNER YANKS

(By The Associated Press) NEW YORK, Dec. 13.—Col. Jacob Ruppert, officially announced yesterday that negotiations for the transfer to him of Col. T. L. Huston's half interest in the New York Yankees had been virtually completed and that within a week he would be sole owner of the American League champions. The club, including the Yankee stadium, has an estimated value of $3,000,000.

This announcement was followed by authoritative reports that the Yankees had closed a deal with the White Sox to trade Aaron Ward, Bob Meusel and a pitcher to the Westerners for Eddie Collins, veteran second sacker, and Dick Kerr, southpaw pitcher. It was said official announcement of the trade which has been rumored in diamond circles for some time would be made at today's session of the American club owners.

The only possibility of a hitch in the deal as now outlined, centers the White Sox last spring and must secure reinstatement from Commissioner Landis before being permitted to play in major league ranks again. Ward played second base and Meusel in the outfield for the Yankees last season.

NO PAY MAYOR HAS PULLED HIS CITY OUT OF DEBT

Mayor of Jacksonville, Ill., Shows What Cooperation Can Do in Running a City

JACKSONVILLE, Ill., Dec. 12.—This city of 6,500 population enjoys the unique distinction of being probably the only metropolis in the country where the cost of government is within reach of all. Elected on a platform of "No pay and no politics" Mayor E. W. Crabtree has established a record which is attracting observers from everywhere to see how it is done, and Tuesday told how cooperation aided him.

Elimination of what Crabtree has called "political nostrums, isms, and wire pulling" and substituting therefor a whole hearted cooperation of the entire citizenry, has pulled Jacksonville from the depths of debt and discouragement.

Three years ago the city was well nigh bankrupt, city employees were being paid on script, the water and sewerage systems were inadequate and the cost sky high. It was at this juncture that Crabtree entered the race for Mayor. Making it known at the time that he would accept no pay no would he, if elected, allow anyone else to be paid for work, who did not need the money. Political power and pull were to be eliminated entirely. Opposition developed early after he was elected, from the labor unions, but when the entire plan was explained to them the chiefs threw their influence directly with the administration. Six of the eight aldermen joined with him in refusing pay. Then he got a city attorney to act for one dollar a year.

The first move was a cleanup and the mayor was able to have the local painters' union to paint the public buildings while local women got the paint for nothing. Sixty citizens on the invitation of the mayor got together and purchased a tract of land and sunk wells so that the city has a water supply at its door instead of having to pump water 20 miles.

An auditor investigated the books and placed the debt of the city at $131,000. A bond issue took care of this.

Now the city is prosperous and contented. Explaining the change the mayor said:

"We decided to take the people into our confidence in everything and rule out all star chamber sessions of the city boards. There never has been a negative vote cast on an improvement matter in the board of aldermen. We organized a volunteer traffic corps of seventy-five men. They curbed speeding and other automobile evils. These men still are on call and aid the regular police force.

"The women organized and initiated a city beautiful drive which is still kept up. We claim one of the cleanest cities in the United States.

"Whenever a citizen has a kick he brings it directly to the proper authorities, in open session. It is investigated and if a remedy is needed it is applied. I find it a good plan to keep before the people at all times that they are stockholders in the municipality, and on that account should have accomplished all we have through co-operation. All other cities can do the same thing.—Reporter-Star.

RICHARDSON NOT GUILTY, BUT GETS COURT REPRIMAND

A jury in criminal court freed Troy Richardson of a charge of manslaughter in connection with the killing of Code Hill, aged citizen of Lockhart, yesterday, bringing in its verdict after less than two hours' deliberation in the jury room.

As the Sentinel told yesterday, the case against Clyde C. Martin and Sam Caviness, who were in the automobile driven by Richardson when it struck Mr. Hill, will be dropped.

Richardson, himself, was the last witness at the trial, taking the stand just a short time before the jury retired. He told the court that he did not stop after he struck Mr. Hill because he was afraid friends of the aged man would attack him. He said that Mr. Hill stepped from behind an automobile which was parked by the road just as his own motor car drove down the highway at that point, and that he saw the aged pioneer too late to stop his motor.

Carey Hand, a mortician, and several others who viewed Mr. Hill's body, also took the witness stand, telling what they knew of the circumstances.

The jury's verdict, though for acquittal, recommended that the court reprimand Richardson, and Judge T. Paton Warlow, in addressing the driver of the machine, said that he was not surprised at the verdict, since manslaughter seemed a more serious charge than the case deserved. Judge Warlow added that Richardson had already been punished, having been confined in the jail for some time.—Orlando Sentinel.
