MRS. E. L. JOHNSON
SKIL • BRRH hello to you. A sweater is sure feeling good and warm of a morning isn't it? • • • So sorry to hear that Mrs. W. E. Almond is ill. She has been confined to her home and if I know her, she will hurry and get well because she loves to sew and can be seen at her sewing machine any time of the day. She is certainly a wonderful seamstress. • • • Mrs. Lester Kelley has also been ill but according to son, David, she is improving rapidly. You just can't keep a good woman down. So a speedy recovery to both of you. • • • Mrs. Eddie Crow of North Mead Beach is here for a few days visiting her mother, Mrs. C. R. Giles and other relatives. Eddie will try and join her later if possible. Hope she can. Would like to see Mrs. • • • "Happy Birthday Jimmie Carroll and Carol Hobby. • • • The Home Demonstration Club had a very wonderful meeting Thursday evening at the home of Daisy Dowell. We were taught how to make a table look nice with the correct cloth and place setting. Also how to make and prepare pie crusts and attractive ways to use leftover dough. It is absolutely wonderful what you can learn by being in Home Demonstration work. We have a wonderful person to join us and I know she will make a good worker. She is Mrs. Marion Lee. We also had as guests Mrs. Ned Julian and Daisy's mother, Mrs. Kerns, who is visiting her from N. C. Lucille Fitzgerald and I attended a workshop Tuesday at the center. Our specialist was Miss Catherine Knarr. The program was on Home Management and Family Economics. • • • Did you see Phil Boyd on Television yesterday on the program Focus? Won't it be nice to have a celebrity from our home town? • • • Rena Hawkins and I rode over to DeBary Saturday evening to see Christine Gibbons who is still not able to be up out of bed yet. She has been confined to Seminole Memorial Hospital where she underwent surgery on her left leg. She is a former Monroe resident. • • • Mack and Glina Hudson of Fredericktown, Mo. and the parents of our son-in-law, Don, along with Don, daughter Shirley, the two apples of my eye, Cindy and Carol, and Mary Lou Halphin, a cousin of Don's, were our guests Sunday. We had an outdoor dinner. My better half caught a big Spanish Mackerel at Ft. Pierce the day before so we let him have the honor of smoking it. Mack had the bad misfortune of having his left hand seriously injured and is unable to work. In fact when they return to Missouri he will have to take treatments every day for some time. I sure enjoyed having them very much. I forgot to mention son Stanley was with them also. • • • Tomorrow night Grace Edwards and I take the High School Band to Daytona when our boys will play Seabreeze. • • • Jane Fletcher, who has charge of the Girl Scout Troop that meets at the Upsala Presbyterian Church, called me the other day. She says she has over 30 girls in her troop. I think that is wonderful. • • • Sure enjoyed that little bit of rain Tuesday. Just wasn't enough of it though. • • • The new highway is progressing more every day. The road is being built up with sand. It is making it harder to cross it to get into our yard. Several cars have gotten stuck. • • • I see that the gladioli fields are being cut already. It seems like only yesterday that they were planted. And several farmers are already picking squash. • • • Thanks, everyone, who has called me or talked to me personally about the "Thoughts for the Day." Remember to send your favorite to me in care of County Editor, Judy Wells at the Sanford Herald and we will share it with others. • • • Naomi Sepp has been feeling "under the weather" this past week. But you can't keep a good person down. She is one of those nervous energy ones that has to be doing something all the time. • • • Here is the thought for this week. THE ONES WHO ARE LIFTING THE WORLD UPWARD AND ONWARD ARE THOSE WHO ENCOURAGE MORE THAN CRITICIZE.

RHO Chapter Has Anniversary Celebration

"Helping People Live With People" was the theme of the October luncheon of the RHO Chapter of Delta Kappa Gamma held at the Women's Club in New Smyrna Beach.

The chapter celebrated its birthday at the luncheon and the outstanding feature of the program was a book review by Mrs. Lillian Trawick of Daytona Beach on "The Ugly American." This was followed by the poem, "A House By the Side of the Road" by Mrs. Alice Davis of New Smyrna. Local teachers who attended the luncheon were Mrs. Kent Bateman, Mrs. Edison Golt, Mrs. Cecil Carlton, Mrs. Walter Morgan, Mrs. L. L. Rowland and Mrs. Boyd Coleman.

Methodist Church Holds Conference

Dr. Bruce Gannaway, district superintendent, conducted a Quarterly Conference at the Casseberry Community Methodist Church on Oct. 3 with the meeting beginning at 7:30 p. m.

Rev. Oscar C. Poole, pastor of the church, reported that 72 new members have been received into the church since June 1 and also that since that time an air conditioning unit was fully paid for and installed in the sanctuary. He reported, too, on progress of construction of the new two-story educational building.

Reports from the heads of all departments and progress in each during the past four months were reviewed at this time.

Blynn H. Balke of 145 Northmoor Rd., Casseberry, was elected to the office of church treasurer.

Oviedo P-TO Sends Report To Parents

By MARIAN R. JONES
 The first copy of the Oviedo P-TO Observer, monthly news bulletin, was distributed Wednesday to the youngest child in each family represented on the student roll at the Oviedo School.

The news report is prepared under the supervision of Mrs. Mildred Wright, P-TO secretary, with the assistance of Mrs. Thurman Coberly and Mrs. Thomas Moon. They urge parents to ask the children for the bulletin, should the youngsters forget to deliver it, since it contains information on the P-TO and about general school activities.

Choristers Rehearse

The first rehearsal of the DeBary Choristers for the fall season was held at 9:30 a. m. Monday at the DeBary Community Methodist Church with Laura Platt Brown directing and Theresa Kucpec as pianist. New music, voted upon by the Choristers, has been ordered by Mrs. Brown.

AUCTION ITEMS, pictured above, are tagged by men of the Grace Methodist Church in preparation for the sale Saturday night, which is being sponsored to aid the fund for construction of a Youth Building. Preceding the auction to take place on the church grounds, food booths and a pony ride for children will open at 5 p. m.

Russia Hangs The Indian Sign

By RICHARD STARNES
 The collapse of the United Nations, as nearly as historians can date such matters, began in the early fall of 1964. The fatal malaise was due to a congenital defect, of course, but few would admit this until the acute stages of the illness had been reached.

By that time there was not much to be done except to notify the next of kin and take bids on the buildings, desks, unused red tape, etc. (The General Assembly building became a bowling alley, and does well to this very day.)

What really killed the U.N. will be the subject of endless debate, much like the case of the construction worker who was hit on the fat part of his head with a hod full of bricks and died of a cardiac accident immediately afterward. Did a bum tucker take him off, or was his untimely demise due to being coshed by a hod of bricks?

Such arguments are futile. The instant cause of death of the U.N. was the case of the Ostensible Indians.

The Ostensible Indians were the scurvy remnants of a warlike tribe that had once been the terror of the Northwest Territories, a part of Canada. The Ostensibles or what was left of them, settled on the shores of Lac a Rose, in the MacKenzie District (Northwest Territories).

They never made peace with the Great White Father in Ottawa and, indeed, maintained they were an independent nation. The Ostensibles coined their own wampum, and they made war (against the Putative Indians, an even sorer lot), and they contended that they thus fulfilled all the requirements for civilized statehood.

When the elders of the tribe discovered that it was possible to enlist the aid of the U.N. against their ancient foes, the Putatives, the Ostensible Indians immediately clamored for admission to the world organization. There was no denying them. Indeed, there was no evidence that the swollen, right-thinking bureaucracy of the U.N. wanted to deny them.

By that time there were 198 members of the General Assembly, including many which had no more legitimate claim to being nations than the Ostensible Indians had. Every comic-opera way station in Europe had long since been admitted to membership.

New Members Join Casseberry Lions

By JANE CASSELBERRY
 Milton Rutherford, state secretary of the Lion's Club, officiated at induction ceremonies for new members of the Casseberry Lion's Club at a meeting of the group last Thursday.

Joining were Curtis F. Blow, Rev. Oscar C. Poole, Walter E. Driggers and Donald Greene. Rev. Darwin Shea was reinstated and Frank Radamacher was accepted as a transferee from the College Park Club.

Vice President Joseph Murasko presided in the absence due to illness of President Milton Freeman at the 6:30 p. m. meeting held in Bill's Diner on Hwy. 17-92.

Truman Gets OK; If He Minds Manners

WACO, Tex. (UPI)—Abner McCall, the new head of Baylor University, said former President Truman would be welcome at ceremonies Saturday as long as he minds his manners.

Geneva Citizens Plan Barbecue

The Citizens Committee of Geneva will sponsor a chicken barbecue Saturday at the Community Hall with serving to begin at 5:30 p. m.

Chairman W. E. Dibble, in announcing the group's first event after the summer vacation, said that proceeds from the supper will go towards paying for the new floor installed in the Hall last winter.

Dibble invited those planning to attend the supper to come earlier in the afternoon or plan to stay on in the evening to make use of our shuffleboard courts.

The courts, another project of the group, were built early last spring.

Truman would be welcome at ceremonies Saturday as long as he minds his manners.

The ceremonies will formally inaugurate McCall as the 11th president of the 116-year-old school. Truman, who holds an honorary doctor's degree from Baylor, had been invited but declined because of a previous engagement.

"Congratulations to the new president," Truman wrote. "Tell him any time he wants real trouble stirred up to send for a Baptist to do it and one who likes to do it."

Truman, who is a Baptist, drew the wrath of a group of Baptist preachers in Texas while campaigning in the state for President Kennedy. He criticized the preachers for opposing Kennedy's election because he is a Roman Catholic.

In reply to Truman's letter, McCall said:

"There are many kinds of Baptists with many different ideas and dispositions. Mr. Truman is a Baptist and apparently knows one type of Baptist well."

"Truman would be welcome at Baylor for these inaugural ceremonies, but we would not need his trouble-making talents as we already have a surplus of such Baptists in Texas."

Grand Jury Cites County Leaders For CD Neglect

The Sanford Herald

WEATHER: Cloudy through Saturday. High today, 82-88. Low tonight, 65-70.

VOL. 53 United Press Leased Wire Established 1908 FRIDAY, OCTOBER 13, 1961 SANFORD, FLORIDA NO. 300

Requests Immediate Review

The Seminole County Grand Jury charged late Thursday that the County Commission was "woefully neglectful" in assigning adequate means to assist in providing a warning system for the county.

The 18-member jury, which reconvened for a two-hour session, requested that the commission

County Commissioner James F. Avaty was the first witness to appear at the grand jury. Another witness was M. G. Hodges of Paola. Both witnesses are sworn to secrecy and what was discussed could not be made public. The grand jury will reconvene at 9 a. m. Oct. 26.

"Immediately review their position of responsibility for the welfare and security of the people of the county and take whatever steps necessary to provide and maintain an approved warning system that will quickly advise all persons within the county of an impending enemy attack."

County Commission Chairman J. C. Hutchinson, when questioned by the Herald on the findings of the jury, said that he would bring the matter up at the next commission meeting.

In the jury's findings, which were submitted to the clerk of the court, it stated that "an extensive study of the Civil Defense system of the county was made and 'we find that the director thereof has excellent plans which are in accordance with the recommendations of recognized authorities; that these plans if motivated, would greatly increase the chances of survival in the event of enemy attacks; that the only way these plans can be motivated to their fullest extent is by sufficient appropriations of funds by the board of county commissioners.'"

"We further request that the board of county commissioners cooperate to the fullest extent, within their means, with all recognized authorities in their efforts to preserve and sustain life in these hazardous times."

East Berlin Shots Endanger GI's

BERLIN (UPI) — Communist police fired hundreds of shots into the American sector of West Berlin today in two fusillades, narrowly missing five U. S. military policemen.

The shooting was the biggest outburst of gunfire since the Communists sealed the Berlin border on Aug. 13.

The Communist people's police first sprayed the U. S. sector with 250 to 300 shots from rifles and sub-machine guns in a dawn attempt to stop nine East German refugees who cranked a truck into the Reds' barbed wire border barrier. The refugees managed to escape.

As soon as this shooting stopped, the American military police and a detachment of West Berlin police appeared at the border and the Communists fired again, police said.

On a day like this . . . even poking fun at someone loses its luster.

Curiosity seekers jammed the roads by the plane crash and made it practically impossible for ambulances and fire trucks to get through.

Since the County Commission ignored orders from the President and Governor . . . I wonder how they will react to the Grand Jury recommendations on Civil Defense?

The Sanford Lions Club will hold its annual light bulb sale from Oct. 17 to 31 to raise money for their fund to aid the blind.

Second clue in the Jaycee sponsored Radio Day . . . His golf game is lousy. All entries must be sent to Paul Lewis in care of the Jaycees.

The Grand Jury almost didn't have a place to meet Thursday. County Court was on . . . Circuit Court hearing conducted in the County Commission chambers. If anyone had an idea of the critical space problem in the courthouse it would be these 18 men.

Doesn't it seem odd that the county spends a fortune to insure its employees against accidents but not a dime to insure against a nuclear war?

North Orlando Meeting Monday

W. W. Anderson, president of the North Orlando Civic Assn., today called a meeting of Village residents for 7:30 p. m. Monday in the Village Hall.

The meeting will discuss results of the resolution recently approved by the association which criticized failure of the North Orlando Co. to carry out promises to develop in the community.

Officials of the civic group and of the North Orlando Homeowner's Assn. met Thursday night to draw up a resolution calling for revision of the Village Charter through a referendum.

Motorcade

The Seminole County Sheriff's Department under the direction of Sheriff J. L. Hobby will escort the Booster Club motorcade to Daytona today, when the unbeaten, unscathed on Seminole meet mighty Seabreeze. The motorcade will form in the high school parking lot and leave promptly at 5 p. m. escorted all the way by Seminole and Volusia County deputies. All sports fans are invited to decorate their cars and join.

Longwood Progress Is Told

A start on a new City Hall, a new fire truck and annexation of the Hwy. 17-92 area were steps outlined for Longwood's immediate future by Mayor A. R. Lorman to members of the Area Chamber of Commerce Thursday.

Speaking on the importance of closer relationship between the chamber and the city, Lorman called on members of the organization for support in the city's program, "not in financing but in backing to help put these projects across," he said.

"Although we have a council of progressive and cooperative, individual thinkers, it still is a cautious council. It may take a little longer to make decisions but each step taken will be one in the right direction."

"On the city hall, for example, we first considered building just a fire-resistant room to store city records. We think, now, that we have the ways and means, without adding taxation, to go ahead with a basic structure on a new hall but we will need the backing of the people."

"The fire truck, with the help of the volunteer department, also can be realized without being a burden to the city," he said.

Lorman pointed out that the greatest support is going to be needed on the annexation. He explained that the council favors the move, not because it would give the city added taxpayers, but because it would give added income through returns from the County road and bridge fund and from the cigarette tax. "It also would give us identification along the major highway," he said, "and we feel the benefits would more than offset the costs for taking care of the increased areas."

"Residents would benefit from lower insurance rates, in some instances by a 50 per cent reduction in annual premiums, through coverage from the fire department, which is taking care of the area now only through the goodness of the firemen."

The mayor also said that before his term expires, he is going to push for revision of the charter. "Many items in the present charter are obsolete and impossible to work with and are holding us back. One, in particular, is that under our present laws, we cannot effectively enforce collection of back taxes . . . neither can we sell the property on tax deeds," he said. In conclusion, he suggested that more chamber members attend the council meetings and invited suggestions for services and improvements desired by the people.

'Miracle' Saves Navy Fireman

One of the luckiest men alive is a seaman who is a member of the Sanford Navy Base Fire Department. He answered the call to put out the fire following the collision and crash of the two Skywarrior here Thursday afternoon.

He is Seaman A. T. Boyle. In the rush of activity at the scene, Boyle somehow fell underneath a huge foam truck. The dual wheels at the rear of the truck rolled on his leg and stopped. The truck had to be moved off him.

When Boyle was taken to the Base Dispensary it was found that his leg not only was not broken, but that he had only a bruise. "This is the only good thing to come out of the crash," said Cmdr. J. E. Andrews of Operations. The doctor in the Dispensary, Capt. W. W. Henderson, said, "He's the luckiest boy alive." The ground in that part of the field was so soft that the wheels did not break Boyle's leg when they rolled on it, Henderson said.

Salvage Due To Begin After Investigation

A Navy board begins an on-the-spot investigation today of an air collision that sent two jet bombers crashing in flames, killing all six crewmen and narrowly missing a house and a school.

The Navy identified the victims as Cdr. Malcomb A. Lea, 38, pilot of the jet; Lt. Adrian D. Spees, 29; pilot of the other plane; Lt. Bruce H. Graham, 31; Lt. Donald J. Brough, 36; bombardier-navigator; Harold R. Kelsey, 38, aviation ordinance man, and Robert M. Weaver, 25, aviation mechanic.

Supt. of Schools R. T. Milwee announced this morning that the school board will meet with NAS officials and members of the Armed Forces Committee of the Chamber of Commerce to clarify "flight patterns over Seminole High School."

Salvage operations were to start after the investigating board finished its inspection of the charred crash scene on the shore of Lake Jennie about two miles from the Sanford Naval Air Station. The planes collided in the air and plunged to earth Thursday afternoon.

One of the multi-jet A7D Skywarrior attack bombers landed in a back yard, flattening a shed and setting fire to the back of a house. The site was about 300 yards from Seminole High School, whose pupils had left only 35 minutes before the crash.

The second plane fell nearby in a patch of pine woods. The Navy said the planes collided at about 1,000 feet. One plane was on ground-controlled approach and the other was practicing field mirror landings.

The crash scene was sparsely dotted with homes. Burning debris from the plane and mutilated bodies were flung over a wide area. The main wreckage of the two jets dug deep holes in the ground.

One of the planes crashed into the back yard of Mrs. Stanley Oglesby's home. Her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lelloy Strawder, have been staying there, but said nobody was home at the time of the crash.

A landing gear from the jet bounced against the side of the house and another piece of wreckage smashed a back-yard shed. Flames at the rear of the house were quickly extinguished by firemen.

One witness said the planes appeared to brush wings before they exploded. Another said one plane seemed to settle atop the other. "It was the most awful thing I ever saw," a woman said.

One of the planes was from Heavy Attack Squadron 3, stationed at Sanford and the other from Squadron 11—the same one which lost another Skywarrior and its three man crew in Lake George last Friday.

The crash just before the heavy late afternoon traffic began streaming along French Ave. to the outlying areas attracted hundreds of automobiles full of people to the scene.

Curious crowds pushed in close to the wreckage in spite of repeated warnings by police, highway patrolmen, deputies and Navy men that an explosion might occur.

The last fire trucks to reach the scene were slowed by the parked cars and pedestrians. A huge column of smoke went up from the burning aircraft, parts of which were scattered for a quarter of a mile in the lightly wooded area.

One woman said she saw the two planes close together as she drove along Grapeville Ave.

"I just knew they were going to hit while I watched," she said. "They seemed to come together all of a sudden and I had a feeling something was wrong with one of them."

Firm To Begin Next Week On Land Options

A nationally known company will begin taking options next week on land in Seminole and Volusia counties for the construction of a solid fuels plant, John Krider, manager of the Seminole Chamber of Commerce, told the Civitan Club Thursday night.

"The initial option will be for 50,000 to 55,000 acres of land in east Seminole and southeast Volusia, and the prime requisite is water transportation," Krider explained.

"It looks now as if the canal will have to come into the Indian River south of Titusville. It formerly was scheduled to come in on the north side, but they have now developed a well field there, which will make it necessary to approach from a different direction," Krider said.

"We have already secured commitments from property owners to give their property for the canal and for the first time in history we have the whole-hearted support of the Governor of Florida," Krider added.

The canal can now be built on the state level, from Sanford to Titusville, and the necessary $11 million will be forthcoming from a source which Krider cannot reveal at this time," Krider said, in answer to a question.

Krider praised Secretary of State Tom Adams for the great job he has done in promoting the waterways development program which has given the slot in the arm needed for the acceptance of the canal on the state level. He predicted that Adams, who will be in Sanford next week as guest of the Chamber at a dinner, "will be the governor of the state one of these days."

Krider also pointed out that the tremendous economic boost of the canal to Sanford would offset the eventual phasing out of the Sanford Naval Air Station.

Castro Reported Faking Invasion

United Press International Premier Fidel Castro may be plotting a fake invasion of Cuba as an excuse to "liquidate" the imprisoned leaders of the unsuccessful April 17 Bay of Pigs attack, exile leaders said today.

They said they were warned of the possibility of such an intrigue by friendly Latin American diplomats in secret dispatches from Havana.

Cuban Revolutionary Council President Jose Miro Cardona said one such source quoted Castro personally as saying there would be an "invasion" of Cuba "within 10 days from three places."

Miro said it was well known that exiles were not presently in a position for an "immediate" attack on Castro. He pointed out that six governments accused this week by Castro of training invasion troops had denied the allegations.

"It would be like Castro to fake an invasion to enable him to fix a pretext to liquidate the men who led the April 17 attack whose lives he is now obliged to respect under international law relating to prisoners of war," Miro said.

BROKEN VOWS

A Vow Is A Serious Thing

Our promise and your performance reveal the quality of your soul.

A promise will make a friend but performance will keep him. Are you keeping your marriage vows, your vows to your church or synagogue? When you make vows to God, do you keep them or do you go AWOL on Him? "When thou shalt vow a vow unto the Lord thy God, thou shalt not slack to pay it, for the Lord thy God will surely require it of thee." Faithful performance of good vows strengthens character, honors God and makes a better citizen.

DeBary Catholic Church Dedicated Last Saturday

By MRS. ADAM MULLER

The St. Ann Catholic Church of DeBary, located west of Highbanks Rd., was dedicated at formal ceremonies last Saturday when Archbishop Joseph Hurley conducted a 10 a. m. Mass with men of the church forming a guard of honor.

The dedication marked the opening of a day of celebration for members of the church who, following the services, sponsored a bazaar which has been in preparation for many weeks.

There were games of chance, white elephant sales, booths selling ceramics, baked goods, balloons, plants and many other items and the fish pond and post office booths offered prizes galore.

VA Explains Loan Plan On Policies

Premium payments and interest on commercial life insurance policies of Reservists and National Guardsmen who are ordered to active duty may be guaranteed by the Veterans Administration under provisions of the Soldiers and Sailors Civil Relief Act, the VA announced.

This protection, VA said, covers the policyholder's period of active service and two years afterward. It applies only to life policies that do not impose special premium rates for military duties or clauses limiting benefits because of service. The total amount that VA can guarantee must not exceed $10,000 in each case.

Benjamin S. Beach, Officer in Charge of the VA Office at Orlando reminded veterans, however, that the protection is in reality a loan against the policy and that the premiums and interest thus guaranteed must eventually be repaid by the veteran.

The policy also must have been in effect for at least 180 days before the owner entered active service and must be in force on a premium basis at the time of application for protection. U. S. Government and National Service Life Insurance policies are not eligible under the act.

"I will discuss the Golub case in Moscow, but I expect to be back here in two weeks' time," Ponomarekko said as he boarded the plane.

Role Of Church In Citizenship' Topic Of Civics Class Speaker

By JANE CASSELBERRY

Rev. Oscar Poole of the Casselberry Community Methodist Church was guest lecturer to students in the Lyman High Civics Class last Friday.

Speaking on the role of churches in American citizenship, he stressed the relationship between the home, school and church in America, reminding the boys and girls that the very first sentence of our Bill of Rights guarantees freedom of religion for the nation's people.

He also advised of the many services and activities provided by American churches, other than worship services, naming examples such as counseling, sponsoring youth groups, building educational institutions, welfare work and mission work.

Rev. Poole closed his address with the recitation of Rudyard Kipling's "If," bringing a round of spontaneous applause from the class which is part of the new block teaching system being used at Lyman this year.

This week, Rev. Poole has been at the Methodist Youth Camp near Leesburg where he attended the Florida Pastor's School for five days of inspirational study under many outstanding Methodist leaders.

Mr. C. K. Watson Dies Thursday

Mr. Clery Kenneth Watson, 74, of 380 Piney Ridge Rd., Casselberry, died Thursday following a lengthy illness.

Survivors are his wife, Mrs. Leola Watson of Casselberry and a sister, Miss Albia Veva Watson of Clarksville, Ohio.

Funeral services will be held at 10 a. m. Saturday at the Cop-Parker Funeral Home in Winter Park with Rev. Oscar C. Poole officiating.

Burial will be in Plymouth, Ohio.

Plans Special Service

Charles R. Beeler, public relations department secretary of the Florida Conference of Seventh-Day Adventists, will be guest speaker at the 11 a. m. Saturday service of the Sanford Church. Milwee Explains Textbook Shortage

Members of the Seminole County School board and trustees met Thursday with parent and teacher delegates to the County Council of schools, at Seminole High School.

The board members and trustees were introduced and their duties and obligations outlined to the Council members by R. T. Milwee, superintendent of county schools. Milwee reminded the council of the trustee election coming up on November 7th.

School trustees serve without compensation and school board members, who are not up for election at this time receive the nominal fee of $50 a month for their expenses, Milwee stated.

"Also on the ballot," Milwee said, "is the vote for 3.75 mills which is the same as last year."

Milwee pointed out that Seminole County spends less than one percent of its estimated wealth (real estate assessments) on its schools. He pleaded with listeners to "ask the man who knows" when issues come up, instead of discussing it among yourselves over the back fence."

"However, if you live less than two miles from school, we are carrying your child on the bus through our Courtesy Rule and not through legal obligation."

Milwee pointed out that 30 years ago, "when you parents were in school" we spent 25 cents out of every tax dollar on our schools and now in this year of greater increase in population, we only allot 11 cents of our tax dollars toward our children's education.

"There is no danger of bankrupting Seminole County, but there certainly is danger of bankrupting our children's education, with the low regard in which we hold our schools, our teachers and our educational system."

Grace Methodists Plan Dual-Purpose Event For Saturday

Members of the Grace Methodist Church have planned an afternoon of fun with an auction to follow for Saturday and have invited the public to join them on the church grounds at 5 p. m. for the event, according to W. Thomas Parson Jr., pastor of the church.

The entertainment was planned with a two-fold purpose, Parson said, explaining that all proceeds from the auction, sales booths and pony rides will aid the church in building a Youth Hall while also offering several hours of good clean fun to members of the church, their friends and residents of the Sanford area.

"And, as an added attraction for the auction which is scheduled to get underway promptly at 7 p. m., arrangements have been made to give some lucky person in the audience an absolutely free car... no tickets to buy, no admission to pay... just be there," he said.

Grace Methodist Church is located at Woodland Dr. on Onora Rd., south of Sanford.

Pane Breaking

Years ago progressive-minded architects insistently demanded better designed school buildings with lots of light and air—which meant big areas of glass. Now we're getting them, and in some cities and towns they have become an almost intolerable burden. The reason: vandalism.

With the "modern school" here, authorities are turning to such modern culprit catchers as the electric eye, electronic fence and similar devices, hoping thus to preserve the fancy new buildings for the youngsters who are said to need them so badly.

Dr. Crane's

Worry Clinic

Here's a valuable "get" idea. When people go far away from home, whether to college or into military service, they feel very homesick. So don't forget to write them frequently. And to make sure they receive a large printed message each day from their home town, send them a subscription to this daily newspaper.

CASE K-423; Jeff E., aged 20, is a sergeant in the Marines.

"Dr. Crane, my sweetheart knew that I always followed your Case Reports in the St. Louis Globe-Democrat," he wrote to me from Germany.

"So she sent me a subscription to the paper as a gift. Now I can keep up-to-date on your cases and also on the comics and other home town news.

"You'd be surprised at the number of men who come to me to borrow my Globe-Democrat. They literally wear it out.

"It's like a fat letter from home everyday. I wish more people would think about sending the newspaper to the fellows in camp.

"Some of our boys get very few letters, and almost go crazy with homesickness."

It would be a good idea if more people were as thoughtful as Jeff's sweetheart. Offer a newspaper subscription as a dandy gift!

The home to a newspaper cheers up the spirits of the lone-some soldier, as well as the college student.

And if he comes from a small town, then the personals are evidently read. Besides, he knows many of the people about whom he sees local news stories.

While it is very thoughtful to send a man a magazine or book, the newspaper is even more greatly enjoyed, for it keeps up-to-date and offers a wide variety of interesting features, comics and cartoons.

Your newspaper is far more educational and enlightening than many people realize.

Just this psychology column alone, for example, gives you 26 varied scientific articles each month, or almost the contents of Reader's Digest magazine, and I have less than one column per day.

There are eight columns per page in a standard sized newspaper and five columns in a tabloid. So just think how much printed matter you receive for your seven cents. It equals a fair-sized book!

You get news stories and a psychology column. A health column and a financial column. Several literary and political columns by famous writers are also included.

You have a full editorial page containing essays on political science, economics, and current events of international consequence.

You have heard of the Book-of-The-Month-Club. Well, this newspaper gives you a book of printed matter every week! Newspaper subscribers belong to a Book-of-The-Day-Club.

Send the newspaper to your parents who may be away for a month or two visiting their other children, or wintering in a warmer climate.

Mail it to your children in college and to your sons and daughters in the military service.

The newspaper supplements your letters and describes many things which you may forget to include in your personal correspondence.

3 Harbor Projects Slated For State

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Three harbor improvement projects slated for Florida's 1962 fiscal year were approved by the Army Wednesday.

Sens. Spessard L. Holland and George A. Smathers, together with Congressman Paul G. Rogers, announced the Secretary of the Army had approved the half-million dollar projects.

The operations are: A Gulf Coast shrimp boat harbor at Naples to cost $111,000; dredging of a six-foot-deep, 80-foot-wide channel from the Intracoastal Waterway to a turning basin at Ozona near St. Petersburg, to cost $164,000, and dredging of a similar channel from the mouth of the Barron River at Everglades City across Chokoloskee Bay to the Gulf, an estimated $123,000 project.

Beware Of Greeks With Road News

By R. H. WASKELL.

PATRAS, Greece. (Sp.) — We had been told that in Greece the roads were awful, garlic and olive oil the chief cooking ingredients, the wine undrinkable, the scenery superb, and the natives friendly.

After ten days in Greece, we can report that the roads, except for a few hundred miles of main highways, are worse than awful. It took us 4½ hours to go 65 miles on what was supposed to be the main route west from Delphi and was indicated with a nice bright line on our map. This particular road had not even been scraped lately, but the government is building extensive highways all over Greece. Either because they are enthusiastic or it is more economical they tear up 80 miles at a stretch. Traffic is allowed through, so you go over broken pavement, no pavement at all, dodging road working equipment and laborers, hoping that your transmission will not be ripped out by the high curbs. It will be a long time before an extensive motor trip through Greece is feasible.

Greek food was a pleasant surprise. It shows the influence of the Turks who held Greece for so long — meat and rice cooked in grape leaves, moussaka, a mixture of lamb and eggplant, and the rich, beautiful, and delicious Turkish pastries, ruinous to the figure. But there is a great deal less olive oil used than in Italy and garlic was conspicuous by its absence as were pepper and onions. Grilled shishkabob, grilled fish and shellfish, unsauced fresh vegetables and fruit, excellent cheese are readily available and plain enough for the simplest tastes.

Beware the coffee, which turns out to be a kind of sweet mud unless you firmly specify not Turkish.

The same goes for the famous resinated wine, an acquired taste. We were not in Greece long enough to acquire it, though when only lightly resinated it is refreshing on a hot day. The non-resinated wines are delicious and will go well with the food.

Uzo, the national aperitif, is reminiscent of Pernod and not bad. The brandy is sweeter than French but acceptable.

The scenery more than lived up to its advance notices. You are never very far away from the sea even when behind one of the mauve mountains that rise out of it. The Aegean is ultramarine at the horizon, fading to turquoise and becoming a milky translucent jade at the shore, as clear as the Caribbean, beautiful to see and a joy to swim in.

The hundreds-of-years-old olive trees with their silvery leaves and twisted black trunks, the even rows of grapevines, terraced on the mountains, the black-green umbrella pines and tall pointed cypresses growing in the reddish earth, all combine to make a marvelous panorama wherever you look.

Added to this are the ruins, some of which are well-known but others turn up unexpectedly along the road. The Acropolis is, of course, impressive and beautiful. Delphi evokes the mystery, legend and superstition of old religions.

But the less-known and even ignored ruins add to the feeling of the continuity of the history of this land which has been lived in and fought over for so long. The Ionic columns of the temple of Poseidon, built on the southernmost tip of Attica, are still the first sight a sailor coming from the Middle East has of the Greek mainland as they have been for 2500 years.

The remains of a medieval fortress on the mountain above all that is left of ancient Corinth is a reminder of the Crusaders and the power of Venice. The foundations of a villa across from an aggressively modern hotel at fashionable Glyfada Beach show that the Romans found and enjoyed the sea and sand there, too.

A spotlight in government and industry shines on housing for the elderly.

Recognizing that our population will consist of larger numbers of retired folk each year, there are plans coast-to-coast to provide the needed shelter. Already many older folk are enjoying housing engineered not simply to meet a fixed income budget but their physical needs as well.

Both federal and state financial aid has been a spur to builders to supply this market with varying categories of housing.

These include houses for owner occupancy — persons over 65 — providing they have young relatives as co-signers and can prove ability to carry the costs or can get an FHA mortgage and find a home designed for their needs either integrated in a community or in colonies of retired persons.

There are more apartments available for the elderly than ever before, both in public housing projects and privately constructed for profit or by nonprofit sponsorship. Finally, there is also an increase in institutional and noninstitutional group housing; that is, housing which includes care and services

SEMINOLE-DeBARY COUNCIL P. O. BOX 106 SANFORD, FLA.

Peter Edson's Political Notebook

WASHINGTON (NEA)—Mention of U Thant of Burma as a dark horse possibility to succeed UN Secretary-General Dag Hammarskjöld brings into Western limelight a little-known Asiatic diplomat.

There is no assurance yet that U Thant, Mongi Sika of Tunisia or anybody else will or will not get the job. As it moves into its fourth week of debate without having done anything, the general assembly is still trying to find an acceptable formula for naming Hammarskjöld's successor.

Numerous intermediaries from the Soviet Union have all brought out different versions of Russian proposals. Every one was a feather. None was reduced to writing nor made definite enough for serious negotiations.

It was for this reason that the United States felt it necessary to restate its unchanged support for an interim secretary-general with full authority, named by the general assembly without a controlling group of three or four or five undersecretaries, and without political representation of any kind.

Selection of U Thant may be a compromise solution for this otherwise insurmountable difficulty. He has not pushed himself as a candidate. When his name was first suggested just after the assembly convened, the Burma statesman said he would have to ask his government if he could accept that approval has been given.

He has been coming to the UN for 10 years, and for the last four has been head of Burma's permanent delegation. He knows the political ups and downs of the UN skyscraper and the sideways movements of its delegates' lounge.

He has the respect of his colleagues in the Afro-Asian bloc of new nations and was their chairman last year.

One principal criticism of his candidacy is that he has never held a high position in his own government. But neither had Trygve Lie nor Dag Hammarskjöld when they were named secretary-general. Their reputations were national and regional.

U Thant is 51 years old. After graduation from Rangoon University he became a high school teacher and headmaster. He was on the board which reorganized the educational system when Burma became independent after the war.

In 1947 he became press director for the Burmese government and then director of broadcasting. He became secretary to Prime Minister U Nu in 1953, then secretary of the cabinet.

American newspaper correspondents who have covered U Thant's office in both Burma and New York have found him to be a talented executive in a quiet, genteel way.

He is also a tough administrator; unyielding, impossible to push around. He did some effective work in curbing Burmese Communists. At the UN he has on occasion equaled even Gromyko in short, pointed speeches he writes himself, in longhand.

U Thant is a Buddhist. A man of that faith would be something different in high international councils, but his philosophy might contribute a great deal to world peace.

In his speech during UN general debate last year, U Thant pointed out that the main obstacle to peace was the world's division into two hostile, ideological camps, "each suspicious and fearful of the other and both scrambling to entice recruits into their respective ranks."

This would seem to mark U Thant as a neutralist. But he observed that peace cannot be established by passive neutralism.

U Thant has urged continuous efforts to reach some agreement on disarmament. And he has been an active supporter of the idea that a ban on nuclear testing is an essential preliminary to an agreement that will halt the arms race. He supported Red China Chou En-lai's proposal of 1959 for clearing Asia and the Pacific of all nuclear weapons, not questioning its good faith.

U Thant supported Secretary-General Hammarskjöld's actions in carrying out security council resolutions in the Congo. He declared that his government may need to modify the secretary-general's functions nor to reorganize his office.

"The Congo," he said, "marked the start of a new phase in UN evolution. It is our fervent hope that it will emerge as the world's indispensable agency."

With the world in a period of acute crisis, he regarded as a most hopeful sign the fact that all significant campaigns in the cold war are being fought out in the UN.

Red Tests Pollute Milk In 6 States

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Russia's nuclear tests have put radioactive iodine into milk in six southeastern states, the U. S. Public Health Service (PHS) said Thursday.

U. S. Surgeon General Luther L. Terry said that radioactive iodine found in milk from Louisiana, Georgia, South Carolina, Mississippi, Florida and Missouri is probably indicative of the degree of such contamination in the eastern part of the country.

Terry said that the government is "keeping close watch over the situation." He added that present levels of radioactivity do not warrant "undue public concern nor a public action designed to limit the intake" of milk.

The PHS has reported increases in atmospheric radioactivity over most of the United States since the Russians began their tests. Today's report was the first involving radioactivity of fresh food supplies.

Seminoles-Seabreeze Clash in Daytona Tonight

Game Called Most Crucial By Pigott

By PETE LEVYQUE
Herald Sports Editor

A large crowd of excited Seminole fans is expected to cheer on the undefeated, unscathed upon Seminole Varsity football team at 8 p. m. today as the third ranked Central Florida Seminoles travel to Daytona Beach to meet fourth ranked Seabreeze in what may well be the Seminoles' most spectacular game of the season.

Seminole Head Coach Jim Pigott feels that this is the "most crucial game that the Seminoles will play all season. This contest is important not only because of the necessity of keeping our winning streak, but to give us the ambition and the incentive to press on to an undefeated season," said the Coach.

The Seminoles rank third in Central Florida in the Dunkel high school ratings, outranked only by Haines City, number one, and Ocala, number two. The Seminoles have only a 4 rating edge in a point rating of 85.4 over 4th ranked Seabreeze which is rated at 83.0. From this rating schedule it may be inferred that the two ball clubs are evenly-matched. However, Seabreeze is favored slightly over the Seminoles in a poll of sportswriters.

Coach Pigott's unscathed-upon undefeated Seminoles are the underdog as far as average team weight is concerned. The Seabreeze Sandcrabs have an approximate average weight margin of 10 lbs. per player over the undefeated Seminoles.

The strategic offensive ability of the Seminole scoring specialists should offset this advantage on a play-by-play comparative analysis. Coach Pigott boasts a "variable and powerful offense" which may turn the tide in the Seminoles' direction. Mighty tactical running play from the "T" wing, the single wing, and the other alignments which will be thrown at the Sandcrabs should stack the deck for the nicknamed "one-eyed Jack" Seminoles as they pour boiling energy on the shells of the Sandcrabs.

At starting left halfback position will be battle-ridden top-scoring Seminole Bubba Davis, a 165-lb. senior who has made 24 of the 66 points which the undefeated Seminoles have plastered on the opposition in three ball games in which no opposing team has scored or won. Davis is the player the Seminoles count on for most of their scoring plays and is the player to watch in tonight's crucial match.

Fullback Bill Phagan will start for the Seminoles in fullback position with halfback Butch Riser in the right halfback position. Riser made a touchdown good for 6 points in the Seminoles' opening game of the season against Titusville which the Seminoles walked away with in an unprecedented 40-0 victory.

Muscular 155 lb. quarterback Jim Terwilliger will be the man in the Seminoles' lead-off quarterback post. As quarterback, Terwilliger displays nerves of steel and almost amazing passing ability which up to now has not been fully utilized by the Seminoles, but which may appear in tonight's game.

In starting offensive tackle positions will be 189 lb. Bob Lewis at left tackle and 187 lb. Eugene Williams at right tackle. These boys have showed up well in previous games and should be on keen alert against the Sandcrabs.

Starting offensive guards are Captain Russ Pearson, a 186 lb. senior who will be in left guard position and Vick Welsh, a 174 lb. senior in right guard position. These boys are indispensable to the Seminoles and are the key to their offensive position.

Starting Seminoles in the end positions will be 160 lb. John Boniface at left end and 178 lb. Don Harvey at right end. Watch these boys in tonight's offensive attack.

Bayer Paces Ontario Open

ONTARIO, Calif. (UPI) — George Bayer, golf's home run hitter, is the front-runner today going into the second round of the $50,000 72-hole Ontario Open. The 6-foot-4, 240-pound Bayer fired a 6-under par 33-31-64 Thursday in the first round and set a competitive course record on the new Whispering Lakes golf course.

Sanford Jayvees Slam DeLand, 33-0

With suspense-packed action and a fast-moving, lively running ball game, Seminole High's still undefeated Junior Varsity "D" Squad painfully blundered 33-0 the DeLand Junior Bulldogs in a gridiron contest that was hampered with a soggy, rain-soaked field and a slippery ball.

Early in the game the tide was seen going toward the Indians as Seminole star Billy Lovelace made the first touchdown for the Sanford Junior Varsity players early in the first quarter. The extra point was tried for and made by halfback Lloyd Freeman to bring the score to 7-0 for the Seminoles.

In the first part of the second quarter, starting left halfback Jimmy Westlund received a punt from the Bulldogs and made a staggering 35 yard run before he was downed deep in Bulldog territory.

Seminole Center Dan McCall, a valuable "B" squared player, intercepted a second quarter pass intended for the Bulldogs, and made an awe-inspiring 40 yard run.

In a spectacular passing play by quarterback star Billy Lovelace which was to be duplicated later in the ball game, starting right end Dave McGillis scored for the Seminoles. The kick for the extra point was tried and blocked.

A tremendous amount of fumbling occurred in this ball game because of the football field which had received almost 1/2 inch of rain preceding the game. However, in more cases than not, this excessive fumbling was to the Seminoles' advantage.

Two of the touchdowns for the Junior Varsity Squad of Seminole High were scored in outstanding quarterback sneaks by Seminole star quarterback Billy Lovelace. A lot of yardage was picked up for the Seminoles by fullback Jack Coole, the player who scored three touchdowns in last week's Seminole Junior Varsity 26-0 blast of the Titusville Terriers.

Lyman Favored Over FMS

Lyman Football Field is expected to bulge with gridiron fans tonight as Lyman's undefeated fighting Greyhounds play host to the Cadets of DeLand's Florida Military Academy in the Greyhounds' 8th gridiron contest of the season.

Lyman's Greyhounds are the strong favorites in tonight's gridiron contest and are favored to overturn the Cadets by a three touchdown margin. The Florida Military Academy players are in possession of one advantage: They have a strong line, whereas Lyman's main weakness is their line.

Whether this fact will have any appreciable effect on tonight's game remains to be seen. Lyman's practice sessions reveal one important aspect of gridiron balance. The offensive backfield outweighs the line in relative position ability, power and strategic advantage. This will show up in some of the later games which Lyman will play this season more so than in this one. Halfback Jim Williams, starter in tonight's game in right halfback position, is the top scorer of the Lyman Greyhounds' backfield. Williams' backfield ability has been to the Greyhounds' advantage this season and would be even more far-reaching than it could be if necessary support were obtained from the line. In general, no major changes

Colorado, Hurricanes Top Grid Slate

United Press International

Undeveloped Colorado meets the Miami Hurricanes at the Orange Bowl tonight—and an impressive victory could land the Buffaloes back in the Sunshine State for the post-season classic.

Colorado, however, still must win the Big Eight title to qualify for the Orange Bowl bid.

Sonny Grandelius' squad has won its first two games, blanking Oklahoma State and squeaking by Kansas last week, and is rated even with the Hurricanes, who possess a 2-3 record.

Miami, seeking to rebound after last week's upset loss to Navy, will be without the services of star quarterback George Mira and a number of regular linebackers.

In other Friday night games, kicking off the big college football weekend, winless Tulane (0-3) takes on Virginia Tech (1-1) and Detroit (2-0) plays host to Boston College, which has failed to score in its first three starts.

Main interest around the nation on Saturday will be centered on the traditional match between second-ranked Michigan and eighth-ranked Michigan State at Ann Arbor. The oddsmakers have made Michigan a one-point favorite over the Spartans.

The game will be televised over the ABC network, starting at 2:15 p.m.

The top-ranked Mississippi Rebels, with Doug Emore filling in nicely for the departed Jake Gibbs, is a 20-point choice as they play host to Houston.

Texas, ranked No. 3, carries a devastating ground and passing attack against one-time powerful Oklahoma this week. The Longhorns are a 14-point choice.

Fourth-ranked Alabama (3-0) is a 16-point pick to hold off North Carolina State and its passing ace Roman Gabriel. Iowa, which dropped to No. 5 after edging Southern California last week, is a heavy favorite over Big Ten rival Indiana.

Notre Dame, rated No. 7 and on the way back as a gridiron power, plays Southern California, a 13-point underdog, at South Bend. Eighth-ranked Ohio State is a big favorite over Illinois.

Baylor, tied for 10th with Maryland, meets a tough conference opponent, Arkansas, with the Bears a six-point favorite. Maryland is picked by 10 over North Carolina.

In the West Coast's top games, the Washington Huskies, in pursuit of a third straight Rose Bowl trip, are a strong choice over newly California.

Other top games pit Penn State against Army; Pittsburgh against West Virginia, and Navy versus Cornell in the East. Down South, Georgia Tech takes on undefeated Duke, Louisiana State engages South Carolina and Clemson meets Wake Forest.

In the Midwest, Northwestern clashes with Minnesota, Wisconsin plays Oregon State, Syracuse meets Nebraska, and Kansas engages Iowa State.

Fri. Oct. 13, 1961 — Page 6

are indicated in the starting offensive lineup. Carl Prueley will remain at fullback position. Halfback Jerry Watkins will be at left halfback for Lyman with Gene Griffin at starting quarterback.

In four games the Greyhounds are undefeated. They have piled up an admirable total of 66 points to their opponents 8 points in these games. They are rated fourth among the independents with a Dunkel rating of 37.4. They are outrated by Seabreeze, number one; Bishop Moore, number two; and Vero Beach, number three in the class of independents. The Greyhounds are not scheduled to play any of the independent teams ranked above them.

Yankee Kubek Reserve Bound

MILWAUKEE (UPI) — New York Yankee infielder Tony Kubek is expected to have to report for active duty with Wisconsin's 32nd National Guard Division Nov. 3.

Headquarters of the 14th Army Corps in Minneapolis would neither confirm or deny rumors that the Yankee star has been activated, but a Madison television sports director said he has seen a note or orders with Kubek's name included activating him.

Maj. Edwin J. Caffery, public information officer for the 14th Corps, said Kubek was in a "very susceptible category" of the Army Reserves being called to fill up the undermanned 32nd. But he would not say definitely that Kubek has been ordered to report.

Sports director John Schimmerhorn of WKOW-TV in Madison said he saw the orders activating Kubek with a number of other southern Wisconsin reservists. He said the orders call for Kubek to report to the 32nd Nov. 3 at Ft. Lewis, Wash. He said the orders call for Kubek to be activated for a period of one year.

Kemp Granted Military Delay

BEAR MOUNTAIN, N. Y. (UPI)—Jack Kemp, the star quarterback of the undefeated San Diego Chargers, has been granted a delay in his reporting date for active military duty.

Kemp, rejected by the Navy because of a chronic shoulder separation, was originally scheduled to report to an Army transportation company in San Diego for active duty Sunday.

However, it was announced on Thursday in Washington that the Army surgeon general's office has asked 6th Army Headquarters in San Francisco for more information before reaching a decision on Kemp's appeal for a deferment on medical grounds.

Gators, Other SEC Teams Face Rugged Opponents

By United Press International

Southeastern Conference football teams, facing a rugged assault from non-conference opposition this weekend, have been hard hit by injuries ranging from a broken hand to the old fashioned Charlie horse.

Kentucky halfback Darrell Cox, the owner of the broken hand, will be available only for kicking chores when the Wildcats take on Kansas State Saturday.

The Wildcats also will be without the services of fullback Gary Cochran and quarterback Elmer Jackson.

Tulane fullback Lenny Stein, the victim of a chronic Charlie Horse, will be sidelined along with tackle Bill Kellum and halfback George Oechner when the Greenies meet Virginia Tech. Kellum and Oechner have knee injuries.

Tennessee tailback George Canale may get the starting role against Tulsa since Glenn Glass is still recovering from facial injuries suffered in the Mississippi State game.

Three injured Florida players are expected to be on the sidelines when the Gators play Rice. They are tackle Floyd Bean, fullback Cecil Ewell and guard Jerome Jones.

Halfback Steve Shaw was on Vanderbilt's injured list and was not expected to see action against the UCLA Bruins.

Alabama Coach Paul Bryant said some of his players were limping, but halfback Duff Morrison was the only one likely to miss the North Carolina State game.

All SEC teams held light drills Thursday.

Fullmer, Paret Bout Looms

WEST JORDAN, Utah (UPI)—Negotiations are nearly complete for a middleweight title bout in December between Gene Fullmer and Benny (Kid) Paret, Fullmer's manager revealed here today.

Mary Johnson said "it looks very close" when asked if Fullmer would meet Paret in Las Vegas on Dec. 9.

Fullmer, the National Boxing Association's middleweight champion, and Paret, the waterweight title-holder, would battle in a Las Vegas Convention Hall in a nationally televised bout.

NCAA Moves To Stop Sports Bribery

KANSAS CITY, Mo. (UPI) — The National Collegiate Athletic Association today recommended a 16-point program aimed at combating "the criminal conspiracy of bribery" in college sports.

The program was drafted by the NCAA after months of study and review of information and suggestions obtained from a variety of college agencies, the New York County district attorney's office, and the permanent subcommittee in investigations of the House of Representatives.

The report, issued by NCAA executive Director Walter Byers, urged passage of federal anti-gaming and anti-bribery laws. It also encouraged state legislatures to enact anti-bribery laws.

"The cancerous core from which much of this evil spreads is organized gambling," the report added, "and both recent legislation and proposed laws pending before Congress can do much to strike against this recognized evil."

Several gamblers have been indicted by the New York County grand jury on bribery charges involving basketball games. The jury granted immunity to the players involved for testifying. In North Carolina, other players have been indicted in connection with a bribery scandal there.

The NCAA report said colleges themselves must take the offensive in the fight against bribery "by pursuing their own self-improvement program."

Ten of the 16 recommendations were directed toward improving basic procedures in college athletic administration. They would be implemented by NCAA, conference or institutional action.

Five of the proposals were aimed explicitly at the problem of organized gambling and the final one suggests that regional accrediting associations strengthen general academic requirements to "avoid admitting students who are not qualified to realize the moral and intellectual goals of the institution."

Dutton-Wilkins Wedding Solemnized At Presbyterian Church In Sanford

Miss June Rose Dutton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Stewart Fyle Dutton of Sanford, became the bride of William Raynor Wilkins, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Percival Wilkins of Tacoma, Wash., Sept. 23 at 7 p.m. at the First Presbyterian Church in Sanford.

Rev. Grover C. Sewell Jr., pastor, officiated at the double ring candlelight ceremony. Among the church decorations were two identical crescent shaped arrangements of white chrysanthemums, topped palms and ginger; a background of palms and four, seven branched candelabra with Cathedral tapers. Pews were marked with clusters of small white flowers, fern and white satin ribbon.

Mrs. George Touhy, organist, presented a program of wedding selections including the traditional wedding marches and accompanied Dick Alken, soloist, who sang, "I Love Thee," "Because" and "The Lord's Prayer."

The bride was given in marriage by her uncle, Frank F. Dutton Jr., of Mt. Dora. Her bridal gown was fashioned with a figure molding chantilly lace bodice and long modded sleeves, ending in calli lily points over her hands.

The bouffant skirt of white bridal satin terminated in a chapel length train and her fingertip veil of pure silk English illusion fell in two tiers from a crown tiara of tiny seed pearls and sequins.

She wore a floating opal pendant necklace and matching earrings, a gift of the groom, and carried a white Bible, topped with white Cattleya Orchid and stephanotis with white satin ribbon streamers.

Mrs. Duval Wesley Inge of Miami served her sister as matron of honor and Miss Mariane Ludwig was bridesmaid. Little Miss Susan Inge, a niece of the bride, was flower girl.

The matron of honor and bridesmaid wore identical sheath dresses of cotton blue chantilly lace, over satin, designed with bateau neckline and brief sleeves. The bouffant, detachable overskirts were made of double layers of nylon tulle. They wore small matching hats of lace and tulle, wrist length gloves and carried crescent shaped bouquets of pink carnations.

The flower girl was exquisitely dressed in blue chantilly lace, over satin identical to those of the older attendants. She wore a matching headband with a cluster of flowers in her hair and carried pink carnations and stephanotis.

James T. Rosenow of Sanford was best man and serving as ushers were Jerry D. Smith of Sanford and Duval W. Inge of Miami.

Mrs. Dutton chose for her daughter's wedding an aqua marquisette over taffeta with moulded bodice, trimmed with taffeta cut-work, matching accessories, rhinestones sprinkled veil and a purple orchid corsage.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held in the Social Hall of the church. The refreshment table was covered with a lace cloth and centered with a pink floral arrangement. Other pink and white floral arrangements and greenery completed the decorations.

Mrs. W. S. Brumley and Mrs. Walter Steele served the four tiered wedding cake and Mrs. L. I. Frazier and Mrs. Irving Pryor presided at the punch bowl. Mrs. Marvin Miller kept the bride's book and floating hostesses were Mrs. Clarence Welsh, Mrs. James Rosenow, Mrs. Charles Harper and Mrs. P. T. Piety.

The couple left for a wedding trip to Tacoma, Wash., where they will visit the groom's parents, who were unable to attend the wedding, due to illness in the family. The bride chose, for traveling, a blue silk sheath dress, with bolero jacket, bone accessories and the orchid from her wedding bouquet.

Upon their return, they will reside at 213 1/2 West Sixteenth St., Sanford, while the groom is stationed at the Sanford Naval Air Station.

Out of town guests included Mr. and Mrs. Duval W. Inge and daughter, Susan, of Miami; Mr. and Mrs. Roy F. Dutton and son, Tony, and Mr. and Mrs. Ross S. Dutton and daughter, Susan, all of Orlando; Mr. and Mrs. F. F. Dutton Jr. of Mount Dora and Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Stephenson and Mr. and Mrs. Pat Prescott and daughter, Ramona, all of Maitland.

Mission Study Given By WMS

The Women's Missionary Society of the First Baptist Church held the first business and program meeting of the new year at the church this week.

The group met at 10:30 a.m. with Mrs. Cecil Tucker, president, officiating. Theme for the program for the day was "That Thy way may be known in Malaya, Indonesia and Singapore."

This study of Baptist mission work in this area brought out the history and geographical position of these countries and the customs and religions of their people.

Appropriate charts, maps, pictures and costumes worn by members on the program, were used to further carry out the theme.

Printed programs were given to each one present. They contained information about the countries, their sizes, population, principal products and also maps pointing out the principal cities. This added much to the program as members were able to check the various information during the presentation of the study.

Sixty women were present for the program which was presented by Circle One. Mrs. R. T. Thomas was program chairman, assisted by Mrs. Tucker. Following the business and program, a delicious luncheon was served.

We The Women:

By Ruth Millet

"Only a woman," says Comedian Jackie Mason, "can ask you, 'Don't turn around—but who is that couple that just came in?'"

Yep, that's true.

And only a woman can say without blushing, "Promise me you won't tell a soul, because I gave my word I wouldn't"—or expect an honest answer from a saleswoman to the question, "It's pretty, but isn't it a little too young for me?"

Only a woman can smile at another woman and say, "Darling, how good to see you. How wonderfully well you are looking!"—and at the same time let the other woman know that SHE knows she has gained ten pounds.

Only a woman can look a salesperson in the eye and say, blandly, "I'm just looking."

Only a woman can telephone a friend, admit there's nothing new and then talk steadily for 45 minutes.

Only a woman would answer the question, "How did you like the speaker?" with "Where in the world do you suppose she got that hat?"

Only a woman would snaver a man's charge that women take everything personally with, "Well, I don't."

Only a woman could look in a jam-packed closet and wail, "I simply haven't a thing to wear."

Only a woman has her mind stacked with an assortment of ready-made, plausible excuses for not doing what she doesn't want to do, so that she never has to hesitate a moment before coming out with a regretful, "I wish I could, but . . ."

Cooper Film Set For Movieland

Gary Cooper's last movie before his death will be coming to the Movieland Drive-In Sunday. The movie, a suspense thriller, "The Naked Edge" will star Deborah Kerr and also play through Tuesday.

The other feature on the program is "The Unforgiven" with But Lancaster and Audrey Hepburn.

On Wednesday and Thursday, "It Started With A Kiss" with Debbie Reynolds and Glenn Ford and "Jayhawker" with Chandler will play.

Three films will play on Friday and Saturday. They are "Hanselman's Knot," "Misty" and "Never Say Few."

ROCK HUDSON and Gina Lollobrigida in a scene from "Come September" opening Sunday at the Ritz Theatre.

Romantic Film Ritz Bound

For those who seek the utmost in any fun, the utmost zest in romance—double romance, at that—and excitement bursting with hilarity there is one immediate prescription—a quick visit to the Ritz Theatre Sunday to see Rock Hudson, Gina Lollobrigida, Sandra Dee, Bobby Darin and Walter Slezak in "Come September," the year's brightest, most carefree new motion picture.

This handsomely mounted Technicolor and Panavision movie abounds in romance and humor.

Recommendation enough is that the story was written for the screen by the same famed comedy-writing team, Stanley Shapiro and Maurice Richlin, who put the laughter in Hudson's first comedy, "Pillow Talk."

Dear Abby:

By Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: I am 33 and very home-ly, and I know it. I am not dumb, though. I had a very unhappy childhood, but I won't go into that. I've given men ten and twenty-dollar bills to take me out, and everybody thinks I'm terrible. My friends tell me I am crazy to spend my money like that, but I am lonely and no one ever asks me anywhere unless I pay. I don't see where it is any more wrong for a woman to take a man out and show him a good time than it is for a man to take a woman out. When you come right down to it, men buy companionship. So what's wrong with a woman doing the same thing if she has the money?

LONELY

DEAR LONELY: Traditionally, men have always "treated" the ladies, but if you are willing to pay your way—and his, and his—and his—with the kind of companionship you attract with your philosophy, then there is nothing wrong with it.

DEAR ABBY: Yesterday my mother told me to clean the kitchen; I found two rusty old pie tins on the top shelf that hadn't been used for years, so I threw them out. The next day my mother told me she had thirty dollars hidden between the pie tins. The garbage man had already hauled away our trash, so the thirty dollars were lost. I suppose I should have asked her before throwing away the pie tins, but I think it was mostly her fault for putting the money in such a place. She is so mad she hardly speaks to me. Do you think I was in the wrong? FEELING BAD

DEAR FEELING: You should not have been blamed for throwing out two worthless old pie tins. Both you and your mother had a very expensive lesson.

DEAR ABBY: I know a young woman quite well. I have heard a rumor that she had a child out of wedlock when she was 16 or 17. How can I find out if this is true or not?

INTERESTED MAN

DEAR INTERESTED: If she means something to you—ask her. If she means nothing to you—let's hear of your business.

CONFIDENTIAL TO "WRONGED": A good memory is fine . . . but the ability to "forget" is the true test of greatness. Forget it!

What's troubling you? Write Abby, care of Box 3865, Beverly Hills, Calif. Include self-addressed stamped envelope.

Jacoby On Bridge

By Oswald Jacoby

South's two no-trump response to North's take-out double was rather unusual, but it got them to a reasonable three no-trump.

The bidding could not have been too bad because it went the same way at both tables.

Both Wests opened the three of spades and the play went the same at each table with South taking the second spade in dummy and knocking out the ace of clubs. West continued spades and South cashed two clubs stopping in his hand and led the five of hearts. West played the eight and right here came the parting of the ways. One South played the 10 from dummy and wound up going down two tricks.

The other South went up with dummy's queen and after cashing the last two clubs was able to lead the 10 of hearts and finesse successfully against East's jack. This gave him enough tricks for his contract.

Some might call this luck, but the second South had a good reason for his play. West had bid diamonds and clearly shown four spades and three clubs. It was likely that he also held four diamonds which would leave him only two hearts. One was the eight; the other had to be the ace, therefore East was marked with the jack.

Viet-Nam Key To Pacific, Jaycees Told

"If we lose Viet-Nam, we will have lost all of Asia, and the Philippines to the Communists," Lt. Col. John Noel said Thursday speaking to the Jaycees at their luncheon meeting.

"The Soviet Union does not have any part on the China Sea, and if they gain control of the Iugoslavia at Saigon, they will have free access to the whole South Pacific," he explained.

Noel described how the Communist guerrillas have infiltrated the entire country and have been engaged in a constant harassment of the people there, killing off the village leaders, striking down one or two members of a family and "humiliating the others."

"The only way the Communists can take over there is by sheer terror tactics," Noel said. "The people have all they want to eat, employment is high and they can live well on the equivalent of 40 cents per day.

"So the Communists are not offering or promising them anything. They are terrorizing them into submission."

"We have made some bad mistakes in Viet-Nam, but now steps are being made to remedy this situation," Noel said.

"We tried to create a modern mechanized army in a backward country that has no roads," the Colonel said. "But now they are sending to Florida Everglades-inspired airplanes and helicopters."

Noel, who has just recently returned from a tour of duty with military personal advisors at the Viet-Nam Army training center there showed the Jaycees maps and explained a little of the history of the country and the background of the "shooting war" that is going on there now.

West Germany Prepares For War But Its People Don't Want One

By PHEL NEWBOM
UPI Foreign News Analyst

MUNICH, West Germany—The West German government is preparing along with its NATO partners for possible war with Russia. But the West German people neither want war nor at the moment are prepared for it mentally.

These are among the conclusions that must be drawn at the end of three intensive weeks in Germany, during which almost the entire perimeter of West Germany was covered from Bonn through Hamburg, by train through East Germany to Berlin, thence through Hanover, along the Bavarian border with East Germany and Czechoslovakia, and finally to Munich.

It is the city in which Hitler made his first unsuccessful push and went to jail.

It is the city where the then prime minister of Britain, Neville Chamberlain, believed that in his meetings with Hitler, he successfully had preserved "peace in our time."

But aside from these unhappy memories, Munich is a center of culture and the city to which thousands of Germans flock at the time of celebration for the harvest to drink beer, and generally let themselves go.

Hotels are jammed and the thoughts and strains of war are far away.

In the Bavarian Alps the cows are being brought down from the summer pastures, their necks garlanded with green boughs and flowers, to be welcomed by the peasants for whom this is festival time, too.

But underlying the gaiety are grim portents which the people would prefer to ignore.

Foreign Minister Heinrich von Brentano has just gone on the air to remind the German people that they lost totally a "total war," and that a price still must be paid.

A month ago, no government officer would have made such a speech, for the national election campaign then was reaching its peak and no candidate could hope to win an election on the basis of such a speech.

There are other portents as West Germany and NATO approach what may be a showdown over Berlin and the future of German reunification.

One is the gradual realization by the German people that the split in their nation may last through their lifetime. In this, the people may have been ahead of their government. Immediate reunification is not discussed very seriously by many Germans now.

Juvenile Judge Releases Court Statistics

Here is the breakdown of juvenile cases by age group and race for the months of July, August and September, handled by Juvenile Judge Vernon Mize.

White boys between the ages of 12 and 18 again lead the statistics sheet for traffic violations with 11 cases handled by the Judge. There were two girls (white) in this category, one Negro boy and two white boys in the 12-14 age group.

There were 16 dependent children who came under the Judge's jurisdiction, all of them except two, under 10 years of age. There were four Negro boys and three white girls, whose homes and parents could not or would not care for them. There was also a white boy and girl, teenagers, who fell into this category.

Delinquent children number 31 for the three months period, 14 of them white and 17 Negro, ten in the 15 to 18 group and eight, ten years old or younger. There were four white delinquent girls under 10, one 11-year-old and two 13 to 16-year-olds.

Nazarene Church Announces Revival

Rev. Ben F. Marlin, evangelist, will be in Sanford all next week to conduct daily revival services at the First Church of the Nazarenes, W. Second St. and Maple Ave.

A former superintendent of the South Carolina district, Marlin is a native of Carol, Ill., and worked in public schooling and in wheat and stock farming until he entered the ministry on a full-time basis.

Rev. Paul Bikes, pastor of the Sanford church, said today that the evangelist is an exceptionally capable speaker and that he feels the local church is fortunate to have him here for the revival.

"The special services will begin each day at 7:30 p. m. beginning Monday and continuing through next Sunday and the public will be welcomed to join us for these interesting evenings," Bikes said.

McIntosh Cites Serious Situation In Child Care

"Give us help," was the plea, voiced by Kenneth McIntosh, attorney at law here, who heads the Seminole County Juvenile Council speaking to the County Council of Schools Thursday.

"The hoped-for foster home plan was turned down flat by the county commissioners," said McIntosh. "We have no help from anywhere in this county and based on figures from the past years, our projected delinquency and dependency cases will rise to the unprecedented figure of 512 cases next year!"

"We desperately need some special probation officers, to counsel and help these children after they have gotten involved. And just as desperately we need some temporary shelter for these dependent children."

"Recently I had to place a child under five years of age in the city jail, temporarily, while his mother was being held for her 11th offense, because I had no place else to put this child."

McIntosh told the County Council members that he would like to have a juvenile protection chairman from each school to help him coordinate the activities of the Juvenile Council in finding responsible persons who can help with after care, special probation, temporary shelter and foster home plans.

SHS Science Club Sets Open Meet

The Science Club of Seminole High School invites their parents and the general public to their meeting Tuesday at 7 p. m. in Room 210 of the Science Building, to see a film and hear a talk on the "Biological Aspects of Radiation."

James J. McInnis, Seminole High School teacher and Civil Defense instructor will be the speaker of the evening, and he will show a movie on the explosive effects of nuclear bombs and what fallout does to human beings.

"We feel that this program is of special interest to everyone," said Don Reynolds, Biology teacher and sponsor of the Science Club.

Plans Bake Sale

The Intermediate MYP of the Casselberry Community Methodist Church will sponsor a bake sale beginning at 9 a.m. Saturday in front of the church.

In all, there was a total of 88 cases which came before the Juvenile Court, in all categories, delinquency, dependency and traffic violations, with 34 of the cases in Sanford, nine from the Oviedo, Geneva, Chuluota area and 13 from South Seminole. Five cases involved children from outside the county.

Two white females were committed to the Girls Industrial School at Ocala for incorrigibility, truancy, and breaking probation. One boy was also sent to industrial school.

Reasons for detention included vandalism, breaking and entering, petty larceny, run-away, auto theft, breaking probation, incorrigibility, trespassing, shoplifting, sexual offense and immoral conduct.

Dependent children who were removed from their homes had experienced abandonment, lack of physical care, conditions injurious to their morals and abuse.

In addition to the cases and actions listed, there were 23 cases in which no official action was taken by the court.

Many of these children had to be held in jail for a week or longer.

Cuba Holds Two Floridians

MIAMI (UPI) — Two Florida men and two others from British Guiana were in custody of Cuban authorities today after their shrimp boat ran aground in Cuban territorial waters. A U.S. Coast Guard vessel was unable to get clearance to enter

Cuban waters and rescue the crew. When a Dutch tug attempted to get authorization to enter the area and remove the boat it was ordered from the scene. The four men aboard the vessel, Wind, out of Fernandina Beach, Fla., are E. E. Lewis and Dale Dees of Fernandina Beach and Anthony Farris and Michael de Silva of British Guiana.

MRS. RITA CREWS

Housewife To Run For Mayor's Job

Mrs. Rita Crews, a 30-year-old Sanford housewife today qualified to run against Joe Baker in the city commission race on Nov. 7. Two more days remain for qualifying in the election.

Mrs. Crews lives at 1215 Oak Ave. with her husband Jesse, and two children, ages nine and 11. Mrs. Crews said she has only been a resident of the city for 17 months but has been a visitor for many years.

She is a member of the Church of the Redeemer and also of the Sanford Grammar School P.T.O. When questioned by a reporter, Mrs. Crews said she was running because "many people have expressed dissatisfaction but, have only talked about it."

"There won't be any campaign promises on my part," she said.

Peterson requested $25,000 to beef up the Civil Defense office including a warning system, with the cost shared by the federal government and the county.

Gov. Farris Bryant sent down an executive order urging this county as well as all counties in the state to build up civil defense and Bryant also asked for an investigation by State CD officials on the Civil Defense status in Seminole County.

City Pauses To Honor Navy Men Killed Here

The city of Sanford and all of Seminole County today observed five minutes of silent memorial prayer for the six Navy fliers who were killed Thursday in the mid-air crash of the two Douglas A3D Skywarriors over west Sanford.

At 11 a. m. sirens blew all over the county to signal mass prayer for the bereaved families of the men, and thanksgiving that the crashing planes missed the high school.

The crash struck terror into this community by the fact that it only missed by a scant 300 yards the new Seminole High School where over 1,000 pupils and teachers had been dismissed only a short time before the flaming, exploding wreckage over a wide area and setting a house and shed on fire.

Navy friends of the widow of one of the fliers today expressed to the Herald their "deep and sincere appreciation for the overwhelming kindness, sympathy and help shown by the wonderful people of Sanford."

They mentioned the assistance with immediate legal problems given by a local attorney, the personal care by a local beauty operator, the care of a pet dog by a local kennel and noted that all of the professional people involved refused compensation.

"I hope to see more people in this town who have had such a wonderful experience and loving compassion by the townspeople in the event of a tragedy such as this," a Navy man said today.

Similar stories, involving friends and neighbors of the fliers involved and from the townspeople in general have come in from all over the county.

Citizens of a community in the south end of the county immediately dropped all personal commitments and duties to rally support for one of the Navy widows and four children, giving every possible aid and assistance in a quiet demonstration of sympathy.

AROUND THE CLOCK

By LARRY VERNHIEL. Didn't another attorney withdraw his name from the county attorney's job? Only two in the running now. If the commission doesn't make a selection soon, it may be none and we'll have to get one from Orange County on a part-time basis.

Nobody asked me but why do people immediately look for political scapegoats after any disaster.

These are probably the same clowns that blocked the road at last week's plane crash and made it practically impossible for fire trucks and ambulances to get through.

What would be so terrible if the County Commission admitted they were wrong and purchased a warning system for the county?

I thought the County Commission was the voice of the people.

The firing was not announced in advance, but it was learned the submarine triggered the 28-foot bottle-shaped rocket from a tube in its deck at about 9:45 a. m.

The Polaris was believed to have gone about 1,100 miles.

Differences Force Shift In Berlin Strategy

LONDON (UPI) — Fresh Allied differences over Berlin policy forced a change in Western strategy today.

The difference came into the open over French demands that a scheduled four-power meeting of senior officials in London be put off.

The British Foreign Office said officially today that the meeting planned for this week in London was canceled at the request of the French government. Top officials from the United States, Britain, France and West Germany were to attend.

Land Options No Assurance Of Plant

Chamber of Commerce manager, John Krider, emphasized today that the fact that a solid fuel plant is taking options on land to the east of Sanford does not assure that the plant will be located in the county.

"Friday's Herald indicated that this was the case, but, actually, whether the fuel plant is located here depends on the success of the company which is taking options in its bidding for the national defense contracts," Krider said.

"We feel that having these options put us in a front-running position, but there are five other companies also bidding for the contract, and although we feel that chances are good, we do not yet have any assurances," Krider emphasized.

The release of the news that a company was taking up land options with an eye toward establishing the solid fuel plant near here, was in conjunction with a talk given by Krider concerning the latest developments on the Sanford-Canaveral Canal.

If the fuel plant is established here, a waterway for barges will be necessary to haul the fuel to the Moonport at Cape Canaveral, for use as the propellant for the giant rockets that will eventually take the first American Astronaut to the moon.

'All Phases' To Be Taken Up At Tuesday Meeting

A three-man committee made up of county commissioners met Sunday to map out a comprehensive Civil Defense program for the county, Commissioner Ted Williams said today.

However, Williams declined to comment on just what the program would include.

Members of the committee also include John Fitzpatrick and James P. Avery.

Williams said that Civil Defense Director A. R. Peterson Sr. also attended the meeting.

Avery said that all phases of Civil Defense were discussed and "investigated." He also declined to comment on just what the report would include.

He declined comment on whether there would be any amending of the budget.

Fitzpatrick also declined comment on what the program would include.

"It will all be discussed at an open meeting Tuesday afternoon. You'll get a full report," he added.

The commission will meet at 1:30 p. m. Tuesday.

Friday, the grand jury filed a report finding the commission was "woefully neglect" in assigning adequate means to assist in providing a warning system for the county.

The grand jury requested that the board "immediately review their position of responsibility for the welfare and security of the people and take whatever steps necessary to provide and maintain an approved warning system."

Only $10,000 was appropriated for Civil Defense during the current fiscal year despite the pleas of Peterson on the need for an adequate warning system.

Peterson requested $25,000 to beef up the Civil Defense office including a warning system, with the cost shared by the federal government and the county.

Gov. Farris Bryant sent down an executive order urging this county as well as all counties in the state to build up civil defense and Bryant also asked for an investigation by State CD officials on the Civil Defense status in Seminole County.

Blood Sought For Sanford Child's Heart Operation

By DOTTIE HIGGINBOTHAM. A special appeal is being made here for blood donations for little six-year old blonde Joanne Cappa, who is soon to undergo heart surgery for the correction of a congenital heart defect.

The operation will take place at Children's Cardiac Hospital in Miami, sometime in the near future.

Local pediatricians explain Joanne's heart defect in this way: All normal unborn infants have a special blood vessel the function of which is to let blood from the heart by-pass the lungs, as open the chest, find the blood vessel, located just above the heart, clamp it off and remove it.

Sometimes in heart surgery, doctors stop the function of the heart, and attach a heart-lung machine which keeps the blood circulating through the body and allows the heart to lie still for a period of time.

This machine needs a good deal of blood, at least half of the amount in the patient's body at any given time, and for this reason 20 pints of blood are being asked for in Joanne's name.

In the operation which will be performed, heart surgeons will

Air Station heard about Joanne's case Thursday and 11 of them have come into the Seminole County Blood Bank and given a donation in her name.

The men are Marvin Aeder, Gerald Dobbins, Joseph Troup, Charles Simmons, Robert Inna, Neal Seigle, Richard Rome, Paul Martin, John Otto, Robert Combs and Dan Tepler. Civilian Harry Edelberger has also made a donation.

This brings the total to 12 pints and eight more are needed to complete the total of 20 pints which will be necessary.

Pediatricians, Dr. Gordon Stanley and Dr. Vann Parker pointed out that little Joanne's heart defect was discovered by a pre-school check-up conducted by the Seminole County Health Department, followed up by local physicians, and referred to the Crippled Children's Commission for help.

"This case is an example of the excellent detection work that can be done by an adequate and fully-staffed county health department," Drs. Stanley and Parker pointed out, and emphasizes the need for periodic health examinations and especially pre-school physical check-ups.

"This particular operation will effect a complete cure for this heart defect," Dr. Parker said, "which is unusual in that there are very few cases in which a heart can be permanently and completely restored to normal function."

Joanne is the daughter of a local commercial fisherman and is one of seven children. The Seminole County Blood Bank hours are from noon to 9 p. m. on Mondays and from 9 a. m. to 1 p. m. on Wednesday, Friday and Saturday. Mrs. James Doucette, RN is in charge.
