BIBLE VERSE FOR TODAY

DON'T BE SO FAR AWAY FROM GOD THAT YOU DON'T FEEL THE TOUCH OF HIS HAND IN GOOD TIMES AND IN BAD: Jehovah is far from the wicked, but he heareth the prayer of the righteous. - Proverbs 15:29.

CLOUD-WROUGHT

(From the Washington Star) I was alone at dusk beside the sea. And from its rim strange splendor shone to rouse in cloud-wrought visions flung upon the sea. A fountain of a wind-tossed, silver tree, it filled the west and towered over me. Its changeful beauty bringing fresh surprise; Molting from vast white mist before my eyes. A shell, a fern, a sea anemone. Then, suddenly, the shining wonder died. The sky and sea were empty, from afar the eager waves creep in. I heard the little surger waves turn the tide. But only beams from one clear-burning star. Marked where the radiant miracle had been: INEZ BARCLAY KIRBY.

It isn't so much what those points say that counts, it's what they mean.

If you are a freeholder make your plans to vote in the hospital election next Tuesday.

There will be some people who won't take the trouble to vote in Tuesday's hospital election. They'll say later they're like hell when they can't get a bed in the present hospital because it is over-crowded.

The Nazis are building a new leadership with 15 inch guns said to be superior to anything else now afloat. Very shortly now it is expected to join its sister-ship the Bismark at the bottom of the Atlantic ocean.

Three negroes were killed and sixty injured in New York when 10,000 colored citizens' leaders suddenly discovered that some of their members had tickets were down only on yellow paper. And he wouldn't write magazine articles unless he had pink paper to work with. He refused to use blue ink, on the grounds that it made him ill; and he could write plays only while lying down.—Your Life Magazine.

Until recently we never heard of Sanford, N. C. but a friend of mine drops us a card from this little North Carolina town with a picture on it of a modern three-story hospital. "Too bad," he says, "that Sanford, N. C. does not have a hospital like this one," pointing out that the North Carolina town of Sanford has a population of more than five thousand persons.

Some say we hope that we will have a hospital which will be an outstanding asset in this city and county.

The British and American governments are showing their good sense by not holding themselves from association with Russia in this critical hour. Some of our leading citizens might hold their noses in the air at the very suggestion of aid to the Russians in their fight against Hitler, but when a man gets mixed up in a street brawl he can't be too particular about who gets on. Usually he is glad for any man who may be given a chance to get the other fellow's nose.

It is a pity that the United States is unable to help Russia in this fight against Hitler.

Lost, Strayed, or Stolen?

The American "Arsenal of Democracy" is going to furnish Russia all the material aid she needs in her war against Hitlerism. But the Soviets will get no guns, planes, or tanks from this country under the Lease-Lend Act. Russia has plenty of money and so will be able to pay cash on the barrel head for what she gets. Thus the American public is informed by no less an authority than the President of the United States.

But at the same time we see by the papers that Great Britain, which must be furnished aid from this country free of charge under the Lease-Lend Act because she has already spent all her money buying armaments from this country, extends a credit of some $40,000,000 to Soviet Russia. Britain has no money to buy from us, but Britain has plenty of money to lend to Russia.

And Russia, which has enough money to pay cash for what she buys from us, has to borrow money from Britain. It is all very confusing. It is so confusing in fact, that one wonders if good old Uncle Sam, while lending Britain planes and tanks, is not also lending her the money to lend to Russia so that Russia can pay cash on the barrel head for the planes and tanks she buys from us.

It is also reported that Lease Lend Administrator Harry Hopkins, who recently returned from a tour of British and Russian capitals, was wearing Prime Minister Churchill's hat after losing his own somewhere in Europe. What is bothering us is whether he did not also lose his shirt.

The New Tax Laws

Florida is just beginning to find out how rich a state it is, now that the new State tax program has gone into effect, requiring 100 percent assessment of real and personal property. Heretofore, property has been assessed for tax purposes at anywhere from one-tenth, or less, to one-half its actual value, with some persons paying a great deal more than their share and others escaping taxation almost altogether.

"On the theory that residents of other sections of the state might profit from the example of Miami and Dade county, it is revealed that Dade this year will have more assessed value on the tax rolls than the entire state had a year ago," says the Key West Citizen. "Tentative figures reveal the big county will have a half-billion-dollar real estate roll this year, in contrast to $110,000,000 a year ago. Personal property, following the same trend, is expected to go over the $70,000,000 mark, as against 55,000,000 last year.

"With Monroe county figures due to come out in August, when they will be turned over to the county commission, taxpayers here probably will discover as Dade county did, that the new system has split the tax burden far more evenly than was the case before.

"Among other items unearthed in the Dade records was the fact that there are 2,046 homes on the beach assessed at more than $5,000 this year, which means that almost that many homeowners, totally exempt from previous operating levies, now will contribute toward school and other operating burdens. Coral Gables found some 600 homes in the same class.

"An even distribution of taxes, both for this county and the others of the state, will show the wisdom of Governor Holland's new tax system."

THE PRESENT INCREASE in wages in certain lines of work has been accompanied by a rise in the cost of living, which is of course inevitable under the circumstances. How much better off are the people when a condition of this kind exists? For example, a man buys a ten dollar coat with a ten dollar bill that he declares happily is his as the result of a raise in wages. Probably last year he was getting five dollars for the same amount of work, and he is happy now that he is making twice the money. What the man probably did not realize was that last year his five dollars would have purchased the same coat that it takes ten dollars to buy now. How much in wages has the man actually gained? With higher prices for food and clothing comes a higher cost of living. — St. Augustine Record.

ALTHOUGH MANY WRITERS have been termed eccentric, Alexander Dumas probably held some sort of record for eccentricity. He was extremely color conscious and his famous novels were written on blue paper. But when the poetic muse was on him, he could set his verses down only on yellow paper. And he wouldn't write magazine articles unless he had pink paper to work with. He refused to use blue ink, on the grounds that it made him ill; and he could write plays only while lying down.—Your Life Magazine.

The following account of the wedding was taken from the Waycross Journal Herald: A most artistic character throughout the lower course of the home and an improvised altar was arranged in front of triple windows in the spacious living room...

The beautiful nuptial music, rendered by Mrs. Jack Hamilton, included the Serenade from "Student Prince" by Rumberg; "I Love You Truly" by Carrie Jacobs Bond; "O Promise Me" by DeKoven; "Drink to Me Only With Thine Eyes," an old English air; and "Believe Me If All Those Endearing Young Charms," an old Irish air...

The bride descended the stairs with her father, who gave her in marriage. They were met at the altar by the bridegroom and his best man, Mr. Carlyle Householder, of Sanford, Florida. The bride was lovely in a fall redingote model of Rosefont sheer, fashioned along princess lines with fine tuckings in yoke effect, on the dress and on the long sleeved coat...

DON'T STOP AT MURDER

A newspaper is an accurate reflection of what today is doing with people... and what people are doing with today.

Murder is big-type news. So is a bank stick-up. And so is the dedication of a new library, or the launching of a new ship, or the employment of hundreds in reviving industry.

But you have read only half of the story. If you stop at murder, in our advertising columns can be found news in its most authentic sense.

What are people wearing? What are they eating? Where are they going? How are they going? Why are they going? Why not? When is the time to build? Who has the most? How much does it cost? How much does it cost? How much does it cost? How much does it cost?

Slammin' Sammy Snead Is Victor In Golf Tourney

ROCHESTER, N. Y., Aug. 18.—(AP)—Sam Snead of Hot Springs, Va., Sunday won the $3000 Times-Union open by shooting 73-67—140 in the 36-hole finale for a total score of 277.

Slammin' Sam, who won the Canadian open last week, was seven strokes better than Bill Ben Hogan of Hershey, Pa., who added 72-67—139 Sunday to his previous 185 for a total of 324.

Craig Wood of Mamaronck the National open king, was third with 287, slipping to a 78 yesterday afternoon after pushing into the lead yesterday morning with 69 for a total of 209 after 54 holes.

Snead slipped from first to trail Wood at this point by shooting a 73 Sunday morning. Hogan's afternoon round, one stroke higher than the course record left him far out in front of the field.

Snead's victory, worth $1200, brought his 1931 earnings to $2911. Hogan collected $750 to boost his winnings for the year to $12,733 and further established him as the big money man of golf. Wood collected $510.

Denny Shute, Chicago, and Harold (Jug) McSpaden, Winchester, Mass., tied for fourth with 288.

After shooting even par on the first nine of the afternoon, and with Wood eliminated from the lead, Sammy bore down on the home stretch. He took a birdie 8 on the 10th, shot par on the 11th and 12th and then began his most spectacular golf.

Matthews of the Miami Herald, winner in 1928 and 1929, came in for third place with 80, while Ken Grable of the Tampa Tribune, champion in 1927 and 1929, finished with a card of 81.

German Tourists In Persia Cause Alarm

LONDON, Aug. 18.—(AP)—British and Russian envoys at Teheran were authoritatively reported Sunday to have issued a second warning to the Iranian (Persian) government that it is "excessively" large numbers of Germans in that vital middle-eastern land were a continuing cause of alarm to London and Moscow.

Sources here declined to amplify the report or to discuss whether a joint Russian-British move in Iran is imminent.

While there were intimations in some circles that a decisive stroke is being considered by the two Allies in the Middle East, the nature of such action was left to the vaguest inferences.

Army Maneuvers In Louisiana Opened

CAMP POLK, La., Aug. 18.—(AP)—The spirit of troops now engaged in mock warfare in Louisiana "will make our army the best in the world," Lieut. Gen. Walter Krueger, commanding general of the third army, said in a broadcast Sunday.

General Krueger's talk formally opening third army maneuvers in Louisiana, emphasized the huge task of concentrating men and equipment for war games, the benefits they will bring in developing teamwork and coordination, and the spirit of the men and officers.

"Realism is going to be particularly stressed during the maneuvers. Whether it is day or night, the troops must be concealed. At night this means that the men and vehicles must find their way about in the dark. That rain storms and bad roads and blacked trails increase our difficulties need scarcely be mentioned."

3 Negroes Trampled In Holiday Stampede

NEW YORK, Aug. 18.—(AP)—Three persons were trampled to death and 60 were injured in the crush Sunday when 10,000 pleasure-seeking negroes were stampeded by rumors that their $125 Hudson River excursion boats were bogged.

The carefree crowd, clad in their colorful Sunday best and in high good humor, was transformed within minutes into a mauling, milling mass of fighting humanity as word spread that some held counterfeit tickets for the ship that could carry fewer than one-third their number.

Clothes were torn and heaving picnic baskets were crushed as, under pressure from thousands in the rear, the vast throng surged toward the $100 passenger steamer, State of Delaware.

Green Says Labor To Sit On Post War Peace Conference

Workers Must Have Voice In Writing Of Another Magna Charta Says Leader

9th Principle Is Suggestion

Point Would Be Added To Churchill, Roosevelt Panel

SYRACUSE, N. Y., Aug. 19—(AP)—William Green, A. F. of L. president, demanded today that when "another Magna Charta is written" in post-war conferences, labor of the world will be represented at the council table.

Green offered this "ninth point" to be added to the eight principles evolved at the high seas meeting of President Roosevelt and Prime Minister Churchill.

While in Washington defense officials hinted last night that a Presidential appeal was going forth immediately to the Federal Shipbuilding and Drydock Company to accept a national defense mediation board formula for ending the C. I. O. strike which has halted $192,000,000 worth of Navy and merchant ship construction at Kearny, N. J.

These officials who declined to be quoted by name, indicated that if the White House appeal was rejected, an executive order would be issued immediately for government occupation and operation of the shipyard.

America Incites Russians Against Japs, Says Tokyo

TOKYO, Aug. 19—(AP)—United States Ambassador Grew conferred for hours with Foreign Minister Toyoda on matters of utmost importance last evening amid Japanese charges that the United States was inciting Russia against Japan.

The million-strong Soviet Far Eastern army was reliably reported to be mobilized and stationed along the Siberian border (where persistent reports from the Orient say Japan likewise has massed many troops).

A navy spokesman also said at a press conference that Russia had 100 submarines and 110 speed boats stationed at Vladivostok.

The conference of Grew and the foreign minister coincided with two long meetings between Eugene H. Doonan, counselor of the United States embassy, and Japanese Vice Foreign Minister Aman.

It came as the Japan Times and Advertiser, foreign mouthpiece, described the Churchill-Roosevelt peace aims declaration and their subsequent message to Joseph Stalin as an attempt to break down the United States neutrality act and incite Russia against Japan.

"When Japan and Soviet Russia are endeavoring to consolidate their peaceful relations, any intervention by third powers toward upsetting this condition cannot be viewed as otherwise than hostile to the pacification of the world," the publication said.

Road Near Daytona Approved For Paving

TALLAHASSEE, Aug. 19—(AP)—Federal approval of the $724,000 contract for paving 8 1/2 miles of road at Daytona Beach was announced Monday by Governor Holland.

The contractor, M. J. Carroll of Leesburg, probably will start work within two weeks.

Carroll submitted the apparent low bid several weeks ago, but it was rejected by the Federal Bureau of Public Roads in Washington because it exceeded original estimates. Holland said the State Road Department submitted additional data in support of the project, and the Federal bureau then approved it.

Many Men May Be Sent Home From Training

200,000 Selectees And Guardsmen To Be Released During Year 1941

WASHINGTON, Aug. 19—(AP)—The War Department announced today that unless the international situation interferes, substantial numbers of selectees and National Guardsmen will be sent home after as little as 14 months of service.

About 200,000 men will be due for a release from active service in 1941 the department said, and on order they may reach their homes prior to the Christmas holidays, their release will be accomplished prior to Dec. 10.

The army's top draft age was officially lowered to 28 yesterday and at the same time the draft was cleared for an order extending the service periods of the army's rank and file by 18 months.

With swift strokes of his pen, President Roosevelt signed into law two measures revising the draft act and affecting the lives of million of young men.

The first granted mandatory deferment from the draft to men who were 28 years old last July 1. Registrants whose 28th birthday falls after that date will be liable for induction up until the following July 1 when they, too, will receive automatic mandatory deferment.

The second source of prolonged controversy in Congress and approved by only one vote in the House, gives Mr. Roosevelt authority to keep selectees, National Guardsmen, reservists and enlisted men in service for as much as 18 months beyond the period in which they were inducted. It is believed an executive order extending the service of these men, with some possible selections would be issued by Mr. Roosevelt soon.

The service extension measure also will permit a swift expansion of the army should the danger of war become more imminent or actual hostilities involve the country. It eliminated the numerical limit to 900,000 on the number of trainees who may be in the service.

Only those who were 28 at the time they were inducted are eligible for release, and their induction must have been prior to last July 1.

Holland Seeks Gas For Tourist Season

TALLAHASSEE, Aug. 19—(AP)—Governor Holland said Monday he would "explore every possibility and make every effort to insure an adequate supply of gasoline in Florida during the vital months of the tourist season ahead."

Because Florida's winter season consumption is about 10,000,000 gallons a month more than in summer, the Governor said he would urge that any Federal rationing of gasoline would be based upon seasonal periods if rationing is applied.

"We will bring every possible argument," he said, "to see that our people get fairly treated in view of our peculiar seasonal problem."

Study Of OPM And OPACS Is To Be Made

WASHINGTON, Aug. 19—(AP)—President Roosevelt today has commissioned Judge Samuel I. Roseman of the New York State Supreme Court to make a study of the differences between the office of production management and the office of price administration and civilian supply.

OPM and OPACS have not seen eye to eye on some policy matters, such as the proposed curtailment of automobile production.

Stephen Early, presidential secretary, said he did not know whether the super defense agency might be organized with Vice President Wallace in charge.

In a far-reaching step to offset any German move to French Indochina and to strengthen British forces in the Middle East, President Roosevelt announced yesterday to ferry American warplanes direct to West Africa and on to the Middle East front.

R. C. Daner, who heads the War Relocation Authority, said he expected that they would be followed by the President's return from his historic sea conference with Prime Minister Churchill, described the "provide direct and speedy delivery of planes direct to the Middle East."

However, it was considered important also for its effect in neutralizing any move the Vichy government might make to turn over Dakar, French West Africa, or Casablanca, Morocco to Germany for naval and air bases.

The White House announcement said the importance of this line of communication between our country and strategic outposts in Africa cannot be overestimated.

"I am confident," concluded with the Pan American Airways system, the White House said, "the ferry system and a companion transport service would provide direct and speedy delivery of aircraft from the 'arsenal of democracy' to a critical point in the front against aggression."

Pan-American will ferry the planes from the United States to West Africa and thence to the Middle East, also establishing an air transport service from West Africa to the Middle East. It plans to arrange a similar transport service to West Africa.

"Planes owned by the United States government will be used by Pan American," the announcement said, "and they will be operated by American personnel. The route is so arranged that it will nowhere pass through the zone of actual warfare."

The supplemental transport service, carrying plane parts and items "essential to effective delivery of aircraft to the Middle East," will bring the ferry personnel back on the return journey.

8 Men Enlist In Defense Force In Two Weeks

EIGHT men have enlisted in the Seminole County Defense Force during the past two weeks, it was announced today by E. C. Harper, captain. The men are James R. Ashley, Richard R. Dues, William F. Young, Orville W. Johnston, David M. Earle, John L. Parker, Jr., John P. Callahan and Donald D. Young.

Mr. W. H. Hofmann gave a 30-minute lecture on the use of the compass at the regular drill last night at the Armory. A regulation Army prismatic compass was exhibited to the men.

It is possible to locate a position on a map within a fraction of a yard with the use of the compass, Mr. Hofmann declared. The use of the compass is therefore more complex, he stated.

Compass also are used to chart accurately a course of travel at night and to determine the position of enemy troops.

The lecture on the use of the compass was one in a series of instructive talks being given to members of the Defense Force by its officers, in line with the instructions given by the State Defense Council. Other talks have explained the subjects of map making and organization.

In addition to the lecture, close order drill by platoons and manual of arms was held for about an hour.

During the past few weeks, Captain Harper said, the following men have enlisted in the sub-caliber rifle range at the Armory:

Richard A. Vemay, 91; W. B. Martin, 91; B. Carter, 87; David Earle, 88; John L. Gallaway, 86; J. J. Purton, Jr., 86; W. C. Williamson, 81; Leo Butler, 81; W. R. Williams, 81; J. A. Strang, 81; Charles G. Janney, 81, and George A. Spear, Jr., 81.

Violent Assaults Are Directed On Sieged Port Of Odesa On Black Sea

Leningrad Only 75 Miles From Battle

Reds Admit Pincher Movement Is Closing In On Key City

LONDON, Aug. 19—(AP)—The Admiralty announced today about 4,000,000 tons of Axis shipping has been sunk, captured or scuttled up to Aug. 18 of which German losses constituted 2,250,000 tons, Italian 1,331,000 tons and Finnish 31,000 tons, "useful to enemy" 119,000 tons.

The R. A. F. is said to have accounted for a large part of this figure.

The Associated Press

Adolf Hitler's High Command reported today that German and allied troops had overrun all the Ukraine territory west of the Dnieper River and announced violent new assaults against the seaport of Odesa on the Black Sea.

On the northern front, a Red Army bulletin acknowledged that the jaws of the mammoth German Finnish nutcracker were closing in on Leningrad, with bitter fighting raging 75 miles southwest of the city.

The Germans further reported the capture of Russian fleet units under construction at Nikolayev, fallen Black Sea port, including a 35,000-ton battleship, a 10,000-ton cruiser, four destroyers, and two submarines. Presumably most was the skeleton stages of construction.

Authoritative quarters in London, commenting on the critical Ukraine situation, said German occupation west of the Dnieper was not a death blow to the U. S. S. R., but that if the Nazis smashed Marshal Semenov Budenny's army, the results would be very serious.

Meanwhile, Prime Minister Churchill, returned to London from sea talks with President Roosevelt, was expected to meet at once with the war cabinet and later perhaps Sunday night make a radio broadcast to the empire.

Japan continued to express concern over possible United States war shipments to Russia via the Pacific port of Vladivostok.

The Red Army of the north, braving a reactivated German drive on Leningrad from the Estonian theater, acknowledged today that they had abandoned Kingisepp, which lies on a major railroad 75 miles southwest of that second largest Soviet city.

Moscow's early morning communique gave no details of the retreat, except to say it had occurred after stubborn resistance.

As to the remainder of the front, it was stated merely that heavy fighting was continuing everywhere.

The Germans for their part claimed to be drawing their noose tighter about the encircled Soviet Ukrainian port of Odessa, pouring down bombs to prevent any Russian escape by sea. It was asserted that six Russian transports aggregating 15,000 tons, a cruiser and a torpedo boat were disabled or damaged.

The supreme Nazi effort in the Ukraine, however, was to prevent the retreating Russians from organizing an effective line east of the broad Dnieper river—a line which properly formed would be immensely difficult to break and might create a bloody and static front in the south.

Berlin dispatches stressed that the Nazi air force was in the heaviest action all along the great bend of the Dnieper, which is a mile wide for 100 miles up its mouth and is only infrequently bridged.

These, despite the generalized claim of the German High Command that the Russians were "defeated" and in a flight which approached rout in some areas, suggested a considerable German concern that the Soviet forces might be able to get across in sufficient order to strongly entrench themselves and to check the effects of their defeat at Nikolayev on the Black Sea and at Krivoi Rog in the iron ore region northeast of that port.

The hinterland of the great industrial city of Dnepropetrovsk also was reported under violent German bombing attack and there were some indications this was a forerunner of a land offensive toward that city from the region of Krivoi Rog.

Equalizing Ration Burden Is Sought

ASWINGTON, Aug. 19—(AP)—Ralph K. Davies, acting petroleum coordinator, said Monday he had formally recommended that the east coast petroleum marketing committee take steps in New York Wednesday to equalize the burden on consumers caused by the 10 percent cut in gasoline supplies ordered for Atlantic coast states.

Davies said he recommended the suppliers of gasoline adopt uniform percentages of curtailment "necessary in particular areas for non-preferred deliveries to and by service stations and to consumers by suppliers."

WASHINGTON, Aug. 19—(AP)—The Army service extension resolution became law Monday with its signature by President Roosevelt.

The deferment measure was signed Saturday but it was not announced until Monday. In addition to providing the automatic deferments, it calls on the secretary of war to discharge from service selectees who reached 28 on or before July 1, 1941, if they apply for discharge and it is "not in conflict with the interests of the national defense."
