Hopper School Dedicates Lobby To Young

School realized a long desired dream last Sunday.

It was an historical moment of this association when the lobby of the new Hopper Elementary School was appropriately dedicated in memory of the late Alton Young who before his death was the president of Hopper's P-TA. The Association had preplanned these services in the early part of the 1962-'63

The impressive dedicatorial rites were officiated by Rev. Jesse Brown, minister of St. James A.M.E. Church, Sanford. The ceremonies included a recording of "The Lord's Prayer" by Mahalia Jackson; unveiling of plaque by Altonia Elizabeth Young, daughter of the late Mr. Alton Young: Moment of Ap-

City Okays Terms For

The City Commission Monday night voted to accept the terms and conditions negotiated with the MacFadden Foundation officials in New York last week to locate a 250 cadet military prep school in Sanford.

City Commissioners agreed to terms of the talks conditioned upon the County Commission's favorable action to clear the county reverter from a certain portion of the city land that is for the school.

The County Commission is expected to act on this request at its meeting Wednesday.

Last week, Mayor Tom MacDonald and Commissioner J. H. (Jimmy) Crapps went to New York to talk over negotiations with J. P. Wiegers, chairman of the foundation. The Foundation agreed to purchase from the city 18 plus acres of the recreation area at Mellonville and Celery Aves. for $100,000, payable $28,500 down and the balance in deferred payments over a period of 10 years.

It is in the nature of life that it is an ever-changing mixture of excitements and monotonies. Therefore it is to be expected that anyone in his lifetime may encounter an unpredictable blend of challenging, attractive tasks and dull, thankless, disagreeable jobs.

Only rarely does a person find a course which frees him almost totally from the monotonous, unpleasant

What is required of us is that we have, or develop, a marked capacity for enduring the inescapable mono-tonies of life, the drudgery and dreariness of some routines.

What is also required is that we understand that few lives can be strung together from an endless ser-les of exciting tasks successfully and perhaps dramatically performed. The measure of a man is how he

Sir Winston Churchill is hailed now as a giant of a man. Yet on the eve of his ascent to the prime - min-istership of Britain in World War II. men could reasonably say his life to that moment was a tapestry heav-ily threaded with fallure, frustration, disappointment.

When later, he said it seemed to him then that his whole life was but a preparation for that hour, he meant it literally - the errors, the defeats, the stretches of obliviou, all of this along with the glowing moments of success.

So, say to the young man: "Take it all — the valleys, with the peaks, the gray and black with the vivid colors, the biting challenge with the grooved routine.

Aside from the exquisite exception, that is how it is for all of us. We should seek the peaks—but not work again and again forms the despair when we are in the valleys.

Dear abby:

DEAR ABBY: I have one of those husbands with a dual personality. One day he's an angel and the next day he has horns. I call him "Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde." I am a nervous person with four children who are all live wires, so between the five of them it's a wonder I'm not in a mental institution. His biggest fault is his loud mouth. When he gets angry, he shouts. It's not bad in the winter because we keep our windows closed, but I dread summer because when he yells the windows are wide open and the whole neighborhood can hear him. We live in a subdivision and the houses are on top of each other. I've threatened to have the whole house sirconditioned and seal the windows. Only I can't afford it this summer. Can you tell me how to control this loud-mouthed man of mine?

GOING TO PIECES

DEAR GOING: You're lucky, Some women are married to men who have only ONE personality. And it's always "Mr. Hyde." Catch him when he's "Dr. Jekyll" and tell him how his shouting embarrasses you. Promise to try hard not to provoke him into such outbursts. Every wife knows which subjects trigger a tantrum in her man. You need only to keep him happy to keep him quiet.

DEAR ABBY: We have recently moved into a new home where we have new friends and neighbors. They keep asking me, "When are you going to give your housewarming?" I was brought up in Canada. and have always thought it was improper to do this. Isn't it like giving yourself a "shower"? Is it really considered good manners to invite people to your home for the purpose of collecting gifts from them?

DEAR CONFUSED: (And you ARE confused.) A housewarming party is given by the new homeowners for the purpose of "showing" their home to friends and neighbors. Nothing need be said about a gift. A "shower", on the other hand, IS given for the express purpose of "collecting" gifts for the honored one.

DEAR ABBY: It's not the ANI-MALS that go around naked that confuse our young people. It is the Women who go around 99 percent naked who confuse them. A father forbids his daughter to wear a bikini bathing suit. Then she goes to the beach and sees them by the dozens on females who are exposing themselves like dancers in a burlesque house. What is a daughter supposed to think.

Nobody asked me but, I was always embarrassed by the words sacred, glorious, and sacrifice and the expression in valn. We had heard them, sometimes standing in the rain, out of earshot, so that only the shouted words came through, and had read them, on proclamations, now for a long time, and I had seen nothing sacred on the battlefields and the things that were giorious had no glory and the sacrifices were like the stockyards in Chicago if nothing was done with the meat except to bury it. There were many words that you could not stand to hear and finally only the names of the places had dignity. Certain numbers were the same way and certain dates and these with the names of the places were all you could say and have them mean anything.

I think of Terry Cordell killed in Viet Nam and abstract words such as glory, honor, courage or hallow were obscene beside the concrete names of villages, the number of roads, the names of rivers, the numbers of regiments and the dates.
