Foreign Policy Warning Given By Senator

Vandenberg Says Politics Should Not Interfere In Considerations Abroad

WASHINGTON, Mar. 18—Senator Arthur Vandenberg today warned that America's bi-partisan foreign policy may collapse if political party managers get the upper hand. The GOP Senator declared that if Americans yield to the political dictates of party managers on the proposed aid to Greece and Turkey the bi-partisan approach will die in revolt.

Vandenberg stepped down from his rostrum as the Senate's presiding officer to criticize from the floor a proposal made by Gael Sullivan, executive director of the Democratic National Committee to Carroll Reece, GOP national chairman, Sullivan had asked Reece to join in a two party statement endorsing President Truman's stand on help to Greece and Turkey.

The chairman of the House Civil Service Committee, Edward Rees accused the Civil Service Commission of dodging what he called its responsibility to fire Communists and fellow travelers. He cited yesterday's Supreme Court decision as fortifying the commission's right to discharge Communist Party line followers who are working for the government.

In the course of his lengthy statement to the committee, the Kansas Republican said he hoped a subcommittee will conduct an extensive investigation into the loyalty of federal workers.

Republican Senator Robert Taft urged a bill creating a long-range housing program. Appearing before the Senate Banking Committee, Taft argued for the construction of 15,000,000 new homes by 1958 at what he estimated to be a cost of about $150,000,000 a year.

He also pointed out that there is pending legislation for educational aid and another program (Continued on Page Six)

Mrs. R. C. Maxwell Suffers Injuries When Hit By Auto

Mrs. R. C. Maxwell, principal of the Sanford Vocational School, was injured yesterday evening at 5:55 o'clock when she was struck by an automobile as she stepped from the curb at Fourth Street and Park Avenue, opposite her home. She was immediately rushed to the hospital by Mrs. Helen Schultz, member of the State Welfare Department, who happened along in her automobile at the time.

J. R. Hoohean, 2206 Palmetto Avenue, whose car was said to have struck Mrs. Maxwell, reported to police that at the time he was driving north on Park Avenue and was about to turn west on Fourth Street when Mrs. Maxwell stepped from the curb. The case is pending in court.

Mrs. Maxwell was reported to be resting this morning at Fernhill-Laughton Memorial Hospital, and was not said to be in danger in spite of bruises and shock. X-rays were taken to determine any possible rib or bone breakage and results have not yet been announced by Dr. T. F. McDaniel, Jr., attending physician.

Mrs. J. P. Hall, assistant to Mrs. Maxwell, has assumed full duties of instruction and direction at the Sanford Vocational School. Mrs. Maxwell has taught school in Sanford since 1916 and prior to assuming duties with the vocational school about eight years ago as a teacher at Seminole High School.

Saunders Home Is Damaged By Smoke

A small amount of damage due to smoke in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Saunders, 2406 Palmetto Avenue, resulted after the ignition unit in an electric stove caught fire last evening. It was reported today by Assistant Fire Chief R. T. Thomas.

At 7:40 P. M. firemen were called to put out a grass fire that was menacing the plant of the United Lumber Company on Park Avenue.

End Of A Long Friendship

FOR MANY MONTHS, rooster "Jeffrey" and "Petunia," the skunk, have been inseparable. Accompanied by a lecturer from the Bronx Zoo, New York, they've been gadding about the city in the same traveling case to visit various schools. The purpose of their calls is to acquaint city children with animal life. The strong bond, however, that held them closer than the yolk and white of an egg, came apart the other day. The incident is pictured above. Following an appearance at Public School 97, "Jeffrey" found "Petunia" eating—all things—an egg for lunch. The moment of horrible realization is shown at top. At bottom, "Jeffrey" indignantly turns his back on "Petunia"—the skunk—and struts off. (International)

Holland Makes Move To Settle Indonesian Revolt

Dutch Representative In Java Ordered To Draft Agreement

BATAVIA, Mar. 18—The Netherlands government today authorized the Dutch Commission General in Java to the draft agreement for the settlement of the Indonesian revolution. Signing of the agreement is expected to end the conflict which began 19 months ago.

The Indonesians previously had announced their willingness to sign the agreement if the Dutch would abandon their insistence that Dutch interpretation be made a binding part of the agreement. The Netherlands communicate indicates that the government at The Hague now is willing to comply with the Indonesian condition.

The agreement was negotiated last November. It provides that the Netherlands government shall recognize the sovereignty of the Indonesian republic over Java, Sumatra, and Madura. The Indonesian republic becomes an equal partner with the Netherlands under the Dutch crown.

The announcement said that what it called regrettable incidents like the fighting now going on for the town of Modjokerto will be avoided with the signing of the agreement. Modjokerto is the key to the densely populated Brantas Delta in east Java.

19 Destroyers Join Search For Lifeboat

PEARL HARBOR, Mar. 18—A flotilla of Navy destroyers and a cruiser steamed out of Pearl Harbor at dawn today on one of the greatest sea-rescue attempts in the history of the Pacific.

Nineteen destroyers accompanied by the cruiser Tuscon fanned out in a sweep through central Pacific waters, looking for a lifeboat, and the last survivors of the broken tanker, Fort Dearborn. Overhead, aircraft from Midway will crisscross the skies in long flights searching for the bobbing speck they hope will contain the 12 or 13 survivors of the wrecked tanker. A daring rescue by a Navy small boat crew yesterday took off 22 other members of the tanker crew yesterday from the still-floating stern section.

Today's far-flung search was dispatched when the Navy decided that the Dearborn's lifeboat had drifted beyond the range of search planes. The tanker broke up last Wednesday in a heavy storm 1,100 miles northwest of Honolulu.

Union Head Is Wounded, Wife Killed

Couple Sitting In Car Outside Home Are Attacked By Gangsters In Chicago

CHICAGO, Mar. 18.—President James Crowley of the Chicago Bartenders Union was seriously wounded and his wife was killed early today by gunmen in front of their south side home.

Police said the Crowleys were sitting in their automobile when the assassins opened fire with a shotgun. Mrs. Crowley was in the driver's seat. She was shot in the left temple. Crowley was struck by six shotgun pellets in his right shoulder and arm.

Police said the Crowleys had driven to the front of their home when they were fired upon by the gunmen, who apparently had been awaiting their return. The car was punctured by shotgun pellets.

Crowley became president of the Bartenders Union in 1940, after opposing factions among the membership accused each other of gangsterism. Previously, Crowley had been union secretary-treasurer.

Paint And Glass Store Purchased By Dick Elsberry

Controlling interest in the Sanford Paint and Glass Company store on Park Avenue has been purchased by Richard E. Elsberry from his father-in-law, Fletcher E. Bolls, who has operated the firm since Apr. 1, 1943.

Mr. Bolls announced this morning that he will devote part of his time in association with his son, Donald Bolls, in the operation of Mickey's Drug Sundries on Park Avenue. Mr. Bolls came to Sanford from Daytona Beach and prior to that lived in Arkansas.

Mr. Elsberry "was practically raised in the paint and glass business in Pine Bluff, Ark. where his father practiced this trade. For a number of years he traveled for the Pittsburg Paint and Glass Company's branch at Jacksonville, and was later located at Daytona Beach, and in 1944 joined the Sanford Paint and Glass Company.

Active in civic and club affairs, Mr. Elsberry has served as "club warden" for the Sanford Lions Club for some time. Mr. and Mrs. Elsberry live in their new home on Plumosa Drive. They have three children.

Japanese Approve MacArthur's Peace Treaty Statement

TOKYO, Mar. 18—General MacArthur's statement that a peace treaty should be written soon for Japan and the military occupation ended his met with strong Japanese approval. The Japanese call the supreme commander's declaration the strongest, most detailed expression of Japan's present position the world has heard.

All Japanese newspapers printed MacArthur's remarks in full, but without editorial comment. His statement has been the chief topic of conversation since he made it to correspondents at a luncheon news conference yesterday. MacArthur told the American correspondents that a peace treaty should be made with Japan soon, the occupation terminated, and future guidance of the country turned over to the United Nations.

Some young intellectuals expressed concern lest the withdrawal of American occupation forces would encourage stronger political activity by extremists.

These Japanese commented that a civilian administration might not have the same restraining influence on communist elements that General MacArthur and the occupation forces have.

Some Japanese also expressed fear that United Nations control would cut the country off from American financial aid.

The Japanese feel themselves tied to Americans and they feel that the United States is more willing and able to advance tangible financial and physical aid than other countries or the United Nations.

Japanese government officials, although unable to speak in their official capacity, have been urging in private for months that American loans are the sole means of solving Japan's economic problem.

MEETING ANNOUNCED
The Disabled American War Veterans group will meet this evening at 8:00 o'clock at the American Legion Hut, Sam Martins is commander of the group.

Wm. Durant, Industrialist, Dies At 85

General Motors Organizer And Wall Street Tycoon Succumbs In New York

NEW YORK, Mar. 18—American industrialist William Durant died today. The 85-year-old financier was well-known as an organizer of General Motors Corporation. Since he built GM in 1908, Durant twice held control of the gigantic enterprise and twice lost it.

He was known as a shrewd "bull market operator." On his last birthday on Dec. 8 he issued a statement saying that the consumer market needs everything at home and abroad, and that quality is more important today than ever before.

Durant was speaking from a sick bed at the time. He had been ill since October of 1942. His wife and his nurse were in his Gramercy Park apartment which he died this morning.

He was a super-salesman of ideas and he had the courage and skill to make Wall Street sit up and listen when he went into a bull market. Durant parlayed $1,000, part of which he borrowed, into a $90,000,000 fortune, but he lost it all.

Durant was the pivot on which swung the most spectacular turn in the history of the automobile industry. He was the organizer of the General Motors Corporation in 1908. Twice he held and lost control of that gigantic enterprise in deals which left financiers breathless. The crash in 1929 ended his automotive career. He could not recoup during the Depression.

He quit school at 17 to work in his grandfather's mill for 74 cents a day. Eight years later he bought a carriage factory. Soon he had 14 plants scattered throughout the country producing buggies. Durant got into the automobile business in 1903.

Wheat Hits $3.00 Mark For Second Time In 99 Years

CHICAGO, Mar. 18—Wheat hit the $3.00 mark on the Chicago Board of Trade today as heavy trading covered March delivery commitments. It was the second time in the 99-year history of futures trading in Chicago that $3.00 wheat had appeared. The top for March wheat at the start of trading today was $3.50 a bushel.

CHICAGO, Mar. 18—Three dollar wheat is close to reality for the second time in the 99-year history of futures trading on the Chicago Board of Trade. The only time a bushel of wheat cost $3.00 and more was before the United States entered the first World War in 1917.

Wheat has not quite reached $3.00, but frantic buying by the shorts trying to cover their March delivery commitments promises to push the price above the $3.00 mark. The shorts are traders who contract to sell wheat for future delivery.

Trading in March futures ends on Mar. 22. The shorts have until that date to cover their commitments by making purchases. After that they must deliver the actual grain by Mar. 31.

At the opening of trading yesterday there were outstanding short contracts totaling 600,000 bushels, but there wasn't that much wheat in Chicago, so the shorts must get wheat somewhere or raise their commitments.

Many of the shorts, unable to buy actual wheat have bought futures, causing a spectacular upturn in March wheat.

The situation is complicated for the shorts by the fact that flour mills have been buying orders to fill government contracts for flour. Another factor is the shortage of boxcars.

The attorney for the trio, Max Seligman, claimed the trial at which the men were convicted was improperly conducted. Seligman contended the three members of the Jewish underground were tried by a military court without prior referral by a civil magistrate, as provided by law.

The high court, however, ruled the case was under military jurisdiction at all times, and that civil reference, therefore, was not necessary. The trio was arrested on the night of Dec. 29 when soldiers at a roadblock found arms and a whip in their possession.

Growers Demand New Survey Of Citrus Damage

Loss From Freeze Is Expected To Total 30,000,000 Boxes

LAKELAND, Mar. 18—Specialists in citrus production are demanding a new and immediate survey and check of loss and damage to the current Florida citrus crop because of the Feb. 6 freeze, a group of prominent growers-shippers has declared. The actual loss figures will approximate 30,000,000 boxes instead of the 11,000,000 to 12,000,000 reported by the USDA.

This group, for which A. J. Griffin is the spokesman, following a conference here and what is regarded as a comprehensive survey of the conditions in all sections of the state, predicted that the total loss of citrus production in Florida for the month of February, remaining in the ground for the state in the season, will be about 30,000,000 boxes.

"We feel that the USDA survey was made too soon after the freezing temperatures of Feb. 6, and the subsequent cold snaps, nor did it reckon with damage that has since materialized," Griffin said.

The growers-shippers join with Griffin in the move to get a new survey including Fred T. Johnson, sales manager of the Florida Citrus Exchange with some 50 cooperative member houses over the state; H. A. Carleton, general manager of Plymouth Citrus Growers Association at Plymouth in Orange County; and Latt Maxey, extensive Polk County grower-supplier; Charles A. Stewart of Auburndale, grower-shippers; Chester A. Fosgate, president of Fosgate Growers Cooperative, Fort Meade.

No protests against construction by M. E. Webb of a garage on West First Street near Persimmon Avenue were heard at the public hearing held last evening at the City Hall, and therefore the change from residential to business area of the site was approved by the City Commission, according to City Manager H. N. Sayer.

Appeal Over-Ruled By Palestine Court

JERUSALEM, Mar. 18—The Palestine High Court today rejected a plea to over-rule death sentences imposed on three members of an underground outfit.

The attorney for the trio, Max Seligman, claimed the trial at which the men were convicted was improperly conducted. Seligman contended the three members of the Jewish underground were tried by a military court without prior referral by a civil magistrate, as provided by law.

The high court, however, ruled the case was under military jurisdiction at all times, and that civil reference, therefore, was not necessary. The trio was arrested on the night of Dec. 29 when soldiers at a roadblock found arms and a whip in their possession.

Secretary Of State Declares Potsdam Agreement Super- sedeses Yalta Pact

LONDON, Mar. 18—The commander of the 12th United States Army based in Europe, Admiral Richard Connolly, said today the proposed visit of an American task force to Crete and Greece awaits the approval of the Greek government. Meanwhile, the Navy announced the task force will visit the islands in Turkey, some time next month.

Connolly said he recommended to the Navy Department two months ago that the Mediterranean task force make the calls. They would be part of a program of visits to all parts of the Mediterranean. If approved, the task force would visit Crete in mid-April and Greece later in the spring.

WASHINGTON, Mar. 18—Secretary of State George Marshall today rejected a Soviet bid for $10,000,000,000 in reparations from Germany. Marshall declared that the Big Three agreements at Potsdam superseded those made at Yalta. He told Soviet Foreign Minister Molotov firmly that "We will not follow the retreat of Mr. Molotov from Berlin to Yalta."

Secretary Marshall joined British Foreign Minister Bevin in contradicting recent charges against the Western powers by Soviet Foreign Minister Molotov. Both Marshall and Bevin declared firmly that Molotov is mistaken in his charge that Britain and the United States together have taken $10,000,000,000 in reparations from the Western zone of Germany.

Earlier, French Foreign Minister Bidault announced that France wants the Ruhr, Rheinland and the Saar split off from Germany. Bidault declared that Allied controls must be kept over Germany long after a peace settlement is reached and long after the present occupation ends.

He said he wanted to see German coal and steel industries rigidly restricted and suggested that France could replace the fallen Reich as the great steel-producing nation of Europe.

Official word from London said representatives of the Big Four will meet in the British Capital to begin talks on the disposal of Italy's pre-war empire. Britain, France, Russia and the United States are expected to attend.

Tourists Enjoy Program Given By Kiwanis Club

Approximately 125 winter visitors enjoyed the program last night which the Kiwanians gave for the Tourist Club at the Tourist Center.

Edward F. Lane was chairman of the committee in charge of the program and Lester Thorp, president of the Kiwanis Club, opened the entertainment with a word of welcome to the tourists. Mr. Lane presented a blackface skit, followed by several songs rendered by Mrs. George Hardins with Miss Margaret Davis accompanying at the piano.

The Goshyp School of Dancing, Marjorie Temple, director, presented four acts, opening with a Doll Dance in which Patky Collins, Ellen Lyon, Patricia Tooke and Jacqueline McDonald took part. An exhibition ball room dance was given by Jean Sayer and Simon Dingfelder followed by a Dance of Reed Flute by Gretchen Kirchoff. Twilight Time was interpreted by Ann Whitaker.

The program was concluded with community singing of Irish songs in honor of St. Patrick's Day. The songs were arranged by Mrs. Edward F. Lane and directed by Frank Lamson, with Willard Connolly and Mrs. Lane accompanying on the harp and piano respectively.

Games were then played under the direction of Luther Doss and Mr. Lane and prizes awarded.

The hall was decorated by Mrs. Lane with shamrocks and ferns and each guest received a souvenir program printed in green on white paper.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. H. LaFetra were celebrating their 34th wedding anniversary and received hearty congratulations from the assembled crowd.

BIBLE VERBS FOR TODAY

BUT YOU CANNOT BRIBE GOD TO BLINK HIS EYES... The sacrifices of God are a broken spirit, a broken and contrite heart...

According to War Department experts, it would take the United States nine months to get ready for another war. And by that time, the war would be over.

All the Russians want from the Germans is ten billion dollars... which is all right with us, if the United States doesn't have to pay it.

We see where Housing Expediter Crendon says the housing goal for the nation was too high, well, or the performance too low, at least.

Our own personal opinion is that we should not be cutting our Army and Navy appropriations as long as we are planning to get tough with Russia. We believe it was Teddy Roosevelt who used to say, "Speak softly but carry a big stick."

Governor Caldwell says that the automobile is just about as dangerous as the atom bomb. The way some people drive it, it is, anyway. And the bad part about it is, the reckless driver isn't the only one who gets hurt.

FBI Director Hoover warns that crime increased last year by 7.6 per cent and that juvenile delinquents of the war years are growing up into dangerous gangs of criminals. Incidentally, the smaller the town the greater the crime increase; 14 percent in rural areas, only 7 percent in cities.

Another hotel fire, this one in Jackson, Miss., but luckily all of the 600 guests escaped injury. It seems to us there have been a shocking increase in the number of dangerous fires recently, probably on account of increased carelessness among the public, less discipline among employees.

The Socialist government of England has certainly been making the most of the inclement weather that country has been enjoying this winter. We don't know what they would have done if they had not had something to blame their failures on. But, most of us know that England has always had bad weather, and that it is probably no worse this winter than it usually is. Imagine a Winston Churchill blaming the weather for his troubles.

We heard Miss Truman singing on the radio the other night and although we are no connoisseur of voice culture or anything like that, it struck us that she is pretty good, especially after hearing her old man. As a matter of fact, we believe President Truman could well afford to take some lessons from his 23-year-old daughter. Although she sings and she speaks, there is much he could learn about voice control and whatnot from Miss Truman.

Before the war The Sanford Herald, together with a lot of other small newspapers, got its newsprint from Finland. So we were especially interested to read in Washington Merry-Go-Round that Russia is now getting all the Finnish newsprint on reparations payments and is reselling it in New York at $185 a ton as compared with $64 a ton which is the market price. However, we haven't been able to get any Finnish newsprint even at $185 a ton, and according to Merry-Go-Round a large part of it is going to the Los Angeles Times.

Prosperity In 1950?

The Bureau of Labor Statistics has just completed a survey called Full Employment Patterns, 1950. The results of this survey are not to be considered in any sense a prophecy, but are meant to show what must be done if we are to have anywhere near full employment by 1950.

The survey takes into account the increases of population, the employment of more women in industry, and a rise in individual production. The latter trend has been noticed lately by industrialists—away from featherbedding into individual responsibility. Assuming wage rates to be 15 per cent higher than in 1946, and production to be 23 per cent higher, the total market value of goods would be up 21 billion dollars.

On the other side of the ledger the survey places future bottlenecks in lumber, steel, and petroleum, and basic changes in the economic system, involving larger capital investments and freer spending of earned income. The assumptions upon which this pattern was based must be brought into the realm of fact before any of their results can be noticed. Such excursions into the realm of possibility are valuable in pointing the way to the solution of economic problems. But they are only preliminary sketches. They have not reached the blue print stage, much less that of accomplished fact.

Grade Schools First

Light is thrown on the national issue of the moment, school teachers' salary scales, by some statistics released by the National Industrial Conference. It was discovered that of 75 million Americans over 25 years of age, the education of the average was through the eighth grade. Of this group 14 per cent completed high school and only four per cent four years of college.

The educational picture is changing with greater numbers constantly extending their schooling to include high school and college. The GI Bill has given great impetus to the latter bracket. Nevertheless, by far the greater number of Americans stop with the eighth grade diploma. It is obvious, then, that the teaching in those first eight grades must be the best possible if American citizenry is to flower to maximum ability. Enough learning, creative reading habits, and, in short, basic intellectual attitudes, must be established in this, the only school period this group will know.

It follows as night the day that the elementary teacher in the United States must be of the highest type obtainable. The pay will have to be high enough to attract and keep such skilled instructors.

New Names For Old

American Army headquarters in Germany announces two military installations re-named in honor of U.S. soldiers killed in the battle for Germany. A barracks at Frankfurt is to be known henceforth as Sadowski Barracks for Sgt. Joseph J. Sadowski of Perth Amboy, N. J. It was formerly Neue Kaserne. Another at Wiesbaden, Gerardsdorf Kaserne, will be Camp Lindsey, for Capt. Darrell R. Lindsey of Fort Dodge, Iowa.

It is in keeping with army tradition to name camps and military stations for heroic dead, Sadowski and Lindsey, names of different national origins though they are, are nevertheless typically American. They are more fitting than the German ones for locations connected with the army whose victory the two dead soldiers helped bring about.

Jaguar Hunter Uses Spears In Place Of Guns

By SAUL FETT AP Newswire NEW YORK—Alexander R. Siemel is now 57 years old. If you don't think that's news, just try his hobby sometime.

At 57, when most men are happy to survive 18 holes of golf without getting a backache, Siemel's idea of good sport is to hunt man-eating jaguars without benefit of guns.

He prefers a spear or bow and arrow for dealing with a 350-pound cat flying through the air at his throat. So far the score is 41 to 0 his favor. But, as he says, once the other team scores you will no longer be reading about Alexander Siemel, otherwise known by the Russian diminutive of his first name, "Sasha."

He has eliminated 30 jaguars with his spear and 11 with his bow and arrow. The best progress the big cats have made against him is a "few scratches."

It's not that Siemel has anything against guns. He's been known to use them on hunting parties, for which he is the guide and by which he makes a living down in the Brazilian jungles. Siemel also supplements his income by coming to the states on lecture tours.

He recently returned from five years in the Matto Grosso jungle in Brazil with his 28-year-old wife, the former Edith Louise Bray of Greenlane, Pa., and their three children who range in age from 8 months to 6 years. The two younger children were born in the jungle.

Siemel, a Latvian by birth, has led such well-known hunters as Theodore Roosevelt, Jr., Kermit Roosevelt and Lincoln Ellsworth into the jungles. Throughout his career, Siemel has killed or captured 281 senior members of the cat family.

He prefers bow and arrow or spear because "it is definitely more exciting and the animal has an even chance."

chance. The animal has his natural equipment. Siemel has a pack of hounds and a spear with a six-foot handle and a 14-inch blade. The hounds chase the jaguar and when they have him at bay, Siemel steps into the picture, usually only about 30 feet from the cat.

Hemmed in, an annoyed, the cat charges. The hunter crouches, holding his spear low. At the precise second when the cat leaps for Siemel's throat he exposes his own throat and chest. At this point, Siemel is supposed to bring up his steel-pointed uppercut. He usually does effectively, as his comparatively long life would indicate.

A SOUTHERN STATE legislature is considering a bill which outlaws the use of dynamite for entertainment purposes. Hereafter, blowouts must not become blow ups.

Parties must no longer be pulled off with a bang except figuratively speaking.

The only legal boom will refer to the stock market, business and presidential candidates.

Grandpappy Jenkins says he can recall his old days in the west when the success of a party depended on the caliber of guns packed by the frolicsome guests.

Gramps remembers one "life of the party" who could shoot the shoes off his pals without tearing their sox.

O. J. says if a buckeroo came equipped with a mighty thirst and a loose safety catch on his six-gun he was in his proper party clothes.

Grandpappy agrees that these old wild west party givers lived a couple of generations too soon. Think what fun those boys would have had playing bean bag with an atom bomb!

U. N. MAY BACK PATROLS ALONG GREEK FRONTIER

SALONIKA, Greece, Mar. 18—A plan calling for United Nations sponsorship of patrols to maintain the integrity of the Greek border is being developed for inclusion in the final report of the United Nations Balkan investigating commission to the Security Council, informed sources said recently. The proposal, which eventually may be termed an "American plan," will be related in the possibility of American economic aid to Greece, the informants said. The Greek government has charged repeatedly that Leftist guerrillas now battling Greek troops have been harbored by Albania, Yugoslavia and Bulgaria.

A six-nation subcommittee of the United Nations commission left this morning for the Albanian frontier to investigate border incidents. The group is headed by John D. L. Hood, of Australia, and includes representatives of China, France, the United States, Russia and Great Britain. Population Shift Seen Informed sources also speculated that the commission might recommend population exchanges involving about 50,000 Slavs now living in northern Greece, near the Yugoslav and Albanian borders. A Greek government source said that such a proposal would be "welcomed" at Athens.

Alexis Kyrou Greek liaison officer, told the commission today the most of the Slavs had collaborated with the Germans and

Bulgarians during the war-time occupation of Greece. Josip Djerie, Yugoslav liaison officer, accused the British Vice-Consul at Philorina, Greece of encouraging Macedonians to revolt against the Greek government because he wanted to provoke Greek reprisals on the "unfortunate Macedonians."

ODT Chief, Senator Lay Blame | Murray Erred In Merger Stand On Small for Freight Pile-up | AFL Leaders Privately Contend

Special to Central Press WASHINGTON—Col. J. M. Johnson, Office of Defense Transportation administrator, and Senator Clyde M. Reed (R) of Kansas, find themselves in complete agreement as to where the blame for the current critical freight car shortage should be placed. The culprit, they say, is former Civilian Production Administrator John D. Small, who refused to allocate large quantities of steel to car production.

Appearing before a Senate sub-committee headed by Reed, Johnson divulged the texts of letters to Small and others in the administration pleading for the necessary cars. At one point, he wrote John Steelman, then reconversion director: "There is going to be no agreement between Small and myself on this subject. He could not be convinced unless transportation utterly broke down."

Reed has said openly that it was "almost criminal the way Small ignored the situation. In Soviet Russia he would have been shot." The Kansas senator is reported to have made other statements, just as caustic but more detailed, during a recent closed conference with railroad, steel and car building executives.

Senator Reed

AFL LEADERS CONTEND privately that CIO President Philip Murray made a serious mistake in not sitting down with the federation to discuss merger of the two labor groups. They maintain that the CIO will suffer much worse than the AFL if and when Congress enacts drastic labor legislation.

The AFL's reasoning is that federation unions are solidly established, some with more than 50 years of experience and history, and can withstand the shock of restrictive legislation. One AFL official said that if Congress bans the closed shop, such provisions will be removed from AFL contracts, but that in many industries the AFL employers and unions still will adhere to the established practice. That will happen less with CIO, he said.

The official asserted that proposals to ban industry-wide bargaining also would hurt the CIO much more than AFL. The AFL is organized on a tightly-knit craft union basis and most of its dealings are with individual employers.

CONGRESS IS VIRTUALLY certain to vote to cut taxes, but it will not be across-the-board. It will be graduated, with the low-income taxpayer getting the biggest break percentage-wise. Two things pave the way for tax reduction: 1—Congress continued war-time excise taxes, boosting federal revenue more than a billion dollars over President Truman's January estimates. This would create a revenue surplus of one billion, 300 million dollars according to the president's figures, assuming there is no tax cut and the government spends 37½ billions in the next fiscal year.

2—The legislative budget, when finally sent to the White House, will call for a reduction of about five billions in the president's spending estimates. Republicans, therefore have a "paper" program which would permit about two and a half billions to be applied toward public debt reduction even after a 20 per cent tax cut, which would trim about three and a half billions a year off revenue.

However, passage of the tax cut by Congress does not mean that it will become law. The president opposes the tax cut, and probably would veto it. It is highly doubtful if it could be passed over his veto.

While Spare Stamp II will be good for ten points right on through Sept. 30, we are hoping the sugar supply will make it possible to declare another ten-point stamp good on July 1, Simpson said.

He emphasized, however, that these ten-point stamps are not "bonus" and that sugar users still be used carefully. He also pointed out that there will be no special stamps set aside this year for canning sugar, as the ten-point stamp should prove sufficient to cover all necessary home uses of sugar, including canning.

Beauty Notes
BY BETTY CLARK
AP Newsfeatures. Beauty Editor.
Any hour now you'll wake up to the rubens' charming and sexiest, it's a spring! For a woman, particularly, spring is important. Not so much because of the story about a "young man's time" but because she must face all those little bulges of adipose that she has successfully hidden all winter under her fur coat.

All of a sudden there is the mirror to face and not on the face, winter clothes that are wonderful concealments. This year's spring and summer clothes are going to be bright and revealing. Everything, it seems, has been designed to show more of the bare shoulders and necks. It's a gal must accent the fact that even if she doesn't parade in semi-nudity to work or to market, she will have to face the issue when she plans her weekend and vacation trips.

Care of the shoulders shouldn't be too difficult if you start now. Whipping them into shape if you have put on some weight in the last few months and your upper arms are bulky, a well-timed visit to the beautician will do a world of good. If necessary, add special exercises, lying flat and "thumping" flesh parts against the floor.

To smooth your shoulders, start a nightly application of oil or cream after your soap-and-water scrubbing. And don't skin arms and elbows. A bleaching process such as lemon juice can help you make some headway with discoloration, but wielding the bath brush on these easy-to-forget spots is the best plan.

The Shoppe Chapeau Has Formal Opening

The Shoppe Chapeau, Sanford's newest hat shop, held its formal opening on Saturday afternoon, with over 100 people visiting the newly decorated rooms in the Touchton Building. The color scheme used throughout the salon is orchid and leaf green which is carried out in the walls, draperies and rugs. Black lacquered furnishings and oil paintings complete the appointments of the room. The new shop is owned by Mrs. Elizabeth Kircher and will be managed by Mrs. Max Lassing.

A unique arrangement of modeling of the new hats was enjoyed by the visitors present. A black frame cut in a door of the room formed a setting for displays of original hat designs by Mrs. Kircher. The frame was caught at each corner with tiny sprays of flowers and satin bows.

The models stepped into the frame, displaying shoulders and head only. Models who took part in the play were Jean Sayer, Cindy Sinclair, Louise Clarke, Anita Aiken, Mrs. James Terwilliger, Mrs. Red, Erick Adams, Mrs. Ernest Southward, Mrs. Plona Lewis, Mrs. Rudy Sloan, Mrs. Fred Lattson and Mrs. Lassing.

Outstanding among the many designs shown was a small pastel blue half hat trimmed with tiny apple blossoms, blue velvet bows and a wispy veil which was tagged "First Date" and worn by Miss Sayer.

Little Miss Sinclair modeled a feather weight blue felt Junior Miss bonnet with matching bow. Silver and gold brocade hand crocheted evening bag consisting of felt, evening bag settings and bandeau were modeled by Miss Clarke.

Mrs. Terwilliger wore a small navy sailor hat covered with yards of pink and blue netting entitled "April in Paris." The most elaborate number shown throughout the afternoon was one entitled "Wild Fashionable Garden," worn by Mrs. Lattson. This was a large white crepe of imported Italian satin dress. The crown and part of the trim was covered with silk roses in varying shades of pink and white-green with ribbon added a refreshing touch to the finished effect.

Following the hat showings, tea was served. Mrs. Lassing assisted in the evening. Mrs. Kircher assisted in the afternoon.

Sugar Stamp No. 53 To Expire On Mar. 31
Housewives were today reminded by OPA that Spare Stamp 53, currently good for five pounds of sugar, must be "spent" in the next few days or not at all, since it expires Mar. 31, one month earlier than originally intended.

The following day, April 1, OPA begins the use of ten-point stamps, with Spare Stamp II becoming good for that amount. A. D. Simpson, Jr., Regional Sugar Executive, said in Atlanta.

While Spare Stamp II will be good for ten points right on through Sept. 30, we are hoping the sugar supply will make it possible to declare another ten-point stamp good on July 1, Simpson said.

He emphasized, however, that these ten-point stamps are not "bonus" and that sugar users still be used carefully. THE CLUBHOUSE

By FRANK ECK
AP Newsfeatures Sports Editor
TAMPA, Fla.—Jack Dempsey is having the time of his life!

The former world's heavyweight boxing champion is off on another tour of the south to referee wrestling matches, and heaven can help the grappler who disobeys the few rules left in the sport.

Referee Dempsey, 52, knocked a wrestler out with one punch here the other night. It was the first time I have seen one villain and TWO heroes emerge from one wrestling match.

It is still a question around town as to whether Dempsey or Antonio Cortez, popular Spanish wrestler, was declared the winner over 220-pound Garza Lozano, billed as an ex-bufflighter from Argentina. The fans were so thrilled by the right hook Dempsey landed on Lozano's jaw that the announcer didn't have a chance to be heard.

They really gird the lilly in this part of the country when it comes to wrestling matches. That expression may not belong in wrestling but these fellows aren't just plain ordinary everyday grapplers. They are showmen. Now I can see what happened to vaudeville and honest-to-goodness wrestling.

Dempsey entered the ring first and drew a tremendous ovation from the 5,000 fans at the Fort Homer Hesterly Arena. Then came Cortez and then the villain, Lozano.

The grapplers took turns tossing each other out of the ring. Dempsey played along with the gag each time. When a matman gets tossed to the arena floor he has 10 seconds in which he must climb back or be declared the loser.

When Cortez missed a flying tackle and flew through the ropes—that villain Lozano ducked when Cortez came leaping at him. Dempsey must have been thinking of Referee Ed Barry and his "long count" 1927 fight with Gene Tunney in Chicago. Jack gave the slowest 10 count I have ever seen and I know his right arm wasn't tired. He proved that about 20 minutes after the bout started.

When Cortez tossed Lozano out of the ring it happened right at my feet. Lozano is the villain, remember. This chubby ex-bufflighter who sneers as well as he wrestles, picked up a peanut shell. Ringside fans, who saw him yell a warning to Dempsey. They didn't seem concerned with Cortez who was off in a neutral corner flexing his muscles. They were interested in that peanut shell

Lozano held in his hand and they wanted Dempsey to know what went on before Lozano returned to the ring. Jack acted as though he had 4F ear drums, and after he heard the fans' pleas he thought a harmless little peanut shell was all right. After all these two big guys were tossing each other out of the ring.

"I knew the villain had something in his hand," Jack admitted later. "But remember these boys were playing rough and I thought I'd let them go at it a bit longer. Anyway I was having too much fun watching them."

Lozano clamped a headlock on Cortez and began rubbing his forehead with the peanut shell. One rub, then another. Nothing happened except a pretty good chorus of boos mixed with English and Spanish that I have yet to find in the dictionary. Then Lozano rubbed a bit harder and Cortez's forehead began to bleed.

The fans were clamoring for Dempsey to do something about the unethical tactics of Lozano. But Jack had seen blood before. However, a man can stand so much. The claret began streaming down Cortez' face so profusely that Dempsey stepped between the two grapplers and landed a right hook on Lozano's jaw.

Jack raised Cortez' arm in token of victory and fled to the dressing room. Lozano lay prone for five minutes before he decided he could maneuver on his own power.

The show went over great with one exception. When Lozano walked wearily to his dressing room he held his robe over his left eye. Could it be that Dempsey hit Lozano so hard that the Argentinian didn't know where it hurt most?

Another thing that puzzles me is how that seemingly harmless peanut shell was lying at such a convenient spot on the floor. I didn't see anybody eating peanuts. As a matter of fact I don't think they sell peanuts in Florida.

It is believed Dempsey made more money probably close to $500 on his one appearance here than both wrestlers put together. Jack received 35 percent of the net proceeds. The gross was slightly above $2,100 and since it usually costs next to nothing to stage a wrestling show it stands to reason that Dempsey flew out of town with a pretty good day's pay.

"And to think I used to make $7,000 a day selling real estate in Tampa," said Jack when it was all over.

Employment Service Outlines Problems

Age, insufficient experience, lack of education, lack of license, and reluctance of applicants to go to other areas because of uncertainty of living arrangements are a few of the problems encountered by the Sanford office of the Florida State Employment Service, Mrs. Betty H. Moseley, manager, said today.

"Some jobs are going begging although there are applicants with the same skills registered with the Employment Service," Mrs. Moseley said. "Employer specifications are becoming more stringent and requiring more experience and education than the majority of applicants, who might otherwise qualify, possess."

Mrs. Moseley said three aircraft mechanics otherwise qualified, do not have licenses. An opening for a waitress remains unfilled as current applicants are not within the specifications on the job order. Low wages are deterrents in filling openings in the unskilled labor category.

"There was a time when the five local applicants qualified to fill openings outside the area might have accepted them. The housing shortage, however, has seriously decreased the mobility of labor. A man can't pick up his family and go to another community as he used to. He seeks and often fails to get assurance that there'll be a place for them to live in the new town."

"If we do not have an applicant who meets all the specifications of the employer, but have one we believe can do the job well," Mrs. Moseley said, "we consult the employer before making a referral that does not fully match the order."

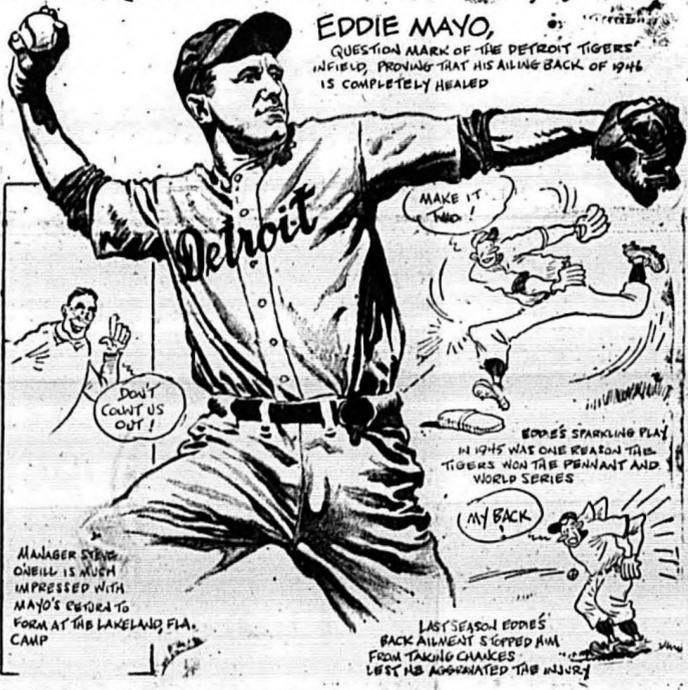

SPORTS ODDITY

Want to bet that the American Walker Cup team will beat the British team? One of the British team, Leonard Crawley, probably will take you. Crawley spent some time in Florida recently. He says he took quite a few bets at good odds. The former star at rugby and cricket will do his best to help win the bet for himself.

Another tip from Crawley: Jim Bruen, tall Irishman who will be on the British team, can outdrive anybody man on earth, including Tolson's Frankie Brannan of the American team.

INSIDE SPORTS REPORT

By ARTHUR BECKWITH, JR.

Florida Gators
Ash Wing, sports writer for the Western Newspaper Union and former sports editor of the Orlando Morning Sentinel, has an optimistic outlook for the coming football season at the University of Florida.

Ash says: "We tried to get Dean Stanley to commit himself on the loss of a couple of Florida high school stars, but the big man just smiled and said, 'We got the cream of the Florida prep camp, and if the others had rather sit on the bench at some other school, that's their business.' We certainly don't see anything in sight and offered what we were able in the way of scholarships. We have just got to get along with what we have."

Ash continues: "And what we have" appears in this corner as quite a formidable array of ivory. Here's next Fall's probable football roster:

Johnny Beach, St. Petersburg; Loren Broadus, Jacksonville; All-Southern, who scored 15 touchdowns last year; Carlis Carter, another Jacksonville star, who was out with injuries most of last year; Tommy Bray from Macon, Ga., was Georgia All-State last year; Dewell Rushing, All-SEC, Florida 1944; Ray Gatch, Eustis back; All-Central Florida Conference and All-State honorable mention; William Shemaker, Ocala High guard; Ralph Puel, All-State in Ohio last year; Ed Dohrowski, Nashua, N. H. All-State for three years. Plus last year's crop!

"Gator football bosses aren't particularly concerned that Willie Anderson, Sanford High star is going to Auburn. They've got the cream of the Florida prep camp generally speaking plus Eddie Dohrowski, super star from Nashua, N. H. High. Teamed with Griffin and Loren and Broadus, the New Hampshire speedster may prove the difference between a winning Gator team next Fall and a loser."

Johnny Morgan
Julian Stenstrom, former sports editor of The Herald, brought a letter in to the office several days ago. The letter was neatly written. We did not recognize the handwriting so we turned the page to

Prep Coach Offered College Job If He Brings Star Player

GREENVILLE, Tex., Mar. 18—There's a high school basketball coach in Texas, who can have a college job, provided he takes along the star player of this year's high school team.

The coach is Ray Dorsett of Greenville, and the player is Marcus Freiburger, a six foot ten inch youngster. Freiburger ended his high school career the past weekend when he finished all scoring records in the Texas high school tournament. In one game, the opposing team put three men on him. Yet, Freiburger scored 40 of his team's 53 points.

Dorsett admitted that several colleges had offered him the basketball coaching job, if he would promise to bring Freiburger with him. Dorsett added: "But they are smaller colleges and I don't want Marcus going to any school except one where he will be certain to receive consideration for All-America. He will be All-America, too. He's the greatest boy any high school coach ever had."

Program Of Rat Control Is Effective

Damage done by rats in the city is now 60 to 70 percent less than before the control program was started, according to Dr. Frank Quillman in an article in the Sanford Herald, a periodical issued monthly by the Seminole County Health Unit of which Dr. Quillman is director.

"About two-and-one-half years ago a survey of rat damage was made in the City of Sanford," he wrote. "At that time it was estimated that $50,000 worth of material and food were destroyed or damaged by rats in one year. Multiply this amount by the number of towns in the state and country, and you will see that billions of dollars worth of damage is done by rats. At this time a rat control program was started by the City Sanitary Department."

Dr. Quillman pointed out that rats are very prolific and quoted one authority as stating that when there is plenty of food and the rats are not molested, one pair of rats will multiply to from 800 to 1,000 in two years. This number of rats would do thousands of dollars worth of damage in that time.

Control of rats depends entirely upon many factors, he wrote. Most city building codes require new buildings to be of rat proof construction. Many of the older buildings have been rat proofed, after which the buildings are "baited" with poison to kill those in the buildings. Red spill mixed with meat or fish in a good bait. This can be used in many places as it will not affect pets. Another poison used a great deal is 1080. It can be put in water or used with grain. Much care must be used with this poison as it will harm other animals.

Rats are keen animals, he pointed out, and soon get wise to bait traps. They dig under and around buildings, including litter in back yards should be kept to a minimum for control of rodents as well as for orderliness and cleanliness.

The Health Unit and City Sanitary Division are glad to advise anyone with rat problems. Dr. Quillman stated.

Damage Suit Filed Against Government

JACKSONVILLE, Mar. 18.—The Gulf Atlantic Transportation Company filed a $10,000 damage suit against the government last week. The company charges that Navy destroyers caused the destruction of a tank barge off Charleston, S. C. on July 19, 1945.

The barge was discharging gasoline into shore tanks of an oil company, according to admiralty proceedings, when the destroyer escort was being navigated in the Cooper River at what the company claimed was a high, reckless and dangerous rate of speed.

The company charges that excessive swells were caused, and the barge rolled and tossed until the gasoline discharge hose was broken and the spraying gasoline was ignited.

$1,000,000 Worth Of Narcotics Seized

NEW YORK, Mar. 18.—Federal customs agents have seized more than $1,000,000 worth of narcotics from a French freighter docked in New York, it was revealed today.

The agents made the raid yesterday and today.

A routine inspection of papers leaving Pier 25 yesterday by Patrolman Lawrence H. Murray provided the tip-off. Murray found four packages of pure heroin in the money belt of a French seaman named Cesar Negro. The seaman was arrested, and today agents made a thorough search of the freighter Saint Tropix. The search yielded 450 ounces of pure heroin, valued at $2,500 an ounce in the black market.

Martial Law In Indian Province Anticipated

LAHORE, India, Mar. 18.—The British governor of strife-torn Punjab province is expected to issue a decree shortly giving more power to the military authorities.

The leader of the Sikhs predicted today that the forthcoming decree will impose measures approaching martial law.

Meanwhile, there have been accounts of more clashes between Hindus and Sikhs on one side and Muslims on the other. Heavy casualties are said to have occurred in five villages in northwest Punjab where the new fighting broke out.

More than 1,000 persons have been killed in religious rioting in the Punjab during the past two weeks.

Dean Makes Survey On College Control

GAINESVILLE, Mar. 18.—Dean E. McAllister, president of the Association of Governing Boards of State Universities, told the faculty of the University of Florida and his guests last week that a state university must be kept out of politics and the directing boards of regents or control must have constitutional independence of action.

Dean McAllister is making a 90-college survey on college control. The University of Florida was the 52nd institution he has visited and Miami University will be the next.

He says that his survey is exploding the fallacy that universities are rife with communistic ideas and subversive teachings.

Coral Gables Is Site For Music Center

MIAMI, Mar. 18.—A national music center is to be built on a 45-acre tract in suburban Coral Gables at a cost of $1,000,000.

The center was announced by Miss Bertha Foster, chairman of the executive board and dean emerita of the University of Miami's music department. She said this sponsor the project.

The building will include a large auditorium and club house, an outdoor auditorium, a swimming pool and privately owned cottages where retired musicians, composers and artists will live.

Building At Southern College To Be Ready For Summer Session

LAKELAND, Mar. 18 (Special).—A new chemistry and physics building valued at $200,000, will be completed on the Florida Southern college campus in time for use during the summer school sessions which begin June 2, President Lull M. Spivey announced today.

The structure and a small infirmary for men are now being erected without cost to the college by the Bureau of Community Facilities of the Federal Works Agency as a part of its program of transferring surplus buildings from service installations to educational institutions to permit increased enrollments of veterans.

The chemistry and physics building will provide new laboratories and classrooms for the two sciences and will also include a mathematics classroom. Offices for faculty members in these departments are also provided.

Erection of the infirmary will permit transfer of men's facilities from an overcrowded wing of Joseph-Reynolds hall. The new structure provides a 10-bed ward, supervising nurse's office, supply and miscellaneous rooms.

Citrus Damage

In discussing the conference Morrow said "we have all agreed that both the industry and the trade will be sadly misled by the USDA figures which, in our opinion, badly underestimate the loss."

Both the Florida Citrus Commission and Growers Administrative Committee, handling the details of the federal marketing agreement for Florida citrus, will be asked to join in the petition for the new survey.

Morrow estimated shipment of 1,000 cars of oranges weekly between now and the end of the season, which he forecast for June 1, would "move the crop in an orderly manner and at increasingly favorable prices to the growers." Morrow said "while everyone is talking about the Feb. 6 freeze, actually the state had three damaging cold spells following that date—including one the morning before the embargo became effective on Feb. 17."

Commission Makes Employment Report

TALLAHASSEE, Mar. 18 (Special).—After a phenomenal seasonal increase during November, manufacturing employment in Florida remained stable during December and January.

Carl B. Smith, Chairman of the Florida Industrial Commission, said slight increases in employment were reported but were partially offset by decreased employment in cigar manufacturing which was affected in January by a post-Christmas lay-off.

Total manufacturing employment reached 90,600 in mid-January, increasing 1,000 between November and December and 200 between December and January.

Manufacturing employment in Florida increased strikingly during 1946. January 1947, employment was 7,600 above January 1946, employment, representing an increase of nine per cent.

Wm. Durant Dies

(Continued from Page One) business by taking over a wagon works which held the manufacturing rights to a car designed by David Buick. From that grew General Motors. Originally, the wise-acre laughed that off as Durant's folly. But it soon was worth $34,000,000 worth of business a year.

He sank $7,000,000 into an attempt to grab control of the electric light bulb industry and then the panic of 1910 forced him out of General Motors. He founded Chevrolet and quietly began buying up G.M. stock. One day, in 1915, he walked into a board of directors' meeting, slipped down a shaft of proxies, and announced: "Gentlemen, I control this company."

But again, in the depression of 1920 and 21, Durant was tossed out. "By 1927, however, he was the kingpin in Consolidated Motors which made some of the cars old-timers will remember, the Durant, the Star, the Loconobile, and the Mason. Then came the big crash in 1919, and that finished him. Seven years later, he went into bankruptcy—assets, $250; liabilities, $314,000.

French Family Visit Former GI In Mobile

MOBILE, Mar. 18.—When F. J. Reneke served in France with the Third Army during and after the recent war, he was welcomed into the home of Maurice Benje in Paris. The Benje family even took Reneke in as a house guest for six months and showed him every inch of Paris.

He had a fine time and when he left, he invited the family to come to Mobile for a six-months' visit with him.

Madame Pauline Benje and her two sons have accepted the offer and are in Mobile. Papa Benje wasn't able to come because of business, but madame and the boys are all excited—as is Reneke.

However, he says that no matter how hard he tries, he'll never be able to repay the Benjes for their hospitality to him.

Legion Meeting

(Continued from Page One) tee, Joel Field, R. A. Cobb and John Sauls. J. J. Rocco remains on the executive committee as a past commander, according to Joel Field, post adjutant. The other members of the executive committee are Commander Wolcott, Vice-Commander Young and Finance Officer Smith.

Don Morton, past department commander of the Legion Department-Vermont and now a resident of Geneva where he has purchased a home, gave an inspiring talk on Legion activities and charged the members of the Post to support the young man (Wolcott) who has been elected to lead them this year.

The Post voted to donate $50 to the Red Cross drive. Six members volunteered to act as pallbearers at the funeral this afternoon of Walter E. Urquhart, Spanish-American War veteran and manager of the Florida Hotel, whose funeral was held at the Erickson Funeral Home this afternoon with graveside ceremonies at Evergreen Cemetery.

Moscow Meet

The deputy foreign ministers of the Big Four agreed to set up committees to specialize the work of drafting a peace treaty for Germany. There are to be four committees, each dealing with a special phase of the problem.

MOSCOW, Mar. 18.—There were fresh indications today that Premier Joseph Stalin is taking an active interest in the world problems moving toward a showdown at the conference of foreign ministers. However, the Soviet Premier is remaining in the background and whatever action he is taking is of the behind-the-scenes variety.

Concrete evidence of Stalin's interest was given last night when he received the French foreign minister, Georges Bidault at the Kremlin for a 95-minute conference. Russian Foreign Minister

WASHINGTON, Mar. 18.—Republican leaders in the House were reported today to be coming to the conclusion that small incomes must be given preferred treatment in any bill to cut income taxes this year.

One high ranking Republican has said privately that he doubts enough votes can be mustered to pass the measure sponsored by Chairman Harold Knutson of the ways and means committee. Knutson's bill would give taxpayers, large and small, a 20 percent cut across the board.

Revision of the Knutson bill to give small incomes a 25 to 30 percent slash was discussed yesterday at a meeting of the Republican steering committee. The meeting was held in the office of Speaker Joseph Martin. After the session Martin said that no decision concerning revision of the Knutson bill had been reached. The speaker said he will call all House Republicans together this week to discuss the tax question.

Some of the members of the steering committee said there was considerable discussion of a plan to provide special relief for persons with incomes up to about $400,000. Chairman Knutson has called the Ways and Means Committee into another closed session today. Knutson, still predicting committee approval by Thursday of his 20 percent straight tax cut plan.

Hernando Cortes, Spanish explorer and conquistador, died in Spain in 1547.

Policy Warning

(Continued from Page One) for health insurance. Altogether, the Ohioan estimated, that eventually it may be necessary to have a federal social welfare budget of $1,000,000,000 a year to improve living conditions of the American people. As Taft figures it, it should not be difficult to raise that sum when we have a federal budget of between $25,000,000,000 and $30,000,000,000 a year.

The increased employment, Smith said, was due primarily to an extraordinary expansion in the citrus processing industry.

Molotov Sees Agreement On Reparations

Marshall Agrees With Soviet Minister But Expects Difficulties Over Question

NEW YORK, Mar. 18.—Ambassador Secretary of State William Marshall said today that Soviet and American negotiators are making a campaign of psychological warfare against the United States.

MOSCOW, Mar. 18.—Soviet Foreign Minister V. M. Molotov said today he still believes the Big Four foreign ministers will reach agreement on the highly important issue of German reparations.

Molotov made a statement to this effect to the conference of foreign ministers. He spoke after Britain's Foreign Secretary, Ernest Bevin, rejected Soviet reparations demands on Germany.

Molotov said it did not follow from the disputes thus far over reparations that the four powers would not be able to find a common point of view.

United States Secretary of State Marshall agreed with Molotov that a meeting of minds on Germany's economic program is possible but reminded Molotov that there are (Continued on Page Three)

Although there is no official information on the situation, one account says that the mayors of several villages and a number of civil guards have been implicated in the plot.

Ten miners are said to be among the persons arrested in Teruel (Continued on Page Three)

Barge Line President Meets Local Group

Mortimer B. Kelly of New York City, president of the McLain-Carolina Lines, Inc., met with a group of city and county officials and representatives of local shipping interests at the Mayfair Inn yesterday at a luncheon sponsored by the Chamber of Commerce.

According to Mr. Kelly, a barge line will be established on the St. Johns River just as soon as the facilities are available and sufficient tonnage is assured. Tonnage of approximately 2,000 a month would be required and local interests would have to provide necessary docks and warehouses.

Manager Ed Higgins who called the meeting stated that he believed preferential freights would be assured if the barge line were established.

Ramadier Is Given Vote Of Confidence

PARIS, Mar. 19.—The French National Assembly today gave Premier Paul Ramadier a 421-to-0 vote of confidence on his policies in Indo-China.

The vote came after a stormy debate on France's relations with the Viet-Namense regime in Indo-China. Communist deputies abstained from voting, despite a challenge from Ramadier.

Communist leader Jacques Duclos said before the vote was taken that the Communist Party, largest in the assembly, would neither support nor oppose the confidence motion. Ramadier replied that he wanted his policy backed by the entire nation, not merely by a majority.

Thousands Homeless As Rising Waters Break Peak Record

LONDON, Mar. 19.—No immediate relief from rains is in sight today as floods spread new destruction throughout large areas of England and Wales. The British Air Ministry predicts heavy and prolonged showers, followed by continuous rain.

Thousands of additional persons have been driven from their homes by the murky waters. In some places, rising waters edged past record peaks established in the disastrous floods of 1894.

British troops, German war prisoners and volunteers are working furiously to save water purifying stations and gas and electricity plants. At the same time, others are placing sandbags on (Continued on Page Three)

Rain Postpones 50 Associates Barbecue

Considerable overflow of water over embankments and backing up of water from catch basins resulted from the heavy downpour shortly after 10:00 o'clock this morning.

The wind abruptly shifted from the east to the northwest and drove the rain in sheets, and waves dashed high against the bulkhead on Lake Monroe. The downpour followed intermittent showers that started last night.

The heavy rain put out the fire in the barbecue pit of the Fifty Associates on the west side where W. E. Hathaway was preparing a barbecue for tonight. The barbecue will be held Thursday evening instead, he said.

Coal Strike Called Off By Lewis

Chief Of UMW Sends Interior Secretary Letter Withdrawing Contract Notice

WASHINGTON, Mar. 19.—John L. Lewis bowed to the dictates of the highest court in the land today, and withdrew his soft coal contract termination notice to the government effective Mar. 31. His action of the chief of the United Mine Workers of America was in compliance with a Supreme Court mandate.

Lewis sent a brief 20-word letter to Interior Secretary J. A. Krug announcing that the notice he had given Krug last Nov. 15 "is hereby unconditionally withdrawn."

It was this notice of contract termination that touched off a 17-day strike in the nation's soft coal fields last fall.

Lewis called off that strike until Mar. 31. The mine union leader's action today thus apparently removed the possibility of a renewal of the work stoppage at the end of this month.

By the withdrawal notice, Lewis also saved his union $2,750,000. The Supreme Court decision fined the United Mine Workers $700,000 dollars. But it contained the provision that unless he cancelled his contract termination notice within a set time, the union would have to pay the balance of a $3,500,000 fine.

In response to the many requests that the U. M. W. know Lewis, he is expected to appear at the Federal Penitentiary in Miami, Fla., to receive a memorial to his late wife, Mrs. Marye Hodgkin, 25, March 20, at 10:30 a. m.

Move Is Launched For Memorial To Late Dr. Knox

In response to the many requests that the U. M. W. know Lewis, he is expected to appear at the Federal Penitentiary in Miami, Fla., to receive a memorial to his late wife, Mrs. Marye Hodgkin, 25, March 20, at 10:30 a. m.

Anyone interested in being included in creating this memorial to the late Dr. Knox is asked to contact Mrs. Marye Hodgkin, 25, March 20, at 10:30 a. m.

Dr. Knox came to Sanford in 1928 and became one of the city's leading physicians. Born April 1, 1884, in Shawville, Quebec, Canada, he received his early education at Beachburg, Ontario, Canada. He worked with the Canadian Expeditionary Force in 1916 with the rank of Captain and served until December, 1918, much of the time with the British Expeditionary Force in France.

Following the war he practiced medicine in Weyburn and Colgate, Saskatchewan, until the fall of 1928, when he came to Sanford, Dr. Knox joined the Florida National Guard shortly after his arrival in this city, and served as commanding officer for the 12th Infantry Medical Detachment. In 1931 he was retired due to ill health with the rank of lieutenant colonel.

Dr. Knox was an honorary member of the Sanford Lions Club, a member of the Weyburn Medical Association, a member of the first Presbyterian Church, and Florida State Medical Association and the American Medical Association.

He died in 1944 at the age of 59 years following an illness of several years. He was survived by his wife and daughter who still live in this city.

Reds In Hungary Reject Protest Note Sent By U.S.

BUDAPEST, Mar. 19.—The Russian military command in Budapest today rejected a United States protest against Soviet influence in the internal affairs of Hungary. For the second time, the Russians rejected an American request for a three-part investigation of the situation.

The United States has contended that the Russians entered Hungary in order to end the rule of Hungarian Communists. Today the Russian command rejected the American request.

The Soviet note warned Hungary to stop the anti-Communist propaganda and to allow the Communist Party to be reorganized. It also demanded that the Hungarian government should be reorganized to include Communists.

Supreme Court Renders 5 To 2 Decision Removing Talmadge From Office

ATLANTA, Mar. 19.—The Talmadge forces have lost the battle of the governors in Georgia. The state Supreme Court ruled today that former Gov. Talmadge is the legal governor. Herman Talmadge is getting ready to move out of the state capitol building bag and baggage.

Talmadge took over after he was elected by the legislature following the death of his father, Eugene, who died before he could be inaugurated. The Georgia Supreme Court said in its 5-to-2 decision that the election of the younger Talmadge by the legislature was invalid.

Talmadge said he would not ask the Supreme Court to reconsider its decision. He called his wife and said, "Honey, get our suitcases together and we will move out of this town."

The youthful Talmadge assumed office with the backing of National Guard officers and state troops. He said he would relinquish office immediately, but he would stay the fight to the people. He said he considered the people the court of last resort.

The decision was 5 to 2 in favor of Thompson. The majority opinion was written by Justice Henry D. Knowlton. Chief Justice W. L. Jenkins and Justice Tom S. Candler filed a dissenting opinion.

The court's announcement threw both houses of the Georgia general assembly into confusion. Presiding officers were unable to maintain order and the legislature adjourned until later in the day.
