Strolling In Sanford

Amiable Charlie Morrison, former member of the Sanford High School Band returned Friday afternoon with members of the band who were attending a summer music camp at the University of Miami. Presentations were made to members as follows: Joe Fisher, senior, outstanding musician, outstanding athlete and outstanding student; Robert Newman, senior, outstanding service, citizenship and athlete; and Bob Reely, junior, outstanding athlete, musician and student.

Ernest Cowles, bandmaster of the Sanford High School Band returned Friday afternoon with members of the band who were attending a summer music camp at the University of Miami. Presentations were made to members as follows: Joe Fisher, senior, outstanding musician, outstanding athlete and outstanding student; Robert Newman, senior, outstanding service, citizenship and athlete; and Bob Reely, junior, outstanding athlete, musician and student.

Harry Robson says he hasn't seen such mosquitoes as those in his area. He said he thought those that used to be thick in New Smyrna were big but that the Sanford variety beats 'em. New Smyrna has been putting big dents in its mosquito population with fog.

New Type Mess Greeted Warmly

ENID, Okla. (AP)—A GI dream—waitresses dressed in trim, white uniforms—was greeted warmly by Air Force Base airmen as they went to choose their morning.

It was only the second day of the Air Force's experiment in turning kitchen police duty over to a catering service. But the first day, due to continued rain, the mess was immediately pronounced a tremendous success.

"Everyone was very enthusiastic, especially the enlisted men who ordinarily put KP every 15 or 20 days," said Lt. Joseph A. Flays, public information officer. The girls loved it too.

Sharon Ruch, a stenographer for the catering firm who helped in the kitchen the first day, said she liked it so well she thought of discarding her typewriter for an apron.

"The girls were overwhelmed by the reception," said Jack McCabe, southeast division manager for the National Food Service, Inc., of Chicago.

"I wish I could see every one here flirting," he replied. "Yes, there was some of that going on here." Here's what the men thought of girl KPs:

"It's more appetizing—the food, I mean. They can feed me dig food now and I wouldn't know the difference."

"It's better than eating in a restaurant. The only difference is you walk out without paying."

"Cafeteria style still prevails. But instead of the old trays where the gravy slopped over on the apple pie, good chowmeat is used. The girls clean off the tables too."

Mrs. P. W. Bates Dies At Residence

Mrs. P. W. Bates, 71, died at her home in Paola early yesterday morning after a lingering illness.

Born in Cuthbert, Ga., Aug. 22, 1882, she had lived in Paola for 33 years. She was a member of the Baptist Church of Paola.

Surviving are the husband, A. J. Bates and a grandson, Lucy Bates, all of Paola. She is also survived by Mrs. W. Morgan of Tampa, Mrs. M. W. Accree of Miami, Mrs. W. K. Hayes of Ocala, Mrs. M. C. Brown of Jacksonville, Mrs. W. Sawyer of Blakely, Ga., and Mrs. T. W. Smith of Panama City, Fla.

Funeral services will be held at 11 a. m. Tuesday at the Baptist Funeral Home with the Rev. W. P. Brooks and the Rev. A. H. Wyatt officiating. Burial will be in Oaklawn Memorial Park.

Two Senators Clash Over Secrecy Issue

Knowland Requests Senate Send Censure Proposal To Committee

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Knowland (R-Calif.) today formally asked the Senate to send the resolution to censure Sen. McCarthy (R-Wis.) and all amendments to the resolution to a special committee of three Republicans and three Democrats.

Knowland said Vice President Nixon should name the members of the special committee and that it should report back to the Senate as expeditiously as equity and justice will permit.

Knowland made his motion an hour and a half after the start of a debate on the resolution by Sen. Flanders (R-Vt.) to censure McCarthy for conduct that tends to bring the Senate into disrepute.

The Republican leader did not ask that Nixon sit as a member of the special, or, as he called it, "select" committee.

The pending amendments to the Flanders resolution include the various specific charges which have been filed as being in violation of the espionage laws by Sen. Fulbright (D-Ark.) and Morse (Ind.).

Before Knowland's motion the Republican leader had told the Senate that Morse, who reported McCarthy's attitude toward secret government information, had himself once revealed part of a "top secret" document in a political speech.

Morse, springing up in rebuttal, said Knowland was referring to a speech Morse made at Minneapolis during the 1952 election campaign.

And, Morse declared, he then President Truman had declassified the document and made it available for use in the speech.

In tones of astonishment, Knowland said "I am deeply shocked by the revelation" from Morse.

The Knowland-Morse clash came as the Senate pushed along on its third day of debate on the resolution by Sen. Flanders (R-Vt.) to censure McCarthy.

McCarthy, outwardly confident of victory, was calling for an early showdown.

And some of his critics were conceding they saw little chance of putting over the censure move.

Sen. McClellan (D-Ark.) said he was not passing judgment on the question of censure, suggested creation of a special Senate committee to draft formal charges against McCarthy with the aim of a vote before Congress adjourns.

This idea met with little immediate enthusiasm.

Conservationist Advises Farmers On Soil Erosion

By JAMES R. SARGENT, Soil Conservation Service

Soil erosion is a destructive factor in agricultural production in Seminole County. We have in Seminole County mostly sheet erosion which is caused by the surface runoff of water.

Through the movement of the soil surface by wind and water, much of the organic and other soil substance is removed, leaving behind the less productive parts.

There are some easy conservation measures we can use to prevent this destruction. Chief among these are cover crops, crop rotation, management strip, crop residue management and a dual purpose, they prevent erosion and improve the tilth and fertility of the soil.

The farmer, himself, is not the one who suffers from this erosion. It is passed on to the merchants and citizens of the community.

When the farmer's fertile soil is washed away, he fails to make a profit on his crops, because he has no money to buy his food, clothing and equipment from the merchants, and the merchant has no need to employ other citizens to help him run his business.

So it goes to show that soil erosion can be the downfall of a community. It takes many years of proper land use and treatment to replace one inch of fertile top soil in its' proper place. We now have and save it for future use.

Violence Surges Higher In Morocco

CASABLANCA, Morocco (AP)—Violence surged higher today in freedom-seeking Morocco as word spread France had offered autonomy to its sister North African protectorate of Tunisia.

In Tunisia, French Premier Pierre Mendes-France's dramatic offer brought a toll in killing as militant nationalists proclaimed the French move a stepping stone toward complete independence. The Premier said France would retain responsibility only for the protectorate's defense and foreign affairs.

But die-hard French colonists in Tunisia angrily assailed the autonomy offer. Some demanded that the French National Assembly throw out Mendes-France.

Battling Reported As Revolt Cease Fire Is Ordered

GUATEMALA (AP)—A quarrel between Guatemalan military cadets and the "liberation forces" of Col. Carlos Castillo Armas, chief of the country's ruling junta, erupted into a battle today. Two persons were killed and several wounded.

The fighting caused reports the cadets and some others had revolted in sympathy with the deposed leftist government of Jacobo Arbenz.

But later it appeared the fight was between the cadets and members of the Castillo Armas army.

Price Decline

The North American Newspaper Alliance credits Sydsvenska Dagbladet of Malmoe with the report that elephants in India are selling for from $400 to $600, about half of their former price. We submit that any reporter who goes to the trouble of spelling sydsvenska Dagbladet should receive some sort of prize for courage and editorial dedication.

The decline in the price of elephants is accorded some social significance. It is an indication that some of the maharajahs are finding it a little difficult to live on the $6,000,000 incomes to which they are limited by the Indian government. They are selling their elephants to meet expenses.

HAL BOYLE

Boyle Tells About Black Hills

RAPID CITY, S.D. (AP) — Leaves from a touring reporter's notebook: They came from some eggs on restaurant menus here—and from a million-year-old dinosaur egg in a museum.

But the naive tourist will do well to beware of any souvenir bargains offered him in dried porcupine quills. They are nothing but dried cockleburs, flung up by local promoters to kid the visitors.

The Black Hills, home of free-roaming buffalo and the famed Mt. Rushmore memorial, has had a fabulous past. The area now has become one of the nation's big tourist mecca, but a guy from out of town might be hard to know what to believe. For the folks here still have the old pioneer fondness for a good yarn, whether it is actually a true story or only a tall tale.

Take Wild Cave, for example, which has 10 miles of explored passages and several huge chambers. One called "the Bridal Chamber" was named, according to a guide, because of a girl who figured the only way she could carry out a promise to her mother she would never marry the best man at earth—and still get the guy she wanted—was to marry him in the cavern.

But in such ceremonies have been allowed, according to the same guide, because naturally the government doesn't want to run matrimony into the ground.

Everyone recalls the tragic fate of Gen. George A. Custer and more than 600 men wiped out in the battle of the Little Big Horn River in Montana on June 25, 1876. The Indians, who always resented the fact the battle was called a "massacre," still point out that the whole troops were fully armed—and they weren't packing water pistols.

Few today remember, however, that Custer was sent to the Black Hills in 1874, following the financial panic of 1873, to check on reports the hills held gold.

Custer set forth on his journey from a fort on the present site of Blount, N.D., with a force of a thousand men led by a brass band mounted on white horses. The expedition, accompanied by the son of President U.S. Grant, carried a supply of champagne in its wagons. Presumably they cooled it in mountain streams; there were no ice creamers along the route.

The strange caravan did find gold on Aug. 2, 1874 in the Black Hills, which for centuries the Indians had held to be the invisible home of Manitou, the Great Spirit.

NAAS Sanford. The relationship between the service and civilian population of this community is one of the best than can be found anywhere in the world.

The Navy has long made it a policy of first consideration to lend, as much as possible, to the desires of the towns in which it places its bases. This effort however is of little benefit to either party concerned unless the effort is accepted and returned. Sanford, Florida, has not only accepted the Navy's offer, it has gone out of its way to extend an almost store book version of the famous old Southern hospitality.

It is up to us, the men of Sanford, NAAS, to keep doing our part in this fortunate situation. Let's keep the "Welcome Navy" signs in the store windows by cheerfully cooperating every chance we get.

We do not know what effect the slump in elephant prices will have on the rest of the world's economy. When the price of elephants is cut in half it could have serious consequences. We only hope the news doesn't reach our wife. She never was able to resist a bargain.

A Canadian Secret

For years men have sought to find the nesting place of the whooping crane. There are said to be only twenty-four of the birds still alive in the world. They spend their winters in the United States and their summers in Canada. Now the Canadian Wildlife Service reports that it has located their nests.

But the Canadians are not talking. They say that the cranes, which nest in the Wood Buffalo National Park, which is on the boundary between northern Alberta and the Northwest Territories. But the park has an area of 17,300 square miles and the wildlife officials will not say exactly where the nesting cranes may be found. They fear that if they made the knowledge public, people would be encouraged to disturb the birds.

This is a position with which we can heartily agree. There is far too little privacy left in the world, for men or birds, to enjoy seeing any of it lost. It is good to know that our Canadian neighbors can keep a secret.

Herlong Reports

By SYD HERLONG
Back at the office this morning after being in session nearly all night last night, I am a little tired. I know how the Senators must feel. They have been in session constantly now for over three days and nights. They do get some opportunities to rest because of a difference in the rules of the House and Senate. When the Senate finds itself without a quorum, and someone insists that there be a quorum, they just stop everything until the Senators can be "rounded up." This permits a Senator to go home and get some rest. We have to stay around.

We were debating the bill to provide for the research and development of atomic energy for peaceful purposes. Even after we stayed up so late we didn't get to finally vote on the bill, as one Member demanded that the final reading be an engrossed copy (with all the amendments that had been put into the bill in debate printed into the copy that was read). Any Member has that right, but it has the effect of putting off the vote, because obviously you can't get such a copy immediately. It takes several hours at least. This practice is usually resorted to when a Member is violently opposed to the bill and wants to put off a vote as long as possible.

We were all greatly saddened during the late hours of the session when the announcement was made that one of our beloved colleagues, Albert Sidney Camp, of Georgia, had passed away. "Albert Sidney" as we called each other, was one of the first men I came to know in Congress. The fact that we had the same two first names started us off on a common ground. I grew to think even more of him as I knew him better. He was a great American, and will be sorely missed by all his colleagues.

Next week Syngram Hise is going to speak in a joint session of the House and Senate. It is interesting and refreshing to note in the press reports that he is not coming here making for money. That is the usual stroke for most of our distinguished visitors.

Brownell Suggests Immunity Law

WASHINGTON (AP) — The witness who cites the Fifth Amendment and claims up — one of the biggest stumbling blocks to Congress' investigation of communism — may remain a stumbling block.

Atty. Gen. Brownell offered a solution — pass a law to make a Fifth Amendment witness talk by promising him immunity from federal prosecution. There is no such law yet.

And if Congress did pass such a law — in the short time it has left this year — the Supreme Court might throw it out as an unconstitutional device to get around the Constitution's Fifth Amendment. For years Congress has been helpless when a witness, asked about Communist connections, says "I stand on the Fifth Amendment and refuse to answer on the ground it might incriminate me."

The amendment says among other things that a man can't be forced to give testimony against himself. But since there's no crime in just being a Communist, how can a witness say he might incriminate himself?

He can argue that someday the government might want to prosecute him under the Smith Act, passed in 1940, which makes it a crime, not to be a Communist, but

Chef Surrenders, Receives Freedom

CINCINNATI (AP) — A society chef who gave himself up to police after coming from the Jefferson City, Mo., Prison Farm, today is free to start a new life with his wife.

After marrying her recently, 25-year-old Fred W. Hamm told his bride he had escaped from Missouri with only 12 days remaining of his sentence and was swayed on off a false check charge there. She pleaded with him to turn himself in so they could start over again with a clean slate.

After he told police he wanted to make restitution for the bad check, got Frank J. Lausche refused to return extradition papers for his return to Missouri. Yesterday Judge Ralph B. Kolben dismissed a fugitive charge which had been filed against him.

There were insects on earth more than 250 million years ago.

to teach forcible overthrow of the government.

The government already has tried, convicted and jailed a number of Communists under the Smith Act and, undoubtedly, it is far from through bringing others in trial.

The actual words a witness used in answering a congressional committee could never be used against him later at a trial. But his words might provide leads to evidence on which the government could try him as a Smith Act violator.

Brownell suggested: 1. A law under which the attorney general — Brownell or his successors — could promise a witness he would never be prosecuted for any offense in relation to which he answered committee questions.

2. The attorney general alone should have the right to decide who should, and shouldn't, be granted immunity as an inducement to talk. Brownell's reasoning on that point goes like this:

As chief law enforcement officer the attorney general is always in a better position to know, in the case of any individual witness, whether the public interest is better served by granting him immunity from a future prosecution.

3. Once a witness was promised immunity he could no longer use the Fifth Amendment as an excuse for not answering. Since that amendment was intended to protect a man against being forced to incriminate himself, a promise of immunity would make the protection of the Fifth Amendment unnecessary.

But there was this difference, while the Senate bill would make it possible to give immunity to anyone involved in any kind of crime, the House committee bill would limit the immunity guarantee to only those cases of crime.

Even if the House should pass this bill before it quits, there could be no law on the subject unless House and Senate worked out their differences. There isn't much time left for that.

contempt, would no doubt take his case to court.

The court then would have to rule on whether Congress could pass a law to get around a constitutional amendment. The court might rule, for example, that the law was invalid because it could not grant immunity from prosecution in state courts.

In Congress there was mixed reaction to Brownell's proposal. Some members said that letting the attorney general decide who got immunity was too much power for one man. Someday an attorney general might use it for bad purposes.

The Senate last year passed a bill which would let Congress, not the attorney general, have final say on who got immunity.

Last week, after sitting on the problem a year, the House Judiciary Committee approved a bill similar to the Senate bill. Although it says a federal judge would grant the immunity, Congress, it would actually be Congress which recommended when and to whom to do the granting.

But there was this difference, while the Senate bill would make it possible to give immunity to anyone involved in any kind of crime, the House committee bill would limit the immunity guarantee to only those cases of crime.

Even if the House should pass this bill before it quits, there could be no law on the subject unless House and Senate worked out their differences. There isn't much time left for that.

Barbecued Chicken Highlight Of Any Party Out-Of-Doors

Those people not "in the know" about barbecued chicken are really missing out on some pleasant and inexpensive fun, says Myrtle Wilson, Home Demonstration Agent.

This is the time of the year when the kids and grown-ups want to spend more time out-of-doors after being cooped up all winter. Then, too, barbecued chicken offers a tasty change from fried chicken. For those who want to kick off the spring social season to start, the budget will welcome a chicken barbecue by the man of the house.

Use charcoal briquettes for the fire. They give plenty of heat with little or no smoke and don't blacken the chicken. Keep an eye on the fire so it doesn't blister the chicken.

Use a bird about 3 1/2 pounds live weight, or 3 pounds dressed. Mix large and small birds makes for uneven cooking and a poor job of barbecuing. Besides, you won't get complaints if somebody eats a bigger piece. Especially among the kids.

To keep heat from escaping through open spaces, avoid open cooking and save fuel, put the chickens on the wire, skin side up as close together as they will go without overlapping.

Watch the chicken carefully and turn the halves as soon as they look like they might burn or blister. Be sure to turn all the halves each time so they cook with all skin sides up or all skin sides down.

For a family barbecue pit, all you need is a few stones, or brick and an inexpensive grill, or broiler, an oven rack.

The barbecue sauce to use is controversial, nearly everyone having his own favorite. Here is a recipe: Cook gizzards, livers and necks in sufficient water to cover them.

To make barbecue sauce for 10 people, combine one pint of giblet broth and one pint of lemon juice add one-half pound butter or margarine and season to taste with salt, fresh black pepper and red pepper. Increase ingredients according to number of people. At mixing sauce, heat in boiling. For a small barbecue, dip half the chicken in sauce several times during the cooking process. For large barbecues, use an ordinary dishing-up man with the handle lengthened and mop the birds each time they are turned.

Any one who likes chicken will like it better if it's prepared this way, according to Miss Wilson.

At last a cooling "dairy cocktail" is on the menu! For these days when the thermometer ranges in the family to get lights and a satisfying chilled beverage for a milk punch is not to be lost. Most fast-fading cooling punch and liquid.

Minnesota's Social Club committee are responsible for this new beverage, which is a healthful and delicious known as the "Milk Punch." It is made with the finest milk and cream, which has summer-taste appeal and food value as well.

Easy to make, too. To get the recipe, try to drink their milk. (Slightly of course when they see the milk) members of this family with the "dairy cocktail."

The recipe for this milk punch is a perfect milk, two cups of Old Country butter and two teaspoons of sugar. Boil with cracked ice, strain into a cocktail shaker and garnish with ground nutmeg.

Elizabeth Hayes was honored on her seventh birthday with a party given last week by her aunt, Mrs. Louise Lowe and Mrs. Roberta Keith with Mrs. Myrtle Hentz, Miss Patty Walker, and Miss Nancy Rath assisting.

The guests enjoyed playing games and watching television after which they opened the many new gifts presented to her by her friends. They then sang "Happy Birthday" while Elizabeth blew out the candles on her cake. Refreshments of cake, ice cream and punch were served.

Those present with the young honoree were: her new brother, Clyde Leiby, and her father, Martin Lyn. She was accompanied by Paul Keith, David Brown, Billy Brown, Pat Spear, Junior Spear, Pat Benton, Dot Benton, Jay Howard, Sue Howell, Nancy, Judy and Sally Rath, Patty Walker, and Lamar Bass.

Fall Hat Styles Will Once Again Be Big And Beautiful

By ROBERTA HOFF

Girls who have been getting by with a simple and a sort of ribbon on the hat, are in for a shock this fall, for hats are going to be hats once more.

Current advance showings by New York's top costume designers indicate that hats are going to be a new look to the costume and feature of the costume, come Labor Day. They're big, beautiful and dramatic. They cover the head, lend a new look to the costume and feature up with some of the most striking accessories to come along in many seasons.

The deep creased, double, remounted, flapper days, to wear again and again in varied combinations. So are the long, curled beret and the stonch bonnet that can be pulled rakishly down over one eye, in the most dramatic manner.

There's an Egyptian motif running like a thread through the new hat styles, also, following the recent archeological discoveries in Egypt and the sudden enthusiasm of Hollywood for all things Egyptian. This is evidenced in small, low fitting helmet type hats that cover the ears, are set up in front to reveal the forehead, Cleopatra style.

For hats of leopard, snake and butterfly motifs, a look note in the lineup and often are teamed with dramatic fur bag, capes or small choker collars.

Small points, too, are seen stamped upon the hat, usually in combination with the shell and motif of "20's" fashion to recall the shock and situation.

USO Program Council Outlines Plans For August Activities

USO plans for the month of August were outlined Tuesday night when the USO Program Council met at the USO Center with Mrs. R. W. Leach, chairman of the USO business program committee presiding.

An interesting schedule has been planned with the weekly dance nights alternating on Wednesday and Friday evenings. Two Sunday lunch parties are on the agenda and they will be followed by song nights at the USO building.

An orchestra is to provide the music for a formal dance at the end of the month (the exact date to be announced later) and a square dance, too, will be given. There will also be a social dance with a ping pong tournament running out the month's activities.

Mrs. Leach stated that the organization is still in dire need of junior hostesses and urges all interested girls that are seniors in high school or older to sign up with the group. Application blanks may be obtained at the Chamber of Commerce and Mrs. Gus Miller may be called for further information.

Edwardian Dress Newest Fad To Hit London Teen-Agers

By BARBARA ENGLISH

LONDON.—Many teenage girls are in a complete faze over their special girl who has the "best" dress of the 20's or the "best" suit of the 40's.

Walking down the crowded streets of East End London, I found the strangest sight of all—the English teen-agers in the Edwardian dress of 1890-1910. It was called "Teddy Boy" style.

There has been much controversy over the dress of the 1920-29 year olds who adopted this unusual revival of Edwardian dress from the upper classes who wore it after the last war. Since several teenage gangs have been convicted of crimes of some violence in recent months, Londoners look upon them with disapproving eyes.

I stopped to talk to one of the most famous models, namely, although the boy wore the Edwardian clothes, and the girl wore heavy makeup around the eyes. They were quick to say that they were of the "Teddy Boy" or the style movement. This group does not want any change of the original Edwardian style. But there are the "leftists" who wear the extremely exaggerated clothes and the "rightists" who even go back to Victorian styles.

The next day I visited a small toy shop where they happened to be making a suit for a lad who was of the "extremist" wing. The dark gray coat had a velvet collar, cuffs and flap pockets. It hung low fashion to the knees. On the other side in the back were hanging style vents, two side vents in the back of the coat. Trousers were of the same material as the coat and fitted all the way up from the narrow cuff.

An elaborate waistcoat with a very high neck opening was made of rich, decorative silk. This particular "Teddy Boy" also loved to pick out fancy buttons for his waistcoat to make it even more individual.

The suits cost from 10 to 30 pounds or $30 to $90. Every boy has his coat to be tailored quite differently from any of the others in his gang. There are no two exactly alike.

Shirts have wide collars and the ties are called "Al Polona." They are similar to string bow ties worn in our country. Some boys, however, prefer the "slim jims" or the long, narrow ties.

The shoes they showed me were made of thick suede, with heavy crease soles that are sometimes weighted. Socks are short argyle or "morgers" with bands of vivid colors.

A good rule of all these is to keep your face and hands clean, soap and water are first requirements for anyone's grooming.

Do Something About Skin That Is Not Up To Par

Don't let your face in shadow of your skin get up to par. Do something about it.

Remember first that teenage skin bothers from 60 to 90 percent of today's adolescents, and that boys are most frequent sufferers.

Although it may be some comfort that many others are in the same boat with you, don't let that make you complacent in trying to cure it.

First way to treat the pimple and blemish stage is to use some good skin cream and good living habits. This means to a large extent, to a clean, clear condition, it often can be helped by adequate exercise, maintaining normal weight, and eating healthy, plenty of liquids and sufficient rest.

That the skin-bettering foods such as leafy green vegetables and lean meats and are especially on those highly acidic sweets and fried foods.

Make sure that you, finally, powder-off, as thing that has been your face's saving grace. Always use a good, clean, white, non-irritating cream, which may treat the skin far better.

If you are not getting the results you want, you may be getting on such excessive use of powder, rouge or face cream. Or, it may suggest some medicinal treatment and lotion.

A good rule of all these is to keep your face and hands clean, soap and water are first requirements for anyone's grooming.

In just a jiffy after a spur-of-the-moment decision to have a family picnic, the womenfolk can have the basket packed with a complete lunch from the home freezer. The frozen steaks as they appear while 10 minutes reaches for the home. Other foods on their freezer menu, suggested by home economists of Deepfreeze Home Appliances, are molded fruit soufflé served on skewer sticks, ham lima bean casserole and ice cream with favorite beverage. Everything will be ready to eat without cooking or heating of the destination.

Frozen Picnic Lunch Is Ready Anytime

Whenever one of those "perfect picnic days" comes around, you can be ready with a tasty, well-balanced outdoor meal at the drop of a picnic basket, so to speak. There's no need in hurry to the food store or to gather up odds and ends from the refrigerator.

The solution is to prepare the picnic lunch ahead, days or weeks, ahead, and store it in the home freezer until the weather and your family's mood fix the day to eat it. With a variety of frozen picnic foods on hand, you are always prepared for an outing.

Your meal can even be planned so that all the food will be ready to serve by rating time without the necessity of cooking or heating anything at the picnic site.

Just such a menu is suggested by the home economists. Available at Deepfreeze Home Appliances. It consists of molded fruit soufflé, ham lima bean casserole, buns, two-ounce picnic pie and ice cream—all from the freezer—and a choice of beverage.

Served two and one-half to three hours after being packed in the picnic basket, the casserole will be thawed for eating, as will the buns and pie. The menu planners suggest wrapping the frozen salad and ice cream in newspapers and putting both foods together in an insulated bag, of the type used for carrying frozen foods home from the store.

Here is how to make the ham-lima bean casserole as developed and tested in the Deepfreeze test kitchen:

Place in a square foilware cake pan, or casserole; 1 1/2 cups frozen lima beans and 1 cup cooked cooked ham.

Sauté in skillet in 2 tablespoons margarine or butter with 1 medium chopped onion.

Combine and add: 2 tablespoons brown sugar, 1/2 teaspoon salt, dash pepper, dash monosodium glutamate, 1/2 teaspoon ginger and 2 cups canned tomatoes.

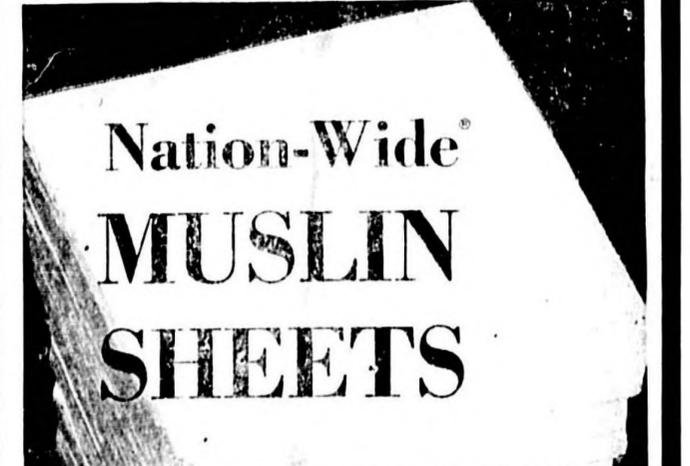

Pour over beans and ham. Bake in preheated 350-degree oven 2 1/2 hours. Cover with freezer foil, tape-seal and store in freezer.

Junior Metts, a Seminole High athletic standout of a year ago, now attending Florida State University, is mentioned nicely in the 1954 edition of Street and Smith's "Football Pictorial" now on the newsstands.

Walter Stewart of the Memphis Commercial Appeal writes the Deep South portion of the magazine and says: "These Seminoles are on the prowl and some of them would be no single whit surprised if they tagged Georgia in the first game and went right on to win maybe seven of 11—which sounds natural enough."

He goes on to say that the offense may revolve around half-back Metts who gained 391 yards in 56 assaults last year.

In all probability Junior will be aided at the Tallahassee school by his former teammate Bubba Blalock. Blalock is tentatively planning to east his lot with the Seminoles, though Missouri had several attractive offers. Stetson wants him headliner McQuillan says he would fit into his program very well and the St. Louis Cardinals are seeking his baseball talents.

In the "Football Pictorial" Stewart predicts the University of Florida for a eighth place Southeastern Conference finish, though he terms the Gators a "darkhorse" which may be watching Georgia Tech in his selection for SEC honors, followed by Alabama, Mississippi, Auburn, Tennessee, LSU, and Mississippi State.

It is a highly ambitious schedule which Bob Woodruff has lined up for his team. Rice is the initial 1954 opponent, followed by Georgia Tech, Auburn, Kentucky, Iowa, Mississippi State, Georgia, Tennessee and Miami. Rice, Clemson, and Miami are non-conference foes.

Before you realize it, football will be back on the scene and the 1954 baseball season will be but a memory.

Rain Is Help To Orlando CBs In Loop Race

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Rain helped Orlando last night even though they lost half a game of their Florida State League lead to Lakeland.

Lakeland leading Orlando 2-0 in the top of the fifth when the rain stopped play. If the inning had been completed it would have been an official game.

Lakeland inches within its games of the leader with a 6-5 decision over Cocoa in 10 innings. Third place Jacksonville Beach also improved its position by beating Daytona Beach 4-1.

It was a case of come from behind for Lakeland which used three walks and Les Witherspoon's double to tie the score in the eighth and then won in the extra inning when Cocoa's Jim McCreary bobbled Hugh Craig's grounder. Al Gondelli, who had singled, scored the winning run.

McCreary, a converted out-fielder, pitched for Jacksonville Beach victory. He stopped Daytona Beach on four hits and made certain of the decision with a three-run homer.

Red Chambers, Jacksonville Beach center fielder, was hit in the head by a Jim Davis pitch in the second inning and taken to a hospital. The hospital reported he apparently was not seriously hurt.

Three-Year-Olds Go To Post In Hambletonian Wednesday

GOSHEN, N. Y., (AP)—Twenty or more of the fastest 3-year-old trotters in the land, bonded razor sharp for the big day, are expected to go to the post at Good Time Park Wednesday in the 28th renewal of the famed Hambletonian stake.

The prospect of a wide open battle for the winners share of the estimated $115,000 million, biggest of all trotting purses, boasts with two fillies, two geldings and three colts commanding pre-race attention.

The flat-shaped track has been widened and resurfaced for the big race.

Not only is the track ready for Wednesday's big onslaught but Goshen, county seat of Orange County, has reawakened for its annual appearance in the country's sports spotlight. Room-for-rent signs adorn even the most stately homes. Members of the ladies and societies are busy trying chickens, which will be eaten from paper plates under towering oaks by many of the 20,000 spectators.

Although seven entrants stand head and shoulders above the other eligible, the memory of upsets in the past is expected to lure the names of 15 or more other candidates into the entry box. Helioscop, the Hambletonian champion goes to the horse first winning two heats.

Stenographer, a bay filly owned by Mrs. Hensch of Camp Hill, Pa. and trained by trainer-driver Del Miller, is the probable favorite. She set a world record of two minutes, three and four-fifths seconds over a half mile track two weeks ago and Tuesday night at Vernon Downs won both halves of the Florida Temple stake. Those were her seventh and eighth victories. It starts this season.

Stenographer is durable, an asset that is expected to help her survive the many traffic jams that always happen when a big field takes to the track.

Newport Dream, owned by the Newport Stock Farm of South Plainfield, N.J., was the winter book favorite after winning 20 of 22 races last year, but has had only one tuneup race this year because of a lame left front leg. Driver Del Cameron, however, is positive the horse will start.

Darn Safe and Pronto Boy, a powerful entry from the Hayes Fair Acres stable of Du Quoin, Ill., both have terrific speed and wouldn't cause too much consternation if either should win. Darn Safe also is of the durable type; but Pronto Boy is recovering from a knee injury.

Others who have received some attention are Prince Victor, owned

Sergeant Scores High In Winning Pistol Matches

JACKSONVILLE (AP)—As usual M. Sgt. Huelet Joe Benner was the whole show in the Southeastern Regional pistol matches which ended here yesterday.

The Army Sergeant from West Point who has been national pistol champion three times won every major title in the regional. He scored 2,025 of a possible 2,700 in the combined 22, 28 and 45 caliber events for the grand aggregate crown.

Anything over 2,600 is terrific. In fact, only 10 men in all recorded pistol shooting were credited with that high a score until yesterday. Then Marine Lt. Thomas Mitchell of Camp Lejeune, N. C., became the 11th with a score of 2,603 for runner-up honors to Benner.

Benner won the 45 caliber event with a score of 865 of a possible 900. Previous days he had won the 22 and 38 caliber and rapid fire and slow fire matches.

The Marine won the team title in 45 competition with 1,127 of a possible 1,200. The Army team was second with 1,111. It was the first Marine victory after the Army won 22 and 38 matches.

Earl Caldwell Ends 29 Years In Pro Baseball

CORPUS CHRISTI, Tex., (AP)—Earl Caldwell went in to pitch last night and he really put his heart into it since it was the last game of a 29-year professional baseball career.

The oldest active player in the game did a great relief job as Corpus Christi beat Del Rio 14-6 in the Class B Big State League. Then he announced that he was retiring.

Today, the 47-year-old pitcher who started his career in 1925 and played in all classifications of baseball including the majors, journeys to Mission, Tex., to become manager of the Mission City Growers, Inc.

"My years in professional baseball have been long and enjoyable," he said a little sadly.

This ends a career during which Caldwell won 291 games, several times going over the 20-game mark in a season.

He played his first professional ball with Temple of the Texas A-M. At the time he was principal of a small country school and it was because of that that his agent went into the record books wrong. He said he was 21 in order to get the school job and he actually was 19. He is listed in the baseball records as 49.

Caldwell's career included three years each with the Chicago White Sox and St. Louis Browns and he also worked in the Texas League, American Assn., Southern Assn. and other leagues of lower classification. His best season in the majors was in 1944 when he won 15 games and lost four.

Former major league heavyweight champion Erzzard Charles had 42 fights as an amateur and won them all.

Post 53 Defeated In Area Tourney

Clearwater Wins Berth In State Meet

Fastballing Jim Bates blanked Sanford's Post 53 representative in the American Legion Junior Baseball area tournament at Wauchula Saturday night with a no-hit shut-out performance to qualify his Clearwater team for entry in the state meet beginning tomorrow at St. Petersburg.

Clearwater registered five victories in the three-day tourney. The victory, a 4-0 affair, came after a 10-0 shelling the night before which pushed the tourney finals into the third engagement between the two clubs.

Clearwater registered six hits in posting the decisive win. Bates struck out six Sanford batters while walking only three. His miles played perfect ball while hitting not an error, and only 24 batters to the plate in the seven-inning tussle.

In the opening inning, Eddie Harbour, Post 53 shortstop, drew a base on balls and was advanced to third on successive sacrifices by John Bowen and Robert Samuel, but Hates got Rain Farrin on a grounder to nullify the scoring threat. Harbour walked again in the sixth and Samuel was passed in the seventh, this time reaching second on a fielder's choice. Other than that, the paths were empty of Sanford runners.

The Clearwater runs came in the fourth and fifth frames. Jim Collins, a power-hitting center fielder, opened with a two-bagger off pitcher Jim Hawkins and moved to third on Al Ulmer's single to right. Hawkins, on an attempted pickoff at third, overthrew, scoring Collins and advancing Ulmer to third. He came home on a wild pitch.

In the fifth, Hates opened with a double and scored on Dal Koch's second single. Koch recorded a score when Collins tried, overking strengthened to fan Ulmer and retire the side, but the damage was done.

The Sanford pitcher matched Hates with six strike-outs and passed only one.

For Clearwater the victory was particularly tasty for the Post 53 team had handed the tourney winners their initial defeat in 22 games in the novel opener Tuesday, a 6-5 triumph behind Hawkins' five-hitter. Clearwater came back to out Vero Beach from the double elimination tournament and stopped Avon Park to enter the finals.

Sanford posted the Clearwater

Sports Roundup

By JACK HAND
(For Gayle Talbot)

NEW YORK (AP)—At the risk of disclosing a well-kept secret, it can be safely reported that Harold Johnson finally is going to get a chance at Archie Moore's light heavyweight title Aug. 11 at Madison Square Garden.

In fact, Johnson thinks he's going to lift the crown off Archie's ancient head despite the 24-1 odds against him.

Johnson should be an authority on Moore for they fought four times before Moore won the championship. Although Archie holds a 3-1 edge, the challenger is surprisingly optimistic.

"He ain't gettin' no younger," said Johnson, who will be 26 Aug. 9, "and I'm more experienced." Before the Childie Harold could elaborate, he was interrupted by Pete Moran, one of the many men associated in his management.

"He was only a baby when he fought Moore the first time," said Moran.

It turned out that Johnson was only 25 when he lost to Archie in Philadelphia April 28, 1949. He lost another 10-round decision to him Sept. 24, 1951, but beat him at Milwaukee Dec. 10 of the same year. Moore won again Jan. 29, 1952, at Toledo and then settled down to a career of boxing Joey Maxim.

One of the factors most encouraging to Johnson is the fact Moore, officially 37, weighed 165½ for his most recent bout less than two months ago.

"I don't see how a man can come down from 165 to 135 (the light weight limit) without being a little weak. I don't weigh 160 fully dressed, with an overcoat on."

This young Philadelphia Negro with the shaven head can be called a "honey fighter" with no exaggeration. The best purse he ever got in his 33 fights (won 48, lost 5) was about $6,000. Back in '48 he got exactly $37 for his first fight after getting out of the Navy.

Col. Howie's Burial Will Be Tomorrow WASHINGTON (AP)—Col. R. G. Howie, 63, Florida's civil defense director who died yesterday, will be buried in Arlington National Cemetery tomorrow.

Howie's Florida's civil defense director retired from active Army duty in 1950. He had an operation for a minor intestinal disorder a month ago at Jacksonville, his home. When his progress was not as good as expected he came to Walter Reed Hospital where he died. Death was attributed to complications after the operation.

Dulles Accuses Reds Of Violating Truce

WASHINGTON (AP)—Secretary of State Dulles today sharply accused the Communists of violating the Korean armistice. But he said that on balance the violations were not serious enough to justify resuming the war. In a news conference, Dulles also disclosed that a new protest has been sent through Britain to Communist China over the loss of three American lives in the shooting down of a British airliner almost two weeks ago off Hainan Island. Dulles said, on another Far Eastern question, that United States warships and airplanes would protect Formosa against any enemy attack but that this government has not made any decision to enter into a formal alliance with the Chinese Nationalist government there.

Rhee Predicts War; Again Advocates Attack On Reds

NEW YORK (AP)—Throughout a day and night crowded with honors, South Korean President Syngman Rhee repeated dark prophecies of an inevitable snowdown between the free world and the Communists. Standing in a drizzling rain before City Hall yesterday, after a ticker tape parade and lecture by city officials for a lifetime dedicated to freedom, he sounded the day's first warning of open conflict. "War must come soon and it is necessary that the United States, the champion of the free nations of the world, be saved from a terrible catastrophe," he declared. "The later it comes the more terrible it will be."

Again at Columbia University, where he received an honorary doctor of laws degree, he warned: "We are still engaged in a losing battle with the Communists. If we continue as we are now, we are fighting a losing battle. Don't back down, retreat, or retreat to back down, means disaster."

In the evening at a dinner in his honor attended by 1,500 people, he renewed the plea he made to Congress last week for American backing in an attack against the Communists in Asia.

To take the offensive now, he said, would give the free world a chance to "stop the Communists and actually push them back. Such a triumph is desperately needed for the cause of free mankind."

"Time is drawing short for our side because we are getting weaker and the enemy is getting stronger," he added.

Potash Thrown In Man's Face; Eye Is Injured Issuing a stern word of warning, Constable J. Q. Galloway today told of his arrest of Mary Lou Wilson, 44, 2809 W. 13th St., on a charge of throwing potash in the face of John Bentley of the same address.

Galloway pointed out that this was the second case of this type in his district within a month and said: "I am going to see hereafter, that anyone taking part in such a dangerous happening will be prosecuted to the full extent of the law."

Bentley, the Constable said, is in serious condition, suffering from severe facial burns and may possibly lose the sight of his left eye. His attacker has been placed in the County jail under a bond of $500, Galloway said.

Building At Park Being Renovated The center frame portion of the old Jim Spencer building, formerly located at Park and French Aves. has been moved to Fort Mellon Park, Warren Knowles, City Manager, said today.

In an effort to ready the structure for immediate use as a civic center and recreation facility, Knowles told that an entire crew has been placed on the job of renovation. It is hoped, he indicated, that the work will be completed this week.

ARRESTED A. C. Hill, address unknown, was arrested late yesterday afternoon by Police Sgt. Russell Trench on a charge of drunkenness, according to the police docket. Hill was creating a disturbance behind Palmetto Grocery when Trench made the arrest. He is being held under a bond of $27, the records show.

Guatemalan Revolutionists Ordered To Disband By Ruling Military Junta,

GUATEMALA (AP)—Guatemala's ruling military junta ordered Castillo Armas' private army to disband and go home today, but the action generated rising public resentment. An American Embassy spokesman said there was a possibility of a popular uprising in the capital.

The junta ordered the disbanding of Castillo Armas' armed "liberation army" which sparked the overthrow of Communist-backed President Jacobo Arben Guzman after regular army units and military academy cadets had battled the 100 irregulars sporadically for 12 hours yesterday with snipers and tanks.

The regular session of the Seminole County board of commissioners was key-noted by the appearance of Mrs. Inez Meredith, Forest City real estate developer today when she told the body that "As I told you before, someday you're going to swallow an elephant and strangle on a pig."

Mrs. Meredith made this comment after the commissioners had refused to certify a reproduction of land plat.

Her appearance before the board came as no novelty. Several times before she has engaged in controversies with the body. Today, however, she failed to meet legal specifications regarding the plat deeds and, in accordance with custom, the commissioners refused to allow certification. Clerk O. P. Herndon told the commissioners: "It is not my duty to certify you are, but it is my duty to allow an improperly presented one."

The real estate developer indicated that she would return. Hanna Marjole, Forest Park, appeared before the board and requested that Classberry be made to conform to a Sunday ban on liquor sales or "open the entire County. It isn't fair," she said. "For the rest of us to suffer for the sake of the town's outlanders."

He called attention to the fact that neighboring Volusia County is open Sunday and said that though that is "a very unfair thing, we are being prejudiced to."

Marjole's plea was rewarded by the board's voting Classberry would be asked to conform to the County ordinance. The commissioner told Marjole that they would consider his request if this plea to Classberry failed. Commissioner John Meish objected sternly, saying that he was opposed to Sunday liquor sales in the County.

Ex-Head Collector Sentenced Today For Tax Evasion NEW YORK (AP)—Joseph D. Nunan Jr., once the city's head tax collector, was sentenced today to five years imprisonment and a fine of $54,399 for income tax evasion. Nunan was sentenced by Judge Walter Buchhausen who said that Nunan's conduct "cannot be condoned."

The judge said Nunan's crime was made greater by the fact that he had been charged with enforcing the laws.

Nunan was appointed U.S. commissioner of Internal Revenue by the late President Franklin D. Roosevelt and served in the post from 1944 to 1947.

He was convicted on a five count indictment in which he was accused of reporting his income for 1946 to 1950 as $418,144 when it actually was $543,399. The government said he paid taxes totaling $200,437 when he should have paid $291,521.

Nunan's attorney, Richard J. Burke, said the verdict would be appealed. He asked that Nunan be permitted to remain free in the $100,000 bond previously posted. The judge took the motion under advisement.

Nunan made no comment as he was sentenced. His attorney had asked that his age of 57 be considered.

In sentencing Nunan, Judge Buchhausen said he was not at all concerned with the actual collection of tax that Nunan had failed to pay, but was interested only in giving "adequate punishment" for Nunan's deeds.

The judge said that the fact that Nunan was well acquainted with the law and tax collection rules only served to "emphasize his guilt."

Nunan could have received a maximum sentence of 25 years in prison and a $50,000 fine. The judge sentenced him to five years in each of the five counts, with the prison terms to run concurrently, and $3,000 fine on each of the five counts.

Grab Pair In Purge On Reds

DENVER (AP)—The FBI has seized two more alleged top Communist agents in a 24-hour roundup that has netted seven arrests.

Agents picked up Joseph William Scherrer, 24, and his wife Maria, yesterday. Scherrer was arrested at his home in Pueblo, Colo., and his wife at Denver's Municipal Airport, where the FBI was waiting for someone. Both officers were arrested here Sunday. They were Arthur Bates, 42, his wife Anna, 29, Harold Zepelin, 25, and Lewis M. Johnson, 31.

Almost simultaneously Mrs. Patricia J. Blau, 42, was arrested at her Los Angeles home.

All seven were arrested before 11:30 a. m. and are charged with violating the Smith Act, which makes it a crime to advocate foreign overthrow of the government.

The six arrests were the result of a nationwide individual 1100,000 funds by U. S. Commissioner Joseph Neff. They are held in Denver County Jail.

Mrs. Blau is in Los Angeles County jail in lieu of $25,000 bail. A hearing on her return to Denver is scheduled Thursday.

Preliminary hearings for the six arrested in Colorado have been set for Aug. 10. They are expected to appear before a federal grand jury convening here Aug. 23.

The FBI said Scherrer and his Brooklyn-born wife have been active in the Civil Rights Congress, an organization on the attorney general's subversive list. Mrs. Blau, the FBI said, was named in 1948 by the House Committee on Executive Committee after serving as organizational secretary of the Communist Political Assn. in Buffalo, N. Y.

Cabinet Votes To Defy Gov't On Cotton Issue TALLAHASSEE (AP)—The Florida Cabinet voted today to defy the federal government in its attempt to pick up the cotton crop in the state.

The Cabinet instructed state hospital Supt. W. D. Rogers to proceed with the picking of 35 acres of cotton on the institute's 150 acres of land, despite a federal Department of Agriculture order that 25 acres of it be ploughed under.

Secretary of State R. A. Gray said the state hospital was advised last year its cotton acreage quota was 10 acres. The hospital, however, planted 35 acres, proceeding on the basis of the question mark on the 150 acres of land.

The cotton—some 25 bales—now is ready to be picked but federal representatives have ordered all of the cotton except that grown on the quota acreage ploughed under. The hospital has been threatened with a $1,500 penalty if it fails to destroy the over-quota cotton, Gray said.

He said in addition to the 25 bales of cotton it raised, the hospital will buy on the open market about 150 bales from the market tree factory supplied.

The Cabinet instructed Dr. Rogers to have all the cotton picked but asked Atty. Gen. Richard Egan to take up the matter with Washington to see if a friendly agreement couldn't be reached.

Big Sewer Lines Being Laid Today E. C. Holcombe, Clearwater contractor, began laying 10-inch sewer lines today, according to City Manager Warren Knowles, who said that the work was taking place on the railroad south to 24th St.

Knowles further said that the materials for re-casting water main extensions, part of contract No. three, also held by the Holcombe concern, has not yet arrived in the city. It was learned that it would be necessary to re-pipe the pipes last week, when Dave Newman, field representative of Angus and Associates, consulting engineers, used a stop-work order on the project.

Doctors Examine Physical Shape Of Accused Slayer

CLEVELAND (AP)—Four physicians prepared reports for police today on the physical condition of Samuel H. Sheppard, Bay Village, who is accused of slaying his wife. The reports were made available to the police after the 33-year-old defendant was taken last night to City Hospital, where his orthopedic leg brace was removed and the doctor's examination begun.

Police Chief Frank W. Story said there "was nothing unusual" with Sheppard, as determined by the examination. The doctor's report did not include psychiatric tests.

The prisoner, whose attorney previously had barred a hospital check-up, made no protest about the examination. Sheppard, a 33-year-old, pregnant wife was found July 4 in her bed, hanged to death by 25 bone-deep blows.

Police experts, using infrared and ultra-violet lights, picked through the hankie found near the blood stains and other clues.

Sheppard has told police he was married and knocked out twice in 1953 while in an Orlando hospital. Since then he has frequently worn a white leather and metal orthopedic collar.

His attorney, William J. Carrigan, has filed notice in Appellate Court that he will appeal Commonwealth Judge Frank J. Merrick's decision denying a writ of habeas corpus.

Called in by police were Dr. Spencer Braden, a Police Department neurologist consultant by Harry Wade, assistant neurologist at City Hospital, Dr. Alex W. Franer, acting chief of orthopedic service there, and Dr. George P. Lefkowitz, police surgeon.

Meanwhile, strange looking lights flickered at the sprawling suburban home where Sheppard, a 33-year-old, pregnant wife was found July 4 in her bed, hanged to death by 25 bone-deep blows.

Ex-Secretary Of War Critical Of Marshall

WASHINGTON (AP)—Former Secretary of War Harry H. Woodring says he once "thought very highly" of Gen. George C. Marshall "but I lost faith in him."

Woodring had a hand in having Marshall named Army chief of staff in World War II, but a letter made public yesterday by Sen. McCarthy (R-Wis) quoted the former Democratic secretary as saying six weeks ago that Marshall "would sell out his grandmother for personal advantage."

Marshall, reached at his home in Leesburg, Va., declined comment.

McCarthy offered the letter, dated last June 23, for the Congressional Record during Senate debate on a move by Sen. Flanders (R-Vt.) to censure him.

Some of McCarthy's critics had cited as a reason for censure the Wisconsin senator's 1961 speech saying Marshall was "steeped in falsehood."

Woodring confirmed in Topeka, Kan., that he had written a letter to Robert M. Harris of New York City to thank him for a book about McCarthy. He told newsmen he had lost faith in Marshall because he thought the general "sold out" Chiang Kai-shek on a postwar peace mission to China for former President Truman.

Woodring was secretary of war in 1936-40, but was critical of many of his colleagues in the Franklin D. Roosevelt Cabinet after that. He opposed third and fourth terms for Roosevelt.

McCarthy said he had obtained the letter from another senator who got it from Harris, and that he had no objection to its publication.

As made public by McCarthy, the letter dealt largely with the hearings into McCarthy's row with Secretary of the Army Stevens and Army Counselor John G. Adams.
