

Patience Urged In Ordering Of 'Better Grades'

Everybody wants to get better grades and all at once.

At least that's the feeling around the NEA's Reader Service Bureau where it has been impossible to keep up with the tremendous demand for the booklet version of the "30 Days to Better Grades" series.

"We simply never anticipated such a tremendous reader response," Ed Kennedy, NEA's director of client service, explained.

"It is a temporary situation. We are going into our third printing and all orders will be filled. Readers should allow 10 days for their booklet to get to them," Kennedy said.

The Sanford Herald, which published this series, advises its readers to be patient . . . and that the books still may be ordered by sending name and address and $1 to Better Grades, c/o Sanford Herald, P. O. Box 189, Dept. A, Herald City Station, New York 19, N. Y.

Nixon Pictured In '64 Campaign

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Weekend political developments increased speculation today over whether Richard M. Nixon is a candidate for the 1964 Republican presidential nomination.

Nixon, who lost a close race to John F. Kennedy in 1960, said in Herabey, Pa., that he could not conceive of himself as the GOP nominee again next year.

The top contenders for the Republican nomination said they believed Nixon was a candidate, and political observers here refused to rule the former vice president out of the picture.

Ev Says Kennedy Foreign Aid Program Is In 'Deep Trouble'

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Senate Republican leader Everett M. Dirksen said today that President Kennedy's foreign aid program was in "deep, deep trouble" because of a "harder appraisal" by Congress and the country.

The Illinois Republican would not speculate on how much of Kennedy's original $1.5 billion authorization request might ultimately be approved by Congress.

But his statement, made in an interview, supported speculation that the administration may finally get little more than the $3.5 billion voted by the House.

Chairman J. William Fulbright, (D-Ark.) of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee which went back to work on the bill at a closed session today, agreed that the program faced difficulty.

But "it's always in trouble," he told reporters.

Fulbright said he would hold sessions every day this week if possible in hopes of finishing committee action and sending the long-delayed measure to the floor.

But he would make no predictions as to how soon or how much the committee would finally vote.

"We will just plow our corn as we go along," he said.

The foreign relations group sidetracked the authorization measure more than two months ago to work on the limited test ban treaty.

In the meantime, opposition — at least to some parts of it — appears to have increased rather than calmed down.

Dirksen said "the number of recipient countries is going down." And there are other areas in which many senators feel the aid program "isn't doing anything worthwhile."

Koufax Named Player Of Year

BOSTON (UPI) — World Series hero Sandy Koufax today was named winner of the Academy of Sports Editors award as National League player of the year for 1963.

The star outpitcher of the Los Angeles Dodgers, who had a 25-5 record during the regular season, and then blasted a record in beating the New York Yankees twice in the World Series, was named in 95 per cent of the ballots.

Dick Groat, ace shortstop of the St. Louis Cardinals, was second in the voting with 74 per cent, followed by relief ace Ron Perdomo of the Dodgers (62), outfielder Hank Aaron of the Milwaukee Braves (52), and outfielder Willie Mays of the San Francisco Giants (51).

Koufax's close collaborator for more than 20 years, Lu was considered the most likely candidate to succeed him in the more powerful party post.

Mao considers himself the "Chinese Lenin" and is believed to want more time to work on Marxist-Leninist ideology. Stepping into the role of elder statesman would enable him to do this.

Ideology figures strongly in the Sino-Soviet split. Peking contends its Communist are following the true doctrine and the modifications introduced by Soviet Premier Nikita S. Khrushchev are "revisionist" heresy.

Mao May Give Up Leadership

LONDON (UPI) — Mao Tse-Tung may quit soon as active leader of the Chinese Communist party, according to reports circulating in Communist circles today. But the change was not expected to happen Peking's hard line.

Mao, who will be 70 in December, turned over the presidency in 1959 to Liu Shao-chi, his close collaborator for more than 20 years. Liu was considered the most likely candidate to succeed him in the more powerful party post.

Mao considers himself the "Chinese Lenin" and is believed to want more time to work on Marxist-Leninist ideology. Stepping into the role of elder statesman would enable him to do this.

'Sugar Ray' May Call It Quits

PARIS (UPI) — Former welterweight and middleweight champion Sugar Ray Robinson considered possible retirement today because of his difficulties here in winning an unpopular decision over Inep Armand Vanucci of Corsica.

The referee and three judges gave "old man" Robinson the 10-round decision but did not disclose their voting before the 5,000 boisterous fans Monday night at Palais des Sports.

At 43 or 44, New Yorker Robinson appeared woefully lacking in stamina as he puffed his way to a win over the wild-swinging Vanucci. On three occasions, at least, Ray clinched and hung on until he "saw his lastly."

"I was lucky to win," Robinson admitted to sports writers.

"It may have been my last fight," Ray said.

DeBary C Of C Sets Meeting

By Mrs. Adam Muller

The DeBary Chamber of Commerce will hold a dinner meeting at 6:30 p. m. this Thursday in the Community Center. The dinner will be catered by the DeBary Restaurant.

The program will be presented by Mackie Brothers and will feature what this company is doing to promote the entire area on a national basis.

SO SUCCESSFUL was the turkey shoot staged by the Police Benevolent Fund last Saturday (with some of the shooters pictured above) that it was decided to hold a similar shoot each Saturday afternoon until Christmas at the PBA Hq. on the lake front. (Herald Photo)

Mothers of girls attending the school, especially those from North Orlando and the general Longwood area, are invited to attend.

Bear Lake Club Sets Evening Of Entertainment

By Shirley Wentworth

The Bear Lake Community Club will sponsor a combined pot luck supper and Halloween treat for area families this Thursday night at the Florida Power Clubhouse on Bear Lake.

The evening will open with costume judging at 6 p. m., followed by supper at 6:30 p. m. Prizes for the best costumes will be given in several categories.

Those attending the supper are asked to bring a covered dish and their own table service. William J. Carpenter, president of the club, stresses that the evening of fun and friendship is open to all families in the area regardless of whether or not they are members of the club.

Following the supper the regular monthly business meeting of the club will be held.

NEWS for truck owners who need a new one now

Things Chevrolet has developed since the last time you bought to give you more for your money:

Double-wall construction. This feature of Chevrolet cabs and the Fleetside pickup body has two advantages. Insulation and sound deadening material is sandwiched between the two layers of steel in the cab to give you more comfort; in the body, the lower inner wall acts as a buffer against load damage, preserving the outer appearance of the truck.

Suspension to fit the truck. Conventional half- and three-quarter-ton models have independent front suspension with variable rate coils in the rear. Variable rate coils do not "bottom out" as readily.

Mediums and heavies have I-beam suspension with variable-rate leaf springs. It automatically stiffens as the load increases — and vice versa. It means a smoother, flatter ride regardless of load, a better handling truck.

The right engine. Chevrolet never has been in better position to give you the type and size you need for maximum efficiency. Today there are many different capacities of gasoline and diesel Chevrolet truck engines—fours, sixes, V8's.

Stronger frames. Every conventional 1964 Chevrolet truck has a ladder-type frame. This type is more resilient, better able to give with the load and terrain. Its simple design also makes it easier to mount special bodies on the truck. Its riveted side rails are stronger.

Greater model selection. This time you're going to find it a simple matter to pick the exact type of Chevrolet truck for the kind of work you do. In delivery trucks, for instance, in addition to regular panels and pickups, we have eleven different sizes of ready-made walk-in vans, some with full-width rear doors.

Quality and value. Chevrolets today are a lot more truck than your money bought the last time, and yet the pricing is just about the same as 5 or 6 years ago. Call your Chevrolet dealer for information or for a demonstration.

R. E. Porter hears that the Ku Klux Klan will be out, full robes and all, to burn a cross in the evening of Nov. 2 on Highway 16 west, a mile or so short of the Wekiva River. Still haven't learned what's the purpose of the demonstration. And really don't care.

Grand jury will be in session next week. Understand nothing of special interest to consider... routine criminal cases.

Remember Bill Fouk, the golf ace one-time stationed at SNAS? Postmaster Cecile Heard reported this morning that Bill now is stationed in Spain, captained a golf team playing in England and won all the trophies... especially for low score on the back nine.

DeMolay will present a new 50-star American flag to Seminole High School Friday afternoon.

Seminole DAV chapter 30 will hold its annual turkey shoot Oct. 29 and 27 at their "hut" on Highway 17-92. Free coffee will be served at each shoot, according to Valton Williams, and a door prize will be given.

Good news from the Navy for the U.F. Chairman Paul D. Lewis Jr. reports that Chaplain R. L. Deal said the SNAS base has reached 25 percent of its goal in the U.F. drive, with 100 per cent participation. Last year the total contribution from the base was $1,000 and from Heavy Attack Wing 1 was $1,000, making a grand total of $2,000 or a little better than one-sixth of the goal. That's our Navy.

Gerard Zinser, of Winter Park, who was a crew member of the now famous PT 109 under the command of Lt. John F. Kennedy at the time of the boat crash during WW II, will be a guest of Movieland Drive-in Theater Sunday evening.

District Manager Byron R. Patton reports that a Social Security representative will be at the City Commission room between 9 a. m. and noon on Oct. 23 and 30, Nov. 8, 13, 20 and 27, and Dec. 1, 11 and 18.

Looks like only three candidates in the City Commission race for the Nov. 5 election. City Clerk Henry Tamin reported at noon today that A. L. Wilson still is unopposed in Group II and Tom McDonald and Earl Hitzelbotham are running against each other in Group I. But the would-be candidates have until 3:30 p. m. today to file.

Boy Green and R. E. Porter enjoyed HUGE steaks at the F&L recreation area last night as guests of Manager Scott Burns, who entertained the Home Builders Association.

Even though using a 12 gauge shotgun, R. E. Porter missed the entire target at the police turkey shoot last Saturday... but still won a turkey. He doesn't mind admitting the police "brided" him with a turkey for the publicity given the turkey shoot.

State constitutional amendments to be voted on Nov. 5 will be aired Oct. 24 at a joint meeting of all civic clubs at the Civic Center. John Krieger says Sen. Mack Cleveland Jr., Rep. S. J. Davis, and Rep. Jan Fortune will outline simply the details of the proposed amendments.

Woman Held For Investigation In Slaying

ORLANDO (UPI) — Police held a Winter Park woman today for investigation in the slaying of her husband on a lonely road near here Feb. 5. Mrs. Betty Carol Adams was arrested by Palm Beach County police Tuesday and brought here by deputies Tuesday night. Old and young missed before army barracks near the center of the capital and south of the esplanade.

Supreme Court Rules On Juries

TALLAHASSEE (UPI) — The Florida Supreme Court ruled today that no segment of the population, white or Negro, is entitled to equal representation on jury lists or juries. It is only necessary, the court said, that preparation of the jury list be made without regard to race, color or sex. The new fact that there are more whites than Negroes on a jury list does not constitute grounds for challenging the jury unless there is a strong showing of discrimination in their selection.

Soviets Hold Up British Convoy

BERLIN (UPI) — Soviet control officers today held up a British army convoy bound for West Germany from West Berlin in a continuing of the harassment of Western Allied access to the city. Last week the Russians blocked a German U. S. Army unit traveling in 18 vehicles for a total of 52 hours. They delayed it at both ends of the 10-mile highway through Communist East Germany in a dispute over counting the soldiers in the convoy. A British official said today a convoy was halted outside Berlin at the Babelsberg checkpoint, just across the border in Communist territory, in another dispute over the head-count procedure. It was understood the Soviets ordered the British to get out of their vehicles to be counted and the British refused, as the Americans did last week. A second British convoy was reported standing by near the scene of the blocking action.

Common Mart 'Chickens Out'

BRUSSELS (UPI) — The Common Market officials in formed the United States today it is willing to settle their international "chicken war" by international arbitration. But there was no immediate American acceptance of the offer. U. S. Ambassador to the Common Market John W. Tufill was given the text of the offer which was formulated Tuesday by executive commissioner for foreign relations Jean Rey. Rey and Tufill, at a midnight meeting, spent three hours discussing the note. Tufill made no statement when he returned to the U. S. mission. Informal discussions said he would continue discussions with Rey today.

Animal Graveyard Called 'Geological Phenomenon'

LABELLE (UPI) — Excavators may have found a graveyard near here of animals that roamed Florida 25, 000 years ago, perhaps a "geological phenomenon." H. C. Matthews, of Fort Lauderdale, owner of a rock-pit a few miles west of this town on the shore of Lake Okechobee, reported finding parts of six massive skeletons Monday and several smaller ones Tuesday. "We may have found the last big watering hole of the mastodon and the mammoth," Matthews commented. He said a five-foot tall and several feet wide bones were among the skeleton parts uncovered. Matthews ordered a halt to work with

FEC Strike Settlement Discussed

FORT LAUDERDALE (UPI) — Florida East Coast Railway Vice President W. L. Thornton said Tuesday night the company would try to meet safety demands made by cities along the railroad's route. The meeting of representatives of East Coast cities, called by Miami Mayor Robert King High, skirted the question of what could be done to settle the nine-month-old strike against the FEC. Most of the mayors present said they did not want to get involved in a dispute between labor and management, and Fort Lauderdale Mayor Cy Young threatened to walk out if the question of mediation was discussed.

Ike Says He'll Back Nominee

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Former President Dwight D. Eisenhower today told fellow Republicans Tuesday night that he could support any of the prominently mentioned possibilities for the 1964 GOP presidential nomination. Sen. Barry Goldwater of Arizona, the current pace setter, was the only one of those possibilities in the audience at about 800 celebrating Eisenhower's 73rd birthday a day after the event. The former President said he was confident that any of the possible candidates met two qualifications, which he laid down and whoever is nominated could expect his " fervent support."

Arsonist Warns Of More Fires

MONROE (UPI) — At 7 o'clock Tuesday night, the telephone rang at the home of Mayor Allen Walters. He was awakened. "I am going to say this only once," the caller declared, in the voice of a man who may have been about 20 and in years old. "If the firemen will not show up, there will be four more fires tomorrow night." That's tonight. This message, plus those blame heaped Tuesday, had police armed with rifles and pistols patrolling the streets of this town a collage of "hot" arsonists. Walters said the man who struck the three big blazes was a "highly intelligent" person to whom fires were "like a game of chess."

Pilot Forgets Landing Gear: Plane Crashes

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (UPI) — A plane carrying Gen. Paul D. Harkins, commander of U. S. military forces in Viet Nam, made a crash landing at a dirt airstrip 110 miles northwest of Saigon today. Harkins was not hurt. The accident took place when the two-engine C-119 transport plane was on a landing at Di Ush. An official military spokesman would say only that the plane crashed, and that the aircraft suffered "extensive damage."

Supersonic B58 More Than Halves Time

WASHINGTON (UPI) — An American supersonic B58 bomber landed in Britain today after flying non-stop from Tokyo in the record time of eight hours and 35 minutes, President Kennedy announced.

The previous record for such a flight was more than twice the new mark—17 hours and 42 minutes, established in 1953 by a British jet.

Today's flight covered 8,028 miles at an average speed of 938 statute miles per hour. The purpose of the flight, according to Gen. Godfrey Mellish, Air Force aide to the President, was to demonstrate the capability of a B58 Strategic Air Command (SAC) bomber with its regular SAC crew of three men.

The plane was refueled five times in the air as it raced over its west-east course. In a statement on the flight, Kennedy said:

"I congratulate the Air Force crew which flew this operation and the men who supported it on the ground. I know that the success of this flight is due to the high competence and dedication of all involved." The 3rd Air Force in Britain said the flight was timed between points over Tokyo and London, although the craft took off from Okinawa and touched down at Newbury, 58 miles northwest of London.

The Air Force announced that the crew members on the record-breaking flight were: Maj. Sidney J. Kubesh, 33, El Campo, Texas, aircraft commander; Maj. John O. Barrett, 32, Yuca Valley, Calif., navigator, and Capt. Gerard R. Williamson, 26, New Orleans, La., defensive systems operator.

Quake Felt In Three States
BOSTON (UPI) — A slight earthquake shook houses and other buildings today in three New England states. Persons ran into the street in fright in some areas. No injuries were reported. The tremor, lasting nearly a minute, rattled dishes and windows with an explosive-like boom in a 100-mile arc around Boston. The tremors were felt in Massachusetts, New Hampshire and Rhode Island. The rumble, booming like an explosion in some areas, rattled dishes in houses and shook buildings. No one was reported injured.

Kennedy Gets Housing Bill
WASHINGTON (UPI) — A top-cap bill authorizing appropriation of an additional $50 million for loans to finance housing for the elderly, went to President Kennedy today for his signature. The Senate passed the measure Tuesday. The money authorized in the bill would be added to the existing balance of $75 million to meet a fiscal 1964 budget request of $125 million for the program.

Sette To Be Relieved By Cdr. Paul Werner

Cdr. Paul F. Werner, executive officer of Heavy Attack Squadron 5, will assume command of the "Savage Sons" at change of command ceremonies at Sanford Naval Air Station on Oct. 25.

He will relieve Cdr. Lyle H. Sette, who has received orders to the USS Intrepid as operations officer.

Commander Werner joined Heavy Five aboard the USS Forrestal in Cannes, France, last Dec. 24. Presently he is attending a five-week indoctrination course on the RA-5C "Vigilante" at North American Aviation in Columbus, Ohio. Upon his return to Sanford he will command the first heavy attack reconnaissance squadron.

Commander Werner, a native of Jamestown, N. Y., began his flying career as a student in the first high school civilian pilot training program and was a qualified private pilot at the age of 18. He entered the Navy soon after completion of the training program and completed Naval flight training at Pensacola in October, 1944, being commissioned ensign and designated a Naval aviator.

His first tour was with the Pacific Fleet in Patrol Bombing Squadron 124, during World War II. September 1946 brought a return to shore duty and a three-year tour at Villanova University under the five-term program.

Brief tours as flight officer with Utility Squadron 10 at Guantanamo Bay, Cuba, and aircraft maintenance officer of Attack Squadron 174 followed. From February 1950 until January 1951 Commander Werner was an experimental Squadron 3 project officer and did evaluation studies on toss bombing techniques and equipment.

A tour at General Line School, Monterey, Calif., in 1951 was followed by a year at the Naval Aviation Ordnance Test station serving as project officer on further toss bombing equipment studies.

July 1953 found Commander Werner serving as navigator aboard the USS Timballer, while participating in fleet operations in the Caribbean. A tour as operations officer with Fighter Squadron 31 followed, during which Commander Werner had nine months embarked on the Ticonderoga with the Sixth Fleet in the Mediterranean.

August 1956 brought orders to Aviation Safety Officer School at the University of Southern California. A three-year tour as aircraft accident investigator with the U. S. Naval Aviation Safety Center, Norfolk, Va., followed.

Two years on the staff of commander, Test and Evaluation Force as Talos weapons system project officer was followed by orders to Heavy Attack Squadron 5.

Commander Werner is married to the former Mary Anne Emerson of Coke and Virginia Beach, Va. The Werners reside with their children, Christian-Henrike, Clairborne-Barron and Margaret-Sayech at 122 West Coleman Circle.

Runoff Vote Attempt Fails

ALBANY, Ga. (UPI) — Negro candidate Slater King placed second in a three-man race for mayor Tuesday but failed by a wide margin to force a runoff election.

In a record municipal election turnout, King received 2,547 votes to 7,229 for attorney James V. Davis and 1,879 for architect Edward V. Jones.

King, the first Negro ever to seek a high public office in this rigidly-segregated southwest Georgia town, had been given no chance to win the election.

But Negroes had hoped he could split the white vote sufficiently between Davis and Jones to keep either of the two segregationists from winning a majority vote and enable King to slip into a runoff.

Sixty per cent of the world's paper is consumed in the U. S. — or about 433 pounds annually for each man, woman and child.

Mirror Blames Long Strike

NEW YORK (UPI) — The morning tabloid New York Mirror, with the nation's second largest circulation, put out its last edition today ending almost 40 years of publication.

In an announcement Tuesday night the Hearst Corporation, publisher of the Mirror, said that the "name, goodwill and other intangible and physical assets of the Mirror have been sold to the New York News."

F. M. Flynn, president and publisher of the News expressed the regrets of his publication that the Mirror had decided to discontinue publication.

"However," Flynn's statement said, "knowing the adverse economic pressures confronting all New York newspapers, we can understand the reasons for its decision. The prolonged blackout of New York newspapers this past winter adversely affected all of them." Flynn declared. "Since resumption of publication, former circulations have not been regained and advertising in all papers combined is running behind last year."

Common Cold No Excuse

SAVANNAH, Ga. (UPI) — The common cold no longer will be an acceptable excuse for missing school, the Chatham County School Board said Tuesday.

Acting on a recommendation of the Georgia Medical Society, the board said that a student with a cold should go to school unless he has a temperature of 99.8 degrees or higher.

The board took the action to counteract a high percentage of absence from school because of the common cold.

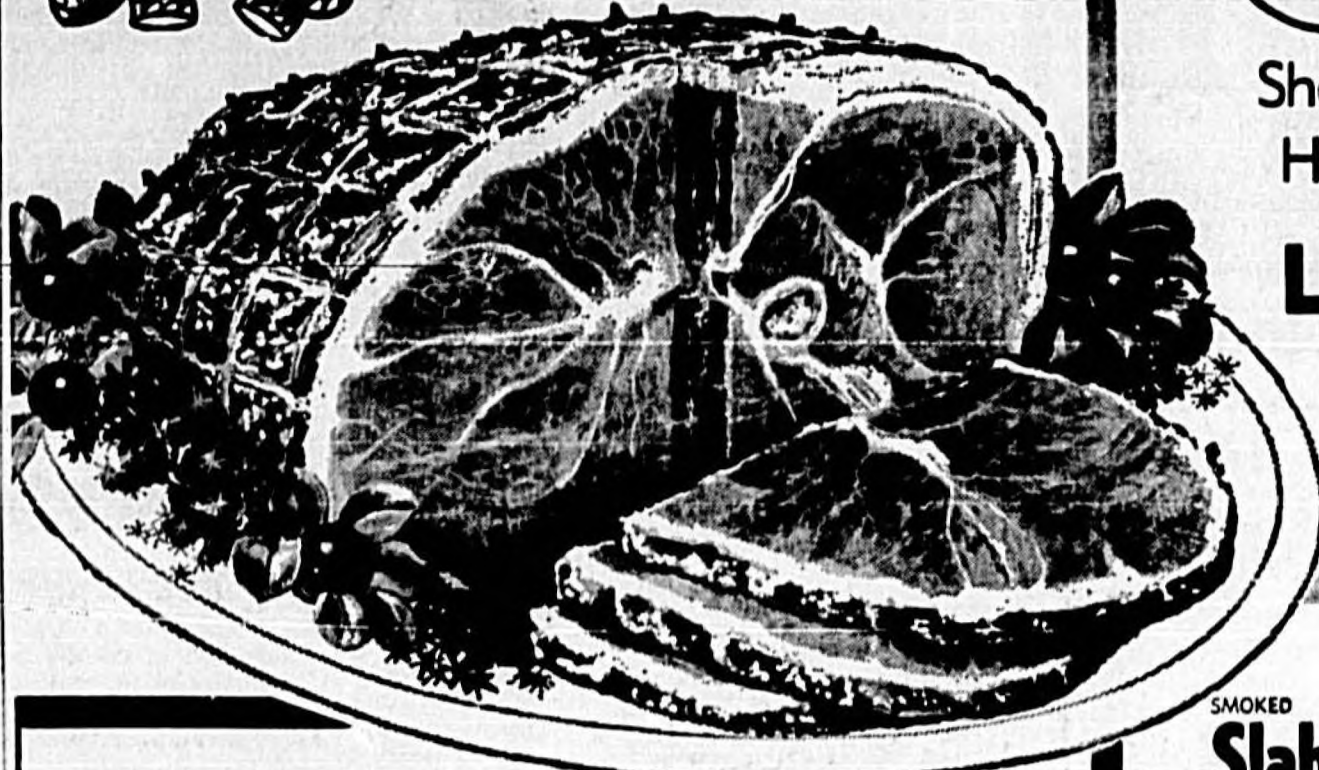

Annual production of paper and board in the United States outweighs the yearly output of automobiles.

Catharine Crozier To Be Heard Oct. 21

CATHARINE CROZIER

The organ concert that will be given at 8 p. m. Oct. 21 at the First Presbyterian Church will bring together an instrument and a virtuoso, both of which have been the center of admiration of musically qualified people who have heard them. In combination they promise to present a real treat for the scores of persons that are expected to fill to overflowing the sanctuary of the host church.

Catharine Crozier has just returned from a praise-provoking tour of Europe that added further laurels to her already ample stock. Her amazing feat of committing complicated musical scores to memory plus the consummate skill with which she commands the organ manuals has her contemporaries in the front rank of her admirers.

Art Authorities Speak Before Local Group

Three authorities on art and picture framing from the Village Gallery in Orlando spoke at meeting of the Sanford - Seminole Art Association Monday night at the Civic Center.

The speakers, Mrs. Edith Hufnagle, art director at the gallery; Miss Dorothy Herman, a member of the staff, and Robert Poland, gallery owner, were introduced by Mrs. Mildred Babcock, program chairman.

Mrs. Hufnagle's topic was "The Art Explosion" and she told of the relationship of the increased interest in the fine arts to the economy. She said that paintings are in much demand now as part of the decor in homes, offices, and industrial buildings and gave tips on buying and selling paintings.

Poland told the group how to choose frames for suitability, good taste and daring originality and Miss Herman demonstrated the right and wrong way to relate the frame to the picture and to the surroundings.

A question and answer period followed the talks and the business meeting was conducted by Joseph Mathieu, president.

Refreshments were served under the supervision of Mrs. George Smith, hospitality chairman.

The two manual Shantz instrument at First Presbyterian, while considered a "small organ" in the parlance of the keyboard artists, has been seen, heard and played by a number of capable musicians, and each has sung the praise of tonal qualities and versatility of this "king of instruments."

The program planned by Miss Crozier is designed to give the audience the full breadth of beauty, from the scarcely audible whisper of the flute to the room-filling grandeur of the full organ. The artistic embellishments that adorn not only this evidence of the instrument's scope, but its wide tonal variety and the finger and pedal dexterity of the guest artist will add luster that is sure through this team-work of instrument and virtuoso to create an evening of outstanding music.

Mrs. George Touhy, minister of music, and Rev. Grover C. Sewell Jr., pastor, have expressed the wish that everyone understand that there is an open invitation to all who enjoy fine music to attend the concert as guests of the church. There will be no admittance charge and no offering taken, it was said.

Texas Dares To Change Formula

AUSTIN, Tex. (UPI) — Very few football coaches will tamper with a success formula. But the tactical formula used by the University of Texas Longhorns in their solid 28-7 upset of top-ranking Oklahoma last Saturday bore little resemblance to the one Texas used to go undefeated last year and cop 28 of its last 31 starts.

The change has been a major factor in making Texas a better team — enough better that the Longhorns this week were voted the No. 1 position in the United Press International's coaches board ratings.

It also was instrumental in making Texas Coach Darrell Royal the United Press International's college football "coach of the week" for the team's win over arch-rival Oklahoma.

"We've only run three plays we were using the last two years," Royal said.

"We have changed our offense — it's sounder than it was," pointed out the 38-year-old former Oklahoma quarterback who has produced five bowl teams in six years at Texas.

"We run more handoffs than ever before — a different version of the option play than in the past. We're using a handoff fake suggested by assistant coach Jim Pittman last spring.

Alston Named Coach Of Year

NEW YORK (UPI) — Walt Alston, the strong silent man from Darrtown, Ohio, who led the Los Angeles Dodgers to the National League pennant and an unprecedented four-game sweep of the New York Yankees in the World Series, was named NL manager of the year today by United Press International.

The selection of the 52-year-old Alston was made by a committee of 21 baseball experts representing every city in the major leagues.

Seventeen of the experts chose Alston and the other seven named Johnny Keane of the St. Louis Cardinals.

A long-time Dodger "organization man" who struck out in the only major league appearance he ever made at bat, Alston now has led the Dodgers to the only three world championships in their history.

INDIAN INCREASE

American Indians enumerated in the 1960 U. S. population census numbered 523,591 (excluding 11,414 in Alaska), a 14.5 per cent increase over 1950, according to the Britannica Book of the Year.

Ganas Honored For Service To Teachers

A plaque of appreciation for his two years of service as president of the Seminole County Classroom Teachers' Association was presented to Fred Ganas, Seminole High School athletic director, by the new president, Sal Manfre, at a meeting held at Longwood Elementary School. Other new officers are Roberta Richards, vice president; Marguerite Partin, secretary, and Don Farrens, treasurer.

Mrs. Mary Rand, from the Orange County Blood Bank, explained the benefits and importance of establishing and maintaining this program for the teachers of Seminole County.

Committee reports were heard from Bud Layer, Dick Silvers, Virgil Duffell, Ruth Johnson and Pete Bukur. Following the business session, the group was entertained by a trio of teachers, "The Sandstones," consisting of Cindy Crain, Bob Iseli and Jim Daugherty, all of Sanford Junior High.

Pete Bukur presented a novelty act accompanied by Jack Rossman on the accordion.

Refreshments were served during the social hour in the school cafeteria by hostesses Mrs. Margaret Manfre and Mrs. Arletta Coberly.

Easy-To-Clean Wall Paneling

Remodeling time and expense can be eliminated by installing Marlite paneling, which has a baked-on plastic surface that can be damp-wiped clean. Painting or refinishing is not necessary.

Local lumber dealers have complete information on paneling, which comes in modern colors, high-fidelity wood-grains and decorative patterns. An 8' x 12' wall can be modernized with this plastic-surfaced hardboard material for a little over $50.

During 1962, nearly 10 million Americans spent $23 billion touring their own country.

UAR Nationalizing Program Continues

By Maurice Guindi
United Press International
CAIRO (UPI)—Two years after the government's whopping takeover of more than three-quarters of the country's private business, the nationalization drive in the United Arab Republic is continuing.

The government recently nationalized eight contracting, transport and navigation companies and 14 pharmaceutical products firms. Compensation to former owners will be paid in the usual form of state bonds redeemable over long periods.

Earlier, nearly 400 apartment blocks and office buildings, among the most luxurious in the country, were taken over in a roundabout way. The buildings, mostly in Cairo, Alexandria and other big cities, formerly belonged to wealthy persons whose property was put under sequestration in 1961 and 1962 in President Gamal Abdel-Nasser's bid to trim the power of the rich. The sequestration authorities sold them to insurance companies, which all are government-owned. The prices, in some cases lower than original costs, will be paid by the insurance companies to the Sequestration Department in annual installments over the next 13 years. The former owners will get their money back if and when sequestration is lifted.

These measures were taken under Nasser's socialization policy which went into high gear in July 1961 when several hundred companies, banks, insurance firms and big department stores, constituting about 80 per cent of private business, were wholly or partially nationalized.

Valued at about $90 million pounds, the nationalized es-

FAREWELLS WERE SAID to Mrs. Lyle Sette, wife of the commanding officer of VAH-5, at a coffee in her honor. The coffee was given by the VAH-5 Enlisted Men's Wives Club at the NAS ballroom. Left to right are club president, Mrs. Sam Farrell; Mrs. Sette, Mrs. Paul Werner and Mrs. E. D. O'Neill, club vice president.

Juvenile Council Elects

By Jane Casselberry
Retired Navy Chief William O. Tanner, of Sanford, was elected president of the Seminole County Juvenile Council at the annual meeting.

Also elected were Rev. John T. Adams, of First Methodist Church, vice president; Mrs. D. M. Ladd, Geneva, secretary, and Mrs. T. C. Thompson, Sanford, treasurer.

Lt. Robert J. Chowning, commanding officer of the Crime Prevention Division of the Orlando Police Department, spoke on juvenile delinquency and the role of the policeman.

He warned the group that with the growth of population in Seminole they must expect a proportionate increase in crime and delinquency and should prepare to meet this problem.

He said that enormous amounts of money are spent to deal with the adult criminal, but it is so difficult to get funds appropriated to work with youngsters to try to prevent their becoming hardened criminals.

Juvenile Judge Vernon Mize and John Angel, retiring council president and principal of South Seminole Junior High School, gave a review of what has been accomplished during the past year and plans for the future.

It was through the efforts of the Juvenile Council that the annual appropriation of $10,000 was set up by the county in 1962 for use by the State Welfare Board in the foster care program in the county. An additional $1,000 was donated by the council.

Funds were also made available by the council to the state welfare department and the Juvenile Court for use in emergency situations where dependent and delinquent children are involved.

Among other projects of the council this past year were a program to assist "drop-outs" from schools in finding employment, providing Christmas gifts to children from this county in state industrial schools, and rehabilitation work with juveniles after their release.

The group also maintains an emergency cupboard at the county jail to provide clothing, reading material, and other supplies to juveniles in detention there.

The council is asking all churches in the county to designate a Sunday for taking a special collection to aid in work with dependent and delinquent children.

Judge Mize cited the need for additional personnel to help the juvenile court and the future need for a separate detention home for juveniles.

Named to the board of directors were Robert Hirs, Maitland; Arthur Logo, Casselberry; Willard Dibble, Geneva; Thomas L. Richey, Lake Mary, and Mrs. Joe Baker, Mrs. William Reynolds and Tanner, all of Sanford.

Holder members of the board are John Angel, retiring president, Mrs. Dan Blacksmith, Mrs. Margaret Reynolds, Ford Cavanaugh, and Rev. Adams.

Retiring directors are Robert L. Johnson, Kenneth McIntosh, Mrs. G. E. Wells, Mrs. Charles Parks Sr. and Dr. Ell White Jr.

Mrs. Thompson, chairman, Mrs. Wells, and McIntosh made up the nominating committee.

John H. Keim Enters School Trustee Race

John H. Keim, 210 Cherrywood Drive, Lakewood Shores, announced today his candidacy for the office of county school trustee.

Since his retirement three years ago from the U. S. Army as a lieutenant colonel he has lived in Lakewood Shores with his wife, Helen, and children, Ruth, Mary and John.

Keim is presently engaged in teacher preparatory training at Rollins College in Winter Park and has worked with Dr. Paul Douglas with many of his "Center For Practical Politics" projects there.

He is a member of First Presbyterian Church in Maitland, a Mason, an officer in the Lakewood Shores Civic Association and a coach for a Casselberry Little League team.

He is campaigning on a non-partisan basis and says he is not running against anyone but running for proper representation for South Seminole County on the board of trustees. He is especially interested in the school system as he has children in three schools, Lyman High, South Seminole Junior High and English Estates Elementary.

He stated, if elected, he intends to work with and for parents and taxpayers to see that the school progress physically and academically to keep pace with the ever pressing need for high quality education.

He is a member of First Presbyterian Church in Maitland, a Mason, an officer in the Lakewood Shores Civic Association and a coach for a Casselberry Little League team.

Rho Chapter Of Delta Kappa Gamma Society Holds Initiation Banquet

Members of the Rho Chapter of Delta Kappa Gamma Society, met Saturday, for a business session and initiation banquet in the Mayfair Inn Ballroom.

Tables were decorated with red net pom poms tied with gold ribbon on gold trays. Red candles glowed in gold candelabra. The chapter was founded on Oct. 11, 1962, in Daytona Beach. In observance of the event the programs were adorned with red birthday cakes with a red numeral 11 on a gold seal.

The tables were arranged in a U shape covered with gold cloths and a birthday cake with 11 candles was placed on the table at the end of the U.

Mrs. Lamar Rowland gave the invocation and Mrs. Guy Allen was in charge of the birthday ritual.

The initiation was conducted by Miss Mary Ann Gatch, of DeLand and initiates were Mrs. Hazel Holland, of Bunnell, Mrs. Mary Pritchard, of DeLand and Mrs. Myrtle Rice, of Bunnell.

Mrs. Walter Morgan, conducted the business session. The program was a symposium, "A True Delta Kappa World." Members taking part in this were Mrs. Morgan, Mrs. C. E. Carlton, Mrs. Henry Clay, Mrs. Myron Taylor and Mrs. Edson Golt. Sanford members serving as hostesses were Mmes. Boyd and Edson Golt, Lamar Rowland, C. E. Carlton and Thelma Coleman, G. Walter Morgan, Kent Bateman, Guy Allen,

Fleet Reserve Auxiliary Plans Party Saturday

Members of the Ladies Auxiliary of the Fleet Reserve made plans for a Halloween party when they met at the home of Mrs. James Talmadge. Branch members and their wives and guests are invited to the party.

Those attending are requested to dress in costumes. Refreshments will be served by the auxiliary. Reservations must be made with Mrs. James McLaughlin 323-0909.

The party will be held at the Fleet Reserve Home, on Seminole Blvd., and is scheduled for this Saturday, starting at 7:30 p.m.

BPW Plans Fashion Show Thursday

The Business and Professional Women's Club of Sanford will hold its fashion and hair style show this Thursday at 8 p.m. at the Woman's Club building on Oak Avenue.

Fashions will be modeled from Mary Esther's and the latest fashions in hair styles will be created by Harriett's Beauty Nook and Richard's, of Sanford.

Tickets may be purchased from any member or at the door. Proceeds will go to the local Dental Clinic which is sponsored by the club.

Refreshments will be served and many valuable door prizes will be awarded.

Several members of the club met for lunch at Rose and Wilks Restaurant to observe national BPW week, and a group attended the BPW banquet in Orlando.

Kappa Delta Plans Convention This Saturday

Kappa Delta national sorority will hold a one day state convention on Saturday, Oct. 19, in Winter Park.

Hostess group for the meeting is the Orlando-Winter Park Kappa Delta Alumnae Association, with Mrs. C. R. Stewart as president.

All Kappa Deltas in the state are invited to attend. Registration begins at 9:30 a.m. at the Langford Hotel, Winter Park, with luncheon at 1 p.m. in the hotel's pavilion room.

Province officer, Mrs. Robert McWade of Plantation, will be the speaker.

Reservations should be sent to the chairman of the State Day, Mrs. Sam Martina, Box 1313, Winter Park.

Betty Joyce Spears Marries Robert Shannon Newsome

MRS. ROBERT SHANNON NEWSOME JR.

Mrs. Elizabeth Spears, of Sanford, announces the marriage of her daughter, Betty Joyce Spears, to Robert Shannon Newsome Jr., of ADJ-3 attached to VAH-3 of the U. S. Navy in Sanford.

The marriage was solemnized Sept. 14. The bride was graduated from Seminole High School with the class of 1959 and has been attending Berry College, in Mount Berry, Ga. She was studying physical education and mathematics.

The groom is a native of Baltimore, Md., and attended Glen Burnie High School. The couple is now residing at 2603 South Sanford Ave. in Sanford.

Sahlers Visit Relatives In California

Word has been received from Mr. and Mrs. Herbert J. Sahler, of Lake Mary, who have been spending the summer at their place in Greenwood Lake, New York, about a trip West.

Mr. Sahler's elder brother and wife have a son and a new grandson, three months old, in Cheyenne, Wyoming.

The two families decided to visit them, and see the West. They left New York on Sept. 2, and visited Oregon, Washington, Nevada, and San Francisco, Calif. They wrote that the weather was perfect for their entire trip, and they had a wonderful vacation, arriving safely back in New York at the end of the month.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Cervone, Mrs. Sahler's parents, are living in the Lake Mary home now. They had decided to try a summer in Florida so remained here.

Sorority Closes Rushing Season

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Beck, 1021 West First Street, was the scene of the last rush party of the season given by the Phi Gamma Eta chapter of Beta Sigma Phi for the rushees.

The party was a cook-out centered around the covered patio and barbecue pit. The landscaped yard was enchanting with occasional lanterns and candles hanging from the trees. The picnic table was covered with an array of food which the chapter members had prepared for the occasion.

After the food and table had been removed, the patio provided an excellent dance floor for everything from the twist to the old fashioned square dance.

The chapter is looking forward to adding the rushees to their roster of members. Rushees will start their pledge training on Thursday, Oct. 17, at the home of the rush chairman, Mrs. Bill Beck. These meetings will be conducted by officers of the chapter.

Those enjoying the evening were rushees and their escorts: Mr. and Mrs. Collier Collins, Mr. and Mrs. Dave Sharp, Mr. and Mrs. Wendell Brooks, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Morgan, Mrs. Bobby Willis, Miss Pam Jones, escorted by Jim Westlund, Shirley Stumpf, escorted by Johnny White, Vicki Westlund, escorted by Bobby Kemp of Lyons, Ga.

Chapter members attending were: Mr. and Mrs. Joe Alexander, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Warner, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Gonzalez, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Mitchell, Mr. and Mrs. Mike Crever, Mr. and Mrs. Rick Erickson, Mr. and Mrs. Sid Vihlen Jr., Miss Leslie Jones, escorted by Tom Best, Barbara Moses, escorted by Fred Dudley.

OES To Meet Thursday

Seminole Chapter 2, Order of Eastern Star, will meet this Thursday in the Masonic Hall at 8 p.m.

Mrs. Joseph Leinhardt, past matron, will give a history of the local chapter.

Garden Club Plans Annual Bazaar At Woman's Club

The Sanford Garden Club will hold its annual bazaar entitled "Harvest Time" at the Sanford Woman's Club Building on Friday, Nov. 15, and Saturday, Nov. 16, with Mrs. L. E. Leeper, general chairman, and Mrs. Blanton Owens serving as co-chairman.

Others on the committee are Mrs. Fred Gray, treasurer; Mrs. C. M. Flowers, publicity; Mrs. J. W. Messler, bazaar items; Mrs. Claude Hittell, bazaar clerks, and Mrs. W. W. Lutz, Mrs. George Rounds and Mrs. J. P. Elmore, co-workers.

On the advisory committee are Mrs. D. K. Dorman, Mrs. C. D. Perry, Mrs. R. L. Robinson, Mrs. J. M. Fahy, Mrs. C. V. Mize Jr., and Mrs. B. B. Crumley.

The food concession will be taken care of by the Jacaranda Circle. These ladies are experienced and will have sandwiches, coffee and snacks at all times during the bazaar.

All articles will be priced by those who made them. Plants will be priced by donors and a large table containing "white elephant" articles for sale will be one of the main features.

Many types of Christmas articles and decorations made by the ladies will be on display. Cakes, cookies, assorted home made candy, pies and other foods will be among the many items for sale.

All Garden Club members are eager for the public to call during the bazaar hours and enjoy leisurely shopping for Christmas gifts and refreshments.

Unless a woman is being greeted by a male host, she makes the first move to shake hands.

Dear Abby: By Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: What do you think of a husband who tells his wife that he KNOWS he could win any woman in the world if he were given an introduction to her? This man is not rich. He is definitely nothing to look at. And unless he is in a very good mood, he is lousy company. So please tell me where he gets ideas like this.

DEAR HAD IT: I've heard of self-confidence, but this is ridiculous! But, in case your husband has a secret weapon, you'd better be careful to whom you introduce him.

DEAR ABBY: My mother keeps "lending" me out to the neighbors to baby-sit for nothing. Very often I have had to change my plans at the last minute because my mother tells me she promised someone in the neighborhood that I would sit for them. Other girls my age get paid for sitting for these same people, so now they are mad at me for sitting for nothing, because they look greedy when they take the money. My mother is the kindest soul in the world, Abby, but do you think it is fair that she should offer my services to the neighbors for nothing?

DEAR ABBY: Why do men have to wear DARN-ED socks? Do you know any women these days who would wear a darned socking? Men's socks don't cost any more than women's, so why, when a woman finds a wee hole in her husband's sock, does she try to "save" it? Let her throw it in the rag bag along with her own.

DEAR LOVING WIFE: Just keep crusading for equal rights for men and you'll soon write a DEAR ABBY letter with a husband problem. Come to think of it, I haven't seen a darned egg since the depression.

What's on your mind? For a personal reply, send a self-addressed, stamped envelope to Abby, Box 3363, Beverly Hills, Calif.

Hate to write letters? Send one dollar to ABBY, Box 3363, Beverly Hills, Calif., for ABBY's new booklet, "HOW TO WRITE LETTERS FOR ALL OCCASIONS."

Highlights

7:30-8 p.m. ABC. Ozie and Harriet. "Getting Wally in Shape." A rather amusing but pointless plot. Chubby Wally (Skip Young) lets campus toughs push him around and Dave and Rick (David and Rick Nelson) don't like it. They think it's time Wally learned to defend himself and enlist the aid of fraternity brothers to teach him how to handle his dukes. They do the job too well, and the former lamb threatens to become a tiger. Playing the frat brothers are real-life pro football stars Charley Britt, Marlin McKeever, Mike Henry, Jim Boeke, Jack Elison, Glen Wilder and Craig Chudy.

8:30-9 p.m. CBS. Glynis. This plot could have come out of "Guns and Dolls" with its plenitude of colorful characters in the Damon Runyan vein, but the weak script is something else again as comedy takes a backseat to hokey melodrama. Bumbling Glynis (Glynis Johns) discovers the headquarters of a gang leader (John Dehner) who resolves to rub her out before she exposes him. Both Glynis and Dehner project more humor with their roles than the script allows them.

10-11 p.m. CBS. The Dandy Kaye Show. Mary Tyler Moore, the cutie wife of "The Dick Van Dyke Show," gets full opportunity to display her original song-and-dance talents here in a delightful "Hard Hearted Hannah" production number. She also reverts to housewife form in a clever sketch where she and Danny rib the situation-comedy formula with foreign interpretations of domestic trials. Kaye is in fine comedy shape, in solo and in tandem with his guests, and effects a hilarious gypsy characterization near the finish. Guest Eddie Foy Jr. offers some nostalgic moments in old vaudeville style, but it's mostly Danny's and Mary's show.

10-11 p.m. NBC. The Elev-

TV Time Previews

enth Hour. "Fear Begins At 40." You may regard these stories as shallow jousts with psychiatric disease, but one thing you must admit, they are brilliantly acted. In this episode, Ann Harding plays a woman contending with approaching senility and Robert Lansing and Jacqueline Scott play her son and daughter-in-law. Miss Harding is so good she makes the supporting players (including series star Ralph Bellamy) pale in comparison. If you're able to derive pleasure from the misfortune of others, you'll never see footage more admirably portrayed.

10-11 p.m. ABC. The Saga of Western Man "1492." A superbly photographed, inspiring written documentary. The voyage of Columbus is placed in the perspective of his time, and what better way than through films of the paintings, sculpture, architecture and artifacts of the period, augmented by authentic locales and the use of the writings of such as Leonardo da Vinci and Columbus himself. The success of this striking hour of television is dependent on camera work and the spoken word. Aside from a few shadowy figures, there are no personifications and no attempts to act out any aspects of the story. The chronicle of Columbus' voyage is particularly effective and John Secundari's narration is beautifully enunciated. Using Fredric March as the voice of Columbus is an inspired idea. Heretofore NBC has had a virtual patent on this type of quality, color documentary. Now ABC is a distinct threat to usurp the number-one position. Don't miss this one!

JAPANESE AMERICANS. Nisei means a Japanese born in the United States and reared here, while Kibei-Nisei means they were born in the U.S. but have spent much time in Japan.

trump, cashed his queen of clubs, ruffed his last club in dummy and threw West in with the ace of diamonds. West did not have another spade and had to lead either a club or a diamond. Either one allowed South to ruff in dummy and discard his last spade.

South had played the hand very well and had been fortunate to find that West held only two spades to start, but he had been really lucky in his choice of defenders. West should have cashed his ace of diamonds before leading that last spade, whereupon there would have been no way for South to put him in the lead.

We The Women: By Ruth Millet

There's a lot of double talk today on labels but fortunately the consumer is beginning to understand that it is double talk.

The first time she buys a dress made of a fabric marked "crease resistant" she might just think that means the dress won't have to be pressed every time she wears it. But all the label actually said was that the fabric would "resist" creasing. How is a consumer going to know—or care—whether or not a fabric when worn takes its creases lying down or puts up a futile resistance against them?

Then there's "needs little or no ironing." If a dress or suit needs any ironing, who is going to decide whether it is a little or a lot? And you can bet your bottom dollar that if the tag says "little or no" it isn't going to be "no ironing" that is required.

And just what does "wash and wear" actually say—except that you can wash and wear it? You can do that with any fabric with or without any kind of label if you don't care how you look.

And what does "instant" mean when used on a food package? If you think of an instant of time as a moment you won't find many instant foods that are edible in a moment's time.

And how about those assurances that an article that is shipped knocked down can be put together "in minutes." How many minutes, 5 or 180? It could take you half a day to put a gadget together and the time it took could still be measured in minutes. And who can put it together in minutes—a graduate engineer, maybe?

And does "long wearing" on a label really mean anything at all, when they don't tell you how long "long" is? It would save a lot of disappointment if all double talk labels had to be clearly labeled "double talk."

'Lie Detector' Big TV Success

A new show, "Lie Detector," has met with great success in Hollywood, where it was first shown. Its premise is quite simple. Guests, taken from the audience or from viewers who have written in and asked for a chance to appear, take polygraph tests in front of the camera.

The show will probably reach local markets via the syndication route, because the big three networks fear too many legal problems.

For instance, one woman on the show said she had been picked up by Chino (Calif.) police and forced to pose for nude pictures in the cellar of the station house. The machine showed she was telling the truth and the Chino force went through a big shake-up.

Men who have been unable to convince their wives they spent the night "with the boys" have written in pleading for a chance to prove that they were telling the truth.

Hot Tamales Must Be Hot

MEMPHIS, Tenn. (UPI)—The Lester Dodsons told the city commission Tuesday they have a machine that will keep hot tamales hot when the sun sets on Memphis streets.

The Dodsons asked the commission to exempt tamales from an ordinance prohibiting their street sale after sundown. The commission indicated it has nothing against hot tamales, but that health officials said the tamales must be kept at 150 degrees to prevent bacterial growth.

The Dodsons, whose tamales are peddled by eight handicapped Negroes, said their machine would keep the tamales that hot. The commission deferred action until it could study the machine.

Italians Can Name Boys Joe

ROME (UPI)—Italian parents soon may be able to name their children Joe or Ivan.

The cabinet voted Tuesday night to submit a bill repealing an old Fascist law that Italian children could not be given foreign first names.

Bastoni dogs, in their native Africa, wear bells around their necks to drive game for hunters.

Potato Record

FUNTINGTON, England — (UPI) — Farmer John Cooke, who claimed a world record last year when he grew 330 pounds of potatoes from six plants, said he has grown 391 pounds from another six plants this year.

SEC Plagued By Controversies

ATLANTA (UPI) — The Southeastern Conference wiggled out of another in a growing wave of controversies today by ruling a so-called "sleeper" play legal, but not before an exchange of harsh words likely to plague the conference in the troubled times ahead.

The latest in a long series of intra-conference differences was touched off Sunday when Tennessee Athletic Director Bob Woodruff filed a formal protest against a play used by Georgia Tech en route to a 23-7 victory over the Vols.

In the play in question, end Ted Davis was waved back to his spread position before he returned to the huddle and the Tennessee defense failed to cover him as he floated downfield for the touchdown pass.

SEC Commissioner Bernie Moore, in Birmingham, threw out the protest today, calling the play "a legal maneuver."

Moore said he had George Gardner, head of the SEC officials, check films of the Tennessee-Georgia Tech game and talk with game officials.

"From what Gardner told me," Moore reported, "the play was all right."

Moore disagreed with Woodruff's charge that the play was unethical.

Georgia Tech Coach Bobby Dodd, who earlier pointed out that the play was set up on the spur of the moment by quarterback Billy Lothridge and not planned by Georgia Tech, came out swinging when informed of the protest.

In a parting blast at Woodruff and McDonald, Dodd accused them of protesting the pass play "to throw up a smoke screen to get fans to overlook the scoring result."

Woodruff surrendered today when informed Moore had disallowed the protest.

This unexpected show of hard feelings between Tennessee and Georgia Tech, long-time traditional rivals, follows on the heels of reports that Georgia Tech plans to withdraw from the SEC because of disagreement over the number of grants-in-aid allowed, academic requirements and distribution of bowl and television receipts.

Georgia Tech got into an even hotter hassle with Alabama two years ago after Alabama Linebacker Darwin Holt smashed the jaw of Tech halfback Chick Graning with an elbow block following a Tech punt.

The conference has expressed concern about how some of its members will react when Negro players enter the conference. Kentucky is expected to start using Negroes by 1965 and a number of other schools are expected to follow shortly thereafter.

Most publicized controversy in the conference involved the Saturday Evening Post story that former Georgia Athletic Director Wally Butts and Alabama Coach Bear Bryant rigged a football game.

Butts sued and won $3,000,000 with a hearing on a Post motion for a new trial set for Dec. 10. Bryant has a $10 million suit against the magazine pending.

The Sanderbabs attempted a pass. Somebody deflected the ball and Seminole's lanky quarterback—John Keeling—suddenly found himself in possession of the pleskin on the goal line with an open field directly in front of him.

John—worn out from a gruelling contact—headed north. He picked up a blocker, then two more. Back downfield the Sanderbabs all over the field. At the Seabreeze 40 there wasn't a Sanderbab within 20 yards of Keeling. Finally, he stumbled, nearly fell out of bounds, but regained his stride and, with the help of two mates who literally carried him, Keeling crossed in to paydirt.

At last it was Bass's turn. He did it! Seminole 21, Seabreeze 20. Pigott, when we told him about it, said, "We don't want it that way Friday night but we'll take it if we have to get it that way."

Remember the flanker we mentioned? Seminole High's athletic director, Fred Gans, last night let the cat out of the bag. Seminole sent in a man to cover him. The man the locals sent in was their 12th man on the field. We'd say this was a well kept secret!

About Sports

Thinking Out Loud

BY JULIAN STENSTROM

Seminole High's second "big" game of the season comes off Friday night at Daytona Beach's Municipal Stadium when the undefeated Seminoles visit the Seabreeze High Sanderbabs. This will be the final game between these two schools, for an indefinite number of years at least.

Next season the locals become a member of the Metro Conference and Seabreeze will be replaced on the Seminole's schedule by a conference school.

Jim Pigott and Seabreeze Coach Fred Hogan were team mates on the Florida frosh eleven some years back. Pigott remained in Gainesville and learned a lot of football there—even though he admits he reached no heights on the "stardom" ladder. Meanwhile, Hogan left Gainesville and wound up his football career at Stetson University where he made quite a name for himself in Central Florida circles as Hatter fullback.

But there's more about Hogan. Fred was a Sanford youth for many years. If our memory serves us—Hogan's father was a member of Chief Roy Williams' police force, a motorcycle officer until an accident brought on an early retirement from the department. We remember Fred. In fact, we taught him and other kids in the neighborhood around Fifth and Myrtle the fundamentals of close order drill, that is as we best know how.

That's one reason why Hogan told Pigott the other night that this is a big one for Seabreeze. Both clubs have won three games each in the current series. This will be the decider Friday night. Hogan is loaded with talent—he admits it himself. However, it hasn't jelled as yet but undoubtedly it will before too long. Pigott hopes it won't be this week.

During the past six years, Pigott's elevens have posted 50 points against the 'Crabs while Hogan's clubs have racked up 46 against the Tribe. The Sanderbabs' biggest margin against Seminoles has been two TDs. Seminole's widest margin against Seabreeze has been three touchdowns.

Friday night's encounter will bring back fond memories of the last game we saw played in the Daytona park. A large crowd had turned out for the Seabreeze homecoming affair. This, we believe, was in 1948. Goose Kettles took his ball club over there to meet a potent Sanderbab eleven which was billed as a 20-point favorite over the locals. Sure enough, at halftime the Sanderbabs had 20 points on the boards. With less than nine minutes left in the fourth period it was still 20 to 0.

However, the Celery Feeds—as Seminole was known in those days—suddenly came to life. They marched downfield for a TD and kid by the name of "Catfish" Bass split the uprights.

With some four minutes left, Seminole hit the scoreboard again with another TD and the "Catfish" fouled the PAT again. Seminole kicked off to Seabreeze who promptly got up steam with the clock ticking away they marched down to the Seminoles three yard line. There were 15 seconds remaining in the half game. The Daytona eleven came out of the huddle, sporting that six-point lead. They must have been awfully hungry for more points. In fact they had a sleeper on the flank.

The Sanderbabs attempted a pass. Somebody deflected the ball and Seminole's lanky quarterback—John Keeling—suddenly found himself in possession of the pleskin on the goal line with an open field directly in front of him.

John—worn out from a gruelling contact—headed north. He picked up a blocker, then two more. Back downfield the Sanderbabs all over the field. At the Seabreeze 40 there wasn't a Sanderbab within 20 yards of Keeling. Finally, he stumbled, nearly fell out of bounds, but regained his stride and, with the help of two mates who literally carried him, Keeling crossed in to paydirt.

At last it was Bass's turn. He did it! Seminole 21, Seabreeze 20. Pigott, when we told him about it, said, "We don't want it that way Friday night but we'll take it if we have to get it that way."

Baby Seminoles Keep Record Clean

Bears, Packers Top NFL In Scoring

NEW YORK (UPI) — When it comes to seizing scoring opportunities, there are no teams in the National Football League like the Chicago Bears and Green Bay Packers.

The Bears have intercepted a league high of 17 passes and have recovered seven of 13 enemy fumbles.

The Packers have jarred their opponents into fumbling 13 times, have recovered a league high of 12 of these, and have intercepted nine passes, according to the latest NFL statistics.

That makes a total of 24 times Chicago has taken advantage of enemy mistakes to grab scoring opportunities while the Packers have done so 21 times. And it explains to a great extent why these teams are 1-2 in the Western Division standings.

The Pittsburgh Steelers rank third in hopping on such extra scoring opportunities with 10 interceptions and eight recovered enemy fumbles.

The St. Louis Cardinals replaced the Cleveland Browns as leaders in total offense this week and took over the team leadership in passing from the Baltimore Colts.

The Browns remained the No. 1 rushing team. In the vital matter of points, the Browns have scored the most 168 and the Bears have given up the least 48.

Defensively, the Detroit Lions, despite their 2-3 record, replaced the Packers as the top overall defensive team. The Lions have yielded only 1,148 yards, while the Bears have given up 1,167 and Green Bay 1,212.

Gary Fox Rolls 643 Series

Games of 100, 200 and 300 and a series of 643 were rolled last week by Gary Fox for the Lake Monroe team of the City Bowling League.

Fox's big series helped his team take all four points from the Jet Lanes team even though Richard Murphy rolled a 553 series for the Jets.

In other league play Michael's Elk Gas, led by Andrew Patrick with a 902 series, made a four-point sweep from Sweeney's team. Eldis Monroe had a 231-589.

Harry's Bar and Package salvaged three points from American Legion Post No. 53 while the South Manufacturing Co. took three points from Wisdom Bud Service.

The Knights of Columbus team salvaged three points from Pryor's State Farm insurance team. The KC's lost their first game by only one pin.

Leading the 200-game bowlers was Ronnie Meier with 245. He missed 600 by only one pin. Others were Gary Fox with 200 - 244; Pentecost, 201; Dearolph, 210; Monroe, 231; Simon, 201; Bridges, 206; and Ring, 216.

After the sixth week Lake Monroe is in first place with 18 won and 8 lost; Harry's Bar, 15-9; Pryor's, 14-10; Sanford Mfg. Co. and Legion Post 53, each with 13 and 11; Michael's, 12-12; Sweeney's and K. of C., each with 11 and 13; Jet Lanes, 9-15, and Wisdom Bud, 6-8.

Navy's QB Leading In Offense, Passing

NEW YORK (UPI) — Navy's Roger Staubach is sailing on a collision course but the only things likely to be smashed are a couple of college football's most impressive records.

The slick quarterback of the Naval Academy currently is leading the nation in total offense and forward passing, according to statistics released today by the National Collegiate Athletic Bureau.

What's more, however, Jol-by Roger is a few steps ahead of the record paces of Johnny Bright of Drake and Don Meredith of SMU, who set two glittering standards back in the fifties. In four games Staubach has gained 1,024 yards, or 76 ahead of the pace set by Bright when he established the record of 2,400 total yards in 1950. Should Staubach's production rate continue, his total at the end of the season would be 2,560 yards.

The Navy signal-caller's 33 completions place him first in the country in that department but even more impressive is his completion percentage of .714. The current record of .680 was set by Meredith in 1957. Not only has no one previously cracked 70 percent for a season but no one had ever done it through four games before the advent of Staubach.

Don Trull of Baylor, who led the nation's passers last season with 123 completions and has the opportunity of becoming the first to pace the aerialists two years in a row since Dave O'Brien of Texas Christian 25 years ago, is only four completions behind Staubach although he has played one less game.

Inland Materials, paced by John Spodak's 212, 179 and 201, whitewashed the Betty Ann's trio, taking all three games. Bill Hall was high for Betty Ann's with 210-550.

The top man in league averages is Phil Roche with 191. Not too far behind is Alled Van Lines, led by Bob Steele's 212-568, salvaged two points from Mendez Marine.

Gary Fox with a 191 also, but Roche leads Fox by a single pin for total pin fall.

Bob's Restaurant leads the league with 11 wins and 4 losses; Allied Van Lines, 9-6; Larry's Mart, 8-7; Mendez Marine, 4 1/2-10 1/2; Betty Ann's, 3 1/2-11 1/2.

JVs Whitewash. Bucs 20 To 0

By Julian Stenstrom
Herald Sports Editor

Three quick touchdowns—two by Bernie Barbour and one by Chris Tillis—were posted in the second period last night to give the Baby Warriors of Seminole High School a 20 to 0 victory over the Baby Bucs of Daytona Beach's Mainland High.

It was the 27th consecutive victory for the little Seminoles. And they protected another string: they've yet to permit their opponents a single point this season.

In the initial period the Baby Seminoles missed a beautiful scoring opportunity when Barbour rifled a stunning aerial to Leroy Nopper who put on a juggling act with the pigskin before it finally bounced out of his reach.

However, in the opening minutes of the second quarter Barbour—on a fourth and nine situation—attempted to toss another pass but suddenly found daylight in front of him and he dashed for a big first down to put the locals in scoring range. Fullback Sonny Messer and halfback Rick Walstrom carried to the one where Barbour himself plunged over for the first touchdown.

Moments later the Baby Seminoles blocked a Mainland punt and recovered on the Daytona Beach 17. Messer and Walstrom again battered their way into scoring range and Tillis fought his way the final two yards for the locals second TD.

This marker has just gone on the scoreboard when Ernie Baumeister and Ed Griffith teamed up to pull off the big performance of the night. Baumeister intercepted a Mainland aerial on the Daytona Beach 18. Barbour fired a pass to Griffith who moved to the Mainland six-yard line. Finally, Barbour went over from the one for the final score of the night.

Barbour added two points by booting the PATs. During the first half the Baby Seminoles dominated the ball game. They posted six first downs, completed one of seven aerials—that was the 42-yard pass play from Barbour to Griffith, racked up 118 yards on the ground and intercepted two Mainland passes.

Meanwhile, the locals limited the Baby Bucs to no first downs, batted down six Daytona Beach passes, and held the visitors to exactly no net yards on the ground.

But the second half was a story. The Baby Seminoles couldn't get moving at all. They failed to rack up a single first down. They were able to record only a single net yard—based on the ground and failed to complete any of their three second-half pass attempts. Meanwhile, the Daytona club came up with four first downs, picked up 77 net yards on the ground and completed two of six pass attempts.

It was a cleanly played ball with the little Seminoles being penalized 15 yards and Mainland only five.

Messer was the big gun for the little Warriors last night when he posted 48 yards in 12 carries. Walstrom came up with 21, Barbour with 19, John Lewis had 15, with Baumister, John Whiting, Steyril Weber, and John Nordon picking up for the remaining yardage.

Steve Jensen of Mainland recorded 50 of his team's ground yardage and Jeff King came up with 20.

The Baby Seminoles will wind up their present season a week from Thursday night when they tangle with the Baby Wildcats of Ocala here in Sanford's Municipal Stadium.

MISS CROOMS of this school year is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Evans Bacon. Entire high school class elected Miss Barbara Bacon, a senior, as "Miss Crooms" and she will be crowned at the Orange and Maroon coronation ball Thursday evening at the high school gym. "Miss Crooms" attendants are Miss Irene Jackson (left) and Miss Sonja Cherry.

Miss Barbara Bacon Named 'Miss Crooms'

By Robert B. Thomas Jr.
FA 2-3756

Miss Barbara Bacon, the charming daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Evans Bacon, of Oviedo, will reign as "Miss Crooms High School" for the 1963-64 school year. Barbara is a senior and a member of Tri-U-Y. Her attendants are Miss Irene Jackson, granddaughter of Mrs. Jewel Jackson, of Sanford, member of the sophomore class and Tri-U-Y, and Sonja Cherry, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Cherry, of Sanford, also a sophomore and member of Tri-U-Y.

On high school campuses all over the United States, the faculty and student body set aside a day or week of each year to pay homage to their beloved Alma Mater. For the past 31 years, Crooms High has joined in and paid tribute to its various queens, class sweethearts, club representatives and Panther squad. Homecoming is a traditional event celebrated in order to boost school spirit. The first Panther squad was organized in the early 30's with the late James A. Foster as coach. It was then that Crooms began celebrating homecoming on Armistice Day each year. The celebration included the crowning of "Miss Crooms Academy," a spectacular parade and concluding with a game between Crooms and notable long-time rivals.

On tomorrow night at 7:30 p. m. in the R. A. Allen Gymnasium, the Orange and Maroon Coronation Ball will herald the Homecoming festivities. Miss Cynthia Kendrick will reign as "Miss Homecoming." This year's Coronation will be most spectacular.

Friday at 3:45 p. m. the homecoming parade will leave from the school with Crooms Marching Band adding color to the occasion. To end the festivities, the Fighting Panthers will tangle with the Bulldogs of Palatka at 8 p. m. The Crooms band and the Royal Court will be presented during half-time.

Wadie Ruth Cunningham's name was omitted from the list of reigning beauties in last week's column. She is "Miss Cheerleader." Let's end by saying: Kick-off today for Victory Tomorrow.

Louise B. Foster, president and organizer of the Seminole County BUC Alumni Chapter, represented her group at Bethune Cookman's homecoming game. Mrs. Foster was third runner-up in the "Miss Alumna" contest. She was attired in a black suit (Jackie Kennedy style) with matching accessories; and rode in a 1964 convertible gold Cadillac. Her weekend was most enjoyable, she said.

The pastor and members of Greater New Mount Zion Missionary Baptist Church will celebrate Women's Day at 3 p. m. Sunday. Mrs. Chra Singleton, of Leesburg, will be the guest speaker. The public is cordially invited to attend this program by Mrs. Bernice Beamy, secretary. Mrs. Fannie Bagley, chairman and Rev. W. H. Bagley, pastor.

UN Is Warned To Refuse Red China

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (UPI)—Nationalist China told the General Assembly today that if Communist China gain-

Announces Meet

BOSTON (UPI)—New England featherweight champion Tommy Haden of New Bedford will meet Dick De Vola of Charlestown in a 10-round, non-title bout at the Boston Arena Monday. It was announced Tuesday night by promoter Sam Silverman.

Ambassador Liu Chieh, chairman of the Nationalist delegation, attacked the Peking regime as the mischief-maker of the Communist world. He leaned heavily on Moscow's own criticism of Red China to support his arguments. His speech was a sharp rejoinder to Albania's demand that the assembly expel the Nationalist government and seat Communist China in the United Nations. Albania and

Studies Made

SEATTLE, Wash. (UPI)—Walter Van Camp, managing director of a Seattle civic promotion agency, said Tuesday studies are being made concerning the possibility of obtaining a National Basketball League franchise for this West Coast city.

Cambodia have proposed a resolution to that end.

Liu quoted the Soviet government newspaper Ivestia as saying Sept. 21 that the Chinese Communists tried to discredit Soviet leadership with the aim of "splitting the Communist movement and undermining the unity of the anti-imperialist forces."

The Nationalist delegate asked: "If the Chinese Communists can do all this to the Soviet Union and the International Communist movement, what would they not do to destroy the United Nations?"

He asserted that bringing Mao Tze-tung's representatives into the organization "could lead to the disintegration of the United Nations."

"When that time comes," he said, "all the problems with which the United Nations is presently faced would cease to matter. They would have been solved in the way that death puts an end to all bodily ills."

Liu said he would shed no tears over disruption of the Communist camp because "as far as we know world domination still stands out on the Communist agenda."

Ferguson Gets Second Chance

By United Press International

The Minnesota Vikings are giving Bob Ferguson a second chance. Ferguson, a former All-America and winner of the Maxwell Trophy at Ohio State two years ago, was placed on waivers by the Pittsburgh Steelers Tuesday and claimed by the Minnesota Vikings.

Since coming to the Steelers as their top draft choice in 1962, Ferguson had been ineffective.

U. S. To Launch Super-Secret Satellites

CAPE CANAVERAL (UPI) — U. S. scientists, stymied twice this week by postponements, worked toward another attempt today to launch a pair of super-secret satellites into orbit around earth.

The two 485-pound moonlets are the first of 10 the United States plans to launch within the next year to help check on any nuclear explosions deep in space.

The shot ranks as one of the most tightly guarded and ambitious space attempts ever made from Cape Canaveral. But military experts have had little luck in keeping the satellites secret and less in getting them off the ground.

The first attempt, Monday night, was called off because of troubles at the launching pad. Another try Tuesday night was thwarted by foul weather before the countdown started.

The Air Force's goal is to install the two moonlets — dubbed "Vela Hotel" or "Vela High Altitude" — into circular orbits 60,000 miles above earth.

The satellites are equipped with X-ray and gamma ray detectors to watch for and report on nuclear explosions in space. Scientists are confident they can patrol billions of cubic miles of space by remote control. Sensors aboard the satellites reportedly could spot a nuclear blast at distances of up to 200 million miles.

Mr. F. V. Connell Dies Tuesday

Mr. Frederick Van Buren Connell, 73, of Forest Street, Windermere, died at his home Tuesday night.

A native of Scranton, Pa., he had lived in Windermere for 12 years. He was a retired mechanical engineer.

Survivors are his wife, Mrs. Edith Stewart Connell of Windermere, formerly of Sanford; a brother, Cdr. Frank Connell of Orinda, Calif. and a sister-in-law, Mrs. Forrest Gatchel of Sanford.

Services will be held at 2:30 p.m. Thursday at Hirsman Funeral Home with Dr. Fred Nelson officiating. Burial will be Lake View Cemetery.

Mme. Nhu Boored At Princeton

PRINCETON, N. J. (UPI) — Angry demonstrators blasted, booed and threw ice cream cartons filled with eggs and rocks Tuesday night when Mme. Ngo Dinh Nhu arrived at Princeton University to speak out for her brother-in-law's regime in South Viet Nam.

But the fiery little woman wanting an ankle-length gold sari, a native garment, retained her poise as she alighted from a car for an address to a student debating society.

Several of the cartons struck the auto but did not hit Mme. Nhu or her 18-year-old daughter, Le Thy, who was riding with her.

Later, when she arrived in Washington, D. C., she called the demonstration "unworthy of human beings."

GOP Lawmakers Protest Tito

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Four Republican congressmen believe that Yugoslav President Josip Broz Tito's visit to the United States is "a great victory for communism."

Rep. Steven H. DeLoach, N. Y., Alvin E. O'Konski, Wis., James H. Utt, Calif., and Ralph Beorman, Neb., protested the visit Tuesday in speeches or statements.

Sahara nights, particularly in mid-winter, may be as freeing cold as the inside of a refrigerator.

Tax (yawn) Cut

The progress of President Kennedy's $11-billion tax cut measure through Congress has been curious at almost every stage. It never really has had the popular steam behind it that one might expect for the most sweeping tax reduction plan in a generation or more.

To be sure, it has passed the House. And it would very likely win a favorable Senate vote if it could, in 1963, get past the roadblocks of hostile committee chairmen and time-consuming civil rights legislation.

But if the public clamor had been great enough the tax bill could well have become law long before this. It never developed.

One can hardly believe that the idea of having more money in the wallet has lost appeal for the American citizen.

If he is as money-hungry as often pictured by his detractors at home and abroad, why did he not bend on the lawmakers' doors to demand passage of the massive cut?

The answers can be only tentative.

For one thing, the real administration argument for the tax reduction is subtle and complex. The citizen, acting through his representatives, is asked to approve cuts which materially increase the federal deficit—in order to increase prosperity and thereby multiply jobs.

But in the ordinary mind deficits and prosperity do not go together. There is no sign the Kennedy administration has sold this argument effectively. It is easy to believe the opponents of the bill made real headway with arguments that reduction will be linked with comparable cuts in federal spending.

Sophisticated specialists in public finance keep saying that a government budget is nothing like a family budget and therefore that it is foolish to insist that the same kind of careful balancing is required in the public sphere.

Here again, however, the feeling grows that this idea is not widely accepted or perhaps understood by the general public. The fine-spun theories of public finance experts seem apart from the everyday budget realities of the average citizen.

It is also possible that among those citizens—and lawmakers—who can follow the administration argument without difficulty there are some who just don't think it is realistic.

They may believe that the cut won't stimulate the economy as suggested. Or they may feel that the steadily rising cost of government makes a climb out of a projected deeper deficit through very unlikely even after several years have passed.

On top of all these conjectures must be added another. The hurt to the economy from persisting unemployment is neither great enough nor sufficiently widespread to affect personally more than a fair percentage of the American people. Millions and millions have steady employment. To them the whole tax cut plan may seem not only unwise but unnecessary.

Somewhere amid these speculations lies an explanation for the odds that in 1963 the biggest tax cut proposed in many years has stirred almost no popular excitement.

TIME AND THE RIVER

Political Notebook

WASHINGTON (NEA) — If you're a little fuzzy on just what U.S. foreign and domestic policies are at the moment, don't let it worry you and wait a minute.

All programs are subject to change without notice and you may have to unlearn everything you learn, substituting for it something newer.

This has happened half a dozen times on big issues in the last fortnight. As Al Smith said, "Let's look at the record":

1. As of mid-September, you could write it in boxcar letters that the United States was committed to getting a man on the moon before the Russians and never mind the cost.

Then the President spoke at the United Nations and surprised everyone in his administration by saying that the United States and Russia should co-operate in space to save money.

2. Until recently, it was American policy to have no trade with Communist countries—except Yugoslavia and Poland if it would do them any good.

But today deals are cooking to sell surplus wheat not only to Russia but also to the satellites and maybe even Red China. Even Congress seems to be going along on this.

3. Since the test ban treaty was signed, there has been a move on in Washington to cut down U. S. forces in Europe because Russia is being so friendly they wouldn't be needed.

West German Foreign Minister Gerhard Schröder made a hasty visit to Washington, however, and then it was announced in Bonn that the U. S. would not cut European forces.

4. All summer long, the Kennedy administration has insisted it wanted both a tax cut bill and a civil rights bill enacted this year. But after the last White House conference with congressional leaders, they announced that civil rights should come first and that if Congress couldn't pass a tax cut this year, it would have a running start on next year.

A few hours later this was changed to read that the administration still wanted both this year.

5. Ever since the 1960 campaign, Kennedy has maintained that he was opposed to the AFL-CIO plan for a 30-hour work week to increase employment.

Repeating at Palm Springs after a strenuous, overtime non-political work week campaigning for reelection, the President announced, "We're going to have a running start on next year."

—Fidel Castro.

We ask you to pray for us, yes, for us, for we are still filled with consternation and fear at our elevation to the supreme pontificate . . .

—Pope Paul VI

Sure I know about it. I'm part of this organization so why shouldn't I know about it? What do I say—that it's terrible?

—Manager Casey Stengel of the New York Mets, asked to comment on the team's 18 game losing streak.

These are only a few of many examples.

—The whole situation adds up to irrevocable, front-loaded policy with a built-in, two-way stretch to give it flexibility.

Gus 'Hanged' Three Times

CORAL GABLES (UPI)—Unhappy University of Miami students hanged Hurricane football Coach Andy Gustafson in effigy three times Monday.

Miami lost its second game of the season Friday night to Louisiana State. The crowd booted when Don Cifra tried a 30-yard field goal with LSU leading 3-0 and 2:39 left in the game. Cifra missed.

Chuckled Gustafson, "Strung up three times in one day, huh? That's unprecedented. In fact it may be a national record."

—Does anybody know who did it? Was it faculty or students?"

Gustafson will retire as coach at the completion of the season to become the university's fulltime athletic director.

Helen Fuller Says Pace Stepped Up

WASHINGTON — The latest Birmingham bombing changed more than the facade of the 16th Street church it destroyed. Negro leaders have stepped up the pace of their Civil Rights revolt in order to stay ahead of their angry followers. And the Kennedy Administration is pushing for more stringent new Civil Rights laws than it previously sought from this Congress.

After the August Freedom March on Washington, the plan of the demonstrators was to go home and get to work on the less dramatic business of increasing Negro registration and voting. Moderate leaders of the movement insisted that the surest way for Negroes to extend their rights as citizens is through the ballot box. Had it not been for the bomb killings of the Birmingham children that view probably would have continued to prevail. Since the bombing, however, those who advocate taking the Negro case directly into the streets by mass demonstrations are again in the ascendancy.

The fear among moderate-minded Civil Rights leaders is that the demonstrators will not draw the line for long between non-violent marching and picketing and massive civil disobedience of the kind that erupted in India when Mahatma Gandhi's followers grew frustrated in their long fight for independence from the British.

Immediately following the Sept. 15 killings in Birmingham the more radical student wing of the Negro revolt urged a march on Montgomery aimed at immobilizing the State of Alabama. Martin Luther King Jr. and his lieutenants vetted that plan and are now seeking to keep in bounds the growing resentment among their people for more direct action. King's suggestion of a Christmas buying strike at a Richmond meeting of Negro leaders was a nationwide work stoppage and for communications tie-ups in major cities by means of sit-down demonstrations at airports, stations, bus terminals and on highways.

The Kennedy Administration, of course, had committed itself to passing new civil rights laws this year before the Birmingham disaster. The strong reaction against that event in the North and West increased Congressional support for stronger laws, among Republicans and Democrats, however. And pressure on the Administration to make its bill tougher also increased. Lobbyists for a strong law are concentrating on winning new support from Midwestern Senators of both parties. They are appealing to local religious leaders there to influence their representatives in Washington.

As of this week Civil Rights strategists say they expect at least ten White House help toward outlining an FEPC-type provision in the bill if together they succeed in breaking the expected Southern filibuster and bringing the measure to a vote.

Dr. Crane's Worry Clinic

Andy learned the same law that caused Jesus to marvel for they both found that it is possible to be too popular to obtain professional medical prestige. Note the bible passage below and engrave it for all bosses, doctors and other professional men. Medical and Dental Colleges, note here!

CARE 12:15. Andy J., aged 32, is a very talented doctor.

So he goes into tavern and orders drinks for everybody. His companions will then slap him on the back and "Andy" him to death, as it were.

But, alas, when the wives of his soon comrades get verbally all over one of their children needs a surgical operation, they bypass "Andy" and call in a doctor who wears a white shirt and tie and who has lost them socially at arm's length.

For in an emergency, people will desert the very friends and even former bosonians who have allowed themselves to be called by first name!

This is an axiom of Applied Psychology that should be taught to all college students going into any profession, whether that be electrical, teaching, medicine or law.

How is the axiom, stated briefly:

If you permit people to call you by your first name, in a later crisis those friends will then turn to a so-called "expert" whom they do NOT call by his first name!

That's not so true in the retail merchandising field but when it comes to professional skill, people have more respect for those of whom they stand in awe.

And they tend to belittle the prestige of those with whom they are on the intimate terms indicated by use of first names!

If you doubt the accuracy of that statement, then read Chapter 13 in the Gospel of Matthew or Chapter 6 in the book of Mark.

For those you will find that Christ's neighbors scoffed at his theological ability just because he had grown up with them as a boy.

"Is not this the carpenter's son?" They asked disdainfully when Jesus tried to preach in his home town.

"Is not his mother called Mary? And his brothers, James and Joseph, and Simon and Judas?"

"And his sisters, are they not all with us? Whence then both this man all these things?"

Thus, they disbelieved Jesus to Christ finally stated:

"A prophet is not without honor, save in his own country, and in his own house."

And the Bible adds that Jesus could not perform mighty works there because of their disbelief.

"And he (Jesus) marvelled because of their unbelief!"

So even Christ Himself was shocked to learn that unfamiliarity by one's fellow citizens, reduces a man's professional standing.

And that is what Andy learned, to his sorrow, for in his very desire to be unduly friendly with his neighbors, Andy lost much of his medical prestige!

The same law holds true in business offices, for we have a similar axiom in personnel psychology to the effect that a boss must not be reduced to such a common denominator level of familiarity that he is called by his first name.

If his employees don't want to be too formal, at least let them call him "Chief" or "captain," but not "Jim" or "Andy" or "Pete."

So send for my "Tests for Employers' and Employees," enclosing a long stamped, return envelope, plus 20 cents. They are also vital for doctors et al.

Garden Circle Hears History of Club

By Shirley Wentworth
The history of the Orlando Garden Club, dating back to the early 1900's, was presented last Wednesday night for members of the Bear Lake Garden Circle by Mrs. John Grathwol, president of the Orlando Club.

Mrs. Grathwol included in her resume the club's many moves up to its present location.

The business meeting, with Mrs. C. L. Brunk, president, in charge, was held preceding the program. Discussed were this year's Christmas Tree Lane project for which the Bear Lake Circle will make candles and plans to attend the Fashion Show to be sponsored by the Orlando Club on Nov. 1 at the Cherry Plaza Hotel.

Mrs. Brunk will serve as one of the models for the show.

At the close of the meeting refreshments were served by Mrs. William Massey, hostess. The November meeting will be held in the home of Mrs. Richard Ostrander, 3113 Jamison Drive, Bear Lake.

Installation Set By Post 256

By Jane Casselberry
An installation of officers and dinner will be held jointly by American Legion Memorial Post 256 of Casselberry and the Auxiliary at the Riksha Inn at 8:30 p.m.

Sixth District Commander Nick Daneaky of Mt. Dora and his installation team will be on hand to install post officers and Mrs. Daneaky, Sixth District president will have her team to take part in the installation of auxiliary officers.

Joe Pavelchak, Lyman High School senior, will give a report on Boys' State at Tallahassee which he attended last summer under the sponsorship of Post 256.
