Troops Jail Some 150 In E. Pakistan Today

Bitter Differences Between Divided Sections Of Country Come To Head

KARACHI, Pakistan (AP) — Troops jailed some 150 persons in troubled East Pakistan today in the wake of Karachi's ouster of the provincial government for "disloyalty."

Among those taken into custody were Sheikh Mubin Rehman, one of the 11 members of the former provincial Cabinet, and Mohammad Gulam Qadir, a member of the East Pakistan Provincial Assembly.

Official sources said Abdul Kaseem Faizul Huq, ousted chief minister, and others among his Cabinet colleagues also may be arrested soon. Developments in East Pakistan were checked by official censorship.

The ouster of East Pakistan's administration was ordered yesterday by Gov. Gen. Ghulam Mohamed, Pakistan's chief of state, as bitter differences between the divided sections of the country came to a head. The Governor-General acted under the "governor's rule" provision of the constitution which permits the central government to assume the functions of a provincial ministry.

Declaring a state of emergency throughout East Pakistan yesterday named Maj. Gen. Iskander Mirza, secretary of the provincial government, president in absentia, to take control of East Pakistan's administration. Mirza's first official act was to impose censorship.

The new governor was expected to start a general roundup of Communists and "enemies of Pakistan."

In a broadcast to the nation explaining the government's action Prime Minister Mohammed Ali said Faizul Huq was a "traitor to Pakistan, even to East Pakistan."

Ali declared the 80-year-old ousted chief minister had said his ultimate goal was an independent Bengal (East Pakistan), a statement the Prime Minister said was a "deliberate utterance."

Ali also accused Faizul Huq of refusing advice from the central government.

Following his dismissal Faizul Huq called the ousted members of Cabinet to his home in Dacca, East Pakistan's capital, for a meeting. Police swarmed around the house as the conference went on for two hours.

Death Toll In Florida Rises To 5

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Florida's Memorial Day weekend toll rose to five today. John Felix Sutherland, 17, was killed Sunday when his automobile with three other youths overturned on a curve near Lethbridge. The four were going on a fishing trip.

A pickup truck collided with a car Sunday Sunday killing 10-year-old Campbell of Yulee. Deputy Sheriff G. W. Coulson said Campbell apparently lost control of the truck.

Edward E. Weeks, 16, of Windom, was killed Saturday near Myakka canopy when his pickup truck sideswiped a sedan. Four others were injured.

Two persons were killed Friday night and three others injured in a minor crash of two cars near Newberry. The dead were identified as John Howard Dow, 15, and Harold Alton Pettyman, both of Bell.

Seminole County's Highway Patrol and sheriff's department in conjunction with the Sanford police today reported that traffic accidents in the county and city were almost nil.

The Sheriff's department reported one small accident with little damage and no injuries over the weekend. The city police reported no main accidents or injuries.

Chaplain Speaker At Rotary Club

Speaker at today's regular weekly luncheon meeting of the Sanford Rotary Club, was Farrell W. Kempton, chaplain of the Sanibel Naval Auxiliary Air Station, who spoke on Memorial Day.

The chaplain, who attended the Fairchild at Greenville, S. C., traced the history of the national holiday from its beginning in a few southern states after the Civil War to now.

Before his Memorial Day speech, the chaplain commented on how "at home" Sanford had made him feel. "You don't know what it means to a man to come from a strange town and not feel like a stranger," he said. "Never once have I felt like a stranger in this town."

Later, in speaking of patriotism, which was the theme of his talk, he commented, "Today's world calls for more patriotism than ever before, but it calls for patriotism with a sober mind — carpeted with possible far-reaching results."

Charles Morrison was program chairman of the day.

Six Alligators Stolen From Zoo

Thieves struck at the Sanford Zoo Sunday night, snatching the second robbery of animals in less than a day, according to police reports.

Sometimes during the late hours of Sunday night, unidentified thieves stole eight alligators worth $260 from the zoo's "Gator Pool," according to the police.

The head of another group that shared capture was smashed. Capt. Maurice W. Knobles, of the Sanford Police Department, said he knew that it would take a special type of person to do anything as low as that.

Last month, six alligators were taken from the zoo under similar circumstances.

The matter is today under close investigation by the police department.

Missing Girl Is Found Here

A 16-year-old Orlando girl, who had been listed as missing from her home for almost a week, was located in Sanford Saturday afternoon, according to police reports.

An unidentified waitress at the Jack Bar, 201 Sanford Avenue, called the police station and reported a girl fit the girl who looked as if she were lost or in trouble.

Police sent a car, which brought her to the station. Under questioning, she admitted her name and that she had run away from home. Police returned the girl to her parents.

Accused Murderer Listens As Father Gives Sermon

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (UPI) — A Baptist minister, pausing often in his sermon as emotion overcame him, preached yesterday on adult delinquency as his teenage son, 10 days ago accused of murder, sat on the front row.

After the Rev. Luther H. Osborne, an auxiliaryist, at the end of his sermon, called for professions of faith, many in his emotionally charged congregation began crying.

The son, Luther, 17, and Jerry Wills, 18, are accused of beating Julian Vega, 20, cafe-bar owner, to death with a pool cue last night at May 21.

The pastor of the Linnean Avenue Baptist church listed these as his sins: the cause of juvenile delinquency; a national being called the devil; parents' failure to cooperate with other parents; the making of other parents of teenagers too convenient.

"I think more in terms of parental delinquency than of juvenile delinquency," he said.

"Every one of us, including myself, were too busy, too preoccupied, with material things and self-fish motives to give youngsters the attention, care and love they need," he said.

He did, apparently, attempt to explain one difficulty his son had, namely his minister's children, he said, had "minister's children, he said, had difficulty in getting along with their parents."

Deputy M. R. McCollum said the department had been watching the establishment for some time before the raid.

Hampton, who owns and operates the inn, was charged with possession of untaxed liquor and released on $150 bond. Deputies seized approximately one-half gallon of moonshine and a five gallon jug which had almost been emptied.

"Do you expect children to go to church when their parents don't?"

"Every drunkard at one time was a temperate drinker."

"You cannot legislate righteousness and good living" and people will fall "unless the individual puts his faith in Jesus Christ."

Luther's old brother is a missionary in Mexico. Two sisters are married.

Several leaders are needed by clubs in the county to work with their young members one afternoon a week, according to the agent.

Diplomats May Leave

None Of Big Power Foreign Ministers

Says Will Pull Out Of Negotiations

GENEVA (AP) — The Far Eastern conference entered its sixth week today amid increasing reports that the big name diplomats may go home soon, leaving their deputies to carry on an Indo-Japanese Panmunjom.

None of the big power foreign ministers yet has announced plans to pull out of the negotiations but this may be the last week of attendance for some of them.

U. S. Secretary of State Dulles returned to Washington four weeks ago. Soviet Foreign Minister Molotov flew to Moscow early yesterday for consultations, telling some of the Western delegations' envoys he would be back in a few days.

The French persisted here, however, that unless more positive results are obtained this week, the conference will enter a new phase of drafting and negotiating discussions similar to the two years of negotiations which preceded the Korean armistice.

Many Western sources believe the Indo-Japan talks will develop into a series of meetings by subcommittees of military and other experts on the technical aspects of a cease fire. These could continue for months.

Saturday's decision by French Foreign Minister Dubois to stay longer than originally planned will have to resolve the basic question of whether there should be a series of isolated assemblies or one later consolidated area for each side as the Communists have demanded.

This military question has since political overtones, since concentration of large forces in opposing areas could set the pattern for planning of Viet Nam.

Military representatives of the two sides are expected to hold their initial session tomorrow.

As the nine-delegation conference continued its secret meetings today, it still was faced with half a dozen major questions.

The most important is the proposed cease fire, military guarantees against violations, exchange of prisoners of war, and ban against reinforcements from outside.

France's delegation at the conference was faced today with new problems outside those posed by the Communists. Marc Jaeger, secretary of state for the Associated States of Central America and a key member of President Fulgencio Batista's delegation, had resigned from President Joseph L. E. Stilwell's cabinet.

Jacques de Gaulle, president of the French executive council, also will have to resolve the basic question of whether there should be a series of isolated assemblies or one later consolidated area for each side as the Communists have demanded.

Notice To Guatemala

One step that our government has taken in reply to recent proof that Guatemala is receiving arms from behind the Iron Curtain has been to deliver American arms to Honduras and Nicaragua.

Our supplying arms to these two friendly countries is in compliance with terms of a mutual defense pact recently concluded with them. The arms may help these two countries to build up their defenses. Honduras is east of Guatemala and Nicaragua is east of Honduras; both are considered possible targets for Guatemalan aggression.

It may be that the arms sent to these two friendly countries will never have to be employed. Certainly the United States hopes not. Their delivery, however, serves notice that we regard the arming of Guatemala as a serious threat to the security of the entire Western hemisphere. Our action is an indication that we intend to stand back of any power on this continent which is threatened by any other government infiltrated by the germ of Communism.

Hampering Dulles

A conservative voice from the Middle West says that we should at least be willing to discuss recognition and United Nations membership for Red China. This is John Cowles, president of the Minneapolis Star and Tribune, addressing the Rochester, N. Y., meeting of the Associated Harvard Clubs. He does not advocate granting these concessions to the Chinese unless we get a worth-while equivalent.

If, however, they were willing, in return for these advantages, to withdraw Chinese troops from North Korea, permit free elections in a unified Korea, cease aiding the Vietminh rebels in Indo-China, and agree to the complete independence of the three Indo-Chinese states, such gains might justly

Investigation Third Of Kind

WASHINGTON (AP)—The present investigation of tax-exempt foundations is only the third of its kind in American history, but nevertheless foundations are made before Christ and foundations themselves existed long before that.

A Senate committee investigated in 1912. So did a special House committee, headed by the late Rep. Eugene Cox (D-Ga.), in 1936. Under the chairmanship of Rep. H. Carroll Reece (R-Tenn.), a special House committee is making an investigation now. Reece says his purpose is to see whether the foundations are carrying out their stated purposes or whether there is use of their money to promote communism or socialism.

Foundations and their purposes have varied. They get their money through rich men on their heirs or through contributions, and hand it out for special projects: humanitarian, social, civil, religious, medical, scientific, educational, charitable.

Rep. Victor Hollis, a specialist in the public welfare, traces them back to the beginning of American history, pointing out that the gifts and bequests which endowed colleges were foundations, the money being set aside for the public good.

Benjamin Franklin provided 1,000 pounds in 1780 for two foundations still in existence, in Boston and Philadelphia, for the education of "young married artificers."

Another early foundation pointed out by Hollis is the American Society, established in 1800 to aid "idle women." A woman had to admit she was a prostitute to get any of the foundation's benefits.

by our dropping our opposition to recognition of the Communist Chinese regime and admitting it to the UN.

The trouble, as Cowles sees it, is that senators and other public men have gravely hampered Secretary of State Dulles in his negotiations, by denying him almost all his freedom of action. We are put in the position of demanding everything and offering nothing.

Some day we shall learn that such a dictatorial attitude is not feasible, even for us as a nation as the United States.

Throwing Off Riders

A much needed reform has moved a small step on the way to enactment. A Senate Judiciary subcommittee has endorsed a constitutional amendment which would permit the President to veto separate items in an appropriation bill. Now he has to take the bill as it stands or disapprove it altogether. Many a bill contains some good features and some bad. If the President could hold the good ones and kill the others, it would make economy and better government. It would also tend to stop the practice of adding "riders", or legislation having nothing to do with appropriations, the idea being to prevent the President from vetoing them.

A number of states give this power to their governors. The experienced statesmen who drew up the constitution of the Confederacy felt it desirable to make their President able to pick and choose items in an appropriation bill.

Public bodies interested in economy, such as the United States Chamber of Commerce, as well as local organizations, would do service to their communities by bringing the advantages of such legislation to public attention.

New Russian Move

When in a jam, start something different as a diversion. Instances of this policy are not unknown at Washington. The latest example, however, comes from Moscow. The Kremlin, already involved in discussions on Indo-China and the new types of bomb, has now notified Chancellor Julius Raab of Austria and the vice-chancellor to have his country stop "hostile and subversive intrigues" against the Soviet occupation forces. Russian authorities speak of militarist propaganda by organizations of former soldiers and pleads for annexation to Germany.

If Austria does not take appropriate steps, the Russian occupation authorities "will be compelled to take the corresponding measures themselves."

This is a threat, Moscow's favorite form of communication. As the United States, Great Britain and France are also joint occupiers of Austria, they will probably be able to prevent any drastic action. The aim in bringing up Austria now might well be in bargaining purposes. Withdrawal of the threat against the Austrians might be one way to get some concession in the Far East.

Parents and friends are invited to attend a "Play Day" program tomorrow at 10 a.m. at the West Side Primary School. The program will be as follows: Glee club devotional songs; marches and dances by cowboys, cowgirls and Indians; "All About Farm" dances; "Singing Along"; groups of dances from all countries; American dances; finale. Flag salute, "America the Beautiful," led by Cub Scouts. All children in the school will participate in the program.

The Norman Devote Howard chapter of the United Daughters of the Confederacy, will present a program in memory of Thomas Jefferson Davis over WTHB at 11 a.m. Thursday. Mrs. Mary Lettler Strong, charter member of the organization, will read an original memorial paper. Mary Ann Strickland will sing, accompanied by Mrs. F. E. Roannell at the piano. Mrs. E. H. Lucy is in charge of the program.

The railroads and "one of the major factors" in the league's opposition to the railroads' request for a 30 per cent increase in refrigeration charges which involved additional charges if the railroads were to assess $1.3 to assess the increase of over $2,500,000 on the movement of fresh and processed citrus and vegetables.

"Another important matter that has been before the league since 1947 is the assessment of unloading charges at New York and Philadelphia and the last step has now been taken. This case was argued before the U. S. Supreme Court by the league's counsel, M. W. Wells, of Orlando. These charges were reduced approximately 15 to 20 per cent, but the league still contends that the charge cannot be legally assessed and by their Supreme Court action are fighting for the other half-loaf, which represents approximately $25 per car, or something over $900,000 per year, on shipments moving to the New York and Philadelphia markets," Mr. Chase said.

Mr. Chase, in his opinion, C. Goldstein in commenting on the June 10 meeting stated that "it is going to be a down-to-earth business session" and he pointed out that "there are several immediate and important problems confronting this industry that must be thoroughly reviewed and a decision made as to the position to be taken by this segment of the perishable food industry, in the interest of continuing a sound, adequate, efficient and economical transportation system."

HOLLYWOOD, — "I'm having the most fun of my life."

This was Dick Powell enthusing, and no wonder, he is maneuvering horses, camels and hordes of Moors and Tartars in a four million dollar production one of the biggest movies in Hollywood history.

He is hot from Mountaintop, where he has come a long way. Presently a moving house emcees film crooner and private eye purveyor, he has now blossomed out as a producer-director of spics.

Powell has never produced a picture before. He has directed only one, a medium budget thriller called "Split Second." Yet how bold Hughes is so sold on the fellow that he has given Powell the green light for what will probably be RKO's costliest movie.

Not only that, but the enterprising star also planned Powell to take over as production boss of the whole studio. The newcomer turned it down, contending that he wasn't ready for such a post.

When I saw Powell on the set of "The Conqueror," he was riding high. He was astride a camel bound many feet in the air, directing the entrance of horsemen into a palace courtyard.

His relationship with the cast and crew appeared to be one of mutual respect. Powell is aware of his spot. He personal assistant, Miss Elizabeth Taylor, was on hand for the opening of the picture, asking questions from morning to night.

The casting office offered to re-hire him of the lead. "Look—I'm an actor myself," he replied. "I don't want any other actor to say that I didn't give him the courtesy of seeing him personally about a role."

When Powell came down from his perch, he commented about what a good time he was having with what he was doing on paper.

He said, "I'm all I have to do is get it on film."

He said that he had trouble finding the right location for the film which concerns the early years of Ghengis Khan. "The story takes place in the Gobi Desert," he explained. "But it isn't the bare desert that most people think it is. Parts of it are quite green and there is much less sand than fertilizer and manure.

Cardinals Rally To Defeat Clermont 12-10 For 5th Win

Balvey Homers,
Cardinals Tie
For Third In EFL

In TOMMY KUHN

Added by Tommie Kuhn's first home run of the year, with nobody on base, the Sanford Cardinals won their fourth straight baseball in the Central Florida League when they defeated Clermont 12-10.

The win gave the Cardinals a 5-3 record and gained them a tie for third place with Longwood in the C.F.L. Clermont has an 8-6 record.

The game was close from start to finish. Sanford didn't take the lead until the top of the eighth inning. Clermont jumped to a 3-0 lead after three runs in the first, but one run, the score remained in favor of the Highlanders until this time it was 5-5. Sanford rallied in the top of the sixth and tied the game up at 9-9. In the top of the eighth, Sanford scored three more runs to lead by 12-9. Milt Kuhn, Clermont's manager, had his team in the lead for most of the eighth, but was only able to pick up one run. The game ended with the score being 12-10.

Clement Scores Bravely

Jimmy "Jack" Kridler, former Bradenton High School pitcher, played for two consecutive days and then was released by Clermont. Thomas Kridler allowed eight hits and gave up five runs in the two innings. Kridler rallied in the top of the third inning to make the score 5-5, and when they were tied in the top of the fourth, they were tied by the end of the game. However, he increased his lead in the bottom of the fourth and fifth by scoring two runs each time.

During the first five innings, Clermont had 15 base hits and nine runs. Sanford had scored five runs on eight hits in the first five.

Sanford Wins Score

The Cardinals suddenly came to life in the top of the sixth and tied the game up at 9-9. The first Cardinal batter, Fred, out, then Randy Reynolds singled and went to first. He later ended up on third on an error and one out. With two on and one out, Kuhn singled and Reynolds scored. George Kuhn then singled, and Kuhn went to third. Fulton Bradley slugged a double into deep right field and Crabtree and Kuhn each scored. Balby Bissell then doubled and Bradley scored to tie the game up at 9-9. The next batter struck out and the side was tied.

Cards Take Lead

In the top of the eighth inning, with the score still tied at 9-9, the Sanford Cardinals put on a do or die rally and scored three runs.

The first batter walked, and then, on a walk-off, Kuhn singled. Crabtree scored when George Kuhn grounded out to the second baseman. Bradley then hit his first home run of the year into the right field woods. In the bottom of the eighth, Clement made a last minute effort for the lead but failed and the game ended with Sanford winning 12-10.

CARD CAPTION: Balby Bissell

not rubbed off a home run. Jimmie Matts played for the first time on the team. Charley Thomas hit a double ... . Crabtree hit his second triple of the year ... . Bradley hit his third double ... . The contest lasted 2 hours.

Official Returns Show Collins Won Nomination By 66,127

TALLAHASSEE (AP)—State Sen. LeRoy Collins won the Florida Democratic gubernatorial nomination over Acting Gov. Charlie Johns by 66,127 votes, complete official returns showed today.

The official returns from the 67 counties tabulated in the office of Secretary of State R. A. Gray and ready for formal certification by the state canvassing board, gave Col. Johns 380,323 votes to 314,196 for Johns.

The total vote in 69,523 was 28,163 more than in the first primary Mar. 4.

Official returns, with absentee ballots added, differed little from those gathered initially and tabulated by the Associated Press election night.

Johns carried 11 counties to only 2 for Collins, but Collins took the most populous county.

Collins' aggregation of 57,145 in Dade County and 11,141 in Hillsborough were more than his margin of victory. Combinations of his heavy majorities in several other counties—Pinellas and Polk with Dade or Palm Beach and Broward with Dade, for example—would show the same result.

Collins took every county south of Orlando except Osceola, Okeechobee, Glades and Monroe. Johns carried every county south of north Orlando except Volusia, Seminole, Jefferson and Collins' home county of Leon.

The two counties straddling the mid-state line went to Johns by small margins—Orange by 1,474 votes out of 20,041 cast and Brevard by 41 out of 6,013 cast.

Although the figures indicated congressional returns in Collins' stomping grounds, he got a high second primary vote played a part in his success.

Of the 28,000 extra votes cast in the runoff, 25,000 were in Dade Hillsborough and Pinellas counties which went overwhelmingly to Johns. In the three big Johns counties—Dade, Orange and Escambia there was a net gain of only 1,752 votes.

Collins won all three counties where Briley Odham led in the first primary and picked up big blocks of Odham votes throughout the state. Odham supported him actively in the runoff.

Animal Ordinance Is Put On First Reading

City Commission Passes Action, 3-2; Audience Participates In Discussion

The City commission last night, after considerable debate, placed an ordinance on first reading, which narrows the distance between livestock and the nearest residence from 500 to 100 feet. The matter has been before the commission for several weeks.

Much comment concerning action which should be taken in the matter came from the audience. Frank Ashdown, who has served on City bodies for several years, said the matter was the "worst thing" he'd seen come before the commission in years, and that the 500-foot restriction meant there was no place in the city for livestock.

For the discussion followed, as to whether or not the ordinance was or was not feasible. The commission thought so, but Com. John Kridel asked, "What's going to enforce it?" and asked Chief of Police Roy Williams if he had enforced the old ordinance during the past 15 years.

The chief replied, "We haven't paid much attention to it, unless we received complaints."

At this point Com. John Kodes took in and asked the chief if the department has to have a complaint before it can enforce the city's ordinance. The chief replied that he "preferred it." Kridel came to the chief's aid saying, "It's silly to expect a man to go from door to door to check whether or not an ordinance is enforced." This is no more enforceable than the ordinance we now have and it won't be enforced if you don't do it," he commented.

Com. Kodes stated that he thought the 200-foot restriction unfair and unreasonable. Com. William Thompson said, "There should be a happy medium some sort of this. It's not a case of whether you are for or against the mayor. It's a case of whether or not you want livestock in the city or not."

Here it was stated from the audience that 100 feet would not bother neighbors. Mr. Fred Bell commented that the "whole idea is to bring about peace among women who have a gender against a city official. Com. J. Daniel Correll replied, "I don't believe personal issues should be brought before the commission."

Mr. Russell stood and commented that "if people are mean enough to force the city commissioners to take a little girl" (Continued on Page Eight)
