

Conscription In Britain Favored By Labor Party

Meeting Rebuffs Communism, Retracts Criticism Of Bevin

MARGATE, Eng., May 26. (AP)—The Labor Party voted by a ratio of 2,332 to 571 today in favor of peacetime conscription to back up the nation's foreign policy.

The vote underlined an apparently waning opposition within the party to Secretary Ernest Bevin's stands. It repulsed "rebel" elements who have argued this policy was too closely aligned with that of the United States and too antagonistic to Russia.

Britain's ruling labor party rebuffed Communism and scaled down criticism of Foreign Secretary Ernest Bevin's close-to-the-United States foreign policy at the opening of its annual policy-making conference today.

With Prime Minister Clement Attlee and nearly all of his cabinet attending, the party conference defeated by a show of hands a motion to permit Laborites to join the British-Soviet Society. Opponents of the resolution said the society was dominated by Communists.

The conference also eliminated 19 resolutions, 15 of them critical of Bevin, and substituted on the

Allies To Draw Lots For Japanese Navy

TOKYO, May 26. (AP)—Four wartime allies soon will draw lots for what is left of the former Japanese navy.

The United States, United Kingdom, Soviet Russia and China will take the vessels in accordance with an allied agreement covering Japanese combat ships of destroyer tonnage or less. Ships of larger tonnage are being destroyed.

Involved in the first drawing, for which General MacArthur will set the date, are four groups of ships. The vessels will be delivered by Japanese crews to Far Eastern ports to be named by the claiming nation.

agenda two composite motions, the most critical of which condemned British policy in Greece and denounced the "Truman Doctrine" of aid to Greece and Turkey. The two substituted motions will be discussed and voted upon later.

The conference withdrew from the agenda resolutions sharply critical of British policy in Palestine. Instead, a composite resolution was submitted reaffirming the Labor view that Jews must have a "national home" and constitute a majority of the population in the Holy Land.

Opponents of the House of Lords submitted a resolution calling for the creation of an elected upper House to replace the House of Lords as now constituted. The peers would be permitted to retain their hereditary titles, but no new hereditary titles would be created.

The resolution sought to prevent the predominantly conservative Lords from stalling or blocking Socialist legislation.

Proponents of this measure urged that the government ensure through existing parliamentary devices that legislation setting up the proposed new upper House would not be defeated by King George VI, who has rarely exercised his power to delay legislation. British Air Minister Philip Noel Baker, party chairman, keynoted the conference with a call to the Labor government to establish a "new world-wide intercontinental system of economic cooperation." Noel Baker said that Britain's troublesome domestic problems were "a small issue compared to the major issue that confronts the world: the major task of building peace on sure foundations."

JAPAN EACRS CABINET

TOKYO, May 16. (AP)—Tetsu Katayama, 60-year-old Socialist leader, literally became a one-man government today. Katayama formally assumed the premiership, but in the absence of a four-party agreement he lacked a cabinet. Technically he holds all portfolios since outgoing conservative Premier Shigeru Yoshida and his ministers left office this afternoon.

Dr. Sperry, dean of the Divinity School of Harvard University since 1922, has lectured widely in this country and in England and is author of some 13 books, including "Rebuilding Our World" published in 1943.

A former dean of the National Council on Religion in Higher Education, Dr. Sperry is a fellow of the American Academy of Arts and Sciences and a trustee of Vassar. As a Rhodes Scholar he received a BA degree at Oxford University, later taking his MA and DD at Yale and a D. Litt at Boston University.

Tax Cut Bill

(Continued from Page One) emphatically assume the position that existing wartime taxes can not be continued permanently, or for a very long period in the future. But he believes that no tax reduction can be sound that is based upon political expediency.

He said millions of holders of government bonds are entitled to feel a supreme confidence in the solvency of their government and if they ever lose faith, there will be a "real depression" with a "disastrous repercussion around the world."

"Let us, therefore," he continued, "approach this vital and important subject with caution and in the light of the facts. Let us see a little further into the future before we commit ourselves to a policy which we may not be able to reverse, even though a necessity for a reversal should arrive."

Barkley said he would not only support the deferment motion but a substitute by Senator Lucas (D-Ill.) to make tax cuts effective next Jan. 1 instead of this July 1 as provided in the Senate committee bill. The government's fiscal year begins July 1.

The Kentucky Senator contended that tax reduction now would "contribute further to the maintenance of inflationary prices" and thus "increase the severity of any recession in business which might occur in the coming fiscal year." He said the best contribution that could be made to economic stability now "is to balance the budget and to obtain a sufficiently large surplus to permit a proper payment on the national debt."

Military Pact

The United States, Mr. Truman said, will confine its military support to "reasonable and limited" purposes. A more lavish distribution of weapons would "only contribute to a useless and burdensome armaments race," he said. The President said the United States did not desire to "unnecessarily" the size of armaments in the Western Hemisphere. Rather, he made clear, the aim is one of standardization of arms so that the Western Hemisphere nations can more easily cooperate with each other. Mr. Truman said that would implement the responsibility set forth in the Act of Chapultepec.

Under that agreement, the United States and the Latin American

Dr. Brooks, who was introduced by Andrew Carraway, said that everyone, rich and poor, old and young, educated and ignorant, needs to know more about how to live, and he pointed out that many a successful man dies before he learns anything about the art of living.

lean republics agreed that they would resist jointly any aggression against any of the signatory nations.

Mr. Truman sent the Congress a draft of suggested legislation. A year ago, Mr. Truman requested a virtually identical act. His message emphasized that it will be the policy of this government to encourage sound economic conditions in the other American republics as a "prerequisite to international peace and security."

"Operations under the proposed legislation will be conducted with full and constant awareness that no encouragement should be given to the imposition upon other people of any useless burden of armaments which would handicap the economic improvement which all countries so strongly desire," he said.

In executing the program, Mr. Truman emphasized also, the government will guard against placing weapons "in the hands of any groups who may seek to subvert the peaceful and democratic principles to which the United States and other American nations have so often subscribed."

Recreation is important too, he continued, but by recreation he said that he meant recreation and not dissipation. "Take your job seriously," he said, "but don't take yourself too seriously, and 'Remember,' he continued, "you can't work all day and look joint all night."

French Red Doubts Labor Will Strike

PARIS, May 26. (AP)—Jacques Duclos, Communist leader, said today that French Labor "will not be so stupid" as to go out on a general strike.

Observers attached great significance to Duclos' statement, since Communists dominate the 6,000,000-member confederation Generale Du Travail (CGT), the French union federation.

Meanwhile, struggles between the government and gas and electrical workers over the pay issue marked time as France observed a holiday for Whit-Monday, which left the capital almost deserted.

The fourth point mentioned by Dr. Brooks in successful living was a sense of humor. And he quoted as worth remembering the remarks of one who said that "what this world needs today is a few good belly laughs."

Senate Acts To Advance Tax Cut Date

House Conferees On Labor Bill Decide To Drop Big Scale Bargaining Ban

WASHINGTON, May 27, (AP)—The Senate tentatively decided today to make the proposed income tax cut effective next July 1, rather than last Jan. 1, as specified by the House.

The action, subject to a later vote, came by unanimous consent during consideration and approval of amendments to the $4,000,000,000 tax reduction bill as recommended by the finance committee.

The bill remained open for a wide variety of other proposed amendments, many of them dealing with proposals to permit husbands and wives in all the states to split their income for tax purposes. This advantage now is granted only to residents of states with community property laws.

The so-called process of "perfecting the bill" was started after Republicans beat down yesterday a Democratic move to delay action on it.

Meanwhile, Rep. Hartley (R-N.J.) said today that House members of the conference committee on labor disputes legislation have agreed informally to abandon a prohibition against industry wide bargaining.

Philippine Delegate To UN Tries To Tone Down Red Statement

LAKE SUCCESS, May 27, (AP)—Salvador Lopez of the Philippines sought today to tone down what he called the "war-like phraseology" in a Russian statement to the United Nations on objectives of the press in the post-war world.

Lopez proposed to the U. N. sub-commission on freedom of information and of the press an amendment to a Russian proposal made yesterday which would take out the Soviet reference to "unmasking fascism" and "war-mongering."

Lopez said he agreed with the basic ideas of the Russian statement, but differed on the sharpness of its tone. He said the purpose of the amendment he introduced was to "tone down the war-like phraseology, which may be appropriate in a fighting slogan or manifesto but is hardly appropriate in the agenda of a conference."

The sub-commission virtually completed the agenda of a proposed world conference on freedom of information to be held some time next year in Europe. A paragraph on the objectives of the press, now under discussion, is the last big hurdle.

Commerce Department Finds Possible Turn in Business Trend

Quoted Nicaragua President Said "Incapacitated"

State Department Is Informed Of New Provisional Head

WASHINGTON, May 27, (AP)—The Commerce Department today declared President Leonardo Arguella "incapacitated" and named Benjamin Lescayo Sacasa as provisional president, the State Department was advised today.

The American Embassy at Managua reported by telephone that Arguella, ousted in a coup by the army, has taken refuge in the Mexican Embassy along with his wife. It advised that 11 loyal officers of the national guard are with Arguella.

Some 20 other officers of the guard loyal to Arguella are scattered among other foreign embassies and legations, the department was advised by the chargé d'affaires, Maurice M. Benbaum.

Benbaum reported that the Nicaraguan Congress at a session last night declared Arguella to be "incapacitated" to hold the presidency, because of his failure to preserve public order. Arguella had been in office less than a month.

Sacasa was one of three persons designated by the congress as possible successors to the presidency since there was no vice president. The State Department could not identify him immediately.

It was made clear that he is not the Nicaraguan ambassador to the United States, Dr. Sevilla Sacasa, who left Washington recently for Managua.

WASHINGTON, May 27, (AP)—Assistant Secretary of War Howard P. Peterson left by air today for Germany to confer with occupation authorities on food shortages which have stirred up unrest among the German people.

Peterson also plans to visit the British zone for a discussion of the export-import program with U. S. and British officials.

Italian Government Will Exclude Reds

ROME, May 27, (AP)—Premier Alcide De Gasperi started out today to form a new government excluding representation of Italy's powerful Communist Party.

Emerging from a conference with provisional President Enrico De Nicola, the Christian Democratic leader said he would try to resolve the two-week-old Italian political crisis in one of two ways: by forming a cabinet of Christian Democrats, with the addition of a few nominally independent technicians or by forming a cabinet of Christian Democrats and representatives of minor Leftist parties.

MANILA, May 27, (AP)—President Roxas was advised officially today that ten unidentified bodies had been found in the wreckage of the presidential plane Lilly Marlene, which crashed May 18 on the slopes of Mount Ransang on central Mindanao.

Army authorities notified Roxas that the information was confirmed by a runner from a ground party. They said the search for seven other persons believed aboard at the time of the crash would be continued tomorrow morning. Heavy clouds and a torrential rain halted aerial search today.

1945 Tax On Whiskey Is Re-enacted

Act Produces About 4 Million A Year But Won't Help To Meet Deficit Seen

TALLAHASSEE, May 27, (AP)—The first major revenue measure of the waning 1947 session cleared the Legislature today but it did nothing toward meeting the $12,500,000 annual deficit Governor Caldwell has predicted.

As the House and Senate Finance and Taxation Committees continued to keep their new tax talk in most general terms, the Senate passed a House-approved bill re-enacting as a permanent law the extra tax of 72 cents a gallon which was put on whiskey in 1945 as a two-year emergency measure.

It produces about $4,000,000 a year above the basic tax of $120 a gallon, but the Governor and other financial officers of the State have anticipated its passage by making up all their estimates of revenue needs.

As it was being sent to the Governor for almost certain approval, the House Committee on Finance and Taxation introduced the bill.

Truman Seeks New Home Loan Agency

Plan Scraps Present NHA And Creates 3 Units Operating Under Single Head

WASHINGTON, May 27, (AP)—President Truman today proposed to Congress the creation of a completely new housing and home finance agency to handle virtually all government activities in that field. In a special message, Mr. Truman said such an agency "will unquestionably make for greater efficiency and economy."

His plan would scrap the existing National Housing Agency (NHA) which coordinates present housing functions. It was created under the President's wartime powers and will go out of existence six months after the declared end of the war.

His plans call for three agencies operating in and under the housing and home finance agency, as follows:

1. A Home Loan-Bank Board of three members, to administer the federal savings and loan insurance corporation, the home owners loan corporation and the functions of the federal home loan bank board.
2. A Federal Housing Administration, with the same functions now held by that agency. One of FHA's major functions is insurance of mortgages on new homes.
3. A Public Housing Administration, to take over functions of the federal public housing authority and some remaining emergency housing activities.

Top officials of the new housing set-up, Mr. Truman proposed, would be an administrator to head the Housing and Home Finance Agency, the three members of the Home Loan Bank Board, and one commissioner each for the FIA and the Public Housing Administration. All would be appointed by the President but his selections would have to have Senate approval.

BIBLE VERSE FOR TODAY

A LITTLE EVERY DAY CAN BUILD A MAGNIFICENT EDIFICE: As thy day so shall thy strength be.—Deut. 33:25

Isn't it funny how much better looking our public-spirited citizens are with an ear of corn in their mouth?

The Legislature has passed the biggest appropriation bill in Florida history, but so far it hasn't found the money to pay for it.

The people of Tampa are considering extending their city limits about 24 square miles, thus increasing its population to about 162,000.

If we are going to bring in some 400,000 displaced persons from Europe in order to "ease our housing situation," it's too bad that we can't exchange for them Henry Wallace and three or four hundred thousand more like him who seem to like the system they have in Russia so well.

It will not be long before next year's gubernatorial candidates will begin beating the bushes. The Fort Myers News Press mentions Fuller Warren and Tom Watson as the two most likely prospects.

Smart money is betting, we are told, that the slot machine bill will finally be enacted into law in this session of the Legislature. We don't know just how smart this smart money is, but we doubt if it is smart enough to pass this bill, as it managed to defeat the anti-bookie bill.

Eternal vigilance, someone has said, is the price of liberty; it is also the price of honest government. In New York, where taxpayers have very generously consented to pay taxes to support those "who through no fault of their own now find themselves unemployed," it is disclosed that the Welfare Commissioner has been housing 37 "needy" families in expensive downtown hotels at a cost for each ranging as high as $640 a month.

Senator Anderson of the Agriculture department is up in arms over the proposed cut of 32 percent in farm appropriations. Most of this slash would come out of the crop reduction program under which farmers were paid not to plant, and potatoes (and other crops) were bought by the government only to be burned, so as to raise the price of remaining potatoes.

New College Buildings

The nation's colleges will need 295 million more square feet of space in three years. So says E. V. Hollis, chief of veterans' educational facilities in the United States Office of Education in Washington.

With all colleges in the country bursting at the seams, all eyeing remodeling or new building programs, this will be the next challenge education has to meet.

An American people determined to give its young folks adequate education could get busy making things and earning money for that education, could it not? The American way, by which the nation grew great, was to do a full day's work and improve a little something at home in the evening.

Along with it will come whatever is needed by the new generation. Without it, neither education nor anything else is worth-while.

Russian Unfriendliness

Sad to say, it seems true of the Soviet government, in the words of Rudyard Kipling, that "East is East and West is West, and never the twain shall meet, Till Heaven and Earth meet presently at God's great judgement seat."

This situation has been brought out by the observations of all Europeans and Americans who have come recently into contact with Russian thought and purpose, particularly by such trustworthy evidence as that of Harold Stassen of Minnesota.

The Russian newspapers go to great length and strange vindictiveness in what seems a deliberate effort to make and keep the Russian people not only a nation separate, but a nation definitely hostile to its neighbors and the outside world in general.

Obviously such procedure can cause much harm to nations which would like to be friendly, and in the long run to the Russians themselves. It seems a great pity so intelligent a man as Premier Stalin can allow this attitude to persist.

Dionne Quints

As the Dionne quintuplets on Wednesday of this week pass their 13th birthday the chances are better than even that they will all live to celebrate their 80th anniversary together, the Metropolitan Life Insurance Company reports.

The chances are about 95 in 100 that all five girls will reach their majority, about 65 in 100 that they will all attain age 45, and more than 20 in 100 that they will all live to celebrate their 65th birthday.

"As continued progress in life conservation is made," the company comments, "the chances of survival for the quintuplets will increase. Since the quintuplets were born the joint expectation of life at age 13 for five girls in Canada has increased by more than five years."

Whiskey Tax

The Senate Finance and Taxation Committee today also approved a measure setting up a $1.50 license tax for coin-operated typewriters and radios. At present, such machines would be subject to the $7.50 general occupational tax.

The House passed, 62 to 10, a bill which would open up a wide range of public lands to homesteading by Florida World War II veterans.

It would authorize a veteran to receive a deed to 40 acres of land outside a municipality or one-half an acre within the corporate limits of a city.

Land open to the veterans would include tax forfeited property owned by counties or municipalities.

Business Report

The business had spent heavily on improvement of plant and equipment last year but it forecast "a slackened growth or possibly even a decline" in total expenditures for this purpose "during coming months."

The Reserve Board analysis said that business holds a cushion against the shock of an economic setback in the form of comparatively large liquid assets, cash, and government securities which can be quickly turned into cash.

In the case of the increased business liquidity may have the effect of reducing the need for forced liquidation and of delaying business in making the price cuts, cost reductions and other readjustments that generally accompany recessions.

Ingraham and Wainwright voted against it. Woltzky, Gantier, Fuqua and Oelkers voted to suspend Papy's voting and speaking privileges pending completion of the investigation, while Burzard and Wainwright voted against suspension.

Seminole County employers should make it their business to see that everyone in their employ has his chest x-rayed for possible signs of tuberculosis when the State Mobile X-ray Unit comes to Sanford during the week of June 3, Mrs. Edward Kircher, Seminole County Tuberculosis Association secretary said today.

Business Report

The business had spent heavily on improvement of plant and equipment last year but it forecast "a slackened growth or possibly even a decline" in total expenditures for this purpose "during coming months."

It added that "some consumer resistance to higher prices or actual inability to pay them," and greater availability of goods are leading businessmen more and more to "clearance" sales and retrenchment in purchasing.

The Reserve Board analysis said that business holds a cushion against the shock of an economic setback in the form of comparatively large liquid assets, cash, and government securities which can be quickly turned into cash.

Tax Cut Date

Hartley also told reporters that the compromise version of the separate bills passed by the House and Senate will contain no provision authorizing private employers to obtain injunctions against some strikes and boycotts.

Hartley, chief of the House conferees, outlined these positions on major issues after a separate meeting of his group. "We didn't take any formal vote," Hartley said, "but I'm telling you that's the way it's going to be."

As another factor, it said banks also have an "extremely liquid position" which would permit them to increase loans still more "if the demand arises."

Seminole Hy By BOBBY PARK

The Try-Hy-Y Club held an initiation of new members and the installation of new officers for next year last Wednesday night. The officers are as follows: Jane Chapman, president; Emma Jane Robinson, vice-president; Margarita Partin, secretary; Hazel Routh, treasurer; and Ruth Mills, chairman.

Last Thursday the graduating class from Junior High, next year's freshmen, came up to the High School for a visit. It looks as if there will be a whopping big freshman class judging by the way they filled up the freshman section. The Seminole High Glee Club entertained the student body with many songs. Harold Kastner sang "Shadrack" and Nolly Trapp sang a number accompanied by the mixed Glee Club. Both the boys' and the girls' Glee Clubs sang individual numbers besides those they sang together.

These were ordered for the library on the recommendation of different teachers so that the students may have a well-rounded reference library with books on a wide range of subjects. A third $500 will be spent on fiction books.

BROADWAY

By JACK O'BRIAN

NEW YORK. — Johnny Burke, the fellow who writes Bing's songs, and good ones, suddenly discovered a late urge for Chinese chow the other morning. So at four a.m. we hopped a cab and went downtown to 21 1/2 Mott Street, a favorite oriental beanyery of the Broadway gang when it tires of Lindy's cheese cake and Reuben's sandwiches.

The ride downtown included a brief tour of Greenwich Village, which is a rich nut's toss away from Chinatown, and we took a late look at the arch in Washington Square and the wandering couples in Greenwich Village, who never seem to go to sleep. They hang onto their bohemianism, unshuffled sleeping habits included.

Having cased the villagers in their native habitat, which included the all-night cafeteria where the characters without cash eat and then hang around until some well heeled friend arrives to pay the bill, a practice known as "sitting out your bail," we ordered the driver of our parish 1947 Muttshaw to take us to 21 1/2 Mott, where again we noted a late lesson in changing customs.

The late O. O. McIntyre seemed to have a special telescope attachment on his typewriter to turn out the romanticized journalistic musings which delighted his millions of readers. But his slinking orientals with dirks hanging out of sleeves weren't in sight the next morning. In fact, we couldn't find a single item of colorful Chinese garb. The most diverting habdashery we encountered in the several blocks of Chinatown we traversed was a small group of zoot-suited young lads apparently on their way home from a party.

The restaurant was quite satisfactory, gustatorily, but lacked the flavor of swishing oriental silks and strappy Chinese cooking rites. The food was served promptly and courteously by bright young Chinese lads dressed in what seemed to be better tailored versions of Pullman porters' jackets. After paying the check, which was made out with brisk mathematical efficiency in occidental detail by an energetic, intelligent fellow who might possibly be attending N.Y.U. evenings, we walked up the stairs from this "duncheon" and ascended a while before hailing a cab for home.

We apied a policeman and asked, "If he was there to protect visitors from possible tong war attack. He laughed out loud.

"Nope," he noped. "We're here to protect life and property. Most of these fellows are citizens, you know. They're afraid the tourists might ruin their property. Sight-seers think they got to act tough or be shoved around. They're reading too many old books. I guess, this section's pretty tame outside of the visitors."

COMMENTS from the SIDELINES

By ARTHUR BECKWITH, JR.

SPORTSMANSHIP

There was a definite lack of sportsmanship shown at the Municipal Park Sunday afternoon by some of the Leesburg Pirate players.

In the second frame leftfielder Doug Johnson came ploughing into Martin Zuba at the home plate like a fullback charging the line for a first down. Wow, we have never seen such poor sportsmanship displayed on any other baseball field.

It might have been different if Zuba had been blocking the plate so that Johnson had no alternative, but that was not the case. Johnson deliberately went out of his way to knock the Sanford catcher flat on his back behind the platter.

Another bit of unwarranted action on the part of the Pirates came when Desmond Salter was overcome by wrath and tossed his bat over the Leesburg dugout. The bat nearly entered the colored stands, and had it done so would likely have injured several spectators.

The Sanford Celery Feds may not have the best ball club in the Florida State League this year, but it can be said that the Lakemen are some of the best behaved players who have ever donned a Sanford uniform.

There is no baseball contest so valuable that the very lives of the spectators and the players are in danger as the result of players being overcome in fits of anger.

KERRY DAVIS

Kerry Davis, one of the best arbiters in the Florida State League is reported to have tendered his resignation as an umpire and has purchased his contract to accept another job in the girls All America League. It is too bad that Davis is leaving the league. He is one of the few good umpires that is in and we are sorry that he has decided not to stick with the Florida State League, but it is not fair to keep a good man down.

ON THE FISHING FRONT

It is reported that the big bass are biting at Blue Springs. One angler reported catching the limit in just a few minutes shortly after daylight Saturday morning.

Saturday afternoon the bass are reported to have been back at their churning activity making foam of the St. Johns from bank to bank in the Blue Springs area. WHALES VISIT NAPLES Two large whales are reported to have been in the Fort Myers area over the weekend. One of them was 63 feet long and the other about 45 feet in length. The lengths were determined in comparison to the lengths of several boats in the area in which they made their appearance.

Mel Sloan Resting Easily In Hospital

DELAND, May 27 (Special)—Mel Sloan, DeLand outfielder who was beamed with a wild pitch here Saturday night, is resting comfortably at St. Vincent's Hospital in Jacksonville. It is not believed that he has a skull fracture, but he will be held for additional observation. It is reported that he will have to undergo an operation on his jaw, but doctors believe that he will be back in action within a comparatively short while. Fans donated $180.75 in a collection Saturday night, and a $170.75 fund was deposited to his credit at the Barrett Bank this morning. In all collections over $100 the sum of $10 is taken from the pot for division among the players at the end of the season.

There was 63 feet long and the other about 45 feet in length. The lengths were determined in comparison to the lengths of several boats in the area in which they made their appearance.

Three Strikes Out, So Kid Misses Chance

NEW YORK (AP)—Coach Fred Hofmann of the St. Louis Browns had 38 kids in a baseball tryout class and there was a big boy of 17 at the plate. Hofmann wanted to see him hit. The lad took three swings, dropped the bat and walked away from the plate. "What's the matter, sonny?" said Hofmann. "Well, aren't three strikes out?" answered the boy. "I had three swings." "After that we didn't want to see him hit," said Hofmann. "A between batting practice and a regular game, a boy should show the difference."

St. Lawrence Canal Backed By Marshall

State Secretary Says Andrew May Regarded by Him As "Man Of Integrity"

WASHINGTON, May 28, (AP)—Secretary of State Marshall testified today that completion of the St. Lawrence Seaway would aid immeasurably in U. S.-Canadian defense of the North American Continent.

Marshall appeared with former President Herbert Hoover and others before a Senate Foreign Relations subcommittee considering new legislation providing for the authorization of the half-billion dollar international development.

Marshall said four advantages of the project would:

1. Enable us to build ocean-going war vessels in the relative security of inland waters;
2. Create a vital new line to the industrial heart of the United States and Canada;
3. Create a tremendous source of electric power in an area that is comparable to that generated by TVA, and in the Columbia and Colorado River systems;
4. Provide this nation with overall economic advantages.

Marshall approving the idea of tolls to make the seaway self-liquidating, said: "This is a time of financial retrenchment. Therefore it seems good reasoning to itself as self-liquidating."

Meanwhile, Secretary Marshall testified today that the Army was making "very heavy cutbacks" in ammunition orders in 1945, the year the government charges congressman Andrew J. May.

15 Cent Pay Hike Offered By Ford To CIO Workers

DETROIT, May 28, (AP)—The CIO United Auto Workers today rejected an offer by the Ford Motor Co. for a 15 cent increase for 130,000 production workers.

DETROIT, May 28 (AP)—The Ford Motor Company today offered 130,000 CIO production workers the equivalent of a 15 cent an hour wage increase and simultaneously boosted 20,000 salaried employees 10 percent. The boost in salaries was limited to those making less than $1,000 monthly and becomes effective June 1, the company said.

The offer was worded in such a way as to exclude 3,800 striking foremen as long as they were not covered by a contract.

The proposal to the CIO United Auto Workers, which has threatened strike action after three weeks of negotiations, was conditioned on their acceptance of their old contract virtually intact except for wage issues.

It provided an 11 and a half cent hourly wage boost plus six paid annual holidays, identical with the pattern established in settlements with General Motors Corp. and Chrysler Corp.

There was no immediate union comment.

Acceptance by the UAW-CIO of the proposed increase would boost the average Ford production wage to $1.80 and a half an hour compared to $1.43 and a half at General Motors and $1.44 at Chrysler.

Gas Company Moves To New Location

The Atlantic City Gas Company will move its sales department and office Thursday from its present location on Park Avenue to the new building at 106 Palm Street Avenue, it was announced today by John W. Schroeder, Jr., district representative.

The one story building is modern and attractive and was erected by Manuel Jacobson. The new headquarters affords more room for display of the various refrigerators and other products handled by the company. During war years it was necessary to discontinue the sales department, but merchandise has begun to flow again, said Mr. Schroeder, and therefore it has been renewed.

This week a new gas plant is being started in Deland to serve that city and also the Orange City district which were previously served by the Sanford plant. This, said Mr. Schroeder, will allow the local plant to service local needs exclusively. Materials and man-power are becoming more plentiful, he said, and this will aid in greatly improving service, he declared.

Agriculture Department Gives Story On Destroying Potatoes

WASHINGTON, May 28, (AP)—Millions of people starve abroad but here the government destroys carloads of potatoes. Why? Just too many potatoes. Many of them, for various reasons, can't be shipped abroad. Why, too many potatoes?

That's the story: During the war Congress passed a law telling the Agriculture Department to encourage farmers to grow potatoes. It was clear that, if they grew too many, the price would go down. Better too many than not enough. So, to keep potato prices up and save the farmers from losses, Congress told the government to buy up surplus potatoes.

The real trouble with this plan started when the war ended and the Army, for one, began canceling its potato orders. To save the farmers, the government stepped in and bought up the surplus potatoes. It got rid of them in several ways. Some went to relief abroad, some to alcohol plants, some as livestock feed, and some were sold abroad.

That was in 1945. All in all, the government lost $16,000,000 that year on its potato deal. Every year since 1945, the government has lost more on its potato deal. In 1946, the government asked farmers that year to cut down on potato growing. They did, by 100,000 acres.

But 1946 was an unusually good year for potatoes and, in spite of the cut in acreage, the crop was a record. Once more the government stepped in. It bought up 87,000,000 surplus bushels of potatoes and, in the end, lost about $80,000,000 on the deal.

It got rid of 65,000,000 surplus bushels this way:

At very low prices it sold some to alcohol plants and starch manufacturers. Some went to livestock feed. More went to the government's school lunch program. And about 10,000,000 bushels, a lot of them as seed, went abroad to Germany, Italy, China, Korea, and other countries.

After all that, the government still had 22,000,000 of the 87,000,000 surplus bushels on its hands. It destroyed them. Why couldn't those 22,000,000 bushels have been shipped abroad to starving people?

The Agriculture Department explains it this way: Flour, which can be bought for 5 to 6 cents a pound, is far cheaper than potatoes to ship abroad. The cost is about 18 cents a pound to dehydrate potatoes, which are 35 percent water, so they can be shipped by air shipping way. So, the Agriculture Department says, UNRRA, which was sending relief (Continued on Page Six)

Bill Proposed For Licensing Bookmakers

Lake County Representative Says Tax And Fees To Raise $3,000,000 A Year

TALLAHASSEE, May 28, (AP)—The Senate passed SB633 by Senate floor vote yesterday and the House today to license bookmakers for the Spring and Fall terms for the Ninth Judicial Circuit in the counties of Brevard and Seminole.

TALLAHASSEE, May 28, (AP)—A proposal to call a constitutional convention to revise the Florida Constitution and submit it to the voters was soundly defeated in the state Senate today. The vote downing the resolution by Senators King of Winter Haven, Haynard of Sanford, Petersburg and Boyle of Sanford was 23-12.

TALLAHASSEE, May 28, (AP)—Licensing and taxing of poolmakers and bookmakers was proposed today in a bill by Rep. Helbock of Lake County.

He estimated the measure would bring in between $2,500,000 and $3,000,000 annually. Under the bill, bookmakers and poolmakers would pay $1,000 annual license fee to the counties in which they were located and would turn over 12 percent of their total intake to the state general revenue fund.

A bill to abolish the Everglades Drainage District board of control was also introduced.

Truman Firms Departure Plans As Mother Gains

GRANDVIEW, Mo., May 28, (AP)—President Truman's departure for Washington appeared imminent tonight following what White House aides called "an almost miraculous" comeback by his ailing mother.

Bringing an unexpected twist to the news in Mrs. Martha Lee Truman's condition, plans are going forward for a flight back to the White House before the weekend.

The 64-year-old patient's temperature was normal, "her respiration, excellent and her pulse, good," said a bulletin from Brig. Gen. Walter H. Graham, the White House physician.

Her condition, the aftermath of complications developing from an activity as a result of a lung infection suffered in mid-February, reached a low point last Saturday night. Since then there has been steady improvement, interrupted only by a "bad night" Monday, ascribed to a chill from which she rallied quickly.

The President plans to return to Grandview next week to check up on his mother's condition again when he keeps a long standard engagement to address the annual reunion of the 35th Division, with which he served in World War I. The reunion is scheduled for June 6.

The delegates voted 2,357,000 to 1,097,000 for a resolution of a composite resolution calling for a "review of our military commitments and the distribution and organization of the armed forces, in order that they may be reduced considerably below the government's target for March, 1948."

The government also won a victory on its proposals for economic planning and manpower distribution for coping with the country's current economic crisis.

Resolutions supported by the party's national executive were given almost unanimous approval, while others disapproved by the executive were defeated or withdrawn.

Bank Cashier Is Abducted During Robbery Attempt

Kidnapers Bind Aged Mother Of Victim At Point Of Gun

TRACY CITY, Tenn., May 28, (AP)—A local bank cashier was kidnaped from his home and tied in his own automobile and his aged mother was bound in the attempted robbery of the First National Bank here early today.

Alvin Henderson, the cashier, told officers he was tied up in his automobile about seven miles from here on the Sequatchie Valley Road but escaped unhurt after his abductors fled.

County Sheriff D. E. Cannon launched a search for two or more men reported involved in the abduction after Henderson's mother, Mrs. Ida Henderson, 70, said her son was taken from their home four blocks from the bank about 1 A. M. She said a man carrying a pistol tied her with strips of sheet ripped from a bed.

The sheriff told this story: One of the men knocked on the Henderson door and when Henderson answered the man pointed a 45 caliber automatic pistol in his ribs and demanded: "Keep quiet or I'll blast you." The kidnaper forced her son to drive to the bank in his own car.

On entering the bank the man said he wanted the man, pointed a Tennessee Consolidated Union, a firm which employs 500 persons here, the sheriff said. The payroll was estimated at about $40,000. Henderson explained he was an (Continued on Page Six)

General States Reds Seek Korea As "Satellite"

WASHINGTON, May 28, (AP)—The State Department today issued an investigation of the Texas City disaster, April 16, showed ignorance and violations of safety regulations governing the handling of "dangerous" cargoes.

A death-dealing chain of explosions which killed and injured hundreds was set off when a shipment of ammonium nitrate blew up while it was being loaded on the Texas City Grandchamper.

The Coast Guard said its inquiry did not disclose a specific cause of the blast but:

1. "Hardly without exception," as those involved in handling the cargo displayed lack of knowledge of safety laws.

2. There was smoking aboard the vessel, during loading operations, despite a "no smoking" rule.

3. Although ammonium nitrate is officially classed as "dangerous," regulations do not give instructions on loading it.

4. The vessel did not receive as required by regulations, an advance written notice that a dangerous cargo would be shipped.

The Coast Guard said samples of nitrate similar to the shipment had not blown up when tested with bullets, metal, but it urged further study to determine "hazards" of the substance.

Red Veto Proposal On Atomic Power Hit

LAKE SUCCESS, May 28, (AP)—British and Canadian representatives told delegates to the United Nations Atomic Energy Commission today that they still stood against any veto on a number of nations or individuals for atomic crimes.

The veto question became an issue again as the working committee of the atomic commission discussed a Russian proposal that atomic control organs must come under the framework of the Security Council.

Sir Charles Darwin, Britain, declared there must be no legal escape for a violator of an atomic pact. His statement supported the U. S. opposition to any veto on any atomic matters.

Expert Says Letter Forged In Steel Case

WASHINGTON, May 28, (AP)—Two handwriting experts, one an FBI agent, testified today that a letter purportedly offering delivery of 248,000 tons of steel to a Pittsburgh broker was forged.

The letter is the key to a $50,000,000 "gray market" steel transaction under investigation by a Senate subcommittee.

It bore the name of A. R. Zapp, an employee of the Frith-Horling Steel and Carbide Corp. of McKeesport, Pa., and purportedly promised delivery of the steel to E. A. Kerachbaumer, Pittsburgh steel broker.
