(By The Associated Press)
LONDON, Nov. 8.—Berlin correspondent of the Exchange Telegraph forwards telegram from Munich which says that Bavarian irregulars have decided to march on Berlin tomorrow.

BERLIN, Nov. 8.—The Bavarians did not march on Berlin today, although rumors had it that this was the day fixed for such an advance. There was no sign, however, of Captain Ehrhardt's followers moving from their present quarters.

"Certainly not war against the Reich. We do not want separation; we are and remain Germans. What we wish is to help the fatherland from the misfortune into which it has sunk deeper and deeper under the influence of the social democrats during the last five years.

"It is now a question of making an end of the so-called achievements of the revolution, and restoring order and work to their proper places.
In foreign affairs the Reich needs more manliness, pride and self-consciousness."

The minister, Dr. Von Preger, was convinced that an amicable arrangement would be reached with Berlin and that the present difficulties with the central government would be solved.

Chancellor Strossemann is still consulting the party leaders, but there is no sign of the appointment of new ministers. The government seems more pre-occupied with the chaotic financial conditions but is nonplussed as to what to do.

The arbitrary attempt to fix the dollar rate at 420,000,000 marks collapsed today after being maintained for nearly a week, and the rate was increased by 50 per cent, which is still five or six times behind the rates quoted abroad. With the object of arresting the growing practice of refusing to accept paper marks as currency, the government has issued a decree prohibiting German firms from refusing paper as payment for goods supplied or work done; heavy penalties are threatened for any infringement.

THANKSGIVING PROCLAMATION

BY PRESIDENT COOLIDGE

WASHINGTON, Nov. 7.—President Coolidge's Thanksgiving day proclamation issued Tuesday from the White House, calls to mind that the year has brought to the American people two tragic experiences—the death of President Harding and the Japanese earthquake—but says that such experience serves to test and refine men and nations.

"During the year also," the proclamation says, "the year has been blessed with much material prosperity."
The president asked that the people gather in their homes and places of worship on Thursday, November 29, to give expression to their gratitude and "seek the guidance of Almighty God that they may deserve a continuance of His favor."

The proclamation follows: By the President of the United States of America:

A Proclamation:
The American people, from their earliest days, have observed the wise system of acknowledging each year the bounty with which Divine Providence has favored them. In the beginning this acknowledgment was a voluntary return of thanks by the community for the fruitfulness of the harvest. Though our mode of life has greatly changed, this custom has always survived. It has made Thanksgiving Day not only one of the oldest, but one of the most characteristic observances of our country.
On that day, in home and in church,

ALLIED COUNCIL REQUESTS DUTCH NOT TO ALLOW FORMER PRINCE TO LEAVE

CROWN PRINCE FREDERICK WILHAM MUST STAY IN HOLLAND

OR BE ARRESTED

Official Silence As To Conversations Between Hughes and Jusserand

(By The Associated Press) PARIS, Nov. 8.—Allied council of ambassadors decided today to request the Dutch government not to allow former Crown Prince Frederick William to leave Dutch territory, where he has been in exile since the war and also to ask the German government not to allow him to enter Germany as he is on the list of persons charged with war crimes whose arrest is sought by allied governments.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 8.—Absolute official silence as to the nature of continued conversations today between Secretary Hughes and Ambasador Jusserand blocked every effort to obtain information as to whether progress had been made toward an agreement on the scope of the proposed expert inquiry into Germany's economic situation, as it affects the reparations problem.

It was said officially, however, that the conversations were continuing.
This statement was regarded in some quarters as significant inasmuch as it indicated that no insurmountable obstacle to reconciling the American and French viewpoints had as yet developed.

The ambassador said before the secretary detailed explanations from Paris as to the French point of view.
The only word obtainable from the department when he left the state department after a half hour conference with Mr. Hughes was this statement:
"We continued the conversations

KLANSMEN WILL GATHER YOUNGSTOWN

To Celebrate Election of Ku Klux Klan
Mayor

(By The Associated Press)
BASTROP, La., Nov. 8.—Judge Odom overruled motion of defense in Morehouse misdemeanor trials that he disqualified himself. The defense immediately gave notice it would apply to the supreme court for writs of prohibition and certiorari. The defense had charged the court was biased and prejudiced.
Judge Odom later fined Captain J. K. Skipworth, exalted cyclops of the Morehouse Klan, W. G. McIntosh, Benton Pratt and Marvin Pickett ten dollars and costs. They were found guilty Monday of carrying firearms on premises of another. The court then adjourned indefinitely so far as misdemeanor cases were concerned.

YOUNGSTOWN, Ohio, Nov. 8.—

000 from Ohio, Pennsylvania and West Virginia will gather here Saturday to celebrate the biggest victory won by the Klan north of Mason and Dixon since Colonel A. E. Watkins, tory is the election of Charles S.

Scheible as mayor. In the meantime present mayor says no parade can be held.

H. A. Neel and J. M. Dawson are spending the day in Orlando on business and also taking a peek at the Rodeo of Rough Riders as Mr. Neel was at one time a broncho buster and celebrated rider in Colorado and other western states in the early days.
He had a record for throwing a bull and looping it in the shortest time and still throws bull but not with a lariat.

turning from Birmingham today reserved a statement challenging imperial Wizard Evans to come out in the nection with shooting of Captain W.

S. Coburn by Phil E. Fox, Klan publicizing agent Monday. Dr. Fred E.
Johnston who swore out peace warrants against Evans and other Klan-men and then left for Birmingham

WALTON FAILS TO GET FEDERAL INTERVENTION

His Lawyers Prepare To Go Forward With Trial

(By The Associated Press)
OKLAHOMA CITY, Nov. 8.—Governor J. C. Walton lost yesterday in his effort to obtain federal intervention to stop his impeachment trial, and his attorneys last night were preparing to go forward with the trial today before the state senate court of impeachment.

Judge John H. Cotteral, in the United States district court at Lawton denied the executive's application for a restraining order against the prosecution of the impeachment charges.
The judge gave lack of jurisdiction as his reason. He granted a rehearing, however, upon application of counsel for the governor, for which he will set a date later.

Simultaneously with the hearing at Lawton, Gov. Walton, through counsel, appeared before the court of impeachment here and entered a plea of not guilty to each of the twenty-two charges in the bill. He made a detailed answer to five of the charges.
The answers to remaining charges will be heard today and the trial is to start at 1:30 p. m.

The action of Judge Cotteral is believed to have removed all possibility of a delay in the trial.
The court declined to consider a motion by George Short, state attorney general, to dismiss Gov. Walton's bill of complaint, and argument was heard directly on the bill.
Governor Walton sought a writ by which witnesses would be summoned for a hearing on charges that he will not be tried fairly by the senate court of impeachment, and that the impeachment charges are the result of a Ku Klux Klan conspiracy participated in by the state legislature. He also asked a restrain-ing order if testimony adduced at the hearing provided a basis.

H. B. Martin of counsel for the governor, referred to the "sinister influence of the Ku Klux Klan," and charged that the organization is preventing the executive from having an impartial trial in violation of the fourteenth amendment to the United States Constitution.

Counsel opposing the executive's action based their argument on the alleged lack of jurisdiction, declaring that the impeachment case is "now before the highest judicial tribunal of the state," and that no other court is empowered to intervene.

QUESTION OF RUM SHIPS IN THREE MILE LIMIT IS UP

FORMED TREATY

Will Give United States Authority For Search and Seizure

(By The Associated Press)
LONDON, Nov. 8.—Rum running by British vessels within range of the American shores, which has been so provocative of American resentment against Great Britain received a death blow from the Imperial conference yesterday. In its closing session the conference accepted in modified form the original proposals of Secretary of State Hughes for checking this traffic.

The question now is out of the hands of the Imperial conference delegates and a formal treaty vesting the United States with authority for the search and seizure of British ships suspected of carrying contraband alcohol within stipulated steaming distance of the American shores is nearing completion at the hands of foreign office legal experts.

A complete understanding has been reached between the State Department at Washington and the British foreign office regarding the main clauses of the document and there appears to be no serious obstacle to its early acceptance by both governments.

The treaty will confer reciprocal rights on Great Britain in the shape of granting authority to its ocean passenger liners to bring legitimate liquor stores into American ports under seal, when intended for outbound consumption.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 8.—Lacking official advances, as to the action taken by the Imperial conference, administration officials could throw no additional light today on the specific terms of the proposed liquor treaty with Great Britain.

"Jersey lettuce looks very bad at present, worse than when you were here."
Los Angeles, Calif., Nov. 3, 1923.
"Lettuce crop northern California considerably heavier than last year. They are shipping now twenty cars daily. This will decrease two weeks. Los Angeles has usual amount acreage with better fall crop they have had for some time, shipments past week six to twelve cars daily, will increase to sixty, seventy-five cars daily by twentieth November. Imperial Valley has large acreage but poor stand, weather crickets, grasshoppers destroying portion crop, however will be plenty; lettuce shipments should start from Imperial December fifteenth to twentieth. Our opinion will be too much lettuce to bring reasonable price. Northern California celery reports usual acreage, quality good but little later common acreage around Los Angeles larger than last year but quality very poor on account dry weather. Rain may bring it out. Certainly want exchange view with you one week during entire season."
New York, November 3, 1923.
"Freeze last night has not effected the acreage or quantity of Jersey lettuce will however mean inferior quality most stock badly burnt had fair crop but not as large as last year will expect to continue shipping up until December first one of large receivers her received four cars daily for same period last year receiving only two cars daily this year will receive one car next week and diminishing receipts until December first."

FOR CONSTIPATION
Black-Draught Recommended by an Arkansas Farmer Who Has Used It, When Needed, for 25 Years.
Halfield, Ark.—Mr. G. W. Parsons, a well-known farmer on Route 1, this place, says: "I keep Black-Draught in my home all the time. It is the best all-around medicine I have ever found for the liver and for constipation. We began using it 25 or more years ago and have used it whenever needed since. I have never found any other medicine as good for constipation, and that was what I suffered with till I began using Black-Draught. Black-Draught corrected this condition, and now we use it for the liver and for indigestion—a tight and sluggish feeling after meals, for bad taste in the mouth and sour stomach.
"My wife uses it for headache and biliousness. It sets on our shelf and we don't let it get out. It has been a great help to us. I believe a great deal of sickness is caused by hurried eating and constipation, and Black-Draught, if taken right, will correct this condition."

If the picture in the papers of Mrs. Stokes in pajamas is a true picture of the lady we see no reason for her husband to be jealous of her or to be seeking a divorce.

"Ten Nights in a Barroom" will be at one of the local theaters tonight says announcements in the Herald. And here we were thinking those days and nights were gone forever. This is probably why the Anti-Saloon League continues to function.

Orlando is now advocating the use of a "courtesy card" for the people who are visiting that city that will enable them to park their car for longer than an hour especially if they are trading at the stores. This parking question is a big one but Sanford has solved it by allowing the cars to park as long as they wish.

Another severe earthquake has shaken up parts of California and again the famous Imperial Valley has been rocked by the vibrations of the earth that seem to have their force and might in the middle of the Pacific ocean and extend to the shores of California. For the sake of the good folks in the Imperial Valley we wish they would cease the shock stuff.

Just to show you what winter visitors do for a city like the new Albertson Library opening in Orlando today was not only endowed by many winter visitors but one man gave $75,000 worth of books to the library just as a starter. The time is ripe for Sanford to make special efforts to get tourists here. They do more than their share of helping the city of their choice.

A local law applying to Seminole come on up, and he will likely do it." county, prescribes that only one deer and two wild turkeys can be legally killed in one season. It should have gone farther and prohibited the killing of does or fawns. It does prohibit the hunting of deer with dogs, however, which is a good law, and ought to apply to the entire state. If the limit was placed at one buck per season for each hunter and the use of dogs and the scatter gun outlawed all over the state, Florida would soon have an abundance of deer. A sportsman, who cannot get his deer without the aid of a pack of hounds and a shotgun, should stay out of the woods and give the little creatures a sportsman's chance to live. The time will come when the use of shotguns and dogs will be prohibited throughout the state.—Eustis Lake Region.

The Tallahassee Weekly Dispatch has appeared at the state capital and the editor, giving his "Reasons" for the undertaking, says that he was obliged to do something different in order to make a living. Immediately afterwards he gratuitously insults the Florida press by declaring that it was necessary for him to get into print that the truth be told in Florida. The Dispatch, contrary to the suggestion of the name, has little recent news and is quite evidently just what it admits incidentally—a campaign sheet for the candidacy of Sidney J. Catts. A sample of the value and reliability of the political news carried in the Dispatch is an undated story from Milton which is presumed to report meetings in Milton "this afternoon," and over which the editor has written in headline, "Large Crowds Hear Catts Everywhere." As Catts has not been "everywhere" and it is certain that in several places the audiences could not properly be so classed, the spasm of virtue which the editor claims to have caused his plunge into journalism doesn't appear to be chronic.—Times Union.

LICENSING AUTO DRIVERS.

It has long been a question of who should drive autos on the crowded streets of the city and also on the quiet country roads. Some older heads might have the age but not the experience and some reckless drivers seemingly have no accidents while the careful ones slip up and tear a car all to pieces. It has been illegal for youngsters to drive cars for many years and yet there are times when the youngster of the family may be obliged to drive a car and there are some mighty good drivers among the young men and young girls of this country. The Times Union says: "The ordinance requiring the licensing of automobile drivers will do more or less good, the more or less depending on how it is enforced. It will reduce the number of persons under sixteen years of age driving cars. It will not stop them from driving for it is already against the law for them to drive, but nevertheless they continue to do so. If they will violate one law they will violate another, but if they were punished severely for violating it they would cease. Still we believe that we will see fewer children driving automobiles and this will be a gain. "Another gain will be made in the reduction of the number of incompetents driving. These will be weeded out by the examination and the result will be a decrease in accidents. The streets will be a little bit safer. "But most accidents are not the result of incompetence but of recklessness and the reckless driver will be as able to stand an examination as the careful one. The mere matter of licensing will not affect careless and reckless driving at all. "But permits may be revoked for infractions of the law or for other specified reasons. The municipal judge may recommend the revocation or the suspension of license to drive. "If the authorities are reluctant to suspend or revoke licenses very little will be done to insuring safety. If they consider the driver instead of the people they will suspend many and revoke a number of them. "When a man is habitually careless or is a habitual speeder he should not be permitted to drive a car. By driving one he is a menace to the community. The municipal judge will very quickly be able to learn who should and who should not drive. If a man is up before him for speeding or for reckless driving he should be punished as the law directs. If he is up a second time his license to drive should be suspended and if he is up frequently it should be revoked. "We hope the enforcement of this law will result in a greater degree of security for the people of Jacksonville. The matter is in the hands of the officers who enforce the law and they should enforce it without fear of favor. All men are supposed to be equal before the law and if they are not it is the fault of those whose duty it is to enforce the law. Justice is represented as blind and should not see any difference between individuals."

GOOD AND BAD ROADS.

We people in south Florida have been spoiled by good roads and when we leave our bailiwick we cannot help but miss the good roads and knock the bad roads of other parts of the state. The editor of the Herald went to Gainesville last week, and we want to say that the roads between Leesburg and Ocala and from Ocala almost to Gainesville are not good. There are two or three detours that are absolutely rotten and one of them over a big fill is one of the worst in the country. They are making roads up there but it has taken them several years to surface some of the fills and it looks like they never get them finished. Parts of the roads where they have finally surfaced them are good and other parts are passably fair, but as far as good roads are concerned there are very few of them after you leave Leesburg going north. But others see them in a different light as witness the following from the Lakeland Star Telegram: "One of the main reasons why more Lakeland Rotarians did not attend the Al-Florida Rotary Day program at Gainesville last Saturday was the reported bad condition of the detours on State Road No. 2, the direct route from Auburndale north. There we have an instance of how road conditions affect business either favorably or adversely. The reports brought back home by those who did make the trip, are to the effect that the route, as a whole, is not at all difficult and that within a few months it will be one magnificent stretch all the way from the Lake county line to Ocala and Gainesville. "In this connection a recent editorial, written by Guy Ruhl in his Frost-proof News, is quite to the point in whistling brakes in the common practice into which most of us have fallen of saying harsh things about our highways. We have no right to do so because we have been stingy in the construction of a real system of State highways so that whatever the conditions may be, those conditions are largely our fault, barring, of course such local failures as are in evidence on the stretch between Lakeland and Auburndale." This is what the News says: "It seems that it comes natural for the people of North Florida to knock their own roads and in so doing are hurting themselves unnecessarily, for in reality their roads are getting to be in fine shape. "Last week we turned out the office cat and stole a few days away from the grind and visited Pa and Ma Ruhl up in Alachua county at Micanopy. And all the way up as we inquired about the condition of the roads we were almost discouraged into turning back, for we received the most damaging information concerning them, and were told time after time, even in North Florida that the roads were almost impassable. 'Well, you may get through, and you may not,' was the cry that greeted us at every filling station, and we were disappointed and brought back home with us the five dollar bill we had taken along to pay some man and mule to pull us out of those awful roads. We found the roads in excellent shape all the way to Gainesville, and with the exception of a few miles where we had to detour around road construction crews, the roads were like velvet, and it is a wonder we did not have to give our five to some speed cop instead of the man with the mule. We admit we went a little over thirty on some of those roads for the temptation was too great to mosey along at that snail speed, when those fine highways seemed to say, 'come now, brother, you're losing time.' Most of those higher up were State roads and we'll say they were roads. Quit knocking your roads North Florida, and begin boosting them, for you are keeping many a South Florida man from visiting you for fear of the reputation your roads have. We live in the heart of a country with over three hundred miles of paved highways, and when your roads suit those who are used to good roads, they must not be so bad. Boost your road and invite your brother from the south to tious and more charitable attitude. It sobered the whole thought of the country. A little later came the unparalleled disaster to the friendly people of Japan. This called forth from the people of the United States a demonstration of deep and humane feeling. It was wrought into the substance of good works. It created new evidences of our international friendship, which is a guarantee of world peace. It replenished the charitable impulse of the country.

By experiences such as these men and nations are tested and refined. We have been blessed with much or material prosperity. We shall be better able to appreciate it if we remember the privations others have suffered, and we shall be the more worthy of it if we use it for their relief. We will do well, then, to render thanks for the good that has come to us and show by our actions that we have become stronger, wiser and truer by the chastenings which have been imposed upon us. We will thus prepare ourselves for the part we must take in a world which forever needs the full measure of service. We have been a most favored people. We ought to be a most generous people.

We have been a most blessed people, we ought to be a most thankful people.
Wherefore, I, Calvin Coolidge, president of the United States, do hereby fix and designate Thursday, the 29th day of November, as Thanksgiving Day, and recommend its general observance throughout the land. It is urged that the people gather in their home and their usual places of worship, give expression to their gratitude for the benefits and blessings that a gracious Providence has bestowed upon them, and seek the guidance of Almighty God that they may deserve a continuance of His favor.

In witness whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the United States. Done at the City of Washington this 5th day of November, in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and twenty-three; and of the independence of the United States, the one-hundred and forty-eighth.
CALVIN COOLIDGE.

Health is Wealth

Health is one of the greatest things your family can possess. It brings happiness and success. But health must be safe-guarded by good wholesome foods that are prepared from the purest ingredients. This is especially true of bakings. If they are not properly raised, we all know that they are not easily digested. Many times when self-rising flour is used in place of good plain flour and dependable baking powder—the results are flat, soggy and heavy foods.

Don't take chances! Use a reliable brand of baking powder and plain flour. Then you will be sure of healthful bakings that are easily digested.

Remember, science has never found anything to take the place of the tried and tested method of using plain flour and good baking powder in preparing bakings. Millions of housewives now know by actual experience that many preparations that are claimed to take their place are worthless and dangerous to health. There is no comparison.

Calumet, the Economy Baking Powder, is known to be one sure and positive aid to successful bakings that are always pure, sweet and wholesome.

That's the reason its sales are 2 1/2 times as much as any other brand.

HARVARD GETS SET FOR GAME AGAINST PRINCETON TIGERS

NEW YORK, Nov. 8.—Harvard gridiron warriors held today their last hard scrimmage before the Princeton game Saturday—the first of the big three contests—as they leave early Thursday for Tigertown to get their last light workout on Ohio Field and become acquainted with locale.

At Princeton the varsity scored three times yesterday in a short workout against the Omelettes, using Harvard formations, and the scrubs were unable to gain much.

Yale, more confident since its victory over the Army, will have only one hard scrimmage this week in preparation for Maryland Saturday. The Cadets at West Point went onto the field—the first time since the Yale debacle and had a secret session with their drill master. The Cadets play Arkansas Aggies Saturday.

"TEN NIGHTS IN A BARROOM" AT MILANE TODAY

Movie fans and those who are fond of the classics of the American stage are in for a treat when the famous old melodrama, "Ten Nights in a Barroom," at the Milane theater today. This famous old play has been made into a super special. The story of "Ten Nights in a Barroom" is familiar to almost everyone, as it enjoyed great success both as a novel and play. It has been on the boards for over sixty years and is said to have played in every city and town in the country.

Therefore, it is not surprising that the always enterprising movie producers found in it splendid material for a most unusual feature. L. Case Russell, who wrote the scenario, has followed the story faithfully, only making such changes in the original story as the dictates of the screen required. Of course the wide range of the photoplay permits of a much more elaborate version than the stage could give. Such scenes as the log jam in a raging current, culminating in a thrilling climax in the rapids and the burning of the Inn are only possible since the advent of motion pictures. Even the most elaborate stage presentation could not hope to touch them for realism. Scenes such as these take months to make and cost a small fortune.

All of the old favorites are there, Joe Morgan, Simon Slade, Little Mary, Harvey Green, Willie Hammond and all the rest. And an excellent cast brings them to life with all their joys and sorrows. John Lowell plays Joe Morgan, while Baby Ivy Ward is Little Mary. Others are Nell Clark Keller, Charles Mackay, James Phillips, Ethel Dwyer, Charles Beyer, Kempton Green, Lillian Kembell, Robert Hamilton and many others.

Are Getting In Good Shape For Game With Miami

The local High school football team held another good practice yesterday in preparation for their hardest game of the season Monday with Miami. Two teams were out and Coach Wilkinson succeeded in putting the crews through a stiff practice which is certainly needed. The game with Palatka gave the Coach several pointers on weaknesses in the locals line, which he is now remedying.

Many local fans are in the opinion that Sanford High will trim the Miami boys with something like a two touchdown to nothing score. While this is possible, the locals will have to be going strong as Miami has a great team this year. Though beaten badly by Duval last week the Miami boys are not discouraged in the least and will come to Sanford with the solid determination to take home the scalps of the Celery-Feds though the Celery-Feds themselves expect to keep here at home the skins of the Heyl-Cats.

Will Meet Winter Park Quintet Here Tomorrow Night

Miss Ruth Gilon, coach of Sanford High's girls' basketball team will match her quintet tomorrow night for the first time this season with the Winter Park High's team. Assisted by the leadership of Miss Maud Carraway, captain of the girls team, Miss Gilon has turned out a team that is capable of meeting Florida's best. Practically all of last year's team is back this year and now with a more experienced team they face bright prospects this year.

Tomorrow night's game with the Winter Park girls' promises to be a first rate basketball game as Winter Park is rumored to have a cracker-jack team this year. But local fans are certain that the locals can beat them by an overwhelming score. Remember, tomorrow night in the Parish House, Sanford High versus Winter Park, admission 25c and 35c. Friday night at 8 o'clock.

"They are broadcasting" football. Golfers listening in may think the gridiron is a club.

Jack Dempsey, according to reports, has refused to play the winners of the world series.

You know how much your home cost you, yet fire may destroy the house before you move in. If that happened would you lose the home and its money value too? It is wise to protect your investment from the very start—protect it with insurance in the Federal Insurance Company.

Here are the New Remington Game Loads

THE next time you go out hunting, stop at your dealer's and ask him for a box of Remington Game Loads for the particular kind of game you are after.

The name of the game is right on the box.

You'll note that the weight of the powder is not marked on the box.

It isn't shown because Remington Game Loads are not loaded to specified weight.

The box of shells you get is loaded to give a uniform velocity, pattern and penetration.

Remington tests showed that powder varies batch by batch—even the same kind and weight. A given weight of the same kind of powder doesn't always give the same results. So in Game Loads Remington adjusts the amount of powder to give exactly the right shooting quality for the specific game. Powder varies—Remington Game Loads do not.

Take just one box of Remington Game Loads out and use them. Notice how they shoot in your gun.

And remember this: If you go back to the store next week or next month—or go to any store in a different town—and get another box of the same kind of Remington Game Load, the shells will perform exactly the same.
