HERRIN, Ill., Sept. 3.— A squad of armed men stood at the city and others patrolled the area to prevent an outbreak between the Klan and factions, rival whom clash last Saturday took a toll of six lives, to give testimony at a inquest into the shooting. Guardsmen's orders were to allow men entering the court house.

A deputation from the Association of Wilson County appeared before the board at Marion, and asked for an order in obtaining the release of Sheriff George Galligan. The board will meet next week and the committee will report.

Duty, state's attorney, was denounced by the associated ministers, who in a signed statement, declared that he, as the sheriff largely was responsible for the present troublesome condition of Williamson county.

The committee told Chairman of Galigan would not return until he had secured to depose him.

Galigan referred to the "Klan propaganda" and the ministers of being the cause of his "after" him was a bitter opponent.

Ministers readily admitted they were members of the Klan.

E. B. Green, pastor of the Episcopal church, and chairman of the publicity committee of the order league of Williamson county, gave out a copy of a letter he said exposed the

PEOPLE OF NORTH
TALKING FLORIDA
DECLARES SPEER

Vivian Speer Declares Merchants and Textile Men in New York Investing Their Money in Florida Property

Having just returned from a business trip to New York and other northern points, by water from Jacksonville, Vivian Speer reports that northern people are all strong for Florida. Wherever you meet them, he said, they inquire about Florida.

In connection with prominent clothing and textile manufacturers of New York Mr. Speer learned that nearly all of them have invested in Florida property and are anxious to invest more money in the "Land of Flowers". These men, he believes, have opinions practically the same as the average prosperous New Yorker.

"Everywhere you go you hear Florida discussed," declared Mr.
Speer. "Only once on the whole trip did I hear anyone squawk about the state. One fellow on the Mohawk, going up, was continually fussing about insect bites he received while he was in this state.
All of the other passengers who saw this about Florida seem of very well pleased with the state.
The fellow who made so much fuss that finally some one asked him where he was from. He replied, 'New Jersey.' You can bet the passengers gave him the razz the rest of the trip for New Jersey is not as good as Florida."

Mr. Speer declared that the merchants were well pleased with the business outlook for the coming fall and predict a good season. The price of wheat and other grain at present seem to have a lot to do with the situation, he said.

All of those men asked about Florida and many of them expressed intention of coming to this state during the coming winter. Mr.
Speer said. He states that he asks

Herald Campaign Holds Interest Of
Many Contestants

Interest in the Herald's sales-manship campaign continues to grow as the days pass. Many new entries were received Tuesday and Wednesday and the rush shows little signs of slackening. The telephone helps to keep the Herald force busy answering questions about the campaign, while letters and individuals bring additional nominations and votes.

The secret of all the early enthusiasm is this: Contestants are realizing that in this instance the early bird "gets the worm." In a short time the voting schedule is to be reduced and subscriptions will count for less. So many of the contestants are putting forth a big effort to make the early days count for the most.

Indications and inquiries point to many additional entries being received at The Herald office in the next few days. By the time the next list of workers is published many new names will be received.
The big campaign being conducted by the Herald is the talk of the whole town. And out in the various sections of the county it is the most common question at various gatherings is "Have you entered The Herald's Salesmanship Campaign?" or "How many subscriptions did you secure today?" or "I sent some votes to The Herald office for you yesterday."

Reports Indicate Battle Lines Are Extending Toward the Coast in Direction of Woo-suing; Fighting Is Reported

Situation Growing
Serious Every Hour

War Vessels of Four Nations Dispatched to Chinese Waters to Protect Property

SHANGHAI, Sept. 3.—With fighting at Hwangtau near here in progress at 4 o'clock this afternoon between contesting armies of two rival provincial governors, reports received here indicated the battle lines were extending toward the coast in the direction of Woo-suing.

General Ho Feng-Lin, of Shanghai, Lu Shien-Yuan administrative officer, announced this morning through his chief secretary Pak Loh, that fighting between forces of Lu, in Tschun Chekiang Province and Chi Shien-yuan, has actually begun.

Travelling through country where the forces of the rival technics, Gen. Lu Yun Hsiang of Choking and Gen. Chi Sheeh-Yuan of Kingsu, are facing each other, the messenger saw many well uniformed soldiers equipped with new guns and many field pieces. Large bodies of northern troops were moving toward Shanghai and the belief exists that extensive fighting was probable yesterday.

All native hotels are filled to capacity while the more wealthy Chinese have been actively securing residential quarters in the French and the International concessions. Foreign war craft in the harbor tonight totaled twenty.
Five more American destroyers arrived from Chefoo this afternoon, while the French cruiser Jules Ferry, flagship of the French Asiatic squadron, arrived with Admiral Forchet aboard.

Out of the mass of conflicting reports seeping into the city the most definite ones from Nanking, nearly 200 miles away by rail or river, tell of the continued movement of reinforcements from Chihli southward, including cavalry and several airplanes. The movement of troops, it is reported, has involved the ferrying of railroad coaches across the Yangtze for the first time in Chinese history.

Sections of the railway are torn up. The messenger leaving Quin-san in the evening, travelled all night. He was seized many times and stripped of all his belongings, including his messages. He suffered slight injury at the hands of the soldiers with whom the whole country, he says, is alive. Chinese Red Cross units from Shanghai are establishing bases near Quin-san and Lu Ho.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 3.—Naval forces of the United States, Japan, Great Britain and France, kept patrol work in Asiatic waters arriving assembled at Shanghai, China.

Some already are there and others are proceeding, moving as neutral ships that professed to arrive swiftly in the event they are called upon to protect their respective national, commercial and trade interests, now menaced by danger of hostilities between military forces commanded by two provincial governors.

The diplomatic agents of the four governments already have advised the Peking foreign office that "the idea of naval battle in the greatest harbor of the East was unthinkable and could not be tolerated." Pointing out that the Shanghai waters constitute one vast harbor in which the ships of every nation float and that the present status of affairs presents a situation which cannot be regarded with equanimity by them.

Admiral Thomas Washington, commander-in-chief of the Asiatic squadron, and Edward Bell, charge of the legation in Peking, reported today to the Washington government on the situation at Shanghai.

Nine Destroyers
Admiral Thomas Washington, destroyers, the Borie, Smith, Thompson, Tracy, Hulbert, J. D.
Evans, French, Prull, Penquin and Whipple, had been dispatched from the summer base at Chefoo to Shanghai, in addition, the gunboat, Isabel, flagship of the river patrol, had been ordered there from Kiukang.

No mention, however, was contained in these dispatches as to what ships the other three powers

PLANK FLYING
KLAN ADOPTED
BY CONVENTION

Texas Democratic Convention Is Unanimous in Efforts to Oust Hooded Order From State; Fergusons in Control

Rigid Economy In Government Favored

Klan Supporters Prevented From Attending Session; Bitter Controversies Arise

AUSTIN, Sept. 3.—Proclaiming no quarter for the Ku Klux Klan, framing a platform which "denounced the Klan and declared for strict economy in government and according complete recognition of Mrs. Miriam A. Ferguson as the Democratic nominee for governor, the Texas State Democratic convention went through vociferous sessions here Tuesday with the Ferguson element in absolute control.

As night fell the meeting still was continuing, the permanent organization just having been effected.

The day was crowded with bitter denunciation of the Klan and its methods, with heated oratory, clinaxed by a masterful appeal of Senator John W. Bailey for peace and marked by warm acclamation for Mrs. Ferguson and her husband, James E. Ferguson, who, with their daughters, sat on the speakers' platform throughout the day.

To be certain that the convention would be 100 per cent anti-Klan all Klan delegations were prevented and every attempt of the Klan delegates to place their friends on important committees was defeated decisively by election of substitute committeemen favorable to the anti-Klan majority.

In this manner committee members favorable to the anti-Klan element from the Fourth and Thirteenth districts were seated. A bitter fight over the Dallas county committee selection brought former Gov. O. B. Colquitt and Lieut.
Gov. Davidson into the fray attempting vainly to stop the procedure. In every instance Klan delegates and committeemen were rejected.

"That's what they did to us at Waco," about many of the delegates. "It's their own medicine." Even some of the Ferguson delegates protested at the method, one delegate explaining that it was not necessary to adopt such decisive methods, since the Fern-sons were in control by five to one. The lying of the Klan continued, however, until the job was completed.

A Klan voice might be heard occasionally in the early stages of the proceedings but it was a single murmur of the organization which has controlled several Democratic conventions.

A platform presented by the platform committee by Mr. Ferguson asked for rigid economy in the state government.

"To the accomplishment of this purpose" read the platform, "the Democratic party cheerfully endorses and commends the candidacy of its nominee, Miriam A.
Ferguson, for governor, and approves her platform, demanding a material reduction in legislative appropriation. We demand that the legislature give due and proper respect to her election by the people on a platform of business and economy."

The Klan was handled in these words:

"The Democratic party in Texas in convention assembled, emphatically and without reservation condemns and denounces what is known as the Invisible Empire and the Ku Klux Klan as an undesirable, anti-Christian and un-American organization. We band

PLANS DEFENSE
DAY EXERCISES
ARE PERFECTED

Business and Professional Men Will Be Asked to Close All Businesses for 2 Hours

Through the press, the stores and business houses of Sanford will be asked to close from 4 to 6 on the afternoon of Sept. 12 in observance of National Defense Day and so that all residents and people in this city may participate, declared Mayor Forrest Lake in an interview with representative of The Herald this morning.

"The president of the United States has declared Sept. 12 as Defense Day," stated Mr. Lake, and it is the least we can do to observe it with the desired mobilization of the people in the community. Both men and women are expected to participate in the mobilization," he said.

At 4 o'clock on the afternoon of Sept. 12 all able bodied citizens, both men and women are expected to meet at the armory where they are to register and fall in the ranks of the parade which will march to Central Park where the Defense exercises will be held.

It was also learned this morning that all local units of the Florida National Guard will be mustered at 2 1/2 p. m. on that day under the command of its officers and will form part of the parade going to the park. All of the men enlisted in these units are expected to be present at the occasion so that the national guard will be well represented.

Mr. Lake said that at the park the exercises will open with a prayer by Rev. E. D. Broderick, pastor of the Presbyterian Church of this city. Mr. Lake will then give an address on the purpose of Defense Day and an explanation of it.

Mr. Lake has urged that every able bodied man and woman in the county arrange to take part in the exercises. "If the occasion was important enough to receive the attention and the support of our representative," said Mr. Lake, "it is important enough to be observed with enthusiasm by the people of this community."

In a communication the governor of Florida Major General Shanks, commanding general of the Fourth Corps Area, U. S. Army, had the following to say:
"On September 12, 1924, at a telehour in the afternoon, it is proposed to have in each community where there is established a National Guard or an Organized Reserve Organization, a national defense test. The object of this test ularly to the road around Lakkinava. Commissioner Endor Jurgen was authorized to send $5 in ditching the road.

the Florida Trucker for Semole

WAINRIGHT GETS GUN FROM GUARD,
MAKING ESCAPE

He and Three Negroes Make Getaway When Guard Is Overpowered; The Sheriff's Pesse Gets Two of Negroes

Four convicts, one a white man, escaped from the guards under whom they were working near Lake Jessum, south of Cameron City, Tuesday afternoon when J.
P. Wainright, recently charged by county officials with shooting with intent to kill, grabbed and crested from a guard his gun and held it pointed at the official until he and three negroes were a safe distance, according to a statement made by Sheriff C. M. Hand this morning.

The sheriff states that when Wainright grabbed the gun, the three negroes ran and the white convict backed away from the guard with the gun. As soon as he was a few feet away from the guard with the gun. As soon as he had not yet been recaptured.

"As soon as I heard about it," said Sheriff Hand, "I got my bloodhounds and put them on the track of the escaped convict. We captured two of the negroes, Alex Benjamin and Allen McGill, but found no trace of Wainright and the other negro whose name is Charlie Sanders."

The sheriff declared that they could not follow all of the men at one time because they went in different directions. The posse was out all night, he said, and are still on the lookout for the prisoners, who are still at large.

It was learned that telegraphic messages have been sent to the sheriffs and officials of neighboring counties telling them of the escape and asking them to return anyone who appears to be one of the convicts.

"I believe that the men will soon be caught," said the sheriff, "because a close watch is being kept for them. Personally," he said, "I believe that someone met Wainright with a car and took him to some place where he is hiding."

It is believed by authorities that in the course of a few days the two men will again be placed in the county jail or on the chain gang.

Electric Chair Inspected Sheriff Hand further stated that he has just returned from a trip to Bronson and Raiford. He said that he went to Bronson to secure a negro who had stolen an automobile and then went on to Raiford where he inspected the state's new electric chair.

"I must return to Raiford the county sheriff is one of a committee or board that has been appointed to superintend the hanging of convicted prisoners in this state.
I must return to Raiford the latter part of this month when several executions are scheduled to take place," stated the sheriff.

"Safety Week" Will
Be Observed in This City Sept. 21-28

A special committee of the Ki-weekly luncheon today that the week of Sept. 21-28 be observed as "Safety Week" in Sanford. The Club endorsed the report of the committee and plans for observing the week were announced. An educational campaign to prevent automobile accidents will be the main feature of the campaign. The committee also announced that speakers will be secured to address various bodies in the city to enlist their aid in the move to reduce the number of accidents.

C. H. Harvard, representing the Florida Automobile Association, was a guest of the club and spoke on the work of his organization and the part it is playing in advertising Florida throughout the country.

Fred T. Williams was also a speaker. He outlined activities of city officials in connection with work on the boat basin, waterworks plant and other municipal projects.

M'KAY DECLARES
FARMERS NORTH
ARE DISSATISFIED

Says Crop Conditions Florida in Better Shape Than in North and East; Everyone Enthusiastic Over Florida

"I wouldn't give up my place in Florida for the whole state of New York," declared Prof. G. E.
McKay when interviewed this morning about the recent automobile trip made by him and his family to many points of interest throughout several of the eastern and northern states. "That is the answer I gave my brother in New York when he asked me how would I like to come up there to live and stated that we lived too far apart," he said.

"Everywhere we stopped along the way people would see the Florida license tag of our car and would then ask about this state," said Mr. McKay. "Everyone we met was enthusiastic to learn about Florida and we told them as much as possible. And Sanford was not forgotten. We distributed about 100 of the booklets published under the direction of the Chamber of Commerce on facts about Sanford and this community and the people who got them seemed very well pleased. It is our personal opinion that they read them with interest and then passed them on to their neighbors to be read."

Farm and crop conditions are good in Florida as compared to the conditions in the northern and eastern states, Mr. McKay declared. "In nearly every state we visited," he said, "the farmers were very dissatisfied with the crops.
On our way up the country, there were no ripe apples at all and on our way home only a very few, while there should have been a large quantity of them ripe while we were going north."

The peach crop was practically

3 Notes of School Board Are Reduced
$1000 Each Tuesday

Reduction of $1,000 each on notes held at the Seminole County Bank, the Sanford Bank and Trust Company and the Bank of Oviedo respectively were made by the County Board of Public Instruction at its regular session Tuesday afternoon when notes for the renewal of the balances of $1,500 each for the three were signed and warrants issued for the payment of interest on them at the rate of eight percent per annum for 90 days.

A contract was awarded by the board to F. W. Temperton for the painting of the colored primary school at the corner of Seventh Street and Cypress Avenue, the consideration being $22.

The contract for finishing the South Side Primary School and for the addition of a lunch room to it was awarded to Frank Jos-ling. This work will cost $2,271.

The contracts for the transportation of school children were awarded on the monthly basis. Gabriel Long of Chuluota received the contract for the transportation of children to the Chuluota school for the consideration of $96 a month.
George W. Bunnell signed a contract for transporting children from Bear Lake and Forest City to Lyman School for a sum of $90 a month.

A petition from the colored residents of Fort Reed was presented by the superintendent stating that there are 26 colored children of school age there and asking that as soon as they provide a suitable building and equipment, that they be supplied with a teacher by the board.

HAWKES BAY, Sept. 3.— Despite unfavorable weather conditions, the American world fliers were hard at work this morning preparing their machines for the flight from here to Pictou, N. S. The weather at 8:30 o'clock was dull and threatening. Clouds hung low in the heavens.

The planes of Lieutenants Lowell H. Smith and Erik Selberg are resting on the waters of Hawk's Bay, to which point they flew today from Ice Tickle, Labrador.

Starting from Ice Tickle in good flying weather, the American airmen drove their planes steadily forward under fine conditions until over Belle Isle Straits and along the coast of Newfoundland, where they were beset by rain and fog and a 30 mile head wind.

With the plane back over them, the plane took to themselves, the plane came to the water of Hawk's Bay at 3:48 o'clock Eastern having made the voyage from La-Shortly after coming down

LABOR CHIEFS PROMISE HELP TO PRESIDENT

(Continued from Page 1) Restriction of immigration and enactment of tariff laws are necessary to preserve American standards for wage earners, the president added, declaring that the present administration had sponsored such legislation. Government economy, he said, also is necessary, as is the establishment of peaceful conditions which will permit of protection at a minimum cost by an adequate army and navy.

FLIERS MAY HOP OFF TODAY FROM INDIAN HARBOR

(Continued from Page 1) gave three cheers for the hardy fliers. Lieutenant Arnold, the first flier ashore, waded knee deep through the water and smilingly oiled with his companions about the battalion of cameramen. It was not until he came aboard the Richmond that it was found he could not lift his right arm. He almost collapsed and underwent two hours desperate massaging by ship's doctors before he was able to eat dinner.

It came out then that four hours from Labrador, the engine began to splutter in the plane which Lieut. Arnold as mechanic. The engine faltered more and more and threatened a forced landing, putting the plane out of the light. The fuel pump wasn't functioning. Lieutenant Arnold, the first flier 310thly. Man Found Drowned Salt Run Saturday James Sawyer, white, was found drowned near his boat in five feet of water in Salt Run, several miles south of Geneva and Lake Harnes, Saturday and was brought to Sanford where a coroner's inquest was held at 1 o'clock that night. The verdict was accidental drowning. It was said that Mr. Sawyer was probably knocked in the head by his boat, the movement of which was caused by the wind, while he was in the water swimming or that he accidentally battled his head against the boat and being knocked unconscious drowned.

DAVIS SPEAKS AT WHEELING ON LABOR DAY

(Continued from Page 1) peace and world disarmament if we are willing to work for it. He had great sympathy with the slogan 'America first' but I want to make my own definition of it. Mr. Davis told his audience that there were three great constructive duties before the American people if labor is to hold the ground it has gained, which, he added, is but another way of saying that if America is to remain American. These, he enumerated as Preservation of the equality of right with laws as framed and so applied as to leave all men every liberty consistent with the liberty of others.

Declaring that the key to the door of opportunity is education, Mr. Davis was applauded when he said the public school system must be strengthened. He also declared that the nation must not "enter on the fatal path of a monopoly of education."

The door to equal opportunity through education having been opened, the speaker declared that the country must see to it that it is not closed by human greed and that the child labor constitutional amendment should be ratified by the states.

Not only must laws be just and equal, Mr. Davis went on, but it must see to it that they do not evade "those natural rights which neither congress nor legislatures, nor commissions, may rightfully restrict—freedom of speech, freedom of assembly, freedom of labor, freedom of contract, freedom of the press and freedom of religious belief and practice."

Here Mr. Davis took a thrust at his political opponents. "I do not envy the frame of mind," he said, "which causes some men, even some who are candidates for high office, to charge all who disagree with them with plotting with de-struction of the republic. To judge from some recent utterances, there are those in this country who see a conspiracy whenever three workers meet together, a riot when their numbers grow to 10, and a revolution if it reaches a hundred."

The Democratic nominee's first indirect reference to the policies of Robert M. LaFollette, the independent candidate, came with his declaration that he "believed in a liberty that is above and beyond governmental control. It would give to congressmen, senators or even to a president the power to do as they might see fit."

But every day counts and the sooner a ticket is made the easier it will be to win. Telephone to the campaign manager, Mrs. L. M. Smith, 127 S. 1st St., Sanford, Fla., and ask for instructions as to how you may enter. This will come of the new year tomorrow and explain the details of the campaign to you. As you take your opportunity, please be guided by the new year tomorrow to the advantage of you. Your name when you finish reading this will tell.

The Standard Buick Touring Car which will go to the winner of The Sanford Herald's Salesmanship Campaign when it closes at ten o'clock on the evening of Saturday, November 22, has arrived in the city.

The beautiful machine is now on display in the showrooms of the Sanford Buick Company. It arrived Saturday, was first given a bath and then put on display where some contestants have already inspected it.

When you see this car your eyes cannot help but glitter with anticipation, and you will look forward to the pleasure that can be yours if you win it. If you have not already entered your name as a contestant in The Herald's campaign, after viewing this machine you will dash right to The Herald office and place your name in nomination.

- No, it isn't too late to enroll. There is plenty of time for new workers to enter the campaign. There is still good opportunity to win, if no time is lost. Many contestants have already started work. But none of them has made such a lead that it cannot be easily overcome by consistent work in just a few hours hard work. Only opening Friday, The Herald's campaign has not been underway but a few days. Get started now and come out a winner.

Start TODAY! --- The Early Votes Count the Most

When the wayward son came home from Alaska with a sack full of gold from the Klondike and they burned the mortgage on the farm, wasn't it grand? The architect played soft music and some folks snifed audibly while you stealthily wiped the tears from your own eyes at the affecting scene.

No one in the audience, of course, considered what a blessing that same mortgage was when it went on the farm. It provided money to pay living expenses for the family. It kept a nice cover over the family. It doubtless paid for farming implements and farm animals. It doubtless paid for the production of more money, it would have been carried with no thought of its being a burden. And when the son came home to pay off the debt on the old homestead, he would not have been so much the hero.

It was the old-time attitude toward the mortgage home mortgage—an appealing. Today the man who runs it is thought to provide security for borrowed money as regarded as simply business. In Denmark, the most prosperous farming country in the world, farms are literally plastered with mortgages to bring in remarkable profits for their farming enterprises.

Just as no business can turn out big-scale profits without operating on borrowed capital, so the farmer must putter along with little crops and little returns unless he can get scale.

Instead of fearing the mortgage, the sensible farmer should regard it as an aid to prosperity. He will not see the benefit of course, and invest it in expenditures from which he knows he will obtain benefits leading to increased profits. By meeting its interest promptly, the borrower establishes a favorable reputation with his banker. And he learns in time to figure everything out in a percentage basis. He knows if he is earning ten per cent on his money. He figures every investment as all successful business men figure investments. And at least he becomes a recognized business man himself.

The mortgage on the farm—if it means to you a down-at-the-heel, a dilapidated old house, broken down fences and underfed stock, you have missed acquaintance with the progressive, keen-eyed, far-soung business farmer who represents the best of the country's agriculturists.

The farmer who is also a business man is the farmer who makes money on his farm. And the successful business man is the fellow who makes other men's money work for him.

No Chivalry Is Not Dead

The gentle old lady breathed a sigh and shaking her head exclaimed, "The day of chivalry is gone." And perhaps it was to her. For she had a sense of the world she spoke the truth, lonely old soul.

Yet those golden days when men spread their cloaks upon the ground for women to walk on never really existed, in some humble peasant woman. It is this way the world is today.

In our present day we are not as courteous to some people as we are to others. How many of us have lost sight of our way to be obliging to a pretty young woman, when we might not ever offer to get a chair for her middle-aged, unattractive mother?

To him who hath shall be given," says the Scriptures. And seemingly on this principle we are now associating with those whom we think are beneath our own rank, while we fawn and kowtow to win the favor of those who are wealthy or socially prominent. It is this way the world is today.

The true gallant is the man who can mix with the highest without the least fear of making a mistake. He is kind and considerate without a trace of condescension. He is a true friend. The true gallant knows that the greatest position is not always the highest, and that those of high social position are not always the highest.

And the days of chivalry are not dead. Wherever there is a man of kind heart and gentle manners paying his homage to a real worth, scoring to play the snail or the scoundrel, but ever ready to minister to distress, there lives chivalry at its best.

THE GREAT ARE only great because we carry them on our shoulders, when we throw them off they sprang on their ground.—Montaigne

"Hang These Rats, Worst Than Crime," What Is "Well Born?" BY ARTHUR BRISBANE (Copyright 1924)

THE LOEB-LEOPOLD case is ever, all but the sentence. The representative of the state closed with the appeal, "Hang these fellows."

THE JUDGE orders stricken from the record as grossly impertinent and insulting part of the public prosecutor's speech. It was certainly "well born," to put it mildly. The man who runs it is thought to provide security for borrowed money as regarded as simply business.

IT WAS NEW in court procedure when the Judge denounced the argument of the State's attorney as a "towardly, dastardly attempt to impeach the integrity of the court and an attempt to intimidate it."

THE STATE'S Attorney had talked of the power of money in the murder case, and appealed from the bench to the mob, saying, "If they—the young murderers—don't get what they deserve in this trial, I am not sure they will hear the voice of the mob."

THE PUBLIC is not quite so sure about it either, but it is not a pleasant subject for discussion in men court.

WILL HAYS, representing the upper normal class in movies, talked common sense to moviegoers yesterday, arguing that the "immoral" side of human nature is not a new discovery.

MR. HAYS MIGHT have said of his advertising, in the language attributed to him, "It is worse than a crime, it is a bludge." Immorality does not pay.

HAYS SHOWED that the moving picture is THE American product of the earth's population, but only a small part of it. It is a great deal of room for moral improvement.

THE VOLUNTARY PRINCE of Wales might have had a successful career in his own line. He has a keen eye for the social fact, the key-note in the march of the world.

THE REMAINS of an African ape, which were found in a cave in the mountains of the Congo, are now being studied by a number of biologists. It is said that the ape had never been seen before, but that it was found in a cave in the mountains of the Congo.

THE REVOLUTION, gradual and peaceful, is the only one that has ever been successful. It is the only one that has ever been successful.

NEW YORK, Sept. 3.—Luis Allen, Argentine heavy-weight, left Saratoga Springs, N. Y., tonight to finish his training for his match with Harry Williams, scheduled for Boyle's Thirty Acres, Saratoga Springs, N. Y., on Tuesday, September 11.

The Argentine is abandoning his Saratoga Springs camp at the direction of Tex Rickard, promoter, who ordered him to New York to finish his training.

"The reformer has been pestering him unmercifully during the past week concerning deportation charges which are hanging over his head and his state of mind is such that he cannot concentrate on his training," Rickard said to the press.

Allen came to New York to finish his work so that I can have him here with me in the event of a fight, if possible the absurd charges that are hanging fire."

Rickard said that he did not believe the legal tangle in which Rickard finds himself will cause any change in the match with Harry Williams.
