Veterans Corner

Here are authoritative answers from the Veterans Administration to questions of interest to former servicemen and their families:

Q. I am in college under the Korean GI Bill, and I have just about come to the end of my GI entitlement. If I run out of entitlement before the end of my semester, will I be allowed to continue my GI training?

A. If your GI entitlement runs out after you've passed the halfway mark of your semester, you will be permitted to continue under the Korean GI Bill to the end of the semester. Otherwise, your GI training will end when your entitlement expires.

Q. I hold a World War II GI endowment policy. When it reaches the end of its endowment period, could I arrange to receive monthly payments for the rest of my life?

A. No. You may, however, choose either a lump-sum payment, or payments over a specified period ranging from three to 20 years.

Q. I am getting monthly disability compensation payments from VA which, I am told, are tax-exempt. If I save those payments and buy some property with them, would the property also be tax-exempt?

A. No. Tax-exempt does not extend to any property you might buy with your compensation payments. The property would be subject to taxes.

Q. I am a Korean veteran, and I've been thinking of using my GI loan rights to buy a house. Is there any hurry to buy a house, or do I have plenty of time?

A. You have plenty of time. Korean veterans have until Jan. 31, 1951, to take advantage of their GI loan benefit. World War II veterans have only until July 25, 1950.

Panel Discussion Is Held At Woman's Club

With particular interest yesterday, members of the Sanford Woman's Club gathered at the club building for a covered dish luncheon. The program was sponsored by the Civic Department and featured a panel discussion by the City Commissioners on "How to Improve Our City."

Mayor David Gatchel was introduced by the program sponsor, Mrs. W. D. Chisholm. Mr. Gatchel introduced his fellow commissioners and acted as moderator.

The "Capital Improvement Program" was explained by the panel of commissioners, followed by a question and answer period.

First subject placed before the panel was the new Civic Center, which was described by Earl Higginbotham. Higginbotham gave a list of the needed equipment for the building, including electrical appliances and musical instruments.

The new fire station on French Ave. and 18th St. was the subject of Al Wilson's dissertation. Wilson stressed the lower insurance rate which will result from the placement of this station. Commissioner F. D. Scott discussed the new swimming pool, and the municipal lighting system, which is constantly being improved.

Future improvements in Sanford were stated by Earl Higginbotham in the new proposed sewage disposal plant. Gatchel brought up the Docks and Terminal project while Wilson noted the street improvement program, which has been under fire for some time. He mentioned that East 7th St. will be among those paved this year.

During the question and answer period that followed the discussion, the panel of commissioners was arraged with questions from the Woman's Club members. These were not limited to the capital improvement program, and a heated debate ensued when the local hospital came in to the discussion.

Mrs. S. J. Nix, chairman of the Civic department, presided over the business meeting that preceded the luncheon. Mrs. Walls and Mrs. Wines were introduced as guests.

The Woman's Club was beautifully decorated with fall flowers. Hostesses for the luncheon were Mrs. B. B. Crumley, Mrs. W. R. Anderson, Mrs. E. A. Monforton, Mrs. D. A. Gregory and Mrs. Fred Williams.

Articles were on sale that had been left from the bazaar recently given at the home of Mrs. Sidney Ives. The bazaar benefited the girls in the Ocala Industrial School.

A musical program was presented by Mrs. Jones, Mrs. Gramkow and Mrs. Bostard. Accompanied by Mrs. Farmer, they sang "Deep in My Heart", "I'm Falling in Love with Someone", and "Lift Thine Eyes."

Benson Probably Won't Last In Cabinet If Farm Belt R

MOOREHEAD, Fla. (AP) — O. J. Benson, U.S. News File Dept. (Service)

WASHINGTON (UP)—The word around town is that his enemies of last week bracketed Ezra Taft Benson with their gun fire. If this be true, there will be a secretary of agriculture shortly. True or false, Benson probably will not survive in the cabinet if the Farm Belt rejects the Republican Party again in next year's congressional elections. Only President Eisenhower's affection for and loyalty to his agriculture secretary have kept Benson in office so long. The secretary has been in political trouble since Feb. 11, 1953, the second month of the first Eisenhower administration. It was on that day that Benson spoke in St. Paul, Minn., suggesting that the government should subsidize farm prices only as "disaster insurance." Price supports should not, Benson said "discourage economic production, heavy surpluses and subsidies." Demands for Benson's resignation became urgent and numerous by the autumn of 1953. The President has been defending his farm man ever since, a matter of four years. Politics May Bench Benson Benson's departure would not importantly change administration farm policies. Pressure of politics, perhaps, will compel Eisenhower to bench Benson, but no such pressure is likely to change Eisenhower's approach to the spending of tax revenue to cope with agricultural surpluses. A political pro added up Benson's political plight like this: "The farmers don't like him!" A great many farmers obviously do dislike Benson as much or more than they dislike the price support policies he represents. This political fact of dislike of the man is expected to be an effective argument with Eisenhower that political expediency may require Benson's resignation. A more effective argument, probably, than the equally factual farm discontent with administration farm policies. The real argument for Benson's departure is based on the belief of a great many Republican politicians that the party would win more congressional seats next year without him than with him. The opposition to Benson within the Republican Party enjoys the weight of numbers. It will be difficult for the President to resist. Harder Next Year More difficult to resist, however, would be the pressure for Benson's retirement after next year's elections if, as is likely, the Republicans lose again. Eisenhower, by then, will be more than a caretaker party man forbidden to run again if he wished to do so. A president in such a position probably would give extra weight to the opinions of all the Republicans who might be nominated to succeed him and to the urgings of the party men who would be responsible for the 1960 presidential campaign. Benson cheerfully tells all quesat things are a bit better on the farm front and that he has a thought of retiring so long as Eisenhower finds him useful. Benson is no quitter. Neither does he shrink from trouble, tough situations and hard decisions. A bulge in farm prices or a Republican congressional victory next year would put Benson on Easy Street, politically, if he still is around.

Border Clash Threatens Israel-Jordan Relations

By United Press Staff Correspondent
Relations between Israel and Jordan worsened today following a series of border clashes. Jordan threatened to "take necessary action" if a 37-year-old farmer allegedly kidnapped by a Israeli armed patrol was not returned by noon today, but no official sources in Amman elaborated on the dramatic ultimatum.

The flareup came as the United States was trying to prevent Egypt from falling entirely into the Soviet economic orbit. Four U. S. congressmen, members of a special study commission of the House of Foreign Affairs Committee, were flying to Cairo today to ask President Gamal Abdel Nasser why he accepted such a large amount of aid from the Soviet Union. An announcement in Cairo said the Soviet Union had offered 700 million rubles to Egypt which the Egyptians estimated on their own exchange rate at 72 million pounds or 200 million dollars. However the loan was nearer 70 million dollars according to the more realistic tourist rate.

CofC Membership Drive Winds Up About Dec. 1

The Seminole County Chamber of Commerce membership drive will wind up about Dec. 1, membership drive committee chairman J. Brailley Odham, said this morning. Meeting with team captains early this morning at Mrs. Appleby's Restaurant to hear reports and plan the last final efforts to reach the $10,000 goal set at the beginning of the campaign, Odham said the drive "looks good" up to this time.

A total of $7,520 in memberships was reported at the meeting with a total of 215 members already signed up for the coming year. "Of the total memberships, Odham told the team captains, 53 have increased their memberships and there are 52 new members. "It is discouraging in that far too many people expect somebody else to do the job," Odham said as he reported 87 members from last year have not as yet sent their checks to the Chamber of Commerce office.

"We had 285 members last year," Odham said. "If last year's members who have not as yet sent their checks in do so immediately we will have reached our quota," he said. In spite of the discouraging points, Odham pointed out, "it looks as if we will reach the $10,000 mark by Dec. 1 when we hold our windup meeting," the membership chairman said. Most of the team captains had an optimistic outlook on the outcome of the membership drive to wind up soon. Reports that a number of prospective members and old members will send their checks to the Chamber of Commerce office this week or in the immediate future brought estimated totals up to the goal figure. It is expected that a special committee will be appointed to personally contact prospective members who have not as yet joined the Chamber of Commerce. Membership Chairman Brailley Odham pointed out that a number of the names appearing on team captains' lists should be members of the Chamber of Commerce. However, this committee, if appointed and named, will not go to work until after the membership drive's windup meeting is held. The $10,000 goal which the membership drive committee is attempting to reach will match appropriations from both the City of Sanford and Seminole County. "Actually," Odham told the group of committee members, "our goal should be $20,000. This is a realistic figure to furnish the Chamber of Commerce a workable budget with which to advertise our community out of the state." The list of members up through closing time at the Chamber of Commerce office yesterday and the categories under which they are listed follows:

Tomorrow 'Poppy Day' In Sanford

Tomorrow will be "Poppy Day" in Sanford, according to a proclamation signed by Mayor David Gatchel earlier this week. "Poppy Day" is sponsored here by the Veterans of Foreign Wars and funds derived from the sale of the little red flower will go to the rehabilitation of veterans in veterans hospitals. The poppies are made by the veterans in hospitals in the state. Local citizens will be asked tomorrow to wear one of the attractive flowers and to contribute generously to the fund that means so much to those who have served this country well. George DeMatteo, an official of his local VFW organization, heads the "Poppy Day" effort here. "Poppy Day" is an annual event in Sanford and communities throughout the state.

Inflationary Spiral Has Ended

WASHINGTON (UP)—The inflationary spiral has ended. So, too, apparently has the 13-month rise in the cost of living. Secretary of Labor James P. Mitchell gave the good news to Americans. The Bureau of Labor Statistics was to issue a cost of living report today for the month of October. But Mitchell gave a tipoff Thursday on its contents. He said it would show no basic change from the September consumer price index which stood at 121.1 per cent of 1947-49 prices. Mitchell said the leveling off of prices is a "good sign" because inflation "has been a concern of many people." It represents an end of the "so-called inflationary spiral," he said.

putting a balanced budget ahead of national defense. Eisenhower said in his recent Oklahoma City TV address that government spending would top the current 72 billion dollar rate unless bigger outlays to meet Russia's missile challenge were offset elsewhere. The administration now is at work drawing up the budget for next fiscal year. In another economic development, the Federal Reserve Board authorized three more District Reserve Banks in Kansas City, Minneapolis and Philadelphia to lower their discount — or interest — rates from 3 to 3 per cent. Four other reserve banks dropped their discount charge last week.

Ducks Arriving; Season Opens Saturday Morn

"The ducks are here," Harry Robson said yesterday. "Apparently by a week that the duck hunting season gets underway Saturday morning." For a while it seemed as if the ducks were going to bypass the Sanford area, Robson said. However, Wednesday afternoon "they came in by the thousands," he said. Robson described the arrival of ducks here as so heavy that the sky was black with them. "We were on Lake Jessup," Robson said yesterday, "when they began to arrive." "I've never seen so many ducks in all of my life, the local sporting goods store owner said. All of the ducks seemed to be settling between the two bridges and on and around Lake Jessup. Duck hunters can look forward to plenty of game on hand for the opening of the season, Robson pointed out. "It must have been the cold weather up north that began driving the ducks to Florida where they could stay warm—either from the weather or from dodging shotgun blasts beginning this coming Saturday morning."

THE CHURCH FOR ALL ... ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For the sake of his children's sake. (2) For the sake of his community and nation. (3) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Lab Assistant Gives Woman Cyanide By Mistake

HOUSTON, Tex. (UP)—A woman undergoing a routine laboratory test died writhing on the floor of a doctor's office Thursday before an hysterical lab assistant who had given her deadly sodium cyanide by mistake.

Mrs. Margaret Van Alstine, 67, had gone to the office of Dr. Joseph West for a laboratory test to determine whether she had diabetes.

Police said Mrs. Emily Nash, 46, the lab assistant, gave Mrs. Van Alstine a blood test and then administered what she thought was a glucose mixture. But she picked up the wrong bottle and injected the deadly poison.

Police said Mrs. Nash immediately noticed something was wrong when the sodium cyanide began making Mrs. Van Alstine ill. Just then West came in and discovered what had happened.

West gave Mrs. Van Alstine an injection of adrenalin and tried to revive her; but she died in agony a few minutes later.

"It's a tragic thing... a case of mistaken identity," West said. "Mrs. Nash has been my technician since 1928 and has always been extremely conscientious."

Brookfield Mills To Have Material On Sale Tomorrow

One of the most amazing sales will get underway tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock at Brookfield Mills, 282 North Elm Ave.

Unique in the history of sales here, the one at Brookfield Mills will take place at the plant opened and operated here for the manufacture of bathing suits.

However, through this huge industry which manufactures every type of ladies garment in both sports and regular wear, Brookfield Mills is able to offer local dressmakers an opportunity to choose designers' sample cuts in bundles of varying lengths.

Josei Aberbach, local manager of Brookfield Mills, said that the hundreds of bundles of fine fabrics will include silks, cottons and wools of many patterns and colors.

It is amazing just to see the materials that are being offered, Aberbach said, since the materials contain both imported and domestic fabrics and they are in various dress lengths.

The Brookfield Mills manager said that dresses and sports wear can be made from the materials that are being offered for the first time here at just a fraction of the actual cost.

The sale will last just one day and will end at 4 o'clock tomorrow afternoon. "Knowing fabrics as I do," Aberbach told The Herald, "I would urge all of the ladies in and around Sanford to take advantage of this unusual offer."

"It is one of those once-a-year events," he said.

Requiem Mass For Jose Gomez Saturday, 11 a.m.

Tomorrow at 7:15 a. m. a requiem mass will be said at All Souls Catholic Church for the repose of the soul of Jose Pou Gomez who died in Ponce, Puerto Rico, Nov. 11.

The late Mr. Pou was the father of Mrs. J. Clay Williams and Mrs. Modesto Velez of this community.

Mr. Pou had farms in Puerto Rico, where he was well known.

32 Prisoners In Local Jail

There were two prisoners confined in the Seminole County jail during the 24 hours ending at midnight last night and one released, said Sheriff J. L. Hobby this morning.

The total number of prisoners now being held is 32, he said. Of that total, Hobby pointed out, 18 are colored male, nine are white male, four colored female and one colored male juvenile.

Greyhounds Are Arriving For Season

LONGWOOD—Scores of fleet Greyhounds are pouring into the area to get ready for the racing season which opens at the Sanford-Orlando Kennel Club on Saturday, December 14.

Many of the top names in racing will be represented by kennels this winter at the Sanford-Orlando track. They include: G. A. Alderson, Orville Moses, Paul Sutherland, E. L. Beckner, Huron Kennel, Blackwell Kennel and Circus City Ranch among many others.

Pre-season schooling races will be thrown open to the public, free of charge, starting Wednesday, December 4. More than 400 top dogs are expected to qualify during the schooling sessions as the stage is set for what promises to be by far the finest season in track history.

General Manager Jerry Collins is well satisfied with preparations ### at the track leading up to the opening of the 92-day campaign.

Several crews have been busy for weeks getting the modernized racing plant into top shape.

"The racing strip itself, regarded as one of the best anywhere by greyhound authorities, has already been brought to a peak of condition and should be extremely fast this year. It will be no surprise to see several track records tumble before the season is too far along.

Jaycees Combine Many Mottos To Make Their Work Complete

The motto of many business organizations is "We aim to please." And civic groups use the motto, in many instances, "serve our citizens and community."

However, it seems that the Jaycees combine the two mottos and in addition, throw in several more mottos to make their work complete.

It has become the annual custom of the Seminole County Junior Chamber of Commerce to take on the terrific job of staging a gigantic Christmas Parade that not only pleases the youngsters for miles around but also pleases the adults.

Every member of the local Jaycees organization pitches in to lend a helping hand in the project that is financially sponsored by the Sanford Merchants Association.

And there are many problems confronting the young businessmen as they plan to stage each year a bigger and better parade than the year before. There are floats to be built, Santa Claus contacted to determine his arrival here for the big event, bands to be arranged for, a parade route scheduled, organization contacted for float sponsorship—a hundred and one, if not more, projects to be whipped into shape before the first person steps off in the line of march.

This year is not a bit different from the seven previous ones. Chairmen of the various committees have buckled down to the tremendous task of pinning the various parade problems together to make a complete and perfect pattern.

And when the whistle blows on the afternoon of December 4th, officials, police escorts, colors, bands, and floats will all step off for a gay and exciting march through downtown Sanford.

The Jaycees have won many honors for their Christmas Parade efforts—and indications point to another successful and eventful year for the local young businessmen's organization.

Apparently no task is too large for them for on every instance when they have been called upon to perform civic duties their response is always overwhelmingly generous and successful.

And so it is with the Christmas Parade! The county and area is looking forward to the finest, biggest, and most successful Christmas Parade in the history of the community.

It will be the official start of the Sanford Christmas season—a gay, spine-tingling start of the most glorious season of the year—complete with a visit from Santa for the children.

Again this season there's another salute to the Jaycees for the wonderful job they're doing for the entire community!

Three Principal Aims Important

There are three principal aims which must supersede all others in United States foreign policy. These are freedom, security, peace. When we can be reasonably certain that these are guaranteed, then whether Russia produces more milk than we or who is ahead in any particular science will not matter.

Khrushchev's challenge to competition in an era of co-existence is not actually a call for a co-operative effort to bring freedom, security and peace to men and to establish the basis for a cooperative or combined effort which will end the miseries of people in the backward areas of the world. It is a challenge to compete in a peaceful effort which will end in the destruction of one of the competitors by means other than war. It is not a proposal for the two most powerful nations to concentrate on a peaceful effort to lift the load of mankind.

Khrushchev is saying that his system is better than America's and will win out in the end. He is asserting that differences are irreconcilable. He is proposing to bury us by inches or degrees rather than all at once. He is proposing a competition which will keep the people of other nations in turmoil of indecision as to which of the giant powers they should pick. And we know that he does not mean a competition which is even fair. He proved that in Hungary.

Our efforts should be directed toward improving the life of mankind, but as long as Russia is ruled by men who threaten free people, we must stand firm in promoting freedom, assuring our security, and still striving for peace which is real, and not one of surrender to the Kremlin.

Control Of Additives A Must

The subject of tightening federal laws to control the addition of chemicals to food was broached once again at the fifth annual meeting of the American Public Health Association. It is a subject which deserves widespread attention, since all of us are directly affected by it.

At present, the law allows processors to put chemical additives into food without first proving that they are harmless for human consumption. The burden of making tests and proving that an additive is harmful rests upon the U.S. Public Health Service. Most manufacturers and processors are careful about what they add to food products, but it is unfortunately true that under the present law some harmful substances do get into the things we eat.

For some years, the Public Health Service has sought changes in the law which would, in effect, cause manufacturers and processors to prove the harmlessness of a substance before adding it to food. Congress has hung back, for one reason or another, but this is a change that would be greatly in the public interest.

The time when most foods were simply that, without additives of any kind, has long since past. Hundreds of substances are now added to a variety of foods to make them tastier, to preserve freshness, to improve their appearance, and so forth. Experts feel that some of these substances may be harmful to human beings. The warning signal should be heeded. It is only logical that until a substance has been reasonably proved harmless, if not beneficial, it should not be added to food.

Foreign News Commentary

By CHARLES M. MCCANN
United Press Staff Correspondent
Soviet Russia is developing its attempt to penetrate Africa by seeking trade agreements with two more of the continent's new republics.

Egypt already has tied its economy dangerously close to Russia. Now Russia is trying to establish footholds in Ghana, on the west coast of Africa, and the Sudan, Egypt's neighbor on the south.

A Soviet mission arrived in Accra, the capital of Ghana, on Tuesday to bid for an economic agreement and possibly for the establishment also of formal diplomatic relations.

For several weeks, the Soviet embassy in Khartoum, the capital of the Sudan, has been angling for a similar agreement.

Ghana, New Republic
Ghana, the former British colony of the Gold Coast, attained its independence on March 6 last. The Sudan, formerly ruled jointly by Britain and Egypt, became independent on Jan. 1, 1956. Britain has close economic ties with both countries.

Russia has just promised to "aid Egypt in building up its national economy." This commitment was made in Moscow, where Maj. Gen. Abdel Hakim Amer, Egyptian war minister, was given red-carpet treatment when he went there as President Gamal Abdel Nasser's envoy.

Nasser is represented as worried over Russia's tightening hold on his country's economy. Egyptian delegations are negotiating with Britain and France in an attempt to restore normal trade relations with those countries.

Black To Mediate
At Nasser's request Eugene Black, president of the International Bank for Reconstruction and Development—the so-called World Bank—has undertaken to act as mediator in negotiations for payment by Egypt of compensation to stockholders of the Suez Canal which Nasser seized.

Hence it may be that Nasser will use the Russian promise as a bargaining point in an attempt to reach favorable economic agreements with the United States, Britain and France.

Just what success Russia will have in its bids to Ghana and the Sudan remains to be seen. There seems good reason to believe that as regards the Sudan, Abdullah Bey Khalil is quite friendly toward the United States.

TODAY'S THOUGHT

"And they that be wise shall shine as the brightness of the firmament."

Herlong Reports

I have just concluded a tour of the District which included visits with my trailer office to more than 150 places in the eleven counties.

My visits to a few towns and cities in Lake County were curtailed for the time being by an attack of the flu, but I plan to get around to them before I return to Washington December 6th for hearings of my Ways and Means Subcommittee.

I hope you liked my trailer office, and if you did, I would appreciate hearing from you so that I may decide whether to make it a fixture of my visits to you in the future. Already, there have been many favorable comments, and they are deeply appreciated.

In case you missed me while I was in your area, if you have a problem you may contact me by writing my office in Leesburg or the one in Washington. The Orlando office was closed Nov. 1. The response there was excellent—so we will open it again during the next Congressional recess.

After a fashion, we conducted our own "Gallup Poll" on the tour. Without a doubt, the No. 1 topic of interest, throughout the District was school integration, and the inevitable question, "When is it going to happen to us?" While at the time of my visits Russia had launched its "Sputnik," the people seemed more worried about what was happening at home. With integration and its related racial problems foremost in their minds, they were also interested in the Social Security program, pensions, and other types of compensation offered by the Federal Government.

False Pregnancy Has Very Real Symptoms

By NERMAN H. HUNDEISEN, M.D.

PROBABLY few things can bring greater disappointment to a woman than to find out that she has been a victim of pseudocystis.

This is not a deadly malady. Physically, she probably will be none the worse after she recovers from the shock.

Mystified about what pseudocystis is? We doctors are a bit baffled by it, too.

False Pregnancy
Pseudocystis is a term for false pregnancy. It is a condition in which a woman believes she is pregnant, actually shows the physical symptoms of approaching motherhood.

Generally, women with pseudocystis gain weight—maybe even more than they normally would during pregnancy—suffer morning sickness, urinate frequently and halt menstrual activity.

This is not the same as hallucinatory or hysterical pregnancies. In many cases of pseudocystis, pregnancy tests actually are positive and there is indication of increased ovarian function.

Some patients are even hospitalized with "labor pains." Manifestations of this false pregnancy, of course, are due to both endocrinologic and psychological reasons. In fact, pseudocystis is an excellent example of the inter-relationship of the mind and the body.

The Little Rock crisis apparently has created an uneasiness and tension that will remain. There also was worry over the constant rise in the cost of living and mounting taxes, both state and national.

All of this adds up to the fact that the coming session of Congress will be one of the most important since the war years with both the domestic and foreign fronts demanding great attention and action. We in Florida have more than the usual interest in the missile race since they are sent skyward from Cape Canaveral.

While I will be in Washington for about two weeks or more during December, the rest of the time I will be around the District speaking and visiting. My vacation? I spent it in the hospital recovering from the flu.

My mobile trailer office, parked on the streets and at highway intersections, created considerable attention. But there were also amusing moments when more than once people came up and asked to have their chests x-rayed. It so happened that the State Health Department's x-ray trailer had occupied similar locations to the ones where we parked our trailer.

By BENNETT CERF

KARL BAEDEKER, the man who made guide books famous, was born in Germany in 1861, and started his career with a Traveler's Handbook of the Rhine, based on his own detours and minute studies of food and service, cleanliness and prices charged at small as well as luxurious restaurants and hotels. When he turned the business over to his sons 40 years later, his guide books literally covered the globe.

Success did not affect Baedeker's methods. He seemed suspicious of reports turned in by his own agents, preferred traveling incognito to check on their work. As the witty A. P. Herbert put it, "Kings and governments may err, but never Mr. Baedeker." All Baedekers carried a note that should take a prize in any and all contests for classic understatement: "When traveling, ladies add considerably to the expense."

Dr. Stanley Tells Mrs. Ables Resigns As President Of County Council

Dr. Gordon Stanley, Sanford pediatrician, was the guest speaker at a meeting of the Seminole County Association of the International Organization of Childhood Education recently. With the family rests the responsibility of creating happier adults through congenial home life. In a previous meeting, the association had voted to purchase a pediatric table for the Seminole Memorial Hospital. A plaque will be placed on the table in memory of Stella P. Arrington. During the business session, members voted to purchase ACE literature to place in local schools. Miss Bowman, music teacher in Elementary Schools in this county, sang the "Lord's Prayer." Miss Bowman was accompanied by Roger Harris of Seminole High School. The meeting followed a barbequed chicken dinner, served in the Pinecrest School lunchroom. The room was decorated with autumn leaves. Approximately 48 attended the meeting. In January the association will meet at the Lyman school.

'Sun Also Rises' Opens Here Sunday

Darryl F. Zanuck's eagerly-awaited CinemaScope production of Ernest Hemingway's "The Sun Also Rises," which opens here on Sunday at the Movieland Ride-In Theatre, deals with the turbulent lives of several members of what has come to be called "the lost generation," played by stars Tyrone Power, Ava Gardner, Mel Ferrer, Errol Flynn and Eddie Albert.

This monumental Twentieth Century-Fox production, incorporating all of the special genius of Zanuck, the vast ability of Director Henry King and the power and color of what has often been said is Hemingway's finest novel, tells specifically the story of Jake Barnes (Tyrone Power) and Lady Brett Ashley (Ava Gardner) and their struggle to try to solve their seemingly hopeless love.

Moving against the authentic Hemingway backdrop of Paris, Montmartre, Biarritz, France, and the sea-long bullfight fiesta of Pamplona, Spain, the film deals with the intertwined lives of these members of post World War I Anglo-American society. These are people who have remained in Paris and throughout Europe after the war—as many remain there today, and who "live as though they are about to die."

What promises to be a major screen achievement from all angles, the film boasts an impressive cast of supporting and feature players including Gregory Ratoff, Juliette Greco and Robert Evans, whose portrayal of Romero, the bullfighter, has already occasioned much notice throughout the motion picture industry.

Also in the picture are Marcel Dalio, Henry Daniell, Bob Cunningham, Danik Patison, Eduardo Noriega, Jacqueline Evans, Carlos Musquiz, Rebecca Irujo and Carlos David Ortigo.

Perfect technical feats in the filming, particularly the fiesta scenes which have never been so completely covered by a camera crew, have been blended with the hand-picked cast.

The interpretation of Hemingway's book has been aimed at adding a new cinematic depth to the author's famous characters without losing the essential value of their established identities. For Peter Viertel, script-writer for the production and a good friend of Hemingway's, is a firm believer in retaining the basic merit of proven works—the dialogue, the plot, the character development are all Hemingway, with a new depth lent by Zanuck.

Upon agreeing to write the screenplay, Viertel immediately flew to Cuba to confer with the author. The fiesta which Hemingway loves so well, like the story, will be faithfully recreated in De Luxe Color showing the parades, processions of churchgoers, the tourists and townspeople playing themselves and, the highlight of the fiesta, the famed running-of-the-bulls through the streets of Pamplona each day before the bullfight.

Authentic Bullfight Actual bullfight scenes (Robert Evans trained under top matadors for 3 months) have been staged for the film and Zanuck had special filming equipment constructed to gain an accurate and realistic view of the time-honored event.

From all this, it seems that Darryl F. Zanuck has again produced a film which will deserve to be ranked equally with the great book from which it has been drawn—and should be a personal triumph for everyone, from producer to extra.

3 Stars Will Be Seen In 'Fire Down Below'

Rita Hayworth, Robert Mitchum and Jack Lemmon, three of Hollywood's biggest, star in Columbia Pictures' "Fire Down Below," due Sunday at the Ritz Theatre. Filmed in the West Indies, in CinemaScope with print by Technicolor, "Fire Down Below" reportedly is one of the film industry's most exotic, exciting romantic dramas.

Bounded by heat, hurricane and the Caribbean Sea, where banana boats and hunted women ply their trades, "Fire Down Below" is the story of a beautiful woman, a mysterious exile who might run out of countries but never out of men, and of the two adventurers who are ready to tear each other apart for a chance to pick her up.

Briefly, "Fire Down Below" tells about Miss Hayworth, a woman from nowhere who is going out money, without hope, she is weary with life and with the countless but sterile encounters she has had with men, until she joins Mitchum and Lemmon; Lemmon falls in love with her, Mitchum desires her. Lemmon proposes, she accepts and Mitchum promptly sets up a double-cross which loses the partners their boat and sends Lemmon fleeing from the Coast Guard. Lemmon returns to the island as a sailor on a freighter.

The official motto of Montana, the Treasure State, is "Gold and Silver."

determined to reach Mitchum and kill him. But he is trapped below decks when his ship hits another; he faces a terrible death as a consequence fire rages out of control. "Fire Down Below" was filmed on the beautiful tropical islands of Trinidad and Tobago. Trinidad, home of the popular calypso song, also contributed a group of limbo dancers to "Fire Down Below," and there is a spectacular scene in which Miss Hayworth does a wild and abandoned calypso dance when she is caught up in the throbbing excitement of a street carnival on an island in the Caribbean, home of the popular, new music beat.

A Warwick Production, "Fire Down Below" was written for the screen by Irwin Shaw. Robert Parrish directed and Irving Allen and Albert R. Broccoli produced the romantic drama for Columbia Pictures.

Bernstein Will Direct New York Philharmonic

NEW YORK (UP)—A TV star with a hit show on Broadway was named Tuesday to be musical director of the New York Philharmonic.

Leonard Bernstein will be the first American-born conductor to head the orchestra in its 116-year history. He will take over next fall from Dimitri Mitropoulos, with whom he is presently co-conductor.

Now 39, he will be also the orchestra's second youngest musical director, about one year older than Sir John Barbirolli when he began a three-year tenure in 1937.

Bernstein has been associated with the Philharmonic since 1943. In that year he made his Carnegie Hall conducting debut on short notice replacing Bruno Walter, who had become ill. The performance of the 25-year-old substitute won him front page rave reviews the following morning.

Since that time he has won fame for an extraordinary diversity of musical achievement. "West Side Story," now playing, is his third Broadway musical hit in four tries. The others were "On the Town" and "Wonderful Town," both successes, and "Candide," which wasn't.

He is also a composer of serious music. His "Jeremiah Symphony" won the 1944 award of the Music Critics Circle; he has also written another symphony, a short opera, and a number of shorter works.

He has introduced thousands of people to the intricacies of music from Bach to hot jazz in a series of programs for the TV show "Omnibus."

Mitropoulos, 81, announced Bernstein's choice as his successor and said he was "abdication with joy." The Greek-born conductor, who has headed the Philharmonic since 1950, said he was no longer able to direct the orchestra and meet the demands of "a very tempting mistress," the Metropolitan Opera.

Seminoles Travel To Lakeview Tonight

By JERRY COVINGTON
The winning Sanford Seminoles invade Winter Garden tonight for their fifth OBC conference contest. They now sport a 2-1 conference record and will be trying to add another victory to the 5-1 season record. Lakeview has been up and down all season so it is anyone's guess how they will be for the contest. They came from behind to defeat Winter Park two weeks ago but let down against Apopka last week and were defeated by three touchdowns.

Suffering their first defeat of the season, the Seminoles seem to have remarkably good spirit for this contest. The news that Jack Stotsky will definitely be ready for offensive duties created good spirit for the entire team. Jack will alternate with Mike Tammy who will be in on defense. The entire line has taken on a new "spurt" of enthusiasm for this contest as they know that a great season is still at stake. Led by Billy Tyre, Tom Brown, Claude "Bubba" Hittell, Dave Stanley, and Teddy Walker, these boys have compiled remarkable defensive records throughout the season and it is supposed that they will hold all their opponents under 100 yards rushing throughout the season. There is much college material in this forward wall and it is a hunch that these aces will really come into their own in these remaining contests.

The offensive attack has brightened up in workouts this week and all the boys will be going full speed to "eat up" the Red Devils. Cecil Dandridge has worked hard to improve the passing game and it has come around considerably, so fans can count on quite a show in this department. Cecil has managed to maintain almost a 500 average for the season and has been one of the key men in the success of the Seminoles. He has handled all the signal calling, punting, and passing and has shown constant improvement.

Eddie Barbour has proven to be one of the best dive backs in the state by being able to pick up short yardage when needed. His running partner, Johnny Yeacole, had a rough night against Melbourne and it is a hunch that he will make up for it tonight.

Bob Johnson, last week's outstanding back, has looked good in workouts this week and will be ready to give the Seminoles plenty of yardage. With the strong defense and the well-balanced offense, the Seminoles should be able to take the honors. Join in the motorcade at 6:30 at the high school and travel to Winter Garden for a great ball game. Kickoff time is set for 8 at the high school field just west of town.

Final Peanut Bowl Plans Are Outlined

At the November meeting of the Grammar School P.T.A. on Tuesday, final plans were outlined for the third Peanut Bowl. A dash of bowl fever pervaded the air as the program was described to the P.T.A. members. The game is scheduled for 7:30 p. m. in the city stadium Friday, Dec. 13th. The program begins with a touch football game between the sixth grade "Lions" (fathers) and the fifth grade "Tigers" (mothers). The first practice session for the "Lions" and "Tigers" is scheduled at 4:30 p. m. Tuesday, Nov. 26 at Memorial Stadium and is open to the public.

Concessions will be under the direction of Bill Harvey. A full course menu of hot dogs, peanuts, popcorn, soft drinks and coffee will be served. Ticket sales on Nov. 18 with school children who volunteered being allowed to sell to their families and close friends. Downtown locations for tickets sales are Roumillat and Anderson, Touchton Drug Co., Faust Drug Store, Yowell's Department Store, Echols Furniture, and B. L. Perkins men's store. Tickets will be on sale at City Stadium the night of the game.

A fine attendance is expected for Sanford's only bowl game to be played at home this year.

ORTEGA IN TRAINING
NEW YORK (UP)—Gaspar Ortega of Mexico began training at Stillman's Gymnasium today for his Dec. 6 welterweight title elimination match at Cleveland with Isaac Logart of Cuba. Ortega, who arrived from Tijuana, Mexico, Tuesday, will remain here until a week before the bout, then go to Cleveland.

JACK STOTSKY will be ready for action with the Seminoles tonight after a knee injury. (Photo by Bergstrom)

Prizes Are Awarded At Assn. Luncheon

Prizes won in tournaments during the past month were awarded Wednesday at a luncheon meeting of the Sanford Women's Golf Association. The luncheon was held in the dining room of the Mayfair Country Club. Winners of last week's tournament were announced. The tournament was "least fairway shots" and won by Class A, Virginia Sullivan, and Myrtle Adams, Class B, Carlie Stribling, Class C, Harriet Williams, Class D, Claire Fite. Low putts won by Catherine Park.

The ringer tournament for the past month was won by Mary Ed Weeks. Cile Heard, registration chairman for the State tournament, announced that members must register for the tournament in April whether they play or not if they wish to attend the social functions. If their handicap is above 20, or they do not wish to play, they will register as social participants.

Crying towels were presented to Lib Cleveland and Anne Witzel, who are leaving town. The towels were signed by members present. An invitation to join the Orlando Women's Golf Association composed of four other clubs was turned down by unanimous vote. There were 5 present. The president, Mrs. Crella Higginbotham, conducted the meeting. The tournament Wednesday was the annual Navy Wives tournament in which only civilians may play for a prize given by the Navy wives.

ST. LOUIS WINS
Louise of Trinidad outpointed British welterweight champion Peter Waterman Tuesday night in a non-title bout. Waterman holds a victory over former world champ Kid Gavilan.

AGREE ON PURSE
YONKERS, N. Y. ## Giants, Dodgers Schedule Told

SAN FRANCISCO (UP)—The Los Angeles Dodgers and the San Francisco Giants, playing their first year in the Far West, will get to show off in front of Pacific Coast fans nearly every day for the first three weeks of 1953, National League schedules released today revealed.

The Giants, who will be playing in Seals Stadium with a seating capacity of only 25,000, play 22 of their first 25 games at home; the Dodgers, who may play in either the 28,000-seat Wrigley Field or the 105,000-seat Coliseum, will play 18 of their first 21 tilts on the home front.

At Dodgers headquarters there was great elation over the drastically revamped schedule. "When we won our 1955 pennant we got away to a huge lead on the home lot," said business manager Harold Parrott. "We had the same type of schedule."

Educators Give Views On Kind Of Improvements Needed In Schools

WASHINGTON (UP) — Two years ago, a high Soviet official told an American educator who was visiting Russia:

"We're not going to fight a hot war with you. We're going to lick you in the classroom."

Few Americans were prepared in 1955 to take this Soviet boast seriously. The U. S. school system, despite its "temporary" shortages of space and faculty, was widely regarded then as the best in the world. Russia was credited with a few good technical schools but its overall educational system was considered rather primitive.

Complacency Underlies

Three recent developments have shaken complacency such American educators:

1. Disclosure that Russia is training far more scientists and engineers than the United States. Russian schools graduate 60,000 engineers a year to our 34,000; 8,000 Ph.D.'s in science to our 6,000.

2. Sputniks I and II blasted any notion that Russia is sacrificing quality for quantity in technical education.

3. A U. S. Office of Education report showed that Russian students work much longer and harder, and receive far more intensive training in science, mathematics and languages than American students.

President Eisenhower had all of these facts in mind when he said in his Nov. 14 broadcast that strengthening U. S. schools is "the most critical problem" confronting the nation in its race with Russia for scientific and military supremacy.

Scientists Echo President

The President's warning since has been echoed by leading scientists and educators and by millions of parents who were concerned about the state of our schools long before Sputnik I and II.

While everyone seems to agree that America needs better schools, a United Press survey disclosed a wide range of views on the kind of improvements most urgently needed.

Some critics are calling for drastic reforms in the content and philosophy of American education. They say high school and college curriculums must be overhauled from top to bottom. They would restore emphasis to solid intellectual achievement and the teaching of basic subjects—not only math and science, but also history, geography, foreign languages, English grammar and literature.

Rear Adm. H. G. Rickover, a noted atomic scientist, said "scholastic standards" must be raised sharply at every level of U. S. Education. He contends they have become so lax that the average American college graduate has less real education than a graduate of European high schools.

Teachers Turn Deaf Ear

Morimer Smith, executive secretary of the Council for Basic Education, said U. S. schools are dominated by professional educators who turn a deaf ear to all outside criticism. These professors, he said, are so bemused by their "life-adjustment" theories of education that they have "lost sight of the real functions of a school—to present an organized body of knowledge and teach children to use their minds effectively."

Millions of American youths, says Smith, are being taught to "drive cars, weave baskets, choose mates, and behave gracefully at a party" when they should be learning to solve quadratic equations, conduct experiments in organic chemistry, or parse a sentence.

Professional educators say these criticisms are intemperate and unfair. Most acknowledge a need for some curriculum "adjustments" to increase emphasis on science, mathematics and other basic studies. But they oppose sweeping changes which would upset the "balance" of American education or deprive students of freedom to choose courses which meet their individual "life needs."

Weather

Partly cloudy and warm with a few widely scattered showers Monday. Generally fair and cooler Monday night and Tuesday.

King Mohammed Arrives Today For U. S. Visit

A MOTOR SCOOTER and passenger automobile smash-up at the intersection of Park Ave. and 13th Street late Friday afternoon. Sanford Police Department investigates. (Staff Photo)

WASHINGTON (UP)— King Mohammed V of Morocco arrives today for his first U. S. visit, in which he will attempt to iron out some problems and see the nation and its people from President Eisenhower to Joe Smith.

The three week tour will include a three-day official state visit here which is expected to further cement ties with the West.

From the time he enters this nation King Mohammed will get the deluxe red carpet treatment. President Eisenhower will greet him personally at the airport, an honor accorded only heads of state.

The King and President will ride in a motorcade to the White House from the airport. Mohammed V. will lunch privately at Blair House and will meet the press during a reception later in the afternoon.

Will Give State Dinner

Tonight President and Mrs. Eisenhower will entertain King Mohammed and his official party at a state dinner at the White House.

From the time he enters this nation King Mohammed is expected to confer with the President at least twice. He will also talk with Secretary of State John Foster Dulles.

Mohammed V, leader of a potentially rich nation of nine million souls at the western end of the Arab bloc, is one of the most respected statesmen of the Moslem world.

While in the United States King Mohammed wants to look at an American supermarket. He will visit a department store and some average American homes as well.

In his talks with U. S. officials King Mohammed and Foreign Minister Ahmed Balafout are expected to try to win support for the joint Moroccan-Tunisian effort to mediate the three-year-old nationalist rebellion against the French in neighboring Algeria.

Krider Named Chairman Of State Waterways Executive Committee

The Florida Waterways Committee will open a permanent office in Tampa, John Krider, chairman of the executive committee, said today.

At a meeting of the Florida Waterways Committee held in Tallahassee Friday, Krider was named chairman of the executive committee following election of committee members from the six districts of Florida.

Representatives on the executive committee from the various districts are: District One, W. Palmer Van Arsdale, Fort Lauderdale and Alex M. Balfe of Miami; district two, Gleason M. Stambaugh, West Palm Beach and Paul Franklin, Fort Myers; district three, Robert Thomas and Jack Fitzgerald, both of Tampa; district four, John Krider, Sanford and G. G. Ware of Leesburg; district five, Charles E. Commander and Gordon Thompson, both of Jacksonville; district six, Roy S. Philpot, Pensacola and H. C. Brown, Port St. Joe.

Other officers named Friday were W. Palmer Van Arsdale of Fort Lauderdale, vice chairman, and G. G. Ware of Leesburg as secretary-treasurer.

Next meeting of the committee has been set for Dec. 6, at West Palm Beach, Krider said today.

Friday's meeting of the group as a whole was the last one until November of next year. Under the by-laws only annual meetings are called, except for the executive committee.

Krider said the executive committee would meet as called during the next months, but would eventually meet only four times a year.

Board To Consider Zoning, Planning Board Appointment

The Board of Sanford City Commissioners will hear a letter of resignation tonight from Robert S. Brown stepping down from the Planning and Zoning Commission to accept his seat on the Board of Commissioners.

The Board of Commissioners will also consider an appointment to the Zoning and Planning Commission to fill the vacancy. Brown served as chairman of the City appointed board since its creation.

Also to come before the Board of Sanford City Commission at its meeting tonight will be a discussion by the City Attorney, Wm. C. Hutchison, concerning a suggested revision to the licensing ordinance in regards to photographers.

A change in the Jaycee's agreement with the city and the use of the French Ave. Park area for a "greenhouse" information booth, will come before the commissioners for discussion tonight.

The first reading of three ordinances will be heard at tonight's meeting of the commissioners. The vacating of an easement, distribution of gasoline in glass containers, and three amendments to the Zoning Ordinance are slated for their first reading.

The recommendation to rezone Lots 1, 2 and 3 of Block 13, San Lanta subdivision, from the Zoning and Planning Commission will be considered at tonight's meeting of the Board of Commissioners.

Six items appear on the published agenda. However, it is expected that the Board of Commissioners will be confronted with other problems in unpublished memorandums distributed only to commissioners.

The commission will also hear miscellaneous business from the floor and members of the commission.

Not appearing on tonight's agenda is a report on action taken toward bringing the docks and terminals project into the forefront as the city's "number one" project to be completed.

Herald To Publish Special Gift Edition Tomorrow

Readers of The Sanford Herald will be treated to a new idea in Christmas Gift Editions tomorrow when a — page special edition featuring gift suggestions actually seen in Sanford stores will be published.

Beginning with tomorrow's annual Sanford Herald Christmas Gift Edition photographs taken of gift suggestions on display in Sanford stores will be featured.

Nearly every store, featuring merchandise for Christmas gifts, is represented in the pictorial display of everything from art to zithers.

Several days were taken in securing the photographs of merchandise on display in local stores so that shoppers here could see, graphically, the enormous selection from which Christmas gift shoppers can choose.

Toys, furniture, electric appliances, sporting goods, television sets, glassware, silver and jewelry are all represented in the pictorial display of the most exciting array of Christmas gifts ever to go before the eyes of Sanford shoppers.

Tomorrow's special edition, in three sections, will also carry the advertisements of local merchants as they begin to display a grand and glorious array of Christmas gifts for the happiest and most memorable of all Christmas seasons.

As The Sanford Herald rolls from the press tomorrow afternoon, a new and different Christmas Gift Edition will be delivered to homes throughout the Sanford and Seminole County area.

It depicts the beginning of the Christmas Gift Shopping season in local stores and displays through the lens of a camera the many fine and unusual gifts available in hometown stores.

Motor Scooter, Auto Collide

A 17-year-old Negro youth was slightly injured late Friday afternoon when he was thrown off his motor scooter when it collided with a passenger car at the intersection of Park and 13th St.

Joe Cephus Royal, of Apt. 37, Castle Brewer Court, was traveling west on 13th street, when his motor scooter collided with an automobile driven by Genious Ray Holloman, AD2, attached to HATU at the Sanford Naval Air Station.

Holloman, a Negro, attempted a right turn into a filling station at the intersection when the accident occurred.

Capt. Arnold Williams and Patrolman Carl Dodson of the Sanford Police Department reported about $20 damage to the automobile and $25 damage to the scooter.

Helicopter Makes Forced Landing

A helicopter on a routine training flight from the Sanford Naval Air Station made a forced landing because of engine failure early Friday afternoon in an area on the northwest side of Lake Jessup.

NAS spokesman said this morning that the helicopter, piloted by Lt. Cdr. W. M. Webber, and with AD2 J. W. Waters as plane captain and AD2A R. F. Lambertson Jr. of VAH-11 as an observer, left the naval air station at 1:05 p. m. Friday afternoon on the training flight.

Because of the engine failure, the helicopter made the forced landing in a swamp area and turned over on its side.

Cdr. H. H. Hamrick, on duty at the time of the helicopter's flight, became anxious about the whereabouts of the plane when reports failed to come in from the aircraft. Aircraft at the station were alerted and rescue operations began.

However, Lt. Cdr. Webber and the two crewmen, walked about one mile through the swampy area and two miles on high ground to reach a phone on Geneva Ave. and report the accident.

The Sanford Naval Air Station spokesman said that there were no injuries and the helicopter is being salvaged.

Public's Attention Called To Gun Law

Sheriff J. L. Hobby, this morning called the public's attention to a gun law relating to children.

He said a number of complaints are being received and "I want as many people as possible to know about the law which we must strictly enforce."

The law, said Sheriff Hobby, is Florida Statute 790.22 which is an act relating to the regulation of children under the age of 18 years in the use of air rifles, bb guns, or .22 cal. rifles.

Section One of the law reads "The use for any purpose whatsoever of bb guns, air rifles and .22 cal. rifles by any child under the age of 18 years is prohibited unless such is under the supervision and in the presence of an adult."

Section Two states "Any adult responsible for the welfare of any child under the age of 18 years who knowingly permits such child to use or have in his possession any bb gun, air rifle or .22 cal. rifle in violation of the Section One of this act shall be guilty of misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by fine of not more than $300 or by imprisonment for not longer than 30 days.

"We have had many complaints about the violation of this law," Sheriff Hobby said. "This is the law and we're passing information along to as many people as possible," he said.

Nominees Take Wait, See Attitude

By Mrs. Raymond Morris CASSELLBERRY— A wait and see attitude seems to point up interest among prospective candidates in the local political contests to be decided here on Dec. 2.

Frances Allen, town clerk, said that only one candidate had filed for each of the offices of mayor, clerk and marshal and two for the two seats to be filled on the board of aldermen.

Mrs. Allen said that others have indicated their intentions of filing, but had not yet done so. In that group are: for mayor, Donald Wilson, incumbent and Paul Altman and Hibbard Casselberry for aldermen. Altman was appointed in October to serve out the unexpired term of the late Floyd B. Smith.

Applications have been filed by Capt. J. D. Bryant for mayor; Mrs. R. R. Rogers and Douglas V. Cochrane for aldermen. Mrs. Allen and Nash B. Kennedy, incumbents for clerk and marshal respectively.

Mayor Willson, ending his first term December 31, has resided in Casselberry for approximately ten years. He was elected by a landslide vote in his initial try for local office last year. Willson, a retired business man of Rochester, N. Y. built and operated the Top Motel here, later selling out to Mr. and Mrs. Robert O'Neill.

The paving of East Lake Triplet and North Lake Triplet Drives this year at no cost to the town, stands out as a major accomplishment of Willson's administration. Property owners on the two streets, under Mayor Willson's leadership made voluntary pro-rata contributions to underwrite the paving cost.

Should Willson seek a second term his only opponent at this time is Bryant who, with his wife and three children, has resided at 321 Piney Ridge Rd. for approximately three years.

Bryant filed for mayor last year but because of a military ruling withdrew from the race. At that time Bryant was commander of Sanford's Company B of the Florida National Guard. More recently he has been assigned to the reserve. He is employed by the Railway Express Company at Orlando.

Bryant served in World War II in military intelligence and as a combat commander in the Korean campaign.

Mrs. Allen is serving her third successive term as clerk and Kennedy a fourth term, not in succession.

Holdover aldermen are Lytle Swope, Graham Wilson and chairman Junius Allen, the latter a two-term mayor.

Leaders Try To Reknit Anglo-French Alliance

PARIS (UP)— British Prime Minister Harold Macmillan and French Premier Felix Gaillard met today to try to reknit the Anglo-French alliance which was badly torn by American and British arm shipments to Tunisia.

Extra police precautions were put into effect when Macmillan flew in from London. There is an explosively anti-British atmosphere here, and a right wing group called for a "British demonstration in the Place De La Concorde near the U.S. and British embassies.

Macmillan flies back to London this evening, so his encounter today with Gaillard was to be a brief one. But the agenda was heavy with crucial issues which affected the whole Western alliance and the Dec. 16 NATO summit conference.

Main Topics Listed

Here are the main topics up for discussion:

—Tunisian arms. The French are still angry over the "token" delivery of rifles and submachine-guns to Tunisia by Britain and America.

—Algeria. France wants assurances of British support again this year when the Algerian crisis is debated in the United Nations. This may not be forthcoming since Britain feels Gaillard's plans for Algeria are not sufficient to end the rebellion and that the rebellion threatens NATO.

—NATO. France claims that Britain and the United States plan to set up an Anglo-American "disturbance" to run NATO. British Foreign Minister Selwyn Lloyd who accompanied Macmillan today has emphatically denied this.

Seeks Free Trade Plan

—Free Trade. Britain wants other West European nations to agree to a plan which would include and supplement the six-nation common market. France is suspicious of the British plan, fears Britain would wreck the common market.

British political observers said the fate of the NATO summit meeting depends to a large degree on the smoothing over of the breach between France and Britain and America.

Presidential Press Secretary James Haggerty told a news conference in Paris Sunday Eisenhower probably would be prepared to stay over an extra day or so if things do not go smoothly at the NATO meeting.

Educators Give Views On Kind Of Improvements Needed In Schools

WASHINGTON (UP) — Two years ago, a high Soviet official told an American educator who was visiting Russia:

"We're not going to fight a hot war with you. We're going to lick you in the classroom."

Few Americans were prepared in 1955 to take this Soviet boast seriously. The U. S. school system, despite its "temporary" shortages of space and faculty, was widely regarded then as the best in the world. Russia was credited with a few good technical schools but its overall educational system was considered rather primitive.

Complacency Undermines Progress

Three recent developments have shaken complacency such American educators:

1. Disclosure that Russia is training far more scientists and engineers than the United States. Russian schools graduate 60,000 engineers a year to our 34,000; 8,000 Ph.D.'s in science to our 6,000.

2. Sputniks I and II blasted any notion that Russia is sacrificing quality for quantity in technical education.
3. A U. S. Office of Education report showed that Russian students work much longer and harder, and receive far more intensive training in science, mathematics and languages than American students.

President Eisenhower had all of these facts in mind when he said in his Nov. 14 broadcast that strengthening U. S. schools is "the most critical problem" confronting the nation in its race with Russia for scientific and military supremacy.

Scientists Echo President

The President's warning since has been echoed by leading scientists and educators and by millions of parents who were concerned about the state of our schools long before Sputnik I and II.

While everyone seems to agree that America needs better schools, a United Press survey disclosed a wide range of views on the kind of improvements most urgently needed.

Some critics are calling for drastic reforms in the content and philosophy of American education. They say high school and college curricula must be overhauled from top to bottom. They would restore emphasis to solid intellectual achievement and the teaching of basic subjects—not only math and science, but also history, geography, foreign languages, English grammar and literature.

Rear Adm. H. G. Rickover, a noted atomic scientist, said "scholastic standards" must be raised sharply at every level of U. S. Education. He contends they have become so lax that the average American college graduate has less real education than a graduate of European high schools.

Teachers Turn Deaf Ear

Morimer Smith, executive secretary of the Council for Basic Education, said U. S. schools are dominated by professional educators who turn a deaf ear to all outside criticism. These professors, he said, are so bemused by their "life-adjustment" theories of education that they have "lost sight of the real functions of a school—to present an organized body of knowledge and teach children to use their minds effectively."

Millions of American youths, says Smith, are being taught to "drive cars, weave baskets, choose mates, and behave gracefully at a party" when they should be learning to solve quadratic equations, conduct experiments in organic chemistry, or parse a sentence.

Professional educators say these criticisms are intemperate and unfair. Most acknowledge a need for some curriculum "adjustments" to increase emphasis on science, mathematics and other basic studies. But they oppose sweeping changes which would upset the "balance" of American education or deprive students of freedom to choose courses which meet their individual "life needs."

Weather

Partly cloudy and warm with a few widely scattered showers Monday. Generally fair and cooler Monday night and Tuesday.

Motor Scooter, Auto Collide

A 17-year-old Negro youth was slightly injured late Friday afternoon when he was thrown off his motor scooter when it collided with a passenger car at the intersection of Park and 13th St.

Joe Cephus Royal, of Apt. 37, Castle Brewer Court, was traveling west on 13th street, when his motor scooter collided with an automobile driven by Genious Ray Holloman, AD2, attached to HATU at the Sanford Naval Air Station.

Holloman, a Negro, attempted a right turn into a filling station at the intersection when the accident occurred.

Capt. Arnold Williams and Patrolman Carl Dodson of the Sanford Police Department reported about $20 damage to the automobile and $25 damage to the scooter.

Helicopter Makes Forced Landing

A helicopter on a routine training flight from the Sanford Naval Air Station made a forced landing because of engine failure early Friday afternoon in an area on the northwest side of Lake Jessup.

NAS spokesman said this morning that the helicopter, piloted by Lt. Cdr. W. M. Webber, and with AD2 J. W. Walters as plane captain and AD2A R. F. Lamberton Jr. of VAF-11 as an observer, left the naval air station at 1:05 p. m. Friday afternoon on the training flight.

Because of the engine failure, the helicopter made the forced landing in a swamp area and turned over on its side.

Cdr. H. H. Hamrick, on duty at the time of the helicopter's flight, became anxious about the whereabouts of the plane when reports failed to come in from the aircraft. Aircraft at the station were alerted and rescue operations began.

However, Lt. Cdr. Webber and the two crewmen, walked about one mile through the swampy area and two miles on high ground to reach a phone on Geneva Ave. and report the accident.

The Sanford Naval Air Station spokesman said that there were no injuries and the helicopter is being salvaged.

Public's Attention Called To Gun Law

Sheriff J. L. Hobby, this morning called the public's attention to a gun law relating to children.

He said a number of complaints are being received and "I want as many people as possible to know about the law which we must strictly enforce."

The law, said Sheriff Hobby, is Florida Statute 790.22 which is an act relating to the regulation of children under the age of 18 years in the use of air rifles, bb guns, or 22 cal. rifles.

Section One of the law reads "The use for any purpose whatsoever of bb guns, air rifles and 22 cal. rifles by any child under the age of 18 years is prohibited unless such is under the supervision and in the presence of an adult."

Section Two states "Any adult responsible for the welfare of any child under the age of 18 years who knowingly permits such child to use or have in his possession any bb gun, air rifle or 22 cal. rifle in violation of the Section One of this act shall be guilty of misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by fine of not more than $300 or by imprisonment for not longer than 30 days.

"We have had many complaints about the violation of this law," Sheriff Hobby said. "This is the law and we're passing information along to as many people as possible," he said.
