PENNOCK HUMBLER PIRATES, 8-1

Yankee Star Yields Only Three Bingles; Mambino Hits Homer

YANKEE STADIUM, New York, Oct. 7.—(INS)—Babe Ruth hit a home run with two on base and Herb Pennock pitched a three hit game the New York Yankees defeated the Pittsburgh Pirates 8 to 1, here this afternoon. It was New York's third consecutive victory over the Pirates and they now need only one game to capture the 1927 World Series.

BOX SCORE

Pittsburgh	AB	R	H	O	A	E
L. Waner	4	0	1	1	1	0
P. Waner	4	0	0	0	0	0
Wright	3	0	0	3	2	0
Traynor	3	1	1	0	3	1
Barnhart	3	0	1	0	1	0
Harris	1	0	1	1	0	0
Meadows	2	0	0	0	2	0

It was a dramatic, if one sided game. Most of the fireworks came in the seventh inning when New York slugger knocked Meadows out of the box and scored six runs. It was in this inning that Ruth slammed his prodigious homer high into the right field bleachers. It was the first homer hit in the series.

Pittsburgh never had a chance, one thing Pennock was too good for. So good, in fact that he did not allow a hit until the eighth inning when Traynor singled with two on base. Barnhart then doubled and Traynor scored Pittsburgh's only run.

First Inning
Lloyd Waner went out to second. Rhyme flied out to Meusel. Left field. Lued Waner flied out to the same place. No runs, no errors.

Second Inning
Combs singled through the box. Meusel got an infield hit and went to second. Ruth flied to right field. Gehrig tripled to center. Combs and Koenig, Gehrig scored when tried to stretch this into a home run. Two runs, no errors.

Third Inning
Harris flied out to center field. Combs fanned and he protested. Meusel grounded to Lazzari. No runs, no errors.

Fourth Inning
Lloyd Waner grounded to first. Rhyme tried to bunt. Rhyme flied to second base. Dugan had a great catch of Paul Waner's bid for a double. No runs, no errors.

Fifth Inning
Wright popped up to the catcher. Traynor did the same thing. Barnhart flied out to center field. It was a spectacular catch and it looked like a certain triple.

Sixth Inning
Harris went out, pitcher to first. Meusel flied out to Ruth in right. Meadows flied out to Combs. No runs, no hits, no errors.

Seventh Inning
Lloyd Waner grounded to short. Meusel grounded to third who made a great stop. Paul Waner grounded to short. No runs, no errors.

Score by Innings:
Pittsburgh 000-000-010-13-9
New York 200-000-60-8-9-0
Two base hits—Gehrig, Koenig, Barnhart.
Three base hits—Gehrig.
Left on bases—Barnhart, 2; New York 4. Hits off Meadows 7 hits 5 runs in 6-1-3 innings. Off Cvangros 2 hits 3 runs in 2-1-3 innings; Bases on balls off Meadows 1, off Pennock 0; off Cvangros 0; Struck out by Meadows 6; by Cvangros 2; by Pennock 1. Losing pitcher Meadows.
Time of game two hours 10 minutes.
Umpires Moran, Ormsby, Quigley, Nallin.

Penock going to third. Koenig doubled against right field fence and Penock scored. Combs went to third. Cvangros replaced Meadows. Babe Ruth knocked a home run, the first of the series. It was into the field bleachers and almost cleared the stands. Gehrig fanned and Meusel also whiffed. Six runs, four hits, no errors.

Eighth Inning
Bengough went in to catch for the Yankees. Wright grounded to Koenig who made a brilliant play. Traynor singled to left to spoil Penock's no hit game. Barnhart doubled to right center and Traynor scattered home. Harris grounded to third. Spencer batting for Goeh grounded out to short. One run, two hits, no errors.

Ninth Inning
Lazzari grounded out to second. Dugan singled through the box. Bengough grounded to second and Dugan went to the Keystone sack. Penock grounded out to third base. No runs, one hit, no errors.

Tenth Inning
Groh batting for Cvangros, popped up to pitcher. Lloyd Waner singled along the third base line. Rhyme flied out to Combs. Paul Waner popped up to Lazzari. No runs, one hit, no errors.

Bed Time Story Man Of WJAX Pays Visit
To City On Bicycle

Ernest W. Taylor, known to tiny radio fans as the "bed-time story man" of WJAX at Jacksonville and a cyclist of some note, was a visitor in Sanford today on his return trip from Miami to Jacksonville. He arrived on his specially equipped bicycle about noon and departed two hours later for his home.

"Uncle Jim" as he is better known in Jacksonville is connected with the park and playground department of the city of Jacksonville. He also edits a weekly column in the Florida Radio Review of Jacksonville.

He left Jacksonville on his fiftieth wedding anniversary taking a two weeks vacation in the form he enjoys it annually. He averaged 11 miles an hour on the trip so far. The wheel will have covered a third the distance of a transcontinental flight when he reaches Jacksonville—a distance of about 1,000 miles.

INDICTMENT IS MADE IN CASE OF LILIENDAHL

Woman Assigned Robbery As Motive For Murder But Inquiry Showed Love Affair

MAY'S LANDING, N. J., Oct. 7.—(INS)—Mrs. Margaret Lillien-dahl, 42, and the man who admitted to the murder of her husband, Willis Beach, 50, were both indicted today for the murder of the woman's husband Dr. William Lillien-dahl, 75, narcotic specialist, who held in jail here, Mrs. Lillien-dahl and Beach will be arraigned Monday.

Both were named in one indictment, which was returned by the grand jury less than an hour after the return of this morning. Twenty-six witnesses had been called before the jury by the state, including those who are said to have made affidavits tending to show Beach had threatened the aged physician and that Dr. Lillien-dahl feared for his life.

The indictment found Beach and Mrs. Lillien-dahl did "willfully and with malice aforethought kill and murder one Dr. William Lillien-dahl."

The physician was slain in a lane near his home in Vignola. He had been shot three times. Mrs. Lillien-dahl who reported the killing, was found wandering along the main highway near the murder scene, and was said to have been hysterical. She told authorities her husband had been killed by negro thugs who attacked them while they were motoring.

She assigned robbery as their motive, but all the doctor's jewelry and money was found in nearby brush after a search by detectives. Investigation has since disclosed that Beach and Mrs. Lillien-dahl were to have figured in an "affair." It is also charged that Beach not only had requested Mrs. Lillien-dahl for money but had told a creditor that he would soon "come into money" when the "old doctor was fixed."

New Members Voted Into Garden Club At Meeting Held In Yacht Club Today

Seventeen new members were voted into the Sanford Garden Club at its first fall meeting held in the Yacht Club at 10 o'clock this morning. An attendance of forty-one enthusiastic old members amply demonstrated the wide appeal which the Garden Club is making in Sanford.

Today's program included an address of welcome to the club by Mrs. Henry Wright, a joint report on the massing and planting of native material by Mrs. Alexander Vaughn and Mrs. George G. Herling, and a short talk on the planning of the city lot by Mr. C. R. Mason.

Mrs. Wright extended a cordial welcome to both old members and new, said that she felt well satisfied with the work done by last year and hoped that this year the program might turn its attention somewhat toward civic beautification and beautification, citing the community beauty of the Tarzan Garden Club as an example of the benefit that comes to a city from this phase of garden club work.

Large Number Of Candidates
Who Have Announced

Sidney J. Catts, former governor of Florida and picturesque figure of this state's politics welcomed additional candidates for governorship in an interview with The Herald this morning at the Valdez. He arrived yesterday afternoon accompanied by his son, R. D. Catts. They will leave this afternoon continuing a tour of the Eastern section of the state.

Mr. Catts is confident that he will retain the office of "master of the good ship Florida" and said so emphatically this morning.

"The working man has always thought well of me. I am pleased to report I am meeting with favor by practically all levels of citizens and denominations, Catholic, Protestant and Jewish people.

"I will be the voter most surprised if I am not chosen governor in June, 1928. There are now seven candidates in the field. Let them continue to come on. The water is fine. So far the names of Doyle Carlton, Tampa; F. A. Hathaway, Jacksonville; F. C. Taylor, Pinellas; Dr. MacKenzie, Leesburg; Senator Watson, Dade County; H. H. Haynes, Alamoonte Springs and myself have been announced as candidates." Mr. Catts home is in DeFuniak Springs.

"The people who have always been with me are shaking my hands by the hundreds everywhere I go. I am retaining their support and I am continuing to make new friends all the time.

CINCINNATI, Ohio, Oct. 7.—(INS)—After declaring that he is "perfectly sane" and that he would not plead insanity, George Remus, former "king of the bootleggers," who killed his wife, Mrs. Imogene Remus, will plead insanity according to his friends here today.

Mrs. Remus was shot as Remus snatched her from a taxi-cab in Eden Park here yesterday morning, as she was enroute to the courthouse to press her divorce suit against the former bootlegger, who is rated a millionaire.

Preparations were complete here today for a preliminary hearing on Remus on a charge of first degree murder, at which he was expected to enter a plea of not guilty and be ordered held without bail until the new grand jury, starting Monday, can investigate the case.

Anticipating the insanity plea, county Prosecutor C. P. Taft last night had Remus examined by Dr. W. C. Kendig, Hamilton, county alienist. The findings of the alienist have not been made public.

Numerous friends of Remus gathered at the big four station here last night, and met his daughter, by a former marriage, Miss Romola Remus, 22 who came from (Continued on Page Six)

Probe Is Begun In Three Hayes Deaths

BLAKELY, Ga., Oct. 7.—(INS)—Investigation of the strange deaths of three members of the Hayes family of Early county in the past three months today was under way in the locked grand jury room at the court house today, with indications pointing to a completion of the probe by late afternoon. On the results of his investigation the future actions of the state regarding Harris Hayes and his wife, who are held in separate jails on a coroner's murder warrant.

IN JAIL FOR LIFE MAN STILL ASKS RIGHT TO MARRY

NEW ORLEANS, Oct. 7 (INS)—Edward Woolfero, serving a life term in the state penitentiary wants to get married. Despite his dismal future, he declares he is in love with a New Orleans woman and she is willing to marry him in the hope that some day they may be united outside the prison walls.

Details of the romance were slow to leak out, and it was only today that prison officials confirmed the news. The convict is seeking legal permission to wed, but there is grave doubt whether it will be granted.

The general manager of the penitentiary wrote Attorney General Percy Saint whether the law sanctioned such a marriage. The attorney general replied that:

"I find nothing in the law to prohibit such a marriage. But there is also nothing allowing it and I don't know how the courts would rule on the legality of such a marriage contract."

The attorney general concluded by advising that since the law made no provision for the marriage of convicts, it was duty of the warden to refuse to sanction such a wedding.

"The 'lifer' so eager to marry once was a man of wealth. He was sentenced to life imprisonment after he was convicted of killing his stepson, Charles Robinson, a law student. At that time Woolfero was married but his wife since has divorced him.

She obtained a division of his estate, valued at $50,000, and all money of $100 a month. Woolfero repeatedly has sought clemency from the state board of pardons, but every application has been refused.

Another petition for pardon is pending. Woolfero believes that ultimately he will gain his liberty. He is withholding the identity of the New Orleans girl to whom he is engaged. Meanwhile he continues to press his request for permission to marry her. The question may be tested in the courts.

GEN. HUERTA IS KILLED IN TRY AT REVOLUTION

Brother Of A Former President Of Mexico
Is Shot To Death
By Federal Troops

Body Is Placed In Public Square

Fifteen More Executions
Are Reported
By Government Men

NOGALES, Ariz., Oct. 7.—(INS)—The bullet riddled body of Alfonso De La Huerta, brother of the former provisional president of Mexico, was brought to Nogales, Sonora, opposite here, early today and dropped up against a tree in the public plaza.

Silent crowds gathered to look on as the body of the slain rebel leader, wrapped in blood-soaked sheets, gave mute evidence of the mailed fist of the Mexican government.

Military authorities at the Mexican border post said General De La Huerta, together with two aides, Generals Medina and Aquirre, had been killed by federal troops in a surprise attack at Pozo de Agua, 70 miles south of here.

The Mexican leaders were at the head of a band of eight Yaqui Indians, who fled at the attack. The federal troops numbered 100. Only the body of De La Huerta was brought to the border.

It was taken of the train at Nogales, Sonora, shortly before dawn and dragged to the plaza in the center of the little border town.

LAREDO, Texas, Oct. 7 (INS)—With 15 more executions reported from Mexico City and additional advices that the Calles government was sparing no one in its campaign to sweep out the revolutionary movement which swept parts of the republic, adherents of both factions along the border today were awaiting with intense interest the outcome of extensive war preparations, reports of which have reached here.

It was indicated that the further life of the rebel movement depends upon the outcome of a battle pending near Perote, in the state of Vera Cruz. There, reports said General Arnulfo Gomez, who, despite reports of his execution, seems still very much alive, awaits a meeting with federal columns which are moving in his direction.

Another battle appeared imminent following reports that a concentration of federal troops was taking place at Ortiz, Sonora, army headquarters of the Yaqui district. The main objective of these troops is believed to be the state of Puebla, regarded as the strong spot in the movement led by General Serrano, who was executed recently.

That many of the leaders of the revolt had escaped the mailed fist of the Calles government by fleeing to the United States was attested at the Mexican consulate here. It was learned that General Mariano Gonzalez, bosom friend of Gomez, was in hiding in San Antonio, slipping across the Rio Grande at a point west of here.

According to the consulate, Gonzalez left Mexico City three days ago, shortly after the government announced the capture and execution of Serrano and his followers.

Dispatches from Mexico City indicate that remaining military leaders and civilian chief connected with the anti-election campaign but not closely connected with the military uprising are being arrested under the sedition charges issued by the government and given a few hours to leave the country. Most of those persons were reported making their way to the United States.

Pirates Not Down Hearted And Determine To Square Series With Yanks Today

By JAMES L. KILGALLEN
International News Service Staff Correspondent
PITTSBURGH, Pa., Oct. 6.—One down to the New York Yankees in the World Series, but not at all discouraged, the Pittsburgh Pirates today were grimly determined to square accounts with the Yanks at Forbes Field this afternoon. With that objective in view Manager Donie Bush indicated he would send the veteran Vic Aldridge in to pitch against Babe Ruth and the other New York sluggers. John Gooch probably will catch Aldridge.
George Pipgras and Pat Collins will undoubtedly be the battery for the Yankees. Manager Miller Huggins announced.
Neither Manager Bush or the Pirates were discouraged by the 5-to-4 defeat of the Pirates in the opening game before 41,467 fans. "I think it will be one victory a piece by night fall," Bush declared this morning. "I think our pitchers can stop the Yanks."
The strategy of the Pittsburgh pitchers now seems to be to "curve ball" the Yankee sluggers. Almost two out of three balls so far thrown to the Yanks have been curves and while Pittsburgh came out on the wrong end of the score yesterday the Yankees were able to make only six hits, three of them by Ruth, all singles. The Pirates got nine hits. The Pittsburgh club now convinced that the Yanks do not like curves.
But the Yanks think otherwise. "It won't be long now," said Ruth this morning. "I feel 'hot.' I've

Managers Of Both Teams Predict Win On Eve Of Series

PITTSBURGH, PA., Oct. 6.—(INS)—Both managers Miller Huggins of the New York Yankees and Donie Bush of the Pittsburgh Pirates today expressed themselves as confident of victory in the World's Series.

BUCS SAY YANKS HAD THE BREAKS AT SERIES' START

Home Towners Still Believe That Pirates Will Prove More Than A Match For New York In Remaining Games
By JACK LAIT
International News Service Staff Correspondent
PITTSBURGH, Oct. 6.—There is a wailing and lamentation on the banks of the Monongahela today. Many of the home-towners have been at it since yesterday afternoon, having writhed beneath the sackcloth and ashes of defeat continuously without the feel of a bed. It was a wild night in Pittsburgh. The Pirates won.
The local enthusiasts are crying "lucky breaks" New York's best piece of luck was Donie Bush's stubbornness in keeping Ray Kremer in after some of the sloppiest pitching ever beheld in a big series. In the battle of the Big Four righthanded pitchers the Yanks were outpitched, the Pirates were outpitched.
I think the Yanks are the better outfit. Without their heavy guns working, they outclassed Pittsburgh's nifty but not mighty team.
Kremer helped lose his own game when he issued two passes in the third inning. Ruth's single, Grantham's error, and a dumb throw and muff by Smith completed the rout. That was terrible for the Pirates, and that was where the game passed out. Although it would have been logical to yank Kremer at this juncture, as he would be the first batter up in Pittsburgh's turn at bat, Bush let his stay. When Kremer came to bat he doubled and scored which was fine, but he shouldn't have gone back to the box. He got the balmy Pittsburgh pitcher two innings later. It should have been three sooner.
Ruth was easily the hitting star, though the best he got was singles. He scored two runs and figured in three Yankee rallies. Lou Gehrig was the fielding luminary. He was

Seminole High Grid Team Pointing For Palatka Meeting

The Sanford High's Grid team has earnestly buckled down to work with visions of their game Saturday with Palatka looming before them. It is expected to be one of the most exciting games of the "Celery-Fed's" schedule. The local team is sincerely confident of the bringing home the well known bacon. Last year "brought it home" after the struggle with Sanford's team. Coach Welchell has told his proteges they will go up against a good team again Saturday and must be prepared for it. This year the local backfield is stronger than ever. The "backs" are Captain Dick Maxwell, Jim Stoinoff, Tatterson, and L. P. Harlan. The running attack will be furnished by John Higgins, Jim Higgins, Walker and Hestr and with the line charging the first named group, an excellent combination is in hand.
The line is strong and the near a demon with that right-hand glove. Ruth, however, made the only sensational catch of the affair.
It was higher class technical big league ball all the way, but would have rated only as a fair game without many big moments had the stake been anything less than a world title. A foreigner watching it would have wondered why so many people ($182,477 worth) were here. He would have seen workmanlike playing but few highspot thrills.
Even Ruth and Gehrig were exciting only because of what they had done rather than for what they did. They never flashed their specialty, the long wallons. Gehrig's triple in the first should have been held to a single.
To me, one of the chief figures of interest was Kiki Cuyler, sweating, pale, nervous, petulant, at the mouth of the dugout like Achilles sulking in his tent. It's a family quarrel. But all the neighbors are in on it.
The crowd called aloud for him in the ninth inning pinch, but a feeble Brickell who hit to the pitcher was all they got, and groans were all that answered.

Tiger Flowers Is Fate Of Marrying Out On Bond After Preacher Expected Auto Crash Fight To Go To Jury Soon

HARRISONBURG, Va., Oct. 7.—(INS)—Free on a $5,000 bond, Tiger Flowers, Georgia negro boxer, is expected today to leave for Charleston, W. Va., to train for his fight with Joe Lohman in Canton, Ohio, on Oct. 17.

Flowers is expected to return here on Nov. 5 to face charges of reckless driving and assault on a battery as a result of an auto striking Jack Logan, 1-year-old grandson of police Sergeant Jack Logan. The boy's thigh was broken and he received cuts and bruises. Flowers said the boy jumped from behind another machine and ran into the path of his car.

Flowers was not held in jail but remained overnight in order to get his automobile, which police seized. Flowers ran down a lane when Sergeant Logan told him to stop. The accident if he valued his life in his haste Flowers ran into a woman who fell and suffered broken bones. Bond was arranged by W. H. Miller, Flowers' manager.

CHARLOTTE, N. C., Oct. 7.—(INS)—The bigamy trial of Rev. Willis T. Jordan, erstwhile "amnesia parson" of Columbus, Ga., was drawing fast to a close today, with indications that the fate of the Methodist clergyman would be in the hands of a Mecklenburg county jury this afternoon.

The case was expected to be in the jury's hands shortly after noon in view of the fact that only two arguments remained to be made this morning. Schleiter John G. Carpenter will present the case of the state today, and Tim Jordan will close for the defense.

The Rev. Jordan is charged with marrying Mrs. Emma Landridge Jordan, of Washington, D. C., here last Aug. 15 while he was not divorced from another wife. It is alleged to have other wives in scattered parts of the country.

Counsel for the clergyman maintains that he did not knowingly commit wrong, but suffered from arterio-sclerotic dementia and senile psychosis, and was not responsible for his actions. The defendant was found recently in a Grand Rapids, Mich., hospital after he disappeared from his home in Columbus, Ga.

WOMAN'S CLUB COLUMN

By MRS. E. A. DOUGLASS

The Woman's Club held the opening meeting of the season at the club house on Wednesday afternoon with Mrs. E. A. Douglass, the president, in the chair.

There was a good attendance and everyone seemed interested in the opening of club activity for the year. Mrs. C. G. Williams, chairman of finance, reported the status of the club in splendid condition and payments on club debt had been satisfactorily met. Membership Chairman Mrs. R. A. Newman reported the election of 19 new members at the last two board meetings. Chairman of programs Mrs. J. H. Colquhoun made a report on the year books which were distributed at this meeting. They were the source of much favorable comment as they are unusually attractive and greatly pleased by the members.

Mrs. John Meisch, the treasurer, made a good report showing the finances of the club were in fine shape and a goodly sum in the treasury.

The Literature Department was represented by Mrs. C. C. Woodruff, vice chairman, who announced some changes on the programs, one of which was the first one on October 12. Mrs. Brownlee announced that on this date there was a rare treat in store for Sanford people as Mrs. Harris of the Rollins College faculty, a noted scholar and lecturer, would be here.

Mrs. W. L. Henley, vice chairman of the Music Department, made some very interesting announcements for their first meeting, at which time every body is invited and a small admission will be charged.

Mrs. Walter Coleman, chairman of the Social Department has a very large membership and spoke most interestingly of the social affairs planned for the coming season.

The work of the Welfare Department under the very capable leadership of Mrs. Henry Wight is well under way and the improvement of the club grounds already shows for itself. Some splendid plans for her department were given out by Mrs. Wight at this time.

Mrs. A. M. Phillips, House Chairman reported good rentals for the summer months. In the absence of Mrs. J. C. Gibbs, secretary, the corresponding secretary, Mrs. W. T. Wheelless kept the minutes.

At the conclusion of business meeting, the executive board stood in line and received the Sanford School teachers, who were the special guests of honor, and a large number called during the afternoon. The club house never looked prettier, as it was effectively decorated with a color scheme of pink and green. The front of the stage was banked with palms and ferns, with a trellis screen entwined with feathery plumosa and pink flowers. The dainty refreshments of ice cream and cake also carried out the pretty color scheme. The lively music was furnished by Mrs. C. H. Cook's orchestra of four pieces.

Those who assisted in making the afternoon a decided success were Mrs. A. M. Phillips, Mrs. Fred T. Williams, Mrs. Mary B. Phelps, Mrs. T. J. Miller, Mrs. Stella Arrington and Mrs. G. E. Mc Kay.

Iceland Assembly Will Soon Observe 1,000th Birthday

By International News Service
STOCKHOLM, Oct. 6.—(INS)—In 1930 Iceland will celebrate the millenary of her Parliament, the Althing.

It was in 930 that all the chief peasants and traders were called together to decide upon the new Faith as against the Pagan Wodan cult, with the result that Christianity was accepted by an overwhelming majority. The Althing is thus the oldest democratic Parliament in the world.

A coalition of the Peasant Party and the Social Democrats are now in power in the Althing. This Government is facing the problem of stabilizing the currency, of building waterplants at the many and powerful waterfalls, and of constructing rail and motor roads. A point of special interest is the Government's intention to use, for industrial and domestic purposes, the warm water of the "Geysers," the many natural fountains where boiling water spouts up.

REMUS PLEADS NOT GUILTY IN MURDER CASE

Chicago, the former home of the Remus family, to be with her father.
"I've come to help daddy, because he needed me now," she declared.
Telegrams from W. W. (Ropes) O'Brien, famous Chicago criminal lawyer, and from Hugh J. Daly, former U. S. District Attorney in Chicago, were said to have been received last night by Remus, proffering their services in his defense but he told reporters he would not accept these offers.
Fashionably attired, and displaying but little emotion, Miss Remus was taken immediately to her father's cell on her arrival.
"I am here to cheer daddy up," she said. "When I received word that he was in trouble, I came by first train. I can't say anything about the affairs leading up to it, and I don't know anything about daddy's mental condition. I know he is here."
When Remus cell door was opened he rushed out into the visitor's corridor, and threw his arms around his daughter, crying "Rola, my baby!"
The two remained locked in a tight embrace for several minutes, and hardened jailers turned away. Remus then sought to reassure his daughter, as the whispered encouragement to him, and told him he would stay with him to the end.
Miss Remus later went to the home of friends of Remus here to spend the night.
"The loyalty of my baby overwhelmed me," Remus said, after the girl had left the jail. "I feel much like facing a jury now. I did my duty by riding society of a parasite. I am not afraid of the verdict of any 12 honest men. The unwritten law will prevail."

Statement Made At Chamber Body Of Mass Meeting

address on the subject of optimism and voiced the prediction that this year will be the most prosperous in the history of Sanford. The remark occasioned much applause and the speaker was cheered again when he declared that the Hotel Forrest Lake would be reopened within a short time.
"That's no idle talk," declared the banker, "if these other people don't open it soon, I'll do it myself and Frank Forster doesn't make any rash promises."
Mr. Forster made the statement that "prosperity is knocking at the doors of Sanford" and he declared that the best way for the City to make the most of its opportunities would be for the merchants and business men to promote a better spirit of co-operation between themselves.
Mr. Douglas emphasized the necessity for completion of the unfinished portion of the lakefront boulevard lying within the city limits. In this contention he was joined by J. G. Ball who pronounced the question as being almost as important as that of securing a new bank for Sanford. With reference to the posting of Lake Mary signs at the intersection of the Sanford-Orlando road, Mr. Ball acknowledged the enterprise of the neighboring community, but declared that "it looks like we are asleep at the switch."
E. J. Trotter, secretary of the convention made a short talk in which he announced plans for a membership canvass to be staged shortly. He pointed out the cramped financial condition of the Chamber of Commerce and enumerated the difficulties under which it has been operated since August 1. He expressed the hope that the response to the membership appeal would be wholehearted because of the need for the continued operation of the organization.
The secretary expressed a need for placing road signs on roads leading to this section south of Sanford and estimated the expense at $150. He said the treasury was without funds for this purpose and C. A. Bryd, manager of the Florida Power and Light Company, announced that his company's budget for next year included a sum sufficient to take care of the expenses and that he would be glad to make the donation at this time.
Volie Williams reported that plans for the proposed airport to half dozen of his type; Sanford would have out-stripped Miami.

"So again I say People of Sanford don't get panicky; we of the upper Carolinas have been through some very trying times, and the breaking or closing of banks hereabouts was as common as 'pig tracks in a swine lot,' and in the beginning there were a certain few who had begun to howl for the blood of the bankers, but later when we had so many bank failures and got accustomed to it, and were able to muster up a sober thought; we began to realize that our bankers did not break the banks but it was the people who dealt with the banks.
"So again I say don't misjudge Forrest Lake; don't forget some of the real constructive efforts put forth by him; particularly would I admonish you to remember the distress of the truck growers about eight or ten years ago, and it was Forrest Lake who jumped into the breach and saved the day."

Cooking School Will Be Given On 3 Days

The Florida Power and Light Company announces that a cooking demonstration will be given at its offices of First Street between 3 and 5:30 o'clock tomorrow afternoon.
The demonstration will be repeated Monday and Tuesday afternoons. Every housewife in Sanford is invited to be the guest of the local company.

Mayor Housholder On Lindbergh Committee

Mayor H. F. Housholder has been asked to be a member of the all-Florida reception committee to welcome Col. Charles A. Lindbergh the trans-Atlantic airman, when he arrives in Jacksonville next Monday and the official has accepted, it was learned today.
The Mayor will probably go to the Gate City tomorrow or Sunday, he indicated today. The Commission meeting which had been scheduled for Monday afternoon has been postponed, it was stated.
Together with arrangements for Sanford to become a point on the Jacksonville Tampa air line are still under consideration.

CINCINNATI, Ohio, Oct. 7.—(INS)—George Remus, former "Bootleg King" stepped to the bar of police court this morning, and in a firm voice entered a plea of not guilty. When he was called for preliminary hearing.

The proceedings were very brief. Remus case was the first one called on the docket.

"Are you guilty or not guilty?" asked Judge William D. Alexander. Remus, cool and reserved, without show of emotion answered: "Not guilty, your honor."

"Are you ready for trial?" he asked.
"I waive examination, your honor," he answered.
A crowd of 300 persons filled the courtroom and corridors. Remus' daughter Romola did not accompany him to the court room.

CINCINNATI, Oct. 7 (INS)—I planned to make her killing the most sensational deed in American crime. I'd intended to kill her and Bill Dodge as they appeared to testify against me at a hearing before United States prohibition Director Haynes in Washington.

"It wasn't because I wanted to create sensation but because I wanted to make so much interest in the case that every detail would be brought out."
"I wanted to make certain that I would have a chance to bring out every refinement of torture to which she and Dodge had subjected me and let the whole world know her for the kind of a woman she was. I couldn't carry that through because they were never in the court room together."

"The Dream That Came True"

Under the above caption the New York Herald-Tribune writes interestingly of the fulfillment of Woodrow Wilson's ambitions for a political career.

The newspaper calls our attention to the fact that the success of Mr. Wilson's ambitions is "given to few men in this cross-grained and baffling world to realize to the full their early intellectual ambitions."

"Mr. Wilson planned a career for himself while he was still a student at Princeton. He planned it in detail and even went so far as to enter into a 'solemn covenant'—a phrase always dear to him—with a classmate to make public leadership their calling.

"For a young man of Southern birth and Southern affiliations, without leisure or resources, this seemed a fanciful choice. The South was a political minority in the nation. Its public life was to be nearly monopolized for years to come by its Confederate veterans.

"At the University of Virginia, as well as at Princeton, he prepared sedulously for politics. But conditions were against him. He tried law and gave it up. He turned to scholarship and the teaching of political science and made a success.

"Fiction was out-fictioned in this fruition of the 'solemn covenant' which he made with his classmate, Charles Talcott. Our history has shown no swifter or stranger rise in national politics—no transformation more dramatic and far-reaching in a man's career.

The Glad Hand

It pays to be courteous. It seems that a certain man in overalls walked into one of our local establishments the other day and asked for an article of merchandise of which he happened to be in need.

It also seems that the customer had it in his mind to buy several other articles which he knew were for sale in this particular store. He decided to try somewhere else for his other purchases.

The public likes to be liked. If you can't like a man who comes into your store to do business, at least make him think you do.

This same spirit which is so helpful to the merchant is equally helpful to the city. Visitors also like to be liked. Give them a good time. At least call on them and let them know that they are welcome in Sanford.

"This newspaper has often told St. Augustine people that 'it pays to be picturesque.' It also pays to be courteous, and we have said that before. It pays to be friendly, and it costs money to be friendly.

"A northern family that rented a house here last winter and intended to return this fall and buy a winter home, wrote a local real estate agent the other day as follows: "We may return and rent a house again this winter, but have decided not to buy a place in St. Augustine for the present because we have no friends there. Nobody called on us last winter, except people who had something to sell. We had no social callers, no friends, hardly any acquaintances."

"It is not necessary to comment further; the letter speaks for itself. The moral is plain."

CONFIDENCE IN JACKSONVILLE FLORIDA TIMES-UNION

There can scarcely be any doubt as to the confidence that investors have in the future growth and prosperity of Jacksonville. Steadily throughout the summer the song of the trowel and hammer and saw have been heard; the workmen who build and frame and plan and finish and furnish homes and stores and office buildings and churches and schools, and are engaged in all manner of construction have had no holidays.

The second largest permit issued last month was for the reconstruction of a large building, that of the First Presbyterian church, where it had been found desirable to extend and enlarge the place, expending about $90,000 in improvements. The majority of other permits granted in September were for dwellings, homes, apartment houses and business houses of comparatively small size.

The million and a quarter of permits issued in September does not represent completely the activity in view to those who go about the city and suburbs. There are a dozen or big projects, begun in August, or even before, that required many months to complete. These are go-

As Bnsuane Sees It

(The Coolidges' 22 Years. Fat Head, Eggs Cheap. Mr. Gillette Buys.

THIS IS WRITTEN in California after a day spent rushing through real estate in a fast automobile. Next stop will be at San Francisco, traveling on Paul Shoup's "Lark," the fast Southern Pacific night train.

MR. AND MR. Coolidge celebrated yesterday the 22nd anniversary of their wedding, with all the people's good wishes. This land means opportunity. Twenty-three years ago, he was a young lawyer, she was a very young school teacher. Now he is president of the United States, and, but for four words, "I do not choose," would remain in the White House four years from March 4th, 1929, making a 10-year term in all.

President Coolidge looks 22 years older than he did 22 years ago. Mrs. Coolidge looks not one year older, as many friends of her girlhood will testify.

CALIFORNIA—EVERY American should come here, in his "See America First" program—surprises you, always in different ways, whether you cross from the Atlantic to the Pacific for the first time, or like this writer, for the one-hundredth time.

A good housewife would be interested in these two signs: "Eat hens 22 cents a pound." "Three dozen large fresh eggs 77 cents."

The "housekeepers' husband would want to know that King C. Gillette who makes razors and blades, has bought the northeast corner of Sixth and Olive Streets, Los Angeles, for $1,470,000. Somebody else bought it about 10 years ago for $300,000. Gillette got just as good a bargain as the other buyer did.

J. L. STACK, WHO knows how to live, shooting ducks and wild geese on the edge of the Pacific, at the same time growing richer from his business in Chicago, says, "Tell young men that this is the time to move west. You walk over a bridge after others have crossed, then you know it is safe."

"In old New York days when Vanderbilts were making their few dozen millions, and when Russell Sage, $50,000,000, people thought 'these times' can't last. Now Sage and Vanderbilts are interesting beginners. The Rockefeller, $100,000,000, and beginning to show how money can be made."

AMERICANS HAVE NO more idea about the real value of their country than the Indians had when they owned it.

Spaniards, who turned California over to the Mexicans about 100 years ago, and Mexicans that turned it over to us, will muse sadly reading these figures. But neither Spain nor Mexico would have created the California of today.

GERMANS ARE TRYING to fly the Atlantic ocean westward, "making the trip uphill," as the sailors say, wisely taking the Azores route.

BUT EVEN A national baseball championship or the score five to four for New York, seems unimportant here, where land you buy to plant oranges may turn into city corner lots while you think about it, or begin spouting oil if you dig a hole in it.

These United States are interesting, variegated lands. You should study them, and know them. A little car costing not much to buy, almost nothing to run, will take you anywhere and bring you back.

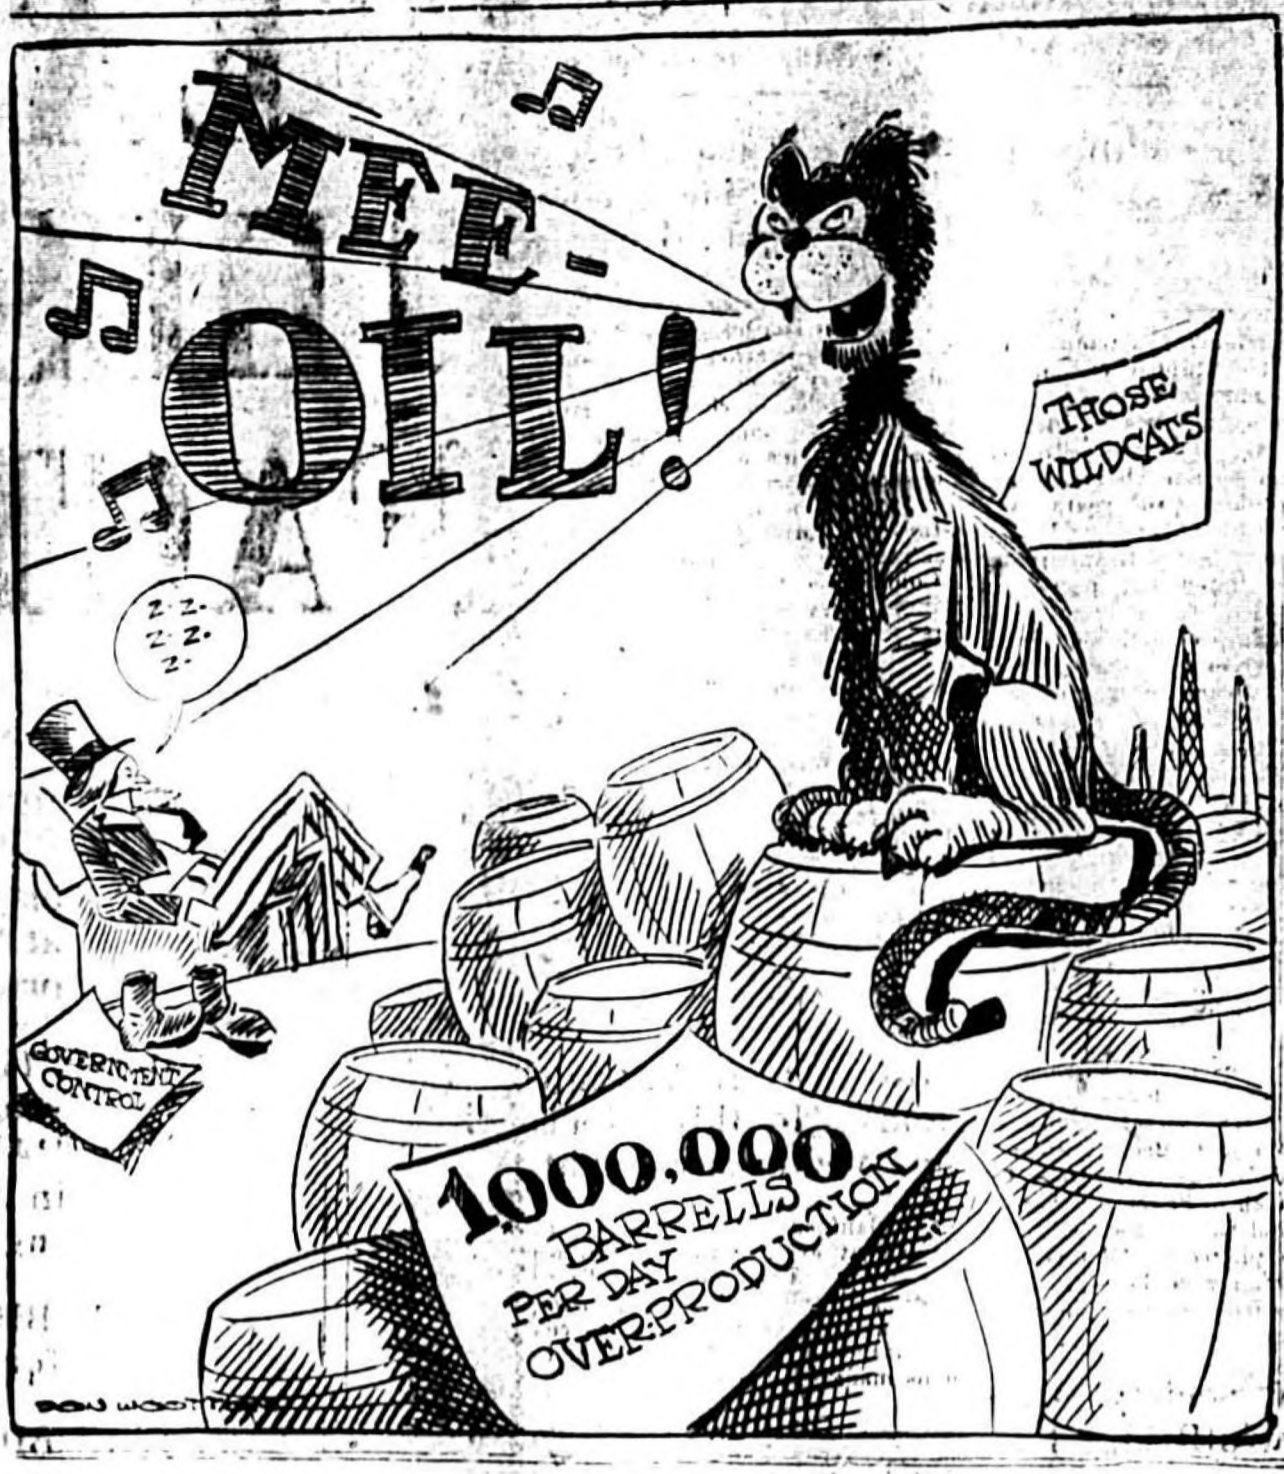

No excuse now to live in one place forever like a hoptoad sealed up in a vein of coal.

ing forward as rapidly as proper care and attention will allow; and there are some things already started, in a fairly large way, not yet reaching the point where the building permit is necessary.

There can be no question as to what all this means. Jacksonville is growing splendidly, substantially and with method and proper regard for the best interests of the city. The city is doing much as a corporation to increase the comfort and happiness of the people. Excellent progress has been made in paving projects; extensions are steadily being made in the providing of sewerage and drainage and water and light and police and fire protection in sections which have been more or less taken into the city.

The summary of building permits shows that education and the churches have been given a great deal of attention; amusements and entertainment have not been overlooked, and all the while the best standards of guarding the health and lives and property of the citizens have been upheld. Newcomers find Jacksonville healthful, safe and cleanly, progressive and interesting. It is growing; gracefully and well.

Madge Bellamy Is Full Fledged Irish Lassie In New Film

Madge Bellamy has temporarily cast aside her flapper personality to play the part of a dainty Irish lass in Fox Films "Colleen," which Frank O'Connor directed at the Milane Theatre today.

For the past two years, ever since she created "Sandy," Madge has been identified with intriguing flappers or ingenious poor girls who "modeled" for a living, until these roles have established her in a definite screen personality.

But in "Colleen" she proves that she has not forgotten how to be a little country maid. She makes of Sheila Kelly, a girl with a temper of her own, but with wit, beauty and charm to boot.

"Colleen" is the story of two race horses, two old Irish squires and an Irish lad and lassie. Frank O'Connor, whose lapses into brogue would betray his nationality if his name and face did not, was in his favorite element while directing this picture.

The well chosen cast supporting Miss Bellamy includes Charles Morton, J. Farrell MacDonald, Tom Maguire, Marjorie Beebe, Sammy Cohen, Tom McNamara, Tom McGuire, Sarah Padden, Sidney Franklin and Carl Stockdale. The title role is played by "Mistake," a beautiful roan race horse, whose running records are well known to racing fans.

Parent-Teacher Body Of South Side School Holds First Meeting

Thursday afternoon the first meeting of this season of the Parent-Teacher Association of the South Side Primary School was held with the newly elected chairman, Mrs. Robert A. Newman, presiding.

The vacancies of the president and secretary were filled, Mrs. Walter Morgan being elected as secretary and Miss Edna Chittenden as vice chairman.

Committee chairmen were appointed. They were: Lunch room, Mrs. F. E. Roumillat; Membership, Mrs. M. Minarik; Program, Mrs. Ernest Housholder; Publicity, Mrs. Charles T. Vincent; Hospitality, Mrs. Ralph Wight; Play Grounds, Mrs. M. S. Wiggins.

It was decided that each month the room having the best attendance of mothers at the P. T. A. meeting would be given a book.

Mrs. Stelle Arrington, supervising principal, gave a most interesting talk on the "Aim of the Parent Teachers' Association," urging the co-operation of mothers and teachers.

Sanford High Y. Club Holds Monthly Meet On Wednesday Night

The Sanford High Y. Club met Wednesday evening for its monthly meeting. This was the first meeting of the fall season and many matters of much importance were discussed as well as rules and plans made for the ensuing year.

One of the more important matters was the election of a staff for the club paper. Dan Hansell was elected editor-in-chief with Jack Sneed as assistant. Robert Highleyman was appointed cartoonist.

The club expects to have an interesting paper as possible, and one in which athletics, club notes and other school and club activities will be featured.

The club is fortunate in having Glenn E. McKay as leader and C. D. Wolfe of the Y. M. C. A. as advisor.

Officers named for the coming year are: President, H. G. Waters; vice president, Dick Maxwell; second vice president, Jack Peters; secretary, Claude Hamilton; treasurer, Jack Sneed; Chaplain, Evans Spencer.

Rosary Society Gives Delightful Bridge Party Wednesday Evening

A very enjoyable social affair of the week was that of Wednesday evening when the Rosary Society of All Souls Church gave a subscription bridge party at the Parish Hall on Oak Avenue, with Mrs. John Schirard, Mrs. F. E. Roumillat, Mrs. George Balmes, Mrs. Ben Lake, Mrs. George Ehrhardt, Mrs. June Roumillat, and Mrs. Lewis Leinhart as hostesses.

The spacious hall was beautifully decorated with numerous tall potted palms and ferns together with floor baskets filled with pastel tinted zinnias, margolds and other seasonal flowers. The lights were shaded in pink shades which cast a rich glow over the already pretty scene.

Bridge pencils, score pads and tallies were done in pink and green and after several rounds of progressive bridge had been played, scores were added and the prize for highest score, a large blue shoulder flower, was won by Mrs. John Schirard. The men's prize, a silk hose, was awarded J. A. Minick. Miss Naomi Fellows held the lucky card and received a pair of novelty candlesticks and candles.

At the refreshment hour, the bridge tables were spread with embroidered covers and refreshments of chocolate and pineapple cream cake and brick ice cream were served.

Ladies Union Holds Interesting Meeting On Monday Afternoon

The Congregational Ladies Union met Monday afternoon at the parish house for the monthly business and social meeting with Mrs. Henry Niekke, Mrs. Betty Kasperman, Mrs. Emil Kasperman and Mrs. Fred Bolly as hostesses.

Following the devotional and business part of the program, a social hour was enjoyed, the hostesses.

It was decided to hold a cooked food sale, October 15, the time and place to be announced later.

Mrs. R. L. Shinholser, Mrs. R. L. Griffin, Mrs. Glenn E. McKay, Mrs. Murray Jarvis, Mrs. R. L. Griffin, Mrs. Glenn E. McKay, Mrs. Murray Jarvis, Mrs. and Mrs. W. W. Turner and Mrs. and Mrs. R. W. Warner and Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Christenberry motored to Orlando, Friday afternoon where they attended the funeral of Mrs. Elizabeth D. Whittaker.

Idlers Bridge Club Is Entertained Thursday By Mrs. John Bender

The members of the Idlers Bridge Club were most pleasantly entertained Thursday afternoon as the guests of Mrs. John Bender at her home on West First Street.

Bowls of zinnias and ferns were arranged with pleasing effect about the rooms where the card tables had been spread for the play.

The afternoon hours were quickly spent in the game of progressive bridge and after the game scores were counted and the prize for top score was awarded Mrs. George Davis.

At the refreshment hour, Mrs. Bender served ice cream and home made cakes.

Mrs. Bender's guests were: Mrs. Howard Long, Mrs. John Meisch, Mrs. Endor Curlett, Mrs. Harry Heen, Mrs. W. H. Tunnelhoff, Mrs. George David Hart, Mrs. Alexander Vaughan and Mrs. O. P. Herndon.

Sheriff Hand Returns To Desk After Illness

Friends of Sheriff C. M. Hand gave him a cordial greeting today as he returned to his duties after being confined to his home for several days because of an infected foot. The Sheriff has suffered intensely with pain but he pronounced the effected part in much better condition today.

Although he is well on the road to recovery the Sheriff is having to rely upon a cane to help him in walking.

James J. Catia of De Funiak Springs is in the city for a few days attending to business.

Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Peterson and two young sons of Jamestown, N. Y. arrived here Friday and will spend the winter in Sanford.

George White, state bank examiner who has been in Sanford for several weeks on business, left Friday for his home at Starke.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Twitchell and Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Little, of the De Funiak Springs, spent the week as the guests of friends.

"THE BIG PARADE" produced by King Vidor for Metro-Gildwyn-Mayer, has played ninety-six consecutive weeks at the Astor Theatre in New York at prices ranging from two dollars up.

MORE THAN six million people have paid road-show prices to see "THE BIG PARADE," during the past two years, in its record breaking runs in all leading cities of the civilized world.

"THE BIG PARADE" is now being shown for the first time at popular prices.

"THE BIG PARADE" is an authentic document of the World War. It portrays literally, and with faithful exactness, the part played therein by American troops. Its great historical value has been recognized by the War Department, which has preserved one film for future generations.

"THE BIG PARADE" is infinitely more than a war picture—because it combines comedy and pathos, drama and heroism to the highest degree, with a love story that is tenderly and poignantly beautiful. John Gilbert, Karl Dane and Tom O'Brien are three inseparable buddies—modern musketeers—while Renee Adoree reaches dramatic heights in a marvelous performance.

"THE BIG PARADE" was awarded the Photoplay Medal of Honor for the year 1926. It is regarded by critics and laymen alike as the greatest entertainment the world has ever known.

"THE BIG PARADE" is a picture you will see again and again and remember forever.

IF YOU never see another picture in your life—be sure to see "THE BIG PARADE."

"THE BIG PARADE" opens a two-day engagement at the Milane Theatre on Monday, October 10th, at One P. M. Performances start promptly at 1, 3, 5, 7 and 9 P. M.. To insure getting a good seat attend the matinee performance.

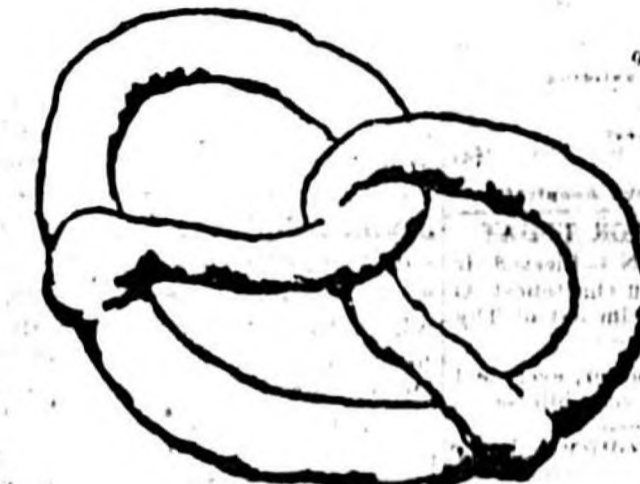

DUE to the tremendous film rental paid for this attraction admission prices will be as follows:

Bite yourself an Alphabet

A Pretzeleer can bite in any station

You know how it is. The battery is all tired out. And static is sticky. And you can't tune the soprano out and the prize fight in. But why worry? Be a pretzeleer. Get yourself a plate of O-So-Guds and bite your own station. Like this:

An expert tooth dialer can bite in any station from Maine to California—bite it in, and eat it out.

And any pretzeleer will be glad to broadcast this: O-So-Gud Pretzels are good to eat—crisp, crunchy, salty.

Eat them at any meal. They give zest to soup, to salad and both zip and zest to sweet desserts. You absolutely need them with the clinking glass of something cool to drink.

Children like pretzels between meals. That's good. Who says so? Doctors say so! O-So-Guds are very easy to digest.

O-So-Gud Pretzels are worth their weight in pretzels. Many folks think they're worth more. It's because they're made by the Uneeda Bakers.

Russian Government Going Into Auto Business With Big Plans For Future

By International News Service
MOSCOW, Oct. 8 (INS)—The Soviet government is going into the automobile manufacturing business. The first complete plant will be built near Moscow to turn out 10,000 passenger cars and light truck chassis the first year. Nikolai Ostinsky, chief of the statistical bureau, is urging the granting of concessions to American motorcar concerns for the construction of assembly plants in Russia to supply the demand until the home industry gets going. The 10,000 Soviet-made cars will be a fraction of those needed, he said.

Russia's Bad Roads
There are only 18,000 motorcars and trucks in all Russia. Of these it is officially stated, 12,000 are in running order. Until recent months the automobile was regarded as a "bourgeois luxury." The idea was dislodged when the War Department became interested in speedy transportation of troops and supplies.

Unless the government quickly develops the automobile industry it will lose the next war," Ostinsky wrote in the Pravda, official daily of the Communist party. "For us to rely on our bad roads to stop an invading army on trucks and armored cars is a sin. We defeated Napoleon that way more than 100 years ago. But bad roads don't mire American automobiles."

Owning Less Autos
Russia trails all nations in automobile ownership. It is fortieth on the list, ranking even below China. There is one motor vehicle for every 12,500 inhabitants, counting only the cars that can navigate under their own power.

Nevertheless there is an automobile club in Moscow where there is only one privately-owned car and that a symbol of an American much admired for his technical efficiency. The members are all chauffeurs for government officials or taxicab drivers. There are more drivers than taxicabs because many of the pre-war busses must carry an assistant pilot and mechanic to work the gas pressure pump on the dashboard. There are no speed laws and an auto is king of the road.

Prince Of Wales Has Big Job Moving To Quarters In Marlborough Home

By International News Service
LONDON, October, 7.—(INS)—The Prince of Wales is undergoing his first removal job from his present quarters in St. James Palace to his new home at Marlborough House.

His orders are that he is to be fully installed by the New Year. And although the distance to be covered is only a hundred yards from one door to another, much still remains to be done if the Prince is to be fixed up by the time stipulated.

Put, as a matter of fact, although there are 200 rooms in Marlborough House, the Prince

For Every Member of the Family

FROM grandfather to granddaughter, every member of the family likes Klim—they all know it's the World's best milk supply. Whether mother gives it to the children to drink, delicious and cold, or uses it in cooking for its richness and flavor, she's always sure she's using the very best milk there is.

Klim is pure, rich, nourishing milk from the finest dairy sections in America, milk that is rigidly inspected, pasteurized, and turned into powder a few hours after milking. It retains all the nourishing qualities of the liquid milk—in a more convenient form. Put up in air tight tins it keeps indefinitely without ice.

Use Klim and you'll be absolutely sure of your milk supply, sure to have it when you want it, and sure of its purity and quality.
