Geneva Sets Orientation For Pre-Schoolers

By MRS. JOS. E. MATHIEUN Orientation for pre-schoolers at Geneva Elementary School will begin Wednesday and be continued through August 11, Principal Rupert Jenkins announced today.

Sessions yill be conducted each weekday from 8:30 until 11:30 a.m. Children attending are required to have a completed health certificate and it is suggested they bring a snack lunch each day.

Jenkins urges that parents note the importance of having their pre-school children attend this program as it contributes a great deal towards the ability of a student entering the first grade in the fall. .

Men's Club Methodist Men's Club of Bar nett Memorial Methodist Church, Enterprise, will have its regular supper meeting at 6:30 p.m. Saturday in the church annex. All members are urged

Bank, Sanford, bid farewell to Ray Daniel, vice-president and cashier, at a gala barbecue dinner, June 28, at Mayfair Country Club. Daniel, who has recently completed Stonier School of Banking at Rutgers University in New Jersey, has been promoted to vice president and cashier of National Bank of Melbourne and Trust Co., a Mc-Nulty bank, with duties beginning Monday, July 3. Following a delicious barbecue chicken dinner for seventy members of the bank family, C. Howard McNulty, president, gave a brief commentary sparked with humor, on the background of the honor guest and spoke in behalf of fellow employes in wishing the banker continued success in his well deserved promotion. An appropriate response wa made by the honor guest, was then presented with handsome Arnold Palmer sport coat, a gift of the employes. Daniel received another "gag" gift from Bart Gallagher, who is convalescing from a recent illness. It is apparent that Ray has been having problems keeping a spare tire for his new T-Bird, and the gift was an old blown-out tire, but at least a spare! Arranging the delightful farewell dinner were Mary Forguson and Janice Springfield.
