Do You Lose Interest?

Ask These Questions About Savings:

- If I withdrew part of my money before the end of the interest period do you pay me for the time it was in the account? The Atlantic does! The Atlantic accrues interest daily.
- If I make a deposit on the 10th of the month do you pay me interest The Atlantic does! The Atlantic treats that deposit just as if it had been in the bank 10 days.
- If my account is rather small do you still pay me interest on it? The Atlantic does! The Atlantic requires no minimum balance. If your account earns as low as one penny you still get that penny -
- The Atlantic wants the kids to save too. Do you compound my interest quarterly? The Atlantic does! Interest is paid 4 times a year so that even your interest is earning interest.
- . Do you pay the maximum interest allowed by law on regular savings? The Atlantic does! The Atlantic pays 4% on savings accounts.

Where do you bank? Are you losing interest? Open an Atlantic Savings Account today.

WASHINGTON (AP) -They're saying around the Capitol that Senate Republican Leader Everett M. Dirksen is just about President Johnson's most effective friend in Con-

Just as he often pulls some of the President's coals out of the Republican fire of criticism or Vietnam war policies, Dirksen stepped in Wednesday to save Johnson's rent supplement program. It is a keystone in administration efforts to rehabilitate big-city slums. To keep his opposition license alive, Dirksen lines up with House GOP leader Gerald R. blasts at Johnson policies. Theirs is a weekly performance for newsmen designed to spotlight issues for 1968. But the President understands this kind of political skirmishing perfectly and before nightfall he

New World Version of Flemish Beef Uses Canned Beef Gravy

Have you ever been fortunate enough to sample Belgian food firsthand? It rates among the finest in the world and is very similar to the better-known dishes of neighboring France.
However, the classic Flemish beef is simmered in gravy laced with beer instead of with wine as in France; for beer is the Flemish national drink. To Old World flavor we add a bit of New World ingenuity here by using a convenience item, canned beef gravy. Instead of standing over the stove, fighting lumpy gravy, just open the can and pour out the velvety perfection. It saves a bothersome step.

This recipe calls for a flank stoak, stuffed, rolled and then simmered in this delectable sauce.

in our fiftieth state, the hospitable islander's favorite feast is a luau. Few parties are more suited to our own Florida, and luau foods are a delicious way to treat the family to a table tour. Instead of going "whole hog" with the traditional roast pig cooked in a pit, make the star of your table a heavenly ham — smoked or canned. Spice it up with a tangy glaze made from the juice of an Big-ounce can of sliced pineapple. We cup of light brown sugar firmly packed, 2 tablespoons of cider vinegar and teaspoon of ground ginger. Bring to a boil, stirring. Add pineapple sliced in half, and 8 maraschino cherries. Reduce heet, simmer 5 minutes Pour half of glaze over ham, bake 30 minutes, arrange fruit on top of ham and cover with remaining glaze and bake 20 minutes longer While the hungry ones eweit, serve them frosty coolers made from canned fruit drinks - pineapple or grapefruit mixed with ginger ale and topped with springs of cool green mint. The classic vegetable team of the luau is baked sweet potetoes and benenes. The benenes bake just 15 minutes, with orange sections, a little sugar and butter, and 2 tablespoons each of lemon and orange juice. Spinach is another good pair-up. And for dessert, an easy packaged mix sprinkled with coconut, or a fruit spectacular - pineapple wedges, melon balls sprinkled with creme de menthe or lemon juice. fresh grapes. Use grass or bamboo mats and have your table awash with ferns, big green leaves and brilliant blooms. Then bring on your guests or the family to enjoy a feast of good

SEATTLE (AP)-While leaders of the Episcopal Church debate transcending problems at their general convention here, others are showing off new trends in church worship. One of the latest is a folk Mass composed and played on guitar by the Rev. Ian Mitchell of White Plains, N.Y. He also delivered the sermon Monday to about 75 priests, nuns-both Catholic and Episcopal-some hippies and others. Father Mitchell, speaking in hippie jargon that at times drew laughs from the congregation, put on a powerful plea for peace, for love of Christ and for
