

Business Barometers Pointing To Record Levels Of Activity

NEW YORK, (AP)—How firm a foundation supports the business boom and the year-old bull market in industrial stocks is a matter of debate.

But today we find a number of leaders going on the record as to the prospects for their specific industries in the weeks and months ahead. Most of them are outright optimistic. Some of them include the word caution.

There are interesting business barometers to watch in apparel, shoes, furniture, autos, newspaper, oil, steel, copper and factory construction. Also some government business statistics out today shed light on what's making the industries tick.

Oil production in Texas should jump 100,000 barrels a day next month—this is the estimate of the industry's needs by Ernest O. Thompson of the Texas Railroad Commission which turns the oil well valves on and off in that state. Thompson has been looking at the rash of cars off the Detroit assembly lines, at the new diesels, at the smoke of eastern factories powered by heavy oil.

Auto producers say this week will show a new record in the output of cars and trucks. Charles E. Wilson, General Motors president, says the year's output for the industry will go well over seven million units and he thinks "the shortage of cars now is worse than it was last year or the year before."

Steelmen say that delivery quotas may have to be cut in July and August because of the carryover of unfilled orders. Even with the mills going at more than rated capacity the orders are piling up. Some mills now feel they'll be unable to work through this carryover this summer and must cut down on quotas of steel deliveries to customers.

"The second quarter of 1950 promises to be the best quarter the Wood Household Furniture Industry has ever enjoyed," says Frank E. Seidman of the industry's accounting firm, Seidman & Seidman. Further, he predicts that first half year output will be "within inches" of the record in 1948. The home building boom gets the credit.

And even a laggard joins the parade. The women's apparel and accessory trade, unhappy most of the year because retail sales have been slow, now reports merchants doing better in some parts of the nation and store buyers writing orders at the fall market opening of apparel and allied lines.

In shoes the talk is about rising leather prices and the difficulty in holding shoe prices down as output grows. Producers say they are caught in a price squeeze—tanners raising the price of leather and customers balk at paying higher prices for shoes. Production has been on the upgrade. Shoe factories expect June and July output to top last year's. They have been running ahead so far this year.

Copper users report that the government is again putting on pressure to get more of the metal for stockpiling. They say this, along with the high industrial demand, will keep copper in short supply in the months ahead. The price went up two cents a pound last week, and if Congress lets the two-cent a pound tariff be restored at the end of this month, another price boost is expected.

The business boom has lifted advertising volume and some publishers are worrying about the danger of a newsprint shortage again. But a spokesman for the newspaper association of Canada says his mills can keep up with the demand due to increased capacity.

Engineering construction contracts have reached a new peak—time high. So the commerce department and the securities and exchange commission are revising upward their estimate of how much businessmen will spend on new plants and equipment this year. The two agencies first predicted expenditures would be 11 per cent lower than last year. Today they guess it will be only six per cent less.

The Commerce Department also reports consumer income hit an annual rate of $212.8 billion in April, reassuring to merchants. And the Labor department reports unemployment continuing to drop moderately.

Looking at the whole picture, the Federal Reserve Bank of Philadelphia reports: "Business barometers now point to a very high if not a record level of activity." The bank praises "the caution exercised by bankers and businessmen in the postwar period" but that "with prices tending upward, business is in position to accumulate inventory once again."

The trade route over the Himalaya mountains follows passes 17,000 feet high.

Traffles grow in clusters underground and are found by dogs or pigs trained to recognize their distinctive smell.

Millions of years ago whales lived on land and walked around on four legs, says the Book of Knowledge yearbook.

Newspaper Slams Warren's Failure To Press Report

Miami Paper Claims Governor Has Full Data On Crime In Palm Beach County

MIAMI, June 15 (AP)—Gov. Fuller Warren could collect his one $1,000 reward for the first person in Florida to give information leading to the conviction of a gambler, the Miami Daily News said today in a copyrighted article. The Governor—who repeatedly maintains that gambling is practically extinct in Florida—has in his possession an official report giving the complete setup in at least one county, the newspaper said. The report, covering Palm Beach County, lists the gambling places, the owners of the places, the men who make the "fix" to cover the operations, the amount paid in an "fix" and to whom it was paid. This report was prepared for Governor Warren in the first few days of January this year, and while most of the establishments mentioned in the report were operating at the time, they have now closed for the season, as is their habit from year to year. The newspaper said it also had a copy of the report now in chief executive's possession. The investigation was made by an agent of the state beverage department who signed the report "Ernest McQuire," a fictitious name. The news said it had made a copy of the report available to Senator Kefauver's Senate Crime Investigation Committee. The report makes the first statement that "Joe Adonis" operates in Palm Beach County. "Adonis" is the "front" man for Frank Costello of New York. "There are also said to be five other confidential informants similar to the one in Palm Beach County covering gambling and liquor violations." "Warren has not seen fit to release the Palm Beach County report," said the newspaper, "if he did so, it would be official, and thereby gain publicity for information of Florida citizens." The confidential report covers six municipalities in Palm Beach County and names the individuals who own and operate the racket in each. "One name mentioned throughout the report is that of J. O'Rourke, recently called to testify before the (Senate) Kefauver (Continued on Page Two)

Florida Moves To Reduce Aid To Blind, Aged

Cuts Will Be Based On Separate Needs Of Individuals

JACKSONVILLE, June 15 (AP)—The State Welfare Board today took steps to reduce assistance grants to the needy aged and blind beginning July 1. Board members earlier had directed the welfare commissioner to make cuts if funds were limited. Reducing the grants made necessary by the continued lack of state funds to meet full appropriations is a mechanical process handled in the state office here in Jacksonville. The cuts will be based on the needs of the individual as determined by the district board, and as a result will not be the same for all recipients, Sherwood Smith, welfare commissioner, said. Payments will be based for the needy aged and blind on 82 percent of their "budgetary deficit." Following that principle, those most in need will be cut the least, and in many instances not at all, he explained. Those whose incomes are being supplemented to help them meet their basic living needs will feel the reduction to a greater extent, although the same percentage of their "budgetary needs" will be used. Reductions in grants in the aid to dependent children program were put into effect in May because of the shortage of funds. These grants are being paid on the basis of 60 percent of the "budgetary deficit" of the child. The budgetary deficit is determined by taking the cost of basic living needs for the individual, and then deducting whatever income or resources he may have. In many instances, where there is no other income, that deficit amounts to more than the maximum grant allowed by law. For the aged and blind, the maximum is $30 a month, and for dependent children $27 for the first child and $18 for additional children with the same family group. The State Budget Commission, meeting in Tallahassee Tuesday, released funds amounting to 30 percent of appropriations for the first three months of the new fiscal year beginning with July. The commissioners indicated, however, that the same 30 percent release probably would be necessary during the rest of the year.

Sanford Jaycee Drive Nets Over 60 New Members French Officials Decline Possibility Of Sabotage This Not Been Disclosed

The second French plane crash, which killed 22 people, was reported to have occurred in the Bay of Biscay, French officials said today. The plane was a Lockheed L-1049 Super Constellation. The crash occurred on June 13, 1950, near the town of Biscaya. The plane was carrying 22 people, all of whom were killed. The cause of the crash is still under investigation. French officials have declined to disclose the possibility of sabotage, saying they have no evidence to support such a theory. The Sanford Jaycee Drive has announced that it has netted over 60 new members since its last meeting. The drive is a local chapter of the National Jaycee Council, which is a youth organization. The Sanford Jaycee Drive has been very successful in its recruitment drive, and it is expected that it will continue to grow in the future.

Rulers Declare Revolt In Peru Is Stamped Out

Commies Blamed For Inciting Uprising; Forty Known Dead

LIMA, Peru, June 15 (AP)—At least 40 persons were believed to have been killed in a two-day revolt during which rebels captured most of the city of Arequipa. The government announced loyal troops, moving into the city, had put down the revolt. The government blamed Communist agitators for the uprising. Arequipa, with a population of 150,000, is Peru's second largest city. The rebels at one time held the city hall military headquarters, the airport, a radio station and other buildings. No official figures on casualties were announced, but there were many wounded in addition to the 40 estimated dead. Loyal troops crushed the revolt as soon as they reached the city, the government announcement said. Centralist, imposed when the revolt began, was lifted this morning. While the rebels held control of Arequipa they announced by radio they had captured the city. (Continued on Page Five)

Florida Highway Death Rate Soars Over 1949 Record

JACKSONVILLE, June 15 (AP)—Deaths on Florida highways are soaring over last year. State board of health figures today showed 334 motor vehicle fatalities the first four months of this year against 307 last year. In all of last year, there were 704 and if the rate continues this year, said Dr. Wilson T. Sower, state health officer, 1950 will wind up with more than 1,100 deaths.

Reports compiled in the office of Everett Williams, director of the bureau of vital statistics, showed motor vehicle deaths of white persons increased from 159 during the first four months of 1949 to 267 for the similar period this year. Non-white deaths jumped from 48 to 67. The death toll for Negro women went up sharply. Only two met death from automobile accidents during the first four months of 1949. This year it was 16. Travelers in Florida are showing an increasing willingness to try to beat railroad trains to the crossing and the loss of life from this cause has doubled as compared with last year. Husband And Wife Held For Passing Counterfeit Bills In Americasia Case

ALBANY, N. Y., June 15 (AP)—An 18-year-old youth and his 17-year-old wife were held today because of charges of making and passing counterfeit $10 bills. Secret Service Agents George Van Fleet and the couple had been arrested passing an estimated $100 in counterfeit money from Boston. They were taken to St. Joseph, Mo. He identified the pair as Mr. and Mrs. William H. Zornadt. The couple eloped from Springfield, Mass., and were married in Springfield, N.Y. last October. They were arrested in Amsterdam, N.Y. Van Fleet said Zornadt, who looks like a photograph, made the bills by photographing real money. He said Mrs. Zornadt usually passed the bills. Secret Service men obtained a good description of Mrs. Zornadt because, they said, she had red hair, was pregnant and had a penchant for passing counterfeit bills in candy stores. Mrs. Zornadt was arrested Tuesday in a bakery at Amsterdam, after a shopkeeper, Mrs. John Pitul, had questioned a bill and detained her. Zornadt gave himself up when he heard of his wife's arrest. Van Fleet said that apparently most of the real money they received went toward a new automobile they had bought. Secret Service agents said Zornadt was a member of the Communist Party. City's Monkey Island Has "Barbecue Day"

Yesterday was "Barbecue Day" on Monkey Island due to the generosity of the Duffy Boats Riding Association. Since the Duffy Boats Barbecue on Memorial Day the meat has been kept in cold storage, and was in need of cooking, according to Ed Richard, park superintendent. During the past few months new grills have been set up on the Zoo to house rabbits and other pigs, who according to Richard, multiply so fast as to create a "barbecue" problem. The Duffy Boats Riding Association, known as the Duffy Boats Barbecue, has been generous in donating the barbecue for Memorial Day. Pardon Given To Man Who Served 3 Sentences In Another's Place

TRENTON, N. J., June 15 (AP)—A former church fund solicitor with an embarrassing resemblance to a convicted forger had a governor's pardon today for the prison term he served 15 years ago. Gov. Clifford E. Driscoll announced yesterday he had pardoned 64-year-old Alfred T. Shephard, whose jutting chin had caused him to be mistaken three times as a notorious forger with a nationwide reputation. Two other identifications resulted in Shephard's conviction on check forging charges once in 1935 and again in 1938. But he won his release later on a third arrest when he proved he had been in jail at the time of that forgery. Shephard, who had been employed by a church fund-raising organization, came out of jail after 37 months to begin the work which resulted now in his pardon. On the basis of information furnished by the American Bankers Association and the Bureau of International Detective Agency, Shephard visited Edward Eugene Sullivan, known as the phantom forger who was serving a sentence on bad check charges in Wisconsin State Prison, Wis., after that visit from Shephard, authorities said they obtained a statement from Sullivan saying he had committed the forgeries of which the New Jersey man had been accused. Governor Driscoll's pardon said that a handwriting expert had examined copies of the forged checks and decided they had not been written by Shephard. The governor had ordered the analysis after Shephard's appeal for a pardon had stalled twice in legal channels. Shephard, who lives in Irvington, said he was delighted. He said he was able to get back to some good job, he said. Because of the prison record, the only work he could get has been as a part-time porter at a tavern.

Non-parents always wonder at the failure of parents to discipline their children. They have grounds for wonder when they read that in Teaneck, N. Y., the town's movie house has had to refuse admittance to teen-agers because they made so much noise as to destroy the pleasure of the other patrons.

Peruvian Revolt

Many persons were reported under arrest both in Arequipa and here. Loyal troops hold complete control, the government said, and the task of restoring the city to normal is under way.

The revolt was led by Francisco J. Mostajo, an opponent of the military cabinet, another candidate for vice president in the elections scheduled July 2 was rejected by the national electoral board last Sunday.

A rebel broadcast said the revolt flared up after a clash between striking university students and the police Tuesday in which two students were killed and a number hurt.

The government said the rebels included, in addition to the Communists, members of the outlawed leftist Apra Party and members of the so-called "Democratic League" led by Mostajo.

Gen. Manuel Odría, former president of Peru's military cabinet who resigned to become a candidate for the presidency, blamed the revolt on politicians seeking to disturb the coming election.

Odría remains the only presidential candidate in the election since the electoral board rejected the ticket headed by Gen. Ernesto A. Montagne and including Mostajo. The board said petitions accompanying Montagne's candidacy were forged or were signed by members of the outlawed Apra-

The presentation charged that precautions against the theft of government papers had been "entirely inadequate." But it said that the jury had found no evidence that the Department of Justice was remiss in its prosecution of the Amerasia case, or that any official acted improperly by attempting to delay arrests.

The grand jury began probing the Amerasia case two weeks ago. The case involved the 1946 theft of 1,700 government documents, some of which were recovered by the FBI in the New York Office of the magazine Amerasia, now defunct.

Praising the FBI for the role it played in the case, the jury said it felt that had espionage laws been different, "the prosecution procedure would have been entirely different."

"Other telling factors involved certain legal procedures which if followed, might have revealed to the enemy information that it was essential should he hold," the presentation continued.
