Capacity Crowd At Lake Mary Protest Meeting

County Commissioner Vernon Dunn this afternoon said he would urge the County Commission Thursday night to reconsider "certain points" in the franchise directive. Dunn referred especially to the mandatory sewer connection.

Lake Mary's Fire Hall was packed to capacity Monday night when residents of the area met for the second time to take steps protesting certain points of the Franchise Directive for water and sewerage plants adopted by the County Commission last month.

Ed Zimmerman, Lake Mary fire district commissioner, cited objectional clauses of the directive which he termed "dictatorial" and "just too much for those living under the free enterprise system of America," before introducing Col. Paul Bissell who read a petition stating the offending terms and suggesting a correction for each.

Florida Building Picture Brightens

GAINESVILLE-Florida's rate of building construction brighten. ed during the third quarter of year, but the total activity

1961 still lagged behind 1960. Totals released by the Univer sity of Florida's Bureau of Eco nomic and Business Research showed non-farm building construction authorized in the state as during September 6.8 per cent digher than September 1960. This continued a general upward trend in building activity for the years But Florida still averaged L. per cent less construction for the first nine months of 1961, compated with the same period in 1960. The total value for the first three quarters this year was $942,. 900,000. Private construction amounted to $854,566,00-3.3 per cent below 1960. Public construction totalled $88,234,000-a 3.6 per cent drop from the previous you

Merchants in Sanford have launched their annual pre-Christmas Sales event. The majority of local stores will offer a variety of outstanding buys to the early Yule shopper.

The familiar slogan "The Early Bird Catches The Worm." can easily be paraphrased in Sanford this week to "The Early Shopper Gets The Bargains." Local merchants have gone all out to present an array of special buys that will appeal to all customers.

We remind local shoppers that the expected savings by buying "special bargains" in area cities usually are lost in the time and money spent in travel to and from the particular city.

Announces — The Opening Of His Office For The General Practice Of Law

The Masonic Building SANFORD, FLA.

Dear Abby:

DEAR ABBY: Our only daughter is to be married in three weeks and my husband is the problem. We have planned a church wedding and our minister said my husband must walk down the aisle with the bride. I bought Mendelssohn's "Wedding March" for our record player, and we have practiced "marching" every night. My husband goes to pieces every time I put the record on. He gets weak in the knees and cries and it just tears me apart to see a grown man sob like that. He says he can't do it. I love our daughter, too, and she is marrying a fine young man, so I can't figure out what my husband is all broken up about. Would it be proper for me to go down the aisle on the other side of the bride to help held my husband up? BRIDE'S MOTHER

DEAR MOTHER: Sorry, but you can't go down the asle with the bride to "help hold your husband up." I suggest you quit rehearsing. When the big moment comes, your husband will come through with flying colors. (If he's crying NOW, wait until he gets the bills.)

DEAR ABBY: My son is in the sixth grade and his teacher gave him a book about the life of Winston Churchill. Every night my boy reads the book in bed for about half an hour. When his father gets ready for bed he will say, "Goodnight, Ralph. I'll bet you Churchill was born in

By Abigail Van Buren

Now, Abby, on the very rirst page it says that Winston Churchill was born at Blenheim Palace, England, November 30. 1874. Could you please tell me where Brooklyn comes in? I keep asking Ralph to ask his teacher, but he forgets. Thanking you I remain, WEARY MOTHER

DEAR MOTHER: The book is correct and your husband is a tease. The best way to handle a tease is to ignore him.

DEAR ABBY: May I shake your hand for advising young wives to believe their husbands no matter how tall the tale sounds. Here is my story:

My husband used to come home a 4 a. m. and say he'd been at his "club." I never really believed him because I knew the lights went off automatically at 1 a. m. One night I had to find out for myself, so I left my baby alone and walked to the club in the bitter cold. I saw his car parked nearby, so I waited and watched. About 3:45 a. m. his friends started coming out of the club. He was with them. One man sald, "Jack, will you drive me home?" My husband replied, "Sure!" I ran all the way home and crawled into bed like an icicle, feeling so ashamed for having doubted him. Yes, Abby, he was telling me the truth. Know what they were doing? Playing TOURNAMENT BRIDGE by candlelight! Don't use my name. I don't want to embarrass my great-
