

Caldwell Says Socialized Medicine Will Follow Abolition Of States' Rights

RICHMOND, Va. June 10 (AP)—Governor Millard Caldwell of Florida said Tuesday night that the abolition of the medical profession is "a practical certainty" unless the trend toward the abolition of all states' rights is stemmed.

He told graduates of the Medical College of Virginia here that "proponents of federal interference with private medicine insist that private medicine has not served the public as it should have."

"Perhaps the charge is not made without some justification. Many sound students think private medicine could and should have done more in behalf of public health."

"The tendency on the part of doctors to congregate in the larger centers of population and to allocate themselves to specialized fields has, to a considerable degree, deprived the isolated and the poor of needed medical attention," he declared.

However, the governor added, "The vital question here is not whether you shall become a specialist or whether you shall serve the smaller communities."

"The basic thing is whether the medical profession will do the job, avoid the process of socialization."

"Unless the trend toward the abolition of all states' rights is stemmed and unless you do perform the functions the medical profession should perform, then it is a practical certainty that in the foreseeable future you will become regimented and deprived of the incentive to grow and develop, engage in research and be free in your profession."

Urging attention to the duties of citizenship, Caldwell said Americans are "getting away from the principles of government which made our nation great and for the sake of expediency, have gone off on tangents."

He said federal claims to "highlands" "succeeding in obtaining a divided opinion which divided the sovereign coastal states of vital rights and established a precedent under which other and essential rights of all the states may be circumscribed or abrogated in the future."

"Unless the Congress approves legislation restoring those rights, a chaotic condition involving multitudinous lawsuits, inconvenience and inescapable injustice must result."

The governor called President Truman's Civil Rights Program "another example of a federal effort to erase states' rights."

"Those who advocate the creation of a federal police system to enforce drastic punitive measures aimed at the South are advocating a change in our form of government," he declared.

Caldwell said Northerners are unaware that "political meddling are interested in votes and not rights," and added "Let us hope they get the facts before it is too late."

"It is obvious that the present controversy is with us because certain political forces desire to capture the votes of minorities. Such an insincere and reprehensible approach delays the day when we may come to accept all peoples on the basis of worth and merit."

The governor told the medical graduates "Southern conditions have been deliberately misrepresented." He declared negro living conditions are better in the South than in northern big city slum areas.

27 Year Old Man Is Slain Gangland Style

CHICAGO June 10 (AP)—A 27-year-old police character was slain early in typical gangland fashion and police said they learned he was friendly with three other men similarly killed.

The victim was Norton Polsky, a race track hanger-on with a police record. He was shot to death on a west side street by two men as he stepped from an automobile, three bullets penetrated his head and body. The gunmen escaped.

begin voting on amendments and the bill at 2 P. M. He told his colleagues that the Navy and Air Force don't want Selective Service for youths from 19 through 25, as the measure provides; that only the Army wants it.

"The evidence convicts the Army of being against the voluntary system," the West Virginia senator shouted.

"If the Army will do its full part toward the filling of its ranks through the voluntary system, it will be done. The Navy has done it, the Air Force has done it. The Army comes and asks for the draft."

Revercomb charged that the Army had raised its intelligence test requirements to cut off volunteers.

He said the war was fought with men accepted if they made a grade of 53 or more on the test. He said the Army had raised the passing grade to 70 and then had upped it to 80.

Meanwhile a bill to let 200,000 European refugees into this country came under heavy attack as the House opened debate on the measure.

Rep. Gossett (D-Tex.) said that many displaced persons seeking to come here "are bums, criminals, subversives, revolutionists, crackpots and human wreckage."

Why, he asked, should we "inject more poison into the national bloodstream?"

And Rep. Cox (D-Ga.) said if the refugees are let in "they will gnaw like termites at our constitutional form of government."

He said he had visited displaced person camps in occupied Germany and found they were "hotbeds of revolutionists."

Rep. Walter (D-Pa.) took another tack in criticizing the measure. He said this country "shouldn't encourage people who don't for the moment agree with their governments to believe they can find a haven in the United States."

It is more important," Walter said, "for them to remain to combat the totalitarian governments in their countries."

Rep. Stefan (R-Neb.) said he would propose an amendment to include "those who have fled their country because their government has been overthrown."

Stefan said he had the support of the State Department for his amendment, which would bring the bill closer into line with a similar measure already approved by the Senate.

Gossett told the House this country already has the largest alien population of any nation in the world.

"Our assimilation machinery is already clogged," he said. "The melting pot has not melted."

He said he would not support the bill.

ELECTION CORRECTED

TALLAHASSEE June 10 (AP)—Mrs. Annie Brown of Milton has been declared the elected third congressional district delegate to the Democratic National Convention.

The state canvassing board rechecked the district votes on the basis of a corrected return from Jackson county, giving Mrs. Mary Lynn Ackel of Pensacola 442 votes instead of the 409 with which she was credited at first.

Truman Tour

They stumped the state together last night and again today in a manner reminiscent of their stumping tour together in 1944. Mr. Truman, then a candidate for vice president, spoke in behalf of Wallace's candidacy for governor four years ago.

At each appearance, the governor introduces the President, Mrs. Truman and the President's daughter, Margaret. Then, the President introduces Mrs. Wallace, who is also on the tour.

The party is leaving Olympia at 11 A. M. by automobile for Bremerton for a tour of the city and short off-the-cuff address at the Elks Club and an inspection of the Navy yard. They will board the governor's yacht at 2 P. M. for Seattle where they will arrive 90 minutes later for the drive to the stadium.

After his speech and a motor trip through the city the President will cut a ribbon at a ceremony celebrating the opening of the rehabilitation program there.

The next stop will be Tacoma where the President speaks at 8:45 P. M. before driving back to Olympia for still another address around 8:15 P. M. in Sylvester Park.

The President's daughter, Margaret, frequently called for by station crowds, substituted temporarily for her father when a crowd turned out at Skykomiah, an unscheduled stop.

"This is a stop I didn't know about," she said in her only speech of the trip. "It's nice to see you. Dad will be out in a minute."

"She was right," the President told the townspeople. He was "sound asleep" when the train pulled in.

Michael-Anne

The archbishop, former regent of Greece, spoke the last words of the ceremony: "Isaiah Horepse," which mean "With the help of God, dance," in accordance with the ancient rite. Mihail and Anne made three turns around the table. While they "danced" thus, they were showered with rice and rose petals. The royal pair's crowns were connected by a ribbon, symbolizing their union.

One slight change was made in the Greek orthodox ritual. In the purely Greek ceremony the couple wear artificial or natural wreaths of lemon blossoms attached, one to the other, by ribbons. Today, however, they used the gold-burnished crowns, as in the Russian orthodox ceremony.

The crowns did not actually rest on their heads, but were held directly over them by attendants.

the disposal of the Security Council. Such a force would have been extremely valuable to us in the past and it would undoubtedly be very valuable in the future.

"Even a small United Nations force would command respect, for it would have all the authority of the United Nations behind it. I do not think of a single case that has been dealt with by the Security Council so far in which a large force would have been needed to act for the United Nations guard force of some kind had been available for immediate duty at the proper time. I include Palestine."

Armed Peace Is Observed In Palestine

Jews Are Accused Of Killing Arab After UN Truce Deadline; Arabs Raid Tel Aviv

CAIRO, June 11. (AP)—Armed peace for at least four weeks began in Palestine today, bringing with it a glimmer of hope for an end to Arab-Jewish warfare.

Indications from the Holy Land were that the truce fixed by the United Nations mediator was generally observed. However the Arab Legion accused the Jews of killing an Arab soldier in Jerusalem and Jewish Tel Aviv had an air raid alert after the truce deadline, I. A. M.

Jews and Arabs made last-minute jabs to improve their military positions. The lines will remain stabilized while peace talks are carried out on the island of Rhodes under United Nations sponsorship.

An Israeli communiqué claimed important successes in a last-minute battle of Jews with the Arab Legion at Latrun for control of the key road from Jerusalem to Tel Aviv. It said Jews attacked in darkness after two nights of heavy artillery and mortar preparation against a rocky hill stronghold held by a full Arab Legion brigade. The Arabs reported in Amman, Trans-Jordan, that the Jewish attack failed and the Jews lost at least 100 killed and a number of prisoners.

The Jews also reported capture of an Arab village and military camp east of Majdal, on the coast south of Tel Aviv, in new operations against an Egyptian (Continued on Page Two)

Florida Grapefruit Growers Lose Over 10 Cents Per Box

LAKELAND, June 11.—(AP)—The men who grow Florida grapefruit lost more than a dime a box on most of the fruit they produced this year, official reports indicate.

Most Florida grapefruit sold on the fresh fruit market brought an "on tree" price of less than 25 cents a box, Harry L. Williams, manager of the Lakeland office of the Federal-State Market News Service, said in his annual report. The state marketing bureau figured the average cost of producing a box of grapefruit at 35 cents for the 1946-47 season. It was believed to be about the same for the year now ending.

Williams said grapefruit sold for as much as $1 a box for a brief period at the season opening, but the level was about 25 cents for much of the season. By April it was at the unprecedented low of 15 to 10 cents a box, he added.

Greek Army Reports Increase In Fighting

ATHENS, June 11.—(AP)—The Greek army general staff reported today a sharp increase of fighting. The communiqué said 14 guerrillas were killed and 14 captured in "important clashes" south of the Yugoslav border on Vitis and Kaimakchalan mountains. Clashes also were reported in western Thessaly and three parts of western Macedonia.

Press reports said guerrillas using bazookas, mortars and heavy machineguns wiped out a National Guard unit on the southeast slope of Mt. Olympus. Six guerrillas were reported killed and 33 others captured.

The communiqué said guerrillas tried to loot a police convoy west of Patras in the northern Peloponnese and lost 22 killed and two captives.

Columbia Breaks Another Dike, Floods Miles Of Rich Farmland

PORTLAND, Ore., June 11.—(AP)—The flooding Columbia River broke through another dike on Portland's outskirts today and raced over a rich lowland area extending ten miles to the east.

Doomed were the Portland airport, four golf and country clubs, a lakeside resort and homes for several thousand persons.

All residents were ordered evacuated days ago, but the sheriff's office feared some might have returned.

The airport siren sounded at 7:30 a.m. The fire department at Troutdale, a small community on high ground east of Portland also issued a warning to any returning. Eight sheriff's cars raced over roads ahead of the water with sirens going.

Army engineers pulled out all troops and dike workers.

The sheriff's office said the warnings have given anyone in the area time to escape ahead of the flood.

The break, as in previous breaches that flooded Newport, the Portland Meadows race track and another golf course, came in a side dike, not on the river front.

Army engineers said they would attempt to hold an intermediary dike, ten miles to the east, protecting the $45,000,000 Reynolds aluminum plant.

Meanwhile, the highest waters of the flood rolled toward the Portland area.

The U. S. Weather Bureau warned that the unruly Columbia River's third crest would hit the lower valley tomorrow, driving floodwaters at Portland to a new 1948 high—30 feet. The level was 29.95 when the first crest struck the Oregon metropolis June 1.

Canada's big Fraser River rode a new high for the year—21.7 feet—along impounded lowlands near the Pacific. It still was rising.

American and Canadian authorities ordered new evacuations of the Columbia and Fraser maintained relentless pressure on levees saturated by weeks of high water.

The 5,500 residents of Sumas Prairie in British Columbia were told to flee their 20,000 acres of fertile farmland, protected from a 32-foot wall of Fraser water by the five-mile Veder Canal dike system. The Canadian navy said the situation was "deteriorating" in this district about 60 miles upriver from Vancouver, B. C.

In the hard-pressed lower Columbia Valley, U. S. Army engineers ordered evacuation of a district 13 near Kelso, Wash., 40 miles downstream from Portland. (Continued on Page Two)

Florida State Park Visitors Are Breaking Attendance Records

TALLAHASSEE, June 11.—(AP)—Attendance records are being broken again this year at Florida's nine operating state parks. Nearly 60,000 visitors passed through the gates of the recreation areas during the first three months of 1948.

That was nearly 5,000 above the attendance for the same period a year ago, but Park Director Scoggin believes it would have been far greater if the weather hadn't been bad and facilities had been more adequate.

In all of last year, 266,483 visitors registered at the parks—an increase of 68,000 over the year before.

Actually, though, Scoggin estimates total attendance at close to 800,000 because many fishermen, picnickers, nature study groups and others don't bother to register. Many of them go to the 11 park areas where there is no place to register.

Again this year, Goldhead Branch Park near Keystone Heights and the Hillsborough River park near Tampa are the most popular spots. They offer boating, fishing, fishing and general picnicking facilities.

On a good summer holiday, Scoggin said, a crowd of 5,000 isn't unusual at Goldhead Branch. The cabins there, which rent for

Hoffman Says ERP Cut Will Cripple Europe

Reports Brunt Of Reduction Would Fall On Equipment Needed For Production

WASHINGTON, June 11.—(AP)—Senator Vandenberg (R-Mich.) urged the Senate today to help "organize the peace" so this country won't have to use force to help keep the world on an even keel.

Vandenberg asked quick approval of a resolution paving the way for American political and military support to European nations joining hands against possible Communist aggression.

WASHINGTON, June 11.—(AP)—The brunt of the European Recovery Program said today House cuts in ERP funds would virtually "eliminate" plans to put Europe's industry back on its feet.

"The brunt of the cut must fall on the machinery and equipment necessary to restore or increase Europe's productive capacity," Economic Cooperation Administrator Paul G. Hoffman told the Senate Appropriations Committee.

"The most productive and the most far-reaching part of the recovery program would for all practical purposes be eliminated," Hoffman's final formal appeal for restoration of the full $5,300,000,000 in recovery funds showed that machinery shipments would have to be reduced from $1,100,000,000 to $100,000,000 if the Senate upholds the House slash.

Soft Coal Talks Show No Sign Of Reaching Accord

Lewis, Operators Disagree On Plans After Contract Ends

By Associated Press

Soft coal wage negotiations showed no outward sign of accord today. Meanwhile repercussions of the last coal strike jangled a segment of the automobile industry.

With June 30 the expiration date of the present soft coal contract, John L. Lewis, boss of the United Mine Workers' Union, and operators couldn't agree on arrangements to keep the mines open after the agreement ends.

A fourth bargaining session on the coal issues was set for 1 P. M. today, in Washington.

General Motors Corporation announced that 200,000 of its workers will be laid off for a week beginning Monday. The company said the layoffs could be blamed on steel shortages resulting from the last coal strike.

Assembly line workers in Ford Motor Co. plants across the nation were in a one-day shut-down today. Ford officials said their lay-off of some 30,000 workers was caused by lack of production parts.

105 Seminole High Students Are Graduated

Mr. Morris Terms 63 Of Group As Above Scholastic Average; 49 To Go To College

The excellent record of the 105 graduates of Seminole High School in scholastics, athletics, musical activities and other achievements was highly praised last evening by Principal Herman E. Morris as he addressed the students and a crowd of several hundred that jammed the high school auditorium to capacity to witness the impressive graduation exercises.

Seven veterans were among the graduates.

Terming 63 of the 105 graduates as above the average in scholarship, Mr. Morris revealed that 49 intend to go to college. He declared that they were well prepared for this as students of any high school, predicted few failures, and said that they had been trained by a faculty unmatched anywhere, teachers who had gone way beyond the line of duty in working with the boys and girls. He also thanked the county school board and trustees for co-operation.

Dorothy Whitner was presented by Supt. T. W. Lawton with the Mobley medal, which for the past 28 years has been donated by Dr. E. D. Mobley to the student with the highest scholastic record.

The eighth grade of the Junior High School had a slight edge on the eighth grade pupils during the year in perfect attendance records, by a score of 13 to 12; but in excellence in scholarship the eighth graders have 21 listed to 25 of the eighth grade, it was reported today by R. House Votes Out Currency Reform Proposal To Admit Polish Soldiers

Rep. Lodge Sought To Amend Bill Admitting 200,000 DP's

WASHINGTON, June 11.—(AP)—House leaders have put the draft bill on the "must" list for action next week. But whether the country will have such a law this year depends on 12 men and what they do in the next few days.

WASHINGTON, June 11.—(AP)—The House voted down, 77 to 57, today a proposal to admit 18,000 former Polish soldiers to this country.

The Polish soldiers fought against Germany and are now in England.

Rep. Lodge (R-Conn.) proposed to open the way for them to come to the United States. He sought to amend legislation which would admit 200,000 homeless Europeans within the next two years.

Lodge described the Poles as "symbols of persecution in the most real and cruel sense."

During the debate, Rep. Lesinski (D-Mich.) said 90 percent of all immigrants since World War II have been Jews.

Rep. Celler (D-N.Y.) accused Lesinski of voicing "a veiled prejudice utterly unworthy of any member of this House."

Backed by the GOP high command, the measure by Rep. F. J. Lowry (R-Mich.) underwent a scathing five-hour attack from both sides of the House yesterday in its initial test.

Supporters of the measure, playing strongly on the theme of humanitarian help for victims of persecution, terror and persecution, encountered counter assertions that many of the DP's are "bums, criminals, subversives, revolutionaries, crackpots and human wreckage."

Such was the description voiced by Rep. Gossett (D-Tex.) who added that those still living in DP camps are "the refuse of Europe."

Rep. Rankin (D-Miss.) told the House "You're going to get a darn sight more Russian spies in this country if you let these DP's come in."

But Rep. Celler (D-N.Y.) said the DP's would be checked at least three times before they set foot on American soil, to prevent Communist agents from slipping in.

Celler said the DP population of European camps is "a veritable army of immigrants" who would be a "better class of immigrant than you could get without it."

Before adjourning, the House voted 75-62 for an amendment by Rep. Stefan (R-Neb.) to include among qualified DP's those who fled their homelands after their government was overthrown by a Communist coup.

Stefan said the amendment applies specifically to some 2,000 Czechs who fled after the Communists overthrew the government last Spring.

Fellows in arguing for his measure, similar to one passed by the Senate, said it would as a "better class of immigrant than you could get without it."

House Votes Out Currency Reform Proposal To Admit Polish Soldiers

Rep. Lodge Sought To Amend Bill Admitting 200,000 DP's

WASHINGTON, June 11.—(AP)—House leaders have put the draft bill on the "must" list for action next week. But whether the country will have such a law this year depends on 12 men and what they do in the next few days.

WASHINGTON, June 11.—(AP)—The House voted down, 77 to 57, today a proposal to admit 18,000 former Polish soldiers to this country.

The Polish soldiers fought against Germany and are now in England.

Rep. Lodge (R-Conn.) proposed to open the way for them to come to the United States. He sought to amend legislation which would admit 200,000 homeless Europeans within the next two years.

Lodge described the Poles as "symbols of persecution in the most real and cruel sense."

During the debate, Rep. Lesinski (D-Mich.) said 90 percent of all immigrants since World War II have been Jews.

Rep. Celler (D-N.Y.) accused Lesinski of voicing "a veiled prejudice utterly unworthy of any member of this House."

Passenger List Numbers 400 Persons; Goes Down In Ten Minutes After Blast

AALBORG, Denmark, June 11.—(AP)—A Danish passenger vessel carrying 400 persons struck a mine and sank in the Kattegat early today and at mid-morning 150 of the passengers and crew members still were unaccounted for.

The vessel was the 1,668-ton steamer Kjøbenhavn, owned by the United Steamship Company (D. F. D. S.). A company official said most of the passengers not accounted for must be feared drowned.

He said about 250 passengers and crew members had been rescued by 5 A. M. EST.

The first vessel to reach shore from the scene of the disaster was the Danish tanker Danfugl Lube, which carried 13 severely wounded. She touched at the small Hals Harbor at 4 A. M. Ambulances were waiting and the survivors were hurried to the local hospital, where doctors had been standing (Continued on Page Eight)

Dr. Bressler-Pettis Addresses Meeting Of Sanford Lions

Dr. C. W. Bressler-Pettis, "goodwill ambassador" of Klamath, arrived in Sanford today in his Lions International decorated automobile with the gold lion atop it, and as district governor-elect of Lion District 35-B, addressed members of the Lions Club at their luncheon at the tourist center.

He pointed out that Lions have created five instead of two former districts, each of which have the designation of one of the letters of the word Lions.

District 35-B has been divided into three zones with Coconino, Tijuana, New Smyrna, Sanford, Deland and Daytona Beach in the east zone; Ocala, Leesburg, Wildwood, Dunellin, Eustis and St. Cloud in the northern zone and Ft. Pierce, Winter Garden and Apopka in the southern zone of the district.

Dr. Pettis, who originated the Movement of States in Klamath, has a shaggy beard and wears a wide rimmed cowboy type of hat. He declared that he is photographed much wherever he goes, and to advertise Klamath, he is printed, "Klamath, Florida."

Jack Morrison announced that Arnold Harrington, high school junior, will represent the Lions Club at Boys State at Tallahassee. Dick Elsherry was presented by Secretary Blakes with a pencil for receiving new members. Plans for a club out at Daytona Beach were discussed. An invitation from New Smyrna Lions to attend the week end celebration at that city, was read by King Lion W. O. Livingston.

13 Year Old Youth Faces Life In Prison

NAPA, Calif., June 11.—(AP)—Thirteen-year-old Richard Thompson faces a lifetime in prison. While Richard chewed bubble gum yesterday found him guilty of first degree murder. Richard confessed that he drowned Verma Sue Atkins, 6, in a creek to keep her from telling her parents he had molested her sexually. He pleaded guilty to a murder charge. Richard will be turned over to the youth authority, which will keep custody of him until he is 21. Then he will be sent to San Quentin prison. It is not subject to the death penalty because he was under 18.

The boy's confession related that after he killed the girl Apr. 16 he bicycled to town and went to the movies.

Florida Parks

have been visiting the area every week for quite a while.

Group camping and organized hikes are helping to build up general park attendance.

A summer tour program operated jointly by the park service and the Tallahassee City Recreation Department will give more than 1,500 Leon county youngsters trips to parks in the area and to historic and interesting points in West Florida.

Two special groups, totaling about 300, have scheduled visits to Florida Caverns Park near Marianna next Wednesday.

The camp near High Springs, is booked all summer for various group camps.

Boogin says his number one problem is a shortage of facilities and personnel.

The park service has an annual legislative appropriation of $175,000 to operate the nine partially developed parks and try to provide facilities necessary to make the other 11 useable by the public.

That fund is supplemented by receipts from parking fees, cabin rentals, refreshment sales, boat rentals and bathroom lockers where they are available. Last year the receipts amounted to $36,301.

Coal Contract

of $75 to $200 for all of its cars effective June 14. The CIO-UAW accepted a 13-cent hourly wage increase. While coal workers at Packard were given a nine percent raise with a ceiling of $20 monthly.

In Pittsburgh, CIO President

John Wayne and Laraine Day watch the raging torrent destroy the newly constructed bridge, RKO's "Tycoon" in color by Technicolor, at the Ritz Theater Sunday and Monday.

Columbia Flood

Philip Murray announced that the CIO would support the planned June 15 strike of five maritime unions.

"The CIO recognizes the justice of the struggle of the maritime unions to maintain the conditions they have fought for and won in recent years, including the hiring hall practices," Murray said.

Leaders of three railroad brotherhoods went to Washington today to seek an investigation of administration handling of their dispute with the carriers.

The union — engineers, firemen and switchmen — are under a federal court injunction not to strike against the Army-held railroads. The three unions want better terms than the 15 1/2-cent wage boost accepted by other rail unions in 1947.

land. It adjoins the South Kalamazoo district, from which 5,000 previously fled.

Refugees from these areas joined some 60,000 persons already driven from their homes by three weeks of floods that have taken 33 known victims and run damage into untold figures beyond $100,000,000.

The Red Cross said it still has not found a trace of 50 persons since the Memorial Day flooding of Vanport, war housing city of 18,700 near Portland. The number on this "critical list" was 121 yesterday but the others checked in, one family from as far away as New Jersey. Vanport's known death toll remained four.

ERP Cuts

instead of the 12 months authorized by Congress in setting up ERP. This would have the effect of cutting recovery spending from $1,000,000,000 to $2,000,000,000.

In advance of Hoffman's appearance, a Republican member predicted the committee would heed pleas of Senator Vandenberg (R-Mich) and others and put back most of the cuts made by the House. Vandenberg, chairman of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, had been fighting the reduction since the House acted.

Hoffman said food and raw materials must keep flowing if Europe is to survive, therefore the industrial recovery goods would have to be cut.

He decried the proposal of Chairman John Taber (R-NY) of the House Ways and Means Committee that ECA come back for more funds next year if it runs out.

"I can not state too strongly that the emergency is here," Hoffman said, adding:

"Our rate of expenditure during the next six months will determine whether we are now launching a true recovery program."

The Republican businessman said he could not presume to tell Congress that any specific sum should be appropriated. But he expressed belief any cut below appeal which they said has been cut off. The Egyptians said they raised a siege of Nitzanm near Iadud.

In the north the Syrian army announced the fall of Mishmar Hayarden, a Jewish settlement in upper Galilee. The Syrians previously had reported they had destroyed this settlement. Jewish bombs dropped on the Syrian capital of Damascus.

Trans-Jordan's King Abdullah arranged to visit the Arab-held Old City of Jerusalem today, coming in along the Jericho road.

The original authorization would be "most unwise and shortsighted."

"I wish to state most emphatically that money will not be spent merely because it has been appropriated," he assured the committee.

"No matter what appropriation the Congress decides to make, we will spend only what we believe will constructively contribute to recovery."

ECA already has approved or is authorizing $838,000,000 in commodity purchases, or 78 percent of the total European grants for the present quarter ending June 30, Hoffman reported.

Most of the rest will be approved by the month end, he said, and in the next quarter "we expect to become completely current."

under arches of palm leaves placed along the highway for his passage. Cheering crowds of Arabs gathered to hail him as the king of Jerusalem.

Swedish Count Folke Bernadotte, the U.N. mediator, will try to negotiate a permanent peace. He has set up headquarters at Rhodes. But in Amman, Trans-Jordan's Premier Tewfik Abu Alhuda predicted the Arabs might refuse to sit at the same conference table with the Jews, in line with a "traditional policy."

The Arab states still are unwilling to accept partition, and the Jews are just as unwilling to give it up.

Seven U.S. Naval officers arrived by air in Cairo and left three hours later for Haifa, to take up duties as truce observers for Bernadotte. They were briefed here by Col. Thornd Bondie of Sweden, head of Bernadotte's staff of military observers. The Swedish colonel himself then left with a U.N. civilian employee for Trans-Jordan to serve as an observer.

The cease fire took effect at 1 A. M. Eastern Standard Time — 8 A. M. in Arab countries, 10 A. M. in Israel, which is on double daylight saving time.

At that time, the commander of the Trans-Jordan Arab Legion in the Old City of Jerusalem telephoned Amman, Trans-Jordan's capital, that the area was peaceful.

A dispatch filed from the Old City said, however, random shooting went on in Jerusalem for six

RAF Rescuers Find 5 of 8 Crash Victims

LONDON June 11 (AP)—Wreckage of a missing charter plane and the bodies of five of its eight occupants were found by a Royal

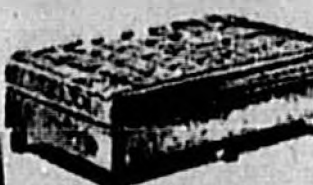

Air Force mountain crew on the rocky southwest coast of the Isle of Man today, the ministry of civil aviation reported.

Two of the occupants survived and the eighth has not been accounted for, a ministry spokesman said.

Another plane, with seven race-bound passengers and a crew of two on board, came down in the sea at port of Erin Bay, off the island's southwest coast, this morning. All nine occupants were rescued by a motor launch and a rowboat.

A little later, Jewish army headquarters in Tel Aviv said word from the fronts was the truce was being respected generally even before the cease-fire hour.

Hats off to Count Benadotto who has arranged a four weeks truce between the Jews and Arabs.
Hope rises for the future of the United Nations. And when the Count has finished with this job, we suggest that President Truman and his friends hire him to see if he can reunite the Democratic Party.

It is too bad we cannot have plenty of money and low prices at the same time. The man who can figure that one out may do more for civilization than Thomas Edison. The Commerce Department reveals that aggregate wages and salaries and other forms of personal income are now running at the rate of $209,100,000,000 a year, that's right, two hundred and nine billion dollars. That may not mean very much to you, until you realize that at the height of the boom in the late lamented twenties aggregate income reached the astounding total of eighty billion dollars.

People who live in ivory towers where everything is sweetness and light cannot understand why newspapers publish crime news. Most newspapers publish very little crime news, very little about scandal and divorce, almost nothing at all about racial friction and social disorders. It is the unusual that makes news, in crime as in everything else. Only the exceptional crime story ever gets into the headlines. Sometimes we think it might help improve social conditions, stir lazy self-satisfied citizens to action, if newspapers published all the crime news. Then those in ivory towers would know something about how the other half lives.

There are a lot of newspapers in the United States, about ten thousand we believe the total is, but there are not so many daily newspapers, something less than two thousand, according to the latest figures. And there are even fewer big newspapers like the Times-Union, with circulations of 50,000 or more. In fact, there are only 208 such newspapers in the entire United States, or an average of about four to each state.
There are 1,210 little newspapers, like the Sanford Herald, with circulations of less than 15,000.
Most small towns, naturally enough, have small newspapers.
The only way a small newspaper can become a big newspaper is for the small town in which it is published to become a big city.

The life of a school teacher, is not easy. More likely than not they earn their pay regardless of the number of degrees they may have attached after their names.
In a little town in Pennsylvania
the other day an irate parent approached a school teacher after school hours, slapped her right in the face. It seems that the "lady's" daughter had come home from school with a tale of having her own face slapped by the school teacher, who insisted in court that she had not slapped the child, had merely turned her around in her seat to make her face the front of the room. The court held that the teacher has the same rights of discipline during school hours that the parent has at home. The face of the school teacher, however, remained slapped. And one sometimes wonders if it may not become necessary for school teachers to attend classes with 350 strapped to their hips like police-

Renaming Chess

Could a common soldier ever hope to become a queen?
Impossible in real life, this happens in the war game, chess.
There a pawn, reaching the eighth square, attains the value of a queen.

Why should a bishop figure in a war game? If chess is a war game, which no one doubts, why should not the pieces have more appropriate names?

Many chess players have had qualms like this about the names of the pieces. Now some historian of the game has found that in 1805 an ingenious American otherwise unknown to fame, named William Blagrove, thought that new names should be chosen. As this is a republic, he rejected the name king and substituted governor. The queen he made a general, and the bishops were turned into majors. The pawns had the more dignified title of pioneers.

Alas chess players, like other people, are conservative.
Blagrove's innovations are perhaps more appropriate, but they simply did not catch on. The weight of years and of previous chess books flattened out his proposal. So chess continues to be illogically named, but none the less the delight of millions.

And the old names give it a historical flavor and pic-turesqueness which would otherwise be lacking. Chess without its ancient names would be like cake without frosting.

Educational Suicide

In seven years 24 million school children will be coming to school houses that are crowded today with about 19 million already enrolled. By 1960 the figure will leap to 34 million. This is due to America's skyrocketing birth rate which started to jump in 1940. School buildings, teaching staffs, books and laboratory equipment are inadequate today. Generally throughout the nation the staggering problem of pupil increase is not being planned for.

These are some of the findings of Benjamin Fine, education editor of the New York Times, and of Louis I.
Dublin, life insurance statistician, writing in The Woman's Home Companion.

The U. S. Office of Education says that eight billion dollars must be spent in modernizing elementary buildings.
This does not touch high school requirements, or any new building program. The National Education Association says that 15,000 new elementary teachers are being graduated from college this month. By September 150,000 new teachers will be needed.

It is time for America to cut her budget as regards unnecessary frills and overstuffed offices, and to put the keen American mind on underwriting American boys and girls.

Periods Of Pests

In some sections of the United States, it is the era of the 17-year locusts. These ugly beetle-like bugs creep out of the ground, making holes as big as pennies, climb tree trunks and branches, cluster by the millions.

They shed their skins. Mother locust lays her eggs in a mean little cut she makes in the tender branch of a tree.
They sing a brief time, and they die. But locusts follow locusts. Out of the holes they come, up the trees they go on their egg-laying mission. There seems to be an endless lot of them emerging from that 17-year period of development they went through underground.

Depression, war, strange politics, the high and higher cost of living, Russia and then locusts. Man's life on earth is certainly one long travail.

Farley Addresses
Kiwanis Convention
On World Situation

HOLLYWOOD June 11 (AP)—
James A. Farley says the threat to peace which now exists
"springs from the unholy ambition of one power—Soviet Russia—to dominate every way of life in every place in the world." Today America is confronted with one of its darkest peacetime hours, which is testing its very endurance," the former postmaster general said Monday night in addressing the annual convention of Kiwanis International.

"Our prayers of thanks for victory are mingled with appeals for deliverance from more war," he told a Hollywood Bowl audience.
"We escaped one form of totali-tarianism, Fascism, to be confronted with another, Red Fascism, perhaps more dangerous than the vanquished form."

"It is my solemn conviction that the world will survive as a family of nations," he said. "The family bonds may be tightened in the manner of our sisterhood of states or within a world-wide family. The frame work is not as important as cooperative sel-eviment, justice and peace.

"The alternative in this atomic age is an ever increasing race for armaments with its constant threat of common ruin. Without the shadow of a question, our civilization is indeed on trial."

THE WORLD TODAY

By BELMAN MORIN
AP Foreign Affairs Analyst
(For DeWitt MacKenzie)

Harold Stassen appeared before Congress yesterday and argued against the proposal to reduce the billions originally authorized for the Marshall Plan. He said he has become a matter of "the national honor of the United States."

The argument is a cogent one.
No American would knowingly compromise the national honor of his country.

But while Stassen was speaking, there probably were people in the committee room for whom his words evoked the memory of Folstaff's notable soliloquy on honor. "What is honor? Can it mend a broken leg?"

That is a large part of the problem.

The congressmen who propose to chop more than a billion dollars off the fund originally earmarked for European recovery believe that, economically, the United States may break its leg —or even its back—in attempting to carry the load.

Moreover, House Appropriations Committee Chairman John Taber said in an interview the other night that it isn't necessary to spend so much in Europe.

He cited figures to show that an abundant wheat crop, bigger than in years, will be harvested in France and Italy. His statistics on the potato yield in Germany were almost startling.

He said he wanted to see "business-like methods" employed in formulating the final figure for European recovery funds, and that there has been a great deal of vagueness, indecisiveness and obtusity in the planning, so far.

Certainly it is difficult, in an operation so big and so complex, to know whether you will need five billion, six billion or 16 billion to go ahead successfully. Once arrived on this level, figures work wonders as proofs for both the pro and the con.

But there may be other considerations.

One of them is a plain old truism of capital investment, namely, that you may sink a million dollars into a project, knowing perfectly well that you will never get it back, directly. The empire builders, England, Holland, France and even Japan, learned that long ago.

For example, the British willingly financed railroads all over the world. How did they get the money back?

They supplied the locomotives and the rolling stock. They sold the insurance. They even furnished the management. The original cost of the railroads never was returned. But, indirectly, they recovered the original cost, and more, through those other operations.

Using those same principles and methods, it may be that the United States, in the years to come, will recover all the Marshall Plan money, and more, from a healthy Europe. As I noted above, you can't prove it. Given the statistics, you can both prove and disprove it.

Build another consideration—and this relates to Stassen's argument about "national honor"—is the necessity for the United States to win and hold the confidence of the European nations which are in the forefront of this battle.

Confidence in the stability of purpose of this country is perhaps more to the point than "national honor."

Ever since Versailles, and the reputation of Wilson's plan for a League of Nations, Europeans have found it difficult to be sure that American policy on Friday would be going in the same direction that it had Thursday night.

There was genuine consternation in Paris, during the 1946 peace conference, when Henry Wallace suddenly attacked the policies of James Byrnes. Each was in the cabinet. Europeans presumed that Wallace and Byrnes spoke with equal authority.

Byrnes had been following one line, the "he-firm-with-Russia" line. Wallace tore at that line in a public address.

European diplomats, attempting to base their actions and policies on what they thought was "the" American policy, as enunciated by Byrnes, had to stop and wait for the middle to clear before they could continue.

More recently, the world has seen the spectacular changes in American attitude toward Palestine. And now, having authorized a certain sum for European recovery, the proposal is to reduce it, in effect, by 25 percent.

Whether "national honor" is involved may be debatable. But the effect on European confidence in America is not.

HARRIETT'S BEAUTY NOOK

June 14, Monday will be national Flag Day and Yowell's urges all Seminole Countians to pay special respect to Old Glory on that day. Our flag's history parallels the story of the origin of our country and the Stars and Stripes symbolize the freedom America has come to represent. During the current world struggle of ideologies, Flag Day provides an excellent opportunity for Americans to rededicate themselves to the cause of liberty and the defense of their heritage.

In an effort to engender a feeling of reverence toward the flag on Flag Day, Yowell's is offering free to those who request it, a booklet prepared by the Marines on how to respect and display the flag. The publication is entitled "Our Flag."

"Our Flag" contains 81 color illustrations and sketches demonstrating proper ways of displaying Old Glory. On its pages are depicted the various flags young America followed for a time, then discarded, until the adoption of "The Stars and Stripes" as we have it today.

"Our Flag" lists approved customs and a set of rules Marines have accumulated to govern display of the flag.

"The Star-Spangled Banner," pledge to the flag and other words which should be familiar to flag-loving Americans are printed in "Our Flag."

Seminole Countians should get a copy of "Our Flag" and insure that they respect and display Old Glory properly on Flag Day, June 14.

Vessel Sinks

by since early morning.

The Kjoebenhavn was traveling between Copenhagen and Aalborg when she hit the mine. Aalborg is northwest of Copenhagen across the Kattegat.

The company said the ship went down in 10 minutes, four miles south of the Aalborg Bay lightship in the northern part of the Kattegat. Early reports to the company, it said, indicated only two lifeboats were lowered before the vessel sank.

Crowds of relatives of crew members and passengers assembled in front of the D.F.D.S. office in Copenhagen when the company was not able to furnish them with any information about the survivors.

The only complete passenger list was aboard the Kjoebenhavn, and company officials in Copenhagen are trying to reconstruct it.

The Danish state railway put three extra trains into service from Copenhagen to Aalborg. They will stop en route to pick up relatives who will be carried to Northern Jutland free of cost.

One official said about 200 of the passengers probably were asleep in their berths when the explosion occurred. The rest traveled stateroom and most of them spent the night in deck chairs.

When news of the disaster spread in Copenhagen flags were lowered halfmast on all ships in the harbor. Aalborg city is also in mourning.

The Danish state radio cancelled its regular programs to send out news bulletins of the disaster.

First survivors brought ashore were a miserable group of exhausted, wounded men and women.

Oviedo News

Special to The Sanford Herald
By MARIAN R. JONES

The Camelia Garden Club of Oviedo closed their season with a covered dish picnic at Sweetwater Park. The honor guests were Mrs. A. W. Epps and Mrs. Ginn of Sanford. The principal speaker, Mrs. Epps, gave an interesting lecture on "Wild Trees and Their Shrubs That Can Be Moved Successfully Into Your Yard."

Those enjoying this party included Mesdames C. R. Clonts, men. Most of them did not know whether kinfult with them on the vessel were dead or missing.

They told of seeing frantic passengers jumping off the foundering vessel, some with children in their arms.

"I was asleep in my berth below deck and was awakened by a terrific noise," said Helge Petersen, a business man from Aalborg.

"I did not realize what had happened, until I heard the sound of splashing water through the corridor followed by cries from a woman apparently in agony. I thought she was seasick, but suddenly I knew everything."

"I grabbed my trousers, rushed to the deck and jumped into a veritable bedlam. Men and women fought to reach the rail. Other tried to get away from the rail while crew members were pushing people into the water. I climbed a ladder in a frantic race against rushing waters, when the Kjoebenhavn went down."

"I won and clung to the ladder just above the water, exhausted beyond belief, for two hours until help arrived."

A swimming party and weiner roast were enjoyed by the members of the fourth grade at Sweetwater Park, given by Mrs. H. D. Ellis, homeroom mother, and Mrs. Walter Teague, teacher of the grade, assisted by Mrs. Mathers, Mrs. Doc Malcolm, Mrs. Smithson and Mrs. Lotz. Those attending were Buddy Boatwright, Albert Ellis, Robert Pryor, Owen George, Walter Hilliard, Glenn Lee, Louis Lotz, Keith Malcolm, Lorne Mathers, Terry McMahon, Myron Willis, Marvin Wye, Harry Parlin, Doris George, Betty Millikan, and Dorothy Simmons.

A Stanley Products party was sponsored by the Bethany Circle of the Oviedo Methodist Church at the Oviedo Woman's Club. Bingo was also enjoyed by the following: Mesdames Don Ulrey, Roy Clonts, Jr., Merritt Ulrey, Bill Colbert, Marion Estes, Donald Leinhardt, Rosemary Tesinsky, Walter Teague, Lionel Nelson, Annis Thompson, Jim Stanley, C. T. Niblack, Bill Martin, M. L. Gary, Roy Clonts, Jr., Bill Meek, Marguerite Parlin, and Misses Jane Seacrest, Thelma Lee and Ann Leinhardt. Unconfirmed reports said 13 persons and the pilot and co-pilot were killed when a Servicios Aereos de Chapas plane crashed in a landing at the ranch.

Other planes of the same company, which serves Southern Mexico, said the wreckage of the plane had been sighted from the air. Lack of communications in the region slowed reports.

The bodies brought here were those of Capt. Vicente Manzano, inspector general of the Chapas state police; the pilot, Capt. Enrique Cano, and co-pilot Francisco de Ochoa.

highest grades and perfect conduct, and which, Mr. Lawton pointed out, is one of the most difficult prizes to obtain. He declared that Miss Whitner richly deserved the medal.

Immediately after this presentation, Jane Whitner, sister of Dorothy, was presented by Mrs. Francis E. Bok with the D.A.R. award for her high 98 average in history. Jane Whitner thus was again honored, for she recently won a medal from the Colonial Daughters for a patriotic essay, received the key from the school for the highest average in history, and also won a $100 cash prize from radio station WTRR in a general quiz program. Her history teacher was Mrs. William B. Wray.

Amid loud applause Herbert S. Stenstrom, president of the senior class, and Frances LeFils were presented by State Senator L. F. Boyle in behalf of Campbell-Lessing Post 53 of the American Legion, with the Legion awards given annually to boy and girl graduates on the basis of character and scholarship.

Eugene Kendall, graduate, was singled out by Senator Boyle, offered the praise and thanks of the American Legion for his services as a bugler at funerals of veterans and was presented with an Elgin wrist watch.

The seven veterans who received diplomas were: Benjamin Mills, S-1c USN, who had three years and four months of naval service before he returned to high school; Pfc. James Rigney, who had 15 months of army service at various camps; Sgt. J. E. Smith of the Orlando Air Base, who had 28 months service in the European theater of operations.

Two brothers, Vernon and William Hargis were called forward together by Mr. Morris to receive their diplomas. Vernon with a rating of EM-2c had two years of service in the Navy, and William, AERM-3c had 20 months of naval service in the Pacific theater of operations. The other veterans were J. C. Franklin, S-1c USN, and Donald H. Meyers, T-5 of the 24th Division who saw two years of service in the Philippines.

Draft Measure Is Delayed By House Group

Vote Is 6-4 To Send Bill To House Floor Debate This Week; Passage Is Assured

WASHINGTON, June 14. (AP)—The Rules Committee voted 6-4 today to send the draft bill to the House floor for debate later this week.

The decision has been pending in the Rules Committee since May 7. Before the vote was taken Chairman Andrews (R-NY) of the House Armed Services Committee appealed for the measure to be cleared to the House floor.

Rep. Dewey Short (R-Mo.), leading draft opponent in the House, opposed the action by the Rules group.

Passage of the bill is considered virtually assured. Similar legislation passed the Senate last week.

The committee balloted after a final two-hour open session and a half-hour behind closed doors.

Chairman Leo E. Allen (R-Ill.) refused to say how committee members voted. He said, however, that only one roll call was taken.

A motion to table the bill was defeated 7 to 3, Allen said. The committee decided to allow three hours of general debate on the bill. It will be open to amendments, and one motion to recommend the bill to the Armed Services Committee will be allowed.

Meanwhile Senator Ives (R-NY) complained that the Republican-backed bill to change the Reciprocity Trade Agreements Act gives the tariff commission what amounts to veto power.

Senator Millikin (R-Colo.), floor manager for the measure, disagreed but promised to consider an amendment offered by Ives.

Ives raised the point as the Senate opened debate on the bill to revise and extend the foreign trade act of 1947. Voting on amendments and then on the measure itself is scheduled to start at 4 P. M.

Under the bill, the Federal Tariff Commission would have to investigate and hold hearings on trade agreements before the President could sign them. The President would be covered by a trade pact. He could not complete an agreement until the commission reported.

Ives contends the commission's studies might take so long that the trade program would bog down. Or, he added, it might be down to report to the chief executive. He said that, in effect, would give the agency veto power.

Ives later offered an amendment. (Continued on Page Six)

May Sales Reports Indicate Price Drop In Most Commodities

The May sales report of the Sanford State Farmers Market indicates that prices of commodities, on the whole, were lower than in May, 1947, according to figures released by Market Manager H. J. Lehman.

Produce during the past month brought $230,247 for 107,432 units compared with $266,848 received for 144,564 units in May, 1947.

Florida produce brought $226,402 and out of state produce, $3,844. Green beans led with total sales of $18,328 at $1.45 unit average.

Oranges at $2.20 average a box, brought $34,091. Golden celeriac averaged $2.05 a box and brought $12,902 total, while pascal celery at $1.90 a box brought $8,153.

Cabbage was down to 90 cents a sack and brought $19,012. Peppers averaged $2.74 a bushel and brought $18,292. Sweet corn had a good sale at $3.28 a crate for 4,011 crates. By the sack corn averaged $2.54 for 4,686 sacks.

Cucumbers at $4.37 average brought $12,987. Okra with only 262 bushel hampers averaged $5.54 a hamper. The largest import was 250 sacks of Maine potatoes at $5.18 per 100 pound sack.

Florida potatoes brought $1.43 per 50 pound sack for 2,914 sacks.

City Recreation '48 Celery Prices Hit Lower Markets Than '47 Season

Director Ganas And Assistants Reveal Summer Program

Plans for the City Recreational Program were explained at the Rotary luncheon today by Fred Ganas, recreational director, and his two assistants, Linda Gingles and Hugh Carlson. They were introduced by Andrew Stine who promised the co-operation of the Rotary Club.

Mr. Ganas said that a letter has been written the parents of all the children in the Sanford public schools informing them of the program and asking them to send their children to the playground where their activities will be carefully supervised.

He pointed out that a system of awards based on points given for good conduct, sportsmanship and improvement will be worked out and that a field day will be held at the end of the summer to which the public will be invited. The children will be taken swimming twice a week, where they will receive instruction in swimming and diving.

The need for a city playground was emphasized as well as additional equipment and recreational facilities. County school property will be used this summer, Mr. Ganas said, with the playground at the Grammar school being the center of activities.

Mr. Carlson said that efforts would be made to provide some sort of sport or recreation for every individual and that no one would be allowed to go home dissatisfied if possible. "Our aim is not over-ambitious," he said, "but our goal is high."

Mrs. Gingles who has charge of the girls' program said that lessons would be given in tennis and swimming and that other sports like ping pong, volleyball and a miniature bowling alley would be available for the different age groups. She also said the girls would be taught how to make robes, rugs, lamp shades and other things which might be used in decorating their rooms.

President Gordon Branson presided. Visitors included John Homan of Bartow and Charles G. Marian of Lakewood, N. J.

FLAG DAY

Flags were on display throughout the downtown section today in honor of Flag Day.

When General Washington assumed command of the colonial forces at Cambridge, Jan. 2, 1776, the "Grand Union" flag which had 13 red and white stripes with a blue canton with a white union jack in a blue canton, was raised.

This flag was generally used by the Revolutionary forces until Aug. 2, 1777, when a hurriedly improvised flag with 13 red and white stripes and 13 white stars on a blue canton was raised over Fort Mifflin at Philadelphia.

The new flag had been authorized by the Continental Congress on June 14, 1777.

New Fever Spread By Mice Is Told Of In American Medical Journal

By HOWARD W. BLAKESLEE
Associated Press Science Editor

NEW YORK, June 14 (AP)—A new fever, discovered in New York City, spread by mice and resembling typhus, smallpox and chicken pox, is described in today's June issue of the American Journal of Medicine.

This disease, called rickettsial pox, is not fatal, but it makes people mightily sick for a few days with fevers that may run up to 104.

Dr. Morris Greenberg, who describes the discovery, says the disease probably is old, but that it has not been recognized before. It is spread by tiny mites on house and field mice.

These mites have been found on mice in Egypt, the District of Columbia, Philadelphia, Indianapolis, Boston and Tucson, Ariz. Mice may have them everywhere. Up to now scientists haven't been interested in hunting because no evil was known of the mites.

The fever was first detected in Queens, one of the New York boroughs, on Long Island, in 1946. There an epidemic hit a small area of 69 three-story buildings. They housed 2000 and in them six per cent of the adults and five per cent of the children had the peculiar fever.

Dr. Greenberg said the disease probably was imported into Queens, but where from is unknown. Last year the fever was found again in four New York City boroughs, but there were fewer cases.

Anti-Lynch Bill Is Approved By Senate Group

Southern Democrats Vow Bitter Fight; Chance Of Passage This Week Remote

WASHINGTON, June 14. (AP)—The Senate Judiciary Committee today approved 10 to 3, a bill to make lynching a federal crime. A Southern opponent promptly promised to "fight it to the bitter end."

The bill, conceded only a remote chance of Senate passage during the closing week of this session, would provide criminal and civil penalties against members of a lynch mob.

Senator Ferguson (R-Mich.), chief committee backer of the legislation, still held out a hope for time on the jammed Senate schedule to consider it. Southern Democrats have promised to try to kill it by any means at their disposal.

The Republican Policy Committee has placed the bill high on its priority list without actually assigning it any time.

Voting against the measure at a nearly three-hour closed committee session were Senators Moore (R-Okla.), Eastland (D-Miss) and Fulbright (D-Ark.).

Favoring it were Chairman Wiley (R-Wis.), who announced the results, and Senators Langer (R-Ind.), Revercomb (R-W.Va.), Donnell (R-Mo.), Cooper (R-Ky.), Ferguson, McCarran (D-Nev.), McGrath (D-R.I.), Kilgore (D-W.Va.) and Magnuson (D-Wash.).

Eastland said he will try to defeat it with every means at his disposal.

"The statement is made that what is in the bill is already in the law," he told reporters. "If that be true, then the bill is inoperative."

The resignation of Mrs. George C. Harden as a school trustee of Seminole County was accepted "with regret" at a meeting of the school board, Friday.

The resignation was announced today by Supt. T. W. Lawton.

After reviewing a petition from school patrons, the board appointed Mrs. A. D. Rountree to succeed Mrs. Harden, subject to approval of the State Board of Education.

The other two trustees are R. F. Cooper and Roy Howell.

Recommendations of the State Survey Committee on schools as to expenditures of the capital outlay fund, were adopted, said Mr. Lawton.

Bids for celotex surfacing for class rooms were received, and Supt. Lawton announced that the school board would make early delivery of material.

H. J. Gut, insurance agent, was requested to make a study of the insurable value of school buildings in Sanford and to report his findings in the near future.

Miss Ruth Hand was re-appointed as supervisor of instruction. Other appointments were: Maggie Evans as supervisor in English; Mrs. Oscar Price, supervisor of music; Mrs. Mildred Babcock, art supervisor; Mrs. C. M. Boyd as part time attendance officer; Mrs. Gertrude Gilbert as office secretary to Supt. Lawton; and Mrs. Ruth Kirch as office clerk.

The following teacher appointments were made for the Lyman School at Longwood: Mrs. Gene Carlson, first grade; Mrs. Hettie McNamara, third grade; and Mrs. Edna Pinkerton, home economics.

The two week quarantine rule required of pupils coming to Seminole County from other counties or states, and for pupils leaving the county and returning was rescinded, Mr. Lawton revealed.

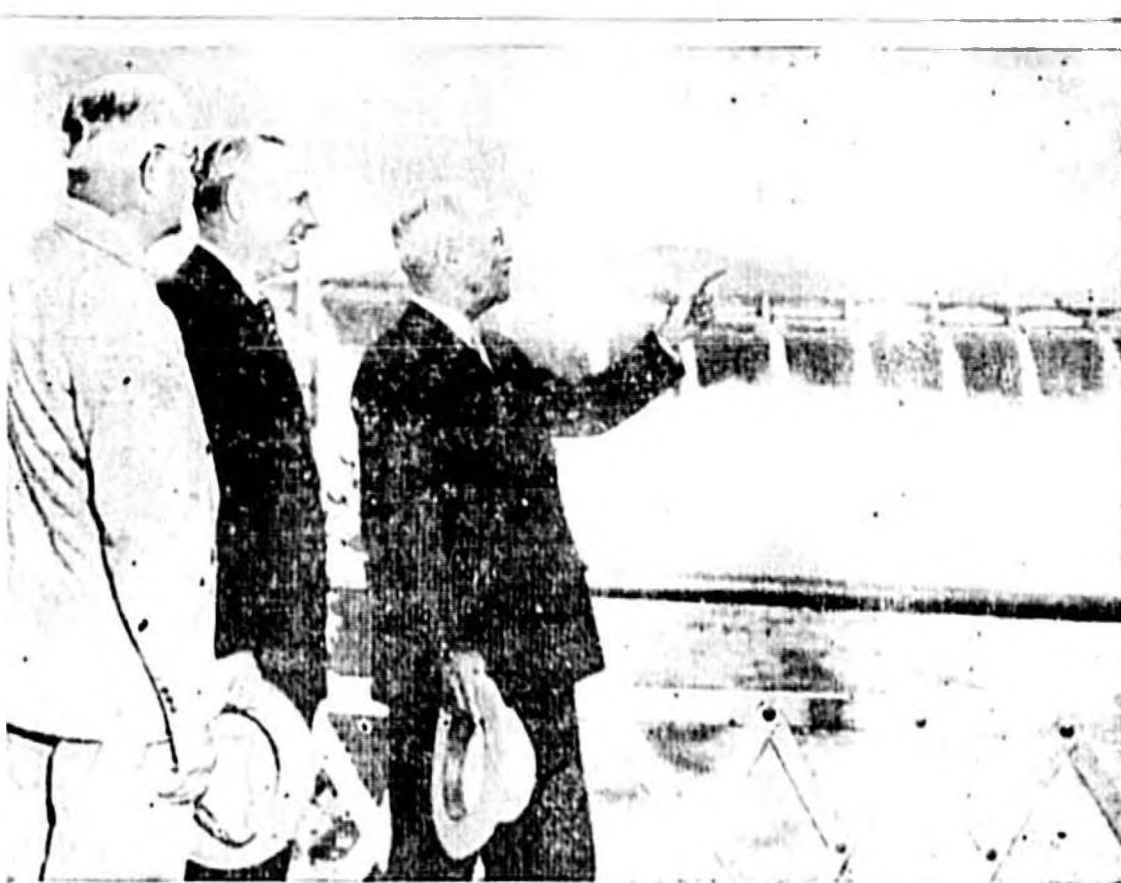

This action he explained was due to the fact that most other counties in the state had rescinded such requirements, and because the health units feel that they are an unnecessary burden to principals and patrons. It will therefore not be necessary for students taking vacations out of the state to present health certificates in order to enroll, he declared.

Gottwald Is Made 1st Red President Of Czech Nation

New Leader Is Haired As A Socialist In A Socialist Country

PRAGUE, June 14. (AP)—Czechoslovakia's first Communist president was elected and took office today.

Premier Klement Gottwald was elected by a show of 296 hands in a public parliamentary election held in 16th century Vladislav Hall, and was hailed by speaker Oldrich John as "a Socialist president in a Socialist country."

Apart from Gottwald and a woman deputy who resigned three days ago, only two voters were not accounted for among the 300 members of parliament, who include 214 Communist Party members.

The new president swore allegiance to the People's Democracy Constitution, went into the Hradcany courtyard to review troops and police, and then crested back into the courtyard where Catholic Archbishop Josef Beran greeted him and Mrs. Gottwald at the door of St. Vitus Cathedral.

The archbishop, clad in brilliant scarlet robes, shook hands heartily with the presidential couple and then escorted them into the church for a Te Deum (thanksgiving) mass, sung to an Ambrosian chorale.

An audience which packed the ancient Vladislav Hall applauded the election long and loud and chanted:

"Attila! President Gottwald—long live President Gottwald!" They joined in singing the National anthem.

The British, French and United States, Chinese and Russian ambassadors headed the diplomatic corps present. Twice the Czechoslovak radio commentator noted that Laurence Steinhardt, American ambassador and dean of the corps, was present.

Military and naval attaches of embassies also attended in uniform. Eduard Benes, who resigned as president a week ago, was not present at the election of Gottwald.

High School Library Will Remain Open

Seminole High School library facilities have been made available to students during the summer months. It was announced today by Miss Edna Chittenden, school librarian. A vacation reading club is being organized.

The school library will be open from 10:00 A. M. to 2:00 P. M. on week days. Prizes will be given to the three students who make the best all around book review reports. To compete students are required to read 10 books which have been approved by the librarian and which include one biography and one travel book.

Except for a short period, the library will be available to the students all summer, said Miss Chittenden. Students who have just graduated from the eighth grade or high school students are eligible to join the reading club.

Truman Vetoes Bill Raising Aged Benefits

Says He Acts In Time For Congress To Revise Measure Which He Calls Piecemeal

WASHINGTON, June 14. (AP)—President Truman vetoed today a bill increasing needy aged benefits asserting it would bar 750,000 persons from old age insurance.

Mr. Truman said he was acting on the bill in "adequate time" for Congress to change it. He assailed "these piecemeal attacks" on the Social Security Program.

The vetoed bill carried an additional $184,000,000 annual federal contribution at the rate of $5 a month for needy aged persons and the blind, and $3 a month for dependent children. The states match these grants. Mr. Truman said these increases "fall far short" of what he requested.

But another section of the bill blocks extension of old age insurance—financed by payroll taxes—a group composed largely of salesmen who work for commission and over whom no employer exercises direct control.

The veto message assailed this section.

Simultaneously, on Capitol Hill, the House passed another Social Security measure and sent it to the Senate. It would make it possible for an additional 3,500,000 persons to participate in old age insurance.

The veto and the bill passed today cover two main divisions of the Social Security Program: (1) Direct grants for the aged, the blind and the dependent children, and (2) insurance for old age retirement paid for by employers and workers through 1 percent payroll taxes.

The vetoed bill would have allowed a federal-state payment of $50 monthly for each needy aged person and blind person, and $27 a month for a dependent child. Size of the payments are set by the states.

St. Johns River Trail Association Is To Meet Tomorrow 10 AM

The St. Johns River Trails Association will meet tomorrow morning at 10:00 o'clock at the Tourist Center with Edward Higgins presiding. About 20 representatives of cities on the inland "trail" between Jacksonville and Miami are expected here.

Plans for an advertising campaign for the coming year to publicize the route will be made, said Mr. Higgins, and it is possible that officers of the Association will be elected.

In his capacity as manager of the Seminole County Chamber of Commerce, Mr. Higgins keeps close tabs on inquiries received about Sanford and Seminole County. Those amounting to 12 to 15 a day, and concern the advantages offered by this section for vacation, recreation, homes and industrial opportunities, he revealed this morning.

An illustrated pamphlet showing bathing beaches and scenes at Sandhills Springs, was pointed out by Mr. Higgins as very effective advertising.

"Sandhills Springs can be made one of the outstanding attractions of the state," he commented. "It is well located for traffic and on the Orange Blossom and St. Johns River Trails."

Maritime Walkout Is Averted By U.S. Court Injunction

President Orders Justice Department To Seek Restrainer

NEW YORK, June 14. (AP)—A U.S. District Court judge today granted the government a temporary injunction restraining a threatened nationwide strike of more than 100,000 maritime workers.

The strike had been threatened by the seven unions involved for any time after tomorrow midnight. It would involve dock workers on the East, Gulf and West coasts as well as the seamen who man most of the nation's merchant shipping.

The injunction, asked by the Department of Justice acting under orders from President Truman, was granted by Federal Judge John W. Clancy.

The injunction specifically named the National Maritime Union, the Marine Engineers Beneficial Association, and the American Radio Association, all CIO unions.

The condition of Miss Catherine Rivers of Sanford, who was taken to a hospital Saturday in New Smyrna after being thrown from her horse, was today reported by relatives as about the same.

A brain specialist was called to investigate a possible concussion, it was reported. Miss Rivers is said to have been unconscious for two hours after the accident, and then only regained consciousness at intervals. X-rays revealed no broken bones.

Details as to the exact cause of the accident are lacking, but Sheriff P. A. Mero, who is a member of the Dusty Boots Riding Association, was present at the races, was of the opinion that the borrowed stallion which Miss Rivers was riding leaped ahead in a girls' race, suddenly bolted and made for an opening between automobiles parked on the beach, and as she was thrown or fell, Miss Rivers slid on the beach, colliding with one of the parked automobiles.

Miss Rivers has been an active member of the Dusty Boots Riding Association and during the past year has served as secretary to Raymond M. Ball, president of the Sanford Board of Realtors. She also attended the Sanford Vocational School.
