GOOD SHOOT AT ROD AND GUN CLUB

Notwithstanding the unfavorable weather a fairly good representation was present yesterday at the traps of the Sanford Rod and Gun Club and some very good scores were made. The weather was not favorable for trap shooting on account of the high wind but several contestants improved their previous scores.

The lead is still held by J. B. Coleman although he was out of town yesterday. Walter Hand was out for the first time this season and slipped quietly into fifth place in the list.

Yesterday's score is as follows, only members of the Club being shown:

Table with 3 columns: Members Name, Yesterday's Score, Season's Score per cent.
Coleman, J. B. .940
Puleston, Dr. S. .872

"Dusted."
Doctor Stevens tried out every gun on the lot yesterday and lowered his score by 86 points. Ralph is a good shot, however, and will come back when he gets his gun and his range back.

Some of the best shots were not out yesterday. It is whispered that they are afraid to come out and spoil a good score but you will find them there next time if it is possible for them to come.

Ralph Wight, who holds down third place in the line-up dropped an unlucky 13 points yesterday, but he made a good score at that considering the weather.

Bob Newman is now in the professional class with a new trap gun. His score went up a little yesterday and will go higher as soon as he gets accustomed to the new firing piece.

Bill Hill came back in great shape yesterday with 44 out of 50 bringing his score up 100 points. We look for Bill to go up close to the top before the season closes.

The Club was glad to see several out for the first time this season. Among them Walter Hand, Frank Crosby, Dr. Tolar and Judge Herring.

Frank Crosby shot well when his gun fired. He saved a nice bunch of shells by a defective gun and will be ready with plenty of ammunition next week.

The Club wishes to announce again that any one is welcome to come out to these contests and shoot if they care to. Visitors are always welcome, and their scores kept, but not entered in the season's contest. Regular contests are held each Thursday afternoon beginning at 4 o'clock.

While we are feeding the starving Russians they were making another secret treaty with Germany. Fine business this feeding of the starving Russians while people all around us are starving to death.

To the Orlando Sentinel—We are much interested in your column where you tell how prominent citizens made their first dollar. Just as soon as we make a dollar we will tell you how we made it. Has Sam Griffin and Charlie Lord told you about their first dollar yet?

The Bartow truckers, like the truckers of many other sections in South Florida, are plowing up their cabbage and putting the land in corn. Never again, is the verdict of these truckers, as long as freight rates are prohibitive. And thus the railroads kill another goose which laid the golden egg.—Wauchulla Advocate.

Old lady in Orlando 75 years old could not make a living any longer and took poison to end it all. No more pathetic figure could be painted by press and pulpit. And yet we send our money to Russia and other foreign countries for the starving foreigners. Does distance in this instance lend enchantment?

When they don't advertise they just naturally dry up on the stem like a bunch of oranges left in the window too long and finally blow away in the dust of the ancient methods that govern country store keepers trying to do business in the year 1922 with the year 1876 ideas. It is a lead pipe cline that if a store wants to sell goods and do business they must advertise and give prices and show the public why it will save money by trading with them. Otherwise—well, they last a few weeks, a few months, maybe a few years, but they perish finally. One by one the leaves are falling.

There are still a few people in Sanford who think they can get along all right without joining the Chamber of Commerce and helping put over the big things that are coming to Sanford and have come in the past ten months. They can get by for a while but they will soon be given the gate by the men who know and realize what the Chamber of Commerce is doing and can do. Just now it is doing one of the biggest works in the history of the city in putting over the inland waterway project that will mean millions for Sanford. You had a taste of it this winter when several millionaires anchored their yachts at our dock but only remained a few hours because there were no accommodations. With the St. Johns river dredged and widened and made the inland waterway through Florida this city would double in population in two years with the increase in business along every line.

Kissimmee seems torn asunder over the actions of mobs, some whom may be Ku Klux and some may not be Ku Klux. The trouble with all of this night riding is that it gives so many roughs and hoodlums the chance to masquerade under the name of the Ku Klux and the order gets the blame for every act that is committed and they cannot affirm or deny it. There has been one act pulled off here that was absolutely raw and yet the Ku Klux Klan is said to have nothing whatever to do with it. To our mind the best thing is to make the officers do their duty, make the courts do their duty or take them out—ALL OF THEM—and put in new ones that will do their duty—and there will be nothing for the Ku Klux Klan or any other klan to do.

The allied nations think they have "slapped Germany and Russia on the wrist" when they barred them from further participation in the conference at Genoa. Why should Russia or Germany worry about being barred from the conference at Genoa. They have made their treaty and the treaty will stick and they can get together into an alliance that will eventually control more territory and more people than any other countries of the globe. Wherefore the worry? The allies have been outdone. Why not send another twenty million dollars to the "Starving Russians."

FREE BRIDGES IN VOLUSIA

The DeLand News is agitating the purchase of the Hardin Ferry bridge north of Lake Monroe, and making it a free bridge. The plan to build a bridge as Osteen Ferry, which in time will become a free bridge, started the agitation of the purchase of the Hardin Ferry bridge by the county. The breeze as well as a large number of taxpayers on the coast side of the county have for a long time favored free bridges all over the county, and a year or two ago tried to bring about the county ownership of the bridges and making them free, and if our memory serves us right the measure was bitterly opposed by the districts on the west side of the county. Now that there is a good prospect of having a free bridge at Osteen Ferry, which is sure to deflect travel through DeLand people are eager to have a free bridge. It is right that this should be a free bridge, but it should be purchased by the district in which the bridge is located. This is the plan under which the New Smyrna special tax road and bridge district proposed to acquire a free bridge, and without expense to the rest of the county. At any rate Seminole county and District No. 5, of Volusia County have started the free bridge movement and it should be kept going until every bridge in the county is a free bridge.—New Smyrna Breeze.

WANTED, A BATHING BEACH FOOL-KILLER

Now is the season of the year when beach resorts are filled with bathers, among whom, every now and then, will be found, what the Jacksonville Times-Union calls the "smarty" who drags a timid bather in deep water, ducks a frightened novice, or in some way makes dangerous what is otherwise a safe and healthful recreation.

The west coast beaches of this state are among the safest in the world. There are no "under-tow" dangers; and even on the most extraordinary tides there is little sweep outward except in a few places where the rushing current empties the tide surplus through some narrow "pass." The dangers of beach and surf in this immediate part of the west coast are so small as to be almost unnecessary of mention; while the fatalities charged to the section are so few as to make this the naturally safest bathing region in the country.

But there is the "smarty!!" We find him at every bathing resort, be it coastal, lake, or artificial pool. He is the great danger to bathing. He should be eliminated at the beginning of the season, and his elimination must be final. The first man or woman caught doing anything to lessen the safety of a bather, intimidating a timorous one, or attempting to play a dangerous trick on a swimmer, should be promptly brought out of the water, forced to leave the place, and the incident given full publicity with actual names called in the press. There is no room for this class of resort habitue in Florida. The life of one child, woman or man is worth far more than the "feelings" of a thousand "smarties"; and if it cannot be made safe any other way, there should be a "fool-killer" equipped with an efficient instrument to tap on the head the "smarties" who persist, after one warning, in making the life of persons in danger.

The Times-Union gives a needed warning to the bathers also, when it says that they should always remember that safety is largely within their own control. It says: "Swimming is a fine sport, a healthful exercise, and sometimes a useful accomplishment; but it is simply foolish to risk too much when on pleasure bent. The thousands go in the surf for a frolic—nothing more—and with fair regard for the conditions which are known at every beach; with as much caution as one would observe when walking along a road and avoiding ditches there should be real enjoyment with relaxation and actual benefit accruing. Safety first is an essential in deep-water bathing—and the ocean and gulf are deep, although there are shallow places near the shore."—Tampa Tribune.

ROUGH ON THE HOME FOLKS

Surely the people of a community town or city ought to patronize their own merchants, consult their own lawyers and doctors and be christened, married and buried by their own ministers.

But what puzzles the DeLand Sun is the fact that the people of a community do not always see it that way.

"We have often wondered why it is," says the Sun, "that a smooth-talking stranger with a flashy front can come into DeLand and sell a lot of stuff that usually can be had at our own stores, pocket the money and get out of town with good grace, while if a fellow residing here tried the same thing he would strive to death the first week.

"We confess that we've never been able to figure out. We've wondered why some people can't refuse a stranger's plea for an order, yet can turn right around and tell someone who lives here and who is trying to make a living that they don't care to buy. Agents come and agents go and always they take more out of town than they leave in it. Yet there always seems to be a welcome for them at the homes of a good many people, well meaning people, who haven't learned to say "No" to a stranger, but who can flatly refuse to encourage a neighbor who in a thousand times more entitled to their trade. We can't understand it.—Bartow Record.

IT MAKES NEWSPAPPERS

There are so many people who refuse to give a newspaper an item or attempt the funny stuff when you ask them for news when you know that they are just dying to get their name in the newspaper and yet they act so shy. There is no false modesty about the newspaper people—they are just what they are—all the way through and they know that there is not a man or woman in the world that does not like to see their name in print and why should their name not be in print? Were all the names of people to be kept out of print there would be no newspapers. The St. Petersburg Times sums it up as follows:

"Now and then a newspaperman meets the man or woman who expresses his or her disapproval of any publicity whatsoever. 'Don't print my name in the paper,' they say. 'I detest personal publicity, etc.' is the wail.

But do they mean it? Not that The Times would impugn the motives of a large number of persons nor challenge their veracity—

But the fact remains that in nine cases out of ten they do not mean what they say. Perhaps for the moment, they may make themselves think that they mean it. Actually, however, they do not.

Recently the Times commented in a personal vein about one of the editorial writers of a state paper. In a letter to the editor he says:

Editorial writers get so little publicity or praise without strings to it that the mere sight of their names in print has the psychological effect of stimulating the egotism in them.

Your name in print. What poet has ever recorded the emotion? What musician has ever been able to repeat the high note of interest? Is there one who has become so hardened to the vanities of the flesh that he doesn't read for the second time any article that contains his name?

So when I came across your editorial which you so kindly dedicated to me, I didn't know whether to frame it or hit the house for a raise in salary. I have decided to do both!

There's a man who is close to the fountain head of publicity and yet he has not become hardened to the secret pleasure of seeing his name in print. And these others who say they detest it! What of them?

They get the same joy, and same thrill as he, no matter what their tongues may say. Folks, let's be honest like this good newspaperman and admit our pleasures no matter how much it hurts our assumed modesty."

SAGE TEA TURNS GRAY HAIR DARK

IT'S GRANDMOTHER'S RECIPE TO BRING BACK COLOR AND LUSTRE TO HAIR

That beautiful, even shade of dark, glossy hair can only be had by brewing a mixture of Sage Tea and Sulphur. Your hair is your charm. It makes or mars the face. When it fades, turns gray or streaked, just an application or two of Sage and Sulphur enhances its appearance a hundredfold.

Don't bother to prepare the mixture; you can get this famous old recipe improved by the addition of other ingredients at a small cost, all ready for use. It is called Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound. This can always be depended upon to bring back the natural color and lustre of your hair.

Everybody uses "Wyeth's" Sage and Sulphur Compound now because it darkens so naturally and evenly that nobody can tell it has been applied. You simply dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through the hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning the gray hair has disappeared, and after another application it becomes beautifully dark and appears glossy and lustrous.—Adv.

You may not want much to eat in the summer weather but you want something nice, something well cooked, you want to know it has been cooked in a clean and spotless kitchen. You get all this in the Sunday dinners at the Seminole Cafe. 23-1tc

TUESDAY UNLUCKY DAY IN JUDGE HOUSEHOLDERS COURT FOR LIQUOR LAW VIOLATORS

Senior Class of High School Visitors In Court.

The Herald News Hound nosing around the County Court House discovered that last Tuesday was an unlucky day for liquor law violators. Tuesday being the regular term day for County Judges Court, the Court had three cases on Docket for trial.

The first case called and disposed of was that of Annie Stephens, charged with trespass. A verdict of guilty was returned, and the Judge having determined the woman as being unable to pay a fine, suspended sentence during good behavior.

The next two cases were of Will Oats and D. I. Hodgdon, both charged with unlawfully having in their possession intoxicating liquors.

Will Oats was tried first, being defended by Attorney Reidy; the principal defense being that the evidence was obtained without a search warrant. This objection was overruled by the Court and the evidence admitted. The verdict of the jury was 'Guilty.' Oats was given $300 or five months.

D. I. Hodgdon was next tried and being represented by Thotford & Wilkinson, interposed various defenses, among which were that the evidence was not found on his premises. Upon motion of the Prosecuting Attorney, Judge Householder directed that the jury be taken to where the evidence was found. This is the first time in the history of Seminole County that the County Judges Court has directed a view of the premises. After the view the taking of testimony was resumed. The jury rendered a verdict of Guilty. A motion for a new trial is now pending.

The cases were worked up by Sheriff Hand and Deputies Williamson and Jacobs, and were prosecuted by Schelle Malnes, County Prosecutor.

The Senior Class of the High School in company with Miss Humphries, were visitors to the court, their visit being in connection with their work in Civics.

THE AQUATIC MEET AT ROLLINS COLLEGE WILL BE BIG EVENT

Final arrangements are being made for the State Interscholastic Aquatic Meet which is to be held at Rollins College on Saturday, April 29th. From all indications this meet will be the biggest of its kind ever held in the United States. Florida's leading High lovers of the Sport.

The State aquatic contest has created much interest on the part of swimmers in the High Schools and men and women in different communities are showing considerable interest in developing teams. In several of the High School towns citizens will make the trip to Winter Park to Witness the Meet on the 29th.

In all probability more than twenty High Schools will take part in this years Meet. Duval is expected to send a team. St. Augustine, Daytona, New Smyrna, Sanford, Orlando, Kissimmee, Winter Park, Lakeland, Hillsborough, Woodrow Wilson, George Washington, St. Petersburg, Palmetto, Tarpon Springs, Wall Springs, San Antonio, Winter Haven, Monticello, West Palm Beach, Citra, St. Cloud and in all probability Miami.

The Boys Meet will be the first of the program taking place at 9:30 A. M., the Girls Meet will start at 2:30 P. M. The new one hundred and ten yard swimming course, spring board and high dive will be completed very soon. Rollins will have the best equipped swimming course in the state. The retaining cement wall will be a great addition in handling of the Meet this year.

At a meeting of the Rollins Club on Wednesday, R. D. Barze and Carl Galloway were elected as a Committee to meet all contestants and officials from the high schools who will be entertained in Winter Park by the Rollins Club. The Club will give a reception to the visitors Saturday evening.

TRAFFIC LEAGUE BACK OF HARBOR

If the big men back of the Central Florida Water Traffic League, and who represent the large shipping interests at Orlando, Sanford, Kissimmee and other interior towns, will continue to show the same interest they manifested at the big Cocoa meeting last Friday evening, a deep water harbor can be established right in this section of Brevard county. And when such men as S. J. Sligh, president of the League, and Judge W. T. Bland, president of the First National Bank in Orlando, pledge their support to the project the proposition ought to gain headway from the start. These men not only pledge their time and influence but their capital as well.

Here in Brevard county the business interests headed by such men as E. P. Porcher, of Cocoa, stand ready to do everything possible to assist in the movement. It is well understood that the tonnage produced in this section alone would not warrant the large expenditure of government funds for the establishment of a harbor, but the guarantee of 25,000 carloads from and to Central Florida—now being handled by the League alone, to supplement the tonnage here; it is time for Brevard county to back to the limit the movement that is now on.

The facts above related were brought to the attention of the Chamber of Commerce here Monday evening by Mr. Porcher and Mr. Field of Cocoa, also by Mr. Lyman, Mr. Simpson and Mr. Ulcht, who attended the Cocoa meeting last week. Support was pledged by the members of the local body and the same support has been pledged at Eau Gallie, Cocoa and Titusville, the scheme proposed, is for each community to organize a strong branch and be ready to co-operate with the League at the proper time. There will be a big meeting held in Melbourne in a short time at which representatives from all of the towns will be present, when a more detailed program of the harbor movement will be outlined.—Melbourne Times.

THERE'S A REASON

Why is it, D. L. Thrasher's business continues to grow, and sales, the first three months of this year are bigger than during the same length of time in 1921? There's a Reason. He sells for cash only. Everybody knows they can buy cheaper for cash and the buying public is spending its money with the store that sells for cash only. Good reasoning, you will agree. If you have not been trading with him, he invites you to his store, with the assurance of his greatest effort to please you, by serving you in the most courteous manner and giving in exchange for your money, its value. HER GREATEST THRILL

"Speaking of thrills," said Mary Pickford, who will be seen at the Star Theatre tonight for the last time in the celebrated comedy drama, "Suda," her recent United Artists Corporation production, "I thought I had the thrill of my life when I took my first airplane flight—but that was tame in comparison to the ride I had while filming "Suda."

"I was supposed to drop into a basket of clothes and go shooting down the laundry chute, dragging the proprietress of the laundry down with me. I sat down with a lot of force. Madame's foot caught in the rope and away we went. The over-ambitious property man had made the chute unnecessarily slippery, and the Madame weighs a little under two hundred. Between the slippery chute and Madame's great weight I went down that chute at about two miles a minute and when I landed on the counter at the other side of the basement room to which the chute led, I was absolutely breathless and felt even worse than when I came out of a nose dive in a plane. When you see the picture watch for the incident and you will realize I'm not exaggerating the truth."

LOVELY BRIDGE PARTY

One of the most brilliant social events of the season, was that of yesterday afternoon when Mrs. Harry B. Lewis and Mrs. D. P. Drummond were joint hostesses at Bridge at the Valdez. There being fourteen tables of players.

The tables were placed in the Palm Room, which had been transformed into a veritable hower, quantities of palms, ferns and cut flowers being used. Over the doors and windows were graceful vines, while ferns and cut flowers in tall floor wicker baskets, entirely encircled the room. The artistic color motif of lavender and pink being beautifully carried out both in the decorations and details of this pretty party.

Mrs. C. E. Henry greeted the guests upon their arrival, and was most attractive in a costume of black satin and lace, worn with a large picture hat. In the receiving line were the hostesses, Mesdames Lewis and Drummond. Mrs. Lewis was attired in a becoming gown of pink georgette combined with lace while Mrs. Drummond's lovely frock was an embroidered lavender organ-die. Both wore corsages of violets and pink roses. Little Adelaide Higgins, the winsome little daughter of Mrs. Ed Higgins, wearing a dainty creation of pink taffeta and tulle hat to match, gave out the tally cards, while the guests were shown their tables by Mrs. Ed Betts and Mrs. J. D. Woodruff.

The tally cards were fascinating designs of maidens wearing frocks of pastel tints, and the hours passed quickly in the interesting games of bridge. The prize for high score, a set of engraved ice tea glasses, was won by Mrs. A. P. Connelly, while the prize, for second high score, a set of engraved sherbert glasses was won by Mrs. Fred Daiger. In cutting for the consolation prize, which was a cut glass cake plate, Mrs. Harry Heeren was the fortunate one.

After the card game, the tables were spread with linen covers, and centered with lavender flower pots, in which were pink roses blooming in a bed of pink and lavender candies. Refreshments carrying out the pretty color motif, consisting of pink and lavender brick ice cream, individual cake iced in lavender and decorated in pink, and coffee were served by a bevy of young maidens and matrons of the younger set, Mesdames J. D. Woodruff, Ed Betts, Don Whitcomb and Misses Fenn Ward and Florence Henry. On each plate were pink rose buds, and the favors were pink and lavender baskets filled with salted nuts.

The gracious hospitality of Mrs. Lewis and Mrs. Drummond was reflected in every detail of this lovely party, and the occasion was one of much happiness and enjoyment. They were assisted in entertaining their guests by Mrs. E. F. Householder, Mrs. F. E. Roumillat and Mrs. George Knight.

UNITE OFFERING

Those having boxes for the United Offering for Holy Cross Parish are requested to bring them to the Parish House, Monday afternoon, May first at 3:30 P. M.

MISS VIRGINIA JOHNSON TO WED.

The following from the DeLand Sun will be interesting to the many Sanford friends of the young lady: "Announcement of the date of the wedding of Miss Virginia Johnston and Austin Conrad was made Monday afternoon at a bridge party given at the Commercial Club by Miss Johnston, when half a hundred of her friends were present.

Bridge was the form of entertainment for the first part of the afternoon. Miss Helen Dozier won the prize, silk lingerie, and Mrs. Council Miller was the lucky one when the cards were cut, receiving a handsome lavillier. Punch was served throughout the games.

Decorations were suitable to the Easter season, each table containing a pretty nest of Easter eggs, and lilies predominating in the cut flowers in vases about the room. Occupying a central place in the decorations, on the rostrum, was a large "Easter" hat, of the picture mode, and when Miss Lillian Terry took her seat at the piano on the rostrum and all eyes were turned that way, the hat floated away toward the ceiling in a mysterious manner. The idea was clever, and the guests were not slow to realize that the secret which had heretofore been kept "under the hat" was to be divulged, so the hat lost interest, which was transferred to the spot it had occupied. Here indeed was something interesting. A kewpie bride and groom stood smilingly expectant bearing the simple announcement, June 7. But there could be no doubt of the meaning of this announcement for the bride's hair, shining through her veil, was rich red of that of the young hostess, and no one needed to ask who was to be the bridegroom. Austin Conrad is the lucky man. Congratulations and best wishes were showered around the hostess bride-to-be, after which refreshments, consisting of a delicious ice course, were served. Of course the bride's mother was there, with a number of her intimate friends, assisting in achieving the pleasing success of the occasion. Miss Johnston is the talented only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Walled Johnston, and was born in DeLand a brief score of happy years ago, and has friends galore all over the state. Austin Conrad also grew up in DeLand and Glenwood, near by, and he also has friends all over the country who are congratulating him and wishing the pair of them the best of happiness. He is a son of the late John Conrad and Mrs. Lottie Conrad, of Glenwood, and is an only son. In each family there is one son and one daughter."

D. A. R. MEETING

The April meeting of the Sallie Harrison Chapter N. S. D. A. R. was held last evening at the Woman's Club, Mrs. Craig Harris hostess.

The club rooms were charming with baskets and vases of April's choicest flowers.

Mrs. J. N. Whitner's paper on "Old Trails and Historic Spots of Florida and Our Own Seminole County," was most interesting and instructive. It was voted that a copy be sent to the D. A. R. Magazine and also to our state press reporter.

We unanimously added to our hearty membership, Mrs. Emma Holman Keeler, mother of our valued regent, Mrs. W. E. Watson. Mrs. Keeler was of great service to the organizing regent of the Sallie Harrison Chapter and her board, while organizing. She has been a M. D., for years.

Mrs. John Leonardi, chairman an Patriotic Education, reported that the prizes for the schools had been received.

After the business adjourned, the meeting was turned over to our charming hostess, and a most pleasant social hour was enjoyed by a large attendance. Mrs. Harris served delicious refreshments, assisted by Mrs. Herring, Mrs. B. A. Peterson, and Mrs. Thomas F. East.

MRS. B. J. STERLING, Press Reporter.

H. S. NOTES

The Sophomores and Freshmen will give a play, "Mary Marie," by Porter, author of "Lollyanna," May 9th, for the benefit of Domestic Science Course next year.

Several things are still needed at Sanford High—and foremost among these is the need of SONG BOOKS. These have been needed for the last three of four years, and those in use now are in a "dilapidated" condition. Who will be generous enough to see that we get some new ones.

The Senior Civics Class had a rare treat Tuesday morning—they attended court, accompanied by their teacher Miss Humphries, to "see what it was like." Two liquor cases were tried. In several places we were "almost brought to tears" by the pitiful tale told by the negro woman, then again we were unable to keep from laughing when she said, "He (pointing to her husband) is the only "pusson" in de wurl' I has to "lub" and I keeps his clothes washed and ironed, and keeps him looking decent.

Monday in chapel, Georgia Mobley presented Sanford High with a complete set of Edwin Markham's "The Real America in Romance." The set is certainly good looking and serviceable, too!

Yes, "The Hoodoo," put on last night (Thursday) beat all previous records for attendance at any class play, and nobody wanted their money back either. Frederic Rines as "Hemachus Spiggott" was a "scream," and so was the whole Spiggott family, especially Solomon Spiggott, acted by Bertram Shepherd. Bertie certainly proved that he can act splendidly. Every character in the play was acted splendidly, and undoubtedly the Senior Class will perform to another big audience this evening.

The piano music, Zilophone quartette and Zilophone duet and solo, also the clog dancing made a great hit with the audience that attended "The Hoodoo."

The boys and girls of the Athletic Association are progressing nicely with their practice in swimming. We are bound to bring back some prizes from Rollins tomorrow afternoon to become more familiar with the place in general, accompanied by Miss Elizabeth Humphries.

If you have never tried one of those famous Seminole Cafe Sunday dinners all you need to do is ask one of your friends. We are advertised by that great number of satisfied patrons—the greatest advertisement in the world. Come and see us tomorrow. 23-1tc

DR. WALKER AND MR. BOYD DID NOT GO TO MISSISSIPPI

On account of the threatened overflow of the Mississippi river Dr. Walker and Mr. Boyd could not go to Greenville, Miss., for the revival beginning tomorrow as they had planned. The latest telegram from that section says the river is at fifty-four feet now and still rising and should the levees break, the delta for forty miles would be inundated. The continued warm weather which melts the snow and ice in the mountains of the northwest is responsible for these floods.

You hear that old story about "coming back." It is demonstrated every day at the Seminole Cafe and especially in our Sunday patrons. They come back Sunday after Sunday because they find here that good old fashioned home cooking that they love so well. It is even better than home cooking for our experienced chef knows more than Mother used to know about preparing chicken for Sunday dinners. Come and see us tomorrow. 23-1tc

Our place was crowded last Sunday with those discriminating people who know what a good dinner means. They will be with us tomorrow for another of those real chicken dinners. Seminole Cafe of course. 23-1tc

The years of reliable, low-cost service for which the Hupmobile is so well known, form the real basis for judging its value.

The thing that people tell each other most often, about the Hupmobile, is that it is almost impossible to wear it out.

The first Hupmobiles ever built, 12 and 13 years ago, are in use today, all over the world.
