Dr. Wiley Will Write

The following communication has been received by the Herald:

March Twenty-five,
Nineteen Twelve.

Herald-Printing Co., Inc.,
Sanford, Fla.

Gentlemen:

We have the honor to announce that Dr. Harvey W. Wiley, late Chief Chemist of the Department of Agriculture, will on April 1st become Contributing Editor of Good Housekeeping Magazine, which will thereafter be the exclusive channel for his writings on pure food, health and like topics which have so long been associated with his name.

The Mazine has established and will maintain permanently at Washington a Bureau of Foods, Sanitation and Health with Dr. Wiley in charge as its Director. He will be assisted by a staff of trained men and women, all of whom come with him from the Department of Agriculture. He will be untrammelled in the conduct of the Bureau by any interference from persons whose mercenary interests his investigations and publications may menace.

The Bureau will continue and carry on the aggressive campaign against food adulteration and kindred abuses which Dr. Wiley has prosecuted for years as an officer of the Department of Agriculture. In addition it will be put at the service of the public for examination of suspected food and toilet products, by whomsoever manufactured, and for protection against false weights and measures of every description.

Further announcements will be made as to articles in preparation for the Magazine and the operations of the Bureau conducted by Doctor Wiley.

Very truly yours,
GEORGE VON UTASSY,
President.

HAPPENINGS DURING THE WEEK

Here the Readers Will Find a Brief Historical Spring Flawing For Hurried Readers

Senator Lorimer has again been vindicated by the special committee, of any knowledge of the use of money in his election. He will have to run the gauntlet of another vote in the Senate, however, and it is yet possible that he will lose his seat.

The United States Senate has passed the Smoot invalid pension bill in lieu of the Sherwood bill. The measure increases the payment for pensions about twenty million dollars. The only votes against the bill were cast by Southern Senators, twenty-one in number. The bill now goes to conference, and should the House agree to it there is a strong probability that President Taft will veto it.

Friel Allen, another of the Virginia outlaws, has been captured. He cheerfully submitted to arrest, being advised to do by his father, Jack Allen, who was not engaged in the murder of the court officials at Hillsville. Sidna Allen, aged 79 has not yet been arrested, and it is thought he will take his own life rather than be taken into custody. Friel Allen is a mere youth and is a nephew of Sidna Allen.

Rapidly melting snow is making a raging torrent of every river and stream in the upper half of the Mississippi valley, wrecking houses, inundating lands and endangering lives. No relief is in sight. The weather gradually is growing warmer, which will result in further melting. All of the larger rivers are at flood tide, or within a few inches of it. Mississippi river cities are said to be in the greatest danger. At St. Louis the river stood close to the danger mark, thirty feet and was reported rising rapidly. Great fear is entertained for residents near the confluence of the Ohio and Mississippi rivers.

Delightful Tea Party

"Won't you come to my tea party?" All my play-mates will be there. This was the dainty invitation received by the wee lassies and laddies, who are the neighbors and playmates of little F. F. Dutton, Jr. Mr. and Mrs. F. F. Dutton entertained at a delightful tea party Friday afternoon, in honor of the fifth birthday of their young son. The little host was the recipient of quite a number of very pretty birthday gifts. Mrs. Dutton was assisted in caring for and entertaining the little guests, by Mrs. Pugh, Misses Madge and Veda Ward. The little folks had a good time together in the enjoyment of various juvenile games. When the pleasant games were concluded, a delicious Waldorf salad, baked sandwiches with walnut and cheese filling, olives, strawberry fluff, raisin cake, ice cream, birthday cake and mints were served. The little guests who enjoyed the birthday tea party with their little host were: Gladys Wilson, Jean Maxwell, Katharine Symes, Maud Lake, Ethel Goodwin Perkins, Margaret Neal, Sarah E. Williams, John Wilson, George Wilson, Frank Chase, Harry Woodruff, Joe Caldwell, Christie Summers, Robert Denton, Thomas Wight. Mrs. Dutton had the photographer, Mr. Leigh, come up and take a picture of the happy little party of children.

Volunteer Firemen

The splendid fight by the Sanford Volunteer Fire Department against the fire on Sanford avenue Sunday morning cannot be too highly commended. Neither can too much praise be given to some of the citizens, white and colored, who joined hand with the department in that hot, heavy and dangerous work. There may be critics, such as always pop up, ready to point out defects in the management, or faults in the details, not under all the circumstances could these critics have done any better? And did they lend a hand and try to give the benefit of their superior knowledge and skill? No matter what mistakes you think you see gentlemen, take off your hat to the volunteer firemen—they are brave men and self-sacrificing heroes! A. E. PHILPS.

WAS THE BANNER WEEK

Sanford Celery Crop Moved With A Rush Last Week

Sanford, Mar. 29.—Reports early in the season that Sanford would ship 500 cars of celery during March were erroneous, as the shipments will not total over 300 cars. Shipments for the season to March 15 did not total over 312, with 90 cars rolling the week of Mar. 8 and nearly 150 last week—the high water mark of the season. The celery crop is looking strong and healthy and shows no signs of seed. It is a heavy green and stalks are strong and firm. Much of the product is contracted as cut and whole fields are sold outright with the purchaser gathering and crating the crop. The celery fields and loading stations present a lively scene with hundreds of hands cutting, packing and shipping. The greatest handicap recently has been the lack of help and several growers who expected to finish up the past week were forced to wait over until this week to secure the necessary help.

The several warm days caused growers much anxiety, hence shipments were rushed forward. Taking out vegetables, the total movement of the week was near 200 cars. The price has remained above the dollar mark despite the heavy shipments. A large acreage is being put in cucumbers and many fields show plants with a fourth leaf. Tomatoes are now being set and the acreage will be larger than that of last year.

The cold wave which came to the northern markets early this week helped the local growers materially in marketing the crop at good prices.—Produce News.

Fire at Oakland

Oakland March 30.—This busy little village was visited by a disastrous fire early this evening which came near wiping it out of existence, and but for the hard work of citizens practically every house would have been burned.

The fire was discovered about 7 o'clock and although a bucket brigade was formed at once, everyone working hard in an effort to check the fire, it spread rapidly and was not under control until 10:15 o'clock. The stores of J. O. Brock, general merchandise, J. C. Michael, hardware and Perkins Brothers, groceries, were wiped out, besides other small buildings, the damage being roughly estimated at $20,000.

Oakland is situated on the Atlantic Coast Line railroad in Orange county, between Sanford and Trilby and has a population of 308 persons, practically everyone being out to witness the blaze, and to do what they could in their small way to check the flames. By hard work the Atlantic Coast Line depot was saved but for a time it looked as though it was doomed.

Men and Religion

Over twenty men, representatives of the five Protestant churches met last night at the Methodist church and organized the central committee of the Men and Religion Forward Movement for Sanford. The call was for five laymen and the pastor from each church. The churches have all selected their men and nearly all of these men were on hand to organize the committee.

Mr. J. N. Whitner opened the meeting by a few words of devotional services. Then Mr. C. R. Walker took the chair for the business and Prof. N. J. Perkins secretary. These two men, with B. F. Whitner, Jr., L. R. Phillips and H. E. Dubose and the city pastors constitute the executive committee.

Into the hands of this executive committee have been placed the details of the four days' campaign which is to begin Sunday, April 14. It was also decided to hold a big rally for men next week, preparatory to the campaign that is to follow. This rally is to take place in the Methodist church opening at 7:30 Wednesday night. On the same evening there will be a meeting of the women in the Congregational church. These are planned to be union meetings, covering all the Christian forces of the city and are to be under the guidance of this new executive committee.

Band Concert

The Sanford Band will again give a concert in the Park, Thursday evening, April 4th, at 8 o'clock. These concerts are very popular, always appreciated, and the public is invited to enjoy a good program by this popular organization.

SANFORD HAS A BLAZE

Fire Fiend Wipes Out Portion of Sanford Avenue

MANY STORES AND DWELLINGS

Fire Department Did Valiant Service But Wooden Buildings Burned Fiercely

One of the first fires of any consequence in this city in the past four years occurred on Sunday morning about four o'clock, the time when every Sanford citizen was being wooed the strongest by the god of sleep. The siren whistle at the water works is enough to waken the dead and yet there were many people who knew nothing about part of the city being destroyed until later in the day.

There was considerable delay at the start in getting the fire truck at the scene of operations and coupling up and the inflammable nature of the buildings made the work all the more difficult.

The fire had its origin in the large three-story rooming house belonging to Mrs. S. Johnson, presumably from a lamp being overturned and this building went up like tinder. The small stores adjoining were frame and almost before the alarm had awakened the people one side of Sanford avenue from Third to Fourth streets was a mass of flame. The department fought valiantly and finally succeeded in stopping the progress of the fire but not before almost the entire block on each side of the avenue had been destroyed. One feature in favor of the department was the absence of a high wind and on the south the large oak trees also aided in keeping the fire from the Stoumen building. Had there been a high wind the greater part of Sanford avenue and also of Palmetto would have been destroyed. As it was, a number of people lost their all and many storekeepers suffered from vandals, who in their excitement carried out the goods and are carrying them yet for they have never brought them back.

Among those suffering heavy losses in property damage were C. H. Leffer, Frank Woodruff, J. E. Long, I. E. Wilson, K. S. Johnson, J. B. Magruder and H. E. Duhart. The loss in property values and merchandise will be between $25,000 and $30,000 with a partial insurance.

FOR CHARITY'S SAKE

Hospital Cleared Neat Sum at Imperial Theatre Friday Night

The entertainment given at the Imperial for the benefit of the Sanford Hospital Association proved to be a success in every way and the hospital realized a neat sum from the proceeds. Mr. DeCottes with his customary generosity gave the association the use of the house and pictures, and the program consisting of music and other features was greatly enjoyed.

Among the special features worthy of mention was the singing of that little songster, Miss Davidson who though only nine years of age sings like a professional. This was her first appearance before such a large audience and though she will in the future appear before larger she will never appear before one more enthusiastic for her songs literally carried away the people. This little lady certainly has a voice that should make her fortune if properly trained, and Sanford is indeed proud of her.

The clog dancing of Mr. Crosby was good. This young man has a bunch of good stuff that should be developed and in the real Irish clog he has the goods.

The other features of the program and the moving pictures were excellent and the several different audiences that crowded the house at each performance were well satisfied.

The ladies, one and all who were responsible for the entertainment and assisted so materially deserve merited praise.

After the Aliens

Hillsville, Va., April 1.—The cordon of the law is tightening about the courthouse assassins who remain at large.

Empty handed, but close on the trail the pomes returned to town for a short time today and then went off into the mountains again, confident that with every exit guarded it is only a matter of hours when Sidna Allen and Wesley Edwards will be taken. Of the eight outlaws who shot up the Carroll courthouse and murdered five people, they are the only ones not now in jail awaiting trial.

TO END A SERIOUS EVIL

The Coast Line Locates the Cause of Losses

New York, Mar. 29.—As the result of hundreds of claims being filed last season against the various lines handling Florida products to this market, an inspection bureau will be established within the next few weeks with stations at Florida and North Carolina shipping points as well as in New York, Philadelphia, Boston and other Eastern markets. Florida shippers have filed claims running up into many thousands of dollars against the A. C. L. and the Pennsylvania roads. As the initial carrier under the Florida laws as well as those of the Interstate Commerce Commission, the A. C. L. becomes responsible for the safe delivery of fruits and vegetables. Hundreds of returns from receivers in this and other markets have continually shown rough handling with the result of heavy losses. For several weeks officials of the A. C. L. have had representatives watching the receiving depots and it is upon their reports that the new bureau will be installed.

In the past, Florida and Carolina shippers have frequently been permitted to load cars without inspection by the railroad. This will cease altogether about May 1 when every point will be provided with a competent inspector who will have authority to refuse every package which does not show it will safely carry to this or other Eastern markets. This policy will be followed out at all points along the A. C. L. and will cover all of the vegetable and fruit products as well as melons and canteloupes. Experienced fruit handlers say that this restriction will bring about a great change in the business, reducing materially the number of cars arriving in bad shape, many of which were either improperly packed or the fruit was overripe when shipped.

Radical changes will also be made in the methods of handling perishables in this and other Eastern markets. An A. C. L. official who was in New York a short while ago looking into this matter, reported that the Pennsylvania freight handlers threw the Florida vegetables about as if the packages were made of pig iron. He called the attention of terminal officials to the matter and secured a temporary change. Florida growers have lost many thousands of dollars each season through the negligence of these railroad freight handlers. Very few claims have ever been allowed and the average grower has long ago learned to take his loss without any hope of redress. Recently, however, the A. C. L. management has adopted a broader policy toward shippers and the present investigation and determination to remedy the trouble is the result.—Produce News.

Savings Bank Not Popular

Washington, D. C., March 30.—(Special.)—There were fifty postal saving depositors in operation in Florida with deposits to over $78,800, according to an announcement made here today. This amount was deposited by 1,400 depositors, or an average of $56 per depositor. Since the opening of postal savings depositories in Florida there have been approximately 2,300 accounts opened and more than 5,000 deposits made, or an average of over two deposits to each depositor and about 2,000 withdrawals, or an average of less than one to each depositor.

Compared with numbers of depositors and amount on deposit with other states Florida ranks twenty-eighth in number of accounts remaining open January 31, and twenty-ninth in total amount remaining on deposit, showing that as compared with other states the average amount to the credit of each depositor is less in Florida than is the average amount for the United States.

Geneva Road Is Bad

Fred Bradley was in the city yesterday from Geneva and reports the road as being in a very bad condition. The drawbridge is being constructed and will soon be ready for the travel, but with a poor road on each side of the bridge the traffic will not be assisted to any great extent. It is to be hoped the road gang will visit this section soon and put the Geneva road in good condition before the rainy season makes an inland lake out of the hammock lands beyond the bridge.

CULLED FROM THE STATE PRESS

An Epitome of the Week's Most Important Happenings in the State's Domain.

In a recent election the citizens of Bartow voted in favor of taxing the city to keep up a public library.

Thirty-five new members have recently been added to the Kalamoose board of trade.

Three hundred acres of farming land is now being cleared near Brooksville. A quantity of sugar cane and velvet beans are being planted on the land and next season citrus fruit trees will be set out.

The contract has been closed in Ocala for the erection of a $60,000 hotel on the site now occupied by the old Montezuma Hotel. In the building there will be seven large stores which will face Main street and King avenue. The hotel will contain seventy-five bedrooms, twenty-seven of which will have private baths.

It is understood that Titusville has enjoyed the best winter season she has had in years. The town was filled with tourists and homeseekers all winter.

Brooksville, fully up to the spirit of the times, has decided to establish a permanent exhibit of the products of Hernando county at some central point in the city so that visitors, prospectors and homeseekers may see at a glance the products of the county.

The city of Orlando has made a new lighting contract and proudly boasts that it will soon be the best lighted city in the South. Arc lights of 6-6-10 amperes will be used. These were chosen by the city council at an annual cost of $110 in preference to the four ampere lights at a cost of $75 a year.

Winter Garden has joined the procession of Florida Cities of progressive spirit and has organized an active board of trade, which is already hard at work raising capital to erect a large hotel to take the place of the one recently destroyed by fire.

Reports coming from several Florida counties indicate that the peach crop will be unusually good, both in quality and size this year.

The eighth annual session of the Grand Chapter of the State of Florida, Order of the Eastern Star, will convene in Jacksonville, Wednesday morning, April 10, at 10 o'clock for a two days' session.

Week of Prayer Services

The Woman's Missionary Society of the Baptist church, which observed last week, as a season of prayer for Home Missions, held their meeting at the home of Mrs. M. Stewart Thursday evening. Miss Allie Bradford, president of the society led the devotional exercises of the meeting, after which Mrs. Wildman of Dade City, talked to the society about the missionary work that is being done in India and of her life and experience while a missionary in India.

After the conclusion of Mrs. Wildman's talk a social hour was enjoyed by the large number present. Delicious refreshments were served Friday evening the last meeting of the week of prayer, was held at the home of Mrs. R. C. Maxwell, who led the devotional exercises. The subjects that were considered by the society were "The Mountain Schools and the Indians." Quite a number of papers were read by different members of the society on the two subjects. The dues of the members of the society were collected. After all the business before the meeting had been attended to, the meeting adjourned.

Book-lovers' Club

The Book-lovers' Club was entertained by Mrs. Luke Friday afternoon. A very unique and interesting contest was prepared by the hostess. The letters composing the names of a number of the prominent cities in the United States were distributed among the guests, who were to form as many correct names of cities as they could put together, with the letters given them.

Mrs. Henry McLaulin had the largest number of correct names, and won the prize; a very pretty bar ash pin. After the pleasant contest was over, delicious lemon sherbert, in lemon cups and dainty cakes were served with punch.

The club was pleased to have with them Mrs. Burton Pugh as a visitor.

CURBSTONE GLEANINGS

A Budget of Opinion "Just Between You and Me"

EVEN THE GATE POST NOT IN IT

A Chief Is Among Ye Taking Notes and Faith, He's Prent 'Em'— So Says Saunterer.

Well, we have had a fire—the first serious one in several years, and now while the matter is fresh in the minds of the people I want to talk about a paid or a volunteer fire department for Sanford. This idea has been uppermost in my mind for the past few years, as we have not had a department in that time. All of you remember the time in the early days when Sanford had the best volunteer department in the state, under the able leadership of Harry Papworth and other lesser lights of fire fighting fame.

Coming down to the present time I want to impress upon your mind that now is the accepted time to organize and get a good department. The city hall has been arranged to house the equipment and the city hall is the proper place for headquarters. With but little expense a first-class company can be organized, with several paid men to be on the job at all times, and under the able leadership of Chief Underwood we can reduce the high rate of insurance that now prevails and almost precludes the average man from taking out fire insurance.

This most important matter should be taken up at once, because our good luck with the fire fiend may not be with us always.

Every business man in Sanford would be willing to donate a sum of money annually to a good, well organized fire department and it would be money well spent.

Give it to the boys instead of to the fire insurance companies.

For the benefit of my friends in the Sanford Banks I produce the following rules:

If you have any business to do with a bank, put it off until 3 o'clock, or, if it is possible, a little later, as it looks more businesslike to rush in just as the bank is closing.

In depositing money, try to get it upside down and wrong end foremost, so that the teller may have a little exercise in straightening it up before counting it.

It is best not to take your bank-book with you, but call at another time to have it entered. You can thus make two trips to the bank where one would answer.

If a check is made payable to your order, be careful not to indorse it before handing it to the teller, but let him return it to you and wait while you indorse it; this holds to pass the time and is a pleasure and relief to the teller.

You can generally save time when making a deposit by country your money down to the teller, as you can nearly always count more speedily and correctly than he can.

When you make a deposit do not use a deposit ticket, but mix indiscriminately together checks and bills, since it facilitates matters exceedingly.

If you make a deposit of one hundred dollars and give a check for fifty dollars it is a good thing to call frequently at the bank and ask how your account stands, as it impresses the officers favorable with your business qualifications.

Never keep any record when your notes fall due, and they are protested censure the bank for not giving you notice. Always date your checks ahead; it is a never-failing sign that you keep a good balance in bank, or if you do not wish it generally known that you are doing a good business, do not deposit your money until about the time you expect your check will be in.

A strict observance of the foregoing rules will make your accounts desirable for any bank and will make you a general favorite with all the bank officers.

My friend "Thorne," who writes such good stuff for Palm Beach County Times while he is in a "Hole in the Ground" seems to have trouble with billed shirts and excoiates upon the laundry as follows:

"I often wonder why it is that a laundryman takes so much pleasure in starching a shirt bosom so stiff that a fellow could slay an alligator with it? When I wish them done soft as a batter cake I'll be switched if they don't come back veneered so stiff that I have to shove the buttons through with a shoe horn! Honest to goodness, I have to take a can opener to get the buttonholes so they'll show up! I've heard it rumored that merchants always pay laundries a stated salary—depending upon the broken buttons, caused by endeavors to shoot 'em through the slot—but, cross my heart, I don't believe it. If there's one thing I delight in it is trying to open the buttonhole at the back of my collar while there is merely a "dim, religious light" and none other. My family always hikes for the porch during that ceremony—preferring not to hear me argue with the thing and pay my compliments to the man, woman or other work of nature, who soldered that orifice and then riveted the blamed thing. Some day I am going to get real angry; then I'm going to the laundry with one of those petrifid shirts as a weapon of offense and defense, and when I get through with the man who makes out the work slips it will take all the starch in the house to stiffen him up!

The fire limits of Sanford should be extended. The fire last Sunday morning demonstrated this truth to every spectator. Those small frame stores with shingle roofs burned like tinder and no fire department in the world could have saved them. Had there been a high wind half of this city of Sanford would have up in smoke. A brick building with a tin roof is the only protection in the fire limits and the business portion of Sanford should be in the city limits by all means. It is rather difficult to look ahead and recognize the future development in the business section for every year sees new streets being taken up for business houses.

While a larger fire limit will work a hardship in some quarters it will be the ultimate salvation of the city and though costing more to erect better buildings the property will enhance in value.

BRYAN WILL BE HERE

The Greatest American of the Age to Speak in Sanford

Hon. William Jennings Bryan will speak in Sanford! The statement is enough to attract the people of the entire state to Sanford last of this month, for the Great Commoner has written Secretary Bates of the Commercial Club that he will be here between April 24th and 30th.

The opera house has been engaged for the occasion, but no building in Sanford will be able to hold the crowd that night.

Just to show our generosity Sanford will also invite every candidate in the state to be here that day and meet and speak to the people. The entire day will be given over to the candidates and at night Mr. Bryan will make an address—probably one of the most important of his later days, fraught with so much importance to all the people of the United States.

According to letter received from Mr. Bryan he will not deliver an address at any other point in the state and if this is true, Sanford will be the Mecca for statesmen from every part of the entire south that day.

More details will be given later.

Death Angel in Sanford

Mrs. Mary A. Allen died last Saturday at the home of her daughter, Mrs. W. E. Shelton. Mrs. Allen suffered a stroke of paralysis some time ago and never fully recovered from the effects of the first stroke. Mrs. Allen was born in Kentucky but her early life removed to Springfield Illinois, coming to Sanford with Mr. and Mrs. Shelton about two years ago. On account of failing health Mrs. Allen could not become an active member of Sanford's family but all who knew her were impressed with her sweet character and Christian fortitude in her suffering and affliction.

A brief service was held at the house Sunday morning by Rev. Wildman after which the remains were taken to Springfield for interment, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Shelton.

J. W. Barnes

After an illness of several weeks Mr. J. W. Barnes died last Saturday afternoon at the home of his son, J. W. Barnes, Jr.

Mr. Barnes became ill while on a visit here and for some time he seemed to rally and his physician had hopes he would rally sufficiently to permit a trip to his home in Wilmington, North Carolina. But tired nature gave away and he passed peacefully in the great beyond surrounded by his son and his daughter who had been summoned to his bedside.

Mr. Barnes was 73 years old at the time of his death.

He was a man of excellent habits, fine moral character, and sturdy constitution and he continued to be active in his accustomed pursuits till long past the age at which men ordinarily drop out of the ranks of the workers. To this end there is no doubt that his sunny disposition largely contributed.

He was engaged in the commission business for many years and came to Florida every winter in the interest of his firm. His father was the first man in North Carolina to engage extensively in the vegetable business and the name of Barnes and the commission business has been synonymous for years.

Mr. Barnes leaves a son J. W. Barnes who makes his home in this city during the winter months and a daughter, Mrs. W. E. Scoggins of Pittsburg, Dr. W. O. King, of this city, is his nephew.

A prayer service was held at the Rossetter home by Rev. Wildman, the remains taken to Wilmington, N. C., where interment will be made in the family burial lot.

How much this world owes him and such as he, it is impossible to estimate, though it would be a grateful task to trace his influence through some of the more direct channels, to hold him up in these degenerate days, in his various characters of husband and father, of neighbor and friend, to speak of the son and daughter he has reared to perpetuate his name and emulate his virtues. But it comes not within the scope of this brief article to do so. Suffice it to say, he lived nobly and died peacefully at the advanced age of 73 years. The stern Reaper found him, "as a shock of corn, fully ripe for the harvest."

Not for him be our tears! rather let us crown his grave with garlands; few of us will live as long or as well, and fewer yet will the Angel of Death greet with such a loving touch.

Dinner Club

The Dinner Club varied their usual program, with a very pleasant innovation Monday evening. Instead of the dinner at the home of Miss Emma Beard the hostess for the evening, each member of the club invited a gentleman friend; and the pleasant party enjoyed a delicious picnic dinner on the Clyde dock, by moonlight. The menu cards were decorated with clowns, and tied with dainty pink ribbon. The dinner consisted of a salad, sandwiches, Saratoga chips, deviled eggs, olives, cheese straws, iced tea, ice cream in cones, cake and candy.

The gentlemen guests were invited to sample the candy before the ladies partook of the dainty home manufacture, which, to their surprise, was found to be highly flavored with red pepper. The cute "April Fool" joke, was decidedly on the young gentlemen. When the pleasant dinner party was over, the club invited their guests to accompany them to the Imperial.

The young gentlemen enjoying the hospitality of the club were R. R. Deas, Braxton Perkins, O. Shaw, Mr. Wallace, Daniel and Weidman Caldwell, Mr. Wildman, Billie Hill, Clarence Mahoney.

Miscellaneous Shower

Cards have been received to a Miscellaneous Shower, which Mrs. William Deane Turner will give for the bride-elect, Miss Vivian Yeiser, Wednesday afternoon, April 10th.

It has been my great pleasure to be associated with Bro. Bass in three meetings, all of which were meetings of power and far-reaching influence. I take pleasure therefore in commending him to all who love the Lord and the coming of His Kingdom. He preaches a fearless and soul-saving gospel like the fearless savior of God he is, and God blesses it.

The Beef Trust has been declared innocent, and now the public can pay the cost of the suit. Look out for a jump in price. We Floridians will be compelled to raise more of our own beef cattle, and be independent of the Beef Trust.

The Board of Trade of Kissimmee gave the visitors to the state an opportunity of seeing the city last week by giving a two-days carnival and big meeting. The Commercial Club of this city ought to arrange a big Candidate meet here before the tourists leave the State. Our city could be advertised by such an event.

Albert Williamson gave every one of his opponents a vicious rap except Mr. Beacham, against whom he made no charge. When a candidate like Williamson cannot find anything to say against an opposing candidate, it is a pretty sure sign the opposing candidate is unassailable character.—Lakeland Telegram.

BRYAN IN SANFORD Hon. William Jennings Bryan will make an address in Sanford the latter part of April.

This announcement will bring the eyes of the world to our city for at no time in the past four years has the people wanted to hear Mr. Bryan as at the present. He announces that he will speak in Sanford only during his southern itinerary and that he has a most important message is a foregone conclusion.

Sanford will invite all the candidates to meet here that day and there will be politics galore.

Get ready for a big time!

EDITORS WILL MEET

Although the meeting is yet some time away, Palatka business men are getting ready to give the Florida Press Association a good time when it gathers in that city for its annual session. The newspaper men will have headquarters at the Putnam House and the big parkers will be used as a meeting place. Among the events on the program will be an excursion to Crescent City by steamer and returning the same night a banquet will be enjoyed at the Putnam House. The editors are not exactly packing their grips but they are figuring the time on the calendar, and every member will try to be on hand when the roll is called.—St. Petersburg Times.

FLETCHER ADDS A FEW

Not to be altogether out of it, when Congressman Sparkman's rivers and harbors bill got to the senate, Senator Fletcher added a few himself.

Improving St. Lucie Inlet, Fla., with a view to securing a width of 300 feet and a depth of 19 feet south of the north point of the inlet from the ocean into Indian River. $100,000

Protecting shore of Anastasia Island St. Augustine by grants $15,000.

For St. Johns River from outlet of Lake Harney to Lake Washington, including removal of bars in Lakes Harvey and Pezelle.

For a channel from Pine Island, Lee county, Fla., running westerly to deep water at a point in Pine Island sound, about one mile in length, such channel to be not less than five feet and of sufficient width.

These are needed projects, that carried through will mean much for Florida and Senator Fletcher is determined to push their adoption vigorously. All have been referred to the committee on commerce which considers the Rivers and Harbors bill before the Senate adopts it with amendments and returns it to the House of Representatives.

ABOUT OUR CANDIDATE

On the second page of this issue we present the platform and announcement of Hon. Braxton Beacham, of Orlando, candidate for Congressman-at-large. We commend a careful perusal of this platform by every voter. Mr. Beacham emphasizes the importance of Federal aid for road building, and issue which is destined to become a leading one in no considerable length of time. He proposes to go to work in earnest for this principle if he is sent to Congress, and this should commend him to all voters of the interior of the State which at present gets no direct from the millions of public moneys appropriated.

Platform and promises aside, this pe-per considers Mr. Beacham the most available candidate of the several who are offering for this important office. He is a business man whose success has been phenomenal; a man whose integrity is unquestioned even by his opponents; a man of recognized ability and irreproachable character, and withal, a courtly gentleman who would reflect credit upon his State in the halls of Congress.

This paper has nothing derogatory to say of any of the gentlemen aspiring for the position of Congressman-at-large. It simply submits its candid opinion that Mr. Beacham is free from objections which are urged with emphasis (we do not say with truth) against his competitors. We believe if he were as well known over the State as some of those running against him there would not be the slightest doubt as to the outcome of the election. As it is, he wins friends and supporters wherever he goes, and will continue to gain daily. There have been many greater surprises in politics than the nomination of Braxton Beacham would be.—Lakeland Telegram.

BEACHAM GAINING VOTES

Word comes from every section of Florida visited by Braxton Beacham that the people will give him a rousing vote. Beacham appeals to the people because he is one of them. He appeals to the people because they can understand what he intends to do for them. They are not forced to wade through miles of statistics on tariff reforms and high flown messages of past and future service rendered.

Beacham is making his campaign with two important messages, predominating, Good Roads for Federal Aid and More Money for Navigable Streams.

Beacham will win because the people are tired of the demagogue and political trickster. The country over is turning to the man of the soil, the man of the common people, the man who will do something for the people, the man who will forget about ancient history and traditions and senatorial courtesy and Congressional discourtesy and do the most good for the most people after he is elected. All that his opponents can say about Mr. Beacham is that he is unknown. He is unknown because he has been busy engaged for the past ten years in making two blades of grass grow where only one grew before. He has been busy in opening new lands, planting orange groves, making money out of Florida soil.

But like the Roman of old Mr. Beacham leaves the plow to listen to the call of the people who now clamor for a son of the soil to represent them. He asks no office because of his political activity. He asks nothing from the people because he has served them in the halls of Congress or because he is a silver tongued orator. He asks nothing from the people because he represents the corporations or any political faction and wants to serve two masters. Beacham is making his own campaign, paying his own expenses, assisted by no powerful friends, and if elected by the people will owe allegiance to none but the people. And he will be elected, for the time has arrived for the people to rule.

Miss Estelle Thigpen, who has been the guest of her brother, W. J. Thigpen, at the Sanford House, for some time, left for her home in Greenville, North Carolina, Saturday afternoon. Miss Thigpen's many friends in Sanford, will always welcome her return to the city.

The second sale of good things to eat under the auspices of the Lend a Hand Club, at the store of J. D. Roberts, Saturday afternoon, was in charge of Misses Madge Ward and Mabel Hand. It was as successful as the first sale; as everything that had been prepared was sold.

The editor of The Herald acknowledges with thanks the receipt of a basket of very fine strawberries this week from Mr. and Mrs. Jack Vaughn and Wilbur A. Glan. These good people not only know how to raise good strawberries, but they also know how to appreciate an editor.

Hon. A. M. C. Russell, candidate for State Superintendent of Public Instruction was a visitor to the city Saturday and made a most favorable impression with the people. Mr. Russell favors a free school book system for Florida, and the idea is bound to appeal to the man with a family.

Dr. Livingston, who has been conducting a Free Medicine show on Magnolia Avenue for the past six weeks, leaves today for Orlando, with his troupe. The Doctor reports a good business in Sanford, both from sales at his entertainment and at the drug stores of the city where his goods are always in stock.

E. Harold Johnson of Orlando was in the city yesterday. He is now a full fledged architect and for several years has been engaged in several cities in the west and also in the New England States. Harold says that Florida looks better to him than any state in the Union and he has fitted up a nice office in Orlando.

Mr. J. C. Rickata, Carroll Chesman, Roy Watson, Wm. Bass, James Welsh, John Welsh, all of Slippery Rock, Pa., visited Orlando, Tampa, St. Petersburg and the Indian River; and say Sanford is the nicest place they have seen since they left home. They intend visiting Sanford next winter. They were a jolly crowd and were guests of the Fairview.

The platform used by Dr. Livingston for his medicine show has been purchased by The Herald for the use of the candidates during the campaign and hereafter the orators can paw the ambient atmosphere from this platform. Heretofore the candidates had no place to speak and The Herald feeling sorrow for the "bawlers of the 'dear people'" has provided one.

Celery Prices Take A Ride On The Chute

Celery is going lower and the prices this week are not encouraging to the growers who have much stuff in the field. Fortunately, the bulk of the crop has gone forward and from now on, the prices will get better. The shipments going forward at the rate of 200 cars per week were bound to bring down the price just as it does each year, and the very warm weather is also assisting in chasing celery down the slide. Next week should note a change for the better.

SYNOPSIS.

CHAPTER I.—Richard Lightnut, an American with an affected English accent, receives a present from a friend in China.

CHAPTER II.—The present proves to be a pair of pajamas. A letter hints of surprises to the wearer.

CHAPTER III.—Lightnut dons the pajamas and late at night gets up for a smoke. His servant Jenkins, comes in and, failing to recognize Lightnut, attempts to put him out. Thinking the servant crazy, Lightnut changes his clothes intending to summon help. When he reappears Jenkins falls on his neck with a cry, confessing Lightnut's belief that he is crazy.

CHAPTER IV.—Jenkins tells Lightnut of the encounter he had with a hideous Chinaman dressed in pajamas.

CHAPTER V.—In a message from his friend, Jack Billings, Lightnut is asked to put up "the kid" for the night on his way home from college. Later Lightnut finds a beautiful girl in black pajamas in his room.

CHAPTER VI.—Lightnut is shocked by the girl's drinking, smoking and slangy talk.

all the while I was feeling happier than I ever had in all my life—happier than I ever knew people could be, you know. I never thought her bold—dash it, no—knew it was just her adorable, delicious, Arcadian simplicity, by Jove! That explained it, just as it explained to me all her other unconventionalities.

"So now it's up to you," she said, "and I want to know what's the answer."

The answer! And how could I give her any answer? No, by Jove, I knew jolly well I couldn't take advantage of such circumstances—of her artless confession; knew devilish well it wouldn't do, you know. Might reproach me in years to come; and then—and then, there was Billings!

So I just contented myself with looking up smilingly, but it was hard—awfully, awfully hard, dash it—and I just felt like a jolly cad—or fool. Couldn't tell which.

CHAPTER VII.

Confidences.

This beautiful creature had proposed to me!

By Jove, that's what it amounted to practically; and now, as she said, it was up to me. Yet I couldn't say a word!

"Well, what must I do about the other one?" she insisted.

The question reminded me of the entanglement to which her frank simplicity had confessed. And she expected me, of all others, to tell her what to do! Looked up into the radiant, crimsoned face as she bent forward slightly, her lips parted, her eyes eager—expectant. She was hanging upon my reply.

I coughed slightly. "That question is hardly fair, you know," I said meaningly. "You see, it hits me rather personally."

"Oh!" she said. I nodded and tried to find her hand as I looked down.

"So that's where the shoes pinch—!" And she whistled thoughtfully.

And just then my upward reaching hand found hers. And yet no, it couldn't be her hand, either; it felt like the crash cover of the cushion—rough and fibrous. And yet, by Jove, it was a hand, for it gave mine a grip that almost broke my fingers and then dropped them. By the time I looked up, I saw only her little palm resting upward on her knee.

It was funny; but I had other things to think about than puzzles.

She sighed. "Well, I'm the one that can feel for you, Dicky." Here the sigh lifted and her laugh pealed like a chime of silver bells. "I guess Brother Jack doesn't know as much about your affairs as he thinks, does he—eh? Why, he told me you were more afraid of a girl than of a mad dog." And a slapping grip fell on my shoulder that made me tingle from head to foot. And yet I wished she wouldn't do that; if she did it again, I should just lose my head—I knew I should.

But here she rose, stretched her arms, and dropped into the wicker arm-chair. She hitched it nearer to me.

"You see, it's like this," she began, assuming a confidential air. "You know my sister's up at school at Cambridge, too?"

"At Radcliffe college—yes," I nodded.

"Why, yes. Well, it's her room-mate!"

"Eh? I don't believe I—" I paused perplexedly.

"That's right—her room-mate, I tell you! And in a day or two she's coming home with his for a visit. I want you to come up for a week and—" won't you—and look her over—I mean, see her and tell me what you think of her. You'll go crazy about her—oh, I know you will!"

I entered a protest. "Oh, I say now, you know, there's only one girl I ever saw I would care to look at twice."

She smiled adorably. "Oh, don't I know all about how you feel? But I just want you to see this girl—she's the prettiest and sweetest that's been around Boston for many a day; and on Sunday morning she could give the flag to all the avenue. Why, Dicky, she's from China!"

"China!" I must have looked the scorn I felt. "Oh, come now, you don't think a Chinese girl is—"

"Not Chinese, Dicky." In her eagerness, she moved so near, the silk of her pajamas brushed my hand. "She's English. Her dad's the British Governor General of Hong Kong—Colonel Francis Kirkland, you know—beefy-looking old chap with white mutton chops—I saw his picture."

Hong Kong! I wondered if she knew Mastermann, the chap who had sent me the red pajamas. Why, dash it, of course she would; for this fellow Mastermann was out there on government business, and he and the governor must be thrown together a good deal.

Her musical laugh broke in on my speculations. "But the funniest thing is, Dicky, her name's the same as mine."

Her name! By Jove, and until this moment, I had not thought—

"Oh, I say," I exclaimed eagerly, "what is your name, anyway?"

The lustrous eyes opened wide. "Why, you mean to say you don't know? Thought you knew I was named after the governor. And she's named after hers—Frances, from Francis, you know—just the difference in a letter. See?"

"Frances!" I murmured lingeringly. "So your name's Frances?"

"Yes, and here is Frances—odd, isn't it?"

I assented, but I wished she would drop the other girl—I wasn't interested there, except just because she was

Her bosom lifted with a sigh. "Don't you think Frances is a peach of a name?"

"It's heavenly!" I whispered. "And I'm glad to hear about your friend, too."

Her sweet face clouded. "Not much of a friend, she don't lost any sleep over me," she commented gloomily. "Then there's six double crossing me with her influence ever since I got hauled up before Prexy at Easter. His is awfully prissy."

Her tone was almost savage. I strained incredulously after her meaning.

"Did I understand you to say you were brought up before the president there at Radcliffe?"

"Radcliffe?" Her head shook. "No—Harvard." And I nodded, recalling the affiliation between the two institutions at Cambridge.

She sighed and her beautiful lashes drooped sadly. By Jove, I was so jolly floored I couldn't manage a word. I knew, of course, that my heart was broken, but it didn't matter, I loved her just the same; I should always love her; and she had tried to let me know she loved me better than any man she had ever met. What the deuce did anything else matter, anyhow? We would marry and go out on a ranch or something of that sort, where the false, polished what-you-call-it of civilization didn't count, and no rude rebuff or sneer of society would ever chill her warm impulsiveness.

She smiled archly. "See here, Dicky, I thought we were going to tell each other the story of our lives. Your turn now; tell me how she looks to you, this girl that came at last—there's always the one girl comes at last, they say, if you wait long

VOTE FOR DONEGAN FOR STATE SENATOR

(From the Kissimmee, (Florida) Valley Gazette)

"When the County of Osceola was created, the late John Milton Bryan was the senator, but at the next election Orange County furnished the senator and E. M. Hammond was elected. He was succeeded four years later by M. R. Marks of Orange County, giving that County the senator for eight years. Mr. Hammond was succeeded by C. A. Carson, of Kissimmee who served for eight years and he was in turn succeeded by Louis C. Massey, of Orlando, who has just completed his service for eight years. Then, clearly, if precedent is to be observed, it is Osceola's time to have the senator again, and in presenting the name of Arthur E. Donegan, the people of this county feel that they can assure the people of Orange County of a representative in the State Senate in every way the equal of any of those who have preceded him in service in that distinguished body."

Base Ball
The Rollins College base ball team were in town Monday and defeated the local team in a close and hard fought game by a score of 3 to 1, and it was only after the last man was out in the ninth inning the Rollins team was sure that they had won a ball game.

This so called college base ball is a joke. You would imagine a college as large as Rollins would be able to dig up nine ball players from their student body and would not have to rely on outside talent. When the Rollins team took the field we found "Dai" Mason, a professional coach and class A pitcher on the firing line; Valden, the "Tin Soldier" of Fort Dade and Orlando fame at short; Pike, formerly a catcher for Orlando behind the bat and Lee, the best outfielder Orlando had last season in left garden. These are the school boys we recognized and it is possible there were others in the same class that got by us. It's more than likely they had one or more Rollins men on the team to prove an allbi.

There is little to say about the game as it was simply a straight, clean, business-like affair, with no particular features.

Wallace pitched a faultless game, allowing only four hits and no bases on balls and the balance of the team fielded behind him in big league style, though the base running was very much of the "rock me to sleep" variety. Sanford lost several good chances to win by lost opportunities on bases.

The only disappointing part of the afternoon was the attendance and it's up to the fans to do better when Kissimmee comes up Thursday. They came through with a horse shoe win last week and we'll prove it. Come out and be in on the kill

Woodland Park Notes

The picnic given by Miss Reasoner for the Paola school was held at Woodland Park Saturday, and a nicer day could not have been asked for. The Boy Scouts Troupe No. 1, under the leadership of Rev. Waldron, also came for their usual swim. Those boys simply hate to wade the pool long enough to eat dinner. To say that everybody enjoyed themselves would be putting it mildly.

Sunday being regular park day, and also a beautiful day, it is but natural that a good many people came. A number of people waited at the city dock, but could get no launch to bring them. You will have to make arrangements early next Sunday to get transportation. Better club together and engage a launch in advance. A sailboat came Sunday which made the trip in 35 minutes. The Boy Scouts intend to have a row-boat soon and will make the trip that way, getting training in rowing and handling the boat. A good idea.

The Railroad crew made a beginning at that long-promised crossing last week and promised to have it in in time for the Paola School picnic; but left the work unfinished, to do another job elsewhere.

This is a great land of (fake) promises.
WOODSMAN.

Distinguished Visitor Here

Baron Oscar Van Loo and Leopold Van Archer of Ghent, Belgium, were in the city yesterday looking over the Celery Delta.

They were accompanied by Ernest H. Every, manager of the Fellsmere Farms Co., and are interested in the colonization of Florida lands for Belgium farmers. Since Sanford represents the real vegetable center of the South it was necessary for the party to come here in order to see real vegetables grown for the northern markets.

The distinguished gentlemen were greatly impressed with all that they saw in the famous celery deltas and their trip here will probably mean the purchase of land at Fellsmere or Celery City or some other lands that are "just as good as Sanford" but have never made good yet.

Early Green Beans

H. Mendenhall will take the medal this year for early string beans and expects to begin shipping this week which is extra early. A. E. Brown also has a fine piece in beans and will ship at the same time. These are about the earliest beans on record and will bring a good price.

SANGER'S EUROPEAN SHOWS

Costs to Feed a Circus—Elephants and Horses a Drawing Card

The excellent parade is a guarantee that the show is all right. The menagerie part of the show is one of the best extant, and from the variety of its exhibits is instructive and interesting alike to adults and children.

The animals are all interesting to look upon. The elephants and the monkeys are on deck to beg for peanuts and popcorn. The ponies are a delight to the children, and it is often noticed that many of the older people become enthusiastic to the play, simply because it is so pleasing to the children.

This show will leave a lot of money in town, paying out enormous sums as it does for supplies. The question of meat alone is quite an item. Each lion eats 80 pounds of meat a day, and each tiger 30 pounds; other cat animals eat from 12 to 18 pounds. "Ding Dong," the largest elephant in the world, and which weighs 10,000 pounds, is eating all the time.

Any one who has an opportunity of learning something about the supplies purchased for a large show knows that they include two entire beaves daily, hundreds of loaves of bread, nearly 20 bushels of potatoes, 150 pounds of steak and stew meat, 25 pounds of butter, 30 gallons of milk, dried fruit and canned goods to the value of $50 each day. In addition to this there is consumed large quantities of eggs, poultry, fish, vegetables, etc. For the horses there are provided oats, hay, straw, bran, corn, etc. One of the most commendable features of the Great Sanger Shows is the gentlemanly conduct of every one connected with it. This is a subject of much comment in almost every place this big show exhibits.

There will be special excursion rates on all the railroads. Don't forget the date. Sanford Friday April 5th

HAPPENINGS DURING THE WEEK

Here the Readers Will Find a Brief Historical Spring Flowing For Hurried Readers

Mrs. Zoe Runge McRoe, who shot her young friend, Allan Garland, to death in her home at Opelousa, La., September last, was to-day acquitted by a jury of the charge of manslaughter. The jury stood eleven for acquittal and one for conviction as charged.

Except for reiteration of their belief that they are close upon Sidna Allen and Wesley Edwards, the two remaining members of the Allen gang yet at liberty, the detectives, who were so sanguine yesterday morning that the two men would be captured before nightfall of yesterday, had nothing to say before starting for the hills yesterday evening.

The places most seriously affected by the Mississippi river flood are: Hickman, Ky.; Memphis, Tenn.; New Madrid, Mo.; Columbus, Ky. Total lives lost 4. Total damage to date, estimated at $1,000,000. Number driven from homes, 8,000 to 9,000. Volume of water is six to ten feet above danger line between Cairo, Ill., and Arkansas City, Ark. The crest of the flood possibly will be reached in the district affected between April 14 and April 18.

Milwaukee citizens in Tuesday's city election repudiated the socialist administration which has had charge of the city's affairs the past two years. Emil Seidel, the socialist mayor, was defeated by approximately 15,000 votes out of a total of nearly 75,000. Dr. G. A. Badling, the non-partisan candidate, was elected mayor. The Socialists also lost control of the city council, electing but seven out of a total of thirty-three.

Detective Baldwin, head of the detective agency whose men have been hunting the Allen outlaws ever since the tragedy at the Hillville court house three weeks ago today, states that a rumor has reached him that Sidna Allen and Wesley Edwards were killed near Volunteer's Gap, but that he has been unable to secure a confirmation of the story.

President Taft today sent to Congress his second message of the present year on economy and efficiency in the government service. He recommended the passage of legislation designed to save more than $11,000,000 annually to the people of the United States. Probably his two most striking proposals were that the local government offices in the treasury, postoffice, justice, interior and commerce and labor departments be placed in the classified service be consolidated with the lighthouse service in the department of commerce and labor.

It has been discovered up in Macon, Ga., that water runs from six cents per thousand gallons for big consumers to thirty cents per thousand gallons for small consumers. To charge the poor man five times as much as is charged the rich man is questionable, but if it is true, as charged, that six cents does not cover the actual cost of furnishing the water the difference must be made up in some way.

Another Aviator Killed

Col. P. Rodgers one of the most noted aviators of the time was killed on Wednesday at Long Beach, California his machine taking a sudden plunge to earth and pinning Rodgers beneath the engine. Rodgers was giving an exhibition flight, and had done some fancy air stunts. He was making what was to have been the last ascension of the day, and was preparing to fly back to the pier at Long Beach, when suddenly his machine was seen to dip and Rodgers making frantic efforts to right it. He could not alter the course of the machine and it plunged into the shallow water close to shore. The weight of the motor was on his body when those who plunged into the surf to save him reached the wreck. He died before he could be taken to a hospital.

Rodgers was a noted aviator. He flew across the continent from the Atlantic to the Pacific some months ago. He was killed within 500 feet of the place where he landed on completion of his cross-continent flight December 30, 1911.

Dr. Forster came in Wednesday night and returned Thursday to The Shelter at New Smyrna. Fr-55-1

Entertainment For Playground Association

The Committee of the Civic Department of the Welaka Club will give an entertainment at the Imperial Theater on next Friday night, April 12th

There will be a regular program of moving pictures, and also 50 slides depicting the children of the various cities enjoying the benefits of the playgrounds that have been established by the Play Ground Association of America

This movement is becoming world wide, and is not confined to the larger cities by any means. In Sanford for instance, a public playground provided by the city, fitted up with every form of amusement, and presided over by an able instructor, would be of inestimable value to the parents who are confined by the narrow lots of the heart of the city, and have no suitable place for the children to indulge in the harmless amusements of childhood.

Come out next Friday night! See the pictures, and help the Welaka Club in their efforts toward civic reform.

The Wednesday Club

The Wednesday Club held their regular meeting at the residence of Mrs. Henry Wight, Wednesday afternoon.

The minutes were read by the secretary Mrs. S. O. Chase, after which the committee of five, who were appointed some time ago to ascertain from the members of the club their preference of a subject for the next years study, made their report through the secretary who is also a member of the committee.

The program for the afternoon, was mainly civic topics. Mrs. Forrest Lake gave "A Brief Resume of the Conditions which have led up to the Question of Convict Reform in the last Legislature, and Reasons for the Governor's Veto of the Measure that was Passed by Them."

Mrs. Henry Wight, gave a very clear and comprehensive account of a visit which she made in company with a friend from Jacksonville, to the Reformatory at Marianna last week.

Mrs. Geo. H. Fernald, read a letter from the superintendent of the Reform School at Louisville Kentucky, which was written in reply to a request for information on the conduct of the school by a member of the Legislation committee of the State Federation. Mrs. E. A. Philips, read a fine article on "How to Make Men out of Prisoners." A very interesting and earnest discussion of the topics touched upon followed that of the State Reformatory especially interested the club.

It was moved and seconded that the Sanford Wednesday Club, espouse the cause of the inmates of the reformatory using their influence and efforts, and their behalf in trying to make the physical, mental, moral and spiritual uplift of those young criminals, who are the wards of the state, a branch of their civic work, as a club and also as a member of the State Federation.

After an announcement by Miss Mell Whitner, from the Welaka Club of a benefit to be given for the club assisted by the New York City Playground Association, at the Imperial Friday evening, April 12th, and one or two, minor announcements the club adjourned.

From Lake County

Hon. J. G. Hatcher, from Groveland, and Hon. T. B. Lanier, of Tavares, were in the city on Wednesday. Mr. Hatcher is a prominent business man of Lake County and also has large interests in adjoining counties.

He is a candidate for the Legislature from Lake, and has a good chance of going to Tallahassee.

Mr. Lanier is manager of the Tavares Opera House and expects to put on that first play "Sappho for clean Politics" in a few weeks.

NEW BUILDINGS FOR SANFORD

Building Operations Will Total $15,000 For Week

Sanford expects to build some new structures if the record at the City Clerk's office is any criterion.

Clerk Lovell this week issued building permits for over $15000 worth of new buildings.

Following is the list:
One one story brick block size 103 feet front by 115 feet long on Sanford avenue, owner H. L. Dohart, cost $9000.

One two story frame building on Magnolia avenue cost $2,100 for Jack Adams.

One two story frame building on Oak avenue for Mrs. Alice Messenger, cost $4150.

Contractor G. B. Pope has the contract for all of these buildings and will begin operations at once.

Birthday Party

Mr. and Mrs. N. J. Perkins celebrated the fifth birthday of their daughter, Ethel Goodwin, Thursday afternoon, at their residence on Magnolia avenue. A number of the neighborhood friends of the little girl, were invited to enjoy the auspicious occasion with the little hostess.

Mrs. Perkins was assisted in caring for and entertaining the little guests by her sisters, Misses Emma and Estelle Beard, who amused the little folks with various games, until the delicious refreshments were served. The color scheme in the decorations was red and white. The beautiful birthday cake was the center of attraction, with its five little lighted candles. The pretty place cards were decorated with rabbits. The children were delighted with the cutie downy little chickens, peeping out of their shells, which were placed by their plates. Ice cream, cake, candy and peanuts were served. Little Miss Perkins guests were Jenn Maxwell, Bettie Householder, Helen Gonzales, Theodora Miller, Esther Miller, Walter Brakefield, Joe Caldwell, Albert Connelly, Junior, Dutton, Christie Summers.

Helping Hand Society

The Helping Hand Society of the Baptist church held their regular meeting at the home of the Misses Millen Tuesday evening. The mission study class was conducted by Mrs. E. E. Cox after which the members and their invited guests enjoyed a very pleasant social hour together entertained by music, games and a very interesting and romantic cake contest. Several parties were successful in giving the correct names of the different cakes, the names of which were used to make up the pretty love story. About twenty-five were present.

Welaka Club Notes

On Tuesday afternoon was held the regular business meeting of the Welaka Club. The new president Mrs. J. W. Dickens opened the meeting with her address of acceptance of the office and outlined the work of the new year. The keynote of this was "loyalty." She thought that perhaps the members do not give sufficient weight to the true meaning of this word, or perhaps we do not think it necessary to apply it to club life, and if we can not be loyal in our support, let us at least have the loyalty of silence. She also asked that we strictly observe club days, for it is not only discourteous to the hostess but so discouraging. In closing she said, "You see how much there is to be done and how urgent it is to be up and doing, so once more your president asks for hearty co-operation and harmony, so that we can in very truth live up to our club motto and "Be not simply good but good for something." This address was full of energy and enthusiasm and every member not present lost something. With this start we ought to do wonders this year.

The treasurer was instructed to send a check of $5.00 to the Sanford Hospital Association.

Mrs. Dickens of the Playground day asked the club to join her in giving an entertainment at the Imperial Theatre on Friday evening April 12th. The Playground Association of New York has loaned fifty slides of the work that is being carried on in this country. The entertainment will consist of these slides, three reels of moving pictures, music and other features. One-third of the proceeds will be given for civic work in this town. The committee asks the help and interest of all the members in making this a success.

The following chairman of the different departments for new years work were appointed: Art and Literature Miss Keeler; Civic, Mrs. Lake; Household Economic, Mrs. Keeler, Social, Mrs. Puleston, Music Mrs. Brady; Programs Mrs. Geo. Fox Jr.

The following house committee were appointed: April 9th, Social, Mrs. Fatjo and Miss Bowler; April 16th, Music, Mrs. Holly and Miss Alice Whitner; April 23rd, Social, Mrs. Smith and Miss Hand; April 30th, Audubon Day, Mrs. Higgins and Miss Frank. Mrs. Lake the hostess for April.

CULLED FROM THE STATE PRESS

An Epitome of the Week's Most Important Happenings in the State's Domain.

One of the biggest cargoes of spirits of turpentine that has ever been brought to Pensacola by river craft arrived there a few days ago from Choctawhatchee river on the schooner Magnolia.

The Plant City Courier says that the strawberry season of 1912 is practically over. During the past week 37,151 quarts of berries were shipped.

Twenty-five crates of beans were shipped from Plant City Thursday, for which the grower received $2.50 per crate. The shipping of early potatoes will soon commence.

A large brick hotel building is to be erected at Bushnell in the near future.

Largo is to have a canning factory. The site has been settled on and building operations will begin in about ten days.

The Woman's club of Ocala has published a handsome booklet under the title of Woman's Club Easter Edition, which is a credit to the ladies and to the city. Its thirty-six pages are crowded with artistic advertisements and illustrations of attractive buildings.

A young white man named Evans, employed by the Rodman Lumber Company, as a laborer, was run over by a log locomotive at Rodman Wednesday afternoon with the result that his right leg was so badly crushed that it had to be amputated below the knee. The other limb is fearfully lacerated and the bone shattered, and Dr. E. W. Warren, of Palatka, who performed the operation and who is attending the unfortunate man, is almost positive that it, too, will have to be taken off.

The proposed supreme court building at Tallahassee is to be a handsome structure which will be an ornament to the city and should be the pride of all Floridians.

County Commissioners of Pinellas county in session yesterday in Clearwater adopted a resolution calling for a bond issue of $370,000. Of this amount $300,000 is to be used for good roads in various parts of the county and the $70,000 will be used in the erection of a jail and court house.

A party of Miami citizens have just returned home after a history-making pleasure trip by motor-boat from the Atlantic, through the Everglades, to the Gulf coast. This is the first boat to make the trip through the canals from ocean to gulf.

Bryan is Here

Not the William Jennings Bryan but a man who is equally as popular and who has done as much and more for the state than the Great Commoner could ever do. Capt. J. A. Bryan is no stranger in Sanford or in the south and for many years has been actively engaged in business enterprises, as a river captain in the phosphate business of the government employ and finally in the piano business where he stuck his gait and has probably sold more pianos than any other salesman in the south.

Capt. Bryan is president of the J. A. Bryan Piano Co., of Jacksonville and wishing to put on a great bargain sale in Sanford came here to personally take charge and help his Sanford friends to a good piano. This big bargain sale of fine pianos will commence today and will be held in the Stone-Gove block next door to Abernathy's furniture store. In order to fully convince the people that he has the best piano, Capt. Bryan will demonstrate the pianos for ten days and then put on the sale. Read the advertisement in this issue of The Herald.

Two Mass Meetings for Wednesday

Every man in Sanford is urged to be out at the Rally for Men at the Methodist church next week Wednesday night. The meeting is a union of all the churches of the city and is in charge of the Men and Religion Forward Movement of Sanford. It is intended to prepare the way for the four day Rally that is to open the following Sunday. Good local speakers will be provided for the occasion.

There will be a similar meeting for the women of the city at the Congregational church at the same hour, 7.30 next Wednesday night. No one who believes in better things for Sanford can afford to be absent from these meetings.
