CINCINNATI REDS FAIL TO BENEFIT THROUGH TRADES

President Herrmann Scouts For Material With Which To Strengthen Team After Meetings Fail To Produce

CINCINNATI, Jan. 13. (AP)—The major league baseball meetings failed to yield the Cincinnati Reds any trades but President August Herrmann has his eye set for material to strengthen four important positions in his team. The Reds are in need of a catcher, shortstop, first baseman and left fielder.

Christensen was obtained from St. Paul in a trade for Nichols, an outfielder, and a sum of money. A few weeks ago Elmer Smith, utility man, was sold to the Portland club. The only other deal of the early winter was the tentative purchase of Frank Emmert, shortstop of the Seattle club. Emmert was with the Reds a few years ago and a thorough seasoning in the minors is said to have converted him into a high class performer.

Plans for a Greater Redland Field, proposed to be the largest in the country and have a seating capacity of about 80,000, are awaiting the action of the Cincinnati park board which controls the desired site. The field previously was intended as a municipal athletic field.

Unless the Red's scouts dig up additional material before the training season, indications are that the lineup will be about the same as last year, except for Emmert at short and Walter Christensen, the St. Paul purchase, in left field.

Former Governor Is Said To Be Ill

WASHINGTON, Jan. 12. (AP)—An investigation of the health of former Governor McRay of Indiana, who is serving a prison sentence at Atlanta, has been ordered by President Coolidge to determine whether he should be granted executive clemency.

The report of the Department of Justice on the question of McRay's release is before the president, but it is unlikely he will take action until informed whether the prisoner's health would be jeopardized by continued confinement.

McRay was sentenced to the Atlanta prison after he was found guilty of misuse of state funds while governor. It was disclosed today at the White House that the district attorney who prosecuted him had entered strong objection to commutation of sentence.

BRAVES LOOKING FORWARD TO 1ST DIVISION BERTH

Heartened By The Excellent Showing Made During Final Months Last Year, Boston Plans Fight This Season

BOSTON, Jan. 13. (AP)—Heartened by the strong finish the club made last season, the Braves look forward to a first division position in 1926.

A heavy migration will begin Feb. 21 when the advance guard reports at St. Petersburg, Fla. Approximately 60 men will work out in the southland before the season opens.

The size of the squad the club maintains is evidence of the effort being made to build up a winning combination. The group will include some members of the Providence Eastern League team, now controlled by the Braves.

New material will be plentiful in the outfit going South. The club acquired Jimmy Johnson, infielder, from Brooklyn in a cash deal and parted with catcher Rocky O'Neil, and outfielder Felix to obtain Brown, outfielder, and Taylor, catcher, from the Dodgers.

Another addition is Harry Riconda, third baseman, drafted from the Portland club of the Pacific League. Riconda had a trial with the Athletics a couple of years ago. Duffy Lewis, old Red Sox outfielder, says that Riconda is major league material.

Archie Kelsey, left handed pitcher, who played last year with the Waterloo team in the Mississippi Valley League and Oscar Estrada, who pitched last season for the Tampa club in the Florida State League, are slated for the training trip and another candidate is Eddie Van Brunt, giant baseman of the Dover, Del. team.

A likely migration for a big season from such seasoned pitchers as Casey and Beaton, who will be added to Graham, Gene Wych, Sam South, Estrada, Kelsey, and Taylor at The veteran Frank Gibson will lead the training task with Kelsey.

McClintock, manager of the Fort Lauderdale team, is expected to be in a second year in the position and Johnson is slated for third base. The infield regulars include John Padgett, first base, and Sam Thomas.

A likely migration for outfield positions is expected. With long senior league star, Wally, Moran, Brown and Riconda, are candidates. Riconda is from Somerville, Mass., high school and from Charlotte, N. C.

"Goose" Goslin And Other Senators Ask For Higher Salaries

WASHINGTON, Jan. 13. (AP)—"Goose" Goslin, "Dutch" Ruether, and Bennett Tate, all are at "log-gerheads" with President Griffith of the Washington Senators over salary phases of their 1926 contracts.

The hard-hitting, galloping "Goose" isn't a hold-out, but he says "there is quite a difference in the figure the club offers me and what I think I am worth."

Ruether, whose reputation as an incorrigible while a member of the Brooklyn Dodgers, rivaled his prowess on the mound for Washington last year, is displaying his first symptoms of temperment since becoming a Senator.

He declares he has given the club president a wage figure and now "it's Griffith's move." Catcher Tate, who has worked mainly in the bull pen for the Senators, has returned his contract, unsigned with a request for a higher salary.

Ernie Nevers May Tour Pacific Coast With New York Giants Football Team

JACKSONVILLE, Jan. 13. (AP)—Negotiations got under way here today for a tour of the Pacific coast by Ernie Nevers, former Lealand Stanford star fullback and the New York Giants, professional football star.

Announcement was made by Nevers that a deal was pending whereby he would tour with the Giants provided that team was able to make sufficient arrangements with the local business men who advanced $25,000 to Nevers on a contract calling for the playing of five games.

Nevers retains the $25,000, although the business men have not made up the amount from their share of the gate receipts for two games in which Nevers participated in Jacksonville.

Wants To Protect Bankers

The Californian expressed himself as being willing to go on the tour with the Giants, but at the same time desiring to see that the Jacksonville backers were protected.

The Giants' managers conferred with the Jacksonville promoters this afternoon. Nevers said he did not expect a definite announcement of the tour to be made today.

He is resting in his hotel room, recovering from a bruised back and torn ligaments sustained in the game between the Jacksonville all-stars, whom he captained, and the New York Giants, last Saturday. The Jacksonville team was defeated 7 to nothing. Nevers' condition was given as "very satisfactory" and he expected to be able to play again within a few days.

Selection Of Golf Team For English Tourney Is Problem

CHICAGO, Jan. 13. (AP)—Selection of the Walker cup team to invade Great Britain next summer is the immediate problem of the United States Golf Association and it was reported Tuesday that Robert A. Gardner of Chicago, would be captain of the 10 golfers.

Until the holding of the annual meeting of the U. S. G. A. last Saturday, it had been said that William C. Fownes of Pittsburgh, now president of the association, would head the invaders, but unofficial word transpired during the session that Gardner, who was dropped from succession to the presidency this year in favor of Fownes, had been offered the chieftaincy.

Friends of Gardner said they believed that he had been invited and had accepted. The former national champion refused to make any announcement. It was Gardner who came nearest to taking the British amateur championship of any American in recent years. He led Cyril Tolley nearly all the way, three years ago in the finals, and lost only on the 37th hole. Walter Travis of New York, is the only American who ever won the British crown.

In commenting on prevailing real estate prices in Sanford, several members of the party expressed surprise at the low figures quoted, and were of the opinion that Sanford's many municipal improvements and the solidity of the city's resources as represented in its many acres of productive land justified a higher average of realty values.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 13.—(AP)—Exception was taken by Secretary Wilbur to recent assertions by Rear Admiral Sims, retired, about a naval war college, it was disclosed today in published reports of the House Appropriations Committee hearings on the navy supply bill. "We are entirely out of sympathy with the idea expressed by one of our retired admirals, that unless an officer has gone to a naval war college he is ignorant and incompetent," Mr. Wilbur said. Weakness developed early in the wheat market today. Unexpected price declines at Liverpool and Buenos Aires had a bullish effect here, and led to considerable selling out on the part of holders of futures deliveries. Liverpool reported that the nearby supply of wheat was in excess of the demand and that Argentina and Australia were anxious to sell. Chicago opening quotations: 5c. lower to 1/4c. higher; May (new) $1.74 to $1.74 1/2 and July $1.51 1/2 to 1/4c. were followed by a general setback in which May touched $1.72.

Atlanta Woman Is Near Death After Being Shot By Child

ATLANTA, Ga., Jan. 13.—(P)—“I’ll shoot you, mama.” A childish voice hissed the words; two round eyes sparkled gleefully and two little hands brandished a .32 calibre rifle.

Mrs. C. C. Lanier, facing the gun in the hands of her five-year-old daughter, Katherine, saw she could not cover the intervening space in time to stay a tiny finger intent on pressing the trigger. Afraid of making the child start and involuntarily fire the weapon, she staked all on an appeal based on parental control.

“Put that gun down, Katherine!” she cried emphatically.

But childish imagination and love of fun was riding high in the saddle and a wisp of smoke curled from the barrel of the gun as it barked.

Early today, Mrs. Lanier, 34, lay near death in Noble’s Sanatorium here with the bullet in her left breast just below the heart. Physicians feared her lung was punctured.

There was no one in the house at the time of the shooting except Mrs. Lanier and Katherine, and another child, Claude, aged two. Mr. Lanier had left the house yesterday afternoon for a short while, he told police last night, and returned to find his wife on the floor unconscious. Police are investigating the case.

Supreme Court Will Hear Rail Case Soon

TALLAHASSEE, Fla., Jan. 13.—(P)—The State Supreme Court has set the week of Jan. 18 for oral arguments in the case of the Florida Railroad Commission against the G. S. and F. railroad. The Seaboard Air Line, it was stated, has agreed to build the shed, but the other railroad refused.

Up to the present time, it was stated, sixteen annual reports have been issued, in addition to a number of Press Bulletins, and two special bulletins.

Owing to the limited funds, it was explained, the survey has been able to issue only a small number of each of the reports. In order to assure as wide a distribution of them as possible, an effort was made to deposit a complete file in the libraries throughout Florida, and in other states. The department is particularly anxious for the copies to be on file in the Florida libraries desiring them, however, it was stated.

The board, it was stated, is now working out all details of the gathering in Tallahassee next month.

Applications, received up to expiration of the time limit, Dec. 17, were sent in from all parts of the country, Mr. Whitfield said. The Far West, he stated, is only scatteringly represented, he stated. The Middle West will send a large number, however, while the East will have a generous sprinkling.

MOM'N AND POP

He Came From Ohio to Florida but took root in Asheville!

WHEN the chilly winds of last year reminded Ohio that overcoats were in order, Hugh Browning's family made up his mind to go South and discover Florida.

While arranging his affairs, Browning's banker, who had already been South, took him one side and said, "Hugh—if you want to see a little piece of the United States that will give you a real thrill, go to Florida—by way of Asheville."

they had bought one of the lots they had whereupon, Browning pulled a deed from pocket and admitted that the deal had closed that very morning.

In the midst of Florida's palms and everglades, orange trees and lagoons, Browning continually saw visions of the blue-green mountains and of the home that he would like to build!

The road maps showed good hard roads through Western North Carolina, so Browning stepped on the gas and his "covered wagon" pointed its nose toward a warmer clime.

Asheville had got under his skin as it does so many visitors and this year, Browning's resident of Asheville and his $45,000.00 home is under construction.

The following Saturday afternoon they reached Asheville and feasted their eyes on the view which might well have been a leaf taken from a colorful fairy book! Mountains, wrapped in green blankets, their tips like church spires reaching up into fleecy clouds. Below them, a bustling city, stretching out over a broad plateau, and even creeping up the mountain sides.

To those who are searching for an ideal wintering place, summer home, or all-year location, we suggest the inspiring hills of Western North Carolina—Asheville, where the half-mile altitude provides a tonic with every breath, where the warm sun makes you forget winter—and where the even climate prevents the excessive heat of mid-summer.

Monday, the Brownings reluctantly took up their journey—for as Browning put it, "We said we were going to Florida, and not even Asheville should stop us."

Come home by way of Asheville and see for yourself the charm of "The Land of the Sky" which makes every visitor want to enroll in the city directory.

Both Browning and his wife chuckle now when they think of how, about ten miles south, the good wife expressed the wish that

Raw Fur Market Remains In Saint Louis After 161 Years Of Trading

ST. LOUIS, Mo., Jan. 13. (AP)—Changing fashions and the steady retreat of the wilderness frontier have spread the search for pelts for Milady's fur coat to the four corners of the earth but after 161 years of trading, St. Louis still is the leading raw fur market of the world.

The annual North American catch is again beginning to pour into warehouses that stand where Pierre Laclede and his band of followers traded beads for deer skins with the Indians, on Feb. 10, 1764, the day after the city was founded. Today, the fur sales annually involve more than $25,000,000, with buyers from the leading markets of the world attending.

Laclede and his party came up from New Orleans after obtaining a permit to trade in furs. Where the first transactions were made, the Louisiana Purchase papers were signed in 1804.

This first trading was local, in pelts brought in by the native Indians and trappers living in the settlement. There was a gradual widening of the district from which the furs were obtained and fur companies were established from time to time. For a long time the furs were used as money and later were taken in trade for household supplies.

After the passing of the fur company which Laclede himself organized the Missouri Training Com-

German Women Are Told To Keep House In American Style

BERLIN, Jan. 13. (AP)—The prevailing method of American women in conducting their households has been recommended to German women by Frau Clara Mendel, one of Germany's foremost women parliamentarians and closely identified with the National Association of German Housekeepers.

"Economy of time and strength" is the keynote of American house-keeping, Frau Mendel found on a visit to the United States, and she would have her German sisters modify and adapt their methods to the exigencies of life in modern Germany.

"The German woman is the most conservative housekeeper in the world," she said, "but she is still conducting her household along precisely the same lines as did her mother and grandmother. She is unwilful of the fact that changed conditions demand changed methods."

STEWART'S WASHINGTON LETTER

By CHARLES P. STEWART

WASHINGTON, Jan. 13.—Just for variety I nominate W. F. Gaulke as General Pershing's successor at the head of the Tama-Arica commission.

The trouble with nearly every one this government sends to South America is a complete unfamiliarity with South Americans. Gaulke knows all about them.

Picking a man for such a job on account of his qualifications is unprecedented, of course. Still, it might be tried as an experiment.

Gaulke's from North Dakota, originally. He was a farm boy. Then he worked in a gambling house. He was postmaster, somewhere or other, out west. Finally he gravitated into the agricultural machinery

One of the big farm machinery houses sent him to Russia, as a mechanic. His travels took him all over Europe and the Far East. Ultimately he brought up in the Argentine Republic—still a farm machinery man.

He'd saved a little money. Argentina offers a great many opportunities to make quick financial cleanups. Gaulke took advantage of a number of them and they turned out well.

At last he branched out as an importer of North American films for Argentine theaters. His business grew until he became something of a magnate. As John D. Rockefeller would reckon, he isn't rich, but I imagine he could draw his check for two or three hundred thousand.

CALIFORNIA IS RAISING MUCH STAPLE COTTON

Efforts Made Since Civil War Result In Successful Crops During Late Years

126,000 Bales In 1925 Best Record

World War Demand Caused Growers To Start Fields Anew

SACRAMENTO, Cal., Jan. 13. (AP)—For 75 years the Golden State has been trying to become known as the land of cotton, and at last its efforts are meeting with a success as striking as were some of its early failures.

Figures of the U. S. Department of Agriculture disclose that for several years California has produced more cotton than Virginia, the oldest cotton producing state; that California's average yield per acre is the highest of any cotton-producing state, and that California Acala cotton sells at a premium on the cotton markets of the United States.

It was not always thus.

In 1851, when farmers were still throwing away their plows to join the rush for California gold, T. O. Selby received some cotton seed from Mississippi and planted it on his ranch just outside the city of Sacramento. Three years later the Sacramento Union acknowledged on its editorial page the receipt of "a lot of beautiful cotton" grown on the Selby ranch. It quoted Mr. Selby as saying that only the high price of labor prevented California from becoming within a few years "one of the heaviest cotton-producing states in the republic."

In 1856 General Butler, whose name was the scene of the gold discovery, was growing cotton on his Houck farm near Marysville, although the newspaper men describing the "crop" waxed far more enthusiastic over the "excellent brandy—real Simon-pure stuff— which the general was making out of wild grapes."

This same year, too, the State Agricultural Society offered $75 for the "best acre of cotton." No grower was able to qualify a full acre, but F. W. Gibson of Los ANGELES showed the judges so fine an eighth acre that they awarded him a framed diploma.

Then came the Civil War, threatening to deprive California of all cotton importation from southern states. To hasten the development of cotton culture, the state in 1862 offered a prize of $3,000 for the first 100 bales produced by a California grower. Later the prize was divided among several who produced the largest number of bales.

When peace came the California cotton boom collapsed. Convinced they could not compete with Southern states using cheap negro labor, the growers turned their attention to other crops.

Thereafter, while cotton never ceased to be of great interest to experimenters, commercial production lagged until 1909, when Imperial Valley growers demonstrated that cotton could be grown at a healthy profit on irrigated California lands. The production that year totaled 350 bales.

Officials Willing To Have Books Examined

WASHINGTON, Jan. 13. (AP)—Several investigators of the case against the Aluminum Company of America in which Secretary Mellon is a heavy stockholder, were told today by Assistant Attorney General Donovan that the company had agreed freely to a full examination of its books by the Department of Justice.

Mr. Donovan made this disclosure in resuming before the Senate Judiciary Committee his story of the department's part in the case. Under instructions from the Senate, the committee is inquiring why the department did not institute contempt proceedings against the company after the federal trade commission had accused it of violating a court decree against certain practices.

demand, Imperial Valley's cotton production expanded prodigiously and tempted other districts to try growing on a commercial scale. The first important San Joaquin Valley production was in 1918 and expansion was so rapid that in 1925 more than half the state's cotton acreage was in this region. Last year the state had an average of 172,000, the average yield being estimated at 357 pounds per acre as against 1623 pounds for the United States at large. The estimated total production was 126,000 bales.

FRANCES ALDA IS TO PARTICIPATE IN RADIO CONCERT

Famous Contralto To Feature Big Program Assisted By Ruffo And Other Artists; Will Broadcast On Jan. 14

NEW YORK, Jan. 13.—The second radio concert in the series inaugurated by the Victor Talking Machine Company with the Borri-McCormick program, will be broadcast next Thursday evening, Jan. 14, with Frances Alda, soprano and Titta Ruffo, baritone, of the Metropolitan Opera; and the Flonzaley Quartet, as the artists. As was the case with Victor's New Year program, the concert will be broadcast direct from the Victor Company's New York recording studios through station WJZ and the other stations of the R. C. A. network.

Coming on the heels of the McCormick-Borri concert, which was heard in three continents by the largest audience of worldwide reputation, but their programs have been developed with unusual care from repertoires that are extraordinarily large.

The concert will begin at 9 o'clock, Eastern Standard Time, and will be heard from Station WJZ, New York; KYW, Chicago; KDKA, Pittsburgh; WBZ, Springfield, Mass.; WGY, Schenectady, and WRC, Washington, D. C.

Madame Alda, whose amazing versatility is only one of her many claims to operatic fame, was first heard over the radio one year ago, on Jan. 15, when she sang in the first Victor series of broadcasts. So successful was that appearance that it was decided to schedule her on the closest possible date to the anniversary of her radio debut.

Since making her debut at the Paris Opera Comique, in "Rigoletto," she has scored one success after another, and a bare listing of the roles she has created would require a lengthy paragraph. She has an extraordinarily colorful voice, which has been demonstrated to be peculiarly adapted to radio broadcasting.

Ruffo, who has for some years been one of the operatic sensations of Europe, South America, and the United States, is making his first radio appearance with the coming concert. The most recent of his brilliant triumphs has been in "La cena delle beffe," at the Metropolitan. He is also being heard this season in "Pagliacci" and others of his long and interesting repertoires.

The Flonzaley Quartet, one of the world's outstanding musical organizations, has for years held an unique position in the colorful field of chamber music. Like Madame Alda, they are being heard for the second time over the air on a Victor program, their first broadcast having been on Jan. 29, 1925. The quartet is composed of Adolfo Betti, first violin; Alfred Fochon, second violin; Iwan d'Archambeau, cello, and Nicholas Moldavan, viola.

Madame Alda, Ruffo and the Flonzaley Quartet will have four numbers each, selected from among their most noteworthy successes.

As girls did you ever want to be boys? Just see how you would look as a boy at the high school Friday night. Admission 50c. Dirt cheap.

Florida Resources

Geological The last report of the Department of Geology, issued for the year of 1925, gave the total value of the mineral output in Florida for that year at $18,230,099. This was $1,785, 026 more than the total value of production for 1922 or an increase of a little over 15 per cent. Herman Gunter, state geologist reported.

The larger volume of increase came from the phosphate and limestone industries. The outstanding feature in the state's mineral industries was the remarkable development made by the limestone industry.

The returns for 1923, as compared with those for 1922, showed an increase of 98 per cent in the limestone industry. Compared to that were the returns made for sand and gravel, which showed 96 per cent increase, and for crushed flint rock of 142 per cent. Since these products—limestone, crushed flint and sand and gravel—enter so largely in construction of highways, as well as other structural purposes, the geologist declared in his report, the figures reflected

Playing the Game

AND WHAT a thrill there is in playing the game here in the Greater Miami district—what a satisfaction in accomplishment in the creation of ultra desirable residential, apartment and business properties—what a satisfaction in knowing that folks who bought from you have had the privilege of selling at a profit, not only once, but some of them two or three times within a year, as has been the case in MIAMI SHORES!

After all, merely making money does not amount to much. It is nothing more or less than an incident in the program of improving properties so that those who wish to come to this land of palms and sunshine may be able to enjoy the best possible environment out-of-doors.

At MIAMI SHORES, we take pardonable pride in pointing to the remarkable progress that has been accomplished in spite of embargo conditions during the past twelve months—the miles of sidewalks and curbing—the miles of water mains—the great number of homes completed and being completed —the apartments and the new hotels now under way—the progress being made upon the bulkhead along the shoreland of Biscayne Bay—the beginning of construction of the Miami Shores Causeway—the commencement of the clearing prior to the filling in of MIAMI SHORES ISLAND—the knowledge that we have, in spite of unusual conditions, more than kept faith with the buying public—the fact that this is not just talk but is evidenced in the tremendous resale record made by our organization of over $18,575,000, to say nothing of the resales that have been made in the various brokerage houses in Miami.

In other words, the buying public know that this organization has proven to be as much at their service after they bought MIAMI SHORES property as before they bought it. We believe that our great responsibility comes when our clients purchase, and we propose to accept that responsibility in as active a way in this coming year as it has been in the past.

Sales Manager

One of the largest development companies in Central Florida, offering both subdivision and income-producing properties, desires the services of a capable and energetic Sales Manager for the Sanford District.

We are conducting a state-wide advertising campaign, and will include Sanford in this campaign as soon as a satisfactory connection here is made.

If you are interested, and are capable of hiring, firing and training salesmen, in addition to being an A-1 salesman yourself, write me for an appointment to talk things over.

GEORGE B. DERMODY General Sales Manager, Clermont, Florida.

When you buy property at MIAMI SHORES our sales organization is at your service at any moment you wish to resell. If it were not so, the above record could not have been made.

DIANS DIG FOR ORE ANCESTORS USED FOR PAINT

Tarlentine And Waldron Are Center Of District Where
The Opening Of New Texas
Mine Is Expected Any Time

ALPINE, Tex., Jan. 13.—(AP)— Burrowing in the rugged mountains of southwest Texas, stolid Indians today are mining for its treasures of quicksilver, the blood-red ore their forefathers used as warpaint.

The miners live in villages that are silent as the tomb. Far beneath the surface, they spend their waking hours taking from the hills a heritage which civilization discovered and claims as its own.

Tarlentine and Waldron, 90 miles from a railroad, are the center of a district where the expected opening of a new mine may give Texas first rank in the United States production of quicksilver. The state now ranks second.

For 30 years, hardy men have been undermining the mountains for the cinnabar ore from which mercury is extracted. One company has produced $10,000,000 worth of shimmering metal during the last quarter of a century.

The miners are Indians and Mexicans and the villages are of adobe huts. During the day, while the men are in the ground, the women remain in the houses and the silence is rarely broken. The streets between the rows of squat dwellings are deserted except for the occasional appearance of an Indian woman, carrying water in two rawhide bags suspended from a pole across her shoulder, in primitive fashion.

One of the mines contains an immense cavern, which is reached by a fifty-foot ladder placed there years ago, by the primitive tribes.
The surrounding bluffs are decorated with many Indian pictographs and hieroglyphics, in red pigment.

Dancing Now Lost Art Among Soviets

MOSCOW, Jan. 13.—(AP)—Dancing has become a lost art in Russia. It is looked upon as a "bourgeois" pastime by the Bolsheviks.

Although the Government does not actually prohibit it, there are really no halls, restaurants or other places where dances are held. In the Russian home, dancing has long since disappeared, as the average city family lives in a single room.

BEWARE THE COUGH OR COLD THAT HANGS ON

Persistent coughs and colds lead to serious trouble. You can stop them now with Creomulsion, an emulsion of creosote that is pleasant to take. Creomulsion is a new medical discovery with twofold action: it soothes and heals the inflamed membranes and inhibits germ growth.

Of all known drugs, creosote is recognized by high medical authorities as one of the greatest healing agencies for persistent coughs and colds and other forms of throat troubles. Creomulsion contains, in addition to creosote, other healing elements which soothe and heal the inflamed membranes and stop the irritation and inflammation, while the creosote goes on to the stomach, is absorbed into the blood, attacks the seat of the trouble and checks the growth of the germs.

Creomulsion is guaranteed satisfactory in the treatment of persistent coughs and colds, bronchial asthma, bronchitis and other forms of respiratory diseases, and is excellent for building up the system after colds or flu.
Money refunded if any cough or cold is not relieved after taking according to directions. Ask your druggist. Creomulsion

Indian Silver

Primitive jewelry, hammered by the Indians from Mexican silver dollars, makes a very smart note with the new sport costumes. It is particularly good with the futuristic designs and crashing colors.

Loch Arbor is an itegral part of Sanford and offers to investors many unusual advantages such as fine schools, churches, fraternal and civic clubs, sports, and the spirit of a progressive community spirit unequaled elsewhere in the State of Florida.

The assurance of exceptional profits for early investors in Loch Arbor is reflected today in the rapid progress of the development work. The installation of streets, boulevards, whiteways, grading, leveling and surveying is preceeding more rapidly than at any previous time. While all of these features are of paramount interest to investors, Loch Arbor also offers an ideal location, high elevation and a natural beauty of inestimable value.

The Country Club Entrance Section will be placed on the market at an early date. To assure choice location

A. F. G. INDUSTRIAL TRACT

"Sanford's First Industrial Development"

Every community of any importance has its industrial and manufacturing centers. The opening of the AFG INDUSTRIAL TRACT is the first attempt to develop the industrial section of this city, and this effort has not been in vain. Already plans are now well under way for the immediate construction of a plant that is to be completed within the next ninety days.

This is the beginning of a new era for the city.

The cheap rates paid by the shippers of this section due to the water transportation has furnished unlimited attraction to the outside industrial world.

Just as certain as Florida has its citrus fruit centers, its agricultural centers, mining and fishing centers it is certain to have its industrial center. Sanford at the head of water transportation and in the center of everything within easy access to the most extreme point of the state is the logical location for such a center.

Let your better judgment guide you in making an investment in this unique development.

Are Hard To Accustom American Manner Of Shopping

...an 18 (P)—American cue. Women and children bought for the Old World newly landed.

How Doctors Treat Colds And The Flu

To break up a cold overnight or to cut short an attack of grippé, influenza, sore throat or tonsillitis, physicians and druggists are now recommending Calotabs, the purified and refined calomel compound tablet that gives you the effects of calomel and salts combined, without the unpleasant effects of either.

One or two Calotabs at bedtime with a swallow of water—that's all. No salts, no nausea nor the slightest interference with your eating, work or pleasures. Next morning your cold has vanished, your system is thoroughly purified and you are feeling fine with a hearty appetite for breakfast. Eat what you please, no danger.

Real Estate Values Are Increasing

One hundred years ago, Fifth Avenue New York City was a cow path, today it is the greatest and most valuable street in the world. There is no one telling the average American how real estate values grow. Mothers bringing children into the world, give real estate its value.

Some property in Denver, Col., which is now worth many millions of dollars, was traded with $25.00 in return for a horse, saddle and bridle.

The territory which comprises the State of Pennsylvania was granted to Wm. Penn in payment of a personal debt of $16,000.

Real Estate values are increasing and will always increase. Buy real estate now from one of the Realtors listed on this page.
