CONVENTION TO ENTERTAIN MEN OF PROMINENCE

Republican Convention Which Opens Tomorrow in Cleveland Have Many Prominent Political Figures Present.

CLEVELAND, O., June 9.— (By The Associated Press.)—Political celebrities in American life, as well as notable figures from abroad, will attend the Republican national convention which convenes here Tuesday, either as delegates or guests.

Arrangements for seating the prominent visitors who are not delegates are being made by David W.
Mulvane, Kansas, chairman of the national committee on arrangements, who has compiled a list of the notables who are to be the guests of the Republicans.

Among the distinguished guests will be several members of the bench of the Supreme court of the United States including Chief Justice Charles E. Hughes, Justice Brandeis, Justice McReynolds, Justice Sutherland and Justice Butler.

Representatives of the diplomatic corps in Washington, especially those of South American embassies, have notified Chairman Mulvane of their desire to attend the convention.

Members of the president's cabinet, congressmen, senators and members of the Republican national committee will be present. Among cabinet members who will be seated are Secretary Andrew Mellon and Secretary Herbert Work. Mr. Mellon heads Pennsylvania's delegation of 79 members and Mr. Work is a delegate at large from Colorado. C. Bascom Sless, the president's secretary, is a delegate at large from Virginia, but it is understood he will allow an alternate to serve while he cares for the interests of Mr. Coolidge here.

Not the least interesting of the delegates will be Harry M. Daugherty, former attorney general, and a member of "Ohio's Big Seven" state. Mr. Daugherty has been a conspicuous political character since 1916 when he was one of the leaders in the movement to revitalize the Republican and Progressive parties. He was instrumental in Harding's nomination at Chicago in 1920 and, although defeated for delegate at large in the Ohio primary in that year, managed former President Harding's campaign.
Fifteen United States senators will be present.

Sixty-eighth Congress Adjourned on Saturday Leaving a Calendar of Big Issues To Be Decided at Next Session

WASHINGTON, June 9.—Adjournment Saturday night of the first session of the 68th congress left a calendar crowded with important issues, domestic and foreign, to be taken up when the next session begins in December.

SMITH WANTS TO HAVE A REVISION OF VOLSTEAD ACT

WANTS CHANGE SO STATES SO DIS-POSITIVE AS TO LEGALIZE SALE OF LIGHT WINES AND BEER.

NEW YORK, June 9.—For the first time since becoming an avowed candidate for the Democratic nomination for president, Governor Alfred E. Smith Sunday expressed himself in favor of revision of the Volstead act to allow states that were so disposed to legalize the sale of light wines and beer. He also said he believed the Ku Klux Klan to be "contrary to the very principles upon which this country was founded."

The governor stated his views in a letter to D. Robertson Browns of New York, chairman of the self-determination league of liberty. Mr.
Browne had written to ask the governor where he stood on the prohibition and what he thought of the thought of the reported efforts of the governor's friends to prevent the insertion of an anti-Ku Klux Klan plank in the Democratic platform. The governor said he favored having congress fix a maximum of alcoholic content "based upon science and sound reasoning," allowing each state to establish for itself whatever alcoholic content it chose so long as it did not overstep the limit set in the national law.

"Fanatical Dregs"
The clause making one-half of one per cent the legal maximum of alcoholic content, the governor said, "was written into the Volstead act by the Anti-Saloon league agents, to whom I referred as "fanatical dregs." I have not changed my attitude towards them any more than I have toward the "fanatical wets."

"I maintain that the present hypocritical attitude towards the cause of prohibition would be greatly relieved if the government, "by having congress fix a maximum alcoholic content based upon science and sound reasoning, thereafter leaving every state to enact any statute it pleases with regard to regulation of the traffic in light wines and beer within the alcoholic content, so that the state that desires strict prohibition may have it, and the state that desires light wines and beer within the alcoholic content prescribed by congress may also have what it desires."

change in the Volstead law which would honestly serve the cause of temperance would make a valuable contribution to public action against hard liquor which is undoubtedly put under the ban by the language of the eighteenth amendment.

Individual Opinion
"Of course you understand that this is the expression of my individual opinion; any amendment to the statutes can be made only by the people themselves through their elected representatives in the congress of the United States."

The governor urged strengthening of the federal laws with regard to interstate commerce and the importation of strong liquors.
Speaking of the Ku Klux Klan
the governor said:
"It seems to me a waste of time, after my long public career, for anything to be said about any individual or group of individuals of any organization that questions the nationality, the race, the creed or the religion of any American. I have repeatedly said in public speech that nothing is or could be so contrary to the very principles upon which this country was founded."

NEW MINISTRY IS SLATED TO CRUMBLE SOON

Cabinet Formed Saturday by Francois-Marsal Is Expected to Have But Short Life After It Makes Its Initial Appearance Before Parliament on Tuesday

PARIS, June 9.—Frederic Francois-Marsal Sunday formed a cabinet to take the place of that of M. Poincare which resigned last week.

The new cabinet follows: Premier and minister of finance, M.
Francois-Marsal; foreign affairs, Edmond Lefebvre du Prey; justice, Senator Antoine Ratier; interior, Justin de Selve; war and pensions, Andre Maginot; labor and hygiene, Paul Jourdain; navy, Desire Ferry; public works, Yves Le Troquer; education, M. Landry; commerce, Pierre Claudin; agriculture, M. Pansu; devastated regions, Louis Marin; colonies, Jean Fabry.

To Appear Tuesday
The ministry was made known after a review between President Millerand and M. Francois-Marsal. It will make its appearance before parliament Tuesday when the premier will read a message from President Millerand in the chamber, explaining the situation and the president will then appear in the chamber of justice will perform a similar duty in the senate.

The initial appearance of the cabinet before the chamber is likely to prove its farewell.
The general impression is that the Francois-Marsal cabinet will be the still born government, "so certainly is everybody who concerns himself with politics that the message from the president, the delivery of which to the parliament is the sole purpose of its formation, will find the government in a minority upon the first vote." M. Millerand's message will call attention to the provision in the constitutional mandate as for seven years.

President Handicapped Contending for the spirit and letter of the constitution, the members of the commission but what the nature of the conferences were, it is not known. It is understood, however, that the official offer to sell for $90,000.
When the offer of $71,000 was made by the commission it was by a two to one vote of that body, Mayor Forrest Lake voting against the proposition, and Commissioner Marshall and Chase voting for it. For many reasons, the commissioners that voted for the proposition, favored the acquiescence at that figure, it is said. However, the mayor objected on the grounds that it would take the money that was planned to be used for extensions during the next few years.

The local company has placed a valuation of $110,000 on its holdings here, it is said, but will probably offer it for $90,000 this afternoon. How the commission stands with regard to this proposed offer, is not known definitely, but it is understood that two are in favor of it and one for it.
Anyway, it was stated this morning by Mayor Lake that the result of the negotiations, this afternoon would in all probability be final.

It is very likely that Mr. Houston will make his company's offer in person. It is stated by those in a position to know that the official may accept the city's offer if the commission will agree to leave out of the bargain the Lave Ais Right-of-way which the company is now in possession of. Whether this will be made, of course, is not known definitely, and will not be until the meeting.

The prevalent opinion in regard to the city's offer is that it will be turned down flat by the Southern Utilities Company. But it is also believed that the city will not make any further overtures to the company in as much as the offer was based upon a report of Consulting Engineer Joseph E. Craig, showing that the figure was as much as the city could possibly offer and stay within the limits of the amount of money bonded to construct a plant.

Should the Southern Utilities Company accept the offer, the deal will be closed at once, it is stated, and will probably become effective July 1.

Will Not Accept PROSPECTS FOR VICEPRESIDENT ARE NUMEROUS

With Lowden's Refusal to Consider Offer Speculation is High
Regarding Choice

LOWDEN SENDS OUT
SIGNED STATEMENT
Believes Present work
in Behalf Farmers
Is More Important

CLEVELAND, June 9.—
Former Governor Lowden's defeat of his boom for the Republican vice-presidential nomination served today to spread the limelight more evenly over a growing field of prospects. With practically the last of the arrivals pouring into Cleveland for the opening of the convention tomorrow, milling and speculations with new zest about selection of a vice-presidential nominee.

In refusing to accept the nomination of vice-president even if it is tendered to him, the former Illinois governor, in signed statement issued from his home on Sunday, said:

"I can be of more service to the country through the activities in which I am now engaged than I could be as vice-president," said Mr. Lowden, who is head of two National Farmer organizations and actively interested in the work of others. "If I were to step aside now my associates believe it would seriously cripple the work of those organizations."

In his statement Mr. Lowden stated that he was first discus-sioned for the nomination and after he was informed he would be highly acceptable to the administration of President Coolidge.

"I am not unmindful of the importance of high office of vice-president," the statement said.
"However, since my retirement from public office three years ago, I have become deeply interested in many farmer organizations. As a result of my own experience in farming, I am convinced that agriculture must be organized if it is to go forward successfully in this modern organized world."

"I am giving a great deal of my time to these various organizations and I continue to do so. I am assured by those most competent to speak that I shall be rendering a real service to the agricultural interests of the country and therefore, to the country as a whole."

"I were to step aside now, my associates in at least two of my organizations of which I am a member believe that it would seriously cripple the work of those organizations."

"Of course I appreciate to the fullest degree the high honor implied in my being considered for the nomination and I am deeply moved by the expressions of confidence and good will and it is hard for me to disappoint them, but I must."

"I have given my most careful consideration to the question of where my duty lies and I have been forced to the conclusion that I can be of more service to the country through the activities in which I am now engaged, than I could be as vice-president."

"I have therefore, said to everyone who has approached me upon the subject that I cannot accept the nomination even if it were tendered me."

"I must adhere to this resolution."
(Signed) "FRANK O. LOWDEN."

Esda Holladay Breeder Mr. Lowden, even before his entrance into public life, was interested in agriculture and stock raising and was considered one of the biggest farmers in the state.
He is president of the Holstein Breeders' Association and of the American Dairy Federation, said to be the largest live stock raising organization in the world.

Although he was secured for the nomination by supporters all over the Middle West and was known to be acceptable to President Coolidge, he steadfastly refused to accept his nomination. He said he had himself qualified for the primary ballot in Oregon where he won the preference for the Republican nomination for the vice-presidency by a large majority he declared was done without his knowledge or consent. He said he had never himself qualified for the primary ballot in Oregon where he

can nomination for the vice-presidency by a large majority he declared was done without his knowl-

CITY COMMISSION WILL HEAR REPLY OF UTILITIES FIRM

Southern Utilities Company Will File Its Answer to City's Recent Offer at Meeting
This Afternoon.

At its regular meeting this afternoon the City Commission was scheduled to hear an answer to its offer of $71,000 for the waterworks plant and system now owned and operated by this company.

In the city's offer was contained a clause saying that it would hold good until last Saturday, but that time was extended until this afternoon in order that the reply might be made before the commission session. At the time the offer was made there was a variance of opinion as to whether it would be accepted by the local company.

The offer made direct to the main offices of the company at Palatka, will either be rejected or accepted by W. A. Houston, vice-president and general manager of the Southern Utilities Company at the meeting, it is understood.
Mr. Houston arrived in the city city this afternoon.

Estimate Loss by Fire at Oveido on Sunday at $8,000

Loss by fire at Oveido Sunday night when two buildings, a garage and a filling station, burned, is estimated at about $8,000. The fire was discovered about 12:30 o'clock when the roof of the garage was already falling in.

The fire started in the garage but the origin is unknown. It was learned through a long distance message this morning. With the roof of the garage already falling in the fire department was called to prevent any further damage. If possible, but the flames spread to the filling station, which was housed in a wooden structure, completely ruin it to the ground.
The garage was built of sheet metal and iron, however, except for the rafters, doors, windows and minor parts of the structure, and was not so completely wrecked.

A large part of the loss was in three trucks which were in the garage and in the burning of the supplies and tools that were stored at the filling station.

The buildings were the property of C. L. West but were occupied by the Oveido Motor Company under the management of H. E.
Orr. It has already been announced that the garage building and filling station will be erected immediately on the same property and that they are to be, in every way, as near fireproof as possible.

The three trucks that were in the garage carried no insurance, it is said, and were a complete loss.
The garage building and filling station each carried about $1, 000. It is thought that the Oveido Motor Company carried about $1, 000 insurance on their stock of supplies which, otherwise, were a complete loss.

Impressive Memorial Service Held For Dead of Railroad Brotherhood

Exercises impressive in their simplicity, marked the program of the annual memorial services held for the dead members of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers by the Sanford Division number 729 at the First Baptist Church Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock.

The memorial address was delivered by Rev. F. D. King, pastor of the First Baptist Church, who pointed out that the principles of the brotherhood—sobriety, truth, justice and morality—undergird the national life of this country.
The minister's address, a tribute to the order and the ideals for which it stands, was greatly enjoyed.

The exercises were opened by the entry into the church of the members of the local order, as a march was played by Mrs. Schelle Maines.
Following this 10 little boys and girls entered the church from opposite aisles and placed flowers, the offering of members of the Grand International Auxiliary of the Brotherhood, upon the pulpit.

The remainder of the impressive program was as follows: Duet, "Whispering Hope" by the Schirard brothers.
Solo, "Beyond the Hills Eternal" by Mrs. Colclough.
Introductory remarks by L. R.
Crosby.
Duet, "God Is Love" by Mrs.
Phillips and Mrs. Colclough.
Address by Rev. F. D. King.
Duet, "Face to Face" by the Schirard brothers.
Quartet—Mrs. Takach, Mrs.
Leahy, Mr. McMahon and Mr.
Darrow.
Benediction by Rev. King.
Following is a list of the dead members of the local order of Brotherhood: Louis Roberts, L. J.
Lang, W. T. Brown, B. F. Higgins, W. H. Burke, G. W. Chason, Levi Kays, E. W. Rowland, T. B. Carroll, A. H. Daugherty, E. B. Alden, W. R. Price, George Armstrong, E. O. Kase, H. J. Stahl, H. J.
Malloy, T. E. Fox, W. H. Peters,

Will Make Investigation TOKIO, June 9.—A thorough investigation will be made of the demonstration staged at a dance in the Imperial Hotel Saturday night by groups of political ruffians, the Japanese foreign office informed the Associated Press today.
Until such investigation is made, however, it was pointed out, no official action will be taken to ward punishing offenders.

Will Oppose Jap Exclusion TOKIO, June 9.—Four thousand persons attending an anti-American mass meeting today under the auspices of army reservists' association adopted resolutions expressing determination to oppose Japanese exclusion measure of the United States to the end.

TOKIO, June 9.—Another "Funshi" or protest by suicide at the exclusion of the new American immigration law is reported by a correspondent of Nichi Nichi at May-asaki, Kyushu. The correspondent asserts the youth threw himself in front of a train and was killed.
Letters asserted he committed suicide as a protest against the exclusion of the United States, said to have been found on his body.

Attributing their action to public demand, owners of motion picture the treasury to whom I referred him.

Says Bursum Came
Senator Bursum did come to see me in December, 1921, about granting permits, just as others come to see me. He was not the only one who came to see me. Senator Bursum presented me a list of applicants for permits. I turned this list over to Mr. Blair, the commissioner of internal revenue, for investigation. In three of the cases this investigation was satisfactory and the permits granted.

There has been no intimation to me, directly or indirectly, that any campaign fund would be or has been benefited in any way by the issuance of the permits.

(4)—Mr. Means gives a circumstantial account of an alleged interview by him with former Under-Secretary of the Treasury Gilbert at 6:55 in the morning. This is characteristic of Means' testimony. Mr. Gilbert has never met Mr. Means. No interview took place.

(5)—Mr. Means mentioned the La Montague and the Green River distillery cases. These were a successful enforcement of the law in spite of what Mr. Means intimates.

(6)—Mr. Means again raises the question of my connection with the Overholt distillery. Since 1916 the Overholt company has not manufactured any liquor. Prior to my becoming secretary of the treasury, all of the assets of this company were transferred to a trust company as trustee with no authority to operate but only to dispose of the assets and distribute the proceeds. Since that time the trust company has sold no whiskey whatever except 53 cases to a drug company.

(7)—In addition to being a manufacturer of whiskey, the Overholt company was a warehouse, holding whiskey belonging to other persons. After the passage of the national prohibition act whiskey was released from the warehouse only on the production of the permits provided for by the regulations. These permits were sent first to the office of the company in Pittsburgh, where, in accordance with later regulations effective November 1, 1920, the permits were confirmed by direct correspondence with the prohibition director in Pittsburgh and then forwarded after confirmation to the warehouse at Bradford, about 60 miles out of Pittsburgh, with the company's authority for release of the whiskey. After release, the permits were returned to the office of the company in Pittsburgh for filing.

Estimate Fire Loss In Miami At $100,000

MIAMI, June 7.—Loss in fire here early today, in which a large frame warehouse on the river front was destroyed, is estimated at more than $100,000. The structure was used for storing oil. The fire department, brokerage firm, oil mill supply concern and paper company destroyed. Loss was partially covered by insurance. The cause of the fire is undetermined.

Effective

An effective way to use the popular maribou banding is shown in this straightline frock of petal trim crepe. It edges the side panels that are fitted so smoothly about the waist. The use of long light sleeves on dinner and evening frocks is increasing and the absence of elaborate trimming is noticeable.

Say Muscle Shoals Project Dates Back One Hundred Years

SHEFFIELD, Ala., June 9.—While the development of Muscle Shoals is but a recent project in the minds of most people of the United States, the history of intent to develop this vast potential power dates back a century, according to records under observation here.

The first act of congress with reference to the Shoals was passed when congress passed its consent to the operation of an act passed by the Alabama legislature on December 30, 1823, to improve navigation in the Coosa river, in the center of the state, and to aid in connecting it with the Tennessee river in the north.

The company formed under these acts of congress and the legislature was unable to sell its stock and on May 23, 1828, congress passed another act ceding 200,000 acres of land in north Alabama to the state so the Shoals could be improved. An amendment to this latter act passed June 23, 1836, permitted the state to sell this land for less than $1.50 per acre, which was the minimum price then allowed by federal statutes. It is said some of the land sold for as low as 25 cents an acre.

The total cost of navigation facilities to 1890 was $2,101,726.50 and up to 1915 for operating and care was $1,406,372.30, making a total of $3,508,098.80 on Muscle Shoals for navigation alone.

In 1899 congress gave its assent for the filing and the construction of a dam and lower station.

Froham Memorial Erected By Friends

LONDON, June 9.—A memorial to Charles Froham has been erected by a large group of his English friends at Marlow-on-Thames, the quaint little town which the late theatrical producer is said to have loved best in the world. The memorial is a drinking fountain of stone surmounted by a fine piece of sculpture by the artist Leonard M. Merrifield.

The fountain has been placed opposite the town war memorial and overlooking the sleepy Thames as it passes the village. The site for the memorial was the gift of the town of Marlow.

CZECHS SEIZE RADIO SETS
PRAGUE, June 9.—In spite of the enormous regulations thrown around it by the government, radio is making progress in Czechoslovakia. Recently 4,000 private sets were seized for failure of the owners for their possession and use. It is estimated that the official requirement understood, however, they will be restored if certain conditions are fulfilled.

AGAINST FEE SPLITTING
CHICAGO, June 9.—The secret division of fees by physicians, so-called "fee splitting," was condemned and recommendations made for the use of county societies in checking the practice, in the report of the judicial council of the American Medical Association given today at the organization's convention.

IRELAND LACKS STATISTICS
DUBLIN, June 9.—Dr. Oldham, professor of economics in the National University, describes the state of public statistics in the Free State as "probably worse than in any civilized country in Europe."

There has been no census of production since 1908, no census of population, housing and occupations since 1911, no detailed report on agricultural statistics since 1917, and no statistics of external trade for any year later than 1921.

Hebrides Crofters Will Settle Island

VANCOUVER, B. C., June 9.—Settlement of Graham Island, of the Queen Charlotte group in the Pacific ocean near the province of British Columbia, with colonists from the Hebrides, off the coast of Scotland, is planned by the Canadian government.

Graham Island has about the same area as the entire Hebrides group, 9,000 square miles. It is like Ireland in the absence of snakes and like Scotland in being straddled by lakes and indentations of the sea. The soil is fertile, but covered with heavy timber. This timber has been the chief resource, and during the world war the island was occupied by producers of airplane spruce. The climate, equable and the Japan current, is warm and the snowfall is scant.

Fisheries are expected to be a beautiful support for the transplanted islanders. Duck and goose hunting is plentiful, Graham being a resting place for the flocks on their way north or south.

Germans Invent New Method of Gambling

BERLIN, June 9.—A new form of gambling has struck Germany. It is known as "tick tick," because watches and small clocks are used in this game of chance. The bets are made on the time that the watch or clock will run down. The person guessing the minute or second nearest the exact time the hands cease to function takes the prize, which is a purse made up of all the bets on this particular watch, minus a certain percentage for the "house."

Some of the games, operated in the rear of cigar stores and other nooks, have scores of watches running at the same time.

The Art Of Beauty
By B. M. DOUGLAS

The Flower Woman

SOME one has said that flowers are beautiful things which God made and forgot to put a soul into. How much more beautiful then, is the delicate flower type of woman, who seems to carry with her the shy, fragrant and elusive charm of violets and pansies and lilies of the valley.

The beauty of the flower woman cannot be pinned down to the color of her hair, or her eyes, or the curve of her cheek. It is something fairylike and ethereal. The flower woman is most often delicately blonde, and slender, and fragile. She may have eyes like blood violets, but in their light, her shadows, her skin is pale ivory, her hair, as they used to say in the fairy tales, spun gold, her lips are coral. Everything about her is fine and fair, and wistful. She is the kind who has strayed away from her castle.

And so, if the flower woman, is to realize her type, she must hold herself somewhat aloof from the fetiches of the throng. Not for her is the rishik, lithe, the clinging evening dress; the uncompromising talloramide, the betrimmed summer dress. She must make her own fashions, for she is above fashion. Delicate trailing lengths of chiffon, pastel shades, powder blue, pale orchid, peachblow, blushrose, silver green, ivory white. Large drooping flower hats, transparent brims, organdie, cobwebby lace, soft veivets, all of these will bring out the faint elusive wistful fragrance of her charm. Negligees and tea gowns, scorned by the outdoor girl, are dear to the flower woman. And jewels—never the hard, bright stones, diamonds, or rubies, or emeralds, but always the purity of pearls, the mystery of moonstones, the lucent clearness of aquamarines. And faint perfume, lavender, violet, jasmine, lily of the valley.

Sports and their accompanying apparel are not for the flower woman. They will strike a harsh dissonance in the harmony of her type. While her more vivid ruddy sisters may disport themselves on the court, or the links, she will be far better sitting in the shade, under the striped marquee in her filmy gown, and shady hat, ready to welcome the conquering heroes.

Makeup must touch the flower woman gently, like the caress of a fairy godmother's wand. Blend with the warm ivory oval of her face the creamy tint of rachelle powder. The flower woman is better off without the accentuation of color in her cheeks, but she may delicately outline the wistful curve of her lips with Mandarin lipstick. Her eyes are the keynote of her type. If her brows and lashes are not naturally long, she may delicately pencil them. A dark powder smoothed under the eyes and over the lids intensifying the natural shadow around the eyes will add to her mystery and charm. In the evening lavender powder will give a silken sheen to her delicately modelled shoulders.

BITHLO

"The City with a Vision"

Bithlo development from a commercial standpoint is assured by the large area of excellent trucking and general farming lands surrounding; by geographical position and accessibility to the markets.

Bithlo also should be of interest to tourists. The territory surrounding is spoken of as the finest fishing and hunting grounds in Florida. Bithlo is the nearest inland Florida town to the largest number of choice beaches, Desota, Coronado, Daytona, Journalista, Cocoa and Melbourne Beaches. It is near the St. Johns River and Lake Pickett, boating, fishing and bathing.

The city officials have mapped out an extensive beautification plan; streets are to be paved, trees and shrubbery are to be planted. The main business street in Bithlo is 117 feet wide. Other streets range from 60 to 100 feet wide.

When you think over the number of towns that have sprung into prominence during the past few years and made the pioneer purchasers fortunes, you must realize that as the state grows other towns as well geographically located as Bithlo will make money for the pioneer investors.

What Your Chamber of Commerce has Done and is Doing

5th Annual Report, June 1st, 1923 to May 31st, 1924

PRESIDENT'S REPORT

To the Members of the Sanford Chamber of Commerce:

It is a source of much gratification to me to report that the efforts expended by the Chamber of Commerce during the past fiscal year have been uniformly crowned with success, and also that Sanford is now enjoying an unprecedented era of prosperity. The accomplishments recorded by the Chamber of Commerce have been made possible only by the united efforts of the members and citizens at large who have learned to do things together, and the prosperity we are now enjoying reflects most creditably on the value of this real co-operation. It is also gratifying to note that the little differences which have existed in our midst in the past, and which usually retard progress in a community, have been overcome. The Sanford Chamber of Commerce, if it has done nothing else, has united all the community in a movement for improvement and progress. It is the most democratic organization in the city. Its officers and members have worked diligently to bring about this harmony, as well as the united and active interest of all citizens that they might stand shoulder to shoulder as friends and neighbors working for the betterment of the city and county.

I shall not attempt to outline the accomplishments of the Chamber of Commerce during the year just ended. These are fully reflected in the report of the secretary, which will be given full publicity, and which report I commend to everyone for careful reading and consideration. I want to take this opportunity to thank my associates on the Board of Governors who have given so willingly of their time, the conscientious committeemen and chairmen, who have brought to successful conclusions the many matters referred to them by the Board, the members at large for their moral and financial support, the Sanford Herald, the city and county officials, with whom the most cordial relations have been maintained, the Rotary and Kiwanis Clubs for their inspirational efforts, the Woman's Club, and all others who by word or deed have contributed in any way to the accomplishments registered by the Chamber of Commerce.

It is my fond hope that the coming year will find the entire personnel of the organization and the citizens at large just as willing and anxious to do all in their power to make this the greatest year in the history of Sanford.

In conclusion, I would like to offer a few suggestions for any definite program of work which the organization may adopt for the ensuing year. They are, briefly: Concerted action to have the lake front boulevard completed; interesting some one of the major league baseball teams to select Sanford for spring training quarters, using the new athletic field which will soon be available; the cultivation of a stronger friendship by Sanford business interests with the other sections of the county; the construction of sufficient mileage of good roads to connect those sections with Sanford and open up productive acreage; the establishment at a nominal cost of a municipally owned and operated tourist auto camp. I would also suggest that the publicity committee, in planning its budget, provide sufficient sum of money to give Sanford's new golf course wide publicity, and that a close relationship be established between local realtors, so that the inquiries received by the secretary and referred to them, can be followed up. The extensive posting of Sanford road signs on all highways leading into the state should never be allowed to lag now that success is in sight, is the completion of the St. Johns-Indian River canal, and the publicity committee of the Chamber of Commerce should use all effective mediums to advertise the fact that Sanford will soon have a new yacht basin. I also recommend that the Chamber of Commerce again take the initiative in having Seminole County represented at the proposed second annual exhibit at Madison Square Garden next February, as valuable results were obtained last year. There are also a great many other activities which will result in increased prosperity for Sanford that can be included in next year's program of work that I will not attempt to enumerate at this time.

I can assure you that it has indeed been a privilege and a pleasure to serve with you in the service of Sanford.

Respectfully submitted,

EDWARD HIGGINS,

President Sanford Chamber of Commerce.

SECRETARY'S REPORT.

TO THE PRESIDENT, BOARD OF DIRECTORS AND MEMBERS OF THE SANFORD CHAMBER OF COMMERCE:

I beg to submit herewith for your consideration and approval, the report of the activities of your Chamber of Commerce for the period from June 1st, 1923, to May 31st, 1924.

During that time there were fifty weekly business luncheons, the average attendance at which was twenty-five. The percentage of governors in attendance at these meetings was 66. Twelve standing committees were appointed at the beginning of the year, of which eight have functioned. The other four have had no matter referred to them for action. In addition to these, several special committees have been appointed from time to time to handle matters which could not properly come under the jurisdiction of any one of the standing committees.

Agricultural Committee Accomplishments.

As a result of the efforts of the Agricultural Committee, appropriations were obtained from county ($5,000) State Plant Board ($150) which with Federal aid amounting to approximately $18,000, an entomologist was secured to study insect pests and plant diseases peculiar to celery. This committee also handled all details in connection with the agricultural exhibit at Madison Square Garden, conceded to be the finest vegetable display at that exposition.

Special Committee Accomplishments.

A special committee appointed to investigate possibilities of organizing local distributing agencies, reported unfavorably against such action, but as a result of their recommendations the Florida Vegetable Corporation was organized.

A special committee of the Chamber of Commerce appointed at the request of the City Commission, has worked continually with Jos. E. Craig, the city's consulting engineer, on the question of securing an adequate supply of soft water for Sanford which has been located.

Reduction in rates charged by the Southern Utilities Company for electric current was secured as a result of the efforts of a special committee appointed from the Chamber of Commerce to make recommendations on this matter.

A definite paving program for the next ten years was recommended by a special committee from the Chamber appointed at the request of the City Commission.

A special committee of the Chamber of Commerce fostered a bond issue in the amount of $160,000, which the citizens approved by a majority of three to one, and which has given Sanford one of the finest golf courses in the state, the most modern athletic field and an excellent sewerage system.

A special committee known as the Committee on Municipal Ownership of Public Utilities has to its credit the passage of the bond issue in the amount of $920,000.00, the largest bond issue ever carried in the City of Sanford. This committee has also been called into frequent conferences with the City Commission for advice on the proposed municipal waterworks plant.

The activities during the past of the special "Ship-By-Water" Committee, both in Sanford and contiguous territory, has resulted in increasing business for the Clyde Line, so that it has been necessary for the latter to enlarge its local terminal facilities approximately 200 per cent.

A special committee from the Chamber of Commerce was appointed to investigate the desirability of a centralized charity organization, county-wide in its scope, and will shortly submit recommendations which it believed will meet with general approval.

Legislative Committee Accomplishments.

The Legislative Committee, together with Brevard County interests endeavored to have Volusia County cede that portion of land in Volusia on which the Geneva-Titusville road is located. The no-seining law and the city zoning law, the latter the first of its kind ever passed by the state legislature, were both prepared by this committee.

NEW INDUSTRIES COMMITTEE ACCOMPLISHMENTS

The following new concerns were located in Sanford during the past year by this committee: A branch of the National Biscuit Company, which concern has made Sanford the distributing point for the Central and Southern portions of the state; the Royal Ice Cream Company, the management of which selected Sanford as a distributing center on account of its preferred location; the McCracken Florida Cement Pipe Company, a three hundred thousand dollar corporation, the local plant of which represents an investment of $70,000.00. The new industries committee also secured additional trackage facilities on the south side of Commercial Street, which section has been designated by the City Planning Commission as a wholesale district.

The local lodge of Odd Fellows requested and received the support of the Chamber of Commerce through this committee in its efforts to locate the Odd Fellows Home for the Aged in Sanford. The New Industries Committee also located two new wholesale feed companies in Sanford during the past year, namely, the Seminole Feed Company, and the Sanford Feed and Supply Company.

CITY PLANNING COMMITTEE ACCOMPLISHMENTS

Up to the time the City Planning Commission was appointed, matters now coming under its jurisdiction were handled by the City Planning Committee of the Chamber of Commerce. This committee, during its existence was instrumental in preventing violations of the Building Ordinance. The principal items in its program of work during that period were: Extension of parking space at the depot; plans for the extension of the fire limits, which have been adopted by the City Planning Commission and the City Commissioners. The City Planning Committee has also prepared a map showing the proposed bulkhead lines in the city limits, popularly known as the Lake Front Boulevard Improvement. At the request of the City Commissioners, the committee recommended the appointment of the members now serving on the City Planning Commission.

FINANCE COMMITTEE ACCOMPLISHMENTS

The finance committee of the Chamber of Commerce prepared the budget system under which the organization is now working. It also evolved a monthly payment plan of membership dues, which has resulted in securing a great many new members for the Chamber of Commerce.

WATERWAYS COMMITTEE ACCOMPLISHMENTS

Delegations from Sanford, together with delegations from DeLand, Winter Park, Palatka and Jacksonville, were sent to Washington in behalf of the St. Johns-Indian River Canal. As a result of this action the Chief Engineer has authorized an immediate physical survey to be made of this route.

TOURIST AND CONVENTION COMMITTEE ACCOMPLISHMENTS

Several conventions have been entertained in Sanford during the past year by the Tourist and Convention Committee, namely: The Association of Florida Dailies; motorcade of Palatka business men; the Association of State Railroad Commissioners; the National League of Commission Merchants; the Central District Dental Association; the Florida State Optometry Association, the Florida State Commercial Secretaries Association; the Directors of the Florida Development Board, and the Grand Lodge of the Knights of Pythias (colored). The last named organization, it is estimated, spent at least $35,000 in Sanford. All these conventions contributed both a great deal in money and in favorable publicity to Sanford.

The local band has come under the jurisdiction of the Tourist and Convention Committee and has been financed from Chamber of Commerce funds as well as from proceeds of a Musical Carnival sponsored by this committee.

SECRETARY'S OFFICE

Your secretary's office has received and answered thousands of letters containing inquiries of all descriptions. In addition, road information and maps have been distributed gratis to many hundreds of visitors. A tourist register, maintained for the past year for the first time in the history of this organization, has several hundred names. Listings of rooms, apartments and all available accommodations in Sanford for tourists have been maintained in the secretary's office, and many tourists have availed themselves of this service. A library comprising books of interest to business men is increasing in volume, and is available to the members and all others who may have occasion to use it.

Directories of all Florida cities are being secured, as well as those from the larger cities in the United States. These will be for the use of local business interests, as well as visitors.

The Chamber of Commerce organ, Sanford Substantialism, was issued from the secretary's office for several months to all members and prospects, detailing the activities of the organization and creating an interest in the Chamber of Commerce which was reflected in increased attendance at the weekly membership meetings.

ACCOMPLISHMENTS PUBLICITY COMMITTEE

The Publicity Committee has been unusually active during the past year. It assisted in preparing a special Seminole County edition of the Tampa Tribune. It prepared one of the most complete and handsome booklets that has ever been published for Sanford. Twenty thousand of these booklets detailing the advantages of Sanford were printed for distribution. All inquiries received from its advertising activities have been referred to local realtors, gratis. It has, through the secretary's office, followed up these inquiries and as a result many new families have been located in Sanford. It has secured much favorable publicity for the municipal golf course in various golfing magazines. One hundred and fifty road signs have been placed between Sanford and Macon, Ga., during the past year. At Madison Square Garden a great deal of valuable publicity was received for Sanford and Seminole County as a result of the efforts of this committee. Prospects were interested in Sanford and subsequently located, and advice has been received that many more will visit Sanford during the coming season. The feature event of Madison Square Garden, the All-Florida Products Dinner, was also handled by the Publicity Committee. The Publicity Committee co-operating with the county agent and distributing concerns, ran advertising in the New Orleans papers simultaneously with the mailing of over 60,000 celery recipes to people of that city. Favorable comments on the effort were made in the New Orleans papers and the inquiries which the Chamber of Commerce has received proved that this publicity was most effective. The Publicity Committee has contributed and had published many hundreds of articles in the state papers. If a charge had been made for the space given these articles the cost would have represented several thousands of dollars.

GOOD ROADS COMMITTEE

The Good Roads Committee promoted a trip of prominent business men of Sanford and Orlando to Green Cove Springs for the purpose of bringing the influence of these communities to bear on the State Road Department to complete the 26 miles of State Road No. 3 in Clay County. The State Road Department is now repairing that road. This committee has held several meetings during the past year at which plans were formulated for a bond issue for new county roads. Several of these meetings were attended by representatives from all sections of the county and a special county map has been prepared showing present and proposed roads. Through the efforts of individuals representing the County Commissioners and the Good Roads Committee, the State Road Department reimbursed the county in the amount of $10,000 for the former's share of the cost of construction of the Osteen bridge. Through the efforts of the Good Roads Committee the State Road Department recently made an appropriation to maintain and repair that portion of State Road No. 3 in Seminole County from the Monroe bridge to the Orange County line. The Good Roads Committee was instrumental in perfecting financial arrangements for the improvement of the unfinished portion of the Osceola road. The Good Roads Committee also approved an appropriation of $500, which with contributions from both Volusia and Brevard Counties, have been used in repairing the Geneva-Titusville road. The Good Roads Committee worked in collaboration with the City Attorney in drafting a new traffic ordinance which will shortly be enacted. A tentative program has been prepared by the Good Roads Committee for the improvement of present roads and the construction of new roads in the county.

TRAFFIC AND TRANSPORTATION COMMITTEE

This committee has received permission from the State Railroad Commission to check up any survey made by the Atlantic Coast Line Railroad which is endeavoring to secure increased rates by claiming the mileage from Jacksonville to Sanford is in excess of the 130 mile zone upon which local freight rates are based. This committee had representation at a recent hearing before the Interstate Commerce Commission when the carriers were attempting to secure increased refrigeration rates and valuable data was given local shipping interests to present at that time. The services of an experienced traffic man have been engaged to keep local business interests advised of rate matters affecting Sanford on inbound shipments. This committee has also taken the initiative in organizing a joint traffic bureau comprising the various Chambers of Commerce in the State, none of which could individually support a traffic bureau.

GENERAL ACTIVITIES OF THE CHAMBER OF COMMERCE

The lake front pavilion, built by the Chamber of Commerce and donated to the city, at the request of the former, has been donated to the American Legion for a clubhouse. The Chamber of Commerce worked in conjunction with the police officials of the Atlantic Coast Line Railroad, the county and city, to apprehend negro labor recruiters who were operating in the state without a license. The channel in Lake Monroe has been adequately marked with beacons by the lighthouse department at the request of the Chamber of Commerce. Although unsuccessful in its past efforts, the Chamber of Commerce is still endeavoring to secure from the Atlantic Coast Line an up-town ticket office for the convenience of the traveling public. The recommendation made by the Chamber of Commerce to the County Commissioners that an equalization board be appointed to prepare this next assessment roll of the county, was approved by the County Commissioners and deputy assessors have since been appointed. The Chamber of Commerce has co-operated with the Superintendent of Public Instruction and school authorities in their efforts to enforce the compulsory educational law. During the past years, Sanford has been omitted from many of the maps published in the literature put out by prominent automobile guide books and northern railroads. As a result of the agitation of the Chamber of Commerce, recent maps issued by these agencies have included Sanford. At the request of the Chamber of Commerce the City Commissioners appointed a Park Commission to supervise the golf course, athletic field, parks and play grounds. Through the efforts of the Chamber of Commerce, the Atlantic Coast Line removed the old box cars which were an eyesore to those traveling from the city to the golf course. Sanford and Seminole County citizens, through letters and other mediums, have been urged by the Chamber of Commerce to patronize home concerns and discontinue the practice of sending money out of town, particularly to mail order houses. Thank to the efforts of the Chamber of Commerce Sanford is well organized against stock salesmen and its investors, as a result, have become impervious to the machinations of those promoting ventures of doubtful integrity. The American Railway Express Company, at the request of the Chamber of Commerce, extended its service to Sanford and is now contemplating a further extension of its service. The Chamber of Commerce went unanimously on record as favoring the proposed constitutional amendment eliminating income and inheritance taxes in Florida. At the suggestion of the educational committee, the Chamber of Commerce assumed the deficit incurred by the High School Athletic Association the previous year. The local Chamber of Commerce was instrumental in securing an appropriation from the County Commissioners to cover the expenses of Seminole County's exhibit at the Orlando Mid-Winter Fair, at which time Seminole County took first prize. The Chamber of Commerce endorsed the efforts of those individuals who organized the Sanford Credit Association. During the past year the Chamber of Commerce has been addressed by a number of prominent men. Notably, Frank E. Jennings, gubernatorial candidate; Walter W. Rose, of Orlando; W. H. Farley, of the National Cash Register Company, who also spoke at a special meeting arranged for the merchants of Sanford; Jos. E. Laing, of "System" magazine; Merle Thorpe, editor of the Nation's Business, and Cornish Bailey, field secretary of the National Rivers and Harbors Congress. Two large membership meetings have been held, one in conjunction with the Kiwanis and Rotary Clubs, and the other a Prosperity Dinner, at which H. T. Bodwell was guest of honor.

The Chamber of Commerce has been represented at a number of state meetings. Notably, the Florida Development Board, waterway meetings, Orlando Flower Show, State Highway Beautification meeting; in fact, at all state meetings of any prominence, the organization has seen to it that Sanford was represented.

It is very apparent that the efforts of the Chamber of Commerce have been instrumental in the development of Sanford. Concrete results are evidenced on every hand, the most forceful being the increase in valuations from $4,000,000 in October, 1920, when the Sanford Chamber of Commerce was organized, to the present figure of approximately $8,000,000. The increase in population during this period is approximately 52 per cent, the 1920 census figures giving Sanford a population of 5,500, and the recent survey made by Consulting Engineer Craig gives Sanford a present approximate population of 8,500.

Respectfully submitted,

R. W. PEARMAN, JR.,

Executive Secretary Sanford Chamber of Commerce.

"The man who, expending his energies wholly on private affairs, refuses to take part in public affairs, pluming himself on his wisdom in minding his own business, is blind to the fact that his own business is made possible only by the prosperity of all. When a man of this caliber dies the newspapers say formally nice things about him because it is customary, but his fellow citizens long previously had prepared an appropriate obituary."

Sanford Chamber of Commerce

In The Herald today there appears a page advertisement of the Sanford Chamber of Commerce...

Sanford has been making rapid strides. It has been steadily and rapidly forging ahead.

Organized in October, 1920, Sanford's Chamber of Commerce has been exerting a great influence in the community.

In his report to the members as published today, Mr. Higgins outlines some of his plans of activity for the coming year.

Concerted action be taken to have the lake front boulevard completed.

Some major league baseball team be brought to Sanford for spring training...

There be a cultivation of a stronger feeling of friendship by Sanford business interests with the other sections of the country.

Sufficient mileage of good roads be constructed to connect other sections with Sanford and open up productive areas.

A municipally owned and operated tourist camp be established.

Sufficient money be spent to properly advertise Sanford's new golf course, and yacht basin.

A better relationship be established between local realtors so that inquiries can be followed up in a more satisfactory way.

Sanford road signs be posted on all highways leading into the state.

The completion of the St. Johns-Indian River Canal project should not be allowed to lag.

Sanford again be represented at Madison Square Garden on the second All-Florida exhibit, scheduled for next February.

These, along with many others, are the plans for the coming year, as suggested by the president.

The Herald feels certain that not only the members of the Sanford Chamber of Commerce, but the citizenry of the entire city are back of the organization which is doing more for the growth and prosperity of the city than any other institution.

Sanford can quickly become the most beautiful and greatest city in Florida.

HIGHWAY BEAUTIFICATION THE PLANT CITY COURIER

There is no proposition before the public of more far reaching importance than the beautification of the highways of the state.

Much has been said in favor of it, many suggestions have been offered, but so far as we can learn there yet remains much to be done before the actual work of applying the beautifying touches can begin.

Whatever is done should be permanent in character. It should be in accordance with a general statewide plan. It should be consistent with correct ideals of the highways of the future.

There are places on many roads which will have to be widened. Indeed, it is an open question whether any of our main thoroughfares have sufficient width of right of way to meet the requirements of the future.

In New Broadcast Role

Wendell Hall, who has entertained radio fans across the nation, is shown here broadcasting his most important speech which went something like this: "I do!" Hall was groom in a radio wedding to Marion Martin, Chicago, the ceremony taking place at Station WEAF, New York. It is estimated that 4,000,000 listened in on the service.

HEARD AT THE CHURCHES

At the Presbyterian Church Dr. Brownlee preached Sunday morning from John 11:40: "Said I not unto thee that if thou wouldst believe, thou shouldst see the glory of God?"

Dr. Brownlee said these words before the tomb of Lazarus, said Dr. Brownlee, "Lazarus had been dead four days and his grief-stricken relatives were confronted with a difficult situation and one calling for bold and courageous faith. No doubt you have hours of wonder whether the gospel is literal truth. And considering the difficulties of the true Christian life, are tempted to ask whether a life is a practical one. Can He live today?"

Dr. Brownlee outlined four major difficulties which he said it seemed to him stand in the way of an implicit faith. He classified them under the heads of "Opposition on the part of man," "Physical difficulties," "Lack of Means" and "Death itself."

He read the third chapter of Exodus, relating the story of God's appearing to Moses in the burning bush, and Moses' conduct thereafter, particularly Moses' objections to attempting what God told him he should do.

Moses faced difficulties on account of the opposition of men. He beheld the glory of God and kept his eyes shut. The job seemed too much for him, so he raised the objections we have noted. Finally the Lord convinced him. And Moses learned, after his subsequent experiences, that if he should believe he should perceive the glory of God.

McLendon Engagement Has Been Announced

Of interest to the many Sanford friends of Miss Anna L. Huff is the announcement of her engagement and approaching marriage to William Chester McLendon, Jr., of Atlanta, Ga.

Miss Huff has visited in this city several times as the guest of her sister, Mrs. B. D. Caswell, and has a host of friends here. The following is an extract taken from the Atlanta Journal concerning Miss Huff and her engagement:

Miss Huff is the second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Burnside Huff, and is the sister of Mrs. Ben Dorsey Caswell, of Sanford, Fla., and of Miss Kathryn Huff.

Miss Huff's maternal grandparents were the late Mr. and Mrs. Sanford Blackwell, of Gainesville, Ga., and she is the great-granddaughter of the late Major Samuel Stephens. On her maternal side she is related to the Blackwell family, prominent throughout Georgia, and also to the distinguished Stephens family of Kentucky. Both Major Stephens and Mr. Blackwell served with distinction in the Confederate army.

On her paternal side she is the granddaughter of the late Judge John Huff, of Duhonoga, Ga.

The bride-elect is of a lovely brunette type and has hosts of friends, owing to her sincere manner and sweetness of character.

Miss Huff attended school at the Girls' High school and was a popular member of the student body.

Mr. McLendon, who is the second son of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. McLendon, is one of the most prominent young men in Atlanta's business and social circles. During the World War he was in the naval service.

His maternal grandparents were the late Mr. and Mrs. James Smith, of South Carolina. Through his great-grandfather he is related to the Bromletts, who settled Greenville, S. C., in the '70s.

His paternal grandparents were the late Captain Isaac A. McLendon, of Civil War fame.

The groom-elect is associated with the building firm of Cromer & Thornton.

The marriage of Miss Huff and Mr. McLendon will be an interesting event of the summer, taking place Wednesday, July 16, at the St. John's Methodist Episcopal church, South.

While in Washington they will be the guests of Mrs. Mero's daughter and Mrs. Mero's mother, Mrs. Oakley. While in Akron they will visit Mrs. W. A. Saloman. They will be away for two months.

Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Carter entertained at a rook party Thursday evening in honor of their niece, Sara Carter, of Callahan, Fla. About 18 guests were present and a most enjoyable evening was spent.

STANDING OF CONTESTANTS MILANE THEATER CONTEST

Thousands of votes are being cast by reading contestants and their friends in the race for the $2,145 in prizes and cash to be awarded on Saturday, June 28th, by the Milane theater to the twelve contestants receiving the highest number of votes.

With each $2.50 book of tickets sold by contestants this week, the purchaser receives $3.00 in tickets and 3,000 votes are allowed; next week only 2,000 votes are allowed on $2.50 books and the last week of the campaign only 1,000 votes, the vote credits decreasing each week hereafter until the close. The pictures of contestants will be shown on the screen in a few days. Many friends of contestants are rallying to the support of their favorites, knowing that the ticket books are good until used. Only those who purchase the ticket books at a saving of 20 per cent are allowed to vote. Both the purchaser and the contestants benefit by the transaction.

The voting promises to be fast and furious from now until the close of the contest, only a little less than three weeks until the winners will receive their reward.

HOW THEY STAND TODAY

Miss Olive Vera Gilson	575,000
Miss Ann Lee	550,000

Business Plots in Coral Gables

Once again the opportunity is offered the shrewd investor to take advantage of an offering of business plots at Coral Gables. While the buy of any kind of Florida real estate is a good investment the buying of business property is considered the best of all by those wise men who trade exclusively in it.

In opening up of the Coral Way section, Part One, Coral Gables offers the same opportunity as when the present business area was put on the market in January, 1923. The present business section contained 1,500 plots and more than 90 per cent have been sold. Better yet, many of them have already changed hands at handsome profits.

The Coral Way section is in the heart of the business zone at Coral Gables. It is bisected by Coral Way, a 120 foot wide paved highway, and is served from the north and south by Ponce de Leon Boulevard, a 100 foot wide paved boulevard. In this new business district a group of fine administration building will be located, the first of which will be erected immediately to house the executive departments of the Coral Gables organization.

Such is the opportunity now offered the shrewd investor. Here profits are assured by the high caliber of the development work and the mightiness of the building program that is to come. The opportunity today is one that comes only at the beginning of big things.

Come to Coral Gables today aboard a de luxe Pullman bus. The trip is free and provides the easiest way of taking advantage of the present opportunity.
