Air Force Reaches 137 Wing Strength

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Air Force has reached a strength of 137 wings—the goal set in the Eisenhower administration's 1953 military "new look" for achievement by June 30, 1957. However, a certain amount of sleight of hand was involved in the 137 wing total counted up Wednesday. The figure includes five units which had not been intended as part of the original wing goal. They are four wings of light C123 assault transports for Army support and one Matador guided missile unit in Germany. On July 1, under the fiscal 1958 budget, the Air Force will begin to cut back to 123 wings. The four light transport and one guided missile units will be submitted for five combat units originally eliminated completely. A wing ranges in number of aircraft from 30 heavy bombers to 75 fighters. The U. S. spent $13 billion for GI Bill of Rights training of World War II veterans.

$41 Million Postal Appropriation Okayed

Increase In Building Permit Fees Approved

Funds To Restore Service

$2,500 Goal Set For Mental Health Bell Ringers Drive

Top News In Brief

WASHINGTON — Senate Democratic Whip Mike Mansfield has charged the Eisenhower Doctrine has smashed the Western alliance in the Middle East. He said the doctrine means the United States now must go it alone in the trouble-ridden area.

WASHINGTON — The Senate Rackets Committee began new hearings today on what it called "a classic example of the use of force and violence... and terror tactics" by union leaders.

WASHINGTON — President Eisenhower's embattled U.S. Information Agency was in double trouble today in both House and Senate. The House took up the USIA's committee-reduced 106 million dollar budget with Republicans leery of trying to restore cuts for fear of opening the door to even deeper slashes. Simultaneously Senate Democratic Whip Mike Mansfield D-Mont. said he not only "thoroughly approved" of the House Appropriations Committee cut, but would be satisfied to see the propaganda agency's fund whittled to a low 55 million dollars. Eisenhower asked for 111 million dollars.

Building permit fees will go up following action by the Board of Sanford City Commissioners last night when they approved the increase of $1 per thousand from the present $2 to $3. City Manager Warren E. Knowles called to the Board of Commissioners attention a memorandum from the Building Inspector, M. A. Yelvington, in the City Manager citing the need for clerical help in his office. Yelvington said in his memo

"The addition of a qualified clerk in this office would enable the Inspection Department to consolidate all of its activities into one unit, thereby relieving the Tax Department of unnecessary interruptions due to making out building permits, and greatly increasing the efficiency of this office."

"The added cost of this clerical help could be fully recovered by bringing our permit fees up and made equal to those of other surrounding communities," said Yelvington. City Manager Knowles explained "Because of our homestead exemptions, service fees are becoming more and more prevalent. However, our fees, all along, in talking with other communities, reveal that our citizens are being treated better than they are elsewhere."

"It isn't a case of raising money," said Knowles, "but in bringing our standards up to those of the surrounding communities." The increase in building permit fees will bring the annual anticipated fees of the Building Inspectors office up to $11,000 from a 1954 income of $7,400 and will

WASHINGTON — The Senate Appropriations Committee approved unanimously today an emergency $41 million dollar appropriation aimed at restoring full postal service.

The action required only 10 minutes and cleared the way for possible Senate passage by night-fall.

Chairman Carl Hayden (D-Ariz) of the appropriations group said he would ask for unanimous consent of the Senate to suspend its rules and take up the emergency appropriation today.

The extra postal funds were included in a 49 million dollar supplemental money bill for several government agencies. Even if it wins Senate approval today, the measure would have to return to the House for an okay of minor amendments written in by the Senate committee.

But there was no assurance the Senate would actually go to work on the bill today. Unanimous consent is required for the Senate to waive its rule that appropriations must "lie over" for three days before the Senate acts on them.

Sumnerfield Stands Pat A single senator could block action. This would delay the bill until Friday and might prevent restoration of full postal service this Saturday. Postmaster General Arthur E. Summerfield has said he will not restore service until the money bill is passed and signed by President Eisenhower.

There is not even any assurance the Senate will meet Friday. It is scheduled to quit for a long Easter recess at the close of business Thursday. It might, however, be held over until Friday if necessary to pass the postal bill.

A goal of $2500 was set for the forthcoming "Bell Ringers Campaign" for Mental Health at the meeting of the Seminole Mental Health Association which was held in the Parish House last night with George Touhy, chairman, presiding.

The campaign, under the direction of Mrs. B. E. Chapman, vice chairman of the association and Mrs. V. C. Messenger, publicity chairman, both members of the pilot Club, sponsor of the association, will get underway on April 28 and last through May 4.

Funds collected by the Bell Ringers will be used to promote research on the prevention and cure of mental illness and to help set up clinics and guidance services in communities throughout the country. Each county retains the major portion of funds collected in their area.

The local association group decided last night to make application for a special consultant or psychiatrist for Seminole County's

SHS Singing Group Entertains Rotary At Weekly Meet

A group of nine seniors and one junior from the Girls' Glee Club of Seminole High School comprising the Triple Trio and its piano accompanist added to the laurels already won by the well known vocalists when they entertained the Sanford Rotary Club at its weekly meeting yesterday afternoon at the Yacht Club.

In keeping with the observance of Holy Week, the assembly made up of Pat Harrington, Kay Jenkins and Diana Weischer, first sopranos; Carol Nutt, Sylvia Price and Lois Baranow as second sopranos and Ann Davis, Juanita Wynne and Iris Causey, alto; offered as the first part of their program, three sacred numbers: "I Walk With God," "The Prayer Parfait" and "The Great Awakening." Following a solo, "The Little Damsel" by Miss Harrington, the group sang "Lullaby of the Leaves," "Rock 'O My Soul" and "Music By the Angels." Miss Nancy Cash served as the accompanist for the singers.

Charlie Morrison, program chairman for the occasion, introduced the group with Miss Harrington announcing the selection sung.

McKibbin Reports $11,167 Collected In Navy Campaign

Seminole County Chamber of Commerce President Clifford McKibbin reported to the Board of Seminole County Commissioners on the progress made by the Armed Forces Committee of the Chamber of Commerce.

McKibbin told the commissioners that "I am representing Andrew Carraway, chairman of the committee. "The Navy needs more land to achieve the goal set by the Navy and we will keep on working toward that end." McKibbin read a report submitted by the Armed Forces Committee.

"We took in $11,167 in the fund drive to keep the Navy in Seminole County," McKibbin reported. Of that amount, he reported, the expenditures were $9,987, which leaves a cash balance of $2,252. "We have a total of $2,285 in unpaid pledges which we will attempt to collect." That, said the Chamber of Commerce President, will leave us with an apparent balance of $4,537.

In addition to the Armed Forces Committee report, McKibbin said that the reports from the Sanford-Titusville Canal hearing were very favorable. "We felt very confident when the hearing was over," he said.

SHS Singers Make Top Showing Friday At State Contest

The Seminole High School Glee Club, at the State Contest in Tampa, Friday won honors all the way through.

Miss Ollie Reese Whittle, director of the Glee Club said "We're quite proud of ourselves."

Miss Pat Harrington won a superior rating for her solo and the Boys Glee Club took all superior ratings.

The Madrigal Singers rated an excellent; Miss Kay Jenkins, an excellent, and the mixed Glee Club came away with both superior and excellent ratings. Chaperones for the one-day contest held in Chamberland High School at Tampa were: Mrs. R. C. Miller, Mrs. John Schirard Jr., Mrs. Byron Smith, Mrs. Walter Price, Mrs. W. P. Yackie, Horth Ansley, Ernest Crowley, and Miss Ollie Reese Whittle the director. There were 92 attending the contest from Seminole High School.

Auto Tax Funds Would Be Used For Streets

City Attorney William C. Hutchison made himself clear about the proposed permit for automobiles in the City of Sanford when he explained the purpose of the move on the part of the city and how the permit would be enforced.

The Board of Sanford City Commissioners last night was told that it is clearly unconstitutional for any municipality to tax or license an automobile. On this point, Attorney Hutchison was emphatic. However, he explained, the move made by the City of Sanford is a tax levied against individuals for the privilege of using the streets. The tax, he said, will be based on the number of automobiles owned within the City limits.

"Money derived from this source," explained the City Attorney, "will be placed in a fund to be used only and solely for the maintenance of streets and for the construction of new streets."

Hutchison said he will go to Tallahassee Wednesday to confer with the Seminole County Delegation and with the Attorney General of the State of Florida on the validity of the action.

Longwood Man Wants To Lease Big Tree Park

M. R. Land, of Longwood, approached the Board of Seminole County Commissioners, regarding the lease of Big Tree Park, which has been up before the board on several occasions.

Land presented a sketch and told the commissioners "This is what I would like to do with it if the Big Tree Park is up for release."

"I have the dump trucks, tractors, and a bulldozer out all of my that fish," he said.

It would take a year to develop this, he explained, as he pointed out on the sketch the various improvements proposed. "I would like to build a restaurant here," he said at one point in his conversation with the Board.

Land was explicit though when he said "I'd like to get a lease long enough to get my money out of it."

Starr Retires After 35 Years With City

Twink Starr, an employee of the City of Sanford for 35 years, and working in the Utility Department of the city retired from active duty with the city because of illness.

The Board of Sanford City Commissioners, last night, granted Starr a pension on his retirement.

Board Is Reminded Of Farmers' Market Hearing Tomorrow

The Board of Sanford City Commissioners was reminded last night that a hearing will be conducted Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock on the Sanford State Farmers' Market.

John Kriker, Manager of the Seminole County Chamber of Commerce, told the commission "Our Farmers' Market is a little more than just a place to sell produce—it is a brokerage house." And he emphasized "millions of dollars are hands out there."

"We need a place to attract buyers from the north—a market with storage space—so we feel that the Wednesday afternoon meeting is one of the most important." (Continued on Page 3)

Controversy Over Purchase Of Street Sweeper Settled

The controversy over the purchase of a street sweeper and bids submitted by two Florida firms for the same type machine was settled at last night's meeting of the Board of Sanford City Commissioners.

One firm withdrew its bid and the sweeper was purchased, on approval of the commissioners, from Florida Equipment Co. for $4,900. However, the board, when requested by City Manager Warren E. Knowles, approved the purchase of spare parts at a cost of $250.

Invitations to bid on gasoline and oils for the City of Sanford were approved by the commissioners.

The Sanford Fire Department was instructed by the Board of Commissioners to secure gas and oil for operation of fire department equipment from the city garage.

The City Manager notified Commissioners that the Housing Authority, after July 1, will not pay the City of Sanford for garbage collection. The notice was delivered to the city by mail. Knowles told the Board of Commissioners that the Housing Authority has been notified that the City of Sanford will not pick up garbage from its area after July 1, unless payment is made for the service.

The Board of Commissioners also took under advisement the use of an air cooling system in the auditorium of the Sanford Civic Center. However, the City Engineer told by the architect, John Benton IV, that the air conditioning of the banquet room would not be affected by the change. The proposed system would result in a saving of approximately $12,000 for the city.

City Begins Action On Terminal Project

The Sanford Docks and Terminal project came before the Board of Sanford City Commissioners last night in a discussion that ended in positive action toward getting the proposed terminal underway as quickly as possible.

Commissioner A. L. Wilson said "I am willing to take any action that might expedite the matter." Commissioner Earl Higginbotham commented "The Boatwick report was a beautiful one but there was no factual information, no figures. It was a panorama of our water front."

"It was said," Higginbotham said "that the City is dragging its feet on this project—and that's not true." Mayor David Gatchel made himself clear that he would "like to go around and talk with some of the operators of municipal docks and terminals."

It was explained that it would be an invaluable aid to learn how some of the other terminals are operated "and I'd like to do that before hiring an engineer," Mayor Gatchel added.

City Manager Warren Knowles was instructed to contact a number of the terminals and make arrangements for the members of the Board of Sanford City Commissioners to discuss with them the problems of operating a Docks and Terminals Project.

Higginbotham added "I'm for anything that will make this town grow on a sound basis."

County 4-H Club Leaders Present Program For Lions

Miss Myrtle Wilson, along with her Seminole County 4-H Club leaders, furnished the program at the regular Lions Club meeting Monday night.

Joe Battles of Oviedo, president of the County 4-H Boys Council, and Mary Anne Tinsky also of Oviedo, president of the girls council, gave talks outlining the work of the 4-H Clubs in this county, stating that we have 13 Clubs and 385 members, 10 adult leaders, and the county agent, Miss Wilson.

Two girls of the Slavia Council gave demonstrations on how to make cookies and cottage cheese. Miss Tinsky and Battles gave several musical numbers on the piano and accordion.

New officers nominated to serve the club for the fiscal year beginning July 1, are W. Hush Duncan, president; H. W. "Buddy" Rawls first vice president; Joe Barnes, second vice president; Clifford Ables, third vice president; Jack K. Morrison, secretary-treasurer; Grady Duncan, Lions tamer; Jack Stemper, tall-twister. Directors include James S. Williams Jr., Ben F. Wade, Edward S. McCall, and Clarence Welsh.

The Club will go back to noon meetings on Tuesday, May 7.

STUPID! A group of doctors in the Midwest... Helen, somewhat excitedly, explained that she had met her train-tried to—and stepped out. The introductions were made—"Helen, my wife—Dr. Mays."

"Of course not. Looks like he'd be a doctor, though. They'll be happy with it. They want a picture of the eminent Dr. Mays. Not one of me! Gad!"

CHAPTER 4
JOHN BLANDIN was as close to being a general practitioner as one is apt to find in the near suburbs of a large city today. So he was a busy doctor. At five that summer-rainy afternoon a half-dozen patients still sat in his waiting room when Helen hurried in to see John.

"I couldn't find him!" said Helen, softly but urgently. "Either he didn't come, or I missed him. You're sure he said Delmar?"

Helen held up the picture so that John might see the neatly mustached gentleman it portrayed. "What," she asked their guest politely, "about a statement for the press? To go with this?"

"Helen, you read the telegram. Chicago train at Delmar." "He didn't come then. I couldn't have missed him. Only one man got off—he was fat, and elderly, and six women met him. Three of them called him 'Papa.' The photographers and reporters didn't think he was Dr. Mays, either."

"I'll give a statement to the press later," he was telling John. "I like to pick my own time—also I'd like to know a little about what I'm supposed to talk about."

"The point is," he said, turning to face his hosts, "I don't want to face his hosts. I don't want the work I hope to do here identified with me. My name, perhaps. But I, in person, want to be completely free to operate—to circulate—to navigate."

He was bare-headed, but otherwise the young man who accompanied John across the stretch of rain-dark gravel seemed well dressed. He wore a dark blue woolen suit, a striped tie, and carried two bags. He was a good six inches taller than John, and tilted his red-bronze head downward to talk to him as they approached.

"There's no bigger help to a snoper," Chad Mays assured him, seriously. "You really mean that about anonymity, don't you?" John asked.

'Tight Money' Situation Easing In Some Places

By ROBERT F. COLL
WASHINGTON, (AP)—There are increasing signs throughout the nation that lending institutions are loosening their purse strings a little on home mortgage money.

But the "tight money" situation apparently still has the man with the modest income checked off from obtaining a mortgage.

Essentially the problem of obtaining a mortgage in today's strict market narrows down to how much you can pay for a home—the more you spend the easier your mortgage problems.

The man in the middle is the modest income buyer, who is not likely to feel any softness in the mortgage market until the end of this year or early in 1935.

Price Range
In addition to the price range of the buyer, there are certain specific conditions in scattered localities across the nation that have kept mortgage money circulating even through the height of the credit squeeze.

As usual, the hardest areas in which to obtain mortgages are the South and the West. The easiest remains the northeast.

Perhaps the biggest factor in the slight easing in the mortgage market in some areas is the recent attitude of businessmen toward borrowing.

There is ample evidence that business has put on the brakes in borrowing, partly due to spiraling interest rates. Some businessmen probably have heard so much talk of tight money that they simply have not sought loans.

Whatever the cause of the waning enthusiasm, it cannot be pinned on any slowdown in the booming economy over the first three months of the year.

Economy Booming
Commerce Secretary Smeal Weeks reported recently that business activity climbed to a new high during the quarter, although he did single out housing as a weak spot in an otherwise rosy picture.

The main indications of easing in home buying credit are shrinking discount rates in some areas and a growing supply of money to lend in banks and similar institutions.

Discounts—sometimes called points—normally are arranged through the builder. He will ask a bank to handle a mortgage for a prospective buyer.

If the lender agrees, it can charge a discount rate based on a percentage of the original loan. It then receives its normal interest rate on the remainder until the loan is paid off.

When this leveling off will benefit the prospective home buyer is a matter of speculation. But barring a reversal of present economic conditions, an easing should be felt by the end of this year.

The buyer assumes the mortgage of $9,500 on which he pays his normal rate of interest for 20 years, or whatever the length of the mortgage.

When this leveling off will benefit the prospective home buyer is a matter of speculation. But barring a reversal of present economic conditions, an easing should be felt by the end of this year.

Homemaking Dept. Gives Fashion Show

The Crooms Academy Auditorium was the setting recently for a record crowd who attended the Ninth annual Homemaking Fashion Show presented by the Homemaking Department.

The theme of this affair was "Dealing in Fashion" and the group showed the latest fabric and styles. The theme was carried out in the stage decorations, programs and script.

The fashions modeled by the girls were made during the school year. Those models were school, street, and formal dresses, suits, pajamas, separates skirts and blouses, and dainty aprons.

The sponsors of this program were Mrs. Juanita Gilmore and Miss Betty J. Thomas.

John Burton IV, local architect, explained to the Board of Sanford City Commissioners that "The market in Raleigh, N. C. has been pointed out as the type of market we should have here."
"It is a tremendous U-shaped concrete and steel market erected in such a way that mechanical fork lifts can move produce from one truck to another from the platform."

Commissioner Earl Higginbotham told the Board of Commissioners that he would see Nathan Mayo personally on his trip to Tallahassee Wednesday.
Kriker explained "We, the leaders of the community, should be the ones to tell Mr. Mayo what we want here."

"And that's exactly what I will tell the Agriculture Commissioner," said Higginbotham, "for the market would be of untold value to this community."
The Board of City Commissioners will be held Wednesday afternoon when, along with the commissioners, Chamber of Commerce representatives, county commissioners, dealers and brokers on the Sanford State Farmers Market and other interested citizens will meet with Lee Thompson, Administrative Assistant to Nathan Mayo, to talk over the proposed rebuilding of the farmer's market.

mentally ill patients, Sidney Ives, III, was appointed as chairman of a committee to investigate the possibilities of securing such a consultant for this county, with expenses of the consultant to be paid from the local campaign funds.
Mrs. Ives announced that the Woman's Club, which has the improvement of Mental Health as one of its projects this year, has promised its support in the Bell Ringers campaign, by pledging all proceeds of its annual card party to be held on Apr. 23 at the club toward the campaign. Mrs. B. H. Crumley is chairman in charge of arrangements for the party.

Mrs. Chapman stated that the Florida State Bank and the Sanford Atlantic Bank will enclose literature on Mental Health in their statements that go out the last of April in order to publicize the program on Mental Health and the Bell Ringers campaign.

Touhy outlined the Florida Association's legislative program which includes a wide expansion program for the existing institutions; the building of new ones; creation of correctional institutions for retarded children; a School Guidance program; and better salaries for the workers in institutions. He commended the Sanford representatives in Tallahassee for their definite stand on improved conditions for Florida's mentally ill.

Mrs. A. R. Key reported that the following books have been placed in the local library:
"The Mentally Ill in America" by Albert Deutsch; "Mental Health Planning for Social Action" by George S. Stevenson, M.D., Sc.D.; "A Mind That Found Itself," an autobiography by Clifford W. Beers, and "The Human Mind" by Karl A. Menninger, M. D. Mrs. C. L. Park Sr. was chairman of the committee to select the books.
A film on Mental Health was shown following the meeting.

Four Confirmed At Lutheran Church Sunday

Four youths of the Lutheran Church of The Redeemer were confirmed at Palm Sunday services.

Miss Beverly Rumber, Roger Hodges, Glen Hodges, and Larry Palmer received their confirmation certificates, following the ceremony, from the Rev. Phillip Schlessmann.

Mark Rumber, brother of one of the confirmants, received a gold embossed Bible for "marked progress" in the catechetical class studying the tenets and doctrines of the church.

Rev. Schlessmann announced Sunday that Miss Fina D'Abbat has been appointed choir director for the local Lutheran church. Miss D'Abbat's solo Sunday was "I Walked Where Jesus Walked" by O'Hara.
The new confirmants of the Lutheran Church of The Redeemer will celebrate their first Holy Communion at Maunday Thursday services to be held at the church Thursday evening at 7:30 p. m.

An Easter Egg Hunt will be held for the children of the church and their friends on Saturday afternoon at 2 p. m. in Fort McMillan Park.

Schmidt To Speak Apr. 20 At 7th-Day Adventist Church

Pastor H. H. Schmidt, newly elected president of the Florida Conference of Seventh-day Adventists, will be guest speaker at the Seventh-day Adventist church Saturday.

Addressing the 11 o'clock hour, Pastor Schmidt will urge the members to a deeper consecration to God, says A. C. McClure, local pastor.
The speaker has recently been elected as president of the Florida Conference of Seventh-day Adventists with headquarters in Orlando. He is director of the work in more than 60 churches throughout Florida as well as local board chairman of the Florida Sanitarium and Hospital in Orlando, Forsyth Memorial Sanitarium and Hospital in Tallahassee, and Walker Memorial Sanitarium and Hospital in Avon Park. He also serves as chairman of the board of Forest Lake Academy here in Seminole County.
The purpose of the speaker's visit is to address the combined services of the Sanford and DeLand Seventh-day Adventist churches who will gather Saturday for a day of special prayer and consecration. Services will begin at 9:30 a. m. and last throughout the day. The entire day's services will be open to the public.

Church Candlelight Communion Service Slated Thursday

The annual candlelight Communion service of the First Christian Church will be held Thursday, 7:30 p. m., in observance of the anniversary of the institution of the Lord's Supper by Christ on the night of his betrayal.

The service will begin with soft wester music played by Mrs. N. V. Farmer, organist. The choir will sing an anthem, "In the Garden with Jesus" (Lorenz). Pastor Perry L. Stone will deliver a Communion meditation. As Communion poems are read, Brenda Elliott, Diane Baty and Beverly Evans will light the candles. Elders will officiate with the minister at the Lord's Table. Communicants will come forward in groups of seven to partake of the Loaf and the Cup. The service will last an hour. The public is invited. Open Communion is practiced.

At the annual union Good Friday service to be held at the First Presbyterian Church on the 19th from noon till 3 o'clock, Pastor Stone will conduct their third 25 minute period.

A dozen new children's chairs for the annex were purchased last week, Mrs. W. H. Young, department superintendent reported today. The total attendance of the school Sunday was 10 higher than last Easter. One class, for lack of a room, meets in the parsonage. Chandler Vail, church property committee chairman, announced today that cypress material has been secured to pane the rear of the annex to match the ceiling. The installation is to be made this week.

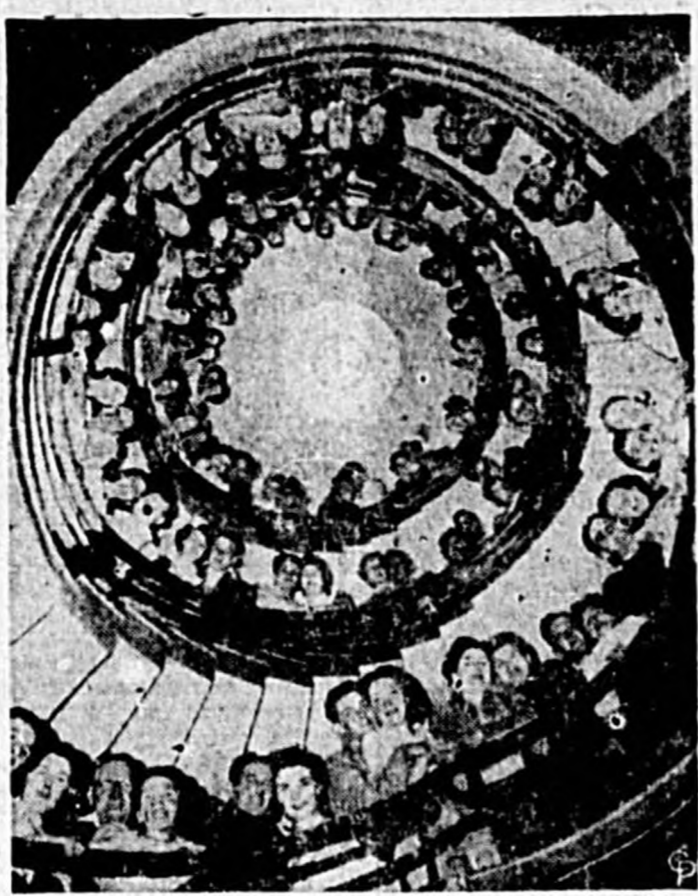

Following two nights of calling the previous week Decision Day was observed Sunday with a gratifying ingathering of new members. It is said, Baptismal services are scheduled for Good Friday and Easter at 7:30 p. m.

Commission Gives Okay For Rezoning Of 3 Local Areas

Three areas in Sanford were approved for rezoning at last night's meeting of the Board of Sanford City Commissioners. Two of the areas were changed from R-1 one to R-2. Another was rezoned from R1AA to R-2.
Rezoning of the three areas includes the section bounded on the south by Second St.; on the east by Mellenville Ave.; on the north by Seminole Blvd. and on the west by the present R-2 zone east of San Carlos Ave.
The rezoned section includes Seminole Memorial Hospital and Radio Station WTRR. R-2 zoning allows multiple unit buildings to be constructed.

City Attorney William C. Hutchison was authorized to draw up the ordinance for the rezoned area for presentation at the next meeting of the Board of Sanford City Commissioners.

Now Time To Start Considering Other Important County Projects

The statement "A new Sanford has been created" came out of the announcement last Friday when word of the United States Navy decision to expand Sanford's Naval Air Station reached Sanford.

In view of the vast number of projects and improvements ahead for both the City of Sanford and Seminole County, the comment by one of Sanford's City Commissioners became an important one.

John Krider, Manager of the Seminole County Chamber of Commerce and a member of the Seminole County Board of Commissioners, made a statement after all the hub-bub and excitement had died down. He said "We have found out what concentrated action will do. From here, we have such projects as the Docks and Terminals, the Causeway, and other projects, including the Sanford-Titusville Canal ahead of us.

"The main thing I've gotten out of the 'keep the Naval Air Station in Seminole County' effort is, we can go just as far as we want to in Sanford and Seminole County. We did not realize our own strength as we pulled together. There's nothing we can't accomplish with harmony and concerted effort."

Therein was the "new Sanford" was created.

It was a lesson of strength and cooperation, of pulling together, of one effort for everyone to benefit everybody.

Mayor David Gatchel, who took a prominent part in staging the "Jaycee Navy Appreciation Day" remarked "It's the only time in the history of Sanford that anything like that has been done. It proves to me that the people of Sanford and Seminole County are willing to get up and 'kick their heels' for something they want to do. There are numerous things that entered into the decision—but most prominently was the effort on the part of our delegation in Washington."

There was another side to the decision, according to the Mayor, when he said "I don't think we can minimize the effort that the resolutions and letters had on the Washington delegation."

"I also think that the Navy was sort of astounded by the good will they have here in Sanford and Seminole County, particularly in view of last summer's plane crash incident. The people of the community went on to display their friendly attitude toward the Navy."

The people themselves were surprised at

Soviet Russia seems to be more worried than any Western country over Great Britain's revolutionary new armaments policy.

Prime Minister Harold Macmillan's announcement that Britain's defense system would be put on a nuclear age basis, with a consequent drastic cut in the armed forces, came as a shock to military experts of the North Atlantic Treaty Organization countries.

Fear was expressed that the foundation of NATO's primary objective might be weakened fatally. This objective is to provide a defensive screen of armies and air forces sufficient to slow up a mass Russian attack on Western Europe.

Only Greece Op's
The fear has subsided somewhat. There seems to be a growing feeling that Macmillan took the only course open to him, considering the necessity for sharp reduction in government spending.

But Soviet Russian fear seems to be intensifying.

The chief reason seems to be the realization of the threat that nuclear weapons bases in NATO countries would present to Russia if World War III broke out.

Russia's fear is being shown by an incessant stream of warnings broadcast to NATO countries that they would face destruction if they permitted their territory to be used for nuclear weapons bases.

Specific warnings have been broadcast to Norway, Denmark, the Netherlands, West Germany and Turkey. A broadcast in Greek warned that Cyprus might be involved in a general catastrophe.

Broadcasts in Spanish, though they have not mentioned Spain, have warned of this danger to Spain, though not a member of NATO, is the site of important American bases.

Neutral Sweden Included
Even Sweden, which is not a NATO member and preserves neutrality, has been accused of departing from its neutral course and permitting its "reactionary circles" to spy against Russia.

That Russia could devastate countries of Western Europe there is no doubt. But Soviet leaders know that Russia would suffer catastrophic attacks itself from Allied bases, extending from Western Europe to Turkey, which are within easy range of vital targets in the Soviet Union.

Too Late To Classify

By RUSSELL KAY
One evening, while with a friend, we noticed a red sky that indicated a fire of some magnitude. As we journeyed along it appeared the fire was becoming more intense. As we knew the area housed several industrial establishments as well as homes we speeded up to learn if we could what was burning.

A few miles ahead we found that it was a roaring forest fire. Burning embers revealed its path where many acres of forest had been destroyed.

My friend and I were both unhappy, but for different reasons. In disgust, he exclaimed, "Aw, it's nothing but a forest fire, I thought it was a real fire."

From his viewpoint, a forest fire was of little consequence, certainly nothing to get excited about. His attitude reminded me of the old gag about the two fellows who were crossing the ocean on a liner. A fire broke out on the ship. A warning to the passengers was sounded and all was confusion.

One fellow turned to the other and screamed, "The ship is on fire!" The other calmly replied, "What do we care, we don't own it."

Unfortunately, a fire that destroys a fine forest is more tragic and costly than most fires that destroy homes or buildings. A forest fire destroys hundreds of homes before they are built and while a home or building can be replaced in a short time it takes years to grow trees to replace those lost.

Like the chap who wasn't alarmed because "the devil's own products" the person who sees no personal concern over a forest fire has lost sense of values and doesn't stop to think what that fire is doing to him and his interests.

It is destroying millions of dollars worth of valuable resources and means that he and his children will pay more for forest products and the thousands and one things that depend upon the forest for raw material.

If all the things that could have been made from the burned trees could be stacked in a pile in the form of manufactured products it would be too staggering for the mind to conceive.

In the pile would be beautiful homes, buildings, boats, shipping and packing crates, paper products of every sort, plastics, chemicals, almost anything you might name found in common every day use.

In Florida millions and millions of dollars worth of valuable timber is destroyed each year as a result of carelessness and incendiary activity. Records show that only about 5 per cent of our wood fires are caused by lightning, the other 95 per cent are man caused.

Look Ahead At Top World News

By CHARLES M. McCANN
United Press Staff Correspondent

United Press correspondents around the world look ahead at the news that will make the headlines.

Rackets
A lot of Republicans in Washington hope the Senate Rackets Committee will move on to unions and union leaders identified with the Democrats. So far the committee's major target has been Dave Beck and his Teamsters Union. Beck is an Eisenhower supporter, though some others in the Teamsters' high command have supported Democrats. The Carpenters Union, involved in the committee's spade work, often has backed the GOP.

Air Battle
A congressional battle is in prospect over President Eisenhower's proposed board to modernize the skyways—to increase air travel safety by working out a system of traffic control. Some lawmakers say that a board composed of Defense and Commerce Department representatives, plus an independent chairman, would magnify, not solve differences between military and civil aviation officials over use of air space.

Swamp
Don't laugh off the stories from London of revived interest in a tunnel under the English Channel between England and France. The plan for a channel tunnel has been kicking around for a century. But this time Britain and France are showing serious interest in it. It would be a jointly-financed project. As planned, it would be for railroad and not automobile traffic.

Break-Up?
The United Nations Emergency Forces on the border between Egypt and Israel may start to come apart soon. Finland is likely to decide this week whether to keep its troops in the UNEF—it is thinking of pulling them out because the U. N. is not helping to pay the cost of maintaining them. If Finland withdraws its troops, other countries like Sweden, Norway and possibly Canada may do so.

Tests
The United States will not support any charges that Russia has added dangerously to the world's burden of radioactivity by its recent tests of nuclear weapons. The official view in Washington is that atomic tests, Russia's included, could go on indefinitely on the present scale without noticeably harming human beings.

Retail Food Prices Increase

BERNARD BRENNER
United Press Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON—Congressional investigators have drafted a report showing that retail food prices increased 16 per cent in the last decade while prices paid farmers for the same items fell 14 per cent.

The report—not yet made public—was prepared by the newly-created consumer study subcommittee of the House Agriculture Committee.

Subcommittee Chairman Victor L. Anderson D-N. Y. said that it will be the basis for a new round of investigations of food industry prices.

The group's first report, it was learned, will say that the annual food costs of the average city family rose from $1,000 in 1947 to $1,500 in 1956.

Of the $500 increase, farmers received $45 or about 9 per cent, the report adds. Food processors, handlers, retailers and other marketing agencies got $400, or about 80 per cent. The remaining $53 went for imported foods and fish. The increase in marketing charges was attributed to two factors—new services for consumers in the form of more prepared and frozen foods and higher marketing costs.

The report did not "evaluate the factors which have increased retail costs." Nor did it go into "related market activities such as the use of trading stamps, corporation mergers" and other recent food industry developments. Other highlights of the report:

Retail prices of cereals and bakery products rose 34 per cent between 1947 and 1956 while farm wheat prices dropped 7 per cent.

Farm prices of milk are off 16 per cent from their 1952 peak while retail prices of dairy products are down only 3 per cent.

Meat prices on the farm fell 20 per cent from 1947-56 while retail prices fell 5 per cent.

Despite the rise in family food spending, the average city family last year spent about 32-34 per cent of its after-tax income for food—about the same as 10 years earlier. Rising wages apparently kept pace with the rise in food costs and a trend toward more expensive foods.

It is a shame that more people did not come to the Garden Show at the Mayfair Inn Saturday and Sunday. All those who participated did a tremendous job, and while it was not wasted on the garden lovers who came, still many more should have enjoyed the beautiful arrangements and exhibits. We are particularly proud of the navy girls, most of whom have only just started in artistic arrangements. Johnny Elam, Betty Guy, Lil Gray, Jean Stetson, and Marge Hill, all distinguished themselves. In my opinion, the Mayfair Inn lobby and ballroom were a veritable wonderland of beautiful flowers—some by our excellent flower shops. In the ballroom the Carnival of Flowers itself was breath taking, as the ferris wheel went round and round bearing various colorful arrangements. Do not have the time to describe it all, but you have already heard the details I am sure. Congratulations to the Garden Club for their really excellent show.

I am so far behind on my reviews, but with the children's program coming up in June, I've had 200 new books to process. And that's a lot of books. But I'll pick out a few good adult books to tell you about, and give you a few bulletins on new books. "Strange Enchantment", by Geoffrey Cotterell is the story of Isabel Rowland's career as a concert pianist. In her early years, her brother's education, the burden of supporting her mother, interfered with Isabel's studies. When a successful recital in London promised a new career, her untimely marriage brought her to a life of drudgery in Berlin. And this was Hitler's Germany that Isabel fought her final triumph, "Fire Mission", by William McWhittell is the story of an American artillery battery during the last few weeks of the great Battle of the Bulge. The monotony, humor and terror of a soldier's life play important parts in the novel, yet the men are not bitter and disillusioned, but intensely loyal to their outfit, adapted to the disciplines of Army life, and believe in the cause for which they are fighting.

Think the typewriter is licked for the time being. The golfers have returned from their week in Naples. Louise Parker, Myrtle Adams, Jo Symes, Ellen Betts, and Helen Carraway all brought home some loot. It seems that a good time was had by all and the tanned faces and smiling arms are evidence that the sun shone in Naples nearly all the time. There were four first rate tourists in the crowd who took twelve hours to get down there and nearly as long to get back.

"Manhunt" by Donald MacKenzie is the frightening story of Paul Gregory and the dragnet a city cast for him. Gregory is first encountered as he plans and executes a daring escape from London's Wandsworth prison. From these first thrilling moments the pace quickens steadily.

They stopped at Weekiwahe Springs, the Shell factory, and heaven only knows where else. Keen Ivey and Louise Parker locked themselves out of their room while clad only pajamas, cold cream and baby pins. Jeanne Fouk had an unfortunate experience with a boy on a bicycle, but all these things lumped together to make those left behind sorry they did not go, and a little unhappy that we are having the tournament here next year, and will have to work instead of playing.

"The Fall" by Albert Camus has as its subject the conscience of modern man in the face of evil. The narrator is a former Parisian lawyer, a pioneer of novel causes who felt secure in his self-esteem, privately a libertine, yet apparently immune to judgement, the portrait of a modern man. His down fall comes in his intense discovery, in one terrible instant, that no man is innocent and that no man therefore may judge others from a standpoint of righteousness. The book is translated from the French and the author is compared to Thomas Mann in that he is Europe's greatest living writer.

Mayfair Mabel and Heroic Helen invited the Country Club clan to cocktails and dinner Sunday night, and what a superb party it was! Helen has the most wonderful Japanese ferns of all styles, and these bright fish rosettes, rabbits and other manner of animals etc., illuminated the garden while a multitude of guests enjoyed the delicious buffet dinner under the orange trees. Among the many seen at this party were Helen and Andy Carraway, Cliff and Jane McKibbin, Katherine and Charles Park, Barbie and Jack Morrison, Bob and Katie Jackson, Lucille and Price Heard, W. K. and Fanchon McRoberts, Tom Blackburn and Gretchen Hall, Jo and Roy Symes, Carl Hubbel, and many, many others, and have to stop now, since I have a little navy news about the VAHS bridge party at Joyce Baker's last Friday. Present at that function were Jean Dooley, Hazel Rowell, Betty McCracken, Tress Michel, Barbara Jacobsen, Millie Donaud, Betty Linker, Marge Hill, Mike Stone, Lois Elder, and Ethel Fitzsimmons.

"Wapshot Chronicle", by John Cheever is a story of a lively family and their way of life. Leander Wapshot, son of a distinguished Massachusetts family felt a duty to transmit to his sons the best of their heritage; his own "saradonic, bawdy, loving delight in the excellence and continuousness of things", living in Cousin Honora's house, there was a certain amount of feminine blackmail to contend with, and Leander's sons, Moses and Coverley, went far afield in search of fortune to a top-secret job in Washington, a Pacific Island, a rocket-launching station, a feudal castle-carrying with them Leander's legacy of rich and robust living.

"Jane", by Phyllis Bottome is the story of a 15 year old girl being brought up in a life of crime in London. Jane's tutor in the criminal life, George, had big things planned for her, but a bungled cat burglary landed her in a reformatory where her first taste of security and friendly understanding gave her a new outlook on life and morality.

"Highbright" by Lettie Rogers (April Literary Guild) is a novel about the leading families of a wealthy Southern town, and how their town is turned into a storm center by a young schoolteacher who defies it on the issue of segregation.

Eggs, Beef Make Headlines Says Miss Myrtie Wilson

Each Month, certain foods make the plentiful news... for April, beef and eggs are headlines from the Department of Agriculture. Lunch and supper features for the all-time breakfast favorite... in casseroles and custards to salads and sandwiches. Eggs are a good buy right now; and the latest nutrition by-line is two or more servings of the meat group daily... and eggs and beef are both charter members.

When you shop for eggs and beef, let the U. S. Government inspection and grading stamps help you get the best of these protein-packed foods. Look for egg boxes with the letters "U.S. DA" on the grade labels.
(AA for top quality, A, B, and C). Federally inspected beef has a round purple U.S. inspection stamp for wholesomeness. A grade shield, saying USDA prime, choice, good, standard, commercial, or utility is on grading leaf.

Storing your well-selected eggs and beef at home is no problem. Keep your eggs clean, covered and cool in refrigerator. Fresh beef should be stored loosely covered in the coldest part of the refrigerator and used within a few days. Frozen beef is best thawed slowly on the refrigerator shelf. Otherwise, count on about twice as long as unthawed roasts.

Beef and eggs, like all protein foods, are low-fat and low-calorie when cooked slowly. Cook eggs at low to moderate, even heat—for example, the soft-boiled egg by the soft-cooked variety, simmered gently three to five minutes at about 225 degrees (twice fat slide up so it will be self-basting).
Another plentiful protein food is turkey. It's a versatile meat, and to tempt your ingenuity, there are especially good buys in the larger sizes. No turkey or beef dinner is complete without potatoes—and there's a peak now with the old crop here and the new are coming in. They are delicious baked, boiled, and cooking with the skins on makes the most of those vitamins.
Canned sweet corn and rice give a substance and variety to the

Rock'n Roll Party Shocks Royal Subjects

LONDON — The Queen's cousin and 100 other cool cats took a rock 'n' roll party underground Thursday night and handed London's subway system the zaniest shock in its history.
The party bought tickets and rode the entire length of the subway route circling the city's center. The train rolled while a jazz band rocked and white-coated waiters served cocktails.
A young Cambridge graduate named Jonathan Routh threw the party. Routh, who calls himself "the king of practical jokers," said the wild rite was to find out how well the subway officials knew their regulations.
"I have spent hours standing on platforms studying the bylaws and I found out I could get away with the party," Routh said.
So the party of 100 including the jazz-loving Gerald Lascelles, cousin of Queen Elizabeth, gathered at Charing Cross station, presented their tickets and boarded a "circle line" train.
One cat unlimbered a guitar, another rolled a beat on a snare drum. A third ran his fingers over the keys of a miniature piano. And a movie started took off her shoes and did a tight-skirted rock and roll beneath the swinging subway straps.
Mrs. Scallop or in casseroles and chowders, corn is meatless magic for Lent and rice simplifies main dishes—curried beef or turkey on rice are proof of that.
Look for dried prunes, peanuts, and peanut butter on your grocery shelf. They're in good supply and make nutritious, interesting snacks as well as fancy salads and desserts. Their cook-book fun for you with milk and dairy products plentiful. Peanut-prune and cottage cheese salad, spiced prune cake, peanut butter cookies served with ice-cold milk are just a beginning.
Stretch your imagination with these market varieties—the sky's the limit. And anyway you suit them to your own taste and pocketbook there's happy eating ahead—because you're following the Plentiful Food signs of the Department of Agriculture.

Bible Class Meet In Rocky Home

The Women's Bible Class of the First Baptist Church met Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. E. S. Rocky. Group number six was in charge.
The meeting was opened with the devotional by Mrs. J. B. Fields on "An Easter Message", followed by prayer, Mrs. B. F. McWhorter was in charge of the business session. Routine reports were heard and then each member told what Easter meant to her.
Mrs. Bolz gave the benediction. Refreshments were served to Mrs. B. F. McWhorter, Mrs. C. E. Hawke, Mrs. J. L. Aliman, Mrs. R. ## Seminoles Roll To 92-29 Win Over Tavares

The Sanford Seminoles thrashed Tavares to another clean sweep yesterday afternoon as they rolled to a 92-29 victory over Tavares in a dual track meet on the cinders behind Seminole High School.

But the high-flying speedsters wasted little time in readying for the tri-school meet Wednesday afternoon that will be the real test of their fantastic improvement when they travel to Leesburg to face the aggressive Yellow Jackets and the once victorious DeLand Bulldogs.

Another previous school track record fell by the wayside and was rewritten yesterday afternoon by the warrior sprinters as Ronnie Giles, Meredith Scott, Dickie Rountree, and Murray Nance teamed to blaze off the mile relay in three minutes, 53 seconds.

The Seminoles won 10 out of 13 of the individual events and all three relays as they neared the 100 point mark for the second time within 10 days.

Time for everything but the mile relay was considered a little slow by track mentor Fred Ganas, but he considered a strong wind responsible for some of the hold-back.

This morning Ganas said, "Wednesday afternoon will be our real test of strength. If we can show a substantial improvement against Leesburg and DeLand we will be on more than solid footing. We even stand a good chance of winning the event."

The tri-school event begins at 4 p. m. Wednesday in Leesburg. High Hurdles: Little (S), Smith (T), Mosley (T)—time—1:55. 100 Yd. Dash: Nance (S), Wroble (T)—time—1:19.5.

100 Yd. Dash: Nance (S), Wroble (T)—time—1:11.4.

200 Yd. Relay: Rountree, D. Stanley, Collins, Mathieux—time—1:41.

Mile Run: Duak (T) Hold (S), Middleton (S)—time—5:32.

440 Yd. Run: Nance (S), Marsh (T)—time—5:41.

180 Yd. Low Hurdles: Byrd (S), Little (S), Mosley (T)—time—2:4.

880 Yd. Run: McVay (T), McCoy (S), Austin (T).

Sprint Medley Relay: Sanford, Byrd, Mathieux, Henson, D. Stanley—time—2:19.2.

220 Yd. Dash: Byrd and Collins (S) dead heat Wroble (T)—time—28.8.

Mile Relay: Sanford (Giles, Scott, Rountree, Nance)—time—3:53.

Shot Put: Giles (S), Purcell (T), Scott (S)—distance—42'.

Discus Throw: Giles (S), Scott (S), Little (S)—distance—118'.

Broad Jump: Nance (S), Collins (S), Byrd (S)—distance—19'8".

Pole Vault: Mathieux and Phagan (S) tie, McKibbin (S)—height—9'6".

High Jump—Nance (S), Hall (T), Byrd (S)—height—5'3".

Today's Sport Parade

By OSCAR FRALEY
NEW YORK — Where would they be today if it wasn't for sports?

You get a lot of surprising answers when you ask that question of the guys who are household and headline names. They're all glad, too, that the breaks came the way they did.

The possibilities range all the way from plumber to president.

"I," says Chuck Dressen, manager of the Washington Senators, "might have been yardmaster by now in the freight yards at Decatur, Ill. I started as a switchman and was a foreman when I started playing ball."

Once A Crooner
Mova ovar, Sinatra and Combs. Because Claude Harmon, the former masters champion of golf, had his eye set on being a crooner. Claud actually toured with a band as a singer in his late teens and "had a hard time making up my mind whether to be a pro golfer."

Ray Robinson, the former middleweight champion who tries to regain the title from Gene Fullmer next month, knows without doubt that he would have been a dancer—which he was just before making his current comeback.

Jimmy Thompson, once famed as the longest hitter in golf, allows that he would have been a professional soccer player in Scotland if it hadn't been that his father led him into the fairway sport.

This Speaker, the Hall of Fame outfielder, figures he's "probably be climbing telephone poles in Hillsboro, Tex. — which is what I did as a kid."

Brothers Make Cleats
"My two brothers graduated from high school and went to work in a cigar factory in Tampa," says Al Lopez, manager of the Chicago White Sox. "Maybe that's what I'd have done."

Tony Cuccinello, the White Sox coach, started out as a plumber's helper on Long Island.

Billy Judges, the former big league shortstop, would have filled the "president" category, he's certain.

"The fellow I worked with is president of that bank now," he grins.

But none of them would do it any differently now. On that you can lay odds.

Powell's Cinches 2nd Half Bowling League Crown

Powell's Office Supply clinched the second half crown of the Mixed Bowling League last week even though they only won one of three games.

The one win was enough to run their record to 29 wins against 13 losses, five games ahead of second place Sanford Bowling Alley.

Weibolt Camera Shop and Seminole Dry Cleaners have been the upstart teams of the closing sessions of bowling for the Mixed League. Weibolt upset Powell's for two wins last week, giving them 15 wins and 27 losses and a firm hold on fourth place in the league.

The Seminoles are now in third place in the conference with three wins and two losses. They have been tied on two occasions by rain.

"The two games we were rained out will work a disadvantage for us," Laude said. "It means we'll have a heavy schedule the last week of the season before the sub-district tournament."

As regards the sub-district tournament, Laude said this morning that if his team could go the rest of the season without a defeat, "Look out, State, here we come!"

Game time is 8 p. m. tonight in Memorial Stadium.

Experienced Ball Players Few, Far Behind On Mobile

MOBILE, Ala. — If Manager Don Heffner keeps the Mobile Bears in the Southern Association's first division against this season, he'll also make a couple of fine major league prospects from the Cleveland Indians.

Heffner, starting his first year at the helm of the Bears, will have to make or break the season by making or breaking rookies because experienced ball players are few and far behind on the Mobile squad.

The Bears, making their second start since switching from the Brooklyn farm system to the Cleveland chain, have some promising baseball players, but most are up from Keokuk, Iowa, in the Class B Three I League; Fayetteville, N.C., in the Class B Carolina League and Reading, Pa., in the Class A Eastern League.

The pitching situation typifies Heffner's dilemma. Gary Bell, who won 14 for Heffner's Reading team last season, is a "fine big league prospect," according to the club's manager, but he's untried.

It's the same story with Larry Drasen and Wynn Hawkins, two young righthanders up from Fayetteville and lefthanders Italy Seard and Ernie Craumer, up from Keokuk.

From the rookies will have to come at least one man big enough to fill the shoes of Gene Lary, the league's most valuable player last year. Lary won 19 games in leading the Bears to their second straight first division finish.

Rookie pitchers work best with veteran catchers, but the Mobile first year men will have to work with green receivers. Frank Bliskup, up from Reading, will probably be the No. 1 backstop with Al Berber from Keokuk furnishing the relief.

Infield Experienced
In the infield, Mobile will have a little more experience. Chis Kitos is back at short and Stowe Jankowski is ready for duty again at second.

Jack Blamer, a slugging third baseman just out of the service, will hold down the hot corner. First base is still a question mark, with Heffner hoping for a last minute windfall.

Two returning service men, Les Mattinson, who played with Indianapolis in 1954 and will go to the outfield with holdovers Jack Waters, a 272 hitter, and the veteran Ralph Row.

"We'll be fast and full of ambition," said Heffner, "and we might surprise some people.

"But we would have to be fortunate, very fortunate indeed, to better our first division finish of last year."

McMurry To Start For SHS Tonight

Seminole baseball coach Dave Laude revealed this morning that Eddie Barbour was far from condition to start tonight's important game with Leesburg. Laude said that Barbour's arm was "too sore to throw three innings at full speed."

Ken McMurry, the steady Seminole hurler with a highly effective dinky curve will be called on for mound duty in Barbour's place.

Laude said that if Barbour was given a clean bill by doctors this afternoon, he would probably reshuffle the lineup and put Barbour as catcher.

According to Laude, every game from here on in to the end of the season was vital for the Seminoles hopes of breaking into the Orange Belt Conference with a big bang.

"We have the stuff to win this conference," Laude said, "but we tend to take long layoffs badly."

The Seminoles are now in third place in the conference with three wins and two losses. They have been tied on two occasions by rain.

"The two games we were rained out will work a disadvantage for us," Laude said. "It means we'll have a heavy schedule the last week of the season before the sub-district tournament."

As regards the sub-district tournament, Laude said this morning that if his team could go the rest of the season without a defeat, "Look out, State, here we come!"

Game time is 8 p. m. tonight in Memorial Stadium.

To Start Tonight

Uoff Golf Team Enters Southwest Invitational Play

GAINESVILLE—The University of Florida will be represented by four members of its golf team in the Southwest Invitational Tournament at Houston, Tex., Apr. 17-18-19.

Coach Conrad Rehling said he is planning to enter Hale Baugh and Tommy Aaron of Gainesville, Jim McCoy, Lake Worth, and Art Gleason, Miami Beach.

Baugh, McCoy and Gleason were members of the Florida foursome which last season captured the Southeastern Conference Championship and finished third in the Southern Interscholastic Tournament of 1956.

Both Baugh and Aaron have turned in a number of excellent rounds in dual meets this season. In seven dual meets Baugh has fired sub-par rounds four times and in only one stroke over par for the season. His best effort was a four-under-par 67 against Georgia Tech.

Aaron, who has had three sub-par rounds in six dual meets has also fired a 67, his coming against Alabama. Both McCoy and Gleason have shot consistently in the low 70's and have proven to be tough customers in match play.

AND IN HIS SEARCH ON THE JOB HE WILL COME UP WITH HIS 4TH PACIFIC COAST CONFERENCE CHAMP.

Swimming Squad Enters Second Meet Tomorrow

With a swimming squad only one-third the size it should be, Seminole swimming coach Bill Fleming is sending his enthusiastic charges into a frenzied meet tomorrow afternoon against Mount Dora.

This will be the second swimming meet for Seminole High School and Fleming thinks the experimental season this year has so far been a great success.

"We have made more points than is usually expected for a first season," Fleming said this morning, "and the swimming team is more than encouraging with their enthusiasm."

Fleming said his charges, both the girls and the boys, have shown a tremendous improvement in the short season. "We are sadly lacking in facilities," he said, "but all indications are that swimming is here to stay and will become a vital phase of the spring sport season."

Fleming explained that with only five male members on the team it was an almost impossible feat to score any points due to a ruling against any team member participating in more than two events. There are 15 events in a swimming meet.

"We need a lot more people to come out for the team," he said.

Relaxed Players

NEW YORK — If the firebrands of baseball are caught yawning on the basepaths this season don't be surprised.

Should Russ the Jist Monk Meyer or mercurial Bobby Hrabos calmly shrug off bad calls, don't be trapped with your eyeballs up. There's a reason.

Miltown
Baseball fans may be as excitable and frustrated as ever but due to wide use of the prescription drug in major league camps the players may be the most relaxed athletes in history. Team physicians have seized on it as a muscle relaxant, anti-spasmodic and tension-easer.

Helps With Sleep
A number of teams used Miltown this spring to calm over-anxious rookies and veteran players who have difficulty sleeping on trains and those who can't sleep because of "replaying" close contests.

The Philadelphia Phillies have been accused by some of being a bit too tranquil to start with. So Dr. Thomas V. McTear, the team physician, explains that he prescribes it for the one time Whiz Kids as an anti-spasmodic to combat sore muscles and tender inflammation.

Cincinnati trainer Wayne Anderson lists the Redlegs' use of the drug as three-fold: to treat sore backs, for players who have difficulty sleeping on trains and as a muscle spasm preventative.

Jack Hume, The Detroit Tiger trainer, is another who uses Miltown as an anti-spasmodic. One of the Tiger's top pitchers was bothered by leg cramps after running and the drug relieved this condition, he said.

Yankees Don't Need 'Em
Bob Bauman, the Cardinal trainer, asserted that St. Louis used the drug to relieve the depression of players in batting slumps. Cardinal pitchers also receive it before a game if they are inclined to be nervous — and you might make something out of that when you consider the records of some of those Cardinal pitchers.

One team which doesn't use Miltown is the world champion New York Yankees.

"We don't need 'em," said trainer Gus Mauch. "We're not tense. It's the clubs chasing us which gets the jitters. Not even Casey Stengel needs 'em but, then, he's the most relaxed one of us all."

So, while nobody may catch the Yankees, at least the rest of the league figures to get a good summer's sleep. And stop that cheering. You wanna wake up the outfielders?

Now Hear This!

by JACKY FENWICK

Just have to start my column off with something about V.A.H.S! (Pursy intentional, you know!) Tomorrow, Wednesday, April 17, there will be a presentation of the "Bombing Derby" trophy, won by V.A.H. 5 two weeks ago! Arrangements are being made so that dependents will be able to attend the presentation at the hangar. Hope they go through "O.K." as it's something every loyal "Fiver" ought to watch!

And don't forget, this coming Friday, April 19, is the full-dress inspection of N.A.S. personnel, behind the Administration Building. It starts at 0900, (9:00 A.M.) to "handlubbers"! It's an inspiring sight, and one you'll long remember. It will be the last such affair for several Navy men who will retire this month.

One of the men retiring is Chief John D. Thomas, who will remain here in the Sanford area. The Thomas' have a home in Geneva. Their son is attending the United States Naval Academy at Annapolis, Maryland, so he can follow in his father's footsteps. Chief Thomas will retire as a full lieutenant. Haven't any "facts" about the other three men who are also retiring, but they are as follows: D. V. Harris, SHC, now attached to Special Services, Ledr. Lawrence Enos, at present in Station Security, and Chief Warrant Officer Herbert A. Burke, of the Supply Dept. I think one of the most interesting things about these men is that THREE of them plan to retire right here! And possibly the fourth, though there was no confirmation on this, so I'm not mentioning any names. These men have been invited by Capt. Jackson to be part of the reviewing party at Friday's inspection.

Chief Charles Ross, pharmacist at the Air Station, has received advanced orders to Comservpac. He doesn't expect to leave until sometime in July however.

Both he and his wife work at the Station hospital, and she is the civilian nurse that all the "kids" like so much!

When I was talking with Chief Ross, he told me how pleased everyone at the Dispensary was with the results of the "drive" for blood donors! They consider it a success with 106 donors coming through! V.A.H. 7 takes the "honors" for this, as there were 23 volunteers from that squadron alone. This drive tied Sanford's previous record, which makes everyone very happy!

There were two new arrivals on Sunday, aboard the Air Station. They were Lonnie Smith, AN, coming here from VF-111, and Harold W. Dryden, YN1, reporting for active duty from the United States Naval Training Center, at Atlanta, Georgia.

Don't forget this Friday's dance at the E. M. Club. The winners of the "Name" contest will be announced at that time.

I know there are a lot of people who will remember Joan and Willie Wilson. They transferred to the West Coast last July, and Willie has been serving aboard the U.S.S. Boxer. (Might also add that another former Sanford resident was serving aboard the "Boxer" last Fall. I'm referring to Dr. Lotz, who many will remember from visits to the Dependents Clinic.) June and I correspond, and I'd like to let all her old friends know that the whole family is fine, and they love it on the West Coast, which is practically June's "second home"!

Can't think of another thing to say, and for me, that is unusual!

Dr. and Mrs. H. Wayne Rucker left Sunday for the Florida State Dental Society meeting being held in St. Petersburg April 14-17.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Strange, 710 West First left today for their summer cottage in New Smyrna Beach. They will not return until fall.

Mr. and Mrs. T. F. Cason, Billy and Tommy and Mr. and Mrs. Reggie Massey spent the weekend in Palatka visiting Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Davis.

The out of town people attending the funeral services of Mrs. W. E. Argo in Oviedo Saturday were: Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Harrison, C. H. Harrison Jr. and Miss Harrison of Miami. Mrs. J. L. Ensign, Mrs. Laura Cunningham and Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Brannon of Orlando. Glover Bernreuter and Lawton Bernreuter of Jacksonville. Miss Nell Williams, and W. B. Williams of Sanford.

Enterprise P-TA To Meet Tuesday Eve. At School

The regular P-TA meeting will be held Tuesday evening at 7:30 p. m. at the school auditorium. All members urged to attend for this is an important meeting. The report of the nominating committee will be presented and election of officers for the coming year will be held.

The program for the evening will be presented by the school chorus under the direction of Miss Sheila Hubbard and the 5th grade will present the Easter Story directed by Miss Nanette Walker, Bible teacher.

Hospitality committee will serve refreshments with the home room mothers of 5th and 6th grade furnishing the cookies.

FROM THE HATTIE CARNEGIE spring collection comes a demi-jacket suit of golden-silk and wool tweed. "Honey bee" jewels nestle at the side of the gallery (double-folded) neckline. The skirt is slightly pleated in front with a high-titted waistband.

When frying meat that is not to be covered, prevent grease splattering by turning a colander upside down over the skillet. The colander allows the steam to escape.

Candlelight Ceremony Unites Nellie Taylor, Harry Fleming

Miss Nellie Nella Taylor became the bride of Harry Adron Fleming in a candlelight ceremony Friday evening at the Church of God of Prophecy. Miss Taylor is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John D. Taylor and Mr. Fleming is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Coley Fleming of Winter Garden.

The Rev. Larmar Gilmer officiated before an altar decorated with baskets of white gladioli, chrysanthemums and palms, placed artistically around the candleabra.

The bride given in marriage by her brother, 2nd Lt. Martin L. Taylor was gowned in white nylon net over lace. The tight fitting lace bodice came to a point over the bouffant ballerina length skirt and featured a sweetheart neckline. Her shoulder length veil of imported French illusion fell from a halo of net interspersed with tiny steel pearls. The bridal bouquet was of white carnations surrounding a white orchid.

Mrs. Linda Townsend served as matron of honor and wore a ballerina length gown of pale blue net over taffeta. She carried a bouquet of pink carnations. Sam Reedes of Winter Garden was best man.

Mrs. Taylor chose for her daughter's wedding a blue linen dress with white accessories and an orchid corsage. The groom's mother was attired in a white linen suit with matching accessories and an orchid corsage.

A reception was held immediately after the ceremony in the home of the bride's parents.

The dining table was graced by a four tier wedding cake, crystal and silver serving pieces and arrangements of white gladioli, snapdragons and carnations.

Assisting at the reception were Mrs. C. H. Crownover, Mrs. Benjamin Taylor, Mrs. Dudley Myers and Mrs. Duncan.

Committee Making Big Plans For Armed Forces Day Parade Here May 18

Top News In Brief

WASHINGTON (AP) — The House today passed a sharply curtailed appropriation for the United States Information Agency. Administration forces pinned their winning hope of getting some of the money restored on the Senate.

By United Press Staff Correspondent
Israeli security forces accused Egypt today of instigating new Arab commando attacks from Jordan, Syria and the Lebanon to complicate the situation in Jordan where King Hussein has won a precarious political victory. Dispatches from Israel, Jordan and Egypt emphasized that Jordan's political troubles were far from over. A Jordan source said in Cairo the new cabinet would be short-lived; the same prediction came from Amman. Israeli officials said Jordan's pro-western and pro-communist elements could not work together.

WASHINGTON (AP) — Government cuts in postal service were partly revoked today. But the public won't see much effect until Saturday when mail will be delivered again and post offices will open as usual.

WASHINGTON (AP) — One of the nation's leading business economists said today the United States now has the "ability to prevent great depressions" like the one that devastated the country in the 1930's. Herbert Stein, research director of the Committee for Economic Development, said "We know that deep and long depressions can be prevented by preventing deep and long liquidations of total money expenditure."

Mrs. Utt Places Fourth In Contest

The Musical Masterpiece Society released today the names of winners in a contest which it sponsored.

Judging of the entries was completed by the Reuben H. Donnelly Corp.

Mrs. Thelma E. Utt, of 2415 Laurel Ave. received notice this morning that she had been named the Fourth Winner of the contest for which she will receive a Hi-Fidelity console record player.

Announcement of the contest winner was made by William H. Fowler, vice president and general manager of the society.

The record player is being shipped to Mrs. Utt from the manufacturer's warehouse in Mount Vernon, N. Y.

Tentative plans were set yesterday afternoon for the Armed Forces Day parade to be held in Sanford on May 18 at 10 o'clock. Joel Field, general chairman for the Armed Forces Day celebration, was appointed by the

Chemical Company Plant Is Levelled By Blast; 4 Killed

CHARLESTON, W. Va. (AP) — An explosion at a Monsanto Chemical Co. plant near here leveled a three-story building Tuesday, killing four workmen, injuring five others and unleashing chlorine fumes which forced 1,500 persons to leave their homes.

The blast, of undetermined origin, "blew apart" the building, one of several single-unit structures known as "shells," at the sprawling Monsanto installation at Nitro, W. Va., 16 miles from here. The building was reduced to rubble.

Child Labor Law Reminder Heard

Preparations being made here for the annual northward trek of agricultural workers brought a reminder of Federal child labor laws from Henry W. Ford, investigation supervisor of the U. S. Labor Department's Wage-Hour field office in Jacksonville.

"The same Federal rules apply in other states as exist here," Ford said, "and although some children may be looking for an excuse to get out of school early as they go with their families in new states, they cannot legally work on farms during school hours if under sixteen."

Crew leaders and parents ought to be interested in young children completing their education, he pointed out, and explained that schools in other sections of the country, where crops are nearly ready for harvest, will be prepared to receive them for the last few weeks of the current school year.

Wage-Hour investigators in these areas will also be alert to the harvest season and to the influx of migrants. They will be making investigations in all types of farms.

Ford said employment in agriculture of children of any age outside school hours is all right, but penalties for willful violations of Federal child labor laws may result in fines of up to $10,000. He said crew leaders and parents should be able to furnish evidence of the age of children who are working.

Armed Forces Committee of the Seminole County Chamber of Commerce.

Nearly a dozen organizations were represented at the meeting held in the Sanford City Hall at which time it was agreed that the parade will be divided into five sections.

"We hope to have the biggest and finest parade ever held here," said Joel Field as each organization in the five sections of the parade were placed in the order for their appearance.

Five local bands will participate in the parade celebration, Field said as it was pointed out that the Seminole High School band will appear in the first section; the Lyman High School band in the second section; the Ovidio High School band in the third section; the Crooms Academy band in the third section; and the Junior High School band in the fourth section.

The starting of the parade will be marked by the fly-over of planes from the Sanford Naval Air Station, said Cdr. Lee Hamrick of the local Navy Base who also pointed out that there will be a Fleet Marching Unit as well as a Navy Ambulance and weapons display in the line of march.

The local National Guard Company will appear in the parade with their Armored personnel carrier and a National Guard Truck. Earlier, Major Roy Green has said that there will be an open house at the National Guard Armory here as well as a National Guard helicopter on display in Fort Mellon Park.

Two of the Parade Marshalls were named yesterday by Don Bales, Parade Chairman. Buddy Rawls for Section one and George DeMatteo for Section two.

Open house at the Sanford Naval Air Station will be from 10:30 a. m. to 2:30 p. m., said Cdr. Hamrick.

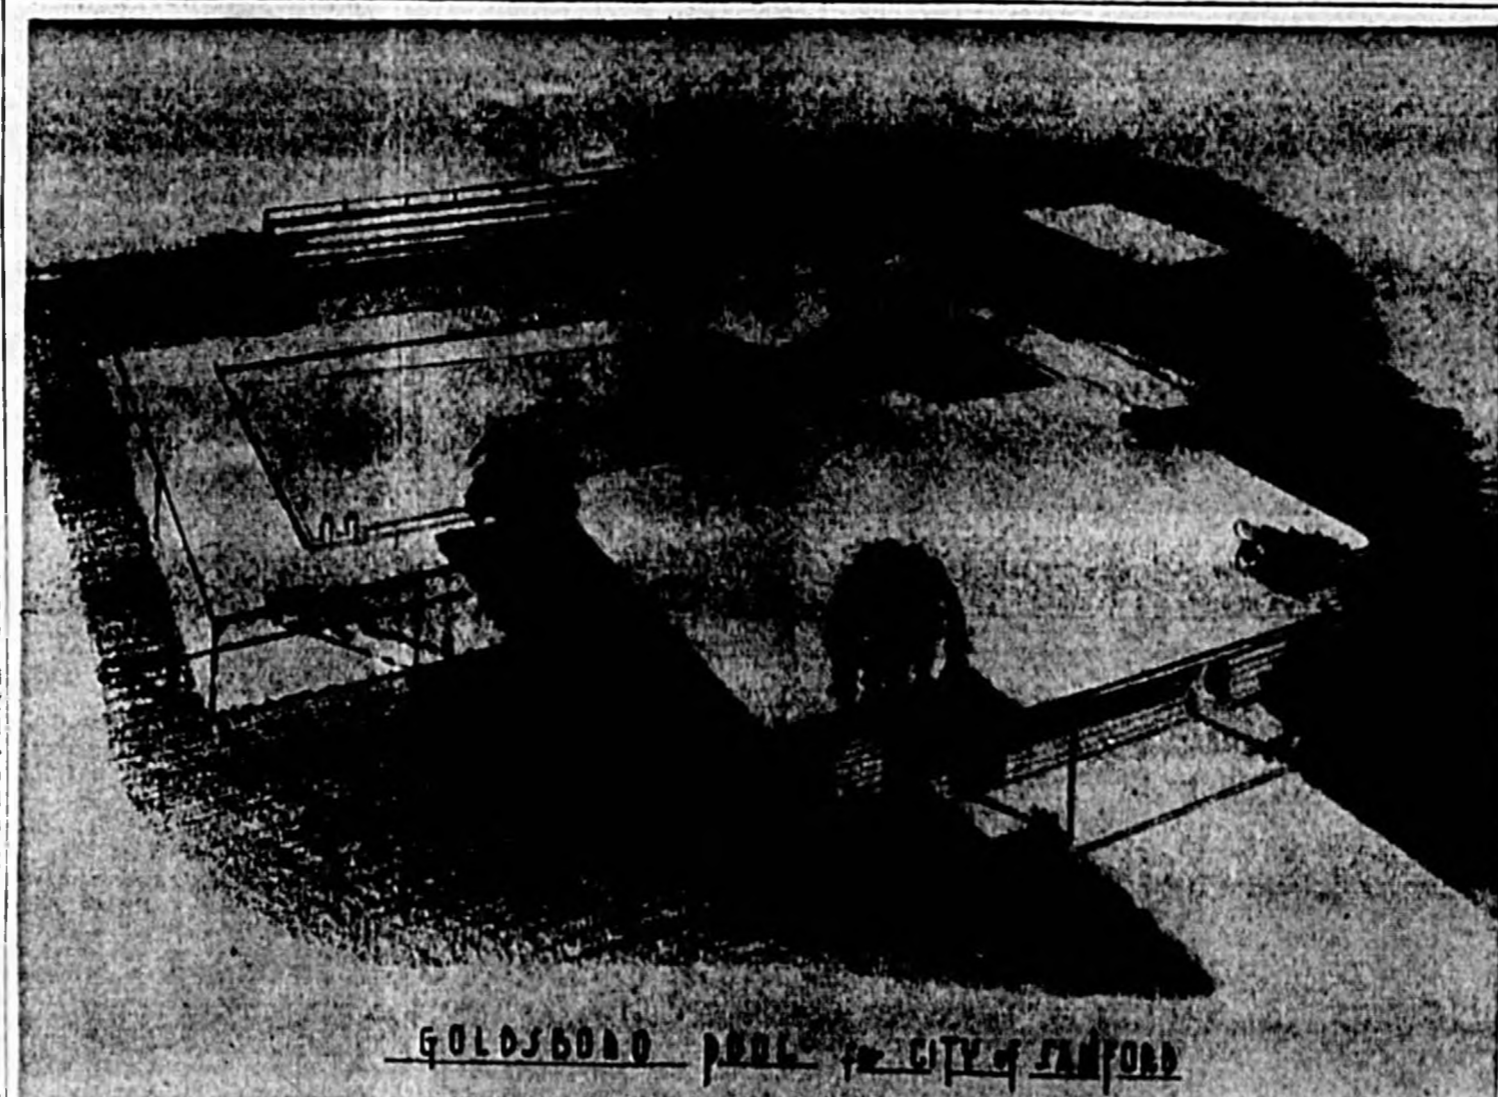

The American Red Cross will take a prominent part in the parade along with most of the Seminole County schools represented. Other organizations in the parade will be the Gold Star Mothers, Spanish American War Veterans, Disabled American Veterans, Veterans of Foreign Wars, the Fleet Reserve Unit, Boy Scouts of America, Girl Scouts of America, commercial floats, and civic clubs. The Dusty Boots Riding Club will form the last section of the parade.

Names of other organizations who will take part in the celebration and parade will be named at the next meeting to be held "one week from today" said Joel Field.

Those attending yesterday's meetings were: Joel Field, Cdr. Lee Hamrick, Don Bales, George DeMatteo, Tommy McDonald, John Keeling, Chuck Vodopich, Frank Takach, Buddy Rawls, Roy Green and Mike Thomas.

Partly cloudy through Thursday. Low tonight 64 to 70.

U. S. Could Aid Jordan In Event Of Attack

President Reveals Two Ways

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower said today the United States could go to Jordan's assistance if it becomes a victim of aggression.

The President also told his news conference the United States may have to go before the United Nations Security Council to report on the stalled Suez Canal negotiations. But he added that this government has not given up hope that agreement with Egypt can be reached.

Eisenhower said the United States has two ways of helping Jordan if it is attacked.

First, he said, a Big Three agreement of May 1956 provides for action in the event any Middle East nation is the victim of aggression, and this could apply in an Israeli-Arab dispute.

Second, the Middle East Doctrine resolution approved by Congress permits the United States to go to the aid of any nation attacked by Communist aggression.

On Suez, he said the United States has insisted in its negotiations with Egypt that the canal be operated in line with the six principles approved by the U. N. Security Council last October. These included provision for agreement on tolls, insulation of the canal's operation "from the politics of any country," and opening of the waterway to ships of all nations.

The President said some progress has been made; he has not given up hope of an agreement, but the United States might have to go back to the Security Council.

The President said he is discussing the Middle East that American ships are not unladen, as he put it, to bull their way into the Gulf of Agaba. But this government has not told them to avoid entering the gulf.

Officials said Egypt already has been informed of the possible U. S. move to refer the stalled Suez negotiations to the Security Council.

W. H. McClintock Succumbs Tuesday

William H. "Mac" McClintock, 75, passed away at his home at 11:55 p. m. last night following a short illness.

He was born in Alliance, O., June 7, 1881, and had made his home here for 37 years. His residence was 1520 West First St.

Mr. McClintock was a retired automobile mechanic.

Survivors include: his wife, Mrs. Clara McClintock, Sanford; and one sister-in-law, Mrs. Rex Paschard of Daytona Beach.

Funeral services will be held at 4 p. m. Thursday at Brison Funeral Home. A Christian Science service will be held. Burial will be in Oaklawn Memorial Park.

DCT's First Annual Employer-Employee Banquet Success

The first annual Employer-Employee Banquet of the Seminole High School Diversified Cooperative Training Program "was well attended," said the program's coordinator, Louis J. Girard.

In addition to the employers of the 16 pupils taking advantage of the DCT opportunities, said Girard, guests included Fred Murray, Seminole County Vocational Director; R. T. Milwee, Superintendent of Public Instruction, Andrew Bracken, Seminole High School Principal; R. F. Cooper, chairman of the Board of School Trustees; Stewart Gatchel, Supervisor of Secondary Schools, and B. L. Parkins, chairman of the DCT Advisory Committee.

Principle speaker for the event was Lee Moore, of Goodbody & Co. whose subject was "The World's Market Place" Moore explained the operation of the stock market and then went on to tell how a bond issue is conducted. This, he tied in with the similarity to the Sanford Docks and Terminals project.

All guests spoke briefly on the program and the opportunities in (Continued on Page 9)

Fringe Area Taxpayers Plan Mass Gathering

Chester H. Miller was elected temporary president of the newly started Fringe Area Taxpayers Association at a meeting held last evening, attended by the original committee for forming the organization, plus other interested taxpayers of the area. Other officers appointed temporarily were Mrs. Edna L. Heehler, secretary; and Robert W. Lord, treasurer.

The committee made plans for a mass meeting to be held Thursday evening, April 18, at 8 p. m. at the Farmers Auction Market on Route 17-82. Post cards were mailed earlier this week to many home owners in the area, but the committee stressed that this is an open meeting for all business and property holders in the affected areas.

The following statement was issued by the committee at the close of last night's meeting:

"As we understand and are led to believe, the bill to be presented to the Legislature has not as yet been drawn, for the enlargement of the city limits of Sanford. But we believe that it will be unlimited as to the time when, and as to the space or territory to be annexed, but any area without regard to shape or size that

Rev. Spear To Give Message At Easter Sunrise Service

The annual Easter Sunrise service, sponsored by the Seminole County Ministerial Association, will be held Sunday morning at 6 a. m. at the Sanford Memorial Baseball Stadium, according to an officer of the association who made the announcement this morning.

The Seminole High School Glee Club under the direction of Miss Ollie Reese Whittle will sing at the Sunday morning service and the Seminole High School Band under the direction of Bandmaster Ernest Cowley will play for the service.

The Rev. J. W. Parham of the Central Baptist Church will preside with the Rev. Fred Bovey of the Free Methodist Church delivering the invocation and the benediction. The Rev. David Carrell of the Christian and Missionary Alliance Church will read the scripture and deliver the prayer.

The Rev. Robert H. Spear Jr., of the Nazarene Church will be the speaker for Sunday morning's Easter Sunrise service. His topic will be "After the Cross, a Memorial" (Continued on Page 9)

36 Are Interested In Forming Army Reserve Unit Here

More than 30 attended the initial meeting last night at which plans were outlined for the organization of a Reserve Unit in Sanford.

According to Capt. Lee Moore, who is spearheading the organization of the local Reserve Unit, from the names submitted but for one reason or another could not attend the meeting the total interested members would come to 36.

"There will be no problem as far as a meeting place is concerned," City Manager Warren E. Knowles told the group.

Col. Grabm stated that the Corps of Engineers "would enter into an agreement with the City of Sanford for utilities and other necessary matters for the proposed Army Reserve Unit."

Another meeting will be held at the Sanford City Hall on May 2, at 7:30 p. m. to continue the organization of the unit here, Capt. Moore said today.

It was agreed at last night's meeting that those attending would make as many contacts as possible to enlarge the list of interested people by the time of the next meeting.

Capt. Standfill, Ass't to the Senior Advisor of the Orlando Sub-District, said, at last night's meeting "Brig. General Lyle Matheny (Chief of the Florida Military District) assured me that if Sanford demonstrated interest we would get the unit here."

In a discussion of the manpower potential in the Sanford-Seminole County area it was "generally agreed that Sanford could support both the Army Reserve Unit and the National Guard here."

Capt. Moore said "Our goal at the present time is a total of 50 people to complete our first organization."

"We are going to submit two lists," he said, "one of people interested in the company and another of Field Grade officers interested in attending a USAR school here."
