RELIEF BILL'S PASSAGE SEEN NOT FAR AWAY

Republican Leader Of House Is Predicting Its Success Before Nightfall Of Today

WASHINGTON, Dec. 18.—(AP)— President Hoover continued today to keep in close touch with the situation on relief legislation in Congress conferring early with Representative Thompson, House Republican leader, to get him the prospect was for the passage before nightfall of a $30,000,000 drought loan bill, which would be higher than that recommended by Secretary Hyde but it is only half as high as that contained in the Senate measure.

Striking suddenly after the House Agriculture Committee reaffirmed its stand for the $30,000,000 measure, the House Republican leader, straddled legislation under consideration to give the measure right of way.

When the voting stage is reached today, the Democrats plan to renew their efforts to obtain the Senate's $60,000,000 proposal for loans to farmers for food, seed and fertilizer.

The administration leaders expect, if the $30,000,000 bill is passed, to be able to iron out the differences between the two branches by increasing the amount to probably $45,000,000 and urging the Senate to recede from its food provision.

EDISON BELIEVES PROHIBITION HAS BEEN BIG BENEFIT

Declares That Its Enforcement In Land Is Improving Daily

NEWARK, N. J., Dec. 18.—(AP)— Thomas A. Edison expressed the opinion yesterday that prohibition has been a big benefit to the United States and that its enforcement is improving daily. His belief was set forth in answer to a questionnaire submitted to him by Rev. James K. Shields, superintendent of the North Carolina League.

The six questions and answers: Q.—Do you approve of the Eighteenth Amendment, if so, why? A.—Yes, it is a necessary aid to permit practical enforcement of prohibition all over the country.

Q.—Has it helped the industrial and economic life of America at home and strengthened the industrial standing of our nation abroad? A.—Yes, and to a greater extent than realized.

Q.—In your judgment are children better fed and clothed and educated since the coming of national prohibition than they were before? A.—In my judgment I would say decidedly yes. Let me cite my reasons. (Continued On Page Six)

Early Agreement To Break Deadlock On Shoals Is Seen

WASHINGTON, Dec. 18.—(AP)—An early agreement to break the long standing deadlock between House and Senate over operation of the government's $150,000,000 plant at Muscle Shoals was forecast by conference members after another long conference session.

The proposed compromise would provide for government operation of the power plant and distribution of the power over government built transmission lines; private operation of the nitrate plant; and construction by the government of Cove Creek dam.

The conferees will meet again today in an attempt to work out details of the compromise and reach a formal agreement.

Dixie's Snow Mantel Is Being Dissipated

ATLANTA, Dec. 18.—(AP)—The South's heaviest snow of the season which reached a depth of 20 inches in North Carolina was being eroded today by the combined efforts of public agencies and a fresh snow. Two deaths were traced indirectly to the cold. A heart attack was fatal to George Wilson of Durham, North Carolina, as he struggled in the snow to get a group of children to school. An automobile skidded on the snow near Chariton, Virginia killing Mrs. Mary Birch. Snowladen roofs of six buildings in North Carolina collapsed but there were no injuries.

REVOLT FAILS IN SPAIN BUT RIOTS PERSIST

Alfonso Continues To Dominate Situation Although Clashes In Many Areas Occur

MADRID, Dec. 18.—(AP)— Widespread strikes with half a million men out and repeated outbreaks in many parts of Spain but the attempt to overthrow the king failed today. Alfonso continued to dominate the situation, keeping in constant touch with distant cities by telephone and direct flights with his cabinet.

Through the English civil authorities had surrendered their power under martial law. The foreign legation came into several cities and the tumultuous cheers with which the people received them was interpreted as an indication that the king in the street is tired of the disorders of the past few weeks.

The artillery field barracks, four men were killed in a street fight at Oviedo, and more clashed with the soldiers at Santander, Valencia, Alcala, Crutina, and Huelva. Heavy shots in Huelva refused to unload a fishing smack and its cargo was thrown into the sea.

Spurious Bill Trick Causes Warning To Be Issued To Public

Be wary of the man or woman who offers a $1000 bill in payment of a purchase of any size," warns L. Tharp, local manager of the Western Union, who this morning received a letter from the Intelligence Department of his company reporting the news that a gang of crooks is operating with some success in southern cities through the means of the old $1000 bill trick.

A large department store in a prominent Georgia city was the scene of the latest swindle. A woman entered the store and asked to be shown some fur coats.

In the meantime the woman had selected a coat valued at $250 and the purchase was apparently completed when the clerk handed her $750 in cash and the coat in exchange for the $1000 bill.

Western Union authorities are on the alert, and they urge that every store owner in Florida, no matter how small, keep a sharp eye for persons who try to pass off bills, no matter what size, in that manner.

LINDY TALKS FOR UNIFORM RULES OF AIR

Takes Stand Against Diversity Of Regulations At Closing Session Of Meeting

WASHINGTON, Dec. 18.—(AP)—Capt. Charles A. Lindbergh took the stand yesterday against the diversity of regulations at the closing session of the National Civil Aeronautics Association meeting here.

Speaking as an observer, rather than a delegate, he said: "We seek uniformly not only for this country but in every nation throughout the world. No national regulations would be a great hindrance to the progress of aviation.

The worth of aviation lies in its ability to transport men and material over long distances in the least possible time. The worth of aviation will be measured, not by its ability to do away with carriers of time and distance.

For a technical standpoint we are now able to look forward to eliminating loss of business time in the United States. I do not believe it is visionary to look forward a few years to the time when a letter can be mailed in New York in the afternoon and have it delivered in San Francisco the next morning.

He said uniform air laws present problems affecting the private flyer as well as the scheduled air transport operator flying from coast to coast.

For the private flyer, he said, "uniformity must not only be made possible, but also possible in operation must be so complex that people who devote but a portion of their time to aviation will be confused by them."

SENATE INVESTIGATES BREAD PRICES

Witnesses at a Federal Inquiry Yesterday Related the Story of Courage, Calm and Bravery of 133 Persons Aboard the "Se-Not-M" Excursion Boat Eureka II, Sunday Night, and After They Leaped Into the Ocean to Escape Flames Sweeping Over the Vessel From an Engine Room Explosion

MIAMI, Dec. 18.—(AP)—Witnesses at a federal inquiry yesterday related the story of courage, calm and bravery of 133 persons aboard the "Se-Not-M" excursion boat Eureka II, Sunday night, and after they leaped into the ocean to escape flames sweeping over the vessel from an engine room explosion.

Ten witnesses, crew members and passengers, appeared before the board of United States local inspectors in session here in an orderly parade that contrasted with the confusion attending Tuesday's hearing.

Charges of an alleged attempt by the crew of blame, made by survivors led by John Bryan, Milwaukee, who did not enter in yesterday's proceedings. Bryan was not seen in the vicinity of the hearing chamber.

Another was a statement, made by several survivors Tuesday, full of vituperation and full of charges of blame.

Each witness testified the disaster in which three lives were lost was marked by cool-headed action by Capt. W. L. Smith, vessel and his crew that every person aboard wore a life preserver as he jumped into the ocean. (Continued On Page Four)

Santa Claus Says He Will Do His Best To Bring All Presents

The Christmas Editor spent another busy morning writing a great batch of mail addressed to Santa Claus in care of The Sanford Herald, and after getting in touch with Santa Claus at the North Pole, he was told to be sure and save every letter so that Santa could read them all himself when he arrives here here Wednesday night.

The Christmas Editor told Santa exactly what all the little boys and girls whose letters are printed here wanted, and Santa said that he was certainly going to do his best to bring every present. He also said that he would have to put in an order at once for a number of Florida nuts and fruits, for he has never had so many requests for those things in all his life.

Elizabeth Benton, 1411 1/2 Howard Avenue, writes Santa as follows: "Dear Santa Claus, I am a little orphan girl, and I stay with my mother at 1411 Howard Avenue. I want you to bring me a doll bed, a blanket set, and some clothes and shoes. I'm asking for a little nickel tea set, a little Bedouin, age 15. She wants to buy a doll, a hat, a dress, and a pair of slippers size 9. I have a nephew. His name is Gilbert Benton, age 11. He wants a cap and a football. I have a sister-in-law. Her name is Bell Benton. Don't forget her. I want everybody to be happy. I hope you will be happy too. Goodbye, Santa Claus, and a Merry Christmas to you all."

Elizabeth Benton, also at the same address, writes: "I am writing you a very short letter. I am a little boy, nine years old; I am in the second grade at school. I have a little sister four years old. I want you to bring me a few dollars worth of things: a pair of shoes, a cap, a pair of pants and some fruit, candy and nuts. And don't forget my sister. Her name is Linda Benton. She wants a doll, a tricycle, a bear, a hat, a dress, and a pair of shoes. (Continued On Page Four)

Trial Date Set For Captain And Crew Of Scuttled Boat

MOBILE, Ala., Dec. 18.—(AP)—Trial of Capt. John G. Murphy, owner of the pleasure boat Murphy, and two other men of charges growing from the alleged scuttling of the ship at sea, will begin in late January or early February, federal court officials said yesterday.

The government charges that Murphy, who is from Galveston, Texas, and Salvino Morelli, a Spaniard, with Capt. George Watson and three other men scuttled the steamer and collect insurance.

The vessel sank off the Florida coast while transporting a cargo of phosphate rock from Fern Grande, Fla., to Norfolk, Va., in 1927.

Captain Watson's body arrived in Mobile late yesterday from New Orleans, Fla., where authorities said he committed suicide Tuesday after his arrest on the federal conspiracy charge. Body did not expectedly off the Atlantic coast several months ago as officers sought to arrest him.

One third of the crop has gone to market and the Florida citrus industry has received between 15 and $20,000,000 in return for it.

The marketing bureau estimates that the whole 1930 crop would return between $5 and $60,000,000 this season. The total for the year last Saturday was 7,750 cars with oranges accounting for more than half. The total crop for the season is estimated at 28,000,000 boxes.

TRIAL OF PETERSON, WHITE FOR MURDER COMMENCED TODAY

Adjourning over into Friday night, Judge Wallace W. Wright's 24th Judicial Circuit court commenced the hearing at 10 o'clock to begin at once with the trial of the second and last murder case on the criminal docket—Ray White and Percy Peterson, two white residents of Ocala, who to have been tried separately in connection with the fatal shooting last June of W. T. Bland, 20, an Ocala farmer.

Because of the absence of counsel for Mr. Peterson, court was adjourned until 1:30 o'clock this afternoon. Judge Wright also succeeded in having counsel for Mr. White agree to a joint trial of the case, pointing out that nearly $500 would be saved the county by the move.

Judge James C. Shanon, following a preliminary hearing late in July, ordered the two men to be released under bonds fixed at $5,000 for Peterson and $1,000 for White, declaring that it was his belief that the murder of Bland was not "premeditated" but apparently the result of a "drunken brawl."

With this murder case settled, criminal court proceedings come to a close after one of the shortest sessions in years. Only a few minor appeal cases and one or two civil cases remain to be handled by the court before a recess is taken until the spring term.

Domestic Trouble Is Seen Tragedy Cause

UMTALI, Africa, Dec. 16.—(AP)—A story of jealousy and domestic unhappiness was unfolded today at an inquest over the bodies of Dr. R. L. Magoon, American explorer and his wife, who were found dead in their home here Dec. 13. Witnesses expressed the belief that the explorer murdered his wife and committed suicide after an unsuccessful attempt to slay two women who lived nearby. Mrs. Magoon, a bride of three months, is said to have objected to her husband's fidelity with two women who had been in his employ and threatened to return to America causing him to take the drastic step, witnesses said.

LIVAN AWARD
EVEN JONES BY
ATHLETIC UNION

Honor Is Handed Man
Who Has Done Most
For Sportsmanship

NEW YORK, Dec. 17—(AP)—The James E. Sullivan award, the highest honor of the Amateur Athletic Union announced today.

The award, given for the first time this year, in memory of the late James E. Sullivan, A. A. U. president, goes to the athlete who has done the most for sportsmanship and by his example and influence as an athlete and as a man, has done the most during the year to advance the cause of sportsmanship. The award, a gold medal, will be presented to Jones at a time and place to be decided upon later.

People that some members of the memorial committee felt that the recent action in signing a picture contract had actually disbarred him from the sport, this view was not shared by the majority. It was felt the award was to be made on the basis of what the recipient was and had accomplished during the year and that furthermore, the attitude, in signing the picture contract, had been entirely above board and marked by that frankness and openness which Jones has been one of his characteristics. All this, the majority believed, made him stand out more than ever as a thorough sportsman.

Jones won by an overwhelming margin, receiving more than twice as many votes as the runner-up, Thomas Mar, famous Massachusetts golfer, who received 1225 votes and De Mar, who received 625. Others in the contest, with votes cast for them, were: Helen Hills Moody, tennis champion, 505; Helene Madison, tennis, Wash., swimming 375; Frank Bevinger, all-around athlete from the University of Pennsylvania, 255; Thomas Hillebeck, tennis polo ace, 236; George Thompson, Ohio State, national basketball sprint title holder, 232; Arthur Rothert, all-around athlete at Stanford University, 168; Raymond Ruddy, Columbia, long distance swimming champion, 149; Stella Walsh, Cleveland, women's sprint champion, 61.

The committee, in announcing the award, summarized the reasons for its selection as follows: "Foremost golfer of today, winner of all time. Winner of men and amateur championships in Great Britain and the United States this year, an unprecedented achievement. High ideals of sportsmanship and strength of character were exemplified in his refusal to accept a gift of $50,000 offered by popular subscription in London with which he was to buy a home. Has often been acclaimed at home and abroad as an unofficial ambassador of the United States to foreign lands. During the several years that he has been in the public eye, there has been a single reflection on his sportsmanship or amateur status.

From among those nominated, the A. A. U. selected the 10 considered the most worthy, were ten together with a summary of the reasons for their selection were sent back to the tribunal for final vote. The members of the tribunal, some 600 outstanding leaders in the world of sports were asked to vote for three in the order of their choice, the first to receive five votes the second three and the third, one.

SCHMELING MUST AGREE TO MEET
SHARKEY BY 15TH

NEW YORK, Dec. 17—(AP)—The emperor of maul swung the big stick Tuesday and scattered the doldrums that have settled over the heavyweight division in the past few months.

With one sweeping motion, the three members of the New York state athletic commission accepted the challenge of Jack Sharkey for a championship battle and notified Max Schmeling in Germany that he must agree within 15 days to defend his crown against the Boston biffer.

"There is on file in this office a challenge directed at you by Jack Sharkey," Chairman James A. Farley cabled Schmeling in Berlin on behalf of the commission. "Your six-month period in which to defend the title expired Dec. 12. You are directed to advise within 15 days from date your acceptance of the above challenge."

The action of the commission dispelled any idea lurking in the minds of promoters and the faithful that another long drawn out elimination series would be fostered to bring to the fore a worthy challenger for the title.

Because of the commission stand, Sharkey will not be forced to prove his right once more to a challenger's rating by disposing of Young Stribling, considered in many quarters the outstanding American heavyweight; boxing any of the highly lalibhooded foreign threats, or meeting the menace of the younger generation, typified by such willing huskies as Max Baer, of San Francisco.

Dispute Causes
Postponement In

"We have seen an apparent attempt to white-wash the crew in this hearing," Bryan said, coming to the front of the inquiry chamber. "We survivors want this inquiry handled correctly in case of damage suits arising from the wrecking of the boat."

He referred to the conduct of the examination of witnesses, by the board.

"You're only publicly seeking trying to cause trouble," shouted Capt. Fred P. Crane, a former lecturer aboard the "S. S. Bot-M" boat on its tour of marine gardens south of here, as other survivors joined Bryan. Confusion developed among survivors and spectators.

Inspectors John Nolan and Spencer Houston, Jacksonville, acting as a board of United States local inspectors for the steamboat inspection service, held a hurried consultation and recessed the hearing until today. Both denied Bryan's charges.

The abrupt recess came after Bryan requested the board to bar from the inquiry chamber the crew members who had not testified. Nolan and Houston agreed to this, but the confusion arising from the various charges developed immediately.

NEW CONFERENCE
FORMED AMONG
DIXIE GRID TEAMS

MEMPHIS, Dec. 17—(AP)—The Southern Intercollegiate Athletic association adjourned a momentous convention here Tuesday. The session saw the formation of a new conference and heard talk of at least one more being in the making among the association's 36 members.

Soon after the seven member colleges formed the Dixie conference, delegates discussed unconfirmed reports that the six S. I. A. A. members in South Carolina were considering a combination with schools in Georgia and Florida.

Centre college, Southwestern, of Memphis; University of Chattanooga; Mercer, of Macon; Georgia Spring Hill, of Mobile; Howard and Birmingham-Southern, of Birmingham, the Dixie members, all stressed that they remained in the S. I. A. A. and formed their group to heighten competition and to heighten interest in a limited territory.

At the same time, it was made clear that the Dixie, which also has invited Millaps at Jackson, Miss. and Mississippi college Clinton, Mississippi, expects to function as a distinct entity, recognizing its own champions, scheduling football and other events with its members first mind and in general acting as an independent conference except that relations with the S. I. A. A. and the S. I. A. A. members will be continued.

From an official source came confirmation of the talk concerning an Atlantic seaboard conference. Delegates remembered that the South Carolina schools already have their own association.

At Tuesday's closing session the S. I. A. A. voted disapproval of any plan to permit freshmen to play in varsity games, revoked a decision to increase dues from $25 to $50, and required athletes to play their permitted three years of college football within five years. The association attitude regarding freshmen was defined at the request of Louisiana and Georgetown colleges, whose representatives said some schools considered plans for playing freshmen in varsity games.

JUDGES ORDER

Validity of the manner in which the prohibition amendment was adopted was testified before Judge Clark by a group of attorneys—all members of the New York County Lawyers' association—after a study of two years. The group represented William Sprague, a township clerk in New Jersey who had been indicted for transporting beer. By yesterday's decision the indictment was quashed.

Judge Clark is 38-years-old, an heir to millions who served in the ranks of the American expeditionary forces during the World War. He is the youngest member of the federal judiciary, but he has been called a leading student of the Constitution. In a 15,000-word opinion he discussed the proposition that prohibition of intoxicating liquors was a question of government and a problem in political science.

He called upon nearly 100 authorities in support of his ruling and quoted from their public and private writings at length.

The jurist said the question he was deciding had never been presented to any court and said he was not bound by any earlier or higher authority.

In national prohibition cases before the Supreme Court of the United States the only matters considered concerned the substance of the Eighteenth Amendment changing the distribution of power between the states and the United States reduced the police powers of the former.

From Perpignan came word that Republican airplanes flew over Barcelona yesterday and dropped proclamations inviting republicans of the great Catalonia seaport to hide their lives. Other large cities of Catalonia were visited similarly.

Barcelona still was tied up by a general strike with thousands of troops and civil guards patrolling the streets.

Cibralta told of persistent reports that the Spanish naval forces at Cadix were supporting the revolutionary movement and uneasiness prevails throughout the southern part of the country.

Republicans sources here declared that Valencia was in the hands of rebels and that three loyal generals had been executed. It was also said that rebel airplanes had bombed the rebel palace in that city.

Cuban Government
Sums Up Situation

HAVANA, Dec. 17—(AP)—The Cuban government, troubled by political unrest and student agitation, sees its situation in one sentence:

"Peace throughout the republic, or intervention."

Dr. Eugenio Molinet, acting secretary of education, said the situation yesterday and the government is continuing to take every precaution to insure the former.

The national university was closed indefinitely yesterday by presidential decree. Monday an order closed public schools throughout the island until normalcy returns. The administration believes it has acted sufficiently to prevent further group agitation by students.

A number of arrests were made and as a result Premier Baraguero said no further revolutionary attempts were expected.

Knute Rockne Says
His '30 Team Could Have Beaten Giants

BUFFALO, N. Y., Dec. 17—(AP)—Knute Rockne, here to speak at the annual Cattolus college football dinner, said in an interview Tuesday that he did not believe "college football over-commercialized. He went so far as to say that "it is not commercialized enough."

"Football," he explained, supports all minor sports in most colleges. Because football doesn't take in sufficient receipts at many colleges, these institutions have been forced to abandon their other athletic activities. I say football isn't commercialized enough because there are only about 25 out of 1000 colleges making any real money out of it. Two colleges in the last three weeks have had to give up the sport.

"We have often wished for some statute akin to that of mortmain to remove the dead hand of tradition from the domain of ideas."

The court related that in Massachusetts the first constitution was rejected because it had not been framed by a body chosen for that purpose. The court pointed out that of eight constitutions prior to 1787 which provided for amendments, five required that the process be undertaken in some form of convention.

"It seems indisputable that local self-government, popular sovereignty and the convention system of drafting and amending constitutions were the very warp and wool of the political thought of the whole period prior to the drafting of the federal constitution."

Declaring the thought process of President Lincoln had come to "typify so much of our constitutions," he quoted the Civil War president as follows:

"I will venture to add that to me the convention seems preferable in that it allows amendments to originate with the people themselves instead of only permitting them to take or reject the propositions originated by others, not especially chosen for the purpose, and which might not be precisely such as they would wish to accept or refuse."

Sanford Herald... THE SUPREME RULER... THE VICTORIOUS IDLER... Europe Must Pay... TELLING THE WORLD... The biggest Christmas thrill in years!

Our Tax System

It is a well-known fact that most people will sign a petition, if presented by the right person, no matter what is in it. It wouldn't surprise us a bit, if a petition were drawn up advocating the destruction of all the schools in the county, and were taken around by one of these high pressure salesmen, if there would be no difficulty at all in securing a few hundred signatures. Lots of people sign such things without ever reading them over, taking the man's word for it as to what the petition contains.

Europe Must Pay

The repeated efforts of European nations to escape payment of loans made during and immediately after the World War is causing the government of this country a great deal of concern. Washington can see no reason why money honestly borrowed should not be repaid, at least to the extent of one's ability. The interest rate on the war loans has been scaled down to a minimum and many of the loans made during the war have been canceled, but the European nations are not satisfied yet. Apparently they do not want to pay anything.

TELLING THE WORLD

NOW IT CAN BE TOLD Facts you ought to know about Christmas. In Hollywood they never have snow. They never have frost, cyclones, cloudbursts, earthquakes or hail, either, according to the Los Angeles Chamber of Climate. But the absence of snow makes it hard on Hollywood parents.

WORLD'S WINDOW

For one of our home-stayers in the forests of Maine or Quebec to go out and shoot a rabbit or a deer if he can get it is a natural thing to do. It's food the man wants. Something can be said even for the peasant who goes out poaching at night. He also is actuated by a primary human need. For he will either eat the pheasant or partridge he shoots or snare or else he will sell the birds to obtain a "little extra money" to supply the needs of his family.

THE BIGGEST CHRISTMAS THRILL IN YEARS!

This Christmas we've figured out a way for you to give her a Frigidaire inside a day before Christmas in a box you can hide in the palm of your hand or slip in her Christmas stocking. Inside this box is a sparkling silver "Medal of Honor" engraved with the name of the Frigidaire one who's to get the Frigidaire—or with both her name and yours.

BONDS-TAXATION TAMPA TIMES

Just as a good physician will diagnose a case later, propose a remedy, so should THOSE WHO TALK BONDS AND TAXATION FULLY DIAGNOSE THAT SITUATION BEFORE MAKING PUBLIC UTTERANCES upon which people form their opinions. Without any reflection whatever on the two very able gentlemen—one a prominent jurist and the other a railway attorney of recognized ability—who addressed the League of municipalities convention at Winter Park last week, the Times sees at a glance that THESE TWO MEN DID NOT HAVE THE REAL ROCK BOTTOM ISSUE OF THE BOND AND TAX QUESTION IN MIND.

Sacred Cantata Will Be Given By Choirs

"Bethlehem," a sacred cantata with words by E. Cuthbert Nunn and music by J. H. Maunder, will be presented by the combined church choirs of the city under the direction of Basil C. Moore, Sunday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock at the First Baptist Church. Rehearsals for the affair have been going on for the past few weeks and since all the best voices in the city have been enlisted, it promises to be one of the most enjoyable presentations of the season. Mrs. Frances Woodruff will accompany the stags at the orchestra.

The cantata is divided into three parts. In the first part, "The Shepherd's Gift," the scene is laid on the plains of Bethlehem where a little shepherd boy is tending his sheep. Other shepherds seen in the distance, discover some wonderful thing, pause to discuss it and then proceed to Bethlehem bearing gifts.

"The Kings' Gifts," the second part, shows Halthasar, riding his train beside an old well at night in the desert. The star appears and the kings continue their journey to Bethlehem laden with gifts for Him.

In the third part, "Our Gift," all the characters arrive at the Inn at Bethlehem, enter the stable, kneel humbly before the manger and offer such gifts as they can afford. The cantata attempts to teach the lesson that "all may kneel at His Altar and offer ourselves unto Him, a living sacrifice."

Ruth Chatterton In "Anybody's Woman" Is Showing At Milan
Everybody's favorite among the film celebrities has become "Anybody's Woman."

Ruth Chatterton has been "Madame X," "The Laughing Lady," and the Sarah of "Sarah and Son."

As "Anybody's Woman," which comes to the Milan Theatre tonight for 2 days, she is costarred with Clive Brook in a play that is redolent with realism, a play that is drenched with daring drama.

"Anybody's Woman" is the story of the vagrancies of a misfit marriage. Brook plays a wealthy and cultured young lawyer, who, disappointed by the faithfulness of the wife who has just divorced him, goes on a prolonged binge in the metropolis.

At a cheap theatrical hotel he meets Ruth Chatterton, a broken-down show girl. During the progress of a wild party in which Brook is inebriated, practical-joker companions manage to have Brook and Ruth married.

Confronted with the reality of the situation the next day, Brook manfully decides to go through with this unbalanced alliance. Before long Ruth finds that she really loves him, since he is the only man who has ever been gentlemanly with her. He, however, is indifferent to her.

But the social elite of Brook's circle forsake him, and Ruth, deciding that her lack of culture is the cause of it all, leaves his home. Brook carries on, not caring whether he ever sees her again or not, when his former wife visits him and proposes that he should become companion again. Revolted by this project, Brook realizes that Ruth's devotion is eating his heart out. He finds her — and they really fall in love.

"Anybody's Woman" was directed by Dorothy Arzner, foremost woman director of Hollywood, who made "The Wild Party," "Manhattan Cocktail" and "Sarah and Son."

The screen story is a Zoe Akins adaptation of a Gouverneur Morris story.

and Chairman McNary of the Senate Agriculture Committee, Aswell insisted Hyde had misled him into thinking the administration was prepared to accept the food provision.

Hyde declared before the committee the administration was backing the recommendations of the State Drouth Relief Committee. He said the committee had not specified any definite amount and that no provision was made of food loans. Hyde said food would constitute a debt by food terminating the program "drouth relief; not economic depression relief."

Hyde said the Red Cross was capable of taking care of the destitute farmers.

"I told Aswell I am supporting the principle of seed, feed and fertilizer," he said, "but I never told him I endorsed food loans."

He added belief that $25,000,000 would care for the needs and said this was based on estimates before the department and its experience in handling similar loans.

Hyde testified the drouth affected only corn, hay and pasturage with no harm done nationally to the cotton crop, although certain areas had suffered.

He termed the Senate measure a "dangerous proposition," adding "You give me money to make loans on the thinnest security with the implication that you don't expect us to get it back."

CREW PRAISED IN HEARING OF SHIP TRAGEDY

From the burning craft and that ample fire extinguishers were carried by the vessel.

The witnesses gave the testimony in an almost empty room, in view of orders by inspectors John Nolan and Spencer Houston, conducting the inquiry, that no prospective witnesses were permitted in the inquiry chamber until time to testify.

Yesterday's witnesses were: Earl P. Watson, assistant engineer; O. C. Frazier, orchestra leader; W. H. Randall, Mrs. E. H. Watson and Mrs. E. L. Stiles, all members of the crew; Capt. W. D. Archer, Miami; L. H. Martin, Coconut Grove; J. W. Anderson, Coral Gables; Harry Hill, Miami, and William Reehl, Cincinnati, Ohio, one of the rescue party aboard the yacht Lois Ann.

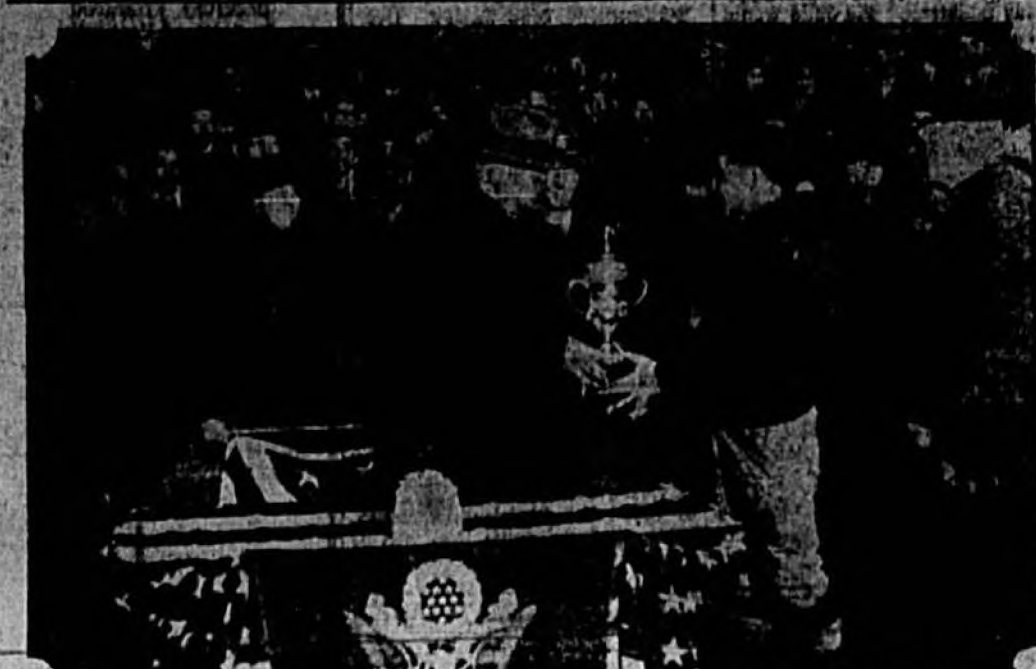

The testimony of Captain Archer, through which was a graphic picture of the disaster scene, featured the tension yesterday. He described how Capt. W. I. Stiles pushed some of the passengers with life preservers overboard when they refused to heed his order to abandon ship in face of the destroying fire. The captain did not leave the vessel until it was cleared of passengers, Archer said.

"I shouted to the orchestra to keep playing and help passengers tie on life preservers," he testified. "The fire in the engine room was out by that time, but the starboard and port sides of the boat were aflame," he said. Captain Archer testified he saw only one act of cowardice during the disaster. That, he said, occurred as a man he did not know attempted to force his way into a small rescue boat laden with four women, and nearly sank the boat. He praised E. P. Stiles, acting chief engineer, who he said, hurt through the flames amidship to save his mother, Mrs. F. I. Stiles. Inspector Nolan said about a dozen witnesses are to be examined yet, and that he expects to conclude the inquiry today.

Case Against Judge Lindsey Is Dropped By Order Of Court

NEW YORK, Dec. 18—(AP)—Charges against former Judge Ben B. Lindsey of Denver, growing out of his demand for a hearing during services in the Cathedral of St. John the Divine two Sundays ago, faded among the shadows of legal technicalities yesterday. Magistrate August Dreyer, upholding a demurrer of Arthur Garfield Hays that the original disorderly conduct complaint against his client was defective, ordered a new complaint drawn. He called several times for somebody to step forward and sign it. Nobody did.

Then, after rebuking Lindsey for the act which the magistrate said everybody knew about, he slapped his hand upon the bench and announced: "This case is closed."

The magistrate, who said later that his rebuke was directed more at the general public than at Lindsey, told the former judge:

"You are an intelligent man. You are a lawyer. You were a judge. You were not like an ignorant man who didn't know his rights. If anything was said against you, you had your remedy. A church has the right to hold its services, without interruption and we can't say things we would like to say to them. overboard. There were strikes also at Bilbao and San Sebastian, but both those towns seemed to be calm with the army in control.

The jails are full and batches of prisoners have been locked up even in the movie houses, which have had no audiences for days. It was expected most of the prisoners would be turned loose soon and that leaders in the unsuccessful revolt would receive nothing heavier than prison sentences from courts martial.

The "trade story" of the revolution was revealed yesterday in a statement by Niceto Alcalá Zamora, whom the revolutionists proclaimed "president of the republic" on Saturday. From his prison cell he told how the plot had begun months ago and was to have flowered in a general strike to begin simultaneously in all cities last Monday morning.

Two things wrecked the program. The commandante of the garrison at Jaca began a mutiny three days ahead of time, and dissension developed among the plotters themselves. One group wanted a communist government to follow it, and the other group would not hear of any such thing. Ramon Franco, who led a group of aviators in the Cuatro Vientos revolt, remained at Madrid, in Portugal, until the Portuguese authorities could decide what to do with him and the men who fled across the frontier with him.

HALF MILLION IS OFFER MADE TO MAX SCHEMLING

Proposed Fight Would Be With Stribling In "Windy City" Arena

NEW YORK, Dec. 13.—(AP)—Young William Stribling, voted right out of the picture by the New York state athletic commission, jumped into the driver's seat Wednesday in the race for another heavyweight title battle, as the boys got together and talked recklessly of huge chunks of money.

An offer of $500,000 to Max Schmeling, for a title duel with Stribling in Chicago next spring completely scrambled the situation created yesterday by the commission's ultimatum to the German.

Out of the middle of talk, ultimatums and offers, came only the conclusion that there must be some compromise all around before anyone fights anyone else, for any title, anywhere.

The bid of half a million, first since the golden days of Tex Richard, days the fight game had come to believe were gone forever, was received by Joe Jacobs, Schmeling's new manager, from Nate Lewis, matchmaker of the Chicago stadium. Lewis brought his offer to New York yesterday, backed by telegraphic confirmation from Sidney N. Strodtz, president of the Stadium corporation.

Lewis would stage the Stribling-Schmeling show next June in Soldier field, Chicago, where the seating capacity is well over 100,000. He believes the gate receipts, with a $12 "top" would run well over $1,000,000. It was at Soldier field in 1927 that the late Tex Richard staged the greatest of all fight attractions, the second Tunney-Dempsey fight that drew almost $3,000,000.

Jacobs took the matter under advisement pending settlement of several puzling problems. Schmeling, still in Germany, is bound by contract to the Hearst milk fund committee for a title defense here in June. No one but the New York State Athletic commission, apparently, wants that match to be staged between Schmeling and Stribling without some sort of preliminary tournament to stir up interest and once again prove the Boston sailor's fighting qualities.

Madison Square Garden wants to stage a match in Miami, Fla., in February between Stribling and Primo Carnera, the Italian whale, but will compromise with the commission and eliminate Carnera, in his reputation here, and substitute Victoria Campolo as the southerner's opponent. In return the Garden would like the commission to sanction a tournament in which the Stribling-Campolo winner would meet Sharkey here in April for the right to face Schmeling.

Recommendation Of President Approved

WASHINGTON, Dec. 13.—President Hoover's recommendation for an additional $150,000,000 appropriation for the federal farm board was approved today by the House appropriation committee. The committee asked Congress to approve the measure immediately so the board can continue to make loans to grain and cotton stabilization corporations. The amount would bring to a half billion the total appropriated for the board.

NORTH VS SOUTH GAME IS SLATED FOR DECEMBER 28

Many Of Players Who Will Participate Tilt Are Announced

NEW YORK, Dec. 17.—(AP)—The first big football game ever staged in New York as late as the last week in December is scheduled for Sunday, Dec. 28, when all star teams of college players representing the North and South will play for charity at Ebbets Field.

Fearless in the face of weather Bureau figures showing that it has sometimes been as cold as eight degrees above zero here on Dec. 28, the organizers of the New York chapter of the Knights of Columbus Wednesday announced the game was definitely on. Efforts were being made, however, to take out insurance against unduly cold weather.

Bobby Dodd, lanky all-Southern quarterback from the University of Tennessee, will head the South's forces, it was stated. Others whose participation is reported assured are Hackman, Tennessee, and Betha, Florida, backs; Thayer, Tennessee; Bodinger, Tulane, and Forquer and Rose, Kentucky, all guards; and Holland, Tulane, fullback.

REVAMPED BAMA TEAM HAS LIGHT DRILL FOR GAME

Crimson Tide Will Entrain for Pasadena Rose Bowl Friday

TUSCALOOSA, Ala., Dec. 13.—(AP)—Alabama's revamped varsity ran through a light practice in freezing weather Wednesday, and prepared to top off training today for its New Year's day game with Washington State at Pasadena.

The Crimson Tide will entrain Friday with an official party for the west coast, stopping only at Grand Canyon for a sightseeing trip. There will be no practice en route.

Coch Wade probably will send his team through signal drill Friday before boarding the train, and that will be the Tide's last practice before reaching the scene of the New Year's day battle.

Freezing weather Wednesday hindered practice somewhat, but the men drilled with spirit and showed no ill effect from Tuesday's tough scrimmage.

Wade shook up his varsity Tuesday and started five former reserves against a second team on which played most of the regulars. John Tucker scored two touchdowns against the reserves.

Wade's strategy in revamping his varsity injected new life into the squad. Alabama is fortunate in having powerful reserve strength, and men who heretofore have been known as reserves are fighting hard to keep varsity positions assigned them.

Belgium Alarmed At Appearance Of Another Dense Fog

LIEGE, Belgium, Dec. 13.—(AP)—The population of the Liege district yesterday became highly alarmed at the appearance of a dense fog, fearing a recurrence of the recent mysterious epidemic which killed more than three score persons.

Many families of Engis, Jemeppe, Ougree and Seraing prepared to move from the valley to the neighboring heights.

They were all the more anxious to leave since the news spread that post mortem examinations of the previous victims and scientific investigation of the tragedy had not been able to fix definite blame for the deaths.

Juvenile Gang Is Investigated By Police Officers

Haldiman, Ray, Willis Harley 17; Aletha Rush 15, of Sioux City, Iowa, and Miss McNabb were arrested in Dallas, Texas, and taken to Independence, Kansas. There they face preliminary hearing on murder charge, in connection with the killing of John Siebel at his filling station at Tyro, Kansas, Dec. 1.

County Attorney Grant obtained a purported confession in which Haldiman is quoted as saying he shot Siebel to death while the other three waited for him. Haldiman first was definitely implicated by Harley.

A second slaying as been charged to Haldiman and Harley, officers asserted by Miss McNabb. In a statement she pictured the killing of William Price, a young bakery driver in Kansas City Nov. 26, and said the boys and girls had driven back to the place of the slaying to view the victim before the police arrived.

Three other girls and one boy were arrested in the Rosedale district of Kansas City, Kansas, wherein, officers assert, Haldiman set up a juvenile underworld with himself in the role of ruling lord and truck marksmen.

Implicated by Miss McNabb, the girls under arrest, including a mother, were said to have told of riding with Haldiman in stolen motor cars and of overhearing holdup plans.

3 Die And 11 Injured In Blast In France

PARIS, Dec. 13.—(AP)—Three men were killed and 11 severely injured yesterday in an explosion in a carbide factory at Manicoux near Toulouse.

First reports said that 40 workmen were missing, probably buried in the ruins, but authorities believed that no victims would be found except the 14.

The injured men suffered greatly from burns. A hundred men were working at the time of the blast, but the management was convinced that most of them escaped.

The explosion was confined to a single workshop and the material damage was slight. Thus the factory can continue operations and no one will be thrown out of employment.

Edison Believes Prohibition Has Been Big Benefit

(Continued From Page One) perience as a manufacturer, similar to that of other manufacturers. On pay days before prohibition hundreds of pale women shabbily dressed, some with faded shawls around their heads, appeared at our factory at West Orange. They were waiting to get some of their husband's money before he got to a saloon. Within a year after the amendment, not a single woman appeared. Surely we Americans do not want a return of this state of affairs. Undoubtedly the condition of the mother indicates the condition of the children although they are perhaps a little better off than she, because she will do anything, even to giving up her life, to protect them.

Q.—What attitude should the womanhood of America hold toward prohibition, and why?
A.—Woman is the custodian of the home and the children. She certainly, if a normal woman, does not desire the introduction of narcotics into her home, which in many cases changes a humane man into a brute.

Q.—Are the boys and girls of America more likely to develop a higher degree of physical and mental fitness, and become in every way better and more useful citizens under national prohibition of the liquor traffic, or under the old licensed system, or any form of State or government control?
A.—Yes, they certainly cannot develop on alcohol and other narcotics.

Q.—Should the Eighteenth Amendment be retained as a blessing to our American homes today and to those of future generations?
A.—Yes, enforcement is getting more practical day by day. We now attack the large manufacturer right in our midst instead of men with masks and home brews.

For his first heroism he was recommended for the distinguished service medal and praised in a personal letter from Josephus Daniels, then secretary of the Navy.

Captain Fried, 52, for 31 years a seaman, commanded a ship carrying supplies during the war. He was made captain of the liner President Roosevelt in 1922 and the America in 1925.

His first sea rescue was in 1923 when his vessel stood by the disabled British freighter, Antiope, for four days and saved 25 men aboard. In 1929 he went to the aid of the Italian freighter, Florida, and within four hours had rescued the entire crew of 32 men.

For these rescues he was feted by New York and hailed with a parade down Broadway, which ended with presentation of cash and medals at City Hall.

Plans Being Made For Charity Game With Bears As Headline

TAMPA, Dec. 13.—Tentative plans for a New Year's day charity football game to be played at Plant field between the Chicago Bears and an all-star Southern conference eleven, including such University of Florida veterans as Dale VanSickle, Red Betha, Royce Goodbread, Carl Brumbaugh, Rainey Cawthon, and Clyde Crabtree, were announced Tuesday by Maj. J. Frank Carmack at a meeting of U. S. S. Tampa post, American Legion.

Under the proposal submitted to the post, profits of the game would go to Tampa's charity organizations. The project was referred to the post's executive committee, which will hold a special meeting to finally decide the question of sponsorship.

The Chicago Bears' lineup includes Red Grange, the "scalloping ghost of Illinois" and three-time all-American backfield luminary, and Joe Savoldi, one of Knute Rockne's first string backs prior to his matrimonial mixup resulting in his withdrawing from Notre Dame. Savoldi was also picked as fullback of the 1930 second all-American eleven.

The offer to the legion came from Cawthon and Crabtree, who have assured the post that other southern conference stars are available to round out the Bears' opponents. But the majority of the team they said, would be recruited from University of Florida and Georgia Tech. The Bears have started on a barnstorming tour through the southern and southeastern states and Tampa has been given first chance at a game in Florida.

C. O. P. LEADERS RESENT GIBES AT PRESIDENT

Impassioned Defense Of Hoover's Integrity Made By Senator From Illinois

WASHINGTON, Dec. 19.—(AP)—Republican senators, infuriated by the attack of Senator McKellar, Democrat of Tennessee, yesterday made an impassioned defense of the president's integrity in connection with the $100,000,000 European relief fund bill.

Two hours of violent and vituperative debate started when Senator McKellar of Tennessee, demanded that Hoover give a final accounting of the European relief fund before he was given the $100,000,000 emergency fund to spend as he saw fit.

After Senator Glenn of Illinois, in a furious defense of the president charged that McKellar was "a thief, a poisoner and an embittered man of public vendetta." Senator Blawie of Oregon, in a calmer manner, explained that the relief fund was the fiscal agent for the $100,000,000 and that Hoover merely distributed the supplies in the European hunger areas.

Armed with photostatic copies of treasury documents, Blawie pointed out that the United States grain corporation had made a full accounting of money spent and added that the failure of a final report being made to Congress was an oversight on the part of President Wilson.

TALLAHASSEE, Dec. 19.—(AP)—W. H. Eberhardt, former editor of the Florida State News, local newspaper, has tonight announced his candidacy for governor of Florida subject to the Democratic primary of 1931.

Eberhardt issued a statement in which he said that during the time he published the Florida State News, he made an investigation of the manner in which state affairs were conducted. His statement said that the publication of the paper was discontinued because he had received many letters from persons in the state suggesting that he become a candidate and pledging him their support.

LEWISBURG, Pa., Dec. 19.—(AP)—Five youths were killed today when their automobile crashed into the abutment of a concrete bridge across the Susquehanna River which connects Lewisburg with the Susquehanna Trial. A sixth man suffered possible internal injuries. The dead are Wheeler Watson, believed to be the son of a Federal judge, Iliam Galr and his brother, Wilbur, Robert Wilson and William Ruhn, all of this state except Ruhn, who was a Canton, Ohio salesman. The accident occurred as Watson's car was crowded off the road by another car going in the same direction. The car turned over several times.

BAKER IS PRAISED BY SUMMERALL FOR WAR RECORD

Secretary's Work Is Seen As Big Factor In American Effort

WASHINGTON, Dec. 19.—(AP)—Now comes General Summerall, all at the close of more than two years of army life, to add his bit to the belated recognition of Newton Baker's administration of the war department.

Recently it was General Harbord, pronouncing Baker "the greatest of wartime war secretaries."

Now it is Summerall in his final report as chief of staff, telling how Baker did as secretary of the United States entered the war that had far-reaching effect upon the American war effort.

Summerall's report is an extraordinarily blunt statement of the near-failure, in every way that could be said of American military history despite the ultimate victories.

He pictures the situation that led Elihu Root as war secretary in 1903 to battle through legislation establishing general staff authority; and of the prolonged controversy that followed.

Fourth Husband Of Pauline Frederick Is Given Annulment

LOS ANGELES, Dec. 19.—(AP)—Hugh C. Leighton, fourth husband of Pauline Frederick, was granted an annulment yesterday after Judge William Darn visited Leighton's bedside and was told the actress had been his wife in name only.

Leighton, a wealthy hotel owner, had asked the superior court hearing in his room, where he is suffering from a nervous ailment.

At least $1000 a month, Leighton testified while propped on his pillows, had been paid by him to the actress without his getting even a "good kiss" during their eight months' marriage.

"When we married in my New York apartment last April, 20," Leighton testified, "I naturally thought Miss Frederick intended to be my wife, but she never was, going even that night to the home of a woman friend."

"I did my best to induce her to be happy and live a normal life," he continued, "but I could not discover the cause of her attitude."

TESTIMONY OF 2 WITNESSES HURTS MAJOR

Evidence Shown That Wife Of Army Officer Declared That He Gave Her Poison

KANSAS CITY, Kan., Dec. 19.—(AP)—Two witnesses testified today in the trial of Major Charles A. Shepard that his wife stated before her death she had been poisoned.

The testimony of Mrs. Shepard's purported declarations included one alleged direct accusation against her husband, which the court ruled out as improper evidence.

Miss Clara Brown of Topeka, Kan., a nurse who attended Mrs. Shepard, and Sgt. J. E. Grosver, attached to the army medical laboratory at Fort Riley, Kan., provided the highlights of the government's final efforts to convict the army medical officer for the alleged poison murder of his wife at Fort Riley in June, 1929.

"Mrs. Shepard has poisoned me," the nurse testified. Mrs. Shepard testified.

Judge Richard J. Hopkins ordered the jury to disregard the nurse's statement when the defense objected such evidence was improper. Defense attorneys said it constituted an unsupported opinion on the part of the deceased if such a remark had been made.

Mrs. Brown quoted Mrs. Shepard as making the declaration after the patient asked her to obtain a liquor bottle from Major Shepard's closet and bring it to the bedside. The witness said she quailed the contents at the request of Mrs. Shepard and had pronounced the odor "peculiar."

Mrs. Miller Is Ill And Nervous After Misfortune Series

PITTSBURGH, Pa., Dec. 19.—(AP)—Revel by misfortune again and again since she left her several weeks ago on a proposed flight to Havana, Cuba, and back.

Mrs. Keith-Miller, ill and nervous, went immediately to a hotel. She was driven off her course on the return flight between Havana and Miami, Fla., and made a forced landing in the Bahamas. After her ship was taken to Miami, she crashed at Jacksonville, Fla., and was compelled to abandon plans to fly back to Pittsburgh.

The woman flew said she returned here "broken." She said her ship was lost in the accident at Jacksonville.

"I don't know what I'm going to do in the future. I have no ship. I hope to get together for the flight to flying—but I don't know," she said.

RESERVE SYSTEM REVEALS STATUS OF ITS CONDITION

Exceptionally Strong Position To Meet Demands Is Noted

WASHINGTON, Dec. 19.—(AP)—Member banks of the Federal Reserve System entered the Christmas season of increased demand for currency with a smaller volume of indebtedness to the reserve banks than at any time since 1917.

The Federal Reserve Board made this announcement yesterday in its monthly review and said the system was in an exceptionally strong position to meet the demand.

It reported a decrease in demand for reserve bank credit had reflected a slack demand for currency due in part to the decrease in payroll disbursements by factories and to the continued demand.

Stimson Suggests Cut Of 90 Percent In U.S. Immigration

WASHINGTON, Dec. 19.—(AP)—Secretary Stimson yesterday suggested a cut in immigration of 90 percent based on the existing national origins method of selection as an alternative for the Reed proposal to bar all immigration for two years to relieve an employment.

The secretary of state made the proposal to the Senate immigration committee. He said the Reed resolution would upset the existing national origins policy by letting in increased numbers from southern Europe through its clause exempting relatives of foreign born American citizens.

"Stimson said he was not speaking of a new policy but merely a method of retarding immigration which would not destroy the existing methods. He said the department welcomed emergency restrictions if Congress would define the responsibility to be administered."

ORDER IN SPAIN BEING BROUGHT BY HARD RULE

No Reports Of Fighting Are Disclosed Anywhere In Nation; Madrid Is All Quiet

MADRID, Dec. 19.—(AP)—The strong hand of the Spanish government order was gradually being restored throughout the country, but by civil strife after Monday's abortive revolution.

In Madrid itself it had succeeded completely and the city was going about its affairs as if there had been no such incident as the brief rising at Cuatro Vientos air field when rebel leaders proclaimed the establishment of a republic.

This was largely true in the big provincial centers where three general strikes which were proclaimed Tuesday and Wednesday had either ended or were petering out.

There was no report of fighting anywhere in Spain.

With the return to normal life the country began counting casualties of the disturbances of the last three days and found that 31 persons had died and 12 had been wounded. Authorities emphasized that all the deaths and wounding took place in military disputes and none in military operations.

Although immediate danger appeared to have ended, heavy detachments of troops, including companies of the Spanish Foreign Legion, were in duty in every point where trouble might be expected to flare up again.

Luke Lee, Publisher Denies Allegation Of Mismanagement

NASHVILLE, Tenn., Dec. 19.—(AP)—Denying allegations of mismanagement, the Southern Publishers, Inc., yesterday sought the dismissal of a receivership application instituted by the Minnesota & Ontario Paper company, the Nashville Trust company and D. D. Donerstein, receiver for the Bank of Tennessee.

In a detail answer filed by Col. Luke Lee, president, the answer was made that the M. & O. Paper company was seeking control of the Journal at Knoxville, and the Tennessee papers at Nashville, all headed by Colonel Lee.

The answer, which purports to justify all financial transactions involving the Southern Publishers, Inc., and of the Memphis Commercial Appeal Inc., and Knoxville Journal Inc., the stock of which it holds, was filed before Chancellor James H. Newman as hearing of the receivership application opened. The hearing will be resumed today.

Plans Being Laid For Sending "A" To Chair

CHICAGO, Dec. 19.—(AP)—Judge John Lyle today was quoted as saying that a force will be made to send Alphonse Capone, gang chief, to the electric chair in connection with the slaying of the said Judge Lyle, who issued the vagrancy warrant for Capone recently. "He deserves to die. He has no right to live."

The judge mentioned Capone's name in connection with the killing in 1927 of big Jim Colson, reputed vice lord and also in connection with the death of another man whose name he did not reveal. The Herald Examiner said, however, that the state attorney's office is scrutinizing the files of the case of Joseph Howard, slain in 1924 with the idea of making it a basis of the murder charge.

Oklahoma Gas Well Is On Fire Rampage

WEWOKA, Okla., Dec. 19.—(AP)—A roaring menace to the Wewoka oil and gas field, the Deep Rock Oil Corporation's Douglas gas well was burning today. The well a mile south of town, blew in early this morning and caught fire tossing a thousand feet of heavy pipe a half mile away. It is estimated to be flowing 60,000,000 cubic feet of gas daily but no oil. Hundreds of residents, awakened by the roar, rushed to the scene but as the wind was from the West it appeared unlikely the town was in immediate danger from fire. All operations at the field stopped. Experts rushed here from Tulsa and expected to snuff out the flame with a nitroglycerine blast.

Court Gives Order Directing Approval Of Sheriff's Bond

TALLAHASSEE, Dec. 19.—(AP)—The state supreme court yesterday ordered the board of commissioners of Putnam county to meet at once to approve the bond of H. E. Howell, elected sheriff in the general election in November, to fill the unexpired term of the late Sheriff P. M. Hogan.

In a ruling on the contest for the office between Howell and J. J. Hancock, the supreme court previously had held Howell the legally elected sheriff, and that he should receive his commission as soon as his bond was approved.

Hancock contended he should have the office, because of his appointment by Governor Carlton. His commission, however, was not received until after the election, when the voters wrote Howell's name on the ticket.

Howell told the supreme court the commissioners "for political reasons" had refused to meet to approve his bond.

WAY IS OPENED FOR ACCORD ON DROUGHT BILL

Early Enactment Of Relief Measure Is Seen Approaching Due To Compromise

WASHINGTON, Dec. 19.—(AP)—The way was opened last night for early enactment of the emergency relief program by Congress with an agreement by conferees on a compromise $45,000,000 drought bill.

The compromise will be taken up for final approval today as earlier conferees reasonable to consider differences between the Senate and the House on the emergency $110,000,000 employment appropriation.

Democrats wanted determined results in both houses against President Hoover's recommendations but the administration forces held their majorities in line.

A decision of the House earlier in the day to pass down the $40,000,000 Senate drought relief bill by a $100,000 vote in accordance with the President's program was offset by the subsequent conference. Senate conferees yielded to the insistence of the House to eliminate the provision for loaning money to farmers for the purchase of personal food, a proposal condemned by the administration, but gained an amendment to permit such loans in cases of extreme emergency.

The Senate defeated a move to insert upon elimination from the $110,000,000 employment fund the provision giving the President power to allocate the money as he saw fit. A coalition of Democrats and Republicans independently fought this provision but they lost (Continued On Page Three)
