Sanford Plays Host To Seven Congressmen

Group Starts Training At Ball Park; C. Of C. Plans Dinner At Inn Tonight

The Congressional baseball team, including seven members of the House of Representatives, the door-keeper of the House and the chief page, and their wives and daughters, arrived late yesterday from Leesburg, spent the night at the Mayfair Inn, and today donned Giants' uniforms for a practice session with Carl Hubbell, Hans Lbert and other New York Giants.

Congressman Sid Hilling "chaperoned" the group, all of whom declared that they are greatly enjoying the climate and beauty of Central Florida and Sanford.

In the group were Rep. Lowell Stockman of Pendleton, Ore. and Mrs. Stockman; William Miller, door-keeper of the House; Rep. H. T. O'Neill of Scranton, Pa. and Mrs. O'Neill; and daughter; Rep. H. C. Hagan, Minn. (R) and Mrs. Hagan; Rep. Eugene McCarthy of Minnesota; Rep. Herlong and Turner Robertson, chief page of the House and Mrs. Robertson.

Tonight the Congressmen and their wives and daughters will be honored guests at a dinner given at the Mayfair Inn at 8:00 o'clock by the Sanford County Chamber of Commerce. Following the dinner the group will attend the Sanford-Doland baseball game.

Among the guests from Deland will be Mayor and Mrs. C. E. Tribble; William LeVelle, city manager; John G. Gravelle, president, and Walter L. Lahrman, manager of the Deland Chamber of Commerce. Other guests will be Charles Wadsworth, sports editor of the Orlando-Sentinel Star, Mr. and Mrs. James P. Ehrbridge, E. L. Dean, Byron Rock, E. G. Kilpatrick, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Patrick, Edward Higgins, Les R. Leister, John Krier, and Charles Marjan.

The flight out April 13 morning was a very busy one. Rep. McCarthy a bit and he expressed delight in the Florida climate. "I heard about 11 degrees above zero in Duluth yesterday," he commented. A former teacher of economics at St. Johns College in Minnesota, he used to play basketball for the college when a student.

White haired Rep. O'Neill, his face beet red from exposure from the sun following a fishing trip at Leesburg, didn't mind the liddling of the color Congressman McCarthy, he revealed smilingly that he had caught two fine bass. In bathing practice he got a big kick out of smacking a slow offering by Carl Hubbell.

Rep. McCarthy held on enjoying the trip to Silver Springs, to the boat and jungle trip, and seeing Ross Allen handle rattlesnakes and gators.

"Fishing hook was not so good with Ross Allen in the north-most district of Minnesota, he revealed, but he told Edward Higgins that he got two mud fish and an steel head in Leesburg. He stated that this area

Makassar Revolt Leader Gives Up To Indonesians

Demilitarization Order Is Not Revoked As Unrest Continues

JAKARTA, U. S. I., Apr. 14.—(AP)—The leader of the Makassar revolt, Capt. Andi Abdul Aziz, arrived by plane and surrendered to the Indonesian government today but officials said he does not consider the revolt has been quelled.

Aziz arrived here a day after President Soekarno ordered the demilitarization of federal forces to invade Makassar and end the rebellion. He was whisked away by military police as a prisoner. He has retained three times previously to attend the trial.

Defense Minister Sultan Hanungku Bayuwana said the rebel leader's surrender is "unconditional" but declared the rebels still hold the East Indonesian capital city.

"I do not know what order Aziz gave his troops," Bayuwana declared. "They are still holding the town and they are still insurgents. Our military operation will continue until I am notified the matter is completely settled."

The Indonesian government said Aziz, a former officer in the Indonesian Corps of the Dutch Army, was being treated as a prisoner, not as a military leader in a position to negotiate with the government.

Minnesota Corporal Pleads Innocent In U. S. Court Martial

GARMSCH-PARTENKIRCHEN, Germany, Apr. 14.—(AP)—Two U. S. Army agents testified today that a 19-year-old American airman told them he volunteered to supply secret military information to Russia because "I believe in Communism."

They said Col. Gustav Adolph Mueller of St. Paul, Minn., then gave them secret U. S. intelligence documents while they posed as agents of the Soviet Union.

Mueller is on trial before a U. S. Air Force court martial on charges of attempting to deliver classified information involving U. S. national defense to a foreign agent. He pleaded innocent at the opening of the trial this morning.

Conviction on the charge in time of war could bring the death penalty. Technically the state of war has not yet ended.

One of the agents said Mueller, son of a Swiss father and British mother told them at a meeting they had arranged with him.

"I have been looking for a contact for a long time. My father fought in the Communist revolution on the side of Lenin. From my earliest youth I have been interested in Communist doctrine and I believe in Communism. It is the only right way."

The Soviet Union represents the Communist Party line and I think I could help the Soviet Union and thus the party line by supplying information I believe to be important."

NO PROOF
TALLAHASSEE, Apr. 14.—(AP)—The Florida Supreme Court today ordered the release of Henry A. Marshall, sentenced to 60 days imprisonment on a charge of attempting to influence two Broward county jurors.

The court, in a 5-2 decision, said evidence in the case was insufficient to support the charge. It ordered his release unless sufficient evidence is presented.

Mid-Winter Spring Plays Chilly Tricks In Northern Parts Of U. S.

WASHINGTON, Apr. 14.—(AP)—The cold wave from the North moved southward in the past few days, and "extremely cold weather" is expected again tonight. The weather bureau issued in a special report. It held out hope for more spring-like weather over the weekend.

By ASSOCIATED PRESS
It's mid-April and Spring, sweet, sweet, gentle, Spring, is three weeks old, and acting like old man Winter.

The season of light showers, soft winds, budding trees and flowers and green grass is "way off" the climatic beam over many parts of the country.

In the Midwest, it might as well be Winter. The Eastern states don't feel too hot about their brand of Spring weather, either. There's too much snow and sleet in the air, much like the Winter season variety.

There's not much, if any, Spring fever in the air yet. The unseasonable cold—from the northern plains, across the Great Lakes

Control Voted For Potatoes By Senators

Brannan Farm Plan Is Turned Down By Senate's Agriculture Subcommittee

WASHINGTON, Apr. 14.—(AP)—A rigid system of federal controls over planting and marketing of high potatoes was approved today by a Senate Agriculture Subcommittee.

The senators rejected a proposed trial of the so-called Brannan farm plan, backed by President Truman as a means for ending the costly and troublesome potato surplus piled up under government price props.

Instead it approved a proposal for nationwide controls both by the bushel and acre. Excess planting or production would result in stiff penalties.

Subcommittee Chairman Ellender, (D-La.) said the new potato control plan will be considered by the full Agriculture Committee next Tuesday. He said the control program was drafted by the national potato council with help from Agriculture Department potato experts and lawyers.

Congress recently voted to end all potato price props after this year, unless it enacted and growers accepted rigid controls.

The pending measure is intended to provide the controls.

Senator Holland (D-Ill.) refused to sign the subcommittee report but Ellender claimed votes of Senators Lucas (D-Ill.), Tamm (R-Miss.) and Alben (R-Vt.).

Under the proposal each commercial potato grower would be assigned a quota or share of potatoes for marketing. He would be assigned a given number of acres to plant based on his average production the past three years. He would be allowed to market all potatoes grown on his allotted acre.

If he produced or planted more than his quota, his surplus would be sold to the government at a price 10 per cent below that of the government's purchase price. The government support would be 10 per cent below that of the government's purchase price. If he produced or planted less than his quota, he would be subject to the penalty.

Buyers or purchasers of the potatoes would be required to withhold the penalty from prices they paid for the "excess potatoes."

The 75 per cent penalty is the most drastic ever proposed for a federal farm control program. Most of them have carried penalties of 50 per cent of parity.

A farmer could avoid penalties on his excess production by turning the excess over to the government. It could divert them from normal market channels, such as giving them away to institutions or charities for needy persons or converting them into fertilizer or other uses.

Unless a farmer cleared up all penalties on one crop he would be ineligible for price supports on the next. This appeared to be a means of encouraging or forcing wide compliance.

Any potato price support program would be conditional upon a favorable vote on controls by two-thirds of the Senate.

Gen. Bradley Outlines U.S. Defense Plans

Rit Of Sovereignty May Be Abandoned In Atlantic Pact For Good Of All

CHICAGO, Apr. 14.—(AP)—General Omar Bradley said today the United States may have to drop its theory of a balanced Army, Navy and Air Force to meet the defense needs of the North Atlantic area.

The chairman of the U. S. Joint Chiefs of Staff indicated that the Army might come off third best under such an arrangement. He also observed that by placing American defense plans second to those of the whole Western world, "a small bit of sovereignty is relinquished."

It would be well worth while, he said.

In an address prepared for the Executive Club, the former Chief of Staff of the Army reviewed the accomplishments of the recent Atlantic conference of Atlantic Pact defense chiefs.

A spokesman for a small national group said the spokesman for that group indicated that the defensive plans developed in the Atlantic Pact would be to meet the needs of the United States forces. "If we expand beyond the present level," he said.

Bradley said the agreement in the Atlantic Pact, to each demand on the "rate and extent" by which the armed forces of each member nation must be expanded. He did not say what action was taken on the proposal, but commented.

Unconditional Pardon Is Given To Boston Democratic Political Figure

WASHINGTON, Apr. 14.—(AP)—President Truman has given a full and unconditional pardon to 72-year-old James M. Curley, colorful Boston Democratic figure twice convicted of violating federal laws.

The White House announced the pardon was granted yesterday. It did not say so, but from all indications the action was chiefly a gesture to an elderly man long honored by his native city and state. It came as Curley was preparing to leave for Rome on a pilgrimage of the Catholic Holy Year. He sailed before the pardon was announced.

Curley already has served his time and he never lost his citizenship rights. So the pardon has little or no practical effect.

After the White House announcement, the Justice Department disclosed that Mr. Truman also had pardoned Donald Wakefield Smith, one of two men convicted with Curley in 1946 of mail fraud.

For Curley, the pardon covered both the 1916 case and a 1935 case in which an alleged conspiracy of competing to improve another person in taking a Civil Service examination. He served a two-month sentence for the 1935 case. Curley had been governor of Massachusetts, a member of Congress, and was mayor of Boston when the 1946 matter arose.

In that case, the agreement between Curley, Smith and James G. Fuller of organizing a firm called Engineers Group, Inc. and fabricating representing it, could obtain war contracts for itself. They were alleged to have taken over $100,000 from clients.

All were convicted.

Curley was sentenced to six to 18 months in jail. He served the 18 months and his sentence then was commuted by President Truman.

Smith, of Pittsburgh, a former member of the National Labor Relations Board, was sentenced to 100 days in jail. He served the 100 days and his sentence then was commuted by President Truman.

Pepper Carries Defiant Lovers Fighting Drive To St. Petersburg

Smathers Cites Support For Pepper In Commie Newspaper

By ASSOCIATED PRESS
Senators Claude Pepper, fighting to win nomination in the Florida Democratic primary of May 2, carried his campaign to Panama City today and planned to wind up the day with a rally in St. Petersburg.

His opponent, Rep. George Smathers of Miami, flew to Tampa for a round of handshaking and an open air rally tonight.

Pepper made five speeches in north-central Florida, thus far, bringing in the name of Franklin D. Roosevelt and the Democratic party on a 120-mile swing.

"You won't find me getting elected as a Democrat, then voting with the Republicans," Pepper told a St. Petersburg audience last night.

He said Republicans in Florida and elsewhere were working to his defeat.

Meanwhile, Smathers made his reply to an article in the Communist Daily Worker of last Sunday which called for his defeat.

Smathers gave the article full treatment at a rally of 500 of his workers at the Alhambra Club in Miami Thursday night. The speech was carried on a statewide network.

Pepper called the Communist article "silly" and "foolish."

"It was the logical result and the logical consequence of the record for himself," Smathers said.

Smathers cited 10 quotations from Communist publications, which he said had given favorable comment to Pepper.

From an issue of the Daily Worker for July 29, 1947, Smathers read the quotation:

"The heroes of the anti-Communist movement."

Defiant Lovers Hold Off Police For 12 Hours

Canadian Couple Are Caught After Hiding In Old Cabin

QUEBEC, P. Q., Apr. 14.—(AP)—A defiant pair of lovers—a 19-year-old youth and his 16-year-old girl friend—stood off a police posse more than 12 hours before capture today on a high plateau in the Northern British Columbia wilderness.

Police smoked the couple out of a lonely trapdoor cabin with tear gas bombs but the two fled to the bush. The posse finally tracked them to a stony ridge, where a prepared to open up a fusillade on police. He only was only a few minutes before the police fired the only shot.

The couple—Bert Lager was the only one identified by police—held up in the cabin 18 miles west of here after fleeing their Quebec home. For day night and breaking out isolated wilderness cabins. This village is about 300 miles north of Vancouver.

Police had a warrant charging Lager with abduction. They added, however, the high school girl had fled with Lager's help, and they needed no further charges.

Officers and the girl hunted from the cabin to her father as he pleaded with her to come out. "I'll see you in Hell first."

The boy yelled to police: "If you want me, you'd better bring a coffin."

Four tear gas bombs were hurled through the fire windows of the ramshackle log cabin. One came back and hit a game warden on the head.

Grand Jury Probes Lake County Case

OCALA, Apr. 14.—(AP)—A special federal grand jury will convene here Monday to investigate last summer's mob action in Lake county for possible civil rights violation.

Herbert S. Phillips, U. S. district attorney, said as far as he knew the civil rights probe would be the only matter to come before the jurors.

He added, however, that the only jury could consider other matters. Federal Judge Donier A. Devane will preside.

The Lake county mob violence began July 17 after a white woman was raped and her husband attacked by Negroes. The mob burned three Negro rural homes and shots were fired into several others.

Payment Is Made For A & M Negro Hospital

TALLAHASSEE, Apr. 14.—(AP)—The last payment for construction of the new Florida A. & M. College for Negroes $2,000,000 hospital was raised today in a complete business transaction between two state boards and the city of Tallahassee.

The city has contributed $150,000 to the project in the past and wasn't due to put up its final $100,000 donation until Mar. 31, 1950.

So, to raise the money to pay the contractor, the State Board of Control assigned the city's contract calling for next year's payment to the State Board of Education for $65,000.

Now, when the city's next payment is due it will send a $100,000 check to the State Board of Education which will have earned $5,000 for the permanent school fund by virtue of the transaction.

TOWNSEND MEET

The Sanford Townsend Club will meet tonight at 8:00 o'clock in regular semi-monthly session at the Court House. Sunday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock a Townsend congressional district meeting will be held at the Court House. Club officials extend a cordial invitation to the public to attend both meetings.

New York Sisters Drop Off Relief To Tour Europe

NEW YORK, April 14.—(AP)—Two old-maid sisters, one city girl for the past 19 years, dropped off their relief fund for the relief of the Polish Relief Fund for a trip to Europe on a cruise liner, it was revealed today.

They arrived six months later on the same ship but on a different and packed away their baggage in a 600-a-month Broadway hotel room paid for by the city.

They now are drawing about $250 a month for food and rent.

The traveler were identified by the City Welfare Department as Emily Vancher, 67, and her sister, Athole Vancher, 64.

The Welfare Department gave this account of the woman's travels.

Last September they decided to go to Europe for their health. They thought they might find a job there too.

So they sold their furniture and took out of their $25-a-month city provided retirement fund. They said they got $100 for the furniture, $100 for a relative abroad and earned $400 more by making and selling handkerchiefs.

They said their way to Paris up the liner America. There one of the sisters picked up a few francs selling handkerchiefs in front of the U. S. Embassy.

Later they wound up in Switzerland where they finally ran out of ready cash. They asked that

Economic Chart-watchers Happy Over Gain In Production Power

WASHINGTON, Apr. 14.—(AP)—General gains in production and buying power, reported to Congress for the first quarter in 1950, cheered the economic chart-watchers today.

Yet jobs remained a big question mark. In the view of the President's Council of Economic Advisors, economic expansion has not hit a rate which will keep ahead of creeping unemployment.

The council sent to Congress yesterday its monthly report, "Economic Indicators," covering the first three months of what the council had predicted would be a "good year."

The forecast has been borne out, thus far. National income climbed, after falling throughout 1949. Industrial production surged back, after the coal strike, to exceed January's level. Home building set a record.

Per capita personal income, after allowing for taxes, was at a rate which exceeded even the average of booming 1948. It was estimated

Financial Crisis Holds Spotlight At School Meeting

JALILI, Apr. 14.—(AP)—Some 8,000 teachers attending the annual Florida teachers' convention here today were split into groups for discussion of their particular problems by the meeting entered its second day.

The financial situation held the spotlight. More money funds was stressed at all sessions on opening day, as was the demand that teachers be guaranteed a steady income.

J. Valma Kopp of Tallahassee, chairman of the continuing educational council, told the convention last night that appropriations made by the Legislature for schools should be held for all this year. He said that unless it does, all income schools must begin the next year in debt.

Kopp said school revenues must be protected from a source that will continue to be inadequate. He urged a program of school assessment program directed by a State tax commission.

State Superintendent Thomas Bailey said legislative action to provide money for schools is essential.

"We only request that has been promised in good faith and what will continue to be the primary function of the State," he said.

Bailey explained that because of a shortage of state funds only 90 per cent of the appropriation for public schools could be paid.

TODAY'S BIBLE VERSE

If no moral issue is involved do not intervene. Why shouldst thou meddle to thy hurt?—Kl. 14:10.

Welcome Congressional

U. N. Secretary General Trygve Lie is planning on going to Moscow in the interest of peace.

If this campaign lasts much longer Senator Pepper will be accusing Rep. Smathers of being a Communist, and Rep. Smathers will be accusing Senator Pepper of being a Wall Street reactionary.

An interesting article in the current issue of the magazine "Life" by Holland Ous begins, "The American taxpayer is being skinned alive and the skinning will never stop until some of this reckless spending is halted and the government payroll is cut."

President Truman looks back over his last five years in public office, says the country is in fine shape and takes full credit for himself. The only thing that is wrong with it is that the government owes 25 billion dollars, is running six billion dollars a year in the red, and has the highest tax rate in its history spread over the largest number of people in the smaller income brackets.

Chamber of Commerce officials scouting rural areas for membership units into opposition, not just against Chamber of Commerce, but against the whole city of Sanford and the self-sufficient attitude which they seem to think has developed here since the war. Sanford people, especially Sanford merchants, are not self-sufficient, must depend on the trade of rural areas to keep their businesses going.

James R. Young, famous Washington correspondent, who spent ten years in China, and probably knows more about the Far Eastern situation than many a State Department expert who goes out there for a hurried three months visit and then comes back to Washington with all the answers on how to deal along with the Communists, says his respects to Senator Claude Pepper who is not very well liked in Washington by the correspondents who all see clearly through his sham and pretenses.

City Manager Clifford McKibbin appreciates the importance of public relations, another way of saying keeping the public informed of what you are doing. No one, be it the United States Government, lawyer, doctor, merchant, should neglect his public relations. Yet most of them do. Oh, they have plenty of free publicity but they make it just as hard as they can for the reporter to get a word. A man who is going to prepare a speech at the Red Club where 50 people hear him how many times does he get an extra copy of his speech to take with him and actually report on it? Most which will reach the general reader will be how he got there but he is not briefly.

Friend Of T. R.

President's sons are apt to suffer in public estimation from their failure to approach the distinction of their fathers. Few equal the record of President John Quincy Adams, an even abler man than his president father. Yet judged by his own achievements and not by the irrelevant accomplishments of President James A. Garfield, his father, the late James R. Garfield was a man of note.

The last survivor of Theodore Roosevelt's inner circle and his secretary of the interior, he was the storm-center of the quarrel between Roosevelt and his protege and successor, William Howard Taft. Roosevelt expected Taft to continue Garfield as his secretary of the interior. Taft chose to appoint instead Richard A. Ballinger of Washington, whose conservation policies were much more legalistic than Garfield's. The quarrel culminated in the 1912 split, when Roosevelt bolted Taft's renomination and polled more votes. In his succession from the G. O. P., Roosevelt was steadfastly followed by Garfield.

Like Roosevelt, Garfield thereafter returned to the Republican ranks, and in the 1932 Republican convention he supported Hoover and prohibition. He was one of the showpieces of Ohio Republicanism, and carried his unblemished reputation to the end.

German Town Meetings

Pattered after the old New England town meeting, a thoroughly American institution, forums for the discussion and solution of local problems are being held in towns and villages in American-occupied Germany.

The rank and file of the German people have traditionally taken little interest in their government, leaving its implementation entirely to their officials. They are finding this American-sponsored innovation surprisingly effective and are waking up to the advantages of democratic government. Rural roads are being raised to standards which make bus routes possible, milk distribution has been facilitated, black market activities curbed and housing shortages handled, all by local enterprise.

What will happen to this set-up when the occupation period ends is a question its sponsors feel unqualified to answer. It is assumed, however, that local groups which have experienced the effectiveness of this method will flow to some interest in their own government and trust it entirely to other hands. The practice of democracy, people usually find, is habit-forming. Its devotees are seldom willing to drop it.

Despoilers Of Books

The other day some visitors to the Betsy Ross flag house in Philadelphia tore a page from the Ross family Bible, one of the exhibits in the house, and made off with it. It was no easy task, as the Bible was protected by a glass case fastened to the display table.

This despoliation, notable because of the special value of the book involved, was akin to countless similar acts perpetrated daily in libraries and other places where books and various objects of interest are available for public use. It is hard to say whether these should be called acts of thievery or of vandalism, since they are both. The gain of the thief is small. But the damage to the loser—the public—is great.

A peculiar thing is that these mutilations are often performed by people who do not steal other things. Apparently a person who would be shocked by the idea of stealing a loaf of bread will rip a page from a book and stuff it into his pocket without compunction. Perhaps there has been some shortcoming in teaching the value of books, and especially the point that the value of a book lies in a whole book, and not in a part of it.

Mid-Winter

The Major League baseball teams moved out of the snow and mild (in most places) South to their frosty home bases. They were hoping for warmer weather before the season's league opening games, next Tuesday.

In Kansas City yesterday, with the mercury in the 40's, fans at the New York Giants-Cleveland exhibition game, started small fires to keep warm. Chicago's predicted high of 42 today prompted officials of the Cubs to call off their scheduled exhibition game today with the White Sox.

The freezing line hit into parts of the South with forecasts of readings of near 32 as far south as the Carolinas and Tennessee. The U. S. Weather Bureau said cold air from Canada, now extending over the eastern two-thirds of the country except for Florida and southern Texas.

Temperatures were below freezing all day yesterday over much of the Great Lakes region, eastern Indiana, Ohio and the western parts of Pennsylvania and New York. The day's low was 3 below zero at Grand Forks, N. D. Many cities reported record low readings for the date. The high was 91 at Yuma, Ariz., with readings in the 80's along the Rio Grande Valley and in Florida. Snow in New England measured as much as eight inches in the Berkshires in western Massachusetts. Flurries fell along the New England coast last night. A brief fall of wet flurries in New York city dampened Spring buds and daffodils.

There was snow over most of upstate New York. The fall measured four inches near Albany and one inch at Buffalo. There was lots of snow on the ground over many areas in the North Central region, with heavy falls this week in the Dakotas. A blanket measuring four inches covered the

The sisters then went to the State Department and borrowed $385 for the trip home on the America. They landed March 30. They still were broke so the Travelers Aid Society gave them a hand. Welfare authorities tried to steer them to a municipal lodging house but they spurned this as "emotionally disturbing."

Finally they turned up at a welfare center, got back on relief and were bedded down in a hotel at city expense.

OFF TO MOSCOW

The U. N. chief executive confirmed at his weekly news conference reports that he was thinking of going to Moscow to discuss the issue of Chinese representation to the U. N. He said he would also talk over other problems facing U. N.

sections of West Virginia mountains. Highways in western Pennsylvania were glazed after a two-inch snowfall. The cold weather has delayed Spring planting in some areas and threatened to cut the food crop sharply. Budding fruit trees in Dixie were threatened as the cold moved into the South. Forecasters warned peach orchard growers in the Ohio basin in southern Illinois.

Federal Weather Bureau officials in Washington explained the reason for the abnormal Spring weather. Briefly, they said that polar air got a late start moving into the eastern half of the nation. But the stored-up icy air finally found outlets, roared across the border and spilled out across wide areas, making Spring but on Winter wraps.

THE NATION TODAY

By JAMES MARLOW (Editor's Note: This is the fourth of five stories comprising the fight over the Hoover Commission's proposal to lump the VA hospital program in with other government hospital programs.)

WASHINGTON, Apr. 14. — (AP) — No one questions the power and energy of the American Legion. It claims 3,000,000 members, about 2,100,000 of them paid up.

In its Washington headquarters alone it has a staff of about 100 people. And it has employees all around the country. So it has a big machine to throw into its fight as it starts. It has started and is leading a fight against the Hoover Commission's recommendation to lump all the government's big hospitals, Army, Navy, Public Health Service and Veterans Administration (VA) — in one new agency to be called the United Medical Administration.

This would take the VA's medical and hospital program away from VA. The Legion is against it. It wants VA to keep its own hospitals independent and separate from any other government agency.

In this fight it has the support of three other big veterans' groups: the Veterans of Foreign Wars; Disabled American Veterans; and the AMVETS. The Legion has called upon its 17,351 posts to get into the fight so that Congress won't approve any bills to make the Hoover recommendation a reality.

In a broadside to all its posts, the Legion sent out this word: "Make no mistake about this. When you are notified that these bills have been submitted in Congress contact your Senators and Congressmen... and do it in such a forceful manner that they will know you mean what you say."

"Make sure that every hostile editorial or news item printed in your hometown newspaper is challenged and answered with the information contained in this sheet. Talk with the editor and make sure he fully understands the issue. (Some of the biggest newspapers have kindly slipped the Legion for the kind of campaign it is waging.)"

"The time for all gloves is past. Now is the time to take off the gloves," says the Legion's leaflet. "If necessary, we will knock you out." In the broadside the Legion would "smash" and "demolish" the VA as a "kaffe" in the back of the American consumer who has honorably served their country."

The Legion argues that the Hoover Plan would tangle the veterans' aid and benefits, deprive them of the complete freedom of choice of getting needed hospital care. When the commander of the Legion, George W. Craig, recently announced a bill to the VA to be paid under a new agency, he had to answer for that broadside, particularly the phrase about "knocking you out."

Craig said he thought the phrase was "unfortunate" but denied the Legion was trying to exert political pressure on congressmen in this congressional session over the Legion and Craig and the other veterans' organizations were not alone in opposing the Hoover Plan.

As early as last Summer, just a few months after the Hoover Commission made its recommendation, the head of the Veterans Administration, Carl N. Gray, Jr., had this to say: "I must strongly recommend against adoption of these recommendations. . . It is in basic conflict with the traditional policy of the government to accord to veterans, as a class, special consideration through one agency responsible for administering the various benefit programs."

Eleven doctors, all distinguished men, were on the staff of experts which studied the recommendation before it finally gave approval. Yet, other doctors have condemned it. For example, there was Dr. Charles W. Mayo of the Mayo Clinic in Rochester, Minn. Dr. Mayo is Chairman of the Medical Advisory Board of the VA and has also been chairman of the American Legion's advisory board.

He told a congressional committee, which is considering a bill to put the Hoover recommendation into law, that he was against it and he said he thought the result would be "inefficient."

General Bradley

For example, the North Atlantic Treaty defensive plan might require from us a greater Air Force, or a greater Navy, than we ourselves might be willing to provide.

"Which such an arrangement, of course, a small bit of sovereignty is relinquished. "But when I think that national pride and sovereignty are often paid for with the life and blood of soldiers, I feel that we must accept the more difficult alternative which comes with this joining of hands in collective defense."

Bradley declared that the "next defense chiefs have drawn up general estimates of the forces needed to hold the common frontiers in the heart of Europe" and have opened supply lines linking the Western allies.

These plans, he said, "need not change" the balance or cost of U. S. military forces this year. But thereafter, he added, the United States must carefully consider "what our friends can best contribute before we decide what the American dollar should buy for the collective defense."

Bradley said the other member of the alliance realize "They must not wait for the United States to change."

U. S. Economy

At the level of 1,321,000 jobless, unemployment now stands higher than at any time last year, Federal economists do not regard the figure itself as alarming in view of the upward trend of business. As Keyserling indicated, it is the aspect of a slow, year-by-year increase that gives concern.

The tapering-off in industry's post-war spurt of investment in new plant and machinery is closely watched therefore, as a guide to future trends in job and production.

The decline from a year ago is now estimated at $ per cent for the first half of this year, 11 per cent for the full year. This is less than the forecast supplied the government by industry some months ago, and may hint at some flattening of business confidence.

Profits — corporation earnings — reached an annual rate of $3,500,000,000, or about a billion better than in the best quarter of 1949. Stocks — stock exchange prices were found to be "higher than at any time since the 1949 peak."

Industrial output — the federal reserve index went to 184 in March, even though the coal strike lasted through the first 18 days. This wiped out February's drop to 180 and just topped January's 182.

Construction — the value of new building work was put at $120,000,000, considerably better than a year ago.

Business — New starts topped all records in January and February. With 80,000 new homes started in each month of March, it was indicated, continued to gain pace.

On the other side of the picture was farm income. In February it was down 10 per cent from a year ago. Prices received by farmers were up slightly in February and March, however, from the levels of December and January.

Jaycees Meet

The Judge added that Pepper accepted the invitation but regretted that he could not appear in person. "In his place," the Judge said, "Pepper was sending a high official in the state's Democratic circle."

The Judge declared that he informed the Smathers' headquarters of Pepper's plans and they reacted tentatively to have a representative from their own group appear at the meeting.

Bradley Odham suggested that we can't have Pepper and Smathers in person. I suggest that we write and call off our invitations." A motion was passed that the board of directors write the candidates for office and ask them to appear before the club in person. The motion included the stipulation that if either one of the candidates accepted the invitation under those terms the meeting would be held.

Lawmakers Refuse To Let Group Of High School Girls

Lawmakers Work Out Under Hans Lobart; Syd Herlong Takes Over First Base

By BILL HERRING
World Sports Reporter
 Any resemblance between spring training and today's antics of the Washington "Never-Sweats" was merely accidental. Seven Congressmen and two subs arrived at the Municipal Ball Park this morning and immediately donned uniforms loaned them by the New York Giants.

Under the watchful eye of Coach Hans Lobart, the lawmakers ran through a series of fielding and hitting drills which, as Fishback Miller, Doorkeeper of the House, stated, "... was sure to draw a note of protest from Almer Doubleday."

A tentatively scheduled game between the Congressmen and a group of girls from Seminole High School was called off when Rep. C. H. Fallon of Maryland humorously took a dim view of the contest. "If those youngsters at Ocala trimmed us," he said, "what will these young ladies do?"

A quorum was called immediately and it was decided to forego any attempt to play the girls.
 Rep. Eugene McCarthy of Minnesota, an ex-University of Minnesota first baseman, came the nearest to looking like a ballplayer than any of the world other Congressmen. McCarthy sprang 300-foot blasts in all fielding during admission from Grant manager Carl Hubbell.

Hubbell delivered a modified version of his famous screwball to Lowell Stockton of Maryland who promptly took a lousy cut at the sphere and drove it out into short right field. An incredulous look spread over the lawmaker's face as he watched the ball as gracefully as he watched the infield. "Was that really your screwball?" he shouted at Hubbell. Carl nodded.

Stockton dropped the bat, turned around and walked into the dugout. Ed Garnatz, Maryland representative, smiled knowingly. "He might get over it but he'll never be the same."
 Syd Herlong, Jr., who played first during the pre-war season, asked City Commissioner John Ritter how he looked handling his fielding chores. "You look like finished first baseman," the Commissioner replied.

"Yes," said Herlong, "finished a long, long time ago."
 Turner Robertson, Harry O. Nell, and Harold Hogan clustered knowingly around second base, one behind the other. Lobart asked the trio to spread out a little. "Spread out nothing," bellowed Robertson. "We're going to stay this way. If one of us misses the ball the other guys are sure to stop it."

Two pitches later a batted ball skidded right between all three of the players. "Why didn't you stop it," asked Lobart.
 "Stop it?" the Congressman asked. "We didn't even see it!"
 The lawmakers are scheduled to be on hand for tonight's contest between the Sanford Giants and the DeLand Hatters which will start at 8:00 P.M. at the Municipal Ball Park.

See Action Tonight

22 homers and .287 now have their first year behind them and Bobby Morgan, most valuable player in the International League, seems ready to fill Brooklyn's sore spot at third base by hitting 19 homers and .327 at Montreal.
 "We are the team to beat," says Manager Barney Shotton. "The Cardinals, cried because they had a four-game losing streak the last week," he says. "Well, we had one of six straight right before that. But we come back and that proves we have a pretty good ball club."
 The Red Sox are picked with reservations. Manager Joe McCarthy can't seem to push the right button. He lost the playoff game to Cleveland for the '43 flag and his Sox collapsed by blowing a six-game lead with two days to go last October.
 Sox Lack Infield Reserves
 The Sox are woefully weak in reserve infield talent. If Johnny Pesky misses many games due to his cranky side muscle, things will be rough. However, the Sox need only a letter start than last spring. At the midway mark they had an eight game losing streak and were 12½ games behind the leading Yankees. Redfield pitching is another weak spot in the Sox. Joe's talent-laden lineup which includes such steady hitters as Ted Williams, Bob Stephenson, Dom DiMaggio, Bobby Hoer and Pesky.
 Two young clubs to watch are the Philadelphia Phillies in the National, or more interesting league, and the Detroit Tigers in the American. When both teams catch fire, as they promise they will, they are going to be mighty rough. Both teams have that old Yankee touch. Phillie pilot Eddie Sawyer was Yankee farm manager until the late Herb Pennock whisked him away. Red McCarthy played eight years under McCarthy and is a stickler for detail.
 However, the Yankees must be put ahead of the Tigers in the coming race. "We expect to win," says Manager Casey Stengel. "After last year I now know that I can stand an injury any place I am deep in reserves."
 The interesting part about the Yankees will be Joe DiMaggio playing center field so early in the season. He missed the first 65 games last year yet hit .340 and broke the backs of the Red Sox with four homers in three games.
 The Cleveland Indians, too have pennant hopes mainly because they have a long ball hitter in Luke Easter, 224-pound Negro. It appears however that too much weight is being placed on him, especially since he has a damaged knee.

James Jeffries Ex-Boxing Champ Is 75 Years Old

BUHMAN, Calif., Apr. 14. — (AP) — The home town is holding today in tribute to James J. Jeffries, taxpayer, lodge brother and former World Heavyweight boxing champion. Big Jim will be 75 years old tomorrow.
 Jeffries is honored on this occasion every year, but the Buhman Chamber of Commerce promises that the forty late today at his splendid home will be the greatest celebration since Jeffries won the title from Bob Fitzsimmons in 1889.
 To many, Jim Jeffries is almost a legend, reminiscent of a day when the fight game was glorious, robust and untarnished. At 75, he's an example of what happens to a prize fighter who saves his muscles.
 In 1901, at the height of his career, Jeffries came west and bought a ranch in the San Fernando Valley. "That was the year he retired," says one of the great prizefighters in a 25-round grudge fight with Tom Ryan and scored a knockout over Jim Corbett.
 He has lived here since his retirement in 1905. The city of Buhman literally grew up around him. Now the Jeffries farm is subdivided. His old house is a landmark at one of the busiest intersections. Across the street stand Jeffries' farm where, until he began living up three years ago, Big Jim promoted weekly bouts.
 Although he has sipped much of his vitality, Jeffries isn't too feeble to go on a round with the boys. Today he has some well known sports personalities, friends and political dignitaries.
 "Look, Gov. Goodwin, I. Knight will bring the State of California's official greeting. Mayor Floyd Jolley, who proclaimed the holiday to fetter the grand old champion of the ring, will appear on behalf of Buhman's 85,000 inhabitants."
 A rifle-like pop from the fielder to shortstop Weeks and then to first baseman Ed Levy caught the Orlando runner between first and second base completing a double play.
 The Sanford pitchers allowed the Senator only seven hits but issued 11 walks during the contest. The DeLand pitcher, starter Ted Colton, came in in the 6th frame and held the home team to one run on six hits, five walks and one wild pitch. He struck out two.
 Manager Ed Levy collected a double and a single in three trips to the plate. Telesco added his own losing cause by cutting Sanford's only other safety.

Drop Opening Game To Orlando

Outfielder Tom Rose Makes Spectacular Catch In 7th Frame

Weak pitching and loose field play were the two prime causes for the Sanford Giants dropping the Orlando Senators.
 "We expected it the first game," said Manager Ed Levy. "What happened last night could be attributed mostly to last night jitters," the mentor added.
 Levy pointed out, however, that he expects his team to shake off their shyness as the season gets just the initial few game makes. "After the first round of play, boys will know exactly what they are up against and I know things will be different," he exclaimed.
 The Giants dropped the opener 10 to 3.
 The Giant pilot announced that he is going to stick to last night's lineup when his squad takes the DeLand Hatters at 8:00 P. M. at Municipal Ball Park. Righty "Charlie Rose will be the probable starting pitcher," Levy said.
 The DeLand team blanked the Daytona Beach Islanders last night 5-0.
 Tom Rose, who batted .166 in 18 games with Sanford last year was the Giants' outstanding player in their initial drilling. The left fielder made two spectacular catches in both the fourth and seventh innings, pulling the runner from almost hopeless holes that they had lurked themselves into.
 At the plate, Rose had a perfect night with three hits and one walk in four plate chances.
 In the seventh inning with none out Singleton walked the first Orlando player to face him. The next man up watched one strike go by and then took off driving the ball so deep left field. Righty Floyd Jolley, who proclaimed the holiday to fetter the grand old champion of the ring, will appear on behalf of Buhman's 85,000 inhabitants."

The Neutral Corner

The 1944 edition of the pennant winning St. Louis Browns have nothing on the Sanford Giants of 1950 when it comes to young ball players.
 The Brownsies that year claimed a playing roster, mostly composed of freshman, that averaged 23.4 years. The Sanford team this year can point to a 21.6 average. If 30 year old Buddy Lake and 31 year old Ed Levy are left out of the figures they drop considerably to 19.3.
 The Giants have seven men who are 21 years old and over and 14 players that are under the legal age limit.
 Don Bailey, Carl W. Telesco, and Jim Singleton are all 18. Jake Hentele, George Kelly, Hal Long, Max Pfeiffer, Fred Chatterton, and Al Neville fall into the 19 year old bracket. The twin decade boys are Bob Mrozninski, Paul Weeks, and Frank Dyll. Now for the "old men". The 21-year olds are nil. Marcel Poelker, Tom Rose, Charlie Rose, and John Hafenecker are 22. Stan Baron stands alone in the 23 year bracket. Pitcher Jack Deal's birthday is not listed on the official roster; however, team mates report that he is 25.
 The hustle and flight of these young men combined with the experience and cool judgment of Lake and Levy will make it nigh impossible for Sanford to finish the season anywhere near where they did last year.

Manager Ed Levy whittled the squad down today to 21 players. Shortstop Jim Madalone was sold to Bristol and Pitcher Al Hrekel was sold to Gaius. Levy has a few weeks after the season starts to trim the team to 17 men. Righteous players from Sanford have already been released or sold to other Giant clubs. Four more heads must fall before the team gets under the legal player limit.
 Charlie Rose has been picked to do the hurling tonight when the Giants tangle with the DeLand Hatters at the Municipal Ball park. Game time 8:00 P. M.

BASEBALL HIGH LITES

By ASSOCIATED PRESS

BROOKLYN, Apr. 14. — (AP) — Pitcher Ralph Branciano came away from an arm examination at Philadelphia with good news today.
 The Dodger hurler said Dr. Geo. Bennett told him the pain in his arm was mostly muscular. Asked if he is ready to pitch again, Branciano said: "I don't see why not. I should not even miss a turn."
 NEW YORK, Apr. 14. — (AP) — Yankee Manager Casey Stengel believes he has so many good men that he'll have to play them on a shave-the-work plan.
 Stengel expects to use the two-platoon system at third base, left field, right field and first base. He says there isn't a regular player now at any of those spots.

INDIANAPOLIS, Apr. 14. — (AP) — Eddie Sledge, New York Yankees' second baseman who gets on base one way or another, has a rival in outfielder Don Mueller.
 Mueller got on base three times in yesterday's 4-1 loss to Cleveland, once on a walk and twice on hits. He leads the Giants in most hits, 42.
 Stankovic batted three times, walked twice and singled. He has drawn 31 walks in 26 games.

KANSAS CITY, Apr. 14. — (AP) — It was so chilly at the Cleveland Indians-New York Giants exhibition baseball game here yesterday, some of the fans even started small fires in the stands to warm themselves.
 They used such things as paper boxes, newspapers and popcorn as fuel.
 Despite temperatures in the lower 40s, 8,515 persons showed up in Blues Stadium to watch the game.

University Stadium Will Be Enlarged

ATHENS, Ga., Apr. 14. — (AP) — Sanford Stadium at the University of Georgia will be enlarged this season to 30,000 permanent concrete seats, coach Wallace Butts announced today.
 Crowds of more than 50,000 have filled the stadium in the past, but temporary seats were used. The stadium now has 30,000 concrete seats.
 Butts said that construction should begin soon on the added seats and that they would be ready for Georgia's four big home games this season, Maryland, North Carolina, Mississippi State and Georgia Tech.

CAN YOU AFFORD TO BE SICK?

Take a few seconds to ponder a question that concerns you and every member of your family. Right now - today - could you afford the staggering burden of doctor bills and hospital bills that comes the moment illness strikes? Isn't it true that any long spell of illness would make a huge dent in your life-savings, if not wipe them out altogether?

Certain newspapers, insurance companies, and lobbyists for the American Medical Association would have you believe that National Health Insurance - an American plan to protect your life-savings - is actually what they choose to call "socialized medicine".

But before you swallow this propagandist "bait", have a look at the true facts:

Is life insurance, or fire insurance on your home "socialized"? Then what's "socialized" about paying small weekly premiums to protect yourself against the crippling costs of illness?
The small deductions taken from your pay for Social Security - are they "socialized"? Then what's "socialized" about health insurance, which is paid for in exactly the same way?

Is Government insurance that insures your bank account "socialized banking"? Then what's "socialized" about a plan that insures your health - and does it at a fraction of the cost of any private plan now in existence?
What's "socialized" about a plan that lets patients choose their own doctors and doctors their own patients?

One reason the selfish interests have been fighting Claude Pepper is because he advocates Health Insurance - in the best American tradition - just as he has advocated all legislation designed to benefit the vast majority of Americans. And so we urge you to keep this thought in mind next time you hear "socialized medicine" mentioned in this campaign. As things stand now, can you afford to be sick? CAN YOU AFFORD TO GET WELL?
