

YOUR DAUGHTERS ARE WELL FED AT STATE COLLEGE

Be Glad You're Not Having To Prepare Food For 1700 Girls

TALLAHASSEE, Fla., Sept. 27.—If the average Florida housewife gets sort of tired preparing a meal for her family, she may find some rest and satisfaction in these figures on how much the 1,700 girls at Florida State College eat.

When soup is served at a meal, the college kitchen is called upon to supply 160 gallons of it, or if the order is mashed potatoes, the girls eat 800 pounds, prepared with 15 gallons of milk and 10 pounds of butter.

A whole yardful of chickens is required to supply a meal. Miss Anna May Tracy, college dietitian, today said she orders 800 pounds of chicken when she selects it as the meat for a meal.

And eggs—for breakfast, 240 dozen are scrambled together. That's 2,880 eggs. There's nothing wrong with the appetites of these girls at Florida State College for Women, Miss Tracy points out.

While a housewife goes to the corner grocery and orders a three-pound roast, Miss Tracy calls for 475 pounds of beef, or 650 pounds of baked ham, or 800 pounds of fresh pork.

Four men in the college kitchen work six hours to prepare enough green beans for a meal—12 ham-pers. And if its spinach, or collards, or other greens, Miss Tracy orders 35 to 40 bushels. An order for carrots calls for 700 pounds, while one meal requires 28 crates of cauliflower.

And in addition to these foods—all of which are not needed in one day—the college uses daily 40 pounds of coffee, 100 pounds of butter, two barrels of flour, 150 pounds of sugar, 130 gallons of milk, and six gallons of cream.

When Miss Tracy orders ice cream for a meal, the college dairy must supply 65 gallons of it. Each day, the college bakery turns out 100 loaves weighing 2 1/2 pounds each, 230 dozen biscuits or muffins, 140 dozen cookies and 48 gallons of pudding.

The college claims its kitchen is the biggest in any educational institution in the South. It contains nearly half an acre of floor space. The kitchen employs 60 persons.

Special diets are arranged for students when necessary, and when ordered by the college physician.

Growers Attack "Bulge" Packing Of Celery Crop

Charles Dunn, Roy Symes, and George Balme were selected as alternates for Mr. Chapman, Mr. Melach, Sr., and Mr. Danner, respectively. The latter three selected the alternates, and the entire group ratified the action.

The "bulged pack" condemnation was introduced by Jake Bolly, West Side grower who warned his hearers that unless they immediately abandoned the idea of shipping "bulged pack" celery crates that often weighed as high as 100 pounds, a freight rate increase as high as 30 percent is not unlikely this season.

"We should demand of our organization," Mr. Bolly said, "that the size of our packages be limited to 71 pounds, no more and no less. I have learned that inspectors will weigh our celery crates this season, and if they are beyond the 71 pound limit, we're going to get higher freight rates."

Mr. Bolly also declared that an end should be put to the delivered sales plan of sending cars into northern markets and awaiting outcome of sales. He suggested that the growers of Sanford recommend to the Control Committee that growers and shippers be required to cut the size of their packs to 71 pounds, and that FOB shipping point sales should be substituted for the present delivered sales method.

The growers unanimously approved his suggestions which were

GEORGIAN GOES TO WORLD'S FAIR IN OX CART

There are more ways than one to travel to the Century of Progress Exposition in Chicago. While other folk were going by plane, train and auto, Ralph Pullen of McRae, Ga., chose to plod 1,000 miles in his ox cart. Just to make the going easier for the ox, the cart was built on the discarded wheels of an automobile. Pullen—with beard and overalls—in keeping with the best ox cart traditions of pioneer days—is shown arriving in Chicago. He was greeted by Russell R. Whitman (right) and S. J. Think of a mechanism which, on factory test, has been running constantly for the equivalent of 29 years in your home and today is more efficient than when it started a mechanism which actually improves with use. NRA BOARD TO BE HEADED BY CAROLINA MAN

Reynolds Tobacco Tycoon Is Chairman Of 5-Man Body That Will Direct Program

WASHINGTON, Sept. 28. (AP)—The new National Industrial Recovery board set up to administer NRA reported today it had organized with Clay Williams of North Carolina as its chairman. The Recovery board selected Leon Marshall of Baltimore as executive secretary. It requested Colonel George Lusk to serve as administrative officer. He has been acting administrator in the absence of General Hugh Johnson who has resigned.

A two board command last night was placed by President Roosevelt over the NRA that Hugh S. Johnson once dominated single-handed. One committee of six administration officials was selected to set under the direction of Donald R. Richberg in performing the vital task of framing future policies of the government's relations to business.

A second, composed of two industrialists, two labor experts and a college professor, was named by Mr. Roosevelt "to administer, under my direction" the Industrial Recovery law. On this board are: Clay Williams, president of R. J. Reynolds Tobacco Company. A. D. Whiteside, former deputy administrator under the Johnson regime and president of Dunn & Humstreet. Sidney Hillman, New York labor leader.

Leon C. Marshall, professor of economics of Johns Hopkins University, Baltimore, Md.

Old Depression Nearly Conquered, Claims Roosevelt

WASHINGTON, Sept. 28. (AP)—Confidence that a unified attack "for a little while longer" would conquer "Old Man Depression" was expressed today by President Roosevelt in addressing the 1934 conference on the Mobilization for Human Needs.

To assembled leaders of a group at the White House, the President emphasized that it was up to local communities to carry the primary burden of relief.

He called it a privilege rather than a duty of the individual American to share in relief. "It is that personal appeal," he said, "a unity of effort for a little while longer will, I am confident, bring national success to our national unified efforts to bring Old Man Depression to the point where we can finally master and destroy him."

The President said there had been some inefficiency in emergency efforts to alleviate distress but that he looked forward to even greater efficiency.

He told the conference which is headed by Newton D. Baker of Ohio that it was his duty to see that "out of all that destitution is relieved and no family shall be entitled to public assistance if that individual or that family does not deserve it."

Man, Woman Picked Up As Slayers Of Girl

MIAMI, Fla., Sept. 28. (AP)—Two suspects in the slaying of 11-year-old Lillian Gallaher at Del Rio were arrested today by Detective Sgt. George Crooks and Sgt. P. M. Crooks.

Officers found the man and woman in a shack on Erie's outskirts. The man, unidentified negro, was arrested at a police station and accused of being the slayer. The woman disappeared afterwards. The man, Crooks said, and the woman, Crooks said, furnished information that the slayer was a man named Gallaher. He was found in a trunk in a Detroit garage and arrested before by a woman and her wife.

SCALE OF MARKET HOOVER ATTACKS MARGIN NEEDS RECOVERY PLANS IS LIBERALIZED IN HIS NEW BOOK

Reserve Board Issues New List Of Requirements For Dealers

WASHINGTON, Sept. 28. (AP)—A sliding scale of security market margin requirements ranging from 25 to 45 percent of current market prices with most stocks falling in the lower limits was prescribed for the nation's security markets yesterday by the federal reserve board. The margin requirements are the same as those prescribed in the securities Exchange Act of 1934 and will become effective Oct. 15. (Continued On Page 2)

Private Relief Agencies Lauded By Herbert Hoover

PORTLAND, Ore., Sept. 28. (AP)—Observing that "the kind of radiance of sympathy and encouragement which goes with voluntary efforts, cannot be reproduced by bureaucrats," Herbert Hoover yesterday lauded voluntary service in the relief of distress.

"We have needed every agency in the disasters of the past five years," he said, "and I know of no greater evidence of the growing idealism of our race than has been shown during this period. The twenty-odd million families who have had employment have with many courage and womanly sympathy taken the burden of support of that 4,000,000 families whose bread winners have been rendered idle for no fault of their own."

Key Says Atlantans Want Their Liquors

ATLANTA, Sept. 28. (AP)—Picturesque James L. Key, Atlanta's mayor who was re-nominated in the city Democratic primary Wednesday, says the city's vote on an advisory prohibition repeal referendum "is a positive mandate" to representatives of the area in the next legislature.

Atlanta, lying in both Fulton and De Kalb counties, voted 9441 for repeal and 3783 against repeal. The mayor said the legislative representatives of the two counties "should not dodge the issue by advocating any further referendum, for among their constituency, the referendum has been held, and it is decisive."

GOLD POLICY HELD NEEDED FOR RECOVERY

Advisory Council Says Return To Old Policy Must Precede Any Real Prosperity

CHICAGO, Sept. 28. (AP)—A return to the gold standard must precede any real or permanent recovery, the federal advisory council said yesterday in a statement to the federal reserve board and member banks. The statement, agreed to at a meeting of the council in Washington Sept. 18, was issued by Walter Lichtenstein, secretary, and was addressed to the federal reserve board, the federal reserve banks and each member bank of the federal reserve system.

1. A return to the gold standard must precede recovery. 2. Currency of a fluctuating value is a deterrent to business. 3. A definitely stated program for balancing the budget is essential to restoration of business confidence. 4. The use of government money in competition with private capital should cease. 5. The steadily mounting government debt constitutes a danger to the public credit. 6. The currency and credit supply now existing are ample for an expansion of business and demands for currency inflation and without sound basis. 7. The history of inflation shows it ends in utter disaster for every class but one—the speculators.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 28. (AP)—The Federal Reserve Board said today it had received a statement from the federal advisory council urging a return to the gold standard and a discontinuance of the monetary experiment, and that it had returned both the statement and its accompanying letter as touching matters outside its jurisdiction. "Further monetary experimentation holds out no promise of success, and the repetition of expedients which have repeatedly failed," the board said.

Big Air Liner Plays Hide And Seek With Blazing Meteorite

OAKLAND, Calif., Sept. 28. (AP)—A big airliner and a blazing meteorite flashed through the sky dangerously close to each other last night in a life-threatening plane a lifetime thrill.

So close did the meteor come to the plane that Archie Anderson, co-pilot who was at the controls, averted the ship in what he thought would be an effort to dodge the flaming visitor. Some of the passengers saw the blinding light and cried out. Anderson suddenly realized it would do no good to attempt dodging a body moving so rapidly and flipped the plane back to its course. The meteor exploded apparently only a few hundred yards ahead of the plane. The transcontinental air liner westbound from Reno, continued on to Oakland unscathed.

Pell Brothers Don't Seem To Have Much Luck With Their Many Slot Machines

FORT PIERCE, Sept. 28.—Slot machines can hardly be the innocent things their operators represent them to be when 8,000 packages of mints are vended from them in a town of 3,000 people, in the opinion of Circuit Judge Elwyn Thomas. Judge Thomas denied F. M. Pell Verbo Beach an injunction to restrain Sheriff William Frick of Indian River county from interfering with the operation of his slot machines. The petitioner claimed his machines were vended. Pell is a brother of W. J. Pell, Sanford slot machine operator who has been denied twice in seeking injunction. The petitioner set out in his bill of complaint that he was the owner of 15 automatic vending machines distributed among various establishments in Indian River county, leased to the proprietors of such establishments on a 50-50 basis. The machines were not gambling devices, it was indicated, nor used for that purpose. In addition to delivering a package of mints when a coin was inserted in a slot, the machines would at intervals also deliver "taken" pieces having no commercial value but usable by the operator to purchase a certain form of amusement. State and county license of $7.75 and Verbo Beach license of $25 had been paid on each machine. The petitioner set out in his bill that Sheriff Frick had threatened to (Continued On Page 6)

ROOSEVELT TAKES CRACK AT GOSSIPERS

People Have Feet On Ground, President Says, In Attack On Wall Street Rumors

WASHINGTON, Sept. 28. (AP)—President Roosevelt asserting that the American people "have both feet on the ground," last night slapped severely at "gossip mongers who invent tales." Making one of his first addresses in a month Mr. Roosevelt spoke by radio to the fourth annual women's conference on current problems, sponsored by the New York Herald Tribune.

"We as a people are less inclined to believe those who would create fear or encourage panic," he said. "More and more people are doing their own thinking. The number of poll parrots in our midst is steadily declining for which we must be very thankful. More and more men and women are looking up to their own facts and forming their own opinions."

The President cited an instance yesterday of what he classed as rumors from Wall Street.

In this case he said it was purported that three members of his cabinet, the secretaries of the treasury, labor and agriculture departments as well as the under-secretary of agriculture were resigning.

This "rumor" started in Wall Street, spread to Chicago, and came back to Washington for verification, he declared.

"The origin of the report comes from what is politely called 'an anonymous source,'" he said. "I urge that every one of you consider and analyze the source and motive back of every report you read."

"It is with a very definite sense of gratification and thanks that I tell you of my conviction that our people have both feet on the ground."

The President expressed appreciation in what he termed an increasing interest by all people in "methods of improving the economy." (Continued On Page Six)

HAUPTMANN CHILD GETS HIS MILK

While the world wonders and speculates about Bruno Richard Hauptmann's connection with the famous kidnaping of Charles Augustus Lindbergh, Jr., two and a half years ago, the 10-month-old son of the Hauptmanns receives a mother's care despite the grilling to which Mrs. Hauptmann has been subjected. Here the suspect's wife is shown preparing milk for her child in a neighbor's kitchen. (Associated Press Photo)

JAYCEES MOVE TO MAKE CITY A TOURIST CENTER

"Forward Sanford" Campaign Will Begin Immediately

With its FOH shipping point producer marketing campaign moving along smoothly and having recently received the endorsement of a group of prominent local growers, the Sanford Junior Chamber of Commerce has as its next objective a "Forward Sanford" movement which is to be put into effect at once.

This was indicated at a special meeting of the board of directors of the new organization, held this week with Gordon J. Bennett of Fern Park, presiding as head of the group which now numbers 73 men.

The new program is to be placed before the membership at its regular meeting next Thursday night. (Continued On Page Five)

Legalization Of 30 Hour Work Week Is Foreseen By Labor

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 28. (AP)—Legalization of the 30-hour work week was foreseen by American Federation of Labor officials assembling here yesterday for the annual convention of that body beginning Monday.

Pointing to the recent report of the federation saying the jobless in America numbered 8,585,000, leaders of the various organized workers who had gathered in advance of the convention opening predicted the delegates would get solidly behind the 30-hour week as a work spreading movement.

Frank Morrison, secretary, said the federation would join forces with President Roosevelt in efforts to eliminate unemployment. Morrison said the federation also would favor perpetuation of the NRA after its legal expiration date, June 15, 1935, but would advocate the strengthening of provisions relating to the right of collective bargaining.

Alfalfa Bill Says He's Off NRA, AAA

OKLAHOMA CITY, Sept. 28. (AP)—Governor William H. Murray asserted yesterday that control of federal relief in Oklahoma had been taken from him "because I could not make speeches in support of the NRA." Murray said Oklahoma lost a promised $500,000 relief grant two days after he declined to speak in support of the National Recovery Program. The governor also declared he "had no confidence" in the promises of agents of the NRA, AAA or FERA.

INSANITY PLEA MAY BE USED BY HAUPTMANN

Attorney For German Plans To Have His Client Examined By Psychiatrist

NEW YORK, Sept. 28. (AP)—A plan to have Bruno Richard Hauptmann, indicted as the extortioner of the $50,000 Lindbergh kidnap ransom payment, examined by a psychiatrist was announced today by his counsel.

Attorney James Fawcett made his announcement when he arrived at Bronx County Court house to confer with District Attorney Samuel Foley but he declined to give his reasons for the move.

"I am going to have my own psychiatrist see Hauptmann," Fawcett said.

"Does this mean you are going to offer a defense based on insanity or mental condition?" he was asked.

"You can draw your own conclusions," he replied.

A visit by Assistant Attorney General Joseph Lanigan of New Jersey to the District Attorney's office in the Bronx gave rise to a belief that it might have to do with preparation of final steps to extradite the prisoner to New Jersey, state in which the Lindbergh baby was kidnaped and killed. Sheriff John Hanney today disclosed that Hauptmann had stolen a spoon in jail broken in (Continued On Page 4)

Administration Of FERA Reorganized With 2 Groups Out

JACKSONVILLE, Sept. 28. (AP)—Two districts were eliminated today as the Florida Emergency Relief Administration reorganized its state administrative setup.

Two districts were eliminated entirely, reducing the number from 11 to nine, and one district administrator, E. E. Dunsford of Jacksonville, was recalled. Districts in charge of C. K. Dobb, with headquarters at Sarasota, and W. F. Powers, with headquarters at Gainesville, were merged with neighboring regions.

Dunsford, it was announced, was recalled to state headquarters to take a position in commodity distribution. Seminole County will be in a district comprising Flagler, Volusia Lake, Orange, Brevard, Ocala and Polk counties. O. P. Swope will remain as administrator.

Harmlessly Insane Put Back On Counties

TALLAHASSEE, Sept. 28. (AP)—A policy requiring counties to care for harmless insane persons, or aged persons who are not insane, was adopted yesterday by the state cabinet which said it would not allow admission of such persons to the state hospital in the future.

Superintendent Preston Ayres, of the hospital, will be instructed, the board decided, to determine what patients now in the hospital have been cured by treatment and are able to return to their counties, so that these also may be sent back to be cared for, if necessary, by the counties.

No Gossiping Allowed

A decision by the State Supreme Court of particular importance to newspapers and politicians, or others who at some time may find themselves in the middle of a political campaign, has to do with Florida's famous Eighteen Day Law which would prohibit anyone from circulating charges against a candidate for public office within eighteen days of a primary election. The Court has upheld the constitutionality of this law, but has interpreted it in such a way that there will be very few indeed who can find fault with it.

The particular law in question reads as follows: "It shall be unlawful for any candidate or other person, during the eighteen days next preceding the day of a primary election to publish or circulate, or cause to be published or circulated, any charge against or attack upon any candidate, unless a copy of such charge or attack has been personally served upon the candidates against whom made at least eighteen days prior to the day of the primary . . ." and then follows a description of the punishment for the violation of this law.

It had been commonly supposed that it was meant by this that no newspaper could publish a charge against a candidate within eighteen days of a primary, unless prior notice of the charge had been served, and that no candidate could attack, or utter a charge against a political opponent, within eighteen days of a primary, unless prior notice had been served. And it was also supposed that no newspaper could publish as news a charge made by any candidate against a political opponent within eighteen days of the primary unless prior notice had been served.

But the Supreme Court interprets this law as not applying either to newspapers or to speeches made by candidates or others in a public forum. "The statute was never intended," says the Supreme Court, "to operate as a restraint upon the making of ordinary campaign addresses by the candidates or others, whether by radio or otherwise, nor was it so framed as to apply to the reproduction of the contents of public campaign speeches in the newspapers as a matter of ordinary news interest to readers."

The law was intended, it seems, to prevent a widely known evil in this state called the "whispering campaign." It was designed to prevent the circulation of charges through rumor-mongers working quietly among the voters without giving the object of the attack any opportunity to reply. To this intent no decent person could possibly object. Stabbing candidates from behind their backs with malicious rumors, more often lies than facts, is a campaign evil which ordinary justice demands should be prohibited by law.

It is well to keep in mind in the future, however, that Florida's Eighteen Day Law does not grant candidates immunity from public denunciation for illegal acts, or other performances disqualifying them for public office, even though these things might not be learned by opponents or newspapers until the last days of a campaign. The real test for the propriety of publishing a charge against a political candidate is its truth. If a charge is true, its proper place is in the newspapers, or in the public forum, as the Supreme Court has held, and not in back-fence whisperings which give no opportunity for rebuttal.

Florida's Ocean Commerce

Florida's coastline of 3761 miles, with the many natural harbors on Gulf and Atlantic, together with this state's proximity to a Latin-American market of 40,000,000 population assures a great future development of water-borne commerce, according to a bulletin mailed recently by the All Florida Committee.

A survey just completed by the Committee shows that Florida now has 16 harbors ranging in depth from 20 to 35 feet, six of them of sufficient size to accommodate ocean going traffic! Florida's ocean commerce possibilities indicate this state could accommodate a foreign commerce valued at $370,000,000 based on the present $139,000,000 value of business from six Florida ports, annually.

"Florida's general shoreline of 1100 miles, or 3761 miles counting bays and inlets, is greater than any other state in the Union and almost as long as the Pacific Coast seaboard," the Committee reported. "The fact that Florida has so many natural and potential harbors, all of them closer than competing ports to the Latin-American markets, means that this state has an opportunity to double and triple its traffic on the ocean lanes."

The All Florida Committee is sponsoring a national advertising campaign in behalf of Florida, planned for this Fall, and insists that Florida's resources can be greatly developed by attracting more millions of population and new capital investment to this state.

SANFORD TWENTY YEARS AGO

Summary of War: For three days without cessation the Germans have hurled their masses against the French and English along the entire front in Northern France. The French official view is that these operations, the fiercest yet, are by high command, meaning possibly direct instructions from the Emperor himself. Their purpose has been to break through the Allied lines but both French and British official reports say they have failed.

Mrs. Vance Douglas has returned from a vacation trip to Hendersonville, N. C. Her mother, Mrs. Goodhue, who has been with her in now in Waynesville and will go to Cincinnati later.

R. T. Thresher and family who have been spending the summer at Clearwater have returned to their home in Chuluota.

BY HERBERT PLUMMER

WASHINGTON, Sept. 27.—The President of Dartmouth College up in New Hampshire, Dr. Ernest Martin Hopkins, has laid down a rule for classification of brains in government. It makes the great scientific and political methods of the Roosevelt "New Dealers," from top to bottom, unnecessary if it is to be applied.

From the President down, who are Dr. Hopkins' "explosives" and who his "provers"? Was of the Roosevelt "brain trust," in Dr. Hopkins' phrasing, are "men intellectually brilliant but doctrinaire" and who "men intellectually honest without brilliance?"

In his address at Dartmouth Dr. Hopkins drew this distinction between the types of brains necessary in government to safeguard the great scientific and political experiments of the present day. And he called upon "every friend of governmental reform and of social advance to insist that 'provers' be given equal place with explorers in such experimentation."

The President would not phrase it the Hopkins way. His gift of expression is of the political order. He talks to and for the masses, not the great scientific and political methods, he argued, "experimentation unaccompanied by critical judgment" invites failure of "aspirations of political leadership in America for human welfare."

Hoover Attacks Scale Of Market Recovery Plans Margin Needs In His New Book Is Liberalized

The definition of liberty he gives:

"It is far more than independence of a nation. It is not a catalog of political 'rights.' Liberty is a thing of spirit—to be free to worship, to think, to hold opinions, and to speak without fear— to challenge wrong and oppression with surety of justice."

"Liberty conceived that the mind and spirit of men be free only if the individual is free to choose his own calling. . . . It holds he must be free to earn, to spend, to save, to accumulate property. . . . "It therefore holds that no man, no group, may infringe on the liberties of others. It holds that these liberties and securities to constructive initiative and enterprise alone assure the immense social, material, moral and spiritual achievements of men."

Many of the pertinent points in Mr. Hoover's book have been publicly discussed since their appearance in magazine form. Most extended of all is the section dealing with reorganization and its effect on representative government.

Here, without mentioning by name either his successor in office or the Roosevelt Administration, Mr. Hoover vigorously assails "the affinities of the reorganization theory of economics" and "its impact upon true American liberalism."

These departures from traditional American policy, he writes, "can best be determined by an examination of actions taken and measures adopted in the U. S. during recent months."

"The first step of economic reorganization is a vast centralization of power in the executive," Mr. Hoover sets forth "without tolling recitation of the acts of Congress delegating powers over the people

A 15-day extension was granted to permit the public to familiarize itself with the new rules. The re-officials circles as "liberal" and were not calculated to promote new selling in the stock market. In effect, the reserve board's requirements, are little different from present margin requirements of leading stock exchanges and in many cases are lower than existing margins carried by most of the leading market operators.

It was officially indicated that the present requirements averaged 28 percent of market prices on July 31, last, compared with stock exchange requirements of 25 percent and actual average margins of nearly 50 percent.

The new margin requirements are based on a sliding loan limit for various securities. Maximum loans on securities are restricted to 55 percent of the market value or 100 percent of the lowest price a security has sold since July 1, 1933, but in no case more than 75 percent of its market value. The effect is a sliding 25 to 45 percent margin scale but as most stocks are selling close to their recent lows few securities will require as high as 30 percent margin.

Extreme flexibility was shown in the reserve board regulations in order that no accounts would be arbitrarily sold out after Oct. 15 because they were undermargined.

To levy sales taxes on food, clothing and upon goods competitive to them (the processing tax) at such times and in such amounts as the executive may determine.

IF YOUR EYES COULD TALK!

If your eyes could talk to you, you would be surprised at the number of times they would suggest that you were not giving them a chance to serve you properly. Eyes have a remarkable ability to adapt themselves to unusual conditions. However, in doing so, they may be causing damage to other parts of your body. Reading and working under poor light, is one of the greatest reasons why three-fourths of all people over fifty years of age now have damaged eyesight.
Good home lighting means having the correct size lamp bulbs and the correct kind of lighting fixtures and portable lamps. A little thought and a few pennies spent now may mean normal eyes for your whole family.

ROAST STUFFED SPARE RIBS ARE DELICIOUS MEAL

Here's A Brand New Menu For Sunday Or Holiday Lunch

3 sections of spare ribs
 1 cup fine dry bread crumbs
 1-4 cup finely diced salt pork
 1-2 cup chopped celery
 1-2 cup chopped onion
 1-4 cup chopped parsley
 5 tart apples diced
 1-2 cup sugar
 1-4 tsp. salt
 1-8 tsp. pepper

Select well-fleshed rib sections that match. Have the breastbone cracked so that it will be easy to carve between the ribs. Wipe the meat with a damp cloth. Prepare the stuffing as follows: Fry the salt pork until crisp and remove the pieces from the skillet. Cook the celery, onion, and parsley in the fat for a few minutes and remove them. Put the apples into the skillet, sprinkle with the sugar, cover, and cook until tender, then remove the lid and continue to cook until the juice evaporates and the pieces of apples are candied. Mix with the apples the bread crumbs, crisp salt pork, cooked vegetables, salt and pepper. Lay one section of the ribs out flat, sprinkle with salt and pepper, and spread with the hot stuffing. Cover with the other section and sew the two together. Sprinkle the outside with salt and pepper and rub with flour. Lay the stuffed ribs on a rack in an open roasting pan and gear in a hot oven (480 degrees F.) for 20 minutes, or until the meat is lightly browned. Reduce the oven temperature rapidly to very moderate heat (300 to 325 degrees F.) and continue to cook for about an hour longer, or until the meat is tender. Remove the strings before serving the stuffed spare ribs on a hot platter.

Appetizing Hints for Cool Weather Meals

Grocers Suggest These Hints For Aid In All Homes

The pleasant half hour before dinner when beverages and dainty appetizers are served may be one of the most enjoyable episodes of a delightful evening's entertainment. These pleasant foods should be too rich or heavy, but they should have distinctive and appetizing flavor and attractive appearance. As a departure from the usual types of appetizers, try serving some of the following:

PORK ROAST
As a variation in preparing pork roast—either loin or shoulder, rub the roast with salt and pepper in the liquid may add with a sharp knife small slits in the surface. Slices of garlic very thin and insert in the slits—this gives the roast a very delicious flavor.

LAUNDERING SWEATERS
When laundering sweaters or knitted blouses, let dry on cloth or towel placed on a flat surface. No ironing is required.

WASHING CORBUROYS
The corburoy clothes so popular with young people will launder easily if washed in mild soap and plenty of warm water. Rinse well, wring and hang up to dry.

A delicious, cooling drink, good for the year around for adults and children, especially the latter if they have tired of the taste of milk, is a cocoa shake.

For two large portions, take two heaping spoonfuls of cocoa and two eggs. Mix well, adding milk on top, add one-half teaspoon of vanilla and pins of milk. In a shaker with plenty of cracked ice and when very cold serve.

If your children have been entertained at elaborate parties and wish to reciprocate, an inexpensive but effective plan would be to give them:

The little guests can come dressed in "spicy" and, of course, the old rule will do. Spread an old rag in the yard or on the lawn and let the youngsters "raid" a basket of back porch for the food intended for them.

After the meal, mother or a sister also dressed in "spicy" can give the guests a basket and sit up on the lawn for the return of each child to her.

CHEESE STRAWS
Roll a little grated cheese into pastry dough (pie dough is best). Cut into thin strips with a very knife or pastry wheel and bake in a very hot oven.

CHERRY SANDWICHES
Mix cream cheese with a little grapefruit juice. Maraschino cherry juice, a bottle of Maraschino cherries, chopped almonds, chopped cream cheese, almonds, berries with the juice and a small paste. Spread over the slices of white bread and cut in fancy shapes.

This recipe makes 60 tiny appetizers or reduce recipe in proportion to the amount needed.

LIVER PASTE
This paste may be kept on hand for emergencies—it is a kind of "go-to" for the liver. Instead of boiling or baking until tender, liver with 3 slices of butter, a bit of bay leaf, salt, 1-4 teaspoon of stock or water to cover the liver in the liquid, and twice through a food chopper, using the fine knife, then through a sieve. Mix until smooth, adding 1-3 cup butter to mixture and if you are taking more of it.

chopped truffles. The truffles make the paste look and taste more like real pate de foie gras.

CAVIAR SANDWICHES
Spread thin slices of rye bread cut in squares or circles with caviar, chopped onion and lemon juice.

OTHER DELECTABLE APPETIZERS
Cut Swiss cheese into long narrow slices and fill holes with mustard and anchovy paste and butter and serve on bread strips.

Cream cheese made into balls and rolled in narrow strips of dried beef and skewered with toothpicks.

Olives (stuffed) rolled in bacon, skewered and broiled—serve piping hot.

Administrator for the Sixth Region, addressed more than 100 men and women members of local FERA offices at the Court House late yesterday. Future policies were featured in his talk in which he warned every worker that above all, he or she must be courteous in all dealings with any relief client.

Among the week's proudest residents this county is Motorcycle Officer E. T. Hamill of Chuluota, whose wife presented him with a seven pound daughter at Fernald-Laughton Memorial Hospital last Friday afternoon. The baby has been named Norma Jean Hamill. Officer Ed has been sort of keeping the event a secret, but it came out, and congratulations aplenty have been in order during the past few days. Mother and daughter were removed to their home today.

New and revised plans for a first unit of a State Farmers Wholesale Market have been approved by Orlando FERA officials, and they are on the way to the state FERA headquarters in Jacksonville. It was learned today. The plans call for the construction of a first section which will cost about $77,500, of which $18,000 at least is to be in the form of cash for materials. The FERA is scheduled to supply the labor. Construction here is expected to begin next week.

More than 50 prominent men and women met at the Chamber of Commerce late this afternoon at the call of Mayor W. A. Jeffers and Harry M. Papworth of the trade body, to discuss this county's part in the Federal House-ing program. Speakers included Fred R. Wilson, local attorney, who discussed and explained the Act, and C. E. Rawson, who told how it operates in practice. Pledge cards were signed by several of the visitors, indicating that they are willing to help explain the program to the local public.

Sandy Anderson is authority for the statement that the tourist crop is already abloom, and he has figures to back up his statement. On duty about eight hours each day this week, Sandy counted no less than 64 out-of-state automobiles loaded with tourists, as they stopped at or passed his West First Street filling station. The count was made on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, and Sandy said that he only counted those he happened to see. Sixteen of the cars were from New York state, and 12 were from Pennsylvania. Ohio, Maine, New Jersey, Michigan, Kentucky, California, Vermont, Massachusetts, and Illinois also were represented.

Mayor W. A. Jeffers and Karl Lehmann of the Chamber of Commerce will be principal speakers at Junior High School Monday morning when that institution, along with 10 other white schools in the county, opens its doors for the 1934-35 term. New teachers who will be introduced during the opening exercises are: Miss Helen Compton, English VII; Olin King, Mathematics, VII; Bernard "Pete" Schirard, physical education. School will begin in earnest on Tuesday, stated Prof. Herman Morris, new principal of the school who added that he will be at the school all day tomorrow to register those pupils who wish to avoid the rush next Monday.

but, pending that time, steps will be taken to insure its smooth operation from the start. That the membership will respond with a hearty endorsement of the directors' plans is held as foregone, and Jaycee officials, anticipate complete co-operation from every member as well as full endorsement from every citizen.

The program contemplates the development of this city as a tourist center. It is based on correcting a lack of the things needed to make Sanford an important tourist town, and it includes a close study of every phase of tourist life. Andrew Caraway has been selected as the general chairman of the "Forward Sanford" movement. He has been instructed to draw upon the membership in general for any service, and particularly to advise all committee chairmen that they are expected to co-operate with every other local agency which may be planning a similar course of action.

HUEY THANKS HIS FARLEY CLAIMS SUPPORTERS BY KNOX, MCCORMICK REDUCING TAXES SEEK PRESIDENCY

NEW ORLEANS, La., Sept. 28.—Senator Huey P. Long's ... commission reduced New Orleans assessments more than a million dollars yesterday.

Thereby, the citizens were favored for electing the Long ticket in the Sept. 11 primary, and Mayor T. S. Walmley's municipal government which is fighting Long, was further embarrassed.

The reductions were announced in 5000 letters to those taxpayers who were affected. The letters were dumped in the mails while a large crowd was gathered about the city tax collector's office in the last-minute rush to pay before the tax deadline, which is Sunday midnight.

"Tender in cash the sum of money equal to your reduced assessments and demand a receipt for your taxes in full," the letters to fortunate taxpayers read.

NOTED OILMAN SAYS U. S. IS IN GOOD HANDS

Sir Henry Deterding Sees Rooseveltian Plans As On Right Track To Stability

LONDON, Sept. 28.—A conviction that President Roosevelt's "New Deal" program is sound and that, despite the NRA now under reorganization, it will prove the United States Chief Executive is on the "right track," was expressed by Sir Henry W. A. Deterding yesterday.

In an exclusive interview—one of the few the elderly international oil operator has given—Sir Henry declared his recent visit to the United States had convinced him Mr. Roosevelt is heading in the right direction to restore confidence and economic stability.

"I don't deny that Mr. Roosevelt has a tremendous task," Sir Henry said, "but he is on the right track. His biggest problem now is to find key men to handle the various segments of the whole immense problem; they must be men of outstanding ability, capable of superb teamwork and, of course, absolutely loyal to him."

"That is not as easy as it sounds. But his instinct seems to be to reduce every problem to its simplest elements, and that is the mark of wisdom."

Sir Henry, head of the Royal Dutch Shell oil combine with interests around the world, in response to a query said he was convinced the Roosevelt silver program would be carried out to the (Continued On Page 2)

Convicted Killers Stage Sensational Break In Richmond

RICHMOND, Sept. 28.—(AP)—Two convicted gangsters, Walter Legenza and Robert Mays, sentenced to die for murder, shot their way out of Richmond jail today, wounding three officers and commandeering a mail truck and automobile in their escape with Virginia and city police in pursuit.

Mays and Legenza shot their way to freedom when they were brought from their cell into a corridor leading to a reception room where Charles Moss, their attorney, was waiting to confer with them in regard to plans for appealing their cases to the state supreme court.

When they were led into the corridor by Warden Moore and Deputy Sergeant Selph the two gangsters, instead of turning to the left into a room at the rear of the jail where Moss was waiting alone, they drew pistols, ordered officers to put up their hands, and made a break through the front reception room, shooting wildly as they went.

The two gangsters were convicted for participation in the hold-up murder of E. M. Huband, driver of a federal reserve truck last month. Huband was shot and the gang made off with a cargo of cancelled checks. Legenza was to die in October and Mays in November.

GOP ATTACK ON GREAT COST OF RECOVERY BEGUN

Financial Stability Of Nation Threatened By Present Trends

WASHINGTON, Sept. 28.—(AP)—A threat to the nation's financial stability in a public denunciation to 36 billion dollars by the end of this fiscal year was predicted yesterday by the Republican Senatorial and Congressional campaign committee in a pamphlet entitled "Staggering cost of the New Deal."

Quoting from President Roosevelt's 1932 campaign speeches in which he pledged a 25-percent reduction in government expenditures, the committee declares the Chief Executive ousted Lewis W. Douglas, budget director, because he opposed "reckless expenditures" by "apophtrophs of the New Deal."

Senator Hastings of Delaware and Representative Hinton of Ohio are co-chairmen of the Republican committee. They prepared the attack on fiscal policies of the Roosevelt Administration with the assistance of the Republican National Committee's Research Bureau.

On the cover of the 24-page booklet there is quoted a statement in Mr. Roosevelt's first campaign speech in 1932 at Albany, N. Y., which reads:

"Let us have courage to stop borrowing to meet continuing deficits. Stop the deficits!"

There are other similar quotations. Describing the Roosevelt Administration as the "most extravagant in American peace-time history," the document says the New Deal spent $2.24 for every $1 (Continued On Page Four)

Police Unable To Find Intruder Who Alarmed Mrs. Shipp

Police today had failed to locate the man, believed to be a negro who has been prowling about several homes during the past few weeks, who boldly entered the bedroom occupied by Mrs. G. M. Shipp at her home on West 18th Street at about 3:00 o'clock yesterday morning, to be frightened away when Mrs. Shipp screamed in terror at the sight of a menacing figure hovering near her bed in the semi-darkness. Mrs. Shipp and her daughter, Miss Mary Alice Shipp, were alone in the home at the time.

The screams awakened neighbors, but the man had fled the scene when police arrived. Blood-hounds were secured from the County Jail at once, and a trial was followed for a distance of about one half mile to the west of the Shipp home where it was lost.

The intruder entered the Shipp home through a downstairs rear window. He had apparently made no attempt to ransack the lower part of the home, and it appeared that he had just climbed the stairs and had entered Mrs. Shipp's bedroom when she was awakened. Nothing in the home was disturbed, a check up revealed. The intruder apparently left the scene by running down the stairs and jumping out the rear window he had opened.

Company Union Wins At Kohler Plant

SHEBOYGAN, Wis., Sept. 28.—(AP)—Vanquished in a national labor board election, federal union 1945, an American Federation of Labor affiliate, designed plans yesterday to renew its fight to represent employees of the Kohler Company in collective bargaining.

Employees of the company voted Thursday 1,063 in favor of the Kohler Works Association, a company union, and 543 for the A. F. of L. union as the sole bargaining agent under the NRA. The election was conducted upon order from the national labor board seeking to end the strike existing at the plant near here since July 16.
