EDUCATORS OF COUNTRY HEAR COOLIDGE TALK

Compulsory Education Is Expounded By President in Fourth of July Address to Members of National Education Association at Washington—Would Put Matter Under the Control of the Different States

WASHINGTON, July 5.—Compulsory education, if necessary controlled and supported by the states under the guidance of the federal government, was advocated Friday by President Coolidge, speaking before 15,000 delegates of the National Education Association at the concluding session of their annual convention.

Department of Education
The administration has proposed in the government reorganization plan a department of education and relief to be presided over by a cabinet officer, the President reminded the teachers in reference to their demands for a cabinet member on education. This plan, however, had his endorsement, he added, "bearing in mind that this does not mean any interference with the local control and dignity but is rather an attempt to recognize the importance of educational effort."

Ignorance Source of Poverty
"Ignorance," the President declared, "is the most fruitful source of poverty, vice and crime and it is easy to realize the necessity for removing what is a menace, not only to our social well-being, but to the existence of the republic."

Greater attention to rural schools also was urged by the President. Recalling his attendance at an "old one-room country school," he argued that these institutions must give way to a modern building and an adequate teaching force commensurate with the best advantages that are provided for our urban population.

"It is necessary," he added, "that education should be the handmaid of citizenship. Our institutions are constantly and very properly the subject of critical inquiry. Unless their nature is comprehended, unless their origin is understood, unless their value is properly assessed, the citizen falls a ready prey to those selfish agitators who would exploit his prejudices to promote their own advantage. On this day, of all days, it ought to be made clear that America has had its revolution and placed the power of government squarely, securely and entirely in the hands of the people. For all changes which they may desire, for all grievances which they may feel, the ballot box furnishes the complete method and remedy. Into their hands has been committed complete jurisdiction and control over all the functions of government. For the most part our institutions are attacked in the name of social and economic reform. Unless there be some teaching of sound economics in the schools, the voter and taxpayer who would accept of accepting vague theories which lead only to social discontent and public disaster.

"Every one ought to realize that the sole source of natural wealth is thrift and industry, and that the sole supply of the public treasury is the toil of the people. Of course, patriotism is always to be taught. National defense is a necessity and virtue, but peace with honor is the normal, natural condition of mankind and must be made the chief end to be sought in human relationship."

Progressive Running Mate To Be Selected
CLEVELAND, July 5.—Postponement of a vice-presidential nomination was agreed upon by leaders of a conference for the progressive political action today. The convention will be asked, it was learned, to entrust the selection of such a candidate to a committee which would confer with La Follette after the Democratic situation has worked itself out.

DELEGATES WILL NOT HAVE THEIR PICTURES TAKEN

Florida Group at Convention Refuse to be Photographed With Appleyard and Bowden After Their Exit
MADISON SQUARE GARDEN, New York, July 5.—The main feature Friday was the introduction and defeat of a resolution suspending the rules for the purpose of hearing candidates for president speak. The hall was to be cleared of all except delegates, alternates, attaches and the press. The convention went into executive session and failed to get the two-thirds vote necessary to carry the resolution. This was undoubtedly an effort to try to break the deadlock.

Gov. Smith's request, presented by Roosevelt, to be allowed to address the convention has considered impertinent by some who thought the delegates were also impertinent in refusing to hear the candidate who happened to be in many respects their host at the convention. Over 600 voted to hear the governor, yet the two-thirds rule defeated the effort.

Meantime Michael Igoe of Chicago, a Smith delegate, was recognized after much shouting and distress. Meantime Chairman Walsh was walloping the celebrated light headed gavel so vigorously that the Missouri proved that it can be counted among McAdoo's reserve strength Thursday night when it swung to him immediately after symptoms of a Smith push and after Michigan went over to Smith.

The Florida delegation has refused to have its picture taken for a news service here. It came to this conclusion today after plans had been under way for some time concerning the time and place the picture was to be taken. The objection came from 10 of the delegates, who refused to be photographed.

Methodist Church, South, Accepts The Plan of Unification
Chattanooga, July 5.—The proposal for organic union of the Methodist Episcopal Church and the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, was approved late Friday by the general conference of the Southern church in special session here. It now goes to the annual conference for ratification.

Official Vote.
The official vote was 207 to 73. The Methodist Episcopal general conference in Springfield, Mass., recently accepted the proposal and ordered it submitted to the annual conference in 1925 if the Southern general conference should act favorably.

Likely Meet May, 1924.
The regular general conference of the Northern church not meeting again until 1924, a special conference probably would be called in May, 1924, when the regular general conference of the Southern church will be in session.

CONVENTION IS NOW TRYING TO END DEADLOCK

Attempts Are Made to Break Deadlock During the Night Session Friday, But Resolutions Offered Toward That End Are Voted Down and Convention Opens Saturday Morning as Hopelessly at Sea as Ever

MADISON SQUARE GARDEN, New York, July 5.—Groping for some way to end the deadlock, the Democratic National Convention reassembled for its session last night with a variety of remedies in prospective consideration.

Resolutions proposing to break the deadlock, to abolish the two-thirds rule, and to drop off the low man on each ballot were in the pockets of various leaders, waiting to be sprung if they could be agreed upon by a few sponsors. With Ralston and Cox—two of the favorite sons out of the way—there was a faint hope that the remainder of the favorite son string might be induced to withdraw and permit the strength of the convention to divide definitely between Smith and McAdoo so that those two could fight it out and develop definitely in the open to what extent each had the one-third vote on the other.

Appropriate Time
As the delegates assembled for the night session the hand appropriately played it may be for years and it may be forever. The session came to order nearly on time and prayer was offered by the Rev. Paul F. Landis, minister of the John Hall Memorial of New York.

The first business of the session was the calling of the roll of states for the sixty-seventh ballot. Chairman Walsh then had read a communication from W. G. McAdoo. It was read by unanimous consent.

The convention today voted quite properly against a proposal to invite all candidates to address it," the letter said. "Subsequently a proposal to invite the governor of New York to address it was rejected by a vote of the convention."

Mr. McAdoo wrote he was sure the action was because of the disapproval to conclude the business, but it concluded with a suggestion to his friends in the convention that they invite Governor Smith to make an address. Guvin McNab, then on behalf of the California delegation, asked that the vote by which the convention refused to invite Governor Smith be reconsidered. He proposed a unanimous consent that Governor Smith be invited to speak at 10 o'clock.

Numerous Conferences And Resolutions To Affect Change And Bring Party Leader That It Has Been Seeking a Week to Pick, Go To Naught As Delegates Fail to Agree

Smith Managers Hold Conference To Choose a Compromise Candidate

Resolution To Eliminate Favorite Sons On Ballots Fails; Seventy-Fourth Ballot Is Indicative of McAdoo Losing His Strength
Seventy-seventh ballot: McAdoo 530; Smith 337; Davis 76.5; Underwood 47.5; Cox 1; Glass 27; Ralston 6.5; Robinson 24; Ritchie 16.5; Walsh 2; Saulsbury 6; Owen 4; Baker 1; Bryan 4; Roosevelt 1. Total 1097; absent 1. Convention adjourned until 11 o'clock Monday morning.

MADISON SQUARE GARDEN, July 5.—Still obdurate the peace proposals, the Democratic Convention struggled on with its nomination deadlock today without material change in the standing of the leaders.

Under the surface, forces of disintegration and compromise were at work, but they were making but feeble progress. Having lifted their candidate to a new high record and failing to bring him even within "striking distance" of the nomination, McAdoo managers interrupted the balloting this morning with several futile attempts to change parliamentary situation to their advantage.

On each successive proposal the anti-McAdoo forces operated with surprising solidarity and in some cases McAdoo people were unable to muster more than a small part of their own voting power for proposals submitted by leaders.

One of the resolutions voted down would have provided for adjournment to meet again at Kansas City July 21. It is further apparent that McAdoo forces are verging toward an airtight organization when the group of Smith and favorite son managers met to consider the possibility of a compromise that would leave McAdoo entirely out. Overnight conferences among leaders appeared to have gone for nothing.

Like two fighters in the ring weary and almost to a point of exhaustion, pummeled into a state of blind and dogged resistance after more than seventy rounds, Smith and McAdoo forces went down on their knees before an audience that long since has become inattentive.

Fourth of July Is Celebrated Abroad and in This Country
WASHINGTON, July 5.—The week-end arrival of Independence Day with many government officials and employees seizing the opportunity for a three days absence from the city, gave more than the usual holiday aspect to the occasion in the national capital today. A program of celebration in which numerous patriotic societies joined centered in afternoon ceremonies at Memorial Continental Hall under the auspices of the Daughters of the American Revolution.

In Cuba
HAVANA, July 5.—In the absence of Ambassador Crowder, who is on leave in the United States, the customary Fourth of July gatherings of Americans at the embassy was not held today but the American Club gave a breakfast and Havana Post Number One of the American Legion invited all American children to a picnic at Mariano Beach, while the principal hotels announced special Fourth of July dinners tonight.

Newmeyer Talks to Publishing Men At Meet in Asheville

ASHEVILLE, N. C., July 5.—Speaking to more than 200 newspaper men composing the membership of the Southern Newspaper Publishers' Association, in annual meeting here today, Arthur G. Newmeyer, of the New Orleans Item, president of the association, reviewed the work of the past year and presented some recommendations for consideration.

Referring to activities of the traffic postal-legislative committee of the association, the president called attention to the fact that through the efforts of the association's committee the proposed enforcement of Section 23 of the Marine Act was postponed a year, that the proposed increase in postal zone one and two was bitterly contested and, with the cooperation of the American Newspaper Publishers' Association, the McKinley Amendment to the Revenue Act was brought to the conference. The amendment would provide for a 50 per cent decrease in war-time rates on second class matter.

With regard to the Macon Printers' School, the adjustment of which was largely up to the association officers of the past year, Mr. Newmeyer said, "I urge the acceptance of the findings of Chairman Giovannoli, Major Potts and other members of the Printers' School committee when you hear the results of their months of careful study of all phases of the matter."

The approval of a plan proposing that newspaper advertising audits be standardized and safeguarded was urged. Major John S. Cohen, of Atlanta, chairman of a special committee investigating the subjects the president said. He also urged the collective strength of the association for "upstairs" affairs, explaining that there must be editorial questions of a common character, the discussion of which by the association must result in good. Major Cohen is also chairman of the Editorial committee.

The announcement was made that Secretary-Treasurer Walter Johnson of the S. N. P. A. had asked to be allowed to retire from active duty and it was recommended that a paid manager be appointed and approved, to take the position at once, and train under Mr. Johnson for the coming year. Mr. Johnson having consented to remain another year for that purpose.

No Merger Action Likely Outcome Of Church Conference

CHATTANOOGA, Tenn., July 5.—Adjournment of the extraordinary general conference of the Methodist Episcopal church, South, without action on the proposal for unification with the Methodist Episcopal church, loomed as a possibility Wednesday night.

The situation grew out of an all-day debate which was unfinished when the meeting recessed last night, on a resolution providing for another general conference in May, 1925. Its adoption would leave the delegates providing that do for rules adopted providing that the only business that can be transacted is consideration of the unification plan.

Resolution Introduced. The resolution which was introduced jointly by Dr. A. J. Lamar, of Nashville, Tenn., and Joseph E. Cockrell, of Dallas, Texas, follows:

A resolution proposing that, because of a possibility that the present conference is illegal, another conference be called to meet next May to consider unification was introduced jointly by Dr. A. J. Lamar, Nashville, Tenn., and Joseph E. Cockrell, of Dallas.

Dr. Lamar spoke in behalf of the resolution, but from the applause that followed the time apparently was small. It grew larger as the day passed, however, and while the concluding address was being delivered by Judge W. L. Dean, of Huntsville, Texas, who urged adoption of the resolution, the speaker was interrupted frequently by applause that came from all quarters of the auditorium.

Main Point Stressed. The trouble that beset the Cumberland Presbyterian church some years ago after it had formed an organic union with one of the larger Presbyterian bodies was the main point stressed by the supporters of the Lamar proposal. When time came to transfer the Cumberland church property to the united body, trustees of various institutions attacked the legality of the union and scores of suits were filed, some in state and others in federal courts. The courts held the union illegal.

Judge John S. Candler, of Atlanta, a brother to Bishop Warren A. Candler, senior, of the Southern church, argued that the conference was illegal and urged defeat of the resolution. He cited a decision in a church case where in acts of officials had been attacked but which the court held legal. He drew a parallel between this instance and the action of the board of bishops in calling the special conference and contended the conference was proper.

Office of R. C. HUNTER & BRO., Architects (House A-58) THE SMALL HOUSE AND THE SMALL LOT How difficult it is to find a house of good design and proportion that will fit on the narrow city lot. Where land is expensive and desirable, the house should be in keeping. It must be narrow and yet attractive. Here is a house that will meet the requirements of the highly developed city. While it is attractive and not at all crowded in appearance, it will still go on a lot with a frontage of only thirty-eight feet, and there will be ample space for a drive on one side and a five feet of grass on the other. The house is of colonial design, and if properly carried out with harmonizing roof, shutters and sidewalks, will make a most interesting little home. There is a large cellar, containing coal bin, laundry, steam heating boiler, storage space, etc., all well-lighted and ventilated by windows in-arens. The first floor consists of a large living room, extending the whole width of the house, dining room, kitchen, pantry, vestibule and large living porch, which may be enclosed in glass during the winter. The stairs go up from the living room which has a large fireplace, to a hall on the second floor. All three bedrooms connect with this hall, as does the bath room. Each bedroom has ample light, and ideal closets, so that it is an easy matter for the housewife to find a place for everything. A most attractive color scheme would be obtained by using white paint on the sidewalls, shutters of that delightful shade called "Colonial" blue and variegated roof. The flower boxes filled with geraniums and hanging vines and the green of the grass and foliage, of the trees, would complete a lovely picture indeed. Cost about $6,000. Complete working plans and specifications of this house may be obtained for a nominal sum from the Building Editor. Refer to House A-58.

DEMONSTRATION CLUB

ROLLINS COLLEGE, WINTER PARK, July 3.—Combining instructional and recreational advantages the annual camp for demonstration club girls in this section of the state opened at Rollins College Monday afternoon, June 30, and will last throughout the week. The two dormitories for young women, Cloverleaf and Lakeside, have been thrown open to these young girls and the county demonstration agents who accompany them as leaders and instructors. The enrollment runs as follows: Orange county 38; Lake county 24; Sumner county 17; Marion county 25. A member of the faculty who is taking a leading part in the work is Miss Margaret Burleigh, of Tanyara, a graduate of Rollins. Jerry Carter arose from his seat in the Florida section for the purpose of offering an amendment to it. He wished to suggest that each candidate that had received 100 or more votes be withdrawn from consideration and that each candidate thereafter be withdrawn as soon as he received 100 votes. This amendment brought out in such bold relief the absurdity of a resolution that would have the man holding the largest number of votes withdraw, that it threw the convention into convulsions of

SATURDAY, JULY 5, 1924. BIBLE THOUGHT FOR TODAY: ROAD TO TRUE RICHES.

Whether we doubt or believe, Surely it pays not to grieve, Ever, in flesh and the soul, Wisdom must be in control.

And still no end in sight. Thirty days has September, April June and the Convention.

It is said that the rumor that Bowden left for Canada after voting for Smith is false.

We haven't heard any New York hotels or restaurants complaining because the convention is deadlocked.

The longer the convention fools along the less chance the Democrats have to win the November elections.

There was more beauty per square inch at Daytona Beach yesterday afternoon than any other place in the state of Florida.

Many delegates to the convention are broke. Which is a situation that has come to be natural with us.

A rumor was prevalent Friday in the convention hall that Bryan was dead. Hard as it may sound, Tammany Hall would doubtless have welcomed such a happening.

It didn't take the Progressives long to do business. Their quick actions are in great contrast with the long-winded deliberations of the New York convention.

Arkansas man has a hen which he declares lays an egg promptly at the same time each day.

Sanford Herald thinks that New York is a terrible place to have a convention; possibly imagines that it would have been better to come to Sanford.

A Mid-Summer Development Edition consisting of one hundred pages was published by the Palm Beach Post Friday.

A Seattle, Washington, couple celebrating their golden wedding recently gave out the information there had been between the two, twenty-four thousand kisses passed during that time.

The first publicity stunt of the Sanford Junior Chamber of Commerce was a decided success.

A little out of the ordinary is a special edition of the Japan Advertiser of June tenth, which has been received at The Herald office.

Devoted entirely to boosting Sanford and Seminole county a special edition of the Florida Trucker made its appearance Thursday.

Whether we doubt or believe, Surely it pays not to grieve, Ever, in flesh and the soul, Wisdom must be in control.

Now For A Still Greater City.

Sanford has passed the ten thousand mark in population! Figures made public by the Polk Directory Company Thursday give a population of 10,432 people within the city limits.

Building substantially on a solid and sure foundation without inflated real estate values, Sanford is growing as few cities are.

Far sighted individuals from all parts of the country realizing the future possibilities are settling here and becoming part of a community of builders.

Look around you today and what do you find? A scarcity of houses, few vacant apartments even though it is the middle of the summer.

All of this is in addition to the many advanced steps taken in the last few years by Sanford. The people of this city have the spirit of progressiveness.

There is no room in Sanford for the calamity howler. His day in this city has passed. Pessimism is done for.

We look at the new population figures and swell up with pride over our city. We are pleased to know that it has passed the ten thousand mark.

A great day is dawning for Sanford. It has only begun to grow. It is on the verge of a stupendous growth.

Just beginning to hit its stride Sanford during the coming year will show great things.

Of interest to Herald readers especially, is the Associated Press news dispatch sent out from Tallahassee yesterday, telling of the financial failures among farmers of the south.

The percentage of bankruptcies among Florida farmers during 1923 was the lowest of all the southern states, and was thirteen per cent below the average for the United States as a whole.

Statistics gathered by the Attorney-General of the United States, extracts from which have been received by the state commissioner of agriculture, show that there were over thirty-four thousand failures in the United States last year of which about six thousand were among farmers.

It means that Florida farmers are prosperous. That conditions in Florida are good. That farmers in this state are making money.

It speaks well for Florida and Florida farmers. It shows that they are real business men conducting their farms on an up-to-date basis and in a businesslike manner.

Sanford and Seminole county, a prosperous farming center, is contributing largely to the fine record made by Florida. It must continue to do so.

THE OHIO TORNADO. NEW YORK HERALD-TRIBUNE. The storm which passed with such shocking but erratic violence over the western end of the Lake Erie shoreline, rising somewhere west of Sandusky and dying out on the outskirts of Cleveland.

It is the suddenness, the outrageous violence and the senseless capriciousness of the tornado which lends it its peculiar horror. It descends upon its victims without warning; it flings them about without reason and without a chance of escape.

As Brisbane Sees It

Again the Fourth! All Unequal. Mr. Justice Brandeis 8 Million Little Pigs.

Fourth of July once more! One hundred and forty-eight years ago we decided that men must be free and equal and this country independent of England.

SELF-GOVERNMENT means one hundred and twelve millions cheering, while a handful decide what and who shall be cheered. There is progress, marvelous, bewildering. But it is in machinery, not in brains.

MEN HAVE conquered steam, electricity, air, water. They have explored the atom, taken it apart, weighed the sun, moon and stars.

THOSE WHO PAY a million to see two things fight in the prize ring wouldn't cross a street to see the greatest work of art.

ONE PRINTING PRESS turns out 10,000 books in a day, but the biggest salesman of serious books says truly: "If I put a fifty-dollar bill in the middle of a really fine book, I could come around in ten years and find it. They buy them, but don't read them."

HOWEVER, there is progress. The country can be free whenever it chooses to think about it. It can abolish "taxation without representation" through monopoly if it wants to.

IT IS SUGGESTED that Justice Brandeis run for vice-president with LaFollette. That he would add great strength to the LaFollette ticket is certain, and it is desirable for a sincere independent movement to poll a big vote.

"THE SPRING CROP of pigs is short 8,000,000 in the corn belt." What becomes of the consciousness of those 8,000,000 little pigs that never saw the light of day?

DR. GARVES, president of the state of New York university, says, "If a woman is good she will be clever. Intelligence is the ally of good morals, fine minds nearly always denote fine characters."

WHERE YOU HAVE low intelligence you need such a help to keep people from murdering and robbing each other. Intelligence, "ally of morals," makes it unnecessary to preach eternal punishment, so brutal and cruel as to be unworthy the most horrible of all conceivable demons.

A CAPABLE American architect said the dome of St. Peter's in Rome is in danger. It weighs one million tons and "must fall eventually unless serious faults are remedied."

WHAT DOES THE PESSIMIST GET OUT OF LIFE? FORT MEADE LEADER. Of all the cranks, the worst is the chronic pessimist. He can all ways find something to whine about, declares an exchange.

Never could understand how one of these fellows ever got any pleasure out of life until one day not so awfully long ago we saw one of them actually glowing over the fact that an unfortunate circumstance had gotten another man into trouble.

And when it rains he can feel it in his bones that we are going to have an overflow—the worst one we ever had, and that we will lose everything we have.

Yes, and he is always expecting some kind of "bad luck" to happen to the community. To him everything is dirty and dishonest, and the whole country is going to get how-wows.

And speaking of the curb market makes one think that the city of Sanford could have a real market house on the corner of Second Street and Palm Avenue.

At a meeting of the platform committee the other day when it seemed that nothing could be accomplished, William Jennings Bryan dropped to his knees in prayer and asked God for guidance.

The Florida delegation is standing solidly behind McAdoo, with three exceptions, and will vote for him as long as there is any hope of putting him over.

As this column of stuff and nonsense goes to press today the convention is still in the throes of the deadlock and nothing done.

Sanford is getting ready for a big season in many ways. Already real estate is putting on an added impetus and is moving right along.

THE SOLUTION

JUST IN PASSING

It would pay Sanford to vote bonds for a municipal swimming pool and auditorium on the lake front. The swimming pool could be put in charge of some one who could collect a nominal sum for the upkeep of the same and the pool would not only keep many people in Sanford Thursday afternoons.

But as that our platform is a good one and we should be able to win despite the childish stuff that was pulled off in the early days of the convention. We have something for which we can feel proud in the matter of record, and while Woodrow Wilson was right in the matter of the League of Nations it is a cinch that the people as a whole do not want the League and it cannot be forced on them.

The temptations that come to a mature life have not been reduced in number or force—they have rather been increased, and the more is therefore greater for that spiritual preparedness that only religion can furnish.

The home environment that a rounded Christ in His boyhood was as good as the times could furnish; if we had the same kind environment in more homes today a larger number of children would find it easier to follow in His footsteps.

Supernatural Wisdom. "And it came to pass, that at three days they were in the temple, sitting in the midst of the doctors, both hearing them, and asking them questions."

Here we have evidence of supernatural wisdom of Jesus, who was only twelve years of age, and he was able to ask and answer questions and "his teachers and others who heard him."

There was no human source from which He could have drawn the knowledge that He manifested. He did not find it in the carpenter shop in which He spent His leisure hours, or secure it from those who were teaching in the temple.

As was the wisdom that later bore forth in the Sermon on the Mount and in His other discourses.

"My Father's Business." Verse 48 has been used as a basis of a criticism; why did Jesus live His mother reason for work? His answer explains it: "I must be about my Father's business."

When Joseph and Mary learned of the wicked plans of Herod they hurried the child away into Egypt. The incident has furnished the artists one of the most fascinating pictures of Bible truths.

Words Often Quoted. The words employed, "They are dead that sought the term, made a mature beyond His years. On boys at that age are in need parental direction, but Jesus for His place in His Father's house and His work in His Father's business.

Mary, His mother, was constantly surprised at her son; she did comprehend the largeness of His plan. Solomon now they create the days of thy youth, while evil days come not, nor the dawn draw, when thou shalt have no pleasure in them."

Christ presented the subject more forcibly when He said: "Suffer little children to come unto me, and forbid them not. For of such is the kingdom of heaven. If children should not receive the acceptance of Christ, what are any of the folly of adults?"

Saturday Evening Sermon

Man's Highest Duty
one day in seven is refor physical rest and spiritual refreshment, and still the element must dominate collected as well as the al if life is to be normal or ful.
The world was made according man, man must be a part—the part—of that plan, and no higher duty than to God's will concerning himself may do it.
"Father's business" is the all brilliant shades of red, green and black, and they make a striking contrast when coupled with the white crepe de chine frock accordeon puffed in the fine pleats so popular this season. This is in line with the policy fashion has lately decreed that the accessories are much more important than the frock.

opened green and white block ice cream was served with green and green nut cups were placed on each daintily arranged plate.

"CELERY FEDS" LOSE 8 TO 4 IN FRIDAY'S GAME

Locals Tie Score in Sixth Inning
But Rally of Titusville in Eleventh and Loose Fielding of Feds Break Deadlock

The local fans enjoyed a very interesting and thrilling 11-inning game here yesterday, which the locals lost to the fast Titusville club by a score of 8 to 4. The game was very close until the sixth inning when the "Celery Feds" came through with a punch and tied the score at four all. Then the game was a pitchers' battle until the eleventh inning when Ammen weakened and with some slow fielding and three bunched hits Titusville scored four runs. The locals looked dangerous in the last half when C. Thompson doubled after two were out and Whidden reached first when Goodbred hit him with a pitched ball for the second time out of two times up. But the rally was nipped when Thompson was thrown out attempting to steal second.

EVERT TRUE BY CONDO

HUNT'S DAILY LETTER

BY HARRY B. HUNT
NEA Service Writer.

NEW YORK—Democracy has gone a wailing. It's out to capture the ladies. And if the female in politics is half as susceptible to blandishments and beguilements as she is supposed to be in matters of the heart, the feminine vote may cut a considerable figure in the final count for political offices this fall.

The share accorded to women in the Democratic convention, was in striking contrast to the extent of participation that was permitted them in the Republican gathering at Cleveland.

Not only were they given greater representation, numerically, in the field of delegates and alternates, but in all the convention activities they were allowed a freer hand and wielded a wider influence than was accorded them at any stage of the Cleveland proceedings.

These special courtesies to the ladies are counted on not merely to help the Democratic presidential ticket, but to be a big factor in the congressional and senatorial campaigns.

For control of the legislative end by an effective majority is no less important to the party's program than the election of their man as the executive head of the government. And aggressive assistance by women workers, it is conceded, can be particularly helpful in the local congressional fights where feminine, church, club and social pressures can best be exerted.

In this move, Democrats hope to cash in on the campaign already in full swing by the National League of Women Voters, for greater political participation by women.

THE league's campaign is political, but non-partisan. It takes no part in boosting the candidates of any party. It is committed to issues of particular interest to women, including child labor and the

Find Its Superior

Elder Springs flows five gallons of pure water every thirty-two seconds. It is used by over fifty per cent of the people of Sanford, and, in its natural form, is used by the Western Union and many battery stations for storage batteries. Is it pure? Ask the State Board of Health.
